

Slated For Aug. 14, 15, 16 --

Planning Continues For 6th Annual BTD

Plans are rapidly taking shape for Bovina's sixth annual Bull Town Days celebration. Slated for August 14, 15, and 16, open jack-pot calf roping will kick off the weekend at 1 p.m., Thursday, August 14. This will be followed by boys calf riding contests, Admission is $1 and 50 cents, and Robert Calaway will be in charge.

On the same day, James Roach and Charles Smith will supervise men's and women's cow calling at 6 p.m.

The beard-growing contest will be judged at 6:30. Shave permits may be purchased from Darrel Read.

The queens' contest will be judged at 7 p.m. in the Roping Arena. All interested girls are encouraged to enter. Mrs. Roger Ezell is in charge of the contest.

Girls must be between the ages of 14 and 21, never married, and pay a $3 entry fee. Judging will be based 60 per cent on horsemanship, 40 per cent on personality, appearance, and beauty. Entrants must wear blue jeans, a white shirt, and a straw hat during the competition, but they may wear colorful western outfits at the queen presentation.

The BTD Queen and awards for the afternoon's contests will be presented at the Variety Show, Bovina Schools Auditorium, at 8:30 p.m. Admission will be $1 per family.

The second day of the festivities will feature a Chuck Wagon Breakfast at Bovina Gin, 7-9 a.m. Wayne Spears and Vernon Estes will be in charge of it.

The Old-Timers Reunion follows from 10 a.m. until noon in downtown Bovina. The Bovina Women's Study Club will be in charge of this activity.

Horsemanship activities, and eight-man Pony Express race and a downtown parade will fill the afternoon.

Friday afternoon, August 15, at 6 p.m., free barbeque will be served in downtown Bovina. Wood for the massive cook-out will be hauled from the Eastern Panhandle by the Young Farmers. Chief cooks will be Mutt Graham and R. L. Hopingardner.

Presentation of awards for the day's contests will be at 8:15 in downtown Bovina. Afterwards, a square dance contest and downtown square dance, supervised by Pat Kunselman, and a teenage dance in the American Legion Hall, under the direction of Marle Venable, will end the second Bull Town Day.

Saturday morning, August 16, will be the ninth annual Bovina Roping Club Quarter Horse Show. Judging begins at 10 a.m. in the roping arena.

At 4 p.m., the Bovina Bull Statue on Highway 60 will be dedicated. The statue will accompany a historical marker dedicated at last year's Bull Town Days. The marker and statue commemorated the founding of Bovina as a station on the XIT ranch. Jack McCracken is organizing the ceremony.

Ending the three-day celebration will be a fiddler's contest offering three cash prizes of $50, $35, and $15. Pearl Singleterry and Al Kerby are planning the contest.

Bovina School's Ex-Students Banquet will be at 7 p.m. in the school cafeteria. Mrs. Billy Smith, secretary-treasurer of Ex-Students, describes the banquet as "one of the best." Mr. and Mrs. Buck Ellison are presidents of the association.

A western dance from 9 p.m. to midnight will bring Bull Town Days to a close. The dance will be in the American Legion Hall. Chairman for Bull Town Days is Wendol Christian. This is his second year to head the activities.

Carnival rides at the baseball field are scheduled for the week following Bull Town Days, Monday through Saturday, August 18-23.

Roping Club Wins Third At Earth

Bovina Roping Club placed third in competition at the Earth Rodeo Parade last week.

There were eight entries, and 12 riders from Bovina participated.

The next appearance for the Club will be tomorrow (Thursday) in Tulsa.

The riders plan to leave Bovina Restaurant at 2:30, for the 5 p.m. parade.

Present Audit In Short Council Meet

Bovina's City Council met last week, in a meeting shortened by threatening weather. Councilmen present were Billie Sudrher, Lloyd Gober, Charles Corn, Vernon Willard, and City Secretary Mary Ruth Martin.

The city audit for the fiscal year ending April 30 was presented by H. H. DeLozier and John McMillan.

