KERRVILLE'S TOURIST CAMP IS CONSIDERED BEST ONE VISITED

There have been numerous visitors at Kerrville's Tourist Camp since our last report, and everyone who has been there are very complimentary in their praise of it, but not so many leave these expressions in writing, though enough do so to make us feel proud that we have such a desirable place for the pleasure of tourists.

Within the past few weeks the tourists have spent several hundred dollars that have been kept on the blanks furnished, while as much more has been spent of which no account is made. Just from a financial standpoint the Tourist Camp is a paying proposition to Kerrville.

With the seven electric lights furnished by Dick Eastland the Camp looks so much enticing, and the liberal donor who would not allow his name used is often kindly remembered by the guests and our citizens for furnishing the money to put the electric line to the Camp.

The following are a few of the expressions from visitors to Kerrville's Tourist Camp:

J. M. Griffith, Alice: "Had a good time."

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Davis, Lufkin: "Best camp we ever visited."

F. L. Taylor and party of Elgin and Austin: "Tourist camp is fine—accommodations and treatment splendid."

T. A. Humphries, Alvin: "Fine park; no mosquitos; accommodations very good; will find your park too small in a few years."

Jno. W. Davis, wife and boy, Fort Worth: "Excellent in every way. One of the best ever visited in more than six weeks. 'Fording' public should appreciate Kerrville's Auto Tourist Park."

DRAG-NET INJUNCTION GRANTED BY U. S. COURT AGAINST STRIKERS

Attorney General Daugherty secured a drag-net injunction from Federal Judge James H. Wilkinson at Chicago last Friday. There was such secrecy surrounding the move that many prominent officials in Washington knew nothing about it, and it took the union officials and strikers completely by surprise.

The temporary injunction is granted until September 11th, when there will be a hearing to see if it be made permanent. The unions and strikers will be represented and hope to defeat the application for a permanent injunction, which would prevent them from doing anything in the way of picketing, persuading men to cease work, contributing to those on strike, the holding of meetings, parades, issuing of manifestos, or to aid in any way the strikers or to interfere with those at work for the railroads.

It is stated that President Harding has carefully considered the course taken and has the advice of the ablest men in his Cabinet and the country. It is determined to have the railroads operated, and to maintain the supremacy of the law.

Samuel Gompers, president of the Federation of Labor, defies the injunction, as do lesser labor leaders. The expressions of some of them are extremely radical and are no doubt in violation of the injunction. It is to be the policy of the Administration to proceed cautiously and give the union leaders and strikers a chance to reconcile themselves to the order of the court granting the injunction, but, if necessary, the whole power of the Government will be invoked to carry out the mandates of the United States Judge.

STOCK AND GRAIN JUDGING FOR KERR COUNTY CLUB BOYS

Tuesday and Wednesday, September 12th and 13th, we will give the boys a whole day and a half of stock judging lessons. There will also be some grain judging along with the stock judging.

We will give training in judging beef cattle, dairy cattle, both Holstein and Jersey, hogs, sheep and goats. In the grain judging, we will have corn, kafir, feterita and perhaps maize.

I would be glad to have every man and woman in the county, who is at all interested in the boys, to come and see what kind of training they are getting.

We will all meet at the Court House yard in Kerrville, at 2 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, September 12th.

C. S. Evans, Assisstant Boy Club Agent from the A. & M. College, will have charge of the judging.

J. A. OSWALT, County Agent.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION MET TUESDAY AT SAN ANTONIO

The Democratic State Convention met Tuesday at San Antonio. Marshall Hicks was chosen as chairman. The convention was quite harmonious and the platform will not have any direct reference to the Ku Klux Klan, though it was expected to be brought out in debate Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Decca Lamar West of McLennan County put Governor Neff in nomination for re-election. The Governor replied in an appropriate and eloquent speech of acceptance.

Mrs. Edith Wilmans, Dallas County, and legislator elect, placed the name of Mayfield before the convention. Mrs. Wilmans told of the prohibition and suffrage record of the candidate, bringing wild cheering from the floor.

A more comprehensive report will be deferred until next week.

Schreiner-Champ

Walter S. Schreiner of Kerrville and Miss Myrtle Champ were married in New York City, Thursday, August 31st, according to a telegram received by L. A. Schreiner on that date. We understand that the bride is a Texas girl, but had arranged to meet Mr. Schreiner in New York for the wedding.

