LOCAL NEWS.

Flower pots at H. Meyers. R. M. Hudson was in town Tuesday. W. L. Gilliland was in town Tuesday.

Rock salt. S. L. Ogle. Little Charley Warren is very sick. The Star is a daisy this week, ain't she?

Our townsmen J. N. Rushing, W. L. Henry and Tom Powell are "courting" extensively at Graham. We look for them home Friday.

R. A. Speer was in town yesterday. Next Monday will be the bill collector's day. Stone pavement for Market street.

We desire to get up a complete society directory for the town and county. Will our correspondents send us appointments of churches and secret or other societies in each neighborhood?

They are requested to make a survey of Market street and let contract for grading same, subject to approval of the board of aldermen.

Little Charley Warren is lying at the point of death and all hope for his recovery is abandoned, and probably before this paper reaches our readers Charley will perhaps have passed over the river that we will all have to sympathize goes out to the father as he watches over his dying boy.

They shall be elected, a state senate and house of representatives, a member of congress and two senators to the United States senate. It would seem that this long list ought to furnish enough places to go around, but it is doubtful if it will, in fact, it is pretty certain there will be more than the usual number of disappointed individuals in the territory before the year is out.

W. H. HENTHORN.

The above is a correct photograph of W. H. Henthorn, the lightning tooth extractor, who is now operating in Baird in connection with the great Western Medicine Company.

Our Cottonwood and Tecumseh letters were both unavoidably left out last week in the hurry and confusion caused by moving. Write again.

Our friend Richardson speaks of having his mineral well cleaned out, when the public will be invited to use of its health-giving waters free of charge.

The town marshal reported to the council that he had collected $4 on three dogs. As the tax is only $1 on each dog, did the marshal collect too much tax or not? Can you figure it out?

The graveyard committee, Messrs. Rice, Whitley and Richardson, contracted with Ed Foy to have a good fence built around the cemetery at a cost, for the work, of $25.

The rain in March has been ample to meet the needs of the farmers and stockmen. On the 11th we had 12-100 of an inch and on the night of the 26th we had 62-100 of an inch, making more than three-fourths of an inch.

The town council met Tuesday night. The marshal was ordered to have all the bushes grubbed up in the streets and public square; also a dog and hog pound was ordered to be built for the accommodation of stray dogs and hogs. Capt. W. C. Powell, L. Gould and D. Richardson were appointed street commissioners.

They are requested to make a survey of Market street and let contract for grading same, subject to approval of the board of aldermen.
