(EDITOR'S NOTE: With both the Haskell and Rule Lions Clubs planning to distribute USDA cheese next Thursday, we thought a recent column of James Roberts in the Andrews County News was very appropriate.)

The economy is not the only thing getting tightened up.

The United States Department of Agriculture is fixing to issue another round of cheese.

Shortly before Christmas, the USDA, faced with surplus cheese about to go bad, made 30 million pounds available to charitable, non-profit organizations, including the food banks for distribution to the poor and needy.

Now the department is going to release 70 million pounds of cheese from stocks of the Commodity Credit Corporation to the states for distribution to needy persons.

As with the first batch, the cheese is to be distributed in five-pound blocks.

Currently, the USDA has in cold storage 70 million pounds of cheese, purchased under the dairy price support program, in the CCC inventory.

Personally, we believe it's only fitting that the government get rid of the surplus cheese—especially if it is going to spoil in the very near future.

But we can't help but wonder about the overall effect on the health of the people receiving 70 million pounds of cheese. As most people know, cheese has an overall binding effect.

Our worry is prompted by an experience we had with grapes—and cheese—in Italy during World War II.

Our infantry unit was pulled out of the line, hauled in trucks 20 or 30 miles to another site in order to launch an all-out attack against the Germans.

They hid our outfit in a grape vineyard during the night so we could be in position for the surprise attack the next morning. But the grapes were ripe, juicy, and overhead...and throughout the long night, the dogfaces were reaching up, grabbing big clusters of grapes, and wolfing them down.

They were delicious but deadly. By morning, the vast majority of the soldiers were suffering from severe diarrhea—and the attack had to be canceled.

At mid-morning, huge quantities of cheese arrived at the grape vineyard with appropriate orders to eat or else—and the soldiers spent the rest of the day munching on slabs of cheese. If the grapes were volatile as go, the cheese was just as effective as stop.

And thanks to the strict cheese diet, the attack was launched the next morning.

With the government set on dispensing 70 million pounds of cheese in the immediate future, we can't help but wonder about the overall effect on the digestive system of the poor.

Seems to us that perhaps what is needed is an equal distribution of grape tonnage. We don't know if the government buys surplus grapes or not, but if you're going to distribute 70 million pounds of stop, a compassionate government would certainly pass out an equal amount of go in the form of grapes.

As usual, the timing of the government is terrible.

Spring is the time for a general, all-purpose, all-consuming housecleaning, a fresh beginning, a new start...and the government, with its cheese program, is planning to stop before it starts.

Seems backwards to us!

CofC Banquet Plans Finalized

Directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce finalized plans for the March 19 birthday celebration and banquet during their regular meeting Tuesday night.

The banquet meal will consist of steak, baked potato, salad, homemade hot rolls, and homemade cakes.

Original plans called for the Yankee Doodle Girls to entertain but a scheduling problem has forced them to cancel.

An all new singing group has agreed to provide special entertainment and the group will be identified in next week's Free Press.

Special plans for all attending the banquet include wearing old style long dresses for the ladies and string or ribbon ties for the men to carry out the theme of the 100th birthday of Haskell.

Ticket sales for the banquet are going good according to the directors and most feel that the 300 seat Elementary School Cafeteria will be packed.

Tickets are $7.50 each and are available from the Chamber of Commerce Office or from any director.

Three new directors were introduced during the meeting Tuesday. They were Pat Byford, Tom Watson and Mike Harrell.

Elected as officers for 1982 were: Gene Long, President; Hank

Sherman, First Vice President; Bill Lane Jr., Second Vice President; Mike Harrell, Treasurer; Wanda Dulaney, Manager-Secretary; and

Joe Alves, West Texas Chamber of Commerce Director.

Fandangle Season Fast Approaching

At the first sign of spring time and warm weather, the residents of Albany turn their thoughts to the Fort Griffin Fandangle. The annual outdoor musical epic has turned this town into a frenzy of activity since 1938, and the show will be presented as usual on June 17, 18, 19 and 24, 25, 26. Seems like a long way off, but time passes quickly, and preparations are now underway.

The first order of business is the annual membership drive which is currently underway. Patron memberships are $100.00, regular memberships are $25.00, and associate members may join for $10.00. Memberships offer several advantages...1. Members receive first chance at ticket preferences. 2. Members are invited to the annual membership picnic and sampler held each year at fabulous Reynolds Bend on Watt Matthews' Lamshead Ranch! The annual picnic this year will be held on April 30. Everyone is invited to become a member of this non-profit association and help the Fandangle be able to continue to be presented.

Haskell-Rule Lions To Distribute Cheese

Lions Club members in Haskell and Rule will assist in distributing over 3,000 pounds of cheese March 11.

The cheese will be given away to the needy in five pound blocks. In Rule the Lions will be at City Hall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. and in Haskell at the HNB Community Building from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The Lions are assisting the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in distributing the cheese which is surplus.

The show for 1982 is on the drawing boards, but already planned are several favorites such as "Drunk and Disorderly", "The Cowboy and the Snake", and "Lock, Stock, and Barrell". Singing practices began Friday, February 26, at the Albany Youth Center. The Fandangle is Texas' #1 outdoor musical as recognized by the State Legislature!

Don't forget to send annual dues and get ready once again for the routin'-tootin' Fort Griffin Fandangle!

Texas Agriculture Day March 18, 1982

Our county has a long tradition of agricultural production. Though much of the labor of farmers and ranchers has gone unrecognized, we realize that their contribution to this nation's food and fiber supply is vital to the health of our citizens and of our economy. The farmers and ranchers of Texas have made this state a leader in national agricultural production.

Today agriculture is the only industry that is experiencing increased productivity. In the 1930's a farmer fed only ten people; now he grows enough food for seventy-eight others. Two out of every five acres support crops and livestock for export. This great productivity now comes from only three percent of the nation's population, when a half century ago, fifty percent of America's working force was engaged in farming and ranching.

