EASTERN STAR REPRESENTATIVES HOLD INTERESTING MEETING HERE

The Kerrville Chapter No. 24 of the Eastern Star entertained the District School of Instruction for the order Monday of this week. Sixty-one guests, representing eleven Chapters, were in attendance, among them twenty Present and Past Worthy Matrons.

The session opened Monday morning in the Court House with a study of secret work of the order. At 12:30 the visitors were guests at an elaborate luncheon served at Pampell's Hall by the Parent-Teachers' Club. At 2 o'clock the study class was resumed and stirring addresses were delivered by Alfred C. McDaniel of San Antonio, Most Worthy Grand Patron of the Most General Grand Chapter of America, and Mrs. Mary E. Roach of Dallas, Most Worthy Grand Matron. At this session eleven members of the Kerrville Chapter took examination and received certificates in the secret work.

The meeting assembled again at 8 p. m. and was opened by District Deputy Grand Matron Dena Morgan of Corpus Christi. The Kerrville Chapter exemplified in a most beautiful and impressive manner the work of initiation in the several degrees.

A committee on resolutions, composed of Mesdames Evelyn Hough, Ethel Mudge and Joe Davenport, submitted resolutions thanking the Kerrville Chapter for their gracious hospitality.

The Chapters represented were: Junction, Ozona, Center Point, Bandera, Nueces, San Benito, Fredericksburg, Ranford and the Arh, Adiant and Wimodansis Chapters from San Antonio.

The personnel of those who attended is as follows: Alfred C. McDaniel of San Antonio, Most Worthy Grand Patron of the Most General Grand Chapter of America; Mrs. Mary E. Roach of Dallas, Most Worthy Grand Matron; Mrs. Mabel Lee Eldridge of San Antonio, Worthy Grand Martha; Mrs. Dena Morgan of Corpus Christi, District Deputy Grand Matron; Mrs. W. R. Baggett and Mrs. Elizabeth Weber of San Antonio, Assistant District Deputies; Mrs. Lela Blackburn, Worthy Matron, and M. J. Nethery, Worthy Patron of the Junction Chapter; W. R. Baggett and Mrs. Lena Baggett, Ozona; Mrs. E. M. Mudge, Mrs. Vera James, Fay Stevenson, Beatrice Wright and Mrs. Minnie Motley, Junction; Dena C. Morgan, Nueces; Mrs. O. P. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO ELECT DIRECTORS FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, and those who desire to become members, are requested to meet in the club rooms Friday afternoon of this week at 4:30 o'clock, for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors to serve the ensuing year.

The ministers of Kerrville and the representatives of the American Legion Auxiliary, Red Cross and Civic League are requested to be present, as the general charity situation here will be discussed and some solution of it attempted.

It is evident to anyone that the manner in which charity is dispensed at present in Kerrville is very unsatisfactory as well as inadequate. All kinds of people are soliciting aid, and representatives are coming here regularly to secure contributions for different established institutions in places where they are supposed to draw their sustenance from the prescribed sections. All of this is an unjust tax on the people of Kerrville.

There is no desire to take over the work exclusively belonging to the Red Cross, American Legion Auxiliary, Civic League or any other special aid thought necessary, but to attend to the general and promiscuous charity work that is confronting us.

The Sun has heretofore attempted to outline a plan by which this work can be done, as an adjunct to the Chamber of Commerce, and thereby give some systematic way by which general charity can be economically handled. In this connection, it is desired to suggest that the ministers, representatives of the Red Cross, American Legion Auxiliary and Civic League be elected to membership in the Chamber of Commerce, without initiation fee or dues, and request these ministers and representatives of organizations named to take charge of the general charity work as an adjunct to the Chamber of Commerce, with one secretary to handle the clerical work necessary for both.

Let there be a large turnout Friday afternoon and let's proceed enthusiastically, systematically and energetically at the work to make Kerrville a larger, prettier and greater city, as well as take care of the general charity situation.

Former Kerrville Girl Marries

Miss Ethel Estelle Peril, daughter of the late Mrs. R. D. Peril of Kerrville, was married April 15th at San Antonio to Robert P. Corby of Clarkia, Idaho. The bride is also a niece of James A. Peril, County Commissioner, of the Reservation section. She is a graduate of Tivy High School and is a most estimable young lady.

Mr. Corby, the groom, formerly lived at Fredericksburg, and is a fine young man. The young couple have many friends in this section who wish them much joy and prosperity in their far away Western home, as they will reside at Clarkia, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Peril attended the wedding of their niece at San Antonio.

W. R. Baggett and wife of Ozona attended the Eastern Star meeting here Monday, Mrs. Baggett being Assistant Grand Deputy of this district.

HERBERT L. CRATE TALKS TO MEN'S CLUB ON "DANGER HOUR"

Dr. P. B. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, San Antonio, failed to fill his appointment to speak at the Presbyterian Men's Club Tuesday evening, which was much regretted. However, those present were highly entertained and edified by a talk on the "Danger Hour" by Herbert L. Crate, the Y. M. C. A. worker and manager of the Boys Camp up the Guadalupe River. Mr. Crate had only a short time for preparation, but that was not noticeable, as he brought out thoughts that included world-wide questions and also applicable locally.

Mr. Crate stated that he was very forcibly impressed with the "Danger Hour" when he was standing on a busy corner of a street in Dallas one evening at 6 o'clock as the people hurried from their places of employment and labors to the congested thoroughfare, and that from their remarks overheard, the thing that seemed uppermost in their minds was, "What will I do this evening?"

