FIELD DAY EXERCISES FOR TROOP TWO, BOY SCOUTS

Troop Two had a grand Field Day which was only surpassed by the Field Night that followed.

Thirteen Good Scouts took part in the event. That is the Scoutmaster's lucky number, so everything was simply perfect. On the 13th of September, 1913, the Scoutmaster left England for Good Old U. S. A. by the good ship Lusitania. His passage cost thirteen pounds and ten shillings. He stayed at No. 13 High Street in the English town before embarking, and he is a thirteenth child. Most prosperous journey he ever had. A prominent Kerrville lady gave him 13 eggs to set under a hen. Thirteen chickens attained maturity—all perfect. So when the number of 13 turned up at the Scout Camp no wonder we had good luck. I'll say so.

In double ranks the troop left the Scout Hall beside the Episcopal Church at 5 p. m. prompt on Friday last. Fall in two deep. Left face, quick march. Quick march wasn't in it with two long legged Scouts like Marshall Leazer and Charlie Horne leading the van. Little Roy Leazer and Donald Nichols had a hard time keeping up with them, but they never faltered even when the command rang out "Double March!" Then someone picked up an immense horse shoe right in our trail and, of course, all was bound to be well then.

At 6:30 Schulze's Ranch was reached and camp pitched on the banks of the river. Big camp fires had been lighted by Scout Wheeler Junior and soon the pans and the skillets were singing a merry duet on the red hot coals. Did you ever see a bunch of Boy Scouts put away the viands after a six-mile hike? Better still, were you ever one of the boys? Oh boy, that is when life's worth living. I'll say so.

Then when everybody had eaten and drunk till they were in danger of breaking their buttons from their moorings, the bunch sat around the camp fire and swapped stories. Pat and Mike seemed to be the favorites, and next weird tales about the Tin Lizzie. The Scoutmaster contributed the following choice roundelay:

"Con los barbas de Carranza
Voy hacer una toquilla,
Por poner en el sombrero
Del valiente Pancho Villa."

Of course, that needs no translation. Even retiring Scout Odell turned loose some fairy tale, and as for Leroy Gold he was quite eloquent.

Taps was blown by Bugler Hegman Schulze, but bed was far from their thoughts and sleep much farther. The later it waxed the greater was the merriment and at 2 a. m., when all respectable citizens were sleeping the sleep of the just, the fun reached its climax when some luckless wights were tossed to high heaven in a blanket. "One, two, three and up she goes!" Up and up again, until the weakness induced by laughter and hard exercise caused a temporary lull in the festivities. Honestly, it was more fun than a barrel full of monkeys. Soon thereafter a brief siesta of two hours was taken, and along about 4 a. m. preparations for the first call for breakfast began. But the mouthpiece of the trumpet was lost and so "reveille" could not be sounded. However, we sang it. "Can't Get Them Up in the Morning," etc.

Milton Dietert caught a fine fish and Sidney Wheeler another. Bruce Magee assisted in the ceremonies of cooking with melodious sounds. Bruce has rather a good voice. Robert Hagens was also a lucky fisherman. Scoutmaster Macdougall called the troop to attention and requested that they all go in a body to the revival service being held in the Methodist Church on Sunday night. Not a single accident or unpleasantness marred the hike and everybody felt fine, even though bones ached with close contact with Mother Earth in the brief hours of slumber.

The hosts of friends of Lewie Moore son of Sheriff and Mrs. Jack Moore of this city, will be pleased to hear that he has resigned his connection with the engineering department at Galveston to accept a much better place with the Maxwell Company at Detroit, Mich., to which city he went last week to take up his new duties. Mr. Moore is one of the many efficient young men whom Kerrville has sent out to take important positions in life and who are making good in their several fields.

TERRELL WILL NOT RUN FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR

Austin, Tex., March 19.—H. B. Terrell, former Comptroller, has turned a deaf ear to the proposal that he become a candidate for Lieutenant Governor on the Bailey ticket. He has reiterated that he is out of active politics and is going to devote himself to the publishing business and other interests.

He suggests that either Gus Shaw of Bowie County or Dick Mays of Navarro would be a strong man, both being devoted friends of Bailey, and directly and staunchly in line with the policies advocated by the head of the ticket.

TREASURY CERTIFICATES ONLY $82.80 THIS WEEK

Patrons of the Kerrville Post Office have an opportunity this week to purchase the new $100 Registered Treasury Savings Certificate for $82.80, according to Postmaster W. G. Carpenter. In making this announcement, he pointed out, however, that no person will be permitted to purchase more than ten.

"The $100 Registered Treasury Savings Certificate, which the Government is now issuing, is the most attractive savings investment which money can make. These certificates have many features which commend them to savers or investors," Postmaster Carpenter said. "Their maturity value is $100; their price is now $82.80 each. When sold, they are automatically registered at Washington in the buyer's name and his name is indelibly inscribed on them. They are safe in any way from loss, fire or theft. An amusing incident which demonstrates these qualities recently occurred in Dallas, I am told. There according to the story, a two or three-year-old baby happened to get hold of one of these $100 Registered Treasury Certificates, which his father had carelessly let fall within his reach. When the baby next appeared in the story, it had chewed about half of the certificate to a soft pulp and was merrily working away on the other end. Being a Registered Treasury Savings Certificate, it didn't make any difference, of course, as they are loss proof.

"They bear a good rate of interest—4 per cent compounded every ninety days, and they are demand paper. One can always cash them for the purchase price plus earned interest. There are no 'ifs' and 'ands' about this; the law requires that they increase in value every month.

"As the supply of these certificates at the Post Office here is limited, only a limited number will be sold; however, we will arrange to take care of any one here so that he will be sure to get one of these certificates for $82.80."

DON'T LOSE YOUR WAR INSURANCE OPPORTUNITY

Announcement is made by Director R. G. Cholmeley-Jones of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance that the insurance division of the bureau is virtually at the end of its period of congestion and consequent dissatisfaction and vexatious delays, resulting from the great volume of work suddenly thrown upon it by the demobilization of the armed forces during the past year.

Former service men, whose insurance has lapsed or has been canceled, are encouraged to take advantage of the very liberal provisions for reinstatement of War Risk Insurance by the payment of two monthly premiums with the application and a satisfactory statement of health. They are assured that from now on, receipts for premiums will be sent to them within a few days from the date of the original receipt of the remittance. Instead of the form paragraphs and unsatisfactory form letters which formerly it was necessary to use to answer the flood of mail, they will be replied to with real letters in insurance cases which require detailed and specific answers.

The number of unposted premiums in the bureau, which last October was approximately 88,000, has just been reduced to an average of 10,000, or less than one day's work.

Unanswered mail in the insurance division shows a reduction of approximately 60 per cent from the daily balance of five months ago. Probably it will be two or three weeks before it will be possible to answer all the letters as quickly as it is now possible to mail out receipts for premiums, but it is a matter of only a few weeks before the answering of all ordinary inquiries in reference to insurance matters within four days of their receipt in the bureau will be the regular practice.

