REPRESENTATIVE KERRVILLE CITIZENS ARE ANNOUNCED

The Sun bunches the names of several citizens who have been handed in as candidates for various positions to be filled at the municipal election to be held the first Tuesday in April, the 4th, which are as follows:

For Mayor—A. T. Adkins.
City Commissioners—Hal Peterson and Charlie Johnston.
Water Works Board—Robt. Saenger Sr., Scott Schreiner, J. L. Pampell and A. B. Burton.

The above-named gentlemen would fill acceptably the positions for which they are named. Office-holding in Kerrville, or any other small city, is a thankless task without any profit to the man doing the work, so when such men as are presented here consent to serve the public it might be termed a compliance with what they conceive to be their patriotic duty.

HUDSPETH BOYS WERE COUNTED BEST MOUNTAIN LIZARD CHASERS

The following is from the Cattle Clatter Department of the Daily San Antonio Express of recent date:

"Roy Hudspeh of Sonora and Del Rio was in San Antonio yesterday visiting with the gang and spreading the fame of the Del Rio Wool and Mohair Company organized to market in co-operation the wool and mohair clip of that territory. The company is securing loans from the War Finance Corporation in the sum of $640,000, and this sum distributed among the sheep and goat men of that section has had a lot to do with holding up the price of wool and mohair.

"Roy and his brother, Claude, were Bandera County boys originally, and when kids were counted two of the best mountain lizard chasers in their neighborhood. But about the time they got to wearing shoes on Sundays the family moved out to Sutton or Crockett County and the boys became ranch hands. Roy became County and District Clerk of Crockett County at the age of 21 and froze onto it for 10 years like a true-blue Democrat. His ranches are now in Sutton and Crockett Counties."

McADOO AND BORAH MAY HEAD NEW POLITICAL PARTY

New York, March 4.—William G. McAdoo and Senator Borah of Idaho are being prominently mentioned as leaders of a third party in 1924.

Although neither the former Secretary of the Treasury in the Wilson Administration nor the Idaho "irreconcilable" has indicated his attitude, gossip increases that both are keeping their weather eyes cocked on the third party movement and are willing to bolt their respective parties as Presidential timbers for a non-partisan coalition if the breezes and personal scouts bring tidings of a sufficiently strong political upheaval to spell success.

Frank Johnesse of Boise, Idaho, non-partisan leader in that section of the country, declared here today that he would sweep the country as leader of a third party.

"Borah can have the leadership of the third party movement now under way if he wants it," Johnesse said. "All he has to do is say the word and we will make him our candidate for President in 1923.

"There is strong sentiment for McAdoo among railroad union men and other classes. Borah appeals to all liberal thinking classes.

"A man has only to travel through the country to find that there is an immense dissatisfaction with both the Republican and Democratic parties. The demand for a liberal third party needs only to be crystallized and a popular leader selected to win in 1924 and put the old parties out of business," he continued.

Johnesse, who is here with H. F. Samuels, pioneer mining man of Samuels, Idaho, to confer with J. A. H. Hopkins and other leaders of the Committee of Forty-eight, predicted that third party tickets will win in the next State and Congressional elections in Idaho and Nebraska.

Simultaneously with Johnesse's statement came the announcement that William G. McAdoo had withdrawn from the law firm of McAdoo, Cotton & Franklin in this city, and intended to make his home in Los Angeles.

Mr. McAdoo explained that he and Mrs. McAdoo are very fond of the California climate and emphasized that that was the real reason for the change.

JUDGE LEE WALLACE ATTACKS LEGALITY OF TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

Mayor J. S. Wheelock opened Police Court last Saturday, which was the first instance of the kind for a number of years.

Special Traffic Officer Bogle had complaints filed against the following, who had more than once violated the traffic ordinance:

Judge Lee Wallace, Dr. E. E. Palmer, Mrs. W. B. Powell, J. M. Stevens, John Davidson, Jim Thompson, L. A. Rodriguez, Jim Dillon, C. H. Webb and Virgil Sublett.

Judge H. C. Geddie, who represented Judge Wallace, attacked the legality of the traffic ordinance. In framing the ordinance it was first provided to park parallel with the street, but after its publication and trial, it was found that on as narrow a street as Water, which is our main thoroughfare, there was little room left when a dozen or so cars were parked parallel. No complaints were made under the ordinance as then drawn, and by the following week, a majority of the City Commission had changed the ordinance to read to park at about an angle of 45 degrees, and it was published again, with an explanation as to why the change was made.

Special Traffic Officer Bogle pleasantly and patiently told violators of the ordinance how to park, and it was only after two or more instances of wrong parking by the same persons before any complaint was filed.

Mayor Wheelock took all the complaints under consideration after Judge Geddie had raised the illegality of the ordinance, in the case of Judge Wallace.

MANAGER SCHWETHELM REPORTS BASEBALL TRYOUT SATISFACTORY

Manager Schwethelm of the Kerrville Baseball Club had a tryout of a number of the players last Sunday. He is well pleased with their showing and claims that the club now has the strongest infield that it has ever had, and it is known that we already had a good outfield.

The club will also have a good battery and by the time the season opens it is expected to have gathered a winning team for Kerrville.

The citizens ought to give support and encouragement to the local ball team, as it will prove a strong drawing card in keeping a number of the workmen at the Sanatorium to spend Sunday in Kerrville in place of going to San Antonio, while home people will be given interesting amusement instead of seeking it elsewhere.

Come and Help Us Forget

We regret greatly that the unfortunate breakdown of the light plant last Saturday night deprived so many of our patrons of the pleasure of seeing what is said to have been one of the best programs of the season. Mischances like this, of course, are circumstances beyond our control, and while they occasion us heavy loss, we regret them especially for the disappointment they bring to our patrons.

We beg to announce an exceptionally attractive feature for this coming Saturday, Tom Mix in "Chasing the Moon," which we trust will help us to forget all our disappointments.

THORNDALE MAN FREEZES TO DEATH NEAR SON'S HOME

Thorndale, Tex., March 4.—J. B. Brandon, 70, was found frozen to death about four miles west of Thorndale and within a mile of the home of his son, John Brandon, of the Kennedy ranch, which he was trying to reach.

Brandon left Thorndale about 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to walk to the home of his son. The heavy rains of the past ten days had made the roads almost impassable, and the cold norther that came up just before he left town was too great a tax upon his slight strength. Besides the son here, he leaves a son in Austin and three married daughters.

NORTH FORK AND TURTLE CREEK ROADS BEING WORKED

Road Commissioners Renschel, Dunderstadt, and Schreiner have turned over the superintendency of working the North Fork road to L. A. Bond, who has already done quite a lot of work on that line above Ingram and has a force to push it.

On Turtle Creek the superintendency was turned over to Arthur and Julius Real, who are just getting the work under good headway.

These selections made by the Road Commissioners are most excellent and will result in securing substantial work on these roads.

On the North Fork and Turtle Creek roads there will not be any such road building as is being done on the main highway between the Kimble County line and Kerrville, but these roads will be greatly improved and put in easy passable condition compared to the usual country roads.

