Chamber Banquet Set March 26th

The Yankee Doodle Girls will be the featured entertainment for the 40th annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet to be held Friday, March 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Elementary School Cafeteria.

The Quartette consisting of Haskell housewives and mothers was organized last year for the purpose of entertaining members and guests at a regular meeting of the Progressive Study Club. Since then the quartette has been in demand by clubs, schools and other organizations. They have made seven public appearances in the Big Country, including the West Texas Fair in Abilene where they represented Haskell.

Those singing in the quartette are: Mrs. Doyle High (Roberta), Mrs. Jodie Kennedy (Mary), Mrs. Kenneth Lane (Nelda), and Mrs. A. C. Richardson (Becky).

Included in the entertainment will be the Youth and Music Director of the First Baptist Church, Ted Burgess, who along with his wife Karen will be presenting "I Am An American." The speaker for the evening will be Mr. Maurice Crawford, Senior Account Executive with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith of Wichita Falls.

All local residents are invited to attend the 40th Annual Banquet sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Board of directors of the Chamber or from manager Rex Felker. Tickets will be sold at the door.

BONNIE WOODS

Bonnie Woods Selected As A Finalist

Miss Bonnie Woods, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woods of Rule was selected as a finalist in the 1975 5th Annual Miss Texas Teenager Pageant which was held at the Astroworld Hotel, March 20, 1976, in Houston, Texas.

The Miss Texas Teen-Ager Queen will represent Texas in Atlanta, Georgia for the National Teen-Ager Pageant. The new Miss Texas Teen-Ager Queen is Miss Debbie Colard from Angleton, Texas.

Contestants were judged on scholastic achievement, leadership, poise, personality, and beauty. Each contestant was required to write and recite a 100 word essay on "What's Right About America". This program teaches teenagers to share and to participate in school and civic affairs. A Mini Modeling was given in conjunction with the Pageant and was held in the Astroworld Hotel in Houston. There were 112 girls participating in the final events.

Bonnie was awarded the achievement award and for this she received an especially designed Miss National Teen-Ager Watch and a Miss National Teen-Ager T Shirt. The pageant consisted of three full days of rehearsals, banquets, modeling, parties and interviews with judges.

Miss Woods, a freshman in Rule High School, was valedictorian of her eighth grade graduating class, has participated in UIL events, served as president of the Acteens of the First Baptist Church, is a member of FHA, Rule School Drill Team, 4-H, is assistant organizer for the First Baptist Church in Rule and assistant pianist for the Rule Rotary Club. Her hobbies include reading, swimming, square dancing, bicycling, growing plants and playing piano and organ.

Miss Woods was sponsored by the Rule Chamber of Commerce, Farmers National Bank and Lisles Gin, all of Rule.

Post Office At Sagerton To Be 3rd Class

The Postal patrons served by the Sagerton Post Office were pleased to be notified that effective April 10, their Post Office would advance from a high 4th class post office to a 3rd class post office. This was especially good news since all 4th class post offices have been in danger of their status being changed, some are being converted to a Community Post Office, and others are being served by Rural Route Carriers only.

The Sagerton Post Office serves around 100 families and quite a few businesses and two churches in Sagerton and is a vital part of the community and it's continued growth. Records show that there was a Post Office even before the town was officially named in 1904.

Mrs. John L. Brooks retired as postmaster after serving for many years, Miss Beulah Mae Summers now serves the patrons as Officer in Charge.

A post office seems to be the hub around which a community such as Sagerton revolves. It is the meeting place each morning for a great number of persons. The senior citizens seem to especially enjoy gathering at the Post Office each morning for their mail and to visit with others.

VERY IMPORTANT MEETING

The Haskell Little League Mothers Auxiliary will meet Friday, March 26 at 7:30 at the City Hall. Grace Womack will again head up the concession stand committee.

This meeting is very important as several changes are being studied. There is a definite need for as good a turnout of mothers as possible, so these possibilities can be explored more definitely.

BASKETBALL GAME

There will be a benefit basketball game played Thursday night at 8:00 in the Junior High Gym. The Haskell Jaycees will play the "Rag-knotts".

The public is invited and admission price is 50c for adults and 25c for students.

Band Wins Sweepstakes

The Haskell Indian Band won Sweepstakes last Tuesday in Region 11 University Interscholastic concert and sight reading competition.

To win Sweepstakes a band must place first in concert and sight reading competition, as well as marching performance. Marching contest was held last fall.

This is the first time since 1961-62 that the band has won Sweepstakes.

A quote from one of the judges "Congratulations to all of your parents, school, band students and especially the fine director. Truly a 1 plus performance."

We know that the whole town feels the same way as this judge did.

Members of the 1976-77 band are:

Tryouts were set for April 2 and 3, with the season starting on April 26.

The Board of Directors also discussed upkeep on the Little League park. The old mound has already been removed in preparation for replacement. Ministerial Alliance Needs Your Help

The Annual Easter service sponsored by the Haskell Ministerial Alliance will be on Friday, April 16th, at noon. This year's program will be at the First Baptist Church, 301 N. Ave. E, from 12:05 until 12:45 p.m. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this community-wide service.