The meeting "adjourned early because of such a cloud," said Mrs. Martin. Parmer County was under a tornado alert at that time.

WHITTILIN

By DOLPH MOTEN

Construction of the Bovina bull statue is coming along according to schedule.

We got that encouraging report this week from Cash Richards, who is sort of the liaison man between Bovina and the builder of the bull in Lubbock, who is a son of Richards' nephew. His name is James Richards.

The original deal was for the bull statue to be ready for mounting in Bovina by the end of July and Cash says there's no doubt in his mind but what that deadline will be met.

The bull statue will be life-size or maybe some larger depending on your conception of how big a life-size bull is. He'll have a concrete-like, sculptured finish and his breed will be a cross between a Whiteface and a Longhorn, more or less, according to our understanding. The idea is to have the kind of bull that was used on Plains ranches back in the early days. Hereford bulls became popular later on, but at the time of the original XIT days and Bovina's beginning there probably wasn't enough purebred bulls to go around and some hybrids were used in the successful effort to improve the Longhorn-type cattle.

Anyway, the Bovina bull has a metal construction and is made of pretty sturdy stuff, according to our informant. The horns spread will be in the neighborhood of 40 inches, which isn't long by Longhorn standards, but is longer than that sported by most modern bulls.

We didn't find out about his coloring in our conversation with Cash. We weren't sure that he knew just what color the bull will be so we hesitated to ask.

It was good, though, to get such a definite answer in regard to when the bull will be completed and ready for mounting on his "bull stool" on Highway 60, midway through Bovina. The historical marker, which will be a part of the bull business, is already in place and being viewed by tourists and residents alike.

Vandals can tear up something as sturdy as an anvil, needless to say, but it's good to learn that the construction of the Bovina bull will be sturdy enough to discourage faint-hearted vandals, at least. We suspect, too, that he'll be heavy enough and secured to his "stool" well enough to completely discourage practical jokers from neighboring communities.

If we're proven wrong, we'll stand corrected.

Bovina Roping Club will pay for the cost of the bull's construction and mounting and this is certainly a worthwhile project for the organization, according to our way of thinking. We've forgotten at the moment just how much the cost will be, but it is enough that some people thought about training a real live bull to stand on the site instead of having a statue made. They just thought about it, understand, and no serious offers along this line were ever officially made. They wouldn't have been accepted anyway.

A time has been set on the 1969 Bull Town Days schedule for dedication of the bull statue. Jack McCracken, a former resident who now lives across the state line over in New Mexico and who was one of the original BTD leaders, will be in charge of the dedication.

The time set is 4 p.m. Saturday---August 16. This will be after the horse show and prior to the beginning of the fiddlers contest, which is scheduled this year for 5 p.m. Saturday afternoon.

There's a move a'foot, we've learned from Bedford Caldwell, mayor of Our Town, to get our insurance key rate lowered. This key rate is an involved system whereby the state determines how much insurance the residents of individual cities pay. The rate is lowered, supposedly, by meeting certain standards set up by the state in regard to fire-fighting facilities and elimination of fire hazards.

Bovina's present key rate is 41 cents. The first thing that must be done before this rate is lowered is that the city must have dual 500 gallon per minute water pumps at its main water station. Presently, we have one 500 gpm pump and one 350 gpm pump. Cost of changing over could be as much as $2000, Caldwell believes, and it could be less.

This wouldn't be too much, however, and won't be, if assurance from the state office is forthcoming that compliance with the technicality would be

Board Promotes DiCuffa --

Templeton, Roberts Resign As Principals

Two principals of Bovina Schools have resigned.

Accepted at a regular monthly meeting of the school district's board of trustees Monday night were the resignations of Tom Templeton, elementary principal, and Richard Roberts, junior high principal and high school math instructor.

Wilson DiCuffa, who has taught a fifth and sixth grade section for the past two years, was named elementary principal by the board in the Monday night session.

Also, the board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Coleen Axe as high school and junior high English teacher.