MRS. E. J. MURRAY UNDERGOES OPERATION AT SAN ANTONIO

The many friends in this section of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Murray, who previously lived at Kerrville, where the former served as tick eradication inspector, will regret to learn that Mrs. Murray has been seriously ill and had to have an operation at San Antonio, mention of which is found in the Daily Express of last Sunday:

"E. J. Murray, inspector for Medina County, representing the State Live Stock Sanitary Commission, was in San Antonio yesterday with a report to the effect that Medina County would only have to build 25 more vats to carry on the tick-dipping program, 75 vats already constructed having been donated by the owners to the county for public use. For these 25 vats to be erected the county is furnishing the cement and the citizens do the rest. By this means the vats cost the county $50 each. Eight inspectors will be employed by the county for the work.

"Mr. Murray reports that Mrs. Murray is in a local hospital, following a severe operation Friday."

SPELLING MATCH MARCH 20TH; BAPTISTS LEAD IN BASKET BALL

The Executive Committee of the Sunday School League met in regular session Monday evening, March 6th, at which time the general line of business was conducted, after which the schedule for the Spelling Match was taken up. It is so arranged that each team will spell two matches. Each team is to consist of not over ten members; the words to be given out by the person chosen to be the judge, from the old Blue Back Speller. Only one attempt will be allowed at each word, which will be pronounced first by the one giving the word, then by the one attempting to spell it, to make sure they have properly understood the word.

This contest is for the members of the Sunday Schools who are 30 years of age and over, and promises to bring back recollections of days almost forgotten, when some of us have tramped over miles to school with the old Blue Back Speller tucked away in the corner of a flour sack or carried with a string, as one of our most treasured possessions, for at the end of the period we would have a Spelling Match, and to be able to stand at the head of a class in spelling was an honor long to be remembered. Many of the words contained in the old Blue Back have passed into the world of used-to-be, but they are the words that have caused the older members of the Sunday Schools to burn midnight oil in their childhood and consequently should be the words which have made the most lasting impression. We may have something in the future to deal with literary work and then we will all have to be up-to-date, but the Spelling Match will be of the Old School.

The Basket Ball season has been very gratifying indeed. The extreme cold of last week, however, caused the games to be postponed and kept every one in suspense as to the outcome of the first game since the teams have all been marking time on the 500 mark. Monday night's game was highly interesting, and the Baptists went into the lead by defeating the Presbyterians, 9 to 5.

Let's every one get busy on the Spelling Match and put as much pep into it as the younger members have in the basket ball games. If you need some reviewing and can't find your old speller, have your team captain order a few and get busy. Prof. Guy Moses will give you the proper address and any other particulars regarding the match. The first one will be held between the Methodist and Presbyterian teams at the Baptist Church, Monday night, March 20th, 1922.

E. GOLD NAMED POSTMASTER FOR KERRVILLE LAST WEEK

E. Gold was named as postmaster Wednesday of last week to succeed W. G. Carpenter. The information was received in the San Antonio Light of Wednesday and too late to be mentioned in last week's issue.

Mr. Gold has lived here several years, where he worked some time for the Chas. Schreiner Company, and later conducted very successfully the Gold Coffee House. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. A. Enderle.

While Mr. Gold stood third in the Civil Service examination for the post office, he is considered competent for the duties of that position, as he came in competition with two extra capable men in W. G. Carpenter and A. E. Self. Mr. Gold has had the clerical experience and is a capable business man, so it is expected that he will soon become proficient in postal work. He is genial and courteous, so the public may be assured of the best service he can give it.

CHILD SHIPPED TO TEXAS NOW MEMBER LEGISLATURE

Rockdale, Tex., March 4.—The story of Eugene Miller, Texas legislator, who is appealing to the bureau of missing persons in New York to find his mother from whom he has been separated since a child, as told in the Associated Press dispatches of yesterday, reads like a romance. Miller was one of the carload of babies who some years ago was sent to Texas by the Children's Aid Society for adoption and was adopted by two maiden sisters who lived on a farm at Garner, Parker County, Texas. He was sent to the rural school and assisted in the chores about the farm while attending the country school.

Even at that tender age he was known as a "bidable" child, obedient to his foster mothers, and always anxious to assist in every way possible. It was during these school days that he came under the influence of Prof. T. P. Everett, now a Weatherford business man, teacher of the Garner school, a man of the highest ideals and strictest probity (Everett was formerly superintendent of education of Parker County), and without doubt the inspiration derived from his teacher contributed much to the ambition and future success of the New York waif.

In 1920, when the State election was on, it was largely by the advice and influence of Prof. Everett that Eugene Miller, then a student in the University, determined to make the race for the Legislature. He campaigned the county during the vacation period, and it is to his credit that he did not deny nor evade the secret of his humble birth, but on every occasion paid high tribute to the good women who had given him a home and training for Christian citizenship during his minority.

His gratitude and modesty met with an answering response from the women voters of Parker County and he polled practically the entire female vote of the county. Mr. Everett also interested himself in behalf of the young man, and did some quiet campaigning in his favor, thus adding to his prestige.

No finer, truer young man ever went out from Parker County than Eugene Miller, and it is to be hoped that through the publicity given him by the press and the New York bureau for missing persons, that his mother will be found and restored to her loving son. Certainly she would have every cause to be proud of the success he has attained.

Evidence of Good Service

Fifty-three years of safe, helpful banking—through good times and years of adverse conditions—is a record of careful management with the interests of our patrons ever in mind. Such a record is evidence of our pledge for good service in the years to come.

Time is a test of a bank's strength and permanence, also its management. This institution has served continuously since 1869.

ESTABLISHED 1869
KERRVILLE, TEXAS

CAME NEAR BEING KILLING SATURDAY AT CENTER POINT

Late in the afternoon last Saturday, at Center Point, Tom Moore and A. P. Hagens are said to have had an argument as to an oat sale, when the former is reported to have called the latter a liar and also struck him at about the same time.

It is stated that Hagens was knocked partly under a truck and in starting to get up Moore is said to have hit him in the side so hard that it came near preventing Hagens in rising.

It is reported that then Hagens went to his house near by and secured his shot-gun and went after Moore, who hid behind some egg crates in a store, just as Hagens fired, so the eggs received the contents of the gun.

Citizens interfered and stopped any further hostilities. Mr. Hagens came to Kerrville, waived examination and gave bond for appearance at the next term of District Court.

Moore is a much larger man than Hagens.

SECRETARY BAKER CALLS SPECIAL MEETING FRIDAY

Secretary Baker of the Chamber of Commerce requests that there be a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this Friday at 3:30 p. m. He also desires that representatives of the local American Legion Post, Ladies Auxiliary, Civic League, as well as ministers and others, who will assist in the forming of a general organization to look after the charitable, civic and other interests of Kerrville.

It is desired to organize upon the basis of the articles recently appearing in The Sun in reference to the charity, civic, business and other interests of Kerrville of a general nature in which the whole citizenship is concerned.

If some one has a better plan, be present to have it considered.

Cheer'O Club Entertained

The Cheer'O Club was most delightfully entertained on Monday, March 6th, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Wilson.

The business of the meeting consisted of planning for the May baskets, and all the activity of the club will be concentrated on that work from now until May Day.