The groom is the youngest son of Capt. Charles Schreiner of this city. He is a popular and worthy man, and has many friends in the communities in which he has lived—in Kerrville, San Antonio, and among the people who have lived neighbor to him on the Live Oak, James River and Sawyer Ranches. Mr. Schreiner is a brother of Mrs. W. C. Riebsby, Mrs. Hiram Partee and Mrs. S. F. Jeffers and C. A. Schreiner, all of San Antonio, and of A. C. Gus F. and L. A. Schreiner of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schreiner will make their home on the ranch of Mr. Schreiner, known as the Sawyer, and their many friends join The Sun in wishing them all the joy and happiness that is possible for them, while they are extended a most cordial welcome.

Ocean to Ocean Airplane Trip

Lieut. James H. Doolittle, stationed at Kelly Field, San Antonio, made a trip of 2,275 miles, from near Jacksonville, Fla., to San Diego, Calif., in 21 hours and 18 minutes flying time, and 22 hours and 31 minutes actual time elapsed. He made one stop, which was at Kelly Field, Tuesday morning, when he took breakfast with his family. He made an average speed of 100 miles an hour and was not fagged out at the close of the journey.

It is the longest and quickest flight yet made in an airplane in this country. He crossed the Florida swamps at night, leaving Jacksonville at 10:03 Eastern time and arrived next day at San Diego at 5:34 p. m., Western time.

Engineer VonZeubin of Fort Worth is making a complete survey of the physical condition of the water works system and when he makes his report to the City Commission we will publish his findings. We are advised that there will have to be more adequate pumping facilities, as well as larger mains, as our increased population demand a greater supply of water than the present facilities can accommodate.

Star Bryden, the "Kodak Chap," who came here nine years ago a very sick man, is leaving next Saturday for Chattanooga, Tenn., and expects to make the entire trip of 1,100 miles on his bicycle. He says if Doolittle can make his coast to coast trip in 21 hours he can make his 1,100-mile trip in 21 days. He will take his Kodak outfit with him and make pictures on the trails over which he will travel.

RODEO STUNTS BY HOME BOYS ENTERTAINING FEATURES OF FAIR

Rodeo stunts each day of the Fair between the races, put on by home boys, were entertaining features and thoroughly enjoyed. Those participating were Carl Secrest, Charlie Sherman, Earl Howell, Charlie Dickey, Emil Habecker, Alvin Moos, John Stone and Duncan Roberts. These boys rode bucking horses, mules, cows and steers. It was certainly a fine exhibition of riding and showed considerable prowess in the handling of these unruly and obstreperous animals.

The third and last day of the Fair was not as well attended as the second, but more there than the first day. There were five races and some of them were close and exciting.

The Kerrville Athletics played a second game of ball with the Comfort team and were defeated by the score of 6 to 1, making it an even break as Kerrville had won the previous game. Bill Saenger pitched the entire nine innings for the home boys and with good support would have won the game as Comfort did not score an earned run.

It was an orderly crowd throughout the Fair and those attending seemed to be enjoying themselves.

As stated last week, the live stock exhibit was one of the finest that has been shown here. It was possibly not so large in number, but more than made it up in quality.

YOUNG TEXANS, WHO CAN'T RIDE OR SHOOT, NEED MIRACLE WORKERS AS TEACHERS, SAYS DR. BIZZELL

College Station, Tex., Sept. 4.—"The age of miracles certainly has not passed if the teachers of today can make useful citizens out of our flappers and jelly beans.

"We are called upon today to educate young Texans who cannot shoot a gun, bait a hook or ride a horse. In other words, we are asked to develop citizens from men not possessing the fundamental experience of manhood."

This was the declaration made here today by Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the A. & M. College of Texas, in discussing problems and possibilities in the teaching profession in course of an address welcoming the 500 teachers of Brazos and five contiguous counties here for the fifth annual Central Texas Teachers' Institute, which opened today.

"Problems and possibilities in the teaching profession were never before so great as today," President Bizzell said. "Possibilities are greater because the faith of America in education as the hope for the perpetuity of democracy is greater than ever before, and Americans are more concerned in maintaining the integrity of their educational institutions."

