Woman and Child Said to be Murdered.

San Antonio, Tex., April 10.—If the story told in a brief postal card message received by Herman Doeblor of Avenue D and Sixth street is true, the wife and step-daughter of Ernest Graff, formerly of this city, but now of Douglas, Arizona, have been foully murdered. Where the murder occurred no one in San Antonio knows, and Graff, in the postal card communication, did not state. It is believed, however, that it must have occurred in New York, and not in Arizona, as was at first supposed.

The postal card received by Mr. Doeblor reads as follows:

"Douglas, Ariz., April 4.
"My Dear Friend Herman: I hereby let you know that my wife and daughter have been murdered. They were mutilated and put in a sack. The bodies were sewed up and thrown into the river. They found the bodies in the river. They've got the murders. I will let you know more about it later on."

The postal card is signed Ernest Graff. He does not say where the crime was committed.

Mrs. Graff is well remembered here. She was a beautiful woman, one of the best dressmakers in the city. Four weeks ago tomorrow Mrs. Graff, with her daughter left San Antonio for Galveston, intending to take a steamer at that place for New York, her former home. Mrs. M. Beck went to the train with her. After her departure her husband went to Arizona. While in this city they lived at 506 Sixth street. Graff was formerly a soldier. He married in New York and brought his wife and step-daughter to San Antonio, where he had formerly lived. Mrs. Graff left here for New York, and if she has been murdered it is probable that the crime was committed in the Metropolis.

Leaders Tried to Poison Guatemalan President.

Mazatlan, Mex., April 11.—Passengers from Guatemala report that an attempt was made recently to poison President Cabrera of that country. Strychnine was placed in soup, and a trusted servant of the Guatemalan executive whose duty it was to sample all food destined for the president's table, took some of the soup and died in terrible agony. All persons connected with the President's kitchen are now in prison.

It is believed the attempt to poison Cabrera was instigated by leaders who are opposed to him, and who are planning to launch another revolution in Guatemala. An effort is being made to keep news of the attempt from spreading throughout Guatemala.

George Turner Eats, Drinks and is Merry.

San Antonio, Tex., April 10.—Apparently one of the most contented guests at the county jail is George H. Turner, convicted of the murder of Mary Elizabeth Lynch, and condemned to pay the death penalty for the crime. Turner spends his time as one who rests on a rosy bed of ease. He seems to be a man without cares. Of course he is not burdened with responsibility. Everything necessary to his prison is done for him without his asking, and his mind is free of the ordinary of life.

Turner spends his time reading, smoking and in solitude. He has not broken into the social circles of the jail as yet and has not shown any inclination to do so. He prefers to be alone, and remains to himself most of the time. He receives no visitors, and has requested the jailers to say that he "is not receiving." Most of his time is spent in reading. He reads everything that is given him, except the newspaper accounts of his own affairs. He will not read what is written about himself. But he is fond of magazines.

"What kind of reading does Turner like best," was asked the jailer, through whose hands all papers and magazines sent to Turner pass.

"Just any kind," said the jailer, giving a vague answer to the question. "He'll read anything just to pass the time away. People send magazines and newspapers, and he spends most of his time looking over them. He seems to take a lively interest in the affairs of the world as published in the newspaper."

Turner's appetite continues good. He eats everything given him, being among the most hearty prisoners in the jail. At all times he is ready for the meals which are served him, and enjoys them with a relish that would be the envy of an epicure. Turner never receives any visitors whatever. He seems hopeful of avoiding the death penalty.

Arrests Made.

Uvalde, Tex., April 9.—As a result of the investigation of the Wingate and Stafford lumber yards fire last night, the proprietors are now under guard awaiting the giving of a $10,000 bond for each for their appearances either at an examining trial or before the grand jury.

The fire was discovered about 8:40 last night, and was in full blaze when first discovered. It started in the north shed which contained mostly shingles, and while the hose was noticed in the office building. A window was smashed and an entrance effected, and it was found to be caused by a candle which was placed among oil saturated shavings and similar stuff. A trail of oil led from to other candles placed under nail kegs, and much oil was found poured about in various places. A ten-gallon tank containing some coal oil was standing near one of the ignited candles. The back of the office building is also used for the storing of doors, sash and similar goods.