The program was a very interesting one. Misses Madeline Peterson and Willie Holdsworth gave humorous readings. Miss Edith Tullis then delighted the guests with an account of quaint Irish institutions. They were: The history of St. Patrick's Day; the story of the Shamrock; the Irish colleen, and the Irish wit and humor, closing with an immitable Irish joke. The number was well given by Miss Tullis, showing her rare ability and her talent for speaking.

A Shamrock Guessing Contest was arranged by Mrs. Wilson, Miss Leah Hayes gaining the prize for the greatest number, and Mrs. A. B. Burton the booby.

A most delicious refreshment course was served by the hostess.

SECRETARY, CHEER'O.

SPECIAL MEETING COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WEDNESDAY

The County Commissioners held a special meeting Wednesday, and the County Road Commissioners were also in session.

The County Commissioners apportioned $7,000.00 of the road and bridge fund between four districts as follows: Precinct 1, $3,220.00; Precinct 2, $950.00; Precinct 3, $700.00; Precinct 4, $2,100.00.

The last bond of the $12,000.00 issue in Road District 3, was sold to Henry Spenrath, a home man. This entire issue of $12,000.00 was placed in Road District 3 by County Commissioner Wiedenfeld, and brought par and accrued interest in each instance. This is a most creditable record for Commissioner Wiedenfeld as well as his neighbors. And, by-the-way, this money has been the means of building the best system of roads in Kerr County.

A committee to settle the Old Mill road route in Precinct 3 has been appointed with power to adjust the differences.

The Road Commissioners authorized the paying out of considerable money on the main highway and some on the other road building.

Men's Club Program

The regular weekly meeting of the Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church will be held at the St. Charles Hotel next Tuesday evening, March 14th, at which time the following program will be given:

Bowden and Saenger; address, Rev. W. P. Dickey, D. D.; refreshments; informal discussions; song, "Ping-A-Pang," by Glee Club; spelling match, by selected teams; song, "Nearer My God to Thee," by the Club; benediction.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

Most of the High School girls, under the tutelage of Sr. Bridget Mary and Miss Angeline Kamper, have volunteered to ply their busy needles on Saturday afternoons, like modern Priscillas, and to donate the result of their handwork to the May Festival that will be held on the school campus May 6th. Besides the week-ends, many of these industrious young ladies agree to meet for this purpose on intervening holidays.

Texas Independence Day was observed at Notre Dame and just as eagerly at the Mexican School. It was so cold in the early morning that the copper cables were frozen to the lofty steep flag-pole. When the sun had thawed the ice-covered pulley, not only "Old Glory" but also the "Lone Star" flag was raised on high.

The boys were living in hopes that the snow flurries with the mad entrance of March might become bigger and thicker flakes so that they could fight a Texas-Mexican sham battle on this anniversary. The thermometer pointed at 12, but on January 11th, 1918, the lowest winter mark of the past decade or more was reached with the mercury at 2 degrees above zero, Fahrenheit.

During the recent cold snap we congratulated ourselves in having the large, deep, steam-heated flower-house. Not only the floral ornaments of St. Mary's Park were sheltered here, but also several hundred clippings that will be matured for the flower booth at the May Festival. Since many people, despite precautions, had their flowers frozen, it is likely that this section of the "Country Fair" will have many patrons.

Harmony Critique

On Friday the Junior students of the Notre Dame musical conservatory held a recital for the faculty. The students were both competitors and judges. Miss Louise Colbath gave the best constructive criticism and Miss Margaret Rose Cross was considered the best player.

For the benefit of applicants who could not be accepted this term, the music teacher suggests that reservations be made early for the next scholastic session.

St. Patrick's Day will bring out another interesting program of the Brownson Literary Society. Participants are busying themselves these days in the learned tomes of the school library in order to prepare their historical papers. Friends of the "Irish Free State" are invited to the entertainment honoring the Apostle of Erin.

Proceeds of the Washington Play have been expended in the purchase of a very valuable reference encyclopedia. With its shelves groaning under their weight, the library is becoming daily more popular not only among the pupils but also among the parishioners and outsiders who subscribe a dime monthly to share its privileges.

G. Ahnert moved to Lampasas, where he will buy out a bakery establishment. He left his children at Notre Dame and instead of shipping his books to his new location, he donated his valuable library to our school.

Altenheim Campers

Last Summer Miss Mary Butler and a crowd of Catholic young ladies from San Antonio spent their vacation at the Herrman Sons' Home near Comfort because they could not obtain suitable accommodations in our mountain resort. Now that the convent has been enlarged, Miss Butler is so enthusiastic over the liberal offer made by the Sisters, that she promises to engage one of the dormitories for several weeks in July or August. The nuns want to share their paternal residence with as many recommended young ladies as reservations can be arranged without conflict. With the view of advertising Kerrville they will charge only one dollar a day for board and lodging in this up-to-date dormitory.

Miss Pearl Hunt, one of the Turner Girls that were defeated by the strong Tivy team, inspected Notre Dame on Sunday. She was the guest of Miss Hilda Mosel, who could not play because she had broken a finger in a basket ball practice a few days previously. Clarence Mosel also came with his sister. The trio returned to the metropolis on Sunday with John Power Sr. of St. Cecilia's parish.

Sr. Felix Visits N. D. I.

The household manager of the convent, Sr. Constance, was delighted to entertain one of her own sisters, Sr. M. Felix, of the same religious community. The distinguished visitor could not find words enough to praise the convent and its numerous conveniences. On leaving, Sr. Felix took with her one of our postulants, Miss Gladys Campbell, who will return after she recovers from an operation at Santa Rosa Hospital.

Sr. Alexius, who had favored us with a visit not long ago, sailed last week for Ireland and Holland, where our Sisters are in charge of many fashionable academies for young ladies of aristocratic families. Side by side these colleges, our nuns conduct charity schools for the poorest of the poor, maintaining the same standard of excellence in all their institutions.

Miss Eugenia Wyrick, one of the Convent boarders, spent the week-end with her mother in the Alamo City.

Hubble-Newman

Edinburg Valley Review, March 3: Lovely in all its appointments was the wedding of Miss Josephine B. Newman and Brownlee Martin Hubble, which took place before a large group of friends at the Teachers' Club Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. H. C. Baker sang "Heart's Love" by Bowles.

To the strains of the beautiful Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" the bridal party entered the reception room of the club, which had been beautifully decorated with ferns and spring blossoms, and stood before the fireplace, which was banked with palms and ferns.

The bride, who is an exceptionally pretty girl, was beautiful in a modish suit of navy blue and traveling hat of black. She carried a bridal bouquet of orange blossoms and lace ferns tied with a bow of white tulle.

Miss Ayleen Procter was maid of honor and was charming in an afternoon dress of faun colored crepe. She carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas tied with pink tulle.

Miss Lelia Williamson, bridesmaid, pretty and petite, wore a dress of navy blue taffeta and also carried a spray of pink sweet peas and fern.

John Bennett was best man, and Woodrow Carrothers groomsmen.

Preceding the bride and groom came darling little Ernestine Kelley with a tiny pink basket caught with a large bow of pink tulle, from which she brought orange blossoms in her tiny hands to strew in the path of the bride.

The ring ceremony was read by Rev. E. L. Kelley, during which "At Dawning" was played softly.

