Cedillo's Peasant Army Ready for War

Stowaway

Thirteen-year-old Bobby Stap of New York, is home again, but by the time you read this he may be off again. For Bobby is the champion stowaway, having twice crossed the Atlantic as a non-paying guest. He picked a coastal liner, the City of Chattanooga, for his last junket. But this time he was caught and brought back in custody on the ship's return from Savannah, Ga.

Midland Girl Is Honor Graduate at John Tarleton

STEPHENVILLE, May 20. (Special.) — A recital to be given to-night at 7:30 o'clock by graduating piano students will mark the beginning of John Tarleton College commencement activities which will end next Monday morning with the presentation of 139 certificates of graduation in commencement exercises at the college auditorium.

Charles W. Froh will tonight present in recital Luna Ruth Petty of Midland, Eugenia Gentry of De Leon, Margaret Wilson of Dallas, and Mary Leone Hoge of Knox City. Other musical programs to be given at Tarleton during the week-end include band concerts in Humeval Park on Saturday and Sunday evenings, a radio program to be broadcast over WBAP by the Tarleton Chorus and Little Symphony Orchestra Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and music by the Chorus and Orchestra at the baccalaureate service and at commencement exercises. An alumni banquet will be held Sunday at the Tarleton Dining Hall.

Miss Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Petty of Midland is an honor graduate, member of O. W. L., secretary of the student council, important player in the Tarleton Little Symphony, and a member of the Fine Arts club.

Students Return From National Music Festival

Seven Midland high students returned home today after having taken part Thursday in the national music competition festival for region six being held in Abilene.

Three boys, Frank Wade Arrington, Frank Nixon and Billy Kimbrough were entered in the clarinet trio contests and Billy Noble, Wayne Lanham, Joe Norman and Harold Barnes were entered in the cornet quartet contests. Joe Norman also entered the baton twirling contest.

Results of the meeting will not be known before tomorrow night. The contestants were accompanied to Abilene by M. A. Armstrong, band director, and Wallace Wimberley, Wimberley returned home today, but Armstrong will remain in Abilene until the contests are completed.

Hoffman to Attend Legion Convention

W. H. Hoffman, commander of the Woods W. Lynch post of the American Legion here, will leave tomorrow for Lubbock where he will attend the nineteenth district convention of the legion and auxiliary Saturday and Sunday.

Hoffman has been appointed to serve on the reception committee at the convention.

The main feature of the convention will be an address by Daniel J. Doherty of Massachusetts, national commander of the legion, Saturday night.

A dance Saturday night at the Hilton hotel, the option of a Bible class or golf Sunday morning, a chow line at noon Sunday and a business session in the afternoon with a program will be other convention features.

A few other members of the local post are expected to attend the convention Sunday.

Suchow Is Taken Over By Japanese

Complete Control Of Rail Junction Reported Today

JAPANESE ARMY HEADQUARTERS, NEAR SUCHOW, May 20 (AP). — The general commanding Japanese armies which advanced to capture strategic Suchow told Associated Press Writer Elmer W. Peterson tonight 40 Chinese divisions were surrounded in the Suchow area without a chance to escape.

The general, who would not permit his name to be disclosed, said 16,000 Chinese soldiers were inside the Japanese lines. He said huge Chinese forces around Suchow were breaking up into leaderless disorder and suffering terrible casualties under attacks by Japanese planes.

SHANGHAI, May 20 (AP). — The Japanese army today announced complete occupation of Suchow, the military heart of Eastern China.

The announcement said Japanese troops had taken the city late yesterday and were "engaged in annihilating remnants of the defeated Chinese army."

The Japanese army spokesman said a preliminary estimate was that 7,000 Chinese were killed in the Suchow area, including 3,000 within the city.

He asserted that 50 Chinese divisions of about 7,000 each were surrounded in the Suchow vicinity, including 10 of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's best divisions.

There was every indication that they would be annihilated, the spokesman said.

Suchow, 330 miles northwest of Shanghai, had been the goal of Japan's "grand campaign" in Eastern China. Strategically, the city was more important to Japanese armies than fallen Nanking, once China's capital.

Its occupation permits Japanese to link the conquered northern provinces with the Shanghai-Nanking area of the Yangtze river valley and control the Chinese seaboard from Manchoukuo to Hangchow bay.

Japanese told of the Suchow victory in the face of Chinese reports from Hankow that Suchow was not imperiled and that the nearest fighting was at Hwangkow, 22 miles to the west. There, Chinese said, a Japanese attack had been repulsed.

Since the fall of Nanking on December 13, Japanese columns pushing north from Yangtze river bases and others driving to the south from conquered Peiping and Tientsin had converged on walled Suchow.

The Lunghai railway, which crosses the north-south Tientsin-Pukow line at Suchow, has carried Chinese troops and men to the central front.

Yesterday Japanese dispatches declared their forces had entered the city and were fighting Chinese in the streets. Much of Suchow was said to have been in flames.

Chinese "dare-to-die" units however, still were resisting in the southern suburbs against Japanese infantry assaults supported by heavy air and artillery bombardments.

Better Citizenship Medals Awarded 2 Students in School

Allen Wemple and Emily Jane Lanmar, members of the graduating class of junior high school, today were awarded the American Legion Better Citizenship medals by W. H. Hoffman, Commander of the Woods W. Lynch post of the legion here, and J. F. Friberg.