The speaker enlarged upon this thought, as to the importance of what those people did do for the next few hours before retiring to sleep and rest. It might indeed be the "Danger Hour" for many of them and change the whole current of their lives. He also said that this country was at its critical point of the "Danger Hour" as it readjusted itself from the great upheaval caused by the war. It also applied to the States of the Nation, and to the communities in these States, and to the communities in these countries, and finally, to the individual—the most important part of the structure. He stressed the great importance of the "Danger Hour" to the young people, in the decision of which so much was involved.

Chairman Will Garrett called for remarks on the talk made by Mr. Crate, and Miller Harwood told how it had impressed him, giving most interesting views. Judge Baker, Dr. Thompson and J. L. Tullis also made impromptu remarks, and each brought out different viewpoints of the variety of subjects and interests included in the "Danger Hour" to the world, Nation, States, counties and the individual.

In response to insistent requests, Dr. S. E. Thompson favored the club with a monologue, interspersed with melody, entitled, "Why a Nigger Don't Work." The Glees Club was so charmed with the Doctor's flute-like notes that he was invited to associate himself with them in the future.

Messrs. Robinson, Henke, Gold, Schmidt, E. E. and Walter Saenger, Bowen and Wall entertained with old favorites among the hymns and songs.

The following were introduced to the club as guests: Wm. Walk, R. Barry, J. W. Melton, W. B. Caldwell and D. I. Emerson of Marlin.

KERRVILLE ATHLETICS TAKE GRAY-BURG OIL CO. TEAM INTO CAMP

The Grayburg Oil Company of San Antonio proved no more of a stumbling block for the Athletics than the three other teams they have met on the diamond this year, and the locals won "under wraps," as a writer would say, by a score of 9 to 2.

While two errors, coupled with a hit, brought around two runs for the home team in the first inning, consecutive hard hitting, mixed with good judgment at bat and on the bases, brought four in the second, two in the fifth and one in the sixth.

The boys fattened up their batting averages with twelve hits for sixteen bases. Kuesel, Henke and Holchak (2) made extra base swats. Schneider, who opened the game for the oil men, lasted 'til the sixth inning, retiring in favor of Colpack, who had officiated at first up to that time. Seven men faced Colpack and although none of them struck out they failed to get the ball to where nobody was.

As evidence that the Athletics had no mercy for the ball and were not at all bothered by the unusual darkness, caused by lowering clouds, Schneider struck out but three men and gave first on two pitching errors, hitting Kuesel a healthy rap between the shoulder blades and passing Amberson. "Yah! yah!" They certainly "whaled the day lights" out of that ball.

In defense, the locals made the lot no safe place for the ball to be hit, and as for stealing, McCarty soon advised the visitors that second base wasn't there for any such purpose.

After Barry had whaled away six innings effectively, making six strikeouts and allowing but one hit, the event of the day was pulled.

Said event was the first appearance on the mound this season of Saenger, our own "Big Bill."

Bill started the seventh and things went skew-gaw for a brief period until the excitement caused by the change passed away. The oil boys got two runs around before Bill could strike three of them out. In the eighth they came up glowing, only to send a foul to Holchak and following it with two strike-outs. Saenger finished them in the ninth with two strikeouts and a strike-out. Yes, the oil boys are last put out, and that is generally due for them in the future.

where he was quite efficient last year, with Robinson second. Captain Holchak dropped himself to sixth and shifted Henke to fourth. Wilson, Kuesel and Barry made the circuit twice each.

Burns, a Kerrville reserve in uniform, was pressed into service as umpire and did the job well.

The consensus of the whole matter is that they have got to send up a better team than has yet been here to satisfy our curiosity as to just how much our boys can be depended upon.

Next Sunday at 3:30 the much touted team, pictured as winners and representing the San Antonio Express, will come, as they have plainly said, "For Kerrville's Scalp." Come out and see this scalping process in the making.

FOUR CATFISH, WEIGHING 137 POUNDS, CAUGHT AT MEDINA

J. M. Hamilton and the junior member of The Sun firm spent the weekend of last week fishing at Medina Lake, camping at Granville Wright's place.

Several nice strings of bass and crappie were caught, but the blue cats were not biting very much and only a few were taken from the trot line. However, the big catfish were on the job and four were landed which tipped the scales at 30, 32, 35 and 40 pounds, respectively, for a grand total of 137 pounds.

One of the big cats was presented to Thompson's Sanatorium and the other three butchered and divided among the friends of the lucky fishermen.

KU KLUX KLAN IN CORSIANA DISBANDED

Corsicana, Tex., April 20.—District Judge Hawkins Scarborough said this morning that he had received positive assurances from prominent members of the Ku Klux Klan that the organization here had disbanded. He has instructed the grand jury to make no further inquiries into the Klan or its membership and activities here.

Judge Scarborough assures the public that he has no doubt of the truth of the reported disbanding of the Klan and he will no longer hold in contempt of court parties who had refused to answer certain questions asked them by the grand jury.

No information as to who were members of the Klan or how many members it had is obtainable.

Surprise Dinner

On the evening of April 19th, Mr. and Mrs. Oehler of Sunset were given a surprise dinner, celebrating their silver wedding anniversary.

Eighty-five friends and relatives were present, who enjoyed a delicious spread on the lawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Oehler were given a beautiful silver set, which was presented by Rev. Bierschwalde immediately after dinner. Other appropriate gifts were received. Their many friends wish them many more years of happiness and prosperity.

We desire to thank our many friends for the pleasant surprise and silver given us on our 25th wedding anniversary.

MR. AND MRS. A. E. OEHLER.