Agriculture truly is the heartbeat of Texas. And farm families sustain that heartbeat.

Therefore, I hereby declare March 18, 1982 as TEXAS AGRICULTURE DAY in Haskell County and encourage all citizens to join in observances of appreciation for our farmers and ranchers, their families, and the many institutions and industries which contribute to the food and fiber production of this country.

Carter, Bragg United In Double Ring Ceremony

Lynnetta Bragg and William Craig Carter were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Feb. 20, 1982 at 4 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Pecos with Rev. Dudley E. Bragg, father of the bride, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley E. Bragg of Pecos and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Wall of Quanah. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill F. Carter of Colorado City.

They were united before an altar decorated with an arch covered with greenery, burgandy bows and white doves. Two seven-branch candelabras graced each side of the arch and were decorated with greenery and a burgandy bow. A crystal candlestick held white trinity candles. The aisles were decorated with matching burgandy bows.

Organist was Mrs. Freddie Dale Lay, cousin of the bride. Soloist was Mrs. Carl Fickling, cousin of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white silk organza, chantilly and venise lace. Venise lace encrusted with pearls highlighted the empire bodice which featured a Queen Ann neckline. The fitted sleeves were designed of lace ending with a lace ruffle at the wrist. The A-line skirt ended with three ruffles of lace giving an apron effect. The dress had a chapel length train. Her hat was trimmed with chantilly lace appliques and pearls with illusion veiling of fingertip length. She carried a bouquet of white silk gardenias, burgandy silk roses with white and pink silk baby's breath.

For something old, she wore a rhinestone cooker worn by the bride's mother in her wedding, a gift from the bride's father. Something new was her dress. Something borrowed was her great-aunt's gold band. Something blue was her harter and she had a penny in her shoe with the year of her father's birth.

Maid of Honor was Nancy Everett of Abilene. She wore a long dress of daphne rose quiana, with high neck with a band of white lace around the neck, a shoulder drape across the blouse bodice, a lightly gathered skirt an long fitted sleeves.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Dwain Crow of Nachadoches; Mrs. Donnie Higginbotham, Midland; and Mrs. Connie Waldrip, Seymour, sisters of the groom. They wore identical dresses of burgandy quiana.

Flower girls were Amy and Audrey Higginbotham, nieces of the groom. Ringbearer was Alan Waldrip, nephew of the groom.

Bill Jordan of Colorado City was Best Man. Groomsmen were Robert Loyd Bragg of Arlington; Todd Bragg of Waco; and Val Bragg of Pecos, brothers of the bride.

Ushers were Dan Rouse, Fort Worth, foster brother of the bride; Donnie Higginbotham, Midland; Mark Waldrip, Seymour, brothers-in-law of the groom; and Stan Petross of Abilene.

The bride's mother wore a long rose gown with a V-neck and lace trimmed empire waist, and long bell sleeves of chiffon. The groom's mother wore a long rose suede gown with flared skirt and an overblouse of organza. The overblouse was trimmed with schiffli embroidered lace and accented with a rose satin tie belt.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Fellowship Hall of the church.

Mrs. Dan Rouse of Fort Worth registered guests from a table featuring a white satin cloth with a white chantilly lace overlay. A bouquet of white pom-poms, a white plume pen and the bride's book completed the table.

The bride's table featured a white satin floorlength pleated skirt with a white satin drape caught by burgandy bows. A silver punch bowl held rose fruit punch and the three-tiered traditional white bridal cake, with layers decorated with burgandy and pink silk flowers and white doves adorning the top of the cake. The table was centered with a five-branch silver candelabra with white tapers. Pink heart and rose mints and pecans were also served.

The groom's table featured a brown cloth overlaid with a beige linen cutwork cloth. The table was centered with a candelabra of votive candles adorned with snapdragons and ming fern.

The oval chocolate groom's cake featured the couple's initials in a monogram. A silver coffee service and a vegetable tray completed the decorations.

The members of the house-party wore burgandy and pink silk corsages. Ladies in the house-party were: Mrs. Robert Barnett, Mrs. Larry Bufkin, Mrs. Mark Cordray, Mrs. Howard Davis, Mrs. Bill Dingle, Mrs. Jimmie Gentry, Mrs. Gerald Groves, Mrs. James Hill, Mrs. Bill Hubbs, Mrs. Chester Kesey, Mrs. Ray Kesey, Mrs. Jack McCall, Mrs. J.J. Maxey, Mrs. George McNabb, Mrs. Charles Mitchell, Mrs. Dalton Moseley, Mrs. Richard Naylor, Mrs. Mike Pharaoh, Mrs. Banky Stocks, Mrs. Dayton Whitehurst, Pecos and Mrs. Stan Petross, Abilene.

The bride's going away outfit was a softly tailored suit of winter white wool with a jacket enhanced with embroidered scalloped cuffs. Her accessories were bone colored and she wore a corsage of white gardenias.

After a wedding trip to Taos, N.M., the couple will live in San Antonio.

The rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's parents was held at Ben's Spanish Inn at 6 p.m. Feb. 19.

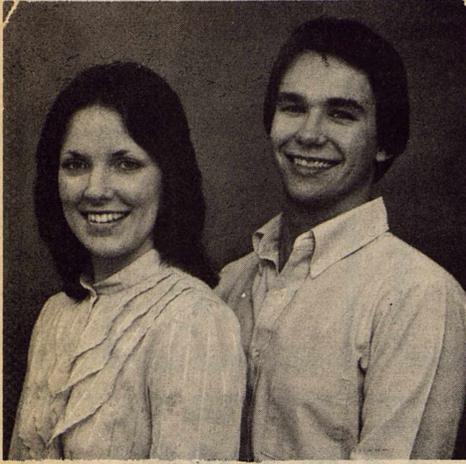

Out of town guests were Mrs. Dan Terry, Wichita Falls, bride's aunt, Mrs. Robert Loyd Bragg, Arlington, sister-in-law of bride, Spencer Loyd Bragg, nephew of bride, Bart Bragg, Groves, cousin of bride, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Wall, Dallas, great uncle and aunt of bride, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Harrison, Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Monroe, Scott, and Holly, Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Epps, Larry Paiz, Jo Samora, San Antonio, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Epps, Fort Stockton.