The medals were awarded today for the first time here but hereafter they will be awarded annually. A plaque will be given to the school and each year the names of the winners will be inscribed on it.

The medals are awarded on a 5-division contest with 20 points going for each of the following: honor, courage, scholarship, leadership and service. The students themselves decide the winners.

There were 12 boys and 12 girls in the race for the medals and voting was close all the way through before the two winners were decided.

Five Military Ships Land Here Today

Major Whitehead, in an A-17, attack plane, whose home station is Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, arrived at Sloan Field today from Big Spring and will remain overnight.

Two navy ships under Commander Short, arrived from Fort Bliss early this afternoon.

Lieut. Nelson, in a bomber, stopped at Sloan Field briefly on a round trip flight from Kelly Field.

Lieut. Cobb, flying a B-18 arriving from Fort Bliss and departed for Barksdale Field, La.

1 Killed, 1 Injured In 2 Plane Crashes

SAN ANTONIO, May 20 (AP). — Flying Cadet Harry Watson, Wellsburg, W. Va., was critically injured when his plane crashed near Randolph field today.

Cadet Kinch Bristler, Jr., Yazoo City, Miss., was killed when his plane crashed on a farm southwest of Kelly field.

Marketing Quotas Not on 1938 Wheat

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP). — Secretary of Agriculture Wallace said today under terms of the new crop control law it is too late to invoke marketing quotas on this year's indicated bumper wheat crop.

Six Aboard Plane That Crashed

Mussolini Warned Britain and France To Stick Together

PARIS, May 20 (AP). — France and Great Britain warned Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy Thursday they stood shoulder to shoulder despite efforts to separate them.

Mussolini's latest demands for signing an Italo-French friendship agreement were rejected and the byword in official quarters in Paris last night was: "Now it is up to Mussolini; he knows our answers."

The deadlock in efforts to reach an accord paralleling the Anglo-Italian pact of April 16 was believed in many quarters here to have put Southern Europe back under the same warclouds that hung over it in the early part of the year.

FDR Keeping Hands Off in Oregon's Primary Election

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP). — President Roosevelt said today he was taking no part in the Oregon democratic primary election, being held today.

He made the statement while refusing to comment upon the outcome of Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary.

More than half a million Republican and Democrat will select candidates for governor, short and regular terms in the United States senate, and three congressmen.

The Democratic contest for governor between stocky, white-haired Governor Charles H. Martin, former congressman and retired major general, and Henry Hess former state senator from La Grande, eclipsed all other races.

Threats of Strike Made By RR Union

Denounce Plan of Officials to Cut Salaries of Men

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP). — Railroad labor unions served notice Thursday that a nationwide strike would be the "only ultimate result" if the roads carried out intentions to cut wages.

The workers' opposition to the projected 15 per cent pay cut won powerful support in congress, where a movement developed to withhold emergency financial aid from the carriers unless they agreed to maintain existing wage levels.

At the request of Chairman Wagner (D-NY) of the banking committee, the senate sent back to the committee legislation which would provide federal loans for the roads. Wagner said several members of the committee wanted to change the bill to prohibit federal loans to carriers that forced wage cuts.

The Wagner group previously had approved the bill in its present form but the New Yorker said the action was taken before the wage issue entered the picture.

The unions' strike threat was contained in a statement by the Railway Labor Executives' association.

Charging that railroad management had "double-crossed" its organized employees, the statement declared:

"If the railroad managements insist on going through with their attempt to cut employees' wages 15 per cent, the only ultimate result will be a nationwide strike.

"The railroad workers of America, already grossly underpaid, simply will not accept a wage reduction of any kind. They have already been heavy sufferers from the railroads' policy of putting the payment of interest to wealthy bondholders above decent living standards for their employees."

The labor executives said they would observe the railway labor act, which provides machinery for adjusting disputes, before they resorted to a strike, but added:

"If the railroads cannot be convinced that a wage reduction is not only unjustified, but is absolutely dangerous to the economic structure of this nation, it will be necessary for the railroad employees to use their economic strength to save the railroad industry from committing social suicide and dragging other industries along with it."

Hardin-Simmons Summer Session Starts August 20

ABILENE, May 20. — The annual summer session at Hardin-Simmons University will begin on June 2 and continue until August 20, according to Dr. R. A. Collins, H-SU dean and director of the summer school.

The entire session will include two terms, of six weeks each, the first to begin on June 2, and the second on July 12.

A total of 112 courses will be offered by 17 departments during the period from June 2 to August 20.

Besides the regular H-SU faculty, there will be four guest instructors. These include Dr. Walter J. Burdette, of the University of Texas, who will teach courses in zoology; J. H. Williams, principal of Newman high school, Sweetwater, who will conduct courses in education; Joe C. Humphrey, assistant principal at Abilene high school, to teach government and economics, and Miss Fanjane Stovall, Fort Worth grade principal, to direct the demonstration school, and to teach primary and elementary education. Miss Stovall was on the H-SU summer faculty last year.

The summer session will be divided into the two terms again this summer, Dr. Collins said, to permit students to complete one or more courses in each six weeks period.

Home Demonstration Delegates Elected

In an election meeting of representatives of the home demonstration council, Mrs. B. L. Mason and Mrs. J. L. Hundle were elected delegates to the Texas Home Demonstration Association which will convene during the short course at College Station July 12-15.

Named as alternates were Mrs. Lois Lewis and Mrs. Frank Lord Jr.