An urgent appeal is being made to underwrite the Ministerial Alliance program which aids transients. The monies which underwrite this program comes from the Annual Thanksgiving service, but this last year's receipts were much less than usual. The Ministerial Alliance would like to continue this much needed program, but will soon be forced to cancel this aid unless donations are given to underwrite it. The fund is administered by the Alliance to provide limited assistance to needy people coming through Haskell. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

There will be opportunity to contribute at the Annual Easter service as offering plates will be placed at the entrance of the church for this. You may mail your contributions to the Alliance officers: Bob Brown, First United Methodist Church, 201 N. F., Haskell, Texas 79521 or Dudley E. Bragg, First Baptist Church, 301 N. Ave. E., Haskell, Texas, 79521.

Registration Deadline April 1

There are eight days and counting in which you can drive legally with your old registration sticker which expires midnight April 1st. According to the Tax Assessors office car registrations are about half the number that were registered last year. There were 3,036 passenger cars that were registered last year compared to this year's total of 1,521, of those owning commercial vehicles 1,900 were registered last year and only 473 have been registered this year.

For those wondering what the cost of car registration is, the price is based according to the weight of your car. If your car weighs up to 3,500 pounds the price is $12.30, from 3,500 pounds up to 4,500 pounds it is $22.30, from 4,500 pounds on up it is $30.30. If you own a pickup the registration cost is gaged on the weight of the truck. For example if you have a 1/2 ton truck bed the actual weight would be 5,300 pounds.

After April 1st all law enforcement agencies have been instructed to stop motorists not displaying their 1976 registration sticker. So get your sticker now at your local courthouse and happy motoring until next year.

Free Booklet Available

A new, free eight-page illustrated booklet entitled, "The Story of Willie Bacteria, or How to Take Care of Your Septic Tank or Cesspool" is now available to owners of septic tanks and cesspools from Haskell County Feeders Supply Co., Haskell, Tx.

In a light vein, illustrated by cartoons, the booklet explains the workings of the septic tank and cesspool in simplified fashion. It describes the bacterial action of the disposal system and what is necessary for its proper functioning.

Chief attraction in the booklet is a humanized "Willie Bacteria" who is responsible for maintaining the efficiency of the disposal system. When the septic tank or cesspool user ignores the fact that "Willie" is working to keep the disposal system free from disease, and saturates him with an overdose of detergents, acids, lyes, caustics and other irritants, "Willie" is very unhappy, and more often than not, just stops working.

But there is a bright side to the story too, for "Willie Bacteria" has found a way to educate the septic tank or cesspool user, so that "Willie" can do his job under modern up-to-date working conditions, and prevent the fuss, mess, inconvenience, and expense of a clogged disposal system.

The booklet was produced by the FX-Lab Company, Inc., 1275 Bloomfield Ave. Industrial Park Bldg.#2-13, Fairfield, New Jersey 07006.

WANT SOLITUDE? TRY GUADALUPE MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK, TEXAS

Hankering for solitude? Get yourself a pair of good boots, an extra canteen of water, a topographical map of the area and head for Guadalupe mountains National park in Texas.

The park, which butts up against the New Mexico state line near Carlsbad Caverns, contains 125 square miles, including 55 miles of hiking trails and very few places to quench your thirst.

Last year only 50,000 people visited the Guadalupe compared to almost 800,000 at nearby Carlsbad Caverns National Park.

So if you hanker for solitude, buckle up your hiking boots, fill that second canteen and head for the Guadalupe back country. The topo map is recommended because virtually all the trail system routes are ill-defined. The maps may be purchased at the information station.

Until development is completed, public use facilities and staffing at Guadalupe Mountains are extremely limited and visitors should be prepared to "rough it."

That shouldn't keep you from having a good time, however, especially if you love the out-of-doors. There's plenty of it in Guadalupe Mountains.

The Guadalupe stand like an island in a desert. At first glance they look like many other ranges, but up close they reveal something special: a spectacular exposure of the Capitan Reef which geologists say is the most extensive fossil reef complex on the record.

The mountain range resembles a giant wedge or "V" with El Capitan, a 2,000-foot sheer cliff at the point of the "V" in Texas and the arms extending to the northeast and northwest into New Mexico.

Sheltered within the mountains and canyons is a unique remnant of forest plants and animals which have struggled for survival since the end of the ice ages about 10,000 years ago.

In the park you can explore desert lowlands and canyons where the elevation is 3,650 feet to forested mountains and rugged peaks, such as Guadalupe Peak, at 8,751 feet the highest point in Texas.

A rare mixture of life occurs in the park with species from the Rocky Mountains eastern limit and species from Mexico at the northern extent of their range.

Plants and animals from the plains also reach into the Guadalupe.

Vegetation typical of the

Although the National Weather Service began keeping statistics on tornadoes in 1916, the first full year of the present warning system was 1953. Partly due to improved equipment and partly through increased public awareness, the Weather Service believes that the records assembled after 1953 offer an essentially complete picture of tornado occurrence nationwide.

for its scenery and scientific importance, is the most popular spot in the Guadalupe and open for day-use foot travel on a limited basis. The low-desert areas of the park lend themselves to horse travel, but the mountain trails are steep and rough. Horses are not permitted in McKittrick Canyon.