He considered three problems, which he said were greater today than ever before. One was keeping the teaching force vital with the great number of purposeless young teachers and an equally great number of fossilized or fossilizing old; another that of making citizens out of the two new species of the young popularly known as "flappers" and "jelly beans," who are without purpose in life, and a third, the finding of a system to sift out and locate the girls and boys with varying degrees of capability along educational lines.

"The age of miracles certainly has not passed if the teachers of today can make useful citizens out of our flappers and jelly beans," he said. "We are called upon today to educate young Texans who cannot shoot a gun, bait a hook or ride a horse. In other words, we are asked to develop citizens from men not possessing the fundamental experience of manhood."

"A great fault in our methods today is that we are starting out in our public schools just as if every child was capable of taking a college education, when thousands of them can never take a course equal to a college degree. We must have a system to help the children find themselves. We must locate those with great capabilities and subsidize them to an extent that will enable them to develop all their talents."

Revival Begins at the Methodist Church Sunday

A revival meeting will begin at the Methodist Church, Sunday, September 10th, and continue through the week. Services will be had twice daily. The morning service will be held at 9:30 o'clock each morning and the maximum time for this service will be one hour. The evening service will begin at 7:30 o'clock with the song service and preaching at 8 o'clock.

A splendid singer will be had for the meeting, and you will enjoy his work, both as a singer and as a conductor of young people's work. The pastor, Rev. J. Grady Timmons, will do the preaching for the meeting, with only one exception. Sunday night, September 10th, Rev. A. E. Rector, Presiding Elder of the Kerrville District, will preach.

Last Friday Louis Domingues left for Dallas to attend the State Swimming Meet. All the big swimming teams met to swim for their home town and Louis swam for Kerrville. The contest was pulled off Saturday afternoon and Louis brought home four medals—one for first place, one for second place and two for third place in the various swimming events. We are proud of Louis.

Owing to the rush incident to the Fair several items were overlooked last week. Mention is now made of the return home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Schreiner from their vacation in California. Mrs. Schreiner had been away for two months and Mr. Schreiner was there for four weeks. They report a most enjoyable time.

Meeting of County Board

The County Board, composed of Judge Lee Wallace as chairman and Commissioners Real, Gibbens, Wiedenfeld and Peril, met Wednesday morning and were in session late Wednesday afternoon when The Sun forms were being closed for publication.

There was considerable detailed business transacted and the road allowances made, an account of which will be secured for next issue.

JOHN W. GAINES' GUNS SPIKED BY GOV. NEFF

San Antonio Express, August 1st: Governor Neff has been the prime cause of the removal of the last tangible reason for any undue excitement before either the State Democratic Committee Monday or the Democratic Convention Tuesday. John W. Gaines of San Antonio has abandoned his purpose of asking the courts of Texas to declare the Senatorial run-off primary nullified and without force in either the Constitution or the law. Scores of leading Democrats begged him without avail to desist from the course he publicly announced he would follow. It required the long arm of the Chief Executive to persuade him to yield to party expediency.

Judge Gaines had everything ready for the decisive step. San Antonio Express was advised by him in confidence Wednesday that he would go to Kerrville Thursday morning to present the case to District Judge R. H. Burney, in session there. The petition for a temporary injunction that was meant to restrain Chairman Frank C. Davis and members of the State Committee from tabulating the returns in the race between Mayfield and Ferguson had been made ready and Judge Burney had telephoned Judge Gaines he would hear the motion yesterday.

But Gaines had gone to Chairman Davis for a list of the members of the committee and Davis knew then and there that business was brewing instead of talk. Governor Neff was as close as Davis' telephone and the Governor and the State Chairman were soon conferring. The Governor later, it is learned reliably, called Judge Gaines and the two talked as brother Democrats.

"I never hated to do anything more than withdrawing from the campaign I began," said Judge Gaines to the Express. "I thought, and I still think, there could have been no question about the soundness of my position in either constitutional law or in the statutes of this State."

"But I am not certain that, had the courts declared the Senatorial primary illegal, there would have been any way to get a Democratic nominee on the ballot. There can be no doubt about the political disturbance that would have been created about such a condition of affairs as that. Prominent Democrats from one end of Texas to the other, many of them telling me I was right in law, urged me to stop for the good of the party. I have very reluctantly come to the conclusion that this business is too much of a responsibility for one individual to assume and I am telephoning Judge Burney of my decision."