Very few artists, whether painters, sculptors, wood-carvers or any other field of endeavor would have made it without help. Life is too short to learn by trial and error, you need the desire, the talent, the practice and the training. I have been fortunate in having good teachers who did so much to smooth out the bumpy road that lay ahead. This is what I sincerely hope to do for you, and if I do, the time spent in writing these columns instead of painting shall not have been in vain.

Q. Don't oil colors dry by evaporation?

A. No. Oil colors dry by oxidation and not by evaporation.

Q. I have not been painting for a long time and now find many tubes of oils so clogged that I cannot open them. What can I do to use the paint?

A. If the tubes are new ones I would take them back to the shop from which you purchased them. If they are clogged up by you, I.E., allowing paint to get around the edges if the cap, then, clean off all paint around the cap. (a) If the cap is plastic, hold it under a hot tap - it will expand and you can unscrew it; (b) If the cap is metal, heat it with a match, turning the tube around so that all the cap expands. Remove it with a cloth.

Q. I am a self-taught artist and am enclosing some slides of my paintings. Please send me your critique.

A. I regret that it is not possible to critique work by mail or in this column. I suggest that you join an artist's group in your area and participate in their activities. Exposure to fellow artists and guest artists could contribute much to your progress. It's fun too!

Q. Please compare the brightness of acrylic colors to oils.

A. Acrylic is unsurpassed in optical clarity and brilliance (chroma) by any other medium.

Q. Is there a prepared flesh color that's darker than the ones now on the market?

A. Tubed flesh should not be thought of as the color of flesh. It is a basic mixture to add colors into to get the various tones of flesh. For black flesh, add Burnt Umber and Burnt Sienna to the basic tubed flesh; for Orientals, add Raw Sienna, Burnt Umber and Cad Red Light to the basic tubed flesh. White is not used in any mixture for darker skin tones.

Dee's topic for this Aglow meeting will be "Your Adversary, the Devil", a condensation of a three month course she is teaching her class. Dee says, "There is a necessity for us to hear this very basic expose of Satan. I have found out there is nothing "spooky" about him and he is certainly nothing to fear since Jesus has taken the keys of death and hell away from him and delivered him into OUR hands. But—we must be knowledgeable about him. Hosea 4:6a." Dee will be accompanied by a young friend who also has a special ministry, so you will not want to miss this meeting. The Aspermont WAF issues a special invitation to all interested area women to share the blessings of this ministry.

CAPITOL UPDATE

John Tower

U.S. SENATOR for TEXAS
142 RUSSELL OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

Our children are our future. It is for them that we work to make the world better. We count on them to carry on the good that we do, and to correct the mistakes that we make.

Yet, even though we view the children of this land as its most precious resource, thousands upon thousands are the victims of abuse or neglect.

Up to two million children are abused or neglected each year; five thousand of them will die. These are senseless, needless deaths.

Yet, relatively few cases that do not end in death are ever reported to authorities. Concerned neighbors or relatives may fear retribution if they report a child abuse offense. Often, they merely do not know to whom they should report the situation. Fright or shame keeps many parents who love their children from getting help.

Many times, a parent who abuses or neglects their child was also the victim of child abuse. They and their precious children are caught in a vicious cycle, not knowing where or to whom to turn.

In short, lack of public awareness of the extent and the solutions to child abuse inhibits efforts to stop the mistreatment of our children.

Luckily, many communities have good local programs which seek to protect the victims and prevent repeat offenses. Churches, social agencies, local governments and even individual concerned private citizens pitch in to help. There are several organizations which exist solely for the parent who is trying to stop their cycle of abuse.

The contribution these types of programs make to the fight against child abuse is to be highly commended. Many times, they have literally stepped in to save a child from further abuse, helped the distraught parent and brought a family together to work on this troubling, frightening problem.

However, more needs to be done. There are many ways in which a private citizen can help. I would urge all of my fellow Texans to look in their own local communities for ways in which they can become involved.

As a means of focusing attention to this severe problem, I am co-sponsoring a bill to designate June 6-12 as National Child Abuse Prevention Week.

Texans are compassionate, and truly care for their fellow citizens. No one among us can accept the abuse of a helpless child. We must care for children who already have had too many shattered hopes, frustrations and disappointments. They must be given the help and guidance to understand why mommy or daddy hurts them, and they must be given the hope for their future so they do not carry-on the abuse cycle.

If we begin now to look for solutions, we may find that many communities can mark National Child Abuse Prevention Week with effective, innovative solutions. But organized efforts are only one means to ending the problem. Each of us must be sensitive to what is happening around us. We must be prepared to reach out and help in any individual situation which confronts us.

Our children are, indeed, our future. We must protect them today for all of their and our tomorrows.

Six Flags To Open March 6

The first sign of spring in the southwest, the opening of Six Flags Over Texas for its 22nd season, is scheduled for March 6.

The Arlington theme park will be open only on weekends until May 22, when daily operation for the summer months begins. The only exception will be the traditional spring break period, when the park will be open daily from March 13 until March 21.

Highlighting the new season's start will be the premiere of the most elaborate musical production in the park's history. The show, called "America," will be staged in the Southern Palace Theater.