U.S. 62-180 passes through the southeastern part of the park, located 55 miles southwest of Carlsbad, N.M. and 110 miles east of El Paso, Tex. By car, you get spectacular views of El Capitan and Guadalupe Peak.

THE SECOND OF THE BICENTENNIAL TOUR of Homes will be the Belton Duncan Home.

Haskell Bicentennial Happenings

By Roxie Parker

A house that has been home for three Haskell mayors will be second on the Bicentennial Tour of Homes April 25.

Located at 506 North Seventh and now owned by Mayor and Mrs. Belton Duncan, it was first owned by John Couch, and sold to T. C. Cahill, both former mayors.

In 1900 a two-room house was built on the lot by John Couch who brought his bride to the new home.

T. C. Cahill bought the house in 1906 and built on three rooms and added the upstairs rooms.

In 1920 it was bought by W. C. Pippen whose family occupied it until 1943 when it was purchased by the Duncans.

They began their renovation at that time by giving the house a new roof and they recanvassed and repapered the walls.

There was a parlor in the southwest room, large halls and dining room, a pantry containing huge bins for storage, and a hot water heater which was placed directly in front of the French doors in the dining room. The kitchen had no cabinets with only a bracket sink hanging on the wall.

The Duncans removed the pantry, the food bins and wall, making a large kitchen, with added cabinet sink, and the unsightly water heater was moved to the back porch.

Later the front hall was removed, making a large living room, and the parlor was converted into a bedroom. Sheet rock was placed on the upstairs walls and a bathroom made from one of the closets.

"There is no end to the work involved in remaking an old house to fit a family's needs, but the pleasure overcomes the efforts involved," Lucille Duncan said.

Through the years the three Duncan children went off to college and after educations were paid for the house renovation began anew. Walls were paneled, celotex ceilings added, floors carpeted, and closets were built in the bedrooms. Storm windows and floor furnaces were installed.

There are now three bedrooms downstairs, one of which is used for office space. One large upstairs bedroom has a large space for sewing, with a folding wooden screen made by Belton hiding the machine and sewing "clutter" if necessary.

A bathroom off this bedroom has built-ins that Belton made; much of the carpentry work has been his and evidences of his skill are apparent throughout the house. Be sure to get the story about the king-sized bed he created—most ingenious!

The other large room upstairs the Duncans call a "Putterer's Paradise." Here they pursue their hobbies of woodworking, and cutting and polishing rocks, painting, "anything we want to do." All the equipment is there and plenty of work room. Another story could be written about their work with rocks—such a fascinating hobby.

Making the tour will give viewers a chance to see that a house which began as two rooms 75 years ago can be made into a lovely, liveable home; more than that you are in for a treat as far as furniture, accessories, and memorabilia are concerned.

An antique rosewood piano, bought thirty years ago from the Gannaway family, has been restored, its handsome carvings intact, by the Duncans. This particular grand piano was made during the years 1870-1875; they had it authenticated by an authority on such matters.

In the dining room is a Seth Thomas clock which Belton's grandfather brought to Texas when he came from Georgia in 1882. It was in quite a state of disrepair when Belton got it and he replaced the weight cords and other minor parts and got it in working order. There is an alarm on it that really would wake the soundest sleeper; they set it off for me and I'll bet it could be heard outside!

An old gaslight on the wall is used during storms when the electricity is off. A wall hanging which was a fireplace screen, and two sconces on the opposite wall in the living room are the work of Haskell native Marguerite McCollum Jordan of San Antonio.

Also in the living room is a Beckwith organ, manufactured in 1913, which is awaiting its turn to be redone by Belton and Lucille.

There are pieces of furniture, old and loved, from both the Kendall and Duncan families. As you move from room to room Lucille mentions that either her daughter or one of the sons has asked for a certain chair, or painting, or some other well-loved object that has been in the family through the years.

In the downstairs bathroom is a very old bevelled mirror that once hung in the old Reid Drug Store.

Space just will not permit me to write of everything in this home that has a meaning or a history behind it; just take my word, there's plenty to see, from heirloom butter molds to a 50-year old bottle of water from Oates Drug!

When the Duncans moved there 33 years ago there was a garage to accommodate a Model-T Ford and a small barn for a cow and chickens. There is now space for cars and the new trailer the Duncans purchased for "semi-retirement" outings. The brick from the three old chimneys once in the house were used for a patio and an outdoor cooking pit. Pecan trees and flowers and shrubs make the backyard area a pleasant place.

I'm doubly blessed; I made a preliminary visit to see everything and I'll get to see it all again the day of the tour. Be sure to mark Sunday, April 25 on your calendar.

Social Security News

Housewives, students, and other people who plan to get a summer job should apply now for a social security number if they don't have one according to Glyn Hammons, social security district manager in Abilene.

"You should apply for your number several weeks before you need it for a job covered by social security," Hammons said. "Applications must be screened against central files in Baltimore to make sure that a second number isn't issued to that same person. Screening generally takes three to six weeks."

People can get information about applying for a social security number by calling, writing, or visiting any social security office. People applying for a social security number for the first time may be asked to prove their age, identity, and citizenship.

"If you've lost your social security card, you can get a duplicate by contacting any social security office," Hammons said. "You can get a duplicate faster if you've kept the stub that came with your original social security card."

