KERRVILLE KERR COUNTY, TEXAS, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1902.

NO. 11.

Mystery Half Clear.

There have been some developments in the mystery which surrounds the finding of the body of an unknown white man in the Neches river yesterday, rather the developments have had some connection with the case. Yesterday, when the body of this unknown was found it came to light that there were two men missing. One of these was an old fisherman who lived on an island near the city with a companion. Last Friday morning one of the fishermen reported that his partner, named Tom Stamps, who had been ill with malarial fever had disappeared from camp, and it was thought he had drowned while in a demented condition. Some similarity was found between the fisherman and the body found yesterday, but the identification was not satisfactory. To-day Stamps was found wandering about on the opposite side of the river from his camp. He was crazy and wore only a small piece of an undershirt. His mind was in such a condition that he was unable to identify himself, but when taken to the camp his companion easily recognized in the half starved and crazed features those of his late fishing partner. This settled the identification so far as the fisherman was concerned, but it soon developed that a bricklayer known as Jim Broderick has been missing since Friday, and the body found yesterday also corresponded to a description of Broderick. The body was in such a condition yesterday that it was impossible to delay interment and the friends of the missing man were not given an opportunity to view the remains. It is possible the body will be exhumed tomorrow for the purpose of examining it more closely. Those who are interested in developing the facts in the case are of the opinion that the man found yesterday was murdered before he was thrown into the river. The bruise on the head and other circumstances lead to this opinion.—Galveston News.

Old Engineer Suicided.

El E. Alden, one of the best known locomotive engineers in Texas, shot himself through the head with a pistol this morning and died at 2:00 this afternoon. He had been employed by seventeen railroads in this country. Two years ago he quit the road and went to farming two and a half miles from this city, and it was in the barn on his farm that he shot himself. He left a note to his wife. He was a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and carried several thousand dollars' insurance on his life. An inquest was held this afternoon, and a verdict of self destruction returned.—Galveston News.

Navasota Shooting.

Navasota, Grimes Co., Tex., Aug. 30.—Deputy County clerk, J. R. Campbell of Anderson, was shot and seriously wounded in this city at a late hour last night. A man who registered himself and lady at the hotel as J. E. Johnston and wife, Dallas, Texas, but who gave his name to your correspondent as J. E. Mason, was locked up. The woman, at her request, was also placed in jail with the man. Statements as to the cause of the trouble are conflicting.

Death of Miss Vogel.

Beaumont, Tex., Aug. 28.—Last night the Post correspondent struck a clew that led to all Miss Vogel's history while in the city and they were followed out to the most minute point. Shortly after her arrival here Miss Vogel met three prominent gentlemen of the city, and talked to them at various times in regard to the lands which she had in Galveston for sale. They were men of money, and men who can command money, and she expected to sell them the property. The business was confined in a large measure to these gentlemen, who were considering her proposition and who were also making investigations. One evening they had dinner down town and it began to dawn upon Miss Vogel that she would probably fail in the deal, and she became despondent, and before reaching the Oaks hotel she had remarked that if she failed to make the deal she would be tired of living. There was much other information secured, which has been turned over to the officials and which cannot be made public at this time.

In addition to all that, the undertaker states that when the embalming fluids were administered the body gave every symptom of having been poisoned.

Pure Food Laws Enforced.

The St. Louis papers report several more grocers brought to trial upon the charge of selling baking powder containing alum in violation of the law. The parties were all convicted and each fined $100.

Several baking powders which have been found by analysis to contain alum have been offered in this market. They are called:

K. C.
KITCHEN QUEEN.
DR. HUGHES.
JACK FROST.
VISION.

In many places similar powders, under these or other names, are offered for sale at from ten to twenty cents a pound.

Good baking powder is one of the most useful things in the kitchen. There are several good powders on the market; housekeepers will help the authorities in their efforts to promote the sale of pure and wholesome food, if when buying baking powder they will insist upon having some one of the well-known brands of cream of tartar powders, which are pure and healthful beyond a doubt.

A New Religion Needed.

Just at this time the country needs a new religion that will make a man pay his debts, says the Methodist Advocate. Shouting don't settle old accounts with God or man. We bounce right into a fellow and put him out of the church if he goes to a ball or theater, but never say a word to a pious scamp who never pays his debts. People who do not pay their debts are doing the church more harm than dancers or drunkards for there are more of them in the church. Reader are we getting close to you? Then lay down your paper and go and pay up and read on with ease. And don't stop paying because the statute of limitation excuses the open account which you made for meat and bread. You must pay it in fire and brimstone. God knows no such excuse for not paying as "homestead exemption." When you raise that excuse to keep from paying your debts you can stop singing "When I Can Read My Title Clear to Mansions in the Skies." You've none up there.—Ex.

