NUMBER FORTY-TWO

Decisions which are causing questions have recently come from the chambers of the County Judge and Commissioners Court of Haskell County. Following are some of the actions which have raised questions.

September 28, 1976, Commissioners set the 1977 tax rate at 75c and voted to divide the tax rate as follows: 70c into General Fund; 4c into Jury Fund and 1c into permanent Improvement Fund. Both motions passed unanimously.

Two days later, September 30, the same group held the final hearing on the proposed budget for 1977. No one attended the meeting other than the County Judge, Commissioners, County Clerk and County Auditor. According to the minutes of the meeting, a proposed budget was unanimously adopted. At the same meeting all members of the Court voted to divide the Special Road and Bridge Funds as follows: Prec. #1, 35%; Prec. #2, 20%; Prec. #3, 25%, and Prec. #4, 20%. All members of the Commissioners Court attended both of these meetings.

On October 4, the Free Press asked the County Judge for a copy of the 1977 budget and were told that it was not complete. When Judge Roberson was asked what the total of the budget was he said that he did not know. Later that afternoon in a telephone conversation, he estimated that the 1977 budget would be "about $600,000.00."

One question that immediately comes to mind is how is it possible to set a tax rate before you know how much money will be needed?

The County Judge and Commissioners met June 22, sitting as a Board of Equalization. At that meeting which was well publicized, there was a very large crowd of taxpayers. (Standing room only in the district courtroom, which seats 161 people).

Many questions were asked at that meeting which according to Judge Roberson, could not be completely answered until the budget was completed. If those questions could not be answered before the budget was complete, how could the tax rate be set before the budget was complete?

State law requires that the County publish in a newspaper of general circulation, a notice of a public hearing on the proposed budget. This notice appeared in the Rochester Roundup. Since the Roundup has a circulation in Haskell County of about 300, we can not help but wonder if the notice was published there to keep from having another crowd such as attended the equalization meeting.

This week Judge Roberson notified the Roundup that the Quarterly Statement of the County would be published there. No reference concerning the publication of the Statement was made in the minutes of the Commissioners meeting of October 11.

The Free Press and the Roundup have both requested that the County publish public notices and quarterly statements in both newspapers in the County so that the maximum number of taxpayers can see how their taxes are being spent. Both newspapers also agreed to work with County officials in keeping expenses incurred by these publications at a minimum.

This column is not intended to imply illegal action on the part of the County, but is printed only to show that the Commissioners Court and County Judge are not making much of an attempt to inform the County Taxpayers of how they propose to spend our money, or for that matter how they are now spending it.

Christmas Program

The Haskell Chamber of Commerce 1976 Christmas program will begin tomorrow, October 15, when all Haskell merchants start passing out tickets with purchases.

A total of $1,700.00 in gift certificates redeemable in Haskell will be given to approximately 30 winners during four drawings. The drawings will be held Dec. 4, 11, 18, and 23.

PSAT Tests Set Oct. 19

Mrs. Betty Davis, guidance director at Haskell-Rochester Schools, has announced that juniors will be able to join over one million other students around the world in taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) this fall. The test, cosponsored by the College Board and National Merit Scholarship Corporation is an important step in making college plans.

Scheduled for October 19, 1976, the PSAT/NMSQT measures verbal and mathematical aptitude-two abilities important in doing college work.

The test can also lead to other opportunities for high school students.

-they can enter the competition for scholarships administered by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation

-they can participate in the College Board's Student Search Service and have their name sent to colleges interested in students like them;

-they can get a good idea of what the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) is like.

With their score reports, students will receive a copy of Your PSAT/NMSQT Scores, a booklet that contains valuable information about estimating SAT scores, finding out where to get and how to use more detailed information about colleges and financial aid, and planning for financing a college education.

VONNIE HISE attempts to break loose from a Rotan defender last Friday night. Hise led the Indian attack with 137 yards rushing in 16 carries for an average of 8.5 yards per carry. Haskell trounced Rotan 47-8. (Staff Photo by Don Comedy)

Indians Trounce Rotan, 47-8

The Haskell Indians began playing up to their capacity last Friday night annihilating the Rotan Yellowhammers 47 to 8. The Indians made 511 yards total offense while holding Rotan to 66 yards. The first unit offense for Haskell only played the first half and scored six times. They scored every time they had the ball.

The Indians play the Aspermont Hornets at Haskell Friday night at 7:30. Aspermont has a record of 2 wins and 3 losses. Their conference record is no wins and 2 losses.

