Lions To Sell Mops And Brooms Today

Members of the Haskell Lions Club will hold their annual mop and broom sale today, April 17 on the courthouse lawn.

This year, all sales will be made at the courthouse and no door-to-door sales will be conducted.

In addition to a wide variety of mops and brooms, sale items will include over fifty other household items which are all made by Lighthouse for the Blind. All items sold are made by blind workers and the project supports them.

In addition to supporting the blind people making the products, members of the local Lions Club use profits from the project in sight conservation projects including eye examinations and glasses for economically disadvantaged children in the Haskell and Paint Creek School Districts.

Co-chairmen of the project are O.

W. Tooley and Bill Trammel. In announcing this year's project they requested the continued support of the people of this area.

Aggie Muster Set At Lake Stamford

Former students of Texas A&M University will assemble at John Kimbrough's cabin in Veda's Camp on Lake Stamford on Monday April 21 for the annual Texas Aggie Muster. This year's Muster Chairman Wallar Overton reports that a Bar-B-Q supper will be served at 6:30 followed by Muster Ceremonies. The Muster is open to all former students and their families, parents of students, and friends of Texas A&M. Those planning to attend the Bar-B-Q should contact Wallar Overton at area code 817 864-2958 as soon as possible.

The Aggie Muster dates back to the mid-1880's and has been held annually since. More than 350 Musters will be held around the world this year wherever Aggies live or work. During wars, the Aggies have mustered in foxholes, on battlefields, aboard airplanes, and in medical hospitals. In World War II, a muster was held on Corregidor before the Japanese captured the island.

The Texas Aggies pay their respects to all those who are absent, because of death since the last Muster. When the names of the honored dead are called from the Muster Roll, a friend of the deceased answers "Here."

Overton urges all fellow Aggies in the area to attend this year's Muster and enjoy an evening of fellowship with other former students of Texas A&M University.

was printed exactly as we received it. In comparison, the girls track meet was held Friday and complete results and all necessary information was brought to our office early Monday. The editorial policy of this newspaper has always been and will continue to be, to give all students the maximum recognition for their achievements in all fields of endeavor. We agree that sports events should not take precedence over literary events or that the activities of one club or organization should not overshadow those of another, but, without assistance on the part of the individuals involved, it is not possible to prevent this type of occurrence.

Public Invited To Red Cross Meeting

The Haskell County Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold a community meeting tonight, April 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Haskell Steak House.

The program will feature an overview of Red Cross in the community including Safety, Disaster, and Blood services. Recognition will be given to Red Cross Volunteers. The program will also include a question and answer period.

Red Cross officials will explain the various programs available and will attempt to provide information that will increase the quality of assistance and the speed which assistance is given to Haskell County.

The various Red Cross programs are organized to aid local communities but problems arise when members of the community either don't know of the assistance available or where to get needed assistance.

Haskell County is actively participating in the Red River Regional Blood program but at the present time no safety programs or disaster training programs are being conducted.

The major portion of the program will educate local residents how to assist the Red Cross in obtaining aid in events such as the August 1978 flood.

All interested persons are urged to attend the meeting.

When I insured my store, I was Mr. Creamy. When I had a claim, I was Mr. 873-54269.

Not when you deal with an Independent Insurance Agent.

When you buy insurance, there are two types of agents you can deal with. A one-company agent who works directly for one insurance company. Or an independent insurance agent who represents several companies. What's the difference? There are quite a few. First of all, if you buy insurance from a one-company agent, he's probably not the person you talk to when you have a claim. Most one-company agents have nothing to do with the claims process. If you have a claim, it's between you and the adjuster.

Your independent insurance agent doesn't do business that way. He's right there ready to serve you when you have a claim... helping you reach a fair settlement as quickly as possible. Personal involvement is not the only advantage your independent insurance agent offers you. Since he doesn't represent only one insurance company, he can offer you policies from several companies. So he can help you choose the policy that's right for you—at the right price. Whether you need homeowners' auto, life or business insurance.

The Independent Insurance Agents of America has a large national network of more than 128,000 member agents. You'll find the one nearest you in the Yellow Pages under the Big "I" symbol.

