FIRE-SWEPT CITY OF GOLDEN GATE

Earthquake and Fire Leave More Than Half of San Francisco in Smouldering Ruins.

FIRE IS CHECKED AT LAST

THE GREAT TRAGEDY PASSES INTO HISTORY.

With the setting of the sun on last Tuesday the last of the raging fires that played such awful havoc with the fair city of the Golden Gate flickered like a lamp that had consumed its oil, and soon the pall of night mercifully hid the sickening sight.

The loss of life will never all be known, but there is great consolation in the fact that the victims are being numbered by hundreds instead of thousands.

While the work of restoration is already going on, the papers will be filled with the harrowing details for weeks to come.

SOME EXCITING EXPERIENCES.

Ohio Man Tells of the Horrors of the Earthquake and Some of the Tragedies With It.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—R. F. Lund, general sales agent of the Dover Manufacturing Company, is a San Francisco refugee who reached here today. Mr. Lund was asleep in the McCormick Apartments when the first earthquake shock rent San Francisco.

"I awoke to find myself on the floor," said Mr. Lund. "The building seemed to pitch to the right and then to the left, and then finally to straighten itself and sink. I had the sensation of pitching down in an elevator shaft—that sudden sickening wave that sweeps over you and leaves you breathless. I got into my clothes and with dif-

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE STRICKEN CITY

San Francisco is unique among cities—a study among municipalities of the world. It is situated upon a peninsula, and is the eighth in size among the cities of the world. Qualities of north and south, east and west, are here mingled and developed. Practical and poetical sides of life here meet in equal and harmonious growth. Painter and musician, stock broker and merchant are shoulder to shoulder. Progress in commerce and literature has been conspicuous. Critics have remarked to see such lines of endeavor, of parallel growth in the same community.

Facts Worth Knowing.

Here are some facts about San Francisco:

- Founded in 1776.
- Began to grow in 1848.
- Population in 1900, 342,782.
- Estimated population June, 1904, 485,000.
- Bank clearings, 1903, $1,520,200,682.
- Savings banks deposits May 9, 1904, $155,166,272.
- Assessed valuation of property, 1903, $545,866,446.
- Imports, 1903, $50,497,905.
- Exports, 1903, $55,233,004.
- Customs receipts, 1903, $7,850,205.
- Has 180 miles of electric railroad and 77 miles of cable.
- Is the leading whaling port of the world.
- Registered net tonnage of vessels

CALIFORNIA EARTHQUAKES

Nearly All Preceded by Seismic Disturbances in Orient.

It has been a quarter of a century since an earthquake in California resulted in loss of life, although seismic disturbances are of common occurrence on the Pacific coast.

On March 26 and 27, 1872, there was a series of violent shocks in the Inyo valley. Several small towns were destroyed, and about 30 persons were killed. The shock was felt in San Francisco, and the walls of many buildings were cracked, and damage done to the Lick house, a famous hostelry.

Before that, in 1852, the only earthquake of note in the state was one which destroyed one of the Franciscan missions in Southern California.

The Pacific coast has been so frequently visited by earthquakes that it was deemed unwise, until a few years ago, to erect tall buildings in San Francisco. It was only with the advent of modern steel construction, which was believed to render tall buildings safe from the earth's tremors, that sky-scrapers made their appearance on the Pacific coast.

In the past fifty years over 250 earthquake shocks have been recorded in San Francisco. The most severe were in 1868 and 1898. In 1868 much damage was done to the city and many lives were lost.

The disturbance of 1898 did not result in loss of life, but caused much damage to property. This shock occurred at 11:53 p. m., March 31, and houses all over the city were shaken to their foundations. There was intense excitement and many narrow escapes were recorded. The damage was particularly severe along the waterfront, for a tidal wave rolled in from the bay and wrecked small boats and docks.

The Mare Island navy yard was damaged to the extent of $150,000, and since then no buildings over two stories high have been constructed on the government reservation. This shock of 1899 was confined to Central and Northern California, and severe damage was reported from interior state points. Fire broke out in several small towns from overturned lamps and stoves, and the flames destroyed more property than did the earthquake itself. The 1898 tremor was declared to have been the most severe ever recorded at San Francisco, and it was remarkable that no loss of life resulted.