Flood Control Act Approved in House

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP). — A $375,000,000 omnibus flood control program received House approval Thursday after a ripple of excitement over the power question.

The bill, proposing a five-year plan of construction was passed by a standing vote without major amendments. It now goes to the Senate.

Chairman Whittington (D-Miss) of the House flood control committee, won out in a debate with Representative McCormack (D-Mass) who raised the power issue.

McCormack wanted to amend the bill to permit hydroelectric development on reservoirs on the Merrimack and Connecticut Rivers in Massachusetts and Vermont.

The House rejected the amendment after Whittington argued it had no place in the flood control program.

Humble 1-B Tubb Extends Crane Deep Permian Pool to Southwest

BY FRANK GARDNER.

Three-quarter mile southeast extension of deep Permian production in the Tubb pool of western Crane was apparently effected today by Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-B J. B. Tubb as it flowed 15 barrels of pipe-line oil per hour through tubing on four-hour test. Operators were preparing to treat the well with acid at its total depth of 4,430 feet in lime. It had drilled and cored part at intervals from 4,310 to bottom. The 15-barrel an hour flow came after the well had been swabbed in and allowed to clean itself of circulating oil for three hours.

Twenty-four hour pumping potential of 52 barrels was registered by Magnolia No. 1 University, discovery well three miles northeast of the Church & Fields pool in eastern Crane. It had been plugged back to 3,335 and shot. While bottomed at 3,330, the well had been acidized, later swabbing 30 barrels a day, and was deepened to sulphur water.

Choate & Hogan No. 1-I University, 1,980 feet south of the discovery pumper in the new north-west Crockett pool, pumped 55 barrels a day following 110-quart shot at plugged-back depth of 1,495 feet. It had originally pumped 41 barrels a day at 1,573 after acidizing with 2,500 gallons. Choate & Hogan No. 1-I University, southeast of the discovery, is drilling at 1,030 in anhydrite.

Humble To Take Hockley Oil.

Houston offices of the Humble Pipe Line Company advised yesterday that, starting immediately, Humble will purchase oil produced in the Slaughter pool of southwest Hockley, paying posted prices at its Bennett station in southeast Yoakum, where oil will be diverted to pipe-line. Operators in the Slaughter pool, which include Gulf, Standard, Texaco, Richardson and Honolulu, will haul their oil to the Yoakum station. No plans have yet been made by Humble for extending its North Basin pipe-line system to Hockley.

Texaco No. 1 Mallett, southeast Cochrane strike five miles southeast of the Duggan pool, was re-treated yesterday with 3,000 gallons of acid, under 243-barrel oil load. Crew swabbed for one hour, and the well started flowing, only to die after 15 minutes. They then swabbed into pits from 7 p. m. to 4 this morning, a period of 9 hours. At 4 a. m., oil was turned into tanks, and 33 barrels were recovered in one hour. This probably still represented some of the oil load. The well had swabbed (Oil News) Page Six

Men Placed In Position For Battles

SAN LUIS POTOSI, May 20 (AP). — Ex-Army General Saturnino Cedillo spread his peasant army into the hills today to prepare for guerrilla warfare with President Cardenas' army.

Cedillo, rightist political opponent of Cardenas, said he would not start it, but that he was ready with arms to repel "all aggression."

Cedillo, accused by President Lazaro Cardenas of plotting a revolt, told the Associated Press this morning he had been informed federal troops would attack him today.

The agrarian leader said he had "trustworthy" information that the president was planning to "try to crush me by force of arms."

He added defiantly:

"I am ready to repel all aggression by means of arms but I place the responsibility for the blood that may be shed on the caprice of this man who seeks to make of Mexico a dependency of the Soviet."

General Cedillo made his statement at Las Palomas, his estate near here. At the time only eight or ten men were there. All his armed agrarians were gone. They had slipped away into the hills. It seemed that Cedillo would follow them shortly.

Yesterday President Cardenas expressed confidence he had eliminated the possibility of revolt by General Saturnino Cedillo's agrarian army.

Headlined in 'Bloody Harlan' Trial

Principals in the tense court drama at London, Ky., as the federal government prosecutes 69 defendants charged with terrorism against coal miners in "bloody Harlan county" are the persons pictured above. The top photo shows M. A. Musick with his family. Musick, organizer for the United Mine Workers and former minister, claims that he has been shot at more than 100 times since he began his union activities in 1933. Last year terrorists riddled the Musick home, killing one son, Bennet, 19, and wounding another son, Bert, 10. With Musick in the picture are his wife, their son Jennings and daughter Pauline. At lower left is Federal Judge H. Church Ford, who is hearing the case. At lower right is Hugh Taylor, one of the defendants who was brought into court by FBI agents who found him hiding with his wife's relatives in Virginia. Taylor exhibits scars on his wrists and hands, put there, he claims, by bullets fired in Harlan county's long mine war.

Immediate Start on Navy Enlargement Urged by Vinson

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP). — Chairman Vinson of the house naval committee, apparently with administration support, advocated today immediate appropriations for 12 ships, a dirigible and the "mosquito fleet" authorized by the $1,000,000,000 naval expansion act.

Dr. Score Secured As Speaker to the Graduating Class

Announcement was made by school officials today that Dr. J. N. R. Score, pastor of the First Methodist church of Fort Worth, will deliver the graduation address Thursday night to the Midland high school class of 1938. Dr. Score's acceptance was received by telephone this morning. The engagement was secured largely through the help of Mark Magee, prominent Fort Worth attorney and a steward in Dr. Score's church, who was here today.

