KERR COUNTY HIGHWAY BEING GRADUALLY PUSHED FORWARD

At a meeting of the County Board the past week, reports were made on the work finished and in process of completion of the Kerr County Highway.

On Section A there has been paid out a total of $49,231.83 and 10 per cent reserved on contract, $6,179.31. The estimated amount of work done on Section A amounts to $61,793.11.

The total amount of work estimated done on Section B amounts to $63,577.33, and the amount paid out on this is $46,173.02, and 10 per cent reserved is $6,577.73.

The contractors have had some trouble with sub-contractors, but are getting the situation in shape to keep the work moving.

The part of road finished is certainly a fine piece of work and takes some of the horror from a trip across the Divide, even though it is not yet finished for all that distance.

T. H. RIDGEWAY UNOPPOSED IN RACE FOR STATE SENATE

San Antonio Express, Sept. 13th: Bodo Holekamp of Boerne has quit the field for the State Senate and City Attorney T. H. Ridgeway of San Antonio has a clear path to the place. It is not expected the Republican district committee will name any successor to Mr. Holekamp. He was nominated at Kerrville because Julius Real wouldn't take the place and the Wurzbach Republicans were afraid John E. Elgin of San Antonio might get himself nominated through some method of the committee of which he was chairman. It is now too late for any action of that sort. Retirement of Mr. Holekamp has been predicted as a probability by San Antonio Express because it was known the Wurzbach leaders want every party effort centered in the fight for the Congressman's election.

Mr. Holekamp's action is given in a letter addressed by him yesterday to W. H. Bonnell of Camp Verde, now senatorial chairman. The letter follows:

"In answer to your letter advising me of my nomination for State Senator, at the Republican Senatorial District Convention at Kerrville, Texas, I wish to inform you that after careful consideration I have found it impossible to adjust my business affiliation satisfactorily, and therefore have to decline the nomination.

"To the delegates in convention assembled at Kerrville and the many good people from all over the district for their encouragement and unsolicited support to assure my election, I wish to express my sincere appreciation of their confidence and kindly feeling."

HALF BILLION SUGGESTED TO SAVE FARMERS OF COUNTRY

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—A government "pool" of $500,000,000 will be tossed into the Nation's financial markets to save American farmers from food speculators and gamblers under a plan sponsored in the Senate by Senator King (Democrat) of Utah.

King proposed to transfer all assets of the War Finance Corporation, now completing its post-war functions, to the Federal Farm Loan Board for use in extending seasonal and long-term credits to farmers or cattle raisers. A bill he introduced was before the Senate Finance Committee for consideration.

King declares his plan would eliminate food speculators who obtain control of farmers' crops at cheap prices at harvest time. If his plan is adopted, he contended farmers would be saved the necessity of selling their crops at harvest prices during a flood on the market and could obtain reasonable prices under the law of supply and demand.

The plan was said to meet the approval of members of the Senate agricultural "bloc" and probably will be considered by that body at a special meeting. It was said the plan would enable farmers to obtain credit for their fall and winter planting and in time to be of benefit to the spring crops.

With the War Finance Corporation's $500,000,000 capital placed at the disposal of farmers, farm corporations and associations, or individuals could obtain loans from the Government on receipt for crops stored in warehouses pending their disposal on the open market. Loans could also be obtained by cattle raisers on stock held pending sales in the seasonal markets. "My plan is to transfer the functions of the War Finance Corporation and its great funds to the Farm Board," said King. "These assets would be employed to discount paper representing debts incurred to sustain agriculture or live stock production. It would give the Government a ready fund to make loans to co-operative associations or individual farmers on warehouse receipts for farm products."

SMALL FRAME BUILDING NEEDED FOR TOURIST CAMP CARETAKER

The weather is getting cooler and soon will be colder, so a small frame building is needed at the Tourist Camp for the caretaker there. It is very important that a caretaker remain on the grounds all of the time, and arrangements are being perfected to give him regular remuneration that will be satisfactory, but the building must be constructed by popular subscription. It will not cost any one very much, if we all will do our part. It is intended to construct a neat little frame building that will prove ornamental to the grounds and furnish a comfortable place for the caretaker to reside.

KERRVILLE ALL-STARS FOOTBALL TEAM ORGANIZES FOR SEASON

At a meeting held at the Court House Monday evening the Kerrville All-Stars organized for the coming football season by electing the following officers:

Walter Saenger, manager; A. T. Adkins, treasurer; Ben Smith, ticket salesman; J. A. Oswald, line coach; Richard Smith, back field coach, and Hal Peterson, yell leader.

