W. A. FAWCETT FURNITURE CO.'S "BIRTHDAY PARTY"

If the W. A. Fawcett Furniture Company was a lady, it would now be of age, having been in business in Kerrville just eighteen years. It has become one of the staunchest business concerns in the town. Starting in a small way, in 1902, it has grown steadily under the careful, intelligent business management of W. A. Fawcett, until it is now the largest exclusive house-furnishing store in a town of less than three thousand in the State of Texas. It is not only that, it is more, much more. The Fawcett Store, with its 9,000 square feet of floor space, exclusive of warehouses, carries a stock of furniture and household goods that would be a credit to any town of ten thousand or more. This firm can furnish a house from cellar to garret, with furniture of the latest models and the highest quality. There is no waiting until part of the bill comes from the factory. They've got the goods.

The advertisement of their big Birthday Sale, which appears in this issue, is like all the advertisements of the house, a plain, conservative statement of the facts. It is a pleasure to visit this modern store, even if one is only sight-seeing.

Mr. Fawcett, in addition to being a good business man, and particularly a competent furniture man, is a progressive citizen of the town and country. Almost from the time he came to Kerrville from Gonzales County, where he spent his boyhood, he has been active in public affairs. He has held various offices in the city and schools, and is always an active member of the Commercial Club, of which he is at present the presiding officer.

A host of friends congratulate the W. A. Fawcett Furniture Company on its eighteenth birthday, and the people of this part of Texas will be given a rare chance to secure high-grade furniture, honest furniture, at honest prices.

RECEPTION TO PUBLIC SCHOOLS FACULTY PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

The reception given by the members of the Baptist Church last Friday evening in honor of the faculty of Tivy High School was a pronounced success in every way. The church parlors were beautifully decorated with pot plants and a profusion of cut flowers. The following program was given:

Musical by an orchestra composed of Misses Marguerite Henke, May Belle Roberts, Messrs. Gerald Walkers and Raymond Pitt. Words of Welcome, Rev. Mr. Holt; reading, Lorraine McLean; vocal solo, Mrs. G. M. Doherty; singing, Lillian McCoy; reading, Mattie Tarley; talk, Dr. S. M. Macdonald; reading, Miss Ferrel Rawson; vocal solo, Mrs. Ellis of Dallas; reading, Ruth Morris; piano solo, Martha Holt; music by the orchestra. After the program the guests were asked to arrange themselves in groups of six, with one teacher in each group, for a few minutes progressive conversation. At a given signal each teacher progressed to the next group. In this unique way every guest present met each of the teachers and in like manner each teacher met every guest. Needless to say, this diversion was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Impromptu speeches were made by Dr. Macdonald of the Episcopal Church, Rev. Smith of the Methodist, Dr. Dickey of the Presbyterian and Prof. Franklin. Each speaker touched upon the need and benefits of the community spirit and the closer relationship between the patrons and teachers.

Delightful refreshments of punch and cake were served to about one hundred guests.

SHOWS THE INEQUALITIES OF ASSESSING IN TEXAS

Gas Reiminger of New Braunfels, secretary of the Tax Assessors' Association of Texas, was in Kerrville Friday and Saturday of last week, interviewing our citizens upon the question of inequalities of assessment of property in this State.

He has the facts from the records, to show that ninety-four counties, which include some of the richest in the State, assess their properties at less than 25 per cent of value and thereby escape $3,500,000 in taxes, which they should pay.

In the list it is shown that Kerr County is among the counties that pay more than its pro rata rate, so this is creditable to our efficient assessor, Walter Peterson.

Mr. Reiminger made the following statement of the situation: "The Texas League for Equal and Uniform Taxation is conducting a campaign of education throughout the State in the end that the people become familiar with the situation and demand remedial legislation. Our present lack of equality of taxation is directly due to the absence of any central authority vested with power to establish and preserve reasonable uniformity of assessments. Independent of each other, two hundred and fifty-two counties of the State assess their properties at percentages of value sufficient to meet local needs. Due to this practice ninety-four counties assess their properties at less than 25 per cent of value and thereby escape $3,500,000 of their taxes due the State, which, as may easily be understood, must be made up by the one hundred and fifty-eight counties which are now paying three million, five hundred thousand dollars in excess of their rightful share."

Program of Parent-Teachers' Club. The Parent-Teachers' Club will meet October 15th at 4 p. m., at which time the following program will be rendered: Opening prayer, instrumental duet, Marguerite Henke and May Belle Roberts; address, Supt. R. A. Franklin; "Child Welfare," Rev. W. A. Smith; vocal solo, Mrs. Ellis.

SCHREINER'S FINE STORE BUILDING ABOUT FINISHED

The fine stone and concrete store building with marble finish, built by the Charles Schreiner Company, in which part of the old structure was included, is about completed.

There are three store buildings under one roof and with balcony and upstairs gives an immense amount of space for the display of goods and storage of surplus.

To give some idea of the volume of business done by the Schreiner Store, there was sold last year about $500,000 worth of goods. This was done under the difficulty of rebuilding. During the present year the total should be considerably more.

A reasonably good picture is given on the front page of this issue of this store building, which will compare most favorably with the best structures in the larger cities for such purposes. The building is fire-proof and is arranged with up-to-date fixtures throughout.

This store is the result of fifty years of upbuilding, having been established that long ago by Capt. Charles Schreiner. His son and grandsons are continuing the business upon the same broad, liberal and upright plan that the founder inaugurated.

A. C. Schreiner and his sons, Scott and A. C. Jr., manage the immense business, the two latter in direct charge of the operation. They are assisted by the following capable help in the various departments and for the conducting of the multitudinous affairs in their entirety: Dry Goods Department—E. W. Speckles, E. C. Fisk, J. N. Ewing, H. R. Garrett, Mrs. R. B. Fawcett, Misses Mamie Sublett, Ouida Dunbar and Nellie Smith.

Grocery Department—J. E. Young, Branch Childs, Corey Childs, J. D. Bowden, Ed. Mosel and N. Herzog. Hardware Department—Hy. Weiss, J. E. Beard and O. J. Brockman. Office—T. C. Johnston, W. G. Garrett Jr., L. D. Garrett and H. T. Paul.

Delivery Department—Roy Smalley, M. M. McCaleb, T. W. McCaleb and Eugene Hoggard.

Porters—A. V. Inscore and Hy. Bonn.

Janitors—Will Benson and John Nasky.

Warehouse—Stanley Coppock.

Winehill Shop—Ed. Wells.

H. NOLL STOCK COMPANY THIRTY YEARS IN BUSINESS

H. Noll established a general mercantile business in Kerrville thirty years ago, and since then the growth has been continuous and solid. By keeping everything the people desire and selling at reasonable prices there has been built up a splendid business.

Wm. W. Noll, the manager, went into the store when he was only 13 years old and has been right on the job ever since. He is a most excellent business man, and with his father and brother, Henry, make a strong combination. They are assisted in the store by Chas. Johnston, a brother-in-law; E. E. Dietert, Miss Lydia Kraz and Miss Ruth Peterson in the sales departments, while J. T. Dearing looks after the delivery.

The H. Noll Stock Company have a large, conveniently arranged store building. Large stocks of the various lines of goods carried are kept on display and the surplus of heavier articles are put in store rooms.

The Nolls are among our most prominent citizens and by their long residence have built up not only an excellent business, but made many staunch friends. They are interested in the growth and development of Kerrville, as they have considerable property here, and are closely identified with the progress of the city in every way.

Last week the H. Noll Stock Company put on a special reduction sale, which is still in full swing. Seeing that reductions were inevitable, as wholesale prices were declining, it was thought best to give these reductions now and buy new goods, although these things sold now were bought when wholesale prices were at the peak. If there must be a loss it is better to have it and get through, so that business and prices can the quicker assume a normal condition.

MOSEL, SAENGER & CO. ARE AMONG SOLID LOCAL FIRMS

One of the solid and large business firms of Kerrville is that of Mosel, Saenger & Co. Mr. Mosel sold his interests several years ago to Robt. Saenger Sr. and his son, Walter E. Saenger, but the old name is retained.

This reliable firm is engaged in business near the depot and you can buy from it anything from a pin to an engine and threshing machine. Large, well selected stocks of general merchandise, groceries, hardware, implements, shoes, boots, hats, etc., are carried and sold at all times on a reasonable profit.

The firm also buys cedar posts and ships them to all parts of Texas and some times outside of the State. Wheat and oats are also bought and shipped, while a specialty is made of handling produce, including anything raised on the farm and in the poultry line.

Robert Saenger and son, Walter E., are liberal, progressive and capable business men. They have built an enviable reputation for reliability and high quality of character.

The firm buys in large quantities and the total of its business in things bought, sold and shipped will reach a high figure. It is such substantial business concerns that add to the excellent reputation Kerrville enjoys in the general trade of the country.

LOCAL BOY STAR IN UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL GAME

In a game of football at Austin, the University of Texas Longhorns defeated the Southwestern Pirates, and mention made of it there gives the following complimentary reference to a local boy, Francis Domingues, who played with the University team: "Domingues, with his stellar work in tearing through the Pirate line, was the outstanding star in the work of Whittaker's men and was the most consistent ground gainer of the afternoon. Time after time he rammed the opposing line for first down."

ESTIMATED NEARLY 50,000 WOMEN VOTED ON EXEMPTION

At the last primary election it was charged in many places that nearly every woman 60 or over or near that age, who could be prevailed upon to vote in Texas, did so under the plea of exemption from poll tax. These women were not required to make any oath, but simply assert that they were exempt. It was believed at that time to be a concerted movement by political schemers in behalf of Pat M. Neff, and there is little doubt but what such was the case. The plan was evidently concocted by men.

These women were solicited to vote against Jos. W. Bailey—their enemy—which was an untruth. It was such an exhibition of prejudice that controlled the vote of the women in Texas in this instance that it will be some time before they can remove the stigma from their sovereignty.

As an evidence that the conclusions drawn here are not far-fetched, a portion of the address of Senator McNealus of Dallas on the amended election law is reproduced, made at the recent special session of the Legislature, in which he charged that nearly 50,000 women had voted on the claim of exemption from poll tax. Of course, many of them were entitled to this exemption, being over 60 years old, but it is also believed that many were not entitled to it. No such movement was made to get men over 60 years old to vote, because those who were engineering the scheme did not know whether or not the men would be so easily misled.

McNealus Opposes Bill. Senator McNealus took the position that it was discriminatory and opposed its passage. It violated the nineteenth amendment, he said, because it provided that one set of voters might vote by paying 15c while others had to pay $1.75. It also violated a section of the Constitution applying to registration. "I shall not vote for this bill," he declared. "I wouldn't vote for any bill except to repeal the entire election law and let everybody vote."

