NUMBER TWENTY-SIX

HEY PARDNER!—Have you got your shaving permit? Well don't end up like these poor souls doing time. This is the last week of the Haskell Jaycees beard growing contest in honor of the Wild West Show being held this weekend (June 25 & 26) at

CowBelle Man-of-Year Named

The Haskell CowBelles met Monday night, June 21, at 8:30 p.m. in the Community Room. Mrs. Bobby Howard, president, presided. The creed was read by Mrs. Brooks Middleton and the invocation was given by Mrs. Wilbert Klose.

The CowBelles honored their husbands with a beef and bean supper, and a program on fathers was given by Mrs. Robert Free, First Vice President. She offered a very touching poem, which she had written and extended a number of worthy remarks.

Fifty two members and guests were present for the gathering.

CowBelle Man-of-the-Year, the man who has helped the local the most was selected by secret ballot at the May meeting. A beautiful plaque was presented to the CowBelle Man-of-the-Year, Mr. Bobby L. Howard, by Mrs. Robert Free.

A welcome was extended to Mrs. Joe Thippen and Miss Dimpel Nehring as new members. The next meeting is scheduled for the third Monday night in September.

Fair Reminders

Prospective exhibitors for the Odd Shoppe are reminded that it will be open again this year for arts and crafts entries in September.

Everyone is encouraged to get started early with the making of their entries for this division.

Quaint Doings is a very special division of the Haskell County Fair. This division is reserved for the more mature citizens (senior citizens) who we hope are busy making their entries for the fair.

The Pantry Shelf is planned again for this year's fair and the ladies are asked to keep this in mind during canning season, says Mrs. Johnny Reid, Chairman of the Women's Division.

The Special Ball and Kerr awards will be presented again this year, so consult the 1975 catalog for the rules, and best of luck to everyone.

The Wild West Returns To Haskell

"If you have seen one rodeo, you have seen them all," is a remark often heard concerning this greatest of outdoor American sports. However, it certainly does not hold true in regards to the big wild west show scheduled to get under way on Friday night of this week with the final performance to be staged on Saturday night, in the Fair Park rodeo arena. In fact, you can rest assured that some of the events and specialty acts on the show have never before been presented to any rodeo audience regardless of how famous the rodeo or the size of the town or city producing it.

The old time extravaganza will include twelve or more wild and woolly contests and specialty acts with all of the color and thrill of the days of the old west in this part of Texas.

Old West Tumbleweed Sale, Saturday

The Retail Committee Merchants are busy preparing merchandise for the money saving Old West Tumbleweed Sidewalk Sale to be held this weekend to help kickoff the Bicentennial activities.

To lend an air of excitement and total community commitment, the merchants are organizing their sidewalk sale so that it will blend with Bicentennial activities already scheduled. Merchandise will be priced at very low sale prices and put on display on the sidewalk in front of each store. Many merchants will be reducing prices on merchandise inside their stores as well.

The Old West Tumbleweed Sidewalk Sale will take place all day Saturday, June 26.

drill in the arena. They will then form a background of color with the six flags of Texas for the introductions of officials and guests of the wild west show.

The cowboy contests will immediately get under way with the wild horse race, an event where the bucking horses are all turned out at one time for teams of three to saddle them in the arena and ride to the far end and back before a winner is declared. Local and area Jaycees will be in charge of riding the outlaw horses and it is safe to say that, "Most anything goes" when the bronc horses are turned into the arena.

Old time calf ropers will next have the opportunity of displaying their skill in this necessary art of the range cowboy. Friday night's contest will be for cowboys 55 and older with the "younguns", those 45 to 55 having their time at bat on Saturday night.

If you haven't decided by this time that it is indeed a wild west show, you will when Professor John Rogers of Abilene schools mounts the outlawed ranch horse before your eyes in the arena to make his ride.

The Old Hub cutting horse contest will follow with not over three or four horses performing each night in commemoration of this event held in Haskell in 1898. This event will be fast and furious with each rider being allotted about four minutes to pen or put into the hold as many animals as possible from the herd. This particular event is a must due to a surprise element not being publicized at this time.

"The biguns and the littleuns" will all be involved in the wild west show as there will be three contest events for the junior boys and girls also in addition to a greased pig race for the kids.

Saturday's final performance will be almost an exact repetition of Friday night with the exception of an old time square dance staged by the "Country Squares" with Leon Ivy as caller for this favorite of both the old days and the present.

Some flak for farmers is coming in the form of complaints about farm chemicals from people who apparently consider the word "chemical" the opposite of the word "ecology". Not too surprising considering all the attention given by ecologists to some misuses of chemicals. Farmers however, are probably the most ecologically minded group in the country... have been for years. Making your living from the land means taking care of it. Proper applications of chemicals enhance vitality of the soil, replacing those elements used to produce the last crop. Necessary use of pesticides not only keeps quality of food production high, it also makes possible far greater quantity of production and thereby keeps food prices down. As far as overuse of chemicals is concerned, the guy paying the bills is going to be the last one to use more than is needed to do the proper job.

