India to host Hawley

Wounded, but still clinging to playoff hopes, the Haskell Indians get back on friendly grounds Friday when they entertain the Hawley Bearcats. Kickoff for the district 7-AA encounter is at 7:30 p.m.

It's a do-or-die situation for the Indians who have now dropped two consecutive district games, to Albany and Stamford.

Two things are in the Indians' favor. First, the Bearcats are the district's only winless team. And secondly, the Indians have not yet lost a home game.

But despite its record, Hawley could prove a dangerous opponent for the Indians. The Bearcats barely lost to league-leading Anson, 6-0, and played Hamlin a strong game before losing, 13-0. Their only one-sided loss was 34-13 to Albany last week.

The Indians, meanwhile, have been an up-and-down outfit. They were blown out last week by Stamford, losing 33-13. While their performance was anything but satisfying, they also were victims of a super effort by the Bulldogs. Stamford's offensive line opened huge holes in the Indian defense, allowing Isaac Cooper to rush for 223 yards and four touchdowns.

Haskell has played its best games at home, winning two and tying one. They opened the season at home with a 14-14 tie against Munday. They defeated Quanah, 24-21, and Hamlin, 28-13, in their only other home games to date. They've lost all five road games.

A win over the Bearcats Friday would keep Indian hopes alive for a playoff spot as the runnerup team of the district. They also would have to defeat Anson next week and have the other district contenders knock each other off.

Haskell closes out its regular 1986 season next week when they host Anson.

Girls play powder puff Saturday

Junior and senior girls will challenge freshman and sophomore girls in a powder puff football game at Indian Stadium Saturday.

The game begins at 7:30 p.m. and admission will be $2 per person.

Coaches for the junior-senior team will be Mark Young, Matt Lane, Patrick Perez, Marty Martinez and Joey Swinney.

Stephon Brockington, Chan Guess, Paul Harvey and Bo Watson will coach the freshman-sophomore team.

Cheerleaders for the junior-senior team will be Ponciano Lopez, Louie Torres, Marty Decker and Daniel Swann.

For the freshman-sophomore team, cheerleaders will be Davis Chapman, Kyle Darden, Cole Larned, Scottie Martin, Bobby Medford, Corey Mills, Eric Mullen, Josh Reid, James Rike and Roger Roewe.

In charge of the cheerleaders will be Lorie Alvarez and Shanna Mueller. Sam Beakey will be mascot.

The concession stand will be open during the game. Mums will be sold for $1 each.

Library closed

The Haskell County Library will be closed Tuesday, Nov. 4, when the building will be used for voting in Precinct 2.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMEN

State Democratic Chairman Bob Slagle visits with Haskell County Chairman Sharon Mullino during his visit to Haskell last week. Slagle addressed a group at the courthouse, urging them to get out the vote for the general election.

Haskell voters to help elect Governor

Haskell County voters will join voters across Texas next Tuesday in electing 12 state officials.

The general election, which also calls for voting on four proposed constitutional amendments, is strictly a state affair, as far as local voters are concerned. No local or district offices are involved.

Except for the Governor's race where Gov. Mark White, a Democrat, is opposed by former Gov. Bill Clements, a Republican, there appears to be little interest in the election.

But there is enough interest in the Governor's race to bring out a good sized turnout in this non-Presidential election year.

Haskell County, heavily Democratic in voter registration, gave White a big majority in 1982 when he was running as a challenger to then-Gov. Clements. The local vote was 1,656 for White and 670 for Clements. Two minor candidates got seven votes.

White, who has trailed Clements in political polls since the primaries, has lost support among teachers and others, but the race appears to have tightened up in recent weeks. Locally, some of White's 1982 support has eroded, but to what extent will not be learned until votes are cast.

Theresa Doyle, a Libertarian, also is a candidate for Governor.

There is more than passing interest in the attorney general's race. Democratic incumbent Jim Mattox is opposed by Roy R. Barrera Jr., a Republican, and Mike Stephens, Libertarian.

Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, Democrat, faces opposition from David Davidson, Republican, and Bill

Howell, Libertarian.

Other contested state races find Bob Bullock, Democrat, against George Meeks, Libertarian, for comptroller; Ann W. Richards, Democrat, against Robert F. Reid, Libertarian, for treasurer; Garry Mauro, Democrat, against M. D. Anderson Jr., Republican, and Honey Sue Lanham, Libertarian, for land commissioner; Jim Hightower, Democrat, against Bill Powers, Republican, and Rebecca Reed, Libertarian, for agriculture commissioner; and John Sharp, Democrat, against Milton E. Fox, Republican, and Chloe "Jack" Daniel, Libertarian.

Four places on the Texas Supreme Court also are to be settled. Place 1 finds Oscar H. Mauzy, Democrat, opposed by Charles Ben Howell, Republican; place 2 has Robert M.

Campbell, Democrat, and Nathan E. White Jr., Republican; place 3 candidates are Jim Wallace, Democrat, and Wiley H. Rawlins, Libertarian; and place 4 finds Raul A. Gonzalez, Democrat, against John L. Bates, Republican.

Proposed constitutional amendments would:

No. 1: Allow the legislature to provide by general law for the apportionment of the value of railroad rolling stock among counties for purposes of property taxation.

No. 2: Require each house to include in its rules of procedure a rule that each bill contain a title expressing the bill's subject, and provide for the continuing revision of state laws.

No. 3: Allow political subdivisions the opportunity to engage in and transact business with authorized mutual insurance companies in the same manner as with other insurance companies.

No. 4: Provide that a bank may offer full service banking at more than one location within the city or county where its principal facility is located, subject to limitations and restrictions provided by law.

Polls open at 7 a.m. Tuesday and will remain open until 7 p.m.

Haskell County voters will cast their ballots at the following places:

Precinct 1, Haskell National Bank Community Building; 2, County Library; 3, County Extension Office; 4, Justice of Peace office in the courthouse; 5, Rule school; 6, Home State Bank in Rochester; 7, O'Brien Gin; 8, Weiner school; 9, Paint Creek school; 10, Sagerton school.

Fewer students failing

Only 11 percent of the 280 students in Haskell Secondary School failed one or more subjects during the first six weeks of the school term.

It's a big improvement over last year's record of 15 percent, said Principal Clayton Neal.

It's also much better than the state average and most other schools in this area, Neal said. Abilene's rate, for instance, was 29 percent.

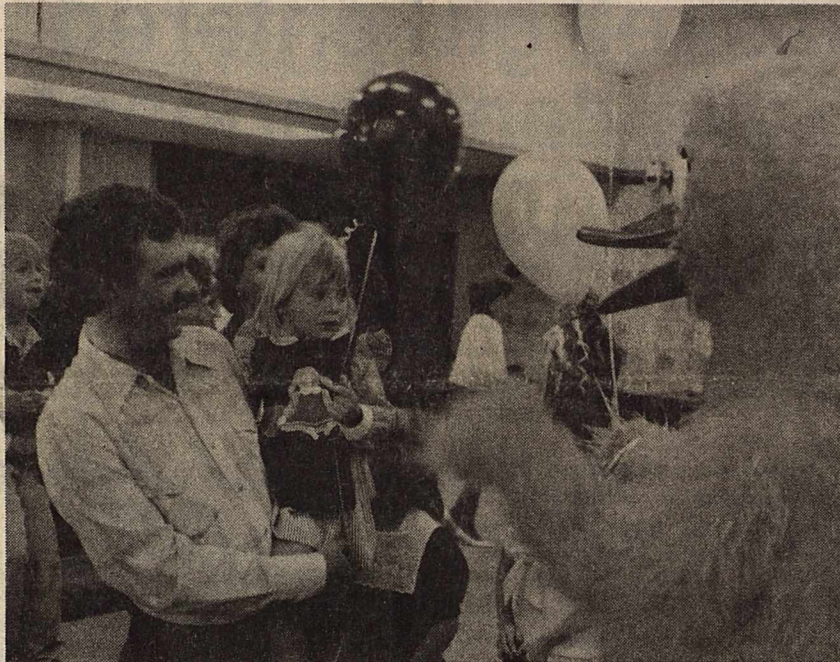

Seventy-five of the 90 students in the seventh and eighth grades did not make a failing grade in any subject. In high school (ninth through 12th grades) 174 of the 190 students came through the first six weeks of school without a non-passing grade in any subject.

The principal said that most of the students who did fail subjects were those with attendance problems.

He credited the improvement over last year to increased student awareness of the severity of penalties for failing and to an improved tutorial program. Where tutorials were held last year after school by two teachers, this year's program sets tutorial sessions before classes in the mornings. It also involves all teachers, enabling the student to choose a tutor skilled in the area of the problem subject.

Not one high school varsity football player, band member or FFA member was disqualified from participating in activities because of grades.

Under House Bill 72, a student is required to make a passing grade in every subject during the six-week grading period in order to be eligible for extracurricular activities the following six weeks.

Trac Mathis was all eyes when she came face-to-face with Big Bird at the First National Bank's open house Sunday. Holding her is her father, Larry Mathis.

Band Boosters issue thanks to supporters

Haskell Band Boosters said this week that the Fall Festival held Saturday night in the Civic Center was a big success.

They expressed their thanks to merchants who contributed to the bingo booth.

Thanks also went to parents who contributed cakes for the cake walk and to the chairmen and other workers who made the festival possible. Teachers, coaches and school administrators who volunteered as wet sponge targets were also thanked.

Kenny Watson was winner of the bean guess, and Jo Ann Halliburton won the money guess. The number of beans was 7,500 and the money guess was $73.78.

Proceeds from the event will be used to benefit band students of all grades.

Merchants who contributed were: Agricultural Service Inc., Aladdin House, Allsup's, Anderson Tire Co., Bailey Toliver Chevrolet, Bassing Jewelry, The Beauty Parlor, Bird's Exxon Service Station, Boggs and Johnson, Doris Bruggeman, Buster's Drive In Grocery.

C&B Store, Carousel No. 2, Cliff's Garage, The Clothes Closet, Conner Nursery and Floral, Double A Drive Inn, Double A Exxon, The Drug Store, First National Bank, Fitness Shop, Frazier's Appliance, The Hair Shop, Mike Harrell Photography.

