

Basketball season to begin

Haskell High basketball teams open the season next Tuesday, Nov. 18, when they travel to Merkel to lock horns with that school's Class AAA teams.

First home game is scheduled for Friday of next week, Nov. 21, against Newcastle. (The opponent may be changed, at least for the boys since the Newcastle football team is in the playoffs.)

Prospects look extremely bright for the Haskell High School girls' basketball team this season.

Six seasoned veterans return from the Maiden team which went 22-5 last year and took both halves of the district championship with a perfect 10-0 mark.

Seven girls up from the junior varsity and a transfer student make up Coach George Martin's squad for the new season.

Heading the returnees will be Julie Roewe and Patricia Henry, both starters a year ago, along with Robyne Weaver, Tiffany Moore, Sheree Dumas and Mindy Smith, all of whom saw plenty of action.

Joining them are Rebecca Flores, Vicki Chavez, Joy McKeever, LaKay Gibbs, Dala Harris, Tamra Burnett and Tammi Miller from last year's junior varsity, and Sadie Thompson, a transfer student from Breckenridge.

"We're looking for good things," said Coach Martin Monday.

The boys' team will be under new coach Alan Atchison. He was out of town Wednesday due to a death in his family and was not available to discuss his team's prospects.

Darla Griffis inducted into honor group

Darla Kaye Griffis of Weinert has been inducted into the Psi Zeta chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Western Texas College in Snyder.

Miss Griffis was salutatorian of her graduating class at Weinert High School. She was named Miss WHS, Most Likely to Succeed and Football and FFA Sweetheart.

She was named to the all-district volleyball team four years and advanced to regional competition in UIL debate competition four years. She was active in FFA, FHA, the Speech Club, Acteens and cheerleading.

She is a psychology major at WTC and plans to transfer to Texas Tech University following completion of her studies at WTC. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Griffis.

School issue due next week

Publication of the rural school supplement to The Haskell Free Press has been delayed for one week. It will appear in the Nov. 20 issue of the newspaper.

Originally, the school supplement was scheduled to be produced this week. Material for the section exceeded the 32 tabloid pages allotted for it, however, necessitating a second press run and more time for printing.

TWIRLERS PERFORM

Haskell High School band twirlers put on a fire baton exhibition during halftime of the Haskell-Anson football game Friday night.

Outstanding 4-H member honored

An outstanding 4-H Club member from Haskell County was honored Tuesday at the Rolling Plains District 4-H Gold Star banquet at the Haskell Civic Center.

Among the top 4-H'ers in the district honored were Michelle Scoggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Scoggins of Rochester.

Featured speaker was Donnell Brown of Throckmorton, second vice president of the State 4-H Council and vice chairman of the District 34-H Council.

Kit Horne of West Texas Utilities Co., which sponsors the banquet, welcomed the honorees and guests.

Theme of this year's program was "Up, Up and Away with 4-H." The banquet was planned and conducted by 4-H members on the Gold Star Committee of the 1985-86 District 4-H Council.

Council members are from Dickens, Fisher, Foard, Kent, King, Knox, Stonewall and Haskell counties.

The Haskell County 4-H organization catered the meal. Senior 4-H'ers from Haskell County served the meal.

Kellie Emsoff of Baylor County, council chairman, was mistress of ceremonies.

Parents, distinguished guests and special friends of 4-H attended the banquet to salute the county winners. To qualify for the Gold Star award, highest 4-H honor at the county level, a 4-H member must be at least 14 years old, have completed three years of club work and be active in 4-H. The award is intended to stimulate winners to higher achievement and to encourage other young people to participate in the county 4-H program.

Awards were presented by Mrs. Elaine Houston and Ed Garnett, district directors for the Texas Agricultural Service. Four-H is the youth program of the Extension Service.

Haskell to host playoff

Knox City and Munday football teams will meet in a zone playoff game at Haskell's Indian Stadium Friday night.

The game begins at 7:30. Munday is champion of the south zone of district 5-A, and Knox City was runnerup to Valley in the north zone.

Neither team is a stranger to Haskell fans. The Indians played both during the season, tying Munday 14-14 in the season opener and losing to Knox City 10-7 in the fifth game.

Pecan Show scheduled for Dec. 3

The fourth annual Haskell County Pecan Show and Pecan Bake Show will be Dec. 3.

This year's event will include a pecan baking division.

All Haskell County residents are invited to enter. Rules for the pecan show and baking division may be picked up at the County Extension office or at Allison Farm Supply in Rule.

Pecan entries must be in the County Extension office or Allison Farm Supply at 5 p.m. Dec. 1.

Pecan baking division entries need to be in between 7:45 and 9:45 a.m. on the day of the show, in the Lions Club building in Rule.

Retired teachers meet Wednesday

Haskell County Retired Teachers will meet at noon Wednesday, Nov. 19, at Mitchell's Porthole.

It will be the last meeting of the year and members are urged to attend.

Land Bank announces rate drop

Farmers and ranchers who finance with the Federal Land Bank of Texas will pay lower interest rates beginning Dec. 1.

Variable interest rates on long-term farm and ranch land loans will be 10.75 percent, down from 11 percent. Rural residence and farm-related business loans will decrease to 11.25 percent, down from 11.5 percent.

Dale E. Bullinger, president of the Federal Land Bank of Haskell, said the reduction will save Texas farmers and ranchers more than $6 million a year in interest.

The bank and its 44 Federal Land Bank associations have more than $2.5 billion outstanding to 40,000 Texas farmers and ranchers for terms of up to 30 years.

"Lower interest rates will give Land Bank borrowers some financial relief," says Bullinger. "We feel that each time we bring interest rates down even a few basis points, we are helping stabilize the overall farm economy and Texas land prices, in particular."

