

Services Held For Unidentified Man

Funeral services for an unidentified Mexican man were held Tuesday morning in Willow Cemetery with Father Steven White of St. George Catholic Church officiating. Services were directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Home.

The young man's body was found February 5 about four miles north of Haskell and investigators have been attempting to identify him since that time.

Several hundred persons have viewed the body during the past week but no one was able to identify him. Following the funeral service the casket was opened briefly to allow a man from Seymour to try to identify him.

Persons came from as far as Oklahoma to attempt the identification during the week-long search.

Almost all area law enforcement agencies have participated in the investigation and most now agree that the young man's identity may never be known.

A preliminary autopsy report indicated that the cause of death was strangulation and that there had also been a blow to the head.

City Council Holds Lengthy Meeting

Members of the Haskell City Council met Tuesday night in a marathon meeting which lasted almost five hours. The meeting was the longest in recent times and most of the time was used in discussion on three items.

The three topics which required the majority of the meeting were opening bids for City insurance, opening bids for a new fire truck and equipment, and proposed changes and construction at the airport.

Two bids were submitted for insurance for all city property and workmans compensation. Members of the council agreed to submit the bid to Lanco which submitted the low bid of $20,159.00.

Following bid openings on fire truck and equipment, Mayor Royce Williams requested that a committee from the fire department study the bids and make their recommendation to the council.

The committee recommended and the council agreed to purchase the chassis from Bill Wilson Motor Co. for $12,777.26; the apparatus from the Boardman Co. of Oklahoma City for $30,000.00; and equipment from Fire Appliance Co. of Texas in Wichita Falls for $8,319.30 for a total price of $51,096.56.

Councilman Frank Markey presented a proposal to the council to limit the sale of avgas at the airport to 100 gallons to transients to prevent persons from bringing large tanks and purchasing fuel.

Markey told council members the purpose of the limit was to prevent several large sales of fuel from using the entire year's allocation. Members of the council agreed to the limit.

Markey also submitted a proposal to advertise for bids for the construction of six new hangers at the airport. The rent from the hangers would pay for themselves and no additional city funds would be required. Members of the council agreed to the project.

Markey also submitted his resignation to the council. The resignation was submitted because of a conflict of interest with a project he presented to the council.

Following the resignation Markey requested that the City consider either building and leasing him a large hanger or leasing him land and allowing him to build the hangar.

The hanger would be used for maintenance work on airplanes with a qualified, licensed mechanic. Also included in the proposal was the start of pilot instruction, and airplane sales.

Members of the council agreed to study further the possibility of leasing an area to Markey and allowing him to build the facility. City Attorney John Fouts was instructed to study the legal aspects of the project and report to the council at their next meeting.

Mayor Williams told Markey that it was with reluctance that he accept the resignation and that Markey's service on the council had been sincerely appreciated.

In other action, Council members discussed forming a volunteer police reserve and agreed to discuss the program further at the next meeting.

Council members also agreed to advertise for bids for the purchase of a new machine to clean sewer lines.

City Secretary Desmond Dulaney gave a financial report and Mayor Williams reported on the approval of a Dept. of Housing and Urban Development grant to improve Avenue A and portions of adjoining streets. The grant limits work to that area.

Election for city offices was set for April 5, and Clay Smith was appointed election judge. Helen Elliott was appointed alternate judge. The terms of Royce Williams, Joe Cortez and Francine Johnson expire. Mrs. Johnson has filed for re-election.

In other action, Commissioners approved a contract with the City of Haskell for use of the County Jail and agreed to advertise for bids for a truck for Precinct 4.

Jaycees Attend Convention

Haskell County Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes braved near blizzard conditions this past weekend to attend the Texas Jaycees Area I Convention in Midland. The annual event hosted some 260 Jaycee-ettes-Jaycees and other invited guests in the brand new Holiday Inn Holiday. This motel complex enabled convention goers to enjoy the convention by having everything contained under one roof. With weather conditions hampering travel Friday and Saturday, this was a welcome treat.

Friday's events consisted of a get acquainted party, a series of skits in play form, and a dance, all hosted by the Midland Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes.

Saturday morning began with Early Bird, at 8:00 sharp, and continued through the day with clinics, competitions, and seminars. The Saturday luncheon featured Jim Scott of Birmingham, Alabama as the keynote speaker. Scott urged the Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes to become more involved in the pressing issues of the day while continuing to do the good works we are doing. Saturday night festivities were capped off with a dance, political caucus and demonstration for candidates.

