HELP PLAN THE HIGHWAYS

With approximately 3460 vehicles affected by the registration law, car owners of Midland county have returned to the Highway Planning Survey only 89 of the post cards that were handed to them at the time they paid their 1937 automobile license fees at the office of A. C. Francis, county tax assessor and collector. Car owners of Midland county have failed to respond to pleas of the Highway Planning Survey to provide information on which the highway programs of the future will be based, a tabulation of returns received to Wednesday disclosed. The number of car owners sending in information on cards received when they registered their vehicles is insufficient to provide an accurate picture of the road needs of this county. The information which is being collected will be used by the Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads in planning the future construction and maintenance of roads and highways in this county and in this section of the state. Local motorists should be sufficiently interested in improving the road system of this county to ask for these cards at the time they pay their license fees and should fill in the cards and mail them, because information collected by the Highway Planning Survey will be used in designating federal funds which soon will be spent on improving the secondary road system of Texas.

The cards on which this information is being collected are self-addressed and require no postage. The Highway Department and the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads have gone to considerable trouble in order to offer highway users the opportunity of helping to plan their own roads. Just as citizens were long ago given the right to vote, car owners are now being given a similar right and should take advantage of their opportunity. It is to the advantage of each county to return at least as high a percentage of these post cards to the Highway Department as are returned by its neighboring counties.

assessment of five cents per head was voted by the members themselves, that amount to be used entirely for defraying a debt against the organization. The assessment is strictly voluntary, however, Proctor said.
He expressed the hope that all cattlemen of this area will immediately join the organization to aid in its effective work for every man engaged in the cattle business. He said there are at present about 2,600 members, rendering approximately a million head of cattle, whereas there should be a membership of at least 10,000 to fully represent the body.
Many new members were enrolled at the recent convention, several of them being from the Midland area.

County Commissioners J. C. Roberts and Carl Smith returned last night from a meeting of West Texas county judges and commissioners held in Lubbock Friday and Saturday. Jack McClurg, representative of the J. D. Adams company also attended the meeting.

RANKIN SHOOTING HEARINGS ARE SET

Cody Bell, James Horton Examining Trials To Be Held Tuesday

RANKIN, Mar. 20. (Sp.)—Preliminary hearings were set for Tuesday for James Horton and Cody Bell on complaints filed in connection with a shooting at the Bell home 12 miles west of Rankin. Horton is charged with assault with intent to murder Russell Bell, who is recovering from gunshot wounds. A grand jury convening Monday is to investigate the wounding of Russell Bell and the slayings of Mrs. Mary Bell and her son Wiley.

A writ of habeas corpus hearing was held in Midland for James Horton after which came the charge preferred against him.

The Town Quack

Industry of this section. Charley McClintic belonged to the Sweetwater troop for fifteen years, later transferring to a Fort Sam Houston or some other organization. He can give information to anyone who is interested. A little effort on the part of the citizenship might interest the war department officials highly.

It isn't often that Midland takes a back seat to any town, but we surely slipped up on the way we moved into our new postoffice. I mean moving in without dedicating it or giving the public a chance to inspect it. Over at Big Spring next Saturday they are going to pull off a real dedication, with visitors from all over the country. The Hon. Karl Crowley, solicitor general for the postoffice department, will make the dedicatory address. Joint luncheons of all civic clubs will be held to entertain the guests.

I'm glad to see the traffic regulations going into effect, and I hope they are rigidly enforced. If I get stuck, I hope I draw the minimum fine, but if they soak me the $100, I still believe the regulations are necessary.

DEMONSTRATION CLUB NEWS

"Candlewick embroidery is one of the pioneer arts handed down through generations since colonial days," said Mrs. Hollingsworth at the bedroom demonstration school in the assembly room Saturday, March 20.

This art is to be used for bedrooms, pillow-tops, and other decorations in the bedroom work which is now being studied by the clubs of Midland county.

The most essential things in the work are: the material, design, and suitability for the purpose to be served and, above all never use colorings that will clash with one another or with the other room decorations.

