Each applicant must present identification before receiving commodities.

They will be distributed at the Experienced Citizen Center, from 8 to 9 a.m. for those 60 years and older, and from 9 to 10 a.m. for those 59 years and younger.

Questions concerning the program may be answered by calling the Aspermont Small Business Development Center, 989-3445.

Ms. Dudley said the Council of Governments works closely with both employers and prospective employees in an attempt to find employment for those wishing jobs.

Tickets to the Progressive Study Club's chicken spaghetti supper are now available.

The supper will be from 5 to 7 p.m. Friday, Oct. 25, the evening of the Haskell-Stamford football game.

Tickets, priced at $4 each, are available from Progressive Study Club members and from Mrs. Sandy Horton at Sears.

Haskell-Hamlin Game Opens Dist.

Haskell's murderous football schedule continues this Friday when the Indians travel to Hamlin to open their district 6-AA campaign.

The Pied Pipers of Hamlin are 5-0 for the season, and ranked second behind Electra among the state's Class AA teams.

The Indians are exactly opposite, being 0-5 in non-district play.

While Coach Harold Hill's Warriors are winless to date, there's been little to be ashamed of. They opened their season with a loss to defending state Class A champion and No. 1 rated Munday, then lost to top-rated Class AA Electra.

The next loss was to a very good Seymour team, followed by a narrow loss to Quanah and last week's defeat at the hands of Class AAA Iowa Park.

Friday's game in Hamlin, which starts at 8 p.m., will be the third straight road contest for the Indians.

They return home next week to play Rotan and the following week they will host Stamford before closing the 1985 season with games at Hawley and Anson.

Hamlin, Rotan, Stamford, Hawley and Anson all are district 6-AA opponents.

Local Needy Object Of Crisis Center

The Haskell Ministerial Alliance's Crisis Center has helped 10 families since it was established last spring.

Purpose of the center is to offer assistance to local people who have an immediate crisis. Money given to these people has gone for food, clothing, utility bills and similar necessities. One family was helped to get a car repaired so the wage earner could get to work.

Average assistance to recipients so far has been about $25.

The Rev. Jimmy Hopper, co-pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, explains that funds are not intended for on-going living expenses, but simply to help someone overcome a temporary crisis.

More funds are needed, Hopper said, so the center can build up an account which will allow it to cope with more widespread crises. Those wishing to contribute to the fund may do so through their own churches.

It was pointed out that Crisis Center funds are different from the Transient Fund which the Alliance has had for the past two years. That fund is used to assist transients while Crisis Center money goes to local people.

New Livestock Barn Memorial To Thomas

Erection of a new livestock barn at the Haskell County Fairgrounds as a memorial to C.A. (Clifford) Thomas Jr., is expected to begin this week.

Through pledges, donations and contributions of the Thomas family, about $7,300 has been raised, says County Agent Max Stapleton.

This will be enough to erect the steel building, said Stapleton, but another $1,200 is needed for the finishing of the structure. Contributions may be made at Haskell National Bank or to Stapleton or Duane Gilly, Haskell High School vocational agriculture instructor.

The 50x75-foot covered building will include a wash rack, stalls and other features.

Thomas, who died in January, was a long-time supporter of youth livestock activities. A former president of the Haskell County Livestock Assn., he was a big supporter of the Junior Livestock Show and Sale and the Haskell County Fair.

City Honors Employee For Cost-Saving Effort

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

City water superintendent, Thomas Rodriguez received a commendation and a $500 cash award from the City Council Tuesday night in recognition of his efforts in curtailing losses of the water department.

Rodriguez has been working for the past two or three months to find out why a large discrepancy existed between the amount of water the city bought and the amount it billed to customers.

City Administrator Robert Baker told councilmen that losses averaged more than 38 percent per month during the nine months through June, but have been reduced to about 21 percent for the months of July, August and September. The savings, he said could mean up to $2,000 per month for the city.

Probable cause of the huge losses was a defective check valve which allowed water to circulate and come back through the master meter a second time.

Mayor Abe Turner expressed the opinion that Rodriguez typifies a group of outstanding city employees who often go beyond the call of duty. He said he would like to see other employees recognized for their service to the city and hopes that the city will commend them and reward them when they produce money-saving ideas and services.

The Council also passed a resolution supporting the passage of constitutional amendments 1 and 2 in the Nov. 5 election. Dealing with water, these amendments set up funds from which cities can borrow money at low interest rates for water projects.

Baker reported that the State Health Department has requested that the swimming pool be equipped with a filtration system. He said the cost of meeting this requirement would be $60,000 to $75,000, with the unit alone costing $30,000.