It has been noticed before that nearly every seismic disturbance on the Pacific coast has been preceded by more or less violent disturbances or violent eruptions in the South seas or near Japan or Australia.

RESPONSES MADE AS NEVER BEFORE

Entire Country Expresses Sympathy and Liberally Extends the Helping Hand.

Never were responses to appeals for relief more prompt than those that have been made to San Francisco in the present dire calamity. No sooner had the news flashed to the nation's capital than Congress suspended all other business to take up the question of hurrying relief to the sufferers. From all over the country thousands of dollars, car loads of rations, bedding and clothing are pouring into the city. The Red Cross Society has taken up the work, and in all of its agencies scattered throughout the world collections are being made. All fear of famine was soon dispelled, and now food, medicines, etc., are being freely dealt out to all who need them.

It is said that many small fires were put out with wine where no water was available.

DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS AND DISCUSSES ELECTION LAW.

The Kerr County Democratic Executive Committee met at Kerrville, Thursday. The object of the meeting was to discuss the means of holding primaries in Kerr county which render the Terrell election law imperative.

For the guidance of those who desire the place their names before the primaries, the committee requested the publication of Sec. 111 of the election law which reads as follows:

"Sec. 111. Any person desiring his name to appear on the official ballot for the general primary as a candidate for the nomination to any office to be filled by the qualified voters of a county or a portion thereof, or for county chairman, shall file with the county chairman of the county of his residence, not later than the Saturday before the third Monday in June preceding such primary, a written request for his name to be printed on such official ballot as a candidate for the nomination or position named therein, giving his occupation and postoffice address, giving the street and number of his residence if within a city or town, such request to be signed and acknowledged by him before some officer authorized to take acknowledgment to deeds. Such request similarly signed and acknowledged by any twenty five qualified voters resident in the county may be filed on or before said date, requesting that the name of any person named therein may be placed on the official ballot as a candidate for any county or precinct office or chairmanship, with like effect as if such request was filed by the person named as a candidate therein; which request shall be endorsed by the candidate named therein, showing his consent to such candidacy if nominated. On the third Monday in June preceding such general primary the county committee of each county shall meet at the county seat and determine by lot the order in which the names of all candidates for each nomination or position requested be printed on the official ballot shall be printed thereon, and decided whether the nomination of county officers shall be by majority or plurality vote, and if by majority vote, the committee shall call as many such elections as may be necessary to make such nomination, and in case the committee fails to so decide, then the nomination of such officers shall be by plurality vote cast at such election. At such meeting the county committee shall also carefully estimate the cost of printing the official ballots, renting polling places where such shall be found necessary, providing and distributing all necessary poll books, blank stationery and voting booths required, compensation of election officers and clerks and messengers to report the result in each precinct to the county chairman, as provided for herein, and all other necessary expenses of holding such primaries in such counties, and shall apportion such cost among the various candidates for nomination for county and precinct offices only as herein defined, and offices to be filled by the voters of such county, or precinct only (candidates for state offices excepted), in such manner as in their judgment is just and equitable, giving due consideration to the importance and emoluments of each such office for which a nomination is to be made, and shall by resolution direct the chairman to immediately mail to each person whose name has been requested to be placed on the official ballot a statement of the amount of such expenses so apportioned to him, with the request that he pay the same to the county chairman on or before the fourth Monday in June thereafter. At this meeting the county chairman shall present to the committee the certificates of the chairman of the State and the various district executive committees, showing the names of all persons whose names are to appear on the official ballot as candidates for States and district officers, and shall appoint, subject to the approval of the committee, a subcommittee of five members to be known as the primary committee, of which he shall be ex officio chairman, which subcommittee shall meet on the second Monday in July and make up the official ballot for such general primary in such county, in accordance with the certificates of the State and district chairman, and the request filed with the county chairman, and placing the name of candidates for nomination for State, district, county and precinct offices thereon in order to determine by the county executive committee as herein provided; provided, that the name of no person shall be placed thereon for a county or precinct office who has not paid to the county executive committee the amount of the estimated expenses of holding such primary apportioned to him by the county executive committee as hereinbefore provided. No candidate for a State or district office, unless such district is composed of one county only, shall be required to pay any portion of such cost, unless the executive committee of the county shall so direct, but in no event shall more than one dollar apiece be assessed against any such candidate for a State or district office, unless such district is composed of one county only. If there are no requests filed for candidates for county or precinct chairman, a blank space shall be left on the ticket beneath the designation of such position.