Early visitors will see a major, new ride, the Texas Cliffhanger, nearing completion. The 2.1 million dollar attraction is scheduled to open in late April. It is billed as the world's first total freefall ride, dropping thrillseekers, four at a time, from the top of a 128-foot-tall tower.

Chamber Of Commerce Praises Local Churches

by Wanda Dulaney
Manager, Haskell
Chamber of Commerce
FREEDOM OF RELIGION.
Freedom to decide. Freedom to worship if, when and where a person chooses. If he lives in Haskell, he has fourteen options. Faiths differ; services differ; yet, each one is geared toward Christian living and the salvation of man.

So many people accept the religion handed down to them
from generations of churchgoers, never knowing just why. Some never compare nor consider another faith. Far more significant is the fact that many adhere strongly to their own church but do not know its basic teaching.

To help each one understand his own church better and to be prepared to tell others about it, the Chamber of Commerce presents a two-part series of verbal portraits of the Churches of Haskell. Questionnaires were sent to all local ministers and these excerpts were written from the information by those who responded and in the order their replies were received. NEXT WEEK will be the final part of the series and questionnaires must be in the Chamber of Commerce
office not later than Friday March 5 to be included. We hope the readers will study every one of them in the interest of brotherhood and tolerance and commit to memory the summary their own pastors have submitted
herein. THE GREATER ONE'S KNOWLEDGE, THE BROADER HIS UNDER-STANDING.

INDEPENDENT BAPTIST CHURCH
1508 Avenue B. Telephone

864-3479 Minister: Ernest Flanders, Jr.

Organized in 1932, the church has fifty members.
Sunday School begins at 9:45
a.m.; Worship Service at 11:00 a.m. The minister is the Church organist and Verda
Calloway pianist and director of the two choirs. Church leaders are called Reverend, Brothers and Deacons. Universal Sunday School Lessons are taught by Alice Johnson,
Robert and Mae Lue Yedell, Lee Kirk, Birdie Jordan and Faye Wallace. Baptism is by immersion and is also accepted for someone coming in as a new member from another church. Members are voted in. All baptized believers may partake of communion, held on the first Sunday. Reverend Flanders says "We believe that Christ was born of a virgin, was crucified, died and buried and was raised from the dead by the divine will of God. We claim Him as Head of our Church and lead by the Holy Spirit." The pastor says he is a member of the Ministerial Alliance "to have fellowship with local churches
and support our community."
Reverend Flanders has been in this, his first pastorate, for two years and is also active with the American Heart Association. He and his wife (who also enjoys the small town atmosphere and cooperation of the community) have two children, Brandon and Deann.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
510 N. Ave. E. Telephone
864-3101 Minister: Mike Strawn.

"The Bible is inspired; all men are guilty of sin; Christ is Saviour; the Church instituted by Christ, patterned for which is the New Testament. New Testament Church has definite identity and nature." This is how the Minister summarizes the beliefs of the Haskell Church of Christ which has a membership of 300. Church leaders are called Elders and Deacons. Song leaders are Bobby Simpson, Wayne Phe-mister and Dale Burris. Sunday School begins at 9:30 a.m., with Worship Services 10:30-11:30

and at 6:00 p.m. Midweek service Wednesday at 7:00 p.m.
Communion is offered every Sunday. All baptized believers may participate. All classes are coordinated, preschool through adult. Baptism is by immersion. The Minister says,
"The New Testament teaches that baptism is for that is, unto the remission of sins. Therefore, if such a person has been baptized for such reason, then that person would be included in the fellowship of the church.
Baptism is very loosely defined and is subjected to misunderstanding, so we'd certainly want to visit with anyone who was placing their membership with the Church of Christ." He states further "We do not vote on the inclusion of any person. We merely inquire if the person in question has been immersed into Christ or that is to say has been added to the Lord's Church, which is one and the same. Membership in the body of Christ which is the Church is handled strictly along biblical lines and therefore no voting is done." Brother Strawn studied for the ministry at Abilene Christian University and has been in Haskell fifteen months. Prior to that, he served at Petrolia, Lawton, Ok, and Montepideo, Uruguay. His wife, Pamela,
has been trained in voice.

School materials are used
from Bible Book and Uniform Series. Baptism is by immersion and the prior baptism of someone coming to this church will be accepted if it was by immersion as a symbol of death, burial and resurrection. Membership is by church vote. Brother Feemster says
"We believe there is one God
in three personalities - Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We believe Jesus is the Son of God
and all who have faith in him can have forgiveness and eternal life. We believe the local church is a group of believers in Christ who have fellowship in faith and practice. We trust the empowering of the Holy Spirit for guidance and power to be witnesses
unto Christ and His salvation." The Pastor is a member of the Ministerial Alliance
because he "believes that all believers make up the Body of Christ." Brother Feemster
has been here for three years and studied for the ministry at Wayland Baptist University.
He previously served as pastor
at Quails and Somerwood.
Darrell and Connie Feemster

kling and the baptism of someone coming in from another church as a new

Council votes on the membership. Communion is offered monthly to officially only Lutherans. The Pastor says
"We confess the Triune God; Word and Sacraments (Baptism and Holy Communion) are means of God's grace and presence to us; Holy Communion is the real presence of Christ's body and blood and not simply a memorial meal.
Baptism is an act of God's salvation; the office of ministry is a priesthood of all believers. But in normal circumstances we require a certified and ordained clergy.
We confess the 3 ancient creeds of the Church Catholic;
we proclaim salvation in that we are justified by God's grace in Jesus Christ given to us through our faith as set forth in the Word of God revealed in Holy Scripture.
We adhere to the confession of faith as set forth in the Lutheran Confessions of the Book of Concord." In addition to Sunday morning worship, mid-week worship is held during the season of Lent. For the past two years the Trinity Lutheran has joined with First United Methodist and First Presbyterian to offer vacation Bible School during the summer. Mr. Faltisek also serves as Pastor of Christ Lutheran at Stamford. He is a member of the Ministerial Alliance because he "believes in the unity of the body of faith." He has been in Haskell three years after studying for the ministry at Luther Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. As foster parents with the Dept. of Human Resources, he and his wife Karen have a foster son
Joey and are expecting a child

RETIREMENT PLANNING

How To Retire As A Millionaire On $5.48 A Day

If you've ever fantasized about being a millionaire, that fantasy may be turned into a reality
thanks to the new laws governing the Individual Retirement Account (IRA).