He said he did not know where the money would come from. There is a possibility, he said, that matching funds could be made available from the Parks and Wildlife Commission. Mayor Turner requested the administrator to look further into the matter and determine if the city can meet the requirements at a lesser cost.

The Council took no action on establishing a charge for building permits. Baker gave some figures on building permit costs of neighboring cities, but councilmen, without voting, indicated a willingness to go along with the no-charge policy of the past for the present time. A state-required plumbing ordinance which the City is expected to formulate and pass in the near future may force them to take another look at the building permit charge, since the ordinance is likely to increase the city's expenses of inspecting and overseeing compliance with the ordinance's specifications.

Baker told councilmen that the State Highway Department will put up "No Parking" signs on a portion

Conservationist Joins Local Staff

Alfons P. Kolar Jr. reported to the Haskell field office of the Soil Conservation Service last week.

Kolar started to work with the Soil Conservation Service three years ago as a soil conservationist trainee in Gainesville. After four months there, he was transferred to Sherman where he was a soil conservationist for the past two years and nine months.

The new Haskell resident was born and reared in Hill County. He attended Hill Junior College in Hillsboro and then completed his studies at Tarleton State University in Stephenville.

HHS Juniors Take State-Required Tests

Most Haskell High School juniors seemed to feel "confident" after taking the TEAMS test last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Passing the Texas Educational Assessment of Minimum Skills is a requirement for graduation from any state public school starting in 1987.

Juniors took the language arts portion of the test Tuesday and the math portion Wednesday.

Although most students felt pretty good about passing the test, there were quite a few who did not like the idea of taking it. The Haskell High School newspaper, "The War Whoop," editorialized:

"In a school like Haskell, there is little chance of someone graduating without his basic skills. The teachers make certain every student understands the basic concepts of a particular class...."

"If the state is so concerned about our educations, why don't they send someone to inspect the schools to see if more teachers, better materials or anything else is needed?"

"Students are having to take tests to graduate, teachers are having to take them to teach; maybe legislators should have to take them to legislate."

First Cotton Ginned Here

Bailey Tolliver brought in four bales of cotton Friday, the first cotton ginned in Haskell in the 1985 crop.

Farmers Co-op Gin #1 ginned the cotton.

The bales weighed 485, 509, 448 and 491 pounds and the turnout was 23.1 said Jimmy Owens, gin manager.

The $7.50 ticket will cover a full meal of baked ham, new potatoes

LIVESTOCK BARN

A new 50x75-foot livestock barn will be erected at this site at the Haskell County Fairgrounds. The building, a memorial to the late C. A. Weinert Home Extension Club Meets

The Weinert Home Extension Club entertained its neighbor, the Josselet Club, with a salad luncheon in the home of Betty Sanders.

Alice Yates gave the invocation. After the luncheon, Myrtle Phemister led the group in some games and awarded prizes to the winners.

For a special treat, Betty Sanders gave the history of some Texas Indians, and a detailed account of the Lipan tribe. She was dressed in her Indian costume and showed some artifacts found on their farm by her husband, R.S. Sanders.

She said the Lipans were meek people and eventually were deleted entirely. When a child was born, it was held to the north, the east, the south and to the west to introduce it to the world and as a dedication ceremony to the gods.

The tribe was very superstitious and saw meaning in signs and events. They were not a warring people and shunned trouble as much as possible.

After the program, the Weinert Club convened for a business meeting. Eight members answered roll call with "A Hint From Heloise" (a household hint).

In the absence of Cordie Cunningham, who is ill, Alice Yates gave the Council report. She also gave the 4-H report and revealed that Laurie Hester had won the F.W. Martin award.

Faye Jetton reported that it is time to plan for a fund drive for the Cystic-Fibrosis Foundation. The club voted to donate $50 instead of have a drive.

It was reported that the quilt which the club makes annually for the West Texas Rehab Center is ready and will be given for the auction to be held in January. The club will submit a $250 bid on the quilt to assure it will bring a good donation for the center.

The club is happy to submit the name of Agnes Winchester as its nominee for Outstanding Club Woman of the Year. Mrs. Winchester has been an active club woman for many years and has served in every capacity and office in club and council.

As the last item of business, officers for 1986 were elected. They are: Alice Yates, president; Betty Sanders, vice president; Faye Jetton, secretary-treasurer; Cordie Cunningham, council delegate; Laverne Mayfield, alternate delegate; Myrtle Phemister, reporter; and Henrietta Rueffer, parliamentarian.

Next meeting of the club will be Nov. 4 in the home of Agnes Winchester.

Other dates to remember are the council meeting Oct. 16 and the Lone Star Gas Christmas party Oct. 29.

Thought for the day: "The smallest good deed is better than the greatest intention."

