CHANGE TO SECURE STREET IMPROVEMENTS IN KERRVILLE

PROPOSED LAWS FOR STREET IMPROVEMENTS EXPLAINED BY MAYOR WHELESS.

Some time since I was petitioned by 100 of the property tax payers of Kerrville to submit to the people of the city, in a special election to be held for the purpose, the question as to whether or not the Statutes of the State relating to the improvement of the streets, sidewalks, curbs and alleys in any city or town in the State should be adopted by this city, the City Commissioners not having such powers under the present incorporation. At the time this petition was presented to me the road bond matter was under discussion and it was deemed advisable to defer action.

I have, as Mayor, now called this special election to be held at the same time the general election of city officers is held, as will be seen by reference to the advertisement now being published in The Kerrville Mountain Sun.

The adoption of these laws does not mean that the City Commissioners must of necessity undertake the improvement of the streets, in the manner provided, but simply to give them the power to do so in the event it should, at any time, be deemed advisable that such work be undertaken.

For the benefit of those who do not understand the operation of the laws referred to, I make the following brief explanation of them:

If a majority of the resident property tax payers, who are qualified voters, vote in the election for the adoption of the laws then the City Commissioners thereafter will have the power to create in the city improvement district or districts for the improvement of the streets, sidewalks, curbs, etc., within the limits of the city, and, under certain restrictions, let contracts for such improvement, either paying all the cost or assessing part of the cost of the improvement against the abutting property owners. They cannot assess more than three-fourths of the cost of the improvement of the street, but may assess all the cost of the improvement of the sidewalks and curbs against the abutting property owner. The Commissioners would also have the power to fix the time and terms of the payment of assessments made for the improvement and lien against the abutting property to secure the payment. They will also be empowered to issue certificates, in the name of the city, for the payment of the assessments, and fix the terms and conditions of the certificates. The assessments may be made to run over a period of years in order that the cost may be less burdensome. No lien can be created against the homestead for such improvement without the consent of the homestead owner in the manner provided in the Constitution of Texas, but may be made a personal charge against the owner.

The statutes on the subject are too lengthy for any detailed explanation in this statement, but it can be said that ample provision is made for safeguarding the property owner's interest.

This important fact should be borne in mind: No assessment can be made against any property owner which is in excess of the actual benefit to be derived from the improvement, neither can it be finally made until the property owner has been given full opportunity to go before the Commissioners and be heard upon any objection to the improvement they have to make.

Many of the cities and towns in Texas have adopted and improved their streets and sidewalks under these laws, and in order to avoid controversies, which may arise in the matter, in most instances, secure the consent of the abutting property owners in writing before the work is undertaken and after full consideration of both the plan and cost of the improvement.

I have not made this explanation in order to induce any one to vote either for or against the proposal, but in order to give them some better idea of the question upon which they are called upon to vote.

J. S. WHELESS, Mayor.

MAYOR WHELESS HOLDS CITY TRAFFIC ORDINANCE TO BE INVALID

Mayor J. S. Wheless has put in quite a lot of time studying legal authorities on the traffic ordinance for Kerrville, which Judge Lee Wallace attacked as invalid, and the decision was reached that the irregularity of passage made it so.

The ordinance, when first drawn and printed, provided that cars should park parallel, but it was later decided by a majority of the City Commissioners to change to parking at about an angle of forty-five degrees, which was done on the day before the ordinance became effective by publication. The amended ordinance was then republished.

The change was made in the original ordinance in an informal way and while Mayor Wheless was absent. His name was also left off the ordinance as published.

It is supposed that the City Commissioners will pass another ordinance, which will be changed to meet some of the objections to the first one, and especially as to garages. It is claimed by the garages that they need exception to the provisions of the ordinance for space sufficient in front of their gas and oil tanks to permit customers being waited upon.

EMBEZZLEMENT CHARGES ARE FILED AGAINST SHIREY

FORMER LEGION COMMANDER TO BE ASKED TO ACCOUNT FOR CERTAIN FUNDS.

Austin, Tex., March 9.—Dr. Guy O. Shirey of Fort Worth, former commander of the Department of Texas, American Legion, is charged with embezzlement of over $50 in a complaint filed today in the Court of Justice of the Peace M. M. Johnson. The complaint is sworn to by Constable Charles H. Hamby, and at the time it was filed Maj. Wayne B. Davis, the present State commander of the American Legion, was present. Immediately after the complaint was filed, warrant for the arrest of Shirey was issued and given to the sheriff's department. Chief Deputy John Dupriest immediately notified the sheriff of Tarrant County by telephone of the issuance of the warrant and requested that Shirey be arrested. Justice Johnson said that a bond of $1,000 would be accepted.

Major Davis, in company with several other American Legion officials, yesterday paid into the State Treasury $15,932, representing the net amount due the State as a result of settlement of what has been termed the controversy over funds after the transfer to the State by the American Legion of the Kerrville Tubercular Hospital property. At that time, no intimation was made that a complaint would be filed against the former commander.

At the time the State took over the Kerrville Hospital, the American Legion had on hand, according to a statement issued yesterday by the Attorney General's Department, $20,879, which represented donations properly applicable to the construction of the hospital. The State claimed this amount. It developed that $3,000 of this amount was properly returned to the Daughters of the Confederacy, as the Daughters had donated that amount on condition that a certain kind of a bungalow should be erected. The money has been returned to the Daughters, and there were other legitimate credits allowed amounting to $1,947, leaving $15,932 claimed by the State.

Dr. Shirey Not in Fort Worth

Fort Worth, Tex., March 9.—Dr. Guy O. Shirey, former State commander of the American Legion, against whom an embezzlement complaint was filed in Austin today, alleging a shortage in the Legion funds, was not in Fort Worth today. A note on his office door said he was out of the city because of ill health. Associates said he was in California with his family and would remain away indefinitely. After regaining his health, they said, he would enter the University of California for a post graduate course.

Shirey volunteered at the outset of the World War and though a medical man entered the infantry. He attained the rank of chief of staff to General Bullard by the time the conflict closed.

