Jim Mattox Notifies Consumers Of Mailouts

Attorney General Jim Mattox announced today that between 1,500 and 2,000 letters are being mailed to consumers throughout Texas this week explaining a settlement agreement by which consumers may seek full refunds for specific life insurance policies they bought.

Approximately 500 other persons, who have already cancelled their insurance policies and received their refunds, are being mailed letters containing checks for interest on the refund amount.

The settlement, which Mattox obtained in May, provides that consumers may seek refunds, plus interest, on one specific life insurance plan previously sold in Texas by Academy Life Insurance Co.

The particular plan was called ECP-95 or the Estate Conservation Plan. The plan was sold mainly to senior citizens in rural areas of Texas, to possibly as many as 2,500 consumers.

In May, Mattox obtained an agreed final judgment against Academy Life and co-defendant Jack Milton Amason, doing business as Jack Amason Agency and Amason Holding Company, of Dallas.

The settlement agreement was reached as Mattox prepared to file suit against the defendants alleging the ECP-95 was sold to Texas consumers in violation of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices/Consumer Protection Act.

Allegations were that the ECP was deceptively marketed as a

Results Of TABS Tests Show Student Improvement

Results from tests given to Haskell students in grades three, five and nine have revealed improvements in each class in math, reading, and writing.

The Texas Assessment of Basic Skills (TABS) tests are considered to be comprehensive tests and the ninth grade test is considered to be an exit level test.

Haskell Superintendent James Lanier explained that the exit level tests were considered the very minimums that a student should know prior to high school graduation. "These minimums are generally considered below graduation requirements but are useful from a comparative standpoint since the tests change little from year to year", said Lanier.

All ninth grade students were required to take the tests as well as students in grades higher than nine who had failed any part of the tests in the past.

A total of 45 HHS students took the ninth grade tests and 93 percent passed the total reading part and 90 percent passed the math and writing portions.

Both the percentages passing the math and reading tests were higher than any past scores. In math the percentages passing since the 1979-80 school year were: 82; 75; 77; 81; and 90 during the 1983-84 school year.

In reading the scores since 1979-80 were: 74; 71; 74; 80 and 93 for the 1983-84.

Writing scores for the past five years were: 68 for the 1979-80 year; 86; 85; 100 and 90 for 1983-84 year. The decrease in writing from last year is attributed to changes in the tests as well as changes in grading methods implemented when an inordinate number of students across the state scored extremely high.

In grade five a total of 47 students were tested and the largest improvement came in the reading tests where passing percentages increased from 72 percent in 1982-83 to 84.5 percent in 1983-84. Math scores improved from 86 percent last year to 87.8 percent this year and writing grades remained almost constant from 87 percent last year to 86.5 percent this year.

In grade three a total of 52 students were tested and all three percentages increased from last year. Math increased from 82 percent to 88.5 percent; reading from 87 to 88.1 percent and writing from 80 to 89.4 percent.

11 and 12: Lody Mathis, 88; Johnny Grindstaff, 106; and Marcus Jones, 108.

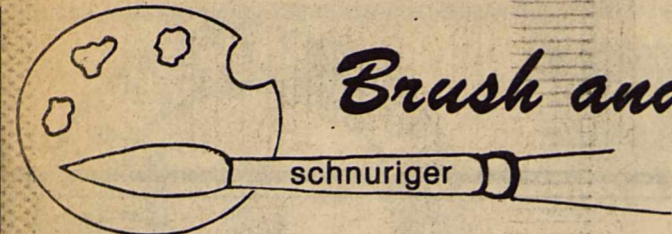

13 to 15: Kelly Strickland, 88; Jeff Abernathy, 89; and Dann Grindstaff won the playoff against Jason Brigman. Both had a score of 90.

Shasta Gomez Completes Class At Dance School

SHASTA GOMEZ

of those days with your sketch pad or your paints. Walking around the Haskell Park and on down the little creek has given me such a warm feeling of natural surroundings. Exploration of creeks, brooks, rills, and little rivers best begins at a polite distance, so approach the stream quietly. Take up lookout on one of the rocks that guard the banks. Spring's lessons stand close by—to the right and left, across the quiet pool and even down below. Tiny pale bluets, washed by needed sunlight, grow in the rich soil along side the stream. Flora changes in the more open countryside. Buttercups decorate the shores of meadow streams. Every rock turned over brings another discovery, maybe a small animal or some insect's larvae clinging to the underside. If, like Thoreau, you prefer to observe, take your binoculars and a field guide on plants and reptiles. If, like Darwin, you want to probe deeper, wear old shoes, shorts, take sun glasses so you can step into the stream to explore to the fullest extent—even take a dip net or seine to string across the current, tweezers to pick up any aquatic specimens you find, a porcelain dish to hold those specimens—and I could go on and on telling you about my experiences along the rivers and streams and the bags of rock and other findings to bring home. This is part of your art career, your training—to see. Learn to see—the most important facet of your art training.