Dewey Family To Sing In Anson

A very talented family will soon be appearing in Anson. The Singing Deweys of Nashville, Tennessee will present a gospel music presentation at 7:30 p.m. April 25 in the Bethel Assembly Church, 124 N. Commercial.

The family group consists of Levoy and Cleon Dewey and their two daughters, Cindy and Susie. The Deweys have traveled as a family unit since 1967, singing across the United States at denominational conventions, churches, fairs, colleges and have been on such T.V. programs as PTL, 700 Club and The Jimmy Swaggart Show. They have sung on the Grand Ole Opry, at the People's Church in Toronto, Canada, and in the Avon Shakespearean Theatre. Recent trips include several visits to Central America, Pacific Islands, India with Dr. Mark Buntain and Europe; one of which resulted in a fund raising effort to help build a church for missionary work among the Indians of the San Blas Islands. A large part of their remaining schedule is taken up by churches and conventions on a regular basis.

The Deweys originally recorded for Heartwarming Records, but more recently have been working with LTD Productions, their own music company. It was under this label that "Because of Yesterday," which won the 1974 SESAC "Gospel Song of the Year," was published. Another release entitled "Heaven's Sounding Sweeter (All the Time)" has been recorded by Jimmy Swaggart as well as numerous other people and remains high in the charts. Levoy and Cleon write most of their material, including such song hits as "Jesus Is The Best Friend," "Welcome Back, Jesus," "Battle-Scarred" as well as many others. Cindy and Susie also do some writing of their own, and have recorded several albums.

The Deweys credit a good portion of their success to the closeness of their family. Levoy's father, Wayne, drives and maintains the bus that the group travels in; meanwhile his mother, Marie, helps in the office.

The Deweys play 15 different instruments during their program ranging from various stringed instruments to keyboard and wind instruments. Bring the whole family because it is truly a musical experience to remember.

ROBERTS CEMETERY
There will be a meeting concerning the Roberts Cemetery Friday, April 18 at 7:30 in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank.

Rice Springs News

Here we are again after a two week rest. A good bit has been going on since I last wrote. We have had several of our residents to have birthdays in the past two weeks. On Monday, March 31, Jonnye Pumphrey celebrated her 84th birthday by being given a big party in the dining room, to which all the residents and staff of the home were invited. The party was given by her daughter-in-law, Betty Pumphrey, of Fort Worth and arranged for by Faye Simpson. There was a pretty birthday cake and also cake squares and delicious punch served to everyone, and a banana given to everyone as a plate favor. The party was certainly enjoyed by all who attended. Others who have celebrated their birthdays are Mattie Hines on April 5th, C.L. (Dutch) Cross on April 6th, and Emma Humphrey on April 8th. Mrs. Humphrey was 99 years of age and was given a small party in her room to which some of her family and friends were invited. We hope all these had very good birthdays.

May Cook was first admitted to the Haskell hospital last week and later transferred to an Abilene hospital for surgery. We understand that at this time she is still in intensive care. We hope by the time this is read, that she will be well again and back in the home.

We wish to extend sympathy to the family of J.J. Jousan at this time. He passed away on April 10.

Mr. J.C. Collier has left Rice Springs to move to the rest home in Knox City. We hope he will be happy living there.

The ladies of Rice Springs celebrated Easter on Friday afternoon, April 4th, by putting on their Easter hats that they had decorated and their pretty dresses and parading up and down each hall, bidding a happy Easter to all our shut-ins. Nineteen of our ladies participated in wearing hats and all but two of these were in our parade. Those participating were Cleo Mondy, Alvena Holle, Charity Bradley, Trudie Bush, Jessie Brown, Nannie Winter, Lois Gray, Ethel Bradford, Ethel Edwards, Flora Smith, Nannie McCaul, Mary Bradley, Etna Duncan, Emma Pueschel, Emma Lammert, Ida Pheister, Edna Collins, Annie Smith, and Jonnye Pumphrey. The ladies all looked very pretty in their Easter garb. After the parade, the men joined all the ladies in the dining room for a party. Everyone was served Easter decorated cupcakes, cookies, punch, and coffee. I would like to thank Mary Nell McCoy, Cheryl Hertel, Joan Meier for helping me serve at the party, Ruth Ann Klose for playing the organ during our parade, and everyone who brought hats for our ladies to decorate.

