

FDR Not to Sign the New Tax Measure

Will Let It Become Law Without Having His Signature on It

ARTHURDALE HOMESTEADS, W. Va., May 27 (AP).—President Roosevelt announced today at school commencement exercises here that he would permit the $5,000,000,000 tax bill to become law without his signature.

He said if he signed it "many people would think I approve abandonment of important principles of American taxation." He said "I would prevent many desirable features" from taking effect so he will let the bill go into effect at midnight without "my approval."

The course was taken to call attention to "unwise" parts of the bill. Noting the legislation retains the principle of the undistributed profits tax, the president said "the penalty for withholding dividends to stockholders is so small—only two and one half per cent at most—that it is doubtful whether it will wholly eliminate the old tax avoidance practices of the past."

Southerners Claim Victory as Wage Act Sent to Committee

WASHINGTON, May 27 (AP).—The bitterly contested wage-hour bill advanced another step toward legislative enactment Thursday when Senate leaders, compromising with the measure's opponents, sent it to a conference committee which will include two southern senators.

The bill's opponents won what they considered a major concession when the usual five-member Senate conference committee was enlarged to seven to provide for the appointment of Senators Ellender (D-La.) and Pepper (D-Fla.). These additions were made on the insistence of exponents of wage differentials that the south be represented on the group.

By agreeing to this, the administration leaders avoided, at least temporarily, a lengthy floor fight to defeat the measure. They succeeded also, in naming a Senate conference committee solidly in favor of enacting wage-hour legislation, although differing individually on the final form it should take.

Headed by Chairman Thomas (D-Utah), of the Senate labor committee, the group includes, besides Ellender and Pepper, Senators Walsh (D-Mass.), Murray (D-Mont.), Borah (R-Ia.), and LaFollette (Prog.-Wis.).

Substantially, Senator Harrison (D-Miss.), leader of the opposition to the bill, called attention to the fact that all the Senate conferees were of record at one time or another as being in favor of a varying wage scale for different sections of the country or different industries.

But there were indications that some of the Senate group would not long support the Senate position for differentials as a means of raising the house version of the bill, fixing a rigid scale of minimum pay and maximum hours applicable to all sections of the country alike.

Red Cross Extends Aid to Thousands in Chinese States

Responding to a request from Norman H. Davis, chairman of the American Red Cross, that all Red Cross chapters renew efforts to raise funds for refugee relief in China, Mrs. J. A. Haley, chairman of the local chapter, pointed out that the number of sufferers in devastated areas in China was increasing daily.

"The need that exists for our help in many sections of China is appalling," Mrs. Haley said. "Men, women, and children are dying for lack of adequate food and medical assistance, and every donation, no matter how small, will be of great help in handling this relief problem that is growing daily in scope."

Mrs. Haley pointed out that for an American dollar one refugee could be clothed, fed, and housed for a month in China. Hundreds of refugee stations, she said, had been established in larger cities, but for lack of funds little has been done for rural populations or those whose villages have been entirely destroyed, with a loss of all personal property and complete destruction of growing crops.

"This money," Mrs. Haley said, "will be used to purchase food, clothing, medicine, and shelter for the millions of destitute victims who are wandering homeless over the country. It is being sent direct to China, with no deductions of any kind being made. There it will be administered by a committee of American business men appointed by Nelson T. Johnson, American ambassador now in Hankow."

Funds amounting to $370,000 have already been sent to China for relief work, the local chairman said. Of this amount, $200,000 was appropriated from the National Red Cross treasury while $170,000 was donated by the public.

Men, women, and children who are suffering in China are not responsible for their wretched condition, National Chairman Davis pointed out in his letter to Mrs. Haley. She said this was listed in (Red Cross) Page Three

Responding to a 130-quart shot from 1,330-70, Harry W. Black and Eubank Oil Company, Inc. No. 1 University, producer in the Choate & Hogan pool in northwest Crockett, headed oil at intervals three times yesterday while cleaning, and last night made a seven-minute head over the mast. Hole has been plugged back to 1,300 feet. On 24-hour potential test made before shooting, the well pumped 40.56 barrels. It was then bottomed at 1,420, plugged back from 1,475 to shut off flowing sulphur water. Location is 2,310 feet from the north, 330 feet from the west, line of section 13, block 14, University survey.

