

Thornhill Is Outstanding Citizen

Charles Thornhill was recognized as the Citizen of the Year during the 43rd annual banquet of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce last Friday night.

The award was presented by Chamber Manager Rex Felker. Felker likened Thornhill to the lead steer in the old time trail drives. He stated that much like the steer that was always in front of the herd, Thornhill was at the front, leading civic endeavors in Haskell.

Thornhill came to Haskell in May 1966, as assistant manager of M-System Super Market. He was named manager of the store in October 1966.

During the past thirteen years he has served in various capacities in almost all civic organizations in Haskell. He is a member and past president of the Rotary Club, member and past director and vice president of the Lions' Club, past president and past secretary of the Haskell Jaycees and is currently serving as president of the Haskell County Jaycees, and a past district director of the Jaycees. He also served as State Party chairman for the Texas Jaycees at two National Conventions.

He has served as a member of the board of directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce for seven years and is a past president. He has also served on many Chamber committees and has twice served as chairman of the retail trade committee.

He is a Past Master of Haskell Lodge #682, AF&AM, and is currently serving as Commander of Haskell Commandry #49 KT.

He is a 1961 graduate of Seymour High School and attended Western Texas College.

He and his wife, Louise, are members of the First Baptist Church. They have three daughters, Emily, 11, Sandra, 8, and Carol, 9 months.

Retiring president John Rike served as master of ceremonies at the banquet. James Putnam, pastor, First United Methodist Church in Haskell gave the invocation. County Judge John Wayne McDermott introduced fourteen out-of-town guests from Knox City, Abilene, Anson, Rochester and Stamford. He also recognized new businesses and businesses which had recently changed hands including: State Farm Insurance, Mike Jordan Insurance, Merle Norman Cosmetics, Lacey's Steak House, Kids Duds, Allsup's, Hayloft, and City Auto Salvage.

Rike introduced as incoming officers and directors, J. A. Carroll, president, Jim Bynum, first vice president, Mike Jordan, second vice president, Brian Burgess, treasurer, and Rex Felker, manager, and directors, Sue Pate, Suzanne Starr and Ed Walling.

Rike also introduced T. H. Dippel of Brenham as speaker for the evening.

Dippel compared the United States with civilizations as far back as recorded history and with other countries today. He explained to those present that the economy is the biggest challenge facing our nation today. Citing comparison with other countries in both production and inflation rates, he explained that though most other countries are not as prosperous as the U.S., many of them have a better balance of trade, a more stable economy, and a more productive work force.

He emphasized the need for all citizens to forget special interest and place more concern in the direction in which our country is heading.

CHARLES THORNHILL, is congratulated by incoming Chamber of Commerce President, J.A. Carroll, after Thornhill was named the Outstanding Citizen of 1978 by the Chamber. He was presented with a plaque which said,

"Haskell Chamber of Commerce to Charles Thornhill, Citizen of the Year, 1978, in recognition of his leadership in many civic projects". (Staff Photo)

Volunteer Workers Needed

Creek Cleanup Set Saturday

Saturday, March 3rd will be the kickoff for the cleanup of Rice Springs Creek in Haskell. This project, sponsored and co-ordinated by the Haskell County Jaycees, Haskell Fire Department, Haskell County Jayceettes, and other involved groups and organizations, will be to clean up the trash and debris left by the flood of August 3 and 4, 1978. Some two miles of creek bed and surrounding area still are in a very sad state of repair, and it is hoped that this project will not only clean up the terrible mess, but will allow for improvements to the creek and surrounding areas.

Jaycee Chairmen Charles Andress and Bo Owens ask that all workers report to Haskell City Hall by 9 a.m. Saturday, March 3rd, because all work done on this project must be documented, as to who worked, where, and how many hours. From City Hall, workers will be assigned to certain areas to do whatever is necessary to complete the removal of the debris. Workers are urged to bring hoes, shovels, rakes, and whatever else they can to assist in cleaning the area.

