

Tribe Loses Indian Clash

The Haskell Indians, giving up two big touchdown plays in the first quarter, lost their first game of the season to the Quanah Indians 21-13 last Friday night.

Both defenses played well in the game even though 34 points were given up. Quanah held Haskell to 151 yards total offense: 97 yards rushing and 94 yards passing.

Quanah's offense did a little better with 240 yards total offense: 134 yards rushing and 106 yards passing.

Of their 134 yards rushing, 71 yards came on a long touchdown run and of the 106 yards passing, 58 yards came off a long touchdown pass.

Haskell scored the first points of the game on their first offensive play. The touchdown came off of a 59 yard reverse pass from split end Ricky Rojas to slot back Robert Ivey with 8:16 left in the first quarter. The PAT by Ivey was good.

Haskell kicked off to Quanah and on the first play from scrimmage Stanley Payne of Quanah raced up the middle for a 71 yard touchdown run. The PAT by Leonard Love was good.

Quanah scored again in the first quarter with 1:34 left. The touchdown came off of a 58 yard pass from quarterback Robby Harris to Love. The PAT by Love was good.

Neither team scored the second or third quarter, but the dry spell ended with 11:48 to go in the fourth quarter. A 5 yard run by Payne and the conversion by Love put Quanah up 21-13.

Haskell scored one more time with 8:12 remaining in the game. Keith Reed bulled his way in from 7 yards out for the touchdown. Quanah stopped the two point conversion.

Haskell had one drive going late in the game, but it was stopped when Joseph McGary picked off a pass that bounced off the helmet of a Haskell receiver.

Even though the Tribe lost the game, end Patrick McCoy, tackle Kendell Solomon and safety Ricky Rojas played and outstanding defense game. Rojas picked off two Quanah passes.

Haskell opens district Friday night against the Seymour Panthers at 7:30 p.m. at Indian Field. Although the Panthers are 2-3 for the season, they're quick and aggressive. The Panthers have two good, hard runningbacks in Billy Beamon and Monty Morris.

Haskell Indian Head Coach Blue Holt discussed strategy with members of the Tribe in the closing moments of the first quarter last Friday night. The Haskell Tribe lost the Indian battle 21-13 to the Quanah Indians during the Haskell Homecoming.

Indian Booster Club Sets Fish Fry Oct. 13

The Haskell Booster Club met Tuesday night at the High School cafeteria.

The Junior Varsity football team (4-1) and six freshman girl athletes were introduced by Coaches Blue Holt and Jim Bob Mickler.

The Hamlin vs. Haskell JV game film was shown with Coach Mickler narrating. Haskell JV's won 16-0.

Coach Holt narrated the Varsity game film. Quanah handled the Haskell Indians their first season defeat 21-13.

Coach Holt commented that the Quanah game showed us that it takes blocking as well as tackling to win. He said our throwing game was off some and we are working on that. We also hope to have our running game back on again when we take on the Seymour Panthers this Friday night. He felt the team had its best offensive work-out of the season Tuesday.

In the business session President Bailey Toliver presided. There are still 115 caps left to sell. 101 were sold at the Homecoming game. They are available at Smitty's Auto Supply as well as Hale Farm Supply. Elaine Reed reported that $140 was made on the banners sold Friday night.

The Fish Fry is slated for Oct. 13 beginning at 5 p.m. in the High School Cafeteria. Adult tickets are $4.00, with children paying 20¢ per year of age up to age 12. Anyone interested in donating fish is asked to call Bailey Toliver or any Booster Club member.

Homecoming Thank You!

As President of the Haskell-Mattson School Homecoming Association, I would like to publicly praise the outstanding work of the 1983 officers who are: Dr. Ed Harris, Vice-President; Amy Medford McKnight, Registration Secretary; Susan Wainscott Pope, Recording Secretary; Anita Pitman Medford, Treasurer; Carolyn Williams Pippin, Historian; Delight Ash Jones, Mattson Representative. Each of these fine people unselfishly gave his time and energy in order to make this year's homecoming activities more enjoyable.

Time and space will not permit me to name all of the other individuals who worked long, hard hours for this special event in the Haskell-Mattson communities. Our school administration, teachers, custodial staff, and students also contributed in this homecoming gathering. I say "Thank You".

Just as we sing in the Haskell school song "In friendship, love, and loyalty", our former students came as far as 4,000 miles to show how "true to thee we'll ever be". June and Jane, "The Bell Twins", demonstrated their talents in song for our program.

The people in Haskell showed their love for this occasion. God bless each and everyone of you! I'm very proud to say that I, Sammy Larned, am a part of the Haskell-Mattson Communities.

Volunteers Busy Seeking Donations

by Wanda Dulaney, Mgr., Haskell Chamber of Commerce

The old adage "BIG MEN FIND TIME; LITTLE MEN SAY THEY ARE TOO BUSY" certainly holds true in Haskell's all-out effort to raise funds to build a civic center. Not only are local citizens giving their money generously, hundreds are also donating an even more precious commodity-their time.

Heading these diligent workers are the four Division Directors who are contributing many hours in the leadership of an organized effort: Mattie Muriel Felker, Advance Gifts; Charles Thornhill, Business; Jerrene Couch, Residential and Rick Perry, Rural.

The Division Directors are very gratified with the response from local citizens as they approached them to recruit solicitors. Only a scant few have turned them down. It seems that the busier, the more involved a person is, the more inclined he is to take on new challenges.

