GOVERNOR URGES SOLDIER HOSPITAL FUND COMPLETED

Austin, Tex., Oct. 16.—The immediate raising of the balance of the money needed to erect a sanatorium for the treatment of soldiers and nurses who contracted tuberculosis during the war is urged by Governor W. P. Hobby in a circular letter sent out yesterday from the State Capitol. In this he calls on the citizens of the State to contribute to the building of the hospital where those whose health was broken in the war may regain their lost heritage.

The Governor's letter says: "The intense circularizing, the efforts of committees, and other efforts put forth to raise the $500,000 to build a sanatorium at Kerrville for tuberculous soldiers and nurses, produced to date $150,000. The expense of construction of the buildings have now exceeded the income. The need of $350,000 is imperative.

"Would you be one of the 3,500 persons to join me in giving $10 each to the Benevolent War Risk Society can push the work to completion in order that our tuberculous ex-soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses can be taken care of before winter sets in? Doubtless a few people will join you in making up the $100 or more.

"Make all checks payable to Benevolent War Risk Society. An early response to this worthy cause would be greatly appreciated."

The movement to raise the funds for the Sanatorium at Kerrville is being made under the auspices of the American Legion, the Governor's letter being distributed by the Travis Post at Austin, of the Legion.

The Legion calls attention to the fact that those crippled in body are being cared for already, but that little or no provision has been made for those "crippled in health." It asks that the chance to win back the health they had before the war be given to the many sufferers from this malignant disease.

Contributions to the building fund are not asked as one begging aid, ac-ording to the proposition put forward by the workers for the fund, but are to be looked upon as the just payment of a debt. The country contributed during the war to the Red Cross and other like societies and now that military efforts have ceased, it is asked that the sufferers in the war be taken care of adequately.

There are many, says the American Legion, that could fill the quota easily, but it is hoped to have the individual citizens contribute the amount in relatively small sums, to allow the greater number to be listed as contributors to the project.

AVIATORS WILL DROP MESSAGES IN LEGION HOSPITAL CAMPAIGN

San Antonio.—A State-wide campaign will be held in the early part of November by the State Department of the American Legion for funds to complete the American Legion Memorial Hospital for tubercular ex-soldiers now under construction at Kerrville. Airplanes will distribute a proclamation to be issued by Governor Hobby, setting aside Saturday, November 6, as tag day for the hospital. The planes will cover practically every city and town in the State, according to plans and the 257 Texas posts of the Legion will back up the arrival of the ships with an intensive campaign to raise the money.

The plans of the hospital call for expenditure of $500,000. About $150,000 has been raised, according to Charles W. Seruggs, State Adjutant. "We expect to end the campaign for the rest of the money at 11 o'clock, November 11, Armistice Day," said Mr. Seruggs. "Two years ago at that hour the war ended for most of us. For those who had tuberculosis it did not. We intend to end it for them by getting the money to give them treatment."

The Governor has been asked to get aside November 6 as an official tag day in the State, calling attention to the proposed hospital and what it intends to do.

The assistance of the air service was granted through the courtesy of Maj. Gen. Joseph T. Dickman, commanding general of the Eighth Corps Area.

One of the most extensive campaigns ever attempted by the air service will be carried out as a program has been arranged so that ships will work out from centers in the State and will fly over practically all of the territory. Seventeen De Havilland 4Bs will be used.

PAT M. NEFF BANQUET LARGELY ATTENDED AFFAIR

Waco, Tex., Oct. 14.—It was a cosmopolitan assemblage which gathered at the banquet board tonight to pay tribute to Pat M. Neff, the Waco son who will be the next Governor of Texas, since he is the Democratic nominee. Mr. Neff was surrounded by his Baptist brethren. The Methodist Orphanage Band contributed the music and a Catholic priest offered the invocation, while Presbyterian and other neighbors participated in the jollification.

In the election of Mr. Neff this city will have sent a third resident to occupy the Governor's chair at Austin. The first two were Richard Coke and Lawrence Sullivan Ross. No other Texas town can claim as much; therefore, it was in a spirit of pride that some 400 Wacoans assembled in the flag-bedecked and flower garlanded dining-room of the Raleigh Hotel this evening to show their appreciation of their fellowtownsman who is expected soon to move to Austin and assume the reins of government.

Mrs. J. E. King created much interest and merriment by telling of sightings in campaigning.