While the water was being played upon the burning shed, a fire was noticed in the adjoining shed, and the hose was immediately turned thereon. The force of the water knocked a nail keg from the joint and this was also found saturated with oil. Other places in the sheds also bear evidence of oil being poured thereon. The burning shingles and lumber was finally put out by the firemen. The smoke therefrom was strongly impregnated with coal oil fumes.

The wind was very light and not blowing as usual a stiff breeze from the east, otherwise the fire could not have been controlled, and the property in the immediate vicinity could scarcely have been saved.

The proprietors were absent at the time, having left in the evening for their goat-ranch near Laguna in the Nueces canyon.

The firm of Wingate & Stafford carried $15,000 insurance on the sheds, building and contents, and $5,000 of this amount was taken out about a month ago, at which time they claimed to $22,000 worth of property. The insurance is in the following companies: Georgia Home, Fireman's Fund, Continental, Hartford, Houston Fire and Marine, Williamson City, Winchester.

D. R. Wingate was formerly of Orange, Tex., and is well known in lumber circles. J. B. Stafford has been a partner in the business for about a year, coming here from Eagle Lake, Texas.

Mr. Wingate states that an attempt was made to fire his house last night, as a pile of oil saturated combustibles was found piled near one of the house blocks.

College Teacher Charged With Burning College.

Gragbury, Tex., April 9.—T. R. Dunlap was arrested here today, charged with setting fire to Jarvis college at Thorp Springs, which burned on the night of March 20, last. He gave bond at once in the sum of $2500, with J. J. Horner and P. Green as sureties.

T. R. Dunlap came to Thorp Springs from Ardmore several years ago, and was president of the college for four years. Last year he was made vice president. He was teaching in the institution at the time of the fire. He is 52 years of age, and a man of family.

Jarvis college succeeded Add Ran university, which was conducted for many years by Addison and Randolph Clarke, (whence the name "Add Ran") under the auspices of the Christian church of this State. A few years ago, the university was transferred to Waco and then the buildings were occupied by Jarvis college, which took its name from Major J. J. Jarvis of Fort Worth, who owns the property.

Investigating a Death.

Houston, Tex., April 10.—Justice Matthews decided today to institute an investigation to ascertain the exact cause of the death of J. C. Malone, who died Sunday at his home. The deceased had been employed as a watchman at the Acme lumber yard in the Fifth Ward, and on March 5 he and H. Smith had a personal altercation, in which Malone was badly wounded. As the result of the injuries received on this occasion Malone was confined to his bed and later died. The death certificate, however, stated that the cause of death was pleurisy.

H. Smith, the railroad man, with whom the deceased had the trouble on March 5, is under $2,000 bond to answer a charge of aggravated assault.

County Convict Maltreated.

Beaumont, Tex., April 10.—The feature of the courthouse today was the special charge given by Judge Hightower to the Grand Jury, which was organized and impaneled in his court this morning.

The court specially charged the jury to take up and investigate an alleged act of barbarous brutality which had been perpetrated against one of the county prisoners by the county road guard. The court said that he had been informed that a beardless white youth of about 18 years of age, who had been convicted of some misdemeanor in a justice court for a disobedience of an order, perhaps, some impudence shown the guard, was thrown down by a burly negro at the command of this guard. The negro sat his body on the face of this young man and he had been cruelly and badly beaten and lashed with a strap. The outrage was so brutal that it caused a white woman who witnessed it to faint. The Grand Jury was instructed to make a thorough investigation into this matter and to present the guilty parties. Judge Hightower dubbed the incident as an outrage to the law and to society. The county convict authorities were without power to administer corporal punishment to their prisoners. Corporal punishment is only recognized under the laws of the State in the case of a refractory convicted felon in the State penitentiary. No county convict officer had the right to administer punishment to any of his prisoners.

Killed on Crossing.

Marietta, I. T., April 9.—An accident resulting in the death of W. M. Simmons, aged 20 years, and Miss Mary Puryer, aged 16 years, at Overbrook, a village ten miles north of Marietta, occurred today at 1:30 o'clock.