Early Bird and prayer breakfast began Sunday's activities, with a large contingent of Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes in attendance. A Lay Minister from the Church of Latter Day Saints spoke and again urged more Jaycee involvement in church, family and facing of problems of today.

Area, region and district officers for the coming year were elected Sunday morning. A. J. Clinton of Abilene was elected Area Vice President, Sam Robinson of Del Rio was elected Regional Director for Haskell's Region, Region I-C, and Jake Dusak was elected District Director for District 135 which includes Haskell.

Jim Pace of Haskell made a good run, but was defeated by Robinson in their quest for Regional Director.

Lynn Smith of Snyder formally announced his candidacy for the office of Texas Jaycee President, and Area I gave him a unanimous vote of confidence. Smith is unopposed at this time, but looks for other candidates to come out soon. Smith has served Haskell as Regional Director and Area Vice President.

Haskell County Jaycees and Jaycee-ettes won several awards during the convention. President Charles Andress was presented a plaque from the Muscular Dystrophy Association for Haskell County's help in their last fund drive and also an award for 100% retention for the 3rd quarter. James Davis received an "All Star" cap for recruiting 5 members in one month. Ronnie Reynolds placed 2nd in First Timers Competition, while Liz Reynolds placed 3rd in Jaycee-ettes First Timers. Diana Owens received 3rd place in Composition Competition, Cora Proctor took 2nd place in aid to Jaycees "Whatever It Takes" projects, and Connie Pace received 3rd place in extern projects for "Birthday Girl" project. The Haskell Jaycees received a 3rd place for the "Creek Clean Up" book.

Those attending from Haskell were Charles and Laura Andress, Ronnie and Liz Reynolds, Bo and Diana Owens, Jim and Connie Pace, Larry and Darlene Walton, Charles and Louise Thornhill, Jack Rueffer, Jake Dusak, James and Elaine Davis.

GIANT SNOWMAN

The snowmen were abundant all over the area after several inches of snow fell last Friday and Saturday. The snow was the first of the winter and the first appreciable moisture in several months.

Nutrition Program Set For County

A new nutrition program is beginning at the Experienced Citizens Center. Our first serving date has been set for Monday, February 25, 1980.

The purpose of this program is to provide older Americans, particularly those with low incomes, with low cost, nutritionally sound meals served in a strategically located center where they can obtain other social and rehabilitative services. Of which includes regular recreation and other activities available from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Information and referral services, programs of special educational interest, and other events are also scheduled.

The program is open to all persons in Haskell County who are 60 years of age or over, and their spouses regardless of age.

Contributions to cover the cost of the meal are invited and are accepted in a confidential manner. However, persons who are unable to contribute should feel free to participate in all areas of the program. Contribution will be returned to Nutrition Project to cover the costs of meals above the level of federal funding. A charge of $2.00 per meal will be made to guests under 60 years of age.

The Haskell County Nutrition Project is funded through a grant from the West Central Texas Council of Governments Area Agency on Aging with Haskell County.

These meals are to be prepared by cooks at the Corral Building in Haskell and brought to the Center to be served by volunteers there.

Reservations are now being accepted for those who wish to come. This is the only way of knowing how many to prepare for. As each one registers at the door they will be asked the days they plan to return. Call in your reservation by Friday the 22nd (please) at 864-3875.

A nutritionally balanced meal will be served on each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday beginning at 12 noon. Once a month the Screening Day will fall on a Wednesday and the meal will be served on Tuesday of that week.

If anyone would like to volunteer to help serve on these days, there is a schedule that you may sign choosing your day, week, or month. This is a good project for Sunday School classes, Clubs, or for anyone who wishes to help others, but most of all share their most precious gift...their time.

Grant Approved

Congressman Charles W. Stenholm today announced the approval of a $495,000 grant for the City of Haskell by the Department of Housing and Urban Development. The funds will go for street and drainage improvements, Stenholm said.

MH Bellringer Chairpersons Announced

Rosa Martinez of Haskell and Mrs. Tom Yates of Weinert were named Mental Health Bellringer chairpersons announced John Stevens, President of the Mental Health Association in Texas. "The Bellringer Chairperson is a vital part of making our organization work," said Stevens.

The Mental Health Association in Texas is a voluntary citizens organization, funded entirely by private contributions. The association needs the donations from the Bellringer in order to continue its work.

