500 Bodies Recovered From Building; Heavy Downpour Hampers Workers

Electrical Storm Brings New Hazard

NEW LONDON, Mar. 19 (AP)—Rain slowed rescue work today at the explosion-wrecked New London school from the wreckage of which the bodies of an estimated 450 children have been brought.

Seven additional bodies have been brought from the wreckage this morning since dawn, Col. E. C. Parker, National Guard commander, said. But sudden rain, after a violent electrical storm, hampered work.

An emergency hospital was set up in the rear of the building, preparing, nurses said, to care for "about 75 more bodies" expected to be exhumed from the basement of the south wing.

Tons of debris remained to be moved on the ground and from the basement floors. It was feared the basement was a tomb for scores of bodies buried when an explosion ripped the imposing structure to bits late Thursday.

The meeting and banquet will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer beginning at 7:30 o'clock. It is understood that several of the towns will seek the next group meeting, the site for which will be selected this evening.

Visitors at the meeting will be welcomed by Mayor M. C. Ulmer with Grover Dunham of Big Spring responding. Objectives and Accomplishments of Lionism will be the keynote of the gathering.

Club secretaries present will read reports as to activities of their respective clubs during the past three months. The Midland report will be offered by George Philippus, secretary of the local service club. Two musical selections will complete the program.

The Odessa club, while not a member of this particular group, has been asked to send a delegation to the meeting.

All members of the Midland club are urged by President Butler to be on hand as early as possible to form a welcoming committee.

EMERGENCY LAWS TO AID TRAFFIC IN CITY PASSED

Amendments Made At Meeting of The City Council

IN EFFECT NOW Enforcement Will Be Started Today By Officers

Passing emergency amendments to existing traffic laws, the Midland city council is publishing in this newspaper today the restrictions imposed, with statement of penalties for violations. The amendments were passed March 16, becoming effective at that time, and enforcement will begin actively with the publication made today, city officials announced. The ordinance appears on page 4.

The emergency regulations are designed to relieve the present congested downtown traffic and parking and to prevent accidents on streets throughout the city. Fines of not less than $5.00 nor more than $100 for first offenses, nor more than $200 for second offenses.

Elimination of center, or double parking is one of the notable regulations, the ordinance expressly forbidding the stoppage of vehicles in streets, at intersections or cross walks, except at stop signs, or when halted by the movement of traffic.

Provisions of the ordinance refer to electric flash signals, indicating the likelihood of installation of such traffic regulators in the near future.

The council may designate loading zones for convenience of delivery trucks and cars. Twenty minute stops will be the limit for such loading or unloading. Parking in alleys also is regulated in the measure.

Between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. areas so marked by the city may not be used for parking. The city council also may determine at what angle vehicles may be parked, so designating with painted lines. Owners of cars, as shown by registrations, will be responsible for violation when drivers are not located.

KEYSTONE POOL IS WIDENED A MILE

Sharp No. 1 Walton Shot, Estimated 75 Barrels Of Oil Daily

BY FRANK GARDNER
Extension of production at the north end of the Keystone pool in Winkler county a mile farther west appeared certain as J. R. Sharp No. 1, Empire-Walton flowed at an estimated rate of 75 barrels a day following nitro shot. The well topped pay at 3,307, drilled to 3,414, and before shooting flowed five to six barrels of oil in heads every four hours. It was shot with 200 quarts of nitro from 3,290 to 3,392 and is now testing. The well is in the southeast corner of section 19, block 77, public school land.

A Keystone pool well, Amon G. Carter, 9 block B-3, public school land flowed 473 barrels daily following nitro shot. It topped pay at 3,245 and is bottomed at 3,353 feet in lime.

Gulf No. 1-A Edwards, west offset to the Fields, Finley and Cherry discovery in the Eaves pool of north-west Winkler, this morning was drilling unchanged at 2,962 feet in lime, with 600 feet of oil in the hole. First oil was encountered at 2,928. The well is 2,970 feet from the south and 390 feet from the east line of section 6, block C-23, public school land.

OIL DISCOVERIES IN WEST TEXAS ARE TOLD OF BY PAIR

Convention Being Held Now in Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Mar. 19. (P)—Geologists and geophysicists in national convention here heard stories yesterday of major new oil discoveries and developments in the Rocky mountain area, California, the Southwest and Soviet Russia.