Since Aug. 1, the bank has lowered interest rates three-fourths of one percent. This represents almost $19 million a year less in interest rates for farmers, said Bullinger.

"The Texas Land Bank mortgage loan portfolio continues to earn money," Bullinger said. "Almost 98 percent of our loans are current. Only two percent or about $14 million of our loans are delinquent. We view this as acceptable considering the bank has $2.5 billion in loans outstanding."

Bullinger warned that even though the Land Bank continues to make money, third-quarter earnings will be negative because of aid to other ailing Farm Credit districts. He emphasized, however, that recent legislation passed for the Farm Credit System would alter these figures.

PUMPKIN WINNERS

City sales taxes down by $3,000

The City of Haskell received a check this week for $19,740.47 as its share of the sales taxes collected by the state.

This week's check was nearly $3,000 less than the $22,716.33 check received for the same period last year.

So far this year the one-percent city tax levy has brought the city $151,008.64. This figure represents a 4.2-percent decline from last year's total of $157,632.94 for the same period.

Other Haskell County cities receiving checks this week and the amounts included:

Rule, $2,918.92; Rochester, $926.55; Weinert, $547.19; and O'Brien, $211.44.

For the year to date, Rule has received $24,172.62 and Rochester has gotten $10,267.04. Weinert's total is $1,984.77 and O'Brien's is $1,047.20.

CLOWN MINISTRY

Young people of the Lutheran and Presbyterian churches (grades 2-6) are being taught clown ministry by Katie Hopper, who learned clown ministry while a college group leader at Louisiana State University. The group, known as the "Young Pioneers," met Sunday afternoon at the Lutheran Church to put on their faces and clothing, and then visited residents of Haskell Nursing Center and Rice Springs Care Home to share their newly acquired skills. The Young Pioneers meet the second Sunday of each month at one of the two churches. Minister advisors are Katie and Jimmy Hopper, Presbyterian ministers, and Victor Andersen, Lutheran minister. Adult sponsors are Sue Andersen, Janice Payne, Janice Brzozowski and Kay Perry.

Boy Scouts reorganized at Paint Creek

Boy Scout Troop 148 of Paint Creek jumped off to a running start Friday night at an organizational meeting at the Paint Creek School.

Bob Oatmen, northern district scout executive, conducted the session like a typical scout meeting and enrolled five new scouts. The sponsoring institution will be the Paint Creek Independent School District.

Waller Overton will serve as scout master. He has over 20 years of scouting experience and says he is excited at the prospect of reopening the troop.

"Our gear has really deteriorated since the troop folded in the early 70s," said Overton. "We surely will appreciate any camping gear, uniforms, and especially tentage, that anyone might wish to donate to the troop."

New members include Hans Overton, Shawn Barbour, Geovanny Mayer, Roman and Dane Morgan.

For the present, the troop will meet on Tuesdays.

Senior citizens plan bazaar

The public is invited to attend the Stonewall County Senior Citizens' first bazaar at the Aspermont Senior Citizens Building. It will be Friday, Nov. 21, from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m.

Baked goods, crafts and Christmas items will be offered.

Linda and Page Johnson

Linda Roberts weds Page Johnson

Linda Kay Roberts of Lubbock and Page Gilliland Johnson of Carrolton, in a three-part candlelight ceremony, exchanged vows on Saturday, Oct. 25, at the First Christian Church in Snyder.

The Rev. Lorene Gardner, pastor of the Methodist Church in Coahoma and father of the bride's roommate, officiated.

The bride wore her mother's 30-year-old wedding gown. The V shaped bodice attached to a mandarine collar was made of ivory satin as was the three-yard train. They were covered with lace and net of embossed roses. Each rose was laced with pearls and sequins.

Her crown of white and peach, pearl centered daisies, accented with yellow rose buds, secured the fingertip veil hand-made by Jane Turner of Anson, long time family friend. Her bouquet was a cascading arrangement of white and yellow daisies with peach roses set in yards of satin streamers punctuated with pearl centered daisies. This and all flowers wre of silk and made by Tommie Alvis of Saginaw, friend of the bride's family.

For something blue, her garter was made of satin with two rows of sequined and pearl laced ruffles. This was made by the groom's mother.

The groom wore ivory tails with wing-tip collar. His attendants, best man, Matt Fletcher, brother of the groom, from McAllen, groomsmen Kelly Robinson, brother of the bride from Lubbock, and Jon Patterson of McAllen, were attired in beige and coffee tux with cummerbunds and boutonnières to match the bride's attendants' dresses.

Before the ceremony began, candles were lighted by Tommy Leer of Lubbock and Kevin Bennett of Carrolton.

Matron of honor, Karman Abel of Abilene, sister of the bride, wore a peach satin floor-length dress with a same color. She carried a single long stemmed peach rose with satin streamers. Her headpiece was of peach roses and satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids, Nan Fletcher of Dallas, sister of the groom, and Brenda Roberts, sister of the bride from Stephenville, were attired in lemon yellow dresses identical to the matron of honor.

As guests arrived they were registered by Shelly Robinson of Lubbock, sister-in-law of the bride. The quill pen had been used at weddings in the groom's family for several generations.

Linda was given in marriage by her parents, Kay and Don Logston of Stamford, and V. R. Roberts of Rochester.

During the double-ring ceremony, Rev. Gardner read from the Love chapter in the book of Corinthians and Ruth's profound proclamation from the book of Ruth.