Mr. Neff spoke no word of politics in his address. His "Impulses of the Moment" were expressions of gratitude for the banquet, for the tokens of friendship, as exemplified in tonight's gathering. His speech was brief and dwelt mostly on the value of friendship, particularly as he has learned to know and appreciate it from the events of the recent campaign in which he won the gubernatorial nomination by the aid of friends.

GET-TOGETHER BANQUET IS HELD BY DEMOCRATS

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 19.—Loyalty and victory will be the keynote of the Democratic "get-together" banquet which will be staged by the Jackson Democratic Club of Texas at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas Thursday night. This note of party harmony will be sounded in address to be given before the State party heads by Pat M. Neff, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Texas.

Conspicuous among the list of invited guests is the name of Joseph W. Bailey, former Senator from Texas. Invitations with complimentary tickets have been mailed to the ex-Senator, Ben F. Looney, R. E. Thomas and United States Senators Sheppard and Culberson.

Senator Bailey was an avowed opponent of the Democratic organization in Texas after the announcement last spring of his "Fort Worth principles," on which occasion he took serious issue with the party leaders of the State. In his pre-convention campaign which preceded the precinct elections in May he made an effort to prevent the sending of a pro-administration delegation to the State Democratic convention and was defeated in his purpose by a State-wide landslide for the Wilson adherents. He was again defeated in a second bitter fight against the leaders whom he claimed controlled the State party when he failed to get the Democratic nomination in the gubernatorial race.

If Bailey accepts the invitation to sit in with his former political enemies at the Dallas gathering it will appear that he is willing to bury the hatchet if not become reconciled.

DR. THOMPSON EXPRESSES THANKS FOR AID OFFERED

Dr. S. E. Thompson requests The Sun to withdraw the appeal for subscriptions to aid in rebuilding the bridge across the river to the Sanatorium. Dr. Thompson is very thankful to those who proffered aid, and especially Father Kemper for initiating the movement. There has been a temporary structure put in and as soon as cement can be secured a substantial structure will be built by the Thompson Sanatorium. His letter follows:

"J. L. Tullis, Kerrville, Tex.—Dear Mr. Tullis: This is to thank you and my other friends for your willingness and desire to aid me in rebuilding my bridge. While I appreciate very much this kindness and expressed desire to help me bear this loss, I must insist that no contribution be made.

"During the war and since, our people were assessed and required to pay every cent they could afford. In the drive last spring for the Soldiers' Sanatorium they were again called upon to give liberally, and they gave.

"For these reasons, I must insist that you and my other good friends make no effort to aid in building this bridge by getting up private subscriptions.

"More than any amount of money that might be raised, I appreciate the desire of my friends to help me.

"Sincerely,
"S. E. THOMPSON, M. D."

46,610 CASES OF TUBERCULOSIS IN LONE STAR STATE AT PRESENT

Austin, Tex.—Every three minutes, as certain as the movement of the clock, some man, woman or child in the United States dies of tuberculosis. This is a statement issued by the Texas Public Health Association.

"Twenty die every hour, 480 every month, and 150,000 every year from the white plague in the United States," said D. E. Breed, executive secretary of the association.

"If we take the estimate of Dr. Donald B. Armstrong, assistant secretary of the National Tuberculosis Association, who recently visited Texas, there are 46,610 cases of tuberculosis in Texas at the present time. Dr. Armstrong, who is a director of the Farmingham, Mass. Health Demonstration, where theories for making a model American city have been tried out, found that there was one case of tuberculosis to every hundred people."

IS ENGLAND'S GREATEST CRISIS FOR CENTURIES

England is today facing her greatest crisis for centuries. There is an internal war with Ireland, insurrection and protests from nearly all the Indian provinces, and now a strike that hits the very vitals of the Empire.

The following article, descriptive of the situation, will give the reader just what England confronts:

"Winter and hunger knocked yesterday on the doors of England. The coal mine strike gripped the kingdom and unrest struck sparks of revolution on the streets of London. Today parliament meets, and the council of the huge transport workers' union. Then will be decided whether or not Britain is to be plunged into a Red war between labor and capital.

"There still are groups of the thousands of unemployed, concentrated about the Downing Street residence of Prime Minister Lloyd George. In the hospitals are a number of the 50 rioters reported injured in clashes with the police during the demonstration.

"The nation is almost on a war basis with fuel and food restrictions. The strike now has spread to practically all the mines and to radical South Wales.

"Two threats have been ringing in the ears of the British—the nationalization of the coal mines, and a sympathetic strike of other members of the triple alliance, the railway and telephone men. There was a meeting of Plymouth congress of trades unions last month, which outlined a radical program for labor, which included pay to the unemployed.