Last Friday night, the Indians took the opening kickoff and marched 67 yards for a touchdown with Vonnie Hise going the last 24 yards. The drive consumed 8 plays. Gary McAdams kicked the PAT. The Indians then held the Yellowhammers on defense and started another drive which consumed 9 plays and 57 yards with Kelvin Marshall darting 8 yards for the TD. McAdams kicked the PAT. The Indians recovered a fumble on Rotan's next possession and proceeded to march for their 3rd TD in the first quarter with Marshall going 12 yards for the TD. McAdams kicked PAT to make the score 21 to 0 at the 1st quarter.

The Indians again stopped the Yellowhammers, then proceeded to march 62 yards in 4 plays with Jimmy Browning running a counter play 30 yards for the TD. McAdams kicked point. Rotan then got a long kickoff return, a penalty, and a pretty pass play for their only TD. They scored 2 points on a well executed fake kick. The Indians took the kickoff and marched for another TD with Hise scoring from a yard out. On the next Indian possession, McAdams threw a pass to Archie Crim who scored from 35 yards out, leaving a field covered with broken tackles. McAdams missed the PAT.

At the start of the 3rd quarter, the Indian second unit took over on offense. They consistently moved the ball but were only able to score one time with Hise scoring from one yard out. Marshall kicked the PAT; however, the Indians were guilty of holding so Marshall kicked it again from the 18 yard line.

The B-team took over the last quarter and also moved the ball quite well although they failed to score. They showed a lot of promise for future years.

All of the Indians played much better. They played with more zip and determination as they moved their season (Continued on Page 4)

Charges Filed Against Three

A twelve day investigation ended October 11 when Haskell City Police Chief and a Texas Department of Public Safety Trooper arrested three persons and filed criminal mischief charges before the Haskell County Attorney.

The three males, two 16 year olds and one 17 year old, were charged with the painting of walls, sidewalks, and benches at Haskell High School about Sept. 29 and 30.

City Police Chief Jim Toland, and DPS Trooper James Davis led the investigation which was responsible for the arrests.

The three were released pending action of the Grand Jury and Juvenile Court.

Wrong Place! Wrong Town!

"The message enclosed in General Telephones statements, dated October 7, to Haskell customers was in error and should be destroyed" according to G. H. Kehoe, General's Customer Manager in Seymour.
The notice, which referred to a new payment contractor and business office number was intended for General Telephones in Haskell, Oklahoma.
"The error resulted from our company serving two Hasskells and as we have Texas headquarters, the computer sent the notices to Haskell, Texas instead of Haskell, Oklahoma," Kehoe explained.
"Mr. Smith was mowing a lot with a garden tractor when he backed up, striking his son who had been playing behind the tractor. The boy's left foot was amputated.
Do any of these accidents sound familiar?
They are accident patterns which are repeated time after time. These patterns are:
1. Contact with the rotating blade. This often occurs when the victim is clearing the discharge chute; when the victim adjusts the machine without turning it off and waiting for the blade to stop; or when the machine hits an obstacle such as a rock and the victim's foot slips under the housing.
2. Propelled objects—Wire, rocks and twigs can be shot out either through the discharge chute or from under the housing. Many victims in these cases are bystanders.
3. Overturning—Riding mowers used on steep slopes are involved in this type of accident most often.
4. Mower running over the victim—This often occurs when a riding mower or garden tractor is being driven in reverse. Push type mowers are dangerous when the operator pulls the mower backward over the foot, or slips going uphill, allowing the mower to roll backward.
Experts at the Texas Department of Health Resources say that reel lawn mowers are safer than rotary lawn mowers, primarily because their blades move more slowly than those of rotary mowers. A common accident pattern with reel lawn mowers, however, is attempting to release the reel when it is jammed by a twig or other object without first shutting off the engine.
Since reel lawn mowers cannot cut tall grass efficiently, most consumers prefer rotary mowers. Almost 90 percent of all power lawn mowers manufactured each year are rotary mowers. Their blades can reach speeds of 200 miles per hour and can hurl objects 50 feet or more, unless the mowers are equipped with chute deflectors. If your mower has such a deflector, don't take it off and thereby invite an accident to happen.
How about the gasoline used to power your mower? It can be a time bomb just waiting to explode or catch fire.
One of the biggest "don'ts" in handling gasoline is: Don't store it in a glass container. And, keep it out of any garage or storage room in which a water heater is located. Gasoline fumes—in case of a spill—can be as explosive as a stick of dynamite.
Gasoline should be kept in a well-ventilated area (away from your living quarters) and in tightly-capped safety cans. Don't refuel a mower while it is running or while the engine is hot. And, never refuel a mower indoors because the unseen vapors may be ignited by a spark. Also, cigarettes and gasoline don't mix.
One other caution—never start your motor or work on it with the motor running in an enclosed area where carbon monoxide can collect.
The Department of Health Resources wants you to have a pretty lawn this summer, but above all safety comes first!"

