OUR WEEKLY ROUND-UP

[If you have a friend visiting you; if any of your family, friends or neighbors are coming or going or doing anything of interest to their friends—tell THE PAPER, or drop us a postal.]

The Paper regrets to report the continued illness of our county attorney, Lee Wallace, Esq.

We are happy to see Mr. Obar out once more, after months of confinement with a dislocated hip.

J. W. Hart and son, and Mr. Catloway, of Dallas county, are among the number who are here health seeking.

Miss Huff, who has been here in attendance at the bedside of her sister, departed yesterday for her home in Luling.

Jimmy Davis, who has been a student of the Alamo Business College for the past eight months, came home Sunday.

On Monday Miss Patti Morriss left here for Kimble county, to visit her friend, Mrs. James Prentice, nee Miss Maud Davy.

C. W. Parnell, sheriff of Ft. Bend county, is sojourning here for the benefit of his health. He is stopping at the Tivy.

On Tuesday the Paper was favored with a visit by Mr. O. G. Compton, representing the Geo. B. Loving Company of Fort Worth.

Mr. John Parsons, who has been canvassing the city for the Brenham nurseries, has secured many orders for fruit, flower and shade trees for delivery next season.

On Thursday invitations were issued by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Schreiner to a card party given in honor of Miss Cornahan, of San Antonio, at 8:30 p. m., June 30th.

Our young liveryman, James Thomas, last week made his first business trip to Rock Springs. He is convinced that the route beats the Jordan as a "hard road to travel."

Miss Susan Moore, present at the State University commencement exercises paid a visit to her brother at Sweet Home. She returned home Monday evening.

Wm. Thompson, wife and family, of Dallas, are here for a couple of weeks. Mrs. Thompson is a prominent member of the Dallas bar, and is here for rest. He is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lockett.

Mr. Eli Hankins has concluded to try life in San Antonio for a year where he will engage in the produce and commission business. He expects to move his family at once. He has leased his residence here for twelve months to W. G. Wright.

We are pleased to learn that the prospects are good for James Holtzman returning home soon and well. It will be remembered that this unfortunate gentleman some time ago had both legs broken while working a stump puller on his farm below town. For sometime he has been in San Antonio for treatment.

Postmaster Lockett and his department of Uncle Sam's business is now comfortably and permanently located in the Masonic Building on Mountain street. Our postoffice has been moved twice within the past month, and it has kept patrons busy keeping track of its movements. The scheme to build a new postoffice on the site of the old failed to materialize. The present arrangement is satisfactory to the patrons of the office.

Notice.—Mr. R. Strohmeyer, reliable firm of plumbers of Meyer & Co. of San Antonio, at the St. Charles Hotel, July 28th. He will be pleased to estimate for furnishing and installing bathtubs, closets, sinks, washstands and drains and all other plumbing work. Good workmanship and material guaranteed.

Coming Attractions.

The prospects for summer amusements here are numerous and there is no fear of stagnation.

To day the Fourth of July festivities commence on Tivy Flat.

On Monday the Summer Schools of the school building opened in the school building conducted by Prof. H. B. Griffin. Large attendance is expected.

On Tuesday, the Fourth, the Sunday school picnic will be at the mouth of Towa creek.

Several marriages are on the tapis. We expect to be able to report a few more in the near future.

In September the Centre Point picnic will be held.

In October the meeting of the Kerrville Park Association will be your attention.

If you think this is not growing country, take a look at the heavily laden apple and pear trees.

PARK ASSOCIATION.

A Long-Felt Want about to be Realized.

In the opinion of the Paper there was no mistake made in the selection of the managers of the Kerrville Park Association.

As has before been stated, the full amount of the capital stock has been subscribed. The next thing to be done is the selection of park grounds.

Several pieces are offering. That portion of Tivy flat which has been deemed suitable for the purpose having several years ago been laid off in blocks and the streets decided to the city, no purchase of that site will be considered until the legality of a sale is decided.

The first meeting of the association will be held October 12th to 14th inclusive, affording three days of grand sport. The attractions will be running and trotting races, bicycle and foot races, baseball games, picnic and barbecue, and a grand ball at the pavilion at night.