A Lesson in Optimism

The following letter was received by George W. Walther, who represents the Sunshine Society in Kerrville:

Mr. George W. Walther, Kerrville, Tex.—Kind Friend: I am 60 years of age and six years ago I was suddenly stricken with paralysis in both my lower limbs, rendering them entirely useless to me only to look at occasionally. I am a printer by trade and not being forehanded with this world's goods I was forced to resort to public charity, and I came to the Overseas County Home near the shore of Lake Ontario, where I have remained ever since.

There are seventy-five inmates in this good old institution, many of whom are aged and decrepit and some are feeble minded. We enjoy the best of care and are daily fed with an abundance of well cooked food, well groomed and have a nice clean bed to sleep in at night, and have nothing to worry about.

I became a member of the Sunshine Society last January and have enjoyed life ever since. I have been flooded with reading matter and packages from all parts of the United States, and have one hundred and twenty-six shut-ins on my list of correspondence.

I am leading a Christian life, but seldom have anything to say along this line, as most shut-ins are sick and stand in fear of death and I think it imprudent to bore them with Bible tracts and other religious topics, but give them cheer and ridiculous acts of the human family instead. I am often accused of dispensing more real cheer than I receive, but that is impossible.

I do all my writing on a board down across the arms of my wheel chair, which I occupy from 5 a. m. until time to retire at night. I have not been out of doors in a whole year and do not expect to ever get out again, as my case has been pronounced incurable.

I hope to hear from you soon, Friend Walther. I am as cheerful and happy as a spring lamb.

Yours sincerely,
HARRY H. HATCH,
Mexico, N. Y.

TWENTY-TWO DROWN IN FLOOD; FORT WORTH WORST SUFFERER

North Texas has had an immense amount of rain the past week, and especially around Fort Worth there were two heavy precipitations, amounting in one instance to a water-spout. Twenty-two people are reported to have been drowned.

The levees on the Trinity River, protecting the city, gave way, and some think were dynamited, causing a flood that reached fifteen feet in many places.

Fort Worth was in darkness Monday night and without drinking water.

Dallas also had considerable damage from the flood.

NINE INCHES OF RAIN FALLS WITHIN SIX HOURS AT REAL COUNTY TOWN

Camp Wood, Real County, Tex., April 25.—Nine inches of rain fell here between 8:30 o'clock last night and 2:30 o'clock this morning, the heaviest rainfall ever recorded in this vicinity. There is no telephone communication to the south of here and the damage cannot be ascertained.

Reports reaching here say that 1 1/2 inches of rain fell at Rocksprings, Edwards County, and at Sonora, Sutton County, it is reported that a Mexican was drowned following a heavy rain there.

10-INCH RAIN PUTS SABINAL AND FRIO UP 25 FEET

Sabinal, Tex., April 25.—There was a 10-inch rain at Utopia and north in the Sabinal-Frio Canyon, which put the Sabinal and Frio Rivers on a 25-foot rise, causing quite a bit of damage to live stock. This was especially true of the road graders who were camped along the river. There was no rain below Utopia except a light shower. The men had their camps pitched along the river bed, not thinking of there being any danger until they were awakened in the night by the roar of the water and found their camps flooded.

A number of wagons were swept away, however, and one young man, McBurnette, was washed down the river, where he was found about 8 o'clock this morning 12 miles from camp. He lodged in a tree about 4 o'clock and remained there until 8. He says he had a huge rattlesnake for company part of the time.

There was quite a bit of excitement and anxiety felt in town when the news first came, as the camps are located at the three crossings between here and Utopia; and there is no way of reaching them until the river goes down, which it generally does, in a few hours. A number of men went out to look for what was thought at first a number who could not be found, but they are all accounted for now and none of them suffered any injuries.

WORST QUAKE IN 30 YEARS ROCKS TOKIO; CITY IN PANIC

Tokio, April 26.—The most violent earthquake in thirty years shook Tokio at 10 o'clock this morning. The earth vibrations continued for two minutes.

The populace rushed into the streets in terror, but so far no casualties have been reported.

The center of the quake appeared to be within the city limits of Tokio.

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY FLOODED; GOVERNMENT GIVES MILLION

The Mississippi River is higher than for many years and levees have broken that have heretofore stood the high gorges. Thousands of acres of land have been overflowed and hundreds of families had to flee to places of safety.

The Government appropriated one million dollars for immediate use to aid the sufferers and provide funds to combat the extra high water. Army depots have sent thousands of sacks of sand to assist in holding the levees and filling gaps, while thousands of laborers are constantly fighting the onrushing flood.

Rimmer Meetings Postponed

Too bad, fellows, Harry Rimmer can't come for another thirty days. We received a telegram Tuesday, saying that it would be impossible for him to be here on May 4th.

However, we were notified that it could be arranged for him to be here some time early in June, so all preparations have just been carried over until definite announcement is made as to the exact date.

The intense interest and enthusiasm attending the coming of Mr. Rimmer is an indication of the value the men and boys of the surrounding country place on such things, and the fullest co-operation awaits the H-Y Club of Kerrville when they definitely secure his attendance.

American Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. G. M. Doyle was hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary Friday afternoon of last week. Routine business was transacted, and reports from the various committees read and approved.

On account of ill health, Mrs. Charles Mason tendered her resignation as president of the Auxiliary, which was accepted with regret by the body and a rising vote of thanks and appreciation of the excellent work she has accomplished while in office were given, together with the sincere wish of every member that she may soon be restored to health and strength.

Mrs. E. E. Palmer succeeds her as president; Mrs. J. S. Wheelless becomes first vice president; Mrs. A. B. Williamson, second vice president, and Mrs. J. D. Jackson, third vice president. A Welfare Committee was announced with Mrs. Ola Gammon, Mrs. Lee Mason and Mrs. W. A. Lochte as members; no other changes were made in the committees that had been appointed by the former president.

