

BELIEVE IT OR NOT... Many times we have heard the saying about someone who 'can grow anything'. Monday afternoon, Chester Hodgkin called to tell of an unusual 'plant' found in his garden. The so called plant turned out to be a small rubber ball complete with a set of roots and foliage. The plant is apparently burmuda grass that has grown completely through the ball with roots coming from the ball in many places. (Staff Photo)

HASKELL—A GOOD PLACE TO VISIT: A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

VOLUME NINETY-THREE
HASKELL, TEXAS, 79521, THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1979
NUMBER TWENTY-FOUR

THANK YOU HASKELL!
About three months ago, members of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department decided to build a new fire station and what started out as a dream is now almost a reality.
During the past three months the people of Haskell have reached into their pockets and donated almost $30,000.00.
Additional funds totaling almost $15,000.00 have been placed into the fund from Federal Flood Funds bringing the total received to almost $45,000.00.
During the early stages of planning, members of the department had mixed emotions about funding the project. It was finally agreed to solicit donations for the facility as opposed to raising taxes or holding a bond election. Using taxes would have forced the cost of the project much higher and would have taken much longer to accomplish the building program.

During the past three months the expectations of everyone in the fire department have been greatly exceeded. Early plans called for the purchase and erection of the building and the later completion of the interior as funds were available. It appears at this time that the entire project can be completed in the immediate future.
To date, local contributions total about $30,000.00 and represent only about 300 individuals, groups and businesses.
If all other area residents who intend to contribute to the fund will do so in the next few weeks, the entire project can be completed this year.
With present inflation rates the advantages of completing the facility as soon as possible are evident.
It is gratifying to live in a community that will respond to problems with the positive attitude which Haskell has shown toward this project in the past three months. This is the kind of attitude which is helping Haskell to grow and prosper while many other towns this size are slowly dwindling in population.

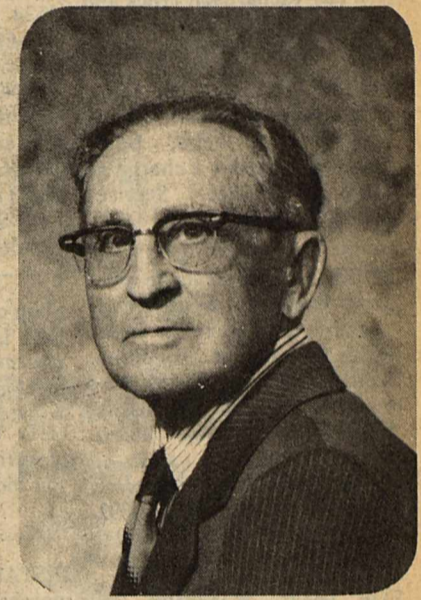

New Fire Station Delivery Scheduled

Delivery date for the new fire station in Haskell has tentatively been scheduled for the week ending July 27.
Donations to the fund continue to be received and all persons who have made pledges to the fund are asked to deposit their pledges at Haskell National Bank before July 13.

Members of the building committee are currently compiling cost estimates of material which will be used to complete the inside of the facility and these figures should be available within the next few weeks.
Work on the foundation should continue this week and the foundation should be completed before the arrival of the building.

During the entire fund drive, members of the department have contacted only a small portion of the people in Haskell and the response from these persons has been overwhelming. Fire Department members do not anticipate having to contact prospective donors and would like for all businesses and individuals who intend to donate to the fund to do so as soon as possible. Many businesses and individuals have expressed intentions of donating to the fund but have not done so at the present time. If enough donations are received by mid-July, the entire project can be completed by the end of the year.
All interested persons are invited to view plans of the building which are on display at the fire station. Department members are confident that the new station will be appealing to the eye without being extravagant and will provide adequate room and facilities for many years.
Donations to the fund received this week include:

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Phelps	5.00
Perry Motor Co.	100.00
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harris	25.00

WHEAT HARVEST UNDERWAY... Rick Perry of Paint Creek was one of many area farmers who finally got into the fields this week. Recent rains had completely halted both the wheat harvest and cotton planting. By Tuesday many fields were dry enough to allow farmers to begin both the harvest and planting. (Staff Photo)

Smith, Campbell Vows Read

Jennifer Kay Campbell of Haskell and Darrell G. Smith of Abilene were united in marriage June 9, 1979 in First United Methodist Church in

Haskell. Rev. C.T. Jackson, retired Methodist minister of Haskell, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duward

Campbell of Haskell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Smith of Haskell.

Organist was Nelda Lane and Sarah Cox was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of white 100% cotton eyelet fashioned by the groom's mother. The fitted bodice, with a delicately rounded neckline, was set off by eyelet lace, inset with satin ribbon. The skirt fell in soft folds to a deep ruffle adorned with satin trim and bows.

The train, attached at the waist, was topped by an eyelet bow and was completed with a deep ruffle.