Growth of the empire of petroleum was described in papers presented by men who are experts on the areas involved. Their reports covered 1936 activities.

Berte R. Haigh and Hal P. Pybee of San Angelo, Texas, told of a 22,000,000 increase of pipe line runs in the West Texas-southwestern New Mexico area over 1935 while stocks were being reduced by 1,600,000 barrels. Wells completed totaled 2,107, a 64 per cent gain over 1935, and only 161 of them were dry.

Nine pools classified as new were discovered in West Texas and most fields were extended.

Three new areas in southeastern New Mexico were opened up and five producing areas extended.

A. W. Weeks of Wichita Falls, Texas, said the largest single unit of new production discovered and developed in North Texas was from the Lenticular Strawn sands, about 2,000 feet down, in the Anderson and Kerr field near Gainesville. The greatest present drilling activity, he reported is near Bryson, in Jack county, where about 70 operations are now under way.

Wallace Raiston of Tyler said 77 exploratory wells, resulting in discovery of the Talco and Sulphur Bluff oil fields, were drilled in Northwest Texas.

Claude O. Crane, Scout commissioner, John P. Howe, Midland district chairman, Buster Howard, Scoutmaster and George Brenneke and Bill Collyns, district committeeman, attended an executive meeting of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America at the Settles Hotel in Big Spring Thursday evening.

Sympathy Extended To Families Of New London

AUSTIN, Mar. 19. (P)—The house today adopted a resolution calling for a legislative investigation to attempt to find the cause of the explosion at the New London school house last night. The inquiry will be conducted by a committee of three from the house and senate.

The house also adopted a resolution extending sympathy to bereaved parents and set $250 for each member to pay aside from relief.

Dr. George Cox, state health head, said there was no danger of an epidemic as sanitary conditions were satisfactory.

The senate passed a resolution to send a committee to the scene to see what the legislature can do.

Contribution Report Forms For Payments To TUCC Mailed Out

AUSTIN, Mar. 19.—Contribution report forms for the March 25 payment to the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission were mailed to more than 12,000 employers this week. Chairman-director Orville S. Carpenter announced today.

This form—TUC 3—must be used by employers to pay their tax of one and eight-tenths percent on total payrolls during January, 1937. Carpenter pointed out. The deadline for this first, monthly payment under the Texas act is March 25.

Carpenter also called attention to the fact that many employers are confusing this payment to the Texas Commission with the old age benefits tax payment for January which was made to the Federal Government on February 28.

"These two taxes are entirely separate," Carpenter declared. "The old age benefits tax for the month of January, 1937, was paid to the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue on Form SS-1. But the form which we mailed out this week—TUC 3—is for the tax due the Texas Commission for unemployment compensation."

"Both forms call for separate and distinct taxes," Carpenter said. "Employers who employed eight or more persons during at least 29 weeks in 1936 must file both forms. Form SS-1 should have been filed with the Bureau of Internal Revenue by February 28, and Form TUC 3 must be filed with us by March 25. However, if an employer did not employ as many as 8 persons during 29 weeks in 1936, then he has to report only to the Federal government on Form SS-1."

AGREE TO ADVANCE DATE FOR MAKING PHILIPPINES FREE

Independence Will Be Complete by Some Time in 1938

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19. (P)—President Manuel Quezon of the Philippine Commonwealth and Government officials agreed Thursday on terms of a proposal to advance the date for complete Philippine independence from 1946 to either 1938 or 1939.

Quezon and an interdepartment committee headed by Francis B. Sayre, Assistant Secretary of State, agreed at a conference to appointment of a committee of experts to work out details for revamping the independence program which congress enacted in 1934.

Quezon and Sayre in a joint statement said the plan contemplated a trade agreement to succeed the independence act.

Quezon said congressional action would be sought early in the next session.

17 Teachers Among Those Brought Out

NEW LONDON, Mar. 19. (P)—Laborers ceased to dig into the ruins of the New London school house this afternoon and wearily said "the job is finished" after 425 bodies had been removed.

Colonel C. E. Parker, commander of National Guardsmen, said that every brick had been turned in the basement, and that the job of seeking the bodies had ended; final cleaning up will take only about an hour. He said that 425 bodies have been recovered and "there may have been a few more."

