SCOTFIELD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS CLOSED SUCCESSFUL SESSION

The Scotfield Home School for Girls this week closed its eighth year with public exercises beginning last Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church when Dr. W. F. Dickey addressed the graduating class. His sermon was on the "Price of Ignorance" and was attentively heard by a congregation that filled the building to overflowing. The girls of the school were present in a body, all dressed in white and their voices sounded very sweet as they sang the professional and recessional.

Monday evening, at the school, Mrs. M. G. Noell, the English teacher, presented her pupils in one of the modern morality plays, "Every Girl." The outdoor setting lent an unusual charm to the whole affair, and the large audience enjoyed the cool breeze while they saw and heard a most attractive entertainment. Every one of the girls did her part well, speaking clearly and confident of her action. "Every Girl" was represented by Miss Dora Johnston, who showed the typical schoolgirl. The audience showed itself appreciative of all the actors, but gave special praise to Miss Georgia Bitterman for her presentation of "Doeful Dumps," a most difficult part, and to Miss Marie Bitterman who was the embodiment of "Laughter." A pantomime "Rory O'More" was given by two little girls, Elizabeth Clapp and Lois Ragland, and was much applauded. The three "School Dances" also came in for their share of approbation.

Tuesday evening the annual Recital presented all the music pupils in an opening chorus, "Happy Days," and the following at the piano: Misses Lois Ragland, Elizabeth Clapp, Marie Bitterman, Helen Aden, Nanette McKnight, Tilly Leinweber and Ellen Mason, and Florence Scofield and Miss Georgia Bitterman in readings. After the program Miss Scofield spoke briefly to the friends assembled and then the diplomas were presented with a few well chosen remarks by Dr. Dickey to the following graduates: Georgia Bitterman, Ouisa Dunbar, Mary Lewis, Tilly Leinweber, Nanette McKnight and Dora Johnston. A certificate was given Mammie Mastaglio for completion of College Entrance requirements in English only. The program was closed by beautiful music from two pianos played by the Misses Mason and Florence Scofield.

Wednesday morning the Gymnasium Class entertained their friends with an attractive drill with dumbbells, tennis rackets and marching, and then by performances on ladders and rings. This work has been carried on throughout the year, all out in the open air and sunshine, and partly accounts for the wonderful gain in weight, strength and appearance, especially of the hearing pupils.

An exhibit of work done by the pupils was examined at different times during the exercises by interested parents and friends, and that of the cooking class was catered up after the gymnasium exhibit. The neat and pretty garments made by the sewing class were examined by many, and Miss Moore's art class had a beautiful display, although most of them are beginners.

A Good Showing.

Some counties, like Bexar, are out of Class One already. This shows that the Local Boards of that populous county have granted too many exemptions. Now it is up to them to go into the deferred classes, and make up their quota of fighting men for each county must furnish its quota.

Kerr County has furnished its quota and with the men who have been voluntarily inducted into service all deducted has left 129 good fighting men ready and willing to go after the Kaiser.

See the difference in strictly following the regulations as compared to say the least, a loose interpretation of the law. The Kerr County Tax Commended for the Class One contingent, offered to take charge of the American troops welfare department of the British Government. His plans contemplate a continuous program of healthful recreation in every American rest camp and training camp in England. Special London theatrical companies will be sent out. An organization known as "Sammy's Blighty League" is being formed.

Boy Scout organizations are active in locating black walnut trees. Black walnut lumber is needed by the War Department for use in making airplane propellers and gunstocks.

FOUR MORE KERR COUNTY BOYS IN U. S. SERVICE

The Kerr County Local Board inducted, last Saturday, four Kerr County registrants under special calls as follows:

Nick Hagens, L. R. Allen and Elmer Real to stock department, and Bruno Spenrath to boiler-maker department.

Kerrville Loses to Bandera.

The base ball game played last Sunday between the Kerrville Athletics and the Bandera Batters on the latter's diamond resulted in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the Banderaites.

The contest was a hard fought one and though defeat came to the Athletics they are high in praise over the square deal and courteous treatment they received from their contestants.

Notice to Candidates.

All candidates for county and precinct offices in Kerr County, that desire to have their names placed upon the official ballot to be used in the Democratic primary election, will be required by law to file their application in due form with the County Chairman, not later than Saturday, June 15th.

AMERICAN AIRMAN TELLS OF FIGHTING EXPERIENCES

A Committee on Public Information representative in London says:

There are no better sportsmen in the world than the allied airmen, and American aviators now fighting in Europe always play a fair game, as they learn it from the allies. E. P. Magoun, a former Harvard student, now a member of the Royal air force, recently wounded, tells how the lives of German observers escaping from balloons have been spared.

"We caught three Hun balloons above the allied grounds in a mist, which prevented their gunners seeing us," said he. "It was a cinch. You should have seen them hustle out their parachutes and abandon the balloons. As they came falling down through the air we circled about closely but, of course, didn't open fire, as that's against the rules of the game. As soon as they touched ground they took cover like rabbits."

Magoun is the only American in his squadron, having joined in February of last year. He has bagged five German planes. While carrying bombs for low attack in the recent offensive he received a bullet through his left arm, but managed to return to his own lines. Magoun tells of a companion in his squadron who had one of the luckiest escapes during the war. He was put out of action at 1,600 feet in the air when a bullet perforated his gasoline tank. He was rendered unconscious by the fumes and his machine took a nose dive to earth, but he escaped without a scratch.

A section of the Royal air force operating in the Ypres salient has lost its only American member, who had been with the squadron only 10 days when he went on a bombing raid at low elevation. He was hit by a machine-gun bullet and his plane fell in flames. He was taken prisoner.

Efforts of newspapers to promote feeling between the people and the thousands of official backing and official backing of Randolph Baker, member of Congress, offered to take charge of the American troops welfare department of the British Government. His plans contemplate a continuous program of healthful recreation in every American rest camp and training camp in England. Special London theatrical companies will be sent out. An organization known as "Sammy's Blighty League" is being formed.

KERRVILLE REPRESENTED AT TEX-O-KAN HIGHWAY MEETING.

At a meeting held Friday evening of last week, the Kerrville Business Men's Club elected Arthur Real to represent Kerrville and Kerr County at a meeting of the Tex-O-Kan Highway Commission, which is to be held at Miami, Okla., June 6, 7 and 8.

Mr. Real left Monday for the meeting.

Zion, the Gorgeous.

Department of the Interior: President Wilson has enlarged the wonderful Mukuntuweap National Monument, in Utah, and changed its name. It is now officially known as the Zion National Monument, which is immeasurably better from every point of view.

The old name, besides being hard to pronounce and remember, was obscure in origin and was never used except officially. The new name is that in popular use. Besides, it crystallizes the romantic history of this amazingly beautiful valley; the surrounding country was settled by Mormons many years ago, and this difficult canyon was chosen as a refuge in the event of Indian attack, and called "Little" Zion to differentiate it from "big" Zion, which was Salt Lake City. Since then it has universally been called Zion Canyon.

The enlargement of the Zion National Monument follows naturally upon its recent thorough exploration and the discovery of outlying areas of altogether extraordinary scientific interest and scenic grandeur. That its fantastic cliffs, its sensational coloring and its romantic conformation will bring it National popularity as a result is manifest destiny. It has been called, for good reasons, "the little Grand Canyon" and "the desert Yosemite," but it is no miniature of either; its individuality is marked.

The original monument was created by proclamation in 1909, but, being well outside the highways of ordinary travel, it was not thoroughly explored until within the last two years. Official investigation and action promptly followed.