Templeton, who has served as elementary principal here for the past three years, has accepted a position as chemistry instructor in Stephenville High School. He said that he was interested in returning to the section of the state of which he is a native ---- his hometown is Dublin---and also he wanted to live in a college town so his wife could complete her degree. Tarleton State College is located at Stephenville. He came here from Hereford.

Roberts has accepted the position of high school principal

As Of June 30 --

Bank Deposits Slightly Higher

Total deposits for the First State Bank of Bovina as of June 30 were $2,253,029.53, slightly higher than last year's mark. The statement of financial conditions was recently released by the bank.

Deposits last year at this time were $2,127,933.64. This mark was down somewhat from the 1967 reading of $2,155,307.77.

Total loans for the fiscal year just completed registered $1,680,029.79, a substantial increase over the $1,406,384.27 mark of last year. Loans during fiscal 1967 were $1,562,283.89.

The bank's official statement of condition appears elsewhere in this week's issue of The Blade.

Wreck Injures Bovina Man At Friona

A Bovina man was injured and his car demolished in an accident at Friona early Tuesday morning.

James Cooper was taken to Amarillo's Northwest Hospital suffering from lacerations, abrasions and a broken leg.

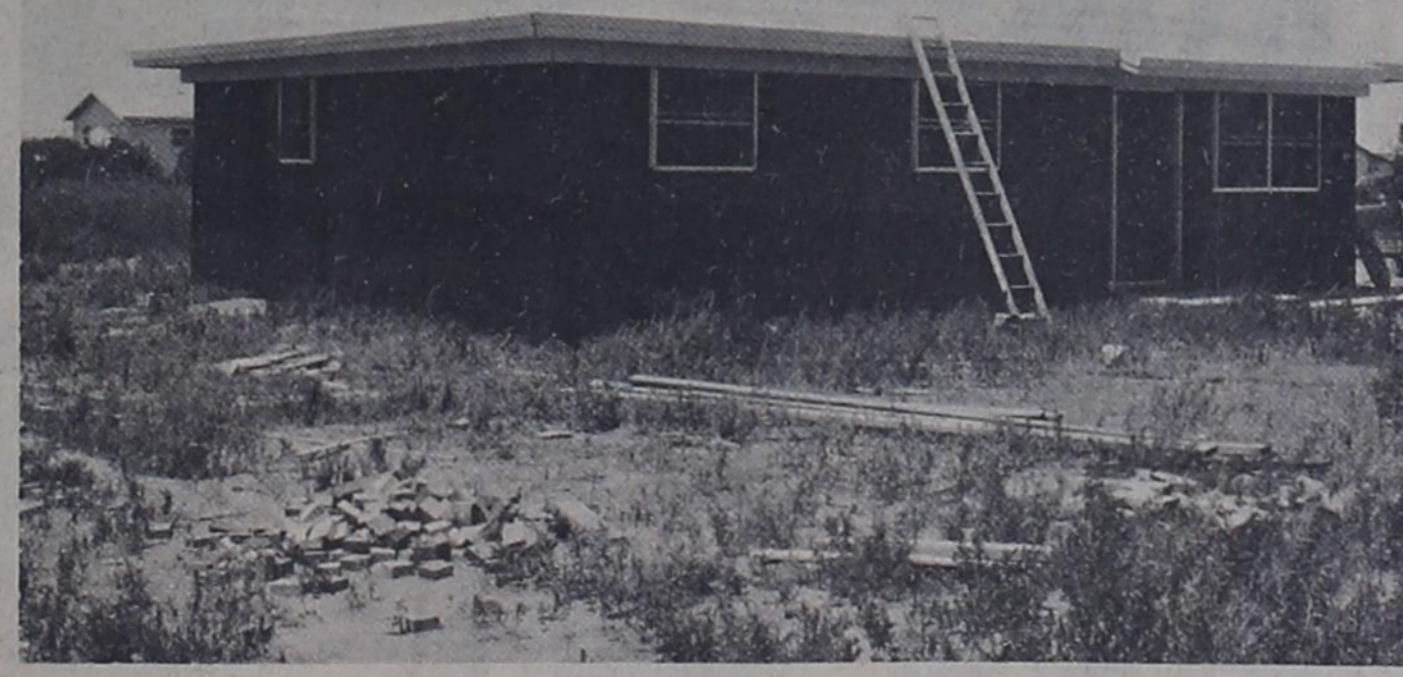

Claude McDowell, Friona, the other driver involved, was still being treated at Parmer County Community Hospital at press time.