WILD WEST TO LIVE AGAIN IN HASKELL

HUB

Champion Cutting Horse

The story of the legendary "Hub" and Sam Graves is repeated even today when old timers from the 6666's, Pitchfork, or the other ranches in the rolling plains get together for a reunion. The story of the contest back in 1889 went something like this:

While Hub was growing old, the west had undergone some drastic changes. Wire fences had stopped the common herding of cattle, and old cowhands thus cut off in separate ranches, longed to swap yarns with their old buddies again. To supply this renewal of fellowship for the cattle country, a cowboy reunion with horse races and other attractions was announced to be held in 1896. Starting in Seymour it was repeated the following year and in 1898 was moved to Haskell and a most interesting feature was added—a $150.00 prize for the best cutting horse in a contest to be held at the reunion.

Sam heard about the contest and got permission from Bud Arnett to take old Hub out of retirement. By this time, Hub was a pitiful remnant of his former self but within days Sam had fattened him and patiently retrained him in the cow work he had done so expertly as a young colt.

The reunion took place July 27-29, 1898 and every effort had been made to publicize the big event. Both the Kansas City Star and the Dallas News told of the cowboy convention and special railroad rates were provided from everywhere in Texas. Spectators came from all directions, even though Haskell was some fifty miles from the nearest railhead. Some estimates placed the crowd as high as 15,000 people.

The rules of the spectacular cutting horse contest permitted each entry to spend five minutes during which time he was to cut as many cows out of the herd as possible. Each cow was to be driven to a certain predetermined point where two mounted men were ready to receive the animal.

Needless to say, Hub was the star attraction. Many cowboys who were expert horsemen, with their eyes admiringly following every movement of the old horse, stood up in their seats entranced by his unbelievable skill.

A yell came from the grandstand and the mile-long circle of vehicles as Sam and Hub brought the seventh heifer to the delivery point; hats went into the air when the eighth animal was put away just before time expired. Old Hub had come back almost from his grave to thrill this great throng of horselovers almost to the point of madness.

Another contestant, because of the sheer leg power of his young mount, tied his record of eight but the skill of horse and rider did not even approach the work of Sam and Hub. This was undoubtedly the decision of the mass of cheering spectators; it was also the decision of the judges who awarded the $150 prize money to Sam Graves.

After the contest, Harry Daugherty, president of the Cowboy Reunion, persuaded Sam to cut out a heifer without the use of the bridle. The old horse performed for Sam almost as well as on the day that he had won a ten-dollar bet for Bud Arnett. This time, however, he made two trips into the herd of nervous cattle and both times delivered his charge promptly. The crowd roared its approval as Sam and Hub finished the difficult assignment. The twenty-two year old horse that had been turned out into the cedar brakes to die had had his final day of triumph.

After the reunion, Hub was taken back to the 8 RANCH, and Sam turned over half of the $150 prize money to Bud. Now the grand old cowhorse need no longer waste away to skin and bones, for Bud's share of the winnings was set aside to supply oats exclusively for old Hub.

Sam Graves lived another 50 years and was active at his ranch almost to the day of his death in 1949. But the legend of Sam Graves and his famous cutting horse, Hub, was to be hashed and rehashed a thousand times around chuck wagons, over camp

"Hub," the champion cutting horse of 1898, will provide the inspiration for an old-time Wild West Show to be held in Haskell in a two-day extravaganza on Friday and Saturday, June 25 and 26.

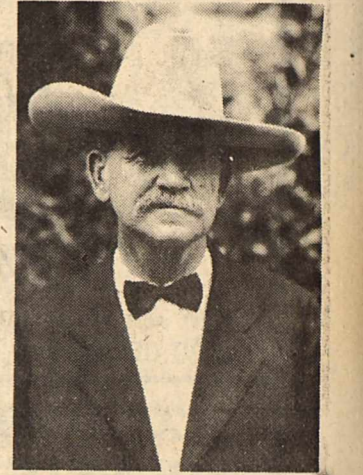

This unique production will be dedicated to the memory of Sam Graves and the famous cutting horse "Old Hub" who won the Texas Cowboy Reunion rodeo in Haskell in 1898.

The show will be under the sponsorship of the Haskell Bicentennial Committee and the Haskell Jaycees. Some 12 colorful events will be included in the show which will be staged as nearly as possible to that historic contest some 78 years ago. Interest in Hub was revived this year with the publication of "Hub, Champion Cutting Horse" by Nortex Press of Quanah. The narrative, written by Robert H. Williams, a veteran Bandiera rancher, was inspired by an account in another Nortex Press book, "Big Ranch Country" by the author's brother, J.W. Williams of Wichita Falls.

Art for the book is by Bob Garland of Lawton, Oklahoma, a southwestern artist whose oils and watercolors are in private collections over the area.