Regarded as "the greatest Methodist pastor today" and "the outstanding speaker in Fort Worth", residents of that city are highly complimentary of him and congratulated the Midland school officials upon securing his visit here for the graduation exercises.

He is an active civic worker in Ft. Worth, is widely known in Rotary circles, is an ardent sportsman with preference given fishing and golfing and is an "all around" citizen, according to those who know him.

He is about 40 years of age, has a son 12 and is one of the leaders in the "Dads' Club of McClain junior high school at Fort Worth. He received his college degree at Southwestern University and high theological degrees in leading Methodist denominational institutions. Before accepting the Fort Worth pastorate, he was pastor of Houston's largest Methodist church.

Seniors Will Be Guests of Yucca

All faculty members of the Midland school system, seniors of the class of 1938, and members of the high school band will be guests of the Yucca theatre at a matinee Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the theatre management has announced.

The film feature will be "Judge Hardy's Children," which is endorsed by the Better Movies committee of the City-County Federation.

Monahans Man Opens Office Here

D. T. Wallace, until recently connected with Richardson Oils, Inc. at Monahans, has moved to Midland where he has opened offices in the Wilkinson building, name of the business being Producers Service Company.

The company specializes in services for oil producers, supplying Railroad Commission forms, bookkeeping systems, accounting services, petroleum engineering, geological services and gas-oil ratio surveys.

WASHINGTON.—No one can tell yet how well or badly the new farm program will work out, but events have progressed far enough to indicate that it may be headed for plenty of trouble.

The wheat carryover threatens to be the largest in history and the government is fairly certain to be up to its neck in loans to farmers on that commodity. The cotton carryover is being estimated at around 12,000,000 bales and although a 35 per cent cut in cotton acreage has been called for, carryovers are reported piling so much fertilizer on their soil that the effectiveness of the cut is problematical. The corn crop situation also worries AAA officials.

Some pessimists predict that the government will have to keep on making crop loans and that acreage cuts in future years must be made increasingly more drastic as larger supplies accumulate. The specter of non-co-operation is especially bothering AAA.

Voluntary—So Far. THE five major commodities involved in the program are wheat, cotton, corn, tobacco and rice. The plan first provides for national acreage allotments, with bonuses to farmers who restrict planting to given acreages as part of a soil conservation program.

So far the program is voluntary and any farmer can stay in or out of it. But if supplies threaten to run above estimated national needs, farmers are asked to vote on the compulsory feature—marketing quotas with penalties for farmers who sell in excess of their individual quotas. A two-thirds vote is required before the Secretary of Agriculture may impose quotas. Then there are crop loans, which amount to price guarantees, since the government assumes any loss.

Here's what is happening under this program to date:

Big Wheat Crop. WHEAT: Confusion as to allotments was expected, as winter wheat had been planted last summer and fall before the act passed. Instead of growing the 62,500,000,000 allotted acres of wheat, farmers have grown 80 millions acres. This year's total wheat supply is estimated at 1,150,000,000 bushels and the carryover at 400,000,000.

Under the act, no marketing quota is provided for the 1938 crop. But the supply is so large that Secretary Wallace is expected to make allotments for the 1939 crop which would cut wheat acreage from 80 million acres to 50 million acres. Wheat loans on the 1938 crop seem certain.

Lots of Cotton, Too. COTTON: Growers voted more than 90 per cent in favor of marketing quotas on the 1938 crop. Acreage allotments reduced a pre-program average of 42,000,000 acres to 28,000,000 acres. The supply for this year is about 24,500,000 bales, whereas a supply of only 19,500,000 bales is required in order to have a marketing quota vote.

Cotton prices have been so low that a vast majority of growers is expected to participate in the program in order to qualify for benefit payments and loans. Cotton loans already have landed 7,000,000 bales in the government's hands.

Uncertainty on Corn. CORN: Acreage allotments have been cut from 47 to 40 million acres in "commercial" corn crop counties. The carryover next October is expected to be twice average size. August crop reports will tell whether the quota level of 2,800,000,000 bushels supply is exceeded. If so, Wallace will announce corn marketing quotas on the 1938 crop, subject to ratification by a two-thirds vote of eligible farmers.

Tobacco Quotas Voted. TOBACCO: Farmers have voted for marketing quotas on flue-cured and dark air-cured and fire-cured tobacco, supplies having overrun quota levels. Individual allotments on burley tobacco haven't yet been made. Since 1933 tobacco growers have had their best years in history and squabbles among them have been over individual acreage allotments rather than against the program.

No Rice Quota. RICE: No marketing quota was provided for rice for 1938, although the supply is above the quota level. Acreage allotments are yet to be made.

Yucca Picture Is Endorsed by Better Movies Committee

"Judge Hardy's Children," third of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Hardy Family" series, with Lewis Stone, Mickey Rooney, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden, is the current attraction at the Yucca Theater. It is a sequel to "You're Only Young Once" and is the same type of intimate, down-to-earth family comedy, this time taking the judge and his family to Washington where the youngsters have flirtations and the father outwits lobbyists.

Stone plays the wise old judge and father, Mickey and Cecilia the two irrepressible youngsters, Fay Holden is seen as the mother and Betty Ross Clarke enacts Aunt Milly.