We want to thank Mrs. Randy Hatfield who brought out a beautiful decorated chocolate cake for our residents to enjoy. The cake was real good.

Our thanks also go to all the volunteers for the past two weeks. They are Tom Watson Singers, William Hodges, Tom Jones, Jo Simpson, who brought a special Easter devotional, the Rule First Baptist W.M.U. and their pastor, J.R. Williams, the Haskell Church of Christ, the Haskell First Baptist for our Sunday morning service, and the Sweet Home Singers. These and our other volunteers are what keeps up the morale of all our residents. There were quite a few

MEET OUR RESIDENTS

The resident that I would like you to meet is Jonnye Pumphrey. Jonnye Elizabeth was born on March 31, 1896 in Kent County to County Judge

A.R. Floyd and Elizabeth Luttrell Floyd. She had two brothers, Warren and Robert. The Floyds lived in Clairmont, but when Jonnye's mother died, Jonnye was sent to Sweetwater to live with a relative, Judge Beall. She attended school at Sweetwater and then went on to Canyon Teacher's College, where she received a Teaching Certificate. She later taught school in Aspermont, where she met John Boyce Pumphrey, Jr. After their marriage in 1919, J.B. and Jonnye went to the 10X Ranch at Old Glory to make their home in a house located on the ranch. J.B. wouldn't take Jonnye there until after dark, because he was afraid when she saw the condition of the house, she would leave. The house had been used to store oats and for many years, each time Jonnye would sweep the floors, oats would fall out of the cracks. She didn't leave the house though, in fact, she lived in the same house, which was built on to and renovated, until she came to live in Rice Springs on June 1, 1978.

The Pumphreys had one son. He is John Boyce Pumphrey III, known as Jay. He and his family now make their home in Fort Worth.

Jonnye is a member of the Presbyterian Church in Rule. She is the proud grandmother of three grandchildren.

Jonnye can almost always be found with a smile on her face.

That's the new once more, but I almost forgot, Eugene Collier has been in a Dallas hospital, but he has got to return to Rice Springs and seems to be much better.

Fandangle Membership Drive Underway

One of the Big Country's oldest and most famous traditions is the Fort Griffin Fandangle held each year in Albany. Although the show is held the last two week-ends in June, preparations for the spectacle begin many months prior to that time. Singing rehearsals, technical maintenance and theatre upkeep begins as early as January. This year is no exception, and the West Texas town is already beginning to buzz in anticipation of the 1980 edition of the song and dance presentation.

An important aspect of this current planning procedure includes facing the energy crunch that has eliminated some people's summer travel plans. In anticipation of this problem, the Fandangle Board of Directors has already announced that arrangements have been made for there to be plenty of gasoline available for visitors to Albany this summer. Fandangle spectators are assured that at least two service stations will re-open each night of the show as soon as the performances are completed. Visitors from out of town will be able to fill their tanks before having to drive home. Another new feature this year will be group discount rates for parties of twenty people or more on the Thursday and Friday shows.

The 1980 Membership and Patron Drive is now underway, and members are reminded that their ticket orders will be taken prior to the tickets going on sale to the public. Regular Memberships are $25.00 per year and Associate Memberships are $10.00. Patrons are those members who give $100.00 or more and are listed in the Fandangle Program. The Membership money is used to present the show each year. Dates for the 1980 Fort Griffin Fandangle are June 19, 20, 21, 26 27, and 28th.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bruce of Smiley visited Elmer and Vena Ragsdale.

Jack and Doris Slater of Fort Worth visited her father, Bill Harrell and also Joe Teague.

Visiting Alvena Holle were her great-niece, Gail Lehrmann of Omaha, Nebraska, her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Willie D. Lehrmann of Fort Worth, her nephew, Clancey Lehrmann, and also Hazel Letz and Bernhard Letz, all of Old Glory. She was also taken to Sagerton to attend Church on Easter Sunday and to eat lunch at her sister's home.

James Winter of Bowie came to pick up his mother, Nannie Winter, and take her to her home in Merkel and on to Abilene.