Charged Irregularity in Voting. At the primary, he pointed out, Dallas County had voted 5,000 women when it didn't have 3,000 quali-

E. A. MOGFORD DROPPED DEAD TUESDAY MORNING

Tuesday morning, about 8:35, E. A. Mogford dropped dead near the depot in Kerrville. Mr. Mogford was accompanied by one of his sons. The deceased was only 48 years old, but had a family of twelve children—six boys and six girls—most of whom are married.

Mr. Mogford lived on what is known as the Huntington Ranch, west of Kerrville. It was a partnership ownership with J. T. Clark, and they had recently made a sale of it to a party securing quite an acreage in that section, presumably for oil development.

The remains of deceased were prepared for burial by the Ward Undertaking Company and interred Wednesday at Hunt.

Mr. Mogford had not been well for some time, suffering from a weak heart.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF SHEEP AND GOAT RAISERS TO MEET HERE

The executive committee of the Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association will meet at Kerrville next Monday, October 11th. R. H. Martin is president and Geo. M. Thurmond, secretary.

It is expected that there will be from fifteen to twenty members of the committee present. They are representative citizens in their respective communities and they hold positions of honor and trust in an important business of this section. The sheep and goat industry of this part of Texas is one of the most valuable that we now have, so anything pertaining to it is worthy of our consideration.

The citizens of Kerrville desire to treat these visitors with courtesy and due consideration, so it has been decided to have a small banquet for them on Monday night. Any citizen who will pay for a plate for himself and also one for a guest, will please phone W. C. Baker at Phones 239 or 109-K. This information must be had by Saturday, so please phone in your reservation at once.

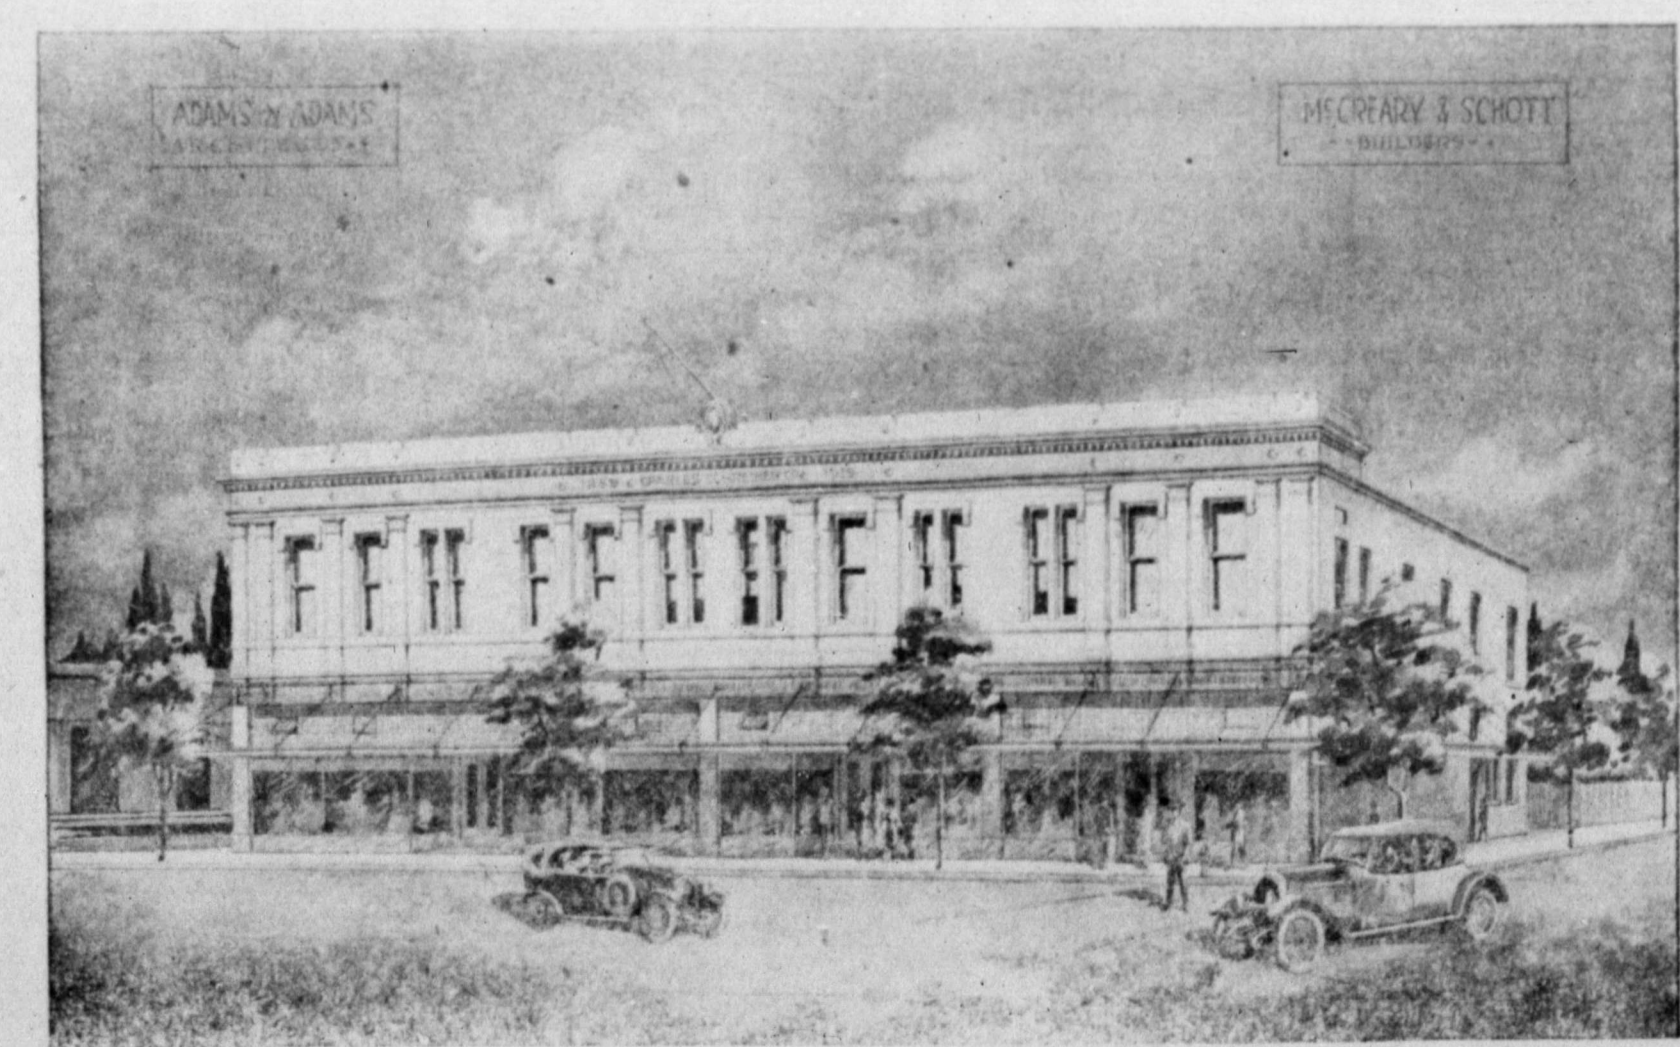

ried to cast the ballot legally. This statement was challenged by Senator Page, who questioned its accuracy.

"How could a woman cast a vote in the primary without a poll tax receipt?" asked Senator Witt.

"I'm glad you asked me that question," replied Senator McNealus. "Women were reported brought to the polls in automobiles. They told the election officers that they were exempt. That was all. They were not required to make affidavit or to give their ages. Thousands voted all over Texas like that. The man who inspired it in Dallas County is a gunshooter."

"Do you believe," asked Senator Woods, "that more than 50,000 women of this State designedly and fraudulently voted at the last election?"

"The facts are," replied Senator McNealus, "that not more than 82,000 paid poll taxes whereas more than 130,000 voted."

New Store Building of the Charles Schreiner Company, Now Nearing Completion

OUR BIRTHDAY SALE

Ten to Twenty-Five Per Cent Discount on the Entire Stock

10 DAYS -- Oct. 11th to Oct. 20th -- 10 DAYS

MEASURED by the age of governments and mountains, EIGHTEEN YEARS is not a very long period of time. Measured by the age of the average business concern, it is quite old. Our store is one of the half dozen business concerns in Kerrville that has been doing a continuous business under one management for that many years.

WE ARE PROUD of our record, and of the fact that the eighteen years since this house was founded have been eighteen years of progress and success. To commemorate the successful start, and the progressive steps from a small beginning to our present splendid store, we are going to put on a Ten Days' BIRTHDAY SALE, during which time we shall offer exceptional bargains in Furniture and Household Goods.

THERE IS NO misconception on our part as to how this business has come about, and has grown to be the largest store of the kind in a town of three thousand population, or less, in all the Southwest. We have done our best. We have given honest goods, at fair prices. We have followed safe and sound business policies, and have given to the business the best that was in us. That of itself may have gone a long way toward success, but—

YOU DID YOUR PART. Your confidence in us, your constant patronage and support gave us confidence in ourselves, and faith in our business, and in Kerrville as a field for our endeavors. So, at the eighteenth mile post in our business journey, we are giving a BIRTHDAY PARTY. For ten days the nine thousand square feet of our salesrooms will be given over to furniture bargains. The finest and latest in style and model will be on display, as well as the plain, serviceable articles that go to furnish the home of the man who buys for comfort and not for style.

A CORDIAL INVITATION is extended to you to visit the store you have helped make, at least once, and as many more times as convenient, during the sale. This will give us an opportunity to express our appreciations of your patronage, and perhaps show you some slight favor in return for your kindness.

Chairs and Rockers

There is nothing new in these lines that cannot be found in our salesroom, from the most attractive of fine upholstery, to the most durable of plain, compact individual chairs built for service. These goods, like everything we handle, are built "honest on the inside."

This sale offers you a seating opportunity that is unusual. Substantial discounts apply all the way down the line—ask to see them.

Sectional View, Sales Floor, W. A. Fawcett & Co.

Couches--Davenport

There is no one article of furniture that adds so much of comfort and elegance to the home as a handsome couch. We have a large stock and can meet all requirements.

Chifforobes, Etc.

We are offering exceptional values in Chifforobes, Dressing Tables and like single piece goods. You can't go wrong in this department. To look is to be pleased.

China Closets, Etc.

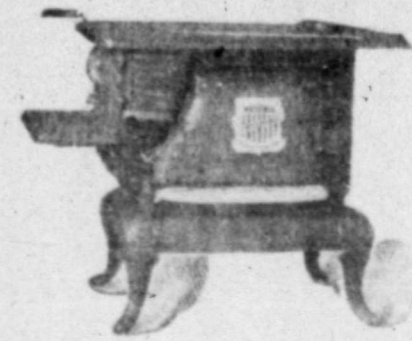

Single pieces of dining room furniture, including China Closets, Bouffets and Extension Tables. We have some extra bargains in these lines.

Rugs and Linoleums

The discount in this department will help you furnish another room. Especially is our rug stock full in all the various sizes and patterns. You'll be pleased with our big sale.