Extension of the south end of the pool nearly one-half mile east was assured as Choate & Hogan No. 1-H University showed first oil from 1,370-77, with increases at 1,377-83 and 1,383-94, total depth. Observers estimated the showing at better than one barrel an hour. The well is 330 feet from the north, 1,006 feet from the west line of section 14, block 14.

Magnolia No. 1-A J. H. McKee, Pecos Ordovician test, this morning was bailing out drilling mud at 5,640 feet. It has shown no change. Total depth is 6,165 feet, in the El Teuburser.

Graduates Facing a Disorganized Society, Must Take Lead in Establishing World-Wide Fellowship to Solve It, Dr. Score Tells

High school graduates were told by Dr. J. N. R. Score last night that "the day when the world was your oyster passed out when the world was started." Doctrines learned prior to that time have had to be unlearned, and "since those days the world has been turned upside down," he said, depicting the necessity of a new outlook by young people who seek to take a place in the world.

Graduates at present, approximately three million in number, are coming into a sadly disorganized society, he declared, a society not even understood by adults. "The responsibility is not that of youth alone, he said, but pointed out that the United States always has been a young man's and a young woman's country, and always will be.

Young Americans always have gone to new frontiers, if not to new lands they have gone to new fields of work, he said. With America now apparently catching up with physical development, he asked the question: "How shall youth find a place in this modern world?"

He told of conditions in European countries where the youth is completely regimented, being trained and ruled similarly to soldiers of the army.

Whatever course the youth of America takes in finding its place, I hope it will not take a place of regimentation," he said.

Dr. Score pointed out that problems of war and peace, problems of food and unemployment, achievements in moral, social and world wide fellowship must be solved by the youth. "A new understanding of the needs of the future must be gained by the youth in taking its place in the world.

"We need to see where we are going and then be on our way," he declared.

Dr. Score's inspirational speech was filled with age-old quotations of Greek, Roman and other early writers, much of their philosophy being applicable today. "A nation is only as great as its youth is great," he quoted from Greek philosophy. He quoted a Roman writer as saying that no young man should be deprived of his birthright, but every youth should have a chance to carve out his own destiny.

There always has been a youth problem, and problems of youth, Dr. Score said, adding that many of the problems were created by the notions of adults.

Youth always has built a new world and always will. What sort of a world is built is the important factor, he said, with each new scheme making humanity go a step forward.

Horses Owned Here Win in Big Show

Horses trained and ridden by Red Eagle, formerly with stables at Midland Fair park, and owned by C. E. Schlessner of Midland and J. E. Bennett, won a large share of ribbons in the Midwest Horse Show held last week at Springfield, Ill.

Both Eagle and Mrs. Eagle showed the horses in various classes. Schlessner, in addition to the show stables which he owns jointly with Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, has a string of polo ponies in training here at present. The Bennetts spent several months here last year while he looked after West Texas oil interests.

Schlessner's stallion, Morning Sun, won first place and was a sensation in five gaited classes. The Arizona Wagon stables, for which Eagle and Mrs. Eagle rode, led all others in the number of places won. Mrs. Eagle attracted much favorable comment in winning the five gaited stake for ladies, riding Mrs. Bennett's horse, Sweet Georgia Brown.

Hamilton Escapes After Gun Battle

TYLER, May 27 (AP).—Federal alcohol tax unit agents and a Tyler city policeman engaged in a running gun-battle here Thursday with Floyd Hamilton and Ted Waters, fugitives from the Montague County jail.

The quarry escaped however, and fled toward Gladewater. Hamilton and Waters were sighted on the public square as they double-parked their automobile.

