By DOLPH MOTEN

Eventhough it's a chapter of one of the most highly organized civic organizations in the world, the Bovina Lions Club is a loose-knit organization.

It wasn't intended to be that way, you understand, and most leaders of the group wish it wasn't that way, but it is.

Informality persists in being the rule in spite of concentrated and often efforts to make it otherwise. Without the guidance of higher-ups in the international organization, chances are it would be much worse than it is. And, frankly, the local club possibly wouldn't even exist without this guidance which comes out of the main Lions Club office in Chicago. Direct sometimes it comes and other times it is filtered down through district and zone officers to the local level.

District governors and zone chairmen are often amazed and disappointed to find out how lax formalities are in the local club and they issue pep talk after pep talk to change the situation. Still, they admit that the amount of community service by the club here is as good as any and better than most.

Their attitude seems to be, "You're doing a good job now, but just think how much better it could be if you went about it right."

Local leaders always listen respectfully to these words of organizational advice and conscientiously try to put them into practice.

But informality continues to be a characteristic of the club.

Carl Rea, who has served as president of the club for the past 12 months, had his share of successes and failures as head of the organization. His year as president was tremendously successful, considering the amount of cooperation he had from other club members.

At last week's meeting, before he handed over the Lion Boss gavel to the new president, Jay Sherrill, Rea said he wanted to thank the committees which had been appointed when he went into office a year ago.

He said thank you to those committees that "functioned and to those that didn't . . . and it was about a 50-50 proposition.

He pretty well summed up the club with that bit of dry wit. The members of non-functioning committees who blushed after absorbing the statement added to the amusement.

Our year as president of the organization was so long ago that we really don't care about looking back and determining just how "way back" it was. But we had some of the same "troubles" that Carl did and we understood his situation. We didn't try to help him too much, but we understood, anyway.

One of the things the zone chairman harped on us about that year was this club's low percentage of attendance.

We felt like he was picking on us about this point.

Since Lions Club rules allow attendance to be "made up" at committee meetings, we went to work on it. With the help of Gene Ezell, who was a past president at that time, we had committee meetings all times of the day, night and week. Then by counting authorized absences, too, our reports went in marked 100 per cent attendance for several months in succession.

This raised some eyebrows at the zone and district levels, of course, and this was just what we aimed for it to do since we were tired of being belly-ached at for poor attendance.

That same year, there was a district contest whereby points were obtained for various achievements; attendance, especially 100 per cent, added greatly to these points as did other things which we were doing and reporting.

As time for the district convention began approaching, it looked like we had a pretty good chance of being one of the top clubs in the district if not THE top one . . . according to the contest standards.

Non-payment of dues, understandably enough, was an auto-

Dream Becomes Reality --

Doctor Begins Practice In New Medical Clinic

A dream of many Bovina area people became a reality Monday morning.

Bovina's new medical clinic is staffed and open for business.

Dr. Cornelius Blesius, who agreed to practice medicine here several weeks ago, had the clinic open and was receiving patients.

Monday was actually supposed to be a day for adding final touches toward organization, the doctor said, but when some patients arrived they were treated and the practice was underway.

Assisting the doctor are Mrs. Frank (Hazel) Hemke and Mrs. Billy (Sandra) Johnson. Both have had previous hospital and/or clinic experience.

Mrs. Hemke will be in charge of the clinic laboratory and Mrs. Johnson will be receptionist-bookkeeper.

Equipment for the new clinic has been arriving during the past month. The last of the equipment arrived here and was in place and ready for use by last weekend.

Dr. Blesius furnished the equipment for the clinic except for the x-ray machine which was purchased by the clinic corporation which also controls the publicly-owned clinic building.

The clinic was constructed as a community project at a cost in the neighborhood of $50,000. It is being furnished to the doctor rent-free for a period of 12 months, beginning this month. In addition, the clinic board has agreed to pay the utility bills at the clinic for the first year.

Money to construct the clinic came from citizens of the community through donations. The main drive for the funds was conducted late last September.

Enough cash and/or pledges were donated at that time to assure that the clinic would be built. Land for the building was donated by the Langer family. It is located east of FM Road 1731 one block south of Highway 86.

The clinic project began with various fund-raising events with Bovina Woman's Study Club leading the way. Bovina Junior Chamber of Commerce, Bovina Roping Club and other organizations also contributed funds.