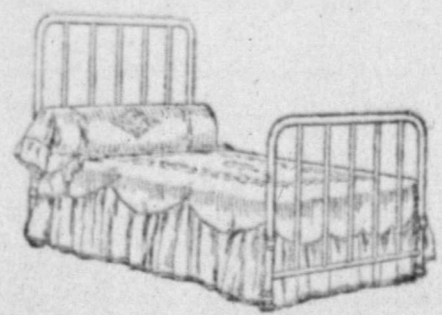

Special Discount on All Stoves

At this Birthday Sale we are going to put our entire mammoth stock of Cook Stoves, Ranges and Heaters on sale at real money-saving prices. If you need anything in this line, you can't afford to miss this sale.

A Complete Line of Iron Beds

Every size and model of beds in all the popular designs and finishes. You'll find what you want in this department, and will be pleased with the price reductions during our Birthday Sale.

(o) This plaintiff says that it does not know, how, or in what manner the defendants are claiming this land.
(p) You are further commanded to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in a newspaper published in your county; but, if no newspaper is published in said county, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published.
Herein, fail not, but have you before said court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your returns thereon, showing how you have executed the same.
Witness, Jno. R. Leavell, Clerk of the District Court of Kerr County, Given under my hand and the seal of said court in the City of Kerrville, this 8th day of Sept., A. D. 1920.
(Seal) JNO. R. LEAVELL,
Clerk of District Court,
Kerr County, Texas.

SECOND: That plaintiff is lawfully seized and possessed of that certain tract and parcel of land herein described and situated in Kerr County, Texas, owning the same in fee simple and that the defendants are asserting some right, title and interest in said land the exact nature of which is unknown to plaintiff which is described as follows:
(a) 640 acres of land, situated and described as follows: In Kerr County, known as Survey No. 7, on the waters of Cherry Creek, a southern tributary of Guadalupe River, about 16 1/2 miles S. 34 East from the town of Kerrville, by virtue of Land Script No. 342, issued to said Gibson by the Commissioner of the Genl. Land Office, Dec. 17th, 1875, and transferred to said Price Dec. 28th, 1875.
Beginning at stone mound made for the S. E. Cor. of Sur. No. 8, Script No. 242, John H. Gibson a L. O. 5 1/2 hrs. W. 2 vrs.
Thence West 1900 vrs. to a mound for N. W. Corner of this survey and S. W. corner of Survey No. 8, this Script, J. H. Gibson.
Thence South 1900 vrs. to a mound for S. W. Cor. of this survey.
Thence East 1900 vrs. to a mound for S. E. Cor. of this survey.

LIBERTY BOND FRAUD DENIED BY HOUSTON
Washington, Sept. 29.—Secretary of the Treasury Houston in letters made public to James W. McCarter of Ipswich, S. D., former assistant Registrar of the Treasury, absolutely denies charges made by the latter of fraud resulting from duplicate numbered Liberty Bonds, and incidentally disclosed that there was a theft of $30,000 in Liberty Bonds from the registrar's office of the Treasury here in 1915.
The stolen bonds were subsequently recovered.
The secretary takes the former assistant registrar to task with relation to his charges, declaring that his insinuations were primarily a reflection on his own conduct as assistant registrar.
"Not What He Expected"
Hawkins was a greedy, self-seeking fellow, who expected to benefit by his rich uncle's death. The latter had not failed to observe his nephew's character, however, and when on his deathbed he sent for Hawkins.
"I haven't forgotten you, George," he said; "got you down in my will."
At the funeral Hawkins invested in an expensive wreath and attended to hear the will read.
"To my dear nephew, George," ran the document, "I leave an illustrated edition of Dickens' 'Great Expectations.'"
LINZ TALKS OF POLITICAL RECOGNITION OF TEXAS
Dallas News, Sept. 29: Texas would gain long-needed political recognition by joining the rank of doubtful States, which it has never had while the Democratic majority was 250,000 votes, in the opinion of Clarence Linz, chairman of the Dallas County Republican Executive Committee, who yesterday returned to Dallas after an extensive trip east and north in the interests of the Republican campaign. Mr. Linz conferred with Senator Harding in his home at Marion, Ohio, and said that the Republican presidential nominee measures up to every expectation.
"Senator Harding, I believe, has a kinder feeling toward the citizens of Texas than of any other State and he feels that the South is going to give him a wonderful vote. It was through the personal efforts of R. B. Creager of Brownsville, vice chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, that he was nominated for President. The convention seemed in a deadlock, and it was in Mr. Creager's private rooms in the Congress Hotel in Chicago that it was made certain Harding should receive the nomination. Mr. Creager also seconded Senator Harding's nomination. F. A. Scooby of San Antonio is also a personal friend of Senator Harding's, and he and Mrs. Scooby are now Senator and Mrs. Harding's house guests.
"Texas having been Democratic by a 250,000 majority, that party has always been sure of it, and therefore when there have been any favors forthcoming the doubtful States received them. Thus Democrats forget all about Texas' needs when they get in power.
"I visited Mrs. Harding on the famous 'front porch,' and she was greatly interested in the women of Texas and their political welfare."

THREE TEXAS AMENDMENTS TO COME UP IN ELECTION
Joe Hale from the headquarters of the State Democratic Executive Committee urges the Democrats of Texas to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the three amendments to the Constitution of the State of Texas, which are to be voted upon in the general November election.
"Since none of these amendments have been voted upon in the Democratic primaries," said Mr. Hale, "there is no obligation, moral or otherwise, upon any Democrat to support either of these measures. It is the duty, however, of every Democrat, and in fact of every qualified voter, to familiarize himself or herself with the provisions of these amendments, in order that he or she may cast an intelligent ballot on each of the measures submitted. It is the further duty of every Democrat to cast a vote either for or against each of these amendments in order that the results of the election on these measures may be representative of the will of the people.
The amendment relating to the manner of compensation of public officials provides in substance that all State, district, county and precinct officers shall hereafter be paid a salary, the amount of which, the terms and methods of payment, and the fund out of which such payments shall be made shall be ascertained, declared and fixed by the Legislature from time to time. This is calculated to eliminate the fee system and remove the constitutional restraint upon the amount of salary to be paid the Governor and certain other State officials.
"Another of the amendments authorizes cities and towns having a population of 5,000 or less to levy and collect a tax not to exceed one and one-half per cent of the taxable property of such cities; the effect of this amendment is to permit such cities and towns to levy a higher ad valorem tax if they see fit than is now permitted by the Constitution.
"The third amendment, among other things, provides that independent and common school districts created by general or special law shall be exempt from a limitation of the total tax which they may assess for any school year, thus giving each of such districts full and exclusive authority to levy and collect such amount of taxes as, in their judgment, may be necessary to properly finance the schools in those districts. It is to be noted that the tax thus provided for may only be imposed by the majority of the qualified property tax-paying voters of the district voting at an election to be held for this pur-

THIS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT MERELY A NUMBER BEHIND THE GRAY WALLS, YET HE IS HOPEFUL

By EYE WITNESS
I. DE PROFUNDIS

The scene:
A small, clean, high ceilinged, dismal but not squalid room in the Federal penitentiary on the outskirts of Atlanta. It is used by visitors who come with permits to see "the inmates," as the warden calls the prisoners. It opens on a broad, airy corridor leading to the inner region of cell blocks, shops and hospital. A long, rough table occupies the center of the room. There is a single lofty window, heavily barred. It commands a deep embrasure of prison wall and a patch of blue sky.

The time:
A hot September afternoon in mid-Georgia; long perspectives of prison walls and cement walks and dusty highway radiating heat, but infrequent puffs of breeze from distant hills making the day endurable. The soft air is weighted down with the drowsy hum of dynamos and that sound is occasionally cut through by the clang of steel doors, or the jubilant officious notes of birds from the outside, or the scuffling of feet over stone floors, or the lonesome swirl of a distant trolley crossing a half-suburban, half-rural area. As afternoon wanes into twilight there is a slow, implacable booming of gongs, and the occasional scuff of feet becomes a steady tramp. These sounds, coupled with the smell of carbolic disinfectant which in turn is tempered by a smell of vegetable soup that seems a permanency, would inform a blind man that he is in a prison.

In the Drama

The persons:
At the long table—on the side furthest from the door—sits a tall gaunt, bright-eyed, thin-lipped, spectacled man of 65 years. He is No. 9653, serving ten years for violation of the espionage act, but is better known to the outside world as Eugene S. Debs, for the fifth time candidate of the Socialist party for President of the United States, and last time recipient of one-seventh as many votes as the successful candidate received. In the two-piece prison uniform of light blue denim—loose trousers and a tunic buttoned at the throat—this bright-eyed, quick-moving, quick-glancing No. 9653 constantly suggests a busy, cheery, trustful old blue bird with much on its mind. At the bird's side sits its keeper—a kindly mild-spoken old man whose duty it is to listen to what his prisoner may utter. In the remote background of this couple is the Government at Washington, which has taken two days to say that No. 9653 shall not be interviewed unless he wants to, and certain colleagues of 9653, who have taken two more days to convince him via the telegraph, that he does want to be.

He having been convinced, there enters now a Tribune and Express reporter. He and No. 9653 greet each other with a conscious effort to appear unconscious of the environment in which they meet. The effort is rather a piteous failure, and the reporter says:

"Well, Mr. Debs, the last time we talked together it was in prison. We were young then, and now we are old; and again it's a prison. I don't believe we can begin this talk better than by my asking you whether it's moved—I mean this world you have been trying to change—in the 25 years since that winter day in Woodstock jail?"

From Jail to Penitentiary

The nominee gesticulates receptively across the table as he shapes his reply—not gesticulating with the arms or hands, as most persons do, but with the long, thin fingers that seem incessantly picking propositions out of the air, holding them up for exhibition, interlocking them, swiftly relinquishing them—incessantly moving, pointing, emphasizing. It is gesticulating eloquently bespeaking 'No. 9653's French origin as well as his possession of a mind that functions both rapidly and nervously. So gesticulating—the long, thin fingers quivering and flashing—he says:

"I think that's a good question. I think it means something. We couldn't start the interview better. . . . Yes, yes! It has moved. There have been the most portentous developments since that day in Woodstock, and the most far-reaching industrial, political and social changes in all the history of mankind."

He pauses a shade, and the reporter, on an impulse perhaps not of mannerly interjects: "How?"

It may be that the interruption throws Debs off the oratorical strain into which he was forging. In any case he drops it. A whimsical light shimmers behind the benevolent spectacles—spectacles, like Washington's false teeth, do make for the aspect of benevolence—and he says:

"In my own personal case there has been decided progress in that I have graduated from jail to penitentiary. When we were young I was a jail-bird. Now I'm a Federal prisoner. That time at Woodstock my reward of merit was six months in the county jail, but since then my services have so increased in demand and importance that I have drawn ten years in the Federal penitentiary. This I regard as my principal individual accomplishment."