Workers toiled for nearly 21 hours, some during a storm before they stopped work and went home to bereaved families today.

NEW LONDON, Mar. 19. (AP)—Walter Elliott, Texas highway patrol captain, notified authorities in Austin today that approximately 500 bodies, including 17 teachers, had been recovered from the explosion-wrecked school building here.

Elliott said that no additional doctors, nurses or equipment is needed; that an examination of the building would be completed today; that traffic is under control.

Guardsmen are permitting only the passage of emergency traffic, he said.

The first definite organization work planned came with the arrival of Albert Evans, Red Cross disaster relief director, from St. Louis. Welders pushed electric torches along the huge beams barring the way to children believed to be entombed in the basement rooms. Derricks and cranes hoisted slabs of wreckage and dragged it 100 yards from the building.

Work stopped at the oil fields and schools were closed up tight. Dance halls, skating rinks, churches, hotels, hospitals and morgues of six nearby towns were filled with the dead.

W. C. Shaw, school superintendent, said it was "possible" unburned gas in the nearby field accumulated in basement crannies and exploded. He said the odor of gas had been strong for weeks.

An information agency was established in the Overton city hall, where anxious kin gave descriptions of their youngsters.

At 10:45 a torrential rainstorm continued, seriously impeding rescue work as the dead were estimated at or in excess of 500; the injured at 175 and the missing, believed dead, near 100.

Sixty-three-year-old George Hardy, fell dead yesterday as he watched the mangled bodies being removed from the ruins.

Military authorities have called a court of inquiry to fix the cause of the explosion.

Major Gaston Howard, assistant adjutant general, said that a board of six would start functioning today, questioning survivors and eyewitnesses at an open hearing.

Howard indicated gas caused the explosion when he said that Dr. E. F. Shoehl, University chemistry professor, was summoned as a witness. Shoehl is an expert on gas explosions.

Eighteen officers and 195 guardsmen are on duty but some probably will be released this afternoon.

Temporary morgues were emptying fast as identifications were being made. Grief reached virtually every home in the New London area.

TAX COLLECTOR'S OFFICE OPEN 8-5

'Impossible to Sell All License Tags Before April 1,' Said

Tax Collector A. C. Francis announced today that for the rest of the month the tax collector's office will remain open from 8 a. m. until 5 p. m. with the exception of Sundays.

Despite warnings from the officials, car owners still are lagging in their purchase of new license plates, less than 1,000 of the 3,500 issued to the county having been sold to date.

"It will be impossible for us to issue all the remaining tags in the limited amount of time we have left, there are going to be a lot of persons have to pay the 20 per cent penalty for being tardy," an official of the office said today.

Not only are car owners lagging behind but truck owners are also failing to purchase the tags and will probably be among those penalized. Stressing the fact that the truck license tags are costly, officials said that owners could save themselves a nice sum by purchasing the plates now.

A BLOW TO IRRELIGION

Russia's famous anti-religious campaign is in a bad way, if a recent dispatch from Moscow is to be believed. According to this dispatch, enrollment in the "Militant Godless League" has fallen from 5,000,000, in 1933, to less than 2,000,000. In many centers the league has ceased to exist. The commissariat of education has recently closed five anti-religious museums, and anti-religious lectures in villages and factories have been dropped.

This, to the government newspaper Izvestia, is "intolerable"; but it ought not to be in the least surprising. For the religious instinct is one of the most deeply-rooted forces in the human soul. Under communism, capitalism, or primitive savagery, men will grope blindly for answers to the great riddles of human existence—and, failing to find them, will turn to a higher power.

That a few years of propaganda have not quenched this instinct is not surprising. It would be the great surprise of all history if they had.

MODERN SECURITY

One test of a civilization is the amount of personal security it gives to the individual—security against violence, against personal assault, against the age-old peril of the assassin. And by that test the civilization of the 20th century leaves a good deal to be desired.

The latest bit of proof comes from Japan, where Premier Senjuro Hayashi has just moved into a specially-built official residence which is proudly described as "assassination proof." It is full of bomb-proof rooms, secret doors, hidden passages, mysterious exits, and the like.