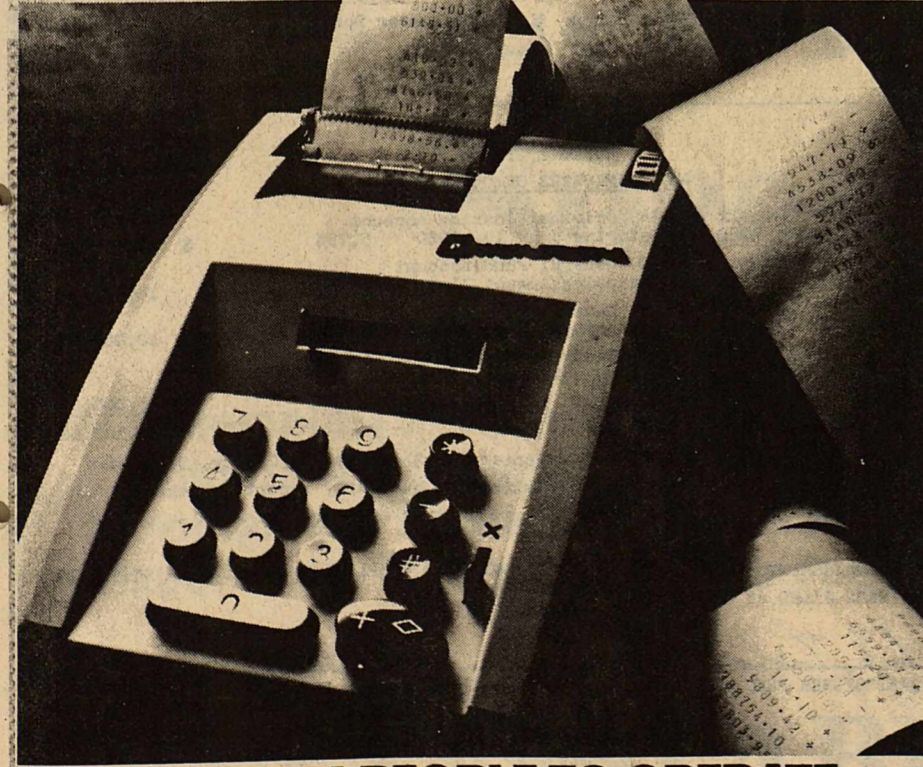

Visiting Mary Liles was her daughter, Aletha Mayfield of Fort Stockton.

Info Available On Stroke Prevention

Stroke, unlike many other medical conditions, often warns its victim before striking. If you feel weakness or numbness in an arm or leg, experience stuttering, stammering, or temporary blindness, call your doctor immediately. These can all be warning symptoms of a stroke, even if they occur infrequently. Most doctors consider any of these warnings to be a medical emergency requiring prompt evaluation and treatment if stroke is to be prevented.

A new booklet from the Department of Health Education and Welfare discusses what causes a stroke and what you can do to prevent one. For your copy of "What You Should Know About Stroke and Stroke Prevention" send $1.00 to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 178H, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Other warning signs of stroke are less specific. They may include a sudden, unexplained headache, unsteadiness or loss of equilibrium and drowsiness. These symptoms should also get prompt medical attention.

A stroke is, basically, a loss of functioning brain tissue resulting in a disability. The disability can take many forms, although a typical victim of stroke is one who can't move one side of the body as easily as the other side and who may have difficulty speaking. The sooner therapy is started after a stroke, the better the chances for recovery.

Hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure are two risk factors in stroke. And stress may accelerate hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure.

To help prevent strokes you should:

- Have your blood pressure checked regularly. If your blood pressure is high, follow your doctor's advice for lowering and controlling it and faithfully take any medication prescribed.
- Follow a healthful diet, avoiding cholesterol-rich and saturated-fat foods for which so many Americans have a passion. You can eat wisely and well—eating lean and thinking lean—by keeping to a diet that relies on vegetables, fruit, chicken and turkey, fish, skimmed milk and skimmed milk cheese.