"Hourly the list of the unemployed is increasing. The great centers of industry at Manchester and Sheffield and Birmingham are studying limitations of their operations to conform with their supplies of coal. In their train came the numerous industries dependent on them for metal and cloth. It is not exaggeration to say that parliament will face 3,000,000 idle workers at home, involving with their families about 10,000,000 persons.

"In the middle of it and the trouble in Ireland and India stands David Lloyd George. The war gave him no such test for his leadership as this.

"Labor extremists declare that Prime Minister Lloyd George provoked the strike as a means of distracting attention from the Irish question, and, perhaps, to enable him to hold a general election on an anti-labor platform.

"It is stated, on the other hand that Lloyd George blames Sir Robert Horne, president of the board of trade, for the strike. Sir Robert is a Scotch lawyer who has had no experience in labor matters.

"The general impression, however, is that Robert Smillie, the miners' leader, raised the strike spirit with the hope of using it to coerce the government to accede to his demands and then was unable to quell it. Smillie has been working night and day for a week in the interests of peace, but his efforts were in vain.

"One effect of the coal strike upon financial London has been the weakening of the pound sterling, which has dropped to $3.44 on orders to cover actual and prospective coal shipments from United States to Europe. The effects have already been seen on continental exchanges, all of which moved against Great Britain late last week on which were again slightly weaker today.

"John Robert Clynes, former food controller, and one of the most moderate of the labor leaders, has expressed confidence in a settlement within a week, if both sides could be brought together to discuss calmly the controversy. He advocates as a basis of settlement the granting to the miners of half their demands and submission of the remainder to an impartial tribunal."

KERRVILLE DRUG STORES KEEP EXCELLENT STOCKS

One of the first things to impress a visitor for the first time at Kerrville, is the solidity of most of the business structures, fine homes and the excellent stocks carried in the different places of business, as well as the up-to-date style of furniture and fixtures.

In this respect the drug stores of Kerrville are right up in the forefront. The Sun has two regular advertisers in the drug store line, to which brief reference will be made.

The Rawson Drug Store is supplied with special furniture and fixtures, and there is carried about everything in stock that a drug store would be expected to have, including excellent line of stationery and school supplies. W. H. and Chas. Rawson are active managers of this most excellent drug store.

The Rock Drug Store is another regular advertiser in The Sun. There has been a change in the management of this firm within the past year or so, and L. W. McCoy is now the manager. Since assuming charge he has had the interior of the building repainted and decorated and installed new and up-to-date furniture and fixtures. There is also carried by the Rock Drug Store a complete stock of drugs, stationery, magazines and school supplies.

These two drug establishments would be a credit to a much larger place than Kerrville, and are in keeping with the fine general stores doing business here.

R. L. SCHMERBECK, KERRVILLE, TEXAS

WHEAT GAMBLERS SCORED BY CAPPER IN ADDRESS

Smith Center, Kan.—Oct. 13.—One ounce more of bread in the loaf at the old price is what the consumer is now offered for the $900,000,000 loss the "Chicago wheat gamblers" have caused the American wheat raiser in the last two months "by gambling in futures," United States Senator Arthur Capper declared in an address here tonight.

"Years ago," he continued, "the people of the United States demanded the suspension of the Louisiana Lottery, but today, under the cloak of business respectability, we are permitting the biggest gambling hell in the world to be operated on the Chicago Board of Trade. By comparison, Europe's suicide club at Monte Carlo is as innocent as a church bazaar.

"Several weeks ago I began work on a measure to abolish this wanton and injurious form of robbery and shall shoot this bill in on the first day of the next Congress and will undertake to put this den of thieves out of business."

Since July 15, when trading in futures was resumed by the exchanges, the Kansas Senator declared that grain speculators have sold, "or oversold," this year's crop five or six times. Only about 1 per cent of the trading in futures is a bona fide transaction for actual deliveries, he asserted.

Armistice Week Celebration

The celebration to be staged by the fifteen American Legion Posts, which compose this district, during the Armistice Week Celebration, in San Antonio, the week of November 8-13, will in all probability be the biggest and most gorgeous undertaking ever attempted inasmuch as there are close on to 50,000 ex-service men in this district, and as each of them will parade with their old organization and in other ways taking active part in this celebration. All previous record attendance is expected to be broken, and San Antonio hotel men and merchants are making an early start to properly accommodate this crowd.