While some difficulties, due to failure of service men to furnish serial numbers and other necessary information always will be inevitable, very serious handicaps in the addressing of the men have just been overcome. Through a special appropriation, made by Congress, the bureau has been enabled to put its entire list of former service men on addressograph plates. This prevents errors that previously occurred through repeated copying from the millions of records with typewriters.

Former service men desiring to reinstate War Risk Insurance, which has lapsed or been canceled, or to convert their insurance in cases where it is now in force, should apply to any post of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, or other organizations of former service men, Army, Navy and Marine Corps recruiting stations, State Insurance Commissioners, any home service section of the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus, Jewish Welfare Board, Y. M. C. A., or to other fraternal or welfare organizations or agencies which are in a position to furnish blanks and necessary information. Or, if they prefer to do so, they should write directly to the Insurance Division, Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Washington, D. C., in all cases furnishing the following six points of information for the identification of their cases in the records:

1. Full name (including first, middle and last name) and complete address.
2. Rank, rating or grade at the time of original application for insurance.
3. Army or Navy organization at time of original application for insurance.
4. The number of Insurance Certificate or Government Life Insurance Policy, if known.
5. Army Serial Number, if in the Army.
6. Date of discharge, if discharged.

Service men, whose insurance has lapsed or has been canceled, are reminded, however, that as long as they are without insurance, they are without its protection, and, in their own best interests, should apply for reinstatement of their insurance without delay.

Albert Real returned recently from a stay of several weeks in San Antonio, and says that hordes of Mexican laborers have come into that city under false promises of employment and are on charity there. He suggests that the farmers and ranchmen of this section, who are so badly in need of labor, arrange to bring some of these men out and put them to work.

MR. AVERY OF HIGHWAY COMMISSION SPEAKS HERE

Mr. Avery of the State Highway Commission was here Monday, on his return from a turkey hunt in company with two other Austin gentlemen, and delivered a brief address to a number of citizens in the district court room.

He advised permanent construction work on roads, making them open to traffic 365 days in the year, instead of patchwork, which left them impassable much of the time. He was enthusiastic in his comments on the ranches he had seen in this section saying that nowhere else had he seen such well fenced and well kept ranches.

Following Mr. Avery's remarks Judge Wallace explained the delay in our bond issue, saying that they are being held up by the Attorney General till about $35,000 of outstanding bonds of a former issue are retired, which is being done as fast as the holders of the bonds can be located.

JEFF FARR, BORN IN KERRVILLE, DIES IN COLORADO

Walsenburg, Colo., March 19.—Jefferson B. Farr, for 18 years a picturesque sheriff of Huerfano County, former cowboy, business man, banker, rancher, stock grower, coal mine operator and Republican leader, is dead at his home here. He was born in Kerrville, Tex.

In the death of Mr. Farr, Colorado loses one of its most prominent citizens and upholders. Mr. Farr was deeply loved by his friends, of whom there were legion, and as cordially hated by his enemies, especially those who were opposed to him politically.

Mr. Farr is survived by his widow, Mrs. Roy V. Hill; a son, Charles Jefferson Farr, and two sisters, the latter living in Texas. All of the Farr children are residents of Walsenburg.

Mr. Farr was born at Kerrville, Tex., 58 years ago. He came to Colorado in 1880 from Austin, Tex., to which place he had removed from Kerrville. Following his arrival in Huerfano County, Mr. Farr became a cowboy and later went into the stock-growing business on his own account. He was known as a fine rider in the early days and a fearless fighter.

Eighteen years ago he was appointed sheriff of Huerfano County to succeed his brother, who was killed in New Mexico while at the head of a local posse hunting members of the notorious Black Jack gang of murderers who had been committing crimes in this region.

The posse followed the trail of the outlaws into New Mexico, where a battle ensued when they were overtaken. Black Jack, the leader of the gang, was eventually hanged for this crime, his head being jerked off by the long fall through the gallows trap on which he was executed.

Mr. Farr was a business man and his financial success in Colorado dated almost from the day of his arrival in Huerfano County. His estate at the time of his death was estimated to be worth $200,000, consisting of live stock, ranches, farms, coal mines, bank and commercial holdings. He was president of the First National Bank of Walsenburg and was also president of the Great Western Land & Investment Co., in addition to holding large interests in the Walsenburg Mercantile Company and other local concerns.

Mr. Farr was a delegate from Colorado to the National Republican Convention which nominated William H. Taft for President. He also was delegate to many Republican State and county conventions during his life.

CHILD HEALTH CENTER PLANNED FOR EACH COUNTY IN STATE

Austin, Tex., March 23.—In order to prevent unnecessary deaths among the children of Texas and to raise the health standard so that the many who escape actual death will not suffer through a sickly childhood and an inefficient maturity, Dr. C. W. Goddard, State Health Officer, would establish a Child Health Center in every county in Texas.

As a step toward attaining this goal Dr. Goddard is mailing out a bulletin outlining a practical working program to all health officers in the State branches of Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teachers' Association, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Red Cross Chapters, etc. This bulletin which was compiled by the Bureau of Child Hygiene of the State Health Department, explains how to organize a Child Health Center and states its purposes.

"The essentials of a Child Health Center are: A good doctor, a good public health nurse, who understands children, a mother, a child and a room in which to meet," declares Dr. Goddard.

SOLDIER BOY HEADED THIS WAY FOR RELIEF

San Antonio Evening News.
Sustained by the hope that he will shortly be getting well in the first unit of the hospital for Tubercular ex-service men at Kerrville, a totally incapacitated soldier arrived in San Antonio yesterday. He was D. L. Avery who obtained his discharge from the United States Public Health Service Hospital in Alexandria, La., in order that he might come to his beloved Texas to rest, visit relatives, and get ready for admission to the new hospital. Mr. Avery, who has been for several months in care of the Public Health Service in Louisiana, took $1 of his compensation check and sent it to Claude V. Birkhead, general chairman of the Benevolent War Risk Society Hospital fund, with the wish that he could give enough to build a bungalow. The compensation he receives, as a totally incapacitated ex-service man, is barely enough to provide the necessities of life for him and his family.

All of his hopes, as well as those of the 4,000 other Texas boys afflicted with tuberculosis from exposure in service, are fastened upon the success of the State wide campaign for the hospital to be begun this week.

Although the $1,000,000 sanatorium will be begun immediately, the money to carry on the work has not all been raised. Only a little over half of San Antonio's quota has been raised, and the campaign has not begun yet in other cities. The Benevolent War Risk Society is going ahead with the plans on the assumption that the people of Texas will not fail the boys in their hour of need, even as they did not fail when the Hun menaced the safety of the world.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS MAKE PLANS FOR THEIR CAMP AT KERRVILLE

San Antonio Evening News.
Plans for the Young Men's Christian Association annual Summer camp at Kerrville are being rapidly completed, according to J. Floyd Smith, boys' secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Smith expects to go to Kerrville the latter part of this week to make final arrangements for the camp. He will also confer with the Kerrville Commissioners in regard to the permanent camp site which the business men of Kerrville have offered the Y. M. C. A.

The people of Kerrville are enthusiastic over the Y. M. C. A. camp being permanently located there, and according to all indications the proposition is expected to materialize.