The Japanese didn't build this house just to show how clever they are. They have had too many assassinations of high government officials lately. A Japanese premier needs that kind of house if he is to stay alive, these days.

Like the burglar alarms, hired body-guards and lofty walls with which rich Americans guard their children, this is merely one more bit of testimony to a tragic, ghastly flaw in 20th century civilization.

Eastern Fashion Notes From Abroad

Bears Anxious for Baseball Season to Get Started in S.W.

WACO, Texas, Mar. 19. (Spl.) — Baylor's Bears, busily engaged in intra-squad games and strenuous hitting and fielding practices, are meriting little recognition as they scamper through their daily drills on the newly-constructed Carroll field diamond.

The Bruins, as yet untested in game play this season, have their eyes firmly glued on the coveted Southwest conference baseball golfon, nevertheless, and are anxiously anticipating the opening of the league race March 26 and 27 in Waco against the Southern Methodist Mustangs.

Chief hopes for the conference crown rest on the pitching prowess of crafty Boyd (Jelly) SoRelle, senior and all-conference hurler for the past two seasons from San Marcos, and Tommy Fine, sophomore star from Cleburne. SoRelle was late in starting workouts due to a belated close of the basketball season, but is rapidly rounding into shape.

Mike Ducey, southpaw letterman from Waco, and Billy Patterson, first-year football star from Hillsboro, are expected to aid SoRelle and Fine in the mound work. Ducey, who possesses the usual wildness and weakness of left-hand twirlers, has suddenly developed blinding speed and is showing much better control.

Coach Morley Jennings, head pilot, has been doing considerable experimenting in an attempt to uncover a capable first and third baseman, expected to be the weak links in a veteran line-up. Bubba Gernand, football and basketball star from Beaumont, apparently has the inside track at the third sack, and Harold Bolger, converted from the outfield, is favored to take over first base duties.

Lloyd Russell, veteran shortstop, and all-conference infielder for two years, and Bill (Rabbit) Marsteller have clinched the shortstop and second base positions respectively. These two players held down the first string posts last spring, and formed one of the smoothest double play combinations in the league.

Dick Weekley, junior squadman from Cleveland, Ohio, has been moved from an infield berth to right field in an effort to bring hitting punch into the line-up. His work in the pasture has been surprising, and removed from the spot where his "scatter arm" did the most damage, he looks like a find.

Fred Vinson, veteran of two stormy campaigns, has the only cinch for an outfield job. He is roaming in the left garden. Mitchell Parks and Telford Ferguson, who in some sort of eligibility dispute at the present, are the other outfield candidates.

W. W. (Doc) Henslee, heady and hard-hitting backstop, who has been at the clean-up position in the batting order for two seasons is back at the catcher's post. He is being backed by Charlie Crenshaw, a squadman from Birmingham, Ala.

Fourteen flashy new white uniforms, trimmed in green and gold, the Baylor colors, were issued to the players this week. Charlie Burke, manager, was the only other member of the team, other than those mentioned above, receiving a uniform.

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

By RODNEY DUTCHER
Reporter-Telegram Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19.—The first three days of attack and counter-attack before the Senate judiciary committee left administration generalists convinced that the opposition will have to develop a more effective fire if the Roosevelt Supreme Court plan is to be defeated. The Roosevelt case in all its strength, carefully prepared and pruned of its weak points by some of the keenest minds in government service, was laid down to the committee by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, Assistant Attorney-General Robert H. Jackson and Judge John Patrick Devaney, president of the National Lawyers Guild.

Weakness of opposing senators in cross-examination was commented upon by observers in all camps. Press gallery betting odds on the Roosevelt scheme went up. Veteran correspondents, who had seen hundreds of witnesses hounded and harassed by Senate committees, were surprised to find that leaders of the opposition seemed unprepared and unable to pierce the armor of the plan's advocates.

Prematurely, probably, strategists in charge of the Roosevelt court campaign were jubilant in anticipation of victory.

Wouldn't Be Tripped

To all of which, the opposition grimly replies: "Just wait and see!" The mental agility of Cummings was the biggest surprise of the early hearings. Some of the attorney-general's own good friends, who had regarded him as an amiable and rather elderly gentleman, not quite fast enough for the give-and-take of such an occasion, were pleasantly astonished. Instead of being torn to pieces by Senators Borah, Burke, Van Nuys, King, Austin, O'Mahoney, Connally and Steiwer, the attorney-general registered as a nonchalant, confident, drawing Yankee who seemed to be master of the situation.