The collision was at the intersection of U. S. Highway 60 and Etta Streets in Friona. Friona police described it as "nearly head-on."

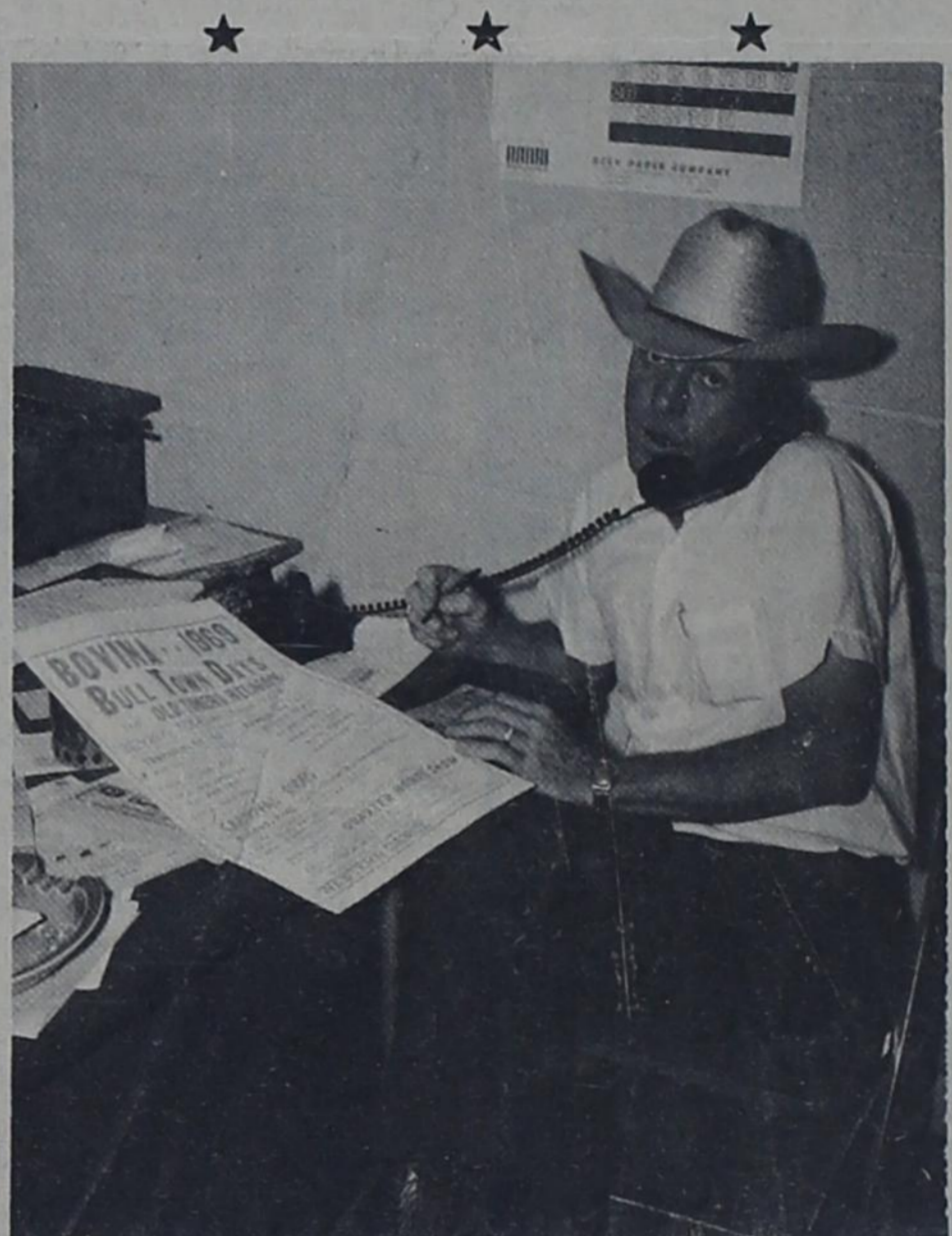

The vehicles involved, a car and pick-up truck, were both "totaled," said Friona policeman.