Registration for camp will begin Wednesday, March 24. More than thirty boys have already definitely decided to go to camp and others have been only waiting for the enrollment to begin. Camp folders and camp thrift cards will be mailed early next week to members of the Young Men's Christian Association, and many other San Antonio boys.

GREAT MEETING CLOSES AFTER TWO WEEKS' WORK

The meeting conducted by Evangelist and Mrs. R. L. Flowers at the Methodist Church, held with ever increasing interest and attendance for two weeks, finally outgrowing the seating capacity there and being moved Sunday evening to the Baptist Church, upon invitation of Pastor Holt and his flock, closing Tuesday evening.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Flowers are exceptionally well equipped for their great work, and have labored earnestly. Their stay has been a blessing to every one who would attend the services, and every church in town, probably, will share in the good results. The prayers and good wishes of our people go with them to their work elsewhere, and we shall hope to have them with us again and again. A substantial free will offering was raised and presented to them as an appreciation of their work in our community.

HELPING WORTHY GIRLS TO HELP THEMSELVES

Denton, Tex., March 22.—Miss Lora B. Peck of Houston advises the College of Industrial Arts of Denton, Tex., that the Woman's Club of Houston has raised a Students' Loan Fund of one thousand ($1,000) dollars to enable worthy, ambitious girls to attend the College of Industrial Arts. The one thousand ($1,000) dollars has been deposited in the College Bank and is to be loaned to such girls at 3 per cent interest.

The Woman's Club of Houston is certainly rendering a greatly needed service in this matter, because hundreds of qualified girls write letters to the college during each Spring and Summer making inquiry about loans, scholarships, endowments and other financial aid, to enable them to attend the College of Industrial Arts. It is probable, said President Bralley, that other Women's Clubs and many public spirited citizens will follow the example of the Woman's Club of Houston, and establish loan funds to aid many of the worthy and ambitious girls of Texas in acquiring a practical college education. Of the fourteen hundred and sixty (1,460) girls in the college this session, several hundred of them earn some of their expenses while attending the college but the college is unable, without contributed loan funds, to help many qualified girls who apply for aid that they may attend the college.

The expenses of the college are kept at the minimum and the democracy of the student body is one of the characteristic features of the college; all of the vocations and professions and occupational activities of the State are represented among the students. Any public spirited citizens, or any Woman's Club, interested in establishing a loan fund, should write to the President of the College.

 The Home Paper, Bless It

T. A. McNeal, in Capper's Farmer.
 If you have gathered the impression that the country weekly is going out of business, get the notion out of your head. It is true that within the last year there have been a good many consolidations of small town papers. Some papers have suspended, because of the extraordinary increase in cost of paper and other materials, but the small town or country weekly, as it is commonly called, never will go out of business. It occupies a field that cannot be filled by any other publication.
 The ideal country or small town weekly is a printed picture from week to week of the social, business political and religious life of the town and community in which it is published. It tells the continued story of the comings and goings of the inhabitants of all conditions and classes found in that community.

The editor of a country weekly needs to be a most versatile man. He should be a careful business man with a talent for details, for the business of a country weekly is made up of a multitude of small transactions. He should be an industrious man because the getting out of a paper in a small town involves a great deal of labor and competent help is not always easy to obtain. He should be possessed of large patience, honesty, hard sense, courage and tact.

A Foe to Gossip
 On the country weekly the need of tact and great good sense is readily apparent. There is always in every community, and especially in a small town, a certain amount of gossip that is calculated to stir up strife and which the wise editor will not publish. He must, however, deal with the people of the community justly and impartially, for nowhere are people more sensitive or more ready to notice favoritism than in a small town. If the editor should, for example, publish an item reflecting on the conduct of a poor man or woman but pass over without comment the equally reprehensible conduct, let us say, of the banker or leading business man of the town, especially if the offender is a heavy advertiser, he would lose popularity and influence.
 The successful small town editor must know the peculiarities of everybody. He must be courageous, but discreet. He must have the discernment to know when it is safe to interfere in a neighborhood row and when it is wise and best to let it alone for fear of making the situation worse.
 He ought to be a leader without being a boss. He must be constructive not destructive. The wrong kind of a small town editor, the man who lacks sense and tact, can start in a single issue a neighborhood row that will last a generation. On the other hand, the wise editor who establishes a reputation for honesty and fairness can stop many rows that are threatening.

A Big Small Town Fault
 A fault of the average small town and the farming community by which it is surrounded is a lack of effective intelligent co-operation and community spirit. The business of the local paper is to promote this spirit of co-operation, to get the town and county to pull together for the advantage of both. It is possible, for example, for the small town in co-operation with the country people to organize a local fair that will be inexpensive and at the same time tremendously helpful. No great premiums can be expected but a friendly rivalry can be built up that will mean better horses, better cattle, better hogs, better methods of farming, bigger crops, more comfort in the homes both in the town and country.

 The wise country editor will not miss an opportunity to advertise whatever is worth advertising and calculated to increase the wealth and better the social condition of the community. If Farmer Smith is raising extra fine stock and making money at the business, the editor will undertake to find out how he did it in order that other men may profit by his experience. In doing this he not only pleases Farmer Smith but benefits the entire community.

Keeps Boys in School
 The wise country editor knows that there are two things essential to the prosperity, happiness and general uplift of a community, which are often lacking in a small town. One is a first class school and the other is good wholesome amusement. He knows that the town can have both if the citizens will only pull together and determine they will have them.

The editor of a small town weekly needs to be a friendly man. He may be honest and industrious and possessed of good judgment, but if he is not friendly he will fail.
 In addition to his other qualifications he ought to be well informed, not with swifthead, but really interested in public affairs, with opinions, he does not hesitate to express and with a broad tolerance and charity which accords to other men the full right to their opinions.

Yes, the country paper has a field that no city paper can possibly fill. If conducted on the right plan, it exercises an influence within the radius of its circulation that overshadows any other influence in that community. It is the strongest single factor in the upbuilding of the town and the community 'round about financially and morally.

Deserving of Support
 The most successful business men have come to recognize the power and benefit of the local paper and patronize it, not as a matter of charity or because of town pride, although town pride is a proper reason for supporting a properly conducted local paper but because they know that it pays to patronize it.

The Dead Sons of Texas
 Texas Monthly Review.

The War Department has issued the statistics for the Texas troops and the men who served, as well as their relatives and friends, may now see the gory record.

Killed in action, 59 officers, 1,105 men; died of wounds, 24 officers, 432 men; died of disease, 29 officers and 913 men. Total casualties, 463 officers, 9,670 men.

It was a terrific price to pay. But that is only the list of the dead. The list of the living, who are crippled and afflicted as a result of their service, will never be fully known, in all probability.