Photography Meeting Scheduled

There will be a meeting of the Haskell photography club next Monday on the third floor of the Courthouse at 7:30 p.m. Larry Smith of Keaton Kolor in Abilene, will present the program dealing with basic concepts of photography and camera operation.

The program will deal primarily with 35mm photography, but all persons interested in learning to make better photographs are invited to attend.

Haskell County Commissioners will provide trucks and loaders to assist in debris removal, but because of the wet condition of the creek area, it will be necessary to hand carry much of the trash from the creek bed itself. The City of Haskell will also provide trucks and other equipment for the project. Qualified operators of trucks, front-end loaders, backhoes and other equipment are asked to please come and help to make this project a success.

There have been many dreams, proposals, much discussion, and much talk for many years about really cleaning up, reshaping, and beautifying the area of Rice Springs Creek, and now is the time that the work must be accomplished. The reason for this is that there are some $12,000.00 in federal funds available for the clearance of the debris, and there have been no takers on bid proposals to date to do this work. This project, again spearheaded by the Jaycees, proposes to take the funds available through the State and Federal Disaster Relief Funds, and donate them to a fund begun this month for the construction of a new fire station for the City of Haskell, and the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department, which serves all of Haskell County. Committees are now working within the Fire Department about construction of the new station, and will be revealed as soon as possible to the public.

Dates set for the debris clearance are March 3 and 4, 10 and 11, with hours on the 3 and 10 being from 9 till 5, and on the 4 and 11 from 1 till 5. Refreshments will be served by the Haskell County Jayceettes and the Girl Scouts of Haskell.

After debris clearance is completed, it is hoped that a general restructuring and shaping of the area will be done, using plans developed by J.C. Yeary and his staff from the Conservation Service in Haskell. A comprehensive plan was drawn up for a like project during the Bicentennial Year, but was not completed due to several different reasons.

Project leaders from the many organizations in Haskell are asking each of you to please come forward and take part in this most important project to clean up after the flood, and make a beautiful area from what is currently an eyesore, a health hazard, a future breeding area for mosquitos, and a general mess. Do your part and come to the creek and lend a helping hand to make this project a success.

No New City-School Filings

There have been no new filings in city and school elections in Haskell, but two members of the City Council have indicated their intentions.

Lorraine Johnson has indicated that he does not intend to seek re-election and Guy Kennedy has announced that he will probably seek re-election. Bob Philpot, the other councilman whose term will expire, was not available.

In the school election, the terms of Ken Lane, Joe Kimbrough, and Doyle High will expire. Both Lane and Kimbrough have announced for re-election and High has indicated that he will not seek re-election.

Deadline to file in city and school elections is March 7.

Jaycees Set Basketball Games This Saturday

The Haskell County Jaycees will play a double-header basketball game Saturday night, March 3, at the Haskell High School Gym. The two games, beginning at 6:30 p.m. will match 2 Haskell Jaycee teams against the Lueders-Avoca All Stars, and the Throckmorton Jaycees.

The Haskell teams, led by player-coach Ervin Unger (Unger's Scrappers), will feature such stars as Jimmy "Goose" Lile, John "Dr. J." Rike, Terry "Shoot-em" Blanks, Jim "Double-Dribble" Mahlberg, Sammy "Zing-um" Larned, Jerry "Hot Shot" Jennings, and many more "Super Stars" of the court.

This will be the first game against the Lueders-Avoca All Stars, and a return match against the Throckmorton Jaycees, Haskell winning the first game 66-51, after trailing 29-25 at half-time.

Admission will be $1.50 for adults and 75c for students and children, with under 6 year old being admitted free.

Haskell County Jayceettes will host the concession stand with a lot of goodies for every appetite.

Proceeds from the games will be used by the Jaycees and Jayceettes in their various projects in the community.

For a really entertaining time and some good basketball, come see these games Saturday night at the High School Gym.

PC School Election Scheduled

The Board of Trustees of the Paint Creek Independent School District have called a trustees election for April 7, to elect two trustees.