An extra southbound freight was passing Overbrook at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. Young Simmons, with Miss Puryer, in a buggy, attempted to pass Main street crossing, when the horses stopped. Young Simmons struck them with the whip and they dashed forward, breaking loose from the buggy leaving it on the track. It was torn to atoms. The young man was mangled beyond recognition, while the young lady was caught on the pilot, scarcely bruised, yet dead. The young woman's remains will be sent to Valley View, Tex., for burial.

Pushing Wheelbarrow 6,000 Miles.

Sanderson, Tex., April 4.—D. P. Evans, the novel traveler from Cleveland, Ohio, who is redeeming a pledge made on the gubernatorial election by pushing a wheelbarrow around the United States, gave Sanderson a call today. Mr. Evans left Cleveland, Ohio, May 2 last to cover a trip of 6,000 miles and under agreement to ask nothing, but pay all expenses, and leaving home penniless. Evans is a man of 28 years, of easy manners and appearance, has his faithful dog "King Edward" which has made the entire trip. Evans will make San Antonio, New Orleans, Atlanta, Washington and New York, unless trip is changed, in which event he may not visit Atlanta and Washington. Evans expects to be home October 1, 1905.

SAN ANTONIO CARNIVAL.

Week's Festivities Will Be Inaugurated With Masked Parade on April 24th.

Preparations for the San Antonio Spring Carnival, which opens Monday, April 24, and continues until April 30, have assumed such definite shape that the management now has ample assurances that this festive week will be the greatest in the history of San Antonio. The entire organization is in tangible shape, and with the co-operation of the various social organizations of San Antonio, there is every indication of a greater success than even San Antonians had hoped for.

The feature of the opening day, which is to be the annual appearance of the Knights of Omala in a gorgeous night parade, brilliantly illuminated, will be the noteworthy affair of its kind ever seen in Texas. The Knights will escort the Carnival King, Selamat, through the streets that night. The keys of the city are to be delivered by Mayor Campbell to his royal highness, who will then proclaim a week of festivity.

The Parade of the Knights of Omala will extend over a distance of two miles, and contain, in addition to the hundreds of masked Knights, a score of splendid floats, with fireworks and dazzling illuminations. This occasion promises to rival the famous Mardi Gras of New Orleans.

The great Civic Parade, April 25; grand Trades Display, April 26; the automobile parade on the morning of April 27, and the baby carriage parade on the afternoon of April 27, are all organized and will move off in a most gratifying manner. But little need be said of the magnificent Battle of Flowers pageant and celebration on the afternoon of April 28. This annual fete is so well known to Texans generally and words so inadequate to describe its splendor and beauty, that it must be witnessed to be fully appreciated. All the United States troops at Fort Sam Houston will participate in the display.

In passing it might be well to say that but few of the features of Carnival week have been mentioned. There will be patriotic exercises daily and throughout the week and at all times there will be something doing for the instruction and entertainment of the visiting hosts within the hospitable precincts of old San Antonio. The whole affair is patriotic in character, in charge of a joint committee of leading citizens and ladies, of which Mr. Frank H. Bushick is president.

The co-operation of the Texas railroads in granting the lowest rates ever known for an occasion of this kind, and the fact that San Antonio can amply accommodate a greater number of visitors than any Texas city, are matters sure to insure the success of the carnival.

Killed in Initiation.

Little Rock, Ark., April 10.—While Eben Runyan was being initiated by the local lodge of Knights of Pythias at Felsenthal, Ark., he was shot and instantly killed. Charles Filler, an officer of the lodge, was officiating at the initiation, and it is said used a revolver which in some way had been loaded, although it was supposed to contain blank cartridges. The bullet entered Runyan's brain, causing instant death. The lodge broke up in consternation.

OSCAR ROSENTHAL, Proprietor,

NEXT DOOR TO POSTOFFICE, KERRVILLE, TEXAS.

SPRING

is now here. The fields are green, the mountains are clothed in robes of emerald and the daisies sprinkle the earth like silver bubbles on a sea of moving verdure. There has never been such a promising prospect for a bountiful harvest, in this country, as now greets the eye at every turn. We have prepared and are still preparing for a prosperous year.

Just Because

It is a woman's reason for everything, but just because prospect are good and indications are that money will be plentiful is not a reason why you should waste your money. It is your duty to buy for just as little money as you can and yet get the best goods. We will prove to you that you can save money by trading here if you give us a chance.