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE CAN'T COME TO AMERICA

Dallas, Tex., March 22.—David Lloyd George, British Premier, who was invited to attend the annual session of the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Washington next May will not be able to attend the meeting according to a letter received by Dr. J. B. Gambrell of Fort Worth, who is president of the Southern Baptist Convention. At the last meeting of the convention in Atlanta last year the body of 4,200 Baptists voted to invite the distinguished premier to visit America during the meeting of its next session at Washington. Dr. Gambrell was appointed to head the committee which sent the invitation. In reply Mr. Lloyd George wrote as follows:

"I shall be grateful if you will kindly convey to the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention my sincere thanks for their kind invitation to me to be present at the convention which is to meet this year in Washington. I should cordially welcome such an opportunity of meeting my fellow Baptists in America and of paying tribute to their devotion to those principles which are essential in the life of the community. The cordial relations which have for many years existed between your great country and the British Empire, and which have been considerably strengthened by their common experiences during the last five years of struggle and turmoil, are full of promise for the future. It would give me great pleasure to visit the United States but I very much regret that the demands upon my time are such as to make it impossible for me to promise to visit your convention this year. I wish you and your colleagues God speed in the great work to which you have devoted yourselves."

WOOL GROWERS SEEKING REIMBURSEMENT OF LOSS

Washington, D. C., March 22.—In order that $232,949.18 can be returned to customers of the Wool Growers' Central Storage Company of San Angelo, Representatives Hudspeth and Lanham today received letters from Sam Hill, vice president of the company, asking that a hearing be arranged. Hudspeth has written Bernard M. Baruch, president of the War Industries Board during the war, asking that the hearing be set between April 10 and 15.

Hill claims that the Government, in taking over the 1918 wool clip, fixed three prices of 1.65, 1.70 and 1.75 per cent, but that Government appraisers did not abide by this price. He claims twelve different prices were fixed, many below the real valuation, and always unfair to the grower.

The loss to this concern alone was $232,949.18. It is understood the War Industries Board has in effect recognized the injustice and is ready to make reparation if a satisfactory arrangement can be made.

Keep Well

Do not allow the poisons of undigested food to accumulate in your bowels where they are absorbed into your system. CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper

This Sunday ushers in Holy Week or the immediate preparation for the Feast of the Resurrection of Our Redeemer. Palms, emblematic of His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, will be blessed before High Mass at 10 o'clock. Instead of a scriptural sermon, the history of Our Lord's bitter passion, according to St. Matthew, will be read. This story, according to St. Mark, will be told on Tuesday; according to St. Luke, on Wednesday, and according to St. John, on Good Friday. Owing to the longer duration of services, the sacred functions will begin at 7:15 a. m. every day except Monday. On Saturday, however, the numerous ceremonies peculiar to that day will commence at 6:30 a. m. The Sorrowful Way of the Cross will be made on Good Friday at 3 p. m.

Last Sunday, known as Passion Sunday, Father Kemper held his monthly engagement in the Sacred Heart Church at Comfort. After Mass he baptized Leonora Aguilar. The infant son of Florencio Sanchez had been christened in Kerrville on the previous Thursday. Mrs. James Thompson and family of Falls City joined the Sacred Heart Parish, and also Miss Elizabeth Neilson of Kansas City, Kan.

On Laetare Sunday, a fortnight ago, Notre Dame University awarded the annual Laetare Medal, intended for a distinguished Catholic American of the laity. This year the honor fell to Dr. Lawrence F. Plick of Philadelphia, founder of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, author of "Consumption, a Curable and Preventable Disease," and president of the American Catholic Historical Society.

On Pentecost Sunday the Sovereign Pontiff will canonize Bl. Joan of Arc, patroness of patriots, and France's most illustrious woman. It was Father Kemper's good fortune to be in Rome at the time Pope Pius X beatified this heroine, that is to say, officially declared her virtuous life a pattern worthy of imitation. St. Peter's Basilica on that occasion was crowded with no less than eighty thousand attendants, most of whom had pilgrimaged from France.

The Mexicans prepared a touching surprise for their pastor on Thursday the sixth anniversary of the death of Wm. Kemper, when they unveiled in their school a large photograph of their philanthropic founder and benefactor.

Robert Real, another generous benefactor of this charitable institution, devoted some of his busy time on Saturday to visiting the Guadalupe faculty, and complimented the heroic Sisters on their splendid work among the poor Mexicans. Being so intimately in touch with scores of Mexican laborers at all seasons of the year, Mr. Real is singularly competent to judge the marvelous improvement of which he testifies, since the Guadalupe School was organized.

It pleased the Sisters to learn that their Sanitarium in Corpus Christi will soon be re-erected on land donated by Mrs. H. W. King of Kingsville. The citizens are holding a drive for $100,000 to which the Red Cross subscribed $2,500. Last week the "nuns decorated with a gold medal the heroic Irish soldier who saved so many lives during the flood, when Sr. Thais gave up her own in a similar attempt.

St. Patrick's Day was observed at Notre Dame under the auspices of the Brownson Literary Society. The school hall was decorated with our National colors, and the green, white and yellow of the new Irish Republic. Shamrock bunting festooned the walls, on which were Gaelic inscriptions and landscape views of old Celtic ruins. The program was distinctly Irish and full of historical information, even to the many sons and daughters of Erin who constituted the audience. Irish songs and poems were interspersed between scholarly essays that told of patriots such as our own Jack Barry, father of the American Navy, and of poets such as Tom Moore, Oliver Goldsmith, etc. Miss Meta Michon eulogized the saintly apostle, who, by order of Pope Celestine in the year 432, carried the light of the Gospel to the pagan Druids, and so thoroughly succeeded in his evangelization that sixty years later St. Patrick was able to count 14,000 nuns consecrated to God's undivided service. Not only was the Bible spread with miraculous rapidity, but the children of those converts for the past one and a half thousand years have endured the worst forms of tyranny and persecution, since the Reformation, rather than give up the faith they received from the first Catholic Bishop in the Fifth Century.

James J. Flanagan went to Dallas on Monday. His partner, Rudolph Stehling, accompanied him as far as San Antonio, where he interested himself in the new Knight of Columbus vocational school. Over fifty of such schools are already established throughout the country for war veterans, regardless of creed, with an enrollment of 165,000 students. During the past twelve months the K. C.'s have secured more than three hundred thousand jobs for demobilized sailors and soldiers, and listed none below three dollars a day.

Miss Lucy Mallory is here from Paola, Kan., to care for her invalid sister, Mrs. James J. Flanagan.

On Monday, Father Kemper motored with Charles Mosel to San Antonio. K.M.S.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

ROY T. HOUTS, Pastor

The meeting closed Tuesday night with a fine service. We feel that the people who attended, and there were a great many of them, received a great blessing thereby. Those who did not come are the losers.

Next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be a great Home Coming Service at the church. We hope that all those who have presented themselves during the meeting for church membership will be present at this service to receive the vows. We hope that they may all come into the church together.

The results of the meeting ought to be seen next Sunday in the number of people in Sunday School, and the number who come to church. The pastor will preach a special sermon to the young converts and those coming into the church. The subject discussed will be "Growing in Grace." This will be applicable to all present as well. Because the "Flowers" have gone is no reason for the revival to stop. There ought not to be any decline in our enthusiasm and endeavors for the Lord. Let us hold the ground we have gained, and from there climb to higher heights.

Come and bring your neighbors to church. Pray for the service. There is no reason why souls may not be reborn next Sunday. It can be done.

NEW FOX SPECIAL A SUPERB PICTURE

Love, horse-racing, fighting, intrigue, trickery and other sensational issues are attractively and convincingly combined in "Should a Husband Forgive?" the big Wm. Fox special to be shown here at the Dixie Theater Tuesday, March 30.