MR. AND MRS. JIMMY RAY STRICKLAND would like to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Amanda Carol Mathis, to Ronny Joe Tekell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adron Tekell of Bynum. The bride-elect is a 1985 graduate of Hillsboro High School. She is presently attending 4-C Business College and is employed by Hauco Council of Camp Fire in Waco. The future bridegroom is a 1983 graduate of Bynum High School and is employed by Texas Power & Light of Waco. The couple plans to be married at 6:00 p.m., Saturday, November 9, at Walnut Street Baptist Church in Hillsboro. The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Frazier, and great-granddaughter of Mrs. Maude Rhoads all of Haskell.

New Vaccine Available

A new vaccine prevents children between the ages of two and five years from developing meningitis and other diseases caused by Haemophilus influenzae, type B bacteria (HIB). This childhood disease vaccine is the first new immunization recommended for use in children over 18 months, according to the Texas Medical Association.

Meningitis is a contagious infection of the membranes that cover the brain and spinal cord.

Nationally, about 10,000 children under the age of five develop meningitis from HIB each year. Most cases of bacterial meningitis are detected early, and recovery is complete, but between 5 and 10 percent of meningitis cases are fatal.

Symptoms of meningitis in a child include fever, intense headache, nausea, and often vomiting. The child's neck is held stiffly, or even arched backwards, and attempts to bend the head forward will be resisted. The child becomes unusually quiet and withdrawn, and turns away or tries to shield the eyes from bright lights.

The bacteria that cause meningitis live in children's mouths and noses. They are spread through droplets, like colds, but most people exposed to the bacteria will not develop the disease.

Only about one child out of every 200 exposed to meningitis during the first five years of life will become sick. The rest develop a natural immunity to the disease, but there is no way of telling beforehand who will get sick and who will become immune.

That is why the new vaccine has become so important. It is the first time physicians have been able to gain some control of this condition.

The only serious limitation of the vaccine is that it is ineffective in children under the age of 18 months. New vaccines to protect this age group are being developed. In the meantime, vaccines for all two- to five-year-olds are recommended.

of US 277 which runs through the city and will then stripe the lanes of the highway, making it a four-lane thoroughfare.

In a related matter, the administrator said that City Policemen are lowering the tolerance for the 30-mile-per-hour speed limit through the city. This, he said, was initiated because of the fast trucks which come through town.

In other action Tuesday, the City Council.

•Voted against reimbursing Christine Greene for half the $197.50 she paid to have her property surveyed on East Avenue A. Mrs. Greene had said she had the property surveyed after the city tore up her sidewalk. Kenny Watson and Joe Cortez voted in favor of the motion, while Jerry Stocks and Darrell Smith voted against. To break the tie, the mayor sided with the negative voters.

•Agreed to replace Mrs. Greene's eight-foot sidewalk.

•Granted Mrs. Greene until Dec.

to remove a carport which extends over on to city property.

•Heard proposals for an employee health insurance program. Presenting proposals were Barbour Insurance of Iowa Park, Bud Lane of Haskell and Hartsfield Insurance of Haskell. Councilmen will meet at 5 p.m. next Tuesday to consider the proposals.

•Heard reports from Baker that the city had ended its fiscal year Sept. 30 with a $23,000 surplus; the floodway improvement project's estimated remaining expenses are $81,000 and HUD and Parks and Wildlife Commission available grant money is $66,000 (he said some trimming is being done to reduce the deficit); a permit has been obtained which increases allowable waste water disposal of up to 750,000 gallons a day (from 500,000); the new landfill, located two miles due east of the old one, will be operational by Nov. 1; an Arizonan has agreed to buy the old garbage truck for $14,000.

National 4-H Week

National 4-H Week, Oct. 6 to 12, reflects on the role of youth in shaping America.

Some 255 4-H members in Haskell County, part of the 180,000 members in Texas and nearly 4.5 million across the country, are participating in the week-long celebration using the theme "4-H For Youth, For America."

What we do for our youth today, we do for America Tomorrow," points out Lou Gilly and Max Stapleton, county extension agents.

"Through 4-H, young people can acquire knowledge and develop life skills that enable them to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of our society. Specifically, they learn good health habits, develop respect for themselves and others, explore career and leisure time opportunities, share responsibility for preserving the environment, learn how to use technology, and develop leadership and citizenship skills through participation in 4-H. And, that's something to celebrate.

"But 4-H is not only for youth," says the agents. "It's for adults, who as volunteer leaders can share their skills and expertise with young people. It's for families, who can participate in the fun and learning together. It's for the community, which benefits from the community service carried out by youth. And, it's for America, which benefits as a new cadre of leaders takes its place in our society."