Burney Ready to Act
"Judge Burney told me Wednesday over the phone he would hear the motion and act on it. Here's the motion (waving a formidable document) and I was ready for action. But it's all off now. I am a good Democrat and my party spirit has been appealed to in a most effective way."

"Did Governor Neff help you in reaching this decision?"
Judge Gaines looked uncomfortable for a moment and finally admitted he had heard from Austin. "I didn't tell the Governor that I would quit but I did promise him to give the matter my most earnest consideration. I have done that and am ready to say to him that I am no disturber of Democratic harmony."

Chairman Davis was enthusiastic when he heard the decision arrived at by Judge Gaines. "That's the sort of news I like to hear," he smiled. "Now, the last cloud has blown away and if there is any reason for any kind of a disturbance at our convention here next week, I don't know it. I look for a great gathering and a regular, old love feast—nothing save party harmony and a sensible determination to continue to be of the greatest possible service in the up-building of our State."

That Gaines' avowed intent to proceed through the courts to have another Senatorial primary was raising a storm in many circles over the State was no secret and the nearer the meeting of the convention drew the more the wind blew. Most of those concerned had believed Gaines would relent after Ferguson's defeat. But they learned he had not changed his mind and then the pressure began.

Mrs. Burton Entertained Club

Mrs. A. B. Burton delightfully entertained the members of the Cheer-O Club Monday afternoon.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. B. Brown, the vice president, Mrs. Adkins, presided. After matters of business were disposed of, a social time was enjoyed. Two features of the social hour were, first, a unique contest on "Cheer-O," which proved to be most interesting and amusing. This was followed by a humorous reading by Miss Edith Tullis.

There were twelve members of the club present. Mrs. Burton served a delectable salad course. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. Ola B. Gammon.

A Picnic Bridge Party

Mrs. Preston Utterback gave a most delightful picnic party Tuesday morning, complimenting Mrs. James Moore of Junction. This was held on the banks of the Guadalupe River about two miles above town.

About 8:30 o'clock the guests arrived for a swim or splash, according to the ability of the individual. While all sorts of swimming feats were being done there came a shower of brilliantly colored fishes and ducks among the bathers, thrown by the hostess, which were grabbed for with glee, and which proved to be table markers for the bridge games that were played afterwards under the shade of the spreading cypresses until noon, when a very delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Moore was presented with a pretty ribbon lingerie set; Mrs. Wallace for having high score received a rubber-lined bathing bag, and Miss Carey was consoled with an athletic belt of white. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Utterback were: Mesdames Moore, the honoree; Jas. Rees, McDonald, Chas. Rawson, L. Sandel, H. McClellan, H. E. Horlock, Kuhlmann, W. L. Secor, Scott Schreiner, Warren Colvert, Leslie, J. S. Wheelless, Siddy and Lee Wallace, and Misses Jewel Carey, Lucille Williamson, Yolande Robinson and Bess Booth; Dodo Schreiner, Catherine Colvert, Cecil Rawson, Warren Colvert, Emil and Eugene Rees, Edwin Horlock of San Antonio and Clemmie McDonald.

The inhabitants of a vast region in the arid interior of Australia are still in the stone age and an effort is being made to keep them there. Sixty-five thousand square miles have been set apart as a sanctuary for the natives and no white men are allowed to enter the sanctuary. These natives fashion their rude weapons and implements of stone and wood, and are entirely ignorant of the use of metal. Cannibalism is still in full force among the natives of the Everard ranges and they have to be constantly on the march to obtain food.

POPULATION OF FRANCE GROWS LESS EACH YEAR

Paris, Sept. 2.—The population of France is decreasing annually by 200,000.

This fact is revealed by the latest vital statistics published by an official French bureau.

In the year 1860 there were approximately a million births in France. In 1913 there were 717,254. This year the total will be about 450,000.

"From 600,000 marriages in 1920 we may expect to reach a minimum of 250,000 marriages in 1924," says the report. "Deaths average around 700,000, and the percentage of births to marriages is only 1.60 per cent, compared to 3.333 per cent in 1865."

According to these figures, the year 2121 may see the population of France at zero!

Enjoyable Bridge Party

Mrs. J. S. Wheelless entertained at bridge last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in honor of Mrs. Mary Davis, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hugh Perry.