Our Southern weather is still amiable. Many outdoor activities are getting us involved - school, sports, etc. October is when the leaves are turning red, yellow and brown. What makes the leaves change color? Localities insist that frost causes the change but each part of nature has its life and now is the time for the trees and flowers to become dormant and rest through the winter so they can come forth in their glory next spring.

Forest Service says: "Change in coloring is the result of chemical processes which take place in the tree during its preparation for winter." Let's enjoy these color changes and include them in our paintings.

Q. How do you feel about constantly working the same types of subject matter?

A. An artist's work reeks with the "usual" or "typical", which is repetitious much like a song played over and over. Eventually it becomes boring and enthusiasm wanes. Every artist should avoid that which he learns to see and do easily. The real life of the artist lies in variation, not repetition.

Q. You work both in oil and watercolor. How do you decide which to use for a given subject?

A. My choice of medium varies with each approach to a painting. I guess I never think about it, it's intuitive. When you are aware of painting fundamentals a choice of medium eventually becomes secondary with most artists.

Q. Do you think some subjects are better suited for oil than for watercolor?

A. I do not think so today. I used to.

Q. What is a French Easel? Why use it instead of any other?

A. The French Easel is a deluxe combination of easel/sketch box. It is made from seasoned hardwood by an expert in the French Cabinet maker's craft. It is used in the field as well as the studio since it is adjustable. All supplies and canvas can be transported, eliminating much excess. I find my easel quite efficient for demonstrations as well as in the field and studio.

Jackson, Vardeman Repeat Vows In San Angelo

Ann Vardeman and Larry Jackson were united in marriage at the Bethel Baptist Church in San Angelo on August 13, 1983.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. M.M. Griggs.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Willie Vardeman of San Angelo and Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Jackson of Quanah, formerly of Haskell.

Attending the couple were Jan Vardeman, sister-in-law of the bride and from San Angelo as matron of honor while Kavina Taylor, also of San Angelo served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Donna Wright and Joanna Jackson both from San Angelo and Bennita Mitchell, sister of the groom, from Midland. They each wore long blue dresses and carried long stem silk flowers of baby blue, accented with lace streamers and butterflies.

Randy Darden of Abilene and Mark Jackson, brother of the groom from Haskell, served as best men. Ed Mesa and Ralph McConnell of San Angelo, and David Mitchell of Midland served as groomsmen.

Dawn and Amber Beebee, both of Sonora and cousins of the bride served as flower girls. They wore identical dresses of baby blue with a blue satin sash. Each carried a basket of blue carnations. Brandon Mitchell, nephew of the groom served as ring bearer.

The altar was decorated with a brass archway, complimented with blue and white flowers. Candelabras with white candles and blue flowers were placed on each side of the archway. Ward Broyles of Junction and Terry Beebee of Sonora served as candlelighters and ushers.

The registry table was arranged with a bouquet of mixed flowers. The guests were registered by Georgia Jackson of Haskell, sister-in-law of the groom.

The bride's gown was of sheer polyester, lined in acetate taffeta. Chantilly lace trimmed the body of the gown. The sleeves were sheer with ruffled cuffs. A satin ribbon accented the bouffant skirt. The front bodice had a square neckline, adorned with applied flowers. Her veil was of net lace and chantilly, also worn by the groom's sister in her wedding. Her bouquet was of blue carnations with white lace streamers. Attached to the bouquet was a piece of streamer from her mother-in-law's wedding bouquet, also carried in the weddings of her two sister-in-laws.

The bride's mother wore a long blue dress with long, sheer sleeves. The groom's mother chose a mauve colored dress with pleated skirt and a jacket for the evening wedding. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

The reception was held at the Massey Hall in San Angelo. Connie Darden of Abilene registered guests. The registry table was laid with a basket of rice bags and a bouquet of flowers. The guests were served from a 3-tiered wedding cake decorated with blue flowers and wedding bells. Punch, nuts, mints and napkins with the couple's names and wedding date completed the bride's table.

The groom's table offered chocolate cake and coffee. A picture of the couple served as a centerpiece. The cake was decorated with the words

"Just You and I", a song which was sung during the wedding.

The bride chose a red street length dress as her going-away suit. Her bouquet was of blue carnations.

After a wedding trip to South Texas, the couple will reside in San Angelo where the groom is employed as a construction worker and the bride with K-Mart. The groom is a 1976 graduate of Haskell High School while the bride graduated from San Angelo Lakeview in 1983.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at Shakey's Pizza Parlor in San Angelo.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY JACKSON

Yard Of The Month

"October's bright blue weather," isn't it wonderful? After the scorching, hot summer this touch of autumn, the cool nights and shorter, cooler days is most refreshing. We were surprised and delighted to find so many yards that still had green, neat lawns and some blooming color. Your watering and tender loving care has gone a long way in keeping Haskell a beautiful and better place to live.

Yard of the month goes to Mr. and Mrs. A.T. Burson, 604 N. 19th. This is a lovely small front yard with lots of color. Double Delight hybrid tea roses (1977 all-America winner) blooms in endless profusion throughout the summer. On the entrance porch there is a long, antique, church bench and two hanging baskets, one of fantasia that is just coming into bloom. A border of dwarf boxwood, Nandina and a magnolia tree for winter color, crepe myrtles, pampas grass, marigolds and geraniums for summer and fall color.

The spacious backyard enclosed by a stockade fence has patio, play area with swings etc. for the children, peach, and plum trees, two mulberry trees, bird bath and espaliered pyracantha for the birds. Across the back there is a bed of seasonal flowers and climbing roses.