Sears - Roebuck Foundation

eventually entered into the planning. Sears provided the plans for the clinic building and a guide to use in raising the needed funds for its construction and assistance in obtaining a doctor for the community.

Contract for construction was let by the temporary board of directors to Sherrill Lumber Co.

As the building construction was completed this spring, Dr. Blesius indicated an interest in practicing here. A native of Germany, Dr. Blesius reached an agreement with the board and began purchasing equipment for the clinic.

The community's new doctor is 30 years old. He practiced in New Jersey for some nine months prior to coming to the Southwest to look for a location. He had been living in El Paso temporarily prior to moving to Bovina approximately a month ago.

Pledges Meeting Subject

Leaders of Bovina's community medical clinic project met Sunday afternoon in the school auditorium to plan action for collecting due and unpaid pledges to the clinic fund.

Mrs. Earl Whitten, secretary-treasurer of the clinic's board of directors, was in charge of the meeting.

She reported that approximately $4800 in pledges is presently outstanding with some $3600 of this amount now due.

Arrangements were made with members of the original collection committees to re-contact those people who still owe all or part of their pledges.

There is an immediate need for this money, Mrs. Whitten pointed out.

The collectors are expected to have their work done by the end of this week.

Cheerleaders To School At Texas Tech

Cheerleaders for Bovina High Mustangs for the 1968-'69 school year will leave Sunday for cheerleading school at Texas Tech in Lubbock according to the head cheerleader, Beth Hutto.

The girls will compete each night in cheerleading contests with schools in Class A.

Those attending the school are Miss Hutto, senior, head cheerleader, Darlene Murphy, freshman, Twila Hutto, freshman, Brenda Newbrough, sophomore, and Jan Gromowsky, who is a junior.

No Authorization Yet --

Fed Program Suffers Delay

The Community Action Program, which was scheduled to get underway here last month, has been delayed, announces Frank Latimer, of Dimmitt, coordinator of four such programs in this area.

The program is sponsored by the federal government and leaders had hoped it would get underway here by the first of July. It is comparable to the Head Start program for preschoolers which has been held here during the past few years, except that it involves training for adults.

Latimer indicated this week that the "program is alive and being worked on but no authorization to activate the centers has been received."

The program in Bovina is ready to start when authorization is received, the coordinator explained. "I'm just as disappointed as you people that the program is not in progress at this time," he said.

Two paid workers to lead the program have been named and will begin their duties when the program goes into effect.

Mrs. George Cervantez will be the program chief. Lorenzo Granado of Friona has been named the outreach worker for the program.

Mrs. Cervantez and Granado attended a training school concerning the program in Amarillo recently.

The program is set-up to operate for a period of one year here. That time will be extended indefinitely if the first year's work proves to be successful.

Total federal funds available for the year's program here are in excess of $9000. This is approximately 90 per cent of the overall cost. The 10 per cent of the cost which must be paid locally will be through the use of buildings. Office space for the program will be in The Blade Building on Third Street. St. Ann's Parish Hall will be used for classroom space teaching of groups. Use of the buildings will not be at the expense of the federal government.

The program will include instruction and/or classes on food purchasing, food preparation, food canning, clothing selection and sewing, health, sanitation, citizenship and other classes.

The agency here will be called a Multi-Purpose Service Center.

Bovina is one of four locations in the 18th Congressional District which has qualified for such an operation. Others are Tulia, Hart and Hereford.

The program is a part of the work of the Southwest Region of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

The primary aim of the program is to have skilled employment paid a decent wage. Other aims include better health, better housing, basic education, pre-vocational training, vocational training and on-the-job training.

Annual Event --

Okla. Lane Plans July 4 Celebration

The annual July 4 celebration for the Oklahoma Lane community will be held at the Community Center beginning at 3 p.m., Thursday, July 4.

Festivities will begin with a ball game featuring the small fry of the community. Following the children's ball game, men from the south part of the community will collide with men from the north part of the community in a base ball game. Other sports including volleyball will also be featured during the afternoon, according to Mrs. Robert White, president of the July 4 celebration committee.

Lemonade and ice cream will be served during the afternoon and a picnic (basket) meal will be served at 8:30 p.m. Each family is asked to bring a basket meal for the affair.

As is the custom each year, all oldtimers of the community will be recognized and a short program is planned. Guests are expected from several states and all persons who have ever lived in the Oklahoma Lane area are especially invited to be present for the festivities, since this is considered a homecoming for former residents.

