Present Mayor S.E. Adams filed for a place on the ballot for city councilman and Lois Dunklin withdrew her name as a candidate for council member.

The city ballot will show the following names: For mayor, Wilson Bryan; for council members, Alice Beaty, S.E. Adams and Larry Anderson. Two council members will be elected. HAS EYE SURGERY

Mayor S.E. (Skinny) Adams underwent eye surgery Monday at Methodist Hospital in Houston. He is reported to have stood the surgery well and was to be in the intensive care unit two or three days.

Coach Ruff Has Praise for Team

(Editor's note: We asked Coach Ronnie Ruff to make some comments about his team and we planned to pick out a few to use in our news story. However, we feel what Coach Ruff wrote about this great basketball team deserves to be shared with our readers in its entirety. Here's what the girls' coach thinks about them.)

Keys to our success are many. Hard work and a desire to improve and unselfishness are probably at the top of the list. The girls have always tried to do anything that we have asked them to do. We have a good team feeling. No outstanding individual--everybody trusts each other to do

It is possible, it is very likely that Robert Lee High School has the best girls Class A basketball team in Texas. The girls will find out this weekend when they travel to Austin for the state tournament.

A large delegation from Robert Lee is expected to make the trip to Austin Thursday afternoon, as the girls will play their first game Friday morning at 8:30 o'clock against Vega. The tournament will be in the Special Events Center (the Drum) on the University of Texas campus.

The winner of the Robert Lee-Vega game will play the winner of a contest between Snook and Cushing on Saturday for the state pennant.

Coach Ronnie Ruff told the Observer Tuesday that he and everybody connected with the team know they are going up against the best in the state. He added that so far as he had been able to determine, this is the first Robert Lee basketball team ever to reach competition in the state tournament.

SCHOOL OUT FRIDAY
Classes at Robert Lee School were dismissed

at 2 p.m. Thursday, allowing fans plenty of time to drive to the state capital that afternoon. There will be no school Friday.

The girls won their games last weekend in the regional tournament at Denton, defeating Millsap in the semi-finals 61-53, and then taking Cooper in the finals 64-47.

Scoring in the Millsap game were Lisa Devoll with a big 31; Vicki Gartman with 20; and Stella Bickley with 10. Gartman was high pointer against Cooper with 26; Devoll was close behind with 25; Bickley hit 11; and Renea Flanagan added 2.

Outstanding work by guards Carla Wojtek, Debbie Askins and Cindy Walker left the opposition on the short end of the score in

Paper Collection Planned Monday

Monday, March 13, has been announced as a waste paper collection date by the '64 Study Club. Donors may place newspapers, unlined feed sacks and magazines on Frank Allen's trailer to be parked beside his home at 122 West 10 Street.

Officials of Allman Paper Co. said that all three types of paper bring the same price now, 1 cent per pound. They asked that magazines be placed on the end of the trailer near the tailgate to make unloading and sorting easy.

Girl Scout Week To Be Observed

This year Girl Scout Week in the United States is March 12 - 18.

Mayor Pro Tem Wilson Bryan signed a proclamation designating the week at his office today. Attending the ceremony were Mary Herring and Cynthia Metcalf from Service Unit 28 of West Texas Girl Scout Council.

The Mayor Pro Tem remarked on how, since its founding 66 years ago, the organization has opened doors to new worlds for many girls, and how it has become an important part of community life. He was informed that more than three million girls and adults are Girl Scout members today, and that since Scouting in the U.S.A. began in Savannah, Georgia in 1912 more than 32 million girls, women and men volunteers have been involved.

Mayor Pro Tem Bryan said that, because Girl Scouting stressed the highest ideals of character and personal ethics, it helped girls develop their potential for active citizenship and thus benefited the community. He called upon all the citizens of Robert Lee to continue to actively support Girl Scouts and join them in the efforts toward conserving energy and natural resources as well as their other service projects related to community, national, and international concerns. "We need Girl Scouts", said Mayor Pro Tem Bryan.

Paper donated Feb. 20 brought the club $27 and members said they appreciate the fine cooperation of Robert Lee citizens.

Mrs. James Bird Pentecost and daughters, Janet and Rachel, recently visited Miss Effie Carwile.