Turkey Walk to benefit American Heart Association

Participants in the Turkey Walk Saturday will be competing for personal prizes, as well as for contributions to the Heart Fund.

The 10-mile walk, from Haskell to Rule, beginning at Haskell National Bank, will begin following registration at 8:30 Saturday morning. Rule walkers will begin the 10-mile journey to Haskell from the City Park.

Walkers are not required to walk the entire 10 miles, but they will be expected to pick up the pledges for the number of miles they do walk. Pledges should be turned in to Janet Thane, Heart Fund treasurer, Nov. 13. Sponsors can be enlisted after the completion of the walk and all money turned in Nov. 13 will be credited to their collections.

The participant collecting the most money will be presented with a free trip to the Dallas-Philadelphia football game. The prize package, which includes transportation to and

Dinner theater to be Saturday

Food and fun will top the agenda Saturday night at the fifth annual Country Dinner Theater of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce.

Serving of a menu of ham, beans, cole slaw, potato salad and dessert begins at 7 o'clock at the Civic Center. Food will be prepared and served by members of the Chamber Board of Directors and Welcoming Committee members, along with their wives and husbands.

Following dinner, Bill Comedy, Chamber president, will give a brief welcome, Dusty Garrison will offer the invocation and Carolyn Everett will lead a sing-along, accompanied by Ellen Rieger.

The one-act play, "Kid's Country," written and directed by Chamber manager Wanda Dulaney, will follow. "Kid's Country" depicts a kindergarten class of 5-year-olds and features Ruby Turner as the teacher, and the following members of the Chamber's board:

Peggy Lane is serving as prompter, Kay Smith is food chairman and Delight Jones (assisted by actual kindergarten students) is decorations chairman.

Tickets, which include both the meal and the play, are $7.50 each and are being sold by directors and Welcoming Committee members.

Windbreak program to be Nov. 13

An informational program on farmstead windbreak planting will be sponsored by the Haskell Soil and Water Conservation District at the First National Bank Community Room Nov. 13. It begins at 2 p.m.

Jim Hudson, district conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, reports that Bob Fewin with the Texas Forest Service and Edd Holcomb, state forester for the Soil Conservation Service, will be at the meeting to discuss farmstead windbreak management, varieties of windbreak trees to choose from and answer questions on windbreak planting.

If time permits, a field trip is planned to visit local farmstead windbreak plantings that have been successfully established for several years.

from the game, lodging at the Dallas Marriott Quorum in Highland and a continental breakfast, has been donated by the Sweetwater Travel Agency.

Among other prizes will be a $50 savings bond, a savings account and an AM/FM radio with headphones.

Each walker obtaining $100 in pledges will get a turkey. Turkeys are being donated by Pogue's Grocery, Modern Way, M-System, Tanners Grocery of Rule and Weinert Grocery.

All who turn in at least $50 in pledges will receive Turkey Walk T-shirts.

To be eligible for any of the prizes, a participant must register by filling out a Turkey Walk pledge/registration form. It must be completed when the walker registers for the walk.

Cardiac workups offered

A team of cardiologists from Abilene will offer cardiac workups for Haskell citizens Saturday in conjunction with the Turkey Walk.

Tests will be given through the mobile cardio-vascular health unit of Humana Hospital It will be located at Haskell National Bank.

The workup will include a 12 lead EKG test, stress tests on a treadmill or bicycle, blood pressure checks before, during and after testing, compilation of a brief medical history and height and weight measurements.

Cost will be $50 per patient. Those wishing to participate should contact Charles Harvey by noon Friday. His work phone is 864-2621 and his home number is 864-3572. A maximum of 20 appointments will be allowed in the order requested.

Thank you. We enjoyed you coming out.

Rice Springs Care Home

By Judy Wolsch
Activity Director

Pumpkin mugs were presented to each resident Friday by Sarah, Josh and Mary Rachel Densman of Haskell. Thank you young folks for your gift, and concern.

Thanks to Christyne and Randy for the wonderful scary Halloween party Saturday evening. Everyone enjoyed this.

We would like to invite all the young folks to come out to our home Friday for Halloween and give our residents a treat by showing them all the different costumes made these days. Our residents are glad to see anyone come to visit, old or young, big or little.

Visitors have included Mary Hernandez, Sherman Erwin with Mrs. Free; Laverne Stokes, Geo. Smith, Inez Smith with Aletha Scifres; Herman Klose from Stamford with Herbert; Brutis Chamberlain with Nellie Ash; Les Roberts from Midland.

Winona Stephenson and Suzann Robertson visited Thalia Jenkins; Monroe Taylor from Austin visited Jess Kreger; Sarah, Josh and Mary Rachel Densman visited everyone; H. M. Horton from Lubbock, Edna Gunnel, Grace Helton from Rochester; Lelia Hix from Bowie with Jesse Jones; Doris McAda and John Parham from Wichita Falls with Carrie Covely; and Gena Pike and girls from Rule with Jess Kreger.

Hobby Club

Seventeen members of the Rochester Hobby Club and three guests met Oct. 20 with Eunice Newberry for a covered dish luncheon.

Further plans were made for the club's annual bazaar Nov. 7-8. Besides quilts, there will be arts and crafts, home-baked pastry, cakes, candy and canned foods for sale.

There also will be a lovely quilt given as a door prize and another pretty quilt that will be sold to the highest bidder. (These quilts are on display in the club's east window.)

Eron McGuire's prize-winning sesquicentennial "Godwood" quilt, one of the 100 chosen in Texas, is now on display in Houston after having been displayed in Texas cities this year and is to be on display for another year.

The club's next regular meeting date will be Nov. 4 with Ida Pack as hostess.

Sagerton club plans Bazaar

The Sagerton Hobby Club will hold its fourth annual Bazaar at the Sagerton Community Center Saturday, Nov. 22. It will be from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

This year, the Hobby Club made a sesquicentennial quilt and members are selling chances for $1.50 each. The quilt is on display at The Hayloft in Haskell. The drawing for the quilt will be at the close of the Bazaar.

The Bazaar will feature baked goods, Christmas items and crafts for sale.

Booths are available at $5 each.

MISS WAYLAND ENTRIES

Among the 16 contestants in this weekend's Miss Wayland University Pageant are (clockwise from top left) Sherre Kinard, Angel Edwards, Angela Presley and Diana Jarred. Miss Jarred is the daughter of Mr and Mrs. Kenneth Jarred of Haskell.

Haskell girl entered in Wayland pageant

A Haskell girl is among 16 contestants entered in this weekend's Miss Wayland University Pageant in Plainview.

Diana Michelle Jarred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jarred, is being sponsored in the two-day event by the Student Union Board.

The 16th annual pageant will be Friday and Saturday with activities beginning at 7:30 each evening in Harral Memorial Auditorium. Preliminary competition will be Friday, and the eight finalists from that round will compete in Saturday's finals.

Contestants will be judged in talent, swimsuit, interview and evening gown competitions.

The winner, to be crowned by the reigning Miss Wayland, Lenna Lowrance, will be Plainview's entry in the 1987 Miss Texas Pageant in Fort Worth next July.

Admission is free to Friday night's competition, while tickets are $5 per person for the finals on Saturday.

Miss Jarred, a freshman pre-pharmacy major at Wayland, will sing the Anne Murray hit, "Now and Forever," for her talent presentation.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. Wilkerson of Garden City have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Stacia Kay Wilkerson, to Jeff Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy J. Robertson of Weinert.

The wedding will be Jan. 31 in the First Baptist Church Chapel in Big Spring.

Miss Wilkerson will graduate in December from Angelo State University with a bachelor of business administration degree. Robertson received a BBA from Angelo State in August.

Welfare Board hears of workshops

The Haskell County Child Welfare Board met in regular session at 6:30 p.m. October 21, 1986 in the Jury Room.

Seven members and Linda Haskell, director of Haskell County Department of Human Services were present. Brian Burgess, chairman, led in prayer and called the meeting to order. After the minutes of the September meeting were approved and the treasurer's report, Mary Martin, secretary, reported on the Region 04 meeting DHS headquarters in Abilene. Region 04 is made up of fourty four counties. There are new boards in Mitchell and Concho counties. Holly Gaunt, Wichita Falls, was elected new chairman. Outgoing chairman was Judge Mark Geeslin, Jayton. Imogene Smith, Sweetwater, will continue as treasurer. Mrs. Gaunt and Ann Collier, Abilene, were honored for their volunteer work of many hours and various organizations as well as Child Welfare Boards. Region 04 is one of the top three in the state, having thirty three county boards, being the largest but also the smallest population.

Mary Harvey and Mary Martin reported on the Texas Council of Child Welfare Boards Conference in Austin, October 3-4.

Each attended different workshops, such as Parents Anonymous, volunteer parents who help parents who are abusive; Substance Abuse, having to do with alcohol and drugs; Partnership with the Media; Sexual Abuse of Children, which was chaired by Ann Clark, supervisor of Child Protective Service, Ft. Worth.

Dr. Dave Cockrum, state president, spoke on Let's Be More Effective Child Welfare Board Members.

At the closing session Sarah Weddington, family lawyer, international speaker and member of President Carter's cabinet, spoke on "Volunteers Can Help Guarantee Safety and Happiness of Texas Children."

The board then made plans for doing the same project of making pictures of children with Santa Claus on the Saturdays when there are drawings on the square and also sponsoring a community Songs of Christmas with various groups and individuals at the Haskell Elementary School, December 13. Plans for the Christmas Parade float were discussed.

Homemakers plan sale for Nov. 8

The annual Arts and Crafts Sale of the Haskell Young Homemakers will be Saturday, Nov. 8 at the Haskell Civic Center.

Activities begin at 10 a.m. and will include a "Taste of Texas" lunch. Tickets for the lunch are $4 each for adults and $2.50 for children under 12.

Lunch tickets include the price of viewing the arts and crafts exhibits. Tickets for those wishing to view the exhibits only are $1.

All activities will conclude at 5 p.m.

Young Homemakers invite all residents of Haskell and neighboring communities to attend the Arts and Crafts Show and Sale and get an early start on Christmas shopping.