One can hardly estimate the immense advantage an attraction of this character will be to our town. Even the public park feature alone will bring hundreds of visitors, and the annual, semi-annual or quarterly meetings of the park association will bring thousands of people and much wealth into our midst.

Truly Kerrville is on rising ground. Everyone who has any interest in our town and county should do all in his power to encourage and sustain this much needed enterprise.

The Paper this week received a pleasant call from Mr. W. H. Wentworth, who was here for the purpose of securing exhibits of Kerr county raised cereals and other products of the soil.

Wentworth, a Bohemian farmer, living between here and Comfort, died Tuesday after a long illness.

Hugh Edens and Annie McBride, who left here some time ago for New Mexico, to make a fortune, came back last week very much disgusted with that country. We have several more of our boys out there who are not contented, and I think would come back—if they could. Centre Point.

Last Sunday's excursion train from San Antonio left that city with seven hundred passengers. The train reached here at about 12 o'clock with about four hundred pleasure seekers on board. Here is where that park would have come into use. It was a pleasant, orderly crowd of visitors. We hope they enjoyed the few hours stay and that they will come again.

The total amount contributed by folks to see the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons fight amounted to the neat sum of $85,270. This does not include $20,000 given by the club to secure the fight.

Letter From Dr. Rees. NEW YORK POST-GRADUATE MEDICAL SCHOOL AND HOSPITAL. NEW YORK, June 24th, 1899.

EDITOR THE KERRVILLE PAPER: Replying in part to a clipping sent me from your esteemed columns which gave notice of my absence from Texas, North and East, beg to say that it would indeed afford me immense pleasure to have the opportunity of demonstrating my skill as a surgeon and electro-therapist; that my ambition not just to be a common every day doctor—"Jack at all and master of none," as most must be—but truly a surgeon from observation and practice, to rank with the best American surgeons (who are the best in the world to-day) has been at least partially won. Have made and taken opportunities that but the few number of doctors get in a life time. Should I ever get loose from my present location it will be my disposition to visit my old home and attempt to show what can be done for many ailments and sufferers in despair.

My institution at Brenham, without any boasting, I have equipped for work of all kinds, as well as can be found in this country. An exceptionally well prepared to treat diseases of women, with electricity (when it is indicated) which is doing the most wonderful work for this class of sufferers, to straighten crooked feet and legs, repair hair lips, to remove all kinds of tumors—in fact to do ANY KIND of surgery or give any kind of treatment at my infirmary, where patients can come with the assurance of a nice, private, pleasant home and the most skillful treatment.

Yours respectfully, Dr. H. C. REES.

Do You Want to Make Money? If so, here is your chance. We are offering for sale territory for S. A. Saxon & Company's Well Grab. For removing obstructions from bored wells, dug well and cisterns. It is an article everybody must have.

Samples of the well grab can be seen at the Grona & Grider's shop, the Cravy hotel, the Gregory hotel, the Pruitt hotel. County and State rights for sale. I will be here for 30 days. J. A. SAXON, Kerrville, Texas.

It is suggested that our city government loses a good deal of money coming from fines in pistol cases, all of which, for want of a city ordinance governing such cases, goes into the county treasury. We understand the city council will enact a law changing the course of that constant stream of wealth causing it to enter into the city coffers.

Centre Point Items.

The Kerrville Paper.

The farmers are nearly through cutting their wheat, and threshing is the next thing on hand. Judging from the few crops that were threshed last week, the yield of wheat will fall considerably short of the farmers' expectancy.

Mr. Charles Reas, secretary of the Guadalupe Valley Fair Association has made a trip over the greatest portion of the district and says he finds everything encouraging for a fine fair this fall. There has already been more special prizes given than for any former meeting, and still they are coming in. This is very gratifying news, as it seemed two months ago that the fair would have to be abandoned for this year on account of the continued drought.

Centre Point Camp of Woodmen of the World are arranging for a grand barbecue on July 4th to which everybody is invited, especially Woodmen and their families, and we are authorized to specially invite the editor of the PAPER.

Mr. Fayette, a Bohemian farmer, living between here and Comfort, died Tuesday after a long illness.