The agents, W. D. Blackburn and F. O. Goen, who had been in the East Texas oil fields, said they recognized the fugitives. They also knew the license number and description of the car which had been sighted in Henderson.

Blackburn and Goen enlisted the aid of City Policeman K. H. Johnson. The liquor agents were unarmed. Hamilton and his companion saw the officers and fled immediately in the car, firing twice at their pursuers. Neither shot took effect. Johnson returned the fire and said he hit one of the tires on the fugitives' machine.

Disorders Last Through Entire Night

Strike Called After Negotiations Fail To Settle Quarrel

AKRON, Ohio, May 27 (AP).—Three hundred armed policemen forged a ring of steel around the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company plants here today in the wake of a night of looting and sniping in which at least 80 persons were injured.

The disorders reached a height when policemen welded clubs and loosed tear gas into a crowd of 3,000. United rubber workers of the CIO union announced the strike after they said they "got nowhere" in negotiating over claimed grievances.

John House, president of the Goodyear local, announced the strike. Picketing began after a session of the U. R. W. A. Goodyear shop committeemen broke up at the union's East Akron hall.

A union spokesman said a meeting followed a conference with Goodyear officials in which negotiations "got nowhere" on accumulated grievances listed against the company.

Police reported that pickets attempted to stop truck movements in and out of the plant. All such activity ceased on arrival of police squads.

Union officials broadcast radio calls to union members (C. I. O.) to rally at the plant gates.

About 150 pickets were massed at the truck gate and a group tried to stop the first load by standing in front and pushing on the radiator. The first truck broke through and others followed quickly.

Officers Declare Mexico Rebellion To Be Ended Soon

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, May 27 (AP).—Gen. Alfredo Lezama reported Thursday federal fliers methodically were clipping the wings of former Gen. Saturnino Cedillo and his rebels.

General Lezama, head of the government aviation department operating against the Cedillistas, said air bases and gasoline supplies were being destroyed one by one.

Military sources at the same time asserted the rebellion was "no longer a military but merely a police problem." They said it was just a question of time until the bands which revolted May 20 would be cleaned out of the hills.

In Mexico City, the Confederation of Mexican Workers announced it had under consideration a proposal to put everyone of its 1,000,000 members under arms.

Gen. Genovevo Rivas Guillen, whose name was among the candidates submitted to the senate by President Lazaro Cardenas, was named provisional governor of San Luis Potosi.

General Lezama led a six-plane squadron which bombed and machine-gunned an airfield near El Buelo, 93 miles northwest of this provincial capital city yesterday.

He said the airfield covered a considerable area and the attackers scored direct hits on two buildings, both of which exploded. The explosions, he said, signified gasoline and munitions had been stored within.

The general reported he believed the rebels had only one airplane left.

Goodwill trips are being conducted by various West Texas towns at present. Odessans made a trip to the oil fields of Ector, Winkler, Lea and Andrews counties. Midland made a flyer to McCamey. Lamesa had a delegation here yesterday. Colorado and Pecos are touring the country. And all of these delegations seem to be enjoying life immensely. It not only improves acquaintances in the places visited, but also among the boys who make the trips.