Negro Shoots Eleven Officers.

New York, Sept. 2.—Jerry Hunter, the negro, who shot a number of policemen and set fire to his house in Queensborough last night, in an effort to escape arrest, was captured early to-day and locked up in the Astoria jail.

In the fight between Hunter and those who tried to arrest him, eleven policemen, three citizens and Hunter's wife were wounded. Mrs. Hunter who helped her husband in his efforts to escape, was taken to a hospital where it was said to-day that she was in a serious condition. Hunter was badly beaten in the struggle when he was caught. John McKenna, a patrolman, was shot in the head and face. Both his eyes were destroyed and the wounds in his head were so serious that his recovery was thought to be doubtful. The citizens wounded were men who had been called upon by the police to aid in subduing Hunter.

Hunter was employed as a caretaker of a large track of land near North Beach, L. I. Yesterday he saw a man digging sand worms on the property, and he shot at the intruder, who ran away and told Policeman McKenna what Hunter had done. McKenna ran to Hunter's home and was shot by the negro. The police reserves were called then and a siege was begun which lasted until after 2:00 o'clock this morning. Every time a policeman moved from cover a shot would be fired. Fortunately for the police Hunter seemed to have only a shot gun. Shortly after 2:00 o'clock this morning Hunter set fire to the house and tried to escape. Mrs. Hunter carried an old cavalry sabre and with this she fought until overpowered, inflicting severe wounds on Patrolman Cassidy. Hunter ran for a patch of woods near the house, but was caught and subdued after a severe struggle in which he was badly beaten.

Big Banks to the Rescue.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The large banks of the country have responded readily to the Secretary's suggestion for the relief of any money stringency that may result from the movement of the crops, and have agreed to take 15 million dollars additional circulation. Four Chicago banks take one-third of that amount. The banks of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati will take the other two-thirds, or 10-million dollars. Secretary Shaw does not believe there is any real financial stringency affecting credit. With the enormous crops this year the demand for currency in September will no doubt be greater than usual. Secretary Shaw hopes to introduce an element of elasticity into the present system by this method. He sees a wide difference between a currency stringency and a necessity for relief to the financial condition by strengthening credit. He believes that the increased demand for currency in one or two months of the year to meet an emergency can be met better by the banks than by the Treasury.

Accidental Fatal Shooting.

Vernon, Tex., Sept. 1.—Last Saturday evening about 2 o'clock John Roach shot and killed Frank Ladd, a farmer living about ten miles north of Vernon. Roach was working for Ladd. He says they were bird hunting and that he shot him accidentally. Roach is in custody of the sheriff pending his examining trial.

De Graffenreid Laid at Rest.

Longview, Tex., Sept. 2.—Intelligence that the funeral party escorting the remains of the late Congressman De Graffenreid had missed connection at St. Louis was received here yesterday evening, and plans were changed somewhat as to the funeral. The remains reached here on the cannon ball at 3:30 p. m., in charge of Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms, of the House of Representatives, Pierce, and accompanied by relatives of the deceased from Washington and from Franklin, Tenn., and by Congressman Richard Bartholdt, of St. Louis.

A large crowd of people met the corpse at the train and marched to the court house, where the services were held, consisting of prayers, songs and talks by friends of the deceased and members of the Congressional committee appointed to attend the funeral.

After the funeral services the remains were taken in charge by the Masons and buried in Greenwood cemetery. A large crowd, estimated at 5,000, a great number of whom were visitors from different points of Texas, was present. Congressmen Henry, Slayden and Randell, of Texas, and Bartholdt, of St. Louis, attended the funeral as members of the Congressional committee. The floral decorations were elaborate and beautiful. All stores and banks were closed at noon to-day as a tribute of respect.

Bitten by a Rabid Coyote.

Beville, Tex., Aug. 30.—Treas Edwards, a young man residing in the lower part of Live Oak county, was bitten by a rabid coyote Tuesday evening. The animal attacked him while he was returning from the field and in the fight his hand was badly lacerated by its teeth. After biting him it trotted off into the brush. He went to Fannin in Goliad county to a madstone, which stuck nine times to the wound. He was in the city yesterday and says he apprehends no serious results from the wound, as he believes if any of the hydrophobia virus was in the wound it was extracted by the madstone, which is said to be a fine one.