- Stop smoking.
- Exercise regularly and moderately. Exercise can be valuable in several ways, such as helping in controlling weight and working off stress. Irregular, intense exercise can be dangerous, however.
- Decrease your salt intake, keeping in mind that practically all foods have their own natural salt content.
- Have regular checkups to detect, prevent, and adequately treat any illness.
- Drink alcohol only in moderation.
- Watch your weight and lose weight, if necessary.
- Avoid stress; relax and enjoy life.
- And if the worst should happen, promptly report any warning symptom of a stroke to your doctor.

To learn more get a copy of "What You Should Know About Stroke and Stroke Prevention" ($1.00). At the same time you will receive a copy of the free "Consumer Information Catalog" listing 200 other free or low-cost government consumer books. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration.

The goods and services with which such tactics may be used varies: investments, appliances, automobiles, real estate—nearly anything a consumer might need. Although the products and services may vary, the techniques are virtually the same:

"Buy now—this is our last one."
"If you don't buy today, I can't offer you this low price again."
"Just sign this piece of paper now—it's not binding but it will protect the price for you."
"I won't be back this way again for six months. If you don't buy now, you'll miss out on this opportunity."

The sales persons who use high pressure sales tactics will say whatever is necessary to convince you that now is the time to part with your money. Unfortunately, the statements made rarely are true.

The Consumer Alert

by Mark White
Attorney General

AUSTIN—A little known phenomenon that results from difficult economic times is a measurable increase in the amount of pressure used to sell some goods and services. There are fewer dollars for consumers to spend; consequently, the competition for those dollars among businesses increases. Most legitimate businesses increase advertising, lower prices or improve quality to stimulate sales. A minority of businesses resort to high pressure sales tactics.

The goods and services with which such tactics may be used varies: investments, appliances, automobiles, real estate—nearly anything a consumer might need. Although the products and services may vary, the techniques are virtually the same:

"Buy now—this is our last one."
"If you don't buy today, I can't offer you this low price again."
"Just sign this piece of paper now—it's not binding but it will protect the price for you."
"I won't be back this way again for six months. If you don't buy now, you'll miss out on this opportunity."

The sales persons who use high pressure sales tactics will say whatever is necessary to convince you that now is the time to part with your money. Unfortunately, the statements made rarely are true.

There are some goods and services—mainly investments—where a quick buying decision is necessary. In these instances, the observance of a few rules of caution will help protect you from being victimized:

1. If you are called by the salesperson, ask how the salesperson got your name.
2. Ask about the company for whom the salesperson works. How long have they been in business; are there any customer references; who owns the company; and, is there a bank that will provide a reference for the company.
3. What is the salesperson's background? How long has he or she been selling the good or service in question? (It is very revealing to learn that a salesperson was selling vacuum cleaners last week and this week he's selling investment contracts).
4. Consider the amount you are asked to spend. If you must buy today without taking the time to reflect on the purchase, be prepared to lose tomorrow. In other words, if you respond to the pressure and make the purchase, do not spend more than you can afford to lose.
5. Finally, get all representations in writing. If the salesperson is unwilling to commit the pressurized statements to writing, don't believe them.

The best rule of all, of course, is never respond to high-pressure sales tactics.

If you feel you have been victimized by high pressure sales tactics, contact the Attorney General's Office nearest you so we will have the opportunity to prevent others from being harmed.

April Sales Tax Down From 1979

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said city sales tax rebates for April totaled $24.1 million, about $10 million less than Texas cities received in April last year.

He said 1980 rebate payments of the optional one-percent city sales tax from the first of the year now total $162.8 million, compared to rebates of $135.2 million over the same period in 1979.

Because year-to-date payments are up over last year, it's too early to say whether the decreased monthly payments reflect a downward trend in taxable sales or simply seasonal adjustments, Bullock said.

"The next couple months bear special attention and may give us a clear x-ray about what's happening and what to expect from the Texas economy," he said.

Haskell will receive $4,398.24 compared to $5,018.76 in April last year. This year's total is up 22% over last year.

Houston will receive $6.7 million in rebates for April, bringing the city's 1980 payments to date to $34.1 million, a 22 percent increase over 1979 payments to date.