The new rules, which go into effect January 1, 1982, finally bring the advantages of tax-sheltering and controlling a retirement fund within reach of every wage-earner. Previously, IRAs were available only to persons not covered by company pension or profit sharing plans.

"The new IRAs are a real tax-shelter bonus for working people," says Doris Tarrant, chairperson of the Banking Advisor program for the American Bankers Association (ABA). "Whatever amount, up to $2,000, you contribute to your IRA each year can be deducted from your gross income before you figure your taxes. If you contribute $5.48 a day or $2,000 a year for 36 years, at 12 percent interest, it would add up to just over $1 million."

If you're skeptical about $2,000 adding up to $1 million after 36 years, you can figure it out for yourself: Start with $2,000, multiply by 12 percent for one year, which is $240. For year two, add $2,000 to the $2,240 and multiply by 12 percent.

Continue this calculation and you will find that after 36 years you will have contributed $72,000 and your account will total more than $1,085,197. The interest alone will be over $1 million!

Check with your employer to see if you will be offered an IRA payroll deduction plan. Two thousand dollars per year would mean taking about $38.46 out of your weekly check. That's not much to pay for a million-dollar retirement.

And remember, you're also getting a tax-shelter benefit from this retirement savings plan. You will not be taxed on that $2,000 of income you're contributing to an IRA or the interest earned on it before you reach age 59½. So the IRAs are really worth much more than the money accumulated.

At age 59½ you can withdraw all or part of the money without penalty, and you will be taxed at the prevailing rate. But you are only taxed on the money you withdraw. Presumably you will be retired by the time you withdraw any of the money and you will be in a lower tax bracket. Keep in mind, you must start withdrawing the money by age 70½.

To help you see what your $2,000 per year IRA contribution can build to over your working life, the American Bankers Association offers the following sample chart based on a simple interest rate of 12 percent compounded annually with your contributions made on January 1 of each year. Remember that this is only an example. Clip this story and the sample IRA chart. Use them to help you plan your IRA. Take the chart with you when you visit your community banker for information on Individual Retirement Accounts. After all, can you really afford to pass up a million-dollar opportunity?

Accidents—Major Cause Of Death In Children

Accidents -- they're a major cause of death among school age children.

Car-pedestrian accidents, drownings, fire-related mishaps and firearm accidents are four major death-causing misfortunes among young children, says Diane Welch, a family life education specialist.

Even though the death rate from injurious accidents has declined in recent years, among children ages 5-14, accidents are responsible for more than half the deaths of boys and two-fifths of girls' deaths.

Consequently, children as well as adults should be aware of safety precautions and learn to follow them as a matter of habit, she adds.

Welch is on the home economics staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

CAR-PEDESTRIAN ACCIDENTS

Motor-vehicle accidents rank highest in terms of cause of death for boys and girls, the specialist reports.

Pedestrian fatalities account for one in every two deaths in car accidents involving children ages five to nine and one out of four at ages 10-14, she adds.

Most pedestrian fatalities occur when children are playing in or crossing the street, Welch notes.

Some precautions to help prevent car-pedestrian accidents are:

- *help children watch for cars when crossing streets,
- * teach children to ride bikes safely,
- * find areas away from streets for children to play and
- *urge children to wear belts when riding in cars.

DROWNINGS
The threat of drowning has always haunted parents when children are swimming, the specialist says.

Drowning ranked second among boys and third among girls in accidents causing death, Welch reports.

To reduce the chances of children drowning, Welch urges parents to:

- * have children take swimming lessons both for pleasure and protection,
- * have an adult swimmer or lifeguard watch children when swimming and make sure safety float lines or rescue rings are readily handy.

FIRES
Fire and fire-related accidents ranked second among causing death in girls and third in boys, the specialist points out.

Careless smoking and children playing with matches and lighters are the major causes of one out of every five fires, she says.

To prevent fires from occurring, Welch says children should:

- * know that matches and lighters are not toys,
- * learn what should be done in case a fire occurs and
- * never be left alone in a house if they are very young.

In addition, adults need to make sure fire-hazardous articles are out of sight and reach of children, the specialist says.

In addition to a large number of fatalities, accidents can cause permanent impairment, disability and time away from school to young children, Welch says.

In order to prevent possible accidents from occurring, parents should take the precautions listed seriously and teach their children to become aware of making safety a habit, the specialist urges.

Cotton Classing

Local cotton prices were mostly steady in slow to inactive trading during the week ending February 26, according to B.B. Manly of the USDA Cotton Marketing Services Office in Abilene. Cotton prices were as high as 8 cents per pound over CCC loan values early during the 1981-82 season, and have been as low as even with the CCC loan. Most cotton sold at 1 to 3 1/2 cents per pound over the loan during the past week.

Grade 42, staple 32 cotton miking 35-49 sold at 47 1/2 to 49 1/2 cents per pound. New Orleans Futures for grade 41, staple 32, were quoted at 58.25 for March delivery; three points lower than one week ago. Demand was light to very light. Trading was slow to inactive, with forward-contracting inactive. CCC loan entries exceeded spot trading.

Cottonseed prices paid farmers ranged from 70 to 90 dollars per ton during the 1981-82 season. Seed prices at gins still active were steady at about 80 dollars per ton last week.