Q. Explain how to go about painting a rock, please.

A. Go out and get a good sized rock, set it up under good lighting and paint it as carefully verbatim as you can. This is the best way to learn to paint a rock. Remember a rock is a hard, heavy and cold substance to it must be painted thusly—not as a velvet drape—think rock, yes, think rock!

HINT: Simplify your compositions. Don't put everything you see in the picture—save some for the next one.

Write your questions and hints to me, Faye Schnuriger, P.O. Box 134, Haskell, Texas 79521. I will not use your name but do want you to sign your letters.

Q. Please give us some tips about wild flowers. The yellow and red ones are beginning to come out and are so beautiful.

A. Right you are and the uccas are beginning to put up their bloom spikes too. Paint the yellow and red flowers the same as bluebonnets but be very careful to subdue the yellow and red in the distance. Instead of the pure yellow in the background, use zinc or light yellow and a lot of white mixture. Also decrease the intensity of the red by add some blue to it. Remember warm colors come forward rapidly! Also decrease the density of the greens in the background, raise the value so you will have color perspective.

Evening Ceremony Unites Norman, Stewart

Melissa Ann Stewart became the bride of Gregg Arlan Norman on Saturday, June 9, in the First Baptist Church in Munday. Rev. Jim Way officiated at the ceremony, which was held at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Norman, all of Munday.

Vows were exchanged before an arched candelabra flanked by two heart-shaped candelabras. The candelabras and unity candle were decorated with carnations in shades of pink, baby's breath and greenery. Pew markers were bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Lori Jetton of Brownwood, cousin of the bride, and Lynette Norman of Munday, the groom's sister, were candlelighters. Their white polyester and cotton voile gowns were lined with white taffeta and accented with white lace and pink satin ribbon trim. They wore wrist corsages of pink apple blossoms.

Mrs. Sandy King provided wedding music on the organ. Keith Davis of Breckenridge and Teresa New of Haskell, cousin of the bride, were soloists. He sang "The Lord's Prayer", and Mrs. New performed a solo of "Two Will Be One", then sang "You and I" as a duet with Kevin Walker of Haskell.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents and escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a long original gown of silk organza and Chantilly lace over English net. The bodice was studded with seed pearls and featured a low scooped neckline and sheer puffed sleeves ending in lace ruffles at the elbows. The soft full skirt was designed with a sheer overskirt draped over tiers of Chantilly lace tapering in back to a chapel length train. A floral wreath of white silk apple blossoms sprinkled with pearls held the bride's veil of silk illusion edged in ribbon, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, pink and white apple blossoms, baby's breath and Boston fern with ribbon streamers around the white Bible carried by the bride's mother at her wedding.

In keeping with tradition, the bride carried a handkerchief belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. R.W. Raynes Sr., of Weinert, as something old. Her wedding dress was something new, the white New Testament in her bouquet was borrowed from her mother, and she wore a blue garter and a sixpence in her shoe.

Mendie Stewart of Munday was her sister's maid of honor. She was dressed in a formal gown of pink tissue taffeta featuring an off-the-shoulder neckline designed with double butterfly bows and straps. The full skirt extended into a deep slanted ruffle at the hemline. She wore a halo of pink apple blossoms and carried white roses with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids, who were dressed identically to the maid of honor, were Angela Meers of Munday and Jami Jetton of Brownwood, cousin of the bride.

Heather Stewart of Haskell, the bride's cousin, was flower girl. She was dressed like the bridesmaids and carried a basket of white tiger lilies and baby's breath. The pillow carried by the ring-bearer, Brad Jetton of Brownwood, also the bride's cousin, was made for Missie and Gregg by Missie's grandmother Raynes.

Layne Norman of Abilene served his brother as best man. Groomsmen were Mark Cook and Jim Monkres, both of Wichita Falls. Ushers were Kent Josselet and Jeff Ramirez of Munday, Danny Stewart of Haskell, uncle of the bride, and Mark and Mike Stewart of Weinert, also uncles of the bride.

The groom and his attendants wore ascot grey tuxedos. The groom had a white shirt, and the male attendants wore pink shirts to coordinate with the bridesmaids dresses. Each wore an apple blossom boutonniere.

The bride's mother chose a street-length dress of off-white and taupe tulle. The bodice was studded with pearls and featured long sleeves cuffed at the wrists. The mother of the groom wore a cream colored dress of crepe de chine with a chiffon bodice and petal sleeves. Their ensembles were complemented with corsages of pink tiger lilies.

The bride's parents hosted the reception in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a pink cloth overlaid in white lace and centered with the bridal bouquet. Pink tapers in silver candelabra accented with flowers enhanced the table. The four-tiered wedding cake was trimmed with nosegays of fresh pink miniature carnations and baby's breath. The focal point of the cake was a flowing fountain, and it was topped with a ceramic bride and groom in a setting of pink flowers.