Dallas will get a check for $2.6 million, compared to $4.9 million the city received in April of last year. They city's 1980 payments for the first four months total $19 million, a 17 percent increase over the same period in 1979.

Fort Worth's check for April will total $853,624 compared to $1.4 million for the same period last year. The city's 1980 allocation stands at $6.4 million, up 19 percent for the same period last year.

San Antonio's rebate check will total $1.4 million, bringing this year's total to $9 million, a 19 percent increase over the 1979 four-month total.

Bullock also sent multi-million Metropolitan Transit Authority rebates to San Antonio and Houston. Houston's April payment will be $7 million and San Antonio will receive $872,881.

Total payments to the two cities since the start of the state's budget year last September reflect $10.6 million in allocations to San Antonio and $81 million to Houston.

The city sales tax is collected by merchants and other sales tax permit holders along with the state sales tax and is rebated monthly to cities in which it is collected by the Comptroller's office.

WTC Rodeo Set April 24-26

Harry Vold of Fowler, Colo., top PRCA producer, will furnish the bucking stock for the Western Texas College NIRA rodeo April 24-26. The rodeo will be held in the rodeo arena on West 30th Street, with performances at 8 each night. Tickets may be purchased from WTC Rodeo Club members or at the gate. Admission is $3 for adults and $2 for students.

Bob Doty, WTC rodeo sponsor, said that WTC is very fortunate to have Vold produce the rodeo.

"Normally we would not be able to afford such a contractor," he added. "However, Vold winters his stock in the West Texas area and is able to help us out."

In 1979, the Vold company had both the co saddle bronc of the year and the bucking bull of the year as voted by the top 15 cowboys in the PRCA. The bronc was "Angel Sings" and the bull was 777. Vold sent more bareback and saddle bronc horses to the PRCA National Finals in Oklahoma City last year than any other producer. The Vold company will also produce the college National Finals this summer in Bozeman, Montana.

The British are coming

Also ranked highly are major attractions, varied landscape and safe towns and cities.

Diet Can Cause Child's Hyperactivity

Your child's diet may have something to do with it—"it" being hyperkinesis or hyperactivity. While there's no real cure for this syndrome in children, a special diet is one of the ways some doctors deal with the symptoms.

This and other treatments are discussed in a booklet from the National Institute of Mental Health. For your copy of "Helping the Hyperactive Child," send $1.00 to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 109H, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Hyperactive children do share certain traits. Overactivity, a tendency to behave inappropriately in many situations, difficulty in learning self-control, and a short attention span are several common characteristics. Hyperactive children may often be described as fidgety, restless, impulsive and quarrelsome.

They can have emotional problems and specific learning difficulties. Because diagnosing hyperkinesis is complex, you should seek an opinion from one or more specialists. Diagnostic evaluations usually include a thorough examination by the child's pediatrician and consultation with a child psychologist, psychiatrist or neurologist. Careful reports from parents, teacher and school counselors are also important in properly identifying the hyperactive child.

While there really is no cure for hyperkinesis, treatments have been developed to provide relief of the symptoms: Medication: The doctor may prescribe a psychoactive drug (one that affects mood, thinking processes, and behavior). The most effective medications are the stimulants. Although stimulants are generally thought to increase activity, in hyperactive children, however, they have a calming effect. The child's attention span and behavior improve. With this medication, the child, no longer driven by impulses, is able to control his or her behavior. As a result, the child frequently gets along better with other children and therefore, increases self-esteem. Teachers frequently report that learning performance improves, too. While stimulants are generally safe, their main side effects—insomnia, appetite loss, and in some cases, irritability, stomachaches or headaches—usually can be controlled by reducing the dosage and changing the time of day the drug is given.

Diet: A somewhat new and still controversial therapy for hyperkinesis is a special diet that excludes all foods and medicines containing artificial flavorings, colors, and an ingredient called salicylate (a type of salt). Examples of forbidden foods are ice cream, luncheon meats, tea, powdered drink mixes, and other soft drinks. Some fruits and vegetables excluded are blackberries, grapes, raisins, currants, peaches, strawberries, tomatoes and cucumbers.