Behind the Scenes in Washington

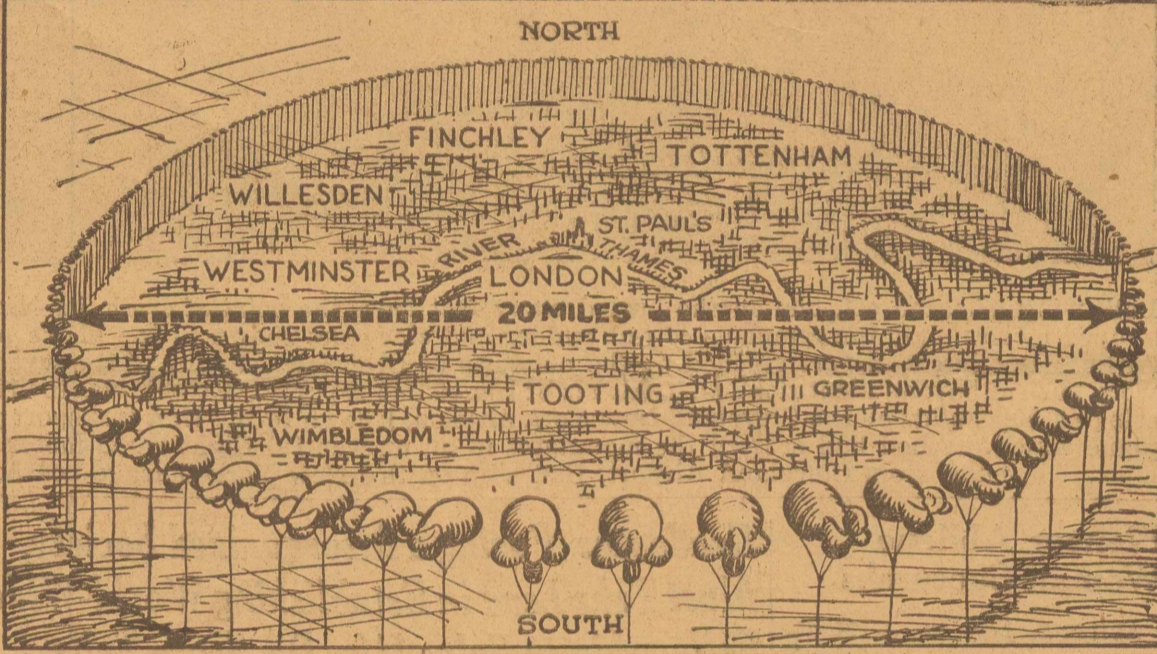

Editor's Note: The opinions expressed in this article are those of Mr. Dufcher, NEA-Reporter-Telegram Washington correspondent, and are not to be construed as expressing the editorial policy of The Reporter-Telegram.
WASHINGTON, May 26. — In view of the government's demand for a Supreme Court rehearing of the Kansas City Stockyards case is that there's another war on between the New Deal and the Court, second in potential importance only to the one in which President Roosevelt took a bad congressional beating last year.
This is only the second time in five years that demand for such a reconsideration has been made. Quite unprecedented has been the action of Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in firing angry letters about the decision at Chief Justice Hughes. Equally unprecedented is some of the strong language used by Solicitor General Robert H. Jackson in taking the Court to task for a decision which he baldly states was "wrongly decided."
Last-Minute Deletion.
EVEN stronger were some of the phrases which appeared in proof sheets of the government brief a few hours before the final, formal version appeared.
"The Court has rendered a decision demonstrably without foundation in the facts of the case," said the proof-sheet version. No pleader before the Court had ever been that bold. At the last minute these words were deleted.
The Kansas City case, also known as the Morgan case, involved rates set by the secretary. The Court voided the rate order, holding commission firms had not been given a fair hearing and emphasizing lack of a trial examiner's report.
Since the Agriculture Department long ago and the NLRB lately have shown it is simple to revise the procedure so as to conform with the Morgan decision, no great issue is involved specifically. Vital long-range questions concern the extent to which the Supreme Court may seek to curtail regulatory and rate-making powers of agencies established by Congress and the belligerency with which the administration is willing to fight such attempts at curtailment.

'Balloon Barrage' Is London's Defense Against Enemy Bombers

Hoping to render London and its environs immune from air attacks during the next European war, Great Britain has devised a balloon barrage defense now being tested by the air ministry. The drawing above shows one possible defensive system—a line of 1100 balloons, attached to lethal cables, and moored at 100-yard intervals encircling the city at a 10-mile radius from the center. Another possibility is a "field sited" barrage, consisting of hundreds of balloons stationed at strategic points within the city limits.

