Thirty-Seven Graduate In One Hundredth Commencement

BY JANET WILKE

In a flurry of flying mortarboards, the centennial class of Haskell High School finished their high school days, Thursday night, at the First Baptist Church service.

The 37 graduates were admonished by their highest student, Holli High, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle High, to not sit back and let the world pass them by. Miss High had a four year average as valedictorian of 96.50.

Salutatorian was Joey Kimbrough, whose four year average was 94.6. He is the son of Joe Kimbrough of Haskell and Mrs. Linda Flippen of Wichita Falls. He expressed his appreciation to the parents for all of their love and support throughout the years.

The senior girls sang a special number, "The Wind Beneath My Wings", which was dedicated to all of the parents of the graduating class.

The entire class joined in on the musical number, "Up Where We Belong," and also sang the School Song for one last time together.

Six other students graduating with honors included: Shane Hadaway with a four year average of 93.86; Holly McBroom, 93.10; Harry Henry, 91.95; Denise Burris, 91.61; David Adams, 91.09; and Lorry Geilhausen, 90.00.

Several graduates receiving scholarships included: Holly McBroom, Shane Hadaway, and Lorry Geilhausen, from Angelo State; Holli High and Joey Kimbrough from Texas Tech; Deborah Rodriguez from Tarleton State; and Kim Lanier from West Texas State.

Joey Kimbrough also received a $8,000 scholarship from the Houston Livestock Show Association.

Miss High was the recipient of a Texas State scholarship, for being named the highest student in the class, and the scholarship can be used at any state-funded college or university.

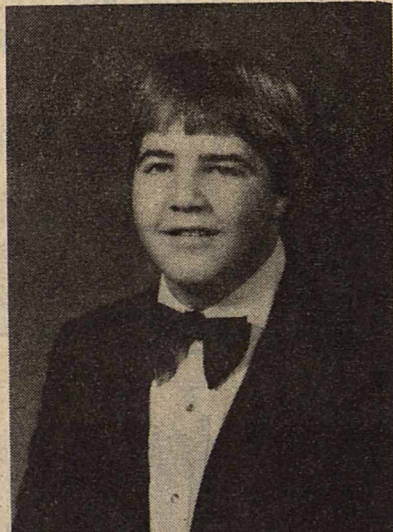

Jennifer Davis received an award from the American Legion and the presentation was made by Bud Herren.

Nancy Toliver of the Progressive Study Club presented Jimmy Burson with their club's award.

Bob Brandon presented Lorry Geilhausen with the award from the Rotary Club, and the recipient of the Haskell Mattson Homecoming Association award was Shane Hadaway. This presentation was made by Dr. Ed Harris.

Civic Center Benefit Should Net About $5,000

Approximately 600 persons attended the Civic Center benefit, last Friday night, and according to R.C. Couch, Jr., the benefit should net profits in the range of $5,000 after the expenses are paid.

The directors and officers of the Civic Center board of directors would like to thank everyone who helped with the benefit in whatever way they helped. Because of the length of the list of all those people who worked, made donations, etc., the officers and directors feel that the list would be too lengthy to publish and that names might be inadvertently left out, but they do wish to extend a sincere thanks to all who worked.

Couch said that approximately $200,000 has been spent on the Civic Center to date, and that there is some $50-$75,000 more to go before the complex is ready.

The officers and directors are hoping that the Civic Center will be ready by Homecoming 1985.

With the money made from the benefit, the insulation will be paid for.

The next step in the Civic Center construction is the work on the partitions and ceilings. The ceiling work will cost in the range of $5,000.

Neely Given Probated Term

BY JANET WILKE

Billy Wayne Neely, was found guilty, Wednesday, May 22 of the voluntary manslaughter of Clarence "Son" Webb. The eight woman-four man jury sentenced the 42 year old man to a ten year probated term, and assessed him with a $10,000 fine.

Neely was originally brought to court on charges of murder in connection with the case, but when the jury handed down the verdict at 12:45 p.m. Wednesday, they stated they had found the defendant guilty of manslaughter. At 4:55 p.m., the sentence was handed down by the jury, and read by presiding judge, Wayland Holt.

The lesser voluntary manslaughter charge was one of the options outlined in the trial, according to prosecutor John Fouts. He said, however, that he had always pushed for the murder conviction while Lubbock attorney Travis Shelton, who was Neely's lawyer, maintained throughout the case that the defendant was only acting in self-defense.

The ten year sentence assessed Neely is the maximum sentence that can be probated. A sentence exceeding that amount of time would require that the defendant serve time in prison.