Hopeful of the Future

"It may seem strange to some, but I have never been more hopeful, more confident of the future, than I am now; nor have I ever had so great a faith in the moral order of the universe as I have today. I have found to my pleasure as well as my profit that going to prison is not only a necessary part, but also the most vital part of my education. I have here learned more of what I needed to know in order to know myself than I could possibly have learned in any college or classroom in this country. I have come to realize as never before what a perfectly fine thing it is to find yourself on a perfect social level with what are called the meanest and lowest of our kind. I have felt myself exalted in the presence of the unfortunates with whom my lot has been cast, and I can say in all truth that I was never treated more kindly and considerately in all my past life. There is a psychology of prisonship that only one who has lived it can understand, and there is a fellowship of misery that generates the true sweetness of human nature—the very milk of human kindness. I have a far loftier conception of moral values and spiritual riches than I ever had before, and I have reason to thank God for that, if for no other reason, for having not allowed me to escape the penitentiary. From their own harsh and bitter experiences these men I am now with have learned to sympathize in all sincerity and tenderness. That is what the fellowship of misery means. Out of our isolation and our helplessness grows mutual helpfulness. So often I am touched and humbled by their delicacy of feeling—in the little things as well as in the large—as in the hospital when toward the end of each month the store of tobacco runs low. Then what remains is all fairly distributed so that when one quits smoking all quit. Isn't it wonderful that in a prison you find that spirit of one for all and all for one? Isn't it beautiful?"

The aged keeper, sitting at the head of the table, smiles and nods as he listens. Debs leans forward and lays a hand on his shoulder, saying: "You know that what I say is true, don't you, deputy?"

ATELL CLAIMS GAMBLERS MADE $250,000 ON SERIES

New York, Sept. 30.—Ten gamblers made at least $250,000 as a result of bribing members of the Chicago American League baseball team in the 1919 world's series, said a statement made here today by Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, whose name has frequently been mentioned in connection with the Chicago investigation.

"There is a master mind who evolved and operated the entire scheme," said Attell. "Of course, he was assisted by several others. His name and their names I know, but do not care to reveal them at the present time. Later I shall give names and particulars."

Junction Jots

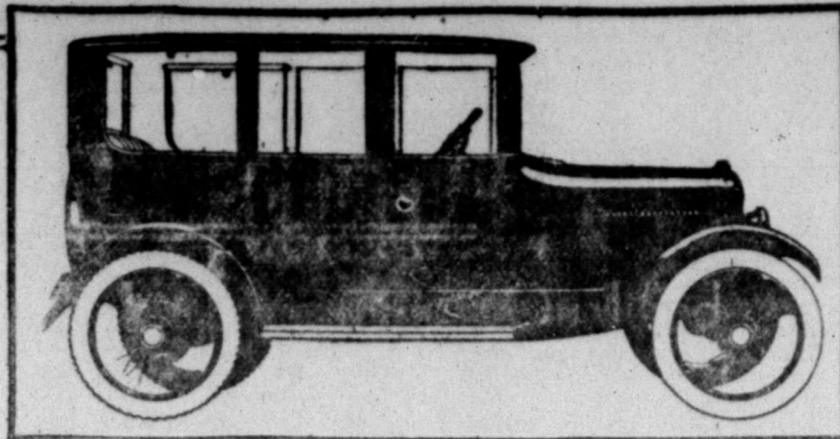

Eagle, Oct. 1: Miss Etta Hoggett returned Monday from Sonora, where she was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Tom Davis. We are glad to say Mrs. Davis is improving.

Miss Hope Benton, who has been confined to her room the past week or ten days by illness, is at this time reported to be improving.

On Wednesday night of this week Junction was visited with a good rain, one and one-quarter inches having fell during the night. While we were not needing rain, it was greatly appreciated for the weather the past few days was very warm, and since the rain it is nice and cool.

Saturday morning about 7 o'clock, one of the 4-year-old children of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Blackburn, who live near the school house, at the foot of the mountains, strayed away from the house and could not be found by the family anywhere, and for awhile the little city was all excitement and the family great worried. The little fellow was found at a neighbor's four hours later and a mile and half distant.

The All-Around Usefulness of THE OVERLAND SEDAN

The Decathlon in the Olympic Games embraces ten events in due.

Is for men who are varietists in sport rather than specialists.

Specialization is the obsession of a single-track mind.

The rare thing in the world today is diversity of talents.

In men and in automobiles the great essential is the ability to match any occasion, to cope with any emergency, and to do it with a minimum of effort and a maximum of success.

But greatest of all the merits of the Overland Sedan is her all-around usefulness—the ceaseless cycle of her service in the Decathlon of Travel—her eagerness for the golf game, her readiness for shopping, her efficiency in business, her up-and-doing spirit on a tour—where the road goes she will go also, swiftly, comfortably, economically, and so safely that any man who buys an Overland Sedan can trust his wife or daughter at the wheel.

The Overland Sedan does not ask for auspicious conditions under which to perform.

She asks only for the open road. If it be smooth, so much the better. If not, then her Triple Spring will make it so.

For comfort is second nature to the Overland Sedan, and maintenance is the least of her difficulties.

Gasoline means no more in her young life than oil in a salad dressing, and her official gallon record exceeds 27 miles.

ELECTION, OPEN PORT AND COMMERCE BILLS PASSED BY LEGISLATURE; TURKEY SEASON CHANGED

Austin, Tex., Oct. 2.—The election bill passed by the Legislature is now a law of the State. Payment of poll taxes by men and women can commence Monday and continue until October 22. Such receipts will entitle the holders to vote in all elections before February 1st next.

With the final passage by both houses of the election and open port and commerce bills, the special session accomplished the purposes for which it was originally called. It exceeded the Governor's program in that he asked only for the enactment of the election and open port laws. The Legislature went beyond his recommendation in expanding the open port bill to apply to strikes on common carriers.

It thus keeps open lines of commerce, including railroads, terminal companies, dock workers and pipe lines.

In addition to the two major matters consummated, the session has also enacted several laws of minor import, including local bills. The session opened on Tuesday, September 21, and has continued less than two weeks.

The session did not pass any of the three bills drawn by the Attorney General to divorce the packers-oil-mill-cotton gin combination, he alleges to exist in this State and as battering down the price of cotton seed. The first of the three went to engrossment in the House, but the necessary vote to suspend the constitutional rules was not forthcoming and those measures are dead until the regular session next January. The Attorney General has given notice that he will press them at that time. The bills were tendered the Legislature by the Governor at the request of the Attorney General.

The open season on wild turkeys is changed to November and December in a number of South Texas counties, according to the provisions of a bill which finally passed both houses of the Legislature today.

Bandera Budget

New Era, Sept. 30: Our young friend, Orange Clark, who served with the Marines during the period of the world war, has received a distinguished service medal from headquarters at Washington.

Dr. J. O. Butler and V. R. Guffy have purchased W. J. Davenport's ranch on West Verde, consisting of 3,510 acres, at $12 an acre. They also bought 150 head of cattle of Mr. Davenport and 140 head of L. M. Pruitt & Son. In turn Mr. Davenport bought Dr. Butler's 146 acres adjoining W. H. Fitzgerald's at $25 an acre.

We are sorry to report the very serious illness of Mrs. Chas. Montague. She took very ill last Wednesday. On Friday she was taken to the Santa Rosa Hospital in San Antonio. Her condition was so serious Monday that all her children were sent for. On Tuesday she underwent a very serious operation and since has been going nicely.

Judge Sam O'Bryant, field manager of the Wood-Texas Oil Company now drilling at Vanderpool, in Bandera County, is here on a short business trip.

Judge O'Bryant is optimistic over the good showing in the well at the present depth of between 700 and 800 feet. The drill is going right ahead with day and night shifts, and for the past month has made an average of 20 feet per day.

D. M. Field, vice president and general manager of the Plum Creek Oil Co., of Willis, Texas, is here in the interest of the Adamietz oil, test three miles south of Bandera. Mr. Field says his company owns the rig that is set over this well and it is their intention yet to put this well down if arrangements can be made to do so. They are experienced oil developers and are very optimistic over the oil prospects here, and Mr. Field says: "You will have a real paying oil field here as sure as it is properly developed."

WHAT you lose thru baking failure must be added to baking costs—it has to be paid for.

Calumet Baking Powder will save you all of that. Because when you use it—there are no failures—no losses. Every baking is sweet and palatable—and stays moist, tender and delicious to the last tasty bite.

That's a big saving—but that isn't all. You save when you buy Calumet and you save when you use it.

It is reasonable in cost and possesses more than the ordinary leavening strength. You pay less and use less. You get the most in purity, dependability and wholesomeness.

In every way — it is the best way to keep down baking costs. That's what has made it the world's biggest selling baking powder — has kept it the favorite of millions of housewives for more than thirty years.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

Calumet Sunshine Cake Recipe

1 cup of butter, 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar, 2 1/2 cups flour, 1 cup water, 2 level teaspoons Calumet Baking Powder, 1 teaspoon lemon, 2 1/2 cups of 9 eggs. Then mix in the regular way.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper
Free Entertainment

On Sunday, October 10th, at 5 p. m., the Orestes Brownson Literary Circle of Notre Dame Institute will give their first public performance for the current year in their school auditorium. The reception is entirely free to everyone, whether they are affiliated with the school or not. It is intended to honor Christopher Columbus, the pan-American hero of the whole Western Hemisphere. Discovery Day, October 12th, which is now a Nation-wide holiday, will be observed at both of our schools. At the morning services, which the local Knights of Columbus will attend in a body, the large Texas flag donated by Miss Wilhelmina Mosel will be blessed. No classes will be taught on this legal holiday.

The K. C.'s will assemble at 6:45 a. m. next Sunday and go to General Communion during the 7 o'clock mass. High Mass will not be sung this day on account of the monthly engagement at Comfort. Fortunately, the Saengerfest will be held on that day in that city. Many of the participants are practical Catholics and would dislike to omit their Sabbath devotions. Ernst Raba, who has been appointed to take a group photograph during the convention, will come after this assembly to Kerrville in order to take some more panoramic views with his large machine. He will return to San Antonio on Columbus Day with some Kerrville K. C.'s in order to attend the public entertainment planned by the Alhambra members of the Knights of Columbus.

Henry Kalvelage, brother-in-law of Father Kemper, is the Grand Knight of the Portland, Ore. Council, and will this month dedicate the four-story club home which he has caused to be erected at a cost of $175,000. During the last couple of years he has more than doubled the enrollment of his council.

Quarterly Report

Thanks to the courtesy and promptness of The Mountain Sun printers, we were able to issue our Third Quarterly Report for 1920 on the first of October. Copies were mailed and in the hands of every parishioner on the 2nd inst. This parish bulletin shows that St. Mary's congregation numbers at present 315 baptized American Catholics. Allowing as many Mexican members for Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish, it means that the Catholic element of Kerrville is about 30 per cent of the total population.