Love is in the Air,

And the birds that sing in the trees, the rose bud that peeps modestly forth and the gentle daisy that timidly left its face to the sun tell the story of love and springtime. This is the time of year for pretty hats and fans and parasols and spring dresses, low shoes and a thousand other things in that line. We have them all and ask you to do your spring trading with us.

The Horn Dance.

Among the quaint old customs and ceremonies still kept alive in country districts there is only one "horn dance," and that is to be found at Abbots Bromley, in Staffordshire. Every year at the village wake the dance is still carried out. The origin of the horn dance is lost in the mists of history, but it has been traced back as far as the eleventh century. Until the seventh century it was practiced at Christmas, on New Year's day and on Twelfth day. In the time of Henry VIII. the dance was performed in front of the church every Sunday and a collection for the poor taken up from the spectators.

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M. Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure." Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed, 50c and $1 bottles at Rook Drug Store. Trial bottle free.

Foreigners in China.

According to the latest statistics, the number of foreign commercial firms in the principal treaty ports and in the large cities of China open to foreigners, was 1,297, and the number of foreigners residing there was 20,560. England heads the list with 420 firms and 5,662 persons; Japan comes next, with 361 firms and 5,287 persons. These two countries have three-fifths of all foreign houses in China, and more than half of all foreign residents. Germany has 159 firms and 1,658 persons. The United States has only 114 firms but 2,542 persons. France comes fifth, with 71 firms and 1,213 persons. That Portugal, in the number of Portuguese, 1,930 residents, exceeds even Germany, is accounted for by her possession of Macao; the number of Portuguese firms is only 45. Spain has 39 firms, Russia 34, Italy and Austria 18 each, the Netherlands 13, Denmark 10, Norway 7, Belgium 3, and Sweden 2.

Ballard's Horehound Syrup.

Immediately relieves hoarse, croupy cough; oppressing, rattling rasping and difficult breathing. Henry C. Stearns, Druggist, Schullburg, Wis., writes, May 20, 1902: "I have sold Ballard's Horehound Syrup for two years, and have never had a preparation that has given better satisfaction. I notice that when I sell a bottle they come back for more. I can honestly recommend it." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Rook Drug Store.

State Flowers.

Following the example of twenty-two states which have adopted floral emblems, there has been a hearing at the state house, in Boston, before committee on probate and chancery, with a view to selecting a floral emblem for Massachusetts. Petitions from all parts of the state were presented, and one, naming the mountain laurel for the honor, was signed by 25,000 men and women, who want it for the state emblem. The next highest favorite, the mayflower, received only 3,000 votes, while the rest of the votes were "scattering."

Tomato Packing States.

In marked contradistinction to the phenomenal corn pack of the year the quantity of tomatoes packed in 1904 shows a decrease of about 16 per cent, compared with the previous year's output. The total number of cases for the United States is placed at 8,671,000. Maryland leads among individual state records with nearly 3,500,000 cases. Indiana ranks second, with little more than 1,000,000, and New Jersey third, with 800,000.

Health is Youth.

Disease and Sickness Bring Old Age. Herbine, taken every morning before breakfast, will keep you in robust health, fit you to ward off disease. It cures constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, fever skin, liver and kidney complaints. It purifies the blood and clears the complexion.

Mrs. D. W. Smith, Whitney, Tex., writes April 3, 1902: "I have used Herbine, and find it to be the best medicine for constipation and liver troubles. It does all you claim for it. I can highly recommend it." 50c. Sold by the Rook Drug Store.

No Doctor Bills.

Swedish doctors never send bills to their patients. Each patient pays what he deems just or is able to give. The rich pay the physician liberally, whether they have need of his services or not, if he has only been retained by them. The poor, if they possibly can, pay him a small sum, and the very poor pay him nothing. Yet he attends the poor as faithfully as he does the rich.

THE Angora goat industry is now being carried on on a large scale in West Texas, and it is one of the most profitable there is. An extensive dealer in Angora goats today has a fortune.

WHEN those two big fleets meet on the Chu a Sea, we imagine there is going to be something doing. Both armies are sailing toward each other, and pretty soon it will happen.

ANOTHER fine rain was Kerr County's luck this week, which insures small grain, makes grass grow and makes the country in general in a more prosperous condition.