—Weinert News—

By Myrtle Phemister

Weinert is enjoying beautiful, balmy fall weather after the excessive rainfall received here last week. At last report we had received 4 and .9 inches of rain last week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Phemister, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ulmer of Sagerton, Mr. and Mrs. James Crawford, Rep. Rick Perry and Jim Hudson of Haskell attended the annual State Convention of the Soil and Water Conservation Districts of Texas held at Austin, October 20-22. It was the 46th annual convention and was held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. A "Get Acquainted" barbeque was hosted on Monday night by the Federal Land Bank Association of Texas.

Mr. Waldo Smith of Brenham, Texas is president of the SWCD Association and was in charge of the convention. Mr. Smith was re-elected president during the business meeting held on Wednesday, October 22.

Speakers at the convention included the Honorable Beau Boulter, Congressman of Amarillo, Texas; the Honorable W. P. Clements of Dallas, former governor; Coy Garrett, State Conservationist, S.C.S. of Temple; and the Honorable L. H. "Cotton" Ivy, Tennessee State Representative and Humorist, of Decaturville, Tennessee.

At the newly organized Ladies

Auxiliary program, Mrs. Kenneth Kuykendall, President, of Cherokee, Texas was in charge and plans for the auxiliary were made for the coming year.

***

Home to Weinert for the weekend were Kelly Earp, San Angelo State University; Darla Griffith, West Texas University of Snyder; and Kraig Saunders, North Texas State of Denton.

Shannon Forehand was home for the weekend from San Angelo. He attended ASU and ACU football game on Saturday in Abilene and saw his Alma Mater defeated by the ACU Wildcats at their homecoming game. He was here to see the Rochester-Weinert game played at Rochester on Friday night, where Weinert was defeated with a score of 24-8.

Shannon returned to San Angelo State University with no victory to boast about. Weinert's defeat by Rochester will prevent us from having a part in the district play-off games. Better luck next year, Bulldogs!

Mrs. Louise Chambers of Rochester was a visitor at the Weinert school on Monday, where she purchased a VCR tape of the Weinert "Home-coming '86" production. Mrs. Chambers is a former Weinert Homemaking teacher and is loved by all in the Weinert community.

***

The Weinert School will be the scene for a Halloween Carnival on Thursday night, October 30th, and everyone is invited to attend. There will be food booths, a night-club, bingo games, a "dunking" pond, and many, many other attractions. Come at 6:30 p.m. for the fun.

***

Weinert Bulldogs will host the Rule Bobcats on the Weinert turf on October 31st at 7:30 p.m.

***

T. J. Yates was honored on his second birthday with a party at his home hosted by his parents, Joe and Caron Yates and brothers Jason and Dusty.

***

Mr. and Mrs. D. I. White were in San Antonio for the weekend and attended the reunion of Mattie's family while there.

***

R. S. and Betty Sanders made a tour of South Texas last week with plans to spend a few days reclining on the beach at South Padre Island. But the stench of the "Red Tide" was too much, and they cut their trip short because of it.

***

Harvey Griffis underwent surgery at Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene last week. He is recuperating at his home and is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Jetton hosted the "Alaska '86" group in their home on Sunday, October 26. The afternoon was spent recalling fun times and looking at snapshots taken on the trip in August. Those attending the party were: Pat Kelly and Jean McAdeu of Wichita Falls;

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Toliver, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Perrin, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Caddell and Dudley Perrin of Haskell. Others were Judy Anderson of Knox City; Helen Boykin and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Phemister of Weinert.

***

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pallastro and Emily were in Weinert visiting the grandparents, the Phemisters. They attended church services before leaving for Abilene to attend the stage production of "Annie", a part of the Abilene Christian University Homecoming '86.

Students may visit with college reps

Haskell juniors and senior who plan to go to college will have an opportunity to meet and talk with representatives from various colleges, universities and technical schools at a College/Technical School Night program in Abilene. It begins at 7 p.m. Nov. 10 in Cooper High School. Representatives from 35 colleges and universities and 10 technical schools have been invited. In addition, representatives from the Air Force, Army, Marine and Navy ROTC programs and a representative to discuss financial aid will participate in the program.

Following a general meeting in the auditorium, each student and his or her parent(s) will have an opportunity to attend three discussion groups of 30 minutes each to obtain information about three different schools in which they are interested.

Discussed will be entrance requirements, application procedure, estimated yearly cost, courses of study, types of housing available, financial aid and other topics of concern to parents and students.

Freeze vegetables

You can beat Mother Nature to the punch by freezing the peppers and onions in your garden before the first frost damages them.

Peppers and onions are the easiest to process because they don't have to be blanched.

Obituary

W. R. Teichelman

Werner F. Teichelman, 67, of Sagerton died at 5:45 p.m. Saturday at Human Hospital in Abilene.

Funeral services were at 2 p.m. Monday at Kinney Funeral Chapel in Stamford with Bob Hoisington of Abilene, minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, officiating.

Burial was in the Old Glory Cemetery, directed by Kinney Funeral Home.

Born July 12, 1919, in Sagerton, he was the son of August and Augusta Teichelman, pioneers in the Sagerton area. He farmed in the Sagerton community until his retirement in 1981.

He married Ruby Lowack Sept. 5, 1940, in Old Glory. He served in the Army during World War II and was a member of Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall in Haskell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Albert Teichelman and August Teichelman, Jr.; and three sisters, Minnie Vahlenkamp, Clara Teichelman and Mamie Lammert.

Survivors include his wife; three brothers, Fred Teichelman of Hamlin, Herbert Teichelman of Old Glory and Johnny Teichelman of Sagerton; six sisters, Ella Baumbach of Taylor, Leona Schonerstedt and Corene Lowack, both of Sagerton, Olga Letz and Louise Letz, both of Old Glory, and Ida Dinse of Elgin, Okla.; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers were Bill Organ, Alvin Goans, Gene Sipe, Dr. Richard LaBrenz, Bryan Novak and Rick LaBrenz.

Election promises come back to haunt

AUSTIN—Every election year has its one campaign promise which stands out from the others, in some cases remaining long enough in voter memory to come back and haunt the promiser.

The big '86 election campaign promise may have occurred last week when former Gov. Bill Clements vowed to seek a rollback on the tax increases passed by his opponent, incumbent Gov. Mark White.

That's going to be a tough order to fill, as he knows, but he promised to try anyway. He'll need a lot of help from the Legislature and Comptroller Bob Bullock.

"Whether we can in fact roll back taxes from where they are, or the fees that have been established under Mark White, I don't know and we'll have to explore," he said.

Clements, leading in polls early on, firmly and intentionally locked himself into a "stop state spending" position. You could almost hear the "click" of engaged gears.

Attacks Temporary Tax

Clements wants to stonewall taxes and spending as part of his program to rebuild business confidence in Texas government.

White continued to criticize Clements for intending to cut

Last week, Agriculture Commissioner Jim Hightower's staff prepared to launch their push to facelift a sagging farm sector with new crops, including exotics.

Their report lists vineyards, catfish farming, crambe (a lubricant) and kenaf (a fibrous plant used in making paper) among the crops of the future.

The report aims to persuade the Legislature to establish a $425 million loan fund to market the products.

Kenaf, a native African plant, is like cotton and is going from the experimental to the production stage in South Texas, where a kenaf paper mill is scheduled for construction next year with state loan assistance.

Other Highlights

- A federal grand jury subpoenaed the financial records of the Fort Worth security firm which found a bugging device in the office of a top Clements' campaign staffer.

- The FBI is also expected to re-interview some members of both Clements and White campaign, probably after the election.

- The chairman of the national Democratic Party reversed his statement that the party's convention might not be held in Houston if Mark White was not re-elected.

- In an update, chairman Paul Kirk said Houston is the top contender for the 1988 national convention, whatever the results.

- Railroad Commission candidate state Sen. John Sharp has major trucking companies and related support in his corner, according to campaign contribution reports.

- Texas college and university enrollment rose 2.3 percent this fall and almost made up for the 1985 decline. The increase was aided by a big jump at junior colleges, over six percent.

At both public and private four-year schools, enrollment increased less than one percent.

Factors cited in keeping enrollment down are the state economy, a tripling of tuition at public schools, and the decline in the number of persons in the 18-24 age bracket.

Two predominately black schools, Bishop College in Dallas and Texas Southern University in Houston, reported the largest drops.