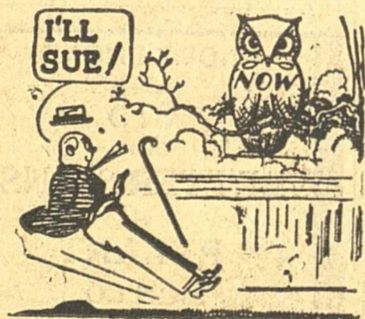

Those present were: North Midland, Mesdames, O. M. Tyner, A. C. Caswell, S. H. Gwyn, Valley View; Mesdames, L. M. Jones, Lois Lewis, J. D. Bartlett, W. S. Hudson, and R. L. Porter; Prairie Lee, Mrs. George Stewart; South Camp, Mrs. J. R. McCarter; Cotton Flat, Mrs. Henry Locklar.

The Cotton Flat Home Demonstration Club met Thursday, March 18, at the home of Mrs. W. B. Franklin, at which time a demonstration on rolls and coffee cake made of a sweet dough foundation.

Following is a recipe for lemon bread:

- 1 compressed yeast cake.
- 1 cup lukewarm liquid (scalded and cooled milk).
- 4 tablespoons butter.
- 1/2 cup sugar.
- 3 egg yolks.
- Grated rinds of three lemons.
- 1 teaspoon salt.
- 3 to 4 cups flour.
- Dissolve yeast in lukewarm liquid. Cream butter and sugar, add one egg yolk at a time, beating well after each addition. Add liquid and grated lemon to mixture and bread. Add 3 cups flour a mix thoroughly. Add more flour if necessary and knead. Place in greased bowl or enameled lined pan and allow to double in bulk, 1 1/2 to 2 hours. Knead and make into loaf and allow to double in bulk before baking in a slow oven for 1 hour. This dough may be used for various rolls. Roll out as for jelly roll and spread with soft butter sprinkled with sugar. Add any of the following:

A. W. Lester, W. L. Sutton, R. L. Cline, S. E. Nolan, Frank Simpson, J. B. Vivian, W. J. Stewart, James Adamson, Herbert King, Anna Lee King, and the hostess, Mrs. Fickett.

Valley View
In preparing a meal the thrifty homemaker delights in making the various rolls and sweet breads, which may be prepared from yeast cakes. These rolls make a neat and tasty addition to any refreshment plate to be served at any party or luncheon, as was demonstrated by Mesdames Jack Tisdale and B. L. Mason at the home of Mrs. Jack Tisdale on March 16, 1937.

Following the business, a shower was given to Mrs. A. R. Robertson. At the next meeting, which will be with Mrs. N. P. Blanton, on April 6, 1937, "Color" will be the theme of the demonstration which will be given by Mrs. Laura Hollingsworth, C. H. D. A.

OPEN HOUSE TO BE HELD AT THE VERN HOLDAWAY STORAGE AND WAREHOUSE

Open house will be held tomorrow from 9 o'clock Monday morning to 6 p. m. at the Vern Holdaway Co. Storage Vault & Warehouse at 106 North Carrizo, which was recently completed. The new storage vault will be used by Holdaway for his Kraft products, candies, butter and other products for which he acts as wholesaler in this area. It is refrigerated by a commercial Frigidaire unit and insulated by Eagle Rock wool. Felix Stonehocker was general contractor for the building, which was erected on the lot immediately south of the Holdaway School store. Last year, the Kraft organization offered seven prizes among their wholesalers and salesmen. Of that number, Holdaway won five of the awards, one of which was a beautiful silver plaque. It is the only one of its kind to have been won in this section of the nation. A special representative of the Kraft factory was sent to Midland to present this award personally, saying that Holdaway had sold more Kraft products in his territory than had ever been sold in any territory of similar size and population. In a short interview, the factory representative said that Holdaway had set a sales record that is the envy of Kraft salesmen over the entire United States. In the past, Holdaway has been using other cold storage facilities; but now he will be able to serve his clients in this area with much more dispatch.

PORT WORTH, Mar. 20. (AP)—Lynn Grant, 40, Cleburne farmer, told police today that he had been kidnaped by two men, robbed, tied, blindfolded and left in a burning automobile on Deer Creek, near Everman, after a 100-mile night ride. Grant said that he stopped for a traffic signal when a man carrying two guns jumped into the seat and forced him to drive to a North Side point where a second man was picked up. After being left in the gasoline saturated automobile by the men Grant said that he jerked his bonds loose and caught a ride to Fort Worth with a truck driver.