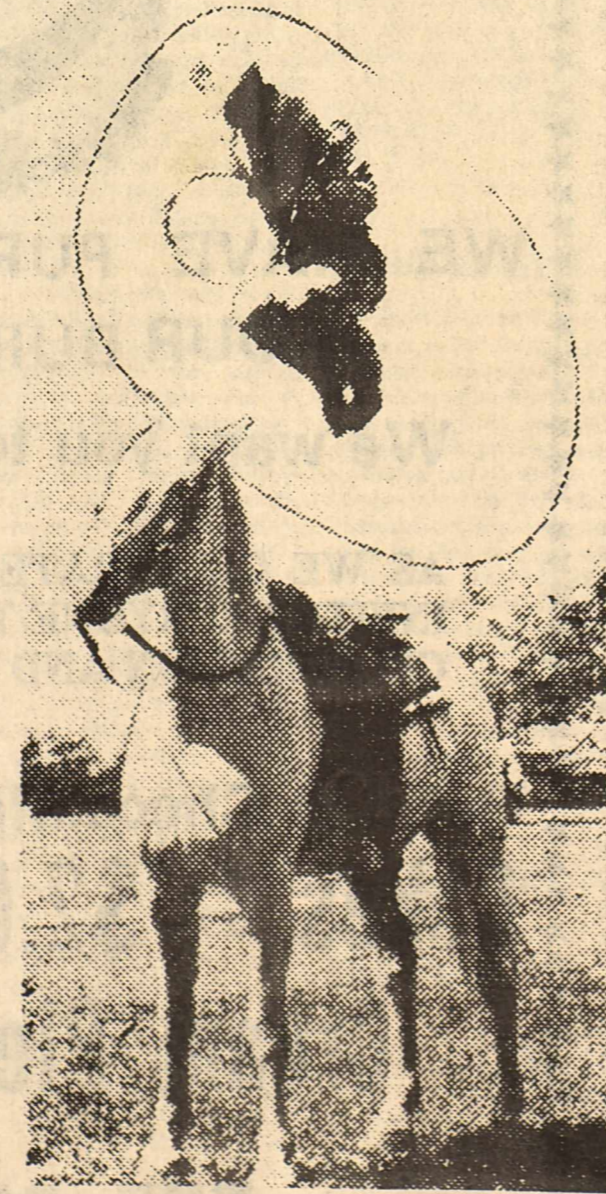

A number of descendants of Sam Graves from the Rolling Plains area are expected to be on hand for brief dedication ceremonies. Events in the Wild West Show will include grand entry and square dancing, old time breakdown music, old time calf roping contest, Old Hub cutting horse contest, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing, pole bending and other events for junior contestants, bucking Shetland mule, specialty acts and clown, greased pig race for kids.

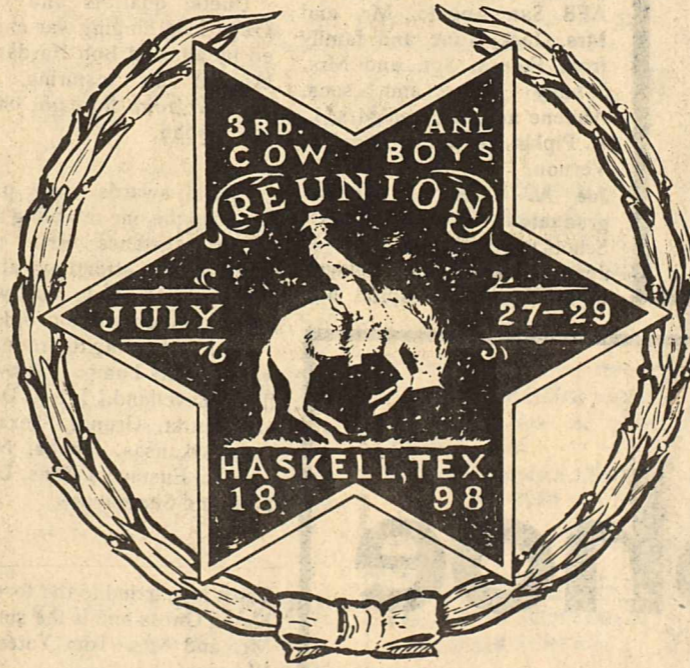

RUSS DEBARD, colorful pioneer settler of Haskell before the range was fenced, caught and sold wild horses in the early days.

fires, in the bunk houses, and along main streets of the rolling plains country of north central Texas for more than three quarters of a century.

And as long as cowboys gather each year, such as the annual reunion in Stamford, Texas, the story of Sam and Hub will be told and retold, embellishing the rich lore of the cattle country in its day of glory.

REX FELKER, now manager of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, was a rodeo and wild west performer in his early days. A former professional trick and fancy roper, he is shown here making his famous "Horseback Catch" while roping from the back of "White Bear" at Hardin-Simmons University in 1938. Rex is serving as producer and announcer for the wild west show.

