Mrs. Alice Graves Burton

The subject of this sketch was born in Tennessee, April 29th, 1856, and died last Saturday night, September 4th, at 10 o'clock, aged 64 years.

She became a Christian when only a girl and spent half a century in the service of God. Her loyalty to the Baptist faith and program was outstanding. She leaves to mourn her death a sister, Mrs. Jodie Koen of Memphis, Tenn., and two children, Mrs. H. C. Baker nee Ethel Burton and A. B. Burton of our city.

The funeral was held at the family residence Sunday afternoon, September 5th, at 4:30 o'clock, Rev. J. B. Holt, pastor of the Kerrville Baptist Church, and Dr. W. P. Dickey, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Two beautiful hymns, "Sun of My Soul" and "Asleep in Jesus," were sung at the home by a choir of friends and "Nearer My God to Thee" was used at the grave. Multitudes attended the service at the house and moved in the silent procession to the cemetery.

The casket at home was a bower of flowers and the grave was literally decked with them. This offering of flowers at the last was just the climax of many beautiful bouquets which filled her room during her illness. Being an ardent lover of the natural and of the beautiful, these flowers blended into the very characteristics of her lovely life.

Never was a sick Saint of God better cared for nor more tenderly and devotedly loved than was Sister Burton. Her children were the soul of sympathy and unselfishness, and her friends and neighbors put themselves literally at her disposal. Every one who knew her tried to help make her last days on earth as peaceful as possible.

Mrs. Burton loved others more than she did herself. Her devotion to her children was as Christ would have it and to love and help her neighbors was a delight to her.

During the days of her suffering she never complained, but was patient, unafraid, calm, cool, resigned and ready to go at the Father's call. Her splendid spirit was not at all chilled by her afflictions, and her independence and strength of will were never impaired even to the end.

She is gone, but will never be forgotten. Till then, farewell.

"Sleep on beloved, sleep and take thy rest,
Lay down thy head upon the Savior's breast;
We love thee well, but Jesus loves thee best—Goodnight, until we meet again before His throne, Clothed in the spotless robe He gives His own,
Until we know even as we are known—Goodnight."

N. Herzog and D. H. Comperette start this (Friday) morning for trips North and East. The former will stop in Indiana to visit a cousin he has not seen in many years, and then go to New York for a visit. The latter goes to Ohio to visit his mother, who is 80 or more years old. Each of our esteemed citizens will have a grand time, and, considering their ages, will doubtless become quite frisky. Both claim the credit of having to look after the safety of the other, but it is the opinion of their many friends that it would be well if they had some one else to see that both kept just so, and that no harm came to them along the way.

ON ANOTHER SPEAKING TRIP FOR KERRVILLE SANATORIUM

G. M. Macdougall, rector of the local Episcopal Church is in great demand in securing contributions for the Kerrville Sanatorium. Last week he received several telegrams from those having the soliciting in charge, urging him to make trips and finally he consented to go to Sinton, Bishop, Kingsville, San Benito, McAllen, Mercedes and Brownsville.

Captain Ingram will accompany Rev. Macdougall. In advance of their meetings, Governor Hobby will wire leading citizens to get the people together to hear the addresses and also to render any assistance possible in securing subscriptions to the Kerrville Sanatorium.

Rev. Macdougall is to be commended for his untiring work and the contribution of his time. It is true, as an ex-soldier he feels an extra amount of interest, but there is a limit. He has proven so successful in his appeals that the management of the Sanatorium insist upon him giving all the time he possibly can.

MARTIN DIES BECOMES A CITIZEN OF KERRVILLE

Kerrville feels honored and is congratulating itself upon acquiring Ex-Congressman Martin Dies as a citizen.

Tuesday, Mr. Dies closed a deal with Jeff Duncan for the Charlie Vann residence and four or five lots, which is considered one of the prettiest natural sites in the city. He is planning to considerably improve the property.

Mr. Dies disposed of a fine farm near Beaumont, where he lived for a long while, and which section he represented in Congress for ten years. Had not his health failed him he would still have been in Congress, as he is one of the brainiest and most eloquent men who has served Texas in either the Lower or Upper House of Congress. He has really had only one equal in the estimation of many people, and that is Ex-Senator Joe W. Bailey.

Mr. Dies is a lawyer of exceptional attainments and is much sought in difficult cases, as he is unsurpassed before juries as well as learned in the law.
It is not only Kerrville, but this entire section will be benefited by Mr. Dies locating here. The Sun joins our citizenship in extending a cordial welcome to Mr. Dies and his estimable family.

County Commissioners

Geo. Deal of District 1, Hugo Wiedenfeld of District 3 and Chas. Rodgers of District 4, composing a quorum of the Board of County Commissioners, with Judge Lee Wallace presiding, met Monday and levied a county tax rate of 45 cents on the $100; State rate of 62 cents.

The assessment roll of County Assessor Walter Peterson was approved by the County Board.

PAT M. NEFF IS NOT TO DEMAND HIS LAND PLANK

Waco, Sept. 5.—Pat M. Neff of Waco, Democratic candidate for Governor, will not insist on his land plank being included in the platform adopted by the State Democratic Convention, which opens in Fort Worth Tuesday, according to a statement issued by Neff Saturday night.

"While I shall express freely my views to the platform committee as to legislative matters I shall not press the putting into nor the keeping out of the platform any special plank," says his statement. "For some years it has been the custom in Texas for the nominee, practically, to write the platform. This practice is wrong. The platform should express the views of the nominee only so far as such views represent the crystallized thought of the Democrats of the State. Nothing should be put into the platform that is not intended to be enacted into law. The platform should not be dictated by any one person, but should represent the combined wisdom of the representative democracy of Texas. I am confident that the convention will work out a platform that will meet the needs of Texas."

Remains Brought From France

The remains of Pvt. Jeff Leavelle were brought from France for burial in Glen Rest Cemetery. The body arrived last Friday afternoon, accompanied by a military escort, and interment was made Saturday at 4 p. m. following services at the residence of J. D. Leavelle.

The deceased was born in Kerr County, January 23, 1892 and died in France December 1, 1918.

In mentioning the fine cattle bought by Henke Bros. from Gus F. Schreiner. The Sun dropped out a figure one and the price was put at $6,000 instead of $15,000. Henke Bros. would like very much to buy 175 as fine cattle as they secured from Mr. Schreiner at the rate of $6,000.

BRIDGE ACROSS GUADALUPE CONVENIENCE TO THE PUBLIC

Contractor J. E. McCreary has recently completed a $10,000 reinforced concrete bridge across the Guadalupe just south of Kerrville on the Turtle Creek road and will soon begin the rebuilding of the bridge to the Thompson Sanatorium, which was washed out a few weeks ago. There will have to be about $5,000 expended on the repair of this last bridge.

While the bridge to the Thompson Sanatorium is considered a private enterprise, still it is generally used and the public ought to aid Dr. Thompson in rebuilding the bridge. The Sun will be glad to make a donation to the fund and also to give publicity to the subscription list. If any one desires to contribute, send notice to The Sun and leave your contribution in either of the banks of Kerrville.

The bridge south of town was built by popular subscription, but most of the burden was assumed by L. A. Schreiner, who can use it to his fine new home now being built, but he could have had a bridge constructed further up the river for considerably less money than what this one cost him and also it would have been nearer his new home, but he preferred to have a bridge built where it would be more convenient to the public though costing him considerably more.