STUDY CLUB HAS LIBRARY TOUR

The '64 Study Club had a progressive style meeting Monday, March 6, at 7:30 p.m.

Beginning at the Coke County Library, now housed in the old jail, Mrs. Linda Boone, the librarian, and Mrs. Mary Bessent, who has spent much time and effort toward the library project, informed the group of the many things that have been accomplished during the past year and the program the citizens of Coke County have to look forward to in the near future.

The club members then went to the site of the new Coke County Library, formerly the Observer office, which is being renovated to house the Library.

After the inspection tour of the new location, the members completed their meeting at the home of Mrs. Ollie Pierce with Mrs. Opal Jacoby and Mrs. Margaret Epperson serving as co-hostesses.

Refreshments were served to 19 members and one guest, Mrs. Fay Roe.

Old Sanco School To Be Repaired

The Sanco Community Association Thursday night of last week voted to repair the old school building and continue use of it as a community center.

This action followed an offer by Mrs. A.F. McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Pentecost, and I. A. Bird of $500 each toward re-roofing and otherwise repairing the building.

It was voted at this session to have installed a security light for this building and the tabernacle. As a recreation committee Mrs. Josephine Bird, Mrs. Mary Jo Pentecost, and Mrs. Mary Prine were appointed, looking forward to more use of the property for recreational purposes.

In a previous meeting James B. Pentecost was elected president of the three associations which usually meet jointly and in the main have the same officers, but each has its own operating fund. Alvin Harris was elected vice president. For the Cemetery and Community Associations, Mrs. Josephine Bird was elected secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Mary Jo Pentecost for the tabernacle association.

Prior to the election of officers, Ulmer Bird, long time president of the associations, had insisted that a younger man be elected.

"Much of what we have done has been for the coming generations", he told the group. "But these coming generations have already come and they have children. If they want to continue this, they can. If not, there's no point in our spending our time and strength and money on it."

The association laid down two rules as security measures.

"No person is permitted to park on association property during the hours of darkness", and "no person is permitted to loiter or prowl in the vicinity of the tabernacle or old school building at any time, except where permission has been specifically given." These acts are to be considered trespassing and dealt with accordingly.

Other action was taken looking to an on the spot at the scene arrest of any person caught in an illegal act on the Sanco town-site or its environs.

Any person wishing to help in the repair, improvement, and maintenance of the landmark school building may see Josephine Bird, secretary-treasurer, or mail checks to her at Sanco Route, Robert Lee, Texas 76945.

Candidates Ask Support in May

Quite a few Robert Lee residents were among the crowd in Bronte last Saturday for the grand opening of the new Bon Spoons Grocery & Gas and an old time political rally. An audience of more than 300 persons heard candidates speak and visited the new store.

Nelson Wolff, Democratic candidate for Congressman from the 21st District, was the first candidate to speak. He lauded the citizens of Coke County for their faithfulness to the Democratic Party and asked for support in the race for the position now held by Rep. Bob Krueger, who is running for U.S. Senator.

Mrs. Cumbe Ivey Jr. of Robert Lee, county Democratic chairman and state committeewoman, spoke about forth-

A number of other candidates also spoke, including Judge W. W. Thetford and D.W. Sims, candidates for county judge; County Clerk Mrs. Winnie Waldrop; County Treasurer Mrs. Jerry Thomason; Commissioner Bobby Vaughn; and Commissioner Jerry Parker. Royce Lee spoke on behalf of Bob Krueger and Sheriff J. Lee Ensor, who is not up for reelection, thanked the people for their support of the peace officers in the county.

ACCIDENT CONTROL---Before exposing yourself to accident risks, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service urges you to ask: "What benefit will be gained?" "Is the benefit worth the risk?"

Self Defense To Be Talked By Coke Women

A course in self defense is being considered for women of the Bronte and Robert Lee area. Dr. Thuy D. Do of Robert Lee will be the instructor if the course materializes.

Dr. Do, who is presently conducting a course in judo, would like to meet with women of the area at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, March 14, in the fourth grade room at Robert Lee School. The meeting will be held after the judo class is completed for the evening.

Robert Lee-Silver Lions Club is sponsor of the program and a spokesman said he felt there was a great deal of need by women to learn the art of self defense.