Vocalists for the ceremony were Dawn Gardner of Lubbock and Albert Cannon of Snyder. Rethea Cannon of Snyder was organist. Dawn sang "You Light Up My Life" and "You and I." As the couple lighted the unity candle, Dawn and Albert sang "To Me." Completing the ceremony they knelt and both took communion from a silver cup the groom received upon his baptism into the Episcopal Church. Following communion and while kneeling the couple and guests recited "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Logston, followed in the church fellowship hall. Serving at the bride's table were Althea Wood and Patsy Covey of Snyder. Shanna Covey of Snyder and Rinette Vincent of Wichita Falls served at the groom's table.

The rehearsal dinner at Willow Park Inn in Snyder was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Gary Fletcher of McAllen, parents of the groom.

Post-election events point to contrasts

AUSTIN—The events on the day after the election couldn't paint the contrast any better between Gov.-elect Bill Clements and defeated incumbent Mark White.

White cast the deciding vote with Treasurer Ann Richards against Comptroller Bob Bullock to approve state borrowing of $600 million to keep the state from going broke early next year.

Clements, who has no such vote yet, joined Bullock in opposing the move. Bullock thinks the borrowing is unnecessary. And Clements called the action deficit financing.

The men's political images are clear, deliberately chosen and buttressed. White is a spender and Clements is not.

But now Clements faces White's old problems, and White, as he told the press, will go into the private sector "somewhere between practicing law and selling barbeque."

Crossroads Reached

Clements will be in the hot-seat as well as the Mansion, and he could likely face a deficit looming larger than the one that undid White.

But no matter the unfolding future, Texas government and to the State Insurance Board, and is lining up jobs for other staffers.

AG's Race Close

If Clements' victory margin was larger than expected, few thought that Attorney General Jim Mattox's win over Judge Roy Barrera, Jr. would be so close.

Barrera's showing on his first time out has sparked lots of hope that an Hispanic can win a statewide race in Texas. In fact, Texas Supreme Court Justice Raul Gonzalez won, making him the first, officially.

Guts To Run

But Gonzalez had the advantage of incumbency, having been appointed to the post. And his was a down-ballot race.

The real issue is whether an Hispanic can win one of the top offices, and Barrera's close finish indicates the day is closer, even though he ran in a "kinked" situation.

Barrera ran as a Republican, which galled the Texas Democratic Party, presently dominated by urban liberals who like to portray the GOP as racist as well as elitist. Some of that ilk also fostered the notion that rural conservatives are also racists who won't vote for a Mexican-American.

The Republican Party gave Barrera a chance. The Democrats are still "grooming" their Hispanic hopefuls.

But before either party gets credit or blame, remember this: Barrera had the guts to run for statewide office, while the "hopefuls" sat out and voted with the liberals for Mark White.

Barrera has a future, and because of him, so does any other Hispanic with the courage to step up to the starting line.

Speaker Re-Elected

House Speaker Gib Lewis, D-Fort Worth, handily won re-election and seems a shoo-in to be a third-term speaker when the Legislature convenes in January.

Billy Clayton was speaker during Clements' first term, and caught between those two archconservatives, Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, presiding over a liberal Texas Senate, had to reach new levels of finesse.

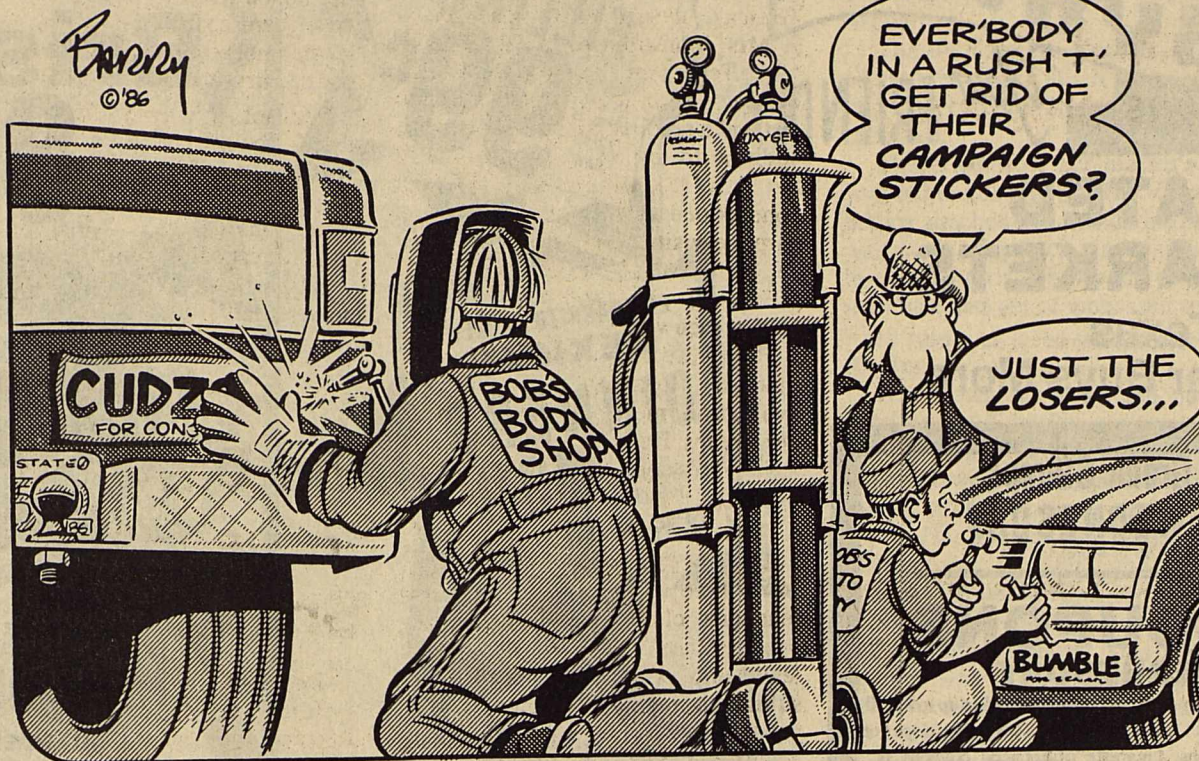

Lewis is also a conservative, but having just overcome what some regarded as a Republican political backshoot, he isn't as likely to participate in GOP partisan squeezeplays.