The terms of Wayne Peiser and Martin Coleman expire. Coleman has announced for re-election and Peiser has announced that he will not seek re-election. Ronnie Reel has also announced.

Deadline to file is March 7. Prospective applicants should inquire at the superintendent's office at Paint Creek School.

Letters To The Editor

(EDITORS NOTE: The Haskell Free Press will publish letters to the Editor dealing with any subject. All letters must be signed but names will be withheld by request. All letters are subject to editing for length and liability.)

Dear Editor:

I would like to thank Mrs. Ruby Martin, L.V.N.; Mrs. Frice, R.N.; Mrs. Gwen Unger, R.N.; Mrs. Jane McAadoo, R.N.; Don Comedy, E.M.T.; Joe Alves, E.M.T. for helping with the Red Cross Blood Bank.

I also would like to thank The Haskell CowBelles and all others who came to help with the Blood Bank and to all those who took time out to come and give blood. Your help was greatly appreciated.

Louise Thornhill
Blood Chairman

We wish to express our sincere gratitude to every reader of the Haskell Free Press for any act of kindness shown to Kenneth, James, and me during Kenny's stay in Highland Hospital in Lubbock.

We want to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, phone calls and most of all for your prayers.

We also wish to thank the many people who donated to the fund on behalf of us and our friends whose children were involved in the McCaulley School Bus-Truck accident. We also thank the Haskell National Bank who took care of local area donations and sent them on to F & M National Bank of Hamlin. We will be ever grateful for your help and your care.

To the Haskell Memorial Hospital a very special thanks for the bandages they sent during the icy weather. Thank you so much for being here, may our home hospitals remain with us always!

Also a special thank you to Mr. Blakley who very kindly called to inquire of Kenny's interrupted classes and to offer any assistance he might be able to give.

And to our dear friend Mrs. Jasper Wilson of Rule for volunteering to help Kenny with his lessons at home.

Last but not least, I would like to commend you on your youth. Many of your young people attending school in Lubbock came by to inquire about Kenny's progress or to visit with Kenny himself.

Since we've been home, the high school students have visited Kenny regularly. I would say our future is in very good hands.

With so many wonderful people and God for us, then who can be against us. May the Lord bless you all the days of your lives.
Mr. and Mrs. James Smart and Kenneth

Haskell Bass Club Sets Tournament

The Haskell Bass Club held their first meeting Tuesday, Feb. 20, at the Haskell City Hall. The purpose of this meeting was to establish a Bass Club for Haskell.

Paul Clayton, of the Knox City Bassmaster Club, was guest speaker and explained to us how Knox City formed their club, some rules they established, and how their club operates. As a parting comment, Mr. Clayton told the Haskell Bass Club that Knox City would be more than happy to challenge Haskell to a fishing contest, which we're sure to accept.

There were ten people present for the first meeting, with all ten joining the club. The club has more than doubled during the first week, with twenty one members at this time. Officers elected for the first year were: Ronnie Reynolds, Program Chairman; Bill Perry, Tournament Director; and Bill Trammell, Secretary-Treasury.

The Haskell Bass Club would like to extend an invitation to anyone that would like to join this club. Dues were voted to be $5.00 per year for the whole family. The club plans to have as many tournaments, fish fries and various other club activities as possible.

The next meeting of the club will be March 5 at 8:00 at the City Hall. We would enjoy

Experienced Citizens Center Is B&PW Club Program

The Haskell Business and Professional Women's Club met Tuesday evening in the Haskell National Bank Community Room.

Callie Robison, first vice-president and program chairman presided in the absence of the president, Ramia Lee Frazier. Following the club collect given by Leone Pearsey, committee reports were given and Marsha Whittemore, director of the Experienced Citizens Center and speaker for the evening was introduced.

Mrs. Whittemore discussed the purpose of the center, the schedule of the classes offered and the flexibility of the schedule to meet the needs of the Senior Citizens. Macramé, tote and artex painting, crochet, and creative sewing are offered the first three days of the week, followed by a day of health screening conducted in association with hospital and clinic doctors by appointment only. A noon day luncheon once each month. All these activities that carry out the motto of the center—"To Help People Stay In Love With Life".