Glassecock Prospect

Fleetborn Oil Company No. 1 Black Arrow, prospect a mile southwest of the Dodson & Duffey No. 1 Carter discovery in north central Glassecock county, is cleaning out following shot with 60 quarts from 2,700 to 2,713, the total depth. Shot was tamped with three-quarters of a yard of gravel, and the well did not clean itself after the explosion. It had shown accumulation of 50 feet of oil in eight-inch hole over a 48-hour period before shooting. First oil was encountered at 2,694, with increases to total depth. After cleaning the well out, operators will probably acidize it. It is located in the northeast corner of section 13, block 34, township 3 south, T. & P. survey.

In Howard county, Moore Bros. No. 1 TXL, test north of the Chalk pool and south of the Denman pool, is drilling below 560 feet in red shale. Location is in the northeast corner of section 33, block 30, township 1 south, T. & P. survey.

Confirms Reports

Hugh Corrigan, Midland oil man, Saturday confirmed reports that he intended to deepen the W. L. Pickens et al No. 1 Lewright, southeast Terry county wildcat, which has been shut down for over a week at 4,975 feet, with hole over half full of sulphur water originating from 4,938 to total depth. C. J. Davidson drilling company, which contracted drilling of the well for Pickens et al, had planned to start plugging last Wednesday, but Corrigan went to Fort Worth and obtained the well on a salvage basis, with deepening in view. Previously, Pickens and associates had made a deal with Corrigan by which he would receive full interest in leases on 720 acres, including the 320-acre tract the well is on, provided he had it deepened as much as 100 feet.

No shows of oil or gas in the lime were encountered by the No. 1 Lewright in drilling into water, but many believe that it had stopped short of the zone in which Ray Albaugh No. 1 John Robinson, discovery pumper ten miles to the southeast in Dawson county, found production. Some correlated the Pickens test as much as 150 higher on structure than the Albaugh well. It is located in the center of the northeast of the northeast of section 1, block C-37, public school land. R. L. Fore of Dallas and George M. Shelton of Midland assembled the block and turned half interest to W. L. Pickens, E. L. Wilson, Thornton Lomax and Jack Porter, all of Dallas.

In southwest Hockley county, Texas company No. 1 Bob Slaughter, wildcat in labour 83, league 38, Zavalla county school land, is drilling lime and anhydrite below 4,728 feet. Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 Taylor, northeast Yoakum wildcat in the northeast corner of section 201, block D, John H. Gibson survey, is building gerrick and drilling water well.

York & Harper, Inc. No. 1 Gunter & Munson, Winkler wildcat six miles northeast of the Keystone pool, is drilling below 3,768 feet in lime and anhydrite.

ground ball for boys, for all rural schools, will be held all day next Friday, March 26, at the McClintic school.

ing accompanied at the piano by Lion R. B. McAllister. The dance drew a round of applause.

A male quartet, composed of Joe Seymour, Ed Watts, John Crump, and E. S. Parris, rendered two vocal numbers, "Sweet and Low" and "There Is A Tavern In The Town," both numbers being greatly enjoyed, by the group. The quartet was accompanied at the piano by M. A. Armstrong.

The candidacy of Joe Pond of Colorado and Omar Burleson of Anson for governors of District 2-T were announced at the meeting subject to the action of the club representatives at the district convention in Big Spring. Pond's candidacy was announced by Bill Cooper of Colorado, Gilbert Smith of Anson announcing the candidacy of Burleson. An active campaign is predicted.

Club secretaries in attendance reported to the activities of their respective clubs during the past three months, the numerous activities being of a varied nature. Each of the clubs have carried on very active programs during the past quarter, according to the reports. Secretaries making reports were: Gilbert Smith, Anson; Lion Butler, Big Spring; Bob Whipkey, Colorado; Henry Albright, Hamlin; and George Phillipus, Midland.

Reports disclosed that the Colorado club is the oldest, largest and best financed club in the group. The club has 72 active members.

The Big Spring club with 16 members present had the largest visiting delegation.

--- Blast Scenes of Thursday at New London School ---

Thursday the ghastly shapes were living children, who laughed and played. The house in the background is an emergency embalming room. As bodies are prepared for burial and moved out, others laid on crude wooden boxes outside are taken in. At the right is one of about 75 undertakers who are working day and night.

Heavy steel girders added to the difficult task of clearing the wreckage at the New London school. Here, several of the massive rafters can be seen as workmen prepare to cut them away with acetylene torches. These girders were in the auditorium high in the ceiling. Now they lay on the ground floor, dropped there when the walls were blown out from under them. Extreme right, a workman stands ready with a blazing torch, set to begin whitening at the steel rafters. Center, rescuers pass chunks of concrete out in "bucket-bridge" fashion. Foreground, curiosity seekers crowd close to the yawning pit from which many mangled bodies were removed.