OUTLOOK GOOD FOR VERY SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL TERM

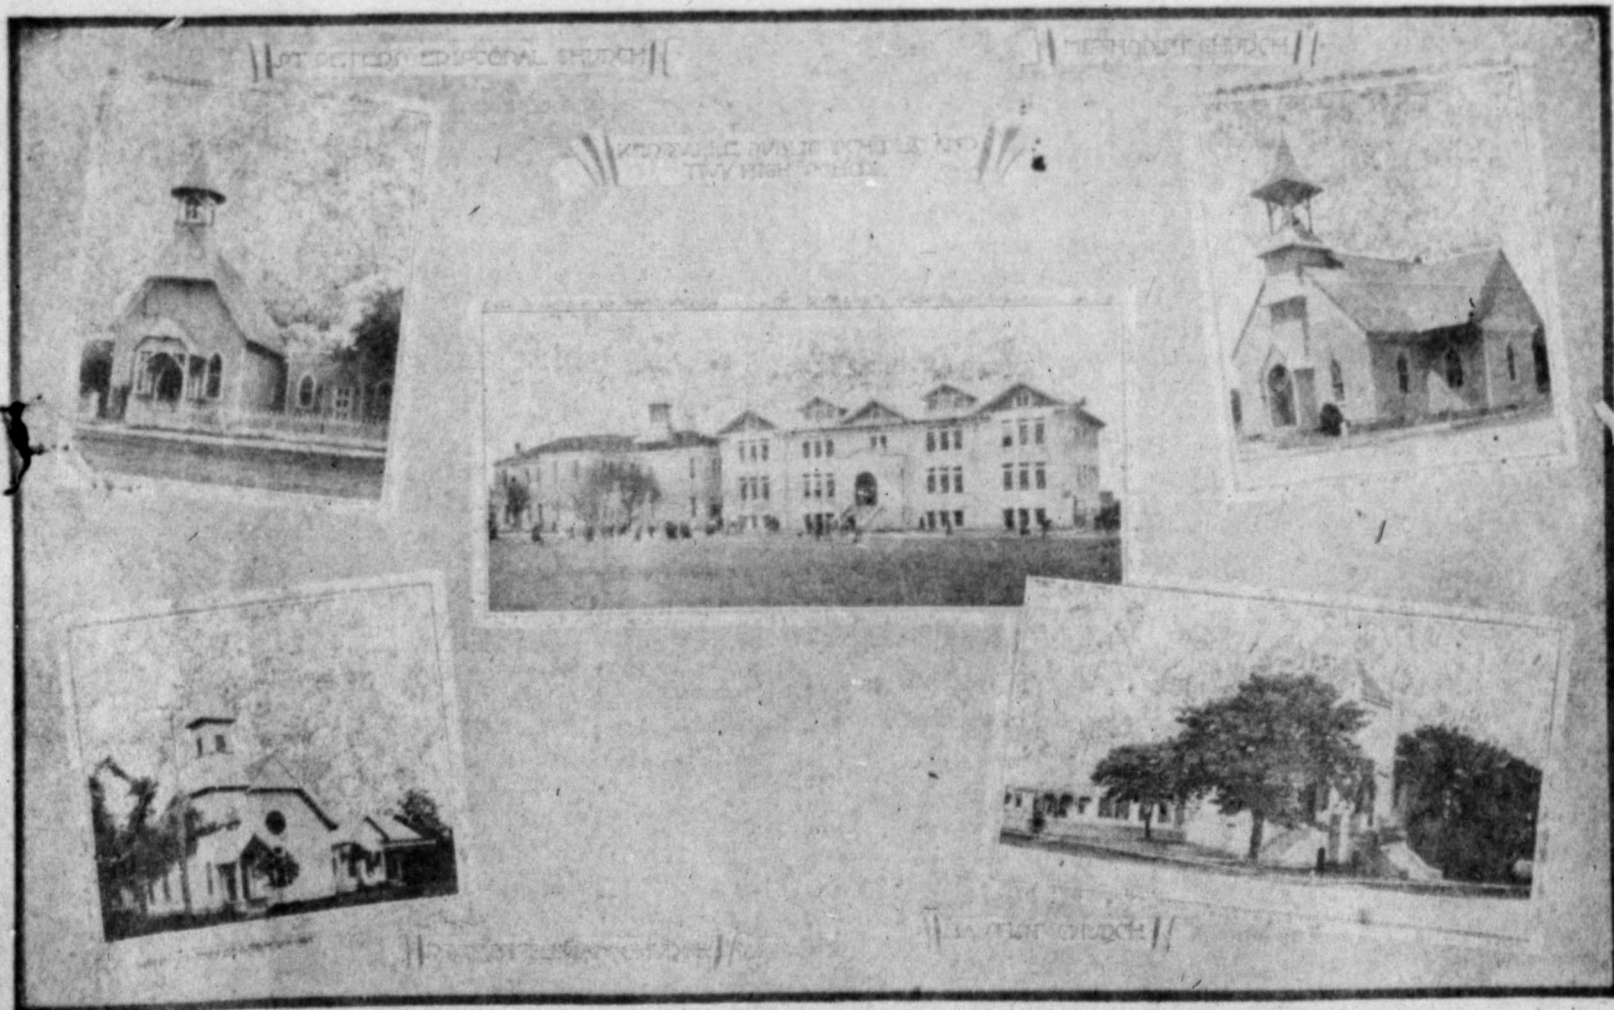

The Public Schools of Kerrville, which open next Monday promise to be very successful the coming school terms. There is an increased attendance and an excellent corps of teachers to properly instruct them.

Within the city limits there are 575 pupils of school age, and those transferred from other districts bring the total to 692.

Owing to the scarcity of teachers it has been difficult to secure the full number desired and of the high degree of efficiency required. However, by active and zealous work on the part of A. E. Seif, president of the board, and J. D. Bowden, secretary, ably assisted by Supt. Raymond A. Franklin, there has been gathered an excellent corps of teachers.

It may be necessary to add others after the schools get in operation. The following is a list of those so far selected:

Raymond A. Franklin, superintendent; Prof. Jordan, High School principal; Mrs. A. Taquard, Misses Nellie Horn and Maude Brooks, High School teachers; Misses Eva Strawn, Lynn Burnett and Deila Mae Lee, grade teachers; Mrs. Fred R. Real, primary, and Miss Leah Hayes, kindergarten.

STATE FAIR TO HAVE BIG MEXICAN EXHIBIT

Neighboring Republic Already At Work on Plans For This Event

The State of Texas and the United States has received a distinct compliment through the fact that the new Mexican government has consented to send to the State Fair of Texas for the season of 1920 the Mexican

One of Mexico City's Famous Bands Will Accompany the Exhibit

National Exhibit, the great fair in itself that the neighboring republic to the south sends—and only on rare occasions—to visit foreign soil.

The Mexican exhibit will be one of the rarest and most entertaining features ever offered by the State Fair. It will include showings from every state in the Mexican union, portraying the industrial and agricultural production of Mexico, and the unbounded raw resources of that nation. This exhibit will occupy the entire outer space of the State Fair Coliseum building.

As a part of the guard of honor that will accompany the exhibit, Mexico will send one of her world-famous bands. There are three of these bands in Mexico City, all noted musical organizations.