And it has been a long time since the office windows were washed.
But after he had reached the summit—his hand-picked man Geo. Earle in the governor's chair, himself in the Senate and his rights of patronage and other perquisites gratefully recognized by the White House—Joe made the mistake of letting State Chairman Dave Lawrence handle the federal and state patronage while Earle dished out state and federal funds.
And that was why Joe suddenly found himself squeezed out as Number One man, unable to encompass his own nomination or even to make the machine endorse a man of his choice. In alliance with John Lewis and close in at the White House, Guffey is still a power. But he is far from possessing the most powerful bossship in the country. Unknowingly he gave that away.

LONDON. — Enemy planes which seek to rain bombs on London during any future war are going to have to devise some means of beating what appears to be the most effective air raid defense ever thrown around a world capital.
Realizing that the sky will be one of the major battlegrounds of the next war, the British air ministry is perfecting an intricate and strategic system to keep deadly-dealing bombers away from London. Fundamental unit of the defense plan is the military balloon—1,100 of them, in fact, which will be strung aloft on lethal cables capable of destroying any airplane which comes in contact with them.
The air ministry intends to encircle London with these balloons—or spot them strategically over the city—thereby forming a death-dealing "fence" of cables stretching upward possibly as high as 25,000 feet. The balloons will be raised and lowered on winches mounted on huge army trucks, thereby making it possible to shift their position on short notice. The cables attached to the balloons are so thin that they cannot be seen from an attacking airplane, even in broad daylight. Charged with electricity, they would be capable of disabling any plane that touches them.
A fence of such cables, 300 feet apart, would make it so risky to attempt to fly over the city that it is believed few enemy pilots would take the chance.
Consider, for instance, the chances of piercing the fence with one of the modern bombing planes with a wing spread of 150 feet. Obviously, the nose of the plane could not come closer than 75 feet to any cable without the wings becoming entangled.
In the 300 feet between any two cables, therefore, there would be 150 feet in which a pilot could not put the nose of his plane. If he happened to hit the middle 150 feet he would go through unscathed. His chances, therefore, would be only fifty-fifty. And if he managed to get through the fence and drop his bombs over London, he still would have to go back the same way and his odds would thereby be reduced still further.
If the balloons were spotted over the city in a "field sited" barrage, an attacking bomber wouldn't even even be safe after he had pierced the outside fringe.
One role of the balloon barrage is to force attacking planes to high altitude. This reduces accuracy of the bombs and makes attackers vulnerable to defending planes.

Mrs. Garrett Is Hostess to Palette Club on Thursday

For the second consecutive year, Mrs. Mary Gossett entertained members of the Palette club at her home, 210 South O street, Thursday, this year's social-taking the form of a chicken luncheon and all-day meeting. The hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. D. B. Snider, plans to make the entertainment one of the traditional events of the club's yearly calendar.

Feminine Fancies

Numberless suggestions as to how to stay cool, "crisp looking," and dainty no matter how the mercury misbehaves are offered to modern business girls and housewives during these days.

The importance of looking cool as a part of the program to feel cool is also mentioned.

We heartily approve of plentiful baths, scented bath powders or cologne, thin dresses, and white accessories for the hottest days.

Maybe we're lacking in imagination but somehow none of these aids nor any collection of them has ever been able to offset a soaring thermometer—so far as our personal awareness of hot weather goes.

Eggplant's a Vegetable That Many Men Like

Slices of eggplant, fried golden brown... we've known many a man to wax lyrical over them. And no wonder, for eggplant does have flavor. Next time you serve this vegetable add tomato sauce as a last spicy touch. It's grand!

Eggplant Sauté with Tomato Sauce.

1 medium sized eggplant
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup flour
1 egg with 2 tablespoons water added
1/4 cup fine bread crumbs

Pare eggplant. Cut into 3/8-inch slices crosswise. Dredge the eggplant slices in the flour (combined with salt and pepper); then dip into the egg and water mixture and then dredge with fine bread crumbs. Cook the eggplant in melted hot fat about 1/2 inch deep in a sauté pan. A medium-sized eggplant makes from 12-14 slices.

Tomato Sauce.