The 1981-82 cotton harvest has been virtually completed with 975,000 cotton samples having been classed in Abilene as of February 26. Mr. Manly expects an additional 3000 bales to be ginned, mostly from modules in Martin County. The 1981-82 seasonal total of 978,000 running bales compares to 833,000 bales produced in 1977, 533,000 in 1978, 1,107,000 in 1979, and only 256,000 produced in the Abilene/Munday territory last season.

The USDA Crop Reporting Board estimated that growers intend to plant 12.5 million acres to Upland cotton in 1982; which would be 12 percent less than during 1981. Texas cotton farmers intend to plant 6,300,000 acres (Upland and Pima), down 15 percent from 1981.

The quality of cotton produced in the Abilene area during 1981-82 was slightly lower in grade as compared to earlier seasons, was comparable in staple length, and was higher than usual in micronaire readings. Grades were 81 percent light-spotted and 14 percent white. Grade 42 comprised 48 percent, grade 52 comprised 18 percent, grade 32 comprised 15 percent, and grade 41 accounted for 8 percent. Below-grades accounted for 1 percent of the season's classings. Staple length was 44 percent staple 31, 35 percent staple 32, 12 percent staple 30, and 7 percent staple 33. The average staple length for the season was 31.4. Micronaire readings were 91 percent within the 35 to 49 range, averaging 40 for the season. Fiber strength averaged 23 grams per tex breaking strength for the season. About 16 percent of the season's classings were reduced by at least one grade because of bark or grass content.

TFU Requests Set-Aside Change

In an effort to increase participation by Texas farmers in the recently announced USDA crop acreage reduction program, Texas Farmers Union President Mike Moeller has asked U.S. Secretary of Agriculture John Block to consider two important changes in the program.

As outlined by the USDA, a farmer will be prohibited from putting his 1982 crops into the Commodity Credit Corporation loan program unless he reduces his planted acreage by 15 percent (using 1981 acreage as a base) for cotton, wheat, or rice or by 10 percent for corn or grain sorghum.

Moeller, who farms in Hays and Guadalupe counties, says that unless concessions are made in the set-aside program, most Texas farmers will be unable to participate in 1982. According to Moeller, "Most of us in Central and South Texas had already planted much of our 1982 crops before the set-aside program was announced. It's not fair to ask us to forfeit the $50 to $100 an acre we've already invested in planting this year's crop in order to participate in the program while farmers in the Northern states have not begun planting and can sign up for the set-aside without having invested any money in planting their 1982 crops."

"Furthermore," Moeller said, "Many of us rotate our crops which means that, in most cases, we'll be drastically reducing some crops and significantly increasing others. Under the existing rules, many Texas farmers will only be able to qualify about half of their 1982 crops for the program."

Moeller reiterated that Texas Farmers Union supports the need for a fair and equitable program to reduce surplus crops. "We fully understand that the situation requires a Federal set-aside," he said.

In order to be fair to Texas farmers and encourage them to take part in the program, TFU is calling for a change in the official method used to determine a farmer's "base acreage." For farmers who had planted their crops prior to announcement of the program, Moeller says their base acreage should be the acreage planted on the day of the announcement.

In addition, TFU is asking the USDA to reimburse farmers who had planted prior to the set-aside announcement for their planting costs incurred on the acreage they will now have to plow under.

Moeller said, "Most Texas farmers didn't have the luxury of waiting until after the set-aside was announced to plan and plant this year's crops. Unless the USDA will at least help these folks recoup their planting costs for the acreage to be set aside, many of them simply, won't be able to participate."

"We're not asking Secretary Block to do anything that is outside his legal authority. All we're really asking is to be allowed to do our part in solving the economic crisis in agriculture without having to sacrifice any more or less than other farmers in America."

Walkers Could Slow Babies Development

Human babies follow a certain developmental pattern. Head control, for instance, leads sitting balance, and sitting alone prepares the child for creeping. Learning to creep then prepares the child for walking.

Left to his own efforts, a child will progress to walking when his body is ready to walk, says Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter. A number of factors contribute to this walking readiness.

First of all, a baby's back muscles must be strong enough to keep him upright and balanced over his legs and feet. He must have developed certain balancing and protective responses which will protect him from serious injury during the many falls he will experience as he learns to walk.

Through creeping, a baby learns to use his arms and legs rhythmically and alternately while holding his head up to see where he is going. The many small bones of Baby's feet are not hard like adult bones but are cartilage, which is firm but flexible—like hard rubber. The muscles which support the bones and which eventually hold the arches in place must be strong enough to hold the bones in good alignment when the baby stands on his feet.

Left to himself, a baby will creep and pull to a standing position. During this period he just stands with his feet fairly wide apart and turned out for better balance. Later, he will begin to sidestep while holding onto a support.

A baby needs lots of practice in all of the activities—creeping, balancing, standing—which strengthen his muscles, improve his balance, and lead to strong standing and walking positions.

In a walker, a baby gets no stable standing practice. Any random leg movements push the walker from place to place. Rhythmic patterns of leg movement are not established, and coordinated arm and leg movements fail to develop as they should.

A child who can move in a walker before he has proper balance—and judgment—endangers himself. Once in motion, he may not be able to stop, back up, or control the direction of the walker. Pediatricians report that injuries from a tumble down stairs in a walker are common.

Simply stated, then, a baby will walk when he is ready. A fat, placid baby usually walks later than an active, wiry baby. Some children walk at 9 or 10 months. Others to not walk until 12-14 months.

But one thing you can be sure of—given plenty of opportunity to creep, pull to a standing position and cruise along supporting furniture, a baby will walk when his body and nervous system are developmentally ready. Babies enjoy walkers, but walkers take important time away from those developmental activities that produce real walking readiness.

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information on the social and physical development of children from birth to six years old, write to Growing Child, P. O. Box 620N, Lafayette, IN 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing. A year's subscription to the newsletter costs $11.95.