The Abilene social security office is at 142 South Pioneer Drive. The phone number is 698-1360.

Braces and Crutches? It's More Than That

Most people know the Easter Seal Society of Texas is concerned with crippling. But not many people know the many different forms of disability can take besides those most often symbolized by crutches. The problem is partly due to the development of Easter Seals as a society for helping crippled children to walk. Then, because of this early emphasis and the ready identification it provides, the society's seals (used to symbolize its services in its annual appeal to the public) usually depict children with crutches or braces.

Nevertheless, less than half of the society's caseload nationally are children under 16 and less than half of its services are in the medical-paramedical area. In fact, the society offers 36 services nationally besides physical and occupational therapy. Screening, evaluation and therapy for speech and hearing disorders are the services Easter Seals provides most frequently.

Just as important as meeting a crisis is identifying and treating infants and young children with developmental delays or birth defects. Physicians send children they suspect of having perceptual problems to Easter Seals for evaluation and therapy. In addition, Easter Seal audiologists and speech pathologists conduct screening programs in grade schools.

Perceptual-motor disorders not only require physical, occupational and speech therapies, but often social and psychological counseling to overcome learning and adjustment problems. Identification of specific learning problems prepares a preschooler for successful entry into public school.

Training for activities of daily living (ADL) consists of using devices and equipment set up to teach personal independence. In some Easter Seal centers there is a special room designed as a "model apartment"—sometimes having a bed with a rope attachment so the patient can pull himself up; a closet of clothing redesigned with fastenings and other features to ease dressing problems; a bathroom with grab bars; a kitchen

FINGER-LICKIN' BARBECUED CHICKEN

The modern barbecue chef, with his battery of salt and seasonings may seem to be a product of suburbia, but "sword-cooking," as it's called in the Middle East, is one of the very oldest culinary arts. Today's barbecuing, however, is made easier with conveniences such as Worcestershire sauce, which adds a spice shelf of flavor at a single dash.

HONEY-LEMON BARBECUED CHICKEN

- 2-1/2 lb. chicken, quartered
- 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons original Worcestershire sauce, divided
- 1 teaspoon salt, divided
- 1/4 cup honey
- 1 tablespoon onion powder
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder

Place chicken in a tight fitting bowl or double plastic bag. Combine lemon juice, 1-1/2 tablespoons of the Worcestershire sauce and 3/4 teaspoon of the salt. Pour over chicken. Cover or seal and refrigerate 3 to 4 hours. Remove chicken from marinade, reserving marinade. Place chicken, skin side down, on a rack over slow burning charcoal. Grill for 15 minutes. Turn and broil 15 minutes longer. Meanwhile, combine reserved marinade (about 1/4 cup) with honey, onion powder, garlic powder, remaining 1-1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and 1/4 teaspoon salt; blend well. Use to brush over both sides of chicken. Continue grilling, brushing and turning frequently, until chicken is tender, about 20 minutes longer. If desired, place chicken on a rack under a preheated moderate broiler. Cook following preceding instructions. YIELD: 4 portions.

with cupboards at reachable heights, a mixing bowl with a suction base to prevent slipping and special kinds of potato peelers and can openers. The equipment can be purchased or built by the patient at home.

Where an Easter Seal center is not so elaborately equipped, frequently its therapists, nurses or social workers visit the rehabilitated person at home to help with these adjustments.

Transportation and loan of equipment like wheelchairs and walkers are still other Texas Easter Seal services. Some societies provide transportation for wheel-chair-bound persons to medical and rehabilitative services. Others also offer regular outings for shopping and recreation. But working to make public transit systems accessible is a major, long-term goal of Easter Seals.

In its role as advocate for the handicapped, adaptive housing is a special interest of Easter Seals. Easter Seal societies work with contractors, architects and municipal housing authorities to assure that they understand the importance of making new or remodeled buildings usable by all of the public. Public education and information for the handicapped themselves, such as guide books to accessible facilities in particular cities, are other aspects of this advocacy role.

So the next time you hear someone say Easter seals teaches crippled children to walk, remember...it's a lot more than that. The whole person—restored or developed to his or her fullest potential for doing what he or she wants to do—is the goal of rehabilitation. And, to Easter Seals, that means a lot of different programs and different people to bring lot of kinds of help in Texas.

It's a snap! Many insurance policyholders help themselves by taking pictures of their household goods. An itemized list is also valuable. Both pictures and the list of personal property should be stored in a safe place, such as a safe deposit box. Then when a catastrophe occurs, it's easier to work with the insurance agent or company representative. Lists and photos should be regularly updated.

Pat Hale
Something special was reflected in the bright lights of Kansas City late last year when the annual Future Farmers of America convention was held. Reflected almost blindingly was the change in attitudes about agriculture. FFA conventions used to be almost mediocre affairs with dwindling attendance and speakers not in demand elsewhere. Old attendance records fell like rain in a hurricane when more than 20,000 of the Future Farmers checked in for the November convention. They came from all fifty states with visiting students from Europe and South America. Speaking before the sea of blue-jacketed farmers were Vice-President Nelson Rockefeller, former Texas Governor and Secretary of the Treasury, John Connally and former Georgia Governor and FFA member, Jimmy Carter. One of the highlights was the planning for this year's national convention. Early indications point to another record setter.