In this superbly staged picture of modern life, R. A. Walsh, who wrote and directed it, has done some of the best work of his career. Miriam Cooper, the Southern girl, who has starred in such features as "Evangeline," "Birth of a Nation," "The Honor System," etc., takes the leading role and carries it through in her usual inimitable manner. The result is a screen drama of high life and deep shadows, which holds attention throughout and grips the heart strings in a dramatic finish.

The entire production is staged on a lavish scale and there will be special music for the occasion. The prices for this special attraction will be 20 and 30 cents. 14-11c

School Notes

Tivy High was well represented last Friday night at the special High School Service held at the Methodist Church by the Flowers Evangelists. A splendid service was the result of the interest shown.

Some of the English pupils are busily engaged in preparing themes on "The Benefit of Athletics." A $50 Liberty Bond has been offered by L. A. Schreiner for the best essay written on this subject.

The Junior Class recently organized with Alois Renschel for their president, Dorothy Doyle, secretary and Guy Rees, treasurer. Class pins have been ordered and plans are on foot for a great time during the remainder of the term.

Little Miss Corinne Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Peters, wrote the splendid composition on "The Work of the Wind," published in last week's issue of The Mountain Sun.

Miss Lee of K. P. S. faculty spent the week-end with her parents in San Antonio.

Miss Tipton was called to Floresville Saturday morning by the illness of her mother, but expects to return to her work next week.

In the absence of Miss Mary Horne, part of last week, Miss Mary Holdsworth taught the Fifth Grade.

Miss Dunscombe has resumed work with her Expression Class.

During the past two weeks, the First Grade has done some excellent Dutch Construction, weaving and Spring Landscapes.

The Sixth Grade had their Thrift Spelling Bee last Friday afternoon. The following pupils were awarded Thrift Stamps as a reward for their prowess in the contest: Harrell Osborne, Annie Saenger, Eunice Smith, Roy Saucier, Ruby Grantham and George Walker.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

The Flowers Revival gained in interest and attendance from the beginning, and many have been saved. We are indeed glad that our people have been so loyal in this soul-winning campaign.

Our Sunday School reached high water mark last Sunday. Every teacher was present and the attendance was fine. We want our Sunday School to be a veritable Bible School where we can study the main things of this life. With such a faithful faculty of officers and teachers we will certainly attain that end.

The Junior B. Y. P. U. had an organization service Sunday under the direction of Miss Ayleen Procter, and the following officers and helpers were chosen: Leader, Miss Procter; assistants, Eugene Butt and Miss Ethel Moore. The Juniors themselves will report concerning their younger officers.

The Flowers Revival was moved to the Baptist Church Sunday night so as to accommodate a larger crowd and a great and encouraging congregation was present, every seat being taken by an attendance estimated at over 500 people.

Home Board Evangelist Scott is in our city visiting his former helper, Bro. Mason Osborne. He has just been in a great evangelistic campaign in San Antonio.

Missionary M. C. Moore and family have returned from a visit to Floresville.

Tuesday the spirit of little Melbern Beard took its flight to the Father's House above. The funeral was held from the family home in Southeast Kerrville. Our sympathies go out to the grief stricken parents and friends.

The Flowers Revival closed Tuesday night. Rev. and Mrs. Flowers did faithful work among us, and left with the confidence and esteem of the good people of the entire community.

ALL OUT OF SORTS

Has Any Kerrville Person Ever Felt That Way?

Feel all out of sorts?
Tired, Blue, Irritable, Nervous?
Back feel lame and achy?
Perhaps it's the story of disordered kidneys—
Bad blood circulating about;
Uric acid poisoning the body.
There's a way to feel right again,
Stimulate the sluggish kidneys;
Do it with Doan's Kidney Pills.
Doan's are recommended by many Kerrville people.

Here's one case. Joseph Surber, retired farmer, Kerrville, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for they have done me a lot of good. My kidneys were out of order and I had backaches. I felt dull and out of sorts as my kidneys did not act right. Doan's Kidney Pills soon rid me of the trouble and put my kidneys in good shape."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Surber had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Swine Breeders Organize

Comfort News.
On March 12 about 100 representative swine breeders of Southwest Texas met in San Antonio and organized an organization to stimulate interest in pure-bred hogs in this part of Texas, to hold shows of fine hogs in San Antonio periodically, to use co-operative methods in buying and selling, and to go after the Mexican trade especially.

The title of the organization is Southwest Texas Swine Breeders' Association, and Edwin Houston of Welfare was elected president. Mr. Houston recently resigned the position of secretary of the Texas Swine Breeders' Association, which he had filled for the past six years.

Dallas, the Religious Capital

Texas Monthly Review.
Dallas has attained religious pre-eminence in Texas; and may be regarded as the religious metropolis just as she is of the trade in farming machinery.

Dallas has three bishops—Methodist Episcopal and Catholic; is the seat of the Methodist University and of a Catholic college; is the domicile of publication for the official organizations of the Methodist and the Baptist Churches in the State, and has 150 churches of various sizes and many creeds.

There is a church for every 1,200 men, women and children in the city of Dallas, and if they were all attending regularly that would probably be not too many.

WHAT INTERNAL BATHING HAS DONE FOR E. H. WISCHEN OF NEW ORLEANS

E. H. Wischen of 930 N. Gayoso St., New Orleans, La., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York, as follows:

"As to what the Cascade has done for me, I can say that I suffered with my stomach a long time. After running from one doctor to another and after consulting at least twenty doctors and some of the leading doctors of my city, all with the exception of one of them wanted to operate on me. I was so sick that I even went to Hot Springs, Ark., but got no relief, so at last I made up my mind to use the Cascade as you instructed and I went along using it for at least one year, since then I have had no use for drugs at all. It is about three years ago that I started, since then I have not spent a cent for drugs and if I feel a little out of the way or have a cold, or headache, I just fall back on it and it never goes back on me. I would not part with it for any amount of money."

"The 'J. B. L. Cascade' cleanses the lower intestine its entire length and keeps it always free of poisonous waste.

Thousands testify that Constipation, Indigestion, Stomach Troubles, Biliousness, Headaches and all the many serious troubles which they cause are absolutely relieved and prevented by this Nature Treatment.

W. H. Rawson & Son in Kerrville will be glad to show you the "J. B. L. Cascade," explain its simple operation and will give you free, on request, an interesting little booklet by Dr. Chas. Tyrrell of New York, a noted specialist on Internal Bathing for 25 years in that city. Clip this out as a reminder to ask for the booklet at your first opportunity.

Old Man Winter has been slow about making his departure, but seems to have about given up the fight, and we now have Gentle Annie in our midst. Welcome to our city.

"There are but two real tests of a man, the way he treats his family and the way he treats his neighbors," says a writer in Capper's Farmer. How about the way he treats his God?

Kerrville has landed the Tuberculosis Sanatorium and the hope of the tubercular soldier boy will now turn to the beautiful and healthful mountain city. No better place in the whole State could have been selected.—Devine News.