First runner-up goes to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dukatnik 1304 N. Ave. D. They have used common easy to grow periwinkles and bachelor buttons in the front yard instead of grass for colorful, easy care beauty. A crepe myrtle (in full bloom) for accent interest. The Garden Club is emphasizing the growing of crepe myrtles in every yard. We would love to see Haskell a city of crepe myrtles. They are easy to grow and give continuous, showy bloom all summer. They love hot weather. In early spring (March) fertilize (with superphosphate and barnyard fertilizer) and prune they bloom on new growth.

The Dukatniks have a peach orchard which they generously share with friends and neighbors. In this time of inflation and world hunger National Gardener Magazine is encouraging food gardening.

Second runner-up goes to Mr. and Mrs. Don Hatfield 200 N. 3rd. This unique yard with its beautiful, flowing water fountain bird bath is a refreshing, cooling sight on a hot day. It is like an oasis in a desert. A wrought iron fence encloses the yard and adds a touch of elegance. Many shade trees, a rose bed and two poodle trees completes the picture.

Discipline And Punishment Tricky For Two Year Olds

During the second year of life, children are beginning to develop some independence, and this can be a trial for parents, according to Growing Child, the monthly child development newsletter.

Many, many children this age have strong wills, and know quite a few ways to manipulate parents. Some of these are being very negative, refusing to eat or sit on the toilet, go to sleep or cooperate generally.

But punishing a child this age is a tricky situation. A two-and-a-half-year-old will probably be angry with you over the punishment, and the anger he feels may frighten him. Instead of physical punishment, some parents use words—"I won't love you anymore," "You'll be the death of me," "You make me sick." These can be equally destructive.

The child grasps the parent's anger from the intonation and voice if not from the actual words. He doesn't know that anger is temporary and that angry feelings are normal for him as well as for his parents. He learns to imitate aggression, which often takes the form of tantrums. Thus parent and child feed the flames of each others passions, precipitating a vicious cycle.

If there's another way of obtaining a child's cooperation, why not use it? We know that a child intuitively wants to be good and please his parents. By reflecting his thoughts back to him, he can save face: "I know you're angry, and I know how you feel. You don't want to put away the toys. You want to play. Come, let's put them away together."

Remember, not every cause must be resolved or every moral drawn. It's important to make allowances for individual differences and feelings. It is not too soon to set clear-cut, definite and reasonable limits. But avoid unnecessary confrontations which result from too many "no's," "don't touch," and "stop."

The Growing Child newsletter follows a child's development month-by-month. For more information and free sample of the newsletter, write to Growing Child, P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902. Include child's birthdate when writing.

Food Prices To Climb

As far as the outlook for food prices is concerned, it's the lull before the storm.

While food prices have remained fairly stable during the past six months, consumers can expect to start paying more at the supermarket before long.

"It all boils down to the effects of this summer's drought over much of the nation," says Dr. Dick Edwards, an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The drought has severely reduced corn and soybeans used for feed, causing their prices to jump. Corn prices have already climbed some 30 percent in the past six months while soybean prices have climbed about 40 percent. This means higher feed costs which, in turn, push up the cost of producing cattle, hogs, poultry and eggs, notes the economist.

"Beef and pork prices, for instance, could jump as much as 20 percent," says Edwards. "Consumers have enjoyed fairly low beef and pork prices in recent months as producers have had to liquidate herds because of drought conditions. This has resulted in large supplies of red meat and subsequent low prices to consumers."

This year's drought and hot summer weather have also taken their toll in the poultry industry. Several million broilers have died from the extreme heat, which has also had a dampening effect on egg production. All this adds up to fewer broilers and eggs in the coming months, and that, coupled with higher feed costs, means higher prices to consumers.

Higher beef and pork prices also have a tendency to pull up retail poultry prices, the economist points out.

What's a consumer to do with these prospects in sight? "A prudent consumer may wish to buy and store red meat and poultry products in anticipation of higher prices," says Edwards.

FBC W.O.O.'s Hold Regular Meeting

The W.O.O.'s (Senior Adults) of the First Baptist Church held their monthly meeting at seven o'clock Thursday evening in the Family Activity Center of the church.

During the business session several projects and activities for coming season were discussed and planned. Cards were signed by all the members to Iola Everett who was ill and for David Lee Bradshaw who was celebrating his ninth birthday.

Games of forty-two, eighty-four and Skip-Bo were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Refreshments consisting of chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips and punch were served. Virginia Flournoy of Wichita Falls was a guest, and Retha Mullins was welcomed as a "first timer".

Next meeting will be Oct. 27, an evening of Halloween fun and fellowship, at seven o'clock in the Family Activity Center.

Drive Continues

The workers not only agreed to serve, but took the time to attend kickoff orientations so they would be fully informed of the plans for the civic center, the reasons behind these plans, the campaign structure, and the goals. These knowledgeable community leaders thus formed individual "TALK-A-THONS" to be sure that everyone understands the needs, the decisions, the organization and the purpose when they are asked to give.

It is hoped that when the formal campaign ends later this month that every family, every business, every individual will be contacted personally and given literature, pledge cards and information from the solicitors.

Workers have been instructed that no one is to be pressured into giving, for all concerned are determined that the civic center will be built with love, not coercion.