Six games of bridge and eating most delicious refreshments caused the afternoon to pass very swiftly. Mrs. A. C. Schreiner held high score and received a bottle of perfume; Mrs. Siddy cut the consolation, a painted candy box, and Mrs. Davis received two very pretty handkerchiefs.

Those present were: Mesdames Mary Davis, Hugh Perry, Clarence Brashear, W. G. Baker, H. McClellan, Siddy, Utterback, Jas. Young, Lee Mason, Hy. Kuhlmann, W. L. Secor, Jas. Moore of Junction, Frank Hart, L. Sandel, Oswald Herzog, G. F. Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner, and Misses Bess Booth, Alice Dominguez and Jewel Carey.

Morning at Bridge

Last Friday morning at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Jas. Young entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. Warren Colvert and Miss Mary Louise Barnes.

Mrs. Colvert was quite lucky on this date, winning high score and receiving a guest prize at the same time, one being a lovely Japanese basket with highly colored tassels and jade trimmings, and the other an incense burner. Miss Barnes received a like incense burner. A most delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Those invited were: Mrs. Colvert and Miss Barnes, honor guests, and Mesdames A. C. Schreiner, J. D. Jackson, A. C. Schreiner Jr., Scott Schreiner, W. C. Baker, Lee Wallace, H. Perry, Mary Davis, Lee Mason, J. S. Wheelless, L. D. Garrett, Ally Beitel, T. C. Johnston, E. H. Prescott, Geo. Morris, Al Manny, R. L. Schmerbeck, Milton Pampell, Carl Allen, J. W. Carey, S. E. Thompson, Chas. Mason, and Misses Ellen Mason, Kate Renschel, Elsie Johnston, Bess Booth, Nell Barnes, Jewel Carey and Lucille Williamson.

FATHER OF NINE, 94. BACHELOR UNTIL 74

Beauvoir, Miss., Sept. 2.—Married the first time when 74 years old, and the second time when 78, after which the stork brought nine babies to his home is the record of James Henry Turner, Confederate veteran, 94 years old, who is an inmate of the Jefferson Davis Soldiers' Home here.

"I never went to school a day in my life, never went to parties nor dances, no picnics, where there were girls and grew up to be a typical old bachelor," the veteran said today. He was 25 years old when he rode on a railroad train for the first time.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper
NOTRE DAME BEGINS 11TH YEAR

The faculty of Notre Dame Institute was completed on Thursday of last week with the return of Sr. Eugenia who will again take charge of the musical conservatory.

The forenoon of Labor Day was devoted to the registration of the pupils for the current scholastic year.

In the High School department, directed by Sr. Hilda, the standardized curriculum will be strictly adhered to by State-certified teachers.

Sisters Felix and Benignus left on Thursday of last week with the following young ladies who had been our guests all summer and who will re-enter the Incarnate Word College in San Antonio.

Louise Colbath returned from Hunt on the eve of school opening, to join the rest of our boarders.

J. O. Boudreaux of Beaumont came here last Sunday to place his daughters with us for the sixth year.

Miss Louise Strackbein enrolled her niece, Lucille Strackbein, of Rock Springs, and also her nephew, Curtis, who will room at "Porfunicula."

During the Fair Week our boarders were taken to the exhibits, games and races.

Many of the parish boys occupied themselves in the early days of this month with dove hunting.

Preparatory Triduum. With entire dependence on Divine Providence for a successful outcome of the present scholastic year, we entered on the work with a triduum to the Holy Ghost.

The morning Angelus bell hereafter will be rung at 6:30 a. m., when Holy Communion will be administered in the Convent Chapel.

On the First Friday of this month the votive Mass to the Sacred Heart of Jesus was read by our distinguished guest, the Rev. T. J. McGuire, C. S. B., of St. Thomas College, Houston.

Rudolph Stehling's daughter was baptized on the feast of St. Rose and received the name of Clara Estelle

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

J. GRADY TIMMONS
At last it seems that the backbone of the extreme summer weather with its vitality consuming heat has been broken, and all of us are happy that this is true.

Now that the Fair is over and the weather is more bearable, let us address ourselves more definitely to the task of realizing the Kingdom.

On account of the closing of the summer season and the reopening of the school year it was considered advisable to hold only one formal social gathering every month in Washington Hall in place of the weekly Friday assemblies.