Heat condensed tomato soup just as it comes from the can and serve it hot with the golden brown slices of eggplant.

Suytar's Homer in Ninth Gives the Cards 3-2 Win Over Big Spring Club

A booming home run from the bat of big Jake Suytar broke a four game losing streak of the Midland Cardinals last night, and the Big Spring Barons were the victims.

It was the last half of the ninth inning and two men were out when Suytar got the rap that gave the home club a 3-2 victory.

Tommy Warren went all the way for the Cardinals and was in rare form, giving the visitors only three hits and one earned run. He struck out four men and walked three in hanging up his fourth win of the season, one more than any other Cardinal hurler can boast of.

Keller almost matched Warren's efforts, giving the Cards only five hits and one earned run but he ruined a good effort when he got one in too fat to Suytar in the ninth.

The Cardinals got a couple of breaks in the fifth inning and turned them into two runs to take a lead that lasted until the seventh. After two men were out, Dosoorian doubled; Warren got his second single of the night and Dosoorian scored when Hodges' throw from center to the plate was high and wide, Warren racing all the way to third. The Stolen base, Suytar, runs batted in, Suytar, Sparito, Hit by pitcher, Ballinger by Keller. Double plays, Warren to Battle to Beers, Sparito to Seibert to Hobson, Walks, Warren 3, Keller 1. Longhorns, Aggies Place Most Men on SW Baseball Team

COLLEGE STATION. — The champion University of Texas Longhorns and the third place Texas Aggies hog honors on All-Southwest Conference baseball teams selected by the six coaches.

The mentors agreed unanimously on only two players, Tommy Fine, Baylor pitcher, and Leroy Westerman, Longhorn outfielder, and nominated a total of 61 players for spots on the honor nine. Longhorn Jack Conway missed being a unanimous selection at shortstop by one vote.

If the second team wanted to play a game it would have to argue with the first club about a first baseman. Longhorn John Hill and Aggie Bob Williams each received three first team and three second team votes.

Aside from the first sacking job the balloting was closest for the second-best catcher, Joyce Rave of the Longhorns, Charley Kirkpatrick of the Aggies and Frank Steen of the Owls tying. Rave drew down the other first team berth because he polled more first team votes than Kirkpatrick or Steen.

Southpat John Garnett, lanky Longhorn who led the conference in games won; Harry Cohn, Aggie left-hander; and J. C. Wofford, Southern Methodist sophomore, complete the pitching staff.

Coaches participating in the voting included W. J. Ditch, University of Texas; Morley Jennings, Baylor; Marty Karow, Texas A&M; Howard Grubbs, Texas Christian; and Cecil Griggs, Rice.

First Lady's Pet Project Awaits FDR Visit

May 27 Set for Inspection of West Virginia Homestead Which Houses 900 Persons, Once Unemployed Miners

By NEA Service.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va.—President Roosevelt is about to visit for the first time a federal project which has claimed much of his wife's attention for five years.

When he steps from a train here on Friday, May 27, for an inspection tour en route to Hyde Park, N. Y., he will get his first glimpse of the Arthurdale Community, a $2,000,000 homesteading project financed by the Farm Security Administration and actively sponsored by the First Lady.

The President will be welcomed by most of the 900 inhabitants, once unemployed mining families, now working people whose village contains every modern living advantage.

He will see the 165 bungalow residence units now completed, each boasting of a home, a combination barn and poultry shelter, and approximately three acres of land, each boasting heating facilities, running water, modern plumbing, and electricity.

Families occupy the property under a temporary leasing agreement which is effective pending the fixing of a price each family will pay. The regular rental payments, ranging from $7.50 to $11.50 per month, depending on the type of house, will apply on the purchase price. The families buy their own fuel, food, clothing and electricity.

30 men whose wares have been shipped to every state and several foreign countries. Here porch furniture, kitchen equipment, pewter and wrought iron ware, and other house furnishings are manufactured.