The campaign workers have been carefully selected from all walks of life and represent many age groups. So many young businessmen and women are adding their enthusiastic efforts with outstanding results. A lot of people who years ago conducted one fund raising effort, one community project after another have "hit the streets" once again with the same fired-up, intense motivation that they had in younger years. The combination of ages in this campaign is an electrifying happening and the charge can be felt throughout the community as workers, carrying their big white campaign envelopes so about getting the job done that will benefit so many for so many years to come.

In a record ten-day drive, the ADVANCE GIFTS DIVISION raised more than $25,000 and Director Mattie Muriel Felker says that money continues to come in for this division.

Director Jerrene Couch's team with the RESIDENTIAL DIVISION filled the Community Room, Haskell National Bank in their kickoff meeting Monday night. Some 75 workers are now making door-to-door solicitations within the city limits. Assisting Mrs. Couch in overall coordination are Delight Jones and Carolyn Reynolds. Chairmen have been appointed for all streets and avenues, and captains for every block in town. Mrs. Couch has asked her workers to complete their solicitations by the week of Oct. 17.

The RURAL DIVISION, Rick Perry, Director, is completing its organization and briefings to launch a door-to-door campaign in the area outside the city limits. The names of his workers will be published in next week's Haskell Free Press.

The BUSINESS DIVISION kickoff was held Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce office, with Charles Thornhill, director. They will contact the heads of stores and other businesses, but not the employees, who will be reached at their homes through the Residential Division. Thornhill's workers include: Rama Lee Frazier, West Side of Square; Gene Long, East Side; Hess Hartsfield, South Side; Randy Phemister, North Side; Bud Lane, one block west of square; Bud Herren, one block northwest; Cotton Whitfield, one block northeast; Lois Richardson, one block East; Ben McGee, one block South; Wallace Wooten, Southeast outskirts; Dick Greenwood, Southwest outskirts; Genelle Overton, Northwest outskirts; Doyle High, one block southwest; each one will recruit other workers as needed.

Although attempts have been made to avoid duplication, campaign workers realize it will probably happen in some cases, so people who are approached more than once are asked to please understand the enormity of the campaign and its intricacies. It does not matter in which category a person gives nor how he wants his contribution designated. Each choice will be honored.

Some will not be in when a worker calls, but it is hoped that they will take or mail their contribution to the Haskell National Bank and give it to the Civic Center Assn. Treasurer Abe Turner or Asst. Treas. Carolyn Everett. Unless a person prefers to remain anonymous, his name, the amount donated and his designation for crediting it will be published in the Haskell Free Press.

No gift is too small. Whether it be a dollar or thousands of dollars it is a vital part of this effort and will serve our mutual goal.

Many are giving IN MEMORY of loved ones with families pooling their resources to do so. Many are giving funds to be credited to the class with which they graduated. Some are doing both.

Let's not forget to also pay tribute to the living as well—Honorary parents, children, grandchildren, civic leaders, friends in the name of clubs, etc.

Most organizations in town have made cash contributions and/or sponsored a benefit from which proceeds went to the civic center. It is hoped that the remaining service clubs will donate and/or hold functions in behalf of the center during 1983. Early in 1984 the Chamber of Commerce will present a "Show of Shows" with an array of talent to benefit the civic center and hopefully this will be a climax, a victory celebration dedicated to the efforts of those who gave of their time, efforts and money.

SELF SERVICE. SUBSTANCE. All three are essential to success and Haskell is richly blessed with a powerful combination.

Superintendent's Views

BY JAMES LANIER
Superintendent, Haskell ISD

I would like to conclude our report to the public concerning the 1983-84 budget. The last function is for maintenance and plant services. Our payroll which includes custodial salaries is estimated at $72,000. Our contracted services which includes utilities are estimated at $78,400. This is an area in which we are in trouble. The rising costs of utilities are hard to estimate. One can do all the surveys and research possible and still not correctly predict the cost increases or the weather which effects the utility use. We are estimating the supplies and materials at $17,700. We are estimating capital outlay at $11,000. This includes a new pick-up to be used primarily by the ag department. Also, we are better utilizing our water well at the secondary campus which increases our mower use. Through the courtesy of Hale Farm Supply, we trade lawn mowers each year for a small fee and trade in. This is an excellent deal for Haskell ISD which cuts the cost of our local capital outlay and maintenance on mowers. Also included in capital outlay is new furniture for the kindergarten estimated at $4,000. Our total cost of maintenance is estimated at $188,150.

Our total expenditure part of the budget is estimated at $1,665,149 dollars with a revenue figure of $1,669,000. As one can readily tell, this is an extremely tight budget. We simply do not have any room for unexpected problems or breakage. We are praying for no unforeseen problems or financial breakdowns. However, operating on a tight budget such as this one is a challenge to an administration and certainly keeps one involved in the sound fiscal management of school district finance.

If anyone has questions concerning the budget, my office is always open to the public. We will be happy to go over any part of the budget expenditures or revenues with you. It is our philosophy that an informed public will better accept the fiscal responsibility of educating our students.

The kid that seems to have "ants in his pants" may not be that way on purpose. Children that are impatient, short tempered, and disruptive may be hyperkinetic or what's commonly known as hyperactive.

The National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH) says that while the actual diagnosis is not easy, hyperactive children do have several characteristics in common. To help you recognize these characteristics and to recommend methods of treatment, NIMH has a booklet called Helping the Hyperactive Child. For your copy send $2.50 to Consumer Information Center, Dept. 118L, Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

Non-stop movement is just one of the symptoms of hyperactivity. These children also usually have short attention spans, are easily distracted or frustrated. And their behavior is often described as fidgety, impulsive and quarrelsome.