The 3200 ft. paved, lighted strip with beacon light is now operational and available to the public. This is the first phase of construction on the site. Plans are in the making for hangars, a communication system and other facilities. The total cost has been $201,000 with 75% of the costs being furnished by the Federal Aviation Administration. The Texas Aeronautics Commission, the City of Munday and private contributions made up the balance needed. It was begun in October 1971 and completed in March this year.

Dedication of the air strip will begin with a fly-in at 11:00 a.m. Friday morning with coffee and donuts served to the early arrivals. Congressman Omar Burleson, U. S. Congressional District 17, will give the principal address. He will be introduced by State Representative W. S. "Bill" Healy of Paducah. Others on the program will be Mr. Gerald Musick, Chief Engineer, Federal Aviation Administration, Fort Worth, Mr. Leonard Henry, Engineer, Texas Aeronautics Commission, Austin, Clint J. Norman,

Mayor, City of Munday will emcee the program. Trophies will be awarded to: the first arrival, the first woman pilot and the pilot traveling the farthest distance, with other trophies awarded during the afternoon hours for dropping flour bombs on fixed targets and spot landing contests. A free barbeque will be served at the noon hour.

The landing strip is located on 80 acres of land and provides ample space for future expansion. In October 1971 the project was sought through an Airport Advisory Board commissioned by the City Planning Commission under direction of the late Mayor J. E. Reeves who was Mayor of the City for 12 consecutive years. Mr. Reeves retired in April this year and passed away in May. The Airport Advisory Board responsible for securing and completion of the land purchase, grand and local financing are: M. L. Wiggins, Chairman, Robert Nix, Doris Dickerson, Dr. W. H. Stewart, C. P. Baker, and Mrs. Callie Ann Combs.

The public is invited to attend the dedication and barbeque. Mayor Norman extends a special invitation to all area pilots, and flying enthusiasts. Static displays from area military bases will be set up at the site.

CONSERVATION VIEWPOINTS USDA Soil Conservation Service

Assisting
California Creek and Wichita-Brazos
Soil and Water Conservation Districts

Each year, Mel Davis, Administrator of the Soil Conservation Service, Washington, issues his annual message to SCS'ers throughout the nation. Each message is filled with interesting data on conservation work throughout the United States.

Davis says that visible conservation is getting conservation on the land.

"We need more visible conservation on the American Landscape," reported Davis. "A plan in a drawer is not conservation. A committee meeting is not conservation. Conservation is building parallel terraces where they are needed. Conservation is cutting down water loss in an irrigation system. Conservation is building dams to slow down floodwater, or better yet, helping evaluate the hazard of placing property in the flood plain."

Visible conservation means getting the systems installed and operating, so that when the rains fall or the wind blows, the soil stays in place and the streams run as clear, clean, and calm as our technology and ingenuity can make them.

Visible conservation means achieving measurable results, not just miles of windbreaks and acres of stripcropping, but measurable reductions in soil losses and sediment load in streams and rivers. It also means measurable reductions in flood damages and water losses in irrigation.

Visible conservation means dedicating land to the proper use. And that includes retaining our Nation's prime farmlands for food and fiber production. Prime agricultural lands require less energy to farm and are usually far easier and less costly to protect from soil erosion than less desirable acreages.

Visible conservation means quality as well as quantity; it means conservation systems that meet the specific needs of each farmer and rancher and the needs of developing communities.

In the days and years ahead, you will be hearing more about visible conservation. Maybe not as such, but in our planning and application of conservation on the land as requested by landowners and operators.

Jim Hudson, Harry Koehler, and I, along with our Boards of Directors of the California Creek and Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation Districts will be emphasizing the needs to meet the objectives outlined by Mr. Davis. We will be working towards achieving visible conservation—something you can see as you drive through the country-side. We will be working towards reducing soil losses through the installation of proper land treatment. We solicit your assistance in helping to reduce soil losses by water and wind erosion.

Kenny Miller Active In New Art Form

Snyder artist Kenny Miller attracts a lot of attention wherever he exhibits his work.

People who view the pieces often mistake them for etchings, but his processes involve no chemicals. The works also resemble fine-line drawings, but he does his drawing with a stylus.

For lack of a better title, Miller calls his work Placti-scratch. People who did scratch board art work in school may recognize his process as somewhat similar to that.

He begins with a sheet of plastic three-sixteenths of an inch thick and cut to any size he thinks suitable for the subject.

On the back of the plastic, Millers sprays paint. When the paint is dry he sketches on it using a stylus, knife or other sharp-pointed tool.