Following Tracey's Example.

Pasco, Wash., Aug. 30.—An increase of "hold-ups," burglaries and murders in this territory is traced directly to the pernicious example set by the bandit Harry Tracey. The condition of affairs at Waula and Umatilla, where people change cars at railroad junctions, is said by officers to be deplorable. It is not safe for passengers to leave the Pasco depot at night as robbers lie in wait outside to relieve them of loose change. No organized band exists, but hoboes of criminal tendencies work singly or in pairs. Men seeking or returning from work in harvest fields are usually the victims as they get into box cars and are easily intimidated. Crimes of this sort are of almost nightly occurrence.

Farmer Killed by Lightning.

Orange, Tex., Sept. 1.—During the rain to-day, as the men were going from dinner to the field, on the Scofield farm, nine miles west of town, near the Black's Ferry crossing, Vet Scofield was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Mr. Scofield had resided in this county three years and was a successful rice farmer. He was 37 years old and leaves a wife and two children.

Buried Alive.

New York, Aug. 27.—F. A. Stratton, vice president of an electric lighting company, in Westchester county, this state, says that murderers who are sentenced to die in the electric chair are not killed by the electric current and they would be buried alive if it was not for the autopsy which follows the electrocution. Mr. Stratton says: "Nearly every week we have men shocked by higher voltage currents than are used in the electric chair at Sing Sing, yet they come around all right after a few days' treatment. This being the case is it not probable that some of the murderers who are sentenced to the electric chair could be resuscitated if they received the same care that is given to one of our linemen after he meets with an accident? I have often thought that many people who are thought to have been electrocuted are buried alive."

They Travelled 19,000 Miles.

New York, Aug. 30.—Another party of New Orleans muleteers has reached here without funds, after journeying to South Africa, Great Britain and Canada, travels that have lasted three months, and in which the men have covered 19,000 miles of sea and land. They are looking for means to get back to their southern home. They tell a story of having shipped on a British horse transport, the Mount Royal, from New Orleans, May, 28. After landing the stock they say they were taken to Swansea, Wales, and finally went to Quebec, Canada, as their contract called for a return to the United States or Canada. They spent all their money before leaving Wales and finally were assisted to New York by the United States consul at Montreal.

Whole Engine Stolen.

Kenney, Tex., Aug. 30.—Perhaps Kenney is the first place in Texas, if not in the United States, that can boast of having had an engine, and all the fixtures thereto pertaining, stolen and successfully taken away from the possession of the owner without his knowledge or consent, and up to this date has not been heard of. On last Thursday night a small brass engine used for running a peatuf parching machine, was stolen out of the engine room of Mr. Robert Luhn in Kenney, and as before stated, has not yet been found or heard of and the promise of "Chromo" and all past, present and future offenses forgiven, so far as the owner is concerned, if the thief or thieves will come up and show cause why he or they should have taken it, the said engine, without first asking for it or getting the owners consent.

Should the aforesaid parties not accept the aforesaid proposition there will be a strong effort made on the part of the officers of Kenney to ferret out the deed, and prosecute to the full extent of the law the man or men who would rob a "goober parcher."

Asleep on the Track.

Malakoff, Tex., Sept. 1.—French Lucas was run over and mangled by an east bound Cotton Belt train, about 9 o'clock last night. It occurred about a mile west of town. The young man was returning on foot with some companions from Trinidad Switch and had laid down and fallen asleep on the track.

BUSINESS.

The Second Look Is Often Clearest.

Especially is this true when looking into business matters. For instance: It may look to you like a big store with what is commonly known as a "Mammoth Stock" would be the best place to trade, but a second look into the matter should convince you that where a stock is kept sufficient to supply the demand, and new goods are constantly coming in, is the place where you can get the freshest and best the market affords. That is the way we do business. Nothing becomes old, or shopworn at our store, because we sell it. We keep a sufficiently large stock at all times to supply the demand. We do a big business and consequently buy often. We buy the best goods obtainable and sell for reasonable profits. We especially call your attention to our stock of things to eat. Don't forget that we always have the best goods and lowest prices.

Platt May Retire.

There is still some talk that Senator Thomas C. Platt may retire at the close of his present term. It is recalled, in connection with this rumor, that since Thurlow Weed's day every leader of the Republican party in New York State has been a United States Senator—William H. Seward, Reuben E. Fenton, Roscoe Conkling and Thomas Collier Platt. It is said that though Senator Platt is certain of election, he would not, even in that event, serve another full term.