Senor Luis Lupian, special representative of General Jaclato B. Trevino, secretary of the department of Industry and Commerce, visited Mr. Stratton and the State Fair recently, and spent two days in going over plans for the event. He returned to Mexico, and his visit and its results met with the entire approval of his superior, as General Trevino's department has already notified each Mexican state of plans made, and giving them their assignments.

REPUBLICANS REFUSE TO FORM COLLUSION WITH AMERICAN PARTY

San Antonio, Tex., Sept. 4.—San Antonio Republicans have refused to form a collusion with the American party, and in doing so they have followed the principal laid down by State party leaders, according to P. G. Lucas, a member of the board of directors of the local Republican organization. Rumor has been circulated for days that the Republican and American parties would join to defeat the Democratic nominees in November.

The question was discussed at a meeting of San Antonio and Bexar County Republicans at the St. Anthony Hotel Tuesday afternoon, when the Harding-Coolidge Club was formed. The club succeeds the Bexar County Republican Club, all members of the latter to become associated with the former.

Dr. F. L. Thomson, president of the club, who returned Tuesday from a conference with J. G. Culbertson of Wichita Falls, Republican candidate for Governor, and other Republicans as well as leaders of the American party, held at Houston, told the meeting that the State leaders had refused to consent to any sort of a compromise or agreement with the American party, and that the Republicans intend to fight their own battles.

It is understood that the American party leaders had offered to turn over 100,000 votes to the Republican party in Texas, if an agreement could be reached. The report was that the American party candidate for Governor was to withdraw from the race, in favor of the Republican candidate.

The Republicans, Lucas said, did not want to take into the party any but Republicans.

J. G. Culbertson, the Republican candidate for Governor, will visit San Antonio in a few days.

EGG-LAYING CONTEST AT STATE FAIR POULTRY SHOW

One of the novelties afforded by the State Fair of Texas season for 1920 will be the Egg-Laying Contest conducted on the grounds by the Poultry Department. It promises to be the center of interest for that section of the big exposition.

The plans for this event include the entry of fifteen pens of six females each. These will be brought into the department the opening day of the Fair, October 9, and placed in pens particularly assigned. They will then be placed under lock and key, the pens to be examined by the judges only, and decisions made on the final day of the State Fair season, October 24. The contest is expected to bring into competition some of the finest laying breeds known to American fanciers.

In addition to this event, the regular program for the poultry and pet stock department of the Fair promises much. The premiums are very liberal, and entries are already coming in at a rapid rate. S. T. Morgan is director in charge, and Walter Burton is superintendent.

Stop Buying So Much Gas!

The Overland Sedan

Costs by the Month, Saves by the Mile!
Eats Up Distance, Saves Dollars!

On a railroad, it is the trip and not the ticket that completes the transaction; and it is so with an automobile. No institution can build up goodwill on good-byes.

The Willys-Overland Organization is just as interested in Overland owners after they have bought as before they are sold.

Saving you money on up-keep is just as important as saving you money on the price of the car. And when gasoline began to go up four years ago, word went out to our designers that Overland owners must be protected, and the price of gasoline must be brought down—but not at the price of comfort!—get that, for that was the crux of the problem.

Hypothetically, it was impossible, and yet—

Under stimulus of a great public need, and spurred on by the pride of a great reputation, the designers of the Overland have Done the Thing that Couldn't be Done!

they have unraveled still another insoluble secret of mechanics, by creating that marvel of mechanism, the new Suspension Triplex Spring, permitting the use of light alloy steels for economy, and acting as a pneumatic buffer between the Road and You!

What the new Overland car and its remarkable improvements cost to create we shall never know. But we do know that it cost $6,000,000 to get ready to incorporate them into the new Overland car, and that the Overland car was a great car before these improvements were initiated and adopted.

So it seems a fair conclusion: That an institution that will voluntarily upset the ramifications of one of the greatest automobile manufacturing plants in the world, in order to reduce the gasoline bills of Overland owners, justifies the past, the future, and the immediate confidence of the American people.

WARNING IS GIVEN TEXAS DEMOCRATS BY JOHNSTON

To the Dallas News.
Houston, Tex., Sept. 3.—It is estimated that in the primary election held on the 28th of August approximately 100,000 women cast their ballots. If this estimate be reliable, and there is no room to doubt that it is, then Mr. Neff was nominated by the women, because it is quite certain that Senator Bailey did not receive at the outside more than 10 per cent of their votes. Thus it is apparent that Bailey got a majority of the male voters of the State.

This circumstance is going to cause a very great deal of serious reflection on the part of many people, for the reason that it forces into the campaign now on for the governorship, to be decided in the November election, some new angles which may prove to be disturbing.

In the first place, there be those who believe—and the politician must not hug the delusion that they are few in numbers—that the votes of the women in the Democratic primaries were illegal votes. They believe the decision by a majority of the Supreme Court in the suffrage case was a partisan political decision, and, believing this, they will resent the defeat of Senator Bailey by what they consider a bench-made ballot. The sequel, or consequence, of this belief will not be hard to figure out.

I want it distinctly understood that in writing this I am not seeking to cast any sort of reflection upon the women of Texas. They had a perfect right in the circumstances to vote, and to cast their votes as to them seemed best. I differ with them only to the extent of believing that they made a serious mistake when they signalized their entrance into politics by massing their votes purely upon a matter of prejudice, losing sight absolutely and entirely of every other consideration. I believe they will be made to realize this in time.

The Labor Vote

Another thing which Mr. Neff and his friends and advisers would do well to think about: Certain labor leaders and labor organs openly appealed to members of the unions, regardless of their party affiliations, to enter the primaries and vote against Bailey, and then to vote for the American party candidate in the November election. It is a notorious fact that many thousands of Republicans, Socialists, Nonpartisan Leaguers, etc., followed that advice and voted for Neff. Just how many may be numbered in this class will never be known, but that every one of them can be counted as against the Democratic nominee may be accepted as a certainty.

In this connection I may call attention to something which many have overlooked, and which, in a political sense, is quite important as furnishing perhaps the real explanation of the tremendous shortness of the Democratic primary vote, about which we all have been speculating lately. Texas has had a wonderful growth during the last few years. The increase in the population of the cities and towns has been little short of marvelous. This increase has not, as formerly, come from the Democratic States of the South; it is direct from the Republican States and Socialistic centers of the West. A great majority of these new citizens are not Democrats, and may be depended upon to cast their votes against the Democratic nominees if they vote at all.

Minority Governors

In writing this I am not making any complaints. I have been in the political game too long to plead for the poor privilege of voicing disappointment caused by the result of any election, or to express resentment because of the many insults heaped upon my candidate for Governor and those of us who followed him to defeat. The only purpose on my part is to direct attention to conditions as I believe them to exist in Texas today. Already certain newspapers are saying it is all right, that the Democratic State ticket is safe as usual. It may be all right to feel this way, and the playing of good politics to say so in print, but let me direct the attention of those papers to a few historical facts. Some years ago the State of Pennsylvania, with 300,000 Republican majority, elected a Democratic Governor because of factional differences; Massachusetts, a rock-ribbed Republican State, frequently elects Democratic Governors; Governor Cox has thrice been elected Governor of Ohio, a strong Republican State, because of factional rows over local issues in Republican ranks. This is not all. In this great Democratic State of Texas in 1892, Governor Hogg was a plurality candidate, having failed of a majority, and the same thing happened to Governor Culbertson in his first race in 1894. In 1896, the fusion year, Culbertson was saved from actual defeat for re-election by the Republican vote of South Texas.