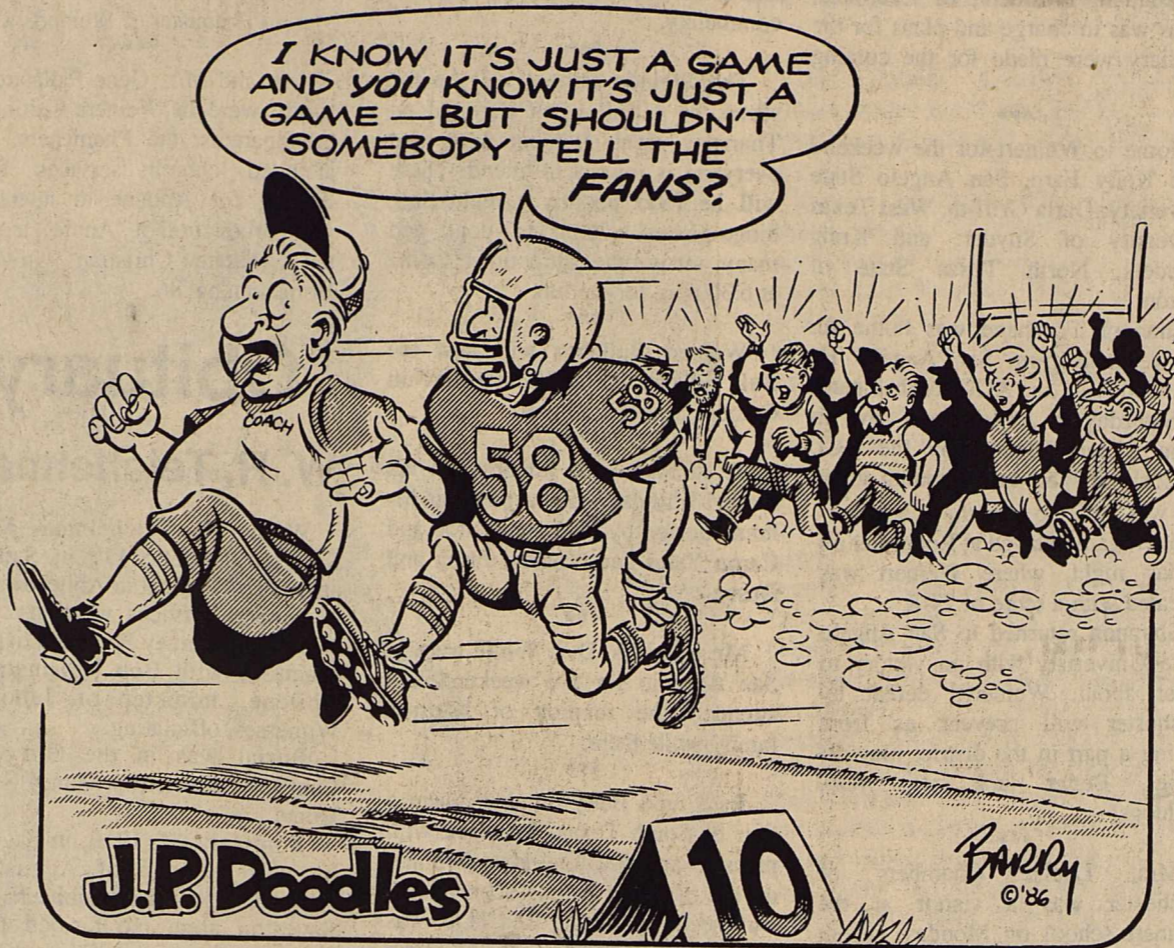

Highest gains came from Corpus Christi State University, Laredo State University and Sul Ross University at Alpine.

Ironically, the Sul Ross school was targeted for closing by the Governor's blue-ribbon panel on higher education until area citizens converged on the Capitol to protest.

Scholarship

Gwen Davidson of Haskell is currently receiving $900 in scholarship monies for her work on Hardin-Simmons University's annual yearbook, The Bronco.

Mrs. Davidson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead.

A. C. Robertson of the Pleasant Valley community is in the Stamford Sanitarium, severely injured, as the result of a runaway Saturday while he was driving a team of horses to a row binder. When the team became frightened and ran away, Robertson was thrown in front and beneath the machine.

J. K. Beauchamp, Haskell city nightwatchman, was killed by unknown assailants some time Saturday night while making his rounds in the business section. The body of the young officer, with bullet wounds in his head and the region of his heart, was found Sunday morning lying just inside the back door of Davis Economy Store. It was presumed he was killed by persons who had broken into the store. A reward of $2,500 has been posted for the arrest and conviction of his assailants.

T. P. Martin, C. D. Freeman and W. D. Falkner of the Wild Horse country were doing business in town Monday.

F. N. Chapman of Weatherford has moved to Haskell.

Mrs. J. L. Jones returned home Sunday from Fort Worth where she has been visiting the family of her brother, R. E. Martin.

The Farmers National Bank is making plans to move into their new building which will be newly furnished throughout.

R. B. Fields says his grape vines now have their second crop on them. He stated one bunch of grapes is larger than the first crop.

The Haskell Lumber Co. sold a bill of lumber to a Young County man this week, who will haul the lumber from this point.

Willie Buchanan has moved into his new residence just east of Dr. Gilbert's home.

W. S. Fouts gave us the following figures on some cotton picking done on his farm one day last week by four young men. Jim Fouts picked 556 pounds, Ross Adams 576 pounds, Edgar Fouts 500 pounds, and Charley Jackson 400 pounds. Seems to us this is something of a record.

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

Does God have a role in politics? Followers of a Fort Worth preacher prayed last week in front of the Texas Capitol that Gov. Mark White will be defeated.

The activity was in retaliation to the state's announced intention to shut down an unlicensed church school operated by the Rev. W. N. Otwell's Community Baptist Church. Strange?

Not at all. TV evangelist Pat Robertson said in a recent televised news conference that if enough people give him enough money, he will probably announce that God asked him to run for President. Those weren't his exact words, but that's what he said.

Robertson described a miracle—he modestly called it the power of prayer. He said his prayers diverted Hurricane Gloria away from his headquarters in Virginia Beach, Va.. The diversion helped persuade him to announce that he might announce. (The hurricane struck New England instead.)

Pat Robertson might come in handy as President. If he can divert a hurricane from Virginia to New England, only God knows what he could do as commander-in-chief. (That is, only God knows unless He's already told Pat R.)

But don't bet the farm on his chances of being elected. While his holy diversion technique may give him a big plus with the voters around Virginia Beach, it's not likely to play very well in Hartford.

A Greenville, N. C., medical examiner has come up with yet another of those surveys which reveal something man never even thought about when he was splitting atoms and landing on the moon:

Not only armadillos and toads get crushed by vehicles when they wander onto highways, but people do too. He cites figures to prove that there are more deaths caused this way in the rural South than in the urban North. Human deaths aren't as numerous as the toad variety, but some sensitive people are concerned just the same.

Does that mean people are safer wandering on the freeway in Philadelphia than on a farm-to-market road in the suburbs of Plains, Ga.?

education, highways and human services, and the Democrats added Clements' new position to the campaign blast-furnace.

For the most part, Clements won't say what and where he will cut, but last week he said the Legislature should not renew the 1 1/2 cent temporary sales tax it just passed in special session.

Comptroller Bullock will certainly have something, negative or positive, to say about that when he issues his budget estimates next year.

And legislators, who just endured the bloodletting of two painful special sessions to pass the tax, regard the issue as more than campaign fodder.

Changing circumstances could make a rollback easy, but that's not in the forecast. Clements' rollback vow could be the opening shot in a political battle which could dominate what remains of the '80s.

-Letters to the Editor-

What happened to respect?

Editor: I would like to tell you of an incident that greatly disheartened me this week.

Monday afternoon (Oct. 20) we attended the funeral of one of Haskell's oldest, most respected and loved citizens. I was appalled at the disrespect shown by motorists passing the church. Few vehicles stopped in the other lane of traffic, and cars and pickups cut into the funeral procession. We even had to stop for the red light in town.

What has happened to our basic decency and respect? If at no other time, I feel that a few minutes of respect at death would not misput anyone too much.

The most respect I saw for the funeral procession was a Mexican-American working in the yard at Calvary Mission. He stopped his work, removed his hat, and stood with his head bowed until the procession had passed. I hope everyone takes a lesson from this gentleman.

My high school speech teacher, Mrs. Terry Diggs, once told us that when Mr. Charlie Conner died, there would go the last gentleman in Haskell. He always tipped his hat to the ladies and held doors for them even when they were much younger and more able.

Let's not let courtesy and respect die in our county. Let's teach our children and grandchildren to respect others.

5th Quarter to feature Halloween

A special edition of the Fifth Quarter Fellowship at the First Baptist Church Friday will feature a Halloween tacky party.

All youth, from seventh through 12th grades, are invited to attend the post-game party.

Those attending have been asked to drag out their "tackiest, most out-of-date, worn-out, mis-matched" clothes for the event. Those not wishing to wear these clothes to the football game are being told to bring them to the church and they can change there.

First-, second- and third-place prizes will be awarded during a style show for the best (rather worst) outfits.

Other activities will include basketball, foosball and ping-pong. Plenty of "junk food" will be available.

The party begins after the game and will continue until 1 a.m. Doors will be locked and chained at 11 p.m. so it will be necessary to be at the gym before that time.

Farmers invited to Knox demo

Area farmers are invited to attend a low-energy grubber demonstration today (Thursday) in Knox County.

The demonstration will start with a brief discussion of the low energy grubber in the general assembly room of the Knox County courthouse in Benjamin. Following the discussion, the program will move to the demonstration site on the R and W Cattle Co., formerly the Beavers Mulky Ranch, one mile north of Benjamin on SH 6.

The Knox County office of the Soil Conservation Service and the Knox County Livestock and Range Committee is organizing the demonstration.

Paint Creek festival Saturday

Paint Creek School will have a Fall Festival Saturday, from 6 to 10 p.m.

Seniors will sponsor a chili supper from 6 to 8 p.m.

Other activities will include a spook house, dart throw, can smash, hay ride and cake walk.

Julie Gannaway and Gary Potts
...Lubbock Monterey Band drum majors

Lubbock band has Haskell flavor

There's a little bit of Haskell in Lubbock, Texas, this year.

Two with ties to Haskell are leading the Monterey Plainsmen Band. The drum majors are Julie Gannaway and Gary Michael Potts.

Julie is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Gannaway (both graduates of Haskell High School) and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Herren and the late Maurice Gannaway and Mrs. Gannaway, and great-granddaughter of Mrs. Angie Herren Mullino.

Gary is the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Gary H. Potts and the grandson of Alfred C. Altum who pastored the Eastside Baptist Church in Haskell in 1953. Gary's mother, Linda, was cheerleading mascot for Haskell High School during the 1953 football season when her aunt, Ina Mae Adams Altum, was a cheerleader.

Both Julie and Gary are honor students at Monterey High School and served as junior drum majors last year. Julie also was on the award-winning Flag Line last year.

The Monterey Band, because of its reputation of excellence throughout the years, has been invited to perform at Citrus Bowl activities in Orlando, Fla. Band members will leave Dec. 27 and return Jan. 2. The Lubbock band is one of 18 invited to the Citrus Bowl, and the only one from Texas. The Citrus Bowl parade and activities will be televised through syndicated television, so perchance if you should see the Monterey Plainsmen Band, you'll know there's a little bit of Haskell there too.

Texas pecan crop to be high quality

Texans will soon be feasting on golden kernels of pecans as the 1986 crop reaches maturity.

This year's crop is expected to be short, but what it lacks in quantity, it will make up in quality, says a Texas Agricultural Extension Service horticulturist.

"Qualitywise, this year's crop will be off the chart; it should be the best crop we've had in the past 10 years", points out Dr. George Ray McEachern. Most of the state has had excellent rains since mid-August, and that accounts for the excellent quality of this year's pecan crop, explains the horticulturist.

"We should have a crop of between 25 and 30 million pounds; that's about 40 percent of normal", McEachern points out. "However, the crop also will be short in other pecan growing states".

