Governor Cox has the following outstanding events in his life:

1870—Born at Jacksonburg, Ohio.

1889—Reporter-devil on a Dayton paper.

1898—Bought Dayton Daily News.

1903—Bought Springfield paper and formed News League of Ohio.

1909—Began first of two terms in Congress.

1913—Governor of Ohio.

1915—Defeated for Governor by Frank B. Willis.

1917—Defeated Willis and began second term as Governor.

1919—Began third term as Governor.

The Democratic candidate for President is considered a capable man and shrewd politician. He started from the grass roots and has achieved distinction by his own efforts.

Ohio has both candidates for the highest gift this country has to bestow in political preferment. They both started on the farm and graduated from the printing office as "devil" and each now own daily papers, which they personally keep an eye on.

Governor Cox is considered more of a mixer than Senator Harding, and might be termed more of a progressive. The former will also be termed more of a practical politician and one who is more acceptable to the liberal element of the country, which might include wine and beer, to be made and consumed at home.

Governor Cox also has more constructive legislation to his credit as chief executive of his State. He also has served in Congress, where he made a creditable record.

One thing that may cause quite a number of women, and some men, to vote against Governor Cox is the fact that he permitted his wife to secure a divorce after twelve years ago owing to "incompatibility" on her part. He has married again, which union has apparently been a happy one. However, there are some strict constructionists for the "First Lady of the Land," as the President's wife is always considered.

COX RECEIVES NEWS AS HE WAITS WITH OWN PAPER

Dayton, Ohio, July 6.—Gov. James M. Cox was at his newspaper publishing plant when he received word that he had been nominated as the candidate for President of the United States by the delegates to the National Convention at San Francisco. The word came in the form of a telegraphic flash at 4:40 a. m. Tuesday.

The Governor was in a small office where he had sat since 11:30 p. m. Monday.

When he received reports of the 43d ballot, Governor Cox made the first statement since the balloting started Friday. "Boys, it's all over and we have won," he said. "I think I will take a little smoke now."

He was interrupted by a shout from the telegraph operators. "Cox is nominated!" they cried. The crowd of men in the room surged forward, caught the Governor and with triumphant shouts hoisted him to their shoulders. The men bore the nominee to his front office, where Mrs. Cox had been waiting all night.

Mrs. Cox seized her husband, kissing him, and the tears streamed from her eyes. Then the Governor relaxed from the strain of the campaign and his eyes filled with tears.

Cox's paper got out an extra.

Cox excused himself from the crowd and went to the composing room to shake hands with all his employees. Governor Cox then went to the home of his life long friend and adviser, John McMahon, 87, one of the oldest attorneys of the Ohio bar.

The aged man appeared in night gown and slippers.

"Jimmy!" was all that he could say as he took the Governor in his arms.

"I wanted to be the first to bring you the news, in remembrance of all that you have done for me," the Governor said.

After the Governor had gone to his home this morning for a brief rest, he went alone to Woodlawn Cemetery and there at the grave of his mother prayed for half an hour.

The Governor's mother was at a New Year's reception given by President Grover Cleveland at the White House, January 1, 1895. She said to Cleveland:

"I have a son at home who will be here where you are now, some day."

The Governor related this story for the first time today.

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT FOR VICE PRESIDENT

Franklin D. Roosevelt was nominated as the Democratic nominee for Vice President by acclamation without a ballot. Several other names were at first suggested, but before a roll call could be had, Mr. Roosevelt was nominated.

Franklin D. Roosevelt got into politics at an early date. Unlike his distant relatives, the Theodore Roosevelt branch of the family, Mr. Roosevelt cast his lot with the Democratic party. His first public office was as a member of the New York Senate. He served in that place from 1910 until his appointment as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, when he tendered his resignation. Mr. Roosevelt's service in the New York Legislature had attracted attention to him to such an extent that he was offered the appointment when President Wilson entered the White House.

He still maintains his legal residence in the place of his birth, Hyde Park, New York.

Mr. Roosevelt is a fifth cousin of the late Theodore Roosevelt. His

TEXAS ATHLETIC STAR HAS CHANCE IN OLYMPIC

Austin, Tex., July 6.—Much satisfaction is felt in athletic circles of the University of Texas over the success of Joe Moss Jr. of Abilene in winning the 120-yard high hurdles in the recent Southern Olympic tryouts at New Orleans. Moss is captain of the University of Texas track team for 1920. His time at New Orleans was 15 seconds flat. His time was as fast as any made in the other tryouts over the country. It was equaled in this event by Yount of the University of Redlands, who made the race in 15 seconds in the Western trials in Pasadena, Cal. In the Eastern tryouts at Philadelphia, John M. Watt, unattached, made the time in 15 1/2 seconds, and in the Mid-Western tryouts at Chicago Smith of the Chicago Athletic Association made the same time as Watt.