When the design is completed, Miller coats the surface with white paint. It fills in the scratches, making the design appear white against the colored background.

With the painting completed, Miller buffs the front of the plaque with fine steel wool and the piece is ready to be framed or displayed on an easel. Miller makes frames for many of the pictures.

Most of Miller's designs are drawn freehand, but he can reproduce a scene from a sketch by transferring the design to the painted surface.

More modern subjects include oil field scenes and sometimes a bit of wildlife.

A 1966 graduate of Haskell High School, Miller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller of Haskell. He received a bachelor of science degree in art from McMurry College. He taught in Snyder schools since graduation from McMurry, and now has two classes of pottery and a beginning art class at Snyder High School.

Miller and his wife, the former Sandra Kay Ward, are the parents of two daughters, Amy Jewel, 5 and Mendy Kay, 18 months. Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Ward of Hermleigh.

KIM AND KATHY HASKELL'S DRUM MAJORS

Sisters Are Haskell Drum Majors

The Haskell Junior High Warrior Band and the Haskell High School Indian Band have more in common this year than most people realize. It seems that both Drum Majors live at the same Teepee. Kim and Kathy Campbell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Duward Campbell of Haskell are leading both Junior High and High School Bands this year. It is believed that this is the first time these two Bands have had sisters for Drum Majors at the same time.

Kim, 16 is a junior at Haskell High School and this is her second year as Drum Major for the Indian Band. In Junior High School she was also drum major for the Warrior Band.

There are two more Indian Maidens at the Campbell home, Kay, 15 is also active in the Band and Kristen, who is 6 years old.

CRUNCHY, PEANUTTY CANDY—Crunchy Peanut Brittle, chock-full of tasty, nutritious peanuts, isn't difficult to make if you remember to spread the candy thinly on the cookie sheet, says the Texas Department of Agriculture home economist. Making homemade peanut brittle can be a family activity—there's nothing like an old-fashioned candy-making session to bring everyone together in the kitchen.

From the TAP Kitchen

Texas Department of Agriculture - John C. White, Commissioner

- 3 cups sugar
- 1-1/3 cups white corn syrup
- 1/2 cup water
- 4 cups raw peanuts
- 3 tsp. butter
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2-1/2 tsp. baking soda

Combine sugar, syrup and water in large saucepan. Boil until thread spins or until temperature reaches 250 degrees on candy thermometer. Add peanuts and stir continuously until temperature reaches 300 degrees (hard crack stage). Be careful that mixture does not burn. Pour onto 2 buttered 15-1/2x12-inch cookie sheets; spread quickly to about 1/4-inch thick. Cool, break into pieces. Yield: 2-1/2 to 3 lbs.

Farm-facts

A Weekly Report Of Agri-Business News

Compiled From Sources Of The TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
John C. White, Commissioner

Jury Still Out... Livestock Slaughter Increases... Still A Problem.

Although the final figures for 1976 are not yet in, Texas is making progress in its goal to become number one in agriculture production in the nation.

It now appears Texas will remain as the nation's leading cotton producing state and will retain its number one position in grain sorghum.

By far and away, Texas will retain its number one ranking in many categories of livestock.

Sorghum harvesting is continuing in the northern sections, and the prediction of about 318,000,000 bushels for this year is down from last year but production is still sufficient to keep Texas number one in that commodity.

The cotton crop this year is also still being harvested, but the total production is expected to be around a million bales higher than a year ago.

The corn crop this year is probably the most dramatic increase of any single commodity percentage-wise in the state. Corn production this year is estimated at around 161,000,000 bushels which would be more than 45,000,000 bushels more than last year.

Also of importance is the yield per acre. A whopping 115 bushel-per-acre average is set for Texas this year.

That's more per acre than the midwestern states. This past year, Texas ranked 11th in the nation in total corn production with 113,300,000 bushels. Based on predictions so far this year, Texas could easily move into the top 10 states in corn production.

In livestock, Texas has no state close on its heels. Total cattle and calves in the state as of Jan. 1 is estimated at 15,600,000 head; that's more than twice as many as the second leading state, Iowa.

Texas is also number one in cattle feeding; it is number one in numbers of beef cows that have calves (more than twice as many as second-ranking Missouri), and the state is number one in all sheep and lambs.

RED MEAT PRODUCTION in Texas showed a 12 per cent increase in the state, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service notes.

Red meat production for eight months of this year was almost 3,000,000 pounds compared with almost 2,000,000 pounds a year ago.

The live weight of cattle slaughtered was 916 pounds compared to 909 pounds a month earlier.

Nationwide, commercial production of red meat totaled nearly 3.4 billion pounds; this was 17 per cent more than a year ago.