It might be well for certain politicians and leaders to ponder what is here submitted. While it may be suggestive of possibilities involved in the November election, I am making neither argument nor prediction. Simply I am filing a statement of facts for the consideration of all thinking Democrats.

R. M. JOHNSTON.

Fredericksburg Flashes

Standard, Sept. 4: The first bale of cotton was ginned at Fredericksburg at Pfeil's Gin last Saturday, August 29. Juan Lopez raised this cotton in the eastern part of the county. The bale weighed 618 pounds.

The Gillespie County vote in the recent primary was as follows: For Governor: Joseph W. Bailey of Cook County, 1,315 votes; Pat M. Neff of McLennan County, 114 votes. For Lieutenant Governor: Lynch Davidson of Harris County, 403 votes; W. A. Johnson of Hall County, 109 votes. For Associate Justice of the Supreme Court: William E. Hawkins of Travis County, 764 votes; William E. Pierson of Hunt County, 250 votes.

G. L. Teague showed us a stalk of cotton from his farm close to town—just an average stalk out of a 5-acre lot—that had 35 good bolls on it. A good many people wouldn't mind having several acres of such cotton, even if they blame the weevil for a good deal of damage. Of these 35 bolls all but two were at such a stage of advancement that Mr. Boll Weevil can no more harm them; but with 25-30 bolls to the stalk, we do not need new growth, as this assures a pretty nice crop. Mr. Teague also raised some fine peanuts, and he brought a bush along; they have not matured, are still setting, and at that the bush had almost three quarts of peanuts on it.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper

Notre Dame Reopened

The eighth scholastic year of Notre Dame Institute began on Tuesday of this week. During the last couple of weeks the building had been completely fumigated and overhauled. The school library was considerably augmented, notably by the acquisition of a set of the best encyclopedia. In the commercial department a tabulating, flexible-type adding machine was provided.

Wholesale house cleaning was carried on at the Guadalupe School. Over two thousand dollars were spent in acquiring and improving additional property. Through the activities of the Mexican ladies, several improvements were made in the Guadalupe Chapel.

Classes resumed for the Mexican children on Tuesday also, but a full enrollment is not expected till all the cotton-pickers return to our community.

The Directress of the Guadalupe School spent the week-end in San Antonio accompanied by Sr. Hilda, who teaches the Twelfth Grade at Notre Dame.

For the physical welfare of the students all parents had been informed in ample time to attend to the vaccination of their children and see that they have a duly signed certificate to this effect on opening day.

Like last year classes begin at 9 o'clock. Previous to this, the Catholic children are given half an hour's daily instruction in the Holy Bible and Church History. This religious doctrine may be attended by non-Catholic children if parents make a written or personal request to that effect. Otherwise, the question of church affiliation is never broached or discussed, as our seven years of past record amply substantiate.

Program Resumed

Daily church services will be held at 7:35 a. m. instead of 7 o'clock. The morning Angelus will ring at 6:30 when opportunity is offered to receive Holy Communion.

Sunday High Masses will recommence on the 26th of this month, so that the new choir can be duly organized in the meantime.

On Tuesday an anniversary Requiem Mass was read for the deceased husband of Mrs. Wm. E. Newton.

On Wednesday the Notre Dame children observed the feast of Our Lady's birthday, which was also the anniversary of the dedication of Notre Dame.

Fred Gaenslen, one of Houston's foremost architects, came here on Labor Day to prepare plans for a needed annex to St. Mary's Convent. Building operations will be begun as soon as labor conditions are more satisfactory.

With Mr. Gaenslen came Ernst Raba, the well-known photographer of San Antonio. He brought with him his panoramic camera in order to take landscape views with a range of 180 degrees.

The above gentlemen were guests of Father Kemper with whom they had motored from the Alamo City. Father Kemper had gone to the metropolis on Sunday to re-enter his nephews, Henry and Willie Voiss, in St. Louis College, and to matriculate Freddie Nye in the same High School.

Mrs. Timothy Joseph Fimucane moved here from Houston to place her son in Notre Dame. Mrs. Lyman Widny Laughman returned from Beaumont so her children could get the benefit of our school.

J. O. Boudreaux, also of Beaumont, visited his two daughters who have been boarding at the Convent about two years.

Mrs. Wm. S. Farrish spent a week's vacation in San Antonio and her daughter, Margie, remained there till the reopening of school.

Visitors

Lieut. Aladin J. Hart, son of the San Antonio real estate man, spent his honeymoon in our cool mountain resort. He had been married to Miss Kay Louise Nagel by Bishop Drossaerts, who had also married the officer's parents.

Miss Dolores Welder of Victoria was one of our Sunday guests. Likewise A. V. Ryals of Refugio.

Max Vogt came up from Boerne during the Fair Week to visit local friends.

Miss Stella Finley hurried home to Little Rock, Ark., last Monday after receiving a telegram about her father's sudden and serious illness. Her sister, Mrs. John Talley, could not leave her invalid husband and baby daughter.

After a stay of four months in our healthy climate, Mrs. Wilhelmina Risacher went back to Verona, Pa.

but her daughter, Zita, will remain in our city until fully recuperated.

On Wednesday John Riegger returned to Dallas, having sold the Dixie Airdome for his daughter, Mrs. Lester F. Eby.

Miss Courtney Kaiser, Rudolph Stehling's family, Mr. Farrish, Benny Mosel, Tom Scoggins, Father Kemper and other Kerrvillites attended the Knights of Columbus picnic at New Braunfels. There they met Mrs. Annie Mosel Tarrillon, Mrs. Ruth Mosel Nitsch, and dozens of Daughters of Isabella who had been here at one or more of their summer encampments. It was estimated that two thousand K. of C.'s and invited fraternities participated in this Sunday outing.

Hunt Happenings

Christian and Theodore Strumberger of San Antonio are guests of John Todd at the Todd summer camp.

Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Walsh will close "La Junta" Thursday of this week and return to San Antonio after an all summer stay here. Misses May Stagner and Helen Root will accompany them and be their guests for a few weeks in their home on Magnolia Avenue before going to San Francisco, their home.

Mrs. J. E. King left Sunday for San Antonio, where she will join the Bexar County delegates to go to Fort Worth to attend the State Democratic Convention. Mrs. King was elected delegates by the Bexar County Democratic Convention.

Miss Rosemary Capura returned to her home in San Antonio Sunday, after a week spent at the Todd camp, the guest of Miss Edna Todd.

Miss Ada Clifton, accompanied by her niece, Mary Marjorie Clifton, arrived Sunday to spend a week at "Kamp King."

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Page, Messrs. Will Baldwin and Beal Hardin were Kerrville visitors last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chessman entertained the young people of Hunt last Saturday evening, honoring their daughter, Miss Katie Chessman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baldwin will leave next week for Lockhart, where they will locate on their farm recently purchased. Miss Myrtle Baldwin will go on ahead of the family as she will enter the Lockhart High School on the opening day, the 13th inst. Hunt citizens regret to lose this splendid family as they are a factor in all good movements in this community.

Bandera Budget

New Era, Sept. 2: The big road grader is at work on the Medina road. Beginning at Winans Creek, the road will be graded back towards town. Let the good work go on. Old Bandera will have some good roads yet.