Postal Orders in Australia.

The postmaster general of Australia has issued a new regulation that "no telephone messages shall contain unbecoming expressions or language calculated to provoke a breach of the peace." Assault by telephone is a rather novel offense, but possibly the postmaster general has had some of his instruments or receivers smashed by offended subscribers. He has also decreed that "live bees, if properly packed, may be transmitted within the Commonwealth and to and from the United Kingdom."

Tom Reed's Baked Chicken.

The famous Thomas B. Reed cherishes a secret fondness for baked chicken, and this dish is prepared with the greatest care under the supervision of Mrs. Reed, says What-to-Eat. A fresh and if possible tender fowl is selected and dressed carefully. The legs are thrust through the hole made in drawing it at the back and the wings pinioned close to the sides. After a dredging with salt and pepper, the bird is placed in a dripping pan with about half a teacup of water and put into an oven at moderate heat, where it is allowed to remain for fifteen or twenty minutes. The basting is then begun and repeated frequently until the testing with the fork shows that the cooking is done. In the case of too rapid browning another pan is turned over the dripping pan at the last.

Talleyrand's Bon Mot.

Sir Edward Blount in a recently published volume of reminiscences, tells his story: "Talleyrand was once at a great reception where a certain Scottish duchess, renowned for her beauty, was present. The lady had well-turned ankles and a good figure and she wore a dress cut uncommonly low, which ended abruptly a few inches from the floor. Talleyrand turned and said: 'Pray, of what does the dress of her grace remind you?' I, as well as the rest was baffled. Whereupon the old diplomatist remarked: 'It reminds me of a winter's day. It begins too late and it ends too early.'"

A Modern Cincinnatus.

The Cincinnatus of Denmark is the minister of agriculture, familiarly known as "Old Hansen." He is a small tenant farmer, who upon taking up his ministerial appointment, made the smallest possible change in his manner of living. When the duties of his high office permit he returns to his plow and the foddering of his beasts and the other cares of his small farm. His son remains on the farm and works for the same salary, in spite of the rich post to which his father has been called.

Trading in Cuba.

The hustling Chicago drummer stands a chance of going crazy if sent to do business with Cuban merchants. A salesman who has been on a visit to that island says: "If you reach Havana on Saturday of course you call immediately on the merchants with whom you expect to deal. The first thing asked you is when you expect to go away. The ship, we will say, goes on Tuesday morning and you hope to get through and take it. That settles it. You can not do business with one of them. You must wait for a later boat or do nothing. The moment you begin to hurry them they suspect you and hold aloof."

Foreign Opinion of Poe.

Taking five representative libraries of world-literature, in English, German and Italian, Poe's is the only name appearing in all five, says C. F. Richardson in an article in the Critic. In France his fame is greater than that of any other American writer, or than that of most English writers, and he has influenced an entire school of Parisian 'poetes d'aujourd'hui'. In many a little German, Austrian, or Italian bookshop he stands as the sole representative of the literature of his native land. "Certain things," said an Italian writer in Il Marzocco, the other day, "can only have been written by Poe, by Heine, by Tolstoy; one does not need to see the cover of the book—read it, and the name of the author will come spontaneously to the lips." The most violent and independent of contemporary English critics makes the author of "Annals of Lee" his final name in a collection of lyrics bearing, as its significant subtitle, "Chaucer to Poe."

Less Moonshine Made.

Internal Revenue Agent D. A. Gates shows the number of illicit distilleries seized and destroyed in Georgia, Alabama and Florida during the year ending June 30, 1902. The report shows that there has been a decided decrease in illicit distilling during the year just past. The total number of stills destroyed in Georgia during the year ending June 30, 1901, was 724. The total number destroyed during the year ending June 30, 1902, was 631; a difference of ninety-three. The amount of illicit whisky seized in Georgia during the year ending June 30, 1901, was 8,904 gallons. The amount seized during the year ending June 30, 1902, was 6,680 1-2 gallons; a difference of 2,223 1-2 gallons.

Insurance Losses Light.

Life insurance companies of this country will lose little or nothing from the Martinique disaster. A company of Barados had most of the comparatively few risks in St. Pierre. The fire insurance risks in that town were chiefly in English companies, but the policies contained a clause exempting the companies from responsibility for losses from earthquakes and volcanoes. So they will lose nothing. Life and fire insurance companies get hit pretty hard sometimes, but they escaped in this event.

A Small Planet.