FRENCH COOKING MADE EASY

CREPES

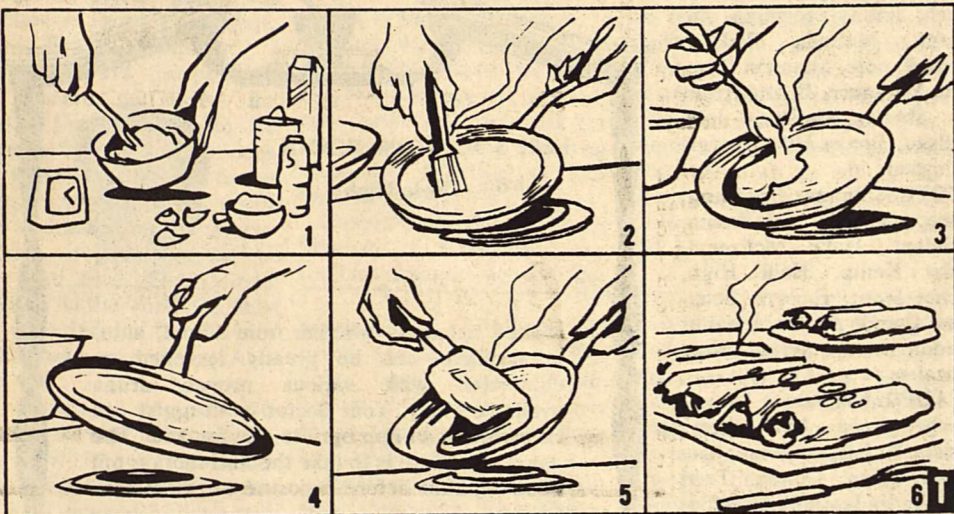

Crepes are a versatile French classic. Once you've mastered the basic recipe you'll be able to create many imaginative main dishes and elegant desserts. Crepes are thin delicate pancakes which can be stuffed with an infinite variety of fillings either savory or sweet. The pancakes themselves are easy to prepare, but time consuming, since they are cooked one at a time. However, crepes freeze well and thus can be made days or even weeks ahead.

Economical Blue Bonnet Margarine is perfect for frying your crepes. Tests conducted in a French cooking school comparing Blue Bonnet and butter found no difference in performance or flavor.

Crepes could be filled with sour cream and topped with preserves for an elegant dessert or filled with creamed chicken and mushroom for a delicious luncheon.

Once you discover the ease and versatility of crepes, you will use them often in creating many tempting entrees and desserts.

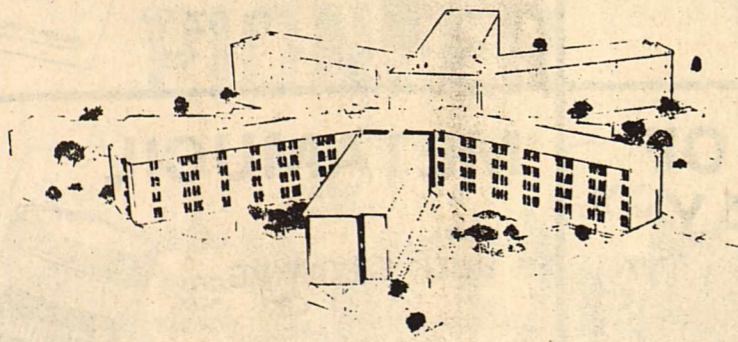

CREPES

- 3 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 3/4 cup unsifted flour
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine, melted

- (1) Let stand for 15 minutes.
- (2) For each crepe lightly grease a hot 6-inch or 8-inch skillet with melted margarine.
- (3) Pour 2 tablespoons batter into skillet. (4) Tilt quickly so that mixture covers bottom of pan. Cook over medium heat until set and bottom is lightly browned. (5) Turn and brown other side. (6) Makes 16 crepes.

Designate Your Body As An Anatomical Gift

All drivers licenses issued after January 1, 1976, will contain a statement whereby the holder of the license may designate any part of his body as an anatomical gift at the time of his death.

Major C. W. Bell, commanding Region 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety which issues the drivers licenses, said the 64th Legislature enacted the measure that became effective the first of the year.

Accordingly, all drivers licenses issued after January 1, will contain the statement which specifies any or all of the donor's body that may be used as an anatomical gift. If a person does not desire to participate in the anatomical gift program, Bell said, he need not do anything regarding completion of the statement. Drivers licenses will continue to be laminated on the front but the back will not be laminated in order that holders of the licenses may sign the statement.

The anatomical gift statement will be printed on the reverse side of the donor's operator's, commercial operator's or chauffeur's license. The gift is invalid on expiration, cancellation, revocation or suspension of the license or by lining out that portion of the statement.

Bell added that another method of voiding or canceling the statement would be to secure a duplicate drivers license in which case the reverse side of the permit would be left blank.

For the gift provision of the license to be valid, the statement must be executed each time the license is replaced, reinstated or renewed. The document must be signed by the donor in the presence of witnesses who must sign the document in the donor's presence.