The picture is endorsed by the Better Movies committee of the City-County Federation.

Also as a part of the program, the Yucca presents an additional hour of joy and merriment in Walt Disney's "Academy Award Revue."

The subject was on the controversy of Texas weight and speed limit for trucks or "Why Truck Drivers Hate the Cops." Young Wilson has driven trucks in the oil fields for his father.

Travis Foster, senior journalism student from Rising Star, was author of the leading article in the last issue of the Texas Press Messenger, entitled "Journalism Takes First Rank in West Texas Colleges." Foster earns his way through college as an employee of the Tech Press.

Paul White, senior journalism student from Hamlin, is author of an article on work of the Tech agricultural division, for which he received $10. The article will appear in Farm and Ranch. White has had other articles published.

Betty Bizzell, senior journalism student from Lubbock, was author of an article, "Ready-Made Mistresses of the Home," in the January issue of West Texas Today.

A check for $85 from the Forum magazine is exhibited by Ruby Ellison, senior speech major from Lubbock, for "Fair Weather Friends."

Federal Savings Corporations Gain WASHINGTON.—Approximately 2,000 savings and loan associations now protected by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation, comprise the "most select" group of thrift and home-financing institutions ever banded together.

Oscar R. Kreutz, deputy general manager of the corporation, said today. Kreutz cited statistics showing that insured institutions have aggregate reserves of almost 10 per cent of their assets, and their percentage of liquidity as measured by holdings of cash and government bonds "is higher than similar institutions as a group ever dreamed of maintaining in years gone by."

Insurance of the share accounts of savings and loan associations, Kreutz recalled, grew out of the financial depression of 1932-33, and shortly after commercial bank deposits were guaranteed.

"The building and loan business," he said, "needed federal insurance almost as much as the banks did. How natural, therefore, for the government to establish the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance corporation in 1934, soon after the success of the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation was shown."

The FSLIC, he explained, guarantees the safety of share accounts in home finance and thrift institutions to the extent of $5,000 for each investor.

It has $100,000,000 in capital and nearly $12,000,000 in accumulated reserves. Although it insures the accounts of nearly 2,000 institutions with assets approaching $2,000,000,000, claims it has paid, together with those reported not paid, total less than $150,000, or approximately 3.9 per cent of its premium income to date.

Kreutz explained that institutions granted insurance are carefully selected on the basis of sound financial status and competent management.

"Without my making any comparison between insured and uninsured associations," he said, "here are a few significant statistics. The reports of 1,435 identical insured savings and loan associations covering operations from December 31, 1936, to December 31, 1937, show very definite and substantial progress in attracting private capital. Their net increase during this period, after meeting all repurchase requests, was 11.7 per cent."

Kreutz asserted that "what we need most today is to believe in our institutions. Insurance of accounts

The Town Quack

Yes, times don't change a whole lot. The commentators of today use a more terse phraseology than did those more literary editorialists of nearly a century ago, but their subjects are fundamentally the same and their deductions reach about the same point.

Never has there been a time when the church members could get along indefinitely with the preacher, when politics were satisfactory to the voters nor when the newspaper didn't arouse the ire of a reader now and then. And since I can remember, West Texas never had enough rain, but, as State Press said about the country in 1857, "it got by and may get by again."

All of us know that hard times have knocked at the peoples' door since time immemorial, but State Press, in the Dallas News, comes forward with definite proof of the fact by quoting an editorial which appeared in Harper's Weekly in 1857. The "old fashioned pessimist," as State Press terms him, expressed himself similarly to those pessimists of the present day, as you will notice:

"Not for many years has there been so much grave and deep apprehension. Never the future has seemed so incalculable as at this time. In our country there is universal commercial prostration and panic and thousands of our poorest fellow citizens are turned out against the approaching winter without employment and without prospect of it."

State Press points out that "our country got by, however, and may get by again."

is a great help in this regard. We need to have so much confidence in our institutions that we can never question whether we should put our own or our mother's or father's money in them. When we have that kind of confidence and instill it in our prospects, we won't need to wonder how to get new money. It will flow in of its own accord.

"Federal insurance of accounts is already assisting a large portion of the thrift and home financing industry to achieve new growth and greater success. The number of insured associations is increasing steadily. With insurance of accounts as one of the many favorable elements conducive to growth, there are many indications that this important industry has before it a period of even greater prosperity and usefulness than it has achieved in the past."

Fire Prevention Poster Contest Winners Named

AUSTIN.—Marvin Hall, state fire insurance commissioner, has announced the 24 winners of the annual fire prevention poster contest who will receive prizes amounting to $105 for their unusual or unique posters depicting some phases of fire prevention. The contest is sponsored by the Texas fire insurance commission and is conducted each year in the public schools of Texas under three divisions, high school, intermediate, and primary. In each division there is a first prize of $10, a second prize of $7.50, a third prize of $5, and five fourth prizes of $2.50 each.

Maggie Wayne Bird, student of the Paschal high school of Fort Worth, won first place in the high school division with her poster entitled "When a Habit Is a Hazard." This poster showed a lighted cigar on the edge of a desk, and was drawn in appropriate colors and proportions.

First place in the intermediate division was won by Preston Hatcher of the Texas junior high school, Texarkana. The title of his poster was "The Attic Is No Place for Children to Play With Matches."