FALL IS HERE, and the screwworm eradication problem continues with us.

Officials with the screwworm eradication program at Mission continue to urge livestock producers to cooperate in keeping down the incidence at as low a level as possible.

This includes checking your livestock regularly, treating wounds on livestock with approved screwworm-control remedies; delaying surgery on livestock as long as possible; and submitting suspected samples to the screwworm lab at Mission.

Dallas Fans To Elect Favorite Dallas Cowboy

Voting to elect the fans' "Favorite Cowboy" Dallas professional football player for 1976 is now underway in Haskell.

And, while it takes only one day in November to elect a President of the United States, the election of each year's "Favorite Cowboy" lasts for three plus months.

Official ballots for Oak Farms Dairies' annual "Favorite Cowboy" contest, now in its ninth year, come in two forms. One is in the official program for all Dallas home games at Texas Stadium. The other-by far the most widely used-is the pad of official ballots, plus a ballot box, displayed in all retail stores where products of Texas' largest home-based dairy are sold.

Here, and elsewhere, distribution of these "Favorite Cowboy" ballots and ballot boxes to all places selling Oak Farms' products began last week with the start of the Cowboys' regular 1976 NFL season and was completed this week-with the contest continuing on to midnight of the day of the team's closing league game.

This year that will be Sunday, Dec. 12 when Dallas hosts Washington at Texas Stadium.

Farm Bureau Holds Annual Convention

The Haskell County Farm Bureau held its annual barbecue supper and convention Monday night, Oct. 4, 1976 in the Haskell Elementary School. Jimmy Owens gave the invocation.

Local President, J. W. Aycock, welcomed all guests with Leo Fields, Agency Manager, introducing the Seminar Students, Cindy Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Thomas, Jr.; and Cynthia Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones, all of Haskell. The girls shared their experiences at the Waco Student Seminar with the group and showed their appreciation for being our representatives by presenting Leo Fields, Agency Manager, a plaque for his office.

A report on membership was given stating that we had made a gain over the 1975 membership goal. Resolutions which were discussed at an earlier meeting were read to the convention by Harlan Weinert. These resolutions with one which was raised from the floor and one sent to us from Hardeman County was then voted on and passed.

J. P. Perrin gave the nominating committees' report. Hold over directors were Glenn Dudensing of Stamford, Ronnie Chapman of Paint Creek; Bill Hester of Rochester; Coyt Hix of Haskell; Roger Moeller of Weinert and R. A. Shaver, III of Rochester. Re-elected directors were J. W. Aycock, Pres. of Haskell; Dan Griffith-V. Pres. of Haskell; Dale Carroll of Weinert; Carl Bailey of Haskell; Harlan Weinert of Weinert; and Leonard Weise of Haskell.

Prizes were given to twelve lucky winners and the entertainment was provided by the Paint Creek Play Boys.

All that attended had a delightful evening.

Corsie White Returns From Northern Tour

Corsie White of Haskell recently returned from an extended tour of the northwest. She and Juanita Tigner of Ballinger left August 19, for Fairbanks, Alaska where they visited in the home of Mrs. White's son and daughter-in-law, the Gordon Johnstons.

Part of the tours made there included the campus of Alaska State University, where flowers and vegetables grow in abundance, a cruise down the Tanana River on board a sternwheel riverboat, they viewed "Cripple Creek", an Indian fish wheel that scoops up migrating salmon and an authentic trappers camp.

They also visited the north pole and Santa Claus' House of Treasures, an art museum and an area where Alaskans still hunt, trap and fish for their livelihood.

From Fairbanks they visited in Anchorage in another of Mrs. White's son and family, the Roy Glenn Johnston's. From there they could view Mt. McKinley, highest peak of North America, 20,320 ft. Some of the highlights of this portion of the visit were the magnificent glaciers and icebergs and a beautiful sunset near Touragain Arm, Alaska.

From Alaska they flew to Seattle, Wash. and visited Mrs. White's brother and family, the Calvin Putman's. Following tours of Seattle and vicinity, Mrs. Tigner returned home and Mrs. White traveled to Boulder, Montana for ten days before returning to Haskell.

MRS. CORSIE WHITE, right, and Mrs. Juanita Tigner are shown at the University of Alaska with several heads of cabbage which weigh up to 70 pounds.

Right Around Home

AMISTAD RECREATION AREA OFFERS QUIET ADVENTURE, TOO

You don't have to be an athlete to enjoy Amistad Recreation Area.

It is true that the waters skiers, skin divers and bow hunters have a great time skimming over, swimming under or stalking through the water and land that make up this 100 square mile park just above Del Rio on the Rio Grande.