The crowning touch to this look of yesteryear was the three tiered veil of tulle, attached to a Caplet of eyelet trimmed with tiny satin bows.

For something old, she wore a gold locket which her great-great grandmother wore on her wedding day in 1872. For something borrowed, she carried the Bible of her friend Mrs. S. Hassen. She wore the traditional blue garter and a six pence in her shoe.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. James Robert Crawford, sister of the bride. Kathy Campbell, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Junior bridesmaids were Kristen Campbell, sister of the bride, and Mindy Smith, sister of the groom.

The bridesmaids wore full length dresses of blue floral cotton batiste. The full skirts fell from an empire waist which was accented by satin ribbon of summer pastels. They carried nosegays of spring flowers with long matching streamers.

Candlelighter was Shane Gilliam, cousin of the bride.

Jack Smith, brother of the groom of Benham, was Best Man. Danny Smith, brother of the groom of Lubbock, was groomsman. Ushers were Larry Gilliam, James Robert Crawford, Danny and Jack Smith.

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church hosted by the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with a white lace cloth and centering the table was a Fostoria Cornucopia filled with pastel daisies and blue candles. The two tiered cake was pale yellow and covered with pastel daisies and rosebuds. Appointments were Early American Fostoria.

The groom's table was covered with a handmade cutwork cloth of ecru linen. A three tiered German Chocolate cake, cheese log and ham loaf were served along with assorted fruits and coffee. Appointments were brass and copper and handpainted China mugs.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Wallace Cox Jr., Mrs. Janis Klose, Mrs. Brenda Sanders, Mrs. Susie Gilliam, Connie Frierson, and Vicki Bledsoe.

A rehearsal luncheon was hosted by the groom's parents in their home. The bride is a 1979 graduate of Haskell High School and will enter ACU in the fall as a Home Economics Major. The groom is a 1976 graduate of Haskell High School and is employed by West Texas Utilities in Abilene.

PARTIES
A gift coffee honoring the couple was held April 28 in the home of Mrs. Ken Lane.

A lingerie party was held May 6 in the home of Mrs. Harvey Croft. Hostesses were Mrs. Croft, Kelly Croft, Jeanna and Tamara Parrott.

Turner, Stegemoeller

Exchange Vows

Brenda Lou Stegemoeller and Robert Ace Turner were united in marriage Friday, June 8, in Faith Lutheran Church of Sagerton with Rev. Tim Baldinger of Sweetwater officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Stegemoeller of Rochester and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner of Rule.

The candles, lining the aisle and forming an arch on the altar, were lit by Carl Stegemoeller and Gordon Ehlers, cousins of the bride. The mothers of the couple lit their candle on each side of the Unity Candle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown, designed for her by Mori Lee, of organza and chantilly lace. The Queen Ann neckline of the gown was accented by an all lace bodice touched with seed pearls. Bishop sleeves were a highlight to an A-line skirt with a three tiered hem, edged with lace. The gown ended in a beautiful chapel length train. To complete her radiant look, Brenda chose a waltz-length veil with chantilly lace edging and a pearled head-piece. She carried a bouquet of Talisman roses from which she presented a rose to each mother. Her dress was "something new", she wore a blue garter, and borrowed an old handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Tammie Howard of Graham. Bridesmaids were Marla Hearn of Rochester, Susan Stegemoeller, of Lubbock, both sisters of the bride, Jill LeFevre of Sagerton, cousin of the bride and Karen Reich of Sweetwater. They wore orange scoop-necked dresses with ruffles on the neckline and around the bottom. The dresses were gathered at the wrist and were tied with orange ribbon.

Lezlee Hearn, the bride's niece, was flower girl and Shane LeFevre, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. Tony Adkins of Rochester was his cousin's best man. Groomsman were Cole Turner of Rochester, brother of the groom, Jackie Wilcox, Ronnie Oliver, and Larry Denson, all of Rule.

Serving guests were Mrs. Tammie Adkins, Jill Waggoner, and Mrs. Pam Elmore.