James Hardwick of the Houston school, Mineral Wells, won first prize in the primary division. His poster, done in black and red with dark shadings, showed two children at a burning camp fire and was captioned, "Careless Campers Cause Fires."

Numerous children in all classes submitted posters which were not included in the prize list, but which will earn for them an honorable mention ribbon.

The prize money is donated by Cravens, Dargan and company, insurance managers, of Houston. Judges for the annual contest were Mrs. Hall Bybee, past president of the Austin City Council of Parents and Teachers, Raymond Everett of the University of Texas, and Howard Bull, Austin insurance agent.

Visiting Mothers Entertained With a Series of Social Affairs This Week

Courtesies for visiting mothers, as well as those resident here, have held the special attention of Midland society for the past few days.

Among those visiting from out-of-town who have been complimented at various coffees, luncheons, dinners, and evening parties are: Mrs. J. B. Goggin of Fort Worth who is visiting her son, David S. Goggin, and Mrs. Goggin; Mrs. C. H. Earnest of Colorado who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. D. C. Sivals; Mrs. C. A. Bigelow of Long Beach, California, guest of her son, Paul Love, and Mrs. Love; and Mrs. Martin of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. J. B. Goggin was honored with an informal coffee by Mrs. R. C. Tucker.

Mrs. Earnest and Mrs. Goggin were jointly honored by Mrs. R. W. Hamilton with an informal coffee, Tuesday morning.

For a luncheon for ten guests Wednesday, Mrs. F. F. Winger named three mothers as honorees, Mrs. J. B. Goggin, Mrs. Earnest, and Mrs. W. A. Black, the latter of Midland. Roses and larkspur formed the decorative motif for the luncheon which was served at one large table where covers were laid for eleven.

Thursday morning, Mrs. David S. Goggin was hostess to a coffee from 10 o'clock until 12 o'clock, complimenting Mrs. J. B. Goggin and Mrs. Martin.

Cape jasmine and daisies were arranged on the tea table where Mrs. R. C. Tucker and Mrs. J. E. Simmons poured for the guests.

Gladioluses and other spring flowers were used in the living room. About 30 guests called.

Mrs. Bigelow, who was honored with a dinner party by Mrs. Fred Carmichael recently, was recipient of another courtesy when Mrs. Iva M. Noyes entertained at her home, 215 N. Colorado, with two tables of bridge and tripoil Thursday evening.

Rosebuds and larkspur were favored in the floral arrangements.

Following the games, a party plate was served to: The honoree, Mmes. and Messrs. J. J. Kelly, Paul Love, J. L. Rush, Leon Tullos, Fred Carmichael, W. H. Street, Glen Black, Miss Pearl Metcalfe, M. A. Wilder, Wayne, McCarrier, and the hostess.

Bridge-Luncheon Is Compliment to Bien Amigos Club

Mrs. E. A. Wahlstrom, 1800 W. Missouri, was hostess to a bridge-luncheon for the Bien Amigos club Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Larkspur and roses were used in the dining room where a two-course luncheon was served and also in the playing room where three tables were appointed for bridge games. Tallies and prize wrappings followed a spring theme.

High score for club members went to Mrs. John House and high for guests to Mrs. Dan DeHorne, while high out was held by Mrs. Joe Pyron.

Guests playing were Mrs. DeHorne and Mrs. Bob Dewey.

Members present were: Mmes. Joe Ballanfont, Preston Bridgewater, Jas. H. Chapple, Harvey Hardison, J. M. Haygood, House, C. A. M. Pyron, F. F. Winger, Nelson Young, and the hostess.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES
"Soul and Body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 22.

The Golden Text is: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God" (Psalms 42: 11).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?" (I Corinthians 3:16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that

Forty-Two Women Attend Federated Club Luncheon Held at the Hotel Scharbauer

Forty-two individual members and club members were present at the Federated Club luncheon, which was held Wednesday at 12:30 in the private dining room at the Hotel Scharbauer.

Ten places were laid at the Delphinian table, 11 at the Wednesday and Junior Wednesday table, seven at the Fine Arts table, and fifteen at the City-County Federation table, which included three members from the Modern Study club and Federation guests.

The tables were decorated in the colors of the club represented; the Delphinian group had a centerpiece of marigolds and fern, with black and yellow place cards, sweet peas were used at the Fine Arts table, roses and larkspur at the Wednesday table and larkspur was chosen by the Federation.

Feminine Fancies

There is only one time in our life when we feel that we have accumulated a fair share of this world's goods—that is when we start packing up to move.

Our vote of approval goes to the sets of linen hat and purse now being shown in pastel colors and British tan with linings of white linen. These linings, by the way may be worn inside out, so the sets do double duty.

The hats are laced up the back, therefore adjustable to head size. And the purses are laced up the sides with white cord so that they may be undone for washing and ironing.

For the slim budget, these work-willing little ensembles are first-class, for they are practical and inexpensive.

Another of those things which threaten to upset a not-too-well-disciplined temper is to buy a beautiful piece of material for a dress—and then be unable to find the desired trimming anywhere in town. Or to discover that the thread which exactly matches the goods lacks about six inches of being long enough to complete the dress.

Cologne, of which we heard little for years and years, is making the leading daily this spring in beauty hint columns. The lighter scent seems to be highly favored for keeping mildy (dim, cool, and dainty during the dog days).