PROGRESSIVE! CONSERVATIVE? or LIBERAL?

It's no secret that most all sound people are generally considered to be progressive in their thinking and in their overall views in general.

It is my opinion as well as many other people's opinion across most all of the the world, that the word liberal best portrays the true meaning of progressive. Unfortunately "liberal" has become a very "ugly" word in the political arena.

It's indeed a tragedy to me, as well as many other people in this world, that our minds have been so poisoned with propoganda that a liberal thinking person is equated today with a kook--some sort of radical.

This has not always been so. In fact, it's rather paradoxical if you go back into history a generation ago, the leading citizens in most communities were referred to as "great liberals." Read the history books; outstanding statesmen, philanthropists, public officials, were referred to with distinction as being "great liberals". The terminology was used to denote distinction.

Not so today. The reference to "liberalism" connotes an ugly thing; excessive public spending, homosexual rights, abortion--it's absurd! And some day this bum rap that progressive people have will change and we'll come to our senses, ignore the cliché's, and self-righteous, self-styled conservatives, and recognize in fact what liberal thinking is. It's simply an open-minded attitude. It's simply the willingness to depart from the status quo. It means nothing more than accepting change and being willing to live with it.

Elton Trueblood, a distinguished Baptist religious writer, was quoted a few years ago in an issue of the Baylor Line, a publication at Baylor University, in Waco, Texas..

It is a mistake... to suppose that we must choose between being liberals and being conservatives, inasmuch as every sound person is something of both. Everyone who is intellectually and spiritually alive is a liberal in the sense that he is open to truth from any quarter welcoming any evidence without the bondage of prejudice. Similarly, each person who thinks with any care is conservative, partly because he is unwilling to waste whatever has proved itself in the long experience of history, and partly because he knows that the most recent emphasis is not automatically the most wise.

I agree with the distinguished Elton Trueblood on "Liberalism" and "Conservatism." The reason I raise this question is because on Nov. 4th, some registered voters who cast a vote, may have a change of thought about "Liberalism" if they read this article.

I don't believe that conservatism is any more a virtue than being liberal is a vice. Too many times this shouting of conservatism is loud window dressing to cover up a multitude of selfishness and special interest sinning! On the other hand, we do have the knee-jerk, unrealistic fantasyland liberals, and they can be the ultimate of irresponsibility and impracticability.

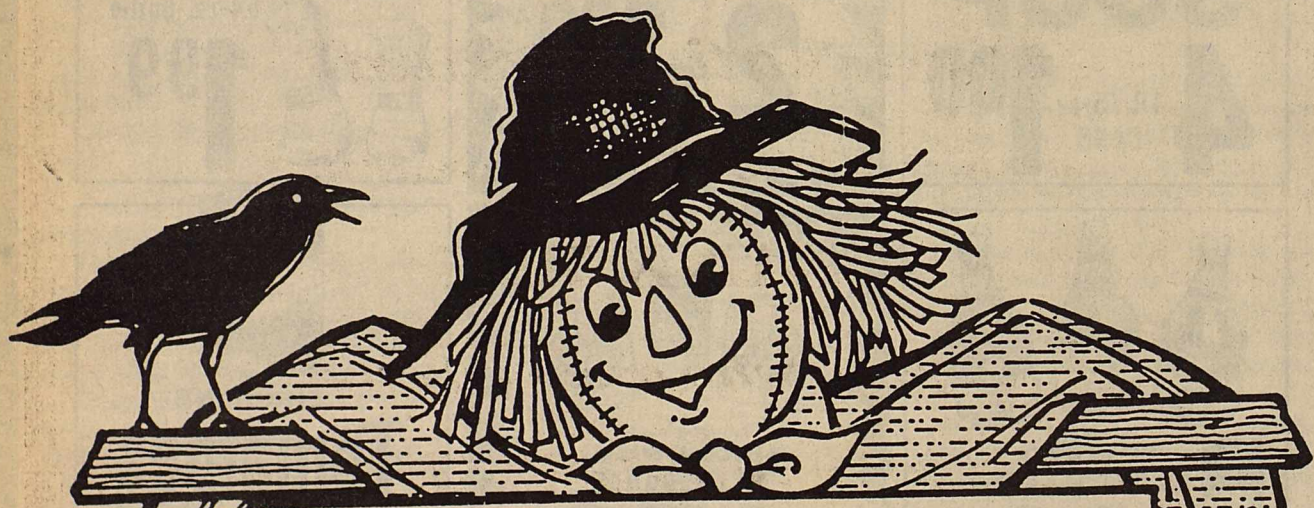

You know, liberalism has taken its lumps through the years, but once it was conservatism that took its lumps. Once the ridicule was directed to conservatism. Franklin Roosevelt said, "Conservatives are people who have two perfectly good feet but can only walk backward." Mark Twain, that great nineteenth century humorist and writer, made the statement: "I like conservatives. Best of all, I like them boiled."

So, labels cast aside, a political organization should not be consistently liberal; it should not be consistently conservative -- if we can accurately differentiate between the two. But more important, it must be consistent.

Let's all fight to keep the two party political system alive nationwide! How you vote is an Individual Right and Responsibility.

Newspapers top list for shopping information

When asked where they get most of their consumer shopping information, approximately two out of three Texans respond, "newspapers," reports Dr. Frederick Williams, director of the Center for Research on Communication Technology and Society at the University of Texas at Austin.

Direct mail ads run a distant second (20 per cent), followed by television (11 per cent), magazines (six per cent) and radio (four per cent).

"These figures are not unusual," reports Dr. Gary Wilcox, a specialist in advertising in UT Austin's college of Communication, who is conducting the detailed analysis of the study. "Newspapers are particularly important to people for shopping because they not only convey the product message, but give further information on vendor and price," Dr. Wilcox adds.

Similar to other studies of sources of advertising information, the Texas research indicates a relationship of income and education with the use of print media. "This may be a carry-over from a similar correlation found in preferences for sources of news," Dr. Wilcox explains. "The better educated tend to rely upon more sources of information and print in particular," he adds.

The current study, when compared with similar information gathered in 1984 from a statewide sample of Texans, further indicates a visible increase in the report of newspapers as a source of shopping information. In the earlier study, newspapers were reported as a main source of shopping information by 50 per cent of the respondents, followed by mail (22 per cent), television (18 per cent) and radio (10 per cent). Magazines were not included as an option in the study.

Those changes in sources of shopping information may reflect several points, Dr. Wilcox says. For example, in difficult economic times, people may have to seek out more detailed information on competitive pricing or sales in order to stretch their money further. That may account for the greater use of newspapers in 1986 in Texas as compared with 1984. Another and not necessarily competing explanation, Dr. Wilcox adds, is that there are more Texans of higher income and better education in 1986 than 1984, and "we know that this is related to uses of newspapers."

Findings such as these do not mean that advertising in media other than newspapers is a poor investment, Dr. Wilcox explains, pointing that advertising involves many types of information and persuasion. The broadcast media generally introduce products to create their images, whereas newspapers may place more stress on where to buy and what the cost will be, he notes. Mail is interesting as an advertising medium because it can combine these two functions, he adds.

"In all," Dr. Wilcox says, "we can expect Texans' use of advertising to change as not only our buying habits and use of media change, but we see change in the population itself."

The findings were based on results of a 1,000-household study conducted in August by the Texas Poll, a quarterly survey conducted by the Public Policy Resources Laboratory of Texas A&M University. Questions of uses of advertising and media are part of a year-long study by the UT Austin center of the entrance of Texas into the information age.

Bake sale

The Brazos West Art Association will have a bake sale at the Young Homemakers Arts and Crafts Sale on the stage in the Civic Center Saturday, Nov. 8.

New state service to combat smoking

The Texas Department of Health (TDH) has created a new service, the Office of Smoking and Health, to supply guidance and information on all aspects of tobacco use. The office is funded by the Texas Cancer Council.

The office will serve as a prime resource for individuals, groups, local governments, and others needing data about tobacco use. It also offers help in developing community and worksite "no smoking" programs. It will collect data on smoking cessation programs, municipal smoking ordinances, and current research results on the dangers of tobacco use, according to Ron Todd, director of the program. The office is part of the TDH Public Health Promotion Division.

The Commissioner of Health Dr. Robert Bernstein said, "With this central clearinghouse, we can supply comprehensive information about smoking and its effects on individual and public health. This is a most cost effective way to give Texans easy access to reliable information on smoking and smokeless tobacco use."

Persons may request information by calling the office, toll-free, at 1-800-345-8647, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

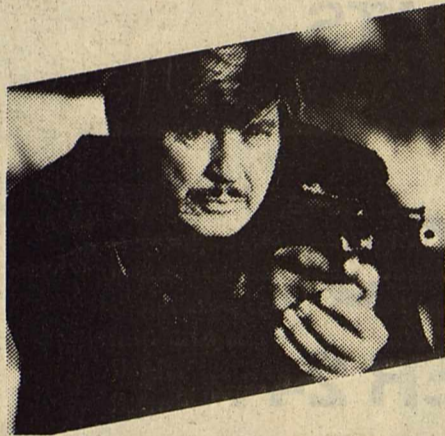

"Each year more than 45,000 Texans die from heart disease, lung cancer, emphysema, and bronchitis," Dr. Bernstein said. "At least 17,000 of the deaths are attributable to smoking tobacco." He said growing public concern over the risks associated with tobacco use is evident in the growing number of Texas cities and towns passing ordinances on smoking.

VOTE FOR THE FUTURE

"Mr. White had the foresight to push for long-needed reforms in the important areas of education, highways and water development . . . The next four years will be critical ones for Texas. Mark White has the energy and vision to do what needs to be done."

- Dallas Times Herald
 October 19, 1986

"For governor, we support Mark White for re-election. We do so on his record for education and political courage . . . White has proved he is willing to take responsibility for actions necessary for Texas."

- San Antonio Express-News
 October 19, 1986

"Governor Mark White should be elected to a second term on the basis of his record of political courage and outstanding leadership."