The law states that for conviction on the charge of voluntary manslaughter, the defendant can receive from 2-20 years in prison and can be assessed up to $10,000 in fines or both.

When the verdict and the sentence were read Neely showed no emotion.

Serving as the jury for the two week long trial were foreman Burl Medford, Elsie Grand, Doris Holcomb, Winona Mullino, Amanda Teichleman, Glenda Brothers, Buddy Lane, John M. Davis, Nancy Matthews, Patsy Iley, Frieda Fry, and Ott Bray.

Clean Up Week Set June 3-8 For Haskell

The Haskell City Council, Haskell County Commissioners, and the Haskell Beautification Council are proclaiming June 3-8 as Haskell Clean Up Week.

Local residents are asked to pick up, clean up, and put up any unsightly items around their property and/or neighborhoods.

On Monday, the city and county will be running trash trucks to pick up any large items such as old appliances, gasoline tanks, tires, etc., which cannot be placed into the dumpsters. In order to do this, the county and city ask that all citizens help by placing all of the unwanted items in the alleyways.

The dumpster truck will be operating twice during the week, making runs all week, picking up overloaded dumpsters.

If there is a dumpster in need of dumping because it is filled, call the city hall to make arrangements.

Citizens are asked to please not put large tree limbs, rocks, or building materials into the dumpsters, as this causes too much stress on the dumping mechanism on the truck. These trucks are designed to dump an average amount of weight that regular garbage would cause, but not designed to dump dumpsters filled with rocks, tires, etc.

According to City Manager Bob Baker, the city will be enforcing the weed ordinance following the Clean Up Week efforts.

Notices will be sent to those who are in violation of the city's weed ordinance, which calls for the removal of any materials which might be considered a fire hazard such as old paper, trash, weeds, etc.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Citizens of Haskell are proud of their community, and WHEREAS, there is a need to make a concentrated effort to clean up our City, and

WHEREAS, the Haskell County Commissioners have stated they will help in this effort, and

WHEREAS, the Haskell City Council has instructed all City Employees to make a special effort to clean the City,

NOW THEREFORE, I Abe Turner, Mayor of the City of Haskell, Texas do hereby proclaim the week of June 3 through June 7, 1985 as Cleanup Week in the City of Haskell and encourage all citizens to participate and make Haskell a more beautiful place to live.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL, THIS THE 28TH DAY OF MAY, 1985.

together." Also, they learn signs of good health, food needs, food buying, preparation and serving, they said.

Child Welfare Board Hears David Smith

David Smith, director of the Headstream Health Clinic, was guest speaker at the May 21, 1985 meeting of the Haskell County Child Welfare Board. Mr. Smith described in details the dynamics involved in an unhealthy family situation from the viewpoint of the child who is or has been abused and neglected. Such a child does not know who he is, is full of frustration, lives in a chaotic world of mistrust, has a poor self-image, poor social skills, and poor interaction skills. A feeling of isolation and anger is often carried into adulthood. Violence breeds violence, abuse breeds abuse, and alcoholism becomes a major factor in the family unit. Mr. Smith's conclusion was the hope that a good strong outside force could break the cycle. He presented a copy of a poem, "Please Hear What I'm Not Saying" to each one present.

Mrs. Linda Haynes reported on some recent events. Mrs. Amelia Perry will represent HCCWB at regional meeting May 22, 1985.

"How to Live the Victorious Christian Life", a video seminar by Dr. Bill Gillham, will be shown for the next 11 weeks, at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday evening, in lieu of the Sunday evening worship services.

Dr. Gillham and his wife, Anabel, are the creators of the series, and they are Christian Counselors in Fort Worth.

According to Feemster, this series is designed to teach practical illustrations of Biblical truths.

"It is a seminar in growing, in discipleship, to help Christians mature in Christ, and experience consistent victory in everyday living," commented Feemster.

It is a family-oriented series, and some of the videos include "My Credentials", "Structuring of the Flesh", "Jesus Loves Me", "The Role in Marriage", "My True Identity", "Dealing With Emotions", "How to Give a Burden to the Lord," "One Plus One Plus One Equals One", "What is God Up to In My Life?"

A nursery will be provided, and there is no charge for the seminar. The public is invited to attend. The series will be held in the new fellowship hall of the church.