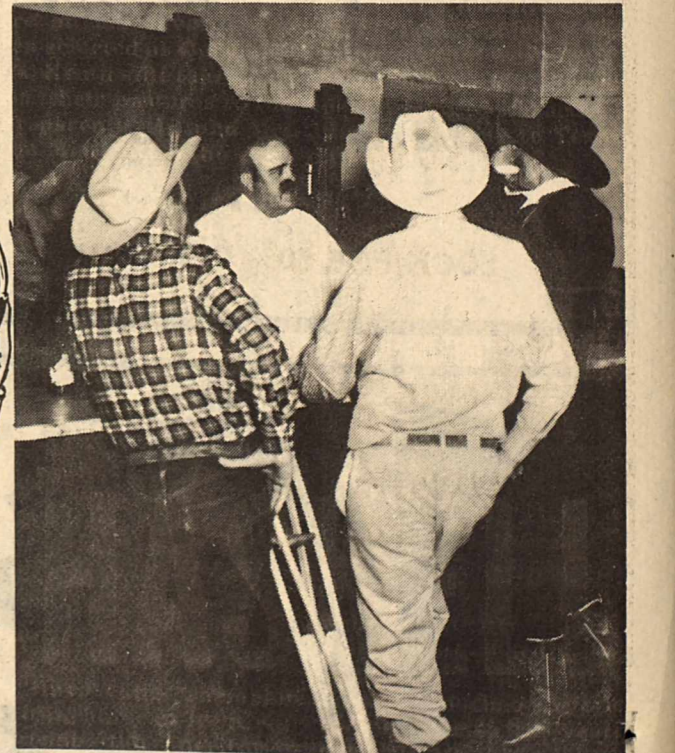

HUB Honored First in 1969

On July 1, 1969, James Powell of the Haskell Livestock Auction put on a production of the old time cutting horse contest in honor of the legendary horse, Old Hub. Cutting horses from the Pitchfork, 4-Six, Waggoner, Swenson, Coody, Circle O and SMS ranches were entered, twenty one in all. Three trophies were awarded. First place going to Demplar, ridden by Billy Drinnon of the Pitchfork Ranch, second place was also won by the Pitchfork Ranch by a horse known as King Bailey 29 and ridden by Bart Craft. Third place award went to a 21 year old horse representing the Coody Hackamore brand, owned by Nancy Coody Morales and ridden by her husband, Snuffy Morales.

CONSERVATION VIEWPOINTS
USDA Soil Conservation Service

California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts

George R. Bagley, President of the National Association of Conservation Districts, announced last week, the Senate passage of bill S-2081.

Mr. Bagley stated that the bill would establish a way for making long-range policy to encourage the wise and orderly development of the nation's soil and water resources. This applies to programs administered by the Soil Conservation Service.

The bill would require the preparation of an appraisal of the land, water, and related resources of the nation each five years. It would also require a program submitted to Congress each five years based on the appraisal, to set forth the direction for future soil and water conservation efforts on the private and non-federal lands of the nation. It would require evaluating each year, the effectiveness of the program in meeting the objectives of the law.

The National Association

strongly favors this legislation. And I am sure that such an evaluation every so often is needed to keep us on the right track.

The Senate Agricultural Committee has gone on record as declaring a need for more information concerning the conditions of the soil and the competing demands for land. This is good. Now all that is needed is for the general public to become fully aware of this same fact.

No new programs are anticipated, nor is there any anticipation that SCS will have new program authorizations. But according to the bill, provisions will be made for program planning that will more effectively utilize the existing programs now in operation.

All existing programs will continue to be carried out cooperatively, and on a voluntary participation basis by private landowners. It is believed that such legislation will aid tremendously in giving soil and water conservation the public attention that is sorely needed at this time.

As I see the picture, information concerning conservation of our natural resources of soil, water, and related resources, has always been, and will continue to be one of the principle objectives of local soil and water conservation districts and the Soil Conservation Service field offices working with the districts. However, the assimilation of such information on a national level, and published on a national level will reach many more people than local efforts ever hope to reach.

News of conservation work is effective on the local level in keeping the rural farming and ranching population informed, but what is most needed is this type of national information reaching the multitudes that reside in the urban areas of our nation—those people that are completely out of reach with the land which supports them.

SCS and the local Board of Directors of the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts greatly appreciate the efforts of our local news media in publishing our weekly articles. It is our hope and intention to keep our news releases timely, interesting, and pointed towards the people that really make the news. Our many thanks to the Haskell Free Press and the Rochester Roundup for your support.

Summer Reading Club Starts Here

Young readers at Haskell County Library are participating this summer in the Summer Reading Club, co-sponsored by the library and the Texas State Library.

They are among more than 100,000 youngsters from throughout the state who will be spending part of their summer vacations reading for fun this year. They will be keeping records of what they have read in red, white, and blue reading logs.

"Movin' On...Then and Now" is the theme for 1976. Children dressed in appropriate costumes are shown in a canoe, horse-drawn trolley, balloon, early train, stagecoach, early automobile, steamboat, biplane, helicopter, and moon rover. These pictures appear on the posters as well as on the reading log/activity books that each participant will receive. Each reading log also includes a cut-out figure that may be used to move across a time line that shows vehicles in their proper place in history.

Public library summer reading programs focus upon reading for enjoyment. Public library collections include a wide range of both informational materials and fiction. In addition to the books they read as participants in the Reading Club, youngsters will also see films, puppet shows, and other programs that will be carried on in the libraries. Project coordinator is Mrs. Elsie McGee.

Write-In Vote For Precinct 3 Sought

I'm submitting my name as a write in candidate for Commissioner of Precinct three, general election Nov. 2, 1976.

I'm a life long resident of this Precinct except for time spent in the service of my country in a combat division in the Pacific Theater during World War II, and four years in California after the war.

I'm married, and have one child. I've been farming since 1951 and now farm only two hundred and seventy five acres.

I believe that I am qualified to hold this office, and would do my best to perform the duties of Commissioner in a proper and impartial manner.

I solicit the vote and support of all those in Precinct three.

Senior Haskell County Resident Of Over 87 Years

Mrs. Alice Denson is the oldest person living in Haskell County who was born in Haskell County and has lived continuously for 87 years.