Every brick, every stick of timber, every nail that goes into the Memorial Hospital to be erected by Texas, here in the heart of the Everlasting Hills, is consecrated to the noble purpose of helping back to health the boys who gave their health for the flag and all it represents. Have you a part in it?

Through the courtesy of Thomas Frayne of this city, The Mountain Sun scribe has been given a glimpse of "the ould sod" in the form of a recent copy of The Evening Herald, published in Dublin, Ireland. We find it quite interesting and unique, the only familiar feature being the advertisements of one or two well known American "patent medicines." The news columns are devoted to a considerable extent to reports of raids by the military and police in arresting those known or suspected to be Sinn Feiners and to other court news.

Some funny advertising propositions come to newspaper offices, and some of the funniest of them are accepted by some publishers. For instance, a few weeks since a tire concern offered to permit The Mountain Sun to run its advertising matter in our columns without charging us a cent for the privilege. Not only that, it offered to knock off forty cents every time we bought a dollar's worth of its tires, till the 40 per cent amounted to the price of the advertising. Not having any space to trade for hunches, we respectfully declined, but bless us if several of our exchanges aren't running the ads. as big as life. And others, or some of the same, are writing letters of enthusiastic thanks to a certain big concern for paying them four cents an inch for several columns of their advertising space. We may be wrong for we don't claim to know it all, but we believe their space is worth more than the estimate they place on it.

WHY HE GOT "CROSS"

Sweetwater Reporter.

A business man got "cross" with The Reporter the other day for refusing to publish a lot of stuff about his business that should have been included in an advertisement. The main reason why his publicity was turned down, however, was because that man has all of his commercial printing done by out-of-town job shops which do not give Sweetwater or any of its enterprises a line of publicity.

Moral: Take your publicity where your job work goes.

Every job given to the home paper's printing department helps to pay for boosting your town, your county and your private business.

It's the same proposition of patronizing mail order houses when you have the cash and falling back on the home merchant when the days of adversity compel you to seek credit.

Every day The Reporter buys articles in Sweetwater which could be procured in Fort Worth or Dallas from 20 to 50 per cent cheaper. But those cities give us very little business. We owe our home merchants our trade; they are our bread and butter.

Then, apply the rule both ways. We are just as well equipped to do your printing as you are to supply our needs in the mercantile line, and then some.

An appropriation of $55,000,000 for the air service at Washington does not apply to hot air—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Most houses now on the market have two stories—the buyer's and the seller's, and then there is the tenant's—but that's another story.—Brooklyn Eagle.

It is reported from Dallas that a lawyer there, in defending a case in which both the law and the evidence seemed to be going against his client, exclaimed, "To hell with the law!" If the report is correct, we move to amend by substituting "To jail with the lawyer!"

Here's some good advice from The Wise County Messenger: "Whenever you hear a street tough complimenting an officer, or boosting some candidate for office, keep your eye on that officer or candidate. Scoulate him at the ballot box."

"We often wonder why most newspaper men are looked on by the world at large as being without religion without conscience, without a soul, and without other essential things that most everybody else has possessed as a part of his being since the creation of man," says The Sweetwater Reporter. We live and learn. We never before knew or heard that newspaper men were so considered. We've been one of them and mixing with them for over thirty years, and while our observation has been somewhat limited, we've always found about as large a proportion of them Christians as of any other profession except the ministry itself and possibly that of teaching. At any rate, a newspaper man needs to be a Christian, not only for the sake of his influence through the columns of his paper, but to enable him to endure the many petty annoyances and tribulations peculiar to the work he is engaged in.

BAPTISTS LAUNCH BIGGER PROGRAM

$100,000,000 IN SUBSCRIPTIONS AND $20,000,000 IN CASH BY MAY 1 IS NEW AIM SET.

WILL SEEK SOULS, ALSO

Evangelistic Campaign Calculated To Reach Thousands of Unsaved Persons is Announced For March and April of This Year.

Now that the subscriptions to the Baptist 75 Million Campaign have passed the $90,000,000 mark, leaders in all the states composing the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention have resolved to place this sum at $100,000,000 by the meeting of the Convention at Washington early in May. It is also planned to bring the total of cash offerings by that time to $20,000,000. The convention at Washington will be the seventy-fifth session of that body and it is deemed appropriate to celebrate the diamond jubilee of the organization with an enlarged subscription and cash sum with which to carry forward the missionary, educational and benevolent work fostered by the convention in all parts of the world.

DR. GEORGE W. TRUETT
Chairman of the Baptist Campaign Commission.

This additional sum will be sought from churches which did not have a part in the original campaign, from members of churches who did not subscribe then and from other persons who made subscriptions in the fall but who feel disposed to increase their subscriptions now. This effort for increased funds will be made during the last week in April so that everything can be completed before the convention meets in Washington May 12.

Returns By the States.

The reports on the original drive for funds in the 75 Million Campaign to date, as made by the several states, follow: Alabama, $4,100,000; Arkansas, $2,285,000; District of Columbia, $250,000; Florida, $1,370,392; Georgia, $10,100,000; Southern Illinois, $830,704; Kentucky, $7,167,713; Louisiana, $2,875,000; Maryland, $907,760; Mississippi, $4,144,902; Missouri, $2,062,506; New Mexico, $722,250; North Carolina, $7,250,000; Oklahoma, $3,200,000; South Carolina, $7,554,772; Tennessee, $5,010,000; Texas, $16,550,900; Virginia, $3,298,488. Returns from the foreign mission fields and other sources not included in the above bring the total subscriptions beyond $90,000,000.

This vast sum of money was raised at a total expense of three-quarters of one per cent, making this probably the most economically conducted campaign in the history of the country.

Plan Evangelistic Campaign.

Prior to this effort for additional subscriptions and cash, however, a South-wide campaign of evangelism, stewardship and emphasis upon the fundamental doctrines of religion is planned for the month of March and the first three weeks in April, when the churches will employ their organized forces in seeking to win to Christ many thousands of the 20,000,000 people within the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention who are not affiliated with any church. A day of prayer in behalf of the success of every item on the Baptist program for the spring and summer of 1920 has been set apart. Many of the states have already got their evangelistic campaigns well under way.

In the hope of arousing as large an interest as possible, city-wide, county-wide and associational campaigns of soul-winning have been planned in many places. In other places, especially the rural districts, where the summer months are considered more desirable for evangelistic work, the special program will be deferred until July and August. This will make it possible for city pastors to aid the rural pastors and thus double the evangelistic force of the denomination.

The program of evangelism, stewardship and emphasis upon the fundamental doctrines of religion is calculated to conserve the victory achieved in the campaign for funds. Dr. George W. Truett, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Dallas, Tex., is chairman of the campaign commission, while Dr. L. R. Scarborough continues in the capacity of general director.

Dougless Fairbanks, Friday, the 26th

In carrying out his policy of securing better pictures for his Kerrville patrons, Manager Eby of the Dixie Theater announces that on Friday of this week he will show Douglas Fairbanks in his late Arcraft production "The Knickerbocker Buckaroo," said to be the longest, the most pretentious, the funniest and the most exciting Fairbanks picture ever filmed. Every foot of the film is packed with punch and laughter. It will make you gasp and laugh and applaud and yell for more when the 6,700 feet is run. And you'll talk about it for weeks. It cost a quarter of a million to make, but you can see it for 20 and 30 cents.