Versatile pig

The next time you make jokes about pigs, remember they have been around 36 million years, and are very useful animals.

Ranger Rick magazine points out that not only can pigs' meat be eaten and made into bacon, but pig skin is used for footballs, saddles and jackets, and to treat people with severe burns. Chemicals produced from pigs are used to treat humans who suffer from diabetes, and pig heart valves are often used to replace human heart valves.

J.P. Doodles

plain talk

BY WENDELL FAUGHT

I have a feeling that J. D. Holder wouldn't think much of today's way of delivering newspapers.

Holder, an elderly man when I was a youngster, was the sole inhabitant of what had once been the town of Creta, Okla. That was four or five miles east of the nearest post office in Eldorado. The train which carried the mail passed within a stone's throw of his front yard every day, but it no longer stopped in Creta.

No doubt it irritated him when he would see that train come by, knowing that his daily newspaper from Oklahoma City was on the train, but he wouldn't get it until the next day's mail delivery.

One day he met the train during its stop in Eldorado, comered the man in charge of the mail car, and explained his problem.

"No problem," replied the mail man. "I'll just pull your paper out of the bundle every day and throw it in your yard when we pass your house." And he did.

It was the kind of personal service not uncommon in days of yore. People today may be just as accommodating, but regulations forbid them to do a lot of things.

When I ran a newspaper in Deming, N.M., we had a number of subscribers in Columbus, a small town 30 miles south. We'd put the papers for Columbus in the post office on Wednesday night and a mail carrier would take them to the Columbus post office early Thursday morning.

Then came ZIP codes, section centers, etc. The Columbus papers then had to go to Las Cruces, 60 miles to the east, where they were "worked" and sent back to Deming so the carrier could take them to Columbus—on Friday morning.

I mentioned this to Lisa the other day as I helped fill a bunch of mail sacks with Free Presses for out-of-town subscribers.

"That's nothing," replied the Free Press postal expert. "Do you know how our papers get to Weinert?"

Then she explained. They go from Haskell to Abilene, to Fort Worth and Dallas, to Wichita Falls, to Weinert. That's quite a journey to reach a destination 10 miles from Haskell.

Progress has its price. I'm sure J. D. Holder would never have understood.

I don't remember his name, so I'll just call him John Doe.

I wonder how he ever came out in his murder trial, presuming he's had a trial by now. I'm interested because I think he had a good reason to do what he did.

He was from Chicago and the "crime" occurred in that city during one of its famous winter blizzards several years ago.

John Doe's car was stuck in an intersection. I can imagine his frustration as he attempted to free his vehicle while the traffic piled up behind him.

Then some lame-brain set down on his horn, as though that would speed things up.

It was more than my unknown friend could take. He reached into his glove compartment, took out his pistol, walked to his tormentor and shot him between the eyes.

Anyone who has ever been in a similar situation should be able to sympathize with John Doe. I think of him every time I make a wrong turn onto a one-way street in a strange city.

Commodities

Surplus commodities will be distributed to qualified residents of Rochester next Tuesday, Nov. 18. Distributions will be from 9 to 11 a.m. at the First Baptist Church.

—Letters to the Editor—

Disappointed

Editor: It is both surprising and disappointing that your newspaper would print an unsigned letter that attacks if not outright slanders a citizen and an organization.

If you are going to allow your newspaper to be used for such a platform, only signed letters should be printed. Anyone who writes a defamatory letter and lacks the courage to assume the responsibility for his statements does not deserve the local newspaper as his voice for he is free without consequence of his actions to spread rumors, innuendos, and half-truths at will.

If by chance, Ex-Band Member's letter were signed and you withheld his name, then the newspaper is guilty of violating the precepts of responsible journalism.

I, too, hope someday to see the band match the achievements of years past. With more support and less non-constructive belittlement, the goals will be reached much more quickly.

politics will never be the same again. A crossroad has been reached and passed.

Two-Party Texas

The two-party system which coughed up its short-lived promise four years ago has opened its eyes and gotten back on its feet.

Texas Republicans are here to stay, but so is a large bloc of independent voters. The independents returned all other statewide Democrats to office, some with big margins.

Make no mistake about it, the ticket-splitters had a bone to pick with Mark White, not the Texas Democratic Party. Democrats are here to stay, too, and White's absence means a leadership overhaul will be in the making.

Resignations Sought

Immediately, Clements asked for the resignations of White's appointees to the prison board and utility commission.

The appointees didn't comply, and Clements can't compel them to quit, but he underscored the fact that failures in those tough areas will be laid on their doorsteps.

Meanwhile, White appointed his chief of staff, Jim Nelson,

GRESHAM'S CASTLE ... On New Year's Eve, 1866 former Confederate Colonel Walter E. Gresham arrived in Galveston. He established a law practice and made a fortune in law, cotton and the railroad business. In 1886 he began building a 25-room home for himself, his wife, nine children and 13 servants. It became known as "Gresham's Castle" and was the show palace of Galveston. Later a Roman Catholic bishop lived there. Today the house is known as "The Bishop's Palace."

Riva Johnson recognized in Tennessee

Riva Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hitt of Rochester, was recently presented with a Career Ladder Achievement pin from the Tennessee Department of Education.