TAKING SHAPE ---- Being rapidly constructed is this FHA-financed house on Eighth Street in Bovina. The three-bedroom brick house will be the home of the Louis Serna family when it is completed. At least two more such homes are expected to be constructed here soon. Loans of 100 per cent are available to those who qualify for the houses which are in the $10,000 price range through the office of FHA supervisor Bill Boling in Farwell.

BULL TOWN DAYS CHAIRMAN ---- Wendol Christian, who is general chairman of Bull Town Days for the second consecutive year, is busily arranging details of the annual community celebration with other leaders of the event. Previous BTD chairmen in its five-year history have been Jack McCracken and C. E. Trimble.

Redge Priest --

Bovina Feeders Name Manager

A manager for Bovina Feeders, Inc., a new feedlot being built 14 miles southeast of Bovina, has been named, Leon Grissom, president of the board of directors of the new organization announced this week.

He is Redge Priest of Florence. Priest has been in the cattle business in Central Texas for the past several years.

The new manager plans to move here with his wife and two young children "around the first of August."

"We're extremely happy to get a man with Priest's qualifications to work with us in the new feedlot," Grissom said. "He has a life-time of cattle experience and comes to us highly recommended."

The new feedlot, which is presently under construction, will have an initial capacity of some 20,000 head. If work continues on the scheduled plan, the new lot will be feeding cattle by Fall. Priest will assist in building the feedlot when he begins his duties here early next month.

The lot will feature the early harvest method of using grain sorghum instead of steam flaking through a mill. Milo will be purchased when it contains approximately 30 per cent moisture, ground and stored in silos until it is used. Plans call for the grain to be delivered direct from farms to the feedlot.

LAKE ROAD ---- Offering proof that there has been more rainfall than usual in the area this year is this water-filled county, all-weather(?) road located a mile east of FM Road 1731 three miles south of Bovina. The road is considered a permanent one and hadn't been overrun by the lake at right for any length of time in years. Rains during the past few weeks, however, have crowded the lake out of its banks and made the road unusable. This view is looking south.

TEN YEARS AGO
 July 15, 1959
 The Bovina City Commission set July 31 as the date for a public hearing on proposed zoning regulations.

Bovina Schools' Board of Trustees met in a regular meeting, appointed three men to the equalization board, authorized coaches to attend coaching schools, and agreed to renew teacher salary scale.

Bovina Volunteer Firemen agreed to buy five bunker suits, overalls, and caps.

Vo-Ag instructor Roy Crawford and three students, Arnold Kriegel, Jerry Rigdon, and Duane Rea, attended the State FFA Convention in Austin.

A rash of car thefts has plagued authorities in the area. Youth Activities Week begins in the Methodist Church. Bovina's Little League team defeated Friona, 17-9.

Parmer County wheat growers will join with those the nation over July 23 to vote on whether quotas will be in effect for the coming year. Sherley Grain will be the polling place in Bovina.

National Farm Safety Week has been designated for July 19-25 by the Texas Farm Safety Council.

Leans defeated Fats in a debated, protested, rematch softball game. Winning pitcher was Glenden Sudderth, losing, Bob Wills.

smaller insurance premiums for Bovina residents.

According to the rules from Austin that we're now playing under, the key rate can't be dropped below 41 cents until this situation is remedied. Once it is, though, there's a good possibility that still more reductions could be forthcoming.

Certainly we need all the discounts we're entitled to and need to qualify ourselves for all that we possibly can.

Some progress has been made down through the years, though. When we first heard of this key rate business, which we still don't know much about, Bovina's was 97 cents instead of the present 41.

Maybe with a little work and some improvements the rate can be shoved on down to 30 cents or less.