HICKS IS NOMINATED AT FRED-

Mayor of San Antonio Receives Unanimous Vote For Senator.

Fredericksburg, Tex., Aug. 30.—Hon. Marshall Hicks, of San Antonio, was to-day nominated by acclamation for State Senator of the 24th Senatorial District. The nomination by acclamation was made on motion of L. A. Schreiner, of Kerrville, on behalf of Judge W. W. Burnett, of Kerr county, who had received the endorsement of Kerr and Kendall counties for the nomination. This was the first District convention held here in several years, and Gillespie county Democracy entered into the spirit of the convention with a zeal and interest that was productive of the greatest interest.

All of the five counties in the District were represented by delegates and proxies. Bexar county having thirty-two delegates and Gillespie eighteen, while Democrats from all over Gillespie county were in attendance that filled the court house from wall to wall.

L. A. Schreiner, of Kerrville, attended with the proxies of the Kerr county delegates, and captured the good will of the convention by the graceful manner in which he moved the nomination by acclamation of Mr. Hicks.

The convention was called to order by Hon. Perry Lewis, the Senatorial chairman in the Gillespie county court house promptly at 11 o'clock. Mr. Lewis introduced Clarence Martin, chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Gillespie county, who extended a warm welcome to the delegates to the good old town of Fredericksburg and the "Free State" of Gillespie county.

HON. CHARLES MONTAGUE, of Bandera, was nominated by a unanimous vote of the Democratic convention, held in Kerrville on Saturday of last week, as the regular Democratic nominee for representative of the 98th district. Every citizen of this district knows Charles Montague as a good Democrat, an able man, and one who if elected to the office of representative, will represent the best interests of his constituency, without fear or favor. Every Democrat in the district knows his duty in the matter of using great care in the selection of standard bearers, and also in the matter of giving their nominees undivided support, and it is hoped that this duty will be constantly kept in mind by the Democratic voters of the 98th District, and that Mr. Montague be given the largest majority ever polled for any candidate for the office since the district was organized.

SENATOR MARSHALL HICKS.

The nomination of Hon. Marshall Hicks to represent the district composed of Bexar, Bandera, Kendall, Kerr and Gillespie counties in the State Senate was most proper and fitting and will be of substantial advantage to this district.

Marshall Hicks is a young man of fine attainments and high character, who has filled every public position to which he has been called with singular ability, efficiency and fidelity.

As district attorney in one of the border districts of the State he achieved marked distinction as an energetic, capable and conscientious official, who could not be swerved from the performance of duty through any consideration of fear or favor. As alderman of the city of San Antonio he gained such public recognition as made his elevation to the mayoralty a natural sequence of his aldermanic service and his record as mayor was such that nothing could have stood in the way of his re-nomination and election by the people whom he had so well served.

Before completing his second term as Mayor, Mr. Hicks was called upon to serve the people of this city and district in the State Senate and his election in November is assured. The district is normally Democratic by a majority of more than 2,000, and while the full party strength will go to a nominee who developed such popularity in the primary, it is not unreasonable to expect that by reason of his general popularity and fitness Mr. Hicks will draw a considerable support from that independent element which is more inclined to consider the personality and fitness of the candidate than the party label.

It is fortunate for this district that it is to be represented in the State Senate by a man of such broad gauged statesmanship, one whose experience in public life as well as his studies in political economy so admirably fit him for legislative duties. That he will at once take a prominent place in the Legislature and obtain that recognition which will enable him to be of valuable service to his constituents is not to be doubted. He has already a Statewide reputation, and he will be cordially welcomed to the Senate by the progressive and able co-workers who realize the advantage of having such men as Marshall Hicks in the Legislature. — San Antonio Express.

HON. MARSHALL HICKS.

In the proper column of this issue will be found the announcement of Hon. Marshall Hicks, of San Antonio, as a candidate for State Senator of the 24th Senatorial District. The name of Marshall Hicks stands for great executive ability and statesmanship throughout the State. His career in public office has been one of marked success, and his conduct of the affairs of the executive office of the city of San Antonio for the two terms he has served as mayor of that city, has met with the approval of the Alamo City, and the admiration of public men throughout the state. Mr. Hicks will represent the 24th Senatorial District in the 28th Legislature of Texas, in a manner that will be an honor to himself and a credit to the District.

Capt. W. C. Anderson, an influential ranchman of the Divide, was in Kerrville this week. Mr. Anderson met his son, John S. Anderson, who arrived here yesterday from Arizona, and both left for the ranch. His son will make his home in this county in the future.