Mrs. Johnson applied for Level II of the Tennessee Career Ladder which includes a written profession skills test and a reading and writing test. In addition to testing, evaluators from the State Department of Education conduct one announced visit and two surprise visits. One-hour interviews are held at each of the three visits.

Pre- and post-conferences are also held at each visit.

Teachers are time-tested on planning, teaching strategies and evaluation methods used in their classrooms. Detailed lesson plans and unit plans are submitted to the evaluator.

The principal conducts an evaluation along with evaluations from three teachers concerning the teacher's classroom performance, professional development and leadership skills. The teacher must submit a resume of professional development and leadership activities acquired during the past five years. Students are asked to evaluate the teacher.

All criteria is compiled and scored. To apply for Career Level II, the teacher must have completed eight years of teaching experience and meet a minimum score of 600. Mrs. Johnson scored above 700, the necessary score for Career Level III, the highest level on the Tennessee Career Ladder.

Mrs. Johnson is currently in her 10th teaching year at Guild Elementary in Gallatin, Tenn. She is married to Ron Johnson and has a 7-year-old daughter, Jenna.

learned from it.

Freedom isn't a two-minute result, but an eternal dedication. The republic founded by our courageous forefathers will remain free only as long as people like you--and me--will fight to keep it so. At times that fight may take place on foreign soil, as we strive to protect others, and thus ourselves, from unwanted oppression. Today, much of that battle is within our nation's boundaries, for we must now guard against the erosion of the ideals, morals, and values that made our country strong.

I cannot express the depth of my pride in you and my appreciation, dear Veteran, for all you have given to me, to my children, and to the generations to come. I feel a deep sense of responsibility to do all I can to help carry that flame of Freedom into the years ahead.

With love,

Dr. Duke to head Smokeout

Dr. "Red" Duke, known best for syndicated television "Health Reports," will prescribe a smoke-free day for Texas smokers as the state's honorary Great American Smokeout chairman.

This year's Smokeout, which is sponsored annually by the American Cancer Society, is scheduled Nov. 20. The Smokeout is a light-hearted campaign encouraging smokers to give up their tobacco for 24 hours.

Last year, a Gallup Survey indicated 23 million Americans quit smoking or cut down on the number of cigarettes smoked during the Smokeout.

Event planners expect a record number will make the attempt to abstain this year, as the Smokeout celebrates its 10th anniversary.

"We're anticipating our greatest participation ever," said Oscar Newton of Houston, chairman of Texas' Smokeout efforts. "We feel Texans especially will respond to the supportive approach of the Smokeout and to Dr. Duke's plain-spoken advice," he said.

Duke, a nationally respected trauma surgeon, has been a trusted source of health information for television viewers across the nation since 1982. His "Health Reports," produced by the University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston, are broadcast three times a week on 69 television stations in 30 states.

The "Health Reports" will feature segments on smoking and quitting smoking during Smokeout week, Newton said.

"You can't say anything good about smoking," Duke said. "But the good thing about the Great American Smokeout is its supportive approach."

"Although the Smokeout is known as a 'fun' event, it has a very serious purpose," he said. "Each year, 350,000 Americans die of diseases linked to cigarette smoking. We have to convince smokers that quitting is the best thing they can do for themselves and their loved ones," Duke said.

Communities around the state are planning local celebrations in observance of the 10th anniversary Smokeout. Plans call for promotions at businesses, hospitals, schools and colleges, as well as city-wide events honoring former smokers and would-be quitters.

Health services Nov. 20

Health screening services will be conducted in Haskell Nov. 20 by the Texas Department of Health.

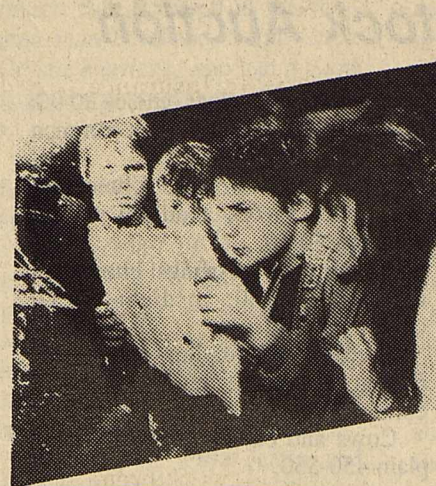

Services offered will be for diabetes, high blood pressure, anemia and weight.

Services will be given at the local

TAX PLANNING

Written By
Richard E. Rodgers, CPA

TAX-FREE EXCHANGE

An old tax provision gets a new shot in the arm. Available under prior tax law, and still available under the new tax law, is the ability to trade property without incurring an income tax liability.

There is a common misconception by many taxpayers that you can sell an investment and reinvest the funds within a certain period of time to avoid income taxes. The only place this is permitted is on the sale and repurchase of a personal residence. On all other property, you are subject to income tax when a sale is made. To qualify for a tax-free exchange the following requirements must be met:

- *Both the property exchanged and the property received must be held for investment or for productive use in a trade or business.
- *Properties exchanged must be of like-kind. (Real estate cannot be traded for personal property.)
- *The property to be received in the exchange must be identified within forty-five days after the first property is transferred.

The tax-free exchange provision does not eliminate the income taxes on the transaction; it simply defers them. If the property received is subsequently sold, the gain is taxable at that time. However, if the property is retained until the recipient's death, the gain will go untaxed. The estate will give the property a "stepped-up" basis with no income taxes ever having been paid. Even if the property is sold before the recipient's death, he or she will have had the interest-free use of the tax money for the period that the property was held.

Now that the long-term capital gain deduction has been eliminated, tax-free exchanges will be even more popular than they were before the Tax Reform Act of 1986.