Following the wedding ceremony the guests were invited into the reception hall where the wedding cake, in the shape of a white bell, was cut and served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubble left immediately after the ceremony for San Juan, where they took the train for Kingsville. They will visit with friends there and will be entertained by Mrs. Dr. Chandler. From there they will go to San Antonio to spend a few days and then on to Kerrville, where they will be the honor guests at a number of festivities before leaving for Los Angeles, Cal., where they will make their future home, and where Mr. Hubble will be connected with the California Fruit Juice Company.

It is with great regret that the many friends of these fine young people see them leave the Valley. Miss Newman has been a favorite with a large circle of friends that she has won with her charming personality during the two terms of school that she has taught in Edinburg and will leave a vacancy in the hearts of many that will not be easily filled. Mr. Hubble is a man of sterling character and splendid business ability, and the best wishes of all Edinburg will follow these young people and hope for the day when we may count them among our numbers once more.

BAILEY SCORES U. S. USURPATION OF STATE RIGHTS

Dallas, Tex., March 2.—That present-day Texans have drawn sadly away from the paths of their fathers and that if Texas was out of the Union now he would vote for it to remain out, because the Federal Government has usurped the rights of States, were among the declarations of former Senator Joseph W. Bailey, in a Texas Independence Day address here today. This is the first public utterance he has made since the campaign for Governor two years ago.

Senator Bailey declared that if he had been in Texas when the people voted to join the Union he would have voted yes, but if Texas was out now he would vote to stay out. He urged the people to return to the old-time standards of democracy and predicted that the time is near at hand when they will do it.

As a more positive means of identification for depositors in Chicago postal savings banks, the use of finger prints will be placed in effect soon. As many depositors are unable to write, the new method will furnish a simple means of identification.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By Annie Claire Enderle

The undefeated knocked the feet from the undefeated!

At last the Turner Girls took courage to venture up to our city from San Antonio last Saturday and our girls showed them how to play basket ball. Our girls deserve a great deal of credit as they hadn't practiced for two weeks. The game had been postponed twice on account of weather and sickness. The girls of Tivy all had colds and most of them had not been to school last week on account of sickness, so all took up their round-about spirit and practice Friday morning and noon.

The game was called at 4 o'clock, the following taking their places: Lucille Taylor and Minnie Dieters, forwards; Anna Neblett Thorburn and Cleo Reece, centers, and Izola Wheeler and Annie Claire Enderle, guards. The final score was 21 to 3 in favor of Tivy. San Antonio's girls were evenly matched and some of the Tivy players have scratches or some mark of a kind to remind them of the game.

This game will be returned next Saturday night in the Turner Hall at San Antonio. The game will be played indoors, so the local girls will take chances on their first indoor game. The players will leave Friday for Seguin, where they play that evening, returning to San Antonio Saturday to play the Turner Girls.

Tivy's Girls have played six games, winning five of them, and the one with Rocksprings may be called a tie but not a game lost.

Thursday and Friday were given as holidays for Washington's Birthday, and Texas Independence Day was also observed.

The Girls' Club met Tuesday and a motto was found. Discussions were held concerning the club. This organization seems to be developing successfully.

Baseball is the boys' fad now. Since basket ball season is over a bat, glove or ball is seen in all players' hands.

Miss Dinter has left for Cuero, where she was called by the illness of her mother. Miss Blanche Moore is substituting until an English teacher is secured.

Grammar School

Under the direction of Mrs. Kendall, teacher of music appreciation, pupils in the Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Grades have just completed interesting studies of two operas.

As this is "Health Week," special attention is being given in each grade to the study of Hygiene. At the noon hour on Tuesday a "Bon Ami Brigade" of girls, led by Mrs. Real, gave the walls in the downstairs hall a thorough scrubbing. The boys cleaned the school yard on Wednesday and enjoyed a bonfire. The pupils in Miss Burnett's room made some excellent health posters. At the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Club Wednesday the Primary Grades gave a little health play.

The following Primary pupils, having made over 90 in the major subjects, last month and were not absent more than two days, are on the Honor Roll: Dora Dietz, Kate Knox, Ozman Childs, Margaret Harwood, Oswald Lee, Eleanor Holdsworth, Margaret Mosty, Elaine Williams, Emma Janet Mackey, Vivian Wharton, Mildred Williams and Frances Secrest.

Want 30,000 Acres in Oats

Comfort News: The meeting which was held at the court house in Boerne on Feb. 23, for the purpose of enlightening the farmers, merchants and bankers in regard to the purposes and methods of the Southwestern Farm Bureau Oat Association was well attended, there being farmers present from all our surrounding counties, in addition to a good number from different parts of our own county.

The meeting was opened by Gus Wollschlaeger of Boerne, president of the Kendall County Farm Bureau and a member of the organization committee of the Oat Association. He then introduced Walter Poteet, an expert on co-operative marketing from the State Farm Bureau, who explained all about the Oat Association.

The organizers hope to enlist sufficient farmers to insure control of 30,000 acres of oats in this district of Texas. If this amount of acreage cannot be secured, the project will be dropped.

The work of enrolling members in the Oat Association and obtaining their pledges for a definite number of acres of oats, will be taken up at once by the local Farm Bureaus. This will be the principal matter discussed at the meetings of the local bureaus this week.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

DEATH OF J. R. JORDAN

On last Friday at midnight, at Stranger's Rest, occurred the peaceful Christian death of John Robert Jordan, who had come shortly before in a dying condition from New Orleans, La. Mr. Materne was like a real father to this friendless invalid and watched over him with solicitous care both day and night. Mr. Jordan was a convert to Mother Church, and was buried privately by Rev. Dr. Kemper at Glen Rest Cemetery. Miss Edna Gardner, a niece of the deceased, came from Pine Bluff, Ark., a few hours before the funeral ceremony.

There are half a dozen other catechumens in the present adult convert class, and they will probably finish their course of Biblical training in time to receive the sacrament of baptism on the feast of St. Joseph, foster-father of the Christ Child. A novena in honor of this Guardian of the Holy Family will be started on Saturday. During these nine days of special devotion a private post office will be maintained at his shrine for depositing sealed messages that will be consigned to the flames on his festival, March 19th.

America's Oberammergau

The sorrowful Way of the Cross will be made during the Lenten season every Tuesday and Friday at 3:45 p. m. This pilgrimage from Gethsemane to Calvary is a synopsis of the Passion Play that the Oberammergau villagers have presented every decade for several centuries in fulfillment of a vow.

At West Hoboken, N. J., last Sunday, the citizens began their eighth annual representation of "Veronica's Veil," which Governor Edwards, who was present, declared to be for America what the Oberammergau Play is for Europe. It differs from the latter in being performed indoors which permits many spectacular stage effects, as for instance the electrical storm at the crucifixion scene. This Biblical tragedy is enacted four times a week during Lent. Requests for ticket reservations have already been sent from as far west as Denver. City officials of West Hoboken anticipate an attendance this year of at least 60,000 spectators.