Two privately owned factories also operate in Arthurdale. The Phillips-Jones shirt factory has been in production since last autumn with a payroll of 26 local women. The Electric Vacuum Cleaner Company's assembling plant will put 30 men back to work when it resumes operations soon.

The President will view the 600-acre general farm which yields fruit, vegetables, and grains for market, the poultry farm, the dairy whose 30 registered Jerseys provide milk for the community, the general store, barber shop, grist mill, auto service station, and motion picture theater—all managed by the homesteaders.

F. D. R. Will Dedicate Hotel.

The Arthurdale Inn, a 20-room hotel of native stone, will be officially opened by the President. The Completed and ready for dedication by the President is Arthurdale Inn, pictured above, a 20-room hotel built on the site of the old Arthur farmhouse. It is constructed of native stone, as are 46 of the 165 houses built for the homesteaders.

YANKEE STAR ISN'T MAD AT ANYBODY; ONLY TRYING TO GET ALL HE CAN GET; YOUNG—HOW ABOUT SHIRLEY TEMPLE?

BY HARRY GRAYSON.
Sports Editor, NEA Service.

Joe Di Maggio is hearing the Bronx cheer, but he says, "Oh let 'em boo. A few more base hits will straighten it out."

In the turmoil, and despite the fact that he reported late, and had no training, DiMaggio has shriveled to a batting average of .390.

"Are you satisfied?" I asked the picture hitter.

"No," he replied. "No more than you would be satisfied if you were writing stories and books worth $40,000 a year while you were collecting $25,000.

"And why should I be satisfied?"

"The Yankees finished second for three years before I came to them. I believe that any sound baseball man will agree that I had a lot to do with their winning two American League pennants and as many world championships.

"I believed I was worth $40,000, and I haven't seen anything since to cause me to change my mind."

DiMaggio, up from the ranks, understands the fans' side.

"Times being what they are," he observes, "guys sit up there and think: 'There's a big bum crabbin' about taking $25,000 a year, and we can't even get $1,000.

Shirley Temple Doing Well.

"But they aren't playing ball, are they?"

"They say I'm too young to be getting $40,000, and that I haven't been in the league long enough. Well, Shirley Temple isn't so old, and she's doing all right. Jack Dempsey was an old man when he broke into big money, and nobody beefed about what he collected. Joe Louis is still this side of 50, and he's done fairly well for a kid.

"I'm just taking care that Joe DiMaggio doesn't wind up like Jackie Coogan, if that what they say is true about Coogan. There's another case for you. Coogan couldn't get too much some time before he was of age, but his parents collected millions for him while he was a child.

"Now, I'm not a child, and I'd like to get it while the gettin's good. Nobody's going to give me a quarter to play baseball when I'm 40."

"And suppose I get hurt?"

"What difference does it make how old you are when you deliver?"

"By the time I hit the second home run in St. Louis the other day, they didn't have a word to say.

Greeting President Roosevelt when he arrives in Arthurdale to inspect the Farm Security Administration's homesteading project will be the sign pictured above at the right. Arthurdale residents, many of whom were unemployed because of coal mine shutdowns before the project was started, are proud of their little community and the homes, such as pictured at left, which the government is allowing them to purchase on small monthly payments spread over many years. Some of the houses are of native stone, some of frame construction.

clothing and electricity. 30 men whose wares have been shipped to every state and several foreign countries. Here porch furniture, kitchen equipment, pewter and wrought iron ware, and other house furnishings are manufactured.

The PAYOFF

The following poetry (?) was written by the sports editor of the Hobbs News-Sun after he had covered the game Tuesday night between Hobbs and Wink. The city editor of the paper reports the sports editor was taken to the "bug house" immediately after concocting the following:

I'm winking and I'm blinking,
And I still don't think I see.
The score of that thar baseball game
Was twenty-three to three!

Now three to three is quite a score,
Thirteen to three would be ten more.
But gee whiz, gosh, and holy gee!
That score was twenty-three to three.