Mrs. Whittemore had assembled an interesting display of handiwork from the center including macramé, crocheted bags, oil and artex painting and a group of dolls ranging from china dolls to rag dolls and clowns.

A patriotic motif was used in decorations for the meeting. The table cover was a combination red, white and blue design with an arrangement of white carnations with miniature flags as the centerpiece. Fruit muffins, cheddar cheese rounds, crackers, sweet pickles, and wheat nuts were served with coffee.

Hostesses for the evening were the chairman of the committees of the club, Callie Robison, Madalin Hunt, Nettie McCollum, Edna Mae Lyles, Clara Beard and Lelin Conner.

The next meeting will be March 6 with Joan James, Home Demonstration agent, as speaker.

A Multiphasic Nursing Clinic will be held every month at the same time and location.

SUN WATCHERS...County Extension Agent Joan James and Carol Weatherly observe the solar eclipse in Haskell Monday. The partial eclipse was visible from about 9:15 to 11:45. It will be the last eclipse visible on this continent until 2017. During the center of the eclipse, about 70% of the sun was obscured by the moon and the brightness of the day was diminished to a very noticeable degree in Haskell. (Staff Photo)

Jaycee & Jaycee-ettes Happenings

This is the week we clean the creek. We need all you Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes to really turn out Saturday all day and Sunday afternoon. Plans are being finalized, and will be ready by Saturday. This is the most important project going at this time, so come and help, bring the kids and let them help too. Charles Andress and Bo Owens, Chairmen.

Haskell Jaycees had 6 people attend the Area II Convention in Killeen this past weekend. A good convention, but some really bad news came out of it, that being Keith Kainer of Abilene pulling out of the race for State Jaycee President because of family and job problems. Those attending were Charles Andress, Ricky Lee Andress, Earl Proctor, Jake Dusak, Jr., Charles Thornhill, and Mike St. John.

Big Basketball games this weekend at High School Gym, beginning at 6:30. Ervin Unger is chairman and coach. Heart Fund Drive is well underway with Mike St. John and Gwynn Butler Chairmen of this.

The Haskell County Jaycee-ettes had 2 in attendance at Lubbock Saturday for a Regional Meeting. Cora Proctor and Liz Reynolds.

Haskell Jaycee-ettes election will be held at the home of Brenda Bynum Tuesday, March 6th at 7:30 p.m. Candidates for office are: President-Laura Andress and Cora Proctor, Vice-President-Carla Butler and Doris Butler, Secretary-Treasurer- Nene Comedy, State Director-Elaine Davis, Reporter-Kay Cook.

The Haskell Jaycee-ettes will host a regional visitation March 31 at the Presbyterian Church.

Throckmorton Jaycees Installation Banquet will be Friday night, March 16th at the High School Cafeteria. Speaker will be Elvin Wilson, Texas Jaycee President. Since we extended this Chapter, they have really done well, and think they will continue to. Would like to have a bunch of Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes there to show them that we really do care.

The bet goes on between President Charles Thornhill and Killeen President Jare Santamaria on membership. We are leading 26 to 22 at present, but are really going to go to beat them. There are still some 400 young men in Haskell County who are not Jaycees. Won't you give them the opportunity to become a part of this action by asking them to be a Jaycee! Would you be a Jaycee today if somebody had not asked you! Try it, make a friend and a Jaycee of some young man today!

Conservation Viewpoints

USDA Soil Conservation Service

Attention! Land Owners and Operators of Haskell County!

The 1979 Agricultural Conservation Program sign up dates were announced Monday by the ASCS County Committee.