DIAMOND AND THE ROUGH!
There are two articles for sale on a table before you. Both are priced the same - $100. One is a sooty lump of black coal; the other a sparkling diamond of dazzling beauty. Which would you choose in exchange for your $100?
Consider the same question again, worded differently. You're buying a home and have a choice of two, equal in size and location, and priced exactly the same. The first seems lonesome, uncaared for, and appears to be occupied only as protection from the weather. The untrimmed yard leading to a smudged front door doesn't begin to tell the story. Beyond lies a collection of ignored pleas for attention - a broken switch plate, uncaulked bathtub, stained carpet and kitchen sink drowning in dirty dishes.
Your other choice looks like a model home, outfitted for a royal reception. With hedges and lawn neatly manicured, the sparkling entrance seems to bid you "Welcome!". Then, once inside, you want to stay forever. Your senses are bombarded by the look and smell of springtime in the bright kitchen, the glow of freshly painted walls and woodwork, and an overall abundance of old-fashioned pride of ownership.
As a buyer (with both homes priced equally) which would you choose and why? It's not hard to tell the difference between the wise and not-so-wise sellers, is it?

Memories Remain After School Closes

BY JANET WILKE

With the 1985 commencement exercises here on Friday night, there will have been 55 such graduations at Old Glory High School, but this one may be the most significant in the school's history because it is the last. Old Glory will close their school after the current school term is over. With its ten teachers and 33 students, a page of educational history will finish when the rural school closes.

The school was a consolidation of the smaller, country schools of Hooker, New Hope, and Old Brandenburg, in 1930, then Tonk Creek, in 1932. In 1920, the Mount Zion school had already consolidated with Old Glory. A 1935 graduate of the school, and also a historian on the subject of the Old Glory school, Mrs. Bernice White, said that at one point, shortly after all of the consolidations took place, there were as many as 200 students attending school at Old Glory. But, in 1955, the enrollment dropped below 100 for the first time since the consolidations took place, then the decline from there began until the school reached the number it now has.

There have been several people who now live in Haskell who attended school at Old Glory from one time or another. Much of their sentiment is the same...sadness. Florence Peden: "I am very sad about the school closing. The community was very school-oriented." Mavis Middleton: "I suppose it has to be done. I went there for two years (junior and senior years of high school), and I enjoyed the school and the people of Old Glory. It is time changes were being made, I guess, but it is hard to accept."

Jerry Ann Harris: "I hate to see it close. We had a good time when I was going to school there, I had nine in my senior class. There are a lot of advantages that small schools can offer the kids that bigger school will never be able to."

Betty Weise: "I went to Old Glory school for 12 years. In fact, all of my brothers and sisters went to school there. It is pretty sad, and I hate to see it close but I guess they can't keep it open. Not much will be left at Old Glory after the school is gone."

Alene Collins: "I went to Old Glory for 12 years, and I don't want to see it close. I know that there are not many children going out there now. The four of us (her brothers and sisters) all graduated from there."

Mary Jennings: "When a community loses its school, it is always sad to see. It was inevitable I guess. Small schools offer a lot to the kids and the kids can excel in all fields because they know they have to in order for the school to continue on. There is a better one-to-one relationship between the students and the teachers in a small school like Old Glory."

According to superintendent of schools at Old Glory, Tommy Blackshear, some of the students will attend classes next year in Rule, but most of the students will be bused into Aspermont. This of course would depend upon where the student lives.

Mrs. White recalled that during the many years the school had been in existence, there had been many moments of high glory.

Old Glory had a reputation of having some fine basketball teams, state-winning tennis players and top-knotch UIL competitors in years past.

"We have had doctors, civil engineers, lawyers, counselors, teachers, and even newspaper editors graduate from Old Glory," Mrs. White recalled.

"It will be leaving a big void in this community when the school closes.

There is hope that the cafeteria will remain open, and perhaps, in years to come, the school building will be partially made into a community center."

Mrs. White said that each of the Old Glory students had his own opinion about the school's closing.

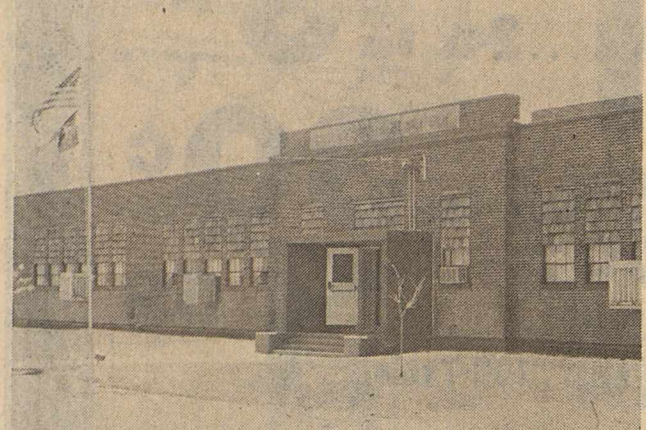

"Some will be glad to be able to attend a bigger school, but others are just not too sure."

