The gin began work the 30th.

S. J. Adams and J. R. Porter are having additions built to their residences. Bob Bruce is the contractor in the one case and Frank Smith in the other.

Miss Winnie Davis is teaching at Poteet again this year. Her sister Miss Susie is with her attending high school.

S. F. Marsh preached at Tuff Sunday.

Presiding Elder Groseclose held quarterly conference here Monday night.

Junior and Senior Leagues were organized at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Callie Caton entertained her large Sunday school class Friday afternoon. The girls as losers in a contest, furnished refreshments to the boys of the class.

A creditable number of patrons gathered at the school building Monday for the opening of this session of school. J. P. Akin offered the opening prayer, J. C. Winkel conducted devotional exercises, the president of the board and other trustees made brief addresses, as did also Prof. and Mrs. Ahrens, and Miss Verna Hodges rendered a selection on the piano. Prospects are bright for a good session. The teachers are Prof. and Mrs. E. Ahrens of Weimar, Miss Dora Nimitz of Kerrville, and Miss Katie Shuprine of Medina. One hundred pupils were enrolled the first day.

Hats off to the School House in her new dress!

Wouldn't Medina look different if more paint were spread about?

All Innocent But One

Senator Stone while in the executive office of Missouri once visited the state penitentiary at Jefferson. After his fashion he went among the prisoners and talked to them freely, seeking to find out the causes and conditions of the crimes that sent them there. During a whole day Governor Stone found not a single man who failed to declare that he was innocent of the crime with which he was charged, that perjured testimony had sent him there or that a prejudiced jury had returned an unjust verdict, and that he was, and always had been an honest man.

Finally, about sunset, the Governor found a single man who on being interrogated, promptly declared: "I stole a horse because I wanted to ride to Kansas, and I was caught and convicted, and have nothing to say about the verdict." "Well said Senator Stone, "I will see a bout your discharge tomorrow I can not willingly consent to let a confessed criminal like you remain in this penitentiary, where you may corrupt the morals of so many honest men."

GERMANS AGAIN RESUME THEIR WESTERN STRUGGLE

Only in the Artois Region Have Anglo-French Troops Succeeded in Making Appreciable Headway.

The violent fighting along the western line in the Artois region and in Champagne has lessened somewhat in intensity. Artillery is the chief instrument of warfare from the North Sea to the Vosges Mountains.

The only fresh gain of additional ground claimed by any of the contending factions is made by Paris, which asserts that the French have made some new progress in the southern part of the Givenchy wood, in the Artois region, to the northeast of Souchez.

Directly east of Souchez and in Champagne, German prisoners and guns have been taken by the French, according to Paris, and the French guns have replied efficaciously to bombardments by the Germans in this region and also in the forest of the Argonne.

On the British front, to the north of Lens, the situation remains unchanged, according to Field Marshal Sir John French. General French acknowledges the previous claim of Berlin that the Germans on Thursday recaptured, near Hulluch, about 150 yards of a trench, but says the counter attacks by the Germans against the British position have now weakened.

During the last seven days, General French declares, allied aircraft have damaged the railroads held by the Germans at fifteen different places, seriously impeding their operations.

Over on the eastern front the Germans and Austrians are still claiming gains against the Russians at all points where they are in contact, from the Riga district down into East Galicia. Petrograd, however, reports successes in the Riga region for the Russian arms in the capture of points held by the Germans, and in their dislodgment from towns and villages. In the Lake Narotche region a large number of German convoy wagons were captured and many men made prisoners and others killed or wounded. Petrograd says.

The fighting along the Austro-Italian front still consists mainly of bombardment, although here and there infantry attacks and counter-attacks have been made. No great successes have been achieved by either.

London.—The belief that Bulgaria has taken sides with the central powers and Turkey and that the Anglo-French and Russian troops will assist the

THE CAUSEWAY NEARLY FINISHED

Corpus Christi, Texas.—The Nueces county causeway that will connect Corpus Christi with the mainland on the north by spanning Nueces Bay, is 97 per cent complete, according to the contractors. The concrete portion running from the Nueces shore two-thirds of the distance across the main channel is complete. The fill and approach on the San Patricio county side needs further work, which is being pushed with all speed.

A smooth roadway joining the two counties and supplying the most important link in the proposed Diamond Loop Highway, it is announced, will be open before the end of this month. A huge drawspan across the main channel has been set and prepared for operation when the unfinished shell fill is complete.

Friends of the entente allies, while it momentarily has diverted the attention of the diplomats, has not dampened the interest of the public in the situation in the eastern and western theaters of war.