The War Spectacle, "No Man's Land," will be the feature event of the week, showing three nights, November 11-12-13; also, one of the biggest carnival companies in existence has been brought to San Antonio especially for the purpose of furnishing their class of amusement. Other attractions will perhaps be football games and other sporting events staged between the different Posts of this district.

The most impressive part of the ceremony for the entire week will be at 10:59 o'clock of the morning of November 11th, and will last one minute, when all business will be suspended; all Legion men will face to the west and hold a salute in the fitting commemoration of the epochal event which took place on that memorable November morning of 1918, when the Kaiser and his crowd formally acknowledged the abandonment of their worldly conquest.

Excursion rates will probably be announced by all roads into San Antonio during this week.

Comfort Chat

News, Oct. 14: Aug. Leeder of Center Point is at Hillcrest Sanitarium recovering from the effects of a successful surgical operation which he underwent there Wednesday.

The largest and most successful Saengerfest that Comfort has ever had during the forty years' existence of the West Texas Saengerbund was held here last Saturday and Sunday, when the Saengerbund met for its thirty-third Saengerfest. Singing societies from San Antonio, New Braunfels, Fredericksburg, Converse and Comfort took part in this big affair, and then there were other singers and lovers of singing from every town in this county and from practically all the adjoining ones.

Geo. F. Bierschwale of Waring sustained a fracture of the bones of his right ankle last Saturday. The accident occurred on his place, while he was holding a horse to enable a Mexican to shoe it. The animal managed to jerk away, and a long lariat rope which was fastened to the halter became tangled about Mr. Bierschwale's right leg, and as the horse dashed off, he was thrown to the ground and dragged down a rocky hill. The horse went past a small tree and so close to it that Mr. Bierschwale's foot struck the tree with such force that the rope broke and the horse went on, leaving him with a fractured ankle.

REED AND GORE TAKE STUMP AGAINST LEAGUE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 16.—One of the striking developments of the presidential campaign came today when Senator James A. Reed of Missouri, and Senator Thomas P. Gore of Oklahoma, both Democrats, announced that they are taking the stump against President Wilson's League of Nations.

Senator Gore opened his campaign at Baltimore tonight with a vigorous speech, demanding the "restoration of America's independence." Senator Reed has hired the convention hall in Kansas City for Thursday night.

Democratic leaders here were amazed when they learned that these two distinguished Democrats had decided to openly denounce President Wilson's pet project. Their speeches, it is admitted, will counteract the efforts now being made by members of President Wilson's cabinet to turn sentiment in favor of the league.

LEGAL TANGLE DELAYS REFUND TO WOOL PRODUCERS

Washington, D. C.—Although $460,000 of more than $1,000,000 in excess profits made by wool dealers who handled the wool clip of 1918 under the War Industries Board has been paid to the United States Department of Agriculture for distribution to the producers, the department cannot safely pay the money to the producers, according to the announcement made recently. One hundred thousand wool growers, a large number of whom are in Texas and New Mexico are affected.

The million dollars in excess profits represents that which was illegally held by the wool dealers, based upon the Government's price during the war, and which under the Government's plan should have gone to the producer.

Just as soon as legal adjustments can be made with the dealers the producers will be paid the amount collected, it is stated.

Parent-Teachers' Club

The Parent-Teachers' Club held its regular meeting at the High School Auditorium Wednesday, October 13th.

The president called the meeting to order and Rev. Smith led in prayer.

Mrs. Simmons was elected second vice president in place of Mrs. Ed. Dietert, who resigned on account of ill health.

Mrs. Jim Rees is to serve as third vice president until Mrs. Wallace returns from San Antonio.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

Misses Marguerite Henke and Maybelle Roberts favored the club with an instrumental duet.

The president addressed the club on the subject of a weighing system in the Public School.

Prof. Franklin's address was enjoyed by all.

A recitation by Lillie May Morris was next on the program, which was much enjoyed and this was followed by a splendid address by Rev. Smith.

The meeting closed with a beautiful solo by Mrs. Ellis.

A pleasant hour was then spent in the Domestic Science room, where coffee and sandwiches were served.

GROUND BROKEN FOR GIANT TUNNEL UNDER HUDSON

New York.—New York and New Jersey have joined hands and broke ground here for a vehicular tunnel beneath the Hudson River which will be the world's biggest subaqueous structure. State officials and other dignitaries launched the $28,000,000 project, while thousands of citizens cheered.

Grasping the immensity of the project, speakers speculated regarding the sensations of Christopher Columbus were he a witness.