The last commencement exercises for the school will be held this Friday night, May 31, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

A small wonder in the music world is a violin believed to be the smallest ever made. Amazingly, though it is just two inches long and fits in the palm of the hand, it is fully playable.

PARTNERSHIP, YES OR NO?

Before you jump into a business partnership, consider the pros and cons. Partnerships include joint ventures of all kinds, including closely-held corporations where two or more parties are involved.

There seem to be only two good reasons for having a partner. The most common reason is money. Some business ventures simply take more money than one individual can muster. The second reason, technical expertise, is still related to reason number one. If I need certain technical talent in my business and cannot afford to hire it, I may need to take that person on as a partner.

Since many small businesses will never be profitable enough to justify two owners, it would be nice to avoid the partnership at the outset.

All partnerships are destined to terminate. Although some partnerships survive until one partner's retirement, most partnerships fail within a year or two. Ninety-five out of a hundred new businesses fail within the first five years. The mortality rate for partnerships is even greater.

If a partnership can't be avoided, make sure your partnership agreement covers what will happen when the partnership terminates.

Since many partnership terminations take place under hostile conditions, the partnership agreement should be well written. Your attorney has a good checklist of the provisions which should be spelled out in your partnership agreement.

People entering a business partnership are too amiable to see the trouble spots ahead. They need a devil's advocate when writing their partnership agreement and should seek professional assistance.

WTU Gets New Terminal In Haskell Office

Haskell's West Texas Utilities company office has a new addition to the staff...an IBM computer and printer.

According to Sue Pate, office manager for the company, the new terminal was installed in the Haskell office Tuesday, May 22, and will actually be interfaced with the computers in the Abilene office by June 10.

At the present time, the terminal is in the "test" phase, and WTU is not able to put any data in. However, when the system is finally on line, it will be able to put in data as well as take data out of the Abilene system.

The employees of the Haskell office will train in Stamford for a while in order to become accustomed to the language of the computer.

According to Ms. Pate, the new system will help to eliminate wasted time that it takes for paperwork to reach Abilene, then for the reply to be received back here by mail.

"We now have access to information at our fingertips which before took two days to get," Ms. Pate said.

Later, it is planned for the Haskell terminal to be integrated into the Central and Southwest systems computers in Dallas.

There is no problem in the area of customer service from the installation of the computers that can be foreseen. The services that his computer will provide will offer better customer service because of more office efficiency.

Ms. Pate also said that the addition of the data processing equipment will help hold down costs instead of driving them up, so the consumer will not be paying more, but getting more for his money.

Gallup Polls Indicate Agriculture Favored

A nationwide poll, conducted recently by the Gallup organization, shows that most Americans have varied, but favorable, attitudes toward agriculture.

The findings were revealed to members of the Congressional Ag Forum (CAF) in a special briefing one hour before the results were released nationally. Congressman Charles Stenholm of Texas, chairman of the group, moderated the meeting, where Gov. Ted Schwinden of Montana and Gov. John Evans of Idaho presented the poll.

Among the findings in the poll were:

- * Americans think farmers are hard workers and are underpaid;

- * Three-quarters of Americans believe government assistance to farmers should be maintained, but they disagree which form that assistance should take;

- * Although they have favorable attitudes toward farmers, few people would pick agriculture as a job for themselves or their children. Only truck driving ranks lower than farming as an occupation parents want their children to pursue;

* Thirty percent believed the average farmer makes more money than they do, although they greatly overestimated the average farm income. The average guess for a farmer's income was $24,000, more than double the actual $11,749.

"These results show that many people in the urban areas empathize with the plight of the American farmer," Congressman Stenholm said.

"Furthermore, the presentation of these findings, through this CAF meeting, has helped educate urban members about their constituents' attitudes."

Congressman Stenholm founded the Forum to facilitate open discussions on issues pertinent to agricultural policy. A member of the House Agriculture Committee, Stenholm added, "I believe the Forum has proven very effective in focusing attention on the problems inherent in our food production system, which affect farmers and consumers alike."

Derinda Griffis Larned, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Griffis of Weinert, was named to the Midwestern State University Dean's list recently.

To be named to the honor, a student must maintain a "A" average while taking 15 semester hours.

Mrs. Larned is the wife of Johnny Larned, and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. John Larned of Haskell.

Seven Haskell students were among the 145 graduates of Western Texas College receiving associate degrees in commencement exercises on May 10.

Sandra Louise Potts of Haskell was among 20 students receiving certificates of technology in cosmetology.