It is through this network of volunteer leaders, state land-grant universities, state and local governments and the U.S. Department of Agriculture that 4-H has been able to stimulate youth to develop life skills.

Letters To The Editor

Neighborhood 'Terrorists'?

Editor: We read every day in the papers about terrorists in some part of the world. I wonder if the good people of Haskell realize that there is a group of "terrorists" living in our community.

They are only a small group but they are quite effective. These "terrorists" have moved into a quiet neighborhood of Christian families on the outer edge of our fair city. They do not use implements of violence such as guns to spread their "terrorism." Their weapons are loud motorcycles, cars and parties.

During the day they drive their vehicles up and down the streets and pretend they are good law-abiding citizens. Under the cover of darkness is when they begin their reign of "terror." The good people of my neighborhood are subjected to loud, piercing noises from their motorcycles and cars as they race up and down the streets. These noises are amplified by the stillness of the night. No one can sleep or get any rest.

I am concerned because the most obvious victim in my family to this form of "terrorism" is a small child. This child is afraid to go to bed at night because of the nightmares that are caused by these "terrorists." Even now, as I write this at 4 a.m. Sunday, they are still racing up and down the streets and highways.

You say we should call the law and have something done about it! Many of us have done so repeatedly. The response we get is the "terrorists" have to be caught in the act, which is impossible because they have scanners and know when the police are called. They race back to their houses and act peaceful until the police are gone. Then they start again. This goes on night after night. Week-ends are the worst. The only quietness we have had was when the leader of these "terrorists" left town a couple of weeks to work with a carnival.

My neighbors and I are weary. We hope that you good people of Haskell can come to our aid. Please help us before one of us takes the law into our own hands and we become terrorists just like the above mentioned.

Whatever Happened To Gertrude?

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

It was encouraging to notice an AP story the other day informing us that the good old-fashioned name "Mary" has reappeared as one of the 20 most popular names for newborn girls.

Topping the list is "Jennifer." Thank God, it's not Melissa—or Amber—or Melody.

Now I find nothing wrong with modern feminine names; I have three daughters myself and I tried to give them all modern names. But I'm afraid that if we don't get a sprinkling of the old names for girls, this country is going to go to the dogs.

The return of "Mary", I hope, is a signal that some new parents are returning to some of the old faithfuls.

With apologies to Shakespeare, names mean a lot—sometimes everything. Haven't you ever seen someone who had just the perfect name? I know a lot of people whose names fit them to a "T", who wouldn't even be the same people if they had other names.

Do you think for a minute that Lizzie Borden would have gained the notoriety she did if she had had one of those delicate monikers? Or what about Annie Oakley and Calamity Jane? Now them's names for you!

When the wagon master on the caravan west hollered out for the women to get their shootin' irons and join the men in the circle to ward off Indian attacks, he didn't yell for Melissa or Amber or Nicole. No siree. He wanted Mabel and Gertrude and Gladys.

No kids today are named Gertrude. Such a name my even be a stigma to a young person.

But maybe we don't need them. I haven't noticed any wild Indians lately.

Perhaps there were days long ago when people had the luxury and time to let the full names of organizations, businesses or phrases roll of their tongues in a complete and informative way. If there was such a time, it's long forgotten.

surprising that many Washington (D.C., that is) organizations have long names, but use the short form.

Newspapers also are guilty, not only for their quick acceptance of any acronym which will simplify headline-writing, but because of their eagerness to create acronyms for the same purpose. In fact, it may have all started with the establishment of the FBI, followed shortly by the depression's alphabetic organizations, when newspapers had to condense 40-letter names down to column-fitting size.

There's no stopping place. Today, we have groups which carefully select names whereby the first letter of each word, when strung together spell something, e.g. TOPS, NOW, COLA, AIDS.

And if that's not enough to make you MADD, a lot of businesses and organizations are converting their telephone numbers into words.

There's not anyone on earth to turn to for relief of the practice. I might just dial 463-4357 (GOD-HELP).

Thanks

The following letter was submitted by the Haskell High cheerleaders:

To Mr. and Mrs. Coyt Hix:

We would like to thank you for the use of your beautiful yard. Your gazebo and green grass made the perfect background for our pictures that were printed in the paper, programs and on the poster.

Thanks for showing your Indian support! We appreciate your kindness.

Salute To Firemen

This issue of The Haskell Free Press is dedicated to the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department and the 32 dedicated men who make it one of the finest such units in the country.

While these men are volunteers, they are true professionals in every sense of the word. In most cases, their training is equal to that of the best paid firemen. And unlike paid firemen, there is no monetary incentive—the sole incentive being their eagerness to serve their community.