Don't worry. Even if you don't know the difference between wet feet and camouflage, this National Park Service area can be fun. Studying the history and soaking up the international flavor of this border park can be an experience as rewarding as landing a lunker bass.

Since we talked about Amistad's more exhilarating sports in an earlier column, let's devote the space today to some less strenuous adventures in a country replete with the romance of human history, including Indian cultures dating back to 14,000 B.C.

A good place to start studying the history and culture of the area is at the park visitor center, where you can get an orientation of the park's goings-on.

Interpretive programs are offered at almost all the nearly 300 National Park Service areas across America and visitors love them. But few are as well received as the Amistad Lake tour program. On this tour, a ranger patrol boat will guide your boat to points of interest around the lake, with stops for nature walks and the like.

One interesting stop is at Panther Cave, which is actually a large, natural rock shelter with over 100 various-sized ancient wall paintings dominated by one of a red mountain lion that is 18 feet long. There paintings were done about 5,000 years ago by archaic man.

The lake tours are unscheduled, so if you want to make sure that one is on tap the day you arrive, it's best to call park headquarters at least a week in advance.

Standard audio-visual programs relating the history and significance of the area are scheduled on a regular basis.

Most visitors to the area work a trip to nearby Ciudad Acuna, Mex. into their day. The Mexican government manages part of the lake and a prime attraction on that side of the dam is a 23-foot stone statue of the Aztec rain god "Tlaloc." The statue, a replica of the original multi-ton monolith in Mexico City, was sculpted there in pieces, hauled to Amistad and fitted together.

GED Program Set In Haskell

Mr. R. K. Sams, Haskell ISD Superintendent, has announced that the Texas Education Agency has recently authorized the establishment of a General Educational Development Program at Haskell High School. Mr. Sams will serve as Chief Administrative Officer and Mrs. Betty Davis, Counselor, as Chief Examiner.

The General Educational Development Program provides a means for determining the educational level of adults who have not completed a formal high school education. A certificate of high school diploma, may be issued to adults who successfully complete the GED examination, verifying that the holder has demonstrated a level of competence on the examination which is equivalent to that of a high school senior. The certificate may be used for job qualification, for admittance to occupational training and college, and for personal reasons.

The program is administered nationally by the American Council on Education, Washington, D. C. The Texas Education Agency authorized accredited high schools and institutions of higher education to serve as testing centers. The centers administer the GED test to adults who are eligible and report scores of successful examinees to the Texas Education Agency, which issues certificates of high school equivalency.

The test has five parts: Correctness and Effectiveness of Expression, Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Social Studies, Interpretation of Reading Materials in the Natural Sciences, Interpretation of Literary Materials, and General Mathematics Ability. The test questions are multiple choice. There is no time limitation but most examinees take approximately eight hours to complete the test battery.

In order to be eligible an applicant must:

- be a resident of Texas or a member of the armed forces stationed in Texas;
- be at least 17 years of age and officially withdrawn from school for one calendar year (If a 17 year old enters the military service, this requirement is waived with parental consent but the certificate of high school equivalency will not be issued until one year from the withdrawal date.); or
- be at least 18 years old and officially withdrawn from school.

To receive a certificate of high school equivalency the examinee must:

- complete the examination with a minimum standard score of 40 on each part of the test or an average standard score of 45;
- if 17 or 18 years old, be officially withdrawn from school for one calendar year (Although 18 year olds may take the examination upon withdrawing from school, the certificate may not be issued until they have been out of school for one year.) and
- request the testing center to report the test scores to the Texas Education Agency.

Fees for test administration are established by each testing center. The Haskell Testing Center fee is $20.00. There is no charge for issuance of the Certificate of High School Equivalency.

Example: Why you pay only 8½¢ more for gas when we have to pay 10¢ more.

The dime is simply a nice, round figure to use in discussing gas cost adjustments—a subject that you and we talk about with no happiness on either side.

The 8½¢ is 85% of 10¢. And we're allowed to charge you only 85% of any increase in the price we have to pay for natural gas over the base price set by the Texas Railroad Commission.*

Temporarily, the other 1½¢ (or 15%) is coming out of Lone Star's pocket. We say temporarily for good reasons. The losses have been staggering... in just one year, ending July 1, 1976, they have increased to $13,500,000!

The other side of the coin.

These unrecovered gas costs are actually threatening our ability to provide the long-range, reliable service you expect.

Highly competitive bidding on new gas reserves by many companies keeps raising the price of gas. Our option is to pay the higher prices or not replace the gas you use each year.

For example, because of our seriously declining profits, we sold much more gas in 1974 and 1975 than we added. We are still eating into our gas reserves.