Hugh Edens and Annie McBride, who left here some time ago for New Mexico, to make a fortune, came back last week very much disgusted with that country. We have several more of our boys out there who are not contented, and I think would come back—if they could. Centre Point.

Trusts and Combinations.....

TRUSTS and Combinations are becoming alarming in the east. It looks to a casual observer that all manufacturers are forming and combining for higher prices in order to oppress the consumer. But as long as we can buy goods outside the trusts we will maintain the low prices that we have established in this Western country. We are receiving constantly, New, Fresh, Good Goods which we sell at the least possible price. A visit to our store will prove both pleasant and profitable.

Get on a Sure Thing.
"So you have decided not to take a vacation this summer? What's the matter? Don't you think a rest would do you any good?"
"Oh, I haven't any doubt that a vacation would be a fine thing for me. I'm almost played out—feel sometimes as if I simply couldn't keep up the pace; but the fact is I got a chance a few days ago to bet all the money I had on a dead sure thing; so I'll not be able to afford to get away."

Excellent Results.
"How about those seeds you planted a while ago? Can you see any results from them?"
"Oh, yes. Bronson's chickens, which used to have a kind of a starved look, are as fat and sleek as you please now."

Quintuple Drowning.
Lampasas, Tex., June 26.—Particulars of the quintuple drowning near here are as follows:
Thursday evening Mrs. J. H. Lloyd, her five daughters, Misses Bertie Lloyd, 22 years; Belle Lloyd 20; Ethel Lloyd, 14; Esther Lloyd, 11; Jewel Lloyd, 8, and her niece, Miss Myrtle Childers, 14, went over to Pitt creek, a distance of three miles from their homes, to spend the day in fishing. In the evening Mrs. Lloyd gave her young daughters permission to go walking. Shortly after the girls had gone down the creek, the mother and Miss Bertie and Belle, who were all up the creek some 150 yards from the place of drowning, heard screams for help.

Miss Bertie, noticing the screams first, ran to their assistance, passing her mother and sister, plunged into the water only to share the fate of her three sisters and cousin.

Then came the second sister, who also plunged into the water to the assistance of her drowning sisters, but on arrival of the mother, who fully recognized the situation she immediately secured a stick, handing it to Miss Belle, and by a great deal of exertion, rescued her, but not until after she was strangled into unconsciousness.

The mother then ran screaming to the buggy, causing the horse to break loose, but with some difficulty secured him and went for her husband and sons, who were thrashing four miles away from the scene.

In an hour and twenty minutes the dead bodies had been taken from the water by Mr. Lloyd, father and uncle of the young ladies.

The bodies were all found within a space of six feet.

The supposition is that the creek had washed out in deep holes of water from recent rains and the girls knew nothing of it, and that Miss Ethel waded into deep water, as she was entirely out of sight when the mother and elder sister reached the scene, and the other young ladies, going to the assistance only to share a similar fate.

The young ladies were all buried in one grave, twenty feet wide, with separate vaults. Mrs. Lloyd is in a precarious condition.

Probable Cattle syndicate.
Austin, Tex., June 26.—Hon. M. L. Grogan of Sweetwater, Tex., representative in the twenty-sixth legislature from that district is here.

He is author of the statement that an English syndicate, with a capital of $100,000,000, has started in to purchase all of the cattle in Texas, with a view of cornering the cattle market of this country.

He says in the panhandle and western part of the state the options have been secured on thousands of head of cattle and ranch properties wherever they are obtainable.

The options include cattle of all classes, and by buying the ranches it is evident, he says, that the syndicate intends to make their investments a permanent one in their nature.

It is estimated that the total number of cattle in Texas is about 4,000,000 head, and their assessed valuation this year will aggregate $300,000,000.

Mr. Grogan came here direct from the panhandle, where these options are said to have been secured.

He says he anticipates maintaining his headquarters at Fort Worth.

IMPORTANT LAW POINT.
Has Just Been Established for California Fig Syrup Co.

An important decision has just been rendered in San Francisco in the United States Circuit Court, in the case of the California Fig Syrup Company vs. Clinton E. Worden & Co., et al.