"This year the Association's major goal is to improve the care for the discharged long term mentally disabled," said Stevens.

The association is promoting self-help groups for former patients and for families of persons with mental health problems. The association is also working to see that housing opportunities are available in communities for discharged patients.

Study Club To Present Style Show

Mrs. Leon Biffle of Rule presented the program for the Progressive Study Club Thursday night. Changing Scenery for Appreciation was the theme as Mrs. Biffle showed beautiful slides and artifacts from Alaska. She told of the experiences she and her husband had during the twenty-five years they lived in Alaska. She pointed out the changes that are taking place in the native art. It is almost impossible to find the delicate carvings and handwork of the Eskimos today.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Dean Byford reported on plans for the style show to be presented by Lane-Felker on the 8th of March at 2:30 p.m. at the Haskell Country Club. Tickets will be sold in advance for $3.00 and only 200 will be available. Members may sell tickets for the dessert and style show as well as Johnson's Pharmacy, The Drug Store, and Lane-Felker. Plans for the next meeting, "An Evening to Remember," were presented by Mrs. Virgil Cobb. A barbeque dinner for husbands and prospective guests has been planned. Dinner tickets will be $3.00 each. The hostesses for the evening, Mrs. J.W. Wallace, Mildred Mancill, and Bernadene Wyche served cherry tarts in keeping with a Valentine theme.

CONFERENCE

A missionary conference will be held at the Haskell Foursquare Gospel Church Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 15 and 16 at 7:30. Rev. Ray Vincent of Hope Chapel in Abilene will be conducting a Missions seminar Friday night and a Foursquare missionary film will be shown Saturday night. Rev. and Mrs. Richard Dickerson, missionaries to Brazil will be featured guests Sunday night at the 6:00 service. The public is invited.

Delta Kappa Gamma Holds February Meeting

The Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Saturday, February 2, at 2:30 p.m. in the Truscott Community Center with Truscott and Benjamin members as hostesses. Twenty-one chapter members were present.

Chapter president LaRue Reeves called the meeting to order. Virginia Casey introduced Son Propps, Alton (Cookie) Cook, and Jim Cash as entertaining musicians for the afternoon and also introduced other guests including Avis Propps, Frances Cook, and Curtis Casey.

With Propps on violin and vocal, Cash on electric bass, and Cook on electric guitar, the group entertained with "I Don't Love You Anymore," "Over the Waves," "The Old Rugged Cross," "I Wish I Had a Nickel," and "Cheatin Heart."

Virginia Casey, Belle Grill, Valarie Kinnibrugh, and Sybil Simmons served refreshments of finger sandwiches, cream cheese balls, raw vegetables, chips and dip, crackers, strawberry pound cake, and spiced hot punch.

The door prize was won by Zoy Risinger of Knox City. Mrs. Reeves led the chapter members in repeating of the "Collect."

Members of the Professional Affairs Committee had charge of the program. Katrina Robinson of Aspermont presented a discussion on "Woman's Redesigning for the Future." Mrs. Robinson closed her remarks with a prayer in behalf of world affairs.

Belle Grill gave a research article on a composer with music. She gave a life sketch of Fanny J. Crosby, who was born in 1820, and who wrote probably a greater number of hymns than any other known writer. Ms. Crosby was 44 years old when she wrote her first hymn, suffered an early blindness, but continued to write such well-loved hymns as "Blessed Assurance," "Save in the Arms of Jesus," "Near the Cross," "I Am Thine, O Lord," "A Wonderful Savior," "Jesus Is Tenderly Calling," "Tis the Blessed Hour of Prayer" and many others.

With Mrs. Casey at the piano, Mrs. Grill led the group in singing "Blessed Assurance" and "Near the Cross."

Mrs. Reeves dismissed the group with prayer.

Rice Springs News

As I sit here listening to the melting snow dripping off the roof of Rice Springs, it sure makes me look forward just that much more to Spring coming and hoping that it will be very soon. I think most of our residents share this thought with me. We sure hope that the old ground hog didn't know what he said we would have six weeks more of this winter weather.

We were glad that different activities still got to go on even if the weather was so bad over the weekend. The Assembly of God Church and the Church of Christ, both of Haskell, braved the ice and snow and brought the morning and afternoon church services on Sunday. Our residents certainly enjoyed these services and thank the two churches. The ladies from the Haskell First United Methodist came on Monday morning and presented a good musical program and also a short devotional. We were sorry that some of the ladies didn't get to come because of sickness.