They started out to trip him up, but they just didn't seem to get anywhere. He ducked some questions, but so cleverly that no one pinned him down. He stuck to the position that he was only trying to make it possible for Congress to fulfill its function of legislating, and that he would be perfectly happy to live under the law as interpreted by Justices Brandeis, Cardozo and Stone. He was aided considerably by Austin of Vermont, whose face finally turned purple over his own mistakes, and from the comebacks from Cummings.

never initiated anything; that one branch of government was enough to stop things; that progress needed all three branches.

Prefers Liberal Three

Devaney's big job was to try to smash the O'Mahoney amendment. In this attempt he pointed out that the devastating court decision against the AAA had stood 6 to 3. He added that a requirement of a 7 to 2 vote for validation of a law would mean that a minority of three justices could preserve an act which violated civil or religious liberties; that our judicial system does not work in such a way as to permit the courts to segregate or isolate the constitutional issues in litigation brought before it.

Echoing Cummings and Jackson, Devaney said he preferred the judicial philosophy of Brandeis, Cardozo and Stone to that of those who share the views of the American Bar Association.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, March 21.
The Golden Text is: "I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you; therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God" (Isaiah 43:12).
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might" (Deuteronomy 6:4,5).
The Lesson-Sermon includes also the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We shall obey and adore in proportion as we apprehend the divine nature and love Him understandingly, waring no more over the corporeality, but rejoicing in the affluence of our God" (page 140).

Hodge Presents Special Screening Of 'Green Light' Thursday

The Yucca Theater had a special screening yesterday of "Green Light," the well known novel of Lloyd C. Douglas.
Errol Flynn, star of "Captain Blood" and "The Charge of the Light Brigade," was cast in the role of Newell Paige, a young surgeon who sacrificed his professional standing to save his superior. Sir Cedric Hardwicke very ably plays the role of Dean Harcourt. The story is centered around a small group in a Mid-west city, which have been brought together, directly or indirectly, through the influence of the Dean. Each one came to him seeking help for their world weary souls.
Anita Louise, who was Maria in the screen version of "Anthony Adverse," plays the part of Phyllis Dexter, whose mother died because of the carelessness of Dr. Paige's ideal, Dr. Edincoot, and for which Paige was asked to resign from the hospital Margaret Lindsey is excellent in the role of the nurse.

Guests at the screening had nothing but praise for the picture. Miss Marguerite Hester, librarian, said: "The picture is splendidly cast and filmed." Rev. Edward P. Harrison, O. M. I., said: "The screening of Green Light is a most outstanding picture. It is of paramount importance in our day because of its depth of thought and its moral." Mrs. Andrew Fasken thought the picture contained a wonderful philosophy of life and that no one should miss it. According to Mrs. James H. Goodman, "It is a picture of great power and beauty, and although the theme is concerned with dogmas and ethics it does not preach."
Green Light, produced by Warner Bros., will be at the Yucca Theater for the preview, Saturday night, March 27, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. J. Howard Hodge is manager of the theater.

CONSTIPATION MAY LEAD TO COLDS

Every doctor will tell you the first thing to do to avoid suffering from colds—is to be sure you are not constipated. Constipation clogs up the system. It weakens resistance, and infectious take hold.
End common constipation by eating Kellogg's ALL-BRAN regularly. This cereal supplies the "bulk" your system needs for normal, natural action. It also gives vitamin B to tone up the intestines—and iron for the blood.
In the body, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water. It forms a soft mass, which gently exercises and sponges out the intestines.
Eat two tablespoons a day, either as a cereal with milk or fruits, or in cooked dishes. Chronic cases, with each meal. Will help you stay regular without having to take pills and drugs—that often make conditions worse.
Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold at all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Ring Robs Pete Herman of Sight, But Not of His Battling Spirit

Former Bantam King Night Club Owner In New Orleans

This is the fifth of a series about former sports stars.

BY RICHARD McCANN
NEA Service Sports Writer

NEW ORLEANS, La., Mar. 19.—For Pete's sake, when you come to New Orleans, be sure to drop in at the Club Plantation for a chat with Pete Herman, nee Gulotta.