The barn and its contents of C. H. Brient on Privilege was burned last Friday night. No cause can be found as to how the fire started. The loss consisted of all of Mr. Brient's feed, such as oats, corn, etc., all harness, a buggy, three saddles, etc. The total loss is estimated at $1,200 with no insurance.

Chas. Schmidke and his cousins, H. A. Frick and four sons of Eagle Pass, and Alvin Frick of San Antonio, Will Maags and Charlie Eckhart of Bandera went down to the back waters of the lake on Monday of last week and remained until Friday. They caught 9 fish that averaged 32 pounds, one 12 pounds and 13 others from 2 to 4 pounds.

The vote in this county shows that Mr. Bailey carried the county by about 50 majority. Bandera gave Neff 70 Bailey 134; Medina, Neff 61, Bailey 20; Pipe Creek, Neff 12, Bailey 19; Taylor Box, Neff 20, Bailey 9; Vanderpool, Neff 5, Bailey 26; Privilege, Neff 5, Bailey 16; total, Neff 174, Bailey 224. Tarpley and Lima held no election, and Tuff has not yet been reported.

Augustus F. Welch, 83 years of age, was killed in an automobile wreck last Saturday, which occurred on the Castrovilla road, near San Antonio. Mr. Welch, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Porter Bailey, were all seriously injured, and his grand daughter sustained a broken leg. Mrs. Faulkner, another daughter of Mr. Welch, was piloting the car and being attracted by a child in the rear seat, turned to caution it, and the car swerved and turned over. Mr. Welch died almost instantly. Mr. Welch was the father of T. B. Welch of this place and Mrs. Welch is the sister of Mrs. I. B. Langford Sr., here. Frank and Allie B. Langford and Mr. Welch's family went to San Antonio Sunday and on their return reported all the injured doing very well and apparently out of danger. When he first came from Alabama, fifty or more years ago, Mr. Welch settled near Center Point. Later he was for several years a resident of Bandera County. Among the older people he has many friends in this county who will bear with sorrow of his tragic death. He leaves a widow and 11 children and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

The meeting of the Medina River Association last week was a good one. The attendance was very fine and the spirit of the sessions was all that could be expected. The reports from the churches showed healthy and hopeful growth along all lines, and the offerings during the year brought us up out of debt. So we face the future with courage and optimism. The good people of Bandera entertained us royally and every one had a good time. This pastor was a guest in the hospitable home of Editor T. A. Buckner of The Bandera New Era. The officers for the ensuing year are: J. B. Holt, moderator; Rev. S. F. Marsh of Junction, corresponding secretary; Rev. I. V. Garrison of Bandera, clerk, and Brother Mansfield of Bandera, treasurer. The next meeting of the body will be held at Center Point. Rev. J. E. Byrd of Brownwood was elected Enlistment Evangelist for the association. Rev. W. D. Bowen of San Marcos was present and spoke on the 75 Million Campaign. Now for the greatest year in our history.

A pall of sadness and gloom settled over us all Sunday because of the death of our dear member and sister in Christ, Mrs. Burton. She was one of the noblest and best among us and we will miss her more than we can express in words. She was the faithful, sympathizing friend of all who were in need of her help and friendship. She loved her church with a fervent love and sought to incarnate her high ideals of Christian life and belief into the lives and hearts of others. The Y. W. A. girls will never cease to call her blessed and many beside have felt the sanctifying influence of her beautiful and unselfish life. Her children spared not themselves nor their means to fill her last days with comfort and peace, and her neighbors and friends evidenced the most beautiful devotion and helpfulness. We will miss her, oh so much, but she is now happy in the Father's Home above.

The B. Y. P. U. had a most enjoyable social at the pastor's home last Friday night.

Let our members please bring their offering for Associational Missions next Sunday morning.

Now the summer is over and everybody will want to settle down to good hard work. Let this fall be the best time this church has ever seen. With everybody at work we will do great things for the Lord. The task now confronting us is to put the Denominational Paper into the homes of all our people. Then comes the rounding out of two-fifths of our annual pledge to the 75 Million Fund. Let's get into the middle of the stream.

BOLD BANDITS ROB HOTEL

GUESTS; SECURE $35,000

Dallas, Sept. 6.—Three masked and armed bandits held up and robbed a poker game in a hotel late Sunday afternoon, taking $15,000 in cash and $20,000 worth of diamonds and other jewelry, according to reports made to the police department.

The bandits entered the room where eight men were sitting in a poker game where "the sky was the limit." The gamblers were ordered to stick up their hands. One robber kept them covered with a pistol while the others gathered in the cash and jewelry. After the game had been cleaned out, the robbers cut telephone wires, locked the gamblers in the room and made their escape. After some time the eight prisoners succeeded in arousing the hotel people and were liberated.

No clue has been discovered which would lead to the identity of the robbers. Police declare it was the boldest and most profitable holdup staged here in a long time. The police, however, are inclined to doubt the amount given by the victims as losses. They believe $20,000 may cover the loot obtained by the bandits.

Gibbens-McBryde

The wedding of William A. McBryde of Camp Verde and Miss Lorita Louise Gibbens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gibbens, took place Sunday evening, August 29th, at the home of the bride's parents in Center Point, in the presence of relatives and a few chosen friends.

The home was artistically decorated in ferns and baskets of white and pink roses tied with bows of lavender marine. A great profusion of zeannia were entwined about the altar.

Just before the ceremony, Miss Georgia May Moore played "The Lullaby of the Valley," after which she played "The Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin. The bride's only attendant was her friend, Miss Jessie Ethridge. The bride entered with her maid-of-honor and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, J. Peter Cowden. Rev. Miers performed the impressive ceremony, using the double ring service. Little Miss Siby Bennett was ring bearer.

The bride was gowned in white georgette crepe, the bodice and skirt being hand embroidered. The veil of lace was arranged in cascade effect, shirred with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white hydrangeas and ferns. The maid-of-honor wore a frock of lavender ogandy, and her bouquet was a basket of pink roses.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where the bride's cake was cut, first by the bride and then by the guests, which afforded much merriment. An ice course was served to about forty guests.

The happy bride and groom received many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. McBryde left shortly after the ceremony for their beautiful country home. They have many friends who wish them much success and happiness.

PILING UP HAPPINESS

DOES each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

Let the Democracy of Kerr County proceed with a thorough organization.

The Sun wants harmony in Kerrville and is willing to do its part to bring about such a condition. However, all of the compromising is not to be made by one side.

The god women nominated Mr.
Neff, but it is doubtful if they will have any vote in the general election to assist in his election. That also looks something like "taxation without representation."

Although Mr. Neff is reported to have said he would not vote for either Thompson or Bailey, the larger part of the supporters of Mr. Bailey will not follow the example supposed to have been set by Mr. Neff.

The Sun accuses every man or woman their own religious and political predilections. That much the Constitution of the United States guarantees us. However, some people are not so liberal.

Let's have a banquet and get in elbow touch with our neighbors. We will find each of them a better fellow than we had thought, and no doubt he will find the other fellow is not so bad after all. Kerrville can be benefitted by such a get-together lunch-
oon. Let's have it.

Manny Helps Giants

By obtaining the services of Al Manny, star Kerrville hurler, the Fredericksburg Giants succeeded in carrying out their aim of taking two out of the 3-game series at the Llano West Texas Granite Workers Reunion, held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week.