Prior to the annual fireworks display, a short business meeting will be held at which time officers for the July 4 and Christmas celebrations will be elected.

Funeral Held For Former Businessman

Funeral services for Odell Henderson, about 58, a former Bovina businessman, were held Friday afternoon at Olton at the Eastside Church of Christ. Henderson died of a heart attack in Colorado, where he was living.

Henderson and his wife owned and operated the variety store in Bovina in the early '60's. He purchased the store from Stacy Queen and Mrs. Kate Queen in '61.

He was a member of the Church of Christ and had been preaching for the past few years.

When he moved from Bovina, he went in the variety store business in Dimmitt.

According To Amount Of Water --

School Tax Change Deadline July 15

Farmland owners in Bovina Independent School District are reminded that they have until July 15 to have their land re-evaluated for school tax purposes, announces Wendol Christian, chairman of the tax equalization board.

Recent decisions by the equalization board have allowed land to be classified according to the amount of irrigation water it has. Some farms, in weak water area, may be entitled to a lower valuation and thus less taxes, according to Christian. Taxpayers should go to the school tax office in Ridgelea Elementary Building and sign an affidavit proclaiming the amount of water available on their farms. This action needs to be taken prior to the July 15 deadline. After that time, the (Continued on Page 2)

When we arrived at the convention, which was at Hereford that year if we remember correctly, there was a search on for us by district officials. We optimistically hoped that they would tell us that our club had won the contest.

You guessed it. That wasn't what they wanted to tell us at all. They said our delegates couldn't be made a part of the convention until our club's dues were paid.

That "informality" we mentioned earlier had eaten us up again. Because our dues weren't paid on the district level, our club hadn't even been considered in the contest judging.

We wrote a hot personal check for the dues just so the Bovina club members could be eligible to attend the convention and then rushed home and got club money from the club treasurer, who hadn't paid the dues in the first place, to cover our check.

We didn't deserve to finish high in the contest, anyway, but it was disappointing to be disqualified on such a technicality.

Shucks, we had the money and had meant to pay -- we just hadn't gotten around to it yet, that's all.

That story sounds pretty weak, however, when you're explaining it to a sober-expressed Lions Club official who has a contrary set of rules to go by.

He just accepted our check and disregarded our story.

The Lions Club here is a great organization in spite of its informality, not because of it.

Tax Change --

Under the new tax arrangement, bulk of the irrigated farmland which has water in the six to eight inch category, is valued at $85 per acre.

The top land with eight to 10 inch water, and there is little in this classification, Christian says, is valued at $95 per acre. Figuring this valuation times last year's tax rate of $1.82 per $100 valuation, the tax on an acre would be $1.73. This figure was incorrectly reported last week as being 10 times that amount.

At Home In Parmer County

By CRICKET B. TAYLOR
County HD Agent

Eight Friona 4-H girls have recently completed a 4-H project, Money Management, under the leadership of Mrs. Earl Jameson. A timely subject, this is, especially for the young boy and girl. It does give these youngsters an insight into the importance of knowing how to handle money. Some adults never learn and thus are always in "money trouble", while others learn after some sad experiences as adults.

Clothing 4-H project groups are busy trying to complete requirements and be ready for the judging on July 18. It is amazing what some of these 4-H'ers can learn to do at such an early age, especially when interested parents are giving the needed cooperation and help.

CREDIT CARDS--thirty days to reality! A credit card makes it easy to obtain credit and charge anything from gasoline to vitamin pills. There are travel and entertainment credit cards--these are geared mostly to high income groups.

Advantages of using credit cards:

1. No need to carry a lot of cash--however a checking account or travelers checks can eliminate this in many cases.

2. Convenient payment--can write one or two large checks rather than several.

3. Sometimes it simplifies bookkeeping--if statement is itemized--if not, it is more difficult to tell how much is being spent.

4. One can take advantage of sales--however too often this results in impulse buying which might not occur if restricted to paying cash.

Some disadvantages of using credit cards:

May pay more. Cost of credit can be as much as 18% or more. Inflation. Extension of credit can result in price rise to cover cost of service.

Credit card customers spend more and purchase more expensive items than do cash customers. Overspending--one of greatest dangers in use of credit cards is that monthly bills can become staggering without consumer being aware of it.