Our residents enjoyed being sung to last week by Tom Watson and his large group of singers and also by the Sweet Home Singers. The two Bible Studies brought by William Hodge and Tom Jones were also enjoyed by all who attended. We were sorry that Joe Simpson didn't get to come on Friday morning to present our regular Friday devotional. We hope she is able to be back with us this week.

We had four residents to celebrate birthdays last week. They were Nannie McCaul who celebrated her 8th and on the 5th, Eugene Collier her 55th on the 5th, Eunice Stewart her 84th and Joe Teague his 53rd, both on the 8th. We hope all of these had an enjoyable birthday and are privileged to enjoy many more happy, healthy ones.

We are sad to report that several of our residents are still not feeling well. Three of our residents have had to enter the hospital during the past week. William Reed and Dessie Marion are patients in the Haskell hospital and Ernest Hull was first admitted to the Haskell hospital, then later transferred to a hospital in Abilene. We hope all of our sick people are feeling much better by the time this is read.

The bad weather cut down on our visitors, especially the out-of-town ones, this past week, but we are glad to report that a few did brave the cold and come out. We thank all of these very much. Our out-of-town visitors were:

Mr. and Mrs. Burney Camp of Rule visited Joe Ray and Ellie Cartwright. Also visiting Ellie was Duke Stone of Rule.

Mary Schonerstedt and Emma Lammert enjoyed the visits of Mary's daughters, Ella Nauert of Stamford and Evelyn Teichelman of Sagerton.

Visiting Charlie and Eugene Collier and also Joe Teague were Charlene Mitchell and Evelyn Rogers, both of Rochester.

Coming to see Alvena Holle were her sister, Lillie Lehrmann of Sagerton, her nephew, Clancey Lehrmann of Old Glory, and her great nephew, Steve Lehrmann of Sagerton.

Lynn Matysiak of Rule visited Charity Bradley, Alma Cole, and Nannie McCaul.

Visiting John Earp were his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J.A. Jackson of Eastland. They also took John to Knox City to visit and eat lunch with John's brother, Joe Earp. John stated that he had a very enjoyable visit with all of his family.

Visiting Manley and Hazel Branch was their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peace of San Angelo.

Coming to see Maggie Martin was her sister, Ada Snyder, and also Agnes Bowman, both of Seymour.

Visiting Edna Collins were her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ophus Posey and Nita of Knox City.

Melba Stowe of Olney came over early to wish her mother, Eunice Stewart, a happy birthday.

Visiting Trudie Bush were her daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith and Mrs. Hollis Rucker, all of Rule, her sister-in-law, Ada Snyder, and also Agnes Bowman, both of Seymour, and her grandson, Earl Ray Smith of Abilene.

Visitors of Alma Cole were Alma Allen, Mrs. Audie Verner, Mrs. J.E. Geer, and Thelma Cole, all of Rule, and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. E.G. Post of Abilene.

Danny Wainscott of Tulia came to see his grandparents, Luther and Mattie Hines.

Rev. J.R. Williams and Lynelle Trussell and her baby, all of Rule, visited with Sam and Ethel Bradford.

Visiting Hilda Kupatt were her son, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kupatt of Sagerton and her daughter-in-law, Maeta Kupatt of Rule.

Coming to see Lois Gray were her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warren of Tahoka.

Allen Davis of Rule came over on Saturday and visited with several of our residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Yates of California visited his aunt, Iva Simpson a couple of times.

Coming to visit Nannie McCaul and to also help her celebrate her birthday with a big lunch at the home of her daughter, Eunice Hunt, in Rule, were Nannie's sisters, Bertie Graham of Mesquite, Pearlie Foster of Fort Worth, and Ethel and W.A. Johnson of Yantis, her niece, Eldurice Matthews of Mesquite, and her daughters, Opal Simpson of Leveland and Mavis and J.J. Williamson of Plainview. Nannie said she enjoyed her birthday very much, especially getting to be with so many of her family.

Visitors in the room of Ada Williamson and Cleo Monday were Ada's son and daughter-in-law, J.J. and Mavis Williamson, of Plainview, and also Sena Mae Murray of Rule.