Serving at the bride's table were Paula Waggoner, Cherie Welch and Jeannette Kuehler. A double heart chocolate cake lettered with the couple's names was served at the groom's table along with soft drinks from a setting of Pfaltzgraff pottery. Assisting were Lynette Norman and Lori Jetton.

The groom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner on Friday evening at the fellowship hall. Tables were covered with red checked cloths, and hurricane lamps with English ivy served as centerpieces.

After a wedding trip to Dallas and other points of interest, the couple will live in Wichita Falls. They are graduates of Munday High School, and the groom is attending Midwestern State University. He is employed by Kadane Oil Company, and Mrs. Norman will be studying secretarial courses offered in Wichita Falls by Vernon Regional Junior College.

Tips For Water-Saving In The Kitchen

About one quarter of all household water use can be traced to the kitchen and laundry room, says Haskell County Extension home economist Lou Gilly. But with just a few adjustments, families can cut the amount of water they use for cooking and washing dishes, she adds.

Here are some of Gilly's water-saving suggestions:

Cut down on the number of utensils used in preparing meals and on the plates and glassware used with the meals themselves. Plan more one-dish meals in which vegetables are cooked or baked in little or no added water and save nutrients too.

Because a kitchen faucet can deliver five gallons of water a minute, find ways to avoid running water. For example, use a pan of water to wash fruits and vegetables instead doing it under the tap. If you wash dishes by hand, use a dish pan and rinse all the dishes at once rather than a few at a time.

Find ways to make double use of water. Ideally, the liquid from cooking vegetables and other foods should be used again as stock for soups or broth. But even if you don't intend to use it for cooking, don't throw it away. Cooking liquids can be used to soak baked-on food off of cookware before washing.

Washing dishes by hand requires anywhere from 8 to 20 gallons of water. A dishwasher typically uses between 12 and 16 gallons of water, so the dishwasher should not automatically be considered a water waster. However, a dishwasher uses the same amount of water whether it is completely full or only partially full, so it pays to wait until the dishwasher is loaded to capacity.

Most of the newer models of dishwashers are designed to make pre-rinsing unnecessary. Many automatic dishwasher owners use their appliance more as a sanitizer than an actual dishwasher because they essentially wash their dishes before loading them into the machine. Pre-rinsing is often a habit begun when they used earlier model machines without the same cleaning capabilities.

10th Annual Sanders Reunion Held

Coming from Arizona and many towns in Texas the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mrs. Jack Sanders of Weinert, met for the tenth annual reunion at the spacious country home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sanders, near Cross Plains on Saturday and Sunday, June 16 and 17, 1984.

All eleven of Mrs. Sanders children, nineteen grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren along with their families were present for the reunion which made sixty family members to register and ten guests. Andy and Marlene Sanders served as host and hostess for this year's reunion and Eva Hardman of Irving will host next year. Plans are being made for next year's reunion to be held in the Graham Park on the second weekend in June.

The family enjoyed a watermelon feast and a huge fried fish supper on Saturday with Andy and a brother-in-law, Darwin Slade, frying the fish in an old iron washpot. A bar-b-que beef lunch with all the trimmings was served on Sunday.

The family enjoyed swimming, pitching washers, picture taking, visiting and a pea shelling contest which we were all sure Marie Kirkland, our sister from Ft. Worth did not win.

Traveling the farthest to the reunion was Darwin and Ethel Slade and their son David of Eagar, Arizona. The oldest one present was the mother, Mrs. Jack Sanders of Weinert and the youngest was Kandra Poole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Poole of Pampa. The family best represented was Andy Sanders who had all five of his daughters, their husbands and four of his grandchildren present.

Those attending from this area included the mother, Mrs. Jack Sanders of Weinert, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Phelps, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Mitchell of Haskell.

Tips To Prevent Horseplay From Turning Into Violence

"Who started the trouble?" "He hit me first!" "No! He hit me first!" "Well, he knocked me in the back!"

"No I did't! It was an accident!"

The more a parent tries to play the role of judge in a fight, the more confusing the situation becomes, reminds Growing Up, the child development newsletter about school-age children. There are more worthwhile and important things parents can do when a child is engaged in a vigorous wrestling match with a playmate or sibling.

First, realize that vigorous physical activity is normal, particularly in boys. As bodies grow and develop, muscles become stronger. Children love to experience strength and to experiment to find out what their bodies can do.

What appears to an adult to be fighting may be a form of social interaction to the child—a way of making friends.

But be observant. If a child appears to initiate real fighting behavior often, he may need help to learn other appropriate ways to handle situations.

Limits sometimes need to be set on physical rough-housing since children may not be aware of their own strength and the damage they may cause either to themselves or to others. There are several effective ways a parent can deal with fighting behavior when it needs to be controlled.