Sheriff Smith later today received a long distance call from Austin to arrest Shirey and to permit him to make bond. Smith was told, however, that Shirey had gone to California.

CIVIL SUIT AGAINST EX-LEGION CHIEF FOR $20,879

Fort Worth, Tex., March 11.—Civil suit for $20,879 had been filed by the American Legion, Department of Texas, in District Court here against Dr. Guy O. Shirey, who resigned as State commander of the Legion last year.

Attorneys for the Legion in the suit are T. C. Johnson Jr., Edward Crane, J. B. Hatchett and Clyde H. Milliken.

SHIREY REPORTED READY TO ANSWER CHARGES

Austin, Tex., March 11.—Dr. Guy O. Shirey, former Texas State commander of the American Legion, against whom a complaint alleging embezzlement of trust funds of over $50 was filed in Justice Court here Thursday, is ready to return to Texas at any time to answer to the complaints, County Attorney John Hornsby today said he had been informed.

Mr. Hornsby said that he had talked over long distance telephone with a person who received Shirey's offer to return. This person, he said, asked that his name be withheld and as his reason satisfied Mr. Hornsby, his request was granted. He also refused to announce Shirey's present place of residence, although he is thought to be in California.

Mr. Hornsby's informant said that Shirey had wired for information as to the charges that had been filed against him in Texas. He made no mention of the suit filed in Fort Worth Friday by the American Legion asking judgment for $20,879. Mr. Hornsby said his informant requested permission to inform Shirey of the case against him here. Mr. Hornsby told the person to tell Shirey of the complaint here and also of the civil suit at Fort Worth.

NEW BRAUNFELS STATE BANK ROBBED OF ABOUT $150,000

Friday of last week at 12:25 p. m., three bandits entered the New Braunfels State Bank and robbed it of about $150,000. They left one member in the Buick car they were driving and kept the motor running. The bandits made the president and three other employees in the bank put up their hands and later to lie on the floor with faces down. Another bank employe soon came in and he was also made to join the others.

The bandits then rifled the drawers and vault, grabbed all the money in sight and stuffed it into a sack, occupying only five minutes or so. They then made the bank force get into the vault and locked them in there. Fortunately, there was a combination-arranged inside so they could open it, but that required several minutes, and by that time the bandits had gotten out of town. It was thirty or more minutes before the alarm was given over the wires, so the bandits made good their escape.

Nationally Notorious Criminals

San Antonio, March 13.—Clues indicating that the bandits, who robbed the New Braunfels State Bank Friday noon of cash and securities amounting to about $150,000, were Nationally notorious criminals with long police records, were being investigated by the officers today.

Recheck of the bank's losses from the robbery show that the total will approximate $150,000 instead of $100,000 as previously reported. The bank, however, is protected by insurance to the extent of $90,000.

The latest check showed that bonds and other securities worth $131,035.20 were stolen in the robbery. The cash loss was $18,622, of which $17,500 was in currency and $1,122 in gold. Of the securities, there was $79,750 in Liberty Bonds, $1,000 in War Savings Stamps, over $1,000 in U. S. Certificates, and the balance in bonds, mainly city and county securities.

Rewards in the neighborhood of $12,000 are being offered. The Maryland Casualty Company had distributed hand bills, offering $500 for the arrest and conviction of each of the parties who held up the bank. A similar reward is being offered by the Ocean Accident & Guaranty Corporation. Those two companies carried insurance of the bank. Associations of banks also are making up rewards.

Police are reported to have discovered the identity of the bandits, several of whom are declared to have had long criminal records in the East and Middle West. They are said to be expert criminals, who came to San Antonio to spend the winter.

Search for the bandit gang has become State-wide today, and Nation-wide angles are looming up as time progresses. Descriptions of the robbers have been wired broadcast over Texas and adjoining States.

F. G. Blumberg, president of the bank, who was one of the five men held up and locked in the vault, told the story of his adventure as follows:

"It was about 12:25 o'clock," he said, "when a man appeared at the cashier's window with a gun leveled on me and commanded me to 'stick 'em up.' I was talking to the cashier and when the man first spoke I looked up at him and laughed, not realizing the situation. He commanded me again to 'stick 'em up' and be quick about it." I complied. In the meantime another man had rushed by the railing and held up Cashier R. E. Kloepper, Assistant Cashier Albert Ludwig and Clarence Wetzel, a bookkeeper.

"The two men then compelled us to lie on the floor face down. One of them went through the vault and cash drawer, while the second kept us covered. In the meantime Harold Adams, a bookkeeper, who had been on an errand, returned and as he entered the door was covered by a third man and compelled to join us on the floor.

Evidence of Good Service

Fifty-three years of safe, helpful banking—through good times and years of adverse conditions—is a record of careful management with the interests of our patrons ever in mind. Such a record is evidence of our pledge for good service in the years to come.

"When the men had got the money and bonds they pushed all five of us into the vault and locked the door. It took us about five minutes to work out and spread the alarm.

"Our position in the building at the time the men came in did not give us an opportunity to get to the guns we kept in the bank. We did not see the men drive up nor did we see the men in the car."

Marshal Ed. Moeller said he passed the bank during the noon hour and saw the automobile in front of the bank with two men in it. There was no indication that there was anything going wrong in the bank, he said.

One of the men, Mr. Blumberg said, had a handkerchief drawn over his mouth and the others were unmasked. They all appeared to be between the ages of 25 and 35 years.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAM WAS GIVEN SUNDAY AT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The program given on last Sunday at the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium by the Cheer'O Club was unusually enjoyable.

The splendid music by the Boys' Orchestra, led by Ed. Fisk and composed of the following home boys, Sidney Wheless, Raymond Fisk, Randolph Wheless and Scott Fawcett, with Mrs. M. E. Bogle at the piano, was encored again and again.

Mrs. Pampell gave a lovely vocal solo, Miss Ruth Morriss a humorous reading, and Dr. N. LeBlanc made a wonderful heart-reaching address.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LEAGUE ENDS SEASON WITH ALL TEAMS EVEN

The basket ball season of the Kerrville Sunday School League closed Monday night, leaving all the teams with the same number of games to their credit and the same number lost. It was hardly to be expected that three teams could have been so evenly matched, but the standing shows the same per cent for each team.