The offensive of the allies in the west and the determination with which the Russians are opposing the Austro-German advance in the east are the absorbing topics. The news from the two fronts is considered here as the best for many months.

The French and British forces apparently have made no further progress except in the region of Neuville, in Artois and Champagne, but on the other hand they have been successful in repulsing the German counter-attacks and so far as is known have held virtually all the ground gained.

In the east the Russians appear to be making a much better effort to hold their positions, for except just in front of Dvinsk and in Volhynia the German claim to have made no progress, while between those points and in Galicia, according to a Berlin official report, all the attacking is being done by the Russians. Indeed, the Russian troops by counter-attacks the attack which Field Marshal Von Hindenburg launched at Minsk from the northwest have succeeded pretty well in straightening out their line from north to south.

Italy also is showing signs of renewed activity and has commenced an offensive along the Isonzo river particularly against the important Austrian position of Tolmino.

Nothing has been heard of the much talked of Austro-German offensive against Serbia or of the operations on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

GREECE IS PREPARING TO PROTECT SERBIA

General Mobilization is Approved by Chamber of Deputies.

Athens.—The Greek chamber, in a special session today, ratified the action of the government in decreeing a general mobilization of the army, and authorized a loan of $30,000,000. Premier Venizelos told the chamber that Greek mobilization was indispensable on account of Bulgaria's military measures. He stated, however, that Bulgaria had explained to Greece that her object in mobilizing was to maintain armed neutrality, and that she had no intention of adopting an aggressive attitude toward Greece or Serbia.

Notwithstanding these explanations, the premier continued, the situation was still grave, since the state of affairs that brought about mobilization could not be prolonged indefinitely.

The premier concluded his address with the declaration that the Greek people stood ready to oppose efforts of any other nation to obtain a predominating position in the Balkans. He hoped an understanding could be reached which would permit of simultaneous demobilization by Greece and Bulgaria.

Former Premier Gounaris, leader of the minority, which has favored neutrality, approved the declaration of the government.

London.—An Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, filed yesterday, says:

"Bills proclaiming a state of siege in Macedonia, providing for the families of men called to the colors and providing a credit of $30,000,000 to meet the expenses of mobilization, were enthusiastically applauded and voted at a sitting of the chamber today. Premier Venizelos, who was given an ovation, stated the reasons why Greece was obliged to mobilize and emphasized the gravity of the situation. Former Premier Gounaris expressed his approval of Mr. Venizelos' declaration."

Paris.—The Temps says that the French government has arrived at a certain decision as to what should be done to avert an attack on Serbia by Bulgaria. The indications are that Russia will assent to this plan, that Italy will not oppose it and that England probably will give her adherence. The nature of the plan is not disclosed, but the Temps states that the situation in the Balkans requires that the prospective Bulgarian attack on Serbia shall be prevented by a demand on Bulgaria for immediate demobilization. This paper asserts it has reason to believe that the reports from Saloniki that Bulgaria had definitely agreed to take the field on October 15 are correct, and that delivery of the territory recently ceded to Turkey is contingent on action by Bulgaria against Serbia at that time.

RADIO TELEPHONY IS OPERATED 5,000 MILES

Conversation Is Carried on Over A Distance of 5000 Miles.

New York.—Wireless telephony from the Atlantic seaboard to Hawaii, a distance of 4600 miles, is accomplished. By the special wireless telephone development which has been made by the engineers of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and of the Western Electric Company, speech was transmitted from Washington to a wireless station in Honolulu. If anything further was needed to show the wonderful capacity of these new discoveries by the engineers of the Bell system, this last triumph, coming but a few hours after Mr. Vail, the president of the company, had talked by wireless from Washington to Mr. Carty, its chief engineer, at Mare Island, near San Francisco, is conclusive. The distance over which this wireless communication was held is greater than the distance from New York to London, New York to Paris, or from New York to many other important points, such as Rome, Vienna and Berlin. That trans-Atlantic wireless telephone communication is assured as soon as the disturbed condition in Europe will permit of tests from this country to there is obvious when it is remembered that all scientists agree that it is more difficult to send wireless telephone communications around land than across water. This wonderful wireless telephone message from Washington to Hawaii had to pass over the whole of the United States, a distance of 25,000 miles, before it encountered the more simple condition which exists when sending over large bodies of water. For the purpose of this test the sending was done from the navy wireless station at Arlington, just outside of Washington. The receiving was done on small wires antennae specially erected for the purpose by the engineers of the company, which, by permission of the naval authorities, was located at the United States naval station at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. The message was received by Lloyd Espenseccid, an engineer of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, who had been sent there by Mr. Carty, chief engineer, to take charge of the observations.