St. Mary's Auxiliary

Despite the exceptional cold weather of last week a splendid gathering was had at the last meeting of the Parish Auxiliary. The enthusiastic sponsors carried a motion to hold assemblies weekly, namely on Fridays at 7:30 p. m. in Washington Hall. Once a month the meeting will be of a business rather than of a social character. It is hoped through these frequent reunions to bind together in bonds of friendship the resident and transient members of our parochial family. Newcomers will have every opportunity to become speedily acquainted, and the sick in need of a cheerful word or of financial aid will be cared for systematically and efficiently. At present in our community the roster shows fifty-eight patients more or less bed-ridden.

Mr. Kuhlmann, a prime mover in the auxiliary, accepted the task of chairman. Dr. Nyc is ably assisting him as secretary and treasurer. Vice presidents are Miss Angeline Kemper and Walter Meyer. Assignments for the competent management of the different phases of parish activities for the ensuing half year were made to zealous men and women, glad to discharge their responsibilities, e. g., Meedames Carpenter, Nyc and Kuhlmann, and Messrs. Chas. Kuesel, Carrico, etc.

The ladies held a meeting of their own on Wednesday in order to "keep the ball a-rolling" for the huge May Festival, Saturday, May 6th. So many attractions are promised that the date will become memorable for all Kerrville citizens and neighbors.

Supreme Knight Coming

The local K. of C. Council with headquarters in San Antonio will be honored on March 16th with a visit from Jas. A. Flaherty, supreme head of this patriotic fraternity. Mr. Flaherty, as representative of the Knights of Columbus, has been decorated by the Pope and nearly every allied ruler in recognition of the services rendered during and after the World War by the omnipresent Caseys.

At the close of Tuesday's meeting, Fire Chief Goetz and Wm. Duke, "the hand cuff king," gave their brother knights a fascinating exhibition.

Kerrville knights are helping the campaign to complete an enrollment of one thousand with the next initiation soon after Easter.

Mexican Students Organized

Imitating their elders, the pupils of Our Lady of Guadalupe School banded together in the Holy Angels Sodality. The boys and girls manage their distinct branches independently. Juan Silvas was chosen to head the girls' division. Her assistants are: Genevieve Sanchez, vice president; Carmen Torres, secretary; Elvira Herrerra, treasurer, and the following advisors: Ester Herrera, Patrocina Enriquez and Concepcion Ramos.

The office of president, vice president and secretary fell respectively to the following Arreola brothers: Felix, Adelaido and Bonifacio. The little genius, Enrique Castillo, was elected treasurer by his class-mates. Advisors are: Bernardo Sanchez, Carlos Zamora and Ernesto Marines.

The Mexican ladies and men have added another degree to their Guadalupe Society for the fervent class who promise to frequent the Holy Sacraments and contribute faithfully to charitable undertakings in behalf of their poor and suffering fellow-countrymen.

Health-Seekers

Dr. Thompson at his sanatorium last week enrolled J. H. Kilgarlin of Houston and Jas. Ferris of Austin. The latter lost hope and returned to his kinsfolk.

Joe Joubert of New Orleans went back to Hillcrest Sanatorium.

Felix Nebgen was discharged as cured from Secor's Hospital, and is once more in Fredericksburg.

Frank Primm, K. C., came here from Brtlesville, Okla., with his invalid wife.

We welcome to our midst Dennis Curran of Dallas.

A Dallas suffragette was born here on Friday to Mrs. Felix Staudt, who was visiting her mother-in-law, Mrs. Rudolph Staudt.

Dr. Nyc tuned up his Ford on the first day of his vacation and took his family to San Antonio, where they spent Sabbath with their son, Freddie, of St. Louis College. With them went Miss Angeline Kemper, who will remain for the Cooking School, conducted by Mrs. Florence Austin Chase. For several years Miss Kemper has followed the lectures of Mrs. Chase in Domestic Science and Home Furnishing, which subjects she pursued in a summer course at the Texas University.

BACKACHE IS DISCOURAGING

But Not So Bad If You Know How to Reach the Cause.

Nothing more discouraging than a constant backache. Lame when you awaken, pains pierce you when you bend or lift. It's hard to work or to rest. Backache often indicates bad kidneys. Kerrville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor.

Miss Adele Michon, Tivy St., Kerrville, says: "I keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand and whenever I have any signs of kidney complaint they are sure to give me relief. My kidneys were weak and I had attacks of backache when I felt so tired and worn out I could scarcely do my work. Headaches annoyed me and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Kidney Pills from the Rock Pharmacy quickly stopped the backaches and regulated my kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get the same Miss Michon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

We were glad to see the bright sunlight Sunday after the very cold week preceding. The blizzard, however, put a number of our people in bed with colds and the influenza. We hope they will all soon be entirely well.

Our services were excellent throughout the day, and everybody seemed to be in the spirit of worship and service.

At the close of the morning service we had the celebration of the Lord's Supper. Our people suggest that we have this blessed communion always the first Sunday in each month and this to be the time for our regular offering for our social service work. In this way we will be systematic in this part of our community responsibility. It is desired that all our work be done decently and in order.

The Sunbeam Band were happy to have their leader back Sunday, after an illness of several weeks, and they did have such a fine meeting. Rev. J. M. Earles and Mrs. Earles and their daughter, Mrs. McEachern, and Mr. McEachern from Austin were present. Mrs. Huber was glad to have her loved ones with her.

Both B. Y. P. U's were up to high water mark. Next Sunday evening the Seniors and Intermediates will exchange meeting places.

The attendance at the evening service was splendid. The pastor baptized two of our finest girls at the close. They were Pauline Bowden and Ruth Nichols. We wish them much joy and usefulness in the rich life they have chosen to live. May the Lord give us many more to follow Him in the resurrection life.

The pastor attended the Hospital Board meeting in San Antonio last week and is glad to be able to announce that the enterprise was definitely launched and plans are being worked out now for a campaign in Southwest Texas in the near future so as to begin actual construction as soon as possible. Our lot on Dignowitty Hill in the Alamo City is already bought and paid for, and is surprisingly beautiful, and close to the heart of the city and also as high as the tops of the business buildings. How fine it will be to have a great up-to-date denominational hospital right here in easy reach of us. Every Baptist in all the land will want a worthy part in this big enterprise for Christ and the people.

Will you be at the house of God Sunday? Only reasons we can offer to God on our knees should keep us away. Are you doing your duty? Remember, God deals with His children as good parents deal with theirs. Don't try to put anything over on Him.

Sunbeam Band Influence

Our children are given to us with three-fold natures—physical, mental and spiritual. It is our duty, as parents, to see to the development of all three of these sides. How happy we are to see the roses in the cheeks and hear the musical voices of strong, healthy children. We believe it is just as sinful to neglect this side of a child's nature as it is to commit murder in any other way. Even the wild beasts protect the bodies of their offspring. But we are glad the day has passed when might makes right.

What kind of a parent is it that feels no thrill when the monthly report card comes in with "good" or "excellent" in majority? It seems to me as near perfect human happiness as we are able to approach. We can not conceive of a parent who does not wish to give his child better training than he had. A healthy mind in a healthy body is a prize to be coveted.

Then what of that part that lives on and on and on? We are a little old fashioned about spiritual training. We contend that nothing makes such a deep and lasting impression as that made by the parents, when we can take them in our arms and fill the innocent mind with good, pure thoughts. They may wander away and break our hearts, but memories of early training has saved many a soul!