A night shot of the tragedy. At left is the school auditorium in which scores of children died. The building on the right is one wing of the school. The demolished structure formed an E in the foreground of the picture, connecting with the wings which remain. This unusual picture as he stood on one of the oil field trucks which were used to pull the wreckage apart in the search for bodies.

Memory has mercifully spared 16-year-old Ruby Lee Wooten the haunting picture of yesterday's disaster. As she lay in bed she said: "I was on the second floor, in English class. All at once there was an awful jar. I don't seem to be able to remember what happened."

Here's another survivor—10-year-old Billy Williams, a sixth grader. Billy, who suffered only painful cuts and bruises, is still dazed from his experience. "There was a crash," he said, "and then everything went black." Billy was among the first children rescued.

Debate Contest
 A contest in debating was held Tuesday afternoon March 16, at 2:30, in Big Spring, between the Midland High School Boys Debating Team, consisting of Robert Payne and Jack Walton, and the Big Spring High School Boys Debating Team. The question for debate was: Resolved that the Manufacture of Munitions of War Shall be a Government Monopoly.

With the Midland team taking the affirmative side, the decision of the judges was 3-0 in favor of Midland. The team was accompanied by Frank Nixon, who took his car, Miss Agatha Bruner, debate coach, and Mrs. Bob Phillips, former debate coach of Midland high school. Miss Bruner will take the debating team to Austin to an invitation meet that is being held Friday and Saturday, March 19 and 20.

Miss Marcelene Wyatt DENTON, Mar. 18.—Miss Marcelene Wyatt, a 1936 graduate of Midland High School, recently played a leading role in "Sailing in a Teacup," this year's annual musical show presented by the freshman class of Texas State College for Women (CIA).

Annual
 The members of the Catocal staff have been spending much time to make this year's annual as attractive as possible. They have selected the motif of decorations for the pages, but this is to be kept secret. The pictures of the most representative boy and girl, the most popular boy and girl, the faculty, the junior high football team, the coaches, the football trophies, and the snapshot section have been sent to the publishers. Most of the group pictures were taken last week.

Members of Basketball Team Presented with Sweaters
 In assembly Tuesday afternoon Mr. Shifflett, in behalf of the school, presented the members of the basketball team with beautiful yellow sweaters made in coat style on which was a large yellow "M" on a purple background.

Those receiving the sweaters were: Harold Barnes, David Wafford, Marian Taylor, W. E. Lynch, Charles Dodson, E. P. Lawson, Joe Norman, Dozier Truelove and Woodrow Adams. The Midland team won the district championship and went to the regional finals in basketball this year, winning sixteen games and losing seven.

School Presented Trophies
 Two beautiful silver trophies were presented to the school Monday morning in assembly by Mr. Baumgarten. One was the trophy for winning third place at the meet held at Iraan Saturday, the other was given for winning first place in the mile relay.

Mr. Shifflett accepted the trophies in behalf of the school. The boys are working out nicely and Mr. Baumgarten hopes to have a winning team for the district.

Wins Typing Trophy
 Velma Johnson was presented with a silver typing pin in assembly Monday morning by Mr. Shifflett.

The silver pin is awarded for a net speed between fifty and sixty words per minute with less than six errors. This speed must be maintained on three different tests, each test of fifteen minutes duration.

This is the second pin Velma has received, having been awarded the bronze pin for a net speed of from forty to fifty words a minute several weeks ago. Velma's top speed is fifty-nine net words a minute. Very few students of Midland High School have ever received the solid gold award for making sixty to seventy net words per minute, but, with diligent practice, Mrs. Scruggs is confident Velma will achieve the speed required for a third pin.

Home Economics Meeting
 The Home Economics Club had a meeting at 3:15 on March 17, in the auditorium. The purpose was to present two plays and a song to the group for approval.

The first play was "What Society Can Do For a Family" by Lillian Arnett. The characters were: Delmare Yoakum, Maxine Hays, Berdean Rains, and Lois Mae Lynch. The second play was "A Modern Genii" by Wynne Lee McCormick. The characters were: Dorothy McKee, Marian Lockler, Forest Howell, and Aileen Metcalf.