Military bands and National Guard regiments paraded to the spot near the Hudson where the earth was scratched in preparation for a major incision by great engineers.

The tunnel, with all facilities of a city thoroughfare, will link closely the greatest steamship terminals in America along the New York side of the Hudson with the immense railroad concentration centers in Jersey City. It is expected to quicken greatly the movement of the Nation's incoming and outgoing freight, and to reduce food costs for New York.

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO CURE UNREST ON FARMS

Minneapolis, Minn.—A campaign to combat unrest and discontent among farming elements of the country was put under way recently by the Grain Dealers National Association, through its legislative committee. The association was in annual convention here.

Steps to instill into the people a realization of some of the advantages of farming and farm life and to dignify the farming business by a fair recognition of its importance were urged in a report of the committee as remedies to cure unrest on the farm.

The reports scored efforts of radical farmers' organizations to control prices by creating co-operative associations, which, the report said, were seeking to disregard the laws of world supply and demand.

Will Honor Bailey

Dallas, Tex., Oct. 19.—While Pat Neff of Waco, Democratic nominee for Governor, is attending a Jackson Day dinner here Thursday night, ten thousand friends of Joseph Weldor Bailey will gather at a welcome home party to be given in honor of the former Senator at the Highland Park estate of Mrs. Wharton.

The program calls for a reception, a lawn party, a dinner and speeches from many prominent speakers, including Senator Bailey. A blanket invitation to every man and woman in Texas who is "sincerely glad that Senator Bailey is back in Texas to stay," has been sent out through the press, and arrangements have been made to serve dinner to at least ten thousand guests.

The beautiful Wharton estate is being especially decorated for the occasion which promises to be one of the most unique and elaborate ever held in Texas. Big barbecue pits have been dug in the lawn and an open-air platform erected for the speakers.

Special cars will be operated between the estate and the State Fair Grounds to accommodate guests who attend the fair during the day.

Harper Happenings

West Texas Star, Oct. 15: Miss Maggie Whitworth, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitworth of Noxville, and who attended school at Harper, several foregone terms, passed through Harper last week, en route to Kerrville to enter the Scofield School for the fall and winter term.

Continued pretty weather reigning over the Hill Country has increased the volume of cotton gathering and the farmers are rapidly getting their cotton out. Up to Thursday noon last 577 bales had been ginned at the Harper gins, 396 by the Baumann gin and 271 by the Fischer gin.

An unusual accident which occurred at the Baumann gin Wednesday last resulted in two very painful injuries which are reported as not being serious. When remodeling his gin this year, Mr. Baumann had a blow-out pipe put in which was bought for a steam pipe but instead it was a water pipe, which was not discovered by Mr. Baumann, and Wednesday last when the steam was at a pretty high pressure and the fireman, Otto Baumann, opened the fire doors to stir up the fire, the blowout pipe gave way at the seam. The steam and hot ashes which it carried with it came with full force and flew all over the fireman, Otto Baumann, and Hubert, Arthur Baumann's little son, who was standing near by. Both Otto and Hubert were pretty badly burned, but they were soon gotten home and Dr. McBeth was summoned to dress the burns. While his legs from the knees down were pretty badly burned, Mr. Baumann suffered most from the burns on his face. Both he and Hubert are recovering splendidly and have ceased to suffer so much. It required only a few hours to put in a new pipe and have the gin back at work.

of cotton ginned in Gillespie County from the crop of 1920 prior to September 25, 1920, as compared with 192 bales ginned to September 25, 1919.

On Wednesday quite an accident happened at Harper. At the Baumann gin the "blow off" pipe exploded scalding Otto Baumann and Hubert, the 8-year-old son of Arthur Baumann, considerably. We are glad to report that in neither case are the injuries sustained considered to be of a serious nature.

At about 9 o'clock in the evening they noticed a noise and upon investigating, they found the flames had made great headway in the attic. PILING UP HAPPINESS

DOES each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

OUR NEXT GOVERNOR

H. B. Terrell in Texas Monthly Review: While we were not one among the great army of Democrats that marched to victory under the banner of Pat M. Neff in the recent primary in the State, we are proud to call him our friend and stand ready to join hands with him in defense of Democracy in the coming campaign.

That he is worthy of the distinguished honor won at the hands of the men and women of Texas goes without saying. We have known Pat Neff intimately for more than twenty years, and it has been our pleasure to give him political support in every campaign he has waged prior to the memorable one from which he has just emerged, and had he been pitted against any other man in Texas, he would have had no warmer supporter than the editor of The Review.