Mrs. Denson was born October 11, 1888. Her parents, W. D. and Maggie Armstrong Garren moved to Haskell County in a covered wagon from Coryell County in 1885. Mrs. Denson's father came with his father, John E. Garren, from Coryell County in 1884 and homesteaded land twelve miles southwest of Haskell, Texas. In 1885 Dave Garren brought his wife and three small children to his homestead and gradually began to cultivate the prairie land and engage in ranching. The following year he built a two story frame house on this land. Alice was their first child to be born in Haskell County. Four more children were born, giving eight children to this couple. They were Kate, Mae, Guy, Alice, Velma, Connie, Louise, and J. E.

Alice attended school at Vernon and Stamford. In 1907, she married Alf Denson whose parents had come to Haskell County from Williamson County in 1886.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Denson farmed and raised cattle. Seven children were born to the couple. Gold, Juanita, Lonell, Margaret, A. C., Jack and Guy.

Alf. Denson died in 1955. Mrs. Denson makes her home in a large stone house built in 1946 on her farm which is two miles from her birth place. One of her sons manages her farm and cattle interest for her, but she continues to have an active interest in all farm and cattle activities. At age 87, Mrs. Denson is an early riser, and bakes hot biscuits for her breakfast. She does outside chores which consists of milking a cow, tending chickens, raising a vegetable and flower garden and finds time to play the piano.

Mrs. Denson is a member of the First Baptist Church in Stamford and attends regularly. She is also a member of several civic and social clubs.

For several years, Mrs. Denson has had Sunday afternoon coffees in her home for her children, visiting relatives and friends. Summertime adds homemade ice cream and bar-b-que for everyone's enjoyment. Until a few years ago, she rode in the parade on horseback for the 4th of July Rodeo celebrations in Stamford. When asked why she does not ride in the parade now she replied, "My horse died." Mrs. Denson is indeed a most remarkable woman.

REDDY'S HELPFUL FREEZER TIPS

LOCK IN FLAVOR: Use moisture and vapor-proof materials especially designed for freezers to wrap your foods. Tightly sealed, these lock in flavor and moisture and prevent "freezer burn" (surface drying) on foods. Don't use wax paper, bread paper or regular cellophane for freezer foods.

LABEL PACKAGES: Date and identify freezer packages so (1) you don't accumulate a lot of mysterious shapes and (2) you'll be able to pick out foods that have been in the freezer longest.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF SALES: Avoid overstocking with commercially frozen food that's always available; use your freezer as your own bargain counter and store foods you can buy on sale. But do allow space for short-time baked goods, leftovers and special party foods.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy—but only YOU can use it wisely!

Mental Retardation

Editor—This is one of a series of articles about Mental Retardation prepared by Mrs. Eugene Cochran and the Public Education Committee of the Texas Association for Retarded Citizens.

One Person's Opinion
Most of us involved with Associations for Retarded Citizens are well aware of the war now being waged against mental retardation at all levels of our society. Government programs, preschool screening, Headstart, nutritional programs, and medical advances are just some of our efforts to reduce the incidence of mental retardation.

However, one potential cause of mental retardation is nearing epidemic proportions —child battering. The United States Children's Bureau places the annual incidence of child battering at 50,000 to 75,000 cases. Dr. Vincent Fontana, a leading authority of the problem of CHILD BATTERING and director of pediatrics at New York's St. Vincent's Hospital, speculates that at the present rate of increase, 1.5 million cases of suspected maltreatment can be expected in the next 5-10 years.

These cases will include an estimated 50,000 deaths of children due to battering and another 300,000 children who will be permanently injured physically, mentally and emotionally. Child battering is probably the most common cause of death in children today, outnumbering any of the infectious diseases...it is a national disgrace, states Dr. Fontana.

Theodore Irwin, author of the Public Affairs Committee pamphlet "To Combat Child Abuse and Neglect", found that most child battering is done by apparently "normal" people during a critical period in their life. In serious cases of child abuse, fewer than 10 percent of the parents are found to be alcoholics, emotionally disturbed, or mentally ill. Life's stresses and strains make them lash out at their children. Even in Idaho, a rural state free from many of the big city problems, there is an extreme increase in the incidence of child battering. Residents were shocked when they learned of a 2 year old who was dead on arrival at a hospital after being beaten about the head, back and legs, and burned on one foot.

Child battering can obviously cause permanent brain damage with resulting mental retardation. This epidemic must be stopped for our battle against mental retardation to gain rather than lose ground.

The choices are yours...how can you choose the life of mental retardation for your child? If you know of child battering or other child abuse, call the toll free number listed, DIAL 1-800-292-5400. The Texas law says you MUST report child abuse. Not to report is a misdemeanor. Save our children!

Knox County Playdays

The open playday schedule has been set for the three riding club arenas in Knox County for the 1976 season.

The presidents of the three clubs, which are the Knox County Riding Club of Benjamin, the Lake Creek Arena Association of Munday and the Brazos Valley Recreation Association of Knox City, annually meet to set the playnights for the three clubs in order to avoid conflict of dates.

The playnights are open to anyone between the ages of one and nineteen years old. All the club's playnights have three age groups, determining the division in which the contestant is eligible to compete.

The pee wee division is for youngsters from one year through 8. The junior division competitors are from 9 through 12. Senior division riders are from 13 through 19. A jackpot barrel race open to any age person is also run while bookkeepers are figuring trophy winners in the regular playday events.