MR. AND MRS. WILBUR CHARLES . . . Today.

Reception From 3 to 6 p.m. --

Charles Observe 50th Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Charles, residents of Bovina for 41 years, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, July 7, at their home on Farm Road 1731.

A reception will be given from 3 to 6 p.m., honoring the couple. Their five children will host the courtesy.

The couple was married July 5, 1918 at Alva, Okla.

Nettie Morton, was born in Raccoon, Indiana. Her family moved to Alva, Oklahoma for her mother's health. They chose MR. AND MRS. WILBUR CHARLES . . . Yesterday.

Alva so the children could attend college there. The college was equivalent to a junior college of today. C. A. Morton, Nettie's father, worked at a variety of odd jobs to provide for his family of eight.

Wilbur was born to Mr. and Mrs. James Charles at Wichita, Kansas. He lived there until he was 14 years old when the family moved to Tangier, Okla. James Charles was a carpenter.

The couple met at Wilbur's home where Nettie, along with several other school teachers, boarded. Nettie was teaching at a three-teacher school and boarding at the Charles home.

Wilbur says, "She was pretty clever, she used to ask Mother to let her help cook supper." He also says he remembers taking her riding in a two-wheel cart. He said that after they married they were too poor to have a wedding picture taken, that they just had enough money to get home to the farm.

They made their home in Tangier, Okla. on a farm for several years.