"The scene of 'Straightened Out' is a mountain back-to-nature health resort. The action centers around the manner in which a reputed 'no-account' and inebriate patient solves the financial difficulties of the institution and sacrifices the girl he really loves just to make her happy. A spiral staircase that presents unimaginable difficulties of negotiation to the inebriate—Alan Brooks—is the cause of excruciating comedy.

"What is heralded as a whirlwind of hilarity is the offering of Creighton Brothers and Belmont, who appear as 'Mudtown Minstrels.' They are funmakers extraordinary. They offer a typical backwoods amateur minstrel entertainment, which they dress with all the skill and finish of real artists. The comedy is so quaint and clean and fresh that it is said to have a charm irresistible.

"The New York Evening Post of July 21 has the following to say of Master Paul and his 'mystic bird':

"The mystic bird, a canary, whose claim to fame would be sufficiently well established through its willingness when it is desired to sing and to remain silent at all other times, is the outstanding feature of an interesting vaudeville bill at Keith's Palace Theater this week. But the little yellow warbler in the gilded cage has something more than the mere virtue of good behavior to commend it; it has a highly developed mimetic faculty which allows it to follow thrillingly the notes of a violin, which its picturesque young impresario plays, walking among the audience while the cage was even passed around the theater and the little fellow could be seen singing on quite unconscious, or at least unperturbed, by the proximity of staring eyes. "Smart Fooling" is the title of the hilarious offering of Bunny Willing, Jim Bentley and Larry Willing. Theirs is a comedy from 'Darktown' that has been a 'riot' everywhere presented, so the press agent asserts. The Willing brothers—Bunny and Larry—as burnt cork artists are said to form an incomparable team of comedians.

"One of the mirth-provoking features of the turn is a 'ballin' th' Jack' contest between the black faces for a job that Bentley is supposed to have.

"Howard the Great, is a Scottish ventriloquist who has won many laurels and a fixed place of popularity with American vaudeville patrons. He appears as a young dentist with two wee tiny lads on his hands. One has called to have an aching tooth extracted. The other is present to watch the 'fun.'

"Knapp and Cornella present as an opener a potpourri of mirth, song, dancing and acrobatics. They are equally as good in any single branch of the work. They start the show with a punch that insures complete success throughout.

"A Jolly Dinner at Rector's" is the billing of the juggling act of the August family of three men and one woman. Every article in the room that it is possible to juggle is juggled, including the bellboy and the waiter and the chairs and tables."

PERSONAL PREFERENCE TO DECIDE HEADLINER

Majestic Theater Promises Four Acts of Unusual Merit.

San Antonio.—Advance notices of next week's bill says:

"Personal preference will decide the headliner of the new bill at the Majestic Theater. Of the seven acts making up the program, either of four could be offered with success as the first feature of almost any variety entertainment, provided, of course, the other three did not vie for first honors. These four big acts are Alan Brooks and company, Master Paul and his 'mystic bird,' Creighton Brothers and Belmont, and Willing, Bentley and Willing.

"Straightened Out," a screaming comedy in one act, is the offering of Alan Brooks and company. The troupe consists of three men and one woman, in addition to Brooks, and each is an artist of recognized ability.

"Alan Brooks is conceded to be one of the leading character comedians of the day. He has been a standard vaudeville headliner for the last decade, and during that time he bears the distinction of never having played in an offering that was not a success. He is said by critics throughout the country to be exceptionally well cast in his present vehicle.

"The stage setting of 'Straightened Out' are elaborate. Neither time, care nor expense has been spared to make the offering effective, and its scenic environment realistic in every detail. An evidence of this is furnished in a realistic rain scene that represents a mountain storm, during which water pours from a mechanical device like real rain in a dismal, driving pattern before open windows.

"The scene of 'Straightened Out' is a mountain back-to-nature health resort. The action centers around the manner in which a reputed 'no-account' and inebriate patient solves the financial difficulties of the institution and sacrifices the girl he really loves just to make her happy. A spiral staircase that presents unimaginable difficulties of negotiation to the inebriate—Alan Brooks—is the cause of excruciating comedy.

THE KERRVILLE ADVANCE

Published Every Thursday at Kerrville, Texas, by T. A. Buckner.

SUBSCRIPTION $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Kerrville, Texas.