Barrels, flags and poles are the events run at each playnight. Trophies are given to first place winners in each event in each age group, with a high point trophy also being awarded in each age division at the Lake Creek Arena Association in Munday and at the BVRA arena in Knox City. The Knox County Riding Club in Benjamin gives first and second place trophies in each event in each age division, with a high point trophy and a runner-up high point trophy given in each age division.

Entry fees are nominal. Books open at 7:30 p.m. with events beginning at 8 p.m. at all three arenas.

Following is a schedule of Knox County playdays.

Apply Now For Texas Tech Financial Aid

It is not too late to apply for financial aid for the fall semester, 1976, at Texas Tech University, according to Dudley S. Akins, director of the office of financial aids.

"However," he said, "time is pretty short. We're talking about only two months."

Programs administered by the office of financial aids at Texas Tech include scholarships, grants, loans, college work study and referral service for part-time jobs in Lubbock.

Anyone interested in financial aid for the fall semester should contact the financial aids office, room 131 West Hall, Texas Tech University, soon.

Akins said that the biggest problem at Texas Tech is not unclaimed scholarships or scholarships for which no one applies, but getting the word to all prospective or eligible students.

WASHINGTON

"As It Looks from Here"

OMAR BURLESON
Congressman—17th District

WASHINGTON, D. C.— THIS PAST WEEK THE CONGRESS RE-ENACTED, for a period of a little less than four years, the so-called Revenue Sharing Act. This idea of granting Federal money to the States and Local entities of Government was first enacted in 1971 and expires at the end of this year. THE EXTENDED LAW CALLS FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF ABOUT $6.5

billion per year to be used rather freely by local Governments. An effort was made to require Municipal and County Governments to "restructure" their system if, in the opinion of Federal officials, found to be "inefficient" in its present operation. The attitude of the sponsors of such a move seemed to say, "If you have no problems, we will help you get some."

A CASE OF THIS KIND EXISTS IN A SMALL TOWN only fifty miles from Washington. The community of Hillsboro, Virginia, is one of the oldest incorporated towns in the Country. It was there that George Washington, accompanying General Braddock, marched through with an army during the Revolutionary War. More recently, however, the State of Virginia and the Federal Government have been trying to get this small town to change its ways. The town gets its water from a spring on the side of the Catoctin Mountains which flows pure water at the rate of five gallons per minute. It is brought into the town through glass-lined pipes. The spring is covered by a handsome little stone building with a tin roof and is carefully tended. The unused water finds its way into the head waters of the Potomac where it must be a stranger in that polluted stream.

OFFICIALS WHO SEEMINGLY ARE SUSPICIOUS of water that flows pure out of the ground require a sample of that water to be sent in for testing every two weeks. The report comes back "pure water" and is posted on a bulletin board outside of the post office for all to see.

THIS SEEMINGLY DOES NOT SATISFY TECHNICIANS who come along and nag the water commissioner for a valve to be placed here and an unneeded storage tank to be installed there. They also tell the town that it must plan for the future in order to handle increased population. The fact that the population of Hillsboro has not varied significantly in the past 200 years does not matter. The State hired a planning firm to make a population projection as to what the population might be by 1995. They wanted them to build a modern sewer system but the City Council says that a modern sewer system would mean suburbs which they don't want.

IN THE REPORT OF THE SURVEY, it says, "The town is very clean and well kept." In the body of the report it says that the community is served by inadequate septic tanks and malfunctioning cesspools and outdoor privies, this in spite of its cleanliness. IF THE PEOPLE OF HILLSBORO UNDERSTAND the matter properly, what the planners want is to take water from the Catoctin Creek fed by the spring, pour chemicals in it and use this treated water to supply their needs. The sewage would then be treated with more chemicals and dumped back into the creek. All this could be done at an estimated cost of $230,000 which amounts to about $2,000 for every man, woman or child in the town. The average monthly sewer charge, advise the planners, would be about $18.00 per month, making the rate one of the highest in the area.

IF HILLSBORO SHOULD HAVE TO FOLLOW THE PLANNER'S DIRECTION for growth, it would lose both its fine spring and its fine surplus in the bank. The people don't want to be debt-burdened; they don't want to become overcrowded; be forced to levy taxes and to make the town a more expensive place in which to live.

Knox City Trail Ride Will Stop Here

Haskell's Rice Springs fairgrounds will be the overnight camp sight for the riders on the Knox County Riding Club's annual trail ride, June 30. The trail riders' final destination this year is the Stamford Cowboy Reunion Parade and Rodeo.

The trail riders will be accompanied by Roy Daniel's covered wagon, which carries water for the thirsty horsemen. Daniels, who is from Truscott, and his covered wagon also give tired young (and not so young) cowboys and cowgirls another means of transportation, and helps alleviate the need by some riders for pillows on the second day of the trip.

Chairman of this year's trail ride is Bud Carver of Knox City, who expressed his appreciation for the assistance of Haskell County Judge Beverly Roberson and Haskell Sheriff Garth Garrett in helping to secure the use of the fairgrounds for the trail ride's overnight camp.

Carver also expressed appreciation to James Powell who graciously offered the use of his sale barn and pens to the trail riders.

The trail ride will leave the Knox City, Haskell, Munday, Weinert crossroads at approximately 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 30. The group, which will be accompanied by Knox County Sheriff H. C. Stone, expects to be in Haskell by 5:30 or 6 p.m.