The work of the organization is progressing, new members are enrolled at every meeting, and the new club rooms will be furnished and ready for use at the next meeting.

Brighter for Wool

Boston, April 24.—The wool market gave promise of increased activity during the week with higher prices. The resumption of shearing, halted by bad weather in the West, is adding a stimulus to the market, as is the strength of the Australian markets.

The London auction sales, scheduled to begin in two weeks, promise to see considerable buying for American account. Interest is centering more around half-blood and three eighths blood grades.

OUTDOOR PLAY SATURDAY

The biggest Notre Dame dramatic performance of the year will take place this Saturday at 7:30 p. m., unless inclement weather should cause a postponement till the following Monday night. The outdoor entertainment is in the nature of a May Fete with the be-ribboned pole, fairies, May dances and all concomitants. Tickets will be sold for 15 cents to children and 25 cents to adults. The selling committee has so instructed the solicitors that there will be no hap-hazard, conflicting and molesting canvassing. All proceeds go back to the children to defray the expenses of their annual school picnic for themselves and their parents.

The first week of May has been designated as Physical Culture Week, and also as Catholic College Week. Over 1,951,000 students in 8,706 Catholic educational institutions in this country will join in this campaign. To promote the cause of higher education our Sisters are offering two four-year scholarships at the Incarnate Word College on Alamo Heights, San Antonio. In this contest our Notre Dame pupils are eligible.

On the 11th of June, our Sisters will start the Summer Normal, authorized by the Texas Board of Education. Since our own Commencement will take place on Ascension Thursday, May 25th, the Kerrville faculty will have time to enroll in this accredited college and pursue their post-graduate specialties. Although our nuns are not permitted to wear their degrees, none are exempt from reaching this standard.

At the State Clothing Contest, to be held this week in Houston, some of our girls will have garments on display. Needlecraft is included free of charge for every girl at Notre Dame.

Junior Musicals

An octette of aspiring pianists gave a recital to the Notre Dame faculty and visitors on Saturday. Each little musician prefaced her playing with a short biography of the composer, and a critical interpretation of the work. Miss Velma Brown easily won the first prize and Miss Madeline Peterson was accorded the second place.

The following program, arranged by the novices, gives some idea of the musical training offered at our conservatory:

1. Imelda Boudreaux played Godowsky's "French Suite" and Shumann's "Slumber Song."
2. Imogene Ewing played Thome's "Melody" and Lichner's "Andante."
3. Helen Ahnert played "The Smile of Spring" by Oesten and "The Humming Bird" by Guest.

4. Cecilia Boudreaux played "Spring Suite" by Ieurence and "Etude" by Matthews.

5. Madeline Peterson played "Sanc Souci" by Powers and "Nocturne" by Huenton.

6. Schubert's "Minuet" was played by Margaret Rose Cross.

7. Beethoven's "Minuet in G" was played by Velma Brown, who also played "Afternoon Peace" by Jensen.

8. Schubert's "Wandered" was played by Ruth Nyc.

General Grant's Centenary

The one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Gen. U. S. Grant will be commemorated on Thursday with a scholarly arranged program. Essays have been assigned to the History and English classes, which will cover the biography of this President from various angles.

On San Jacinto Day no classes were taught at the Mexican or American school. Our Mexican fellow-citizens are too loyal to Old Glory to regret the downfall of Santa Anna. At Notre Dame, on the eve of San Jacinto, the Senior Latin students divided into two sides under General Houston and General Santa Anna, but the latter, contrary to all history, carried away the palm of victory.

It was a keen pleasure for all Notre Dame students on Monday to surprise the Mother Superioress with the celebration of her name's day, St. Lasarian. High Mass was sung in the Convent Chapel to honor this seventh century Primate of Ireland.

Sr. Bridget Mary spent ten days in San Antonio at Santa Rosa Infirmary and returned on Sunday with Sr. Aimee, a cultured Christian educator from France. This guest will remain with us for several weeks to enjoy our invigorating climate.

By Father Kemper

HISTORICAL FUNERAL

A burial of Nation-wide interest occurred here on San Jacinto Day when probably the last of our transported soldier dead was laid in his final resting place on American soil, in whose defense he had heroically shed his last drop of blood. The flag-bedecked bier of Francisco Lemos, one of Kerrville's patriotic trio, arrived in Kerrville under military escort on Tuesday. A delegation of local Knights of Columbus was at the depot to accompany the mortal remains to Ward's undertaking parlor. Here it lay in safe-keeping till Thursday evening, when it was transferred to the Guadalupe church for an all-night vigil of prayer by his compatriots.

On the anniversary of Texas' most decisive battle the memorable obsequies were conducted. At the Mexican Church a line of autos, about five blocks long, got into formation with members of the local American Legion at the head, closely followed by the nearest relatives of the fallen hero, whose coffin was covered with over two dozen floral tributes. Behind the hearse came the American mourners, both Catholic and non-Catholic, and thereafter the Mexican parishioners, with a large truck load of the Guadalupe school children.

Many of the autos were adorned with the National colors of this country and of our sister republic. The Notre Dame car was draped with our Catholic service flag of 62 lustrous stars, including two chaplain crosses of former Kerrville pastors. The Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, both here and in San Antonio, donated beautiful bouquets. A large cross of fresh-cut roses was contributed by the Notre Dame pupils.

After the ritual in church was performed, the cortege proceeded down Francisco Lemos Street to the Old Spanish Trail, or Water Street, and down this principal highway to Earl Garrett Street, thence via Sidney Baker Street to the Mountain View Cemetery on the Fredricksburg Road, thus paying tribute to all three Kerrville boys.

Judge W. C. Baker ascended the freshly made mound of earth, overlooking Francisco's last trench, and delivered a brief, sympathetic address.