The Guild will co-operate with the Brownson Literary Society in the Columbus entertainment scheduled for Friday night, October 13th.

Our Lady of Guadalupe School. This is a very unpropitious time to open the Mexican School on account of the general exodus of cotton pickers and their families.

A little backache at first. Daily increasing till the back is lame and weak.

Downward Course. Fast Being Realized by Kerrville People.

Price 60c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore had.

The coldest spot in the world is in Washington, D. C., where 515 degrees below zero was registered in the laboratory of the Bureau of Mines.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

J. B. HOLT, Pastor
The meeting of the Medina River Association at Medina last week was one of the very best sessions we have ever had.

For instance, Sunday when in one church the congregation sang "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" and another was chanting "No Not One."

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church met in the basement of the church Tuesday afternoon for the monthly business meeting.

Following the reading of the secretary's report, matters of business were discussed and disposed of.

After the business session, Mrs. Barrett, a most interesting visitor from the Training School at Fort Worth, who is working under the State Board, made a most excellent and inspiring address.

In spite of the heat and many distractions, the Sunday School and Young People's Societies of the Presbyterian Church have not missed a service and have increased in attendance all summer.

She (cooly)—Own up, now, that you men like talkative women as well as you do the others.

"Speckboom" is an African plant with large, succulent leaves which has been transplanted with success to the waste lands of California to provide pastures for cattle and sheep.

IT IS ALL IN THE CONSTRUCTION PUT ON THESE SONGS

Ponca City, Okla., Sept. 5.—Three churches, located on three corners across the street from each other here, cause considerable confusion at times.

While one pastor was delivering his ardent sermon on "Degrees in Hell," across the street the pastor's subject was "Meet Me There."

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist Church met in the basement of the church Tuesday afternoon for the monthly business meeting.

Following the reading of the secretary's report, matters of business were discussed and disposed of.

A MORE CONFIDENT FEELING

Fort Worth Star-Telegram: Bradstreet's, in its monthly statement on the business situation, says: "Irregularity still characterizes trade, industrial, crop and price movements to a remarkable degree, but a rather more confident feeling pervades the business community as autumn draws nearer. Unquestionably the biggest feature of the week is the actual ending of the soft coal strike and the prospect that the anthracite strike is in its last hours." The report then remarks that the shopmen's strike continues to be a disturbing feature in the situation. And now we hear of a general strike, which would further complicate things. The whole of the workers of the country suffer along with everybody else from such disturbances and certainly in this case good times are being retarded because of the strike. But things are not going altogether to the bad, in spite of such things as strikes. The world finally is going to get on the job and work. That can be taken for granted. And that means that sooner or later things will improve to such an extent that we shall forget all about depression—in spite of strikes, international crises and the rest. The big thing is to make the best of whatever situation confronts us at any time.

All of the schools at Kerrville appear to be opening with increased attendance and the indications are that they will be more successful than any year heretofore.

The Sun desires to see harmony, good fellowship and co-operation in Kerrville, to the end that the town will continue to grow and be an agreeable place in which to live. We have been getting upon this plane gradually in the past few years, so let us keep up the good work.

Let's have a good, old-fashioned revival of comradeship and sociability in Kerrville. Also, let us determine to work for a better and a greater Kerrville. There is an excellent foundation laid, so let us complete a structure of city building that will receive the plaudits of all right-thinking and progressive people.

Churches with real Christians as members, schools with capable and right-thinking teachers, can do more to make good boys and girls than any other influence. Of course, in former times, parents were supposed to have something to do with the proper raising of children, but it does not appear that they do in this day of the "flapper" and "jelly bean."

The Presbyterian Men's Club has been of great benefit to Kerrville the first year of its organization. Members of the club are to meet next Tuesday evening to elect officers for another year and renew their pledges to work for the best interests of the people of Kerrville as a whole, and especially of the young men of this city. The Sun desires to commend the club for its most excellent work the past year.

The Sun wants to see the Schreiner Institute for Boys be a great success, when it is established and in operation, and also desires that the Scofield School for Girls, the Public Schools and Notre Dame Institute continue to grow in attendance and the accomplishment of much good, but these anticipations cannot be fully realized unless the Kerrville citizenship array themselves on the side of law, decency and morality.