The great little old fighter will be glad to see you. Glad to see you? . . . well, no—no, that's wrong. Of course, Pete'll be glad that you've dropped in. But he won't be able to see you. Pete's blind.

One eye went bad on Pete while he was still the bantamweight champion of the world. The other grew dim and dimmer after his retirement. A few years ago it, too, became totally sightless.

However, Pete doesn't grumble as he gropes through his life of shadows. He's gay as a night at the Mardi Gras. And he hasn't WASN'T LET HIS BLINDNESS, CAUSED BY RING INJURIES, KEEP HIM FROM MAKING GOOD AS A BUSINESS MAN. PETE OWNS A NIGHT CLUB IN NEW ORLEANS.

He bought it along with a big farm, with his ring earnings, which he saved carefully.

You'll find Pete at the club every night, weaving in and out of the tables to see that everybody's happy and getting their sazeracs and planter's punches on time. Despite his blindness, Pete is able to get around the club by himself. "I don't bump into as many people or as many tables as some of the customers—they're sort of blind, too, you know, half the time, if you get what I mean," says Pete with a curl of a smile.

Doesn't Condemn Boxing

Pete is fat and 41—he must be a heavyweight on the scales—but he's still pretty tough.

Every once in a while the boys say that Pete without any assistance takes hold of some slobbering celebrator, who has come to the well, once, or twice, too often, and heaves him out of the joint—pardon, out of the establishment, we should say, because Pete's place is quite as orderly as any night club.

The two-time bantamweight champion doesn't condemn the fight game for robbing him of his sight. "Why should I sit around cussing to myself and feeling miserable and

Sweetwater Golf Tourney To Open April Fifteenth

SWEETWATER, Mar. 19.—More than 100 West Texas golfers are expected to take part in the first annual tournament of the Sweetwater Golf Association April 15-18, inclusive. It has been announced by the secretary, Luther M. Watson, local newspaper publisher.

The tournament is to be held on the sporty 9-holes grass greens municipal course at Lake Sweetwater.

President O. W. Shore has named committees to handle various details, the chairmen of which are: J. C. Southworth, rules; Henry M. Rogers, registration; Wm. Powell, prizes; Zollic C. Steakley, entertainment; Howard A. Yates, sound equipment; L. M. Watson, calcutta pool; and George D. Barber, publicity.

Attractive prizes, a barbecue, calcutta pool, and a dance are among the inducements offered by sponsors.

Japan to Exhibit Art

TOKYO (U.P.)—Japan is planning an invasion of foreign countries with representative exhibits of theatrical art. Two export productions are being prepared. Both are Kabuki or classical drama, but the manner of presentation is vastly different.

Otters Trained to Retrieve

HOMER, Minn. (U.P.)—Emil E. Liers, operator of a fur farm near here, reports that the otter is a more intelligent retriever than a large majority of dogs. He has a dozen otters he has trained and he's ready to match them against the best water spaniels anywhere in a contest.

At this time his other eye began to weaken and get watery, and he lost his championship to Johnny Buff. He fought only a few times after that.

"My last fight was with Roy Moore in Boston," Pete recalls. "Geez, it was terrible. They booed me awful, because I missed so much and clinched so much. They thought I was stalling. And the referee threatened to throw me out of the ring."

"But they didn't know — they didn't know that I missed because I couldn't see Moore, and that I clinched so that I could hold him steady long enough to hit him once in a while. . ."

Deal is reported under way to deepen the Pickens et al No. 1 Le-wright, southeast Terry wildcat, from its present depth of 4,975, corrected from 4,971 by Schlumberger line measurement. Pickens and associates will turn full interest in 720 acres, 320 acres of which are under the well and the rest near it, to Hugh Corrigan of Midland and associates, provided he carries it as much as 100 feet deeper. Trailers Remain Free to Come--Go

DENVER, Colo., Mar. 19 — Trailers are free to come and go throughout the United States in spite of reports to the contrary, states Joe H. Thompson, director of the Conoco Travel Bureau with national headquarters in Denver, Colorado.

From a legal standpoint, they are still classed as motor car accessories, rather than dwelling places, in spite of the fact that they have many of the appointments of the modern home. Eighteen states don't even tax trailers as personal property.