Safe Deposit Vaults Intact.

Oakland, Cal., April 20.—At the meeting of bankers this morning Mr. Lynch of the First National Bank reported that a committee had examined all the bank and safe deposit vaults in San Francisco and found them all intact. This makes it certain that the money and papers on deposit are all safe. It is also reported that the books and records in the San Francisco Hall of Records escaped serious injury.

Big Profit There.

San Antonio, April 23.—On his way from Taylor to Tamaulipas, Mex., with a few carloads of Hereford bulls for the ranches of that section of the Republic, E. M. Fink of El Paso registered at the Southern Hotel to spend the last day of the Carnival in San Antonio.

"I have found it very difficult to buy 2-year-old bulls in Texas," he said, "on account of the fact that nearly all the farmers and ranchmen who handle blooded stock either sell their bulls at the age of one year to the butcher or send them as steers to the market."

"There is fine profit in this business of shipping blooded bulls to Mexico now and is going to continue long enough to make it to the advantage of the cattle raiser to hold a few of his bulls."

"When a shipper makes affidavit at the border now, that his cattle are of good quality and to be used for breeding purposes only, they can go into Mexico without the payment of duty. Texas cattle, of the best quality only, have been shipped to Mexico to the ranches which desire to raise the quality of their cattle and naturally cattle from this State have a fine reputation in that country."

"The Mexican ranchmen, particularly in the coast section of Mexico, are making a large profit by raising good cattle from Texas stock and shipping them to Cuba. The Cuban ranches are still being restocked to recover from the effects of the Spanish-American war and the hard times preceding."

"Not many dairy cattle are being shipped. Herefords, however, are preferred in the country around Tamaulipas. Some demand has arisen in the vicinity of Tampico for a better grade of dairy cattle and they will be shipped from Texas."

A $10,000,000 Swindle.

New York, April 20.—That a $10,000,000 bond swindle had been nipped in the bud by a confession made to the District Attorney by Charles Augustus Seaton, who was one of the plotters, and that several wealthy men of prominence had been picked out as victims, was the statement made to Recorder Goff, in General Sessions, yesterday before he sentenced Seaton, T. C. P. Colmy, Samuel J. Humphreys and Douglas E. Smith, for their Norfolk & Western Railway Company bond forgeries. Recorder Goff, sentenced Smith to the penitentiary for twelve months, Humphreys to imprisonment for six years, and Colmy, who recently was sent to Sing Sing for four years and six months, after convictions of selling a worthless railroad bond, was sentenced to seven years and six months. In Seaton's case the Recorder refused to suspend sentence for the forgery, but deferred it indefinitely. On his conviction for swindling the promoters of the Houston & Galveston Interurban Railway he was sentenced to eight years.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION. THE STATE OF TEXAS.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Kerr County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon the unknown heirs of Joseph S. Anderson by making publication of this Citation once in each week for eight consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Kerr County, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Kerrville on the 3rd Monday in June, 1906, the same being the 18th day of June, 1906, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court on the 5th day of March, 1906, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 670, wherein G. M. Lowry is plaintiff, and the unknown heirs of Joseph S. Anderson, are defendants, and said petition alleging that plaintiff is the owner of 320 acres of land situated in Kerr County, Texas, known as survey No. 141, in section No. 12 on the Guadalupe river, about 55 miles N W from the city of San Antonio, originally granted to Joseph S. Anderson, and bounded as follows: Beginning at a cypress 5 in. in dia., on the lower bank of the river, for the lower corner of survey No. 140 and the upper corner of this survey, from which a cypress 12 in. in dia. brs. Cotton Census Bill.