The last game of the season was played between the Methodists, who had previously defeated the Baptists in a closely contested game by the score of 10 to 9, and the Presbyterians, resulting in a score of 5 to 2 in favor of the latter. It was the opinion of the spectators that this was one of the fastest and cleanest games of the season, and left everyone eager for the next method of proving which is the winner of the Sunday Schools.

TORNADOES KILL TWENTY-THREE; ISOLATED SPOTS IN 4 STATES HIT

Monday night and Tuesday, tornadoes hit isolated spots in the States of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi, killing twenty-three and injuring several hundred, while much damage was done property, reaching into hundreds of thousands.

The heaviest loss of life was at Gowen, Okla., fifteen miles east of McAlester, where twelve persons were killed.

In Arkansas, six negroes were killed at one spot, while the other deaths occurred in different localities.

Numerous freaks of the storm were reported. Two Mexican children, whose home was destroyed, were found in a tree top alive and unscratched after the storm. At the Reese Null home, the kitchen was unroofed and the walls collapsed, but a basket of eggs was not damaged, examination showing that not one had been cracked.

R. E. Pendleton reported destruction of a barn at his home. After the storm, a horse that had been stabled in the barn was found placidly eating hay from the floor. The rope had been blown around the horse's neck and had become fast to the floor.

The most outstanding freak was reported from Kennel, Ark., where a 12-day-old infant was blown from a bed, on which it was lying, across the yard, where its clothing held it suspended to a picket fence, until the storm abated. The baby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Woods, were seriously injured.

Minnie Rosberg et al to Sid A. Rees, 1-8th interest in 118x245 feet, block 25, Kerrville; $1,200.00. The same land was sold by Sid A. Rees to A. C. and L. A. Schreiner for $1,200.00. This is an interest in the old blacksmith property across the street from the Chas. Schreiner Bank.

The Women's Society of the Presbyterian Church met Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. J. E. McDonald. An interesting Bible lesson was led by Mrs. Ino. Reichert, assisted by Meadame Wallace, Jackson, Harwood and Zelsering. A large number of members were present. Mrs. McDonald served a salad course, assisted by Mrs. Sandel.

Friends of the Irish Free State are cordially invited to Notre Dame to attend the annual free entertainment in honor of Erin's saintly apostle. The program will include old and new songs of the Emerald Isle, and a fine selection of Gaelic folk dances and jigs. There will be several scholarly essays composed by our High School pupils, dwelling on the erudition, tenacity of faith, and love of freedom conspicuous in the Celtic race. Your shamrock is your admission ticket.

Last Monday was the 96th anniversary of the Fall of the Alamo. The noble defenders of Texas' independence were eulogized in song and story. In San Antonio Miss Adina DeZavala gave the principal address. She is a grand daughter of one of the foremost heroes of the Lone Star State. Miss DeZavala is a frequent visitor here because she owns rent property in our community.

The patron of Catholic schools, and prince of philosophers, St. Thomas Aquinas, was commemorated on his festival, March 7th. The celebration was largely confined to the High School pupils who had free, part of the day, after attending chapel exercises in a body. Later in the day, these budding philosophers entertained the Notre Dame faculty with a program that brought forth salient features in the biography of the "Angelic Doctor." His writings have remained the standard text books in Catholic seminaries for nearly seven hundred years.

We are in hopes that when the Knights of Columbus start their welfare work at the Soldiers' Sanatorium, they will prove helpful in developing athletics at Notre Dame Institute. We beg to congratulate our comrades, the Tivy girls, on their second

Rev. Boivin's Visit
The pastor of Bandera, Rev. P. J. Boivin, motored here on Tuesday to inspect the palatial Convent building. He learnt that all the glowing descriptions did not do full justice to Notre Dame, and he hurried back to Bandera somewhat crestfallen that our community should be so exceptionally favored.

With Father Boivin came Edward Weismantel of Waukegan, Ill., who has seen many Northern academies, but none so compact, convenient and up-to-date as our own.

Two auto loads of Bandera people followed their pastor's visit on Sunday. Joe Montague, bambino of Texas lawyers, came with Mike Boyle and Will Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ruge came with the large family of Ignatius Adamietz. All were so well pleased that they promised to advertise Kerrville in their section and to send us young lady boarders, inasmuch as the Bandera parochial school does not go beyond the eighth grade.

Joe Evans, who was care-taker at Notre Dame from February 1st till September 1st, 1919, came back to his old home for a rest of ten days. He brought with him his friend, Charlie Johnston. On Monday he took group pictures of Notre Dame and Guadalupe students.

The Junior Sewing Circle will again convene on Saturday afternoon on account of the return of Miss Angeline Kemper, who attended the annual domestic science school conducted by Mrs. Florence Austin Chase. While in San Antonio she was the guest of the Bishop's niece at the episcopal residence.

HAS NEW THEORY OF SPEECH

Came About in Man Through Walking Erect and Using Hands as Hands, Says Savant.

Why have none of the higher animals developed speech? asks Dr. B. Naunyn in the Deutsches Archiv fuer Klinische Medizin (Leipzig). He points out that the sounds made by animals and birds are imitative, like the "da-da-da" of a happy baby. But the infant progresses beyond echo-speech to actual speech, which no animal or bird can do.

And he proceeds to answer this question, says the New York World, on the theory that man has evolved from the lower animals—a theory that is rapidly losing ground among serious scientific men—about as follows:

When man began to walk erect and use his hands, the right hand was found more convenient for attacks and defense, gestures, and the ordinary uses of life; the left hand being used more for carrying things.

This greater use of the right hand, not the more abundant blood supply in the left hemisphere (criminals have the latter), was what stimulated the left hemisphere of the brain to higher development. This provided Romans' "casual anatomical factor" that distinguishes man from animals and made articulate speech possible. It is a consequence of man's walking erect and using his hands as hands. Speaking and the organ of speech developed together. The singing of birds and their balancing power are by-products of the evolution of their organ of hearing, as also music in man, along with rhythm and dancing, although a music sense evidently co-operates with the internal ear.