"MEET OUR RESIDENTS"

The resident that I would like you to meet this week is Nannie McCaul. Nannie was born on February 5, 1895 near Sulphur Springs in Hopkins County to A.J. and Lou Warren. Nannie was one of ten children born to the Warrens. Only Nannie and three sisters remain alive. They are Pearlie Foster of Ft. Worth, Bertie Graham of Mesquite, and Ethel Johnson of Yantis. The family moved from Hopkins County to Haskell County in 1907, settling on the Mathis place about seven miles south of Rule. Nannie attended the Center Point School after coming to Haskell County.

Nannie met and later married Robert R. McCaul at her parents home south of Rule. Mr. McCaul was a trucker and they lived in Rule. The McCauls had four daughters. They are now Eunice Hunt of Rule, Clara Belle Fortune of Pecos, Opal Simpson of Leveland, and Mavis Williamson of Plainview.

Mr. McCaul died in 1963 and Nannie continued living in her home in Rule, except when she would go stay with one of her daughters for short periods of time.

Nannie has been a member of the Rule First Baptist Church since she was a young girl. She was a member of the Rule Busy Bee Club and also attended the Garden Club in Rule.

Nannie has been living at Rice Springs since September 21, 1978. She likes most of the activities that we have here, especially the different musical programs, church services, and playing bingo.

Nannie is proud to be the grandmother of eleven grandchildren and sixteen great grandchildren.

That's the news for another week.

Forms Available For Summer Jobs

The Texas Department of Community Affairs has announced the availability of summer job opportunities in the '80 Youth Conservation Corps (YCC) projects throughout the state of Texas.

Unlike many other federally funded youth programs, YCC is open to young people from all economic sectors. Applicants will have a choice of being considered for nonresidential projects, or work encampments which provide food and lodging facilities, as well as around the clock supervision. Minimum wage ($3.10 per hour) will be paid for thirty (30) hours work per week; the other ten (10) hours will be devoted to environmental education. All projects proposed for 1980 are to be coeducational and will average eight (8) weeks duration.

YCC, similar to the Civilian Conservation Corps of the 1930's, is jointly sponsored by the U.S. Departments of Interior and Agriculture-Forest Service.

The program objectives are to accomplish needed conservation work on public lands, and to provide outdoor summer employment for 15 to 18 year old male and female youth, and to develop an appreciation of our nation's natural resources among participants.

As Texas' recruitment coordination office, the Children and Youth Services Division of the Texas Department of Community Affairs is distributing blank application forms throughout the state until early March, 1980. Interested young people should contact their local school administrators for program information and application forms, and a list of nonresidential projects and encampments away from home.

Forms may also be obtained by writing: Texas Department of Community Affairs, Children and Youth Services Division, P.O. Box 13166, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Deadline for application submission is March 15, 1980. Selection will be made by random technique.

HASKELL SWCD BOARD MEETS

The Board of Directors of the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District will hold its regular monthly meeting on February 20, 1980 at the SCS office in Haskell. The meeting will begin at 9:00 a.m. Anyone with Conservation problems or needs is welcome to attend the meeting. In fact, the board invites all interested parties in the field of conservation to meet with them to discuss needed conservation, conservation problems or just to observe the activities of Haskell County. All persons, regardless of race, creed, national origin or sex will be assisted upon request.

PRIME FARMLAND

Haskell SWCD and Haskell County has some of the most productive soils in Texas. Prime farmland is the land that is best suited for producing food, feed, fiber, and oil-seed crops. It has the soil quality, growing season, and moisture supply needed to economically produce acceptable farming methods. Prime farmland produces the highest yields with minimal inputs of energy and economic resources, and farming it results in the least damage to the environment.

But prime farmland has problems. From 1967 to 1975, about 8 million acres of prime farmland were lost to other uses. This prime farmland was converted at an average rate of 1 million acres per year. Of this 8 million acre loss, 6.5 million acres were converted to urban and built-up areas and 1.6 million acres to water areas. The loss of prime farmland to other uses puts more pressure on marginal lands, which generally are more erodible, droughty, and difficult to cultivate, and usually less productive.

This problem may be one that Haskell-producers may be concerned with. If so, express your concern to the Board of Directors. Come by the Soil Conservation Service or the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service offices in Haskell and review the draft appraisals developed from data collected by local producers throughout the United States. These appraisals can be reviewed in each of the two USDA offices. Anyone is welcome to come in and make reviews, and comments will be appreciated.