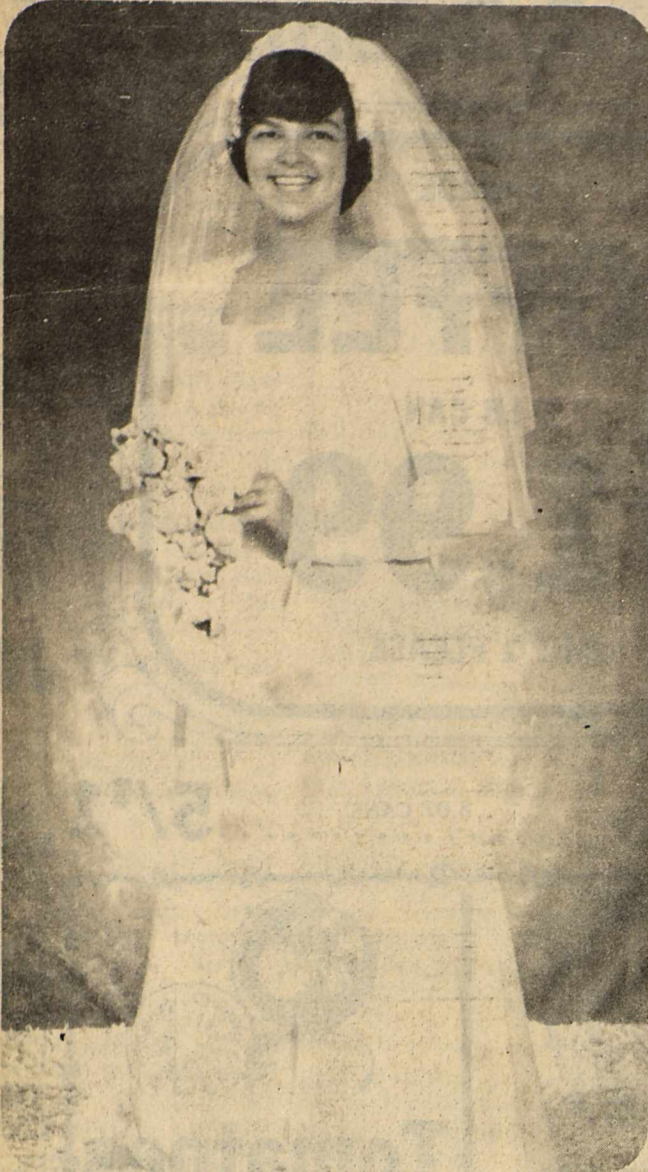

Following the reception, a wedding dance was held in the Sons of Herman Lodge at Old Glory.

Gammill, Russell United

Miss Karen Lynne Russell became the bride of Mr. John Edward Gammill in an impressive ceremony at noon on Saturday, May 19, 1979, at the Windwood Presbyterian Church in Houston. Reverend Harry B. Wood, Jr. officiated the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Russell of Houston, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Robertson of Haskell and Mrs. Mae Jordan of Kilgore. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Gammill, also of Houston.

The altar was decorated with an archway adorned with greenery and white and yellow daisies flanked by two large arrangements of white and yellow flowers, all surrounding an antique kneeling bench of the bride's parents. The couple knelt during a part of the marriage ceremony with the wedding guests reciting "The Lord's Prayer." Wedding music selected by the bride were "Trumpet Tune in D Major," "Trumpet Voluntary," and "Hymn to Joy" played by the organist, Mrs. Anne Eisen of Houston.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an lissa gown of white silk sata-peau and jeweled, re-embroidered Alencon lace. The bodice, appliqued with lace, was designed with a Queen Anne neckline. Long tapered sleeves were cuffed with lace and closed with French buttons and loops. At the highrise waist, semi-full skirt, worn slipper length, was generously appliqued with lace motifs above the hemline and at the end of the chapel length train. Scallops of the lace edged the entire hem of the gown and train. With her gown, the bride wore a finger-tip jeweled lace mantilla edged with bridal pearls caught to a fitted Juliet Cap covered in matching lace, which fell softly over the back of the gown.

Complimenting the bridal gown, the bride wore her mother's single strand of pearls, a birthday gift given her mother by the bride's father. The wedding day was the birthday of the mother of the bride, and the bride wore the pearls as "something borrowed." For "something old", the bride carried her mother's prayer book mounted with a cascade of yellow roses accented with baby's breath and greenery.

Miss Leslie Edwardson of Houston was the maid of honor and Miss Janice Gammill, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. The attendants wore matching formal gowns of yellow dotted swiss over taffeta. The ruffled off-shoulder gowns also featured a deep ruffle at the hemline and were complimented with large picture hats and sandals of matching color. The attendants carried arrangements of yellow roses, yellow and white daisies with baby's breath and greenery. Each wore a single pearl droplet necklace and white gloves, a gift of the bride. The mother-of-the-bride wore a soft peach formal gown with matching accessories complimented with a white rose corsage. The mother-of-the-groom chose a beige formal gown accented with a deep rose corsage. The maternal grandmother, Mrs. J.W. Robertson, selected a beige dress accented with navy accessories complimented with a yellow rose, yellow daisies and white carnation corsage, colors of the bride.

Serving the groom as best man was Mr. Stan L. Ramirez of Houston and groomsmen, Mr. Steven Russell, brother of the bride. Ushers were Mr. Steven Russell, brother of the bride, Mr. Daniel Gammill, brother of the groom, Mr. Jeff Edwardson and Mr. Sims McCutchan, all of Houston.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at The Champions Golf Club. Members of the house party included Miss Julie Hall of Pittsburg, Mrs. Susan Loyd of Abilene and Miss Dorothy Lane Syper of Gladewater, all cousins of the bride. Mrs. M.J. Edwardson presided at the bride's book. The table displayed bride and groom dolls which were used at the wedding of the bride's parents years previously.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Robertson of Haskell and Mrs. Mae Jordan of Kilgore. The bride and groom were married in the year that the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Robertson, will be celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hall, Miss Julie Hall of Pittsburg, Mrs. Janelle Adams, Mr. John Adams of Gladewater, Mrs. Susan and Jason Loyd of Abilene, Mrs. Fern Watters of Tulsa, Oklahoma, Mr. H.H. Hill of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Miss Debra Reed of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Reed of Austin.