Weinert News

By Myrtle Phemister
Louis Perez was the lucky student in a special drawing at the Weinert High School Pep Rally on Friday Nov. 7th. The names of all students with a perfect attendance record were in the drawing. Louis was presented a Jam Box for his attendance record. He is a senior student and a football hero.

The Weinert Bulldogs defeated the Leuders-Avoca Raiders on the Raiders' field Friday night with a score of 46-0. The Bulldogs meet Woodson here for the last game of the season Friday night Nov. 14th at 7:30 p.m.

Our community offers its sympathy to Tom Yates, whose brother Bill Yates of Goree died on Sunday with a heart attack. Funeral services were on Tuesday in the Goree Baptist Church.

Edna Boykin is in Wichita Falls for tests this week to determine the cause of her physical illness.

Kevin and Kippie Ward were in Walters, Oklahoma where Kevin preached for the Church of Christ there on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Phemister, Greg and Marcus of Wimberly, Texas were visiting relatives in Haskell and Weinert Saturday and Sunday. They attended the Young Homemakers Arts and Crafts Show while in Haskell.

Weinert folk involved in the show included Jean Forehand, Sarah Guess and Crystie Herricks, who had a booth and displayed many of their handcrafted items.

The ladies of the Haskell Church of Christ invited the Weinert ladies to share the benefits of the Christian Camp retreat held at Cisco Christian Camp. Doris Block of Austin, noted author and lecturer was guest speaker and in her four presentations she used the theme entitled "Four seasons of a Womans Life." Those who attended from Weinert were Faye Jetton and Myrtle Phemister.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Crump entertained his mother, Faye Crump of Blue Grove, Texas over the weekend. Other guests of the Crump's were Debby and Jerry Lester and son Jeremy of Fort Worth. Jerry is a student at the Seminary. They all attended the Arts and Crafts Show in Haskell on Saturday.

Dale and Doris Carroll's family entertained two of her brothers and families over the weekend, Darrell and Brenda Briles of Odessa, with three of their children, and Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Briles of Throckmorton. Some of the families attended the Homecoming in Rule on Saturday, as the Briles family were residents there. Darlene Carroll of San Angelo was here from college and they all attended worship services at the Church of Christ.

Other Weinert Exes included Debbie Hutchinson who teaches at Junction, Texas and Deena Walker who teaches at Northside near Vernon.

The Weinert Baptist Church will host the annual Thanksgiving Community Service on the night of Sunday, Nov. 23rd. Paul Chambers, Pastor of the Four Square Church will be speaker for the service.

Sallie Sanders is in Cross Plains visiting her son Andy and family and attending the revival being held in Cisco this week.

The Weinert community is looking forward to having Roy and Leta Phemister back "home". They are moving from Edinburg to Monday today, but will be preaching for the Weinert Church of Christ. His first service will be Sunday Nov. 16 and visitors are always welcomed. Roy and Leta were both reared in Weinert and attended school here. Leta also taught in the school here several years. Roy first began his preaching under the tutoring of Brother C. Y. Pettigrew while he was yet in High School.

Farmers with cotton to harvest welcomed the light freeze we had Monday night. The temperature dropped to 25° and lower in places and soon the harvest will be in full swing.

Weinert Extension Homemakers Club met for its regular meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 4 in the home of Alice Yates. Nine members and one guest answered roll call with "A Home-Tried" stain remover. Plans were discussed for the up-coming party the Weinert Ladies will host for the Haskell Eager Housewives. The party will be on Nov. 18th in the home of Betty Sanders.

Mrs. Cardie Cunningham gave the council report and told the members what had been planned for Information Day. Weinert Club will be the welcoming committee and the meeting will be Nov. 15 at the Haskell National Bank's Community room. All club members are expected to attend because it is the day of disclosing the Outstanding Club Woman of the Year and the Gold Star 4-H Boy and Girl.

After the business meeting Betty Sanders gave a demonstration on how to care for and how to remove different stains from upholstered furniture. She reminded us that dust settles on upholstered furniture as it does on wood and periodic vacuuming is essential. One very good cleaner to keep on hand is the laundry soap Biz. She said Biz is good to remove baby formula and spit-up from baby's clothes. It is also efficient in cleaning catsup stains, blood, coffee and soft drink stains and chocolate. It is an enzyme and sort of "eats" the stains.

Hair spray, glycerine or dry-cleaning fluid will remove ball-point and ink stains, as well as felt-tip markers and type-writer ribbon stains. Rust stains need lemon juice and salt or hydrogen peroxide and ammonia. There is a chemical rust remover on the market also.

Mrs. Yates served a variety of finger sandwiches, nuts and pumpkin roll with coffee and tea to Myrtle Phemister, Faye Jetton, Henrietta Reuffer, Laverne Mayfield, Cardie Cunningham, Betty Sanders, Agnes Winchester, Annie Mae Roberts and a guest, Debbie Crump, wife of the Weinert Baptist pastor.

Those who wish to join the Extension Club must call the president of secretary by Dec. 1 to have their names in the new 1987 club book.

The next meeting of the club will be the Christmas party on Dec. 1 and Mrs. Laverne Mayfield will host the club in her home on that night. Members will bring gifts to exchange and elected officials are invited. Husbands will be special guests.

The Harvesters of Southwestern Assemblies of God College in Waxahachie will be ministering at the First Assembly of God Church in Haskell at 7:30 a.m. Saturday and also at 11 a.m. Sunday. The Harvester Choir is one of the most outstanding and versatile groups in the Southwest. Vocalists and instrumentalists from across the United States have gathered to blend their talent in music. The choir usually travels in two groups in order to extend their coverage throughout the Southwest region. There is no admission charge for the local appearance and the Rev. J. C. Amburn, pastor, extends everyone a personal invitation to attend.