In the Sunbeam Band we try to supplement this training, and help them find their places in the world as soul winners. We ought all to be Christians, and our duty as Christians is to lead the lost to Christ, but we should go still further by putting a desire in the hearts of others to win the unsaved to a higher life.

The Sunbeam Band and W. M. S. will meet in joint session next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and render a Home Mission program. Everybody welcome who wishes to attend.

MRS. R. HUBER, Leader.

Baptist W. M. U.

The W. M. U. of the Baptist Church met in their regular business session at the Church on Tuesday afternoon. Many matters of importance were discussed and disposed of.

Mrs. W. C. Nowlin, who has been serving as president pro tem for the past few months, was duly elected president, and Mrs. Jack Moore as first vice president.

On Thursday of next week there will be held an all-day prayer and praise service at the church, in keeping with the program for the March week of prayer.

Sunday School Class Organizes

The U. Z. Z. Class of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Moore, February 21st, and elected the following officers for the coming year:

Ruth Mosty, president; Velma Spence, vice president; Eula Grantham, secretary; Amy Arno, treasurer; Willie Holdsworth, press reporter. The colors selected are green and gold.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Moore the class is accomplishing great things.

Epworth League Program

The following program will be given Sunday evening, March 12th: Subject: "The Light of the World for the Dark Continent"; leader, Herman Rees; song; prayer; Scripture lesson, John 1:4-9; song; "The Country," Carlette Tarver; "The People," Rankin Starkey; "Religion of the People," Velma Spence; "Appalling Moral Conditions," Chas. Horne; "A Cry for Help," Mabel Sublett; roll call and business; song; League Benediction.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

J. GRADY TIMMONS

Last Sunday was a beautiful day on the outside and its beauty was felt on the inside. The Sunday School was large and its spirit optimistic. We have some plans for the school which we confidently expect will increase the enrollment by a large per cent.

The Baraca Class is moving out in high, and we now have almost thirty young men in the class. I never saw a finer group of young men than this group which composes the Baraca Class. There is a larger opportunity for the work of the Sunday School in this town than in any other of its size I have ever seen. The material is here if we, who call ourselves Christians, will only cultivate the field thoroughly and diligently.

At the morning worship we had a feast. The auditorium was filled to capacity and a worshipful spirit pervaded the whole atmosphere. Dr. N. Le Blanc, recently of Orange, Tex., was with us according to our previous announcement and delivered a strong sermon. Using as his theme, "The Qualities of Greatness in the Sight of the Lord," he revealed to us the fact that many of the standards by which we measure greatness are false standards. We must measure greatness according to Divine measurements, rather than human. He was listened to with deep attention, and all expressed themselves as highly delighted with him. We are indeed glad to have Dr. Le Blanc with us as our guest, and we hope this may not be the last time we shall have this pleasure.

The Junior League was well attended and everything looks hopeful for its work. A goodly number of the juniors were out Sunday afternoon, and the program was well rendered. There is no more important field than that which the Junior League occupies, because it has the opportunity of taking the little folks at that tender and plastic age and putting them in touch with forces to which they will respond. That is an organization that belong exclusively to the young fellow and there he can express himself. Also the Senior League is looking up a bit and we hope to increase the efficiency of this department to a very large extent. We had a splendid congregation at the evening service and the spirit was fine.

The severe weather we had last week left a number of people sick and we spent the day visiting the sick and sincerely pray that they be restored to health and vigor. Now that spring is looking in our direction with bright faces and gleaming hearts and souls that are in harmony with Him.

On Tuesday afternoon the Missionary Society met in regular session and study session. The session was devoted to the book, "Men and Missions," and was conducted by Mrs. Timmons. A large number were present and the program was well carried out.

On next Sunday the following is the program:

Sunday School, meets at 9:45 a. m.; William D. Reed, superintendent. Let us all be on time and get the spirit of enthusiastic progress at that time. Although we had a fine school last Sunday, yet we are not satisfied and will not be until we make it a great deal larger.

At the morning worship, 11 o'clock, the subject will be: "The Chief Purpose of the Gospel." We are extending to you a hearty welcome to be with us and worship with us at this hour.

The Junior League will meet at 3:30 p. m., as usual. The Senior League meets at 7 p. m.; Marshall Leazar, president.

At the evening hour our theme will be: "The Insane Man Made Sane." It is our desire to make the evening services evangelistic. Let us make these services contribute largely to the success of the work of the Kingdom in the community in which we live.

The prayer meeting will be at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, and choir practice follows immediately. Some new hymnals have been ordered for the Sunday School and these will also be used for the Sunday evening service. Brother Ward desires that we have a full attendance at choir practice that we may learn the new book, which we will soon put into service for the evening worship.

THE WAY THE WIND BLOWS

Capper's Farmer: Farm commodity prices are bound to get better. We fear to prophesy as much as does anyone who tries to keep a decent regard for truth, but we believe that somebody ought to be saying this, so we say it. It is difficult to imagine anyone who could not see this very apparent fact. Prices for farm stuff are going to be better, materially so. You couldn't prevent it if you tried.

In this respect we prefer to take the come-back of the sheep and wool market and the prices for hogs as evidence rather than to juggle with economic records. Buyers have been wading through snow drifts out in Idaho and Wyoming buying wool that won't be off the sheep's backs until June or July. Hogs have been climbing steadily some time. A big spring pig crop no doubt will make hogs cheaper next winter, but even at that they very likely will be making a profit from corn for the man who raises them.

Coming back to economic records for further indications of the way the wind is blowing, the United States Department of Agriculture says that 19 crops decreased $21.22, or 59 per cent, an acre from 1919 to 1921. These 19 crops constitute nine-tenths of all American agricultural production. In 1919 they were worth $35.74 an acre. In 1921 they had dropped to $14.52 an acre. At the close of the Civil War these same crops were valued at $14 an acre and they declined to $3, about 40 per cent, but they were until 1896 in reaching the bottom of the decline. After that farm products prices advanced to $16.49 in 1913 and touched the peak, $35.74, in 1919.

It is quite popular to chart our after-war course now by what happened following the Civil War. It is a most inaccurate and unreasoning thing to do. Conditions of our own country and of the whole world are wholly different from what they were after the Civil War. And wholly unlike conditions cannot produce like results in economics and trade any more than they can in making a cake or mixing concrete. But there is one most cheerful fact in the comparison of values by the Department of Agriculture. That is that it took 32 years, until 1896, for farm prices to reach the bottom after the Civil War, but following the World War it required only three years for farm prices to hit bottom. And that is what has happened. We're going up now.

ONLY THE TRUTH

San Antonio Evening News: Once a bitter opponent of prohibition, a metropolitan newspaper has invited to its columns a discussion of the subject from every angle. Editorially, it says this series of articles regarding prohibition's results is highly instructive, because based on data from unprejudiced sources throughout the country. These were neither "wet" nor "dry" propaganda, comments the editor, but were written to develop the facts. An important deduction from the varied opinions, expressing personal observation and experience, is that while much liquor has been and is being smuggled in—and probably as much more made in illicit stills—consumption of intoxicants here has been reduced about 70 per cent under the quantity consumed before the country went "dry." This statement regards the known withdrawals from bond and estimates of the quantity smuggled in or distilled here.