You may start making applications today and continue through March 16, for Conservation Practices Installation. The following practices, to control the most critical conservation problems, will be applicable for Haskell County:

1. Establishing Permanent Vegetative Cover (SL-1)
2. Improving Permanent Vegetative Cover (SL-2)
3. Terrace Systems, both Parallel & Standard Level (SL-4)
4. Diversion Terraces (SL-5)
5. Critical Area Treatment (SL-11)
6. Water Impoundment Reservoirs (Farm Ponds-WC-1)
7. Irrigation pipeline & Land leveling (WC-4)
8. Waterways (WP-3)

All work must be started prior to September 30, 1979. Work cannot, repeat, cannot be started until a letter of approval is received from the ASCS County Committee.

Due to the shortage of funds for 1979, only the most critical conservation problems can be considered. When your application is received by the Soil Conservation Service, we will confirm a date as soon as possible, to identify needs and feasibility of your request, and determine extent of need. When this is done, the County ASCS Committee will either approve or disapprove your request, based on SCS's findings. The letter of approval will then be issued and you can start work.

The above list of practices is an incomplete listing of available practices, but is considered to be those that will cover the most critical conservation situations. Contact your ASCS office or your SCS office for details on cost and cost share rates. Remember the deadline date for sign up will be March 16, 1979 and all work must be started prior to September 30, 1979.

American Ag News-

Protesting Farmers Aid DC

BY BETTYE McBROOM
The following was taken from the February 27, 1979, issue of the American Agriculture News.

Washington was virtually shut down after almost 20 inches of snow Sunday night, February 18. The city was paralyzed, with snow plows being barely able to move. Farmers, who had been condemned by the Washington Post for "trashing up the mall," were called upon to transport doctors and nurses to and from hospitals, make emergency ambulance calls, help the fire trucks, and pull out stranded motorists. Each farmer was accompanied by a policeman in his tractor. The blood bank ran low on blood, and farmers responded by giving blood. A blood mobile was set up at the USDA building. The Red Cross ran dangerously low on blood supplies. Their normal collection of 700 pints per day has been reduced to 100 pints per day by the bad weather. Farmers donations of blood may well have saved lives. Farmers worked throughout the night February 19. Businesses were closed, and restaurants ran out of food. Looting was reported in Baltimore, Maryland, outside D. C.

News casters, unable to leave the radio station or get help for more than 13 hours, called on the farmers to come to their aid. National AAM headquarters became the nerve center of the city as farmers called hospitals offering to transport nurses and doctors to the hospitals. When radio and television stations announced the farmers intent to help with emergency and transportation problems, the office was deluged with calls.

Southeast Community Hospital, National Jewish Hospital, Jefferson Memorial Hospital, and Washington Hospital Center were among those requesting assistance. One hospital, out of bread and milk, needed an emergency delivery. Administrators at the hospital asked the farmers to stand by to aid ambulance and emergency vehicles and clean snow from the hospital drive.

On the mall, the snowplows used to barricade the tractors were pressed into service. The very people held captive by the snowplows hours before worked shoulder to shoulder with the plows to clear the streets. Officially, the AAM tractors were not allowed to remove snow. But unofficially, the tractors could not seem to raise their blades, and in the process of traveling about, removed snow.

AAM ladies, not having the usual lobbying activities to do on the Hill, volunteered to cook or clean in area hospitals.

The Prince Georges County, Maryland, fire department had 8 tractors helping their fire trucks, then requested 12 more. The fire department provided fuel, lodging, food and dry clothing to the tractor drivers who helped.

Maryland farmers have offered to repair any damage to the mall at no charge. They have met with park police to formally make the offer.

Farmers Union Newsletter reports that the Japanese government is reselling U.S.

wheat to flour millers at $9.11 a bushel, giving the Japanese treasury a profit of about $5 a bushel, after paying freight and handling costs. At the end of December, the European Community was skimming off a profit of $3.66 a bushel on wheat purchased from the United States.

Eight Canadian farmers joined AAM in Washington to support the activities. Visiting with them has shown AAMers that farm problems know no boundaries.

The Canadians feel that the major exporting countries of the world must get together and form some sort of compact to protect agricultural producers and balance the budgets.

The Canadian Agriculture Movement is supporting a grain withholding action to begin on March 1 and continue for a minimum of 30 days. AAM is considering similar action.