With Moss trying all other men who are trying for the 120-yard hurdle representation, it is practically assured that the University of Texas athlete will represent the United States in the Olympic games at Antwerp, Belgium. It is not likely that the other men will be able to lower their time enough to beat him in the short time remaining before the final tryouts will be held. Moreover, the time made by Moss at New Orleans is not the fastest of which he is capable, for his record for the race is 14.45, which is within 1.5 second of the old world's record, and within 2.5 of the new world's record, recently set by the Canadian, Thompson. Whether Moss will be able to beat Thompson in the race is an open question. Previous trials favor the Canadian, but supporters of the Texan have high hopes that he may be able to defeat Thompson in a straight match.

Moss went from New Orleans to New York to accept a position with the National Bank of New York. About the middle of July he will go to Cambridge, Mass., where the final American Olympic tryouts will be held in the Harvard stadium.

Thurman Brown, formerly of the University of Texas, secured first place in the pole vault, with a height of 11 feet 9 1/2 inches, in the New Orleans tryouts. Brown, though not a student in the University this year expects to return in the fall, and is a man of no small athletic caliber. He has a long string of track victories to his credit. He will remain in the South at present, but will meet Moss in New York in July, from which city they will make the trip to Cambridge together.

The final winners at Cambridge will undergo a period of intensive training, preparatory for their departure to Antwerp, Belgium, where the Olympic games will be held in September.

NEW AND DANGEROUS PEST FOUND IN THE CORN FIELDS

Through the co-operation of L. A. Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner and Mr. Wilson of the Bureau of Entomology of San Antonio, we have found in the corn fields of the county a new and very menacing pest, that was within all probability imported from Mexico. In parts of Banderita and Bexar Counties, fields have been completely ruined from the ravages of this insect.

It is one species of the family known as the cucumber beetle, being green in color, with yellow stripes running length-wise on the outer edges of the wings. In size it resembles most of the field beetles we are all familiar with. It is too late this year for it to do our present crop any material damage, but now is the time to put into use all of the control measures possible or we will be without a corn crop next year, for in all probability it will have multiplied to such an extent that it will do serious damage.

At this time of the year we find the matured beetles feeding on the silks of the corn, most of the female species have taken the grass in the fields as their desired place for laying the eggs, which in turn hatch into a small worm; when developed it is about one-fourth to one-half inch in length and three or four times as large around as a hair.

In the spring after the corn has gotten a good start, even up to the time it is in silk, these little worms live around the roots of the corn and get their food by eating the feeder and support roots the stock have developed, leaving no root system other than the one long tap root. This causes the corn to fall in the field and die, and the infested places have the appearance of a severe wind storm having recently passed through that particular spot. From the worm stage they merge into the beetle, when they go to work on the silks and make it impossible for the silks to feed the ear, or pollinize.

The only method of control known at this time is rotation of crops, and where you have had corn this year, let me say that it will be poor judgment to plant corn next year on the same ground. The rotation of corn, wheat and oats would have a strong tendency to keep the ravages of this pest well under control if not to eliminate it entirely. Destroy as much grass and weeds as you can by fall plowing, and clean cultivation will add greatly to our chances of not becoming so badly infested. The rotation of crops will also aid materially in reducing many other insect damages that we have to contend with under the present system of one crop on the same land all the time, and produce better yields, as well as conserve the fertility of the soil. After you have read this article and gone into your fields, found a few of the beetles, don't think because you have only been able to find a few that you will not have any trouble from them later. Don't wait until you have a general infestation to start work trying to get rid of them—start NOW and save time, worry and expense of trouble next year. Will be glad to furnish any further information you wish.

I might make mention of the green bug, which damaged our oats so badly this spring, for it is almost sure that we will have them again this coming year. They live from one season to the next on the volunteer oats that we find in the fields, and you will notice in the spring, when they have shown signs of becoming active, that they always start in the shock rows where you are sure to have volunteer oats growing. Should you notice them early in the spring, where they have caused spots in the field by killing the oats, plow the spots deep, for by so doing you will stop the spread of that particular lot and if every one will follow that plan I am sure we will be more successful than we were this year.

The special road committee can now proceed to have the survey made for District No. 1, and also the engineering work, by which time it is trusted that the bond market will enable a sale to be found for the bonds voted and approved.

The contractors are now in need of bricklayers and some other workmen.

ATHLETICS LOSE TWO CLOSE GAMES TO STROUD PONIES

Kerrville Baseball Park, Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5.—The Kerrville fans as well as the amateur fans of this vicinity were handed a surprise package when the strong Stroud Motor Ponies of the Alamo City inflicted a double defeat upon the Athletics, taking Sunday's game by the score of 2 to 0, thereby handing the locals their first shut-out defeat of the season, and again taking the long end of the 3 to 2 score on Monday in a heart-breaking 11-inning contest.