BARBER BEARS TRADE NAME

Word Describing His Occupation Declared One of the Curiosities of the Language.

Our friend the barber bears a trade name, or a name of occupation which is related to barbed-wire, barbarian, Barbary coast and Barbados. It is also related to "barbet" which was an old name for a poodle dog, and it is also related to "barbette," over which big guns are fired. It is one of the curiosities of our language.

Some of these words have come into the English language from the French and others from the Spanish, but they all go back to the Latin word, "barba," which meant "beard." The French got the word from their Roman conquerors and civilizers and made it over into "barbe" and when a man shaved himself he "barbed" himself, or as perhaps we would put it today he "dis-barbed" or "de-barbed" himself. The French made a noun to fit the fellow who took the beard or barbe off another fellow and they called him a "barbier," and if it had been the custom for ladies to barber a man they would have called her a "barbiera," with a grave accent over the first "e." The Norman conquerors of England took over the word with them and finally our Anglo-Saxon, Norse-Celtic, Norse-French, etc., ancestors shortened "barbier" to barber.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Early Umbrellas.

Among the Greeks and Romans umbrellas were carried solely by women, and it was regarded as effeminacy for a man to carry one.

The use of umbrellas became very general in Italy and France in the sixteenth century.

Early in the Eighteenth century it was the practice to keep umbrellas in the coffee houses as a protection to guests caught in an unexpected shower.

At length there arose a man who flouted public ridicule and became a devotee to the umbrella. He was Jonas Hanway, a traveler. He had an extraordinary big and stout one made for his own use. For 30 years Hanway and his umbrella were a familiar figure along the Strand, and many a shot of ridicule was fired at him. He died in 1786, but lived long enough to see his example commonly followed.

Curious Irish Vault.

In a quiet back street of Dublin is the Church of St. Michan's, and in its vaults may be seen one of the strangest sights of the country. There lie the bodies of people buried centuries ago, which, owing to some curious preservative properties of the air or soil of that particular place, never decay. Their skins "tan" into a flexible diamond-like leather. The limbs can be moved about with ease, the finger nails are perfect, and in some cases the features are fairly distinct. This is especially the case with the body of an infant, buried in 1698. There is in another vault a body said to be that of a Crusader, and in another one said to be that of a brother of King O'Toole. One very gruesome sight is that of the headless bodies of two unfortunates who were beheaded during the famous rebellion of '98.

BIDS ACCEPTED FOR MAIL ROUTES OUT OF JUNCTION

Junction Eagle, March 10: So far as we are able to learn, three bids for different routes from here have been accepted. J. M. Anderson, who lives several miles northwest of town, will secure the Sonora Route. The mail goes over this route Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

J. L. Bruce, former hotel man of Mason, who now has the contract for service between Mason and Fredericksburg, will get the Junction-Mason route, which has a daily mail each way.

A Mr. Benton of Kerrville will have the contract for the Kerrville-Junction Route, which is made on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays to Kerrville, and on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays from Kerrville to Junction.

No bids were accepted on the Menard Route, and it has been again advertised for new bids.

CONVERT CLASS

For several weeks a number of adults have been taking an intensive course of Biblical instruction preparatory to entering the Catholic Church.

A novena in honor of the Guardian of the Holy Family is in progress. For the benefit of those who are keeping these exercises, an opportunity will be given to receive the Holy Eucharist at 7 a. m. Sunday, instead of 6:30 a. m.

St. Joseph's mail will be collected next Sunday towards the close of mass, and all the sealed messages will be assigned to the flames while the entire audience joins in congregational singing.

Lenten Devotions

This week the Sorrowful Way of the Cross will be made on Tuesday and Thursday at 3:15 p. m., because a St. Patrick's entertainment will be given on Friday afternoon at Notre Dame.

In the first week of Lent over one-third of the parishioners complied with their Easter duties. Last Sunday there were ninety-four communicants.

The first dispensation from the rigorous observance of Lent has stamped itself in the English language, when the reading of the Bible prescribed for Nones (the ninth hour, hora nona) was advanced to mid-day, or "noon."

Friday Evening Socials

The Catholic Auxiliary met last Friday at 7:30 p. m. in Washington Hall and spent a couple of hours in indoor amusements.

Hy. H. Kuhlmann, chairman of the Auxiliary, represented our parish at the civic meeting on last Friday in the Commercial Club room.

Knights Plan Welfare Work

Allan Oldham of Oklahoma City, who has charge of Texas and nine other States, came here last Tuesday on official business for the Knights of Columbus.

Scouts of San Antonio, and the K. C. Band.

The war record and reconstructive activities of the Knights of Columbus have endeared them to all sailors and soldiers on both continents.

In the beginning Mr. Newman will make his headquarters at the Rectory. Incidentally he will favor the Notre Dame students with his illustrated travelogues in our movie hall, and will also assist the pupils in their athletic contests.

In the free correspondence school, the K. C.'s offer 750 different courses at present. One of the latest subjects added to the curriculum is a mastery of the Income Tax.

Fourth Degree Initiation

Last Sunday about twenty-five K. C.'s of our local council, No. 786, joined the excursion to Galveston, where in the presence of Supreme Knight Jas. A. Flaherty a class of 300 candidates was raised to the fourth degree.

From Galveston Supreme Knight Flaherty journeyed to San Antonio, where he was royally received. After luncheon he was shown the sights of the Mission City and returned to headquarters to meet officials and deliver an address.

Legion Colony

Ed. Walsh came to Kerrville with some fellow Knights soon after being awarded another contract at the Memorial Sanatorium.

From East Bernard came Edward and William Schattel, Erich Bremser and Emil Scholz.

At Dr. Thompson's Sanatorium we lost one of the nurses, Miss Mabel English. Also regretted the departure of Mrs. Gaspar Raia to Galveston.