License which are currently valid in Texas will not be replaced with the newly-designed one, but as holders renew their licenses, they will receive the license which contains the gift statement.

If currently licensed drivers desire the newly-designated one, they may contact their nearest DPS drivers license office and apply for a duplicate license for which there is a minimal charge.

The law that was enacted by the Legislature only requires the DPS to provide a space on the license for the statement concerning the availability of the anatomical gift. "We do not maintain records regarding the anatomical gifts," Bell added.

Recipients of gifts of bodies of vital organs may be any hospital, surgeon or physician, for medical or dental education, research, advancement of medical or dental science, therapy or transplantation; or any accredited medical or dental school, college or university for education, research, advancement of medical or dental science or therapy.

Other recipients may include any vital organ storage facility established for medical or dental education, research, advancement of medical or dental education, research, advancement of medical or dental science, therapy or transplantation; or any individual specified by a licensed physician for therapy or transplantation needed by him.

Homecoming For CJC Set For April 24

CISCO—Cisco Junior College in Cisco will this year hold its annual HOMECOMING on Saturday, April 24, according to an announcement by the CJC Ex—Students Association.

The spring date is the first time in anyone's recollection that the Cisco college has held Homecoming anytime other than during football season, a college spokesman said.

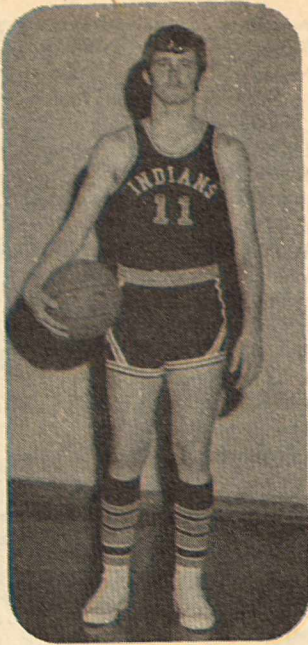

The special day for ex-students will be held in conjunction with a community wide celebration that will be in progress in Cisco—the Cisco FRONTIER Jubilee combined with the college's traditional Ranch Week activities. April 24 will culminate an entire week of frontier-type activity in the Eastland County town, and the college's homecoming will play a major role in the Saturday activities.

Among the scheduled events for Homecoming are: a 10:00 a.m. parade; afternoon receptions, open house, class reunions, and a business meeting; and a barbecue, musical revue, and Exes Ball during the evening hours.

During the musical revue, the Ex—Students Association will pay special tribute to Dr. Bevington Reed, who has been selected as the CJC Outstanding Alumnus of the Year. Dr. Reed is the immediate past Commissioner of Higher Education for the State of Texas, and an ex-student of Randolph College in Cisco, which became Cisco Junior College following World War II.

Mrs. Betty Hogan, Executive Secretary of the CJC Ex—Students Association, has invited the college's alumni from "anywhere and everywhere" to attend the homecoming on April 24. More details may be obtained by writing to her at CJC, Cisco, Texas 76437.

Before a tornado hits, for insurance purposes it is good to have an itemized list of personal property, including furnishings, clothing and valuables. Photos are helpful. An up-to-date building appraisal is also good to have.

One of the greatest points of confusion following a major storm is whether damage has been caused by wind or water or both. No one insurance policy covers all these situations—so it's good advice to find out ahead of time to what extent and for what perils the policy provides protection.

Kittens are supposed to be fluffy, playful creatures who love to test their claws and teeth on anyone who plays with them.

But when the playful kitten displays real antagonism and becomes ill, there's the possibility of rabies, reports the Bureau of Veterinary Public Health of the Texas Department of Health Resources.

That's what happened during 1975 to a kitten which earlier had survived an attack by a skunk on a farm. It was brought to Austin and given away as a pet. The kitten died soon after being put under surveillance by a veterinarian. The Department of Health Resources Laboratory in Austin confirmed that the kitten was a victim of rabies.

As a result, 14 persons who handled and suffered the normal biting and scratching of the kitten underwent a series of rabies shots.

This story had a happy ending for all those involved.

In fact, there were no rabies cases among humans in Texas during all of 1975 although the Department of Health Resources supplied 615 series of antirabies treatments to residents here. The last documented case of human death attributed to natural exposure to the rabies virus in Texas was in 1962. During 1972 one human death was attributed to exposure to the rabies virus in a laboratory. Rabies, despite the low number of human cases, still is one of the most terrifying diseases which can affect animals and pets, especially in rural settings.

Rabies was confirmed in 329 animals in Texas last year, a decrease from the 396 cases confirmed by laboratory tests in 1974, reports the Department of Health Resources. Of the total number, one dog and three bats were found positive in laboratories at Fort Sam Houston and Brooks Air Force Base.

The number of dog rabies cases dropped drastically in 1975, from 89 the previous year to just 25. But in the cat population, rabies shot up from only nine cases in 1974 to 20 in 1975—proof that rabies vaccinations are in order for cats, too. Total dog and cat cases decreased to 45 last year from 98 the previous year.

In addition to the dogs and cats, 21 cases of rabies were confirmed in livestock during 1975. Cattle accounted for 14 cases, horses for six cases and sheep for one case. Forty-two cases were reported the previous year.