There will be special music in connection and also a Hank Mann comedy. It means the best evening's enjoyment you ever had. 14-1tc

The Ford car can well be called the "peoples car," because there are more than 3,000,000 of them in daily operation. That is about four to one of the nearest follower in the motor car industry. This would not be so if the Ford car had not for sixteen years proven its superiority in service, in durability, and in the low cost for operation and maintenance; this would not be so if the Ford car was not so easy to understand, so simple in construction that anybody and everybody can safely drive it. It's not what you make, but what you save that counts. Are you getting ahead or slipping behind? War Savings Stamps are pretty good non-askid chains.

How many War Savings Stamps did you get for yourself last month? They are $4.13 a piece in February and worth $5.00. The wise person puts away a little fund where it will be safe, snug and ready for use. Be wise!

Too much wishbone and not enough backbone is a bad combination. It takes backbone to save; wishbone won't get you anywhere, but Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps will if systematically purchased.

Ask your boy or girl about the Thrift-Savings Survey to be made in his school. Get interested in his financial education or her economic training, and you won't have to worry about your "young 'un's" future.

WAREHOUSE ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED AT BANDERA

Bandera New Era.
At a meeting of stockmen, farmers and business men at the court house Saturday afternoon, the Bandera County Ranchmen and Farmers' Association was organized with the following officers and directors: Ed Mansfield, president; Frank Montague, vice president; C. H. Blakeney secretary-treasurer. Directors: F. D. Barnes, Fred Thalmann, Frank Montague, C. H. Blakeney, E. Buck, Ed Mansfield and Fred Whisenhunt.

The object of the association is to provide storage for wool, mohair and other products at home and to handle the same in such manner as will be of greatest benefit to all concerned. The by-laws of the association, as adopted, fix the capital stock at $7,500 and the shares will be $10 each. As soon as the stock is subscribed the association will be incorporated under the State laws.

At the meeting almost every man present subscribed for stock and although there were not very many present over $1,300 was subscribed. The directors will push the sale of stock and hope to make the association county-wide, and outside the county members will be welcome. Anyone may become a member by subscribing for one or more shares of stock.

On Tuesday the directors contracted for the purchase of the old Carmichael & Hay property, consisting of the large stone store and saloon buildings and six lots, for a consideration of $6,000. This will give the association ample storage room for a large amount of wool and mohair or other products that may be desired to be stored. This is very desirable property for the purpose for which it is bought and the price is considered very low. The purchase was made from the Mauritz Bros. of Ganado and Geo. Hay of Bandera, the owners.

"A Fable"

Some cawing Crows, a hooting Owl,
A Hawk, a Canary, an old Marsh Fowl.
One day all met together
To hold a caucus and settle the fate
Of a certain bird (without a mate),
A-bird of another feather.

"My friends," said the Owl, with a look most wise,
"The Eagle is soaring too near the skies,

In a way that is quite improper;
Yet the world is praising her, so I'm told,
And I think her actions have grown so bold
That some of us ought to stop her."

"I have heard it said," quoth the Hawk with a sigh,
"That young lambs died at the glance
of her eye,
And I wholly scorn and despise her.
This, and more, I am told they say,
And I think that the only proper way
Is never to recognize her."

"I am quite convinced," said Crow with a caw,
"That the Eagle's mind no moral law,
She's a most unruly creature."
"She's an ugly thing," piped Canary
Bird;
"Some call her handsome—it's so absurd—
She hasn't a decent feature."

Then the old Marsh-Hen went hopping about,
She said she was sure—she hadn't a doubt—
Of the truth of each bird's story,
And she thought it a duty to stop her flight,
To pull her down from her lofty height,
And take the gilt from her glory.

But lo! from a peak on the mountain grand
That looks out over the smiling land
And over the mighty ocean,
The Eagle is spreading her splendid wings—
She rises, rises, and upward swings
With a slow, majestic motion.

Up in the blue of God's own skies,
With a cry of rapture away she flies.
Close to the Great Eternal:
She sweeps the world with her piercing sight;
Her soul is filled with the infinite
And the joy of things supernal.

Thus rise forever the chosen of God,
The genius-crowned or the power-
shod,
Over the dust world sailing;
And back, like splinters blown by the winds,
Must fall the missiles of silly minds,
Useless and unavailing.

BETTER SCHOOLS TAG DAY TO BE OBSERVED MAY 1

An organization for a State-wide "Better Schools Campaign" is now in progress. To provide funds for a great campaign for education, to be carried on next October in every county of Texas, a Better Schools Tag Day will be held in every part of the State on the first day of May. Supplies and circulars will be distributed through county chairmen to rural and town Tag-Day Chairmen. One-half of the amount raised in each county will remain in the county as a county campaign fund; the remaining half will be assigned to the State Campaign Fund. The request is to be made of those, who will carry on this work, to render to their State this service, with the same patriotic motives that prompted those who in the army drafts responded to the Nation's call.

Those who will make the small contribution asked for the May Day Tag are expected to respond as readily as they did to the Nation's appeal in the war drives which saved democracy. This campaign will be a great movement for the preservation in our State of the "guardian-genius of democracy"—education.

Chairman, State Campaign Committee.

The County Fair

Texas Monthly Review.

This is the time of year when arrangements are made for the county fair to be held in the Fall. Than the county fair there is no greater institution. It tends to sociable intercourse and to getting acquainted; it gives impetus to the dissemination of valuable information for all the people of a county, and while it is sometimes held with the selfish object of promoting trade rather than of broadening the influence and the knowledge of farming and live stock husbandry, that is usually offset by the good done through the getting together of the people of the community.

Naturally amusements are sought as the basis for the county fair, and the live stock and the big ear of corn are not the only things to be considered. There should be a care in the matter of these amusements. Good clean attractions can be provided with little more cost than is usually attendant upon cheap and questionable ones, though the latter make a profit that enables them to give the management a liberal percentage.

But in the end the community benefits more largely from clean amusements rather than from those which carry with them the gambling—not that, either, for in gambling there is a chance; it might better be said the "sure thing sucker games."
The county fair managements are attempting to revive horse racing, and that is always an attraction if the professional jockeys are debarred. It also tends to improvement of the breed.

Earth Song

Mother and maker of us all,
The flags are down, the trumpets
cease;
Dear war beneath its splendid pall
Has yielded place to living peace.
By all we wrought and all we said,
Make thy sons worthy of their dead.

We tore thy breast with steel and flame;
And in the hate that brimmed to flood,
Hard-smiting in thy holy name
We drenched the fields with brother-blood.
By that wild tempest hot and red,
Oh, make us worthy of our dead!

The pain, the wrath, the shame, the scorn
Are passing like the clouded night;
The promise of the growing morn
Is golden in the people's sight.
What thought is here that we should dread
If we be worthy of our dead?

There comes no challenge loud and vain,
No vaunting of unchastened pride;
No kingcraft fills a world with pain
That wrong of might be defied.
Oh, not in vain the millions bled
If we be worthy of our dead!