Personals

At Secor's Hospital, Mrs. Pablo Lemos Espinosa underwent a serious operation. She is a sister of our Mexican soldier here.

In the wave of crime in San Antonio, thieves got away with an automobile belonging to Hanson Bragg, brother-in-law of Ramon Castillo.

Dr. Nye came back from his San Antonio trip with his family on Monday. He made the stretch in his Ford without mishap in 2 1/2 hours.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor

The cause of Christ made some progress in the ranks of the Baptists last week.

The Intermediate E. Y. P. U. Social last Friday evening in the basement of the church was a big success.

Saturday evening a crowd of young people took supper out on a mountain at Jim Dillon's place. Mr. and Mrs. Dillon joined us. After a supper of toasted marshmallows, roasted weenies, eggs, cakes, etc., the company sat around a beautiful brush fire and joked and told ghost stories.

The attendance upon all the Sunday services was great. The Bible School was away up, and the people thronged the preaching services.

In the afternoon, the Sunbeams had a special Home Mission program, to which their mothers and friends were invited. Mrs. Huber, the leader, was ably assisted by Miss Aline Welborn, Mesdames C. H. Richerson and W. C. Nowlin, and a number of Bright Sunbeam members.

Both the B. Y. P. U.'s are beginning the study of their respective manuals. They want to be A-1 and up-to-date.

At the close of the evening service, Miss Izora Wheeler was buried with Christ in baptism, and Mrs. Gladys Allen, Mrs. I. V. Gray and Lillie May Gray were received into the church by letters.

The day this paper comes out our women will be in an all-day Mission program at the church.

Let us make all our meetings hum with life and power and enthusiasm. Every member present and on time at all meetings will help a lot. Do your part. Pray for the lost of Kerrville. Let us lead them to Christ.

If you get a chance, attend the Taylor revival at San Antonio. He is God's great evangelist.

Baptist Sunbeams

The subject for our Sunbeam lesson next Sunday is "Prayer." Let us find in the Bible what prayer is, what kind of people prayed, the many different occasions when prayer was offered and what kind of prayer was answered.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of Kerrville.

D. F. McNees, retired farmer, Kerrville, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are a good remedy. My kidneys were weak and out of order and I felt dull and tired and had a soreness and dull ache over my kidneys. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. Others in my family had been benefited by Doan's Kidney Pills so I tried them. They corrected the trouble and put my kidneys in good condition."

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

J. GRADY TIMMONS

Last Sunday was a good day for us. Sunday School was good and the congregations splendid, although so many are now upon the sicklist. The severe weather we had the first of March has left quite a number of people with a touch of influenza and many others with severe colds.

We had the pleasure of receiving Mrs. Sarah M. Revia into our membership, and bid her welcome to all our privileges and opportunities. Mrs. William D. Reed, who has been absent for some weeks visiting a brother in Waco, returned Tuesday, and, of course, we were indeed glad to welcome her home.

It seems that perhaps now we have some opportunity for having a systematized and organized charitable institution in Kerrville. On last Friday several citizens interested in the matter met in the office of the Chamber of Commerce and discussed the proposition, and a committee has been appointed to arrange with Judge Baker for a hearing before the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of the Red Cross Executive Committee on Monday of this week resulted in great good. We have in the last few days had returned to us from loans $120. Due to the fact that our funds do not justify having a paid secretary we decided to dispense with the same, at least for the time being.

Indigestion

Many persons otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important.

Theford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals.

Get a package from your druggist today—Ask for and insist upon Theford's—the only genuine. Get it today.

BUICK SUNSET LIMITED PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE

The following have either subscribed or renewed the past week to The Kerrville Mountain Sun: J. H. Gardiner, B. F. Michon, Dr. A. A. Roberts and G. C. Noonan of Kerrville, L. A. Real and Aime W. Real, Rural Route; J. J. Sublett, Ingram; Fred Thalman, Bandera; C. E. Willcutt, San Antonio; Mrs. Annie Benson, Blanco; A. P. Robb, Houston; B. J. Stewart, Lebanon, Tenn.

The chairman will keep the files, and all ex-service men needing aid will first apply to him, and the matter will be promptly handled. This is an economic move and it will give a number of people work to do, thereby stimulating interest.

The program for next Sunday at the Methodist Church is as follows: Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject: "The Ministry of Small Things."

The Junior League will meet at 3:30 p. m., with Mrs. Timmons in charge.

The Senior League meets at 7:30 p. m., with Marshall Leazar as president. The program follows: Subject, "In the Country, Who Shall Reap the Harvest?"; leader, D. H. Comparette Jr.; song; prayer; Scripture lesson, John 4:31-38; "Introduction," Miss Maggie Lowrance; "The Conditions," Rankin Starkey; "The Prosperous Farming Community," Pam Grinstead; "In the Mountains," Lula McDoniel; "The Tenant Farmer," Amy Arno; "What Can Epworth Leaguers Do?" Eula Grantham; business; roll call, and League Benediction.

The business session of the Woman's Missionary Society resulted in several items of interest. Mrs. J. H. C. Maxwell, secretary for the Kerrville District, was with the society, and her visit was greatly enjoyed. The Missionary Council for the General Church meets in San Antonio March 25th to April 5th, inclusive. The annual conference for the West Texas Woman's Missionary Society meets on the 6th of April at the same place, and Mrs. J. Grady Timmons was elected as a delegate from this society.

IN THE INTEREST OF THE SOUTH

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: Whether the estimate made by Col. Ike T. Fryer that one billion dollars a year will be added to the value of Southern products if Congress accepts the schedules of the Southern Tariff Congress and incorporates them in the tariff bill is regarded as high or not, certainly every effort should be made to have fair recognition given to the products of the South in the bill.

Colonel Pryor, who is chairman of the schedule committee of the Southern Tariff Congress, which meets in Fort Worth on March 15th, outlines the schedule to be asked as follows:

We have endorsed the schedules filed by the Western tariff bloc with the Senate Finance Committee, which call for a rate of 3 1/2 cents per pound on beef, 2 1/2 cents per pound on mutton, 4 cents on lamb, 3/4-cent on hogs and 15 cents on unwashed wool.