These youngsters frequently have trouble with reading and writing, often transposing letters—so that "saw" becomes "was."

Since diagnosing hyperactivity is complex, getting an opinion from more than one specialist is desirable. Diagnostic evaluations should include a thorough exam by the child's pediatrician, and in some cases, consultation with a child psychologist, psychiatrist, or neurologist.

Before treating a child for hyperactivity, it's important to rule out other problems. A child with behavior problems may not be hyperactive, but instead may be suffering from poor eyesight or hearing, allergies, improper nutrition, a chaotic home environment, other physical diseases or emotional disorders.

While there's no specific cure for hyperactivity, treatments have been developed to relieve the symptoms. Medication in the form of stimulants can be effective. In children these drugs have a paradoxical effect. That is, the drug that will stimulate an adult will calm a hyperactive child.

Diet is still a new and somewhat controversial therapy for hyperactivity. For example, one special diet excludes all foods and medicines containing artificial flavorings, colorings, and an ingredient called salicylate (a type of salt) from the child's diet.

Psychological interventions such as family counseling and behavior modification have helped some families, too.

The booklet lists organizations that either directly provide or can help you locate special services, and also gives suggested other readings that can help you deal with a hyperactive child.

When you order Helping the Hyperactive Child ($2.50) you'll also receive a free copy of the Consumer Information Catalog. Published quarterly by the Consumer Information Center of the General Services Administration, the free Catalog lists 200 selected free and moderately priced federal consumer booklets.

Dear Editor:

We received our copy of the Haskell Free Press this morning and I was very disappointed that there was no coverage of the Queen Contest. We in Rule feel that if it had been a Haskell girl that there would have been much more said.

I don't think it is fair to Lori. This was probably the biggest event in her life this far.

Your efforts toward fairness and freedom of speech continue to make this country what it is. Please accept our congratulations for a job well done.

Some Game Thief Awards Unclaimed

Some Operation Game Thief reward money is going begging, according to officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Four persons who dialed the 24-hour, toll-free number 1-800-792-GAME to report game or fish law violations furnished enough information to ultimately convict the violators. Case numbers 512, 586, 590 and 810 are eligible for cash rewards.

They could claim the money by calling Stanley Brooks at (512) 479-4850.

Operation Game Thief, initiated in October 1981, offers cash rewards from funds provided entirely through public donations. The six-member Game Thief Committee meets every six months to disburse rewards to callers whose information led to the arrest and conviction of the most flagrant cases.

During the 18 months OGT has been in existence, a total of $12,125 has been paid to 71 persons. The office received 1,150 calls which resulted in 130 arrests, 547 convictions and $67,266 in fines.

The next public meeting of the Operation Game Thief

Committee is slated for 10 a.m. Oct. 31 at Parks and Wildlife Department headquarters in Austin.

Richard Shaver Wins 1983 4-H Gold Star Award

The Gold Star Award is the highest award a 4-H member can receive from the County. This award is presented to either one or two deserving 4-H'ers each year. The recipients of this award are 4-H members who have shown excellence in leadership and citizenship abilities. These 4-H'ers are outstanding students academically and have responsibilities outside 4-H work in their church and community affairs.

This year Haskell County recognized Richard Shaver of Rochester as the Gold Star Recipient. Richard is the 14 year old son of Mr. and Mrs.

R.A. Shaver III and is a freshman at Rochester High School. Richard is an example of a hard working, outstanding 4-H member who has had a genuine interest in all aspects of the organization since joining the Rochester 4-H club 6 years ago at age 9.

He has participated in a wide range of projects including beef, showmanship, and recreation. He began showing steers for his beef project at age 9 and has added heifers to his project the past few years. Richard has participated in local, county, area, and major livestock shows. Last year he was President of his local beef project group. He has submitted a beef record book for County and District competition each year he has been a 4-H member.

As a result of participating in the Showmanship Project, Richard won a trophy for showmanship at the local livestock show last year.

Being involved in the Recreation Project afforded Richard the opportunity to participate in the District 4-H contest and to present his club's Share-the-Fun Act at the County 4-H Awards Program, a local talent show, and for Public School Week.

This 4-H'er has been involved in junior leadership roles, has served as a junior leader in his local club, and has attended the 4-H Teen Leadership Lab the past two years. Richard is currently serving as Rochester's Council delegate.

It is evident that he and his entire family, from two sets of supportive grandparents, down to his younger brother and sister following his example, are enthusiastically involved in 4-H work.

In school Richard is a member of the local F.F.A. Chapter, is on the annual staff, and is also a member of the Rochester Steer football team.

He is a member of the First United Methodist Church at Rochester.

Richard is keeping the heifers he shows and plans to build a herd of cattle all his own. This and other 4-H experiences will enable him to do what he is dreaming about, to be a farmer and rancher some day.

THE HARVESTERS

Harvesters To Present Program Sat. & Sun.

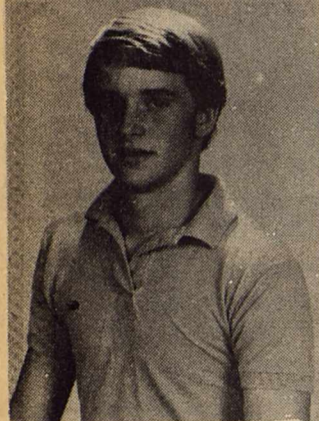

The Harvesters of Southwestern Assemblies of God College, Waxahachie, will be ministering at the First Assembly of God 1500 N. Ave. E, Haskell, on Sat. Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday 11 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

The Harvester Choir is one of the most outstanding and versatile groups in the Southwest. Vocalists and instrumentalists from across the United States have gathered to blend their talent under the direction of Grady Weiszbrod, who is also an accomplished trombonist and instructor of music at Southwestern.