Chas. Montague Nominated.

The Representative Convention for the 98th district met in this city on the 30th inst. All counties in the district were represented. In the absence of district chairman, Wm. Neunhoffer, Judge W. W. Burnett was called to the chair, and A. L. Starkey elected secretary. The routine business of the convention was conducted without fiction, and Hon. Chas. Montague was unanimously nominated for the office of representative.

W. A. Williamson of Kimble county was elected permanent chairman of the 98th Legislative District for the ensuing two years.

Death of Vide Pfeufer.

Mr. Vide Pfeufer an old and respected citizen, of Kerrville, died suddenly at his home on Jefferson street, about 4:00 p. m. Tuesday, the 2nd. inst. Mr. Pfeufer was nearly 74 years old and had long been in feeble health. On the day of his death Mr. Pfeufer walked up to the post office at two o'clock and got his mail as usual. He returned home and lay down on a cot where he usually slept in the afternoon. After he had been sometime quiet and supposed by inmates of the house to be sleeping, he was noticed to have a peculiar pallor about the face, and was found upon examination to be quite dead. He had laid down to read his paper and quietly passed away.

Vide Pfeufer was born in Neudorf, Germany in November 1828. He came to America, and to Texas, in 1851. For the past twelve years he had resided in Kerrville, where he was highly respected by all who knew him. He had many friends here who join his family in lamenting his sudden taking away.

The funeral took place from the family home at 4 p. m. Wednesday, the 3rd. inst. Interment was made at Glen Rest cemetery.

Roping contest will come off on the last day, September 27. The prizes (if all entries are made) will be: First, $37 50; second, $15; third, $7 50. Remember there will be ten entries, three from each county, the county entering first, four entries. Entrance fee $5 00

Our Oldest Pensioners.

Mrs. Nancy Jones, who died at Jonesboro, Tenn., Tuesday night, was one of the four widows of Revolutionary soldiers whose names and ages appeared on the pension rolls as follows, June 30, 1901: Esther S. Damon, 87; Nancy Jones, 87; Rebecca Mayo, 88; Mary Sneed, 84. The oldest pensioner then living was Hiram Cronk, of Ava, N. Y., a soldier of the war of 1812, whose age was 101. He was the sole direct representative of that war, but one Revolutionary soldier, Daniel Brakeman, lived to be 109 years old.

Vigorous Admiral Farragut.

The fifty years of service which Admiral Farragut had seen when the civil war began had matured his powers without impairing his mental or physical vigor. "The admiral assured me," writes General James Grant Wilson, "that up to the year 1863 he made a practice of taking a standing jump over the back of a chair on every birthday. 'I never felt old,' he added, 'until my 62d birthday came around, and I did not feel quite equal to the jump.'"

The Merits of Aluminum.

It is a metal, according to Harper's Weekly, as beautiful as silver, almost as malleable as gold, almost as ductile as copper, as untarnishable as tin, lighter than any of these, and infinitely more abundant. It may be said, with almost no departure from scientific accuracy, that aluminum possesses, or can be endowed with, all the properties of these metals that make them desirable to man, and surpasses them all on two other points. It is markedly inferior to these only in the features of cheapness and strength, but it is gaining ground every day in both.

Some Old Church Laws.

In connection with the anniversary of the Bethel Primitive Methodist chapel, Burnley, England, a souvenir handbook containing copies of old records has been issued. A minute passed in 1834 reads: "That we do not allow young men and young women of our society to court with each other on Sunday; neither do we allow our single men and women to walk in the street together arm in arm at any time; neither do we allow them to stand at street corners chatting together." By another resolution the chapel authorities forbade girl choristers wearing bows in their bonnets.

A Sioux Band Leader.

Nagiyanpe, a full-blooded Sioux Indian from Fort Shaw, Mont., has just been elected leader of the municipal band of Carlisle, Pa., and thus enjoys the distinction of being the first red man to assume dictatorship of a musical organization composed entirely of whites. Nagiyanpe, who is a modest and unassuming young fellow, has assumed the name of Robert Bruce in his intercourse with the paleface. He is an excellent performer on the trombone, and has been a professional musician for some time.

Bad Hand Made Him Money.

When Lord Curzon, now viceroy of India, was at Oxford he wrote an abominable hand. One day he penned two letters, one of them to a relative and one to a chum with whom he always discussed the faults of their respective relations, and accidentally put these letters into the wrong envelopes. He was about to write a profound apology to his relative when he received the following note from him: "Can't read a word of your four pages, but guess you want some money, you young rascal." Inclosed was a Bank of England note for a good amount.