A Pure Ballot.

Representative McFarland of Alpine announces that since the election fraud trials at Corpus Christi have furnished such glaring proof of the need of the adoption of the amendment to our election laws which was voted down last July, he will offer the amendment for adoption again at the earliest possible meeting of the legislature. But for the active opposition of the liquor machine this amendment would have received a vast majority in the election, but its provisions were so grossly misrepresented by them and their interests were so very much affected by the cutting off of the illiterate and illegal vote they put up the fight that defeated it. If the integrity of our State elections are safeguarded we must have just such a law as will take the illiterate and purchasable vote out of the hands of those who are dishonest enough to use them, and the only way to do it is to disfranchise this class who are not legally qualified citizens of the United States anyway. The liquorites are afraid of an enlightened and intelligent American citizenship. They know if the future existence of their nefarious business is left with such class for disposition it wouldn't last longer than the first opportunity to knock it out. So they hold onto the illiterate vote with a death grip and of course will use it as long as they are given a chance.

Is your subscription paid up? If not you would make this editor mighty glad if you would hand in or send in that dollar. We've got them owing to us all over several counties and as many states and would like very much to get some of them together just now. "Dat jing'lin' sound would be music to our ear."

BEEKEEPERS NOTES

By E. G. LeSturgeon

Any question pertaining to Beekeeping or Honey-making will be gladly replied, either directly or through these columns. Address letters to P. O. Box 1048, San Antonio, Texas.

BEE KEEPING NEWS.

The San Patricio Association met Saturday the 2nd in Sinton at 1 p. m. G. B. Stevens of Sinton is president and C. R. Park is secretary.

Louis Biediger of LaCoste writes: "Since the recent rains we are getting all sorts of fall bloom and we are living in hopes of getting our usual surplus of broomweed and whitebursh blended honey."

The present fall flow is a good time to make increase to recuperate for summer losses. They have been very heavy this year owing to the absence of a summer honey flow. The far-sighted bee men will do their most telling work right now in the direction of success next season.

The Bexar County Association met in the offices of the Southwestern Bee Company in San Antonio Saturday night with an exceptionally large and enthusiastic attendance. Steps were taken with a view to adopt a uniform label to be used by all members of the association on honey packed for the market and to make sales through a central or association agency with a guarantee of grade and quality on honey so labeled. A letter to Prof. Wilmon Newell was ordered written expressing regret at his resignation and conveying to him words of appreciation for his services to Texas Beemen while acting as State Entomologist. A letter was also sent to Director B. Youngblood of the College Station Experiment Station urging that Mr. Newell's successor be instructed to vigorously continue the efforts toward foul brood eradication.

Walter S. Prouder estimates that there are 184,000 colonies of bees in Indiana. Hoosiers evidently have a sweet tooth, as they eat all their own honey and import ever so many car loads from other states.

Whatever affects one beekeeper, no matter how remote, affects all beekeepers, anywhere, in some degree. Our duty to ourselves, even if we have a market for our own product is to organize our people to work for the business as a whole.

The producer who depends entirely on the wholesaler to dispose of his crop is only half doing his job. Develop your home market, and get the cream of the profit.

It is gratifying to see the awakened interest in boosting honey as reflected by the increased space given to it in the journals. We are only too glad to welcome a general effort in this direction, as it has been sadly neglected heretofore.

Sweeten your hot and cold drinks with honey. It is more wholesome than sugar.

WHAT TO TEACH.

A dozen or more state universities have already taken up more or less extensively regular courses in instruction in beekeeping, and as many more are contemplating doing so. This is a commendable work, but it should be well balanced.

The honey business is peculiar to itself in this particular. It has no established market like corn, cattle or potatoes, and the promoters of these courses have so far failed to grasp this phase of the business. The schools are making more beekeepers but they seriously fall down in their work, as they generally have failed to instruct their neophytes in the distributing end of the business.

With due appreciation for the good intentions of these instructors and appreciating the need of their work, we wish to call their attention to the crying need for more attention in their courses of instruction to the distributing end of the business. In beekeeping, unlike any other vocation, instruction in the producing end alone tends to make the student unpractical, and at the mercy of the speculator. We wish to seriously impress the persons responsible that production is only half the course, and by no means the larger half. We need more beekeepers, possibly, to furnish the increasing amounts of honey we will need when we get it boosted properly, but we do not want them half-baked like the professor of agricultural chemistry or something, who concluded to go to farmin. He hunted all around for the stepladder to climb up on top of the horse when he wished to ride to town.