Washington, April 20.—The House Committee on the Census has reported favorably Mr. Burleson's bill providing for a quinquennial report on the acreage of cotton and other chief agricultural products and on the live stock industry. One of the purposes of this proposed census is to provide fresher fundamental information for crop estimating purposes. A bill enlarging the scope of the Census Bureau work in other ways to get consideration for his bill in the House, he will offer it as an amendment to the Senate bill when it shall reach the House.

Baptist Church Calls a Pastor.

Rev. R. A. Cohron has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Kerrville Baptist church, and will fill that pulpit the first Sunday in May. The Jackson (Miss.) Baptist Record speaks of Mr. Cohron as follows:

"Rev. R. A. Cohron, now pastor at Utica, has accepted the care of the Kerrville Texas, Baptist church. We regret very much to lose him from Mississippi where he has spent his life work up to the present. He is easily one of our very best men. Texas is very much given to drawing on us for men, and has a peculiar knack for getting the best we have. His going comes in the nature of a personal bereavement to us, as we came from the same association (the Yazoo), and spent the early days of our ministry together. This move is largely in the interest of his wife's health."

Ed Henderson, of Henderson Branch, was in Kerrville Thursday. Mr. Henderson brought two cars of fat steers belonging to John Dunderstadt, who shipped them to Yorktown.

HON. C. C. HARRIS RECONSIDERS.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS,

April 18th, 1906.

EDITOR MOUNTAIN SUN,

Kerrville, Texas:

Dear Sir: Sometime since I announced that I would not again be a candidate for the office of District Attorney for the 38th Judicial District; but, since that announcement, I have received so many requests from my friends throughout the district to reconsider that determination that I have decided to again become a candidate.

I am deeply grateful to the people of the district for the encouragement given me in my efforts to discharge the duties of this responsible office to the interest of the district at large.

If again honored with the position I shall do all within my power to serve the people effectually.

The following letter from Hon. H. C. Fisher, of Rock Springs, Texas, is self explanatory. Will you do me the favor to publish this in explanation of his course? I wish also to add my sincere appreciation of this magnanimous and honorable conduct on the part of Mr. Fisher:

"Kerrville, Tex., March 14, '06.

"Hon. C. C. Harris,

"San Antonio, Texas:

"Dear Sir: Some time since, learning that you would not be a candidate for re-election to the office of District Attorney of the 38th Judicial District of Texas, I decided to enter the race for that office myself. I have, lately, been over a good part of the district in the interest of my candidacy, and, while my prospects for election were encouraging, I find a universal regret among the people of the district that you would not be a candidate for re-election. So strongly was this expressed that I feel constrained to withdraw from the race if you would consent to serve them another term. Let me hear from you as to your intentions in the matter.

"Hoping that you will entertain this proposition favorably, and consent to further serve the people of the 38th District in the capacity of District Attorney, I am

"Sincerely yours,
 "H. C. FISHER, JR."
 Yours very truly,
 C. C. HARRIS.

FUNNY THINGS

FROM THE PAPERS.

The Recreation.

The fight was about to begin. Suddenly the referee called a halt.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I have just discovered that one of these two men is a ringer. Instead of being a plain, ordinary, straight up and down prize fighter, he is an old college football player. The fight is off!"—Chicago Tribune.

When Latin Met Latin.

President Eliot, of Harvard, when a young man, ordered a bottle of hock in a Boston restaurant, saying as he did so: "Here, waiter, bring me a bottle of hock—hic, haec, hoc." The waiter, who had been to college, smiled, but never stirred. "What are you standing there for," exclaimed the professor, "didn't I order some hock?"

"Yes, sir," said the waiter, "you ordered it, but you afterwards declined it."—Argonaut.

Long's Lung.

My name is Hyam Long, and, owing to my being so long I have long been known as "long Long." My left lung is dead, and, having long longed to know its actual condition, I called upon my doctor. This is what he said: "You have grown too long, Long. Your right lung has long since left you altogether, and your left lung's not right. In short, Long, you'll not have your left lung long. So long, Long."—Gladiator.

He Surprised Her.