We have taken exception to the 15c rates on hides, which is 2 cents green and 6 cents dried. We regard 4 cents per pound on green hides the minimum rate that should be given. Other leading Texas products shown on the bloc schedules are vegetable oils, 4 cents per pound; eggs, 8 cents per dozen, and poultry 6 cents per pound.

Important Southern items not included in the Western tariff bloc, and on which tariff duties have been requested by the Tariff Association, are pecans, pecans, sugar graphite, manganese and petroleum, and rates will be fixed Wednesday by the Southern Tariff Congress on these articles.

The greatest obstacle which stands in the way of obtaining proper recognition for Southern products is the attitude of most of the Democratic Congressmen and Senators on this matter.

Instead of insisting that any tariff bill passed shall levy duties equitably, without discrimination between sections and industries on political lines, but in accordance with the principle of not favoring one class or section at the expense of another, they are assuming an attitude of opposition to the entire tariff program and apparently are willing to have the Republicans pass a measure for special industries.

the country, most of which are of the farm and ranch, shall be given equitable protection in keeping with that given the products of other sections.

It is good Democratic doctrine that any tariff levied, no matter what its rates or its purposes, shall be equitably adjusted to the whole country and to all classes in the matter of schedules.

It is good Democratic doctrine that if there is to be a tariff on manufactured articles there should also be a tariff on raw materials.

To assume the attitude of most of the Democrats in the two Houses of Congress is simply to sacrifice the South for the sake of fancied partisan advantage on the political stump.

The Southern Tariff Congress represents a great body of producers in the South. We take it that the schedules which it will work out will be based upon a knowledge of conditions and in relation to schedules on the products of other sections and other industries. The delegates to the congress will be men thoroughly capable of working out such schedules and who have a full knowledge of the facts and conditions involved. For this reason they should receive the cooperation of Congressmen and Senators from the South, especially from Texas.

The Southern Tariff Congress is not a political body. It is a business body, and it proposes to have a tariff law based upon principles of equity and justice and not upon mere partisan considerations. It is working for the economic interests of this entire section of the country, and is seeking to prevent discrimination of a kind which will injure the producers of this section. It should receive the support of all intelligent citizens of this section, irrespective of party affiliation.

When you want anything in any line, look at the advertising columns of The Sun and see if you can't find an advertisement that will direct you to where you will find what is desired.

Bank robbers spend the money they steal and the insurance companies make it good, but that is no reason why there should be an endorsement of bank robberies. Keep your gun handy and try to help fill them with lead if they should visit us.

The loss of stock in this section during the recent cold spell has been more serious than was at first thought. Also, there are more dying from starvation than has been estimated. With the high price of feed it is costing quite a sum to each rancher to keep his stock supplied with enough to maintain life.

Those bank officers and clerks in New Braunfels were quite doleful and went to the mat and stayed there until told to get up and beat it into the vault. Well, who wouldn't, with a geek holding a big six-gun near you and nervously fingering the trigger? And it seems that the bandits selected a time when everything was on edge and ready to hand.

Insects of the United States destroy $1,100,000,000 worth of farm produce a year, according to reliable reports.

If this section can get a good rain and prices on wool, mohair and hides keep up, as well as the price of cattle, sheep, goats and hogs continue to rise in value, we can get along without any politics.

The building activity in Kerrville is keeping up quite well and in most instances the residences being built are of a modern and attractive kind. There is a need for more of these and later the demand will increase.

Twenty-one members of the League of Nations have failed to pay their dues, it is announced. They are probably out-of-town folks who figure they cannot take advantage of many of the privileges of the club anyway.

The work at the Memorial Sanatorium is progressing very well and is sure assuming huge proportions. This undertaking is greater than most of us realize and will mean more in the future to Kerrville than can be estimated.

The sending of money away from Kerrville for goods and other articles that our home stores keep is the very poorest business policy. The one sending the money away is not getting goods any cheaper when everything is considered, while his money is gone beyond the reach of this community again, and of course he will not again have a chance at it.

Congressman Hawes, who referred to himself as a member of the American Legion, criticized the bonus bill as a "gold bricks" which members of Congress proposed to sell to soldiers in exchange for votes. The program adopted by the Republican members of the Ways and Means Committee, he contended, was "in reckless disregard of the President's advice."

Henry Story's name is announced this week as a candidate for City Commissioner. He is a native-born, well qualified, to perform the duties of the position, and is an industrious young man. His profession is that of a painter, and he is a good one. Belonging to the industrial laboring class his friends feel that he would represent a large element of our citizenship not usually included among the office-holders.

President Harding has wisely left Washington for a trip to Florida to fish and play golf while the U. S. Senate is wasting time and retarding business recuperation in considering the four-power treaty. If those Senators haven't sense enough to see that it is peace with a big "P" that this country wants, let them have the fight to themselves. Then let the people see how many of these obstructionists can be left at home when they are again candidates.

The rain can hit about everywhere except the Hill Country. We kept quiet until it seems there is too much discrimination against us, and now, if that big, trash-moving, gully-washer don't materialize soon, the weather clerk is going to smell something that will have the odor of fire and brimstone, while he will have to put cotton in his ears to keep from hearing language that will be luridly expressive of our disgust at his handling of the weather situation.

The Republican majority of the Lower House of Congress is determined to pass some kind of ex-soldier bonus measure. It means nothing to this majority that President Harding and Secretary Mellon are opposed to the bonus at present, but these Congressmen seem to think that unless they pass some kind of a bonus measure their re-election is in doubt, so it is more of a vote-getting scheme than anything else. If this Government had the money or it was advisable to strain its credit just now, there would be no opposition to a reasonable bonus measure, but there is not the cash in sight and the Government is carrying all the load it ought to.

Major J. S. Wheelless has favored The Sun with an interesting article on the proposition of providing for street improvements in Kerrville. The petition that authorizes the election was signed some time ago. It is to be trusted that there will be a good thing the famous...