GOVERNMENT BULLETIN No. 653.

We have occasion to refer to Farmers' Bulletin No. 653, "Honey and Its Uses in the Home," by Miss Caroline L. Hunter would be advisable for our readers to write to their Congressmen and procure a copy. It contains a number of recipes for cooking and baking, using honey for sweetening. They will be useful in preparing for our Honey Day.

GULF STORM DAMAGES NEW ORLEANS SECTION

Loss Is Estimated at Not Less Than Ten Million Dollars. Many Lives Lost.

New Orleans—Late reports from scattered sections of the hurricane area in Louisiana and the Mississippi gulf coast give 160 known dead, 106 reported drowned and 113 missing.

Hundreds of persons along the Mississippi and interior points are marooned in the flooded sections. Relief vessels have been sent to assist them. Three hundred persons are marooned in four houses at Empire, La. Seventy inhabitants of Grand Isle, which was swept by a tidal wave, are reported to be refugees in a storm house, suffering from lack of food. There was no life loss at Grand Isle.

The first word since the storm came from Bay St. Louis, Miss., and nearby coast points tonight and stated that one life was lost there but that property damage was heavy. Houma reported safe and no lives were lost; Burwood, the most southerly point on the gulf coast, is safe.

Reported as known dead: Twenty-four at New Orleans and environs; twenty-one at Rigolets, La.; twenty-two at Lake Catherine, La.; twenty-five near Frenier, La.; eight drowned in sinking packet Hazel near Grand Isle; scattered, sixty; total, 100.

Reported dead and missing: Sixteen near Shell Beach, St. Bernard Parish; twenty-two at Island de la Croix; fifteen negroes at Yolosky, La.; scattered, sixty; total, 113.

New Orleans—Reports from the district swept by Wednesday's hurricane in all directions from New Orleans up to noon indicated the death list in Louisiana may reach several hundred. At noon reports from several widely scattered communities received here gave a total of one hundred known dead. Fifty-three other persons were reported dead or missing. The fatalities include a large number of negroes.

Couriers by boat and train as well as mail advices brought in reports of tremendous property loss and rumors of many drowned along both sides of the Mississippi south of here. It was unofficially estimated the hurricane caused more than $10,000,000 damage in Louisiana. Boat passengers arriving here early today from Empire, near the Dooloth canal, about fifty miles down the Mississippi reported that four large houses still stood at Empire and that about 200 persons were maroon-times asked by different correspondents: "Who is the inspector in such and such county?" We have therefore secured the names of all of the various county inspectors and publish them with their mailing address as follows:

- G. F. Davidson, Poteet, Atascosa County.
- W. H. Laws, Beeville, Bee County.
- R. E. Watson, Heidenheimer, Bell County.
- H. Grosenbacher, San Antonio, Bexar County.
- James W. Taylor, Enloe, Delta County.
- T. W. Burselon, Waxahachie, Ellis County.
- J. W. Hopkins (Deputy), Italy, Texas.

SIX BODIES PROBE ARDMORE DISASTER

Special Grand Jury Summoned to Trace Possible Criminal Negligence.

Ardmore, Okla.—An order convening a special grand jury to ascertain if there was criminal negligence in connection with Monday's gasoline explosion was issued here today by District Judge Freeman. An expert of the interstate commerce commission arrived today to make an investigation. These, with an investigation under way by a court of inquiry, by the state corporation commission, by the state fire marshal and by the federal bureau of mines, make six separate inquiries into the explosion which cost forty-three lives.

Will Lane, a negro, died today, increasing the death list from forty-two.

Relief funds continue to arrive. Seven large oil companies operating in this section have subscribed $1000 each for relief.

In them. The State Conservation commission started a rescue vessel for that point today. Many inhabitants of the flooded sections on both sides of the river were reported marooned and some were said to be clinging to tree tops. Communication with most of the outlying districts are yet cut off.

Twenty-one persons are known to be dead at Rigolets and twenty-two at Lake Catherine, both small resorts on the main line of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, a few miles west of the Mississippi-Louisiana State line, according to W. O. Powell, one of the twelve survivors who arrived here late last night. Fifteen negroes and one white man were reported dead at Shell Beach and twenty-two white persons at De la Croix Island, both small settlements in St. Bernard Parish, south of here. A trustworthy negro, arriving here late yesterday, reported he had counted twenty-five bodies lying in the marshes between Frenier and Desarc, on the west shore of Lake Pontchartrain. This report was confirmed today by a railroad man arriving at Hammond, La.