The bride and groom are recent graduates of Rice University, and currently the bride is enrolled in graduate school at Rice. Following a two-week wedding trip to Paris and London, the couple will reside in Houston.

Nanny Reunion

Held June 3

On Sunday, June 3, 1979, the Nanny reunion was held at the Haskell Country Club. There was a very good crowd attending this year and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

After lunch, there was a short business meeting. Letters were read aloud from members who could not be present. It was also decided to have the reunion at the country club again next year.

Mrs. Jack Nanny and her son, Leland, showed some very interesting pictures to the group. These pictures were taken in Dolgellau Wales where the Nanny Castle and estate are located. Everyone enjoyed seeing the pictures of the castle and parts of the estate. 22,000 acres of this estate has just been donated to the forestry service in Wales. It was also interesting to learn that the name Nanny was originally spelled NANNAU.

Harty, Tooley United In Austin

Andrea Kay Tooley and William Russell Harty, both of Austin, were united in marriage at the Brentwood Church of Christ in Austin, Saturday evening, June 9, 1979. Officiating minister for the double-ring ceremony was Jim Southworth.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenneth Tooley of Austin and Mrs. R. K. Harty and the late Mr. Harty of Southland. The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Allie M. Anderson of Rule and O.W. Tooley of Haskell.

Guests attending were registered by Mrs. Mary Whitaker, sister of the groom.

Programs of the ceremony and scrolls were handed to those attending by Miss Mary Elizabeth Harty, niece of the groom.

A prelude of traditional wedding music was presented by organist Mrs. Ronny Arbuckle. Candles were lighted by Kevin Tooley of Abilene and Kirk Tooley of Austin, brothers of the bride.

Following the seating of the mothers, soloist Gary Knippa, accompanied by Mrs. Arbuckle, sang, "Whither Thou Goest."

Escorted down the aisle by her father to Wagner's Bridal Chorus, the bride wore a formal gown of candlelight organza and French Alencon lace over taffeta fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline. The empire bodice of lace was accented with pearlized sequins and pearls. The full sheer bishop sleeves were accented with deep lace cuffs buttoned with tiny covered buttons. Vertical bands of lace to the lace-edged hemline and chapel length train graced the A-line skirt. Her Camelot cap headpiece of matching lace held the fingertip veil of candlelight illusion edged in Alencon lace. She carried a cascade of Japhat orchids, bridal white, roses and stephanotis. Greenery of variegated chlorophyllum and English ivy, complemented by candlelight picot streamers, completed the bouquet which was designed by the bride's mother. She wore a necklace of pearls, a gift to her mother from her father at their wedding.

Miss Cynthia Tietje of Austin was maid of honor with Miss Janet Thompson and Miss Denise Reed, both of Austin, and Mrs. Robin Tooley, sister-in-law of the bride of Abilene, serving and bridesmaids. They wore formal designer gowns of soft yellow polyester over crepe designed with an empire waistline. A deep collar edged with a narrow ruffle formed an off-the-shoulder neckline and draped to a shawl effect in the back. Silk candlelight forget-me-nots centered with yellow seed pearls on the brim and yellow organza tubing encircling the crown and catching sprays of matching forget-me-nots in a bow, accented the yellow flop brim hats worn by the attendants. They carried candlelight lace fans, designed by the bride, featuring a spray of yellow and candlelight silk flowers and English ivy leaves. Bows and streamers of yellow organza and yellow picot ribbon completed the design.

Miss Lisa Barbee, cousin of the bride, of Tishamingo, Oklahoma, carried a lace basket of silk yellow roses and miniature carnations with English ivy and greenery accented with bows and streamers of matching ribbon. She wore a soft yellow gown of chiffon over crepe styled with a deep circle collar edged in lace and a flounced skirt with lace insets from the empire waist. She scattered yellow rose petals along the aisle. Master Ben Harty, nephew of the groom, of Arlington, was dressed in an ivory coat with chocolate brown trousers and bow tie. He wore a yellow miniature carnation boutonniere.

The groom wore a Creme Byron tuxedo with ivory ruffled shirt and ivory tie. His boutonniere was of white roses and stephanotis. He was attended by Patrick Cockburn of Austin as his best man, who wore a tuxedo combining the creme coat and toast brown trousers with ivory ruffled shirt and tie. Groomsmen, dressed identical to the best man, were brothers of the groom, Michael Harty of Topeka, Kansas, Peter Harty of Arlington and Patrick Harty of Lubbock. They wore yellow rose boutonnières.