The Mexican and American children sang a stanza of our National hymn, "The Star Spangled Banner," and then Rev. G. M. Macdougall, as chaplain of the local post, developed the appropriate theme: "Dulce et decorum est pro patria mori" (It is sweet and pleasant to die for one's country).

On the conclusion of this admirable discourse the Notre Dame pupils sang "For God and Country." Father Kemper then proceeded to bless the grave, having previously called attention to the fact that the slain warrior gave up his life for no hazy concept, but for very sharply defined principles well worth treasuring, such as religious liberty and fair-play to all, which citizens, deserving the name, should defend with bullet and ballot.

The Mexican congregation then sang their national hymn to Our Lady of Guadalupe, and a veteran bugler blew taps for one whom all Kerrvillites will be proud to meet again at the "Final Bugle Call."

Guadalupe Entertainment
A dramatic and musical program was rendered by the Mexican children in their school auditorium on Saturday night for the amusement of their parents and friends. The principal number was a Spanish comedy enacted by the boys, in which the character role is taught the evil of "Laziness and Indolence." Another allegorical operetta, but of a more serious strain, was the girls' characterization of "Faith, Hope and Charity." Outside of these dramatizations, the rest of the performance was entirely in English.

A welcome song started off the hour of fun with vim and enthusiasm. Four swarthy boot-blacks kept the audience in laughter with their humorous quartette. "Old Black Joe" was saved for a negro concluding song.

Little Maria Torres measured up to her exceptional high standard in her action solo, depicting a make-believe mother putting her dollie to bed. Maria reappeared in a dialogue with Teresita Castillo. Her sister, Carmen Torres, played a piano solo.

The choicest melody of the evening was the duet sung by Genoveva Sanchez and Trinidad Zamorra. Mrs. Delfina Torres proved very helpful in the successful rendition of the play. She was generously aided by Ramon Castillo, Jesus Sanchez and a crowd of volunteer co-workers.

Friday Social
Favored with an alternating orchestra, the entertainment committee of St. Mary's Auxiliary was able to hold a most enjoyable evening at their last gathering in Washington Hall. The Fisk Orchestra took turns with the talented musicians of Frank Michon's family. A free-will offering was spontaneously collected. Young couples and strangers, who did not care to dance, amused themselves in card games.

On account of the May Play, scheduled for this Saturday at 7:30 p. m., the customary Friday social will be omitted this week. In the near future the Brownson Literary Circle will take their turn to do the entertaining. These weekly parish assemblies are private affairs, to which outsiders are permitted only by invitation. The sergeant-at-arms has been instructed to enforce this regulation of the Auxiliary in order to keep their socials at a high standard.

This Sunday, owing to the monthly engagement at Comfort, the holy sacrifice of mass will be celebrated in the Convent Chapel at 7 a. m.

Last week the infant daughter of Percy Bowles was baptized and also the son of Luis Reina.

We were honored on Easter Monday by a visit from Rev. J. T. Lockwood of Sacred Heart Church, San Antonio. He motored here with one of his converts, Albert Ray. Both were amazed at the up-to-date conveniences at Notre Dame, and the thoroughly modern dormitory building.

Personals
Miss Mary DeZavala returned to the Mission City. Her sister, Adina, donated to the Notre Dame library an autographed biography of her illustrious grandfather, Gen. Lorenzo DeZavala, who designed the Texas flag and was the wealthiest signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence.

Reaction from her recent operation caused Miss Katie Mae Carpenter to discontinue her studies at the Texas University until the fall term. She comes back to Kerrville in time to help her parents move to the home that Mr. Carpenter has recently purchased.

J. O. Boudreaux, manager of the Beaumont Rice Mills, is visiting his invalid wife, and his two daughters, who are boarders at the Convent.

Kerrville friends of Mrs. Hugh B. Rice, will be glad to learn that her little daughter, Shevann (Irish for Jeanette), was cured by the zone therapy, Dr. W. B. Thompson, at the Majestic Theater last Monday. It will be remembered that while the youngster spent her summers with us, she suffered with paralysis of all the toes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Horney of Schroeder, Texas, are taking a little vacation in our Hill Country as guests of John Kolodzey.

The San Antonio Fiesta alured many a parishioner to the Battle of Flowers and Carnival. Mrs. Wm. S. Farrish and her daughter, Margie, spent several days with their old acquaintances in the Alamo City.

Those having the misfortune to suffer from backache, urinary disorders, kidney, dropsical swellings, rheumatic pains, or other kidney and bladder disorders, will read with gratification this encouraging statement by a Kerrville man.

Frank Michon, City Marshal, Broadway, Kerrville, says: "My kidneys were out of order and every time I got wet or took cold, it settled on my kidneys. I had a soreness and a dull ache in the small of my back that worried me, and my kidneys didn't act right. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, bought at the Rock Pharmacy, and they soon fixed me up in good shape, the backaches left and my kidneys were regulated. I am always glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for I know they are just as represented."

Surprise Birthday Party

Friday evening of last week Mrs. J. B. Holt and Miss Edith Tullis entertained the members of the Senior E. Y. P. U. at the home of Mrs. Holt, in compliment to Miss Faye Turley, in honor of her birthday. The party was a surprise to Miss Turley.