The little voices faint and fall;
A grander music fills our ears.
Only in dreams we hear the wail
Far-rising from the murdered years
While the new days lift up their head
Worthy of us and of our dead.

Above the graves the grasses nod,
Below the fort the poppies bow.
Mother of all, to thee and God
The war-taught nations make their vow—
By stars that shone and hopes that led
We shall be worthy of our dead!

Try One Brunswick Then Decide

The best way to know for yourself the superiority of the Brunswick Tire is to buy one and compare it.

That is, if the very name of Brunswick isn't sufficient proof to you, as it is to most men, that here is an extraordinary tire.

Thousands of men who have known the name of Brunswick for years, realize that a Brunswick Tire has to be the best—for a mediocre product could never bear this historic name.

Long before the Overland Trail became famous, the House of Brunswick was established. It was one of the chief users of rubber for fifty years before automobiles came into use.

No concern with such a history could afford to offer anything but the best. For reputations are built slowly, but can be quickly destroyed.

This is a practical guarantee that Brunswick Tires offer more than the usual, yet at no added cost.

ABBREVIATED FICKSHUN

Written for The Mountain
Sun by A. Podger.

Now the Pieces of the Treaty and the League Covenant is set aside for the campaign hunrrah, we might as well set down and settle up some other kind of questions. There's one question I'd like to have settled right away, and I'll tell you about it. Mr. Wilson says the treaty is left to the vote of the peoples, so that's what I'm going to do with this here thing I'm talkin' about.

If I decide it my ownself I might be wrong; an' if the editor he decides it for himself he might be wrong, too, which would make one too many wrongs. I'm jest as libble to be right as he ain't and vice-a-vorsy' or some, such thing. Therefore, it will be left to the plain peoples.

Now in votin' on this here proposition what I ain't told yet, but I aim to, it ain't every one that is goin' to get a chance to wield his ballot. They's some people that ain't qualified to do that. But they's a chance for them all to make good. It ain't goin' to be no great chore to get into this here game. You ain't goin' to have to make out no questionnaire, nor no income tax puzzle sheet, nor learn the use of the seven senses. It's a very simple thing what you got to do.

They's goin' to be a ballot, a little one, but it will count one, jest the same as if it was as big as a blood-hound's right ear. They ain't no extra expense to havin' it printed, neither. You won't even need no lead pencil for markin' your choice. It's to be a new kind of election. Them that's in favor of the proposition is to vote and them as ain't is to keep quiet in all the languages they know. That makes it a lot harder not to vote, cause I've always noticed that them as is opposed to anything and everything is the ones that talks the loudest an' longest time.

Now, the first thing for you to find out about is whether you're a disqualified voter or the other way to it. An' this is the way it is: If you're a subscriber to The Sun—that is, if your name is printed on one of them little yellow tags what is stuck to the corner of every paper—you're a voter, fully feathered and qualified.

Now, after your name on the yellow tag you'll see some figgers. Well, they wasn't, but they ain't got nothing particular to, do with the votin' but to increase the count.

Them little figgers show you to what date your subscription is paid unto. Now, when you look at that little yellow dinger and find you ain't paid up to date, your vote counts for half a vote. But you can get a full and complete vote by payin' up when you send in your vote.

Then, to make it square all round you gets an extra vote for every year your paid in advance. They actually is some folk as keeps their home paper paid in advance. Some how they have found out that they get a better paper when the editor works with a smile makin' his face all crooked an' homely, than when he works with a frown which soon generates a tooth ache.

Where whose ever name it is on the dinger has got a family he don't get no extra votes, but he has the pleasure of arguin' the question to home and castin' the decision of the majority; an' where there ain't no majority but a even division of opinion—well, we just can't enter into no local issues like that. It has been suggested by Uncle Milo that in such cases the vigorous use of a rollin' pin or neck-yoke will be a good way to settle the question.

Them that borrows a paper an' reads it ain't got no says so a-tail for such a feller ain't no booster of his own town.

Speakin' about lendin' your paper, would you lend a feller your umbrella and pin a yellow tag on it sayin' "This ain't yet paid for?" Maybe that's what the little figgers on the yellow dinger says. If they does, you can't come right out an' say, "Now, Bill, I pay for that there paper," can you? But that's off to one side. Get yourself in line an' clip off the corner of The Sun an' send it to the office if you want to vote on this here question.

Now, the question to be voted on is this: As patrons of the home paper you have a right to get what you want in its columns. It's more or less guess work with the editor: He tries to please every body an' it's an almighty hard job to even please the majority. So, with his kind permission, I'm goin to ask for a yellow tag vote whether "Podger's" column is to be continued or the space devoted to good advertisin' an' whatever else comes along.

So it's up to you. You get a vote for every year your paid up an' half a vote for anything less 'n that.

The Law of Compensation

"To him that hath shall be given, and from him that hath not, shall be taken away, even that which he hath."

We have heard good, sincere, intelligent and orthodox men puzzle over that passage of Scripture, groping for an interpretation which should, as they said, be free from the appearance of hardness and injustice which it bears on its face.

To us, we confess, there is no such appearance in the passage quoted. We regard it as merely a concise promulgation of the Law of Compensation on the job, so to speak, working out to its logical conclusion.

The truth of the statement, just as it stands, appears to us to be writ so large in the lives and daily experience of humanity as to need no amplification.

It is true of morals. It is true of intellect. It is true of character. It is true in many other applications, but it is of its financial aspect that we purpose here to speak. Like attracts like. The mass gathers and absorbs the itinerant atom.

It is an old, true saying that "It takes money to make money." How often have you heard, and how often have you said, "If I had a hundred dollars or five hundred dollars, or a thousand dollars, I could make this or that investment and make some easy money." But you lack the ready cash and you miss the opportunity, while he "that hath" the money embraces the opportunity and makes more money.

Look back over your past and you will see it thickly strewn with these lost opportunities. Look closely and you will see another thing; namely, that you have frittered away enough in small dribbles, pennies, nickels and dimes, which you thought too small to be worth bothering with, to have grasped most of those lost opportunities if you had only been thrifty and saving.

Now, face it squarely, if you are ever going to do anything or have anything, you must begin NOW slowly and patiently, little by little, to save and get a start. It is the only way. You have been wishing and hoping, but it has not gotten results. You will still be wishing and hoping when the Judgment Angel comes, if you depend upon that.

Stiffen up all along the line. Put your backbone where your wishbone has been and MAKE things happen instead of WISHING something would.

One of the sanest, safest ways to begin stopping the small leaks which have bled away your past opportunities is to pay cash for all your purchases. You will be surprised at the difference. Come in and let us figure with you on your next bill.

DO YOU LIKE TO GO FISHING?

You know, to a good sportsman, Shakespeare means something far more meaningful than "Hamlet" and "The Merchant of Venice." Your true angler may not know how Othello won Desdemona with wild and thrilling tales, but he could undoubtedly go the Moor one better with his stories of how he landed 'em one after another with Shakespeare fishing tackle. For he knows that Shakespeare means first, last and all the time the best tackle—the smoothest-running reels—the most dependable line—the luringest bait. To go fishing with Shakespeare stuff means that—if the weather is right—and the season is on—and you're not an utter boob—you're BOUND to get the biggest bass in the hole.