Baptist Memberships Increase

Texas Baptists recorded gains last year in total membership and increased their number of churches and missions from 4,512 to 4,582.

All church organizations recorded membership gains, but baptisms dropped from a 1980 total of 67,138, third highest in the denomination's history, to 61,024 in 1981.

Undaunted by the decline in baptisms, Carlos McLeod, recently-elected director of evangelism for Texas Baptists, noted the denomination has set a goal to baptize a record 75,000 new converts in 1982.

More than 4,500 Southern Baptist churches and missions in the state surpassed the half billion dollar mark in giving for the first time as the 2,254,461 members gave $504,940,893 in church offerings.

Missions gifts set an all-time record too as the churches contributed $82.6 million. More than $40.8 million of the total was through the Cooperative Program, Southern Baptists regular lifeline of support for state mission causes and for more than 5,000 missionaries in the United States and almost 100 nations.

One of the largest increases was in Sunday School enrollment, up 17,714 over the previous year's total of 1,159,418.

Membership of all major church organizations increased with church training and church music leading in percentage gains of 3.1 percent over last year. Church training enrollment increased 7,047 over the 1980 total, and church music increased by 6,501 to a total of 213,316.

Woman's Missionary Union increased statewide by 1,012 members, and Texas Baptist Men raised its total membership to 64,901, a gain of 1,841.

Total membership of the 4,500 churches and missions rose 25,733 over the previous year.

Biological control needed for fire ants—Kubiak

AUSTIN — "Trying to destroy fire ants with Amdro is like trying to kill an elephant with a b-b gun," State Representative Dan Kubiak (D-Rockdale) said today.

Kubiak, Chairman of the Select Committee on Fire Ants, said Amdro was at best a stop-gap measure that might provide temporary relief. "The fire ant spread has reached epidemic proportions and there is currently no known remedy to totally destroy them," Kubiak said.

The fire ant has spread across more than 100 counties in Texas. Birds, bees, livestock, earthworms, and humans are susceptible to attack. Fire ants, which can travel up to 30 miles per year, also have caused tremendous property damage.

"Fire ants started out a problem primarily in the rural area. However, infestations have been found in many large cities," Kubiak added. "This is a problem of great magnitude for all affected areas," he stated.

"I believe that the key to destroying the fire ant on a permanent basis is a coordinated, concerted effort by all of the nine states that are infested," Kubiak said. He also added that a buffer zone around the infested area should be found to try and prevent additional spreading.

"Once the buffer zone has been formed, hopefully the ants can be contained until a permanent solution can be found."

Kubiak added that, in his opinion, biological controls will be the best solution. "We need to find the natural enemies and predators of the fire ant," Kubiak said.

Kubiak said his subcommittee will be visiting infested areas of the state to allow everyone an opportunity to testify about the problem.

Haskell Native Tours England With HSU Group

Matt Langford, a student at McMurry College in Abilene, has recently returned from a trip to London, England. The trip was through the Hardin Simmons University Business Dept.

The group, consisting of 16 students and 3 sponsors, departed D-F.W. airport on Jan. 1, 1982.

Upon reaching London, the group had 2 free days to do as they pleased. Matt, and others toured Picadilly Circus and other attractions close to the hotel. On Sunday he attended services at St. Paul's Cathedral and visited Windsor Castle that afternoon.

On Monday the group had a tour, showing them Hyde Park, The Thames River, Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, Parliament, The Marble Arch, Westminster Abby and The Bank of England.

Tuesday morning the group toured the Tower of London and viewed the Crown Jewels. The group also toured St. Paul's Cathedral and "the City of London". Lunch was at Harrods of London and the group had a shopping spree there.

Wednesday the group was invited to tour and visit the executives of Unilevel, a multinational co., Unilevel supplied a slide show, several speakers and commercial that are run over the British television sets. Unilevel also served the group lunch. The meal started out with cocktails of fine French wines. The meal consisted of several fish dishes, such as, fresh salmon, smoked salmon, and several shrimp dishes. The main meal consisted of ham, roast beef, tongue and other nice meats. After lunch the group went sightseeing.

The London Branch of First National Bank of Dallas was the first stop on Thursday. After a short meeting with executives there the group went to Loys of London. Loys of London is the largest insurance co. in the world. After Loys came the London Stock Exchange. The London Stock Exchange is unique. Because of the time difference they can play the U.S. Markets in the morning and the European and Japanese Markets in the evening.

Friday morning the group awoke to snow all around. Because of the snow the tour to Rolls-Royce was cancelled. However several of the group took advantage of the opening of Harrods, for their once a year sale. The sale was very large and the store was packed.

Friday evening the group toured the Wax Museums, which are the largest in the world.

Saturday morning found the group packed and ready to depart for the U.S. The group was ready, but the weather was not so permitting. The main runway at Gatwick International Airport was closed. After a delay of two hours or so the runway was open and the group departed.

Matt thought the most impressive things on the trip would be between the Crown Jewels and Westminster Abby.

Matt is a Senior Accountant Major and the son of Harley and Wanda Langford of Rule. Grandson of the C.V. Langfords and Opal Andress of Haskell.

Springtime Presents Poisoning Hazards

Children are loving active creatures, unfortunately they can also eat and drink peculiar things. "We see children eating plants, medicines, cleaning agents, soap, bugs and all sorts of other things", said Michael Ellis, Director of the Texas State Poison Center. In 1981 the Poison Center received some 21,000 poisoning calls. "About 75 percent of these inquiries are about children under 5 years old," Ellis noted. "Many of the accidental ingestions by children are of little consequence, but some can be life-threatening. Liquid furniture polishes, lamp oil, gasoline, and other oil-based products can kill with as little as one sip."