Was One of the 600.

Blair Irwin, one of the survivors of the gallant 600 who made the famous charge at Balaklava during the Crimean war, an exploit which was immortalized by Tennyson in his poem, "The Charge of the Light Brigade," is living with his wife on the small farm known as the Ansel Smith place, situated about four miles from Sharon village, on the borders of Stoughton, Mass.

An Old Engine.

The rapidity with which steam railway navigation has developed is suggested by the statement that a locomotive built by George Stephenson for the opening of the Hetton railway, in 1822, is still in operation. This engine, after nearly eighty years continuous service, is claimed to be the oldest working locomotive in the world. It cannot be expected that much of Stephenson's original work remains in the engine, but its general design (excepting the cab, which is of more recent origin) is as originally constructed. The directors of the Hetton colliery now propose to withdraw it from work, and the relic will shortly find a permanent resting place in the Durham (Eng.) College of Science.

A New Jim Bludsoe.

New York is praising today the courage of a new Jim Bludsoe, the pilot whom Secretary of State Hay immortalized in his "Eike County Ballads." Fred Kraus, of the Raritan River line, is the new Bludsoe who put the nose of his burning steamer on the banks of the river and stuck to his post until even his mother's soul was saved. Kraus was in the pilot house when the steamboat got afloat, near the engine room, and a dozen passengers, bound from New York to New Brunswick, were in his keeping, besides a crew of twenty-three. He stayed in the pilot house, his hands on the wheel, till every life dependent on his courage and conscience was safe.

General Managers.

Alfred Skitt, general manager of the Manhattan elevated railway, says Tip in the New York Press, is a dignified gentleman who resembles somewhat in race Isidor Wormser, therefore Napoleon III, for Wormser is known as "Napoleon" Wormser. His employes make constant play on his rather odd name whenever they are sure no inspector is around. Yesterday two engineers, off duty, entered an uptown cafe and one said to the barman: "Gimme a couple o' general managers." The man sat out two small beers. He had evidently served general managers before. I learned the conductors, engineers, firemen and guards are in the habit of calling Mr. Skitt "Old Schnift," meaning a half glass. Hence a small beer, and by extension a "general manager."

Curious Letter of Burns.

A curious and interesting letter of Robert Burns was sold in London recently. It is addressed to Peter Miller, Esq., of Dalswinter, Dumfries, and it dated October 20, 1787. It covers two pages quarto. After complaining of having contracted a cold and of the doctor refusing him permission to go out "on pain of death," the poet continues: "I want to be a small farmer, about a plow gang, in a pleasant country, under the auspices of a good landlord. I have no foolish notion of being a tenant on easier terms than another. To find a place where one can live at all is not easy. I only mean living soberly. The banks of Nith are as sweet, poetic ground as I ever saw." This letter sold for $200.

The Pope's Big Mail.

Thirty-five secretaries are constantly engaged in coping with the enormous volume of letters which daily pour into the Vatican. Pope Leo receives more letters and newspapers than any other ruler in the world, the average number being something like 20,000 to 22,000 daily.

KIDNEY CURE.

There is no disease so insinuating, so slow but sure, as kidney disease, or so wide-spread. The symptoms are so slight as to generally escape notice.

The first indications appear in the urine, with varied effects. The quantity may be increased or decreased; it is likely to be highly colored and scalding; it may be pale or thin, or thick and milky with a sediment. Later on more pronounced symptoms will be present, such as dizziness, bloating, etc., with marked bladder and urinary disorders.

Poisonous waste matter is collected by the blood from all parts of the system and carried to the kidneys, where it is separated and cast out through the urine. The kidneys deal with the blood only, deriving nourishment therefrom. Hence, if the blood is bad the kidneys are not only overworked, but underfed. How necessary is it, therefore, that the purity and vitality of the blood should be maintained. It is plain why the great blood purifier and strengthener—Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic—has been successfully used in treating kidney diseases and in preventing same. In purifying the blood the kidneys are greatly relieved, while, at the same time, new strength and vitality are given these organs. The following letter tells a very old story:

PINE KNOT, KY., June 25, 1902.
The Dr. Harter Medicine Co., Dayton, O.
GENTLEMEN: I had a severe case of typhoid fever six years ago, which left my kidneys in bad order. I have tried a number of remedies and taken treatment from doctors, but Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic has done me more good than anything else. C. CORDELL,
Merchant and Mine Operator.