Our unrecovered gas costs must be recovered if we are to compete successfully for new gas supplies, meet our steadily increasing operating costs, and provide you a secure energy future when our existing gas reserves have been depleted.

Ask any merchant. If he can't afford to replace the merchandise he sells, he can't expect to stay in business.

We received between three and four inches of rain in our community last week, and although some of the farmers who had cotton defoliated and ready to strip would rather have had sunny weather, most everyone agrees that the rains were good for "next year's" crops.

BOBCATS AND TROJANS TIE

The Rule Bobcats and the Windthorst Trojans battled to a 6-6 tie last Friday night, October 8th, at Windthorst. The Trojans edged the Bobcats in penetrations, penetrating the 20 yard line five times to Rule's four.

The first half of the game was a defensive battle. Windthorst had the edge on offense, staying on Rules end of the field. At halftime Rule was behind on rushing yards 13 to 56 for Windthorst and the score was 0 to 0.

Windthorst came back in the third quarter to score on a three yard run by Jimmy Schoroder, following a fifty yard drive after a Rule punt. The PAT attempt was no good.

Rule came back in the fourth quarter to drive eighty yards on good runs by Leonard Menchaca and Paul Flores and finally scored on a four yard run by Bobby Flores. Jerry Tumlinson kick hit the goalpost and bounced back making the PAT no good and tying the score 6-6.

Rule was driving again on Windthorst eighteen yard line when a fumble stopped the drive. Rule intercepted one pass, recovered two fumbles and blocked a punt. Rules defense threw Windthorst for sixty yards in losses.

Leading ground gainer was Leonard Menchaca with eleven carries for sixty seven yards. Leading tacklers for Rule were Ronnie Oliver with 13, Gavino Ortiz with 12 tackles and 2 quarterback sacks and Robert Turner had 11 tackles. Hector Puebla did a good job going down on speciality teams, made 3 tackles. Robert Baiza and Bobby Flores did an outstanding job blocking on offense.

Windthorst is now 5-0-1 for the year and 1-0-1 in district play. Rule is 0-4-1 for the year and 0-0-1 in district.

Rule will host Chillicothe Friday night, October 15th, in Bobcat Stadium at 7:30 p.m.

In other district 5-B scores: Throckmorton 6-Chillicothe 6, Rochester 53-Newcastle 0, Goree 6-Bethel Baptist 0.

VANDALISM

Vandalism was reported at the Rule High School last Friday night. Vandals entered the junior high building sometime between nine and ten p.m. and gathered books out of lockers and put them into a trash barrel carrier and pushed the barrel outside, poured gasoline on the books and set them afire. Some books were also taken from the desk of Mr. McKeever and Mrs. Taylor.

Eugene Rhoads discovered the fire and managed to save a few books. A total of 132 books were destroyed or ruined. The estimate value of the books is $678. The books were eighth grade books. Investigation into the break-in is continuing at this time. In a break-in about two weeks ago, vandals stole approximately $40 in cash.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Rule Chamber of Commerce met in a morning meeting on Friday, Oct. 1st, in the Bluebonnet Cafe, with president Barry Hobbs presiding. A. B. Arnett asked that the Chamber explore the possibility of a permanent stage at the Rule City Park. Members accepted the suggestion and voted to look into this project and also to solicit help from other civic organizations in Rule, to form a panel of one from each organization to assist in the planning stage.

Maxine Hertenberger asked that a special day be planned for the Christmas season, instead of just Santa Claus for a few hours on Saturday. She suggested a Childrens Pet Parade or possibility a Bazaar. Different organizations could participate and their members may have items they would like to sell or display for the Christmas Holidays. President Barry Hobbs asked that the members contact other people in the community for suggestions and asked that they be turned into the chamber for the possibility of working up a special day.

In other business, the annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet was tentatively set for the first Tuesday in April, which would be April 5th.

CITY COUNCIL

The Rule City Council met on Tuesday, Oct. 5th in the City Hall. Routine business matters were taken care of and in discussion of other new business, pertaining to the sanitation department, it was noted that it would be beneficial to customers for the city sanitation department to pick up trash that is bagged and tied so that the bags may be tossed into the packer at the same time the barrels are emptied. This service is twice monthly. The first pickup is around the first of the month and then around the fifteenth of the month. All customers should have their own barrels for safety in burning papers and waste materials.

All in the city are asked to cooperate with the sanitation department in order to avoid the strowing of trash. Residents are also asked to check around their houses and other buildings to empty any containers holding water. Due to the heavy rains, mosquitoes have been very bad in Rule and excess water where they may breed, needs to be eliminated.