"Among the numerous geologic features of interest," wrote Secretary Lane to the President, "two deserve more than passing notice. The Vermilion Cliff, so called because of its brilliant color, famous, since the days of Maj. Powell's exploration, as one of the most remarkable in the world, an escarpment more than 100 miles long and so precipitous that it can be scaled in few places, passes through this monument. It consists of red sandstone 1,000 to 2,000 feet thick and overlaid by 1,000 feet of glistening white sand. These two form single cliffs nearly 3,000 feet high. These remarkable walls bear evidence that the sand gathered in a desert in ages long past—that here was a great prehistoric American Sahara.

"The second feature of unusual interest lies immediately above the sand, for the desert was destroyed by the incursion of sea water, which covered the drifting sand and buried it beneath gypsum and beds of limestone in which were entombed the shells and bones of sea animals."

The principal canyon, which is more than 15 miles long and varies from 50 feet wide in the Narrows to 2,500 feet wide in other portions, is a mighty cleft, as if the mountain had been violently riven asunder. The walls are inconceivably carried into domes, half domes, colonnades, and temples, forms which appealed strongly to the religious imagination of the early Mormons, who gave them names which appeal strongly to the imagination of today's tourist.

The tortuous outlying canyons and monumental rock formations added by the new proclamation make an area as remarkable in its particular way as the Grand Canyon. There are several neighboring natural bridges of magnificent.

Thrift Stamps are the way of the Government to help you save.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

Wednesday evening the friends and relatives of Miss Elizabeth Renschel and Mr. James Oliver Eastland assembled at the pretty home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Renschel, to witness the marriage of this popular couple.

The reception and drawing rooms of the spacious home were beautifully decorated with white daisies and candytuft. A beautiful display of wedding presents was the center of attraction as the guests assembled, and a glimpse of the dining room which bore decorations of sweet peas gave a picture of fairy-land in preparation for the bridal party and the cutting of the wedding cake.

Presently the happy chatter of the many voices ceased as Mrs. George M. Doyle, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Burney, sang "All for You" and "At the Dawning." To the strains of the wedding march the bridal party approached the altar. First came little Miss Elizabeth Eastland, scattering flowers, and Robert Renschel Jr., ring bearer; Misses Katherine Linell and Charibel Renschel, standard bearers; next entered the bride's maids, Misses Kate Renschel and Nina Redett, followed by matron of honor Mrs. B. F. Paine, sister of the groom; then came Misses May and Charlot Carpenter, Graves Dewees, Dora Johnston, Kate Hamilton and Gussie May Brown, as maids, who formed a circle around the central figures.

While Mrs. J. W. Burney softly played "To a Wild Rose" the wedding service was read by Rev. W. P. Dickey, D. D., and this happy couple were pronounced husband and wife.

The bride's veil was that which had been worn by her mother; her gown being beaded crepe over bronzed satin. Matron and maids wore light pink crepe de chine and carried bouquets of lilies and ferns. The staff bearers wore white organdy and the staffs bore boxes of pink maline. Miss Elsie Johnston, who was a chosen maid but being physically unable to take part, was placed near the bridal party.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dick Renschel, Marvin Renschel and Miss Kathrine Linell of Gonzales; Alois Coutret, Alois Coutret Jr. and Miss Ethel Coutret of Runge; Mrs. B. F. Paine, Meridian, Miss.; Lieut. Robert Renschel, Kelly Field, San Antonio, and Mrs. Carl Allen of Lake Charles, La.

After the cutting of the wedding cake refreshments were served and the whole party joined in extending congratulations and good wishes to the bride and groom.

About 9 o'clock, accompanied by Lieut. Robert Renschel, Mr. and Mrs. Eastland departed by automobile for San Antonio on their bridal trip, after which they will be at home at Meridian, Miss.

The good wishes as well as congratulations of a multitude of friends follow this popular young couple, and the only regret of Kerrville is that we have to give them up and let them go so far away, but we have to let other towns have some good people.

"Kaiser Fighters" Entertained.

The "Kaiser Fighters" were entertained by the club secretary, Charles Ray Newman, last Friday, May 31st, from 4 to 5 p. m.

An interesting program was rendered by the little tots, which would have done credit to much older boys and girls. Every one present answered to roll call by telling how many Thrift Stamps were bought since the last meeting—thirty-eight in all. After roll call several songs and readings were given, after which, to the surprise of all present, the secretary's aunt, Mrs. Cobron, treated the crowd to ice cream; and then the games and plays began, which kept the crowd happy and busy until time was called for breaking up.

The club, which numbers forty-eight members, will meet with the president, Florence Speckles, Friday, June 14th, from 4 to 5 p. m.

EXPECT TO APPREHEND ASSASSINS OF T. P. HART

San Antonio Express: Further details of the assassination of Thomas Paine Hart, a young attorney of Douglas, Ariz., who formerly lived here, have been brought back by Judge H. C. Geddie, who returned Monday night from a trip of investigation.

Mr. Hart was ambushed on his way from Douglas to the court in Tombstone, Ariz., at a lonely spot in the road and riddled with bullets. His death was met courageously and in the direct line of duty to his country, according to his friends, who knew of the circumstances, and of his almost certain knowledge that the men whom he was prosecuting as enemies of the Government would kill him.

Judge Geddie after a thorough investigation expressed the belief that young Hart was killed by several persons who lay in wait, knowing that he would pass that way in order to reach his court in Tombstone. The investigation is still going on and it is hoped that the murderers will be apprehended in the very near future.

Mrs. Laura B. Hart of San Antonio, mother of the dead attorney, was ill and unable to journey to Douglas when it was decided to make interment there. The funeral was held Thursday of last week.

An office has been opened at Red Cross Headquarters and the Secretary, Mrs. John Burney, will be on duty from 1 o'clock until 3 every day. All business with the Secretary should be transacted at that time.

I AM THE RED CROSS.

(By Henry P. Dowst.)

I am the symbol of the pity of God.
I burgeon upon the flaunting banner of victory and the drooping guidon of defeat.
I am the token of peace in the midst of battle, of gentleness shining through the sombre mists of hate.
I am a chevron on the sleeve of mercy, an honor mark set high upon the brow of compassion.
I am the color of blood spilled for democracy, the form of Christ's tree of agony, and my followers, at need, crucify themselves to make men live.
I carry the hope of life into the red pits of death, and a dying soldier salutes me and smiles as he goes to touch the hand of God Almighty.
I stand for the organized love of mankind, the co-ordinated impulses of young and old to do good, the sacred efficiency of human service.
I mark the flag under which are mobilized the forces of industry and finance, of church and school, of capital, of labor, of genius and of sinew.
I am Civilization's Godspeed to those who defend her; I am the message from home.
I am the symbol of the pity of God.
I am the Red Cross.

Y. M. C. A. AND RED CROSS LIFE SAVERS FOR SOLDIERS

Extract from a letter written by Preston Everheart to his sister, Mrs. John S. Butler:

"Sister: If the people of the States knew how much the Red Cross helps the soldiers there would be more Red Cross workers and more cheerful givers. There were sixteen of us on a trip a few days ago and we had been riding about forty-eight hours traveling third class, and it isn't any too comfortable when we have plenty of room, and being crowded up as we were made us pretty tired. I had a sick headache. The truth is I felt just like I was going to die and didn't care much if I did. We came to a place where we had to change cars. We had to lay over from 10:30 p. m. to 5 a. m. There was a Red Cross station there and they made coffee and sandwiches at that late hour. They did not stop at that. They gave us perfectly good beds to sleep on. One of the ladies had some aspirin tablets for her own use, and she gave me one of them and my headache was gone in the morning. It sure made a soft spot in my heart for the Red Cross. The Y. M. C. A. and the Red Cross are life savers for the soldiers. Please write soon. Letters count more than anything else. Your soldier brother, PRESTON."

Chronic Constipation.