Springtime can be a particularly bad time of the year. "Blooming plants, fertilizers, plant foods, insecticides, and gasoline ingestions become almost epidemic this time of the year," said Ellis, "along with the numerous household cleaning products out for spring cleaning".

The fact that the product might be foul-tasting doesn't really apply on a one swallow basis - when you are a 2 year old. Our rule of thumb at the Poison Center is "if it is small enough to get in the mouth and doesn't bite first, it will be eaten", Ellis said.

As the weather warms up and children are in and out of the house more, they seem to be able to find more.

In the event of a poisoning emergency, the first thing to do is to call the Texas State Poison Center at 1-713-765-1420. The Poison Center staff will help you determine if medical attention is required, or if the problem can be handled at home. "About 85 percent of our inquiries can be handled at home," Ellis noted, "thus rushing the person to the hospital, is usually unnecessary. If the poisoning is serious enough to need medical attention, the Poison Center will direct you to the emergency room and then call ahead so that the child will be treated quickly."

March 21-27 is National Poison Prevention Week - and a perfect time to inspect your home for poison hazards. The fact that no small children live in the home, does not mean that a poisoning cannot occur. "Nearly everyone has a small niece or nephew, grandchild, or a friend with small children - all of whom may visit occasionally," Ellis said, "and that makes them prime candidates for a poisoning accident." Every home should have a bottle of syrup of Ipecac, particularly if small children live there. This nauseating liquid is used to cause vomiting in the poisoned child, if vomiting is indicated. "Sometimes, we don't want the child to vomit," Ellis said, "so the parent needs to talk with the Poison Center first, before using the Ipecac. But it is the only safe way to induce vomiting. Other household remedies like, mustard and water, salt water, etc. - are both ineffective, and can be quite hazardous themselves."

NACEL Program Needs Host Families

Host families are being sought for sixty students from France who will arrive in New Orleans on July 13 for a four-week visit. The program is sponsored by the North Atlantic Cultural Exchange League, a non-profit organization which has the official approval of the French government and is widely supported by French teachers in the United States and English teachers in France.

Participation in the program involves sharing your home with a French teenager from July 13 to August 14. The responsibility of host families is to warmly accept the French student as a member of the family and share everyday activities. The program provides comprehensive medical, accident and liability insurance, and the individual participants bring their own spending money.

Teenagers of Texas and Arkansas host families will have the opportunity to live in a family in France the following summer if they wish.

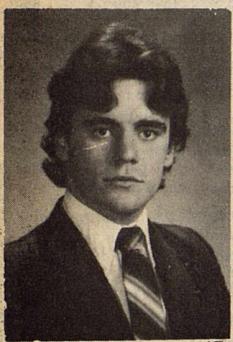

As the value of international understanding is becoming more and more evident, the NACEL program offers opportunities for building better international understanding. It provides the opportunity for French students to experience the American lifestyle, develop greater skill in speaking English, and establish lasting American friendships. It provides the American families and extraordinary opportunity to broaden their horizons and learn first-hand about the French way of life.

Students are individually matched to families according to interests, activities, and special requests (such as living on a ranch!). Families are needed to host boys ages 13 to 19 and a few girls ages 15 to 18.

If you are interested in participating in the program, write to the NACEL coordinator for Arkansas and northern Texas: Mrs. Sue Kimbro, 2105 Wood Street, Texarkana, TX 75501, phone (214) 794-8273.

Girl Scout Week Set March 13-17

March 13-17, Girl Scout Week 1982, marks the official start of our 70th birthday celebration. Girl Scout Sunday, March 7, will be observed as a day when Girl Scouts and leaders in uniform attend the churches of their choice to renew the most important part of their Promise:

On my honor, I will try
To serve God
My country and mankind,
And to live by the Girl Scout Law.

March 12 is celebrated as the Girl Scout Birthday. Juliette Gordon Low of Savannah, Georgia introduced Girl Guiding to 18 girls of Savannah on March 12, 1912.

"Over the 70 year period, Girl Scouting going and growing, has been a precious natural resource on which our communities have come to rely. Forty million women have once been a Girl Scout."

Today Girl Scouting is a force of nearly 3 million girls and adults who make a collective impact on our lives in ways only Girl Scouts can. Girl Scouting imparts values and encouragement that last a lifetime.

Girl Scouts are contemporary, yet concerned about conservation of the best American has to offer. It is a part of their uniqueness - a uniqueness highlighted by a 70th birthday celebration that focuses in a caring and unselfish way on another precious resource - the water in our lives.

So, in this Decade of Water, in a year that is a milestone in Girl Scout history, Girl Scouts across the country are giving presents. Our girls of action are doing projects centered around water themes. West Texas Girl Scouts will give the gift of water by: doing ten projects of 50 Gift of Water Girl Scout action projects centered on the water cycle by conserving, cleaning, and caring. There are ten broad topics: water habitats; water safety; save water; clean water; water, The Arts, Our Past; water and food; water emergencies; aquatics and boating; main-streaming people with disabilities; and careers in the world of water.

We are hopeful that the world's water resources and Girl Scouting will continue going and growing for many decades to come.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS
Our thanks to each one who has helped or offered to help during Guy's hospital stay and since we have been home. Your prayers have been and will continue to be our strength. With your help our every need has been met. To the men who sat at the hospital, the food, flowers, and cards. To the men who plowed, the ones who took food and drink to the field. To our Dr. and Nurses and hospital staff we pray God's richest blessing on each one of you. Guy and Annie Marshall. 9p

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank all our friends and neighbors for the love and kindness shown us during our sorrow. Thanks so much for the cards, phone calls, food, flowers and visits. Especially for all the prayers during our loved one's illness and his passing. A special thank you to Dr. Thigpen and the Nurses for their kindness. To Bro. Darrell—our love and deep gratitude for his visits and being there when we needed him. May God Bless all of you. The Family of Norman L. Bevel. 9p