- Galveston Daily News
 October 6, 1986

"White has grown into the job in remarkable fashion, demonstrating courage, leadership and a firm grasp of the issues . . . White's unwavering leadership in educational reform - and his frank willingness to take the heat generated by changes necessary to bring Texas schools up from the bottom and into the nation's first rank - would alone qualify him for re-election . . . White gets high marks for his positive approach and his vision of Texas' future. Texas voters should permit him to lead the way toward that future."

- Fort Worth Star Telegram
 October 19, 1986

"Texas can't go back. Texas must go forward with Governor Mark White . . . The Houston Chronicle supports Governor Mark White for re-election because he has an agenda for the future and has demonstrated the vision and leadership that future demands . . . We remember the past with pride, but for 150 years we have looked to the future. Governor Mark White can guide this state to an even brighter future."

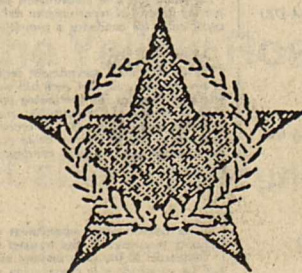

- Houston Chronicle

County unemployed figures beat most

It's one point higher than the previous month, but Haskell County's 6.2 percent unemployment rate for September glitters in comparison to rates of other area counties.

Haskell County has the sixth lowest unemployment rate among the 27 counties of the Big Country, according to a report released last week by the Texas Employment Commission.

Baylor, Mills, Coke, Concho, Throckmorton and Erath counties, with unemployment figures ranging from 4.4 to 5.6 percent, are the only Big Country counties with lower unemployment rates than Haskell.

By contrast, Howard County had an unemployment rate of 12.6 percent and Mitchell County had 12.4.

Other counties will double-digit unemployment figures included Nolan with 11.1, Scurry with 10.9, McCulloch with 10.5 and Jones with 10.2.

Figures for Taylor County were not included in the report.

James Barnes, TEC labor market analyst, said oil industry layoffs caused most of the unemployment in Howard and Mitchell counties.

He said Howard County (Big Spring) lost 500 oil industry jobs from January 1985 to January 1986.

He also pointed out that a low unemployment rate does not necessarily indicate a healthy economy since the unemployed will often leave a small county to seek a job in a more populated area.

Scouts take camporee honors

Fourteen members of Boy Scout Troop 136 attended the northern district Fall Camporee, competing in several events against scouts from Anson, Stamford and Sweetwater.

The Wolverine Patrol won a second-place ribbon in patrol flag competition and Badger Patrol took third place in lashing.

Troop 136 won the first-place ribbon for the best-looking campsite.

The Camporee was held on the Rocking N Ranch near Rule. Scouts expressed their thanks to Weldon Norman for use of his ranch.

Statement to Voters

Dear Voters:

I am writing to you to ask that you help me save Independent Banking in Texas. You have probably seen some advertising trying to get you to vote for the Proposed Constitution amendment #4. "Branch Banking". These ads are sponsored by the major bank holding companies headquartered mainly in Houston and Dallas. These ads tell you what great "conveniences" you will have by the passage of this amendment, but they don't tell the great adverse effects the amendment will have on you if it does pass. For instance:

WHAT HAS BEEN THE BRANCH BANKING EXPERIENCE IN OTHER STATES?

- In North Carolina, 83 percent of the state's independent banks disappeared after branch banking went into effect.
- In South Carolina, 80 percent of independent banks disappeared.
- In Maryland, 71 percent of these banks was lost.
- In Virginia, branch banking affected 65 percent of independent banks.

Personal banking by your local bank with your personal loan officer who knows you, your business, and your credit history in reviewing any loan application that you may have is an asset that I am sure that you do not want to lose. How would you like for that decision to be made by someone in another town who has no knowledge of you personally whatsoever?

In addition the present law requires that any branch bank of a holding company must be a completely separate bank with its own capital and operate as a completely separate bank. This branch, based on the profits and capital of that bank, pays a franchise tax to the state. A portion of that tax is rebated to the local school districts where that branch bank is located. IF THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT #4 IS PASSED ALLOWING FULL BRANCH BANKING, THE BRANCH BANK OF THE HOLDING COMPANY WILL NOT HAVE TO MAINTAIN CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS AND THE FRANCHISE TAX PAID BY THAT BRANCH WILL NOT BE REBATED TO THE LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS WHERE THAT BRANCH IS LOCATED. INSTEAD, IT WILL BE REBATED TO THE SCHOOL DISTRICTS WHERE THE PARENT HOLDING COMPANY IS LOCATED.

Needless to say, this will cause a sizeable loss in revenue to your school district and probably will have to be made up by increased property taxes paid by you to make up for the loss.

I am pleading with you to join with me in saving Independent Banking in Texas. PLEASE, ON NOVEMBER 4TH, VOTE AGAINST THE PROPOSED CONSTITUTION ADMMENDMENT #4 ALLOWING BRANCH BANKING IN TEXAS.

Sincerely,
Abe Turner

St. George Fall Festival to be Sunday

The St. George CYO (Catholic Youth Organization) will sponsor a Fall Festival Sunday, Nov. 2. It will be from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Parrish Hall in Haskell.

A concession stand will offer a variety of goodies and games to enjoy. Games will include a bean guess, cake walk, dart throw and wheel of fortune.

There also will be drawings for a large stuffed dog and a live turkey. The public is invited to attend.

Rick Perry named to Lyceum Board

State Rep. Rick Perry of Haskell has been elected to the board of directors of the Texas Lyceum. He will hold the position for three years.

The Texas Lyceum is an educational association made up of distinguished Texans from the areas of government, business and academics. It provides its members a forum for discussion of issues affecting Texas and the nation, and the opportunity to develop policy on those matters. This is done through seminars, position papers and other methods. Membership is by invitation only.

In announcing Perry's selection, Lyndon Olson, Lyceum president and chairman of the State Board of Insurance, said he is pleased that Perry will be able to participate. "We are thrilled to have persons of his quality to serve with us," Olson said. "He has worked hard to represent his district, and after only one term in Austin, has earned the reputation of being highly capable and conscientious."

Perry also expressed his appreciation at being chosen. "Just to be considered for membership in the Lyceum is quite an honor," he said. "The caliber of its membership is truly outstanding. Through this organization, I will have the chance to deal with leaders from many different fields and from all areas of our state, and to represent the views of West Texas. It's a tremendous opportunity."

BANK WINNERS

Bank announces winners of contests

Sarah Dulaney and Mik Everett were grand prize winners in the First National Bank's coloring contest.

Winners were announced Sunday during the bank's open house.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED REDUCTION IN AT&T's TEXAS RATES

The Public Utility Commission of the state of Texas has entered orders in two recent cases that would substantially reduce the charges which AT&T pays to the state's local telephone companies and which could allow AT&T to reduce prices for most of AT&T's customers on calls placed within the state of Texas.

The total amount of the reduction to AT&T's customers is expected to be between $115.3 million and $120.6 million. This is in addition to the $19.8 million reduction in AT&T's Texas basic long distance prices that went into effect on March 1, 1986 and is in addition to the approximately $2 billion in AT&T interstate price reductions that took effect earlier this year.

If the changes are approved, all of AT&T's direct dialed long distance, directory assistance, WATS and 800 service customers would be affected, and would experience a decrease in their prices for these services when calling within the state of Texas. The following tables show the anticipated impact of the changes on AT&T customers by service category:

Class of Service	Approximate Overall % Reduction	Approximate Overall Dollar Reduction (in millions)
Long Distance	9.2	$ 68.4
Directory Assistance	20.0	1.0
WATS	29.1	29.7
800	19.9	21.5

The rate reductions are presently anticipated to occur in two phases on or about October 22, 1986 and November 12, 1986. The matter has been assigned as Docket Nos. 6926 and 7113. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf. A complete copy of the tariffs reflecting the potential rate reductions will be on file with the Commission on or before October 23, 1986.

Homecoming at Rule coming up

Rule will have its homecoming Friday and Saturday, Nov. 7-8.

Friday activities will include a chili supper served by the Rule Lions Club at 5:30 p.m. and the football game between Rule and Benjamin at 7:30 p.m. The Homecoming and Coming Home queens will be announced at the game.

Saturday's program calls for registration beginning at 10 a.m. with coffee served in the school cafeteria. Registration fee will be $1. The noon meal in the cafeteria will begin at 11:30 a.m. and a general assembly is scheduled in the auditorium at 1:30 p.m. Classes and faculty members will be recognized.

Cincinnati, Ohio, got its name from a benevolent fraternal organization, The Cincinnati, set up after the Revolutionary War and named for a legendary Roman hero. The governor of the territory in which the city lay was president of the society.

Sagerton

Christ Lutheran Church in Stamford had a mission festival last Sunday and nine persons from Sagerton attended the luncheon and special mission service. Those from Sagerton were: Harry and Bee Swoyer, Pastor Mel and Gaile Swoyer, Stacey Swoyer, Jennifer Swoyer, Marcia Swoyer, Alvin and Alice Bredthauer.

They joined 20 persons from Christ Lutheran Church in Stamford for an offering for commitment to Mission, a special mission appeal of the American Lutheran Church. Pastor Vic Andersen of the Stamford congregation welcomed Pastor Mel Swoyer, chairperson of the West Texas Conference, who preached on "Mission Opportunities, (Matthew 28: 16-20)". Pastor Swoyer quoted Larry Cole, retired football player for the Dallas Cowboys and a member of St. Andrew Lutheran Church in Hurst. Cole said "as Christians, we must play the game of life not for the glory, not for the stands, but for our coach, the Lord Jesus Christ". Pastor Swoyer said that all Christians are involved in the mission of "reaching out in love", to all people and "sharing Jesus Christ" with them. Mrs. Loretta Connally was the organist for the special mission service.

Mrs. Jana Manske and Mrs. Kathy

Manske were hosts for the Junior Lutherans fellowship last Sunday at Faith Lutheran Church in Sagerton. The young people played games, took turns hitting a pinada, and enjoyed refreshments. Those who attended were Tami Baitz, Kacy Baitz, Kami Baitz, Michael Hertel, Jeremy Hertel, Jonathan Lammert, Paige Lammert, Michael Monske, Brian Manske, Jace Manske, Paula Stegemoeller, Stephanie Stegemoeller, Michelle Stegemoeller, Gaile Swoyer, Jennifer Swoyer, Marcia Swoyer, Greg Teichelman, and Chad Teichelman. Next Sunday is "all Saint's Sunday" at Faith Lutheran Church in Sagerton and Pastor Swoyer will preach on "The Zacchaeus in all of us." (Luke 19: 1-10) Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10:30 a.m. next Sunday in Sagerton.