There has been so much lying against prohibition enforcement, so many deliberate misstatements colored by sordid interest and prejudice, that any honest assembling of facts is a veritable antidote. It has been suggested that the Government regularly prepare reliable statistics on National prohibition, thus informing the public on the law's results and dispelling the misinformation that selfish interests spread. Prohibition must stand or fall by the unvarnished truth—as must everything else in the economic scheme.

That freeze and long cold snap was unusual in this section, but just think what the other fellows had who are not so fortunately situated as we are.

There ought to be a good crop of fruit by the trees being put back from budding by the late cold snap. That is some compensation to look forward to for that freeze.

The money that is being spent on the main highway as well as North Fork and Turtle Creek will aid materially in keeping up our volume of business until our spring and summer visitors begin to arrive.

Many people ask favors of a newspaper, but do not expect to reciprocate. They will read their neighbor's paper and ask the insertion of news items and other matters that particularly interest them, while they are not subscribers to the paper.

Kerrville does not realize as much as was expected out of the building of the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium on account of the commissaries kept by the contractors. This is one feature that the State should stop—the conducting of commissaries by contractors on State work.

The Sun is receiving long dissertations by candidates for United States Senate and other positions, with the request that space be given these matters of no particular interest to any one except the candidates. These articles readily find the waste basket. This paper is not going to boost any candidates for any position—even those who announce—nor will it mention the candidacies of those who fail to pay a fee for letting our readers know of their candidacy.

AS TO COTTON ACREAGE

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: E. F. Shropshire, secretary-manager of the United Campaign for Better Agriculture, points out that the circumstance that the recent cold weather will "knock out the boll weevil and probably eliminate the greatest hazard to a normal production of cotton" makes it all the more essential to limit acreage.

"Should the future bring a realization of this expectation," Mr. Shropshire said, "it is all the more essential that cotton acreage be held within the limits of the 1921 figures. Those in authority tell us that this acreage under normal weather and insect pest conditions is sufficiently large to produce 10,000,000 to 11,000,000 bales and with the expected carry-over of some 3,000,000 bales would give us as much to market this fall as can be expected to be handled at a fair price.

"Viewing the situation from this standpoint, there is no valid reason for the farmer, at the expense of food and feed crops, to increase his cotton acreage and bring to market a pre-war production. Should he do this, it would destroy the value of a reasonable crop and force the farmer with low-priced cotton to buy his food and feed requirements on the market at high prices."

Safe farming should be the rule this season no matter what the conditions. That is the only sure way to prevent disaster.

March and April are closed months for fishing with artificial bait of any kind and every effort should be made to see that all observe the law in this section.

The Irish are still fighting since England turned over affairs to them, and the next time you hear from them they will be doing the same thing until they exterminate the warring factions.

Congress has done one good thing—killed the free seed distribution bill, though only by a small majority. Those who really needed these seeds hardly ever received them, and it was simply an electioneering scheme for Congressmen.

The hen, pig and cow will do more to bring the farmer out of debt and keep him there than any other course he can pursue. It may take some time to convince enough of them of this to make this country as prosperous as it should be, but it will come.

The Democrats in the United States Senate had better be engaged in some constructive measures to present to Congress and force the Republican party to pass or defeat them, than to be attempting to defeat the measures agreed to by the nations composing the Arms Conference. However, we believe it was Phil Sheridan, who said that you could always depend upon the Democratic party leaders acting d— fools at the right time to keep the Republicans in power.

With the Illinois Governor being indicted and soon to be tried for use of millions of State funds in a supposed bank, and the Oklahoma Governor getting into a fist fight and under investigation by a grand jury on bank failures which may result in an indictment against that official, it seems that those in high authority have been playing too high finance with funds that didn't belong to them. One of these Governors is a Republican and the other a Democrat.

Kerrville will soon need a spring cleaning and more attention paid sanitary matters. The city should not be permitted to get into the filthy condition it was last summer. Weeds should be kept cut, pigs and other stock removed from the downtown section of the city. Where any kind of stock is kept, the owners should be required to keep the premises clean and disinfectants used. Kerrville is becoming too large to drift and be allowed to assume the cross-road village indifference.

The Republican majority in the Lower House of Congress has decided on a bonus measure for ex-soldiers in the late World War, by which they may receive $50.00 cash each and certificates that they could use at banks as collateral for loan of 50 per cent of their face value. The Republican party is attempting to influence the ex-soldiers of the last war as did the leaders of the party use those of the Civil War—by use of pensions secure their votes and keep that party in power for a quarter of a century as was done then. It is to be trusted that the selfish scheme will fail of its purpose. Such a policy means many pensions granted that are not worthy and puts an enormous unjust burden on the taxpayers of the country.

Ragsdale Is Promoted

San Antonio Light: A. K. Ragsdale, for seventeen years traveling passenger agent of the San Antonio & Aransas Pass Railway, was made general inspector of the S. A. & A. P. system Wednesday, it was announced from the general offices here. Mr. Ragsdale will report direct to the office of J. F. Peter, vice president and general manager, and will have supervision of safety, service and efficiency over the entire system.

Mr. Ragsdale's railway career began thirty years ago with the Cotton Belt of Texas in the passenger department at Dallas. He remained with the Cotton Belt thirteen years and when he left that road to accept the position of traveling passenger agent of the S. A. & A. P., was assistant city ticket agent at the Dallas office. During his seventeen years' service as passenger agent with the S. A. & A. P., Mr. Ragsdale worked out of the office of George T. Lupton, general passenger agent.

Mr. Ragsdale for a number of years was State president of the Epworth League of the Methodist Church and for many years was in charge of the Epworth League Encampment at Corpus Christi.

FISH NOT BRED FROM EGGS

Scientists Have Discovered Small Species That Undoubtedly Bear Their Young Alive.

The habit of laying eggs is so nearly universal among fishes that probably most people will be surprised, says Science Siftings, to learn that certain small species actually bear their young alive. Among these is the large family of killifishes, or Cyprinodontidae. In such species the young are born in a comparatively advanced stage of development. When born they closely resemble the adult fish. All of them are very tenacious of life.

That the bearing of the young alive by certain fish is not significant of a higher state of evolution, as the layman might naturally suppose, is proved by the fact that it occurs in many species of the sharks and their cousins the rays, though these are among the earliest, i. e., the most ancient fishes that we know. This habit of procreation has been developed in order to give the young fry a better chance of survival than they might otherwise have—it is literally a case of "fewer babies but better ones." The most curious of all these fishes is the genus Anableps which lives in the streams of the American tropics. This is sometimes called the four-eyed fish, for the reason that its large prominent eyes, which actually resemble marbles on the top of the head, are divided horizontally into two parts, the lower half being fitted for water vision and the upper half for air vision.

BARNACLES LONG A MYSTERY

Up to a Comparatively Few Years Ago the Small Creatures Were Wrongly Classed.

So indefinite and hazy were the results of investigation in its case that until a very few years ago the barnacle was classed with the mollusca, although it is really a crustacean. It is developed from free-swimming larvae and attaches itself to rocks or timbers, which it never leaves again unless torn off by force.