Perhaps you have never thought of it, but this disorder is due to a lack of moisture in the residual matter of the food. If you will drink an abundance of water, eat raw fruits and take lots of outdoor exercise, you may be able eventually to overcome it entirely. In the meantime use the most mild and gentle laxatives. Strong and harsh cathartics take too much water out of the system and make a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Tablets are easy and pleasant to take, and most agreeable in effect. Give them a trial.

The Mineral Oil Treatment for Constipation

Was First Advocated by a Famous English Surgeon and Now by Eminent Physicians Everywhere

Mineral Oil is an excellent lubricant for the intestinal tract. In other words, it acts as a substitute for the mucous which exiguous nature failed to supply. It relieves constipation in a natural way and its use for a limited time will overcome the trouble permanently. We have just received a fresh supply of the best and heaviest of this oil. It is a colorless, odorless and tasteless preparation. It is slow but sure in action and leaves no bad after effects. We consider this oil equal to the famous Russian Mineral Oils which are not now available.

"Infallible" Rules About Women.

Danraven Beal has compiled ten rules about women which he says are infallible. We have some hesitation in printing anything infallible in this department, because some one is sure to contradict it, but here goes:

1. Women think second-hand base stores are "dirty."
2. They are very witty, but they have no sense of humor.
3. They ask unanswerable questions and then answer them.
4. They are annoyingly pretty.
5. They eat too much.
6. They believe what they say and say it too often.
7. They marry some one else.
8. They like the house to be "tidy."
9. They think you can't get on without them.
10. You can't.

Baptist Church Notes.

There was manifested a splendid interest in all of the services last Sunday.

On Monday night the pastor baptized some converts for the Mexican Baptist Church. This church is doing a fine work among their people.

The services on next Sunday will be of special importance in the work of the church. Every member of the church in Kerrville should be present at the 11 o'clock service. The pastor desires at that time to lay his hands on the heads of the members of the church, a vital importation of the Holy Spirit.

To All Who Eat—Eat Fish

SHIPMENTS OF MEAT ABROAD INCREASING VASTLY; NATION ON A VOLUNTARY MEAT RATION; HELP THE NATION BY EATING FISH.

Below are some recipes showing manner of preparing fish in many styles, which no doubt will be very welcome to the housewife who is conserving meat.

BOILED FISH

Clean and boil on fish rack or tie in cheesecloth, 5 to 8 minutes per pound, according to thickness of fish. Place on hot platter. Remove skin and garnish with parsley and lemon. Serve with Hollandaise Sauce and Parsley Potatoes. A sauce is a necessary accompaniment to boiled fish.

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

- 1/2 Cup peanut oil
- Yolks of 2 eggs
- 1 Teaspoonful lemon
- 1/4 Teaspoonful salt
- Speck cayenne
- 1/3 Cup boiling water.

Place all ingredients except hot water in upper part of double boiler. Stir constantly until begins to heat, then add the water and cook until slightly thickened. Chopped cucumbers which have been drained of their liquor may be added just before serving.

PARSLEY POTATOES

Boil old or new potatoes, then roll in butter and chopped parsley. Season with salt and paprika. Do not serve butter with bread at this meal, as enough fat has been utilized in the above dishes to meet dietary needs.

BROILED FISH

Clean and wipe dry—sprinkle with salt and pepper and place in well-greased broiler until done. Slices of fish should be turned often while broiling. Whole fish broil first on flesh side, then turn and broil on skin side till skin is crisp and brown. Remove carefully to hot platter.

Brush with butter and lemon juice and sprinkle over with chopped parsley. Broiling is one of the most delectable ways of preparing fish.

FISH SOUFFLE

- 4 Tablespoonful rice flour
- 4 Tablespoonful fat
- 1 Cup skim milk
- 1 Cup flaked left-over fish
- 3 Eggs
- 1 Teaspoonful salt
- 1/2 Teaspoonful pepper
- Few drops lemon juice.

Make white sauce from the flour fat and milk and seasonings.

Add the beaten yolks to sauce. Add fish and lemon juice. Fold in the stiffly-beaten egg whites, place in a greased baking dish and bake in slow oven until firm.

FISH STEW

- 1 cup cooked native fish—flaked
- Arrange in layers in casserole with
- 2 cooked potatoes—sliced or diced
- 2 tomatoes—sliced, or 1/2 cup stewed tomato
- Season with
- 1 tablespoonful fat
- few grains pepper or paprika
- 1 tablespoonful chopped parsley, add
- 1 cup milk.

Cover casserole with buttered substitute bread crumbs. Bake 1/2 hour.

LIFE OF CHILD IN LIFE OF MILK

Now Is the Time to Make Use of a Food Made Abundant by Green Fields and Ripening Grain—No "Little One" Should Be Stinted of Its Milk Ration—Germany Saves Her Children by Saving Her Milk for Their Use; SO MUST WE.

The Food Administration desires to secure economy in the consumption of all kinds of meats without the reinstating of the Meatless Day. There is now an abundance of milk products which can well be substituted in various forms for meat.

If less milk is used, less milk will be produced. Farmers will be obliged to sell their dairy cattle because of the high cost of feeding them, and the failure to find a market for the product, and this country will face the same conditions from which the people of Europe are now suffering. Milk is a cheap animal food. There is at the present time a surplus of both cheese and butter. If these are not used an important outlet for surplus milk has been removed and milk production will diminish.

Where possible, provision should be made to supply each child in the family with a quart of clean, wholesome milk a day. For each adult a pint is desirable when the meat consumption is low. Children should have whole milk, adults may use milk and cheese in place of meat. The present prices of butter have made many families refrain from using it. Those who are able to purchase it should do so. Unless all members of the family are using whole milk, they need some butter in the diet. If the family must economize, the amount of butter may be reduced, but the amount of milk should be correspondingly increased to secure the right total of the fat of an able growth-promoting substances. The use of butter and cheese should be encouraged since the storage of milk in these forms is an important method of conserving an unmarketable surplus of this food.

E. A. PEDEN,
Federal Food Administrator for Texas.

TEN INSPECTORS AND THREE THRESHERMEN ADDED TO FOOD STAFF.

The inspectors of the State Food and Drug Department have been placed at the disposition of the Federal Food Administration for Texas, and in all ten inspectors have been officially deputized by the Food Administration to supervise on food sales over the State. These ten inspectors plus the agents of the Department of Justice who are continually at the disposal of the Food Administration gives to the State Administrator a splendid nucleus for this department of the State work.

The personnel of the inspectors from the Food and Drug Department now federalized consists of Dr. W. H. Minton, Houston; Richard Hudson, Houston; R. A. Buford, Austin; R. H. Hoffman, Austin; D. F. Snyder, Austin; Tom H. Johnson, Round Rock; E. M. Golaz, Austin; Andy Byas, Fort Worth; Jow Fahne, Austin, and C. M. Cocconougher, Denton.

SIDEWALK AND RAILROAD TRACK JOBBERS MUST BE LICENSED.

The attention of the Federal Food Administrator has been called to the fact that in some and probably all of the cities of Texas parties are engaged in the business of buying up rejected shipments of commodities, or buying directly from producers, and selling the same to retailers on sidewalks or at the railroad tracks.

All persons so engaged are jobbers, the Administration announces, and if the commodity handled is one licensed under the president's proclamation, such handling can not be legally done without a license issued by the United States Food Administration. Those who contemplate continuing or engaging in such business practice hereafter will do well to apply immediately to the License Division of the U. S. Food Administration at Washington for a license.

Anyone engaging hereafter in such a business without having previously obtained or applied for a license will be liable to criminal prosecution of a serious character.

Cincinnati Man Tells How to Shrive Up Corns or Calluses, So They Lift Off With Fingers.

Ouch ! ? ! ? ! ? ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn or hardened callus stops soreness at once, and soon the corn or callus dries up and lifts right off without pain.

He says freezone dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since in the inauguration of the high heels. If your druggist doesn't have freezone tell him to order a small bottle for you.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop Using Dangerous Drug Before It Salivates You! It's Horrible.