As expected year after year, wild animals accounted for the most confirmed cases—263 during 1975 representing an increase of seven cases over 1974.

Biggest offender was the skunk with 177 cases. Bats accounted for 70 cases, foxes for 13 cases, bobcats for two cases, and the raccoon for one case.

Rabies cases are widespread throughout Texas. Of the 329 cases reported last year, 93 of Texas' 254 counties had at least one.

El Paso County was the state's leader with 46 cases of rabies, including 21 cases in bats, 10 in skunks, 13 in dogs and two in cats. Among the leaders were Bexar County, 18; Gonzales, Dallas, Milam and Mason Counties, 11; and Howard County, 10.

In identifying rabies cases in Texas, the Department of Health Resources Laboratories examined a total of 7,368 specimens as suspected rabies cases. These represented more than 51 animal species during 1975. Dog and cat specimens were the most common received at the laboratory—and represented small percentages of positive cases per test. Tests were run on 1,987 dogs in finding 24 positives, while the 2,271 cats tested showed 20 positives. Almost a third of the skunks tested were positive for rabies.

A lot of work is performed in pinpointing positive rabies cases, but you can't take chances with rabies.

The chances of a human surviving a case of rabies is virtually nil. A six-year-old Ohio boy was the first recorded case of a human surviving the dreaded "mad dog" disease, according to the National Center for Disease Control. Another survivor has been reported since then, in Argentina. Rabies virus attacks the nervous system, the heart, the lungs, the brain and, "you can die from any one of a half-dozen different problems," said a spokesman for CDC.

The Ohio youngster received intensive supported care which saved his life. He is reported as a normal, healthy boy now—some five years later.

Rabies declined in Texas last year, but there's always the possibility of outbreaks as long as the disease is prevalent in wildlife, says the Veterinary Public Health Bureau of the Department of Health Resources. It advises all pet owners to have their pets vaccinated against the disease and to always avoid contact with any wild animal which acts friendly or peculiar and seems to have no fear of man. These animals could be rabid.

Social Security News

People over 72 who earned over $2,520 and got one or more monthly social security retirement, dependent, or survivors checks in 1975 must submit an annual report of their earnings to social security by April 15, according to Clyn Hammons, social security district manager in Abilene, Texas.

The report shows how much was earned in wages and self-employment income last year by people who got monthly social security payments—as well as how much they expect to earn this year.

"The report will be used to determine if people were paid the correct amount of social security benefits for 1975," Hammons said. "It will also be used to adjust their monthly 1976 social security payments according to their estimated earnings." Full social security benefits could be paid to eligible people in 1975 if they earned $2,520 or less for the year. But no matter how much they earned for the year, they could be paid their full social security benefits earned for the year, they could be paid their full social security benefits for any month they earned $210 or less and didn't do substantial work in their own business.

The figures for 1976 are $2,760 for the year and $230 a month.

"People who file an annual report late or don't file one at all may suffer a penalty," Hammons said.

"People who were 72 or in all months of 1975 don't need to file an annual report of their earnings.

If you have questions about the annual report or need an earnings report form, call or write any social security office," Hammons said. The Abilene social security office is at 142 South Pioneer. The phone number is 698-1360.

Burson-Schober United In Marriage

Deborah Jane Burson and William Cameron Schober were united in marriage Saturday, March 20, at the First Baptist Church in Haskell with the Rev. H. O. Abbot, First United Methodist Church of Spearman officiating.

Miss Burson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Burson, Jr. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schober of Mineral Wells.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long

Bianchi gown in candlelight of chiffon and lace. The empire bodice with deep scoop front and high standup neck was of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The long full sleeves had deep lace cuffs and the softly gathered skirt with back fullness had a Watteau train that fell chapel length. Her Juliet cap of Alencon lace held her long veil of imported English illusion.

Serving the bride as Maid of Honor was Miss Karen Gragg. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Monte Frierson, and Mrs. Johnny Drago, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. C. G. Burson III, sister-in-law of the bride.

Attendants wore identical gowns of matte jersey in apricot ice. The empire bodice had a high neckline and kubuki sleeves.

Mr. Robert Schober, brother of the groom, served as best man and George Gault, Steve Flinn and Gary Gragg were groomsmen. Ushers were Mr. Monte Frierson, Mr. C. G. Burson III, and Mr. Johnny Drago.

Miss Renna Abbott was organist and Miss Madge Henley and Miss Tookie Burrus soloists.

A reception was held at Fellowship Hall, First Baptist Church, following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Haskell High School and attended Midwestern State University and is now attending Tarleton State University.

The groom is a graduate of Mineral Wells High School and Midwestern State University with a B.A. in Psychology. He is employed at the Ridgley Country Club, Fort Worth, as assistant golf professional.

The couple will live at 2208 Taxco, Fort Worth.

"The Spirit of America" Study Club Program

An interesting program entitled "The Spirit of America-Women" was presented to Progressive Study Club members and guests Thursday night.

Directing the program was Mrs. Bailey Toliver who narrated biographical sketches of outstanding women of Texas history; she was assisted by Seventh grade History students who portrayed the characters as she presented them.

Cindy Everett and Lanell Billington portrayed Jane Wilkenson Long, know as the "Mother of Texas", and her servant Kate.