The sole survivor of a party of nine passengers and crew of the Grand Isle packet Hazel arrived here at midnight. The vessel capsized and was dashed to pieces near Grand Isle. The survivor, George Linden, engineer of the vessel, floated fifteen miles on a piece of timber and was exhausted when picked up by a passing vessel.

Five of the crew and a white woman aboard the steamer F. M. Owens, which sank near Lockport, were reported missing. An unidentified white woman and a negro laborer were drowned and two negroes were nearly killed at Mentz when their homes collapsed.

The casualty list in New Orleans and environs was increased to twenty-four. In addition to the fatalities already enumerated, an Italian infant was crushed to death in the debris of a house at Caennarve. "Dad" Johnson, a well known character of West End, was drowned at that place, and the body of a negro boy was found in a canal.

BRYAN LEADS PRAYER BEHALF OF PEACE

Former Secretary of State Is Chief Figure in Service on Mountain Top.

Hot Springs, Ark.—Delegates to the southern district efficiency convention of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., today concluded their sessions with an open-air "peace prayer service" on the summit of Hot Springs Mountain. Surrounding W. J. Bryan, former secretary of state, they prayed for peace in Europe and that a spirit of Christianity, rather than a spirit of force, might govern the world.

Mr. Bryan was the principal speaker at the concluding session of the convention. He declared the country should be grateful that we have in the White House "a man bending every effort and energy for peace," rather than a "jingo." It is the duty of the United States to maintain its position as the strongest neutral power and shoulder its responsibilities when the time comes for peace between the European nations to be worked out. Seated about the dinner table where the ladies of the Presbyterian church had Mr. Bryan as their guest today after his address to the efficiency conference, Mr. Bryan fidgeted with his watch until the hands reached 2 o'clock. Then he spoke as follows:

"I would like to have any friends here drink a toast with me. I would drink to the one who has borne the greatest of my burdens, and who deserves the most of the praise—to a bride, a wife, a mother and a grandmother—my wife. Just thirty years ago at this minute I stood at the altar and was married to the woman who has since that time been my greatest

INVESTORS ARE EAGER FOR ALLIED BONDS

Subscriptions Totaling $375,000,000 Already Have Been Received.

New York.—Subscriptions amounting to approximately $365,000,000 appeared to be in sight Thursday night toward the $500,000,000 issue of joint Anglo-French bonds, according to a declaration made today by the president of one of the largest National banks in the city. This would leave $135,000,000 to be taken, and it was his opinion that tomorrow would see the entire amount placed.

The books will be left open, in all probability, for several days. Middle Western and Western banks are yet to be heard from and the wants of some of these remain to be ascertained.

In the pouring rain on the curb outside the Stock Exchange the bonds were bought and sold today for the first time by any stock dealing association. At the close of the market they were quoted at 97 3/4 to 98. Dealing, it was said, totaled about $75,000.

The books will be open for subscription to the general public probably October 15. It was definitely decided today that payment on the bonds would be payable in three installments, as follows:

October 15, 25 per cent; November 15, 25 per cent; December 15, 50 per cent.

SENATOR STONE SAYS LOAN IS UNNEUTRAL

Senator Believes It Will Build Up Pro-British Sentiment.

St. Louis.—Senator William Joel Stone, chairman of the Senate committee on foreign relations, in a written statement to the press, referred to the proposed American loan to Great Britain and France as a "scheme to foment a powerful and active pro-British sentiment in this country."

He expressed the belief that holders of securities of the loan would become partisans of British borrowers and made a plea for "honest neutrality."

"I am absolutely opposed to anything, no matter what the excuse, calculated to convert any part of our people from our national attitude of honest neutrality into an attitude of partisanship in this European struggle. I am not at this moment so much concerned about the possible profits to the insiders of this transaction (the Anglo-French credit) as I am with respect to its possible ultimate moral effects on the neutrality sentiment of our people. If hundreds of millions of these securities are to be sold and distributed among all classes of our people there will be thousands who will suddenly have a new and vital interest in the success of the powers whose obligations they hold.

"J. P. Morgan is understood to be the fiscal agent in the United States of Great Britain. He and his employers in London could not have devised a better scheme than this to foment a powerful and active pro-British sentiment in this country.

"I am an advocate of honest neutrality, for I believe that neutrality is best for our country and our people. I grow impatient when a man talks to me about international questions from the standpoint of a German, an Englishman or anything else except from the standpoint of a rock-ribbed American.