It was unanimously decided to use only home talent this season and the following have promised to report for practice:

Frank Moore, Louis Wilson, J. A. Oswald, Ervin Mittanek, Kirk Holdsworth, Casper Real, Andrew Brandon, Charlie Keusel, Cecil Robinson, Richard Smith, Bill Secor, Casper Rees, Bill Saenger, Herman Saenger, Howard Butt, Marcus Auld, Richard Flach, Elvin Mosty, Robert Tarver, Keith McCrary, Mickie Hart and Horace Starkey, with several others who will report later.

With such an abundance of good players a local all-star aggregation is assured and one that will be a credit to Kerrville. Practice will be started immediately and arrangements will be made to meet the best teams in this section.

FORD GARNERS $160,000,000 IN CASH IN A SINGLE YEAR

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 13.—Within a year, Henry Ford has accumulated more cash than probably any other man in America. Today his cash on hand amounts to more than $160,000,000, and, to use the motor magnate's own words, he "can't tell within fifteen million or so" just what he has in the bank.

A year ago the Ford Motor Company was just emerging from the worst depression in its history and, despite the offers of Wall Street bankers of millions for a loan, Ford succeeded by his own efforts in putting his business on its feet.

He says his refusal to deal with Wall Street and banks was due to several causes. First, he says, they insisted that for a loan of a few million they should be allowed to name the treasurer of the company and have a voice in the management of the company. Again, Ford asserts, he did not need to borrow from banks, for the reason that he could see his way clear to revive his business.

With the aid of experts, he ascertained what every item was costing. He turned millions of dollars tied up in surplus material into cash by stopping purchases of raw material and using what the company had. This policy holds today. It is possible to buy what is needed in the open markets and transport it to the Ford fac-

DRY WEATHER CAUSES WORK TO STOP ON ROCKSPRINGS ROAD

Owing to the dry weather, work was stopped last week on the Rock-springs road above Ingram and Hunt. It was also thought advisable to await other road expenditures and see if any more funds would be available for continuing the work on this road. There has already been most excellent work done and a splendid showing for the money expended.

Chairman Renschel of the Special Road Commission, composed of H. Renschel, Gus F. Schreiner and Tom Duderstadt, made a report to the County Commissioners at their meetings the past week, which shows the amounts expended as follows:

On the road and for bridges between Ingram and one mile above Hunt on the North Fork, there was expended $22,199.09, and for one and a half miles above Hunt on the South Fork, $1,119.50.

This road work was done by the county with some improved machinery purchased, and L. A. Bond as superintendent in charge of the crews. It has put a fine piece of road between Ingram and Hunt, much of which is an entirely new road and placed above high water. Two long cement bridges were also built across the Guadalupe—one at Ingram and the other near Hunt, and some cement dips, several culverts and fills put in. Kerr County and the people have certainly got their money's worth in the road work in this instance, for which the Special Road Commission and those having direct charge of the work are to be congratulated.

Later, if it is found there is any money left, the work will be continued up both the North and South Forks of the Guadalupe.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION SET DOWN ON ANTI-KLAN AGITATORS

Wednesday afternoon of last week, a short while before adjournment of the Democratic State Convention at San Antonio, there was an effort made by the extreme anti-Ku Klux Klan agitators to commit the convention to a resolution denouncing that organization, but it was defeated by a vote of 691 to 135. The leaders of the movement were Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, W. B. Teagarden of San Antonio and Senator I. C. Clark of Schulenburg. Barry Miller of Dallas, who was manager of Senator Culberson's campaign, was also with the crowd, but not mentioned in connection with the resolution.

This large vote in defeating the resolution does not show that those voting that way are Klansmen, though a majority are supposed to have been, but a decision by the convention that the Klan issue had no business in that body, nor in the platform.

The following is a synopsis of the platform adopted:

Indorsement of Governor Neff's administration.

Strict construction of the Constitution, separation of church and state and freedom of press.

Indorsement of the Woodrow Wilson administration.

Condemnation of the Republican administration, allegiance to the prohibition act, regulation of vessels on the high seas. State laws for more stringent prohibition enforcement.

Allegiance to tariff for revenue only, denunciation of Fordney-McCumber bill as "an act to increase the high cost of living and to prevent restoration of international trade."

Upholding autonomy of states and rights of states to control intra-state commerce, demand for repeal of the Esch-Cummins transportation act.

Recommendation of legislation to assist farmers in co-operative marketing.

Indorsement of Shepard-Towner bill and legislation to give Texas full benefits of act.

"We again affirm the ancient and accepted doctrine that the Democratic party is a white man's party and unreservedly recommend the continued observance of that principle."

Recommendation of legislation by the State Legislature to enable the State to take full advantage of funds from the Federal Government in constructing highways.

