Dear Santa,

I've been a very good little girl this year. I hope you can stop by on Christmas Eve.

My brother Matt would like a race car, a suction gun, and some new games.

My sister Halee, who goes to big sister school, would like a Barbie, some puzzles, and some money.

My sister Mendi would like some new clothes.

My Uncle Eddie could use a new shirt, a bulldozer, and some new games.

My Pa Pa needs some new boots.

My Grandpa wants a new tractor and new boots.

My Grandmother wants a new dress. My Mommy wants a new dress, a necklace, and a picture to hang on her wall.

My Daddy wants a new pick-up, warm clothes too and a baby sister.

My grandparents brought last year.

My brother Tom wants what I want.

Love your friend,

Savannah Foster Age 4

Haskell, Tx

Dear Santa,

Please bring me a new pick-up, Me-Maw would like new clothes.

Me-Maw wants a new necklace and my Dad a new gun.

Grandma needs some new socks & clothes, my dog needs some new toys, a glow worm would do.

Grandpa wants some new pants. Pa Pa wants a new gun.

I'll leave you bananas & milk to eat. Please bring me a new Barbie doll and a case and clothes a book, a pencil and some money.

My sister Halee, who goes to big school, would like a Barbie, some puzzles and games and a new Paint Creek scooter.

My Mommy wants some makeup and a new dress.

My brother- in-law wants a new tie.

I'll leave you cookies and milk.

I've been a very good little girl this year. Even my Mommy says so.

I would like for you to bring me a new Barbie doll and a case and clothes a book, a pencil and some money.

My sister Halee, who goes to big school, would like a Barbie, some puzzles and games and a new Paint Creek scooter.

My Mommy wants some makeup and a new dress.

My Grandmother wants a new dress. My Grandpa wants a new coat. I'll leave you Pizza and Dr. Pepper to eat. Have a safe & Merry Christmas! Hugs and kisses to you and Mrs. Santa.

Love your friend,

Haskell Maidens

The Haskell Maidens would lose their second tournament of the season by coming in last in last week's Roscoe Tournament. Team members, from left, are Coach Randy Daniels, Mary Young, Michael Mondies, Casey Reed, Tamra Burnett, Leiza Morales, and Shereen Garnet. Not pictured is Patrick Perez.

Obituaries

R.C. Couch Jr.

R.C. Couch Jr., Haskell banker and longtime civic leader, died last Wednesday. He was named to the board of the Haskell National Bank.

Funeral services were at 2 p.m. Monday at the Haskell First Baptist Church with the Rev. Dennis officiating, followed by interment in the Haskell Cemetery.

Beautiify Haskell Council

Council reports on beautification

Reports on the progress of the Beautify Haskell Council were given Dec. 15. When members met at the fire station.

Chief Tom Watson is in the process of turning off vacant lots; the Haskell Co-op is handling a audit across the creek in the park. The Haskell Kiwanis Club, Boy Scouts and 4-H Scout have each allotted two rides of highway to help remove litter. The Progressive Study Club is sponsoring a clean up contest; the Chamber of Commerce sponsors the Yard of the Month selection, and the American Legion is planning to landscape the land around to schools.

Other organizations, as well as the schools and chamber, are being approached to take active parts in the campaign.

"Our success will be due to all community effort," said Bobby Holliday, chairman of the council.

Chairman Dickie Greenwood sang the Council's theme song, a parody written by Chairman manager Wadley Wadley, with words containing all the rules Sand in the beautification campaign.

Next meeting will be at 5:30 p.m. Jan. 7. This meeting will be open to the public.

Holliday urged all citizens to complete the survey forms published last week in The Free Press.

"Before we can determine solutions, we need to know the problem," said the chairman.

The forms should be mailed to the Chamber of Commerce, 112 S. Ave. E.

Slogan contest underway

In cooperation with the Beautify Haskell program in which the council is competing for the governor's award for the area's most improved, the Haskell High School Student Council is sponsoring a slogan contest.

Mary Martin, chairman, announced that 4-H girls will compete for two trophies of the club. The theme must be catchy, brief and distinctly Haskellite, Mrs. Martin said.

Anytown of any age who is a resident of Haskell for two years may enter the contest.

Schools and business by other towns include:

"Operation Clean Sweep," Mayfield.