The Stamps Democrat tells a good story on a farmer living near there, who wore his old suit till everybody was tired of it, and his estimable wife was almost ashamed of the rustling farmer who had been inside of it so long. But one day while selling produce in town he determined to buy a new suit and surprise Eliza. So he bundled a new suit into the wagon hurried toward home and at the wagon bridge, two miles from home he stood upon the wagon, peeled and threw the despised old suit into the creek, then he reached for the clothes. They were gone—had jolted out of the wagon! The night was cold and his teeth chattered as he skurried for home.

He surprised Eliza even more than he anticipated.—Marianna (Ark.) Index.

He Knew His People.

Just before the collection was taken up one Sunday morning a negro clergyman announced that he regretted to state that a certain brother had forgotten to lock the door of his chickenhouse the night before, and as a result in the morning he found that most of the fowls had disappeared. "I doan' want to be p'ussional, bred'n," he added, "but I hab my s'picious as to who stole dem chickens. I also hab reason fo' b'lievin' dat if I am right in dose s'picious dat p'usson won't put any money in de plate which will now be passed round."

The result was a fine collection: not a single member of the congregation feigned sleep. After it was counted the old parson came forward.

"Now, bred'n," he said, "I doan' want your dinners to be spoilt by wonderin' where that brudder lives who doan' lock his chickens up at night. Dat brudder doan't exist, mah friends. He was a parable gotten up fo' purpose of finances."

His Wisdom.

After King Solomon had offered to cut the famous infant in half the mothers were so tickled over his tact that they wanted to elect him judge of the next baby show.

"Not for mine," exclaimed Solomon, vigorously, "I wouldn't be judge at a baby show for all the gold in my mines."

"But we thought you were so wise," insisted the mothers.

"I am, ladies and that is the very reason why I decline to be judge."—Columbus Dispatch.

He Announced His Intentions.

A young man and his lady-love attended a protracted meeting which was being held in the village. Arriving late they found the church filled, but a gentleman arose and gave the lady his seat, while the young man was ushered far away to a seat in another part of the building.

The service grew warm and impressive.

"Will those who want our prayers please stand up?" said the preacher.

At this juncture the young man thought it was getting late and he would get his sweetheart and go home, but not knowing where she sat he rose to his feet and looked over the audience.

The minister, mistaking his intentions, asked: "Young man, are you seeking salvation?"

To which the young man responded: "At present I am seeking Sal Jackson!"—Ex.

The Way Out.

A well-known physician, says "The Boston Herald," was on his way to his office one winter morning when the sidewalks were a glare of ice. While going down the street he met a lady coming in the opposite direction. The lady was a stranger to him, although he was not unknown to her.

In trying to avoid each other on the pavement they both slipped and came to the sidewalk facing each other, with their pedal extremities considerably entangled. While the polite doctor was debating in his mind what was the proper thing to say or do under the trying circumstances the problem was solved by the quick-witted lady, who quietly remarked: "Doctor, if you will be good enough to rise and pick out your legs, I will take what remains."—Ex.

Giving a Woman Her Rights.

The car was full and the night was wet. The bell rang, the car stopped, and a lady entered. As she looked tired a nice old gentleman in the corner rose and inquired in a kind voice, "would you like to sit down, ma'am? Excuse me, though," he added; "I think you are Mrs. Sprouter, the advocate of woman's rights."

"I am, sir," replied the lady calmly.

"You think that women should be equal to men?" further queried the old gentleman.

"Certainly," was the firm reply.

"You think they should have same rights and privileges?" was the next question.

"Most emphatically," came from the supporter of woman's rights.

"Very well," said the kind gentleman, sitting down again, "just stand up and enjoy them."—Ex.

What is claimed to be a first-class well was drilled in on the Anderson strip on the west part of the Sour Lake Shoestring Saturday morning and for several hours a stream of oil was spouted over the top of a tall derrick. The well is still flowing at the rate of about three thousands a day.

While at work on the new Catholic church, at Fredericksburg, Friday, Albert Fassel lost his balance and fell off the high wall to the ground, a distance of 28 feet. Fortunately he landed on a pile of lumber which probably saved his life. He received a very painful scalp wound and a slight fracture of the skull and had his ankle badly bruised.

TWO CONVICTS TRY TO ESCAPE.

Guards Shot at Prisoners, Killing One and Fatally Wounding the Other.