These young collegians feel that they are involved in a definite ministry of reaching people for the Lord Jesus Christ. They are chosen not only for their musical ability, which is a must, but more than that because of their Christian character and attitude and their academic ability. The Harvesters travel weekends and make two tours each school year—one at Spring Break and one during the Summer.

"This concert presented by the Harvesters is something that you do not want to miss. If you love good music, love to worship, and love to become acquainted with young people consumed with a vision and a purpose, you are invited to attend this free event," said J.C. Amburn, pastor.

Church Secretary Seminar Set At Hardin-Simmons

In addition to the usual seminar help with secretarial skills and professional attitudes, Hardin-Simmons University's second annual church secretary seminar Oct. 13, will feature a session to help both secretary and boss work together to mutual advantage.

"The Boss and the Secretary," the seminar's two-hour luncheon session, was added to the agenda for this year's seminar in response to wishes expressed by last year's seminar participants, according to an official in the HSU Office of Continuing Education.

"A competent, knowledgeable and pleasant secretary graces any church office," said Ed Jackson, dean of continuing education at HSU. "An understanding of the working relationship between secretary and supervisor enhances the work of both."

Hardin-Simmons is inviting all interested church secretaries to attend all three sessions of the one-day seminar and to bring their supervisors to the noon session.

Instructors for the seminar will be:

—Dr. Lloyd Huff, HSU

English professor and instructor for the university's advanced grammar course, who will conduct session entitled "Grammar: Practical, Everyday Usage and Other Delightful Things" (9:10 a.m.) and "Letter Writing" (2 p.m.).

—Brenda Becknell, owner of Robert Spencer School of Modeling in Abilene and Lubbock, who will present a session entitled "Confidence: Looks and Feelings" (10:15 a.m.).

—Juanita Reeder, secretary to HSU President Dr. Jesse C. Fletcher, and Ken Coates, minister of administration and education at Pioneer Drive Baptist Church, who will present the two sides of "The Boss and the Secretary" (12:15 p.m.).

—Jackson, who will conduct the final session, "Doing More in Less Time—Happier" (3 p.m.).

Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m., and the seminar will adjourn at 4 p.m. Continuing education units will be awarded to those who satisfactorily complete the seminar.

Cost of the seminar is $30 per secretary, which includes all study materials, certificate, noon meal and refreshments, and $6.50 per boss, which includes the noon session and meal.

Those interested in registering or in obtaining more information should call Jackson at (915) 677-7281 or write to him at Box 957, HSU Station, Abilene, Texas 79698.

BY ROBERT IVEY

The Haskell JV came away with a 16-0 win over Hamlin last Thursday.

The JV defense came up with a fumble recovery by Seth Pace early in the first quarter.

The JV offense then wasted no time with a 15-yard pass from Kelly Strickland to Joel Torres. The extra points were good by Kendal Larned.

Late in the second quarter Strickland and Larned teamed up with a screen pass which put their second points of the night on the board.

The defense then took over and pushed Hamlin back for a safety late in the third quarter.

"The defense and offense both played excellent. This was our best game so far, both offensively and defensively," Coach Jim Bob Mickler said.

Pavilion To Be 'Celebration Of Rural Texas Culture'

The finishing touches are being put on the 1983 State Fair of Texas Food & Fiber Pavilion, and Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower says he expects this year's Pavilion to be the most interesting and entertaining ever.

The theme of the Pavilion, traditionally one of the most popular at the fair, will be "Texas Agriculture: If you eat, you're involved," and Hightower says he expects more than a million people to tour the football field-sized building during the Oct. 7-23 State Fair.

"Most people think of agriculture as a few hardy souls down on the farm," Hightower explained, "but one out of every four people in the workforce in America are involved in one way or another in harvesting, transporting, processing, marketing, preparing or serving our dinner. Getting that across is our underlying goal at this year's Food & Fiber Pavilion. Before we can make our point, however, we have to lure people into the building, so we've gone out of our way to make it just plain fun—it's going to be a 'fair within a fair'."

The interior of the building is ringed with booths representing various Texas agricultural and food products ranging from beef, sausage and honey to Blue Bell ice cream, organically-grown wheat flour and Hell on the Red picante sauce. And this year for the first time, Hightower said, every booth will be giving out free samples of their products.

"Dieters should probably think twice before they come in," Hightower quipped. "Morrison Milling will be baking their beer-batter biscuits again, and the wheat growers will be baking fresh bread right next to the honey booth. The aromas may be a little overwhelming. I fully expect to put on a few pounds."

The Grand Lodge of Texas will be opened at 4:00 p.m. at the Aspermont Lodge #1382. All Master Masons are invited.

The public is invited to the leveling ceremonies at the Courthouse to commence at 5:00 p.m.