Applications

Now Being

Accepted

Applications for two summer internship programs sponsored by Congressman Charles W. Stenholm have been finalized and are now available at the Congressman's Abilene District Office.

The program will include two Omar Burleson Congressional Interns and two Lyndon Baines Johnson Congressional Interns, with one intern from each program to serve during June or July of this year at Stenholm's Washington office.

A number of persons have expressed their interest in the two programs since we first began developing the positions last month. Stenholm said, "and I am pleased to be able to honor former Congressman Burleson in this small way, as well as offer valuable experience in government to four interns from the 17th Congressional District."

Burleson will chair a special seven-person selection committee, chosen from throughout the District and State. Representative Gary Thompson, an Abilene educator, is to serve as special advisor to the group.

Applicants for the Burleson internships must be 18 years of age at the time he or she is in Washington, allowing high school seniors who have enrolled in an institute of higher learning to be eligible. Others eligible include any student or graduate student who was enrolled during the preceding academic year at any of the District colleges, universities or technical institutes, or any other school, if the person's home of record is within the District.

Also eligible are teachers, counselors or administrators in any District elementary, middle school, junior high or high school or any instructor, any grade of professorship or administrator of any institution of higher learning within the District. The only requirement is that the person be involved actively in working with students.

Requirements for the LBJ interns are similar, but teachers must be involved in government or social studies at a secondary or post secondary school in the District.

"The program is designed to provide the intern (either student or teacher) with a full Congressional legislative experience in the Washington office," Stenholm continued.

Formal applications and further details may be obtained from the Abilene District Congressional Office, P.O. Box 1101, Abilene, Texas 79604, or by calling AC 915 673-7221.

GIANT SNOWMAN

Three inches of snow may not be much to some but Tom, Paul and Fred Barnett along with Robert and Mary Lehrer found they could still do something big with it this weekend. They found enough of the white stuff to form an eight foot tall snowman.

This brought the seasonal total to about 808,000 samples classed. An additional 180,000 samples were classed at Munday, bringing the combined total to 988,000 samples classed.

Cotton miking 3.5 to 4.9 sold at physical prices ranging from 65½ to 70½ cents per pound. The supply of cotton was moderate. Demand was light to moderate for base mike cotton, and was light for low mike cotton late in the week. Trading was slow to inactive late in the week.

The quality of cotton classed in Abilene was about the same as during the previous week. Grades were 8% white, 66% light spotted, and 23% spotted. Grade 32 continued predominant at 33 percent. Grade 42 comprised 30%, grade 43 comprised 11%, and grade 33 comprised 10 percent. Fiber length was 60%, staple 32, 29% staple 31, and 9% staple 33. Micronaire readings were 45% within the 3.5 to 4.9 range. Eighteen percent miked from 3.3 to 3.4, 27% miked from 3.0 to 3.2, and 10% miked 2.9 or lower. About 10% of the samples classed were reduced in grade because of bark or grass content.

Sen. Tower Backing Rural Hospitals

U.S. Sen. John Tower (R-Texas) once again has gone to bat for rural hospitals.

Tower is co-sponsoring legislation to block regulations which set unrealistically high certification requirements for laboratory personnel. The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare rules would be a crippling blow to 350 small hospitals in Texas, the senator explained.

"The bureaucrats who wrote these rules would require the 50-bed hospital to meet the same personnel standards as a major metropolitan medical center," Tower noted. "They show no awareness for the role of the small hospital and the vital services it provides to people who otherwise would have to travel many miles for emergency care."

"We fought this same mentality in 1977, when HEW was trying to impose guidelines which would have closed scores of Texas hospitals," he added. "But we stopped them then, and we expect to block this latest foray in ill-conceived over-regulation."

The new rules in essence would require a medical doctor, or a person of equivalent training and experience, to be hired as technical supervisor, and a person with a college degree to be on duty any time lab work is performed.

"Many hospital administrators have told me there is a real shortage of people with these qualifications, and that the salary requirements would bankrupt their laboratory operations. Small hospitals are able to provide the kind of laboratory work they need to serve their patients with skilled technicians who can call on consultants when they need assistance," the senior senator from Texas said.

"These rules could be interpreted in such a way that a skilled technician couldn't come in at night to run an emergency test without the presence of a supervisor who meets HEW standards," Tower noted.

"No one, least of all the dedicated people who provide rural health care, wants to allow poor laboratory service. But I am convinced doctors and hospital administrators know the capabilities of their staffs and facilities, and maintain high standards in their work," Tower concluded.