"Our people must not become divided into two great embittered factions over this foreign war. We must keep our head level and not be swept off our feet by the smart tactics of cunning men. Above all things, while the war rages we must stand for America and hold fast to that high position that will enable us to wield a mighty influence for the good of mankind when the struggle ends. We must hold ourselves well in hand.

"Any citizen of this country who does not put America above all the balance of the world is unfit."

ROCKEFELLER HAS INDUSTRIAL PLAN

Denver.—An industrial plan which John D. Rockefeller, Jr., characterized as "broader and more democratic than unionism," will be submitted to officers and employees of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company at Pueblo on Saturday. Announcement of the meeting was made by Rockefeller tonight. At the conference besides Mr. Rockefeller will be the principal operating officials of the company, all the mine superintendents of the various Colorado camps. Between fifty and sixty men are expected to attend.

In discussing the meeting, Mr. Rockefeller declined to make public in advance any details of the industrial plan which has been worked out by himself and W. L. Mackenzie King, in collaboration with President J. F. Welborn and other officers of the company. He said that it was in no sense an attack upon union labor.

FRENCH MAKE GAINS AT SOME POINTS

All Efforts to Break Through, However Checked by Germans, Berlin Claims

The German second line of defense in the Champagne region and the important railway lying behind it are still the objectives of the French army and it is fighting tenaciously day and night for a successful issue of the great offensive begun last week.

With their twelve mile front, running from Auberive to Ville-sur-Tourbe, already at distances ranging from two and one-half and three miles from the railway, the French are still battling, and although they are meeting with fierce resistance, have made further progress.

The new gains are north of Mesnil and north of Massiges and along the road from Ville-sur-Tourbe to Cernay-en-Dorfers. The attainment of this road would place the French about two miles distance from the branch railway running from Challerange past the north-western and western sides of the forest of the Argonne to St. Menehould. Such an achievement would necessarily affect the communications of the army of the German Crown Prince, which is operating in the Argonne.

With their successes, the French also record a repulse. The Germans in the Champagne—at what point Paris does not say—have recovered by a counter-attack part of a position previously taken by the French.

In the fighting in Champagne alone since the commencement of the present engagement the French have taken from the Germans 121 field guns and pieces of heavy artillery, it is officially announced.

In the region between La Bassée and Arras, where the British and French have made notable gains, there has been no very recent actions of importance, according to Paris, but the allied heavy artillery has supported the British fleet in pounding the German batteries along the Belgian coast. There also have been intermittent artillery duels at inland points in Belgium.

The Germans claim victory south of Dvinsk, in the further retreat of the Russian Vilna army and the capture of men and guns and in like maneuvers in the Volhynian fortress region.

The Turks in Mesopotamia are still in full retreat with the British in pursuit, along the Tigris river toward Bagdad, according to the British secretary for India. Of Nureddin Pashas force of 8000 regulars and a considerable number of tribesmen, 1,550 have been made prisoners, "but more are coming in," the secretary says.

Martial law has been proclaimed by Greece in the Saloniki, Florina, Seres and Kavala districts and in Athens and Piraeus. The Chamber of Deputies at Athens has ratified the call for a general mobilization and authorized a loan of $30,000,000.

The Greek Premier, in an address before the Chamber, described mobilization as necessary, owing to Bulgaria's military maneuvers. The premier declared that Greece stood ready to oppose the efforts of any nation to obtain a predominant position in the Balkans.

THE "WASATCH FAULT" ROCKS THREE STATES

Shocks Are Most Severe in Nevada, Where Some Damage Is Done.

San Francisco.—A series of earthquakes, believed to have originated in the "Wasatch Fault," underlying the Wasatch Mountains in Utah, were experienced Saturday, culminating in severe shocks at 10:56 p. m. that were felt in Utah, Nevada, the northern part of California, Oregon and Idaho.

So violent were the tremors in Nevada that railroad water tanks along the Southern Pacific were thrown down and various other minor damage was caused. "Slow orders" were issued to all trains.

At Baker, Ore., and at Sacramento and Fresno, Cal., buildings swayed and residents rushed into the streets, many in night clothes.

The disturbance began in the afternoon, reaching as far north as Victoria, B. C.

In San Francisco the shocks were barely perceptible. Although the vibrations were unusually strong and the duration of the night shocks exceptionally alarming, some points reporting that the disturbances, which came in two distinct tremors, lasted almost a minute, comparatively little damage was done.

Nowhere, except in Nevada, was real damage done, according to reports received here today. In that state, besides the overturning of a number of water tanks, the walls of buildings were cracked at Imley and Lovelock.