"Fattening bile," Foote.

"Stale Lives," Luther.

"Fill the Basin," A Spur.

"Our success will be due to all community effort," Mrs. Martin said.

"Before we can determine solutions, we need to know the problem," said the chairman.

The forms should be mailed to the Chamber of Commerce, 112 S. Ave. E.

Funds established for Rule woman

A fund has been established in the Farmers National Bank in Rule to help defray medical expenses for Mrs. Roscoe B. Rule, 79, of Rule. She is currently receiving treatment monthly in Abilene.

Contributions may be mailed to Farmers National Bank in Rule.

Churim Days, holiday service

Texas Lutheran Church will hold in traditional candlelight worship at 11 a.m. or 7 p.m. on Christmas day. The church is located one mile east of Haskell High School. The birth of Christ will be celebrated with prayers, carols, ending with "Silent Night" by candlelight.

Everyone is invited and welcome.

To be Closed

The Haskell Free Press will be closed Thursday and Friday of this week.

Dear Santa,

I have been a very good little girl this year.

Would you please bring me a play Purse, out of your Fashionista line? We live on a farm and always have our own pretend stores, so please bring Mom a new purse. My brother needs a new gun and some new clothes. My Mommy is 30 this year, so could you bring me a new diamond ring? My Daddy wants a new gun.

I've been good for you this year, I cleaned up my room. I would like for you to bring me a talking computer, choo choo train, Baby learning talk, and a basket of golf balls. I have some new tools.

May your heart know his peace as you come today before Him and worship Him.

The Christmas spirit

As Editor
By Rep. Rick Perry

Well, here we are again in everyone's favorite time of year, the Christmas season. At last, it's supposed to be everyone's favorite, but I suspect that if you were to take a survey and get people to tell you the truth, they'd tell you that they are just as happy when Christmas is over as they are when it begins—maybe happier.

Why is it that we have lost the Christmas spirit, which is so often talked about and so seldom felt? What has happened, as expressed in one cynical poem, to make Christmas the time we hate the least?

The commercialization of Christmas is surely pointed to as the chief culprit in robbing Christmas of its joy, but whose fault is that? Santa's blame must be our own. If we have allowed the money changers to steal the meaning of the season from us, it shouldn't be hard to retrieve it; just ask the preseant child for some help. Try to look through their eyes for a moment.

If that's too hard, here are some practical suggestions from reclaiming a little holiday joy. Think of somebody you know who lives nearby and doesn't have any family, and wrap a surprise gift for that person. That frame is on their doorstep, anonymously. This usually works wonders for your attitude.

You say you don't have the money to be giving away extra gifts? Fine. Take a copy of the Reader's Digest, or better yet, the Bible, go to the nearest nursing home or hospital, and read to someone there. You say you don't read very well? If you can read at all, you've got that much time to give to someone who has lost their eyesight and their mobility.

Now about Christmas cards: Don't just send them to people because they sent you one, or because you feel you have to. Try to think of an old friend you may have lost touch with, and establish that friendship. Write them a really long letter about where you are and what you're doing these days. Good friends are hard to find; don't take them for granted.

There are lots of ways to recapture Christmas joy, but you'll have to go find them. As we enter them last the days before Christmas, if you've already lost the spirit of the season, you've got that much time to get it back.

Oh, by the way—Merry Christmas.

Program on alternative crops set

A program on alternative crops for the Rolling Plains has been scheduled for Jan. 7 in Rhineland.

Sponsored by the Knox County Extension Program Council Crops Committee, the program will begin at 8:45 a.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall. There is a registration fee of $7 per person, which will include lunch.

Producers interested in attending the program must pre-register by 5 p.m. Jan. 4. To pre-register, send $7 to the Knox County Extension Office, Box 177, Turbo.

A diversified group of speakers for an in-depth discussion on alternative crops has been assembled for the day-long program.

Horticultural and small crop alternatives for the Rolling Plains will be emphasized. There will be reports on research on potential horticulture alternatives and discussion on identifying and evaluating potential markets and budgeting for alternative crops.

Joy to the world

Sing your carols of joy this Christmas season and fill the world with love and happiness.