Jonna Wheatley was Mary Holly, Lady Ambassador at Large, who wrote the first book published on Texas soil. Susanna Angelina Dickenson, widow of the artillery commander at the Alamo and herself a survivor of the siege, was portrayed by Ruth Simpson.

Lori Johnson and Janet Wallace were Cynthia Ann Parker and her little brother John, white children captured by Comanche Indians. Cynthia Ann was taken from the Indians years later and grieved herself to death because she longed to return to her Indian home. She was the mother of Quanah Parker.

Portraying Margaret Lee, young Alabama girl who became the wife of Sam Houston, was Karen Koehler.

The part of Lisabeth Ney was taken by Pam Hale. Miss Ney was born in Muenster, Germany, daughter of a sculptor; in London she married Edward Montgomery and they eventually made their way to Texas. She sculpted busts of Sam Houston and Stephen F. Austin for the World's Columbian Exposition in 1893, truly the first international artist to live in Texas.

Mollie Bailey was portrayed by Kim Lane. She was born in Alabama and married James Bailey, son of a circus owner. They decided to come to Texas and set up permanent headquarters in the state. James Bailey died and Mollie became the only woman in the world to own and manage a circus.

Portraying Mollie Bailey's son was Deann Carter.

The only female governor of Texas, Miriam Amanda Wallace Ferguson, was portrayed by Lisa Jones. "Ma" Ferguson was elected in 1924

after her husband "Farmer Jim" Ferguson was impeached and set up permanent head-government.

An old-fashioned theme was reflected in the refreshment table decorations. A red and white checked tablecloth covered the table, centered with an oil lamp and pioneer bonnets. Hostess Mrs. Dean Byford wore a pioneer dress and bonnet; these bonnets were handmade by Mrs. F.D. Hindsley of Rochester, who is selling them this year for Bicentennial wear.

Other hostesses were Mrs. Doyle High and Mrs. Howard Perry.

Guests were Mrs. Bill Carter, Miss Leona Carter, Mrs. Gussie Billington, Sheila Jetton and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Simpson.

Representatives of the club, Mrs. T. P. Barnett, Mrs. Dean Byford and Mrs. A.C. Richardson will be hostesses Thursday, March 25 at the community workshop, "Effective Understanding."

Club members are taking orders for the bicentennial commemorative plates, a project of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Sculptured in glass by Fenton, there have been four plates issued, one per year since 1973.

The 1976 plate depicts the ringing of the Liberty Bell with the inscription, "Proclaim Liberty throughout all the Land."

No plates will be sold after June 1, 1976.

The club will meet April 1 for an evening with the "Yankee Doodle Girls" for the program "The Spirit of America-Music", to be directed by Mrs. Buck Everett.

Harold Couch To Speak

Harold Couch, member of the Texas Department of Public Safety from Mineral Wells will speak Tuesday, April 6 at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Room. Everyone is cordially invited, especially women. Mr. Couch will speak on "Defense of Women". He taught a defensive driving course in Haskell about three years ago. The Business & Professional Women's Club is sponsoring this free program and urges everyone to take advantage of this opportunity.

ESC Director Visits Haskell

Ms. Delma Banuelos, director of the Region IX Education Services and Dr. Duane Cater, audiologist and director of the Abilene Speech and Hearing Language Center were in Haskell Thursday, March 18 screening preschoolers in the area.

The two year old program is geared to help pre-school children with limited English speaking ability in order to prepare them for public school. The project involves a home tutor going to different homes, picking up the children and then at the fifth or sixth home holds a session enabling the mother of the home to observe and to participate. The program strives to provide pre-schoolers with learning experiences which will enrich his language development.

The E.S.C. is a Federal Bilingual pre-school project serving children in 13 counties Haskell inclusively. The Project is Federal Funded and will continue to be a funded project through 1977.

Anyone wishing to make a referral or to find out more information may contact Mrs. A. Morales, the home tutor for the Haskell area. There are 87 Spanish speaking pre-schoolers enrolled in the project at the present time.

B&PW Meets

The Business & Professional Women's Club met Tuesday, March 16 in the City Cafe for a called business meeting.

The Bicentennial committee consisting of Ozelle Frierson, Novella Rastetter and Madalin Hunt presented plans and patterns for a flag. The pattern was accepted and the flag is in the process of being made.

A nominating committee was elected with Nettie McCollum, chairman, Dora Montgomery, and Ozelle Frierson as other members.

Plans were made for the April 6 meeting in the Community Room with Harold Couch, speaker. This is an open meeting and all interested persons are invited.

Foursquare Church held the devotional Tuesday. Jeanie Stout played the piano. The Tom Watson singers sang for us Tuesday night and everyone enjoyed it very much. We enjoy the devotional that the Church of Christ bring each Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m. Our Administrator Dewie Wester is in the hospital recuperating from surgery, our prayers are with her. Mrs. Allie Kendrick held the devotion Wednesday from the First Baptist Church. She discussed her visit to the Holy Land. Activity Director, Anna Lee Tribbey is on vacation this week. Maybe she will tell us about her Caribbean cruise. W. O. Lewis received word Thursday of this week of the death of his aunt, Alice Martin of Stephenville, Tex. Our sympathy goes to him.