Both games were featured by many sensational plays and the best brand of amateur baseball was presented by both teams, and were witnessed by a record-breaking crowd, which was entertained by all sorts of thrills and excitement throughout the contests.

Badger had the better of the breaks in the first game, striking out seven and allowing five safeties, while Schultz for the locals struck out four and only allowed four hits, three of which came in the fifth inning, accounting for the twin scores that easily cinched the game. In the seventh, Schochart for the visitors, stabbed Schultz's long drive to center in a clever running one-hand catch, saving the game, since the locals had second and third occupied. Robinson also featured in a spectacular catch, picking the pill off the fence in a jumping one-handed stab in the right garden.

The feature of Monday's game was a brilliant hurling duel between Schochart for the Strouds and Manny of the Athletics. By striking out five of the first six sluggers up, it looked as if Manny was in for another victory, but the Strouds connected with his shoots later and at opportune times for nine blows, while the Athletics only secured five safeties off of Schochart. Manny struck out fifteen batters, while Schochart only got four. The fatal score came in the eleventh, when with two men gone, Daddy Pendleton on second, Ledger registered a terrific two-base drive against the fence in game from the clutches of either fielder. Pendleton and O'Banion carried off the hitting honors for the visitors, each securing three hits, while McGinty registered a couple for the home guard.

The Leans also obtained sweet revenge when they evened the defeat handed them by the Fats on the Fourth last year by taking the long end of a 5 to 2 score in a 3-round battles. Batteries: Fats, Rees and Shaw; Leans, Wheelers and Thompson; umpire, Bobby Anderson.

The flashy Alamo Furniture Co.'s nine will face the Athletics the coming Sunday, and will bring another well-balanced team, so a hot game is ex-

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go... I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading the testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle... I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

SCREECH OWLS TAKE KANSAS TOWN; HURT MANY

Girard, Kan.—Screech owls moved into Girard and almost took possession of the town. The birds assumed a belligerent attitude, and numerous attacks upon persons were reported.

With the coming of darkness, the owls went into action. Persons sitting on their porches in the evening or walking on the streets carried umbrellas for defense.

Pearl Bond was hit on the back of the head. Believing he had been attacked by footpads, he dropped a suitcase and ran. He found an owl was the assailant. Mrs. J. W. Miley, wife of the county superintendent of schools, while in the Miley back yard was struck on the forehead by one of the feathered flock. George Duff, a farmer, was knocked down. He ran for cover. The next morning, before dawn, he ventured out again. Several owls flew at him and one struck him in the eye, blinding him. J. W. McCoy, a jeweler, was attacked twice at his home.

GEO. B. TERRELL FOR COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

S. P. Willison, Chief Justice Court Civil Appeals, Texarkana: "I have known Geo. B. Terrell of Cherokee County more than a quarter of a century; I have never heard his ability or his integrity questioned."

"That he has always been held in high esteem by those who know him best is evidenced by the fact that he has again and again been elected by the people of his native county to represent them in the Legislature, where he was recognized as an able, faithful law-maker. He is a practical and successful farmer and one of the best informed men in the State on public affairs."

"Should he be chosen as Commissioner of Agriculture, I feel confident he will prove to be one of the most faithful and efficient officials the State has ever had."—S. P. Willison, Texarkana, Texas.

C. E. Taylor, the Rocksprings tinner, has invented a device that may revolutionize the picking of cotton. Mr. Taylor has been working on it and experimenting with it for several years, and recently had it patented. With this machine a farmer will be able to get his cotton picked whether he has many human pickers or not. The current issue of Scientific American, Boston, has a description of the device, and already Mr. Taylor is receiving a lot of interesting correspondence from men who want it. The indications are that Mr. Taylor will make a fortune out of his invention.

Much local interest continues to be manifested in the Edwards County road matters. Some of the citizens are speculating in regard to what will be done with the comparatively small amount of road money now available.

Knights of Columbus

On the eve of Independence Day, the local Knights of Columbus gave a magnificent banquet in honor of Mrs. Wm. Kemper, who leaves this Thursday for Chicago via New Orleans in order to visit two of her cloistered daughters prior to her return to Portland, Ore. Miss Angeline Kemper will accompany her mother on this journey, as also her young nephew, Walter Kalvelage.

In harmony with the patriotic spirit of their fraternity, the Knights of Columbus made the farewell dinner to Mrs. Kemper a prelude to their Fourth of July celebrations. All the decorations of the large dining-hall had an air of true Columbianism. The long festive board was draped with a table-cloth in our National colors, and had napkins to match. In the center was a box of red, white and blue cut flowers above which floated half a dozen American flags. An eagle held each beautiful place-card in his talons. The salted nuts were served in dishes fashioned after our Republic's standard, and the after-dinner mints nestled in hand-made tricolor baskets.