According to Carver, the group will break camp and head for Stamford about 8:30 a.m. Thursday. They expect to be at the Y at the north edge of Stamford by 1:30 or 2 p.m.

O'Brien — Knox City To Hold Consolidation Referendum July 10

O'Brien — Knox City school consolidation was the topic of discussion during the two hour joint meeting of both school boards Monday night in O'Brien school.

Mr. Doren Eskew, attorney for both schools flew in from Austin especially for this meeting in order to explain the legal aspects involved as well as make suggestions as to how matters could be resolved.

Due to new state election laws the only time an election could be held would be on August 14 only two days before school is scheduled to start, said Mr. Eskew. Leaving the matter to be resolved until that date would be a great hardship on the schools and cause a loss of education time of about six weeks for the students. It was recommended that the schools enter into a contract for one year thereby enabling both boards to make necessary arrangements to get school started with minimum of confusion.

A referendum was suggested to enable the board to determine how citizens of both towns felt about the consolidation. The results of this election (not governed by state election laws) would give the board an idea of how the voters would be voting on August 14 and guide them in a decision on the contract which would be in effect until the legal election in August.

Both boards unanimously voted to hold the referendum on July 10, and make every effort to get all the facts to the voters so that they could make their decision, thereby guiding the boards decision concerning the contract.

Both boards adjourned with the understanding that they would meet each week until July 10, to assure the public of information necessary in understanding the issue.

Commissioners Court Meets

The Commissioners Court, regular session, met on June 14, with all members present.

Business conducted during this meeting included paying of all approved bills, also approved was the cancellation of certificate number 31 and 32 from the county tax roll.

The reimbursement of beer and liquor license fees in the amount of $77.50 to Don Cathy and beer and liquor fees in the amount of $5.50 to Jimmy Owens, Tax Assessor-Collector were also approved. The fees were taken from liquor license number 15 and beer license number 10214.

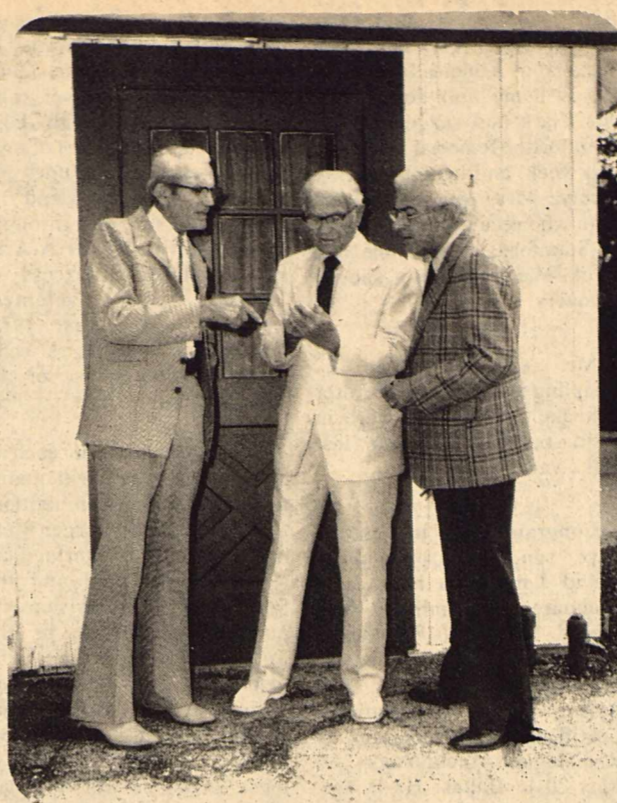

Upon the recommendation of Tax Assessor, Jimmy Owens, Becky Gordy was employed in the tax office effective June 16.

Two final motions were made and approved. They were to join the Texas Association of Counties for Workman Compensation Insurance, and to advertise for bids on the 1976 truck for Precinct 4.

hazards, the horses will be taken by trailers from the Y to the Stamford Rodeo Grounds.

Knox County Riding Club parade uniforms will be donned by the trail riders when they participate in the Stamford Cowboy Reunion parade and then the grand entry at the Thursday night rodeo performance.

Anyone interested in participating in the trail ride is asked to contact Bud Carver in Knox City or any of the trail ride committee members, who are Bob Cude of Goree, Cotton Smith and Larry Thompson of Munday, Bobby Roberson and Stanton Brown of Benjamin. There is no entry fee for the ride. However, there will be a small charge for the cookout.

GOT AN OLD AND "AUTHENTIC" SCHOOL HOUSE laying around? The search is on for an authentic, old, and small Texas schoolhouse to be restored on the grounds of the Institute of Texan Cultures during the Texas Folklife Festival August 5-8. Heading up the search are O. T. Baker, manager of the festival (left); Bartlett Coker, chairman of the board of Bartlett Coker Associates, Inc., Architects; and Jack R. Maguire, executive director of the Institute. The Institute is part of the University of Texas at San Antonio.

Pet Deer Is A No No

WICHITA FALLS—As game wardens start their annual pet-deer roundup, officials with the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department advise recreationists to leave deer in the wild.

This is the time of year when fawns appear in large numbers and are very often mistaken as abandoned.

