Methodist Church Notes.

The Spirit of Christmas pervaded the services last Sunday, and the pastor was made glad by receiving six members into the church. The children are busy with the preparation for the Christmas exercises to be given in the church Friday night, at 7:30. Misses Alice Starkey and Blanche Self have charge of the program.

Services for the coming Sunday will also show how dominant is the Spirit of Christmas. The pastor's morning subject will be "The Angel's Message," and at night "The Story of the Other Wise Man."

Special music at both services and the public is cordially invited to worship with us.

Baptist Church Notes.

"Christmas Gift!" Well, I mean I expect to preach on that theme next Sunday morning, and the night service will be in the hands of our Young People, who have a fine musical program for the evening, and will have the entire service. They have requested our young brother, Elmer Deering to repeat his great winning address given at Waco University recently, which won the prize and great honor.

Our Sunday School Christmas tree will be Friday evening at 7:30 and we extend a cordial invitation to all the people to come. Wishing every one a "Happy Christmas" and hoping to see a great crowd of people at both the morning and evening services next Sunday, I am cordially, Your Servant for the Master,

J. B. RIDDLE,
Pastor.

"PLEASE SEND US SOME NEW TOYS"

Wanted—A Man

BY MASON S. OSBORNE.

Looking through a well-known paper a few days ago, I saw words to the effect of the above caption. It is not a new thing to see such advertisements. In fact, the general public is calling incessantly for men. Some time ago there was a loud and insistent call for a man, by a great railroad corporation, who could earn one hundred thousand dollars a year. Only one man was found. A few were found who could earn fifty thousand; several were found who could earn twenty-five thousand; a number could have been secured who could earn ten thousand; hundreds of thousands of one-dollar-a-day-men could be found; but a man of specific qualifications was wanted. And so it is coming to pass that whenever men are wanted, whether in the high places or in the most lowly avocations or callings of life, that certain specific qualifications are called for.

A man is never wanted who is not capable. He must be a man who knows how to do the thing for which he is wanted. Men who are capable are wanted everywhere; our stores, our banks, our railroads, our schools and our chure has want men who know how to do the work needed to be done. The town, the county, the state and the nation are calling for men capable of managing their interests.

Today, England is calling for 30,000 men per week to fight her battles, but these men must qualify before they go to the front; they must be trained for the task ahead.

CAPABILITY, spelt large, is the one qualification insisted on everywhere.

Then men are wanted who are honest, true; some places still want the man who can get the $ regard-less of how he gets it, but such places and such men are giving place to the honorable and the honest. More and more honest and honorable methods are required and such men are wanted who will fill to the full the requirements.

If you, young friend, would occupy an honored place of trust, look well to your preparation for such place of trust and always be honest—honest with your fellowman, yourself and your God.

Red Cross

Christmas Seals Save Lives.

Every seal you buy is a bullet in the fight against tuberculosis. It helps protect your county, your neighbor, your family and yourself from the disease and its cost.

Tuberculosis is our most destructive disease. One person out of every four in America who die between the ages of fifteen and fifty die from tuberculosis. It is a chief cause of poverty.

But it is preventable and conquerable. This war, man against disease, is a winning war—not a wasting war, man against man. It is the war that pays—it brings prosperity.

Will you not enlist in this campaign by purchasing Christmas Seals? They can be had from any of the following committee:

Mrs. Lee Wallace, Mrs. D. H. Comparette, Mrs. R. S. Newman, Misses Hilda Mogel, Millie Schwet-helm and Lynn Burnett and Rev. B. Schleifer. A number of children are also selling the seals, and they can be procured at the following stores: J. L. Pampell's, Rock Drug Store, West Texas Supply Co., The Famous Millinery Store and Mrs. Kent's.

"LISTEN!"

Having secured the services of an "expert shoe repairer," I can do your work promptly. Bring it in. S. P. Benton, The Shoe Man.

Tenth Annual Christmas Sale.