A volunteer fireman doesn't just put out fires. While that is the purpose of the fire department, a fireman must undergo extensive training before he is certified as a fireman. And once that objective is obtained, he is in constant training for as long as he remains a member of the department. Not only does he give up many hours of his own time every month, he is on constant call in all kinds of weather, regardless of personal, family or professional desires or obligations. Furthermore, membership in the fire department often costs him money right out of his own pocket.

Each member of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department deserves the thanks of every citizen. Let's hope that you will pat your fireman friends on the back this week.

Indians Lose, 48-6

By Wendell Faught
The Indians dodged no bullets and the Hawks took no prisoners in Iowa Park Friday night as Haskell went down to its fifth straight defeat, 48-6.

It took the Hawks just a little over three minutes to light up the scoreboard, after which it was simply a question of how rudely the hosts would treat their visitors.

Iowa Park scored twice in each of the first two periods for a 28-0 halftime margin, and then came back after intermission with touchdowns on their first three possessions to take a commanding 48-0 lead.

Haskell averted a shut-out when sophomore Mark Young ran 25 yards for a touchdown with 44 seconds left in the game.

Iowa Park set the stage for the rout which was to follow on the opening kickoff when Ray Sefcik took the ball on his own 22, faked a handoff, and then gave the ball to Scott Weaver who ran all the way to the Indian 28 before being knocked out of bounds. Six plays later, Weaver went over from six yards out to stake his team to a 6-0 lead with 8:49 remaining in the opening period.

The Hawks made it 14-0 when Sefcik intercepted a Haskell pass on the Indian 7 and ran it in for a touchdown. Robbie Wilson ran over the extra points.

Midway through the second quarter, Sefcik passed seven yards to Steve Allen for another score immediately after the Hawks had recovered a Haskell fumble.

Four minutes deep into the second period, Randy Boutwell of Iowa Park scored from two yards out to climax a 67-yard drive which had started after a fumble recovery. A minute and a half later, Sefcik passed seven yards to Steve Allen for another score on the first play after the Hawks had recovered another fumble. Robert Wilson converted after each score.

Haskell's best first-half offensive effort came shortly after when Young picked up a blocked Haskell punt and raced 23 yards to the Iowa Park 46.

The Hawks opened the second-half scoring with a 30-yard pass and run play from Sefcik to Scott Davis, climaxing a 59-yard, five-play drive.

After Haskell's hopes were momentarily revitalized with a 35-yard pass from Felipe Arredondo to Ponciano Lopez as the Indians drove to the Iowa Park 18, an errant pitchout was recovered by the Hawks on the 26. In a methodical 12-yard drive, Iowa Park drove to its sixth touchdown, gained on a 22-yard run by Danny Forman.

Another pass interception by Iowa Park, this one at the Indian 34, set up its last touchdown 20 seconds before the end of the third period. Wilson ran 32 yards for the score.

On the second play of the fourth quarter, the Indians tried to set up the Hawks again, fumbling to them at the Haskell 14. But the Indian defense rose to the occasion and Iowa Park surrendered the ball four downs later at the 18, having lost four yards in the four plays.

Haskell put up a good threat in the final period. After again holding the Hawks on downs, Haskell took over on the Iowa Park 37. A 10-yard run by Arredondo put the ball on the 12, but two running plays resulted in a net loss of two to the 14. From there, Joel Torres attempted 31-yard field goal, but the kick was blocked.

Iowa Park's Scott Davis then ran 75 yards for an apparent touchdown, but the play was called back and the Hawks were penalized to the 20. Three plays later, they fumbled the ball to Haskell at the 21.

After Arredondo was dropped for a four-yard loss, Young clicked off his 25-yard beauty and the Indians were on the scoreboard. Torres' extra point attempt was blocked.

The singles event was led by Larry Rush of Guthrie with a perfect 50-50. Nutt also won Class B with a 48-50, while C.C. Calhoun of Aspermont tied with Lonnie Hodgkin of Haskell with a 46-50.

High Over-All (HOA) was Nutt with a score of 97-100.

8th Grade Gets Victory Over Hamlin

By Val King
The eighth-grade Warriors defeated the Hamlin Pied Pipers 14-8 last Thursday.

Although the Pipers got on the board first, it was the last score for the Pipers.

The rest of the half would prove to be a battle of defenses, but the Warriors took command by recovering a fumble.

During the third quarter, Rodney Johnson intercepted a pass and scored the Warriors' first touchdown on the return.

The Warrior offense had problems at first, but they eventually put together a drive, capped by a Salvador Rodriguez score.

The Warriors will face the Pied Pipers one more time on the Reservation at 6 p.m. Thursday.

7th Grade Nips Hamlin Pipers, 14-6

By Lance Hanson
The seventh-grade Warriors traveled to Hamlin Thursday to play the Pipers and thrashed them 14-6.