Receiving the Associate in Arts degree were Thula R. Perry, Toby Villa, Rinette Vincent and Gena Whitaker. Ms. Perry was graduated magna cum laude with a grade point average of 3.81. Ms. Vincent was graduated cum laude with a grade point average of 3.53. She was also a member of Phi Theta Kappa, a national honor fraternity for students in junior colleges.

Receiving the Associate in Applied Science degree were Michael E. Bartley, Mark Franklin Bailey and Tina Gail Morris. Bailey was a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

Zona C. Mueller of Haskell and Angela Carroll of Weinert have been named to the Merit List for the 1985 spring semester at Western Texas College.

Merit List students must have a grade point of 3.5 or higher while enrolled for at least eight but fewer than 15 hours of college credit work.

Mike Cox, senior accounting major at Angelo State University has qualified for the honor roll with a 4 grade point average on 18 hours for the spring semester 1985. Mike is married to the former Tami Tankersley of Haskell.

877F Outstanding New Sorghum-Sudangrass Hybrid

Premium quality sorghum-sudangrass hybrid adapted to all areas of the Southwest for hay, pasture, greenchop or silage. Small, sweet stems with broad, dark green leaves produce outstanding yields. Flexible stems provide excellent standability plus outstanding baling qualities. Excellent drought tolerance and regrowth. Better disease resistance than 988, including excellent downy mildew resistance (Pathotypes 1 & 2). For hay, greenchop or silage production, broadcast or drill in narrow rows at higher populations to maximize forage yields and minimize stem size. For pasture, plant in 30" to 40" rows...your cattle will tend to walk on unplanted area between rows and field loss will be reduced.

With our multi-step wheat conditioning process.

Bring your harvested wheat to Bronco Seed Company in Stamford for our top quality conditioning process.

First, our air screen machine removes weed seeds, trash, underdeveloped and oversized seeds and cracked or broken seeds.

Quality continues as our three indent cylinders separate the wild oats from the good seed by length sizing.

For final finishing and improvement of germination, our gravity table separates immature, lightweight seed from mature, heavy seed to improve seed vigor.

We can treat your wheat seed with Vitavax-200, the systemic fungicide that controls loose smut, bunt, seed rots and seedling diseases. Since Vitavax is patented as a growth stimulant, you should be able to graze your cattle earlier because Vitavax-200 treated wheat normally emerges faster and shows more vigorous growth.

And, we offer you bulk grain storage before cleaning, and bag seed storage after cleaning.

On Saturday May 18 at 6:00 a.m. the 1985 Paint Creek Senior Class journeyed by bus to the Dallas-Ft. Worth Airport to begin their senior trip. Their destination—Honolulu, Hawaii. The eight seniors going were Luann Cockerell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cockerell, Missy Briscoe daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Briscoe, Gina Kykendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kykendall, Melissa Cockerell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Cockerell, Greg Rowland son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rowland, Rob Mickler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mickler, Steve Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Simmons, and Lewis Lacey, son of Mrs. Bettye Lacey. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Randy Stone. Upon arrival at the Honolulu airport the seniors were given a lei greeting, then taken to their hotel on Waikiki Beach. One of the most colorful places visited by the seniors was the Polynesian Cultural Center. Here the seniors visited all seven recreated villages of Ploynesia. Also offered was a tour of Brigham Young University of Hawaii. After eating a buffet dinner they were entertained by a spectacular evening show called "This Is Polynesia," with a cast of 150 singers, dancers, and musicians. All seniors enjoyed Paradise Cove Luau where the menu included such food as kalua pig (that's the Hawaiian roasted pig cooked in a pit covered with ti leaves and dirt). Many seniors enjoyed the variety of dinner shows including Tavana's Polynesian Dinner Show where they saw hula dancers and fire eaters. Another show featured the king of Hawaiian entertainment Don Ho. For a romantic dinner evening, some enjoyed the Cruise Ship Pearl Kai, a 110 foot two-decker ship. It featured Iva Kinimaka and his Polynesian Revue while cruising along the beautiful Waikiki shoreline. One day some seniors flew to the neighbor island They viewed the Haleakala Volcano Crater and then a shopping spree in the city of Lahaina. Tours that were taken included the Macademia Nut Factory where they learned how the nuts are grown, harvested, and processed. At the end of the tour, they were treated to some delicious chocolate covered nuts. Hilo Hatties, one of Hawaii oldest and largest garment factories, was toured and they watched muumuus being made and the 15 different ways it can be worn. The seniors toured the U.S.S. Arizona Memorial, Pearl Harbor. A film was viewed showing the actual Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. The seniors also took a tour of their own by renting