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful to-night. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

The Doctor Away From Home When Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like pain in the stomach and bowels, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life.

NEGLECTED SOLDIERS.

Texas Monthly Review: One of the arguments advanced for the primary suffrage bill was that it was needed as a war measure. So many patriotic men were going into service that the patriotic women were needed to stand behind the boys in the trenches, as well as the ballot box as in the home, the hospital or any other field of usefulness. So said the suffragists, and the lawmakers heeded. Strangely enough, while giving suffrage to women, they failed to confer it upon the very soldiers to help whom the women asked suffrage.

It is difficult to estimate the number of Texans of voting age who will be unable to vote in July because of somebody's blunder. It is difficult, too, to understand why a "war session" of the Texas Legislature closed without the enactment of a soldiers' suffrage bill.

Patriotism was the keynote of the session. Legislation of drastic character was practically unopposed because of a general desire to be helpful to the Nation. Almost anything offered as a war measure was sure of success. Yet the opportunity to allow the boys in khaki to assist in decision of public questions, to have a voice in the selection of the men who will govern their State while they fight for State and Nation in the fields of France, was allowed to pass.

Major Townes, in charge of the selective draft in Texas, some time ago estimated the number of Men in Class I in this State at 100,000. Since that estimate was made public, the draft machinery has functioned rapidly. Perhaps all these men will be in service, either by selection or through accepting such opportunities of early enlistment as are offered; in time to prevent their participation in the naming of Texas' officials. But thousands of Texas boys already were in service before Major Townes' estimate was made. Thousands were in the Guard when war was declared. Thousands more rushed to the Army and became Regulars or Guardsmen after war was declared. Many of them had been taken into the National Army before the new classification for men of draft age was adopted. Add to all these the thousands of men who have joined the new National Guard—now practically organized—and some conception may be had of the great number of Texas men who will be unable to vote this year.

So far as the soldiers themselves are concerned, they gladly gave up certain civilian privileges to enter the Army and others will continue to do so, as they should. But to have accorded them the privilege of voting would have been a graceful action for the lawmakers, an action which would, undoubtedly, have met with the approval of the citizenship.

And, surely, no class can more intelligently "stand by the soldiers" in so far as that can be done at the ballot box, than the soldiers themselves. Canada allows her soldiers to vote, wherever they are. Many States have provided, at one time or another, for soldiers voting. The special session offered an opportunity for something of the kind being done for Texas soldiers. And that opportunity was allowed to pass.

Money is not scarce; perhaps it is more plentiful now than for many years past. But real estate dealers tell us they can't sell property, and realty values are placed so high they can't afford to buy on speculation.

Our other cash subscriber over at Leakey writes to ask us: "Can a gentleman and a christian enter politics?" Certainly, the same as the church; but, when those who are neither gentlemen nor christians get the upper hand, politics suffers. So does the church.

We notice most of our farmer friends prefer to discuss their crops this year than their politics. Maybe they think there is more money in crops than politics. At present farm product prices it seems to us there is more money in farming than any other business.

A hoe handle is about the same length as a billiard cue, and, with the same practice, we don't see why a man can't learn to handle one as skillfully as the other. There was never a better chance to get a little hoe practice than right now.

When politics gets so dirty that opposing candidates have to denounce, accuse and prove each others liars and thieves no decent man or woman can afford to mess with it. There is a high plane to politics if candidates choose to keep upon it, and those of office seekers who do not are not fit to be trusted by the people.

The educational institutions of the State should be kept at the highest standard possible. To do this of course costs money, but a dollar spent for education is never wasted, provided reasonable wisdom is exercised. It is not reasonable wisdom to employ inefficient teachers because they come cheap. An efficient teacher is worth all the State can afford to pay, for the university or the log school house.

Well, it's too late to advise the farmer not to plant too much cotton; he has planted just what he wanted to anyhow. Besides, we didn't offer him any advice before he planted. We thought he knew his own business; that any farmer who needed our advice wasn't much farmer anyway. But there is one thing certain—whether he planted much or little, he is going to get a dick-nailing good price for it, if all present signs do not fail.

Up to the time of going to press, the B. Moore of Palestine is the only candidate for Lieutenant Governor who has seen fit to go to the people with his candidacy. Moore has spoken all over Texas and when the polls close July 27th, the State will have more votes to his credit than any other candidate for Lieutenant Governor. Drive a peg here.

Then, the Standifer, formerly of Sherman and later of Houston, died recently in Portland, Oregon. Standifer was quite a noted character in Texas politics. He was first elected to the Legislature from Grayson County and afterwards served in the same capacity from Harris County. He was one of the original good roadmen of Texas and along with the writer succeeded in getting a bill through the Lower House of the Twenty-eighth Legislature to place short term convicts on the public roads, which was later talked to death in the Senate by Judge Peckins of Cherokee County. Standifer was a prince among men. A true and loyal friend. Peace to his ashes.

Nolan County recently went wet—it rained. Both pros and antis are rejoicing. The old man who, though barely able to feed and clothe his family, always keeps a couple of dogs, and who never fails to run away from a drouth, tells us he is now getting ready to go back to Nolan. He tells us Nolan is one of the finest counties in Texas—when it rains. He reminded us that he has seen crops fail right here in Kerr County, when it didn't rain. He remembers well the newcomer of fifty years ago who remarked that "all Texas lacked was good society and plenty of water to make it the finest country in the world." He also remembers the old Texan who replied to the newcomer: "Seems ter me that's about all Hell lacks." He tells us Texas no longer lacks the good society, especially in Nolan County; but the Legislature or somebody has got to see to it that we get more regular seasons. He promised to give our regards to Brother Hill and Sister Estrell on his return.

LOOKING OVER THE CANDIDATES

H. B. Terrell, in Texas Monthly Review: As noted elsewhere in this issue of The Review, Governor Hobby has opened his campaign for the nomination for Governor.

Ferguson has been on the stump for some time and word comes from North Texas that Henry Clark has also been heard from. Thus the campaign for Governor is now on and it bids fair to be a real campaign, for both Ferguson and Hobby have strong followings and from all indications the fight is to be a hot one with the heat increasing with each day until the campaign closes.

Ferguson has spoken from Mount Pleasant to El Paso and from Dallas to Galveston, and has given it out that he will be on the firing line regularly till the fight is over. Hobby has made only a few speeches but it is understood that he is to take the stump for keeps. In addition to Ferguson and Hobby there will soon be seen the greatest array of orators ever out in any campaign in Texas and they will be found on both sides of the controversy.

For Hobby there will be Walter Crawford of Beaumont, Tom Ball of Houston, M. H. Wolfe of Dallas, A. D. Rogers of Wise County, F. F. Hill of Denton and about a hundred other lesser lights. Earl Mayfield and Ben F. Looney have not yet tendered their services.

For Ferguson will be found such seasoned campaigners as T. H. McGregor, C. C. McDonald, Clarence Martin, B. Y. Cummings, W. A. Hanger, W. P. Sebastian, Lud T. Williams, and fifty others who are anxious to get in the spot light. Ferguson is attacking the Legislature as a whole and each Senator who voted against him in their respective districts. Hobby has the backing of a great many of the members of the Legislature and the support of probably 75 per cent of the Press and as indicated above, notwithstanding the interest in the war is overshadowing that of politics, this race will be at fever heat long before the last stretch is reached. It might as well be said now as later that there will be no second primary in the Governor's race unless others enter, for, on account of the number of votes that will be cast this year, since the women are to vote, what would heretofore be a close race with a possible majority of 30,000 to 50,000 votes will be won by 50,000 or 100,000, and it will not be surprising, with the three men now running, to see a majority of 100,000 votes to the credit of the successful candidate.