*Early intervention. Before a situation gets out of hand, a mild correction is usually enough.

*Group punishment. When a group of children is involved in fighting, it is usually best to have all of them suffer the same consequences. To single out the ring leader often makes that person a "hero." The most effective form of group punishment for over-aggressive behavior is usually loss of a privilege (no television or no treat).

*Organized activity. Supervised activities such as sporting events help channel activities while promoting cooperation, healthy competition, and belonging to a group.

Children are bundles of boundless energy. Adults will do well to channel that energy in positive channels (running, bike riding) before fighting becomes an issue.

Growing Up follows a child's development through the school years. For more information, write to Growing Up, P.O. Box 620N, Lafayette, Indiana 47902. Include child's school grade when writing.

Hot Tap Water Can Cause Scald Burns

Of the approximately 112,000 people admitted to U.S. hospital emergency rooms with scald burns each year, more than 2,600 of these are caused by hot tap water.

TSTI Offers Nursing Program

The pre-entrance exam for persons wishing to enter the Vocational Nursing program at TSTI-Sweetwater will be given July 5 and July 12 in room 217 of the D.A. Pevehouse Technology Center on campus.

According to LaVohn McGlothing, program chairman of the nursing program, the test measures general science knowledge, vocabulary, spelling, reading comprehension and math.

McGlothing said the test is only one of the pre-entrance requirements of the nursing program. Prospective students must also complete a personal interview with her before being admitted to the class. Both requirements are stipulations of the State Board of Nursing Examiners which also certifies the licensing examination.

The exam begins at 9 a.m. and costs $15 in check or money order. No cash will be accepted. Prospective students interested in taking the test for possible enrollment in the fall should contact the TSTI Nursing department at (915) 235-8441, ext. 288, prior to the testing dates.

Scald burns from hot tap water tend to be more severe than other scald burns, with about 25 percent of these patients requiring hospitalization, says the Texas Medical Association.

The problem is that many water heaters have been pre-set at the factory at dangerously high temperatures and remain that way in many households. This poses a particular hazard for children, the elderly, and the physically and mentally disabled.

Most electric water heaters now in operation have been pre-set at 150 degrees Fahrenheit, and most gas heaters at 140. A study has shown that serious burns of adult skin can result from 2 seconds of exposure to 150-degree water and from 5 seconds with 140-degree water.

In contrast, it takes 30 seconds of 130-degree water to produce a serious burn. This generally allows enough time for most people to react and withdraw before suffering a burn. At 120 degrees, 10 minutes of exposure would be required to seriously burn an adult.

Since no household needs require tap-water temperatures greater than 120 degrees, it is wise to adjust thermostats on residential hot-water heaters to that maximum.

The temperature can be measured with a candy thermometer in bathtubs and sinks.

Except for isolated areas, much of the Southwest needs rain, the kind that washes our water-gaps and floats heavy timber. Let'er slosh!)

down the windows, while the drops thunder on the tin roof of the porch and the lightning blasts illuminate the waving treetops.

O Lord of Hosts, we want to look out of the windows and watch the regiments of fat, close-packed randrops march diagonally down in sheets, until we can't see the outlines of the street light on the corner and it looks like a great pale luminous ball through the driving drops. We want to hear, about a minute after the first rush, the gurgle in the tin gutters under the eaves, and, in 25 seconds more, the sputter of the downspout and the hollow churning of the water in the cistern.

God of Israel, Isaac and Jacob, let it come down so hard, let the drops dance so high that the outlines of streets and sidewalks seem covered with a six-inch fog of splattering drops. Then let it just keep up for a while, and then begin to taper off, and then turn right 'round and get a lot worse, swishing, pounding, splattering, pouring, drenching, the thunder coming—"Crackity-BAM! Bam-bam - bumble - bumble - bumble" and the lightning flashing so fast and furious you can't tell which flash goes with which peal of thunder.

So that all the women will get scared and climb on top of the feather beds and scream at you not to get too close the windows. So that in between lightning flashes you can see the dirty yellow gutter water rippling across the street, instead of along its sides.

And then, O Jealous God, repeat the whole act about three times, and in the middle of the second time, we will get out the old tin wash pan and climb the attic stairs to put it under that tiny leak in the roof which usually you can't even notice in an ordinary rain. And after a couple of hours, kind of taper it down, O Lord, to a good, steady rain—not a drizzle—but a business-like one, that keeps up until just about dawn and then spits a few drops occasionally during the morning from a gray sky.

O Shepherd, of a Chosen People, when we walk to work that morning let us see pink, thin-nosed angle-worms that have crawled out of the grass and drowned in the sidewalk puddles, and big pools of standing water in every yard, with just the tips of the fresh green grass breaking the surface. Let it knock all the buds off the elm trees, so that streets and sidewalks are covered with a brown snow, except where the running water has gathered it into thick scum over the pools around the choked drains.