Rice Springs

By Judy Wolsch
We didn't have any residents to go to the polls and vote this year, but all were anxious to hear the results.

Residents have already started to make Christmas decorations and are getting ready for the season.

Sunday was a busy day in the home. The Methodists sent their young Sunday School classes for services on Sunday morning. Charity Bradley had her big 100th birthday party and really had a grand time. Huge turnout and lots of cake and fun. Then the Church of Christ held afternoon services at 4, followed by the Lutheran-Presbyterian clown ministry at 5.

Thanks to everyone who had a part in last week's activities. You are a blessing to each of us.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED REDUCTION IN AT&T'S TEXAS RATES

The Public Utility Commission of the state of Texas has entered orders in two recent cases that would substantially reduce the charges which AT&T pays to the state's local telephone companies and which could allow AT&T to reduce prices for most of AT&T's customers on calls placed within the state of Texas.

The total amount of the reduction to AT&T's customers is expected to be between $115.3 million and $120.6 million. This is in addition to the $19.8 million reduction in AT&T's Texas basic long distance prices that went into effect on March 1, 1986 and is in addition to the approximately $2 billion in AT&T interstate price reductions that took effect earlier this year.

If the changes are approved, all of AT&T's direct dialed long distance, directory assistance, WATS and 800 service customers would be affected, and would experience a decrease in their prices for these services when calling within the state of Texas. The following tables show the anticipated impact of the changes on AT&T customers by service category:

Class of Service	Approximate Overall % Reduction	Approximate Overall Dollar Reduction (in millions)
Long Distance	9.2	$ 68.4
Directory Assistance	20.0	1.0
WATS	29.1	29.7
800	19.9	21.5

The rate reductions are presently anticipated to occur in two phases on or about October 22, 1986 and November 12, 1986. The matter has been assigned as Docket Nos. 6926 and 7113. Persons who wish to intervene or otherwise participate in these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible. A request to intervene or participate or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, 7800 Shoal Creek Blvd., Suite 400N, Austin, Texas 78757. Further information also may be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission Consumer Affairs Division at (512) 458-0223 or (512) 458-0227 or (512) 458-0221 teletypewriter for the deaf. A complete copy of the tariffs reflecting the potential rate reductions will be on file with the Commission on or before October 23, 1986.

Boosters set meeting time

The Indian Booster Club met Monday night as scheduled. After considerable discussion on the meeting time for the basketball season, it was decided that 7 p.m. on Thursdays will be the best time.

Because of a specially scheduled game this week and the coming Thanksgiving holiday, the next meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. The meeting will be in the Ag building. At the Dec. 4 meeting, Coach George Martin will be there with his varsity girls who will be introduced along with their parents. A game film also will be shown.

Basketball workouts begin

By Kevin Mitchell

The seventh-grade Warriors started basketball workouts Tuesday afternoon under the coaching of Jimmy Lisle.

There are 14 boys playing for the seventh-grade Warriors and 16 for the eighth grade.

"We were looking forward for the season to begin and expect only the best from these boys. We're going to teach them the basic fundamentals of basketball to get them ready for their high school career in basketball," Coach Lisle said.

The Warriors will travel to Anson next Monday night to open their season. Tip-off time will be at 5 p.m.

Rochester to meet Gordon in playoffs

The Rochester Steers, runnersup to Newcastle in district 5-A Six-Man football, will meet Gordon next week in a first-round playoff game.

The date and time of the game was to be determined Tuesday. Coach Doug Gore said Tuesday morning that it is likely the game will be Friday night at Albany.

Rochester is idle this week, having completed its regular season last Friday with a 47-0 victory over Goree. That victory gave the Steers a 9-1 record for the season and a 7-1 district mark.

Ranked No. 4 in Texas among six-man teams, the Steers have lost only to third-ranked Newcastle, undefeated champion of the same district 5-A. While chalking up the nine victories, Rochester has scored 403 points, while holding the opposition to 104.

It is possible that the Steers will get another shot at Newcastle in the playoffs. If both Rochester and Newcastle win their first two playoff games, they will meet again in the semifinals.

Haskell County's three other six-man teams will end their seasons this Friday. Weinert will host Woodson, Rule goes to Goree and Paint Creek visits Newcastle.

WHAT IS AN AUDITORY LEARNER?

Each of us learns through the channels of kinesthetic (feeling, touching), auditory (hearing), and visual (seeing). We all use each of these ways to learn, and each of us has a way that we learn "best". However, a problem develops if a child is relying on only one way of learning.

The auditory learner is one who is limiting his learning to what he hears. This child is usually much more intelligent than test results and school grades indicate. He usually is very verbal and can "carry-on" a conversation on almost any subject. But what happens when he enters school—he is now faced with lots of reading and writing and these are not auditory or "hearing" based. Soon, he begins to have difficulties.

Some of the problems that an auditory learner may encounter are these:

- reverses p,q,b,d,n,u even after age 7
- mixed laterality—perhaps writing left-handed, kicking right footed, etc.
- trips over his feet, bumps into things, seems to fall off a chair without reason
- gives correct answers verbally, but cannot write them
- handwriting, artwork, and drawings are poor
- gets lost
- can't tell time
- problems in eye-hand coordination

If your child is experiencing some of these problems, he may be an auditory learner. He needs to be taught new concepts through the auditory channel and ways to compensate for his weaknesses in visual and kinesthetic ways of learning.

One of the reasons the Learning Corner frequently shows dramatic results in a child's development and achievement is because we try to determine the type of learner of each child and base his program on that finding. Should your child or grandchild be coming to the Learning Corner?