Kerrville can be made one of the prettiest little cities in Texas, as well as one of the most popular recreation and health resorts in the State, but to do so we must have improved sanitary conditions, law, order, decency and morality. If the leaders of our citizenship do not want this condition here, and insist upon it, there will not be the growth desired nor the character of people in most instances come here to live who will prove of benefit to the community.

Samuel Gompers and other labor leaders will regret their hasty and unwise utterances relative to the Government injunction. The railroad strike has reached a point where the Government must assert its authority and prove itself capable of functioning or show that it is impotent and turn affairs over to those who defy the law of the land. When that time comes we will not have any Government, but anarchy. The laws of the country are now protecting the strikers in their right to strike, but it is another question to protect them in their claim to have the right to prevent others taking their places. The railroads of the country must be operated and if those who have formerly assisted in this operation in any way refuse to longer do their part, others who will do it must be protected if it takes the whole power of the country to bring it about.

Kerrville and surrounding country was well represented at the Boerne Fair the past week and many compliments were heard of the excellent entertainment enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Gayner Banks of Eagle Pass has been conducting services the past week at the Episcopal Church, dwelling mainly on the Scriptures pertaining to healing. He is a most interesting talker and well informed man.

Miss Ruth Starkey, who has been visiting in the homes of A. L. and J. J. Starkey for the past six weeks, left for her home at Oklahoma City last Friday. She is the daughter of Ed. Starkey, who was a Kerr County boy, and has many friends here.

The San Antonio Cadillac Co., who have the Southwest Texas agency for the Durant car, had a sedan of that make on exhibition at the West Texas Fair last week, and it created favorable comment from all who inspected it. Weston & Kemp are local agents for the Durant.

The local sportsmen have been enjoying the dove shooting since the opening of the season last Friday. From all reports the birds are not so numerous as was the case last year. Early plowing of the fields in which the doves are accustomed to feed probably accounts for this scarcity.

W. F. Keusel, clerk of the local W. O. W., has received an invitation from Hugo I. Eckman and Johnny McConnell, committee of San Antonio Camp, to meet with them at Boerne, Sunday, September 24th, which is Woodmen Gala Day. The program will include Exposition Drills and other interesting features. A cordial invitation is extended the membership from this section. For further information, see Mr. Keusel at Chas. Schreiner Bank.

Among the successful hunters last Friday, the first day of the dove season, was Jimmie Williams, the little 8-year-old grandson of Mrs. W. E. Williams, who bagged his limit of fifteen with a .410 shotgun. Then, just to show that it was no accident, the youthful hunter repeated the performance the following day, loading and firing the gun, and retrieving the dead birds, unassisted. In practicing up for the dove season, Jimmie bagged twenty-two cottontails, eight jackrabbits and three squirrel, a record many grown hunters would be proud of.

Famous Pastry Chef Has Tasty Bran Dish

Francois Schmitt

A BRAN pudding, termed by those to whom it was served as "simply delicious," has been evolved by Francois Schmitt, pastry chef of the Hotel Pennsylvania, New York. Here it is:

Four heaping teaspoonfuls bran, one tablespoonful flour, one-half tablespoonful corn starch, four eggs, three tablespoonfuls sugar, one-half cup butter, one-half pint milk. Chop up butter with flour, corn starch, bran and half of the sugar and add to boiling milk; stir well on fire for about one minute, take off, mix in the four yolks. At last add the four whites beaten stiff with rest of sugar. Pour in well buttered and sugared form and set in pan with a little water in bottom and bake in medium oven for about thirty minutes.

Serve with apricot sauce made as follows: Put contents of one small can of apricots through a sieve, add one-half pound of sugar and let boil for about five minutes.

Come and get it at Pampell's. It's free to all school children. (Advertisement 38-1tc).

W. M. Wehmeyer, living out several miles on the San Antonio Road, is having quite a lot of excitement lately, but an incident Sunday evening about 8 o'clock was one he will not soon forget. As he started to open the screen door to the kitchen at that hour, he heard the well-known signal of a rattlesnake, so he jumped for his shotgun and his wife hurriedly got a light and threw it on the snake, which blinded the reptile and it coiled up, when Mr. Wehmeyer gave it the contents of his gun at close quarters, cutting it into three pieces. The snake had nearly a grown rabbit inside of it and possessed eight rattles and a button.