Aside from the Governor's race there is no interest whatever shown in the campaign for State offices. In the Attorney General's race there are three candidates, namely, C. M. Cureton, John W. Woods and Marshall Spooner. The candidacies of these men were all discussed in the last issue of The Review. Spooner seems to be making an active campaign, as Cureton, though the time is so limited that neither will be able to get over much territory. Woods does not seem to be active, though possibly he will be heard from a little later on.

In the State Treasurer's race John W. Baker is again opposing Joe Edwards and while neither has become active thus far it is conceded that the present incumbent, Edwards, has the best of the situation, for he is well known and his record as Treasurer cannot be assailed. Through his keen insight in suggesting to the Legislature the passage of a law authorizing the State to invest its surplus cash in Government securities of short duration he is now securing for the people of Texas more than $1,000 a day in interest on money that would have otherwise remained idle in the vaults. Not only this but it enables the Federal Government to get this money which it so badly needed.

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Fred W. Davis, is being opposed by H. A. Halbert of Coleman, who is making the race on the fact that he is a real farmer. Halbert grows pecans on his farm near Coleman and has done so for thirty years. He has opposed Davis for this office at every election since 1914. Halbert contends that a practical farmer should be at the head of this department.

Davis is asking for re-election on his record as Commissioner, believing that he has rendered the people valuable service and he feels that now, if ever, a man at the head of that great department can render material service to the Government in its campaign for greater food production. Davis is energetic and aggressive and never fails to put his heart into the work at hand.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. F. Doughty, seems to have a clear field. Rumors were afloat recently that he was to be opposed but so far no announcement has appeared. Doughty's friends claim that he has done more for the rural schools than any man who ever held that office. Certain it is that the country schools are in better condition than ever before in the history of the State.

For the seat on the Court of Criminal Appeals, to be vacated by Judge Prendergrast next January, there is much competition. Prendergrast was appointed to this court by Tom Campbell and afterwards elected. He is voluntarily retiring this year and will remove to Waco, his old home, and engage in private practice. Judges Davidson and Morrow hold over. For the vacancy there are four candidates, State Senator Lattimore, Judge Pippin of the District Court of Dallas, Judge Wm. Pierson of Greenville and Judge Ham Ward of San Antonio. Lattimore is well known over the State and has been a leader among the prohibition forces of the State for years. Pierson once served a couple of terms in the Legislature and more recently served six years as District Judge of Hunt County. Pippin sprang into notoriety in 1916 when a bunch of lawyers and business men of Dallas decided somebody must be drafted in the campaign for District Judge to beat Dwight Levellyn, the fellow who made more speeches in the Legislature than any twenty members combined. It is said that he never allowed a bill to pass without offering an amendment or making a speech. When Pippin was selected to oppose Levellyn it was thought that he had no chance but his friends put him over by some thirty odd votes. The vote was so close that Levellyn talked of a contest. Pippin is a good campaigner. Ham Ward is well known in South Texas, and is said to be a lawyer of much ability. He was once a member of the Attorney General's staff. With three strong men in North Texas opposing him his friends in South Texas think he can land.

In the Congressional races over the State little or no interest is aroused except in a few instances. In the Second District, which has been represented for the past ten years by Martin Dies and prior to that time by Bronson Cooper, there is a spirited contest on. Dies made the race two years ago against preparedness and came near being defeated by C. W. Howth, an unknown lawyer of Beaumont. Afterwards war was declared and the people of that district are fighting man. Martin Dies decided to retire to his farm on Copon Creek. Judge Steve King, whom Ferguson appointed to the new Court of Civil Appeals at Beaumont, is a candidate for Dies' seat. State Senator Collins of Beaumont and Representative George C. O'Brien of Beaumont have also indicated a desire to represent the "pinney woods" district at Washington.

Up in Cherokee County, the home of the Elberta peach, there lives a lawyer who looks and talks like William Jennings Bryan; his name is Judge J. C. Box, and his home is at Jacksonville. He was once a preacher of the gospel, later an ordinary country lawyer, and then a railroad lawyer, having for awhile been associated with Baker, Boats, Parker & Garwood of Houston. He, too, feels that the "pinney woods" has long been in need of a real statesman at Washington and has volunteered for the nomination of the war. Box and Collins stand for everything that Steve King and much that O'Brien never stood for. Both are good campaigners, but in each other's way. O'Brien is related to the Chiltons and is well hooked up in East Texas, and will poll a good vote. He was against the impeachment of Ferguson in the Legislature. King is known as a warm friend of Ferguson. He has represented his district in the House and in the Senate and is now on the Court of Civil Appeals. He is one of the best campaigners in East Texas, and has kin folk in every justice precinct over the district. He was raised in the upper end of the district and now lives in the extreme southern part of the City of Beaumont. He will get the bulk of the vote of Ferguson supporters and that means much in that district. He will be in the second primary and pretty well on his way to Washington.

Collins in all probability will run off the race with King, and thus Beaumont will continue to have the Congressman from Cooper's old district.

Out in the El Paso district, Claude Hudspeth is being opposed by Zach Cobb, Wilson's Customs Collector at El Paso. Hudspeth and Cobb have been political enemies for years. Cobb says he has always stood for woman suffrage and prohibition, but out in El Paso the people knew nothing of his attitude on these important matters until recently. The issues are quite clearly drawn and the fight is to the bitter end. Even money is being bet on the result in the district and that is true also of El Paso County. Hudspeth has a record of sixteen years in the House and Senate at Austin and is well known throughout his district. Cobb has little personal acquaintance and is depending on the prohibition wave and the women's vote to land him in Congress. Hudspeth voted against Ferguson and that is hurting him in some parts of the district. This probably has much to do with the fact that many of Hudspeth's closest friends have become active for Ferguson as that will tend to soften Ferguson's feeling toward Hudspeth and cause many of his followers to support him. Anyway, in El Paso, many of Claude Hudspeth's closest personal and political friends are whooping it up for Ferguson. Hudspeth ought to win this race, and we believe he will.

Over in Slayden's district, State Senator Charles Bee and Mayor Roy Miller of Corpus Christi are contesting that Congressman's right to draw mileage and per diem longer from the Federal Government. Slayden has been in Congress for about sixteen years and has been opposed by some very strong men but always managed to win. Carlos Bee opposed Ferguson in the Senate and it is said that as a result of that fight he will lose many of his strongest supporters in Bexar County. Roy Miller is a live wire and would make a good Congressman. He has pus Corpus Christi on the map. Living, as he does, in the thinly settled portion of the district the fight will be against big odds. Then there's the sentiment of retaining Congressmen during the war to overcome. All in all, it looks like Slayden for two more years.

At the last moment Miss Annie Webb Blanton of Denton announced her candidacy for State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Miss Blanton is a well known educator and was once president of the State Teachers' Association. She is a sister of Congressman Blanton. Her announcement is the result of an unsuccessful effort to smoke the present incumbent, Doughty, out on the gubernatorial race. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction has refused to take part in the Governor's race, holding that his office has nothing whatever to do with the executive office. In this he is eminently correct and the people will sustain his course when they have a say. Not only that, but it is poor politics on the part of the friends of any candidate for Governor to try to force all candidates for State offices to declare a preference for a gubernatorial candidate. Let every tub stand on its own bottom. No candidate for a State office should ever make a public declaration of preference.

The Day of Reckoning.

Saturday Evening Post: We once read of a bank president who was on his way to the penitentiary after having attempted to corner the Chicago wheat market. He set out, he said, merely to buy a big line of May wheat, expecting to sell it in sixty days or so at a handsome profit. But there was more May wheat for sale than he had calculated upon; having once got in, he had to keep buying in order to hold up the price, until finally he got in so far there was no way out except to go on and corner the market.