Rusk, Tex., April 23.—Two convicts made a break for liberty this morning just as they got off the work train at the ore bed to go to work. One of them was killed and the other mortally wounded. Joe Wilkins, a guard was killed by another guard accidentally, and Will Lloyd, a guard was slightly wounded by another guard.

Mr. Wilkins was a good man. He leaves a wife and five little children. He was a Knight of Pythias and a Mason. He had lived here about fifteen years and had been in the service about twenty years.

One the convicts was Woodward, sent up from Navarro County. He was killed instantly.

The other convict was a short termed man named Smiley. His wounds proved fatal.

The first report that reached here was that all the men at the ore beds had escaped, but only two men tried to escape. There are 180 men at work at the ore beds, which are about one mile from the walls. The men are carried out in the morning and brought back to the walls at night on the ore bed train.

Cloudercroft Man Killed.

El Paso, Tex., April 20.—News reached here today that E. O. Rouser, manager of the Copper Queen Hotel at Bisbee, Ariz., and manager for this section of the summer resort at Cloudercroft, N. M., was a victim of the earthquake. His bride of three days perished with him. Killed by a falling chimney at Hotel Delmonte, Monterey, Cal., Dr. James Douglass, president of El Paso & Southwestern Railway Company, received the information in a telegram here today. Rouser was well known in the Southwest and was native of Indianapolis, where his father is now manager of the Columbia Club. He was married in San Francisco just three days before the earthquake.

Killed the Umpire.

Marlow, I. T., April 22.—At a baseball game played in this town Saturday afternoon between teams from Duncan and Marlow, Edward E. Lewis, aged 30 years, eldest son of Warner U. Lewis, was struck in the back of the head with a baseball-bat in the hands of one of the Duncan players. The blow was terrible and Lewis dropped to the ground unconscious. He was removed to his home and died about mid-night surrounded by his wife and relatives. He never regained consciousness. Reports are that Lewis was umpiring the ball game.

H. V. Scholl Rides Hoo Hoo Goat.

H. V. Scholl went to San Antonio recently to be initiated into the profound mysteries of the inner circle of the Amalgamated Order of Hoo Hoos. Now Mr. Scholl, like most Kerrville citizens, is a modest, confiding young man, with an abiding confidence in the veracity of other people. Bing cautious, however, he elicited from other lumbermen, whom he supposed to be the soul of truthfulness, and also from certain meek-eyed representatives of big lumber combinations who found their way to Kerrville, that the Hoo Hoos were extremely gentle in their modus operandi, and handled their victims with as great caution as a local lumberman would a $22 glass front door. They further assured Mr. Scholl that no organization, even if addicted to a certain degree of leivitous gaiety, would be otherwise than considerate of the feelings of a gentleman of his age.

The victim went to San Antonio, and in child-like confidence was led to the slaughter. When the awful ordeal was over it was about 24 hours before he recovered sufficiently to ask bystanders in a feeble voice, "Where were you when the eyelone struck?" "They handled me with a cant-hook and lambasted me around like a gang of roustabouts handling star boxing when lumber is cheap," said Mr. Scholl; "but I had a royal time, and with the exception of a little damage to my clothing, and almost the entire loss of confidence in the truthfulness of any other lumberman than myself, I am in good shape, and will be on the ground when the Hoo Hoos next meet at Houston."

Kerrville Donates.

Kerrville citizens donated $290.00 for the benefit of San Francisco earthquake and fire sufferers. A copy of the letter from Charles Schreiner, banker, enclosing remittance to Treasurer Jacob H. Schiff, of the Red Cross Society, is given below:

Death of E. B. Suggs.

Died at the Central Hotel, in this city, Mouday, April 23, Mr. E. B. Suggs, of Caulksville, Ark. Mr. Suggs reached here from Beeville, Texas, only a few days before his death, accompanied by his wife and six children, hoping the change would restore his health, but the dread disease had already done its work and he passed away as above stated. His remains were interred at Glen Rest cemetery on Tuesday.

The bereaved family, though strangers, have the heartfelt sympathy of our people.

STATION BUILDING LOCATED

WORK WILL BEGIN IN FEW DAYS ON WESTMINSTER STATION.