The principal defendant is a large non-secret manufacturing concern. A permanent injunction has been granted enjoining the defendants from using the name—Syrup of Figs, or Fig Syrup—and ordering them to pay the costs and account for damages. The decision is of the greatest value, not only to manufacturers of proprietary articles, but to the public generally, as it admits that the valuable reputation acquired by an article of merit, will be protected by the Courts, and that the party who builds the reputation by extensive and legitimate advertising, is entitled to the full fruits of his enterprise. This confirms the title of the California Fig Syrup Co. to this genuine and most valuable remedy, "Syrup of Figs."

Supreme Court Sustains the Foot-Less Trade Mark.
Justice Laughlin, in Supreme Court, Buffalo, has decided a permanent injunction, with costs, against a Hudson, the manufacturer of the foot powder called "The Foot-Less Trade Mark," and against a dealer of Brooklyn, restraining them from making and selling the "Foot-Less Trade Mark" foot powder, and from advertising the same, and from using the name "Foot-Less Trade Mark" in the name of the trade mark. The court also ordered the trade mark to be changed to "The Foot-Less Trade Mark" and to be used exclusively on the country. He will send a sample box of the trade mark to the reader. The decision in this case upholds the trade mark and renders all parties liable who infringe the same. It is a landmark case in the history of the trade mark, and is a precedent for all similar cases. The "Foot-Less Trade Mark" is a purely vegetable, and is the only foot powder remedy guaranteed to contain no poison, mercury or other mineral.

KERRVILLE PAPER.

EDWARD SMALLWOOD, Editor and Proprietor.

[Written for the PAPER.] Light After Darkness.

The last great struggle was over, and little Eddie, clad in snowy white and as if sleeping sweetly, lay in a beautiful cream colored coffin, waiting for the sad and lonely journey to the cemetery, back at the old home.

It was a beautiful May Sabbath. The sun shone brightly and the birds sang sweetly, yet on that village a deep, sad hush had fallen, for death had again entered her gates and all seemed conscious of his presence.

For days our lives had been filled with anxious care. Hour after hour we had watched by the bedside of our precious darling, and earnestly endeavored to discover every change. Friends, too, had watched and hoped with us, but to no purpose. At first the physician had said that Eddie would recover, but later on he, too, gave up hope, and told us to prepare for the end.

In my home that night and the one which followed can never be forgotten. Through every hour of the one the strugglings and gaspings for breath could be heard throughout the house, and not until "the night was far spent" did the end come.

His sufferings had been great; our suspense had been awful; but now both were over, and our family circle was broken, to be united no more until we shall enter upon that life "where there is no more death."

In one short week our former cheerful home had been changed into one of sadness, gloom and death. How dreadfully solemn was the stillness of that hour. Friends had gathered to assist in the duties which death had imposed, but even their light footsteps and suppressed tones added to the stillness and loneliness of our grief-stricken home. How inexpressibly sad to linger there! But sadder still to begin the journey which we knew must be made.

Shortly before noon arrangements had been completed, and although the distance of more than thirty miles must be made by private conveyance, and that too, through a very rough broken country, yet we hoped to make it by nightfall.

We had not gone far, however, before discovering that the recent heavy rains had so washed the roads as to necessitate very slow traveling, and hence, not more than two thirds of the distance had been gone when night came on.

As a precaution, however, we had provided ourselves with lanterns, but unfortunately all but one failed to burn, and by the aid of that dim light, assisted by the stars above us, those vehicles (some friends had gone with us) were driven slowly and even more silently, towards the home of our aged mother. Occasionally it was necessary to stop to examine some uncommonly rough place, then again we would take up our journey, for there was nothing else for us to do.

Finally on gaining the top of a long and difficult hill we discovered a light coming our way. It was being carried by brother and some friends, who, on learning of our journey had come out to meet us.

methinks the meeting of that small company of sympathizing friends, bearing to us the light which we so sorely needed, was as the first gleam of heavenly light which comes to a soul while passing through the deep darkness of death.