Drawn together. "Mrs. Jibway and Mrs. Gadder have declared a truce." "What brought that about?" "Community of envy." "Eh?" "Mrs. Gadder of the same neighborhood has a new mouse."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

ERROR COMMITTED BY MANY

Grave Mistake to Leave Business Position in a General Cloud of Unpleasant Feeling.

The man or woman of small ambition and smaller achievement feels that it is his privilege and pleasure always to leave a position he is "quitting" in a cloud of unpleasant feeling. So long as he remains in his position he puts up with unpleasantness, stifles his dislikes for the men over him and does his best to grin and bear things. When he realizes that he can take his destiny in his own hands, and ask to have his name stricken off the pay roll, he takes intense satisfaction in atting his prejudices and showing every one in the place just how he feels about himself. He undoes in a day all that he has gained in the months or years that he has worked there.

The man or woman with ambition knows that the world of business is a small place. Merely from a selfish point of view it is essential to maintain pleasant relations even with those who, you feel, have treated you unjustly. If you have put up with their ill treatment while working for them surely you ought to be more willing to do so when you have the inner satisfaction of knowing that you are going. In fact, you can stretch a point and forgive and forget old rancors. It may be, you know, that in another shuffle up you will be placed in a position where one of the persons for whom you have the most spite will be placed in a position where his friendship will mean a great deal to you. So do the well-bred thing, which is to stifle your own petty animosities and exercise your self-control to the extent of leaving the old place with a handshake all-round.—Exchange.

THOUGHT NOT REALLY RAPID

Mind Moves Comparatively Slowly, Notwithstanding Expression That Has Become Common.

"As quick as thought" is an expression much used to denote the acme of speed in action, but, like so many popular expressions, this one is misleading. Thought, or at least the mental registering of a sensation, is not an exceedingly speedy process, the thought impulse moving at the comparatively slow speed of 110 feet a second, or 75 miles an hour. Light travels nearly nine million times as swiftly. Thought would be hopelessly beaten in a race with a motorcar. Perhaps a good illustration of the comparative slowness of thought waves is to assume that a man had an arm 75 miles long and that, when he was not looking a friend should grasp his hand. Before the owner of that arm became conscious that his hand had been touched, the friend would have released it, and had time to walk four miles or eat a very extensive dinner.—Kansas City Star.

Two Kinds of Thinkers.

There are two kinds of people in the world—word people and fact people. The former deal in words and phrases and form their judgments on opinions and beliefs. The latter analyze questions and draw conclusions only from the point of view of what they believe to be established facts. The two types are as far apart as the north and south poles and are incapable of carrying on anything in the way of intelligent argument or debate, because they do not talk the same language or think by the same method. The word man starts with a desired conclusion and fashions his facts to produce that result. The fact man analyzes his subject, seeks to establish the truth in regard to facts which have a bearing on it and then fearlessly draws what he believes to be honest conclusions. His process is like the working out of a mathematical problem; he does not know what the answer will be until the last figure is made. He thinks forward, while the word man thinks backward.

To Utilize Waste Time.

A system in vogue in a few New York department stores to utilize the spare time of their employees when customers are few is to hold meetings of a semi-social character, in which a part or the whole of their forces can participate. One of the most popular and beneficial of those systems, from the viewpoint of the employers and the employees, is to assemble the forces and sing songs and hear short addresses delivered on general subjects by store executives or others. A daily use of that system, according to one store manager who has had the system in practice for considerable time, is to infuse greater enthusiasm among its employees for their work and to inculcate a spirit of co-operation between the employer and his employees.

How Man Spoils the Air.

"Windows open more would keep doctors from the door." A very large organ of the music business: "The sense of the destiny of the American people for centuries to come lies there on the Tennessee River, because whoever controls a nation's power controls that nation's people."

"America's power today is dependent on the steam power of coal. The great private financiers own the bulk of the country's coal mines. These financiers, centered in Wall Street, have a strangle hold on the industry and transportation of the country." "If Muscle Shoals is developed along unselfish lines it will work so splendidly and so simply that in no time

NOT REALLY WOMAN'S FAULT

Time-Honored Joke That She is Always Late for an Appointment Is Explained.

"The Woman's Side of the Story" this should be called. From time in the beginning the haughty male has inveighed against the once so much meeker half, and above all for her habit of being late. She was never late occasionally or off and on, or even most of the time. You could always count upon her being late. Some said it depended on the promptness with which you arrived, her tardiness being proportioned thereto.

But these were slanders ever. No, she was late without exception. And she had her reasons.

"Man's natural habitat," says Genevieve, "is the street corner, the curbstone club. Woman's is the home. Man stares. Woman is stared at. Man blandishes. Woman blushes. A man can stand on the curb for an hour or more without embarrassment. But a woman is conspicuous, no matter where she is and a veritable cynosure when alone. In fact, I don't think it's too much to say that nothing is noticed so quickly as an attractive and unescorted woman. That is why, when she makes an engagement to meet you at a stated place, she is sure to be at least fifteen minutes late. It is all due to her dread of being compelled to wait—and be stared at. Oh, of course, we love to be admired. But that's different. And safer."

FEW WALKERS IN AUSTRALIA

In That Respect Country is Much Like Our Own West of Some Years Ago.

There was once a gay French humorist, Max O'Rell, who arrived in Australia on a hot day and straightway declared that the chief occupation of the people was holding up lamp posts. The abhorrence which pursued that Parisian would pale beside the indignation which would overwhelm the man who dared to declare that the Australian is conservative, and this in spite of the persistence of the galvanized iron roofs of early Queensland, the determination with which the black bowler hat still clings to progressive heads in Pitt or George street, Sydney, and the universal rule from Coochewood to Kalgoorlie of the good old roast beef.

All of which is intended to prepare us for the story retold in the Sydney Morning Herald, the widest read and most conservative journal in all Australasia, of the young Englishman in Rolf Bolderwood's novel who was invited to visit a New South Wales station seventy years ago, and innocently resolved to walk part of the way and see the country. After many unhappy misunderstandings reflecting on his right to be at large, the visitor borrows a horse and becomes respectable. That story would be in keeping today, with the exception that the motorcar and the airplane would have partly replaced the horse.