Artificially flavored and colored medicines and vitamins are also eliminated, as is common aspirin. Parents are encouraged to consult with their doctor before the child undertakes such a diet, particularly since it may reduce the intake of certain important vitamins.

Psychological help: Some parents have found it useful to combine drug treatment for the child with psychological therapy, family counseling or behavior modification. Through counseling, the therapist may help the parents understand and deal more effectively with their child's problem.

Where can you go for additional help? Organizations that can help you locate services for a child with special problems include the Associations for Children with Learning Disabilities, 5225 Grace Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15236, and Closer Look, Box 1492, Washington, D.C. 20013. Other diagnostic sources and staff at outpatients' clinics of children's hospitals, university medical schools, and local community mental health clinics.

When you order a copy of "The Hyperactive Child," ($1.00) you'll also receive a copy of the free Consumer Information Catalog. It lists over 200 selected Federal consumer publications. The Catalog is published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Land Bank Officials Attend Houston Meeting

Mr. O.G. Lewis of Rule has just returned from Houston where he represented the Federal Land Bank Association of Haskell at the 34th Annual Stockholders Meeting of the Federal Land Bank of Texas. The meeting, held at the Houston Oaks Hotel, was attended by members of 64 Federal Land Bank Associations in Texas. There were about 650 persons in attendance.

Thomas H. Benson, president, in his report to the stockholders, stated that there was an increasing demand for new loans in 1979. This was the largest year in the Bank's history with $337 million in loans and it appears the demand for loans will continue.

"In this time of historic highs in interest rates the advantages of our loans is apparent to the farmers and ranchers of Texas.

"Our borrowers have interest rates much below prime rate," Benson said. Speakers for the meeting included Ralph L. Lewis, Jr., coordinator of Corporate Communications of Gulf Oil Corporation in New Orleans, La. His speech was on "Energy—Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow."

Other speakers were Barry Mahler of Iowa Park, vice-president of the Young Farmers Association of Texas and C.T. Fredrickson, senior deputy governor of the Farm Credit Administration in Washington, D.C.

The Federal Land Bank of Texas makes long-term loans on farms and ranches and currently has 36,000 loans for approximately $1.6 billion outstanding.

The Federal Land Bank Association of Haskell makes and services loans in this area. Members of the Board of Directors are O.G. Lewis, Weldon Walker, E.H. Burnett, J.E. Nix, Ralph Howe, and Ernest Beck Jr.

Others attending the meeting from this area were Joe Harper, Association Manager, Ernest Beck Jr., J.E. Nix and Weldon Walker.

Congressional Comment

A TASK FORCE to explore the government's efforts to protect farmers from the effects of the Soviet grain embargo has been formed recently and I have been asked to be a member.

The Government Operations Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relations and Human Resources, which oversees the Department of Agriculture, requested the investigation, which will be headed by Congressman Glenn English of Oklahoma.

Our primary concern will be to look into actions by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, following assurances that farmers would be protected from the kind of market slump which we are experiencing following the embargo.

Wheat producers were told recently that USDA has been instructed by the President to "do whatever was necessary to protect farmers from the (grain export sales) suspension's effect — those actions are working."

Since those remarks, made by the Department of Agriculture, grain prices have dropped dramatically across the country. The Department's failure to act effectively to carry out the President's policy raises serious questions about its operations and efficiency.

Several other congressmen on the House Agriculture Committee and the Agriculture Appropriations Subcommittee will be involved in the probe of USDA'S actions.

It is important that the commitment that the Administration made to American farmers be met and I hope that our efforts will contribute to a swift solution to the drop in market prices.

YOU MIGHT be interested to know that Texas ranks high on the list of states receiving the most Federal funds — third, in fact. But, when compared on a per capita basis, our ranking in the share of tax monies drops drastically, to the 29th position.

According to the Federal Information Exchange System, Texas received $26.2 million in Federal funds during fiscal year 1979, 5.6 percent of the national total. Only heavily populated California and New York received more.

But on a per capita basis, the District of Columbia received the lion's share — 22 percent of the total, or almost $23,000 per individual.

Texas ranks 41st in the nation in the amount of Federal funds spent for education per student, primarily because our strong state tax base — supported by oil and gas production — carries the burden for education.