As far back as 1903, when Neff was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives, the writer expressed the hope that some day this brilliant young statesman would be called to the Governor's chair in this State. Now that he has won this high honor, that he will prove himself everything his friends have claimed for him we are absolutely confident. He goes into power without promise or pledge of any kind. He made and won his campaign without the aid or influence of either State or National Administrations. Neither did he have the support of what is commonly referred to as the politicians, or the big guns—the men who look to every Governor for favors—but he carried his campaign to the "boys from the forks of the creek," and it is to the plain Democrats that Pat Neff owes his election, and it is in their interest that the affairs of the State will be administered during the coming administration. He is able, honest and competent and, above all, his every heart beat is in the interest of the toiling masses. He sought the office of Governor that he might do something for Texas, and when four years have come and gone, his enemies of today will be loud in their praise of his administration.

LET'S HELP JIM

They say the tide is swinging toward Governor Cox.

If it is and if he is elected, he alone will deserve credit for the victory, because he has made the fight unaided.

Within the next few weeks he will have covered the entire country and will have made some 800 speeches. His campaign rivals that of Roosevelt and Bryan in campaigns of the past. He has carried the banner single handed and has driven into the minds of the voters with mighty force the great issues of the campaign.

The big men of the party have stood on the side lines and watched the parade. When the tide began to swing they got in the band wagon and will do their bit from now until the campaign closes.

Even the little men within the party have trained along without any interest, it would seem, in the election of the man who is so well fitted and so far ahead of the opposition candidate. The indifference of the great mass of voters is a thing to give concern to those who founded the great Nation, if they knew, and perhaps they do. The Democrats have striven to raise a few dollars to carry on the campaign and in their indifference they have turned a deaf ear.

Every dollar given from now on means much.

Let's at least put a dollar in the hands of James M. Cox and help him win the race, which he will surely do.

What is the matter with the men and women of Kerr County? Since Governor Hobby called a special session of the Legislature together for the express purpose of passing a law to allow the women and men who had not done so, to pay a poll tax so they could vote in this year's election, very few of them seem disposed to take advantage of the opportunity.

COX'S RECORD OF LEGISLATION

In his three terms as Chief Executive of Ohio, Governor Cox brought about the enactment of the following laws. It is a record undisputable and carries with it an unanswerable argument for the woman's vote.

Labor Reforms

Extra provision for dependents of men killed in mines.

Elimination of sweatshop labor.

Minimum wage and a shorter work day for women.

Codification of child laws, with establishment of child welfare departments.

Compulsory provision for mother's pensions.

Social Service

Laws to provide against adulteration of foodstuffs and to prevent combination to fix prices.

Establishment of State tuberculosis hospital and district hospitals throughout the State by county action.

Adoption of health code, with a special appropriation to combat epidemics and contagious disease.

Formation of a State-wide social agency committee, bringing into mutual operation all recognized social agencies of the State (the only one of its kind in the Union) having complete co-operation with State departments. (Other States are accepting this as model).

Establishment of a bureau of juvenile research, looking toward the elimination of causes which produce defective children.

Recommendation and passage of State legislation for woman suffrage. (Now pending under referendum).

Educational

Additional pay for teachers.

Consolidated schools in excess of 1,200, with full high school courses, have supplanted more than five times that number of one-room school-houses.

To meet emergencies, provision has been made for State aid to weak school districts, so that the educational facilities of Ohio rural communities are equal to the best in the city.

Establishment of Courts of Domestic Relations in larger counties of the State.

Creation of a State Board of Vocational Education to promote this system in the public schools.

Vocational training for blind children.

Provision for an institution for treatment and education of deformed and crippled children.

Granting children of school age, who are inmates of a county, semi-public, or district children's home the privileges of public schools.

BACK TO THE FARM

San Antonio Light: After several years of rapid utterances about a back-to-the-farm movement and many misguided efforts on the part of theorists to get the city dweller to move to the country, it seems that a sensible view is at last being taken of this, America's foremost domestic problem.

The Governor of Missouri, in a message to the Legislature, will ask for $200,000 with which to advertise Missouri's idle farms in an effort to direct immigration to the rural districts. The recent census shows that Missouri was one of the States that lost heavily in rural population during the last decade. The entire country, the census showed, made far heavier gains in city population than in country and for the first time, a majority of the population is approximately 51 per cent, is dwelling now in cities and towns instead of on the farms and ranches.