How Black Cats Got Bad Repute.

The origin of the superstitious aversion to black cats is believed to date back 900 years to the Sevevenes mountain district of France. At that time one William, abbot of a monastery beside the river Herault, and before then a warrior in the Crusades, decided to build a bridge across the swift, mountain stream. But as fast as the foundations for the piers were put down they were swept away by the torrent. He persisted for a long time and finally decided that his lack of success was due to interference by the devil.

He is supposed then to have invoked the Evil One and made a compact with him by the terms of which the abbot would complete the bridge, but the first animal to cross it would belong thereafter to the devil. So it came about, and the first animal to cross the bridge was a black cat.

Fly Has Natural Trap.

A peculiar traplike appendage, called a mask, enables the young dragon fly to capture the mosquito wriggler on which it feeds. The mask consists of a jointed, articulated arm that is attached to the under side of the head. At the extremity of this arm is the mask proper, which consists of two folding parts like hands, each of which is provided with a row of small sharp teeth on its outer edge.

When a tiny insect passes within reach of the young dragon fly it suddenly thrusts out the mask, grasps the insect within it and backs it into the mouth. When this organ is not in use it folds back over the head, covering it like a mask.

The young dragon fly lives in ponds and streams; and as it is very slow-moving, this trap is its salvation.

Sweet Odors.

Sweet and aromatic odors have always been in request among mankind. Eastern nations especially have ever been noted for their intense love of perfume.

The destiny of the American people for centuries to come lies there on the Tennessee River, because whoever controls a nation's power controls that nation's people.

"America's power today is dependent on the steam power of coal. The great private financiers own the bulk of the country's coal mines. These financiers, centered in Wall Street, have a strangle hold on the industry and transportation of the country.

The Most Important Room in the House

THERE are any number of conveniences that help to make the home more livable, but the well equipped Bathroom is the most important requirement to make the house comfortable.

People used to believe that installing a bathroom—one that was modern and convenient—could not be done without spending a lot of money.

That is not true today.

It is no longer necessary for you and your family to deny yourselves the comfort of a modern bathroom.

If your bathroom is not what you would like it to be, call us on the telephone or drop in at our office and let us show you the possibilities of installing modern fixtures and plumbing in your home. The cost will probably be less than you expect.

START WORK IN GARDENS EARLY

Of Great Importance That All Rubbish and Dead Plants Be Removed and Burned.

KILL INSECTS AND DISEASE

Kind of Manure Applied is Not Important So Long as It is Free of Weed Seeds—Give Young Trees Protection.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Home gardens were boons to thousands of families in the United States last season, and the garden habit seems to have become fixed with a large number of persons.

In most sections the late fall gardens were killed by frost and in many cases the debris still litters the ground.

Bean poles and tomato stakes, with their burden of frosted vines, are topped over and give the garden an unkempt and ragged appearance. Aside from the esthetic influence of cleaning up the garden, it is important that all rubbish and dead plants be removed and burned to protect the crops of next season from the insects and disease spores which infest the debris. A few hours of work in the garden now will save serious losses another year. Gather the bean poles, tomato stakes, and any removable trellises or wires, store the good ones until they are again needed; then pull, rake together, and burn all the dead vines and plants left in the garden. If these are too wet or green to burn, they may be gathered in small piles for a few days to dry and then piled together and burned.

Spread Manure.
Heavy clay soils should be broken up and left rough and lumpy before applying the manure. The kind of manure to use for this purpose is not important, so long as it is not filled with weed seeds or trash of any kind. Manure in which straw has been used for bedding can be taken direct from the stable and spread on the garden as a surface cover during the winter, the rough part being either plowed under in the spring or raked off and put in the compost heap.

Protecting Young Trees.
Experienced gardeners keep a compost heap going in one corner of the garden from one year's end to another, and all surplus manure and sod are placed in it. As a consequence, these gardeners always have a supply of good loam for preparing special plant beds or top-dressing a piece of land for the growing of lettuce or other intensive crop.

If there is a particularly good young apple tree or two in some part of the garden, do not fail to clean the grass or weeds away from its base and protect the trunk from mice and rabbits with fly screen or closely-woven galvanized wire. Thousands of young apple trees are lost every winter, in certain sections, from being gnawed by field mice and rabbits. As a rule, the mice work just at the surface of the ground, especially where grass and rubbish is left around the roots of the trees. Rabbits are more likely to gnaw the bark from the trunk above the ground, especially while there is a deep snow and they are prevented from getting green food on the ground. For this reason the protectors should extend at least two feet above ground and two inches under ground.

Fruit trees that have borne during the last year should be gone over, and all nummified fruits removed and burned. Any suckers or shoots which have grown up from the roots or on the trunk of the trees should be trimmed off. It also is a good plan to give the trees a thorough spraying with the Tamo's kill-spray.

Hi-Y Club

The first regular meeting of the Kerrville Hi-Y Club was held in the club-room at the school house, Tuesday evening, March 6th. A constitution was presented by a committee appointed for that purpose, but was not voted on for lack of members present. The report of the club-room committee, which suggested that the room be improved with fixtures, was approved. Various other committees were appointed, including a finance committee to raise the amount necessary for the improvement of the club-room.

A discussion, led by Mr. Harwood, our advisor, aroused much interest in the subject of "clean athletics," which will be continued at our next meeting. Through the efforts of Mr. Crate we have obtained Harry Runnier, a noted boys' evangelist, to speak on some early date, which will be announced later.

The public is invited to our next meeting, which will be held at the club-room, Tuesday evening, March 20th, at 7 o'clock. REPORTER.

A new type of examination for college students is being tried out at Columbia University. Instead of a few questions on the high spots of the course, the new examination consists of a number of statements concerning matters previously gone over, some of which are false and others true. The student makes a plus sign next to those he considers true and a minus mark beside the false. This affords no chance for the bluffer to exercise his art, as two-thirds of the examination consists of the new method.