"The kids executed good both offensively and defensively," Coach George Martin said.

Jay Miller put the first points on the scoreboard with a 31-yard scamper up the middle. He also kicked the PAT.

Rusty Stocks added to the score with an interception and a 20-yard return for another touchdown. Miller kicked the PAT.

Offensively, the whole squad performed well. It includes Miller, David Foreman, Jason, Davis, Chad Gibson, Steve Quattlebaum, Chris Brown, Renee Garcia, Raul Chavez, Adam Coleman, Rod Jeter and Eric Harvey.

The defense played well too. Outstanding players were Miller, Chad Gibson, Domingo Gonzales, Craig Hanson and Stocks.

The Warriors will host the Pipers again at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Paint Creek Stays Unbeaten

A group of Eagles from McCaulley arrived at Paint Creek. They too had not lost a battle. Both the Pirates and the Eagles waited anxiously for time to make their first move. Then it began at 6 p.m.

The coin was tossed and the Eagles would take the first offensive. However, the defense of the Pirates prevailed and gained the right to try its first offense. It was successful.

From this point on, it became a hard fought physical battle. The Pirates' Troy Jeffercoat went out with a knee injury.

Then, Rodney Medford, with a back injury. Both players had contributed greatly. This forced the Pirates to adjust to new positions, which they did well.

At the end, the Pirates, with Jesse Rodriguez scoring four touchdowns with the help of William Greene, Grant Compton, Chris Cockrell, Garland Medford, Johnny Hoadley, and Kelly Williams, defeated the Eagles 26-25, for their fourth win in a row.

Rochester Homecoming Slated Over Weekend

Graduates of Rochester High School will celebrate homecoming Friday and Saturday. A downtown pep rally at 5 p.m. Friday will open the festivities. This will be followed by a supper meal at the new fire station at 5:30 p.m. and a musical program, following the meal.

Registration opens at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Several activities are planned during the morning. The Rochester-Weinert football game will begin at 2 p.m.

A homecoming program is planned for 5 p.m. Saturday and there will be a catered meal at 6 p.m. in the old gym.

There will be a reunion of all classes in the school cafeteria after the evening meal, followed by a number of individual class parties.

Boys Scout Ranks Grow

During the month of September there were 542 new youth members and 124 new adults who enrolled in Scouting in the Chisholm Trail Council. This brings the total youth membership to 2,328 and the adult enrollment to 1005.

There were 172 new Tiger Cubs. This is a program for 7 year old boys or they may be 6 provided they have completed the first grade.

The Cub Scouts gained the largest number—342 new members. They are for boys who are 8 to 10 years old. This brings the total Cub Scout membership to 1,281.

Arbor Foundation To Offer Free Trees

Ten free flowering trees will be given to people who join the National Arbor Day Foundation during October.

The Foundation will give two White Dogwood, two American Redbud, two European Mountainash, Two Washington Hawthorn and two Flowering Crab trees to members joining during the month. The free trees are part of the Foundation's efforts to improve the quality of life in America by encouraging tree planting.

"The Foundation is encouraging more people to plant trees in the fall, which is an excellent time for tree planting," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said. "So we're giving these free flowering trees to people who make a $10 membership contribution during October."

"These trees were selected because they will give a colorful flowering of pink, white, and red blossoms throughout the spring," Rosenow added. "The six to twelve inch trees will be sent postpaid at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10, with enclosed planting instructions. The trees are guaranteed to grow, or we will replace them free of charge."

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to Flowering Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Ave., Nebraska City, NE 68410, by Oct. 31.

TAX PLANNING
Written By Gerald Rodgers, CPA

DO A 1985 TAX ESTIMATE NOW
Doing an estimate of your 1985 income taxes will help you determine whether you have met the requirements for prepaying your taxes through withholding and estimated tax payments. You are required to have paid in at least 80% of the tax liability shown on your 1985 tax return or 100% of the tax shown on your 1984 return. The penalty for having paid in too little is currently 11% per annum. It is assessed on the difference between what you should have paid and what you actually paid.
If your income tax estimate shows your prepayments to be short, there is a solution to the problem if you pay your taxes through withholding as well as estimated payments. Simply have your employer increase your tax withholding from your wages. File a new Form W-4 claiming fewer exemptions and, if necessary, asking that even larger amounts of income tax be withheld.
Withholdings are treated as though they have been paid in equally throughout the year. Therefore, an increase in your withholding, even as late as from your December paycheck, will be treated along with your other withholdings as if it had been received evenly throughout the year. This is not true of your estimated tax payments. These quarterly payments are clearly marked as having been paid in on specific dates. If you try to eliminate penalties by boosting your fourth quarter estimated tax payment, you will be wiping out penalties for the first quarter only but not retroactively for the first three quarters of the year. The 11% penalty will still be assessed for shortages in the first three quarters.
This illustration is just one area where you can save yourself money by doing a year-end tax estimate and then making indicated adjustments to minimize your tax liability or eliminate penalties that might otherwise be assessed.