Then let everyone begin wondering what the rivers are doing, and when we go down to the bridge, make us drive through about two inches of dirty yellow water running over the pavement, and when we get on it, let us watch a pig and two Buff Orpington hens and half a woodshed float by, about three feet under our shoe soles, and Lord, let the farmers holler their heads off about how it will be too wet, now, to get their corn in early enough.

Thou Art My Shepherd, I shall not want if Thou leadest me into green pastures, and beside the still waters, while the little pasture ponds stand full to the brinks of their cement dams.

O God of Battles and Lord of Many Mansions, if you don't want it to rain in Kansas, all right. And if you do, all right. But we are weak in faith and pray for a sign such as you gave to Aaron to confound Pharaoh's magicians and sorcerers. Take this business of weather prediction out of the hands of a lot of incompetent Washington Bureaucrats and make it Thy special province. They're playing horse with us, Lord. They promise a rain and all we get is a mangy little thin-flank-ed shower that you could hang your hat on its hip bones.

Kansas is indeed the Promised Land, O Lord, and if it gets a break it will flow with milk and honey. But we can't live much longer on promises. So in Thine own way and in Thine own time, make up Thy mind, O Lord, and we will bow before Thy judgment, and praise Thine everlasting name. Amen.

Sam Toliver To Attend Tarleton

Still concentrating on their areas of greatest need, the Tarleton State University football coaches have announced fourteen new recruits who will be joining the team in the fall.

Three of the newcomers are quarterbacks and three are defensive tackles, two areas where the Texans are badly in need of starting material and depth.

The three quarterbacks are Rodney Boggs of Ft. Worth (Castleberry), Kevin Dorn of Stafford (Dulles High), and Sam Scott of Rising Star. All three will challenge for a starting position that is wide open at Tarleton where only one quarterback with experience returns.

The defensive tackles are Steve Minor of Arlington (Arlington High), Mark Stutts of Rockwall, and Charles Allen of Killen (Ellison). Again, the Texans have no returning experienced defensive down linemen and the positions are wide open.

Also among the current list of recruits are wide receivers Scott Armstrong of Irving (MacArthur) and Blake Sanford of Austin (Westwood). Defensive backs are Sam Toliver of Haskell and Shane Gay of Lubbock

New GI Assistance Bill Proposed

According to C. H. Herren, Veterans Service Officer for Haskell County, the Congress may soon be voting on a new educational assistance bill for present and future members of the Armed Forces. The most recent GI Bill for education expired December 31, 1976, and persons entering military service since that time have no such benefits available when they are discharged or released.

The new proposal, House Resolution 5167, would provide a basic educational entitlement of $300 per month, for up to 36 months, for high school graduates (or those with G.E.D. diploma) with three years of military service. Persons entering the National Guard or Reserves would also have an educational entitlement of $140 per month for up to 36 months with a commitment for six years service. If enacted by Congress, the law would become effective October 1, 1984, and would apply to persons now in active military service, the National Guard or the Reserves. For some targeted military personnel, there would be some additional supplementary benefits for even longer periods of educational entitlement.

The proposed bill even contains a transferability clause that would allow a spouse or children to take advantage of the earned benefits after the military member has completed 10 years of service. This particular provision, however, is also for targeted personnel whose military specialty is vital to national defense.

H.R. 5167 is the Fiscal Year 1985 Defense Authorization Bill, and was reported out of the House Armed Services Committee on April 11, 1984. That committee had the bill for some 11 months following unanimous approval by the House Committee on Veterans Affairs. Persons caring to do so may contact their Congressman and Senator to express their comments either for or against the proposal.

TP&WD Reminds Fisherman Of Trotrline Regulations

Trotline fishing is an enjoyable and inexpensive way to catch fish, but it also may be one of the most abused privileges on the freshwater sport fishing scene.

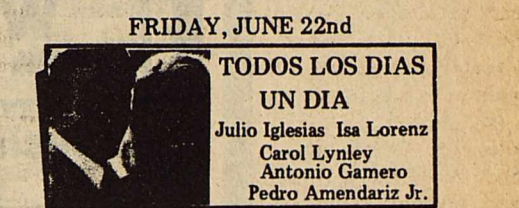

Law enforcement officials of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department believe many trotliners are unaware of requirements such as marking the lines and numbers of hooks allowed.

"Rod and reel fishermen often complain about large numbers of trotlines that snag their lures and motors," said Capt. Harold Oates, inland game and fish supervisor, "and I really can't blame them since much of the time the lines are unmarked and abandoned."

Oates pointed out that all trotlines must be marked with a durable tag inscribed with the owner's name and address and the date the line was set. These tags can be made from pieces of plastic or half-gallon milk jugs. The lines must be re-dated at the end of 90 days, or removed.

All hooks on a trotline must be at least three feet apart, with no more than 50 hooks per line. No more than 100 hooks are allowed on all devices for each person.