THE Kerr County fruit crop this year will undoubtedly be immense. The trees are all loaded with young fruit, and it is almost insured from the late frost. The only danger is from hail, which rarely ever visits this part of Texas. The people of Kerr County will see, this year, the biggest fruit crop ever raised.

THE trees are looking green, the flowers are blooming, grass is coming fast and the country in general will soon be a sight for the visitors to behold, and Kerrville will soon be crowded with strangers who come here to recuperate and spend a few weeks pleasantly.

THE Alamo City last week was crowded with visitors to see the President. The people there showed him a good time, as they never do things by halves. The next attraction will be the Carnival and Flower Battle, and she is preparing to entertain the many visitors in a royal style.

VORLES P. BROWN, editor of the Texas Stockman and Farmer, has been chosen by the Democrats at their primary last Saturday, as the next mayor of San Antonio. This is a wise choice and when the election comes Mr. Brown will come out in the lead as he did in the primary. He is an old citizen of San Antonio, and will make a good mayor.

WHAT Kerrville needs most is a canning factory. This year will see the largest tomato yield of any year and a canning factory would be a very profitable thing. It would fill a long felt want in the way of a home market for our truck farmers and would encourage our truck growers to plant on a larger scale.

SUMMER NORMAL

Kerrville, Texas—June 22 to July 27.

State Supt. R. B. Cousins has recognized a Summer Normal for Kerrville and the following faculty has been selected: Horace W. Morelock, Supt. Kerrville Schools, Conductor; J. W. Bagby, Supt. Fredericksburg Schools, R. W. Bennett, Supt. Center Point Schools and Miss Alma Fulton, department of history, Tivy High School, as assistants. This is a strong faculty, and was selected with special reference to their fitness for the particulars subjects which will be assigned them. Mr. Morelock has done special work in English, Mr. Bagby in Science, Miss Fulton in History and Mr. Bennett in Mathematics.

Kerrville is one of the best places in the State to hold a Summer Normal, the climate is delightful, the scenery beautiful, the air bracing and the people hospitable. The normal school will have free use of the Tivy High School building with its physical laboratory and library. In the city is the International Sunshine Library which is free to all.

This is a pleasant place to spend the summer. Try one season among the mountains. It will do you good.

Letter Received by the President of the Sunshine Library.

Fort Sam Houston P. O. San Antonio, Texas,

April 5, 1905.

President of Sunshine Library, Kerrville, Texas.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have a box of books to present to your library, mostly novels, all nice works. Please tell me how to ship them.

Truly yours,

GENERAL J. G. C. LEE, U. S. A.
Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Youth's Temperance Society.

A branch of the Youth's Temperance Society was organized at the Methodist church last Sunday. Fifteen member signed the pledge and it is hoped that many more of the boys especially will join.

A meeting will be held at the Sunshine Library tonight at which it is intended to open a debating club in connection with the Y. T. S. All who are interested or wish to join the Society will be gladly welcomed.

Baptist Meeting Closed.

The special series of meetings which began at the Baptist church Friday, March 31, closed Monday night, April 10. The meeting was conducted by Rev. Hornberg, a traveling evangelist, who is a very forceable preacher and who has grown up in West Texas among us. The meeting resulted in much good to our community. Rev. Hornberg is one of the ablest preachers that has ever visited this town and the Baptist people are to be complimented, on having such a gentleman conduct their services.

For Sale.

SCHREINER LIVE STOCK CO.

Announcement.

I take this means of announcing to the public that I have sold a one-half interest in my general merchandise business to Goodman Bros., of Ft. Smith, Arkansas. The business will be continued at the old stand, near the depot, under the firm name of G. D. Anderson & Co. The putting of new blood into the concern, increases our facilities, and thereby our ability to successfully handle the generous patronage the house has heretofore enjoyed and for which I extend my sincere thanks to the people of Kerrville and surrounding country. Soliciting a continuation of your patronage for the new firm,

Respectfully,
G. D. ANDERSON.