Boy Scouts win big in pushmobile races

The Northern District of the Chisholm Boy Scout Council met in Sweetwater Sunday afternoon for the annual pushmobile races.

A large number of 8-, 9- and 10-year-old Scouts, along with their leaders, attended the event.

Haskell scouts were firing on all eight cylinders, winning trophies for first, second and third place overall.

First-place trophy and first-place overall for 10-year-olds went to Haskell Webeloes Den 1, Pack 136, made up of Matthew McFadden, Matt Perry, Brian Brzozowski, Jonathon Tatum, Shannon Meek, Eddie Gonzales, Casey Coleman and Kenneth Billington. Leaders are Billy Tatum and Marvin McFadden.

First place and second place overall in the 9-year-old division went to Haskell Den 5, Pack 136, made up of Jamie Hodgkin, Justin Lisle, Mik Everett, Bobby Cothron, Christopher Silvas, Cory Green, Ryan Olson and Casey Larned. Leaders are Paula Everett and Rhonda Lisle.

First place and third place overall for 8-year-olds went to Haskell Den 7, Pack 136. Members are Lyle Fouts, Matt Blanks, Casey Burgess, Benjamin Crain, Josh Densman, Harrison Druessedow, Adam Frye and Boz Hardin. Leaders are Susan Blanks and Bonnie Fouts.

Second place winners in the 10-year-old division from Anson were Webeloes Den 1, Pack 122. Members were Richard Phillips, Barry Pryor, Shawn Beasley, Michael Munoz, Kris Glasgow and Ivan Hinojosa. Leader is David Fenwick.

Second place, 9-year-olds, went to Haskell Den 4, Pack 136, Cody Conner, Jeremy Cadenhead, Scott Albuquerque, Brandon McFadden, Kory Tidrow, Chris Tatum, Michael McFadden and Quinton Billington. Leaders are Becky McFadden and Donna Tidrow.

Taking second place in the 8-year-old division was Haskell Den 3, Pack 136, Justin Stewart, Ryan Nanny, Casey McDaniel, Aaron Earles, Marcus Overton, Casey Thompson, Jay Mickler and Jeremy Futch. Leaders are Pat Mickler, Kathy Futch, Sue Stewart, Debbie Earles, Janice McDaniel and Betsy Nanny.

Third place for 8-year-olds was

PUSHMOBILE WINNERS

Haskell Webeloes Den 1, Pack 136, was first-place overall winner in the pushmobile races in Sweetwater Sunday. Team members are Kenneth Billington, Blake Henshaw, Shannon Meeks, Matt Perry, Matthew McFadden, Casey Coleman and Jonathon Tatum. Leaders are Billy Tatum, Marvin McFadden and Bill Perry.

Den 3, Pack 139, of Stamford. Members were Lanny Bullock, Rick and Arthur Ramos, Tino Gonzales, Freddy Alaniz, Chad Allen, Jeremy Mueller and Chevy Burleson. Cathie Carter is cubmaster and Elizabeth Ramos is den leader.

Other participants were from Anson Pack 122, Dens 2 and 3; Stamford Pack 139, Den 1; Sweetwater Pack 147, Dens 1 and 4; Pack 146, Dens 1, 2, 3 and 5; and Haskell Pack 136, Den 6.

The races were close and all the boys were congratulated for their efforts. They also were reminded to keep their engines "revved" up to be ready to go for next week's main event for all of the Chisholm Trail Council dens. These races will be Sunday, Nov. 2, in Abilene at Nelson Park in the softball field (near the zoo). Registration begins at 1:30 and the races start promptly at 2:30.

Cub scouting encourages good sportsmanship and pride in growing strong in mind and body. Those interested in joining should call one of the cubmasters, Jim Bob Mickler in Haskell (864-8093), Cathie Carter in Stamford (773-3709) or Helen Fenwick in Anson (823-3329).

Anson holds 7-AA lead

Surprising Anson hung to first place in district 7-AA after last week's third round of district play.

The Tigers upped their district record to 3-0 with a 17-15 win over Hamlin to remain the only unbeaten, untied team in 7-AA play.

Albany, unbeaten but tied, kept pace with a 38-14 victory over Hawley, bringing its record to 2-0-1.

Stamford stood at 1-1-1 following a 33-13 victory over Haskell.

Haskell and Hamlin are 1-2 and Hawley is 0-3.

This week's schedule features Anson and Albany in a showdown. Hamlin against Stamford and Haskell against Hawley.

Eighth-graders lose to Albany

By Joey Swinney
The eighth-grade Warriors were defeated by the Albany Lions, 30-0.

"The Warriors did not play well against Albany," Coach Cody Moree said about the Oct. 16 game. "The aggression was poor and so was the blocking and tackling. Albany had a good team."

The game last week against the Stamford Bulldogs was cancelled due to rain.

The Warriors will travel to Hawley today (Thursday) to play the Bearcats at 5 p.m.

The Warriors will play the Anson Tigers to wrap up their 1986 season.

Booster Club

The Indian Booster Club met Monday night with president Dan Griffith presiding.

He pointed out that the last two games are home games, and the Indians have done extremely well in their previous home games, having beaten Quannah and Hamlin and tied Munday at Indian Stadium.

He stressed that fans need to be supportive and positive during these final days of the season. In agreement, Grace Thomas quoted

Yogi Berra as saying "It ain't over 'til it's over."

Club members expressed appreciation to the cheerleaders for their constant support, especially for the phone calls made to team members during the week. The twirlers were also commended for their enthusiasm at the game.

The meeting next Monday will be at 7 p.m., a half hour earlier than usual.

Sidelines

Haskell's loss to Stamford means the Indians can't win first in district 7-AA.

Anson and Albany would each have to lose two games, and that can't happen since they must play each other.

All kinds of possibilities exist for

Jayvees seek year's first win

House Bill 72 has once again been put into use.

This time it affected the Haskell JV Indians. Because of illness and students not passing their classes, the game against the Stamford Bulldogs was cancelled.

In the second game of district play, the Indians hosted the Albany Lions and were defeated, 18-0.

"Overall, the team improved offensively and defensively," Coach Cody Moree said, "but there is always room for improvement."

The Indians travel to Hawley tonight to take on the Bearcats and look for their first win of the season.

the runnerup playoff spot. As of now, everyone except Hawley has a chance.

Twenty-five penalties were stepped off against Haskell and Stamford, 13 against the Indians and 12 against the Bulldogs.

The Indians lost 117 yards, the Bulldogs 75. Both the number of penalties and the yards lost were season highs for Haskell. Previous highs were 11 and 115 at Electra.

It was the fourth game that the Indians have been penalized more than 100 yards. Haskell has now been penalized more than its opponent in every game except the Hamlin game when 55 yards were stepped off against each team.

Other three-digit penalty losses came against against Holliday (102) and Knox City (101).

Seventh-graders to meet Hawley

By Kevin Mitchell
The seventh-grade Warriors will travel to Hawley tonight (Thursday) to face the Bearcats.

Last week the game was called off due to rain.

The week before, the Warriors hosted the Albany Cubs and were defeated, 16-0.

"The defense and offense both did a good job, but mental mistakes cost us the game," Coach George Martin said.

This year's seventh-grade team consists of:

Jeffrey Brister, Steven Crain, Lee Decker, Eric Gardner, David Holt, Vernon Jones, Jimmy Johnston, Aaron McFadden, Heath McMeans, Johnny Rodriquez, Michael Rodriquez, Cody Stocks, Isaac Swann, Relandas Swann, Chris Tanner, Samuel Villereal and Terry Williams.

Stamford wins over Indians, 33-13

By Wendell Faught
They were playing the Bulldogs' song out there. Again and again.

The story of the Stamford-Haskell game in Stamford Friday night is simple enough. The Bulldogs could do nothing wrong, the Indians little right.

In the process, Stamford handed Haskell a 33-13 spanking, eliminating the Indians from 7-AA championship contention.

Most of the blame can be put on Isaac Cooper. The 250-pound Bulldog fullback ran over, around and through the Haskell defenses for 223 yards and four touchdowns.

About the only thing Indian fans had to cheer about was a 97-yard punt return for a touchdown by Joel Torres in the third quarter which temporarily brought Haskell within striking distance.

So dominant was the Bulldog team that the Indians ran off only 36 offensive plays during the evening, while Stamford was running 68. Of the Indians' eight first downs, five came in the final four minutes when the outcome of the game was no longer in doubt.

Stamford struck first at the 1:51 mark of the opening period when Cooper bolted 8 yards for a touchdown. He fumbled as he crossed the goal but recovered his own fumble for the score. Mark Bounds' extra point kick put the Bulldogs out front, 7-0.

A fumble recovery, Haskell's only

6-man teams to be busy this weekend

Rochester is at Benjamin, Rule is at Weinert and Paint Creek plays host to Woodson in district 5-A 6-man football action involving county teams this week.

The Steers of Rochester took a giant step toward earning a playoff position last Friday with a 24-8 win over Weinert. It was the seventh victory, against a single loss, for Rochester. The loss was Weinert's second, against five wins.

Both Rochester and Weinert are ranked in the top 10 in the state. Each team has lost to Newcastle.

Paint Creek blasted Lueders-Avoca last Friday, 52-12, to up its season record to 5-3.

Rule was forced to forfeit its game to Newcastle because of injuries.

lost fumble of the game, set up the next Stamford score. The Bulldogs recovered a loose ball at their own 33, and marched the 67 yards to paydirt in 15 plays with Cooper getting the score on a 5-yard run. Bounds again booted the extra point to make it 14-0 with only 2:09 to go before half.

Stamford took the second-half kickoff and drove to the Indian 42 where the drive bogged down. After Bounds punted to Torres on the 3, the Indian returner hauled it in and raced down the sideline 97 yards for a touchdown. He then booted the extra point, his 11th of the year in 11 tries, to narrow the margin to 14-7.