MRS. TOM (REBA) BONDS

Cook's Corner

The second stellar cook to offer easy recipes for quick summer serving is Mrs. Tom (Reba) Bonds. Born in Arkansas and reared in Clovis, Reba is the wife of the owner and operator of Bonds Oil Company. The Bonds have lived in Bovina 16 years and have two children, Tommy Keith, 15, and Michelle, 12.

Reba has been a Brownie leader and is Mother Advisor for the Rainbow Girls. She offers three of her family's favorite recipes, except, she adds, "Tom doesn't really care for weiners."

REFRIGERATOR ROLLS

- 1 egg
  - 1/4 cup shortening
  - 1/2 cup sugar
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 2 cups lukewarm water
  - 2 packages dry yeast
  - 6-7 cups of flour
- Mix ingredients and oil dough on all sides before letting rise 1 1/2 to 2 hours, before baking. Bake at 400 degrees except when baking in loaf, then at 375. Cover top with butter to prevent hardening. For loaf, bake on low rack in oven.

PLAIN BUTTER CAKE AND GLAZE

- 2 sticks whipped oleo
- 1 2/3 cups sugar
- 5 eggs
- 2 cups cake flour -- must be cake flour
- 2 teaspoons butter flavoring
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Cream oleo and sugar, add eggs one at a time. Beat well after each egg, add flour and flavoring. Cook in greased and floured fluted tube pan for 1-1 1/4 hours at 350 degrees. (Grease and flour pan heavily.)

GLAZE

- 1/2 cup boiling water
  - 1 cup sugar
  - 1 teaspoon butter flavoring
  - 2 teaspoons vanilla
- Cook just long enough to melt sugar. Add butter flavoring and vanilla. Pour over cake while still hot.

BAR-B-Q WEINERS

- 2-4 tablespoon chopped onion
  - 2 tablespoons salad oil or fat
  - 1 clove garlic, chopped
  - 1 tablespoon sugar
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard
  - 1 pound -- 8-10 weiners
  - dash pepper
  - 3/4 cup catsup
  - 1/4 cup lemon juice
  - 3/4 cup water
  - 2 teaspoons worcestershire sauce
  - 1/4 teaspoon liquid smoke
- Cook onion in salad oil until tender but not brown. Add remaining ingredients except weiners and simmer for 5 minutes. Score weiners diagonally. Add to sauce and simmer 10-15 minutes longer. Remove garlic. Makes 4-5 servings.

4-H Review Here Thursday

The Parmer County 4-H Dress Review will be Thursday, July 17 in the Community Room of the First State Bank of Bovina.

Beginning at 2 p.m., the annual review will include three Bovina 4-H'ers. Arlene Magness will compete in second year competition, Audrey Magness, third year, and Ute Blaylock, fourth year.

To be eligible for competition, girls must have had one year of sewing instruction. "I don't have anyone in first-year, this year," said instructor and organizational leader Mrs. O. W. Magness.

In addition to instruction in sewing, participants must complete a garment and turn-in records of the cost of material.

"They learn something new each year," said Mrs. Magness. "Maybe they'll learn to put in a zipper, one year, and make buttonholes the next."

In the past, girls were required to make a dress, skirt, or blouse. This year, however, they could make anything they wanted, and choose their own patterns. "Audrey and Arlene will probably model pant suits," added Mrs. Magness.

Judges for the review will be homemaking teachers and home demonstration agents from other counties.

"It's hard to say how many will participate," Mrs. Magness said. "This year we'll have the modeling and dress review at the same time, instead of separately. It's also in the afternoon."

CHILDHOOD NOSEBLEEDS ARE COMMON

The three most frequent reasons for a child's nosebleed are a dryness of the mucous membranes, rubbing or picking at the nose during sleep and a small ulcer area in the nose. If repeated often, consult a physician.

Often the problem can be corrected by improving the humidification in the home and the application of white petroleum jelly to the inside of the nostrils to prevent dryness. If needed your doctor can, in a simple procedure, cauterize a small ulcerated area.

"Those were the days, Buford! When I was a young missionary to a quiet peaceful tribe of head-hunting savages in South Borneo!"