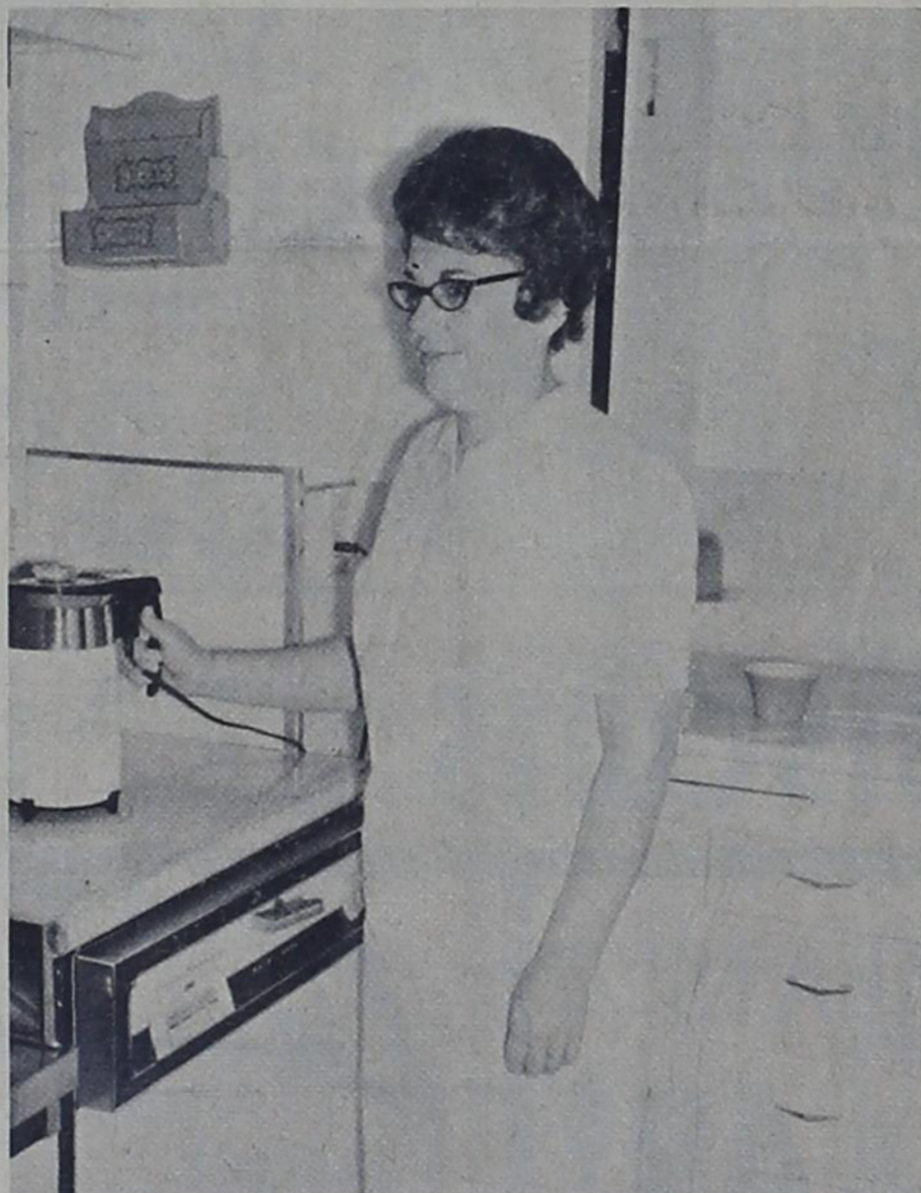

In 1926, Wilbur came to Bovina and "Broke sod and made a crop" on the place now resided on by Howard Looney. In January of the next year, Mrs. Charles arrived and they lived there until 1938 when they moved to a farm site west and north of Bovina. In 1954 the couple partially retired and moved to town. They built their home on the Oklahoma Lane Farm Road.

The couple has been active members of Bovina Methodist Church since 1921 and Wilbur has been on the official board since that time.

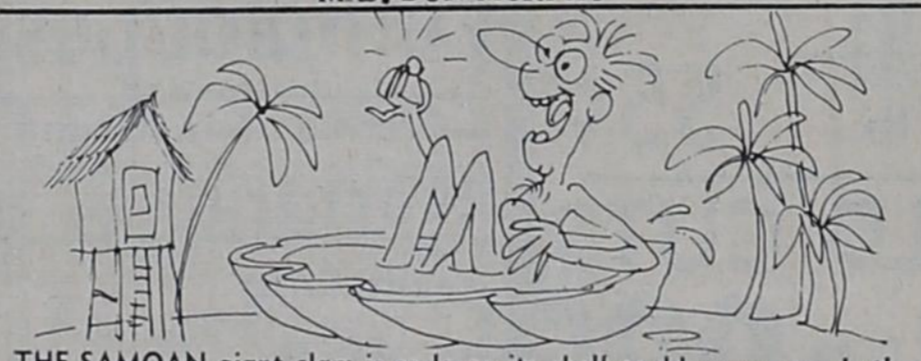

He is at present Bovina's Justice of Peace.

The couple have five children, Ellen Estes of Bovina, Harry Jay of Bovina, Mary Elizabeth Kaminski of San Jose, Calif.; Mark of Kansas, City, Kan. and Jimmy of Parsons, Kan.

They are looking forward to visiting with old friends at the reception Sunday afternoon and request that no gifts be brought.

"I wish to report that summer pledge collections are running a little better than usual; which is, of course, none too good."

Independence Day

Independence Day, July 4, reminds us of our history and heritage as a nation. The themes of patriotism and freedom are appropriately sounded to celebrate the Fourth. We review the Declaration of Independence and give thanks for the "rights" and "freedoms" guaranteed by our constitution.

But we do not go far enough. We do not inquire as to the DUTIES that accompany these "rights" and "freedoms." One can never claim the privilege of freedom without accepting the responsibility of citizenship in a free society. Everyone seems to be demanding his rights; few seem to be demanding a job to perform for the good of society as a matter of civic duty. Further there are many duties which must be taken seriously by all of us if "freedom" is to continue. We speak here of the duty to be informed, to study and know the principles of government, to vote, etc. To do such things and be responsible citizens will strengthen our nation and preserve our nation.

Let us remember our "rights" and "freedoms": Let us inquire what is our duty.

All-Star Game, Melon Feed Set For Fourth

Bovina Gin-Tuloma picked up two more wins last week in Little League play and remained undefeated through Monday night. The club now has a 9-0 mark with two regularly-scheduled games and a make-up game remaining.

The league-leaders clipped the cellar team, Custom Farm Services, 16-5, Tuesday night and outran First State Bank-Lawlis Gin, 21-16, Thursday night.

Bovina Wheat Growers-Bovina Insurance, the second place team in the four-team league, downed C.F.S. in Friday night's game, 13-2. Monday night, Bank-Lawlis had an easy time of winning over C.F.S., 15-1.

In Peeewe League action, Sherrill Lumber - Bonds Oil continued undefeated also. That team has now won eight games in succession. The team had a narrow escape Monday, however, as it eeked out a 4-3 verdict over The Bovina Blades.

Thursday night's peeewe game had Big Nick's Little Machines winner over the Blades by a 10-6 count.