Stamford took the next kickoff and drove to the Indian 10 where Dewayne Singletary's fumble following a pass reception was recovered by the Indians' Ponciano Lopez.

But the Indians returned the ball to their hosts four plays later when Singletary intercepted a Mark Young pass on the 18. Cooper scored on the first play from that point. Bounds' extra point attempt was no good, leaving the score at 20-7.

Cooper went 10 yards for another Stamford score early in the fourth quarter and Bobby Alvarez passed 19 yards to Jeff Gilbreath for still another as the Bulldogs padded their margin to 33-7.

Haskell got its second touchdown following the kickoff after Gilbreath's scoring catch. Torres returned the kickoff to the Haskell 35. After a penalty moved the ball to the 45, Derrick Billington ran 22 yards and Stephon Brockington added 5 more to the Bulldog 28. After a 4-yard pass from Patrick Perez to Louie Torres, a 10-yard penalty against Stamford moved the ball to the 14. Perez then passed to Lopez for the touchdown. Perez, who faded to pass for the bonus points, couldn't find anyone open and was dropped as he made his way back to the line of scrimmage.

Joel Torres was the nearest thing to a bright spot in the Haskell offense. In addition to his long punt return, he had eight carries for 37 yards to top all Haskell ball toters. He had a 34-yard punt return and punted five times for a 38-yard average.

Mark Young got 23 yards in six carries, Billington had 22 yards in the one carry and Brockington made 21 yards in eight tries.

Perez, who replaced Young in the fourth quarter, completed three of eight passes for 43 yards and a touchdown, but suffered three interceptions. One of the completions was to Young for 25 yards.

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Gerald Rodgers, CPA

YOU DO FINANCIAL PLANNING

Everyone does financial planning. Some people do their own planning quite well; others need assistance.

Financial planning is more than just paying your bills on time and keeping an accurate checkbook. At least annually you should prepare two schedules. Both are easy to do and, if done once a year, will provide you with valuable information on where your money is coming from, where it's going, and how you're doing on saving for retirement.

It's difficult to discuss financial affairs without some financial terminology, but don't be intimidated by any of the terms. The first thing you need is a balance sheet, a listing of all of your assets and debts. The difference between the two is your net worth. When valuing your assets, be realistic. Put down the amount you would expect to receive if you sold the asset in a reasonable short period of time, not what you paid for the property and not what you would like to sell it for.

The next schedule you need is a cash flow statement. This is a listing of all the sources of cash to be received during the year as well as a list of all of the disbursements you expect to make. This may be more meaningful if it's done on a month-by-month basis for the next twelve-month period. The difference between your total cash receipts and your anticipated disbursements represents your cash flow. It can be either positive or negative. If you have negative cash flow on a consistent basis, you should review your overall investing and spending program.

These two simple schedules give you your starting point (your net worth) and an indication of your ability to accumulate additional assets through investing surplus cash.

An accountant assisting you with your financial planning would start with these same schedules. Since you are quite qualified to begin the process on your own, why not give these schedules a try?

YOU WILL HEAR A LOT FROM THE SO-CALLED CONVENIENCE BANKERS ABOUT PROPOSITION FOUR BUT YOU PROBABLY WILL NOT HEAR THIS:

The big banks of Texas hope to create a bank monopoly at your expense. Proposition Four has disguised branch banking as "full service banking." Whatever they call it - Branch Banking is a bad idea for Texas, and Texans will end up footing the bill for the big Texas bank holding companies to get bigger.

You especially don't want this to happen now since the Texas Legislature just passed a law permitting the large banks of New York City to purchase some or all of the large Texas bank holding companies. Not only can this legally happen now, but is almost certain to take place in the immediate future.

For all these years, Texans have never wanted or allowed the big banks of New York City to own and control the Texas Banking Industry. We are sure that this position by the people of Texas still has never changed.

Meat not only food with fat

Consumers may associate fat with meat because it is visible, and tend to ignore the hidden fats in other types of food, says a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist.

Mary K. Sweeten explains that there are three types of fat in food:

-Polyunsaturated fats are liquid at room temperature. These fats tend to lower blood cholesterol. Vegetable oils, such as corn, cottonseed, safflower and soybean oil are all polyunsaturated fats.

-Monounsaturated fats seem to lower blood cholesterol, but still provide fat-based calories. Peanut butter and peanut oil, nuts, avocados and olive oil contain monounsaturated fats.

-Saturated fats are solid at room temperature and tend to raise blood cholesterol levels. Animal products, such as cheese, meat, butter and lard are a main source of saturated fats. However, vegetable products including cocoa butter, coconut oil and palm oil also contain large amounts of saturated fats.

"Unless people read food ingredient labels, they are often unaware that coconut oil, palm oil and other saturated fats are frequently used in baked goods and other processed foods", Sweeten remarks.

One way consumers have tried to cut back on saturated fats is to choose lean meat, says Sweeten.

According to the nutritionist, results of a recent national study conducted by Texas A&M University showed that consumers evaluate the leanness of a cut of beef primarily by the amount of trimmable fat, or the "plate waste" fat that would be cut away and not eaten.

"The degree of marbling in the meat also contributes to its fat content", she says, "so consumers may wish to select beef on that basis as well". In general, USDA "choice" grades of beef have more marbling than those labeled "good".

About 3 to 6 percent of fat from marbling is necessary for tenderness and taste appeal in beef, says the nutritionist. A 3-ounce serving of cooked lean beef has 192 calories.

Sweeten notes that some of the leaner cuts of meat include flank steak, top sirloin steak, bottom sirloin, top loin steak, top round steak, chuck top blade steak, beef tenderloin steaks, round tip roast and bottom round roast.

Both the U.S. Dietary Guidelines and the American Heart Association Dietary Recommendations advise Americans to cut back on their consumption of fat so that it is no more than one-third of their daily calories. In addition, the Heart Association recommends reducing saturated fats to under 10 percent of daily calories.

"That means consumers need to be thinking in terms of their total fat intake", says Sweeten. "They may want to watch their intake of saturated fats from processed foods and baked goods as well as select lean meat".

Rule Compress has first bale

The Rule Compress processed its first bale of cotton from the 1986 crop last Tuesday (Oct. 21).

The 545-pound bale, grown by Johnny Hunter, was ginned by Munday Gin and seed.

The grower received a $50 check from the compress.

Farmers exempt from tax

Farmers forced to transfer assets to creditors to satisfy debts no longer have to pay alternative minimum taxes on recognized capital gains.

"This was a serious tax liability that was forcing many farmers into bankruptcy to reduce their tax liabilities," points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist and attorney with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System. President Reagan signed the special exemption bill into law in late April. Since it's retroactive to Dec. 31, 1981, some farmers may have a tax refund coming.

Regarding the liability faced by farmers in forced transfers of assets, Hayenga cites a typical situation. A farmer who bought most of his 500 acres in the 1960s and 1970s for an average of $300 per acre was forced to borrow heavily on it in the early 1980s because of operating losses. He owes $1,300 per acre and can't meet debt obligations with current farm income. His lender agrees to accept the land in lieu of foreclosure.

This triggers capital gains of $1,000 per acre -- or $500,000. Of this amount, 40 percent or $200,000, is taxable as ordinary income. A farmer may have losses to carry forward and other deductions to offset this ordinary income. However, the other 60 percent of the gain which was excluded--$300,000 in this case (less a $40,000 deductible exemption) -- becomes a "tax preference item" subject to an alternative minimum tax of 20 percent.

"This rule was designed to impose at least some tax on the wealthy," Hayenga points out. "Inadvertently, it traps farmers who've been forced out of business."

According to Hayenga, the forced-out farmer in this example would be subject to a 20 percent tax on $260,000 ($300,000 gain minus the $40,000 exemption). That's a tax bill of $52,000. If the farmer deeds back the property and then is forced into bankruptcy, subsequent bankruptcy will not erase the tax bill.

Licenses give message

Want to go out 4 FUN sometime? Well, IM POOR, you see, I O DAD. Besides, IM BUSY. But if you GO 4TH in your TOY TRK, don't do it while you're TIP-Z.

Those are a few of the messages some 56,000 Texas motorists have invented for personalizing their license plates.

Beginning January 1, 1987, it will cost $35.00 less to tell other motorists you have NO WIFE, you're SINGLE. The annual fee for personalized license plates will drop from $75.00 to $40.00.

The reduction was approved during the recent special session of the state legislature in an effort to attract some of the nearly 100,000 motorists who cancelled their special plates after the fee was raised from $25.00 to $75.00 during the 1985 regular session.

"There were about 154,000 personalized plates registered in the state before the fee was increased," said Dian Neill, director of the Division of Motor Vehicles with the highway department. "Obviously we're not serving all Texans who want such plates. We hope the fee reduction will help us serve them better as well as regenerate the lost dollars to the state."

The State Department of Highways and Public Transportation receives $1.25 from the sale of each special plate, Neill said. The remainder of the revenue goes into the state's general funds.

Personalized plates were first offered in Texas in 1965, Neill said. More than 5,000 were issued the first year. Names, phrases and words relating to the driver's alma mater are among the more popular choices in individualized plates.

Somewhere on the state's highways a few friendly folks are saying HOW-D-DO, BCNU and BYE NOW. And the motorists who chose HOT DOG, PICKLE, TURKEY, APPLE and BNANA must be having a PEACH of a time. But the driver who complains IM LOST could use some HELP.

One motorist, evidently no JOKER, brags IM N LUV. Another motorist leaves it up to other drivers to determine if 2X4X8 means he's a construction enthusiast. And who but a firm named McDonald would opt for EIEIO?

"Personalized plates are fun for both the vehicle's owner and for other motorists," Neill said.

Up to six letters and two spaces can be used in personalizing a license plate, she said. Requests are screened to see that they don't duplicate an existing plate and that they meet basic good taste requirements.

Once the plates are approved, they are issued in about four weeks. And the plate is registered to the individual, rather than the vehicle.

"We've had some plates issued to the same motorist for 20 years," Neill said. "They may change vehicles, but the plate goes with them"

But Neill said many names and phrases previously 'taken' may now be available, due to the drop in demand after the fee increase.