Pavilion will contain a landscaping display featuring native Texas plants, a simulated farmers' market, a booth for daily cooking demonstrations, and a large area where foot-weary fair-goers can sit down and enjoy a variety of entertaining musical acts on the Pavilion's stage. Besides daily concerts by area junior college bands, the scheduled entertainment includes evening performances by legendary barrelhouse piano player Robert Shaw (Fri., Oct. 14), Austin songwriter/recording artist Steve Fromholz (Thursday, Oct. 20), Cajun music artist Allen Thibodeaux and the French Ramblers (Sat., Oct. 15), and the popular East Texas String Ensemble, which plays a broad variety of country, folk and blue grass music (Sat., Oct. 22). Other scheduled musical acts include the Dog Run String Band (Oct. 11, 17 and 23), Nacogdoches bluegrass duo Steve Hartz and Brigid Corbett (Sun., Oct. 9), Jeff Griggs and the Country Strings (Fri., Oct. 21), the Potluck String Band (Wed., Oct. 13 and 19), the Czech Harvesters (Sun., Oct. 16), the Shady Grove Ramblers featuring singer/songwriter Tom Uhr (Wed., Oct. 12), and Northern Mexico natives

Conjunto Vaquero (Tues., Oct. 18).

The junior college bands will play during the day and the featured performers will do one set starting at 6:15 p.m. and a second set immediately following the nightly State Fair parade.

The Interdenominational Youth Choir, a rousing gospel group from Nacogdoches, will be the featured performers on Sat., Oct. 8, and will take the stage in the afternoon immediately after the Texas-Oklahoma football game as well as the regular times in the evening.

"We're going to make the Pavilion a celebration of rural Texas culture," Hightower explained. "Besides the booths and a realistic country store and the music, we'll have a horseshoe competition, a tobacco spittin' contest, bull whip exhibition, a corn-shucking contest and a variety of other fun events for the whole family."

Hightower added that a meeting room in the Pavilion will be utilized during the fair for a meeting of the Texas Farm and Ranch Advisory Committee, a conference of Texas Black Farmers and a number of other meetings aimed at promoting Texas agriculture.

Farm Machinery Width Exemptions Won't Change

State Senator Ray Farabee (D-Wichita Falls) announced today that pre-1983 width exemptions for farm machinery traveling on highways will continue in effect.

"After discussing the matter with the Governor and interested legislators, the State Highway Department noted that the width exemptions for farm vehicles were not repealed by the Legislature and specified that those exemptions will continue in effect as under prior law," said Farabee.

"Farm vehicles can continue to move about as in past years without regard to width and without need of a permit," Farabee noted.

He explained that the formal ruling by the Department was necessary because some have interpreted state and federal laws passed earlier this year as repealing the width and permit exemptions that Texas agricultural interests historically have enjoyed.

"Representative Steve Carriker (D-Roby) and I will introduce legislation to put an end to any lingering doubts about the situation and to ensure that the specter of this unneeded economic burden does not arise again. We have requested the Governor to include this legislation in any Special Session," stated Farabee.

Farabee also explained that on U.S. 277 in Haskell County, vehicles carrying cylindrical shaped bales of hay and seed cotton modules are subject to a 102-inch width limitation.

"On all other highways, the hay balers can be 120 inches and the module transporters 108 inches," he said.

Christian Notes

The Haskell Ministerial Alliance has recently voted to produce a column in the Haskell Free Press weekly. The column will be written by the ministers of the local churches as each one desires to participate and will strive to be encouraging, inspirational and informative in nature. Each participating minister will write for one month, then another minister will write for the Free Press the next month.

As President of the Haskell Ministerial Alliance I speak for all ministers in saying we hope every word written will be helpful and spiritually positive to any reader.

I want to take my first opportunity in writing to commend the fellow ministers in our community. Never have I felt so close to a group of men whose very life is committed to the call of being a servant in Jesus name. I love each one of these men and I am proud to be in their fellowship. "Jesus said"...whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant." Forgotten words. Yes, these seem to be forgotten words in some places, even in churches sometimes. With smooth pastors, high powered executives, and super singers, unfortunately there doesn't seem to be much of the servant mentality left. Sometimes even in church we tend to get caught up in success and size race that we lose sight of our primary calling as followers of Christ. We, the ministers, in the vocational aspect of title, are not celebrity personalities or top dogs calling shots, but servants. We are not a fully loaded battleship blasting and pounding toward objects, neither are we a blend of a christian John Wayne, Clint Eastwood, and Incredible Hulk!

Rather I hope this preacher and others strive to be in the words of that Great Apostle Paul "a servant" or "a bond slave", and that the articles you read from week to week will be of help and guidance to you and yours.

Pastor Mike McKinney

Chad Ballard Wins F. W. Martin Memorial Achievement Award

The F. W. Martin Memorial Achievement Award is given each year to a Haskell County 4-H girl or boy by Mrs. Mary H. Martin. It was established in 1977 to honor the life and achievement of Mr. Martin, who served as Haskell County Agent from 1944 to 1967. The guidelines used to determine the winner are achievement in 4-H activities, responsible citizenship, leadership ability, scholastic excellence, and service to club, school, community, and church. These were chosen in consultation with the agents at that time, Mr. Max Stapleton and Mrs. Barbara Elliott, who was serving with Mr. Martin when he retired due to poor health.

The agents currently serving Haskell County make a list of 4-H members considered worthy to receive the award. Mrs. Martin contacts 4-H leaders, school officials, and other interested individuals and then makes the final decision.

The winner was revealed at the annual awards program September 12. An engraved individual plaque was presented to the winner for 1983, Chad Ballard of Rochester. His name was added to the large plaque which hangs in the County Extension office.