Serving as ushers were Kent Tooley of Austin, Kevin Tooley of Abilene, Kirk Tooley of Austin, brothers of the bride, and Kim McClintock of LaGrange. They wore toast brown tuxedos with ivory ruffled shirts and ivory ties and boutonnières of yellow carnations.

Escorted by her son, Kent, the mother of the bride wore an empire-styled formal gown of soft apricot designed by a slip-bodice featuring heavy lace of the same color and a crystal pleated skirt. A chiffon cape with mandrin collar of matching lace completed her attire. She wore an orchid corsage.

The groom's mother wore a formal gown of copper colored Quiana featuring a shirtwaist bodice with long sleeves and full skirt. She also wore an orchid corsage.

Vows were exchanged in a candlelight setting before a curved brass candelabra, graced on either side by brass candelabra trees. Greenery of lemon leaves and emerald palm entwined the candelabrum which held ivory cathedral tapers. The unity candle, flanked by two lighting tapers, was on a stand decorated with cascading English ivy and candlelight satin and lace bow and streamers. Green plants in basket containers were used to complete the setting.

Special pews were marked with arrangements of greenery, cascading English ivy and candlelight satin and lace bows.

As the couple stood before the altar and preceding the exchange of vows, Mr. Knippa sang, "The Wedding Prayer." After the exchange of vows and rings, the Unity Candle was solemnized as Mr. Knippa sang, "Walk Through This World With Me."

The ceremony was concluded by prayer and presentation of the couple. Recessional was Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The bride was graduated from Reagan High School in Austin and received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in history from the University of Texas at Austin. She is employed by the Texas Railroad Commission. Mr. Harty was graduated from Trinity University in San Antonio with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He is employed with Motorola, Incorporated, in Austin.

Following a wedding trip, they will be at home in Austin.

RECEPTION

A reception was held at the Texas Federation of Women's Club in Austin immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Whitaker presided at the registry.

The bride's table was draped with candlelight antique satin accented with satin bows and bells. The bride's bouquet and her attendants' fans decorated the table along with silver candelabra and ivory tapers. The white five-tiered wedding cake, designed and decorated by the bride and her mother, featured cascades of yellow roses and lilies of the valley. Center tiers were separated with tall Grecian pillars surrounding a centerpiece of lovebirds and satin bells accented with tulle and candlelight lilies of the valley. The cake was topped with ceramic lovebirds and Japhat orchids. Punch was served from a silver punch bowl.

The groom's table was covered with a brown antique satin cloth with an ivory lace overlay. The chocolate cake was a double ring, accented with sugar coated grapes. Brass candelabra and accompaniments complemented the table. Finger sandwiches, a fruit plate of strawberries, grapes and pineapple served with ginger cream dip, nuts, mints and coffee were served. The food table was covered with a white cloth and decorated with a basket of flowers, votive candles in candelers and sprengri fern.

Miss Cindy Sampler of Austin provided traditional love songs on the harp.

Members of the houseparty, dressed identical in white eyelet lace long dresses with an empire bodice, spaghetti straps and A-line skirts, featuring underskirts of yellow, green or ivory, were Mrs. Diane Faught of San Antonio, Mrs. Mary Corley of Spring, Mrs. Betty Petzold of Paige, Mrs. Jeannine Goodrum of Brenham, Mrs. Cheryl Mendenhall of Odessa and Mrs. Diane Leonard, Mrs. Pam Crumley and Mrs. Delia Waldie, all of Austin. Carrying white wicker baskets and handing out rice bags were little Misses Elizabeth Harty, Shannon Virden, Amy Leonard, Kristen Faught, Heather Petzold and Lisa Barbee.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Mrs. R. K. Harty hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday, June 8, at the Empress Room in the Villa Capri Hotel. The U-shaped tables were decorated with an arrangement of yellow and white carnations, yellow satin roses and ribbon.

PRENUPTIAL PARTIES

A luncheon honoring the attendants of the bride and members of the house party was hosted by an aunt of the bride, Mrs. G.W. Cone of Borger. The luncheon was held in the Harden Room of the Austin Club. Decorations were white wicker baskets filled with yellow and white silk flowers. Individual white baskets of silk flowers and hand decorated napkin rings completed the table decor. Place cards were quilled by a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Patrick Harty of Lubbock.

Other parties honoring the bride included a miscellaneous bridal shower, personal shower, linen shower, recipe shower, kitchen shower and a luncheon. The couple was also honored with a couples' patio party.

Conservation Viewpoints USDA Soil Conservation Service

I have had several inquiries about JOSE TALL WHEATGRASS in the last few months. After researching this new plant material specie with Joe B. Norris, Abilene, Field Range Specialist, Soil Conservation Service (SCS), and Norman Bade, Vernon, Conservation Agronomist, SCS, the following data can be released to producer's of the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District for late summer or early fall consideration.