Credit for the delicious menu and the tasteful arrangement of every dish and course is due to Miss Angeline Kemper, who tried to outdo her many previous triumphs in the culinary art. The best of fellowship and joviality prevailed and this helped to relish in rapid sequence, first the cherry cocktail, then the chicken soup and fricasse with French peas in potato nests and cabbage salad in pepper baskets. After this came tongue, potato balls, asparagus on rosettes and olives. Pearl was a more favorite beverage than Orange Crush, but everyone enjoyed the Angel Food with "Casey" ice-cream, on whose frozen peak waved a tiny Star-Spangled Banner.

Out-of-town K. C. visitors were invited to this festivity and joined the auto crowds next day in the general exodus to San Antonio for the dedication of the new club quarters.

Rt. Rev. A. J. Drossaerts blessed the $90,000 home after the Knights returned from the Cathedral Mass. His Lordship delivered an eloquent address, lauding the Brothers for their marvelous growth to 675,000 members from the time of their institution by Father Michael McGivney in 1882. He reviewed their judicious expenditure of two and a half million dollars for charitable and educational purposes prior to the World War and of their subsequent task, three times as costly, in maintaining over 500 free university scholarships and 150 vocational schools, enrolling 500,000 ex-service men and women, regardless of creed. In less than one year after the armistice, 300,000 employments were secured although no job under $3.00 per day was listed for our returning heroes.

In the titanic carnage, 1,200 K. C. secretaries ministered from 250 overseas huts and made themselves immortal, not so much for what they gave as for the manner of their giving. At the Coblenz bakery they established the world's record in dispensing over five million doughnuts during ten weeks. The first American to give up his life abroad was Lieut. Wm. Fitzsimmons of Kansas City. The last to die a few minutes before the official hour for the cessation of hostilities was Father Wm. Devitt of Holyoke, Mass. The first American to be decorated with the Distinguished Service Cross was Lieutenant Meyer of Chicago. All of this trio were Knights of Columbus showing the world by their courageous example what the best blood of our citizenship can accomplish.

A few Kerrville parishioners were among the ninety new candidates to be initiated into this benevolent and patriotic brotherhood. The newly created Knights were honored guests at the concluding banquet, where over six hundred plates were prepared although many more would have attended had it been possible to provide accommodations. Nearly two thousand Knights and their lady friends participated in the dance and card party on Monday night, where music and free refreshments were continued till the wee hours of the morning. The largest unit of any society that marched in the San Antonio parade on Independence Day was that of the Knights of Columbus, among whom we are proud to say were many of our Kerrville men who had gone to the largest city of the largest State to celebrate a safe and sane Fourth by giving their fellowmen an impressive lesson in patriotism.

Woman's Auxiliary

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church met last Friday, July 2, with Mrs. Geo. Morris at her camp six miles below town. This was one of the most enjoyable meetings of the year. A large number of visitors were present.

Miss Scofield was leader for the day. She fully discussed the first twelve chapters of the Book of Samuel, while Mrs. A. C. Schreiner told the story of Ruth.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES

ROY T. HOUTS, Pastor

Our hearts were made to rejoice last Sunday morning because of the addition of three members to our congregation. One by profession of faith and baptism, the other two by certificate of membership from other congregations. We are glad to see the people who come here taking their place in the church. If a new Methodist comes to town they ought certainly to know where they belong and come and take their place with us. You are a stranger but once.

Please remember the announcement made about the Conference collections. You will be notified this week what your share is, and you will be expected to meet that obligation immediately if at all possible.

The Sunday night services during July will be given over to a series of sermon-lectures on certain "isms" of the day. Last Sunday night the subject was Mormonism. Next Sunday night the subject will be Spiritism. You are urged to be present at these services.

All visitors in the city will be more than welcome to worship with us at 11 a. m. and 8:15 p. m.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. G. M. Macdougall, Rector

The Woman's Guild of the Episcopal Church was delightfully entertained by Mrs. John Pampell at her handsome residence on Tuesday afternoon. Altogether there were thirty-one persons present. The proceedings were opened by the President, Mrs. R. Galbraith, conducting the customary devotional exercises, after which Miss Fanny Huntington read the minutes of the former meeting. The president then read an appeal from the Near East Committee, asking for warm clothing for the destitute Armenians. The members agreed to send in a quantity of suitable articles. Other routine business was transacted and it was agreed to hold no meeting next month. Several new members were admitted. Mrs. John Burney sang two very pleasing songs which were heartily appreciated. The "Stacatto Polka" especially captivated the hearers. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her house guest, Mrs. Gutzeit, of San Antonio, and the Misses Myrtle Rose Dietert and Bess Russell. These consisted of orange ices decorated with sprigs of mint and cherries; golden cake, silver cake and nut cake were also served. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Pampell were Mesdames R. Galbraith, Braeutigam, Macdougall, Wheelless, Gus Schreiner, Reed, Palmer, Scott Schreiner, Henkins, Perry, Gutzeit, Weiss, Lee Mason, Charles Mason, Baldridge, John Burney, J. B. Young, Theo Dietert, and the Misses Fanny and Sally Huntington, Mable and Claire Marsh, Lynn and Reba Burnett, Josephine Combes, Florrie Galbraith, Myrtle Rose Dietert and Bess Russell. The Rector also looked in during the evening.