There have been rumors concerning possible inimical legislation pertaining to trailers, but thus far only one state has passed legislation preventing trailers from passing state borders at will, provided the owner is not engaged in gainful occupation. Georgia enacts a $3 registration fee from every non-resident trailerite crossing its borders. The majority of the other states grant unlimited reciprocal privileges to non-resident trailerites who are properly registered in their home state, though ten of these do require them to procure a visitor's permit within a few days after entering the state. In most instances no fee is charged for this permit, according to Thompson. The few states with limited reciprocal privileges allow time limits of thirty, sixty, or ninety days, with some as long as six months.

Mr. Thompson states that house trailers have been popular in Europe since 1923 in spite of the passport and visa nuisances which hinder free travel there, and that it is remarkable that only recently the wonderful potentialities of trailer travel in the United States have been recognized.

There are some 300,000 trailers in the United States at this time, declared Thompson. The production in 1936 was about 20,000 units, and although the demand is considerably higher it will probably be impossible to manufacture more than 75,000 units in 1937.

For this reason the progress of the industry will be some what slow, judged by the average American's standard of comparison, based on recent production methods in the manufacture of motor cars which doubtless will run about 5,000,000 during this year. The largest single manufacturer of trailers can make only about 6,000 units during any current year.

These figures lend belief to the fact that trailers themselves will present no problem in this country in the next several years. Facilities for trailerites are adequate and new camps and resorts catering to trailer-

PENNIES PAY $25 FINE

LONDON (U.P.)—A canvas bag containing 1,919 copper coins was handed to the clerk of Southend Police Court the other day by George Smith in payment of a $25 speeding fine. Two policemen counted the coins—960 pennies, and 959 farthings—and found the amount to be one farthing, or half a cent short, of $25.

MINES FOOTBALL TO START MONDAY

EL PASO, Texas, Mar. 19.—Head Coach Mack Saxton will issue the first call for spring football training at the Texas College of Mines Monday afternoon, March 22. Invitations have been issued to thirty-four lettermen and first year candidates from last year's strong yearling squad. Several others are also expected to report.

Heading the crop of freshmen performers will be Kenneth Heine-man, triple-threat ace and former El Paso High School star. Saxton has indicated that he may place the burden of signal calling upon the flashy Heine-man, although he will be playing his first year on the varsity.

The Miners, winners of second place in the 1936 Border Conference race, will meet the Texas Tech Matadors in a spring game in Lubbock the night of April 30.

Twenty-two returning lettermen will form the nucleus of the squad. They are: "Red" Andrews, All-Border Conference man for two years; Horace Matthews, Homer Armes, and Morris Roney, ends; Mitchell Lowry, Odie Pearce, and Ben Fino, tackles; Allen Wilkenfeld, Houston; Jimmy King and Pete Paredes, El Paso, tackles; John Hanna, Corrigan, and Boyd Arnold, Bearden, Ark., centers; Ross Moore, Serepta, La.; Mike and Dick Balenti, Altus, Okla.; Ed Cashon, Hornbeak, Tenn.; O. STORIES IN STAMPS

REWARD FOR DOING NOTHING

GERMANY would have liked to gain the support of Denmark in the World War, and so the Allies turned their diplomatic guns on King Christian X and his ministers, to avoid such a union. Denmark remained neutral, and for this, after the war, the Allies rewarded the little country with the northern part of Schleswig-Holstein, which Germany formerly had taken from her.

Neutrality was the only favorable step for King Christian, if he were to keep peace in his extensive family, for he counted relatives on both the Allied and Entente sides of the conflict. As a result, when war came, family ties were threatened, and Christian found it best, and most profitable, to remain neutral.

Christian ascended the throne of Denmark in 1912, and this year celebrates his silver jubilee. Many stamps bear his portrait. One of the first types is shown here.

MUSIC AS PAIN KILLER

KITCHENER, Ont. (U.P.)—Fifty-five years ago—long before pain killing drugs were in general use—a traveling dentist had a method of extracting teeth painlessly, with the aid of music, according to Dr. J. E. Hett; He said he had two teeth pulled while a large orchestra serenaded him, and "it did not hurt a bit."