Lines may not be placed in the vicinity of any public boat dock, public bathing pier, or any public place commonly used as a swimming area. Trotlines, juglines and throw-lines also may not be placed in any body of water 500 acres or less lying totally within a state park or that portion of a stream bordering a state park. "In addition to observing regulations, trotline fishermen should use good judgment and common sense when setting their lines," said Oates. "They should be placed in areas where they cause the least possible obstruction to the activities of fishermen and other users of the lake or river. A lot of confrontation and irritation could be avoided with a little consideration."

Public Notice

Southwestern Bell Telephone Company has filed a tariff with the Public Utility Commission of Texas to make end user common line charges associated with Centrex CO service equal to those to be billed to Private Branch Exchange service. The Commission has suspended the proposed tariff until October 1, 1984, or before, and assigned the matter to Docket No. 5686.

The equalization of end user common line charges for Centrex CO service is to be accomplished by a reduction in Centrex service charges. The net effect of the Centrex service charge adjustment and an interstate end user common line charge will be an increase in total billing.

Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene, participate, or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Boulevard, Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227, or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf.

A Series Of Informative "Plain Talk" Thoughts Regarding Your Money Matters

FDIC Insurance

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation is the agency of the government which insures our deposits. Because of the FDIC, the security of a bank investment cannot be equalled anywhere in the financial community.

By definition the money invested in a bank is classified as a deposit. Money invested in other types of financial institutions is in many cases considered to be a "share." This makes a bank customer a "depositor" and customers of these other institutions merely shareholders.

This is an important difference which may never be noticed by the customer unless of course he needs to use the insurance. To find out more about the differences in regulations governing the insuring agencies of financial institutions, stop in and see one of our officers.

Cut Back On Calories To Lose Weight

Despite all the gimmicks for "quick" and "easy" weight loss, the only safe and effective way to lose pounds is to cut back on high-calorie foods and exercise regularly, says the Texas Medical Association.

Each year more "new, revolutionary" diets are promoted. And every year thousands of people begin these diets and are disappointed when they fail to lose weight permanently.

Advocates of quick and easy reduction programs may suggest practices ranging from sweating off weight to starving it away. They may recommend pills, hormonal therapy, or diets emphasizing a single food such as grapefruit, bananas, or rice.

The real problem with many of these methods is that they are seriously lacking in essential nutrients. Not only will people on these diets be malnourished, but they often become bored with a diet's monotony and give it up. The pounds they managed to shed will come back as they revert to overeating high-calorie foods.

Fasting and very low-calorie diets like liquid-protein ones can be dangerous. Most people ultimately find fasting disappointing because weight regained after a fast is put on first as fat. Since fat tissue requires fewer calories to sustain itself than muscle tissue, it is harder for an individual to lose weight the next time.

In addition, the body responds to a drastic cutback in calories by lowering the rate at which it burns them. For many dieters, this means that even if they do not cheat on their diet, weight loss may halt.

Exercise, however, can change all of this. It conditions the muscles, helps to burn calories, lowers blood pressure, and allows a person to eat enough food to obtain required nutrients without gaining weight.

Recent research also suggests that exercise significantly increases the body's metabolism. Some studies suggest that after vigorous exercise the body continues to burn calories at a higher rate than it would have without exercise.

These benefits can best be achieved through a half-hour of vigorous activity like fast walking, jogging, fast bicycling, swimming, rollerskating, jumping rope, or aerobic dancing three times a week.

Vegetable Festival Set In Munday

Home gardeners and commercial vegetable producers will share the spotlight when Knox County stages a fun-filled two-day Vegetable Festival here Friday and Saturday, June 22-23.

Educational programs interspersed with music and frolic for all ages and all interests will promote the fine quality garden-type vegetables and melons grown in commercial quantities in the county, explained David Tunmire, county Extension agent.

Tunmire noted that this year, county producers have planted some 1,870 acres in potatoes, 570 acres in onions, 225 acres in cabbage, 350 acres of cataloupes and 275 acres of watermelons, as well as okra, tomatoes, squash and corn. Most are commercially grown and are shipped throughout the country.

Major events in the public celebration include a vegetable exhibit and contests for commercial and home gardeners; baked and canned food contests and display; antique exhibit; exhibit of commercial equipment and supplies; a producers market, with fresh vegetables for sale; hobbies and crafts show and a tour of vegetable producers.

The tour begins at 2 p.m. Friday at the Band Hall. It is sponsored by the Brazos Valley Young-Farmers and the special crops task force of the Rolling Plains Economic Program. It will include stops at the Texas A&M research station, Smith packing shed, Colville and Wilson shed, Kiser's, North Texas Vegetable Growers and Partridge's farm. Tunmire said the tour will emphasize marketing commercially grown vegetables.

The vegetable exhibit and canned goods and baking exhibits will be at the Band Hall from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday. A growers clinic will be held at the Band Hall from 8 to 10 a.m. Friday, prior to the judging of vegetable exhibits.