But when we look at Federal expenditures in the energy-related area, we find Texas receives only 1.1 percent of the national total, placing us in 22nd position.

Fees Collected

A monthly report of fees collected in the County Clerks Office of Haskell County by Rhonda Moeller, County Clerk, for the month ending March 1980 includes:

Letters To The Editor

(EDITORS NOTE: The Haskell Free Press will publish letters to the Editor dealing with any subject. All letters must be signed but names will be withheld by request. All letters are subject to editing for length and liability.)

Dear Sir:

Knowing that many families in Haskell share our interest and concern for adoption, we thought perhaps they might wish to join us in defeating the Model Adoption Act.

The Health, Education and Welfare Department has done it again. The Model Adoption Act, a misnomer in its present form, was intended to speed adoptions, thereby freeing children caught in the foster care limbo-world for early placement. In its present form, the act would: allow private adoptions, open confidential adoption records (retroactively), give biological fathers custody by proving paternity without regard to the child's needs and allow a biological mother additional time to change her mind after she signs the legal relinquishment papers. (Additional time before relinquishment is already available.)

If the state of Texas accepts this act, it will set back adoption and do irreparable damage. It could denigrate adoption to a long term foster care situation, thereby reversing its original purpose.

The Texas regional area hearings on the Model Adoption Act are in Dallas, April 14, 8 a.m.-8 p.m., Earle Cabell Bldg., 1100 Commerce, Rm 7A23. If you can attend and oppose this act, please do so-if not, write your opposition to the same address.

In addition-write your state representatives and senators and the Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, P.O. Box 1182, Washington, D.C., 20113.

Senator Alan Cranston will be chairing a federal review in Washington, D.C. after all 10 regional meetings have concluded on May 9.

Thank you for your help. Sincerely yours, John & Jan Gannaway

Dear Editor:

I am somewhat confused as to the criterion you use in placing news stories about school activities. On the front page with the largest headline on the page, I found the story about the Haskell girls winning the U.I.L. District Track title. On the third page sandwiched in among Around Town, the Obituaries, and Marriage Licenses, I found (with much effort) the story about the District Literary title which Haskell won. If you use the criterion of news importance in considering placement, are your readers to assume that you consider sports events of so much greater importance than literary events? If so, I take issue with your thinking.

This literary win represents the fourth literary title Haskell has won in the last five years. This is the third consecutive year we have won. What kind of record has the girls track team had in the last five years?

The students who represent Haskell in literary events are some of the best minds among our students. It is no easy task to write a 1000-word theme, speak on topics of current interest, type or take shorthand, or work complex math problems. Your paper chooses not to praise these students for their work and abilities, as you consistently sing loud praises to the athletes in HHS.

Do not misunderstand my position. I, too, enjoy sports events and believe they should be given coverage in the newspaper. However, I do not believe that sports events should take precedence over literary events.

Since our students are talented in various areas, wouldn't it be fair to give equal recognition to those students who compete with their minds, as well as to those who compete with their muscles?

Sincerely, Pat Quattlebaum

Dear Editor:

I was disappointed to see in this week's paper that the story covering the UIL District Literary Meet was "hidden" away on a back page while the District Track Meet received top billing on the front page.

I know the students who worked on the event in the literary meet put in just as many hours as the track team and deserve an equal amount of space and praise for a job well done.

If students are overlooked on their academic successes but highly praised for their athletic ones, naturally they will go with the one which puts them in the spotlight. Both areas are important, but if we as parents and citizens sweep academics behind the door, we will soon find ourselves living in a town inherited by a generation who can run around the square without getting winded, but don't have the intelligence to work in or manage any business around the square.

Sincerely yours, Susan Pope

I have been a resident of the county for the past 45 years and have been employed by the Market Poultry & Egg Co. when they were in business and for several years for the City of Haskell and have done quite a lot of farming. Now I know it's hard to see each and every one of you but I am going to do my best to see you in person. If I should miss you, please accept this as a solicitor for your vote. My wife and son have deceased early in life. I feel at this time I am qualified to fill the Office of Constable and I'd greatly appreciate your vote and influence and confidence in me to manage the constable's office.

Thanks Bill Hendrix