We have forgotten just how many millions he stole from the bank, but it was all the bank had in stealable shape. Day after day he sent money—stolen money—to his brokers to buy wheat with, and covered up the transactions by putting dummy notes in the bank's portfolio.

One of the inquisitors asked him: "But did you not see that you were wrecking the bank? You must have known that it could not stand that terrific strain. You must have seen you were going to smash."

"No," he replied: "I did not know. After a certain time I never figured it up it would paralyze me. I thought every hour the market would turn in my favor. I had to just shut my eyes and go ahead."

Why this sea of blood in France? Overthrow of the czarism removed the only real menace to Germany. Germany could have had a secure peace any time the last year. But the military caste did not dare sit down and figure it up—or let the German people figure it up. Nobody in Germany could make peace. The German people could not, for they lacked the power. Hindenburg and Ludendorff could not, for peace would show up the frightful extent to which they had lusted the bank. Their strategy consisted in shutting their eyes and plunging on, in hope of something so dazzling that the awful wreckage would be overlooked. There is no way of dealing with them except as the bank president was dealt with—in handcuffs.

Bob Chaney left Monday for San Antonio to enlist as a volunteer in some division of the Army.

Jeff Duncan and Duncan Roberts were in town Monday from their ranch in the Mountain Home community.

The Food Administration has sent out through all State administrators a warning to corn, barley and oats millers and to wholesale and retail dealers in the products that at the present prices of these grains corn meal and oat meal should be selling at least 20 per cent below the price of wheat flour and that corn flour and barley flour should be selling at least 10 per cent below wheat flour.

Under a new agreement the Army will handle all mail for the Expeditionary Forces after it leaves United States ports. The Post Office Department will deliver the mail to military authorities at the port of embarkation in this country and receive it from them at a port in France for dispatch to the United States. The domestic money-order service to the troops will, for the present at least, continue under the direction of the Post Office Department in France.

REGULATIONS ON HANDLING PERISHABLE PRODUCTS

In carrying out a plan for marketing, handling, sale, and distribution of all perishable farm crops in this State, the Food Administration, in co-operation with the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture, the Bureau of Markets of the Texas Department of Agriculture, and the Western Weighing and Inspection Bureau, desires to call the attention of dealers, handlers and shippers of perishable farm products to the necessity of conforming to certain rules and regulations which are necessary to be enforced in minimizing the losses which have heretofore been sustained in handling perishable products.

Dealers and handlers of perishable products are expected to observe the laws, rules and regulations of the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture and of the Texas State Department of Agriculture, regarding grading and packing, and the instructions in bracing and loading in cars of all perishable products, unless exceptions are authorized by the Federal Food Administrator.

Dealers and handlers of perishable farm products at point of origin are required to refuse to handle culls and inferior products when loaded in cars containing superior and standardized products, as these commodities should not cumber our transportation facilities, and thus deprive superior and standardized products of the opportunity of arriving in the market in first-class condition.

All cars of perishable farm products are to be loaded under the directions and instructions of the Western Weighing and Inspection Bureau, and the inspectors of the Bureau of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture are instructed to withhold the issuing of certificates, setting forth grades of the products loaded, until he has satisfied himself that the car of produce certified to has been loaded according to the directions and instructions of the Western Weighing and Inspection Bureau; and when the inspector of the Bureau of Markets of the State Department of Agriculture issues a certificate, setting forth grade and standard of the commodities to be shipped, this certificate shall be accepted by the consignor and consignee as prima facie evidence of proper grade and quality at the time of loading.

All licensed dealers and handlers of perishable farm products of this State are expected to co-operate with the Federal Food Administrator in the compliance and enforcement of the above rules and regulations.

It is not the purpose of the above regulations to prevent the shipment of cull fruits or vegetables, but when shipped they must be shipped in separate consignments. E. A. PEDEN, Federal Food Administrator for Texas.

BLUSH OF PEACH HAS ATTENTION BY FOOD FOLK

Not that the Federal Food Administration loves potatoes and onions less, but because it loves peaches more, has the administration turned for the moment its eyes from the eyes of the potatoes to the blush of the peach, the glow of the plum and the fascinating watermelon. As Texas well knows, the East Texas peach crop is usually a "bumdinger." With cans high as airplanes, sugar not to be had for the mere asking, labels soaring with the price for shipbuilding labor, there is no great assurance that easy-going flaviving tin-can habited Texans are going to have all the manufactured fruits they want for the winter of 1918 unless they do a bit of planning in advance.

Administrator Peden hopes, and having the potato harvest and the onion harvest as a pretty good precedent, to help move the peach and the plum and the watermelon and other fruit and vegetable crops, so quick and fast that none will be lost, and to this end he urges that all grocery stores, meat markets, confectionery parlors, department stores and, in some places, drug stores arrange to carry at their entrances stocks of new fruits and vegetables.

The Federal Food Administration for Texas receives daily reports of all shipments of fruits and vegetables and will be glad, through the perishable division, to give individuals, firms or communities information concerning marketing of these products for sale.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make This Beauty Lotion for a Few Cents and See for Yourself.

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin. Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Saving and Squandering Lives.

Chicago Daily News: Being responsible to their people for the lives of the people's sons, the leaders of the allied democracies have elected to conduct a defensive war which is lavish of time and materials, but economical as measured in lives. German chieftains, on the other hand, are not answerable to their people, and not only may, but do squander the lives of the young men of the nation in the deadliest forms of attack. The tactics of the democratic leaders may be trusted to win eventually. Those who chide them for delay will honor them for their humanity when the nations, after the war, count up the losses and the military commanders give an account of their stewardship.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

BY FATHER KEMPER

The Summer School at Notre Dame Institute is starting off splendidly and meets the appreciation of innumerable citizens who realize what a drawing-card and money-saver this is for Kerrville. Miss Melle Barnhardt of Edna, Texas, is one of the recent newcomers to enter the short-hand course. Sister Columbanus, the school inspectress, left on Thursday with Sr. Bridgettine, Sr. Charles Joseph and St. Pierre, a sister of the last named.

Mr. Henry King came from Floresville to move his family back to their home. His nieces, Nora and Virginia Houston, assisted in the moving. We hope Mrs. King and her children will be with us at the reopening of Notre Dame. Mr. John Gillon came from Sonora to get his daughter, Alethia. Another boarder, Miss Octavia DeHymel, returned to San Antonio on Friday.

Miss Angeline Kemper and her twin nephews, Henry and William Voiss, began their educational tour through Western United States immediately after the Notre Dame Commencement. They will not return till the beginning of September when the boys enter the Technical High School Department of St. Louis College. Exclusive of side-trips the journey will cover over nine thousand miles through the most picturesque and varied scenery on the Western Hemisphere. Miss Kemper has already thoroughly toured the eastern and northern sections of our country, and the greater part of Europe. The present itinerary may be briefly condensed as follows: From San Antonio via the Mexican border to Santa Fe where are prehistoric ruins 'the Union. Returning through Albuquerque they spend a day with the Indians on their reservations at Laguna and Ancoma. Thence to the Petrified Forests of Arizona. From here they devote several days to the incomparable Grand Canyon, considered the finest fifty square miles in the world. Pasadena, the millionaires' city, comes next with an ascent to Mt. Lowe and a visit to San Gabriel and other ancient California missions as a matter of comparative study with our own treasures in and around San Antonio. Several days are to be spent in the vicinity of Los Angeles and San Diego, which will include the Catalina Islands, Santa Barbara, San Juan Capistrano, Long Beach, Venice, Coronado Beach, Orange Empire Trip, Riverside, etc. From here the route goes to the Sequoia National Park enclosing the largest and oldest living things on the face of the globe, in the form of immense trees. A week will be spent in the paradise at Yosemite Valley before going to San Francisco with its many attractions such as Chinatown, Mt. Tamalpais, Lick Observatory, etc. From the Golden Gate they sail on the Pacific Ocean to Seaside, Oregon, the summer home of Miss Kemper's mother. After a month's rest here and in Portland, they will start homeward by way of Tacoma and Mt. Ranier National Park. Thence via Seattle and Spokane to Yellowstone National Park, whose wonderful geysers will be visited leisurely during a week. Thereafter the Great Salt Lake and its Mormon City. Next through the Royal Gorge to Colorado Springs with Pike's Peak and the Garden of the Gods. At Cripple Creek they will visit the interior of gold mines and at Denver see the Government Mint. Side trips around this beauty spot will include Estes and Rocky Mountain National Parks, Georgetown Loop, Mt. McClellan, Moffat Trip, etc. Their last stretch takes them through Fort Worth back to Kerrville. In this fashion the summer tour is repeatedly broken up with instructive excursions, all the more interesting for having carefully studied the attractions of Western United States during the past few months as a preparation for this memorable trip.