The producers market will operate from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday and Saturday on the City Hall lawn. Across the street from City Hall, an art show will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day.

The commercial and antique exhibits will be on the elementary school lawn from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day.

Two festival queens will be selected in a beauty pageant at 7 p.m. Friday in the Munday High School auditorium. Thirty-three contestants will vie for the title of Little Miss Festival and 32 will compete for the title of Miss Knox County Vegetable Festival. They will reign over Saturday's events.

Among the Saturday highlights will be the hobbies and crafts show from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the elementary school lunchroom. Also, educational exhibits on cooking vegetables will be seen from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the elementary school gymnasium.

A pictorial display of Knox County history also will be on display in the elementary school gym from 1 to 6 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday.

Adding to the festivities will be a series of events from 9 to 11 a.m. Friday and Saturday. Friday, children will compete in potato races and potato throwing on the football field, there will be a jamboree on the City Hall lawn, a domino tournament in the elementary school lunchroom.

At 2 p.m. Friday, a model airplane exhibition will be held at the airport.

Fun events Saturday will get a fast start at 8 a.m. when the Munday Marathon will be run from Offutt's Corner to City Hall. From 9 to 11 a.m., young people will have a Mini Street Frolic and a Main Street Drag on City Hall Lawn. A gymnastics exhibition will be presented on the lawn at 11 a.m.

Climaxing the special events will be team competitions at 7:30 p.m. Saturday on the football field. For those of high school age and older, these will include a tug-of-war, obstacle course, bridge over troubled water and a toy tractor pull.

LANE'S CUSTOM STONE

Offers Attractive, Durable, Alternative To Plain, Dull, Drab, Bare Concrete

Custom Stone is introducing this space age beautiful stone that creates an attractive finish for dozens of surfaces, but never hurts bare feet.

The unique, porous surfacing material is designed for patios, sidewalks, steps, swimming pools, driveways, and any other outdoor areas. It is also used on indoor areas in stores, lobbies, restaurants, banks or offices where its slip-proof qualities are especially important.

Custom Stone is composed of beautiful natural stones and a space age bonding material. As durable a stone surface as created by nature itself in keeping with today's natural look. Custom Stone is such a durable surface it can be used for driveways and parking areas. The natural stones have been pre-selected for toughness and hardness as well as for beauty. The space age chemicals that coats each stone and bonds the stones together is actually tougher than the stone itself.

Custom Stone surfaces are unaffected by ice, snow, freeze, thaw or our Texas heat. It has been installed in saunas where temperatures reach 200 degrees F. with absolutely no effect the bonding material does not get soft or tacky and it is fireproof.

Unlike concrete, plaster, mortar, gunite, or other surfaces on which mildew is a constant problem in moist areas, Custom Stone is mildew resistant.

Porosity is designed into Custom Stone to eliminate puddles and avoid eruptions from freezing water, and since it is porous, there is never any water lying on the surface. Unlike terrazzo, marble, flag stone, slate, or other surfaces that become slippery when wet, Custom Stone remains non-skid even in a rainstorm.

This stone surfacing can be installed quickly over concrete and in four to six hours after installation, you can walk on it. Within 48 hours you can drive a truck on it. For restaurants and stores, an installation can actually be done at night and ready for foot traffic the next morning without the loss of business times.

The natural stone and crushed marble collected from different quarries across the country can be mixed together to get any color or decorator effect desired.

Everything worthwhile has its cost, but amazingly Custom Stone is less expensive than almost any other durable finished surfacing material. It is less expensive than marble, slate, flag stone, terrazzo, quarry tile, or brick and in the long run, because of its amazing maintenance free durability, it's less expensive than sweeping bare concrete.

Most banks or saving and loans will make home improvement FHA Title I financing loans. For full details of how you can beautify your home or business with Custom Stone.

Drought Affecting State's Wildlife

Deer and antelope are weathering the state's current dry spell quite well so far, but ground-nesting gamebirds such as quail and wild turkey may be in trouble in some areas.

This was the assessment of Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists who are watching the increasingly desiccated habitat for drought-related losses of wildlife.

"There have been no losses yet among the deer herd," said Big Game Program Director Charles Winkler, "and in fact they are in good shape in most areas."

However, Winkler said die-offs still are a possibility by mid-summer if there is no rainfall. "We are seeing evidence that deer are beginning to feed along highway rights-of-way—something that ordinarily doesn't happen until mid or late summer," Winkler said.

Motorists are cautioned to watch for foraging deer, especially when driving through deer country at night.

Although surveys will not be completed for another month, biologists believe turkey nesting success may be reduced in some areas. Quail, which nest later than turkey, may also suffer set backs without additional moisture.

"I was surprised how quick the variety was ready to graze."

"In fact, some of my neighbors tried to rent my pasture when they saw how much better established it was than others all around us."