On account of the late appointment of Mr. Guy S. McFarland to the position of Referee in Bankruptcy, and the consequent interference with the Commercial and Bankruptcy practice of Mr. Wm. A. Coeke, the brief but pleasant and profitable law partnership heretofore existing between these two Kerr county boys has been dissolved. Mr. McFarland will continue his general practice as heretofore 104 East Crockett street, San Antonio. Mr. Coeke has organized a new firm, that of Coeke, Birkhead & Coeke, with offices in rooms at 407 1-2, 408, 409 and 410, top floor Alamo National Bank Building. Attention is called to the professional card of the latter firm in this issue.

Something New and Good.

It will save you from $5.00 to $7.00, if you let me babbit your buggies, carriages, etc. Babbit is a very hard metal, all the machinists use it. You do not need to have the spindles cut off. No matter how badly your vehicles are worn out, I will babbit them for $2.00 to $3.00. I also will babbit disk plows, machinery, etc.

Come and see my work, I will stay here another week.

E. HABERER,

The happiest couple in Greeley this week is Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Starkey. Wednesday noon a daughter was born to their home and the new pater's "Rackinsackian" blood has been at fever heat ever since, and the stories of his own infantile days are rapidly developing on his mental plate. May the little tendril live to be a joy and a source of happiness to her parents, even to the end of their earthly days. — Greeley, (Colorado) Sun.

The Lynching Custom.

At a recent dinner in London the conversation turned on the subject of lynchings in the United States. It was the general opinion that a rope was the chief end of man in America. Finally the hostess turned to an American, who had taken no part in the conversation, and said: "You, sir, must often have seen these affairs." "Yes," he replied. "We take a kind of municipal pride in seeing which city can show the greatest number of lynchings yearly. The night before I sailed for England I was giving a dinner to a party of intimate friends, when a colored waiter spilled a plate of soup over the gown of a lady at an adjoining table. The gown was utterly ruined, and the gentlemen of her party at once seized the waiter, tied a rope around his neck and at a signal from the injured lady swung him into the air." "Horrible!" said the hostess. "And did you actually see this yourself?" "Well, no," said the American, apologetically. "Just at that time I was downstairs killing the chef for putting mustard in the blanc mange."

Cures Colds and Coughs.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kan., says, "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste. Sold by Rock Drug Store."

Last of Beecher Family.

Mrs. Isabella Beecher Hooker, the only surviving member of the famous Beecher family, has celebrated her 83rd birthday at her home in Hartford. She is the youngest daughter of Rev. Lyman Beecher and sister of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. She was born in Litchfield, Conn. She was married in 1841 to John Hooker, for many years the reporter of the supreme court, who died February 12, 1901. Mrs. Hooker has two children and six grandchildren. Mrs. Hooker has for many years been actively interested in woman suffrage.

Millionaires' Car Parties.

The railway house party is a rapidly growing institution among American multimillionaires. The hiring of a special car for eighteen full fares from New York to the Pacific coast is of common occurrence. One Pacific coast magnate makes the trip regularly every few months in his own private car, seldom with anybody aboard but his private secretary and his valet. He pays $5,662 mileage for the single trip, and declares he saves that much money in the amount of business he transacts.

Frightful Suffering.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at Rock Drug Store guaranteed.

Official Designation of the War.

The senate has officially gone on record as preferring the words "civil war" to designate the prolonged struggle at arms between the states. Those vigorous patriots who still insist on talking about "the rebellion" may well take notice. While the senate was considering the postoffice appropriation bill Mr. McComas proposed an amendment that will allow soldiers of the rebellion a preference in the transfer of railway mail clerks to clerical service in the departments. "Make it soldiers of the civil war. It is more courteous," Senator Bacon, of Georgia, suggested. "That is entirely agreeable," replied Mr. McComas. "I should have drawn it that way at first." And the amendment as amended was forthwith adopted.

Life Among the Mormons.

Occasionally the excess of wives in Utah leads to amusing consequences, as when one of the apostles invited a visiting Gentle to dinner. The guest lost the address, and looked up the apostle in the directory. He observed that his hostess, though she answered to the proper name, seemed unprepared for him, and presently he heard her at the telephone: "Oh Emma? Is John living at your house this week? Is he expecting somebody to dinner today? Very well. The gentleman will be there in a few minutes." Then, turning to the stranger, she handed him a paper slip. "You came to the wrong house, sir. This is the address you want." On another occasion a little girl came running into the parlor while a visitor was calling. "Mama, pap wants his suit case packed. He is going to live with Aunt Emma this week."