To judge by the displays of women's clothing, play is assuming more and more importance in the life of the average woman. Has there ever before been a spring when so many kinds of play suits—slacks, shorts, overalls, and all variations thereof—have been on display? We think not.

Note to old-fashioned cooks who like themselves thought dried fruits must be cooked long and liberally in order to be edible and digestible. The newest news is that dried fruit should not be soaked overnight and cooked for hours as Mother did but the spiritual facts of being may appear,—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. Thus we may establish in truth the temple, or body, whose builder and maker is God" (page 428).

Beta Sigma Phi Closes Programs For Sorority Year

Beta Sigma Phi held its final official meeting of the year with Miss Ruth Pratt hostess at her home, 911 W. Kansas, Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Garden blooms including roses, verbenas, and larkspur supplied a spring-like setting in the entertaining rooms.

Program numbers were in the form of a review of the year's work and consisted of the following talks: "Introduction and Invitations" by Miss Marguerite Bivens; "Table Manners and Table Decorations" by Miss Mary V. Miller; "Conduct of Friendship" by Miss Norene Kirby; "Conduct of Love" by Mrs. Francis Stallworth; "Organization and Communication of Ideas" by Miss Lucille McMullan; "Life as an Art" by Mrs. Tom Potter; "Painting and Sculpture," Miss Pratt.

Mrs. L. C. Link, director, read "The Living Masterpiece" by Lynn Terry, the volume being a gift to the sorority from Mrs. Alma Thomas.

Miss Bivens, incoming president, appointed the following committees for next year: Publicity, Miss Kirby; social, Miss Miller chairman, Mrs. Johnnie Sherrod, Miss Elizabeth von Gonten; ways and means, Miss Pratt, chairman, Miss Lou Annie Reeves, Miss Ellen Potter; program, Miss Willette Duncan, chairman, Mrs. Link, Miss Bivens; membership, Miss McMullan chairman, Mrs. Potter.

Miss Kirby, as retiring president, was presented with a gift from the sorority—a gold-lined suede cover for copies of the sorority magazine, "The Torch." The front of the cover bore the name "Beta Sigma Phi" in gold lettering.

"Capsule" friends with whom to keep in touch during the summer were assigned.

A party plate was served at the close of the program and business meeting to: Mmes. Sherrod, Potter, Stallworth, Link, Misses Kirby, El-

Luscious Limes.
When buying limes, select fruit which is heavy for its size and really green. These will contain the most juice and have the best flavor. Watch out for decay at the stem end or any sign of mold or discoloration on the skin which may affect the flavor of the fruit.

Cotton Sheer Nightgowns.
Nightgowns of cotton sheers, including dimity, batiste, voile and lawn are utterly exquisite. One of finest white lawn is pleated from neckline to hem, has a pleated collar and wide, extra full sleeves, held in at the wrists with narrow violet ribbon. Another uses yards and yards of white voile with fullness starting at the round, high neckline and falling in graceful folds to the floor and a fairly wide sash of royal blue taffeta about the waistline.

CARDINALS BOOT AWAY GAME WITH HOBBS; MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

FOUR RUN LEAD IN FIRST LOST LATER BY WITHERSMEN

The Midland Cardinals lost the series opener with the Hobbs Boosters here last night by a score of 6-10. And the Cardinals richly deserved to lose. But they could have looked a lot better in doing so. A half dozen physical errors and as many mental errors made it extremely tough on the two pitchers. Warren and Froschauer, that hurler for the Cardinals.

The name of Warren goes into the books as the loser of the game but it is a pity the loss cannot be charged up to Froschauer. Through his own stubbornness, he missed at least two opportunities to let the Cardinals at least tie the score. He flared up first in the sixth when he threw one on the ground towards home, the ball rolled to the grandstand and Smyly, stationed on second base, raced home before the ball could be retrieved. In the last half of the same inning he stupidly raced off second base and was easily doubled off by Right Fielder Donaldson after the latter had captured Battle's fly ball. At the time of the play there were two men on base and none out and Dossdoorian managed to score on the play but the rally was killed by Froschauer's getting caught. Froschauer had made another error in the fifth when he stepped down a return from Ballinger and let two men advance, and both scored a moment later on a double by Rabe.

Froschauer wasn't alone in making errors. Battle, Brown, Ballinger and Dossdoorian also botched one each. Warren, still bothered by a leg injury received a week ago, didn't hurl his usual effective ball and was hard hit before giving way to Froschauer after Hobbs had miffed six runs and was leading, 6-4. With better support, he would have cut the Hobbs score in half.

The Cardinals got off to a four run lead in the first inning when Battle got a life on an error and Brown doubled to send him home. Morris singled and Ballinger hit one over the centerfield fence. Their final two runs were scored one at a time in the sixth and seventh.

The Boosters made a couple of unearned runs in the fourth inning and drove Warren from the box in the next frame with a three run attack that included a home run by Donaldson, league's leading hitter, with one man on base. They picked up another in the same frame off Froschauer. Two more in the sixth and another brace in the ninth were more than enough to put the game on the ice.

Twitcheil, a husky right hander, went all the way on the mound for the Boosters and after his rocky first inning had control at practically all times.

The two teams meet again tonight and Benny Franklin, who has two victories and no defeats, will likely be on the mound for the Red Birds. Grover Miller, a right hander who boasts of four wins and one loss, will probably hunt for the Boosters.