The first part of the evening progressive games were enjoyed. After this a ball of twine was given to the honoree and she was instructed to follow where the twine led her. She had to make a trip over the entire house, in corners and out, but was finally led to a back bedroom, where the twine was tied to a table, on which were many pretty gifts from the members of the E. Y. P. U.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to twenty. A delightful time was spent by all present, and the guests departed at a late hour wishing Miss Turley many happy birthdays.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
J. GRADY TIMMONS

Last Sunday was in many respects the most satisfactory and happy day that we have spent in Kerrville. The Sunday School was large in spite of the fact that a heavy drizzle of rain fell continually during the hour. The preaching services for both hours were crowded. At the morning hours we had five additions to the membership of the church. Those who came to us were: H. T. Paul, Earl Nance, Mrs. Marx, Mrs. Sam Bode and Mrs. L. T. Davis. We also had the happy pleasure of baptizing the beautiful baby of Brother and Sister Bode. At the evening hour we were happy to have with us Dr. G. M. Macdougall and a number of his good people. It was a pleasure to have them with us and we cordially invite them to be with us any time they can. The young people's societies had fine programs Sunday and large numbers attended their services.

The program for next Sunday is as follows:

The Sunday School begins promptly at 9:45 a. m. The lesson will be cut short so as to begin the Sunday School Day program by 10:30 a. m. This program promises to be very fine in every way. There will be no preaching service at the morning hour due to the fact that the Sunday School program will occupy that time or at least the major portion of it. This will be an attractive program and the Sunday School extends to all who are interested a cordial and welcome invitation to be with them at this hour. There will be some especially attractive numbers that you cannot afford to miss. To miss them will be your loss. So come and show your interest in this work and be greatly helped by the occasion.

The Junior League meets at 3:30 p. m. This department is doing very fine work and we are justly proud of its achievements.

The Senior League meets at 7:15 p. m. The program for the Senior League follows: Subject, "Better Leadership." The leader is Herman Rees. The Scripture lesson is taken from the twenty-seventh chapter of the Book of Numbers and from the fifteenth to the twenty-third verses, inclusive. The topic of "Easily Satisfied" will be discussed by Horace Starkey; "This One Thing I Do," Miss Maggie Lowrance; "Leadership Must Be Developed," D. H. Comparette Jr.; "Captains Were First Privates," Carllette Tarver; "The Cost of Leadership," C. W. Moore; a reading, "Don't Be a Drifter," by Amy Arno; closing song, "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," and the League Benediction.

The Woman's Missionary Society meets at 3 p. m. each Tuesday. The Prayer Service meets at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday of each week, and choir practice follows immediately.

On next Sunday night, April 30th, at 7:45 o'clock, we have a special treat in store for you. There will be an old fashioned "Sing-Song" and then Dr. G. M. Macdougall, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, will preach to us. You will be interested in this service and we fully expect a large congregation to be present. Come and enjoy the singing and the sermon by Dr. Macdougall.

Woman's Missionary Society Program
On Tuesday of last week Mrs. E. H. Prescott very charmingly entertained the Woman's Missionary Society in her beautiful home for her aunt, Miss Carrie Tuttle. The program rendered was as follows: Subject, "Monterrey, Mexico"; leader, Mrs. D. H. Comparette; "Monterrey, An Industrial Center of Mexico," Mrs. C. W.

Moore; solo, Mrs. J. Grady Timmons; "Seeking a Complete Gospel for Monterrey Through—1. The Ingles Espanol," Mrs. Ernest Boeckmann; 2. "Laurens Institute," Mrs. W. D. Rees; 3. "Monterrey Hospital," Mrs. W. B. Powell, and 4. "Centro Cristiano," Mrs. Ewing; "The Story of Eliza's Conversion," Mrs. Alice Starkey, and a splendid reading was enjoyed by all, given by Miss Edith Tullis.

At the conclusion of this program a very delicious salad course was served by Mrs. Prescott, assisted by Mrs. Lee Wallace. It was a happy occasion and enjoyed by all present.

FLAPPERS' FLAPJACKS
GOOD THING TO FLAP
SAYS GIRL PREACHER

Miami, Okla., April 21.—Miss Ora Stoddard, the 13-year-old licensed Methodist preacher of Miami, told her sisters that if they must flap they should first learn to bake flapjacks. Here is her advice to girls: Don't accept dates unless mother approves. Don't forget that skirts are more than girdles. Don't smoke because young men are silly enough to do it. Don't trade your beauty for a good time.

She added that lipstick don't make up for burned potatoes and that more Bible reading and less high jinking is a safe plan. "If you must flap learn to bake flapjacks," she said.

Baptist Woman's Missionary Union

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lou Wharton. There were twenty members present, also the pastor, Rev. J. B. Holt.

The subject for discussion was "The 75 Million Campaign." Miss Edith Tullis was leader, assisted on the program by Mesdames Jack Moore, J. B. Holt, Watson, J. L. Tullis and Miss Tudie Stinson. The program proved very interesting, full of information and inspiration.

During the social hour Mrs. Wharton served cocoa and cake.

The next meeting will be the regular business meeting and will be held at the church on Monday afternoon instead of Tuesday. This will be the time for the annual election of officers. Every member is urged to be present.

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
J. B. HOLT, Pastor

It was remarkable and splendid that every one who joined the church by experience during the meeting came for baptism Wednesday night of last week. Preceding the administration of this beautiful and meaningful resurrection ordinance and picture, Mr. Kindley of the Cadmean Chautauqua gave a most helpful lecture on "The Boy in His Teens." The house was filled and everybody enjoyed and was blessed by the service.

Our prayer and hope is that our new members may be all that the Savior would have them be. May they be true to Him in every point of the ground of Christian service and living.

The meetings Sunday were good in spite of the clouds and showers. Mrs. Eric Pennal of Winona, Texas, joined our church by letter at the evening service. We cordially welcome her into our membership.

The Fifth Sunday Meeting of the Medina River Association will convene at Bandera Friday night of this week, to continue through Sunday. The pastor will be absent from his pulpit Sunday morning, but will be back for the evening service.