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by Rock Drug Store.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitter, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." Rock Drug Store guarantees them at 50c.

Glommell

Oldest American Fort.

The oldest fortress in the United States is Fort Marion, on the Mantanzas, in Florida. It has seen many bloody frays in the opening up of what is now the paradise of the South. The land around this ancient place has been watered by the blood of men who have fallen in conflict, but today it is a peaceful, picturesque spot full of charm and serenity.

FUNNY THINGS

FROM THE PAPERS.

The Glenwood (Colo.) Post tells about the longest family in the world. The family is Furlong, and there are eight in the family.
Eight Furlongs make a mile.

The editor of the Pisgah (Mo.)
Clarion gives as an excuse for missing an issue of his paper, that he went to see his best girl and was "snowed in." Oh, joy!

One Man's Idea.

"Which is the happier, the bachelor or the spinster?" has been the subject of discussion in certain debating societies. We think that both together are happier.—Raven-wood (Mo.) Gazette.

There are three ways to learn the value of a dollar, says an exchange. The first is to spend it, and see what you get for it. The second is to earn it, and see what you give for it. The third is to save it, and yearn for all the things
it might buy if you were weak enough to spend it.

A Kansas City young man who had just married, suggested to his wife that they argue some question fully and frankly every morning, in order to know more of each other. The first question happened to be: "Can a woman dress on $75.00 a year?" He took the affirmative, and when last seen was climbing into a hay loft with the evident intention of pulling the ladder up after him.

"The home-grown, hand-spanked, bare-footed, hard-fisted country boy," remarks the Tecumseh (Okla.) Chieftain, "makes a better fight in the battle of life than the pampered, high-collared creasedtrousered youth of our cities, whose clothes have always been dusted with a whisk broom instead of a shingle. Let the town boy out of a job try a year on a farm.
Plowing behind a mule will take the kinks out of his throat and the weakness out of his legs, and will give him an appetite, an honest living and a sight of heaven."

Here are two excuses for lateness and non-attendance at school:
"Dear Miss: Will you be so kind as to forgive Johnny for being behind time this morning, as he was unable to discover his sox, which afterward proved to be in the ash-pit, where they had no doubt been deposited by the family dog, which we intend to get rid of at our earliest convenience." The second is even more unusual: "Samuel cannot come to school this afternoon, as he has glued his head to the dresser, and we have not been able to separate him yet."—Big Springs Enterprise.

Two passenger trains running at top speed dashed on the double track. It was a flash of headlights a rush and a swirl of atmosphere and a vanish of tall lights. When the reporter who occupied a seat on one of the engines had recovered and restored his hat to position he leaned across the deck and asked of the grizzled engineer: "Say, Ward, where'd we been if that headlight had been on this track?"
"That depends on how you've lived," growled the swarthy man at the throttle. And the reporter hasn't yet been able to get through his noddle just what Ward meant.
—Waterloo (Ia.) Courier.

According to the Wayland (Ia.) News, a certain Iowa editor has had a bath tub placed in his house, but has apologized by explaining that he had to take the tub on an advertising bill.

An exchange says women are so polite to their company. They meet the company at the train, kiss her, quarrel about carrying her valise, fuss about paying the street car fare, scream when she suggests going home, and then leave a great sigh of relief when she does go.

The Boulder (Colo.) Times hastens to comply with the following request,—which it recently received:
"Editor Boulder Times Dear Sir
in this you will find Check of 100-
one Dollar And for the Lord Sake Please Stop the Paper Adset to—
—, for we Have Plenty of Al-monicks here."

A Kansas paper says the inventor of a new feeding bottle for infants sent out the following among his directions for using: When the baby is done drinking it must be unscrewed and laid in a cool place under the hydrant. If the baby does not thrive on fresh milk
it should be boiled.