Why not take it home, care for it and let the kids have a pet deer?

This action not only exposes children and adults alike to extreme danger but also is a violation of state game laws. After the fawn becomes grown it will develop sharp hoofs and antlers which are capable of causing a great deal of destruction. In most cases, picking up a fawn means a confrontation with law enforcement officials at the family's home. Members of the family are always emotionally involved with the fawn and charges are often filed against the head of the family.

Haskell Bicentennial Happenings

By Rozie Parker

The Bicentennial Parade, scheduled for 5 p.m. Monday, June 28 is billed as a "Walking Parade" and anyone in the county may enter, according to Bettye McBroom, chairman of the committee planning this portion of our celebration.

"Anyone who would like to be in the parade is welcome, not just the children", Bettye said. Bicentennial costumes are to be worn, and it would be great to have families participate. Perhaps there would be organizations who would like to be in on this; Marijane Cunningham said members of Young Homemakers are planning to walk in the parade. So people of all ages are invited to join in the fun.

Participants are to meet at the Trinity Baptist Church at 4:30 p.m.; Sheriff Garth Garrett is taking care of traffic arrangements and C. O. Holt will be in charge of getting the parade going on its prescribed route around the courthouse square.

On display at the Ben Franklin store and Haskell

National Bank are two quilts to be given away by Haskell Young Homemakers at the Arts and Crafts show Friday and Saturday, July 2 and 3.

Each block was prepared by a member of the club and depicts either a symbol of Texas or America's history. One quilt is "put together" with brown and orange calico print and the other has red and white calico strips.

Donations of $1 will be used by the club for a community improvement project. The $1 donation may be made at Ben Franklin's, Haskell National Bank, Owens Radio and Electric, or you may contact any Young Homemaker club member.

The members also made pillows centered with the historical symbols and these will be for sale at the Arts and Crafts show.

Making big plans for the County-wide picnic slated for Saturday night, July 3 at 7 p.m. at Rice Springs Park are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Adkins and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Reynolds. They will be directing the games which will be a lot of fun for all who attend. So be sure to plan to bring a picnic supper plus drinks for your own family and make this a special time of enjoyment.

Ruby Medford is emphasizing that this is the type thing our forefathers enjoyed; a time of food, fellowship and fun for every member of every family in Haskell County.

Word has been received that a unique flag ceremony will be staged at 8:15 p.m. Sunday night, July 4 prior to the Festival of Religious and Patriotic Music.

This will be Paint Creek's contribution to the county celebration, Mrs. Gertrude Tiley has announced. Mrs. Tiley, Home Economics teacher at Paint Creek, was instrumental in getting the 50 flags from Ft. Hood to be used in the ceremony. Uncertainty about the date the flags would be available had delayed announcement of this portion of the celebration.

By the way, if any club or organization would like to have a food or drink concession at the Fair Grounds during the Flea Market and Arts and Crafts show, you may call Bynum's, 864-3181.

Also, Bicentennial costumes may be worn anytime during the celebration which begins this week with the Wild West show. Opal Adkins and Mattie Merle Felker have suggested they be worn especially this Saturday and then beginning Monday, the 28th and on through the following Sunday. Many of us have worn them at different times during the year, and lots of people have been asking when they should be worn.

Nancy Toliver has announced that Pageant rehearsal will be this Sunday night, June 27 at 8:30 in Rice Springs Park.

There's no charge for the Parade, Pageant, Arts and Crafts Show, Flea Market, Picnic or Festival.

Let's see—have I left anything out? This might be a good time for my sermonette but maybe not! But do participate—we've freedom to plan, freedom to choose, freedom to sing, dance, speak, freedom to just watch. I don't want to miss a thing because I won't be around for the next 100th year's celebration. So come on, let's celebrate!

Bicentennial Do's By The Neighbors

FORT GRIFFIN FANDANGLE

A centennial celebration in our Bicentennial year? Sounds a little strange until you recollect that the Fort Griffin Fandangle celebrates the settling of the country each year about this time. You must also recall that this neck of the woods wasn't exactly over-populated in 1776, therefore to depict the look and feel of the times long since past, in a Bicentennial atmosphere, the Fandangle must portray how our forefathers must have celebrated this country's 100th birthday. The song, "Special Centennial Summer", was written by Bill Overton, and is a production number that spotlights this show.

You'll enjoy the buffalo, longhorns, stagecoach, train, wagons, cowboys and all the other gear necessary to produce one of the best and most entertaining shows in the nation when it hits the stage. You don't want to miss this year's edition of the Fort Griffin Fandangle to be presented this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 24, 25 and 26, its final big week. With the annual parade taking place Thursday. Tickets are still on sale.

ALBANY COUNTY FAIR

The Albany County Fair is scheduled for July 4, as their way of celebrating the nation's 200th birthday in Shackelford County.

The fair is set to begin at 12:30 at the courthouse. Events to be featured will be the dedication of the county historical marker and the soon to be completed gazebo on the courthouse lawn.

A special ceremony honoring the naturalized citizens of the county will also be held. At 2:00 Albany will join the rest of the nation and ring its bells to commemorate the exact time the Declaration of Independence was signed.

The fair will consist of food booths, serving all the popular favorites, along with games for the young and young at heart, childrens wagon rides, stick horse races (bring your own horse) plus many other activities to please everyone.