Come and worship with us. We want you.

RIDGEWAY FOR STATE SENATOR

T. H. Ridgeway, who now holds the office of City Attorney of San Antonio, Texas, has announced his candidacy for the office of State Senator for the 24th Senatorial District, composed of the Counties of Bexar, Kerr, Bandera, Real, Kendall and Gillespie. Mr. Ridgeway is 48 years of age, and has been practicing law for twenty-five years, and has resided in Bexar County for twenty years. He taught school two years before entering the law practice. He was raised on a farm in Missouri, and for some years past has been interested in farming, stock raising and pecan culture near San Antonio. Mr. Ridgeway, in speaking of his candidacy, said:

"I will favor a law establishing a number of purely agricultural schools located at different places in Texas, one of which must be in the 24th Senatorial District, where scientific farming and stock raising are taught. Such schools ought to be made accessible to every farmer who desires to gain expert knowledge in farming and stock raising. I will also go the limit in supporting all measures for the betterment of our public schools, and for the establishment of good roads. I regard good schools and good roads as the two most essential things in the development of our country.

"I also favor and will use my best efforts to secure the passage of a law equalizing taxes for the State and public free school purposes. Under the present system, the rich black land counties of North Texas are not paying their just proportion of State taxes. For some years past, the Legislature has been appropriating large sums of money for the aid of rural schools, but under the peculiar provisions of the law, the rich black land counties of North Texas have been getting practically all of the money, and the South Texas counties have been getting very little of it. The last Legislature appropriated the sum of $2,500,000 for the aid of rural schools for the years of 1921 and 1922, and while the South Texas counties are helping pay this money, the black land counties of North Texas are getting the benefit of it."

Second Kerrville Ball Team

The Kerrville second baseball team met with its first defeat of the season last Sunday by the fast Junction first team, the score being 9 to 6. The local team tried hard to win, but errors and a hit in a pinch proved too much.

In co-operation with the Kerrville first team, the second team has agreed to play all of their games outside of town. This is an independent organization composed entirely of home boys, and any interest taken in their future as a club will be appreciated. So far, we have won three games and lost one.

We have not learned the particulars as the wires are down between here and Mason Creek where these people live. They have the sympathy of their numerous friends and relatives here.

The graduating class of the Center Point High School gave their class play last Saturday night, entitled "And Home Came Ted." This was a high class detective story played in three acts. The young people did exceedingly well and reflected much credit upon those who drilled them. The school auditorium was filled to capacity by friends and patrons of the school. The net proceeds of the play was $86.70.

At the Center Point Theater last Friday afternoon and night, E. B. Leigh gave a complimentary show entitled "The Story of Coal," which was preceded by a two-reel comedy. This performance was given to the school children in the afternoon and to the adults at night. The show was

GIRLS' RESERVE

The young ladies of Tivy High School, with the aid of Mrs. Wilson of the San Antonio Y. W. C. A., organized a Girls' Reserve April 14th. The following officers were elected: Mary Claire Williams, president; Euola Klein, vice president; Pauline Bowden, secretary; Valma Spence, treasurer, and Willie Holdsworth, reporter. The charter members were all initiated after officers were elected, and Mrs. Wilson is taking great interest with the club, helping our advisor, Miss Blanche Moore. Mrs. J. D. Jackson is our community advisor.

Last Friday a pep meeting was held in the High School Auditorium. The minutes and roll call were read, after which the president appointed four committees in charge of the following: Social, Margaret Morris; membership, Euola Klein; program, Anna Neblett Thorburn, and service, Minnie Dietert. Annie Neblett Thorburn, Ruth Mosty and Annie Claire Enderle were elected to draw up the constitution. Annie Claire Enderle was given the offices as yell leader and pianist. First to establish the $10.90 price—"Usco"

THE makers of U. S. Tires made this announcement last November—

"Hereafter the price of the 30 x 3 1/2 'Usco' is $10.90."

The lowest price ever quoted on a tire of quality reputation and standard performance.

And now, with the opening of Spring, there seem to be quite a number of "New and Special tires" coming into the market in the $10.90 price range.

Perhaps you are wondering just what there can be either "new" or "special" about these tires.

It can't be the $10.90 price—"Usco" established that five months ago.

Nor quality reputation and standard performance—for it takes more than one full season for any new tire to demonstrate where it stands in quality and value.

With so many tires rushing into this $10.90 price field (now that the season promises business from the American car-owner), it is worth remembering that "Usco" showed its good faith by announcing this price last fall.