Reports received late last night indicated that extensive damage probably had been wrought by the quake, but a general checking up today showed that fears caused by the exceptional violence of the shock had been unjustified.

BRYAN CONDEMNNS WAR PREPARATIONS

Galveston, Tex.—Speaking at the First Presbyterian Church here, William Jennings Bryan declared that all neutral nations have suffered from the European war and this country more than all. He said both sides in the war have violated our rights and injured us and that neither side desires to injure us. He said:

"There is a propaganda for the purpose of proving that preparation of war is found in preparedness. If preparedness would prevent war there would be no war in Europe, as Europe has spent generations in preparation, and I believe that if our nation had been as well prepared for war as we are asked to make it that we would have been in it now and crying for blood. Preparedness would get us into war if we had a jingo in the White House. Preparedness means to make hatred a national policy and if you transplant this European tree of hatred to American soil you must partake of the fruits of the tree."

Mr. Bryan said the extra expense advocated by those who want preparedness would be enough to give this country a hundred national highways from border to border with connecting roads every twelve miles and said that if it was ever contemplated the people, men and women, should be allowed to vote on the question.

WILLARD WILLING TO MEET ANYONE

Oklahoma City.—Returning tonight to Oklahoma City, where he made his start in the pugilistic game, Jess Willard, world's heavyweight champion, announced that his first twenty-round fight in defense of the title which he took from Jack Johnson last spring would probably be staged in New Orleans next March.

"Willard will be open to meet anyone after November 1," said his manager, Tom Jones, tonight.

"He will not require much training, for he has kept in condition all summer. Just who his first opponent will be, I do

THOUSANDS PUT TO SWORD IN ARMENIA

Massacres Described as the Most Shocking Recorded in History of the Past.

New York.—Documentary evidence of the atrocities inflicted by the Turks upon the Armenians was made public tonight by the committee formed by Charles R. Crane, Cleveland H. Dodge and others to investigate the facts of the Armenian massacres and which also is taking steps to aid the sufferers.

The committee states that the evidence was collected from sources of unquestioned veracity, but that for obvious reasons their names cannot be given, and in most cases names of towns and cities must be concealed.

"Quotations are given in the committee's report from twenty-four sources, some of which describe in detail instances where Armenians have been put to death, women violated and children slaughtered; of robbery, torture and death by starvation; of terrible privations endured in long marches to the desert regions to which the Armenians have been exiled"—crimes described by the committee as surpassing "in their horror and cruelty anything that history has recorded during the past thousand years."

AMBUSHED BANDITS ATTACK U. S. TROOPS

Mexicans Take to Brush When Cavalrymen Slip From Horses and Charge.

Brownsville, Tex.—An American cavalry patrol and half a dozen Mexicans had a running fight today near La Feria, about thirty miles up the Rio Grande from here. The Mexicans tried to ambush the Americans, but failed. There were no known casualties on either side.

Major Edward Anderson of the Twelfth Cavalry, in charge of the patrol district along the river front about La Feria, reported that Lieutenant John A. Considine of Seattle, Wash., and three men of the Sixth Cavalry while on patrol saw the Mexicans ahead. Considine counted three. His men thought they saw one or two more hiding in the brush. These Mexicans opened fire at short range when the cavalrymen suddenly came upon them around a curve in the road.

Lieutenant Considine slipped from his horse, leading his men into the roadside, where they advanced on the Mexicans at a run. The Mexicans ran into the prickly brush when the Americans had a long running fight, firing in the direction of the direction of the noise in the brush as the Mexicans went through. Reinforcements closed in from several directions, but the bandits escaped.

They have talked Coffey and Moran, but neither has put a definite proposition up to us yet. However, his first twenty-round fight for the title undoubtedly will be staged in New Orleans next March. New Orleans promoters have made us an offer to meet at the Mardi Gras carnival whomever the sport writers of the country decide to be his logical opponent. This we expect to accept. In the meantime, Willard will meet anyone for any distance, anywhere, providing the financial inducements are right. That is, of course, barring negroes."

Boxing Carnival Planned.

New Orleans.—Local boxing promoters have announced that Jess Willard, heavyweight champion, has agreed to fight for the championship here in March any opponent picked by the majority of the newspaper sporting writers in this country. It is planned to hold a boxing carnival during Mardi Gras, it was stated, and in addition to the fight for the heavyweight championship efforts will be made to match Joe Mandot and Freddie Welsh and Mike Gibbons and Young Ahearn for the light and middleweight honors.