Although the public has been told that there have been major improvements and lowering of barriers with Japan, the facts show that our deficit balance of trade with Japan increased from $6 billion to $11 billion last year.

Note from Bettye: Cliff and Juanita Dunnam are still working hard in Washington, D. C. for the rest of us back home. They were joined this week by Ken Lane who plans to help move and set up the national headquarters since their lease is up on March 1.

If you want to donate to help send someone to Washington or to help with the expense of the national office, just mail your contribution to the Haskell AAM, 103 N. Ave. D, Haskell, TX, 79521. Any amount of contribution is greatly appreciated. It is expensive to go to Washington and stay, and it is very expensive to keep an office open for us to get news to and from. The farmers in Washington are doing their part. Lets do ours!

Oh, by the way, a remark from Bob Bergland-He thinks the United States should spend more money to help the underprivileged nations improve their agriculture so they can be more competitive in the world market. Whose side is he on?

Council Hears Creek Project

The regular meeting of the Haskell City Council was held Tuesday night with all members present.

Haskell County Jaycee President, Charles Thornhill, met with the council to request equipment for use in cleaning debris from Spring Branch Creek. Thornhill outlined plans for the project and members of the council agreed to provide equipment.

Members of the council agreed to continue a past policy of moving insurance on city property to various local agents. The council members voted to allow the Hartsfield Agency to write the policy for the next year at which time the city will advertise for bids on all insurance.

In other action, the council members appointed Eva Speer to assess unrendered taxes for 1979, and agreed to lease the swimming pool to Gerald McCoy.

AT THE FRIENDLY
HASKELL NATIONAL BANK

The I.R.A. (Individual Retirement Account) is an important part of your planning for the future (or should be) if you are not covered by a company retirement program where you work. There are many advantages to this type of plan, now offered at Haskell National. Here are a few:

1. You can deposit $1,500 or 15 percent of your annual income (whichever is lower) in your I.R.A. each year.
2. The money you deposit in your I.R.A. is tax-deductable. It's taxed only when you draw it out, and by then you will probably be in a lower tax bracket.

3. You can begin to withdraw funds from your I.R.A. if needed when you are 59 1/2—and you must begin to withdraw them by age 70 1/2.

4. One of the nicest things about your I.R.A. is the way it will grow...if you put $1,500 per year, you will have $9,571.60 after five years, $23,794.50 after 10 years, and in 20 years, your balance will be a whopping $76,333.70. If you're 40 or younger, you can save 30 years in an I.R.A. and reach $192,342.33! (Based on our current rate of 8% compounded quarterly).

Commissioners Hold Meeting

The regular meeting of the Haskell County Commissioners Court was held Tuesday and the meeting centered around cleaning Spring Branch Creek and DPS policies in Haskell County.

Four members of the Haskell County Jaycees met with the Commissioners to outline plans for removing flood debris from Spring Branch Creek. The Jaycees requested assistance from the County in the way of equipment. Jaycees Charles Thornhill, Bo Owens, Don Comedy, and Gwynn Butler, explained the project and all four Commissioners agreed to furnish equipment.

The Jaycees told the Commissioners that the work would begin this Saturday at 9 a.m. County Judge John Wayne McDermott officially commended the Jaycees for their work in both the city and county during the meeting. In other discussion, Sgt. Frank Jircik and local DPS officers met with the members of the court to discuss operating policies of both groups. Following the discussion, both members of the court and DPS mutually agreed on several policies including the repair of county owned radar units and operation of the copy machine in the courthouse.

In other action, Commissioners approved a resolution to allow General Telephone Company to install a buried cable in a county road, right-of-way; approved a resolution for a grant for a dispatcher for the sheriff's office; and agreed to allocate $1,000.00 for use by the teenage baseball program in Haskell County.