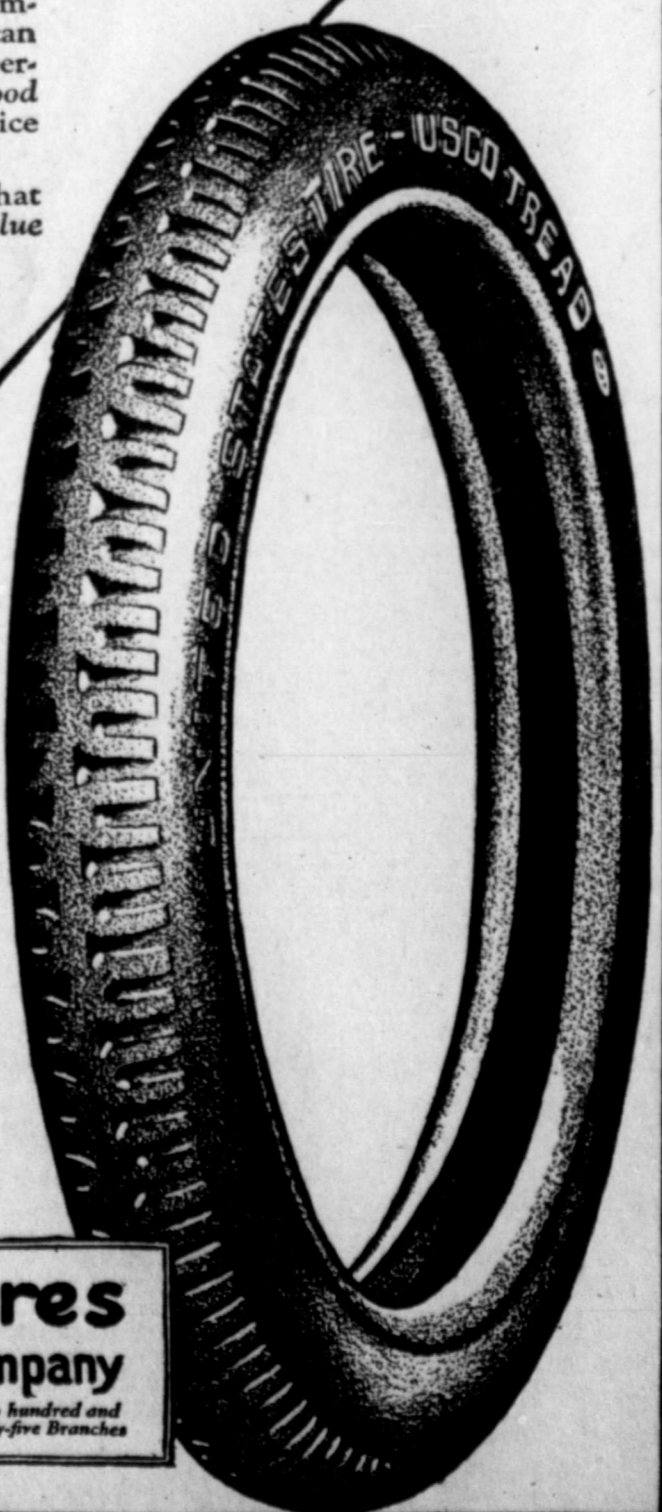

The same intent to serve that has made "Usco" a standard value for years.

The "Usco" Tire was never better than it is today—with its established quality, its time-tested performance, and its price closely figured in tune with the times.

EX-WARDEN SPEAKS.

Daniel Woodward of Wisconsin
Tells of Experiences in Penitentiary.

"My Term in the Penitentiary," not in stripes, but sitting at the desk as the commander in chief, will be an extraordinary feature of the Chautauqua. How many know what goes on behind prison walls? Each taxpayer pays a large sum each year for the maintenance of law and order and for the support of the Educational and Penal institutions of the state. Is this money wisely spent? Is the objectionable person in the community given the proper care in the home town and in the Reform School or Penitentiary if he is sent there? Does the criminal come out from the House of Correction with a resolve to do better, or does he come out to get even with society for confining him in this miserable place of maltreatment? Does he do enough work to make him worthy of his hire? Does he have an atmosphere around him of better living or is he forced to associate with others who are worse than himself? All these and many other interesting facts will be discussed by Warden Woodward, who made such a success while at the head of the Wisconsin Penitentiary. During his term, the institution was put on practically a self supporting basis. His record is unique and his appearance on a Chautauqua program is to be welcomed.

DORIS TUTTLE

This breezy costume of the Philippine islands worn by this charming lady will be one of the attractive features of the Last Day program. Miss Tuttle plays a ukelele-not just picks a few chords now and then but an est-to-goodness plays it. Hear her at Chautauqua

AEOLIAN ENTERTAINERS.

LUCILE ELMORE.

A Clever Pair of Girls. Something different has been the plea of Chautauqua audiences for the last few seasons, and when Lucile Elmore appears, that's what you'll see—only about as big as a minute but with the force of a 16-inch gun. Good looking—decide for yourself, but clever—we'll say she is. When she comes dressed as a boy you'll absolutely claim its a boy on the platform—when she impersonates a little girl, you'll wonder how she could make a boy out of herself. When she appears as the village deacon—oh, boy, its a scream. Artistic to the finger tips, yet funny enough to make a mummy laugh. Her partner, too, is a good running mate—no use in making comparisons. Make them for yourself. Their program is flashy, bright, ever-changing and with the rapidity of the wind, as their name designates.

Birthday Party

Miss Lula Wesch was hostess to a number of friends on Tuesday afternoon of last week in honor of her 13th birthday anniversary. Games of all kinds were played and readings by several of the guests were enjoyed. In the drawing contest Miss Cleora Love was awarded first prize, a pretty Easter basket, and Miss Ruth Morris was given a large stick of candy as the booby prize.

A beautiful bouquet of roses and bridal wreath occupied the center of the table in the dining room, where all were invited to assist in cutting the birthday cake with its thirteen lighted candles, and partake of the refreshments of fruit punch and cake.

The hostess was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Her guests included Misses Thelma Taylor, Mary Louise Gardner, Elizabeth Eastland, Kate Knox, Elsa Bee Henke, Florence and Marie Speckels, Gertrude Beitel, Cleora Love, Edith Schulze, Velma Brown, Ruth Morris, Annie Laurie New, Annie Laurei Garrett, Beulah Adkins, Hazel Hagens, Margaret Merle Morriss, Aimee Louise Schmerback, Mita and Mollie Miller, Mattie Durley, Vera Wheeler, Estella Hagens, Theodosia Wall, Mildred Richerson, and L. T. Davis, Dean Wilson and A. F. McClellan.

Mrs. Wesch was assisted in entertaining by Mesdames D. N. Wilson and L. T. Davis, and Miss Mae Davey.