Several weeks ago, there was a series of programs on television about the generation gap existing in the United States today. If there was one thing brought out in this series, it is that a generation gap does exist, and that in many ways, it is quite serious.

The one thing that worries me about this gap is that there is such an emotional charge about it. I personally am not distressed about the lack of agreement between parents and their children. This has been going on for the past 2400 years. What does cause concern is that there seems to be a certain violence of position, a certain rigidity that causes something like hate to exist between the generations. This strikes me as being absurd, or rather, sad. This nation is in terrible straits when it becomes fashionable for one generation to hate another. There is something downright evil about parents who hate their children and children who hate their parents.

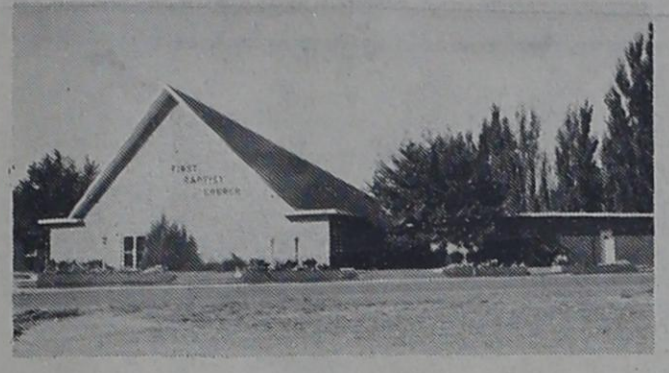

This situation can give us all cause for thought. As Christians, we are dedicated to the love of one another. We are dedicated to the unifying of mankind into one people, a people of God. Because of war, racial strife, hatred, and this serious generation gap, it would not be too rash to say that the Christian churches and individual Christians have failed miserably. Let us realize our errors and begin to correct them.

Farmers Face 'Enemy' Litter

Litter is almost as bitter an enemy of conservation farmers and ranchmen as erosion, a local conservation leader said this week.

Gary A. Batte, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, said that was why his office and the Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District were joining the Beautify Texas Council in helping focus public attention on the statewide litter problem. The council recently asked Texans to renew anti-litter efforts this summer.

"Too many people still litter our countryside with bottles, cans, and other trash," Batte said. "This not only mars the beauty of our rural lands, but when it collects on farm or grassland, it can also become a conservation problem."

Batte listed several ways litter is a conservation menace. First, it is a fire hazard. He pointed out that under certain conditions, bottles had been blamed with magnifying the sun's rays enough to start costly grass and forest fires. Every year, countless wildlife and livestock are poisoned by litter thrown in pastures and fields. Others are starved or injured when they get their heads or feet caught in bottles, cans, and other trash.

The conservationist also said that litter hinders farming and ranching operations. It can pollute ponds and streams, killing fish, and catch water, increasing mosquitoes, and becoming a health problem. It can be a safety hazard, costing millions to pick up every year. Besides that, he said, it's ugly.

"Conservation farmers and ranchmen do as much to help beautify Texas as anyone," Batte added. "Neatly contoured fields, well-managed grasslands and woodlands, sediment-free ponds, lakes, and streams, sloped and seeded gullied areas; all this and other work done by conservation farmers adds to the beauty of the landscape. The least the rest of us can do is put our litter in a trash can instead of throwing it on the land to mar this beauty," he said.

Four From Bovina -- Scouts Return From N.M. Camp

Four Bovina Boy Scouts returned Saturday from a week's camping at Camp Wehnhapay, near Sacramento, N.M.

The scouts, members of Bovina Troop 202, left Farwell Sunday with members of Texico-Farwell Troop 200. The Texico-Farwell troop recently bought and refinished a bus for camping and traveling.

Bovina scouts attending were Robert Tienda, Mike Spears, Tommy Bonds and Jose Bazudula.

Activities at the camp included working on merit badges. "We got about three-fourths of one merit badge finished," commented Spears.

During the week, a forest ranger addressed the campers and discussed fire prevention and safety.