The reorganized Choir is giving great satisfaction and the "Amen" was sung for the first time last Sunday, giving an air of reverence and solemnity to the devotions. A handsome American flag was draped over the altar and the sermons were pre-eminently patriotic. One member is going to present a permanent flag to the church. The congregation was as usual large at the morning service.

K.M.S. Bitten by Rattlesnake

Hunt, Tex., July 6.—While gathering vegetables in her garden yesterday, Mrs. Clieve Griffin was bitten on the ankle by a large rattlesnake. The snake, of the diamond backed variety, did not rattle and coiled at once for a second strike.

Mrs. Griffin received medical aid at once, but is in a critical condition.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

The work does not move up to its best these days because of rainy Sundays, but we will never complain at any kind of weather our Heavenly Father sends us. Some are not much afraid of a few clouds but others are. Christian heroism and the will to sacrifice convenience and feeling are great virtues. We are for more of the spirit that wins in our church. A filmsy, easily balked christianity will never get us anywhere. We want to put self in the background and Christ first in everything. He must be Lord of all or He will not be Lord at all. Let us not think we can be successful in His work without the spirit of sacrifice, for it was our Lord's sacrifice that saved us. Nor can we save others without being willing to suffer for them. The church of God is no society of club or spiritual playground, but a saving force of righteousness in the community. If it is not that it is a farce.

The death of Bro. R. S. Newman last week overwhelmed us all with great sorrow. He was a man everybody loved and believed in. His splendid faithfulness and loyalty of life could be seen in all the relationships of his life. He loved and was loved. Multitudes have spoken of the high esteem in which they held him. The large crowd at his funeral and the beautiful floral memorials for the grave spoke louder than words of the sincere regrets of a sorrowing community. The singing was as sweet as we ever heard at a funeral and the sympathy of many friends was beautiful to behold. He has gone to the Father's House above, but we will see him in the Sweet Bye and Bye.

Howard Butt has been confined to his bed for some time. He is better now. We greatly miss our people who are sick or have loved ones who are sick, and hope the Lord will soon give them back to us.

Next Sunday morning we will have a special song at 11 o'clock by the Sunbeams. Miss Faye Turley is proud of them.

Bro. G. O. Turley and wife united with us last Sunday night by letter from the Baptist Church at La Feria, Texas. We welcome them into our fellowship.

Our Sunday School teachers and officers are trying hard to bring our Bible School up to the A-1 Standard of Excellence. We will succeed if we are patient and faithful. God give us these graces for all our workers.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist Church met in their regular business session in the basement of the church on Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. J. B. Holt, president, presiding. Matters of business were discussed and voted upon that will be of great helpfulness to the society and church as a whole.

Mrs. Garret, who has so faithfully and successfully served the society as secretary-treasurer, handed in her resignation, on account of her health. The society accepted the resignation with regrets, and thanks for her efficient service in this office.

The Hunt School, with Prof. T. W. Hammond, assisted by Miss Maude Pepper, will close Tuesday, the 13th inst., and give a concert with all grades taking part. The "flu" caused such a long suspension in the winter, making the school late in closing, but the attendance has been splendid.

Mrs. Clieve Griffin, while gathering vegetables in her garden Monday was bitten on the ankle by a large rattler. Drs. Walsh and Mackey attended her and she is getting along fairly well.

Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Owen and children of Little Rock, Ark., are guests for the summer in the J. W. Bratton home.

WHERE CHRIS MISSED IT

If War Savings Stamps, which can be gotten at all postoffices and banks now, had been on sale back in 1492 and Christopher Columbus had bought just $100 worth the day he discovered America, his heirs today would have a fortune of more than $2,000,000,000—more than the entire amount of the First Liberty Loan. That's what the little old compound interest earned by War Savings Stamps will do.

A FOOL AND HIS BOND SOON PART

—Modern Proverb

A discontented scowl clouded Joe Peterson's brow as he crumpled up the afternoon paper. "Liberty Bonds are down again," he grumbled to Bill Coleman who sat beside him. "And they are the stuff the silver-tongued orators that sold 'em said were good as gold. I think I'll sell mine before they go lower."

"What right have you got to think," answered Coleman. "The way you talk is enough to show that from the shoulders up you are mostly solid ivory."