BIG DINING HALL ALMOST FINISHED

Chautauqua Grounds Rapidly Assuming Appearance of Permanent Improving.

Work on the Chautauqua grounds is going forward rapidly, and all will be in readiness for the big Sunday School picnic, which will be the dedicating event, and will take place sometime in the first week of June.

On Monday of this week the private car of General Manager W. M. Hobbs came up on the regular train, having Mr. Hobbs, General Passenger Agent G. F. Lupton, Superintendent of Transportation R. H. Innes, and Rev. Hugh Hoon, of the Chautauqua committee.

These gentlemen, after locating the site for the new station building at Westminster, the work on which will begin in a few days, were taken in carriages for a tour of the Chautauqua grounds, visiting the big dining hall and restaurant building, now in course of construction and nearing completion, and other points of interest. The trip was wound up by a visit to Cypress Island, which all agreed was an ideal picnic and outing spot.

The railway officials were all highly pleased with the Chautauqua grounds, and have great faith in the future of Kerrville and her progressive people.

Meeting of Sunshine Library Society.

On Monday night the Sunshine Library held a meeting at the office of Judge J. R. Burnett, for the purpose of selecting a place for the library. Several places were proposed and after some discussion the Society accepted the offer of Mrs. O'Neal, who will take charge of the library which is to occupy the building on Main street, just south of the store of McClenan-Carpenter-Graves Co. Mrs. O'Neal will also move her photograph gallery to this same building.

The following officers were elected to serve until Jan. 1, 1907:

Mrs. Green Coleman, President; Mrs. R. Galbraith, Vice President; Mr. George Walther, Corresponding Secretary, and Miss Linnie Burnett, Treasurer and Recording Secretary.

Board of Directors: Green Coleman, W. G. Carpenter, Rev. Edward Galbraith, John C. Graves and Horace W. Morelock.

The Society then voted its unanimous thanks to Mr. Walther for his faithful and efficient services as librarian and for his praiseworthy efforts in bringing the library up to the present standing. Mr. Walther was compelled to resign his position on account of his health and business relation. The Society very much regrets to lose him and are under many obligations for his past kindnesses.

Books will be ready for distribution in about one week.

H. NOLL Co-Operative Stock Company,
—DEALERS IN—
General Merchandise,
KERRVILLE, TEXAS.

A New Departure in Merchandising,
Conducted on the Co-operative Profit-Sharing Plan, in which every customer can become a stockholder without investing one cent.

Save your rebate checks until you have $100 worth, return same to the Company, who will issue to you a $5.00 Stock Certificate. Remember that stockholders are entitled to 5 per cent rebate on purchases, besides the annual dividend on stock.

Under our system every customer shares in the profits he helps to make; it's a proposition that is worth considering. Become a stockholder and enjoy the benefits of co-operation. The more stockholders, the larger will be the dividends.

Return all small checks and receive in exchange $5.00 checks.

WILL WOOD==Registered.

A Standard bred trotting Stallion, deep bay in color, 16 hands high, perfect in form and of splendid disposition. Was bred and foaled in Missouri by one of the best breeders of fine horses in the west. This superb animal will make the season of 1906 at the farm of A. W. McKillip, 1 1/2 miles north of Kerrville on Harper road.

Terms, $10.00 to insure; best of care taken of animals in our care. Pasturage $1.00 per month. No responsibility will be assumed for accidents to mares while in our charge.

OCAMPO.

I have purchased Ocampo, one of the best bred Jacks in Tennessee, and will stand him this season at Richland Stock Farm, 1 1/2 miles west of Center Point, for $8.00 to insure.

OCAMPO is from a mammoth Jack out of a Maltese Jennett. I saw while in Tennessee a number of his colts and can recommend them as being first-class. Ocampo is a fine individual, 15 hands high, heavy bone and long ears, 9 years old.

DR. RHODES.

Thoroughbred Stallion, Register No. 35126, will make the season at my farm for $10.00 to insure.

DR. RHODES is a bay, 16 hands high, weighs 1050 pounds, 3 years old. Dr. Rhodes is by Prince Russell out of Dulce.