Friends of Tony Bessan will be glad to learn that he imitated the example of his older brother, William, and enlisted in Uncle Sam's service. At present he is at Mares Island Naval Training Station. Frank Kiefel joined the colors at Camp Travis.

Last Sunday Mr. Arthur Mosel and family motored to Bandera to root for the Kerrville ball game in which his son participated.

Mr. William Tarrillion spent the early part of the week with his fiancée on his return from Sanderson.

Mrs. Joe Flory is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Abbott.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jakysik toured here from Loire with their children.

IF YOUR CHILDREN ARE DELICATE OR FRIL under-size or under-weight remember—Scott's Emulsion is nature's grandest growing-food; it strengthens their bones, makes healthy blood and promotes sturdy growth. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Frances, Texas and Lawrence, as well as Mr. Vincent Jakysik. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bennett of San Antonio were guests of Mr. Eugene H. Prescott.

MOTHER! GIVE CHILD "SYRUP OF FIGS" IF TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so easily.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty its bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, won't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse of any other kind with contempt.

COMPTROLLER H. B. TERRELL

Endorsed by the Press of Texas.

(From the Texas Monthly Review)

In this issue of The Review we reproduce a few of the many expressions of the Texas Press concerning the record of Comptroller Terrell during his administration of that important office. It is indeed gratifying to Mr. Terrell to have the unqualified indorsement of the Press of Texas, for he realizes that the press reflects the views of the people at large.

NEVER HAD A BETTER

(Hearne Democrat)

The State has never had a better Comptroller and few as good. The voters will make a wise selection if they give him another term.

PROBABLY NO OPPOSITION.

(Waco Times-Herald)

The Times-Herald is pleased to know that Henry Terrell, State Comptroller, has fully recovered from an attack of typhoid fever that came near costing him his life. It is not improbable that Mr. Terrell will be without opposition at the primary election.

WELL KNOWN AND ADMIRRED BY ALL.

(Temple Mirror)

H. B. Terrell is making the race for re-election for Comptroller. Mr. Terrell has many friends in Bell County who have always supported him and will continue to do so. He is one of the most popular candidates in the State, well known and admired by all. He has made one of the best Comptrollers that ever served in that capacity in the State, and will continue to make good; this is a sure thing. While we have not heard of any other announcements for this office, yet some have shown signs of enthusiasm. Whoever makes the race against the present incumbent will have to make some decided changes to be able to "oust" Henry Terrell.

EXPECTS DECISIVE MAJORITY.

(Rogers News)

Hon. H. B. Terrell having regained his health is a candidate for re-election for Comptroller. Mr. Terrell seems to have given complete satisfaction since assuming his official duties as Comptroller and it is to be expected that he will be re-elected by a decisive majority.

CAN READ HIS TITLE CLEAR.

(Waco Tribune)

Comptroller Terrell is himself again. The words above imply all that they express for Comptroller Henry Berryman Terrell is himself again, as to health and everything else. In August of last year, Mr. Terrell fell a victim of typhoid fever and for perhaps three months he was an inmate of the sanitarium in Austin. Enfeebled by the long illness and other complications that had developed, he was a weak man for added months until he went to the mountain region of California, where a stay of several weeks restored him to his wanted strength and health. He looked the very picture of splendid health as he sat in The Tribune office Tuesday, rejoicing as being himself again. The many friends of the Comptroller in this country and over the State will be glad to learn of his present condition and the cheerful spirit he now holds. He is the more cheerful because it is evident that he can read his title clear to almost unchallenged re-election to a third term in the responsible office he fills with so much ability and value to the State.

MAKE TERRELL "COMPTROLLER PERPETUAL"

(Odessa Herald)

State Comptroller of Public Accounts H. B. Terrell, who has filled that office so acceptably and has conducted its affairs with such business like efficiency and with such profit to the State, that it would richly pay the people to make him "Comptroller Perpetual," has announced as a candidate to succeed himself. He has no apologies to make for official duties shirked or unperformed, no broken promises to campaign with specious explanations that don't explain. He stands four-square, officially and politically. He has forced the disgorgement, from carelessly derelict and wilfully dishonest officials, "to hell with the law" counties, in diverse sections of the State, enough money to pay his salary for the next half century. Texas can't afford in these stressful war times to let an official with the splendid record of State Comptroller of Public Accounts H. B. Terrell be shelved to private life. He should have no opposition at the primary polls on the 27th day of next July.

UNPOPULAR WITH PIE-EATERS.

(Schulenburg Sticker)

Comptroller Terrell is again at his post in the State House in Austin after a stay of several months in California, where he went in the hope of regaining his health. While in office Mr. Terrell has made himself very unpopular with public pie-eaters by standing between the people's money and the onslaughts of these two-legged hyenas, by refusing to issue warrants on the State Treasurer to pay bills that were not legally owing.

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.

(Texas Farm and Industrial News)

H. B. Terrell announced Sunday that he would be a candidate for re-election as State Comptroller. He has made an efficient officer and by his refusal to approve warrants drawn against the Treasurer without authority of law much money has been saved to the taxpayers. After a serious illness, dating from last summer when Mr. Terrell was stricken with typhoid fever, he has now fully recovered his health.

HAS NO FAVORITES.

(Lamb County News)

We are glad to learn that Comptroller H. B. Terrell has regained his health and that he is an active candidate for re-election to the office of Comptroller. We have claimed for a long time that if Texas should ever secure the services of a man who could and would run the Comptroller's Department in a real business manner we should keep him in the office as long as he wanted the job. We have found that kind of a man in H. B. Terrell, and the records show that he has saved thousands of dollars to the State by the efficiency and strict business methods of every department over which he has control. H. B. Terrell has no favorites, and we don't think there is any doubt of his election, but as many of our readers will cast their first vote in Texas this primary, we only wish to draw their attention to the record that has been made by him, and if they wish clear, strong and vigorous business methods to continue in the handling of the financial affairs of the State, vote to continue H. B. Terrell Comptroller of Texas.

A SPLENDID COMPTROLLER.

(Richardson Echo)

Comptroller of the State H. B. Terrell is back on the job and has announced for re-election. Terrell was an avowed candidate for Governor of Texas, but ill health and unexpected circumstances forced him out. He has made a splendid Comptroller, has played no favoritism so far as the record shows, knows the business from center to edge and if elected will, no doubt, continue to make good.

A CLEAN ADMINISTRATION.

(Rockwell Tribune)

We have watched the career of Mr. Terrell since his induction into office and believe he has given the State a clean and economical administration. We feel sure if you will vote for him you will make no mistake.

HAS MADE GOOD.

(Milam County Enterprise)

Hon. H. B. Terrell, State Comptroller, who has been to California for his health, has returned home in good physical condition, and has issued his formal announcement for re-election. Mr. Terrell has made good in the office of Comptroller and will probably be re-elected without serious opposition.