Harvest Continues With Good Yields

B. B. Manly reported that 20,000 cotton samples were classed at the U.S.D.A. Cotton Marketing Services Office in Abilene during the week ending Friday, February 23. About 14,000 samples were classed from bales produced in the Abilene classing territory and the remaining 6,000 were from the Munday territory. The cotton harvest and ginning season has continued much later than usual this season, and yields have been higher than expected. A seasonal total of 397,000 cotton samples have been classed in Abilene, and an additional 60,000 samples were classed at Munday this season.

Local cotton prices were steady to lower last week. Prices were stable early, but declined late in the week. Bid prices ranged from 7½ to 9½ cents per pound over loan rates. Most cotton sold at 8 to 9 cents over the loan. Mixed quality lots of cotton sold at mostly 50 to 53 cents per pound. The supply of cotton was heavy, but producers offered only light to moderate quantities for sale. Demand was light to moderate; and trading was mostly slow during the week. Cottonseed prices paid producers ranged from 110 to 130 dollars per ton.

Cotton classed in Abilene during the past week was 73 percent Light Spotted, 17 percent White, and 10 percent Spotted grades. Grade 42 comprised 39 percent, grade 52 comprised 30 percent, and grade 51 comprised 9 percent. Fiber length was 53 percent staple 32, 25 percent staple 33, and 21 percent staple 31. Micronaire readings were 60 percent within the 35 to 49 range. Thirteen percent miked from 33 to 34 and 16 percent miked from 30 to 32. About 40 percent of the samples were reduced in grade because of bark content and 3 percent were reduced for grass.

Financial Aid Seminar Set

Due to the current need for financial aid information Haskell High School is sponsoring a Financial Aid Seminar for parents and their junior and senior students. The meeting will be held at the Haskell High School library on Thursday, March 1 at 7:00 p.m. Mr. Ronny Barnes, Financial Aid Director at Texas Tech University, will assist in conducting the meeting. Information regarding federal and state grants, loans, scholarships, work-study programs, and application procedures will be presented. No recruiting will be conducted.

This year more than $9 billion is available in financial aid to help students meet postsecondary education costs. Financial aid officials at area universities said that they expect the number of students eligible to receive grants under the federally funded Basis Educational Opportunity Grant program to increase by as much as 50 percent.

Some of the financial aid opportunities offered by most post-high school institutions are based on need, some are athletic in nature, some are for academic excellence regardless of need, some are highly specialized, such as those offered to music majors, while others are general in nature and available to all, regardless of curriculum.

Parents are rarely in a position to be fully informed on all available financial aid. Due to the continued rise in college and higher education costs, financing the needs becomes more and more difficult and the need for information increases. Therefore, parents of junior and senior students are urged to attend the meeting with their children.

IRS Provides Tax Information

Can you claim ice damage to your trees as a casualty loss on your income tax return?

If your home flooded last year and you had no flood insurance, can you claim a tax deduction?

Are you entitled to a deduction if a fire destroys an antique table appraised at $350, although you only paid $15 for it?

With only 60 "calculating" days left before the income tax deadline, many property owners may be asking these and similar questions.

The Texas Insurance Information Center of the Insurance Information Institute says many people overlook real tax savings because they don't understand how to itemize property losses on their income tax returns.

CASUALTY LOSSES
Tax advantages are offered for any "casualty" loss. According to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), a casualty loss means property damage or loss resulting from any sudden, unexpected event such as a storm, fire, robbery or automobile accident.

Deductions are available for losses to both personal property (such as automobiles and furniture) and to real property (such as businesses and homes).

Computations are based on the reduction in value of the property (whether insured or not). Therefore, uninsured flood damage to a home would be tax deductible.

Real property value includes any improvements to property such as extra buildings and ornamental trees. Since landscaping is considered an integral part of the realty, ice damage to foliage can be a tax deduction—if the overall value of the property is decreased by the damage. Although ice damage to foliage is not covered under most insurance policies, in those cases where damage is covered by insurance, the amount of any insurance settlement must be subtracted from the total "loss," whether or not the insured filed a claim.