Through a typographical error last week, the number of baptisms administered in Kerr County by Father Kemper in nearly ten years was made to read 4,000, whereas it was obviously intended to be 405.

At Notre Dame Institute we have 89 pupils in attendance, of whom 40 per cent are non-Catholics. New comers are matriculating almost daily. Gus Reiminger, secretary of the Tax Assessors' Association of Texas, paid us a visit on last Friday and estimated, after careful calculation, that Notre Dame alone represents a yearly saving to the Kerrville Public Schools of $4,252.00. The enrollment at our Mexican School exceeds the hundred mark when the resident families return from the cotton fields.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Sun is authorized to announce John A. Leinweber as an independent candidate for County Assessor of Kerr County, at the election to be held the first Tuesday in November, 1920.

The Sun hereby announces the candidacy of Walter G. Peterson, who is the Democratic nominee for Assessor. He solicits the suffrage of all of the voters of Kerr County, upon a record of efficiency.

Good Shepherd Nuns

During the early part of the week, Sisters Theresa and John Berchmans of the Good Shepherd Home for wayward girls in San Antonio were here to canvass subscriptions for the support of their noble and heroic undertaking. They are taking care of 175 women and girls, but get a total allowance of only $75 a month from the city of San Antonio for all the cases sent to them by the police and juvenile courts and Humane Society. Among the business men of Kerrville these true heroines collected $37, for which they wish to express their heartfelt gratitude.

During the month of October the Rosary will be recited at Mass instead of the Morning Prayers. Benediction will be given on Tuesday and Friday mornings.

Miss Rebecca Hogan, an alumna of the Sisters' Training School for Nurses, was a guest at the Convent last Friday on her way home to Fort Worth from Junction, where she had been professionally employed.

Jas. J. Kearne is here from San Antonio, working on L. A. Schreiner's palatial residence.

At Dr. Thompson's Sanatorium the number of Catholic patients has increased to eight since the arrival of John J. Koldzgy of Yoakum and Albert L. Andry of Dallas. The latter is a distinguished chemist, who last month sold one of his scientific discoveries for ten thousand dollars' worth of stock and a monthly allowance of $400.00 for two years.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES
W. Angie Smith Jr., Pastor

With only two more weeks before our Annual Conference, the work of our church is most encouraging. The congregations, both morning and evening, are much larger than they have been during the year, and the general interest of the membership is greatly improved.

The choir has been enlarged and particular stress will be placed upon our music in the future. Miss Ruth Wallace and Mrs. Ben Ellis were the soloists for the Sunday services.

Mrs. Mamie Carr and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rouse joined our church last Sunday, and the entire church extends to them a most cordial welcome. Visitors in our delightful city are invited to worship with us Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., at which time the pastor, Mr. Smith, will preach.

CONGRESSMAN HUDSPETH GETS VERDICT FOR FEE

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 1.—Congressman C. B. Hudspeth was awarded a decision in District Court today that permits him to keep all the $100,000 fee allowed in suit brought when he was a partner of J. A. Gillett.

The firm won the case, which involved handling of a big estate. Hudspeth claims he advanced large sums to carry on the litigation and that Gillett did not have enough cash to advance his share. Consequently, Hudspeth claimed all of the fee. Gillett sued for half of it and lost. Judge Howe upholding Hudspeth's contention that as Gillett advanced none of the money he was not entitled to any fee.

Church of Christ

There will be services at the old Union Church, Sunday morning and evening, October 10th. Preaching by Rev. A. W. Young of San Antonio.

All members urged to be present and public cordially invited.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
J. E. HOLT, Pastor

Listen for the announcement concerning our revival. How we need it, and how our whole town needs it! Do you desire showers of spiritual blessings from the Father? May we pray, "Lord Wilt Thou Not Revive Us Again." Rev. C. F. Andrews of Uvalde will be the preacher, and a leader from the Seminary at Fort Worth will conduct the singing.

We do sincerely hope that every Christian of every church will come and help in this meeting, and we certainly extend to all a cordial invitation. We have no spiritual blessing that we do not want to share with others. Denominational lines need not separate us in the great business of winning the lost. Brother Andrews is one of the most outstanding preachers in Texas on the evangelistic side of his ministry. He is a successful soul winner and pastor, and stands very high in the denomination in which he works. And we want to make the singing beautiful, worshipful and inspiring. To that end we covet the help of every singer in town.

My people are anxious for a revival and I am now urging them to pray and do every thing in their power to advertise the meeting and make it a marked success. Revivals of religion are Scriptural and right and Kerrville should have her share of the good things God has to give. Everything will be arranged for the comfort of the people during the meeting. All services will be held in the main auditorium of the Baptist Church.

Things are getting better with us now. Services were well attended Sunday. Missionary J. E. Byrd and his wife united with us at the morning hour. We welcome them heartily into our fellowship.

The teachers are doing good work in the Manual these nights. All are interested.

Torpid Liver

Black-Draught "has no equal for headache, sour stomach, torpid liver and feverish colds..." declares Mrs. Annie Whitmore, of Gale City, Va. "It is easy to take and does not gripe, as a lot of medicines do," she adds. "It is good to take in a hot tea for colds, or can be taken in a dry powder. I can't say enough for Black-Draught and the sickness it has saved us."

Theford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

has been found a valuable liver medicine, in thousands of homes. "I do not use any other liver medicine," says Mrs. Mary O. Brown, of Europa, Miss. "It is splendid for sour stomach, a bad taste in the mouth or torpid liver. I keep it all the time, use it with the children and feel it has saved us many dollars in doctor bills and many days in bed."

PIILING UP HAPPINESS

DOES each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

New Election Law

Austin, Tex., Oct. 4.—The new election law provides that both men and women shall pay poll tax of $1.75 to vote in the November election this year. The usual exemptions are made as to electors who are aged and infirm. Absentee voting for men and women in primary elections is provided in the bill as is now permitted for men. The poll tax this year must be paid by October 22 and collectors must furnish election boards with certified lists not later than Oct. 28. Exemption certificates are not required for men and women residing outside of cities of 10,000 population. After this year poll taxes must be paid by men and women before Feb. 1 of each year. The general election statutes are made to apply to men and women alike.

With the improvements constantly being made in the business establishments and residences built, Kerrville is growing solidly, regularly and quite rapidly.

The Sun appreciates the excellent advertising patronage extended this week by the leading business firms of Kerrville. It enables us to print a much more creditable paper, and it also shows to the outside public what a live, wide-awake, prosperous little city we have.

Harris Hardin is the Democratic nominee in district four, and is the only one of the candidates for commissioner with any opposition. Mr. Hardin would make a capable commissioner and should receive the united support of the Democrats of his district, which would result in his election.

A local building and loan association would be a most excellent thing for Kerrville to enable resident people to secure homes. What is needed just now, is the building of modern two, three, four and five-room cottages for rent or sale to people who come here for a part of the year. More of these are needed than a local building and loan association could erect.

There have been so many demands upon the people of this country that it is time to cut out contributions to some of the causes for which aid is requested. The United States cannot take care of the people of the whole world who are in need. We have many in our own country who are in sore straits and they should come first in our consideration. There are entirely too many demands upon the people.

A majority of the special session of the Legislature finally made the paying of poll tax uniform, which was necessary to have the law constitutional. However, it would have been better to omit all poll taxes for this time, but that might have endangered the success of some of the Democratic nominees. It is always pertinent to "play politics" and if the politicians didn't do so, they would soon be out of a job.

A rumor was going the rounds Thursday morning to the effect that the Chas. Schreiner Com. had sold a lot of wool for 19 cents a pound—Edwards County Leader.

The rumor above referred to is an error. The lowest price that the Charles Schreiner Wool & Mohair Commission Company has sold wool was for 35 cents and up to 45 cents. The Government is reported to have made sales of wool from 3 to 33 cents recently.

It is reported in press dispatches that those having the Far East funds in charge recently gave a big blow-out to some of the officers in authority, by having a champagne banquet and girls to dance the hoochie-coochie. In too many instances the funds for the needy and oppressed are squandered by those entrusted with it. Thousands are living in idleness and luxury with funds solicited for the poor and distressed of this and other lands. It is time to be more circumspect as to who funds are paid and for what purpose.

WHOLESALE PRICES REDUCED; RETAILERS MUST ALSO DROP

New York.—Prices are not only coming down, they actually are down. If you, Mr. Retail Purchaser, and you, Missus, do not notice that you are getting things of every description more cheaply, put it up to your retailer as hard as you can, and if the drop doesn't come, go elsewhere. You can get things at lower prices because the wholesale prices have been cut.

Such is the logical summary of the price reduction "wave" that is sweeping the country, made by observers in position to know. It followed a survey of dispatches from all over the country not of the "prices will come down" prophecy kind, but of actual offers of goods at wholesale at greatly reduced figures.

And the Federal Reserve Board assisted the optimism by saying the country is "definitely on the road to stability."

The Federal Reserve Board in a statement dealing with many phases of the situation, said the purchasing power of the public remains strong, but it is "becoming more studious over both the question of quality and price." The demand for luxuries and semi-luxuries is more "conservative."

Center Point Comments

Otis McGaffey came up from Houston last Friday to spend the week-end with his family, who are domiciled at the Bruff House.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stanley, who live at Houston, spent a good part of last week visiting relatives in Center Point.

Miss Gene C. Goodloe, our genial primary teacher, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folk at Boerne.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bonnell motored in from their ranch home at Camp Verde on Monday and were calling on our business men. Mr. Bonnell says he is putting in all the small grain possible, as he looks for a bumper crop next spring.

E. T. Mangum of Nixon, Texas, purchased from L. N. Coffey of Comstock the latter's residence on Church Street and his family are now occupying the same.

Mrs. Kate Woods of San Antonio is visiting Mrs. James Sellers. Mrs. Woods lived here more than forty years since, and her husband kept store here long before we had any railroad.

M. C. and J. T. Talley from San Antonio are putting in their stock of hardware and implements this week. They are occupying the Center Point Mercantile Co. building on the corner of San Antonio and Post Office Street. They are very welcome to our town, as we had been without a hardware store for some time.

Tariton Mayfield arrived home from El Paso last Saturday, where he had been living for the past several months. Tariton stopped off for a day in Del Rio, where he met and made the acquaintance of a young man who proved to be quite a crook. He learned from Tariton his father's name and proceeded to wire Mr. Mayfield here: "Dad wire me thirty dollars, will explain when I get home." Mr. Mayfield fortunately did not wire the money but sent a check, wiring his son to that effect. When Tariton arrived home Saturday and found that such a message had been sent he at once called up the sheriff at Del Rio by long distance phone, informing him of the facts. Later in the day Mr. Mayfield received a message from the sheriff, stating that he had the young man in jail. He had received the telegram and had registered at the hotel in Tariton's name, and was quietly waiting for the letter. He was evidently a novice at the business.

Red Cross Election

The regular election of the executive committee of Kerr County Chapter, American Red Cross, will be held on the third Wednesday in October. All members are requested to vote.