The Governor of Missouri is no idealist. He is a hard-headed business man. He proposes to expend the $200,000 in telling through the newspapers, the farm possibilities of Missouri. Agriculturally, that State is one of the best in the country. There is no reason whatever for a loss of farm population because of lack of soil, rainfall or productivity. It is simply another case of the trend of population away from the land where long hours, bad roads, poor housing, low pay and lack of entertainment have done their deadly work. High wages in cities and towns, movie shows, schools, churches and sociability are the magnets that are depopulating the farms.

And in line with the action taken by Missouri is the report just issued by the Secretary of Agriculture in the adjoining State of Kansas. He finds that nearly one-half the farm lands of Kansas are being operated by tenants. He finds, too, that there are 95,295 farmers in Kansas who own their homes and 57,105 tenants. Kansas has no large cities. Kansas City, Mo., just over the line, is draining many of the nearby Kansas farms for its highly paid labor. However, the problem in Kansas is not as critical as in Missouri, yet Missouri lands, as a whole, are better farm lands than those of Kansas.

But the fact that 50 per cent of the agricultural lands of Kansas is farmed by men who have no interest in their upkeep but merely in what they can take off of them as money crops, is a disheartening situation in itself. The problem has, resolved itself, however, into a logical position. Theorists have at last come to realize that farmers can not be manufactured over night from tired business men, city dwellers, clerks and factory workers. Farming is a profession. It has countless branches ranging from live stock to dairying, from hog breeding to poultry keeping. It includes the care of an orchard and the scientific renewal of soils. Some of this can be acquired theoretically in agricultural schools but much of it can be learned only in the school of experience on the farm.

Thousands of city people are lured to the farm annually by a false notion

DEMOCRATS PLAN CAMPAIGN TO GET VOTERS TO POLLS

Waco, Tex., Oct. 14.—It was the sense of the State Democratic Executive Committee in session here today that an aggressive campaign should be made to get Democratic voters to come out in the general election. It was stated by a number of the members that much work is needed and that unless it is done the American party candidates in some counties are going to win some of the local offices. The State as a whole, however, is in no danger.

Members reported that in certain South and Southwest Texas counties the Republican and American party candidates for local office have strength, but that district Democratic candidates are sure to win. It was stated that the Bailey partisans in Brownwood are bitter and that a speaker of note should be sent there to get the Democrats in line and incite them to vote in the November election. Comanche County also is said to need the same kind of attention, while DeWitt County may elect some American party local candidates to local offices.

A report made by Secretary Joe W. Hale of the committee from San Antonio headquarters reviewed the work being done by the committee to get out voters and excite interest in the election.

From the remarks made before the committee it is gathered that very little interest is being shown in the election over the State and that the campaigning in prospect is needed to get out the votes.

Committeeman Will M. Cullen of Travis County advised the members to "get busy" and get out the vote, otherwise there may be some disappointments.

Mr. Neff attended the committee sessions, as did a number of other persons prominent in Texas politics.

PRIMARY PARTY PLEDGE NOT BINDING, COURT HOLDS

Austin, Tex., Oct. 13.—The Supreme Court today granted motions for leave to file petitions for mandamus to compel Secretary of State C. D. Mims to direct the printing on the official ballot to be used in the general election on November 2, the names of Aubrey Fuller as an independent candidate for Judge of the Fifty-sixth District Court of Galveston and the name of George N. Defferari as independent candidate for Representative to the Legislature from the 17th District, composed of Galveston and Chambers Counties.

The court was unanimous in its decision in the Defferari case, the facts in which are entirely different from the Fuller case. Chief Justice Nelson Phillips dissented in the Fuller case. It is revealed by the petition Chief Justice Phillips wrote in a dissenting opinion, that Fuller voted in the Democratic primary in Galveston County in July, in which Robert G. Street was the successful candidate for nomination for the same office, and subscribed to the statutory pledge to support the nominees of the primary.

The right to mandamus is based upon the holding of the majority of the Supreme Court in the woman suffrage case (Key vs. Schneider), that notwithstanding the statute requiring voter in a party primary to agree that he will support the nominee of the primary, he is under no legal obligation to do so, and he may vote as he chooses in the general election. "I entered my emphatic dissent from that decision, and as emphatically dissent from its application here," said Chief Justice Phillips in today's opinion. Continuing, Judge Phillips said:

"The chief design of our laws governing primary elections is to protect the integrity of a party nomination. If the primary binds nobody, if one who participates in it and subjects himself to the statutory pledge and its corresponding statutory obligation, is at liberty to repudiate its whole purpose and result, and not only vote as he pleases in the general election, but as an independent candidate in such election may legally oppose one of its nominees, the primary is a farce and our statutes governing the subjects are but empty pronouncements.