This wheatgrass specie was released by the New Mexico University and the SCS. Jose Tall Wheatgrass is a good cool season perennial that needs additional water of not under irrigation. There is a planting near Crowell in Foard County which was made recently. It is too early to know any of the emergence and growth habits of the specie in our area of Texas.

Dryland planting need about 25 inches of rainfall. Jose Tall Wheatgrass has proven to have a good drought and cold tolerance, and is very aggressive. Row plantings require 4 to 5 pounds pure live seed per acre, while drilled plantings will require double the rate for row plantings. It should not be considered for use in mixtures, Fertilization should be made according to soil tests.

At the present we can not say where the limits of this specie are going to be. The SCS feels that this grass could be a good plant for waterways, and irrigated pastures. However, only time and trial plantings will prove its best adaptability to our local soil and rainfall conditions.

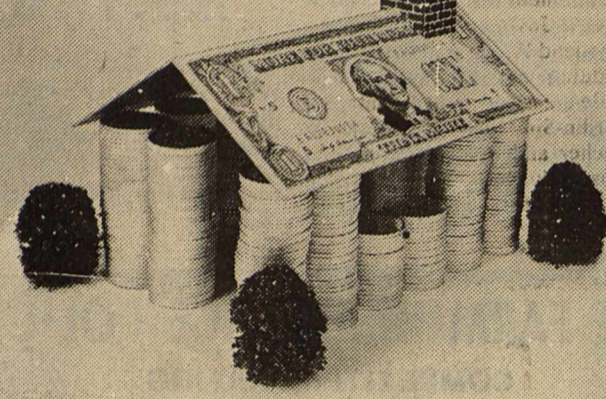

Information released by New Mexico University indicates Jose Wheatgrass to be adopted to fine to coarse textured soils, but is best adopted to tight soils. It also performs well in saline or alkaline soils. It requires at least 120 frost free days for seed production, and has been used primarily for pasture and hay.

At the Los Lunas Plant Materials Center in New Mexico, Jose Tall Wheatgrass averaged 5 1/2 tons of high quality hay per acre when irrigated and fertilized, and cut 2 or 3 times a season to a stubble height of 6 inches. Forage samples clipped to a 10-inch height averaged 18.6% crude protein and 23.7% crude fiber. As a comparison, Alfalfa hay generally averages about 15% protein and 29% fiber, considering all analysis, according to Morrison's Feeds and Feeding.

It would appear that Jose Tall Wheatgrass has a place in our local conservation activities, and may prove to meet our needs in controlling erosion by wind and water.

Seating guests were Scott Olson from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Mark Sidwell from Kansas City, Kansas.

The bride wore an A-line Chiffon wedding gown with an empire waistline, Queen Ann neckline and cap sleeves. The bodice was embroidered with silk Venise lace and pearls. There was a flounced applique of Venise on the front of the skirt and an organza hemline trimmed with Venise lace. The gown ended in a Chapel train. She also wore a fingertip white illusion veil with a Juliet Crown cap embroidered with Venise lace.

The brides attendants wore gowns of light blue knit crepe with Chiffon sashes flowing down the back.

The reception was hosted by the bride's parents.

Following a short trip to Colorado, the couple will reside in Dodge City, Kansas, where the groom is the assistant pastor of the First Assembly of God Church.

Jaycee & Jaycee-ettes Happenings

Summer is well under way and so are some big plans for the Jaycee-ettes. Great reports on the Rodeo. Congratulations to all the cowboys & girls, parade entries and all the workers for a job well done. A special thanks to our Jaycees—we're awfully proud of you.

Pony League games are on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Everyone come out & join the fun. Jaycees & Jaycee-ettes check with Elaine Davis on the work schedule and how about taking some special treats the night you work.

Bake sale this Saturday. This is to pay state dues. There's a lot of talk of some really scrumptious sounding recipes so plan for Father's Day Sunday & treat him to a sweet.

Mini - Lots will be in Snyder on June 30th. Lets gather some new ideas and get our year rolling. Plans are underway for the annual Christmas Bazaar. Anyone with ideas let me know. Will be having a work shop once a month.

Jaycee wives we'd really love to have you in on this. Congratulations to Jim and Connie Pace on their new addition; and also to Thurman and Janice Howeth.

Now, contrary to popular belief you do not have to be pregnant to become a Jaycee-ette - its just that those stand out a little more; so all you Jaycee wives come on and get involved - we need you.

Enjoyed it, come see us - next meeting Cindy Hester's June 19th.

Little League

BY PAUNEE GRUPE

Well, I did it again. I moved three players from one team to another in last weeks column. I put Raul Baiza, Caycee Reed, and Barbar Benton on the Cats and really they play on the Red Horses. I apologize folks.