Section 1. Sec. 2. Any person who shall, at any time and place within this State during the time the United States is at war with any other nation, or nations, commit to writing or printing, or both writing and printing, by letters, words, signs, figures, or any other manner, and in any language, anything of and concerning the United States, the entry or continuance of the United States in the war, or of and concerning the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, or any imitation thereof, or uniform of any of its officers, which is abusive in character, or disloyal to the United States, and reasonably calculated to bring into disrepute the United States, the entry, or continuance, of the United States in the war, the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, any flag, standard, color, or ensign, of the United States, or that of any of its officers, and reasonably calculated to provoke a breach of peace if written to or in the presence of a citizen of the United States, or if said in the presence and hearing of any citizen of the United States, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary for any period of time not less than two years, nor more than twenty-five years.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall, within this State, publicly or privately, mutilate, deface, defile, defy, tramp upon, or cause contempt upon, either by words or acts, any flag, standard, color, or ensign, of the United States, or that of any of its officers, or on any imitation of either of them, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary for any period of time not less than two years, nor more than twenty-five years.

Sec. 4. Any person who, during the existence of the war between the United States and any other nation, or nations, shall knowingly, within this State, display, or have in his possession for any purpose whatsoever, any flag, standard, color, or ensign, or coat of arms of any nation with which the United States is at war, or any imitation thereof, or that of any State, subdivision, city, or municipality of any such nation, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be punished by confinement in the State penitentiary for any period of time not less than two years, nor more than twenty-five years.

Sec. 5. Any officer may, without warrant, arrest any one violating any section of this act, when the offense is committed in his presence, or within his view, or within the view of a magistrate. Any officer about to make such arrest shall be authorized to require any person violating any provision of this act to stop and desist from such violation.

Sec. 6. Indictments and prosecutions for violations of the provisions of this act may be had in any county where the offense is committed, or in Travis County, the State of Texas; and for such purpose venues and jurisdiction is conferred upon the district courts of the counties of the State where such offenses are committed, and on the District Courts of Travis County; provided, that the suspended sentence law of this State shall not apply in convictions had under this act.

Sec. 7. Sec. 8. The fact that this is a special session of the Legislature, which can last but thirty days, and the fact that the United States is now engaged in war, and that there are many branches of the peace and other disturbances of public order and safety arising, due to the evils sought to be remedied by this act, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity which requires that the constitutional rule, providing that bills

Don't Forget to Plant a War Garden!

Last year our people got a late start in raising war gardens but in many places a success was made in that enterprise. This year our President is asking us to do even better. He wants the war gardens to be worth Five Hundred Millions of Dollars. We realize that the dreadful drouth that we are suffering is a big drawback to the people of this section, yet let's do our part. We are ready to serve in any of the lines we sell.

MEN WHO EVADE MILITARY SERVICE WILL BE WATCHED

Men of selective service age who leave the United States to evade military duty will have to stand trial on charges of violations of the selective service act when they return to the country, according to the Department of Justice, even though they do not return until after the war.

The department has at hand information from which complete lists may be prepared of all men who have left the country to avoid service, says a recent statement authorized by the Attorney General.

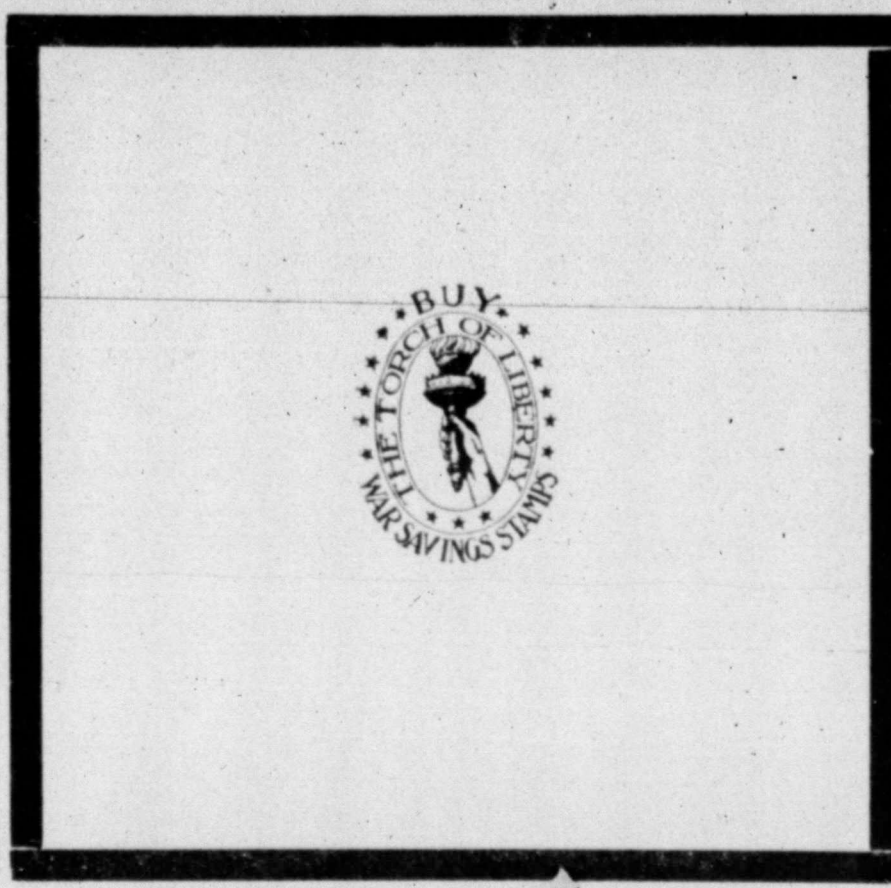

Eclipse From the Rockies.

Department of the Interior: The broad high table-lands and mountain tops of the Rocky Mountain National Park in Colorado will become a favorite view point for the total eclipse of the sun on June 8, for which extensive preparations are now making. This country is extremely high and the atmosphere has unusual clarity.

The rolling plateau lying at the foot of the Front Range is from 8,000 to 9,000 feet high. From this rise fifty-one mountains to altitudes from 10,000 to 14,000 feet, from the summits of which, with a clear sky above, one can sometimes look down upon the tops of valley showers. Many of the mountains have broad, flat summits, excellently adapted for observation.

This eclipse, which is attracting much attention from astronomers, is total over a long, broad strip of the United States, including this section of the Rockies. The park's accessibility from Denver, its many comfortable hotels, and its good trains to the high place make it especially available for scientific parties.

Production of honey will be greatly increased during 1918 in many localities, according to the Department of Agriculture. The increase in Colorado, it is said, will probably be 100 per cent.

U.S. INFANTRYMAN HAS BIG ADVANTAGE IN EQUIPMENT

The American infantryman in the Expeditionary Forces carries 200 rounds of ammunition in the pockets of his light canvas web belt and his bandoleers. The German soldier has only 120 rounds, and 30 of these are in his knapsack. To secure them at a critical moment he must lose valuable time.

The American web belts, according to the War Department, are far superior to the German leather bandoleers. They are not affected by prolonged rains nor torrid weather. The manufacture of these belts is one of the most intricate of the operations in the textile field. U. S. Army belts are made almost entirely of cotton.

The exact weight of the 200 rounds carried by the American soldier in France is 12 pounds. With the Springfield rifle 23 aimed shots can be fired each minute. Firing from the hip 40 shots can be fired a minute. The new United States model 1917 (modified Enfield) does even better.

The two picric acid plants to be built at Little Rock, Ark., and Brunswick, Ga., contracts for which have been let by the War Department, will cost approximately $7,000,000.

The Employment Service of the Department of Labor has already found employment for at least 10,000 of these men as common laborers on construction work at Norfolk, Newport News, Baltimore, and vicinity. Arrangements are now being made by the Department of Labor to provide proper housing for these men.