NEW DEN OF CUBS

A meeting was held at the Rule School cafeteria last Thursday night, October 7th, for the purpose of forming a new den of Cub Scouts. The group will be known as Den II, Pack 144. Their den leader will be Mr. Jack Gore and the group will meet on Thursday nights at 7 p.m. Cub Scouts joining the den Thursday night were: Lane Wolf, Richard De Lossantos, Joe Ray Torres, Kevin Mathis, Shannon Martin and Oscar De Llossantos.

ABE CLASSES

Persons interested in attending Adult Basic Education (ABE) classes are asked to meet in the Rule High School Library Thursday (tonight) October 14, at 7 p.m. Whether a class will be held or not, will be determined by the number attending this organizational meeting.

Adults 16 years of age who have been out of school at least one year or persons 18 years of age or older may register for one of three levels of instruction. Basic level for those who have little or no schooling, need English as a second language, or are working toward U.S. citizenship. Intermediate level is those who have completed the basic level or have had some formal education. Advanced level is for those who have completed the intermediate level or have some junior high or senior high school education. The advanced level also prepares the student for the General Educational Development high school equivalency (GED) test.

All Adult Basic Education classes are free to those attending and the school will provide books and supplies. This effort is being made to determine the need for establishing Adult Basic Education classes in Rule. If you are interested, please attend Thursday night, October 14, at 7 p.m. in the Rule School Library, and register.

SWEET HOME R.A.'S

The Sweet Home R.A.'s met in the home of Mrs. Doyle Sorrells Tuesday, Oct. 5th, for their weekly meeting. This week the R.A.'s were presented with a white T-shirt which has the R.A. emblem on it with the word Crusader printed underneath. The boys were also given their new Crusader workbooks.

The R.A.'s each brought rocks with them to the meeting to make rock animals out of. Some of the animals that were made were spiders, turtles, mice and others.

Refreshments of fudge and tea were served to Paul Sorrells, Tracey and Sam Yarborough, Randy and Russell Andrews, Jim Pittcock and Mrs. Betty Sorrells.

BOOSTER CLUB

No meeting was held by the Booster Club on October 4th, due to Rule's open date the preceding Friday. A Bake Sale was held by the Booster Club last Saturday morning and $166 was raised to apply to the film expense.

Booster club secretary Mrs. Bobbie Brass reported plates and plate hangers had been ordered and should arrive by October 18th. This is a fund raising project by the Booster Club to help pay for the film and developing of it. One plate will have a picture of the school as it was in 1925 and another plate will have a picture of the school as it is now. Persons may purchase either plate or both if they so desire. The plate hanger is included with the plate. These plates will be on sale before and during Homecoming, and would make nice Christmas gifts. If there is a shortage they may be re-ordered in time for Christmas giving. Contact any Booster Club member to place your order for the particular plate you desire.

KITTENS OVER PUPS

The Rule Kittens won their fifth game in five starts by defeating the Throckmorton Greyhound pups 22-0 last Tuesday night, Oct. 5th, at Throckmorton. Cary Hannsz scored the first touchdown and also scored the two point conversion, following a fifty yard drive. Leon Greeson scored the second touchdown and David Lisle scored the extra point on a run. The last touchdown was scored by Leon Greeson, from fourteen yards out, after Rule drove the ball some sixty yards. The pass to Greeson for the extra point was incomplete. The halftime score was 22-0 and was the final score of the game with the Pups tightening up on defense in the second half and keeping Rule from scoring.

Outstanding performers on defense were Wes Jones, Rod Petty, Danny Kittley, Marc Thane, Terry Threet, Fred Benavides and Mike White. Almost all of the boys played the second half. The second team offense, led by Mike White, Mike Rhoads and Albert Burkhel in the backfield did a good job as did the offensive line. All these boys are sixth graders. Coach Wilson commented the younger boys did an excellent job on defense and he hopes to play them more often in order to give them experience.

Messenger® 123A

Compact, high-performance CB with all the basic automatic functions found in high-priced professional 2-way radios.

The Messenger 123A is a 23-channel 2-way CB radio with all the basic automatic performance functions found in equipment costing far more. It has full allowable power output plus electronic speech compression to assure uniformly high-level modulation and maximum range and clarity on transmit. An automatic noise-limiting function plus a special built-in mechanical selectivity filter provide clean, clear reception. Johnson's "voice tailored" audio system is specifically designed to drop off signals above and below voice frequencies. The acoustically isolated speaker system delivers superior sound quality. Simple professional controls make operation easy under the most difficult off-road conditions or in the most demanding highway situation. Illuminated meter is easy to read at a glance. Highly impact resistant Cycloc microphone with ceramic element has a convenient self-coiling neoprene cord. Messenger 123A is designed to deliver all the CB performance most people ever need.