The proposed legislation to block the new rules, S.2247 sponsored by Sen. James A. McClure (R-Idaho), was introduced February 4.

Statement To County Voters

To the People of Haskell County:

I would like to take this opportunity to give you my background and qualifications for the office of Haskell County Sheriff.

I am 39 years old. I was born in Lamesa August 10, 1940. My wife, Charlene and I have been married 21 years and have two children; a daughter, Terri, who is married to Eddie Kloese and a son, Kerry, a junior in Haskell High School. We reside in Haskell.

My great grandfather came to Haskell County in 1890. My grandfather and father were born in Haskell County. My family moved back to the county when I was six months of age. They settled in Weinert, where I grew up and graduated from Weinert High School in 1958.

I went to work for the Dallas Police Department in December 1966. I attended the Dallas Police Academy for 16 weeks completing 640 hours of law and all types of police related training. I worked for the Dallas Police Department for a little over two years, resigning to return to Haskell County where I have been engaged in farming since that time.

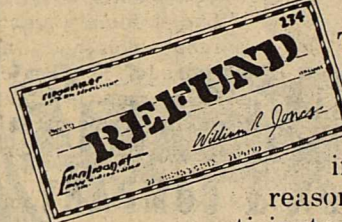

It is with this background, experience and concern over the direction our law enforcement in the county has taken, that I seek your support and influence to become the next Sheriff of Haskell County.

The Beef Referendum

Don't be misled

It's not a government program. This is a producer program. Producers wrote the law. Producers are paying for the referendum through voluntary donations. And producers will run the program from day one, once the referendum passes. The government's involvement is limited. The Secretary of Agriculture formally appoints the Beef Board members, who are nominated by producer organizations; he is also responsible for seeing that the money is spent according to producer wishes, as set out in the law.

It's not a tax.

The program is voluntary. The collection is automatic. But if anyone, for any reason, doesn't want to participate, he can ask for a refund and get it promptly. With no red tape. That's the law.

It's not just an advertising program.

The program is comprehensive. Some of the money will go for consumer education. Some for foreign market development. Some for production research. Some for new product development. Some for improving marketing and distribution. And some for advertising and promotion—whatever producers, through the Beef Board, decide they need.

It's not just for the big guy. Beef Board members will be both big producers and small, from all across the country. Cow-calf operators. Farmer-feeders. Stocker operators. Feedlot people. Dairymen (dairy cattle account for 20% of beef production). This program will help everybody.

It's a self-help program. If the beef business is going to get more profitable, producers themselves are going to have to make it more profitable. The beef referendum provides the tools—promotion, research, foreign market development, marketing information—to do the job.

It's producer-controlled. The plan will be run by a Beef Board made up of cattlemen who have been recommended by their fellow cattlemen. Every state or region will be represented in proportion to its beef production.

It's fair. The investment needed for the program is provided by a collection of just 2/10's of 1% on the sale of each animal. It's based on a "value added" system that guarantees each person pays only his fair share.

It's needed. The beef industry's present research and information effort is inadequate by any standard. We spend a small fraction of what many other, smaller commodity groups spend (e.g. cotton, citrus, dairy, soybeans). The referendum will generate the $30 to $40 million a year needed to solve our problems and strengthen our markets.

Lummie Westmoreland Part I
"I was born near Indian

Springs, Georgia March 31, 1890. I was the second child of Mr. and Mrs. E.P. (Ezekiel Pitts) Newton. Our family lived in Georgia until I was fourteen years old where we owned a plantation.

"Life on the plantation had its funny moments. Once it had rained so long Father did not have the opportunity to plant the cotton. Finally it cleared up enough to send my brothers out to hoe. It was a hot day and the steam was rising from the earth. My oldest brother stopped and told the other brothers, "Let's stop right now, kneel and pray for rain so we won't have to hoe." You never heard a more fervent prayer (so my brothers say). Next thing they knew it was pouring down rain again. We had two Negro Cabins on the place. Betsy Ann and Joe had a daughter named Essie. John and Mary Alexander had a son named John Henry. We used to play with these children all the time. Once while we were playing Essie spoke up and said sadly, "I wish the Good Lawd had made me white folk." That has stayed with me all these years. They cannot help that their skin is a different color and we shouldn't make any distinction.