Lee, Fredericksburg's mainstay, opened the series by shutting out the fast Cherokee Club by the score of 4 to 0.

Al Manny repeated the feat the following day when he whitewashed the Cherokee Indians by winning a pitcher's duel against Left Mitchell by the count of 1 to 0, allowing but two hits and practically winning his own game in the first inning, when he slammed out a two-base knock and scored on Hollmig's single. The Llano fans claim that this was the best game of ball ever seen on the Llano diamond. The feature of the game was when in the ninth the first Indian up led off with a single and took second on a passed ball by the catcher and third by the receiver dropping another one; after this Manny tightened up, striking out three of the Indian's best hitters without even as much as a foul tip.

The Cherokee bunch came back strong the third day with their imported star, "Woods," on the mound and defeated the Giants 7 to 2, Lee being in poor form while his support was loose; due to their two straight wins, the Giants didn't seem to care much whether or not they took the third game.

Manny further aided the Giants by playing the outfield in league style in two of the contests, and his turn at the plate made the opposing pitchers shake.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our thanks to the numerous friends who so kindly administered to our dear mother during her illness, and for their sympathy and floral offerings at her death. We shall ever hold these good friends in heartfelt esteem. It is a gratification to have such neighbors and friends as we have found in Kerrville in this hour of great loss and grief. Yours sincerely,
A. B. BURTON,
MRS. H. C. BAKER.

Fall Shoes that are extraordinary in style and workmanship at Chas. Schreiner Co.'s. 38-tfc

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rigby of San Antonio are in Kerrville visiting relatives—Capt. Chas. Schreiner, sons and families.

Judge H. C. Geddie and wife, and possibly some of the other delegates from Kerr County, left the first of the week to attend the Democratic Convention, which met Tuesday at Fort Worth.

Miss Carrie Belle Sterrett, State Supervisor of Rural Schools, of Austin was a pleasant caller at the Sun office Friday of last week. Miss Sterrett is making a tour of the State in behalf of the amendment empowering rural communities to vote additional taxes for longer terms and better wages for teachers.

Among those attending the Boerne Fair from Kerrville were: Misses Maine Heinen, Dorothy Doyle, Helen Dietert, Etta Dietert, Hilda Mosel, Agnes Wilson, Marcia Marriner and Mabel Marsh; Messrs. Fishback Wheelless, Bill Dietert, Herman and Walter Saenger, Hal and Charlie Peterson, Ernst Melear, Frances Melear, Whit-tier Melear, Casper and Guy Rees, Bruce Magee and Fred Smith.

L. A. Schreiner went the past week with his daughter, Miss May Louise, to Houston, where a specialist examined her eyes and found them in such condition as to prevent Miss Schreiner from attending the Miss Spence School in New York. This is to be regretted, because she had been two years awaiting admission to that school, the waiting list always being more than the school can accommodate.

Mrs. W. G. Garrett Jr. entertained with an informal reception last Thursday afternoon, honoring her sister, Mrs. Thomas Matthews, of Spearfish, N. D. The living and dining rooms were beautifully decorated in pink roses and ferns. The hour was from 4:30 to 7 o'clock and about seventy guests were present. Mrs. Scott Schreiner and Miss Hattie Garrett received at the door, while Mrs. W. G. Garrett Jr., Mrs. T. C. Johnston and Mrs. Thomas Matthews, the honoree, received in the living room. Mrs. R. L. Schmerbeck and Mrs. Hildred presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Elsie Johnston and Mrs. Thomas Matthews were in the dining room where a lovely salad course was served.

A SUCCESS Built On Superior Prescription Service

If you will observe successful drug stores in any community, you will find that most of them owe their success to the development of some special department of their business.

Some of the modern drug shops give more attention to side lines than they do to the dispensing of drugs or the compounding of prescriptions.

Our principal success has come through our Prescription Department. This is true because we have a reputation for providing the best and purest drugs and unexcelled service. We have never permitted side lines to detract from our original and most important business—Pharmacy.

Let us fill your prescriptions and supply your other drug needs.

Ford and Fordson Items

Some one has been taking ground wires from the electric cutouts and in other instances grounding the generators on a number of cars lately. One garage in town reports two cars coming into their place this past week in that condition, while we have had four cases in the same time.

This is a very serious matter and will ruin your electrical system. The Ford electrical system is one of the simplest and most efficient ever placed on a car, but this is conclusive evidence that they are being mistreated. We ask every owner of a Ford with Starter to bring his car to us at the earliest moment for our inspection. This inspection will take only a moment, and may save you a great deal of money.

Fordson owners will profit from the following:

The Ford Company states that the trouble from the valves burning of on block is caused from the air-washer not being filled often enough. This air-washer must be kept full of water at all times, and that trouble will disappear. As for worm bearings breaking, this is due first to letting in clutch with jerk and should never be done. Using a poor grade of transmission oil will also cause this. If you do your part in the care of your Fordson, you can be assured of replacement of anything that should prove defective, but you must give your cooperation with us and with the Ford Company. 38-1tc

An Easy Way to Get Bigger Grain Yields with Less Seed

Planting with a grain drill, head of with a broadcast will cause you no more in fact, considerably less,
and a short time the saving it will pay for the drill.

It, in itself, is sufficient reason why we want you to see the Deere-Van Brunt Grain Drill, have on display. There are reasons that apply only to the Van Brunt. This drill has a vented, adjustable gate force that successfully handles size seed from alfalfa to heavy oats without choking.

The feed compels the seed to lean the grain box in even continuous streams and the seed is protected until it reaches the bottom of the furrow.

That is why a field planted with a Van Brunt Drill makes such a pleasing appearance to the eye—and why it adds extra money to your bank account.
All of the grain is ready for harvest at one time. There are no bare spots in the field and you can feel absolutely sure that no seed is wasted in planting. Come in and let us show you how easy it is to regulate the flow of seed so that an equal amount is placed in each furrow —simply moving a lever regulates the quantity sown.

Comfort Chat

News, Sept. 2: Otto Meyer has finished the concrete bridge across the Guadalupe at the Boerner crossing, and it is now in use. It cost $900.

On September 4, Henry Steves closed his soft drink saloon in Comfort, known as the Buck Horn Club Room. Mr. Steves has other interests which require his attention, and as he could not obtain satisfactory help, he decided to close the place. This resort is one of the landmarks of Comfort and has been in constant operation for more than fifty years, during which period it was owned at various times by some of the best known citizens of this community.

In Kendall County the results more than fulfilled the predictions as to Mr. Bailey's overwhelming majority, which were made in these columns last week, Mr. Bailey having received about fifteen votes to every one cast for Mr. Neff. At Comfort the vote was 195 for Bailey and Neff; at Sisterdale, for Bailey 1 for Neff; at War, 29 for Bailey and 2 for Neff; at Buffalo, 122 for Bailey and 25 for Neff. A return of the other boxes in the county is not now available, but they inform pretty closely to the figures quoted above.

There is a possibility cause of the present lack of rain in Kendall County, the inspector, Mr. Hanna, will be drawn from this county, and placed under strict discipline. In the event that the court should decide upon these, no live stock could be moved out of this county. Dr. Gratton, general inspector in charge of the Texas, visited Kendall County last week, and practically decided to draw Mr. Hanna.