Chad is the 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Ballard and a freshman at Rochester High School. He has been a member of his local 4-H club for 6 years. During the time he has carried 5 main 4-H projects- Beef, Sheep, Swine, Recreation, and Showmanship.

He has participated in Share the Fun contests, Judging contests, and Showmanship contest through 4-H, Texas

Junior Hereford Association, and Texas Club Calf Association. He is also a member of Chianing Association. Chad has represented Haskell County well at various local, surrounding, and Major livestock shows.

In his local 4-H club he has served as treasurer and is currently serving as reporter. He has also served as treasurer of his lamb project group, secretary of his swine project group, and delegate to his beef project group. Chad was one of Haskell County's representatives to the Teen Leadership Lab last May at the Texas 4-H Center in Brownwood.

Chad is also active in his school activities. He is on the Annual Staff, a member of Rochester F.F.A., and a member of the Rochester Steer Band. He also further develops his musical abilities by taking piano lessons. Last year he was recognized as Salutatorian of the 8th grade class, placed 2nd in District U.I.L. Ready Writing, participated in U.I.L. Number Sense and Tennis. He is a member of the Gifted and Talented Program at Rochester High School. He has been named as winner of the National English Merit Award. His biography will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Yearbook for 1983. Chad attended the State F.F.A. Convention in San Antonio this past summer.

He attends Rochester United Methodist Church and is a member of the Seekers Sunday School Class.

Chad is planning to attend Texas A&M University after he graduates from high school.

The Rule and Sagerton 4-H Club met last Monday night at the Sagerton Community Center. Helen Lammert had the program, explaining various projects to the parents and children.

It was agreed that the club will meet the 2nd Monday night of the month at the Community Center. This is for both children and parents.

The 4-H club also voted to sell the new Texas 4-H Recipe Cookbooks. They will go on sale this week. Please see one of your local 4-H members and help support them in the project.

The next meeting will be October 10th at 7:00 p.m. in Sagerton. We do know there will be photography, bicycle safety, sewing and maybe a food project to be offered. So please plan to attend. Also officers will be elected among the 4-H members so this is an important meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kupatt were in Seguin last weekend to attend a Board of Development meeting of Texas Lutheran College. Fred is a board member representing the West Texas area. They also attended an "evening of celebration" at which time a seven year campaign and advancement plan was received.

Mr. and Mrs. A.H. Teichelman were in Wichita Falls to take care of their grandsons, Matt and Stephen Humphreys on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 20 and 21, while their parents Mr. and Mrs. Dan Humphreys went to Houston. It was time for Dan's checkup. He received a good report.

On Thursday Sept. 22nd Mr. and Mrs. Teichelman went to Stuttgart, Ark. where their son-in-law Rev. Winston Hold was installed on Sunday Sept. 25th at Emanuel Lutheran Church. While there, Mr. Teichelman became ill and had to be hospitalized but he is feeling fine now. Before returning to Texas, they took a drive along the Mississippi. They enjoyed seeing all the white fields of Hamlin came right back to score their only touchdown of the game.

Chan Guess who has played good all year took the kickoff after the Pipers scored and ran 75 yards for the TD.

The Warriors final score came on a 35-yard run by Derrick Billington around the right side.

of Aspermont to visit with kindfolks who live in Lubbock, and others who met them there. Those who were there were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mrazek and son of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Miller of Lubbock. They all were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Lehmann and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knippling had lunch in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Toney Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bredthauer and Mrs. Adelia Nierdieck went to Caldwell Saturday where Roy Nierdieck of Bryan picked up Adelia to spend a few days with them while the Bredthauer's went on to Brenham to attend a Gaskamp reunion on Sunday Monday Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bredthauer went to Somerville Lake to fish with Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Kelm of Waco, who own a cabin at the lake. They were lucky with their fishing.

Mr. Buster Tredemeyer spent a few days in the hospital in Abilene last week but is home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Guinn of LaGrange visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gellner last week and also visited with Mrs. Guinn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Speck of Rochester.

Mr. Leslie Cobb of Midland who passed away last week was brought back to Sagerton to be buried in Fairview Cemetery. His wife was the former Ruthedell Clark.

Mrs. Ione Sheid of Rule and Mrs. Izzetta Clark of Rice Springs Care Home ate lunch in the home of Mrs. M.Y. Benton Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark were recent visitors in the home of Rev. and Mrs. David Adler, Christopher and Anna at Spring, a suburb of Houston. Going with them were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark and Phillip of Lueders. While there they celebrated the birthdays of Trudy Clark and Peggy Adler with a party in Pasadena. The group also visited the Johnson Space Center and enjoyed sight-seeing in Houston. Other guests in the Adler home for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Bo McQueen of Pecos.

The people of the Community went to welcome a new couple in our midst. They are Phil and Tena West who recently purchased and moved in the August Ender house, south of town. We are happy to have these young people in our midst. I hope that soon they will feel like real Sagertonites. Mrs. West is the former Tena Pearson of Ericksdahl Community and is employed by Commodore Savings of Stamford. Mr. West is employed by Pride Refinery in Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark were hosts for a hamburger cookout at their home Friday, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Tim Heiney of Big Rapids, Michigan. The Heiney's are in Dallas for three months attending Linguistics School and upon their graduation there, they will be going to Ghana, West Africa as missionaries for the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. Mrs. Heiney is the former Beth Plug, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Pflug who was a former pastor at Zion Lutheran Church here. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Don Bivins, Tom, Coleman, Emmalee, Mrs. Raphael of Stamford, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Clark and Phillip of Lueders.