The Morgan County (Colo.)
Republican gives out this fatherly advice: "If you want to keep your man, do not give him the kicking cow to milk. Milk her yourself if you are fool enough to keep her, and commence singing.
'My soul, be on thy guard,' when you grab the pail and the milking stool if you ever hope to shake hands with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

A young man asked an elderly farmer for his daughter in marriage. The answer was: "Go into the orchard and bring in a parcel of apples. Give me one-half the whole number and to the mother one-half of the balance and half an apple over; and to the daughter one-half of the remainder and half an apple over, and have one left for yourself without cutting an apple. Then if she is willing you can have her." He solved the problem and how many did he bring?—Western Publisher.

Jim Smithers called on us yesterday to ask us to use our influence to get him appointed justice of the peace in this townshp. He told us that "Col." Mose Slick had promised to do his best to secure him the appointment. We happen to know that the "Col." has certainly lied four times out of five and probably he has told five lies straight. We have known the "Col."
for a good many years and must say that this is about his average for veracity.—Lyndon (Kan.) Herald.

Mean, Meaner, Meanest.

There were four of them in the smoking compartment of the car
when the traveler from Chicago happened to say: "That reminds me of a man out in my town who is so mean that he makes the members of his house write small hands
in order to save ink."

"A friend o' my father's, sub, wuz even wuz than thet," came promptly from the Baltimoren.
"He stopped the clocks at night,
sub, because o' the wear and tear
on the works."

Then the Philadelphian. "Well, there's a good old Quaker out in Wayne who won't read the papers.
Wears out his glasses, he says."

All three looked inquiringly at the man from New York, but he merely smiled and rang for the waiter to take the orders.—Smart Set.

District Court.

Bones of Pirate Captain Found on Bedloe's Island.

New York, April 11.—The bones of Captain Hicks, a notorious pirate, are believed to have been unearthed on Bedloe's Island. While digging for a foundation for several new buildings a laborer threw up in a shovelful of earth a brittle object that resembled a human thigh bone. An almost perfect skeleton was finally collected.

From the position of the skeleton, it could be seen that the arms and legs were pinned close together at the time of burial, which led to the suggestion that the skeleton of the pirate captain had been unearthed. When one of the laborers turned up a semi-petrified section of a wooden gibbet, it became almost certain that the bones were those of the pirate.

Captain Hicks, with his fleet, cruised about the Carolina coast, venturing sometimes as far north as the end of Long Island, preying on New York shippers. He was finally captured, brought to New York, convicted and sentenced to be hanged on Bedloe's Island. The execution was public and the island was crowded at the time.

You know you would feel bad if baby died and you had no picture of him. Baby pictures is our specialty. Six for 50c.

Killing at Orange.

Orange, Tex., April 9.—Bud Watson, a white man, 34 years old, was killed in his yard in South Orange last night, his neck being broken by the shot. Tom and Bill Delano and Tobe Batiste were arrested and jailed a short time after the shooting, and they are now being held on the charge of murder.

Watson's wife says the three men were with her husband planning a hunting trip. That Tom Delano left the house and shortly afterwards her husband engaged in an altercation with Batiste over the latter spitting on the floor. Bill Delano and Watson finally got Batiste out of the house and over the fence, and the three men were standing there quarreling when she called to her husband. Just then a shot was fired and he fell in his tracks. Bill Delano and Batiste both denied the shooting, but were arrested together with Tom Delano. Mrs. Watson states, that when Tom Delano left her house before the shooting, he took with him a rifle which she identifies as the same gun found this morning near the bayou where the Delano boys are in the habit of crossing in a skiff, and one freshly discharged cartridge was in the rifle. The prisoners are incarcerated in separate cells and neither has made a statement.

The murdered man was shot in the back about two years ago by unknown parties and about two weeks ago his brother, Ralph, was waylaid and shot, but escaped with a flesh wound. Considerable mystery surrounds the shooting of last night.

Lee Phillips Drowned.

Eagle Pass, Tex., April 3.—A telegram from Spofford today announced the accidental drowning of Lee Phillips in a tank a few miles from that place. Deceased was a most promising young man, was the only son of J. Phillips, one of our oldest and most prominent citizens. There is universal sorrow over the occurrence. The body had not been recovered at last report.

Jumped Into the Sea.

Denver, Colo., April 8.—George Wilder, a wholesale grocer, aged 83 years, who disappeared from his home in this city two weeks ago, committed suicide by jumping in to the sea from the steamer Concho, on which he sailed from Galveston on Wednesday, according to news received here from Key West.