This is the last week of league play for both the Little League and the Peeewe. Final games in each loop are set for Monday night.

An all-star Little League game is slated for tomorrow (Thursday). It will begin at 8 p.m. and will pit players from the first and fourth place teams against the second and third place teams.

Bovina Gin Co. is sponsoring a watermelon feed for the players and their coaches following the all-star game. All players in the baseball program, in all three divisions, are invited to the watermelon eating, says Johnie Horn, manager of the gin. The feed will be at the gin.

The following standings include games through Monday night.

HEIFER HORMONE (MGA)

The synthetic hormone Mele-genstrol Acetate (MGA) has been approved as a feed additive by FDA. This hormone suppresses estrus and prevents heifers from coming into heat. It also acts as a growth promoter. Texas A & M has not conducted research using MGA but results from other states look good.

Heifers fed MGA have averaged 11.1 percent heavier weights and increased feed efficiency by 7.8 percent over those not getting any hormones. Averages of all trials where diethylstilbestrol (DES) was fed at 10 milligrams per head per day show MGA improved average weight gains by 5.8 percent and feed efficiency by 7.1 percent over heifers fed DES. Results so far show no significant differences in carcass.

MGA is recommended at the .30 to .40 milligram level per heifer per day in the feed mixture. FDA requires that heifers be taken off of MGA feed 48 hours prior to slaughter. MGA does not provide any benefit to steers.

MGA will be marketed as a pre-mix to feed manufacturers who are approved by FDA.

SCREWWORM CASES CONTINUE TO INCREASE

Weather conditions continue to be almost ideal for the spread of screwworms and case numbers are climbing. Officials at the Mission Laboratory are emphasizing the need for producers to check their livestock very closely and to submit worm samples whenever worms are found.

While cases are most numerous in southern counties in Texas, positive identification of cases from as far west as Pecos County have been made. New Mexico, Arizona and California are also reporting an increase in case numbers.

Vials are available at the County Extension office for sending in screwworms to the laboratory for positive identifications.

Accident Injures 6

Six members of a Bovina family were hospitalized in Parmer County Community Hospital at Friona Saturday, June 22, following a two-vehicle collision three miles west of Bovina on Highway 60.

According to the investigating officer, Highway Patrolman Wayne Pierce, the accident occurred when the pickup in which the Bovina people were riding, driven by Santos Torres, Sr., attempted to make a left turn from the right lane and pulled in front of the other vehicle.

Special nickel stainless steel nails have been developed for attaching redwood and cedar siding. Available in colors to match the siding, the nails will not corrode and stain.

Blade Sawdust

Sometimes you can't win for losing. Billie Sudderth is moaning and groaning about kids and noise and all the jazz that goes with a swimming pool. He says he will be glad for us to have a swimming pool provided we put in my backyard instead of his. He noted that the noise would go on until 10 p.m., but with daylight saving time the sun isn't down by 10 so it might be worse yet.

He was referring to our mentioning here recently about a municipal swimming pool in the city park.

With wheat harvest in swing, we see the return of all the great antique vehicles. We notice farmers and farmers' wives looking haggard and hot due to no air conditioning in said vehicles. They seem to have an air that "we will survive but only because this matter is temporary."

But all those who drive a grain truck greatly appreciate their air conditioned automobiles when they get time to drive them again.

The return to a feminine look for women is evidenced with all the ruffles and frills on the new clothes. These are certainly feminine but after several years of shifts and no belts this is pure agony. The thought of wearing a dress with a waistline and a belt just sends us into spasms. But this is the way it goes with fashion, about the time they decide to give us comfortable shoes that don't pinch all our toes they decide that we must suffer some torture so back comes the belt. Wonder why we couldn't have just one year of comfortable shoes and dresses?

Guess without just a little torture all of us would get fat and sloppy so the buyers have to keep us on our toes.

One change of pace in fashion that leaves us gaping is the men's wear. They have become more flashy dressers than the women.

Out the door went conservative clothes and in came beads, bangles, double-breasted suits, plaid slacks and the works. When I mentally conjure up a picture of a local cowboy in beads, sandals and long hair, the thought is one of near hysteria. Guess we just grew up in the crew cut era and like to see nice clean-shaven men with short hair wearing shoes and socks.

The mark of a successful farmer in Bovina seems to be getting to the restaurant by nine o'clock in the morning to have coffee with the crowd.