Cotton Board Calls For Market Expansion

Responding to growing producer requests to intensify promotional activities, the Cotton Board has approved Cotton Incorporated's 1986 budget of $18.5 million calling for expanded U.S. promotion and overseas market development.

The budget recommendation - which increases promotion while continuing successful research activities that have collectively spurred cotton's retail market share from 34 to 41 percent since 1975 now goes to Secretary of Agriculture John Block for final approval.

Both the budget endorsement and the recommendation for favorable USDA action came at the 19th annual meeting of the Cotton Board, attended by more than 100 producers and industry leaders at South Padre Island, Texas Sept. 23-24.

Calling the budget "lean and mean," outgoing Cotton Board Chairman Glen Stevens of Fresno, Calif., said this is the fourth consecutive year that Cotton Incorporated's budget has been about $18

The Don and Sybil Harrington Foundation has worked closely with West Texas State to improve the quality of higher education and to make the university experience accessible to more students.

The academic merit scholarships began in 1978 with $200 awards to incoming freshmen who had been members of National Honor Society or its equivalent in high school. In 1981, the award became a renewable scholarship for those students who maintained a 3.0 grade point average in their college work.

Beginning this year, the amount of the stipend varies from $200 to $600 per year, based on ACT test scores.

Real Estate Classes Planned

"Buying or Selling a Home" will be a new course offered by the Division of Continuing Education of Vernon Regional Junior College. Georgeann Scott, owner of Georgeann Scott Real Estate will be the instructor for this one-evening workshop.

Students will learn procedures involved when buying or selling a home and the expenses involved in both steps. Th workshop will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. Oct. 15 on the VRJC campus.

The fee for the course will be $5. Persons 60 or over may enroll for $3. For more information or registration forms, contact the VRJC Continuing Education Office at 552-6291.

The Cotton Board concurs and recommends favorable USDA action."

For 1986, 65 percent of the budget will be directed towards U.S. promotion as well as overseas technical assistance to mills that buy U.S. cotton, with 26 percent going for research. This compares to Cotton Incorporated's 1985 budget of $18.1 million, which directed 60 percent and 28 percent, respectively, for comparable activities.

While the new budget is only about two percent higher than 1985, its proposed funding for U.S. promotion and overseas market development is almost 10 percent higher than the previous year.

The shift in emphasis reflects continuing efforts to control costs, a realignment of operations and a re-allocation of limited resources into research and promotion areas which offer the greatest opportunities for growers, Stevens said.

The budget also directs $245,000 to the State Support Program, which targets Cotton Incorporated funds for research and promotion projects of interest to states that exceed 80 percent producer support. The budget was approved earlier by Cotton Incorporated's Board.

A voluntary grower assessment funds Cotton Incorporated's activities based upon $1 per bale plus six-tenths of one percent of the lint value of U.S. Upland cotton.

"This budget will allow us to move ahead with our highly successful research and promotion projects and will help keep cotton's gains on target," said Cotton Incorporated President Bob Boslet.

Stressing that cotton continues to enjoy strong consumer demand, Boslet said cotton's market share of all fibers, excluding carpets, totals 41 percent in the first six months of 1985 compared to 40 percent in 1984 and 39 percent in 1983.

He said this increasing consumer demand is acting as a "reserve" which will benefit growers when conditions improve.

"I'd like to let growers know that we're in the trenches with them. If they can just hang in there with their support, they'll have this demand waiting for them when they get out of these difficult times."

Board Members also heard from Raymond Lett, USDA assistant secretary for Marketing and Inspection Services, who said Cotton Incorporated is one of the few bright spots for growers in these tough times.

"The work that Cotton Incorporated is doing is helping make U.S. cotton competitive worldwide, but more needs to be done so we can move this huge supply of cotton."

National Cotton Council President Sam Hollis also gave board members an update on the 1985 Farm Bill and Keith Collins, deputy director of USDA's Economic Research Service, gave a cotton economic report.

"Even with the decline in overall economic activity which includes slower consumer spending, cotton continues to show gains at retail," Collins said.

In addition to taking action on the budget, Board Members elected a new slate of officers for one-year terms including Tommy Funk, Harlingen, chairman.

The Cotton Board is comprised of 19 members and 19 alternates from 14 major cotton producing states. Established under the Research and Promotion Act of 1966, the Cotton Board administers the program which is funded by voluntary grower dollars and conducted by Cotton Incorporated under USDA oversight.