Thus assisted we made better progress, and by midnight had arrived at mother's home, and while memory lasts, we cannot forget the scene which met our eyes. Both house and yard had been brilliantly lighted, and while we had seen more beautiful homes before, yet sure are we that to us none had ever appeared so inviting. But this was not all. At the church that night our coming had been announced and many of the congregation, instead of going to their homes, had gone over to mamma's to mingle their tears with ours. But our grief was not great. The long lonely journey had given time for reflection and resignation, and as we approached our childhood home, now so beautifully transfigured, and saw mother, sisters and the saints to whom we had preached in other days, all gathered in the yard and on the porch, we seemed to see our departed one in robes of spotless white, walking in the midst of the glorified saints where "Christ Himself is the light."

The scene was wonderful! The contrast was great! It was truly "light after darkness" and with it our souls were flooded, enabling us to say "Thy will be done."

And here our sad story ends. True, there we suffered fresh bursts of grief when on the following morning we saw his sweet face for the last time on earth, and also when we returned to our home, now so changed, but through the three years which have gone by since then, we have comforted ourselves with the scene which appeared to us on that eventful night when we came to "light after darkness."

These dates do not conflict with those of the Texas State Fair held at Dallas, that fair closing on October 23rd.

The management of the San Antonio International Fair Association has been very liberal in the matter of premiums; their premium list footing up nearly $13,000 in cash. The main idea the Board of Directors and management of the San Antonio International Fair Association have constantly kept in view is that this is to be, as far as possible, a Live Stock & Agricultural Fair and out of the $13,000 set aside for premiums, $11,000 of that amount will go to exhibitors of live stock and farm products, this amount being nearly one-half greater than has ever been given by any other fair association in the state for premiums in the line above mentioned.

The Association has already received the catalogue and premium list from the hands of the printer and will be very glad to place a copy of the same in the hands of every stock raiser and farmer in the state who might be sufficiently interested to make an exhibit at this fair. This is not a local fair, not being confined to any section of the state, but competition is open to the world. Of course the main idea is to develop the resources of Texas, and to that end it is hoped that the exhibitors will be numerous from every section of the state. Mexico has also been invited to make an exhibit which will prove an attractive feature of the fair.

The Association offers something like $15,000 in purses for runners and harness horses. The other attractions which the management of the fair hope to secure will be given to the press for publication from time to time.

The directory of the San Antonio International Fair Association is composed of the best business men of the Alamo City and it is confidently believed that a fair at that point can be held second to none in Texas or the South, which will result largely to benefit the people of all Texas, and it is for this reason that the management solicit the hearty co-operation of all persons from every section of the state.

The management will be pleased to give stock raisers, farmers and others intending to make an exhibit full and complete information through the secretary at San Antonio.

School Land. School Land.

PUBLIC DOMAIN. PUBLIC DOMAIN

Forfeited Lands. Forfeited Lands.

DO YOU KNOW that the Supreme Court of Texas has decided that all the Public Domain in Texas belongs to the School Fund, and that the Legislature has just passed an act placing 3,000,000 acres of the Public Domain on the market for sale as school land on 40 years time at only 3 per cent interest, which act will take effect 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature?

DO YOU KNOW about what the forfeited lands of school lands will be sent out by the General Land Office to the county clerk of each county placing each forfeited section on the market for sale again?

DO YOU WANT a map of the state by counties?

DO YOU WANT a copy of the act of Legislature just passed placing all Public Domain on the market, for sale which will take effect 90 days after the adjournment of the Legislature?

Under the new law passed by the last legislature, to compact for the fence of hunting with enclosed and posted fields or pastures, it is necessary that all of the land enclosed be long to or be actually leased by holder and used either for pasture or agricultural uses. If any part of the lands fenced do not belong to or are actually leased by the holder, then conviction for hunting thereon can not under this law, be obtained.

New York's millionaire colony is growing. It is about direct between Ninetieth and Ninety-second streets a series of mansions which will shade into insignificance those of any thoroughfare in the world. Andrew Carnegie's new home will cost one million dollars.

Mr. McManus is a very matter of fact farmer and the father of a number of very attractive girls. A young farmer, in every way eligible, was a suitor for the hand of the second unmarried daughter.

"No, no," said old McManus, when the young man had confessed his tender passion; "you can not have the pick of my flock."

The young man was dumfounded, but not dismayed. A few weeks after a double wedding was announced to take place at McManus' house. The young farmer had persuaded his brother to take the eldest, which of course left the way clear for him to take the second. McManus says there is nothing like making good, sensible rules and sticking to them.