"It don't take much thinking for me to know that I paid $100 for every one of my bonds and that now I can only get $85 or $90 for 'em. That don't look like they were as good as money, does it?" "It's just what it looks like," con- tinued Bill contentedly. "The reason the price of Liberty Bonds is down is because a lot of people have been using them for money, like a $5 bill that was so hot they are afraid it'll take fire if they wait a minute to spend it. The bonds are as good as gold, all right, but they never were meant to buy chips in a Saturday night poker game or to spend for a bright blue suit of clothes with a red necktie, a green shirt, and yellow shoes, like I saw young Klopaky wearin' last night. When the people who bought 'em sell 'em and spend 'em like they were something they found in an old vest, it's bound to knock the price down and keep it down till they quit spending that way."

"I don't see it," said Joe stubbornly. "They're Government obligations and the Government ought to keep them good at their face value."

"I told you you were as thick as a concrete engine bed," said Bill. "You loaned your money to the United States and the United States promised to pay you back in full with interest. The United States will pay you back 100 cents on the dollar but not until it is due. Remember though you are getting a nice slice of interest on your bonds every six months. Suppose you come to me as a friend and say, 'Bill, I got $125.67 coming to me in the old pay envelope the 30th of next month, but I need a piece of coin now. Lend me $100.'"

"I know you're good for it and that you'll pay and you know you'll pay and so I lend you the hundred until the 30th of next month. But suppose I come around to you day after tomorrow and say, 'Joe, gimme the hundred bucks you owe me.' You tell me right away to go take a long jump in the lake but not to make no splash because it'll disturb the fish. You know you are going to pay me, but it ain't due."

"Then suppose I go around to Izzy Kaplan, the demon loan shark, and say, 'Izzy, Joe Peterson owes me a hundred bucks that he's goin' to pay the 30th of next month, but I want the coin now. I don't need it, but I want to wear out the pockets of my pants carryin' it around. You take the debt and gimme the money. Izzy right away says, 'Me and my money ain't on earth for our health. I'll give you $85 for what Joe owes you.' And I take it."

"I'm a plain sucker, ain't I? I lose $15 I am sure to get just because I want to fiddle something against my keys. And you'd think I was a fine kind of a friend actin' that way, wouldn't you? Well, this country's been a pretty good friend to you, Joe. You got no license actin' rough with this Government."

"I guess you're right," said Joe. "I never looked at it in that way. I don't need the money now, anyhow."

"Not now," answered Bill. "But in 1932 when the bonds fall due you or young Joe, who will be growing up then, may be mighty glad of a nice little nest egg tucked away. More over, if you not only hold what bonds you have but buy more, you let the other fellows be the suckers while you take a sure profit. Think that over and you'll realize you have something on your shoulders beside your suspenders. And in the meantime, take it from me, about the best thing you can do for yourself is to salt away a $5 or $10 bill in War Savings Stamps at the postoffice every pay day."

Another Royal Suggestion
PIES and PASTRIES
 From the NEW ROYAL COOK BOOK

CHEER UP! There is no further reason for worrying about table variety. The new Royal Cook Book gives new suggestions for every meal every day. The book is so full of surprises there will never be another dull meal in the home. Here are a few suggestions from the new Royal Cook Book.

Apple Pie
 1 1/2 cups flour
 1/4 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 tablespoons shortening
 2 apples, or 1 quart sliced apples
 2 tablespoons sugar
 1 teaspoon milk
 Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add shortening and rub in very lightly; add just enough cold water to hold dough together. Roll half out on floured board; line bottom of pie plate; fill in apples, which have been washed, pared and cut into thin slices; sprinkle with sugar; flavor with cinnamon or nutmeg; wet edges of crust with cold water; roll out remainder of pastry; cover pie, pressing edges lightly together and bake in moderate oven 30 minutes.

Plain Pastry
 This recipe is for one large pie with top and bottom crust
 3 cups flour
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 cup shortening
 cold water
 Sift together flour, salt and baking powder; add shortening and rub in very lightly with tips of fingers (the less it is handled the better the paste will be). Add cold water very slowly, enough to hold dough together (do not work or knead dough). Divide in halves; roll out one part thin on floured board and use for bottom crust. After pie is filled roll out other part for top.

Rich Pastry
 2 cups pastry flour
 1/2 teaspoon Royal Baking Powder
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup shortening
 cold water
 Sift flour, baking powder and salt; add one-half shortening

What Good Is a Dollar?

IT'S LARGELY UP TO YOU. It depends on how you spend it—on the value to you of what you get for it—on your ability to find where that value is to be had.

Of course, it's all right to shop around a bit if you like, but why not let the other fellow make it easier for you by doing a little shopping after your dollar—by showing you what you want and where you can get most of it for your money?

It's a great idea, once you get the hang of it, and here's how!

Right in The Mountain Sun you'll find various advertisements offering you merchandise. Some things you'll need today; some tomorrow; some next week or next year—but the point is that these merchants are coming to you, looking for your dollar and offering the best they have to get it.