YOUNG BURNAY TELLS OF TRIPS TO EUROPEAN POINTS

The following is a continuation of the interesting description of his trips in Europe, written by Joel R. Burnay to his father, W. D. Burnay, at Center Point:

We left Paris on the Rome Express for the south. We had two double compartments and after pulling off our blouses, rolling up our sleeves and stowing our baggage, we were ready for what might come. All that afternoon we raced through green fields and beautiful country landscape. Now I know why they call it "Sunny France." From Paris to Dijon, where the U. S. Forward Base was during 1918, the country looked prettier than any I saw on my whole trip.

We crossed the Italian border at 2 a. m. and of course we had to get out along with everyone else to have our passes inspected. The next morning when I managed to fall out we were in Genoa, the birthplace of Columbus. Later on I got my first view of the sea. Pretty? Well, I'll say it was. The clearest water I have ever seen I think and yet it was blue. I don't wonder that Columbus took to the sea at the age of 14.

Well, from Genoa to Pisa, we didn't get to see much as we were in tunnels a good part of the time, some of them as much as two miles long. At Pisa we got to see the Leaning Tower and surrounding grounds. And now came the worst part of our trip. From Pisa to Rome it was like crossing Arizona in August. Hot and dusty, great goodness. But somehow we managed to live through it.

At 7:30 that p. m. we caught our first sight of Rome, the "Eternal City," and you can't imagine what a peculiar feeling came over me when I beheld it looming up in the distance. I had been trying to imagine what kind of a place it was. Would I find a modern city or a city all in ruins? I asked a man standing in the aisle what the present population of Rome was? He surprised me by saying no one knows, but it is supposed to be about 600,000.

At 8 o'clock we pulled into the station, a big station and modern in our respect. Pretty soon we were held the street. Everywhere we beheld playstains with colored lights, crowds of them, flowers in profusion, of taxicabs, dressed people, scores evening air—the softest, balmiest. And where did the water come from, since ten miles before we had country imaginable? driest looking

We had reservations at the Grand Hotel and as it was only a few blocks up the street we decided to walk. After reaching my room it took some time to get the dirt off and as I was very tired went directly to bed. Next morning we were up bright and early and after a good breakfast we were ready to see the city. We found the American Y. M. C. A. and soon were booked for one of their tours. First we went out to St. Peter's and the Vatican. St. Peter's is simply too wonderful for me to describe. There I saw my first real glass mosaics. It seems impossible that such wonderful pictures could be made out of small pieces of colored glass. Next we visited the art galleries in the Vatican and looked at pictures until my back was sore. We spent an hour or so in the Sistine Chapel and the Raphael Rooms. That afternoon we went to the Palatine Hill, where we roamed for hours through Nero's Palace and we even stood on the spot where St. Paul said unto Nero: "I am a Roman citizen!" That night as we were eating dinner at a down town restaurant we met a crowd of Americans and I spent a very enjoyable evening talking to a girl from Jackson, Miss. Strange to say nearly all the people we met from the States on our whole trip were from the South.

The next morning we went to the Mamertine Prison, where St. Peter and St. Paul were at one time prisoners. This is perhaps the most ancient of all the buildings that remain of Ancient Rome. Later in the day we went to the Forum, the most interesting place in all Rome. Just think of standing in a place that was built 600 years B. C. I almost imagined that I could see the footprints of Julius Caesar or hear the eloquent words of Cicero as I stood upon the exact place where they had stood two thousand years ago. The whole place has been excavated and rebuilt until one can get a pretty good idea of how it used to look.

That afternoon we visited St. Paul's outside the walls. Next we visited the Coliseum. I had heard that it was immense, but I had no idea it was as large as it is. Later we went out to the Baths of Caracalla and the Appian Way, then to the shrine "Quo Vadis" and next to the Catacombs. While wandering in the Catacombs I got

A PRACTICAL OF WOMEN

Kansas City, squabble enlivened woman's council, which was held in Jackson County members of the County Committee occurred in one place, where a resident of the place. The woman belongs to one party and her opponent's were being Republican headquarters.

"There's a woman who's running for man and she insists on next to the last. I don't count it do that she out, but she says 'What shall I do?' " "Get a piece of run her out," suggests who answered the telephone headquarters.

An hour later, the house, whose husband plumber, called back. "I did as you said the headquarters man. out. But now she's back front yard is full she brought here to her. What shall I do?"

The man at headquarters able to offer further. No injuries were the process of eviction to those present. Later women voted for the woman driven from the house the mistress of the place, opponent said they regretted as "a closed one."

Attention, Farmers I have 400 or 500 bushels of oats for sale at my farm on Creek. These oats were raised in 1919 and are A-1. 30 at my place. Chas. Real, Real line.

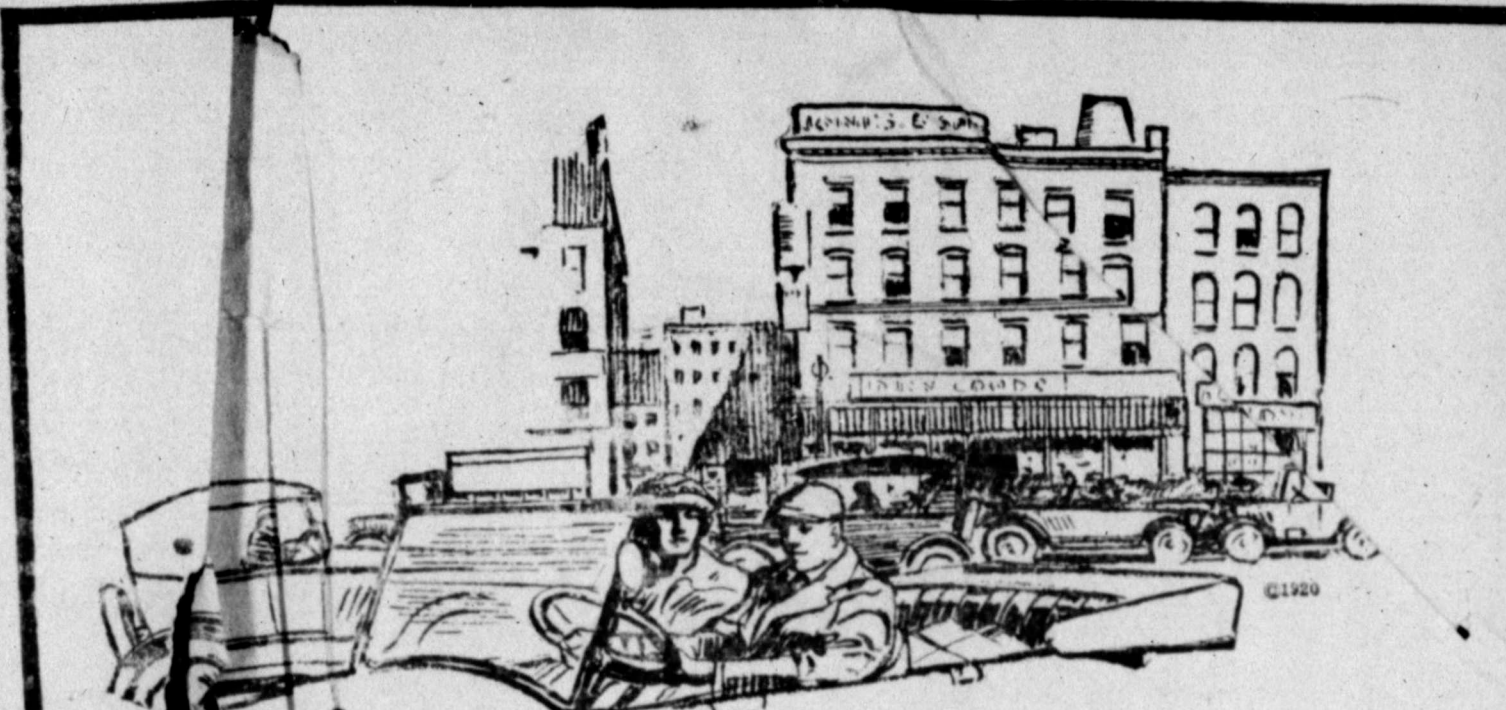

really cool for the first time in Rome. Well, I have told you what I saw in Rome that was ancient and yet I saw more that was modern. But to tell you of all the street fights, street car strikes, red flags, etc., I'll have to wait. To tell you of what the people are like and what Modern Rome is like would take a book, so I will have to reserve that for some future time.