"Such is not my view of the law. The relators, in my opinion, show no right to a mandamus and this motion should be refused."

OUR POLICY IS NOT TO SIDE STEP

Did you ever notice how peculiar most of us humans are in the matter of sidestepping? The man who can't play golf dubs it "an old man's game"; the chap who can't dance will side step a two-step and ask his partner to "sit it out" with him; the man who never had the pluck or price to go to Europe shouts "See America First!" One of the firmest policies of this firm is not to side step. We tell you what we have and we tell you the whole truth, not half truths. We don't claim to be infallible—all we can do is to try to have everything you want just when you want it and at prices that are reasonable. You may be sure that anything and everything you purchase from us is just as represented. If for any reason you think you have not received value for your money, bring back the goods. If you don't want them we don't want you to have them. We spend a lot of time studying your needs and means, and when we put anything in our stock you may be sure it is worth all we ask, most times a little more. We step straight ahead successfully, because our policy is never to side step.

STATE RECOVERS LAND FROM CAPITOL SYNDICATE

Austin, Tex., Oct. 15.—Judgment for the State to recover 600,000 acres of land from the Capitol League Syndicate was rendered today by Judge George Calhoun of the Fifty-third District Court of Travis County. State alleged that this land was in excess of the 3,000,000 acres which the State in 1884 gave the syndicate in payment for construction of the Texas Capitol. Of the 3,000,000 acres originally held by the syndicate, 600,000 acres remain, all of the land being in the Panhandle section of the State. According to the judgment the State is to recover 60,000 acres in one body to be taken from the 600,000 acres now owned by the syndicate. The value of the land at this time is estimated at least $20 an acre, or a total of $1,200,000 for 60,000 acres. At the time the State gave the land to the syndicate it was valued at $1 per acre.

The suit to recover the excess land was brought by the Attorney General, and in the trial the State was represented by Assistant Attorney E. F. Smith, assisted by former Assistant Attorney General G. E. Smedley.

WHAT HAPPENS

When a Canal Cannot Do Its Work?

IF YOU ever were on an irrigated farm, you have seen that a system of canals kept that farm supplied with water. You have seen also what a contrast there was in the plants along one canal able to distribute its water properly and the plants along another canal unable to distribute water properly. On one hand you saw plants that were sturdy and vigorous; on the other you saw the same kind of plants wilted and well-nigh dead.

THE CAUSE? One canal was clear of obstructions; the other canal was not. What should the farmer do—"doctor" his wilted plants or clear their canal and let nature restore the plants? Well, is there any reason why disease should be treated some other way?

Disease of the body, like disease in plants, is a result of being deprived of life-giving energy. In the case of plants, it is water; in the case of one's body, it is nerve energy. REMOVE THE CAUSE that obstructs the flow of either, and health will replace disease. It is not quite so simple, however, to locate the cause of disease as to locate the cause of the wilting plants.

In the case of the plants, one need only follow the canal that should provide those plants with water and he will find its water obstruction. He can remove that obstruction himself. In the case of disease, an obstruction must be found, too, but one's body conceals it and it is discovered ONLY by the trained touch of the Competent Chiropractor or by the all-seeing eye of the Marvelous X-Ray.

Just like the canals that supply a farm with water, there are a system of nerves that ramify to every part of one's body. These nerves distribute the nerve energy that sustains life; they receive that energy from larger nerves that emit from openings on each side of one's spine; and they, in turn, receive it from one's brain. Now, if a jolt, jerk, jar, or anything should move these openings out of alignment, the spine at that opening begins to pinch the large nerve at that point. So long as this continues, a normal flow of nerve force CANNOT pass through that nerve, and disease results—just as plants wilt when denied the flow of moisture they need.

Therefore, the VALUE of the services of a Competent Doctor of Chiropractic. Several years' training has taught him where to locate the CAUSE of the trouble; and, having found it, how to REMOVE IT, with consequent relief to a sufferer. He doesn't attempt to "doctor" the particular part of the body that is diseased; he REMOVES THE CAUSE so that part of the body may obtain what it needs, then nature takes care of the condition just as it takes care of the plant. Don't aggravate your condition by WAITING; see a Chiropractor NOW.