When Huerta Seized Mexico

FRANCISCO MADERO'S demands for agrarian reform in Mexico won him the presidency on the heels of Diaz's forced flight, but Madero faced counter revolution almost immediately after taking office in November, 1911.

His administration proved blundering and weak, and in February, 1913, Victoriano Huerta led an attack on the government, driving Madero and his vice president, Saurez, from power. Huerta then seized office, and three days later both Madero and Saurez were executed.

Huerta, however, soon fared little better than Madero. President Wilson refused to recognize him because of his usurpation of authority and from within he was opposed by the disappointed masses, led by Carranza, Villa and Zapata.

These three sought sweeping social and agrarian reforms. They were quick to take advantage of Huerta's difficulties with the United States. The final blow came with severance of diplomatic relations with the United States after Huerta refused to recognize the American flag in a naval dispute and America seized Vera Cruz.

Huerta was forced to resign finally on July 14, 1914. One of a current series of Mexican stamps recalling the days of the revolution is shown here.

Women Golfers in Finals of Tourney; Men Start City Tournament Tomorrow

Midland women golfers swung into the championship play-off in their city tournament while the men were taking advantage of the final qualifying day and turning in scores preparatory to entering their city tournament.

Mrs. Rachael Hornbeck and Mrs. R. W. Hamilton were to meet this afternoon at four o'clock in the final match of the women's tournament.

Mrs. J. L. Rush was the winner of the first flight prize and Mrs. Earl Horst was the consolationist. In the championship flight, Mrs. W. B. Harkrider defeated Mrs. Charlie Mix for the consolation award.

Fourteen men golfers had turned in qualifying scores at noon today for the tournament that will start tomorrow afternoon and approximately twice that number is expected to qualify during the remainder of the day. Medalist will be decided on the low score turned in today, regardless of other low scores turned in during the week.

The men will be competing for the Reporter-Telegram loving cup, awarded last year for the first time to Jimmy Smith, winner of the tournament.

Rules of the tournament this year call for 54 holes of medal play, 18 Saturday and 36 Sunday, with prizes for the medalist, flight winner, consolationist and runner-up in each flight.

The PAYOFF

BY JESS RODGERS.

From the publicity department of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues we gather the following:

First Baseman Jake Suytar of the Midland Cardinals, started out to make his way in baseball as a pitcher. But several years ago, he hit a batter over the heart with a pitched ball and it unsettled him to such an extent that he lost his control. So he turned to the initial bag.

Jake, who comes from Ventura, Calif., is an alumnus of Ventura Junior College. His last year at the college, he was second batter on the club with a fine .402 average.

In basketball, that same year, he had scored the remarkable total of 416 points in a season. His team was conference champion and he was its leader, as captain. He was named on the county all-star quintet.

A couple of years ago, Jake signed up with the Catalina Island Cubs. This is an organization sponsored by the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League, a farm of the Chicago Cubs.

Likely youngsters in the Los Angeles district are sent there for the summer. Teams are made up and a regular schedule is played. Suytar batted .376, stole 17 bases and had a fielding mark of .974.

He reported to the Angels in the spring of 1932 and trained with them until selected in a squad of youngsters who were sent to the Angel farm at Ponca City in the Western Association. Big Bill Reese, one of the best young first-sackers in that league last season, was also on the job and he beat Suytar out. But the young man is determined to find his place with his new start this year.

As early as 1933, Jake pitched his independent team in Ventura to the championship of the CYO, and repeated in 1934. Then came the unfortunate accident which blasted his control and sent him away from the pitcher's box for keeps.

Although not yet 20 years old, Suytar stands six feet, five inches and tips the scales to 202 pounds.

Four years ago, Casimir (Buzz) Kaliski, Lubbock rookie, was an infielder and outfielder in the independent ranks of Chicago. He was a pretty snappy hitter, noted for long range clouts. One of his home run drives had traveled more than 450 feet.

One afternoon his team's pitchers were having rough sledding and he was sent in to do the relief job. From that day on, he was a pitcher.

Longhorns Can Sew Up Flag Race Today

AUSTIN.—The Texas Longhorns hope to put the finishing touches on a 19th Southwest conference baseball pennant for Uncle Billy Ditch this week-end.

By winning either of their games with the Texas Aggies here Friday and Saturday, the Dischmen can sew up the championship. As matters stand now, it would take two Aggie victories, a conference order for the Longhorns to play their cancelled game with S. M. U. and a defeat there, and defeat in a playoff series to deprive Texas of the title.

Texas needs this championship to preserve its reputation as the strongest conference school in spring sports. The track title already has been lost to Rice, and the Longhorns had to give up the individual golf and tennis crowns which they usually win.

Probably Uncle Billy will shoot John Garnett, his prize left-hander, against the Aggies on Friday, in an attempt to win on the official race. Harry Cohn, Marty Karow's south-law, should be his opposition.

Or the coaches might switch to right-handers for the opener, with Texas starting Ned McDonald and the Aggies using Ralph Lindsey.

It will be the last college series for three Longhorns—Capt. Leroy Westerman, outfielder; Vernon McMurray, second base, and Jim Maedgen, catcher.

The series will be further enlivened by an unofficial but hearty battle for infield positions on the all-conference team. The Steer and Aggie infielders all are contenders—McMurray and Cooper at second, Hill and Williams at first, Moers and Stone at third and Conway and Nolen at short.

These games will be the last action for U. T. teams this year, except in the intercollegiate track, golf and tennis meets.