A song composed by Lillian Arnett was sung by Lillian Arnett, Alice Lippold, Louise Bryan, Joyce Beauchamp, Dorothy McKee, Darleen Vance, and Mary Adelia Kendrick. The play selected, which is "The Modern Genii" will be presented at the state meet.

March Birthdays
 As the month of March progresses we find many celebrities in Midland High School.

Not much comment am I going to make in this edition on the various facts and phrases of our school celebrities because you should all be acquainted with them. All right, boys, this column is just the place to look for the best girl friend's birthday.

On March second Irene Kinkin arrived. Hmmm, just a little fish.

On March third Tad Crane put in an appearance. More fun! Eh, Bob?

On March eighth, Eleanor Hoffman arrived. Here's where you get a break, Pat.

March ninth heralded the arrival of our Annual Queen, Her Majesty, Miss Eddy Gene Cole.

On March the thirteenth Louise Bryan and Joyce Saunders blessed the world. Oh—an unlucky day to arrive.

On March nineteenth our ladies' man and tenor singer, Marvin Parks, arrived.

On March twenty-fourth Rose Kincade our thirty fish, and Neil Bounds, the handsome junior, celebrate birthdays.

Virginia Ann Hilliard, blessed the world, with her appearance March the twenty-fifth.

More bad luck, Doyle Cobb was born March the twenty-seventh; and did you know he has "P. F.?"

We also heard that our beloved principal, Mr. Shifflett was born in March, too.

The Battle Ax
 Louise Bryan thinks that Buster

Cole is so cute she could hold him on her lap and kiss him all the time.

Edythe King was wondering who the handsome boy was, when he was no one but W. E. Lynch, dressed up.

Robert Filson is casting wistful eyes at Wanda Ticknor.

Odesa is the center of attraction for Midland students now. You know the skating rink is there.

All of the steadies have broken up, even to La Moine and Ralph, but Lige and Lucille have decided that they can't be parted.

If Tommy Wilson and Charles Dodson don't stop following couples they are likely to get in trouble.

Jane Bounds, why did you want to get away from the boy in a green car?

Is Billy Morrison really a heart breaker? A girl cried because he did not come to a party. Tsk! Tsk!

How far will this Guffey-Nuckles affair go?

Patsy O'Donnell seems to be at a loss as to whom she likes better, Harold Barnes or Robert Filson. Pick Harold, Patsy.

To whom does Zena Mallicoat write love letters in 202 study hall every day?

Dorothy Caswell, you have competition. Marian Lockler says she would like to go with R. O.

Francis Burriss certainly was thrilled when Curtis Cook started back to school.

Slick Doings and Who Done 'Em
 Mary Jane Harper said she thought Billy Noble's shoulder was the hardest she had ever slept on.

Jack Walton seems to enjoy Alice's company in English.

Miss Kirby broke up a perfectly lovely love affair between Button and Edythe. That's all right, Miss Kirby will fall in love and some one will part them; then she'll know how it is.

There was a misprint or something wrong in last week's paper. The football that Marcella is wearing is not E. P. Lawson's but belongs to none other than Brooks Roberts.

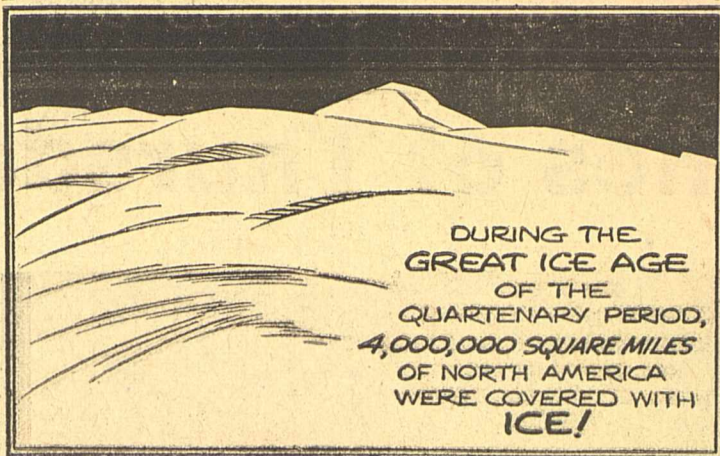

It looks as if Mary Beth and Owen are really broken up. They aren't even on speaking terms.

Leo is coming back to Midland to stay. I guess everything will be O. K., because Darleen and Bill have broken up.

The average weight of an elephant is five tons.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The strong, brown hands of Molla Mallory, which for two decades wielded a cat-gut scepter over the tennis world, are now deftly and busily occupied with dress designing.