About 144 boys were at the camp. Nineteen attended from Texico-Farwell and Bovina.

Troop 200 won first place in Heaving-bar competition at the Friday contests and camping skill competition. The heaving-bar contest consists of a three-boy team raising a log to the height of a bar, and tying it, so it is secure. The object is to secure the log as quickly as possible. Bovina Troop 202 won second place, behind Farwell.

Principals Resign --

vice president of the board. Steelman had held the position prior to his resignation. Steelman resigned from the board last month because his wife will be a member of the faculty during the forthcoming school year. Lawrence Jamerson is board president.

Prices of meals in the school cafeterias were increased five cents "across the board." Lunch prices are now 40 cents for students in grades one through five, 45 cents for students in grades six through 12 and 50 cents for adults.

Some four vacancies now exist on the faculty, Superintendent L. F. Jacobs says.

Board members inspected remodeling work which is being done this summer on the athletic fieldhouse. Also, plans were discussed to enlarge the vo-ag shop by taking out a partition between the shop and a music room.

Plans for the school budget were discussed. The budget for the '69-'70 school year will be approved at the August meeting, which is scheduled for the 18th.

School officials ask that people do not ride horses on school lawns. Some damage has been done to lawns at the main school building and at Ridgelea Elementary by horses, Jacobs says, and the cooperation of horsebackers in keeping their mounts off the lawns will be appreciated, he said.

HOME DEMONSTRATION

Summer months are full of 4-H activities! Four Parmer County 4-H members will be attending District Electric Camp the week of July 21 through July 25. Carrie Haseloff, Deborah Harding, Kevin Kaltwasser and Darwin Green will be going to this camp in Cloudcroft, N.M. They will be learning about electricity from Southwestern Public Service Co. employees. A new experience for the 4-H'ers will be to work with members from Oldham County in planning a party for the Thursday night of camp. Besides the night recreation, the 4-H'ers will be participating in table tennis and volleyball tournaments.

Men are stealing the scene in new knit apparel. Knit suits, slacks, shirts and even ties are getting in the show this season. The new knit suits hold their press, shed wrinkles, pack well, and most important -- they are cool and comfortable. Knits are still the leaders in leisure-time wear, but watch for other knit wear, too. How does the man in your life like knits?

What's a summer favorite for cook-outs, picnics and barbecues and is easy to prepare, economical and versatile? Ground meat. But, ground beef, chuck and round are from different types of meat. Ground beef may be a mixture of meat from the neck, brisket, plate, flank, heel or round. It usually has a high percentage of fat and costs less than ground-to-order meat. Ground chuck is usually more tender, makes juicy patties and is less expensive than ground round. Ground round steak is high in lean meat, and shrinks less during cooking. It is best to use ground meat the day you buy it, or at least the day after. If you need to keep it longer than this, freeze it. For grilling, moisten both sides with a few drops of cold water just before cooking. This helps keep the meat moist and tender.

Are leftovers a problem at your house? Some of the more common leftovers are rice, green peas, roast beef and boiled potatoes. Here are some suggestions for using leftovers in tasty dishes.

*Cooked rice can be covered and stored in the refrigerator. Reheat in a small amount of water, and it tastes as good as when it was first prepared. Rice also gives body to soups and meat loaves.

*Leftover roast beef is often sliced for sandwiches. Or try cutting it into small pieces and frying with diced potatoes and onions.

*Boiled potatoes can be used for potato salad, or they're good fried. Mashed potatoes can be shaped into patties and fried in margarine until crisp.

Proper care of roses now will insure you of having attractive plants and abundant flowers this fall. The regular application of a complete fertilizer plus a continuation of insect and disease controls are musts. But, fertilization is not recommended after early August.

Are you interested in reducing -- either the grocery bill or yourself? Try cottage cheese. The average serving (one-half cup) of cottage cheese gives you only 120 calories. But the protein is equal to a medium serving of fish, poultry, lean meat, three eggs or three slices of cheddar cheese.

Do your family enjoy meat grilled outdoors? To keep the meat from sticking to the grill, brush it with oil.