The rain has really caused the major league teams to have to double up on their playing now. The next couple of weeks are going to have a lot of games being played, and there is a lot of excitement in the air. As it stands right now there is a tie for second place and it is very close between first, second, and third places. There is no telling how this season will end up.

Only two minor league games were played this week. One triple was hit by Jeff Baum, Red Horses on Thursday night. There were two triples hit on Friday night, Marty Decker and Marc Grupe of the Crows hit these.

In the major league games we had two homers, Ron Campbell of the Hawks and Joseph Perez of the Lions. Todd Harris of the Rams hit a triple in Sundays game. Todd Harris, Ponciano Lopez, and Ruben Ozuana, Rams, made a spectacular double play which helped the Rams win their game. Special mention goes to Ron Campbell for the fantastic job of pitching that he did against the Rams. This was Ron's second time at pitching and his first time at pitching the whole game. Special mention also goes to Joseph Perez, Lions, for the job he did playing the outfield in their game against the Cubs. The Lions played two people short for part of the game and three short after their catcher was injured. Lions, you played a great game against the Cubs.

Scores for this week were:

John Wallace Receives Beef For Father's Day

The Haskell CowBelles join CowBelles across the nation in Beef Promotion for Beef for Father's Day. The Haskell chapter gives this year a Pikes Peak Roast to John Wallace as 1979 Father, to be honored on this June 17 Father's Day.

'Fix-It-Festival' Scheduled By Extension Office June 19-21

Haskell County families are invited to participate in a three day short course on home care and maintenance. The "Fix-It Festival" will be held Tuesday through Thursday, June 19 - 21. Two sessions will be held each day on the same subject. The short course will be held each morning at 10:00 a.m. and each evening at 7:00 p.m. Each session will last approximately one hour, and will be conducted at the County Extension Office.

Following are the home care and maintenance subjects to be demonstrated:

Tuesday: "Cleaning on a Shoestring" - How much of your grocery bill is not food? Do you know how much you are spending for household cleaning products that you do not really need? You can make your own cleaning products that will do less damage to your furnishings and equipment and spend less money. The recipes for making and directions for using these low cost homemade cleaning products will be demonstrated.

Wednesday: "Powder Puff Plumbing" - Do you know what to do if water begins flooding your house, the toilet won't stop running, or the faucet won't stop dripping? Even those with limited experience as a home handyman can learn to take care of several small plumbing jobs around the house. Performing simple repairs as they are needed may prevent the need for costly major repairs or replacements later on.

Thursday: "Interior - Exterior Painting" - Are the walls in your home dirty, drab, uninteresting? Do they appear too small or too dark? If your answer is "Yes", then perhaps you should paint. Come learn how to select suitable paint, equipment and supplies for the task, and understand the proper room or surface preparation and painting procedures to use.

Free publications will be available with information to help you with the repairs mentioned above plus other home repairs. These programs are free of charge. For additional information about the short course contact Joan James, County Extension Agent, at 864-2546.

Educational services and programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socioeconomic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Tricycles, bicycles and motorcycles are all a lot easier to ride than a cattle cycle. Most times a lot safer too. Nearly anybody in the beef business will tell you their business depends on the cattle cycle. Stated most simply, the cycle works on the principle that there will continue to be more cattle as the price goes up and when there are too many cattle the price will come down. Simple enough, right? Wrong. The number of cattle is only one part of the cycle. Rates of slaughter . . . spread between feeder and fat cattle . . . supply of money . . . intangibles such as optimism or pessimism . . . influence of outside investors . . . prices of feed grains . . . all these operate on cycles of their own. All are a part of the total cattle cycle. This is the sort of action and interaction that makes the cattle market one of the world's most unpredictable.

Rocking Chair Philosopher To Speak At Weinert Foursquare

BY BETTYE McBROOM

With the wheat harvest in full swing, many memories flash back to mind. When the men were in our fields it was my turn to cook and carry the meals to the field. With two small children, then three and then four it became increasingly harder, but my mother had always done it so I was to do it.

It would take two hours in the morning to cook, get things together and into the car to go to the field, not to mention the spills. Finally the kids would be gathered into the car for the "fun trip" to the field even though they were crying and pleading not to go.

The trip to the field would take a minimum of two hours because the men liked to take turns keeping the combine running while the others ate. More spills followed! And I need to mention here, that paper plates and instant ice tea were a no-no with our men.

When we finished with the noon meal and had things rounded to go back home, came the familiar words, "Honey, since you don't have anything to do would you...?" For some reason I always thought if I was gone long enough from home maybe the good fairy would go in and clean the mountains of cooking utensils I had left behind, but I guess I did not know the right magic words. When I did return home with the dried dirty dishes then it would take another hour or hour and a half to clean the kitchen and put everything up. By this time it was time to start thinking about the night meal to the field, but I was lucky. The men would eat sandwiches at night and occasionally they were surprised with homemade ice cream. Oh, I failed to mention there was the wheat that had to be carried to the grain elevators or the cotton trailers hauled to the gins!