For the last ten years it has been our custom to put on a Christmas sale of seasonable merchandise at greatly reduced prices, and we shall make no exception this year. Every thing in the store is included in this discount sale. Make yourself a Christmas present of $5.00 saved on one of our suits. The sale starts December 15, and is for cash only. Kerrville Mercantile Co.

Wilson Finch, Bandera; Rev. S. F. Marsh, Medina; R. D. Garrison, West Prong Church; L. H. Billings, Harper; J. W. Adams, Reservation; Rev. T. C. Lee, Ingram; Nat Fine, Camp Verde; J. T. S. Gammon, Rev. A. P. Robb and Rev. J. B. Riddle, Kerrville.

Baptist Ladies' Aid.

The Ladies Aid met Tuesday, December 21, at the home of Mrs. Ash. This being our monthly missionary meeting, we had a very full attendance, and a splendid program was rendered, consisting of special music and a very closely contested debate. After a long deliberation, the judges decided in favor of the negative of a gain of two or three points, the negative having three debaters against two for the affirmative.

Miss Pearl Dubus favored us with a violin solo, which was very much appreciated.

Our hostess served delicious refreshments and her splendid hospitality was enjoyed by all present. Free will offering, $45.00.

Christmas.

Christmas, the celebration of the greatest and grandest event since the dawn of time; a season of reverence to Him who brought consolation hope and light to the world; a season for joy and family reunion, and for spreading good cheer, is again with us. The Advance wishes for all its patrons and friends a happy and joyous Christmas and that the true Christmas spirit will always live in their hearts. Let not this glorious season be dishonored by any act of irreverence, ill temper, intemperance or debasement of manhood.

ONE way to help make this a happy Christmas in Kerrville is to do your best to prevent a fire that may bring disaster and sadness.

A Splendid Candidate.

Dr. S. P. Brooks of Waco, who has been for more than twelve years president of Baylor University, has resigned his position to become a candidate for United States Senator at the Democratic primaries next July. This able and cultured Christian gentleman, possessing the highest ideals as a statesman and as a citizen as well as educator, a progressive Democrat and opposed to the liquor traffic and every other business of a demoralizing tendency, would reflect great honor to Texas in the United States Senate. He would rise above petty politics and would work for the best and highest interests of his state and country.

The world would be grander and better to have such men in its highest deliberative bodies.

IN Uvalde, Real, Sutton, and in other counties in this section, the candidates are announcing right along for office. We are expecting the political bees to begin to buzz in old Kerr most any day.

A Thought for the Week.

Even if a man were sure that the moderate use of liquor would be of no physical injury to him and would involve no danger of excess; even if he felt that he had money to spare for drinking, still, in view of the awful consequences of indulgence in liquor, can he afford to gratify himself at the expense of those who, weaker in resisting power, may be led astray by his example? If a man does not drink much—if he has not formed the habit of drinking—it can be but little sacrifice to give up drinking entirely, and thus make his example helpful to those about him; if he drinks so much and the appetite for liquor is so strong that it would be a great sacrifice to stop, then he ought to stop on his own account. The great apostle Paul declared that he would eat no meat if meat made his brother to offend. It was not because Paul did not like meat, but because he loved his brother more than he loved meat. Is it asking too much of any human being to ask that he consider the influence of his example upon those about him?—Wm. J. Bryan.

WE are in receipt of the big 64-page industrial and Christmas edition of the Ballinger Daily Ledger. It is a splendid piece of work and reflects much credit upon the public spiritedness and business thrift of that city.

Saved Girl's Life

"I want to tell you what wonderful benefit I have received from the use of Thedford's Black-Draught," writes Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky.

"It certainly has no equal for la grippe, bad colds, liver and stomach troubles. I firmly believe Black-Draught saved my little girl's life. When she had the measles, they went in on her, but one good dose of Thedford's Black-Draught made them break out, and she has had no more trouble. I shall never be without