There prevailed during the Middle Ages a curious superstition that the barnacle was the egg of a migratory goose, the eggs being attached to the branches of trees that overhung the water. Not until it was found that the bird had its nesting place in the Arctic regions and came South during the polar winter was this fiction disproved. But the bird is still known as the barnacle goose.

The barnacle also attaches itself to living organisms, one of its favorite lodging places being the huge bulk of the whale. Sometimes, it is contended, it ventures even into the jaws of the big mammal. It is one of the paradoxes of nature that the leviathan of the deep is utterly powerless to cope with the small crustacean, which, at its largest size, when within the shell, is about as big as a chestnut. It is believed that whales sometimes rub themselves against ships in their attempts to rid themselves of their unwelcome tenants.

Some Compensation.

An official of a large corporation, which had made a rather poor earnings report, commented with satisfaction on the fact that competing companies had had considerably larger deficits.

"We can derive some consolation from this," he said, and went on: "It reminds me of the story of the man who was travelling through the West Virginia mountains and, approaching a poor cottage, saw three boys, two of whom were sobbing loudly while the smallest seemed not to have a care in the world. At the door of the cottage, the father of the boys stood, gun in hand, and the stranger inquired the source of the sorrow of the two older boys.

"Waal, stranger," said the mountaineer, "it was this way: Today is the birthday of my youngest kid. I didn't have any money to buy him a birthday present so I licked his two brothers."—Wall Street Journal.

Deep Gratitude.

It is related that the famous Sheridan went to a hairdresser's on one occasion to order a wig. The barber was a liberal soul, and on the orator being measured, a bottle of port was produced and so much hospitality was shown that Sheridan's heart was touched.

When they rose from the table and were about to separate, Sheridan, looking the barber full in the face, said: "On reflecting, I don't intend that you shall make my wig!" Astonished, and with a blank visage, the barber exclaimed: "But, Mr. Sheridan, how can I have displeased you?" "Why, look you," said Sheridan, "you are an honest fellow, and I repeat it, you shan't make my wig, for I never intended to pay for it. I'll go to another less worthy son of the craft."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

A Masterpiece.

An eminent critic was wandering through an art gallery, and, pointing to a canvas hung conspicuously on the wall, he inquired of a man standing by, "What can they mean by allowing such a daub here?" "It has been awarded the art prize," was the answer. "Awarded the art prize!" gasped the critic. "Why, there is not a trace of art about it!" "Exactly so," said the other; "art is to conceal art, you know!"—Edinburgh Scotsman.

Government Erects Tower

Comfort News: The United States Government has just finished erecting an observation tower on the summit of the high hill near Ernst Ingenhuetts' home on his ranch at the head of Big Joshua Creek.

This is the highest point on the divide between the Guadalupe Valley and the Medina Valley, and the tower was erected as a general observation post for the use of the U. S. Army engineers who are engaged at present in surveying and mapping all this territory.

The tower is twenty-five feet in height, and is constructed of timbers, with a platform of ample size at the top. From this platform an observer can see Boerne, Bandera, Privilege, Pipe Creek and the backwaters of Medina Lake. The view is as beautiful as it is extensive.

Capt. N. O. Reynolds Dies

Capt. N. O. Reynolds, another prominent citizen of this community, was claimed by death here Wednesday of last week at 11 a. m. He came home from Orange the Saturday before and was quite sick when he arrived. He soon developed pneumonia, which quickly carried him away. He was a native of Pennsylvania, being born there in 1849. He came to Texas at an early day and served as a Texas Ranger for a number of years. He served under the famous captains, Perry, Neal Coldwell, D. W. Roberts, and under Major Jones. He was known as "Reynolds, the Intrepid." After his capture of the Horrell boys, noted outlaws, he was commissioned a first lieutenant and given command of the noted Company E, Texas Rangers. This company did scout duty in Menard, Mason, Kerr and Kimble Counties, running down some of the most notorious bandits in Southwest Texas. It was a scout from Company E, under Captain Reynolds, that went to Round Rock in 1878 and put an end to the gang of train robbers headed by Sam Bass, the latter being killed in the fight.

It was a detail from Reynolds' Company that escorted John Wesley Hardin from Austin to Brownwood to stand trial for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Charlie Webb, the 27th victim of Hardin's gun. Dick Ware, who later was U. S. Marshal for the West Texas District under Cleveland's Administration, was one of the men who served under Reynolds, and he is said to have fired the bullet that put an end to Sam Bass.

Captain Reynolds, after he retired from the Ranger Service, was elected sheriff of Lampasas County for three successive terms. Here his services were as distinguished as those of former years in the Ranger Service. For the past eighteen years he had been with the Yellow Pine Paper Mills at Orange.

The subject of this sketch was married to Miss Irene Nevill in 1880. To this union were born two daughters: Mrs. H. C. Bean of Center Point and Mrs. C. H. Blunt, who died at Lockhart last April.

The funeral was held from the residence here at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon of last week, and interment made in the Center Point Cemetery.

Edwards County Echoes

Leader, March 3: It seems to be the consensus of opinion among the Edwards County ranchmen that not in years has there been such poor prospects for a kid crop as we have this year. They don't think there will be more than a 10 per cent kid crop. And they are not sure as to the cause. Of course the goats as a rule are not in good condition, but they say where the goats are in reasonably good condition, or have been fed, they still lose their kids. This is rather serious, and if the same thing obtains in all the angora sections of the world mohair will probably go yet a little higher in price. The loss of her kid leaves a nannie in rather poor condition for cold, wet weather. However, they say if she survives she will yield a larger supply of mohair in the fall than if she suckled a kid.

Ordinarily the ranchmen of this section deliver their wool and mohair to the warehouses at the market towns and then have to wait, sometimes for months, for the hair to sell. But it is different this year, when there is a strong demand for every pound of hair that can be had. The buyers are hunting the seller now rather than the seller hunting the buyer. The first sale of spring mohair the Leader hears of in this community is one by B. W. Weaver. Mr. Weaver sold his clip to a Menard buyer for 29c per pound f. o. b. the ranch, and got the money for it. And we hear of some wool being sold on the sheeps' back for 35c per pound. The ranchmen usually consider that they can make money producing wool and mohair at these prices.

Bandera Budget

New Era, March 2: The cold spell this week was the most severe that has been experienced this winter. It will prove beneficial, in that the extreme cold has probably exterminated the insects, and will also retard the budding of fruit trees. Predictions are made that Bandera will have a bumper fruit crop this year.

A. W. Stevens caught another big wolf in the Montague pasture Monday and Ed. Mandsfield happened along and ended the wolf's career with a bullet. Mr. Stevens has a good pack of hounds and is making life miserable for wolves in that vicinity. He has succeeded in catching every wolf he has jumped in the Montague pasture.

The Sinclair Oil and Gas Company and the Anglo-American Oil Co. are expected to soon begin drilling operations in the Vanderpool region. One well is to be drilled in Bandera County, one just over the line in Uvalde County, and the third test will probably be located in this county also. Geologists for these companies will probably arrive next week to make the locations. Contracts have been signed and the drilling is to begin within a stipulated time.