The place of voting will be at some convenient business location, to be announced later.

W. G. CARPENTER,
County Chairman.

Water Street ought to have asphalt paving for a mile so as to partly alleviate the dust nuisance and also to add to the appearance of the city. It does not harmonize with the most excellent buildings and handsome residences along its length. The visitor notices the difference. It shows a lack of enterprise on the part of some one. Of course, the trouble might be located, but life is too short. Let those who will pave go ahead and do so and leave the street unpaved where those refuse to do so. It would look so bad, that all would then pave in self defense.

Mrs. King has been taking a prominent part in politics this year, as she made several speeches in behalf of Pat M. Neff for Governor during the primary.

October 9th is Fire Prevention Day and Fire Marshal Michon would like to have the day observed in Kerrville. He would also like to see more care taken to prevent fires, and particularly to have the city keep its fire apparatus in readiness for a fire. During the past year there were 161 lives lost by fire in Texas; 337 injured; $12,750,000 worth of property destroyed, and of these fires 75 per cent were considered preventable.

How We Care For Your Meat Cars

When you see a Swift Refrigerator Car going by in a train, it seems a simple thing that it should be carrying fresh meat up and down the country.

Like most of the packer activities which contribute to your welfare, you are so used to having this going on uninterruptedly, day in, day out, throughout the year, that you are likely to take it as a matter of course.

But it is not a matter of course. Every car you see going by means long hours of minute, scientific, painstaking care in preparation for what it is doing.

Every time a car comes in it is washed out thoroughly with scalding water. If any taint, any foreign matter, were present, this would get rid of it. Even the meat hooks are taken down from the racks and scalded with water and live steam.

When the car is thoroughly cleansed we put in 5,000 pounds of ice. But that is only preliminary. It only cools the car to the proper temperature. By the time the car is moved over to receive its load, this first ice is melted. More is then put in to keep the car cool.

Then the meat is hung on the sterilized hooks and the load of food is ready for its journey. It arrives as it leaves, clean, fresh, wholesome, appetizing; and your meat supply goes on unaffected by seasons or weather.

This is only a part of the service which Swift & Company furnishes, at a profit to itself so small—averaging a fraction of a cent per pound on all products over a period of years—that if the profit were handed on to the consumer, it would make a difference of less than a nickel a week in the meat bill of the average American family.

The readers of The Mountain Sun cannot very well miss seeing the handsome page advertisement of the Charles Schreiner Company in this issue. The public know the high grade of goods carried by the Schreiners, and as they buy mostly in car-load lots get their goods at lowest prices going. In addition to this, they now offer you 25 per cent off for cash on everything in their dry goods department, which includes any new goods recently received.

Peterson & Moore, lumber dealers, have about completed a pretty six-room bungalow on Earl Garrett Street. This building is modern in every respect and has a sun parlor. This firm will likely build other bungalows and smaller cottages to meet the demand that is here now for such accommodations, and also to assist in getting ready to take care of the large number of visitors expected next season. Others able to do so ought to do the same, so that the many people desiring to take their vacation at Kerrville will find suitable conveniences to do so. There is no trouble to either lease or sell such cottages or bungalows.

COTTON MEN MAKE PROTEST AGAINST GAMBLING IN FUTURES

Austin, Tex., Sept. 29.—D. E. Lyday, vice president and general manager of the American Cotton Association, and F. C. Weinert, Commissioner of the Market and Warehouse Department, gave out the following joint statement:

"We do not believe in taking any radical step or promoting radical action on the part of any citizens of this State or anywhere else, but owing to the action of a bunch of gamblers operating through the Cotton Exchanges of the country, conditions have been brought about that are distressing indeed.

"We have seen approximately $1,000,000,000 of the South's wealth swept away within the last sixty days, due largely to these gambling transactions. We have today wired the president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange the following telegram, which is self-explanatory:

Text of Telegram

"The action of cotton traders in forcing the price of cotton down $100 per bale in the last ninety days through selling millions of bales they never intend to deliver, is bitterly resented by our people. Farmers everywhere are preparing to abandon fields of cotton of the best grade and staple in recent years. Traders gambling in futures on your exchange should prepare to pick the cotton they are selling.

"Our Southern farmers have lost $1,000,000,000 through these illegitimate transactions, and are prepared to dispense with cotton exchanges in the future. It is generally believed this experience will wipe off the map the opportunity to destroy the business of a nation through gambling conspiracies."

People Should Call Halt

"What is said in this telegram to the president of the New Orleans Exchange applies with equal force to the other exchanges operating in this country and in Europe. We think it is time for the people to call a halt. It is time that some united action was begun on the part of the producers of this country to organize themselves closely to be able to accomplish the results that are so necessary to bring about immediate legislation for our immediate relief.

"If the farmers of the South were organized as they should be organized, no such gambling transactions would have ever been heard of as we have witnessed in the last sixty days.

"We have expected a normal decline in the price of cotton, but have not expected any such decline as has taken place by reasons of a combination of gamblers selling the future market to death, thereby depressing the spot market to that point that the farmers of this State cannot afford to go to the expense of picking and ginning the amount of cotton left."

MR. MCNEES COMES TO THE FRONT

Tells His Friends and Neighbors Of His Experience.

Every Kerrville resident should read what Mr. McNees says, and follow his example. He has used Doan's Kidney Pills and speaks from experience. Is there any need to experiment with imitations or untried kidney medicines?

D. F. McNees, retired farmer, Kerrville, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are a good remedy. My kidneys were weak and out of order. I felt dull and tired and had a soreness and dull ache over my kidneys and my kidneys acted irregularly. Others in my family had been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills and I used them. They corrected the trouble, putting my kidneys in good condition."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. McNees had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Fredericksburg Flashes

Standard, Oct. 2: The 4-year-old son, George G., of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Hinds of Willow City died on Tuesday as the result of burns contracted while playing in the yard. A smaller brother, while playing out in the yard, had started a fire with some paper. The mother on rushing out found the boy so severely burned that he succumbed shortly after.

Aug. M. Jung reports that he is commissioned by the Census Department at Washington, D. C., to enumerate all citizens in Gillespie County that were not enumerated during the previous census enumeration. Mr. Jung stated that he has sent in 35 names, which will be sufficient to bring the population of this county above 10,000.

On Wednesday, September 29th, Chas. C. Schuchard died at the local sanitarium. Mr. Schuchard seemed in perfect health until recently, the examining physician diagnosed his case as appendicitis, and an operation was performed Sunday. Mr. Schuchard was well known as the kind, generous and courteous bookkeeper of the Farmers' Produce Company. He attained the age of 66 years, 2 months and 15 days.

Edwards County Echoes

Leader, Oct. 1: Jim Newton, who had been working on an oil well near Amarillo, returned this week with his arm in a sling. A heavy piece of metal fell on him and broke his collar bone.

N. A. Suttles and four other men, who were building fence out on the Greer ranch, were poisoned Saturday at dinner time, caused it is thought by drinking milk that had stood too long in a tin vessel. While the men became very sick they are all improving.

John Smith is having a big herd of sheep and a big herd of goats driven from the ranch he sold not long since twenty miles west of town to the ranch he bought near Montell. There is some four or five thousand head of the sheep and about the same number of goats. They passed through town Sunday evening.

John Harris came in from his ranch Saturday for medical treatment for rattlesnake bite. He was out in his yard barefooted Friday night, when a small rattler bit him on the heel. They applied the usual home remedies, and while his foot was badly swollen it did not appear to be serious and Dr. Rogers treated it Saturday afternoon.

 J. W. McGowan et al.
 State of Texas, County of Kerr.
 To the Sheriff or Any Constable of Kerr County, Greeting:
 You are hereby commanded to summon J. W. McGowan and the unknown heirs of J. W. McGowan, Mrs. J. W. McGowan and the unknown heirs of Mrs. J. W. McGowan, Tom McGowan and the unknown heirs of Tom McGowan, Mrs. Tom McGowan and the unknown heirs of Mrs. Tom McGowan and all of their heirs and legal representatives whose names are unknown to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Kerr County, to be held at the Court House thereof in the City of Kerrville, on the 15th Monday after the first Monday in September, same being the 20th day of December, A. D. 1920, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 7th day of Sept., 1920, in a case numbered 1081, wherein Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company is plaintiff and J. W. McGowan and the unknown heirs of J. W. McGowan, Mrs. J. W. McGowan and the unknown heirs of Mrs. J. W. McGowan, Tom McGowan and the unknown heirs of Tom McGowan, Mrs. Tom McGowan and all of their heirs, legal representatives are defendants, the cause of action being alleged as follows:

SECOND: That plaintiff is lawfully seized and possessed of a certain tract and parcel of land hereinafter described and situated in Kerr County, Texas, owning the same in fee simple and that the defendants are asserting some right, title and interest in said land the exact nature of which is unknown to plaintiff, which is described as follows:

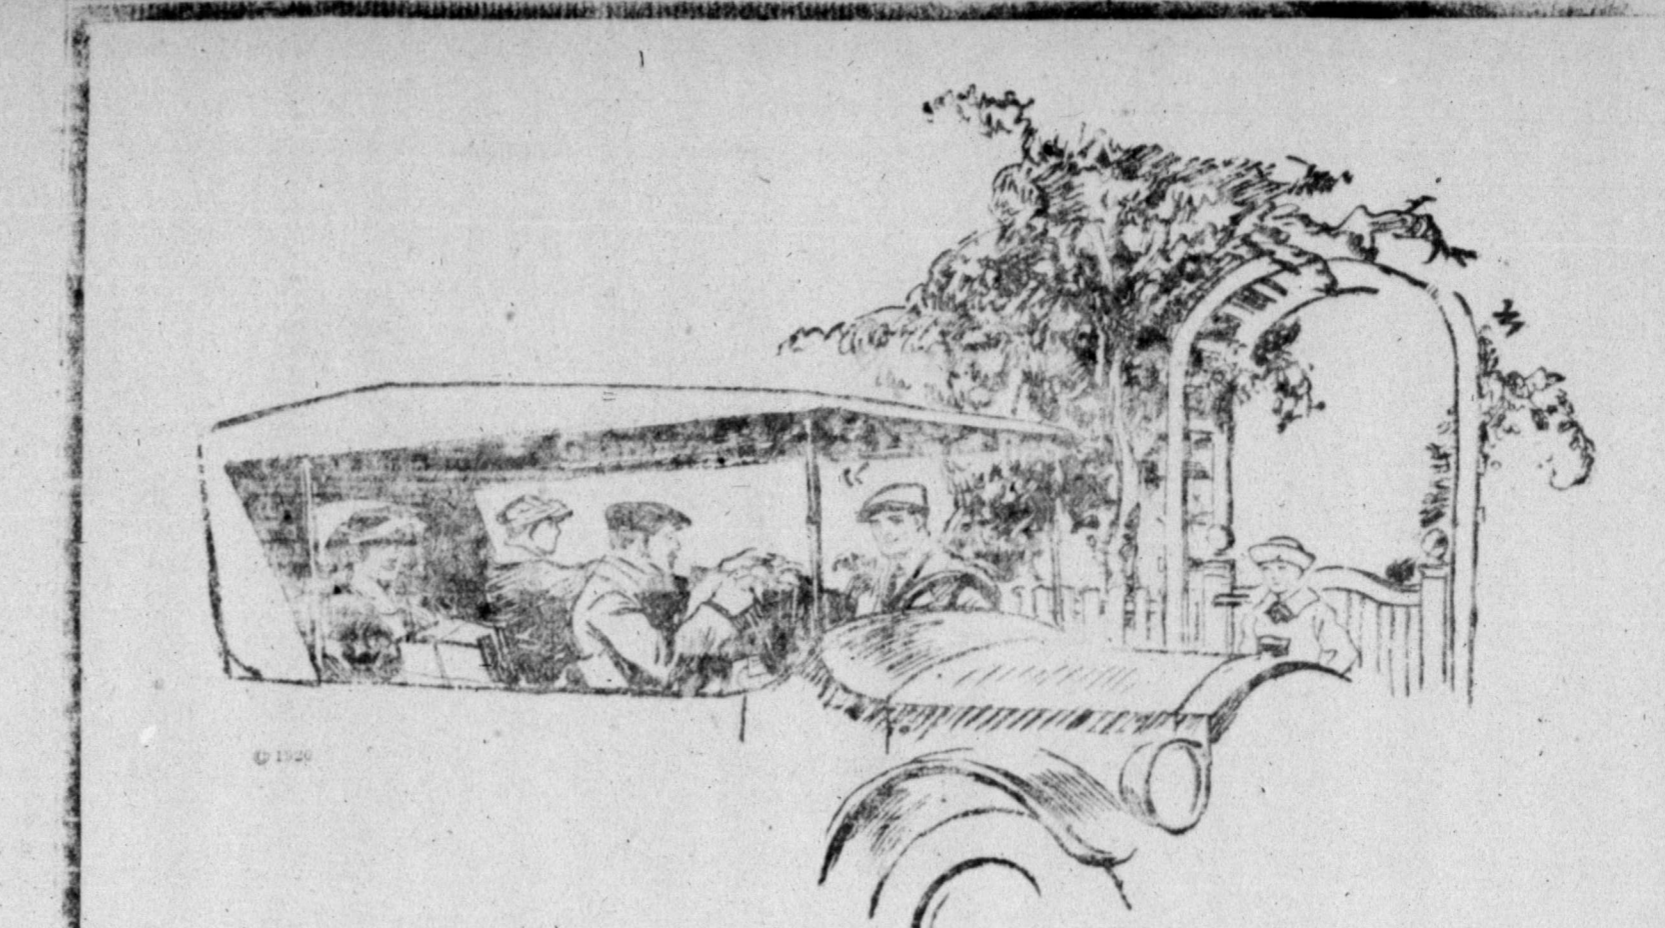

One hundred and sixty (160) acres of land, situated and described as follows:

In Kerr County, known as Survey No. 1784 on the waters of Mason Creek and a tributary of the Medina River, about 13 miles S. 25 E. from Kerrville, by virtue of said McGowan application made in accordance with an Act approved May 26th, 1875.

FOURTH: That plaintiff is lawfully seized and possessed of all of the land and premises hereinbefore described, owning and holding the same by virtue of the following facts, to-wit:

(a) A patent from the State of Texas to the heirs of J. W. McGowan,

Nobody thinks anything now of going away on a trip

THE railroads were partly responsible. But it wasn't until the automobile reached its present state of development that the old barriers against travel were finally broken down.

More people own automobiles today than ever thought of owning a horse and buggy in the old days.

That's because the cost of motoring has been brought within reach of the average citizen's pocketbook.

We look upon it as part of our job to keep it there. If it weren't for the trade of the man with the medium priced car there wouldn't be much in this tire business for us.

The less a man has to spend on motoring, the more important it is that his tires should be of first quality.

Any tire is not good enough for the small car owner. He wants a tire that will give him just as much for his money in the small size as the big car man gets for his money in the large size.

In thinking over what kind of tires we would represent in this community we tried to put ourselves in the place of the car owner. And we believe we hit it exactly when we selected U. S. Tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:
 In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.
 For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.
 For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.
 For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

THIRD: That the plaintiff is now in possession of all of said land and premises and is entitled to said possession and is the owner in fee simple of all the said land and premises and that the defendants have no right, title or interest of any kind or character in or to said land and premises or any part or portion thereof and that by reason of the claims of defendants to some right, title or interest in and to said land and premises they have cast a cloud upon plaintiff's title and greatly hinder and delay the plaintiff from selling his said land and prevent it from selling same for as great a price as it would or could do if it were not for said claim or assertions made by the defendants, which claims are unjust and without any foundation whatsoever, and that by reason of such unfounded claims on the part of defendants, plaintiff has been damaged in the sum of Fifteen Hundred ($1,500.00) Dollars.

(b) A deed from Tom McGowan to H. E. Hildebrand, dated December 20th, 1908, filed December 22nd, 1909 and recorded in Vol. 30, page 158, in the office of the County Clerk of Kerr County, Texas.

(c) Deed of Trust from H. E. Hildebrand to W. B. Hamilton trustee, West Texas Bank and Trust Company beneficiary, dated on or about the 7th day of July, 1914, conveys the above described land together with other lands to secure the payment of notes described in said Deed of Trust; said Deed of Trust is recorded in Book 5, pages 510-12, Deed of Trust Records of Kerr County, Texas.

(d) Certified copy of Decree of Court, In Re Liquidation of West Texas Bank and Trust Company, recorded in Vol. 38, page 416, Kerr County Deed Records.

(e) Bill of Sale from West Texas Bank and Trust Company by John S. Patterson, Commissioner of Insurance and Banking of the State of Texas, to the Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company, recorded in Vol. "J," page 53, Kerr County Bill of Sale Records.

(f) Certified copy of Judgment in the case of Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company vs. Commercial Loan and Trust Company, dated June 4th, 1917, filed May 27th, 1920, recorded in Vol. 38, page 424, Deed Records of Kerr County, Texas, said certified copy includes report of sale by commissioner and notice of sale by commissioner and order confirming the sale of commissioner to Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company; all instruments being certified copies made by Osceola Archer, Clerk of the District Court, Bexar County, Texas, and recorded as above stated in the Deed Records of Kerr County, Texas.

(g) P. W. Dittmar, Commissioner, to Commonwealth Bank & Trust Company, dated August 19th, 1917, filed September 20th, 1917, recorded in Vol. 35, page 454, Deed Records of Kerr County, Texas, conveys all the above described land together with other land.

(h) The plaintiff is now in possession of all the said land and premises hereinbefore described and this plaintiff has had and held exclusive, continuous, peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for ten years next before the institution of this suit, and that all of the said land and premises hereinbefore described, and hereinafter to be described, have been entirely, actually and continuously inclosed by plaintiff by good substantial fences for more than ten years next prior to the institution of this suit.

(i) This plaintiff claims this land because it now has and those whose estates it has, had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the land above described, cultivating and using and enjoying the same for a period of ten years next prior to the commencement of this suit, taken and held under a written memorandum of title, specifying the boundary of said tract and duly recorded in the office of the County Clerk of Kerr County, Texas, as herein set out and this he is ready to verify.

(j) Plaintiff says that it is those whose estates it has claims said lands by deeds duly registered and has had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the land and tenements above described, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes thereon for a period of five years and more than five years next prior to the institution of this suit.

The plaintiff says that it does not know how, or in what manner the defendants are claiming this land.

You are further commanded to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in a newspaper published in your county; but, if no newspaper is published in said county, then in the nearest county where a newspaper is published.

Herein fail not but have you before said Court on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, Jno. R. Leavell, Clerk of the District Court of Kerr County.

Given under my hand and the seal of said Court in the City of Kerrville this 8th day of Sept., A. D. 1920.

Henry Peterson has been carrying his right arm in a sling the past few days on account of a rap with "back fire" of a Ford when he started to crank it. He says the car had a kick coming to it, because it had not been cleaned in two years. Even the Ford flivver will not stand everything.

E. P. and O. Q. Marshall of Rock-springs were in Kerrville Saturday of last week to get a fine Angora goat that had arrived for them from Monmouth, Ore., and for which they paid $1,000. The Marshalls have quite a large ranch near Rocksprings and considerable herds of sheep and goats.

Miss C. Pafford of Center Point desires to announce to her many friends among the readers of The Sun, that she has now on display a nice line of Ladies' Suits and Coats along with her millinery, and will be glad to have them call and see them before purchasing elsewhere. The styles and prices are right. 42-ltc

J. M. Hamilton returned last Saturday from Austin, where he spent most of the past two weeks, looking after the passage of the amended game-law which permits the killing of turkeys in November and December in the counties of this section. Mr. Hamilton says that to M. E. Blackburn, the Representative of this district, is due most of the credit for the bill going through.

Some one, who failed to comply with one of the universal customs of newspapers in requiring the signing of their name to an article, has written The Sun about the Kerrville Post Legion. The suggestion contained in the letter is a good one, so it is referred to in order that those interested may take the matter up. There ought to be a regular time for meeting, if the Post is still alive, and there ought to be a club room for the meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lucas of Abbeville, S. C., visited his brother Harry E. Lucas, and wife of this city last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas left Abbeville in June and since then they have visited the following places, touring West and South: Atlanta, Ga.; Kansas City, Mo.; Denver, Colo.; Salt Lake City, Utah; Pocatello, Idaho; Salt Lake City, Idaho; Yellowstone National Park; Los Angeles, Cal.; Venice, Cal.; El Paso, Texas; Juarez, Old Mexico, San Antonio and Kerrville. Leaving here Saturday morning they went to New Orleans, La., where they will purchase a car and return from Louisiana to Abbeville by auto. This is their fifth trip from coast to coast. Mr. Lucas

COX AND THE ALBUQUERQUE (N. M.) JOURNAL

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: When Governor Cox spoke in Albuquerque, New Mexico, recently, Carl C. Magee, editor-in-chief of The Albuquerque Morning Journal, propounded certain questions to the Democratic candidate. Governor Cox replied to these questions and in turn asked Mr. Magee a question. A front page editorial in The Journal next day gives an idea of this passage at arms. The Journal said:

"We asked Governor Cox a half dozen questions yesterday morning. He answered them courteously, if not satisfactorily. He said we asked too graciously."

"He in turn asked us a question in a gracious and courteous manner. We are a good sportsman and will answer it. It was this:

"Did not two gentlemen named Headly and Smith, representing Will H. Hays, National Republican chairman, call upon you a few days before my arrival and ask you not to emphasize my welcome in New Mexico and to handle my meeting here as lightly as possible and to minimize its effect and add that they were traveling ahead of me to interview Republican papers for that purpose?"