The Boosters played at Wink last night—
And mister, I mean played!
And, speaking in a slangy tongue:
The Spudders were plumb splayed!

Now, stacked above a score of three,
Most any score would give me glee;
But the Boosters really went to town—
That twenty-three just gets me down.

They got five runs in inning two,
And seven more in three.
They skipped the fourth, got two in five,
And let the sixth go free.

But when I get to number seven,
I pause and raise my eyes to Heaven.
For they never stopped their spree till eight
Hobbs runners slid across the plate!

They drew a blank in number eight,
And scored one run in nine.
And if my calculator works,
That total's right in line.

The Spudders scored just once in one,
Two more in nine—and they were done.
But, Gentle Reader, did you see
That score?—IT'S TWENTY-THREE TO THREE!

I could get. I don't believe that it would have made any difference to Colonel Ruppert whether the Yankees had gone badly without me. He'd just made up his mind to let me sit."

DiMaggio is Exhibit A for the contention that spring training is overdue.

He bounced right into the lineup after a few hours of batting practice.

But players like DiMaggio require little rehearsing.

If you disagree, try to pitch a third strike by DiMaggio, or take an extra base on a ball hit to center field. He isn't mad at anybody.

Take my word for it. He's still the high class kid who entered the

'Tombstone' Tourney Will Be Held at the Country Club Course

A "tombstone" tournament, described by club professional Sherm Ellworthy as something new and different, will be held at the Country Club course Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

There will be three divisions and golfers will be placed according to their handicaps. The first division will be from scratch to 7 handicap, the second from 8 to 15 handicap and the third will be from 15 to 27 handicap. Handicaps will be based on those set for players during the Ellis Cowden handicap tournament last winter, as much as possible.

An entry fee of 50 cents will be charged and golfers may enter as many times as they desire. Three golf balls will be awarded the winner of each division, with the next three men getting two, one and one golf balls each.

Ellworthy left today for Dallas where he will attempt to qualify for the National Open, to be held in Denver later in the summer. The tournament here will be handled by Lee Cairns, assistant club professional.

Horse-Tail Thief Busy In Canadian Farm Area

REGINA, Sask. (UP)—The horse-tail thief of the Wynyard, Sask., district is busy again.

D. McGregor, Wynyard farmer, tied his team of horses behind a store. He returned in 15 minutes to find the tails of both animals had been cut off.

"Take one," he said and walked away.

The friend read: "A belated Christmas present."

Said Glotter by way of explanation: "Saves me about 50,000 words a day."

The Quints are Four--See How Serious They Look at Things --

YVONNE The "big sister" of the quint, Yvonne is the motherly type and takes great joy in doing little things for her sisters. When they fall, she is there to help them up; when they can't comb their hair correctly, she will do it for them. She is probably the most considerate of adults, too. When older visitors come, she opens the door and takes care of the hats and coats.	MARIE Still the smallest one of the quint, Marie generally tries to do the biggest things—such as pulling the other four in a wagon or building the tallest structure of blocks. And although she is also the liveliest, Marie still likes to play by herself much of the time. Marie gained almost as much in height and weight last year as her sisters.	EMILIE Most religious of the five is Emilie. When flowers bloom around the nursery she gathers some every day and places them on the little altar in the quint's bedroom. But Emilie is also rather mischievous and something of a collector. She picks up pieces of wood, string, pebbles and leaves and carries them around in her pockets—just like a little boy.	CECILE Prankster of the family is Cecile, and right now she is also something of the family flirt—although she has no monopoly on either of these traits. Nearly always perfectly behaved, Cecile is nevertheless of a rather independent spirit and will speak her mind on occasion. Many people think that she is a bit the prettiest of the five. What do you think?	ANNETTE If any of the Misses Dionne wins fame as a dancer it will probably be Annette. She is particularly graceful in her bearing and is better than her sisters at the herpiorean art, especially the minuet. Annette also has a very good ear for music and usually can sing a song all the way through after hearing it played only once or twice on the nursery piano.