You will find the dowager queen of tennis, surrounded by patterns and such, in her quiet, comfortable apartment on East 57th street here in New York City.

She hasn't changed much. Gray streaks through her hair are the only signs that she is nearing the 50-year mark. She is still sturdy, still fiery.

She likes her present occupation—"It's interesting—it's fun," says she.

And then she tells you enthusiastically about a new dress she has just finished for year on the tennis court. "I think it will be both good looking and practical," she says. "I am trying to put it on the market in the next few weeks. Of course, I hope it will be successful. If it is, I'll try to invent some more."

You'll have to take Mrs. Mallory's word for it that her latest creation is quite chic. You see, she was probably a-faered that I would beat her to the sewing machine with the idea and she wouldn't describe its pattern to me.

Husband Injured in Auto Crash

Mrs. Mallory has been interested in dress designing for about five years now. She took it up shortly after her retirement from competitive tennis when her husband, Franklin Mallory, was forced to give up his brokerage business because of severe injuries suffered in an auto accident.

The same wreck injured Mrs. Mallory, and she hasn't played tennis since. Not even for fun.

She worked as a saleswoman in a New York department store at first, and then opened up a dress shop of her own. It seems that she was fired from the department store and was quite bitter about it at the time. "I guess I wasn't so much of a drawing card as they hoped I'd be," she said. "You're so soon forgotten. In no time at all. The crowd is fickle. They liked me first. But I was champion too long. They were glad when I was beaten."

Mrs. Mallory has a mild contempt to say the least, for present-day women tennis players. "We played better tennis in my day than is played now by most women. Tournament tennis—even in the top flights—is noticeably slower now than it used to be. We not only played a faster game, but we used our heads more for placement shots and for change of pace to throw an opponent off her game. Nowadays the girls seem to depend on long rallies, waiting for their opponents to make an error. The placement shot—one of the beauties of the game is being forgotten.

"However, in all fairness, I ought to say that I think the service among women players is improving each year, and it is much more severe on the average than it was when I was playing."

Those are strong words coming from Mrs. Mallory. As you know, she had, perhaps, the most powerful service of any woman in the history of the game. She could outdrive most men.

Jacoby Becker

Landy Epstein Kaplan

The Big Five—Four easterners and a midwesterner—on William E. McKenney's All-America contract bridge team are pictured above. They are Oswald Jacoby, New York, and B. J. Becker, Philadelphia; Alvin Landy, Cleveland; Irving Epstein and Fred D. Kaplan, New York.

Thinks Alice Marble Is Best

Mrs. Mallory thinks that the best of the poor lot of present women players is Alice Marble. "The United States," says Mrs. Mallory, "will have to look to Miss Marble to carry the greatest burden in future international competition. She's good and is going to be better if her health holds out. She plays a good all-round game. It's unfortunate, though, that we can no longer count on Mrs. Moody."

All of which, however you take it, doesn't sound much like a boost for Helen Jacobs, who also, I believe, plays tennis.

But Mrs. Mallory is entitled to any contempt she may feel for today's tennis players. She certainly was the tops in her day, and might very well be the tops today.

Born in Norway, the husky Molla Bjurstedt dominated the American tennis scene from 1915 to 1922. She had no competition in those years and won the U. S. women's championship seven out of eight times. Four of these championships came in a row—1915-18. Then after a lapse of one year she came back to win three more in succession. In all she won about 20 major titles.

The one of which she is most proud was her victory in the 1926 national single when, after several years of frustration, she rose from defeat to subdue Elizabeth Ryan who had become something of a nemesis to her. Eight times previously they had met and each time Miss Ryan had won.

That was Molla's last taste of tennis glory.

But don't feel sorry for the dowager queen—she tasted enough of the stuff anyway. More than her share.

NEXT: Ted Meredith.

Taking Day Out At Court Quiz

Although usually she places home activities ahead of governmental affairs in Washington, Mrs. George W. Norris, wife of the senator from Nebraska, joined the audience at Senate Judiciary Committee hearings on President Roosevelt's proposed Supreme Court change. She is pictured above during the sessions in which her husband supported the President's plan.

THE NEXT FEW HOURS FINDS MYRA SO ENGROSSSED IN HER WORK THAT SHE COMPLETELY FORGETS HER OWN PROBLEMS... EVEN 'THE CLAW' SEEMS A REMOTE DANGER