"Two men of some such names did interview us and did so represent themselves. They did make such a request and such a statement."

"We refused their request; said any distinguished visitor to Albuquerque would receive a gracious reception from The Journal and the widest and fairest publicity, regardless of politics; that we believed in free and fair discussion; that we owed the National committee nothing and would conduct The Journal as we chose.

"They then said: 'Of course you will; you misunderstood us.'"

"We are supporting Harding and Coolidge, but disapprove the methods of such overzealous partisans."

The Journal's answer illustrates two things. First of all, of course, it illustrates the methods of the Republican National committee. The other thing it illustrates is the manner in which an honest and self-respecting editor conducts a newspaper. The request of the two gentlemen representing the Republican National committee amounted to a proposal that the editor of The Journal prostitute the news columns of his paper to misrepresent and pervert the news. Mr. Magee, however, refused to break faith with his readers. Respective of his own politics and the editorial stand of his paper, he regarded it as the first and highest duty of the publication under his direction to give the public a full, fair and impartial account of events, no matter what their character and purport might be.

In the same issue of The Journal in which this editorial appeared, Mr. Magee gave his personal impression of the Democratic candidate as obtained during the latter's visit to Albuquerque. It is remarkable, comparing from a Republican editor, in that it discredits the popular notion that the emissaries of the Republican National committee have been seeking to create throughout the country with respect to Governor Cox. It also reflects the character of the man who wrote it. Here is what Mr. Magee said:

"Either what Governor Cox says fails to read as well in print as it sounds or there is some truth in his claim that the newspapers fail to treat him fairly."

"Reading reports of the Cox tour had created in my mind an impression that he was shallow, erratic, badly poised, extravagant in statement and undersized."

"An hour beside him at the dinner table carried convincing proof that none of these things were true of him in repose. He was genial, clever, rapid in his mental processes, avacious for knowledge of local conditions in New Mexico and free from all pose. He is exceedingly likable and sensible."

"His speech gave none of the impressions I note above. It was extremely effective, sanely progressive and very good tempered."

"From 6:30 until 10 o'clock last night I completely revised my estimate of Governor Cox as a man, I had thought him too small a man for the job. Instead, he has the qualities which will make him a good President, in my judgment, if he is the choice of the people."

"But I am still an unqualified supporter of Harding and Coolidge. Governor Cox has to carry Wilsonism, burbonism and Bakerism. He travels with too much political excess baggage."

An elaborate preachment with more than one moral could be written with these two utterances of the editor of The Journal as texts, on newspaper ethics, the methods of politicians, the character of the Democratic candidate and other things. But they speak for themselves and extended comment is unnecessary. Let it suffice to say that they give one a very favorable impression of both the Democratic candidate and the editor of The Albuquerque Journal.

An Appeal

My attention having been called to a private collection of books owned by Mrs. Calloway, who wishes to dispose of them at a sacrifice, it occurred to me at once that this magnificent library largely of reference books and classics should be procured by all means for our Public Schools.

These books are well worth a thousand dollars and can be bought for a few hundred and I strongly suggest that the Mothers' Club take this matter up and secure these rare volumes by popular subscription.

I am sure everyone interested in the educational welfare of our boys and girls will gladly contribute to this end.

It is a chance of a lifetime and would be of inestimable help to the students in our schools.

Yours for Kerrville,
GEO. W. WALTHER.

A Little Talk About Fountain Pens

When we decided to install a line of fountain pens in our stock, we insisted on certain qualities; a pen that did not leak, a pen with a smooth point, a pen that fed ink evenly as long as the ink lasted; in short, a pen superior to salesmanship—a pen so good that it would sell itself as readily as a package of needles or a bar of Ivory soap.

We took on the TEMPOINT Line. For a year we have tried it out. A year was not required to give us confidence in its superiority. But it has given us fullness of confidence. And because of this sureness that it will "deliver the goods" we offer every person who has any interest in fountain pens a chance to try it out for himself to his absolute satisfaction.

Opposite the fountain pen case in our store is a table with writing paper, blotters and a filled fountain pen. You are invited to sit down here and write a letter, as long a letter as you like. If you prefer a pen with a finer or coarser point, ask for it. If, after a thorough trial, you like the pen and consider buying one, speak to a salesperson. If not, no one will try to sell it to you. THIS PEN MUST ABSOLUTELY SELL ITSELF.

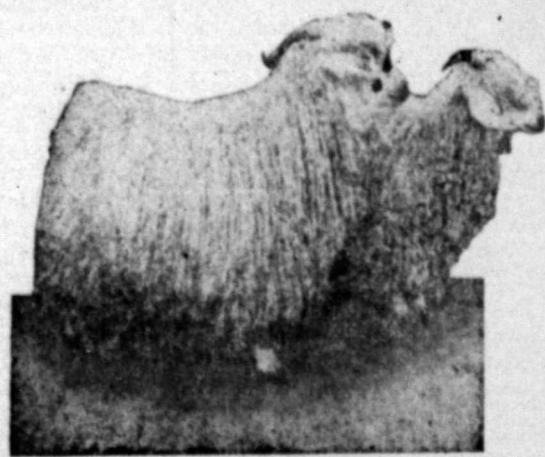

We are proud of the TEMPOINT Pen, and we shall consider it a courtesy if our friends will try it out.

COTTON PICKERS GIVE $300 TO SOLDIERS' SANATORIUM

Lockhart, Tex., Oct. 3.—More than $300 was collected among the negro and Mexican cotton pickers Saturday for the Soldiers' Tubercular Sanatorium at Kerrville.

Judge E. B. Coopwood, who has the campaign in charge, will now secure the remainder of the county's quota and close the drive.

There was no difficulty in getting the money from the pickers on Saturday and it was evident that they thoroughly understood what the call was for.

POPULATION GAINING FASTER IN CITIES THAN IN COUNTRY

Washington, D. C.—Cities are increasing in population seven and one-half times as fast as rural districts, the Census Bureau disclosed, in a compilation of figures covering approximately 80 per cent of the new census.

For the last 10 years rural growth was but one-third as great as it was in the previous decade, but the cities almost maintained their rate of growth, getting five new inhabitants from 1910 to 1920 for each six added during the preceding 10 years. All population centers, including hamlets and towns, showed a greater proportionate increase than the purely rural districts.

Although showing a check in the rate of population growth in the country as a whole, the bureau's figures indicated that the complete census would place the total number of inhabitants of the continental United States at approximately 105,768,100, a gain of 13,795,840, or 15 per cent. Cities will absorb practically all of this increase, it being estimated that 12,172,700 would reside in towns of 2,500 or more inhabitants, while 1,623,040 would be added to the farms and hamlets. For the countryside itself, the increase would be approximately 1,225,000.

OUR POLICY IS NOT TO SIDE STEP

Did you ever notice how peculiar most of us humans are in the matter of sidestepping? The man who can't play golf dubs it "an old man's game"; the chap who can't dance will side step a two-step and ask his partner to "sit it out" with him; the man who never had the pluck or price to go to Europe shouts "See America First!" One of the firmest policies of this firm is not to side step. We tell you what we have and we tell you the whole truth, not half truths. We don't claim to be infallible—all we can do is to try to have everything you want just when you want it and at prices that are reasonable. You may be sure that anything and everything you purchase from us is just as represented. If for any reason you think you have not received value for your money, bring back the goods. If you don't want them we don't want you to have them. We spend a lot of time studying your needs and means, and when we put anything in our stock you may be sure it is worth all we ask, most times a little more. We step straight ahead successfully, because our policy is never to side step.

Farmers Organize

Comfort News, Sept. 30: The meeting of farmers of this community, which was called to take place last Saturday afternoon at Faltin's Hall, for the purpose of effecting an organization of local farmers for their mutual benefit, was attended by about seventy-five persons.

The meeting was called to order and its purpose explained by Hugo Wiedenfeld, president of the Cypress Creek Community Council of Agriculture and Home Economics, who was then elected temporary chairman of the meeting.

Mr. Wiedenfeld called upon Hon. Julius Real of Kerrville to address the meeting, and the latter responded with a very enlightening talk on the subject of farmers' organizations, which was greatly enjoyed and appreciated by his auditors. Some discussion of the matter followed, and the meeting then voted in favor of a permanent organization, and elected the following officers: C. A. Fellbaum, president; Frank Rusch, vice president; Theo. Strohacker, secretary, and Walter Stieler, treasurer. A committee on constitution and by-laws was appointed as follows: Chas. H. Herbst, Walter Stieler and Theo. Strohacker. This committee will report at the next meeting, which has been called for Saturday, October 16 at 2 p. m., when it is hoped that an official organizer from the State Agricultural Department will be present to assist in the work of launching this new organization.

His "Pull"

One of the annoyances of the manager of a show is the "free list" in small towns, and it is his duty to look over the list when he arrives and do the necessary cutting. Edward Arnold tells of a manager of his company in the Middle West who found two seats allotted to the "bell ringer" and asked the house manager why and was introduced to the man. "Why two seats?" he asked. "There's a curfew in this town," he said. "I am the bell ringer. If I get the seats the bell gets a couple of light taps. If I don't it rings an hour."

"Where is the bell?" "Next door." He got the seats.—New York Post.

Hardy Raborn and Mrs. Hannah Wren, September 29.

Norman Coleman and Miss Georgia Sandel, October 1.

Lewis Hermann and Miss Ella Trieber, October 1.

Among those registered at the St. Charles Hotel are: Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Edmonson and wife of Muskogee, Texas; L. M. Thomas and wife of Corpus Christi; Dr. A. K. Hammond and wife and Chas. M. Rich, McAllen; Conductor Roberts and wife of San Antonio, and Frank Hauch of Fredericksburg.

The fine looking page advertisement of the W. A. Fawcett Furniture Company carries a picture showing an inside view of their store that is really a piece of art. J. E. Grinstead took the excellent photo, which enabled the engraving company to secure such a fine cut. In it some conception can be had of the extra large stock of furniture carried by the company, as well as the high quality of the goods. They are now offering exceptionally low prices on this furniture, so you had better get in on it.

Sunday night, while Mrs. A. E. Young was attending the Baptist services, some miscreant—one or more—took her Nash car for a "joy ride" and kept it until late in the night, requiring her to walk home, and considerable trouble and anxiety. Deputy Sheriff Staudt was notified and after searching the different roads for several hours phoned to the sheriffs of surrounding counties to be on the lookout for a Nash car. It is to be trusted that those guilty of this infamous trick will be apprehended and punished.

N. Herzog and D. H. Comparette returned last Sunday from their visit of several weeks to relatives in Ohio and New York. They looked heavier in weight and more youthful, and apparently had a grand time. The food must have been excellent, and were it not "agin the law," one might suspect they had encountered some of the good old beverage that made Milwaukee famous. Notwithstanding the pleasure of a visit with loved ones and amid old-time scenes, they both were glad to get back to Kerrville where there are other loved ones and even stronger ties of friendship that years of companionship have engendered.