There are thousands of just such cases as the above that are treated without results because they are wrongly treated. Mr. Cordell's condition resulted from an exhausting fever; the kidneys, as well as the rest of the system, had been wasted by disease. No wonder Dr. Harter's Iron Tonic promptly cured, because it purified and enriched the blood, and such blood carried new strength and vitality directly to the kidneys and to all the organs.

FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

A Ginner Assassinated.

Burton, Tex., September 1.—Mr. Julius Yelderman, a prominent farmer, was murdered at his place near here last night at about 10:30. Some one had tried to burn Mr. Yelderman's gin a few nights ago and he was sleeping in the gin last night. His little son was sleeping near him and was covered with his father's blood. When awakened the boy ran to the house, nearby, and told other members of the family what had happened. Two negroes were sleeping at the gin in the same room with Mr. Yelderman, but neither of them was awakened by the report of the gun. Officers McCain and Vogelsang went immediately to the Yelderman place and Sheriff Teague and others are here from Brenham investigating. So far no clue to the murderer has been discovered, or at least none has been reported.

Angora Goats In Demand.

Kansas City, Mo.—W. T. McIntire, secretary of the American Angora Goat Breeders' Association, will superintend another big sale of Angora goats at the Stock yards in Kansas City, September 2. Mr. McIntire says the Angora goats are as staple as sugar and coffee and mules and cattle. He says the Angora meat and the Angora goat milk are the oldest-known meat known to the human family, and the leather goods are unsurpassed. In the near future the glove and mohair manufactories will be located at Kansas city, and a mohair exchange established. The bulk of the mohair goods is manufactured at Bradford, England, there being two establishments here, one at Sandford, Me., and one in New York city.

Definitions of News.

The Buffalo Commercial says that Charles A. Dana once defined news in this way: "If you see a dog biting a man don't write it up. But if you see a man biting a dog spare no pains or money to get the details to the Sun office." This is a poor paraphrase of a good story. When "Doc" Wood was night editor of the Sun a young reporter asked him: "What constitutes news?" Mr. Wood considered for a moment and then replied: "Here's an illustration which will probably give you a correct idea of what I think on that subject: If you should see a dog running down Broadway with a tin can tied to his tail it isn't worth a line. But if you should see a dog with a tin can tied to his tail—walking down Broadway it's worth a column."

A Singular Primary Law.

The peculiar primary election law of South Carolina compels a candidate for state office or for United States senator to make at least one speech in every county of the State before the date of the primary election. As a result the pursuit of office in the Palmetto state has, as the Atlanta Constitution says, developed into a profession requiring a strenuousness and endurance that qualify the candidates for membership on a varsity eight or champion football team. To qualify for office they must race up and down through the state, "tagging" every court house and make a speech in the middle of each broiling day. With the mercury ranging from 100 to 120 in the sun, they have been at it for three weeks and are doomed by the state executive committee to keep up the pace till the end of August, when the semi-finals played by the people will decide who shall contend in the finals of September 11.

Robbing War of Its Terrors.

Mr. Bob Acres and other shivery fighters of his kind would doubtless hail with delight the recent discovery of an English clergyman which is now being experimented with by the British government although frowned upon by the war office department of that government. This discovery is a device called a "hyposcope," and consists of an ingenious arrangement of little mirrors in a vertical tube, by means of which a marksman can "draw a bead" on a target or an enemy while himself absolutely concealed from view. It is asserted that the hyposcope entirely does away with the necessity of a rifleman seeing the actual object at which he shoots. He can have it so reflected to him as to get a dead sight on it without seeing it. The English clergyman scored thirty-four hits out of a possible thirty-five with his discovery.

FACTOTUM.

J. E. Thoman returned Thursday from a trip up the Kerrville branch of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass. "I was not compelled to get in out of the wet a single time," said he to the Express representative, "but I saw some beautiful scenery along the Guadalupe river, some good grass and some fine cattle. Dick Burge is tucked away up there in the Western part of Kerr county with one of the best Hereford herds it has been my pleasure to see, much less visit, for some time. This was my first visit out there and I really enjoyed it. Mr. Burge is an ideal host and perhaps the dimensions of his heart has something to do with the blessings a kind providence has bestowed upon him. If I knew I would be blessed as he is I would be tempted to be good myself. Seriously now, he has some fine grass and his cattle are fat. The Kerrville country generally, so far as the live stock interests are concerned, are in very good shape, but the cotton crop is needing rain."—Cattle Clatter in San Antonio Express.