Because people frequently do not insure their property to its full value, loss payments from insurers often must be calculated at a depreciated value. Additionally, insurance payments are tied to the actual cost of making repairs or replacing lost goods, so the loss for income tax purposes can sometimes exceed the insurance payment. When this happens, the difference can be claimed as a "casualty loss" deduction on your income tax return.

Example: Suppose your home, which originally cost $30,000, was damaged by a tornado. The appraised value of the property prior to the storm was $32,500 and immediately after the storm was $27,500. The overall "loss" would be $5,000. If the insurance company paid $3,000 to cover the cost of repairs, you still have an additional $2,000 "loss" on the property for tax purposes and most of this is deductible.

Keep in mind that a $100 deduction is applied to private property losses (but none to business property losses), so the actual loss for tax purposes in the example above would be $1,900.

Terminology used in making insurance claims may not always apply to an income tax return, so it is helpful to consult definitions on both the policy and in tax information for these distinctions.

APPRAISAL INVENTORY HELPFUL

To help prove the value of property after damage, the IRS recommends that an experienced, reliable appraiser be hired. The appraiser will probably be able to provide evidence as to the value of the property before and after the damage. Cost of this appraisal is tax deductible.

Photographs made before and after damage will also be helpful in proving a loss.

In no event can the "loss" claimed on the income tax return exceed the amount originally paid for the property. Therefore, you cannot claim a $350 total loss on an antique table, if you only paid $15 for it.

It is also helpful to remember that there are different sets of rules to apply when calculating losses to "real property" (such as houses) and "personal property" (such as furniture), even though the losses occurred because of the same catastrophe.

Computing the loss on personal property is a more time-consuming process for the taxpayer since each item of personal property must be computed separately.

Insurance companies have for years recommended that homeowners keep an up-to-date inventory of personal property, with photos, to help settle insurance claims. That same inventory would serve as a starting point for a taxpayer trying to compute personal property losses for income tax returns.

Inventory sheets make the job easier. These are often available free from insurance companies or agents.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Detailed information about how to handle specific insurance payments and casualty losses on income tax returns is available in IRS Publication No. 547, titled "Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses and Thefts."

The IRS maintains information service lines all over Texas to answer specific inquiries about preparation of tax returns. A copy of this publication can be obtained free by calling one of the offices.

Phone numbers are: Amarillo, 372-3666; Austin, 472-1974; Beaumont, 835-5076; Corpus Christi, 888-9431; Dallas, 742-2440; El Paso, 532-6116; Ft. Worth, 335-1370; Houston, 965-0440; Lubbock, 747-4361; San Antonio, 229-1700; Waco, 752-6535; Wichita Falls, 723-6702.

Persons living outside these metropolitan exchanges may call the IRS toll-free information line. That number is 1-800-492-4830.

DR. JIM TUELL, of Fort Worth will serve as evangelist at the First Baptist Church Revival '79, which is scheduled to begin March 5 and continue through March 11.

Branding with confetti is making things rougher for grain thieves. Grain producers are picking up the old practice of marking small slips of paper with identifying numbers and mixing the confetti with their stored grain crop. According to producers who have been using the confetti method for some time, it takes only about seven pounds of the paper to adequately mark and identify 50,000 bushels of grain. Although the small slips of paper are virtually impossible for thieves to separate from the grain, mill operators report they have no problem in removing the confetti during their washing process. Agricultural authorities in areas where the grain identification program is used extensively report a remarkable decline in the number of grain thefts.

Pelt Sales Net Premium Prices

A recent fur dealers rendezvous in the southeast corner of the Texas Panhandle at Wellington netted premium prices for Texas pelts.

The best bobcat pelt brought a whopping $450 and one Panhandle coyote pelt sold for $97.50.

Over $250,000 worth of pelts exchanged hands during the rendezvous with wholesale dealers from all over the Southwest in attendance. The fur sale was so successful that three more sales are planned for next winter in Wellington.

The fur business has blossomed into a multi-million dollar industry with many of the furs being shipped to the Orient and Europe.

The furbearing season has ended in Texas except for the muskrat (March 15).