Dear Santa,

I have been a good boy this year. I have helped mother in the house and daddy in the yard. I am doing fiend for kindergarten. I would like a Roy Rogers cowboy suit. Anything else you think you would enjoy will be all right. I don’t want to be selfish. Barry and I have our stockings hung just inside the door. Your cookies and milk will be right under our stockings. How are your Three Things? Barry and I wish you a very Merry Christmas.

From Barry and Randy Jim O’Neal

Dear Santa,

I am a little boy 1 year old, and I am too small to write in my big letters. Cosby is waiting for me. Please bring me a little wagon and a big cat.

Lots of love,

Robert Alan boy

Dear Santa,

I am looking for you Christmas Eve. I will leave some candy for you and hope you leave some things for me. Here are some things I want: I want a football, a football helmet, a b.b. gun, a motocycle, and a pair of action toys.

With love,

Taddei Malufoff

Dear Santa,

I like to talk with you on the phone and I am trying to be very good. Please think about bringing me a mixtape, a violin, drum box, books, games and a skateboard for my second present. Remember my friends, Larrice, Mark, Walter, Kelly, Kara, cereal and my cereal. Bobby, Wally, David, Chris and family.

Love, Chris

Dear Santa,

I am a little girl 1 year old. I am in the second grade. Will you please bring me a Baby First-Step and a new baton. I have a little sister, Holly, who is 2 1/2. Dear Santa,

I am five years old, and I have been very good this year. Would you please bring me a puppy and a big round trampoline for me and my sister, sleeping bag, clothes, jewelry, and a new watch. So careful on the trip.

Thank you.

Jennifer Houdre
P.S. I'll leave you a snack so you won't get hungry.

Dear Santa,

I hope you bring me a Baby Popple and a big round trampoline for last year's presents. I hope you love me. I'll have a snack under the chimney so you will have to come in.

Dear Santa,

I hope you had a nice year. I thank you for all the things you let me have last year. Give my love to your Elves & raindeers.

Thank you for all the gifts you let us have this year. Give Mrs. Santa & the Elves a big hug for me.

Have a safe trip. Don't forget to eat your cookies & milk. Merry Christmas.

P.S. Don't forget my Grandmother & Grandaddy. They have been good to me.

Thank you for all the joy this Christmastide...may love and peace abide with you and yours all through the holiday season and in days to come.

Dear Santa,
Happy New Year.
Merry Christmas.

Dear Santa,
I want a green dirt bike and G.I. Joe and army shoes and a little toy basketball with a little my own goal.

Dear Santa,
I want two toy. I want a jambox and blades. My dad wants a Pallot gun and my mom wants a V.C.R.

Dear Santa,
I want three Cobras but I don’t know their names. My sister wants a keyboard it is white. I want a bone for my dog his name is Blackie.

Dear Santa,
This year I want a green dirt bike and a keyboard and also a wrestling ring and more. I am going to leave the cookies in the chat.

Dear Santa,
Thank you for last years toys. And this year I want a survival knife and a BB machine Gun. And all Sables stuff.

Dear Santa,
I wish you will give me a kid sister and a pencil and a kitten. Please give me Birbe ice cream shop. Will you give me a bedspred.

See me for all your family insurance needs.

Dear Santa,

I guess you know I really want a lot of things!

Could you please bring me a new sh−and−shoos like my Dads, new tennis shoes and jeans like my Dads.

I really do need some "big" Kangaroo football shoes & Niki high−tops and a new black−and−white design like my Dad's.

I've been a very good girl so could you bring me some new gos−and−shos & some new working underware and some new working shoes.

My Mommy has been good too, so could you please bring Pa Pa some new shirts and shoes. Please bring Minks some new jeans and shirts. My grandparents have tried to be good too. So could you please bring Pa Pa Bird some new clothes and a pair of new shoes. My Pa Tumbow would like some new jeans and shoes. My Nanny would like a "real" organ to play on. I love your surprises so please bring me anything you want to.

Could you please bring me some goastbuster toys and some new jeans. I sure would like some new tennis hoes and a flannel and some shoes. My Dad would like a bike & some new working underware and some new working shoes.

And please, could you bring Larry a new black−and−red−boos.

Bring my baby that is coming in March a new bed, some toys and milk.

Thank you for all the things you brought last year.

Give my love to Mrs. Santa, the elves & raindeers.

P.S. I'll leave you cookies & milk.