"The turn of the century brought the Galveston Flood. I believe folks said a tidal wave hit the coastal regions. It literally ruined us in Georgia. We had a good crop that year. We had to fertilize Guano by hand. We had a sack around us and a long hollow pipe about four feet long with a funnel on top. We'd put the fertilizer in the funnel and go down the row, so you can see how hard we worked that year. When the flood hit the crop it strung out the cotton and wrapped it around the stalks. That's the only time I saw my father work because he was really the overseer of two plantations. Four years later my father moved the family west to Oklahoma so he could get more land for a cheaper price."

It's always good to remember those who work so faithfully in our home to make it a home for the residents. We want to take this special time to mention our super employees for the last two weeks: Leona Caldwell, N.A.; Caroline Mitchell, L.V.N.; Janice Allred, L.V.N.; Abigail Salinaas, N.A. We enjoy working with you.

We also want to thank one of our departments who sometimes do not get mentioned because their work is usually behind the scenes. They say the heart of the home is in the kitchen and we have some special people in our dietary department that serve delicious meals and work tirelessly to make dinner an enjoyable time. Thanks cooks and kitchen helpers for all the hard work you do.

We want to extend our deepest sympathy to the J.A. Wright family and the Elsie Mitchell family in the loss of their loved ones. We want to welcome our new resident, Mamie Vaughn. We trust you will enjoy your new home.

Because of inclement weather, we really didn't have a lot of visitors but we thank those who did come out.
Mr. and Mrs. James E. Griggs of Aspermont visited Mrs. Clonie Tarpley, Anna Lee Cook, and Lois Carroll of Rule visited Mrs. Edith McDaniel. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson of Rochester visited Mrs. Nancy Howard. Mr. and Mrs. G.C. Brackett visited Ola Mae Smith, Pearl Lackey and Oscar Lewis. Sally and Junior Camp of Colorado City and Mrs. Berrine Camp of Rule visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oliphant. Mr. and Mrs. Horace O'Neal of Seymour visited Mrs. Lummie Westmoreland. Mrs. Ola Mae Smith and Mr. Oscar Lewis. Mrs. Mardell Roberson of Rochester visited Mrs. Eva White.

We thank everyone who faithfully comes and visits us each week.

DEPT. OF HORRORS

The General Accounting Office (GAO) now accuses the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) of illegally spending as much as $38 billion. This charge follows on the heels of admission by HEW's former secretary, Joseph Califano, that the agency had lost $8 billion in fraud. GAO says that HEW has given $38 billion to 190,000 grant recipients without finding that they were spending the money as required by regulations. So far, total silence from the Washington "Post" and "Star" and the New York "Times." That noise you hear is moans of anguish from taxpayers.

HUMILIATING

Probably nothing hurts a woman's vanity more than having to put on her glasses to apply her lipstick.

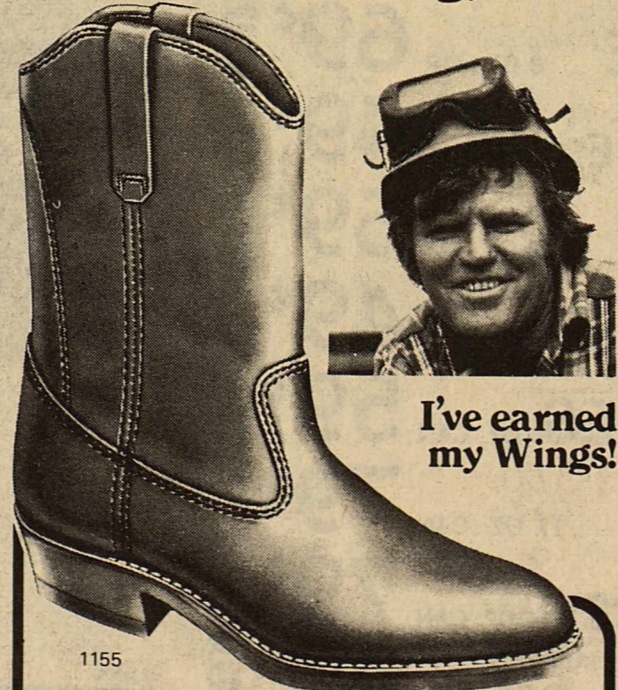

MOTHERS' MAGIC

Men solve complicated problems better than women, it is said. But did a man ever keep the faces of three chocolate-eating kids clean with a six-inch handkerchief?