At Klausthal, Germany, lightning struck the wooden post of a house and fused two nails four millimetres thick. Siemens and Halske, of Berlin, afterward experimented to ascertain the force required. Assuming one second as the time standard it required a current of two hundred amperes and twenty thousand volts, representing seven thousand horse power.

Fair Falconets. Falconry, which has now been taken up by the young Duchess of Marlborough and by several other ladies of much wealth and distinction, both in England and on the continent, is never likely to become a common sport. Indeed, it is a very costly hobby. Even the most ordinary hawks used for falconry costing as much as 100 pounds apiece. They require most careful attention, and it is difficult to get men qualified to take charge of them for a lower salary than 200 pounds a year. It is the most scientific and difficult of all sports, and differs from all others in that it can be followed in one form or another all the year around.—M. A. P.

The Trailing Skirt. For women who can teach other women to manage their trains there is a good deal of money coming. According to dressmakers the long-trailed gowns propose to stay a long while, and if they are to stay, something ought to be done to teach women to manage them better. The most graceful woman will make the oddest gyrations when she is trying to hold up a trail.

Where Livingston's Heart Lies. A letter has been received by the Livingston Memorial Company of Blantyre, from the deputy administrator of Northern Rhodesia offering, on behalf of the British South Africa Company, to reserve a plot of a hundred acres in extent around the spot where the heart of the great explorer is buried, and the committee, at a recent meeting, resolved to forward a letter to the administrator thanking him for the offer and accepting it. The memorial itself is to take the form of a column forty feet high.

The Color of the British Flag. Let the British listen to this story, which is an old but true one, says a writer in the London Post. Two young Boers were arguing about the color of the British flag. One said it was the Union Jack, but the other declared it was the ensign. An old Boer listening quietly settled the question. "I've seen," he said, "the British flag three times—once at Laing's Neck, once at Majuba and lastly at Doornkop—and each time it was white."

New Style Collector. If you meet a young, bold and stylish woman carrying a music roll, beware. There are nine chances out of ten that it is a bill collector. That is the latest device of lawyers who intrusted with the collecting of bad bills. The woman serves court summons is old. The fish young woman with the roll as a bill collector is new. Her employer insists, she must be beautiful, that she must be young, that she must be stylish, and that she must be a music teacher. The music roll "blind" for the neighbors, serves also as a salve for the sensibilities of the aristocratic dogs. There can not possibly be any neighborhood gossip at the calls of a stylish young woman carrying a music roll. She may be a music teacher or friend of the ladies of the fashion and has called to practice due. No one would dream of associating her with a vulgar bill collector. Then the young woman carries a certain prestige of her own. It is harder for the aristocratic debtor to refuse payment to a beautiful tailor-made young person than to a male collector whose clothes are shabby. The young woman with the music roll's domain fails of a collection.

The Difference Explained. The other day a little boy went to a shop for a penny worth of cobbler's wax. The shoeman, thinking of quizzing him, said: "Won't shoemaker's wax do?" "Aw doon't know," replied the lad. "Aw'll go an' see." He returned again directly, addressing the shoeman, said: "Mi father says that shoemaker's wax'll do." The shoeman handed it to him smiling, and said: "What is the difference?" "Well," said the lad, going toward the door, "mi father says that shoemaker's wax is better between you and a donkey, and that is, they're both alike." And then he was off like a shot.

King Humbert is Democratic. King Humbert of Italy appears to be about the only man on the European continent charged with running the affairs of a great power who would be able to make any headway as a candidate in this country. The Emperor of Austria never shakes hands with anyone below the rank of archduke. Kaiser Wilhelm is also averse to indiscriminate handshaking, as is the Russian czar in a less degree. Humbert, however, shakes hands with everybody that comes along, and seems to enjoy heartily the operation. On his excursions into the rural districts he is cordial and "hand-shaky" with the peasants as is an American candidate with the sovereigns on the court green.—From the New England Home Magazine.

A New Device for Locking Nuts. Nuts are securely locked in place by a new device, having the nut out on one side to receive a lever, which is pivoted in such a position that when its long end is depressed the short end bites into the threads and prevents revolution of the nut.