The Thanksgiving meal was prepared and taken to the men in the fields when the wind and sand was blowing so hard that the cotton was hard to strip, and we ate the meal in the car and the men nearly beat me back home was the final straw. I said no more to holiday meals in the field. I also wised up some too. Of course the kids were big enough then to stay at home but it finally dawned on me that the men could eat steak fingers, hot steak sandwiches, and the likes from the corner store much easier than I could prepare them, and there was not the clean-up job later either!

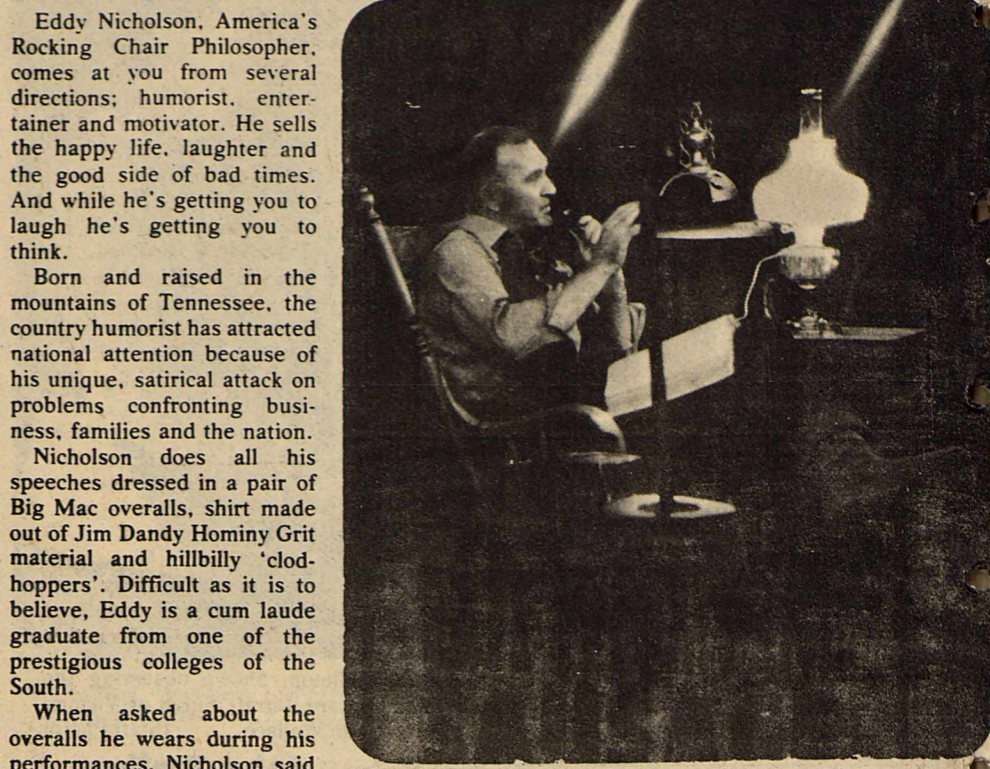

The reason behind the meals to the fields were because the men did not want to waste the precious harvesting time coming home and going back.

When we did get back home at night there was always the laundry to be done and the diapers to be folded. What a luxury the disposal diapers would have been to me!

I failed to mention that Bible School usually came during this time, and the garden food just waited to be ready until we were our busiest with the field work.

Would I trade my life as a farmer's wife? No way! Yes, I would like to have a fair return for our labors as others have and someday we will have it. There is one outstanding characteristic about a farmer that you do not see in many other people, their never ending patience with the weather and their surroundings. When they do get hailed out, or no rain, or too wet, their favorite phrase is "Maybe next year."

Save Bumper Crops By Canning

Canning the "Fruits" of your summer garden is a good way to make use of bumper crops of anything from apples to zucchini. In this way, you can enjoy fruits and vegetables into the winter, or give them as gifts.

It's not too early to begin planning. Check the canning equipment you have on hand. Discard cracked or work rubber sealers or knicked jars that could crack during processing. If gift giving is in mind, take advantage of the wide variety of decorative jars on the market. It is also a good idea to invest in a pair of strong tongs and plenty of pot holders for easy handling of hot processed jars.

Pick out recipes you'd like to use and list the canning ingredients you'll need. Keep the list with you when shopping so you can take advantage of supermarket specials. When you begin canning, use only the freshest produce. The quality of your canned goods will only be as good as the ingredients with which you begin. Be sure to discard blemished or rotted portions of fruits and vegetables, and scrub them well to remove spray, soil and insects. This is a good step in safeguarding against spoilage during storage.

Properly processing your fruits and vegetables is extremely important to prevent spoilage. For information concerning canning or for free canning publications come by or call the Extension Office at 864-2546. If you are interested in having your pressure cooker gauge tested for accuracy, bring it to the Extension Office to have it checked free of charge.

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.