On Tuesday night we left Rome for Venice, where we arrived the next morning at 10 a. m. Pretty soon we found ourselves riding up the Grand Canal in a gondola. In Venice we stayed at the Royal Danieli, a very nice hotel and fairly reasonable. I think I enjoyed my stay in Venice more than at any place on the whole trip. It was so different from any place I had been in before. The gondola rides, the serenade parties at night on the Grand Canal and the bathing were great. We met whole bunches of Americans there and nearly all of them knew some one back home that I knew. I met a lady from Kansas City who used to live in Fort Worth and knew Uncle Ivy and Aunt Bell.

Well, we enjoyed Venice so much that we spent Wednesday, Thursday and Friday there. Saturday morning we left for Milan and from there we went by Lake Como and up to Lucerne. The route from Venice to Milan is through a great fruit belt and the country looked a great deal like parts of California. Of course the trip through the Alps from Milan to Lucerne was grand. The scenery was indescribable. The mountains and the snow were welcome sights to us after the heat in Rome. We arrived in Lucerne just before sunset and got a magnificent view of that beautiful city with its lake, beautiful hotels and high mountains. Again in Lucerne I met a whole bunch of Americans. I even had the good fortune to run across a girl from Little Rock, who was a student at the Texas University last year. Of course we were friends right away.

The next morning we left Lucerne for Coblenz, via Basel, Metz, Strassburg, Luxemburg, Trier and Cochem. We passed directly through the center of the country that Germany had to give back to France, and it is indeed a wonderful country, but the people look more German than French.

We arrived in Coblenz at 11:30 p. m. and the next morning I reported for duty and that is what I have been doing ever since. We still don't know how long we are going to be over here, but I am ready, I think, now to come back to "Our Own Holy Land," the U. S. A. Love to all, JOEL.

This section certainly owes a lot to the automobile

LOOK at it just from the business standpoint, compared with, say, ten years ago—or even five.

Everything speeded up—made easier. Nearly every business man depending on the automobile to transport himself and his products.

That is one reason, perhaps, why more attention is being paid to tires—why tire costs are being figured closer and people are beginning to look for better tires.

We believe that people are entitled to better tires—the best they can get.

Not only the man with the big car, but the man with the small car, and the medium sized car.

We represent U. S. Tires for the reason—because their performance is as good as you can get, regardless of the size of the car it is to go on.

It was that policy which led to the introduction of the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

And you can't beat it.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed for life, with no limitation of mileage.

It will pay you to talk to us about tires, if you are looking at them from a business standpoint.

QUALITY

has been much misused word in advertising these last few years. Not a single firm in the country but claims it. Once in a great while a claim is justified.

So the subject at all, here is a little bit of what we hear of so in our store, from people who have visited Kerrville in the past. Almost invariably they want to buy some of our goods. And invariably they say, before they are satisfied.

"It can't be what it used to be. Not with butter and eggs and the price they are now. No candy maker in the world would like that in these degenerate days."

And they say after they have tried it—but we do not want this to be like boasting. What they say is merely rendered possible by the fact that we DO USE those very materials still and now—in the best way.

And we believe that we have the right to use that word—QUALITY.

Stole At His Pants

Sunday night, while Will Lee was away from home, some one entered his house near Center Point and stole a pair of his pants.

Sheriff Jack Moore pursued the thief supposed to be guilty of the crime and in Gillespie County, in company with the sheriff there, caught the four young men. They all fled into the woods and three of them escaped. One was captured, gave his name as Frank Carrell, and his residence was given as at two different places.

It is supposed these young men are deserters from the army and desired their pants to take the place of their uniforms.

Edwards County Echoes

Rocksprings, Sept. 3: The Leader has nothing to report about the San Antonio, Rocksprings & Western, and the raising of the bonus for same.

No new bonus notes have been signed. Sometimes we are asked what the company is doing toward starting work on the new road. Well, we don't know. Our citizens can more consistently ask what the railroad company is doing when we have what was expected of us.

W. M. Holland of Del Rio was in Rocksprings this week. He is dealing in oil leases. Mr. Holland says they are still making fine progress in the well which the Empire Oil & Fuel Co. is drilling on the Boggess & Rust ranch in South Edwards County. The drill is now down about 1,000 feet. The last time The Leader had a report from this well they were down about 700 feet, and had drilled in the same limestone formation found at the surface for the entire depth. But Mr. Holland says they are now in a different formation. In fact, he says the formation is changing quite often, and the indications are very good that oil will be struck.

Bailey carried Edwards County with a majority of sixty-two. The complete returns are as follows:

Bailey: Rocksprings, 59; Barksdale, 38; Kickapoo, 16; Hackberry, 17; Carta Valley, 9; total, 139.

Neff: Rocksprings, 45; Barksdale, 14; Kickapoo, 3; Hackberry, 8; Carta Valley, 14; total, 77.

Davidson: Rocksprings, 63; Barksdale, 23; Kickapoo, 11; Hackberry, 8; Carta Valley, 12; total, 94.

Johnson: Rocksprings, 32; Barksdale, 21; Kickapoo, 8; Hackberry, 7; Carta Valley, 6; total, 53.

Pierson: Rocksprings, 47; Barksdale, 19; Kickapoo, 8; Hackberry, 9; Carta Valley, 9; total, 73.

Hawkins: Rocksprings, 49; Barksdale, 22; Kickapoo, 14; Hackberry, 7; Carta Valley, 9; total, 76.

Sheriff Jack Moore is in the city from his farm. We would say something about his expertness as a milcher, but don't want to get in bad with him. He says that accusation is one of Henry Staudt's yarns.

OUR POLICY IS NOT TO SIDE STEP

Did you ever notice how peculiar most of us humans are in the matter of sidestepping? The man who can't play golf dubs it "an old man game"; the chap who can't dance will side step two-step and ask his partner to "sit it out" with him; the man who never had the pluck or price to go to Europe shouts "See America First!" One of the firmest policies of this firm is not to side step. We tell you what we have and we tell you the who, truth, not half truths. We don't claim to be infallible—all we can do is to try to have everything you want just when you want it and at prices that are reasonable. You may be sure that anything and everything you purchase from us is just as represented. For any reason you think you have not received value for your money, bring back the goods. If you don't want them we don't want you to have them. We spend a lot of time studying your needs and means, and when we put anything in our store you may be sure it is worth all we ask, most things a little more. We step straight ahead successfully, because our policy is never to side step.