Texas Cattlemen Support Beef Promotion

Let there be no mistake, the majority of working cattlemen in Texas support beef promotion legislation that would include a mandatory, non-refundable $1-per-head checkoff on all cattle sold. In fact, in a recent survey conducted by the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association, (TSCRA) in Fort Worth, better than eight out of 10 respondents backed the idea which is now part of a farm bill before Congress, says John M. Shelton III, TSCRA president from Amarillo.

TSCRA is a 108-year-old cattlemen's association representing working cattlemen primarily in Texas and Oklahoma. It is one of the largest cattle organizations in the United States.

With plummeting prices and low consumer demand for beef, cattlemen are joining the growing ranks of agricultural producers on the brink of financial destruction. In an effort to reverse this trend, many cattlemen nationwide want to beef up the industry's promotion budget of $18.6 million in 1985 to at least $60 million or more.

The Beef Promotion and Research Act of 1985 would accomplish this, Shelton said, while forcing beef importers to pay their fair share through a special formula. Beef importers are expected to oppose this legislation, he said.

Commodity checkoff programs are common in agriculture, but cattlemen rejected national checkoff programs twice in the late 1970's. However, in a recent national survey conducted by Miller Research Service, 92 percent said they supported beef promotion and research programs. Fifty-eight percent liked the $1-per-animal checkoff and nine percent said that wasn't enough. All state cattle associations in the United States now are on record in support of this proposal except one.

"In July, TSCRA board members unanimously passed a resolution in support of the BPR, TSCRA membership, Shelton said. "However, in order to be certain that the rank-and-file TSCRA member was also solidly in support of the mandatory $1-per-head checkoff, it was decided to poll the TSCRA membership, which currently exceeds 14,000.

"The results were overwhelming. Almost 15 percent of our members returned our questionnaire. Direct mail experts say that a two to four percent return on a poll of any kind is considered excellent," Shelton said. "The facts are that working cattlemen want the legislation. They want a mandatory program so that all cattlemen, including big operators, and foreign beef importers pay their share. Almost eighty-four percent in our survey want it to be mandatory. And, seven out of 10 support a delayed referendum. If it doesn't help in two years, then they can vote it out."

Shelton said the biggest reservation cattlemen had was government involvement in the cattle industry. Some were unsure what role the government would have in the program. Historically, cattlemen have asserted their independence from government.

Cattlemen distrust government programs, he said, preferring instead of free market approach without taxpayer-supported price supports and subsidies.

"This has not changed. This proposal would limit government involvement and would keep working cattlemen in control," Shelton said. "Appointments to the governing boards must come from names submitted by each state's cattle organizations. No one else may be selected."

Thirteen cattle states already have their own state-legislated checkoff programs of $1-per-head. Many other states operate under a voluntary 25 cent-per-head checkoff including Texas. The funds from these programs currently go to the National Live Stock and Meat Board for product promotion.

"Our survey and the national survey, too, clearly show that cattlemen are ready to support this kind of self-promotion program. We are asking that Congress pass this legislation as soon as possible so we can move forward. It's time to act," Shelton said.

Vegetable Preservatives May Be Abolished Soon

Use of sulfites as a preservative on fresh fruits and vegetables may be on the way out.

The Food and Drug Administration is proposing a ban on sulfites due to growing public concern about possible health risks posed by these agents, points out Dr. Al Wagner, food technologist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

FDA estimates that up to one million people may be sulfite sensitive, most of whom are asthmatic.

The ban would modify the Generally Recognized As Safe (GRAS) status of six forms of sulfites: sulfur dioxide, sodium sulfite, sodium and potassium bisulfite, and sodium and potassium metabisulfite.

The proposed ban pertains not only to fruits and vegetables intended to be served or sold raw, but also includes those fruits and vegetables that may not actually be fresh but are presented to the consumer as fresh, such as thawed frozen fruits and vegetables, Wagner points out.

He notes that several products can be substituted for bisulfites. Most are combinations of citric and ascorbic acid plus additional preserving compounds. While manufacturers claim these products to work well on fresh fruits and vegetables, they tend to be more expensive than sulfites, says Wagner.

What differences would consumers see with the banning of sulfites?

According to Wagner, consumers probably would not notice any major differences in the overall quality of most salad bars. Since sulfites are not used to any extent in retail produce operations, such as supermarkets, no real changes are expected in this area.

In the near future, FDA will also be assessing all other uses of sulfites, including their use on potatoes and potato products, notes Wagner.

As far as dehydrated potatoes and other vegetables are concerned, there are no good substitutes for bisulfites, says the food technologist.