You'll find, that by reading the advertisements in The Mountain Sun consistently this week and every week, you can increase the value—to yourself—of every dollar you have to spend. The things you see advertised are almost invariably as represented. The advertisers' statements are usually safer to trust than your own judgment. Advertised misrepresentation is business suicide.

Read the Advertisements and Increase the Value of Your Dollar

If you want to know if you are going to be a success or a failure in life, you can easily find out. The test is simple and infallible!

Are you able to save money?

If not, drop out! You will fail as sure as you live! You may not think so but you will! The seed of success is not in you!

—James H. Hill.

Have you bought that War Savings Stamp this month?

IS THE SAVAGE AHEAD OF YOU?

The Savage lives within his income. Do you? But he lives only for today. Do you live only for today?

The Savage doesn't look ahead and he doesn't get ahead. Are you in the Savage's class or are you looking ahead and getting ahead?

The Savage is no better off today than he was yesterday. Are you? The Savage will be no better off next year than he was last year. Will you?

War Savings and Thrift Stamps will put you in the Look Ahead and the Get Ahead Class. Save! Buy W. S. S. regularly.

War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps will make you better off tomorrow than you were today—better off next year than you were last year. Save! Buy W. S. S. regularly.

War Savings Stamps are paid when crops fail; a pleasure trip when you want it, the first payment on a home, the beginning of a college education, a start in life; a rainy day fund.

Buy them regularly from your bank—your Postmaster.

War Savings Stamps pay you interest at the rate of 4%, compounded every 3 months. Your W. S. S. are redeemable at your Postoffice with accrued interest on ten days' notice to your postmaster, if you need your money. The longer you hold W. S. S. the more money they make for you.

SAVING WITH U.S. SAVINGS STAMPS

The men and women of the Eleventh Federal Reserve District (Texas and parts of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Louisiana) have saved more than $100,000,000 by investing in $5.00 War Savings Stamps which bear 4% interest, compounded quarterly.

By saving their nickels and dimes and exchanging them at the bank or postoffice for Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps, the school children of the Eleventh District have saved more than $14,900,000.00. The school children of Texas alone have saved $13,000,000.00 this way.

War Savings Stamps help men, women and children to save and get ahead. They pay a good rate of compound interest, are issued in large and small amounts. For building up a personal safety savings fund they are ideal. Buy one or more W. S. S. every pay day and see your savings grow. They can be had at the postoffice or bank.

HOW FAYETTE COUNTY PEOPLE ARE SAVING

Fayette County, Texas, is a community of homes and large families. Its inhabitants are proving that it is also a community of thrift, saving and safe investment and disproving the theory that large families are an obstacle to saving. These facts are clearly shown by reports to the Savings Division of the Treasury from residents of foreign birth and extraction who have pledged themselves to save systematically a certain sum before the end of this year and invest it in government securities.

John Baca, with 12 members in his family, heads the list with a pledge of $500 between now and Dec. 31. Josef Stryk and J. Smolik, each responsible for the support and happiness of 7 citizens and F. L. Herzik with 4 in his family have each pledged themselves to buy $100 worth of War Savings Stamps before the new year. Josef Stasny has a household of 10, but he declared himself both able and willing to save and invest a like amount.

In the $50 column are Frank Buzek, John Michal and John Mikulik Sr., all with families, while John J. Novak with 2 and J. Horelica with 11 dependent upon them are going to save $10 each. What are you going to save?

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Kerrville. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

Tom Eaton, farmer, Kerrville, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best remedy I have ever used. My kidneys were in a bad fix. I had severe backaches and such a soreness across my kidneys that I could not do much stooping or lifting. When I got up morning I was stiff and lame. At times I had sharp catches through my kidneys. The secretions passed irregularly. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them, getting my supply at the Rock Pharmacy. They went right to the spot and it was not long before the pains and aches left my back and my kidneys were in good shape."

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Eaton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Let Your Dealer "Show You"

It is a very prevalent custom, to order goods by the "quarter's worth," or "half dollar's worth," but the custom is not a good one. It is much better to order by the pound or the yard or the gallon. Then, whether you have asked the price or not, your bill will show the price per pound, yard or gallon. In addition thereto, you can very easily verify the measurements or weights thus given whereas if you simply order "two bits' worth" or some other equally indefinite amount, it is very difficult with the means of weighing or measuring available in the ordinary household, to ascertain whether fair measurement or weight has been given, even if you know the price.

Now do not understand us to mean that it is usually necessary to weigh or measure your purchases. Upon the contrary, we do not believe that there is a merchant in Kerrville who would intentionally "short" a customer, but if there is, the system which will show him up, is a good one. Our plea is made however, for the sake of the honest, aboveboard merchant who gives you absolutely honest measure.

In these times of high and higher prices, you very often have the thought, "that is a mighty small dollar's worth," and, tucked away somewhere in the back of your mind, is a half formed suspicion that the weight or measure is unfair.