QUEEN O' THE MAY

By SADIE M. STULL

©, 1922, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Oh, Mister you stepped right on the biggest pink rose and spoiled my May wreath!"

At this startling accusation Grant Morely halted abruptly. A half jocosely apology sprang to his lips, but with the next breath he blessed the kind breeze which had blown the flimsy object across his path.

Huddled on the curb was a "study" in child life, such as the noted artist had sought in vain on many quests at home and abroad.

"Don't move!" he commanded, whipping out the ever-ready sketching pad. "Good!" as the child remained passive—only her eyes growing big with wonder. "A second more, little lady—and presto! We have a masterpiece in the rough. Now, then," exultantly returning the pad to his pocket. "We'll see about that—er—big red rose."

Grant could scarcely repress a smile as the child held up a sadly crushed replica of the natural flower in cerise tissue paper.

"Mother made it"—with a pride that went straight to Grant's heart.

Grant's smile gained the mastery, but his tone was duly apologetic: "Well then, Miss Kittle, what do you say to becoming my model? Oh, I don't mean to begin work this very minute—"

The little maid had shaken out the vari-colored streamers attached to her faded gingham dress. "I'll go with you now. I want to earn some money right away. The dispensary doctor told Mother she oughtn't to go back to work this week and now she needn't."

An hour later Sister Clarice received them in the studio.

To Kittle that ornately furnished room proved a veritable Wonderland. Now, she gazed in awe at a noble Mohawk chief—then, smiled back at a dainty little Hub miss, with a huge blue bow atop her golden curls. But it was when she faced the portrait beneath the rich Oriental canopy that Kittle uttered an ecstatic little—"Oh!"

She caught a warning glance from Sister Clarice. The instant Grant left them alone Kittle broached the subject.

The girl of the picture had been Grant's sweetheart once. Kittle did not like the sound of that "once." She was sure Sister Clarice did not like it, either—there was such sorrowful regret in her gentle voice.

Just then Grant returned to announce the car waiting to take Miss Kittle home.

Sister Clarice kissed her warmly and whispered: "I have planned a little party out to my place tomorrow. Besides your young playmates, you may bring your mother or some very dear friend."

Kittle's little heart leaped joyously.

And at seven that evening the proud mistress of a palatial uptown mansion was surprised, to say the least, on entering her daughter's boudoir, to confront a grotesque little figure in faded gingham and fluttering paper streamers.

"Who won't you entertain next, Elizabeth?" she expostulated weakly.

"Why, mother, I am not 'doing the honors' on this occasion," serenely replied her daughter. "Kitty has come to invite me to her May Party."

It was Kittle who proposed that they crown Miss Elizabeth Queen of the May. 'Mid the cheers of the young merry-makers the ceremony was enacted.

Watching from afar Grant noted the incomparable grace with which Elizabeth received the homage of her diminutive subjects. He waited until the youngsters started a second raid on the greenhouses, then, with quickening heartbeats, crossed the lawn.

"May I claim the day's privilege and offer my poor homage, oh, most beautiful Queen?"

The limpid gray eyes did not waver before his reproachful gaze.

"Ah, your majesty, do you remember—as I do—that other May day—when a group of village lads and lassies crowned you their Queen? It was I who placed the wreath upon your head that day." A note of bitterness hardened the manly voice—"Before another May day your father had become a factor in the industrial life of a great city—while I remained the small town toiler and dreamer; dreaming of a future whose brightness you were to share.

"Then, one dark day your father demolished the poor dreamer's every air castle, treating his suit as utter presumption in the light of your social elevation. Not long afterwards I saw you on the avenue—a gorgeous butterfly of fashion—all frills and laces. My heart seemed to die within me. I realized your father was right. I had been presumptuous—aye, mad—"

A soft hand stayed further utterance.

"Ah, boy, dear, in your wounded pride you were unjust to the heart beneath those frills and laces—the same heart that beat beneath the simple pinafore that other May day—"

"Beth!"

A few minutes later Kittle marched past them at the head of her flower-bedecked playmates. The little maid's step took on an added dignity, for she had achieved her heart's desire. In Miss Elizabeth's eyes she beheld the light that made the picture in Mr. Grant's studio so beautiful—the light of perfect happiness.

Excuses.

Uncalled for excuses are practical confessions.—Franklin.