Why wait until there are problems? Begin a program now that will insure your child developing to his full potential.

7th graders bow to Anson

By Kevin Mitchell

The seventh-grade Warriors ended their season last week at Anson but were defeated, 27-0.

"I feel like the boys did a fine job this year, considering this was their first year to play," Coach George Martin said. "All the boys had good team spirit and I expect good things from them as the years progress."

"The boys put out 100 percent at all times. Even though they didn't win all their games, they're still winners because of their effort."

The Warriors ended their season with a 1-6 record.

8th grade loses to Anson

By Joey Swinney

The eighth-grade Warriors lost their final game of the season to the Anson Tigers, 14-0, last Thursday.

The Warriors kept the ball the whole first half, but a fumble by the Warriors led to a Tiger touchdown.

Adam Coleman, Jason Davis and Rod Jeter did a good job on defense," Coach Cody Moree said.

The Warriors wrapped up their season with a 2-4 record.

JV team closes season

By Joel Torres

The JV played their last game of the season against the Anson Tigers last Thursday.

"The team was out-numbered by Anson's club. At times there were places where the team just ran out of juice," Coach Cody Moree said.

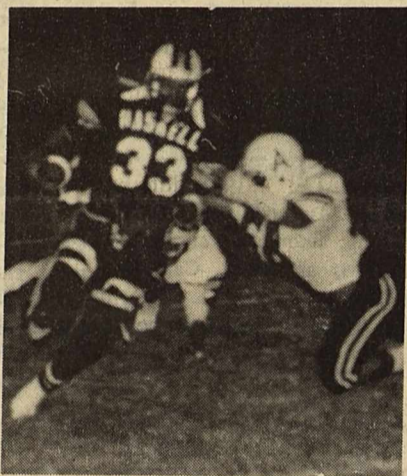

Injuries also were crucial to the team. There were times where the team had only 11 players. "But the team didn't let down and put an all-out effort throughout the night," Coach Moree said.

"I was proud of all of the players, especially the ones that played the whole year and stayed with it. I think they will be ready for varsity next year," Coach Moree said.

Overton's team reaches playoffs

Irving McArthur, coached by Ray Overton Jr., defeated Richardson Friday night and will meet Trinity in the playoffs in Texas Stadium in Irving.

Overton is the son of Ms. Laura Overton of Haskell.

Sidelines Anson drops Indians 17-0

There were a couple of bright spots in Friday's football finale:

The Indians didn't lose a fumble, and three penalties for 20 yards represented the lowest total of the year.

Anson did turn down three penalties.

***

The Indian offense has been far from potent, but it's not quite as bad as statistics of the past few games indicate.

The rushing total Friday was 101 yards, but after deducting 84 yards in losses, the net was only 17.

Patrick Perez had the longest gainer—a 33-yard run on the final play of the first half. He also had runs of 7 yards and 2 yards, but suffered losses of 16, 10 and 6 yards. Added to another carry for no gain, he wound up with 10 net yards in seven carries.

Top rusher was Stephon Brockington with 34 net yards in nine carries, including one run of 16 yards and one for a 9-yard loss. Fred Shaw carried four times for 7 yards. Other Indian backs had 10 carries for minus-34 yards.

***

The last second of the first half may have been the longest second of the year.

When the Indians took over on their own 28 after Anson's Mike Beauchamp fumbled on a punt return, the clock showed 0:01.

Perez passed to Mark Young who carried to the Anson 48. But Anson was offside and the Indians elected to take the 5-yard penalty instead of the 24-yard gain, thereby giving them another play after the clock had run out.

Before the next snap could get off, the Indians were penalized 5 yards, further delaying intermission. Then Perez dropped back to pass, saw a mean rush, and streaked 33 yards upfield.

Champion Anson brought its district record to 5-0 here Friday night as the invading Tigers handed Haskell a 17-0 licking in the Indians' 1986 football finale.

The Indians took the opening kickoff and marched from their own 39 to the Tiger 5, largely on the strength of two Mark Young passes, but then lost 3 yards back to the 8 in three downs. Joel Torres' 25-yard field goal attempt fell short of its mark and the Indians came up empty on their only scoring threat of the night.

Later in the first quarter, Anson's George Ramos also missed on a 30-yard field goal attempt, but from that point on, it was strictly Anson's game.

Anson marched 53 yards for the game's first touchdown, getting it on a 5-yard run from Eddie Villanueva two minutes deep in the second period. Ramos booted the extra point to put his team out front, 7-0.

Forty-three seconds before halftime, Ramos kicked a 23-yard field goal to bring the score to 10-0, where it stood through intermission.

The Tigers completed the night's scoring at the 4:54 mark of the third quarter when Bobby Fletcher scooted 48 yards on an end-around.

The Indians, who suffered their second shutout in a row while failing to score a touchdown for the third time in the last four games, closed their season with a 2-7-1 record. The only victories came over Quanah in a pre-district tilt, and Hamlin in the 7-AA opener.

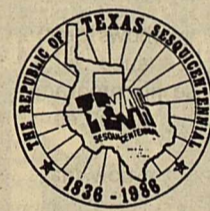

Anson, which came along strong in the district season after just a so-so record against outside opponents, heads for the playoff with an overall 7-3 record.

Stamford won the district's other playoff spot by defeating Hawley, 27-6, while Hamlin was beating Albany, 14-12.

Fear pays off

Most turtles deserve their timid reputations, hastily withdrawing their heads, feet and tails into their shells at the slightest sign of danger.

But, according to National Wildlife magazine, this act of cowardice has paid off.

While more aggressive reptiles, such as dinosaurs, have died out, turtles have thrived for some 250 million years on every continent but Antarctica.