Don't you see that you owe it to the merchant, if he has been fair, to verify his measurement and remove that suspicion, and if he has not been fair, you owe it to yourself to prove it and stop dealing with him?

Intelligent buying will ring the death knell of rascality, if it exists, and justice to the public and to the honest merchant alike, demands that it shall be done.

COX AND ROOSEVET DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES

wife, also a Roosevelt, is a niece of the former President. Their family consists of five children—Anna Eleanor, James, Elliot, John and Franklin Jr.

From the start of his political career, Mr. Roosevelt has aligned himself with the progressive element of the Democratic party. He had the hardihood to jeopardize his whole future at the beginning of his legislative service in New York by making a fight against bossism. In the New York Senate he was leader of a group of independents, unbossed legislators

Platform

The Democratic platform was mostly dictated in Washington by President Wilson and copied by his emissaries at San Francisco. It appears, even at that, it is a better platform than the one submitted by the Republicans.

After scoring the Republicans for their sons of commission and omission, as the Republicans did the Democrats in their platform, the Democrats declared for the Peace Treaty as President Wilson has insisted it should be—without any reservations that impair its original entirety. Of course, there was inserted a proviso that some amendments would be accepted, but not of a vital nature.

The Democratic platform does not come out as squarely against the profiteers as it should. Neither does the Republican document, however.

There is no mention made of the prohibition amendment nor of the Volstead Act. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Cochran were each defeated on the dry and wet provisions which they introduced in the convention. They received great ovations, especially Mr. Bryan.

The Democratic platform is a little more favorable to organized labor than the Republican, but neither are satisfactory to the laborites.

The main declarations of the platform for anything or anybody are its parts lauding President Wilson.

There is a chance to permit the Presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket to interpret the platform, as is the case with the Republican. These nominees can make the platform wording suit their own interpretation.

The Dallas News has this reference to the ingredients of the completed platform that is quite appropriate:

"Platform prescriptions, like those of a doctor, are something of a secret to all save their authors and the men who are to fill them. They are not easily decipherable by any one else. One can make out but few of the ingredients; the others are to be guessed at. One can only guess what any plank in either platform would read like if translated into the language of the statutes. But that a statute resulting from any plank in the Republican platform would not differ radically from a statute resulting from the corresponding plank in the Democratic platform would be a pretty good guess."

Got Wires Crossed

The leaders of the Texas delegation got their wires crossed when the vote of the State was enrolled against W. J. Bryan's dry amendment. Cone Johnson was the floor leader and attempted to rectify the mistake, but could not do so.

Thomas Mitchell Campbell believes that the members of the Texas delegation violated the instructions of the Democrats of Texas when they declined to vote for the bone-dry prohibition plank of William Jennings Bryan Friday.

Campbell, Cullen F. Thomas, Judge Joe Burkett and others are incensed at the recorded vote of the Texas delegation against a plank which "congratulated the Democratic party on its victory for prohibition."

Our Policy for Half a Century

When Thrift perches on the window sill, Extravagance walks out through the door. For it is a well known fact that Thrift and Extravagance cannot breathe the same air; it is impossible for both to exist under one roof at the same time; one must choose 'twixt the two. Which is preferable? Extravagance, that sees no further than the sundown of today—or Thrift, that offers the supreme satisfaction of seeing "rainy-day insurance" accumulate, and the future well provided for? This store has chosen Thrift. Hence its policy of "selling what is best, with price the second consideration." It is this policy of economy that has created the powerful incentives of "greater values" for the money—incentives that are saving many dollars.

Robb-Hendon

It is a surprise to many Kerr County friends to learn of the recent marriage of Dave G. Robb of Houston to Miss Cecile Hendon of Ardmore, Okla., which took place June 21st in Ardmore.

The young couple spent short honeymoon in Galveston, returning to Houston, where they will make their future home. A host of Houston friends greeted the young couple upon their return to Houston with a reception given in the home of the groom's parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. P. Robb, 2214 Yale Avenue.

The groom is a member of the 1916 graduating class of Tivy High School and is now connected with the Tel Electric Company of Houston.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hendon of Ardmore, Okla., and a popular young lady of that city. She attended Tivy High School here one year and made a host of friends during her stay.

The Mountain Sun joins with the many Kerrville friends in extending best wishes and a happy, prosperous future to these two.

A Tribute to R. S. Newman

Mr. Newman was a neighbor in the truest and finest sense of the word. In all our years of living near him we never found him unkind, ungentlemanly, inconsiderate or selfish. He understood the fine art of getting along with others because his heart was filled with Christian charity. We loved him and trusted him fully. He was ever solicitous and anxious about our welfare and happiness and always put himself out to help and cheer us when he found opportunity.

We will miss him more than we can express in words. Our hearts go out in loving sympathy for his bereaved family and loved ones. He is gone but the aroma of his splendid Christian life and character will sweeten our thoughts throughout the coming years.

From one who appreciated him fully.