Pioneer® variety 2157 gets off to a fast start, quickly establishing the kind of healthy, vigorous growing stand so necessary for good pasture. Its upright growth habit helps provide maximum available grazing.

And because 2157 has proven to be such a good yielder, you can count on it to deliver top-quality wheat at season's end.

If pasture is part of your wheat program, new 2157 should be, too.

New Wheat Variety 2157

Superior Yield • Excellent Standability • Outstanding Grazing

"When I pulled my combine into the field, I knew for sure this wasn't an ordinary wheat crop."

"That 2157 was standing out there good and straight. And when I moved down the rows, I could hear the cylinders running full."

Farmers who've seen this impressive new high yielding variety like its standability and tolerance to dry growing periods and severe weather. It has excellent resistance to leaf rust, stem rust, fungal leaf blights, soil borne mosaic virus and the Hessian fly.

In side-by-side comparisons, Pioneer® brand 2157 wheat has consistently out-yielded other popular varieties. And it has shown consistently high test weights.

Wendell Barber Receives Award

Wendell Barber, administrator of Anson General Hospital, Anson has been named recipient of the 20th Annual Earl M. Collier Award for Distinguished Hospital Administration. The announcement was made June 6, during closing ceremonies of the Texas Hospital Association (THA) 55th Annual Convention and Exhibit Show in San Antonio.

Barber has been administrator of the Anson hospital since April 1952, six months before the hospital actually opened its doors. He has continued in that position for the past 32 years, making him the hospital's only chief executive officer in its history.

In making the presentation, Outgoing THA Chairman Jerry A. Howard, FACHA, said, "For over three decades this man has labored in and administered the hospital he equipped and opened. His love affair was with his small community and his small hospital, and the outpouring of appreciation and gratitude from his friends and neighbors signifies an effective lifetime of 'doing unto others'."

Barber became interested in hospital administration while working in Hendrick Medical Center, Abilene, and attending Hardin-Simmons University. He entered Hardin-Simmons after five years of service in the medical corps of the Air Force, and graduated with a bachelor of science in 1948. Additional training was received through Trinity University's health care administration graduate program.

He has been an active member of THA for many years and has served on several committees as well as serving as southwest area chairman of THA District II, and a member and alternate to the THA House of Delegates. In 1981, he was president of the Northwest Texas Hospital Association. In June 1983 Barber was made a lifetime honorary member of that group.

Barber has also been active in local civic groups, and is a former recipient of the Anson Chamber of Commerce Outstanding Citizen Award.

The Collier Award was established in 1965 in honor of its first recipient Earl M. Collier, who served for 41 years as chief executive officer of Hendrick Medical Center in Abilene. It is the highest honor the Association bestows, and has become a symbol of excellence for hospital administrators throughout the state.

Sanders Receives Air Force Commission

Four years of rigorous physical and mental training and strenuous professional development and dedication culminated for Cadet Larry Keith Sanders when he received his commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Air Force on Wednesday, May 30. Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sanders of Weinert, is a graduate of Munday High School.

Graduation festivities at the USAF Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., began on Tuesday, May 29, when all 4,500 cadets marched on the academy parade grounds in an impressive military formation. The drum and bugle corps performed, and an air show of parachute precision jumping and gliders was executed.

After lunch, Cadet Sanders guided a group of his friends and relatives through the

Also attending the dinner were Cadet Sanders' sponsor, Major and Mrs. David Lemak and children, Laura and Alexandra.

The commissioning ceremony for members of the 32nd Squadron was held at midnight. Welcoming guests was the squadron's officer commander, Major Patrick K. Garvey. The cadets were administered their oath of office by their sponsors, and each chose someone to remove their old bars and pin on the new insignia. Cadet Sanders' parents had the honor of pinning lieutenant's bars on their son. General Robert Stone commissioned the new officers.

Major Garvey hosted a reception for the 32nd Squadron following the commissioning ceremony.

President Ronald Reagan delivered the commencement address at Falcon Stadium on Wednesday morning after the traditional march by the 997 graduating cadets. Each cadet shook hands with the President as they received their diplomas, and after the final name was called the new officers tossed their hats high in the air as the USAF Thunderbirds flew over the stadium.

Cadet Sanders graduated in the top 15% of his class and received a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering. He chose Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock for his flight training and will report there July 16 for a year of classes. After graduation the new Lt. Sanders and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sanders of Weinert, spent several days at Yellowstone National Park. He plans to vacation in Hawaii with some of his classmates before reporting to Reese AFB.

Attending the graduation ceremony in Colorado Springs were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sanders, Gregg, Kent and Kole, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sanders and Mr. and Mrs.

John Mayfield, all of Weinert; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Duward Campbell and Kristen, and Klavs Neilson, a foreign exchange student from Denmark, all of Haskell; and Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Cobb, their grandson, Kevin Cobb, and a friend, John Walker, of Stamford.