Recommendations of legislation regulating tonnage of trucks to prevent destruction of highways and provision for a tax to maintain highways. Centralization of agricultural work of the State and consolidation of agricultural departments.

Recommendation of legislation to keep open courts throughout the year to expedite disposal of court actions.

Recommendation of legislation providing for development of water conservation to prevent loss from floods and survey by the State to further this work.

Reforestation and preservation of forests.

Revision of election laws.

"We affirm that the right of assembly is an inherent right of American people. That labor has the right both of peaceful argument and the legal use of its resources for the benefit of its brothers in distress. We affirm the right of workers to organize and give our approval to the principle of collective bargaining. Legislation to the end that the State operate the insurance system under the employers' compensation act should be adopted and should provide for a more equitable compensation than is now had."

Re-location of penitentiary, survey for re-location, and provision for prison for criminally insane.

Amendment to primary election law providing for nominations for judicial offices by convention.

Recall of county officials for refusal to enforce laws by the courts.

Endorsement of National Defense Act of 1920.

Compensation for disabled veterans of the World War.

Equalization of taxes among counties.

Recommendation of appropriation by legislation to supplement available school funds; tax levy for support of State schools.

TRUSTEES OF SCHREINER INSTITUTE TURN DOWN BIDS FOR BUILDINGS

Wednesday afternoon the trustees of the Schreiner Institute for Boys met to consider bids for construction of the buildings now proposed to build. There were numerous bidders and the details of plans and specifications being quite complicated it required some time to reach a decision as to the lowest bidders for different parts of the construction.

After sifting the bids down to three, it was finally ascertained that the lowest bid was considerably in excess of the limit that the trustees could let a contract for, so new bids will be requested after a rearrangement of the plans and specifications for the contemplated buildings.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

The Presbyterian Men's Club met Tuesday night at the Westminster Encampment as the guests of Dr. W. P. Dickey.

This being the anniversary of the organization of the club, Dr. Dickey was asked to make a short talk on the work of the year and the outlook for the coming year.

The president, W. G. Garrett Jr., then announced that the business before the club was the election of officers for the ensuing year.

W. A. Fawcett was elected president; J. L. Adkins, vice president; Jno. R. Leavell, secretary, and Robt. L. Scherbeck, treasurer.

A resolution was adopted, expressing the sympathy of the club for Jno. Reichert in his prolonged illness. Mr. Reichert has been the secretary of the club during the past year and has been one of the most enthusiastic and faithful workers.

As a result of the difficulty experienced in obtaining meetings of the board of nine directors, it was proposed to change the board from nine to five, constituted of the president and four men who should be appointed heads of the four regular committees. This resolution will be acted upon at the next meeting of the club, September 28th.

A course of study for the year was proposed and certain lines of practical work, religious and civic, were outlined. This program of study and work will be up for discussion and adoption at the next meeting.

The work of the past year has demonstrated that there is a need for this kind of work and that the men of Kerrville are very much interested in it.

The forty members and visitors present entered heartily into the discussion and planning. At the close of the session the Rev. Herbert Springhall of Ennis made a very inspiring talk commending the work of the Club and making some very practical suggestions, out of his experience in similar work, as to the work of the year.

After the enjoyment of refreshments and "swapping yarns," the Club adjourned to meet September 28th.

TWO UNITS OF SANATORIUM ARE FINISHED AND WILL BE FURNISHED

The State Board of Control has let the contracts for furnishing two units of the American Legion Memorial Sanatorium, one of which is the large administration building.

It is expected that all of the units will be completed by January 1st, but to do so there is much work necessary to be done. The new wards cannot be used until the new heating, water, light and sewerage systems are ready to be connected with these buildings.

When all of the wards are completed it is believed that there will be room for 700 patients, and the ex-service men will be given the preference, but as the Government is not expected to make application for any such number, or near it, the Sanatorium will be used for civilian patients of which there are more than enough to fill the institution.

ONE IN FIVE FAILS TO PAY TAXES, NEFF TELLS COLLECTORS

Austin, Texas, Sept. 13.—The program of the second day of the thirtieth annual convention of the Tax Collectors and District and County Clerks' Association of Texas, which is being held in the Senate chamber in the Texas capitol, was featured by an address by Governor Neff. The Governor was greeted by an outburst of applause and when it had subsided he started into a discussion of the State's finances, declaring that every fifth taxpayer in Texas had not paid last year's taxes, "either because he could not or would not." The result is, the Governor said, there is $3,000,000 of last year's taxes unpaid, which has brought the State to operate on a deficiency basis and forced the tax rate to be increased to the constitutional limit.

"This condition of affairs ought not to exist," said the Governor. "The State has no money; you tax collectors realize it, but a lot of people over the State do not know that the State gets busted, just like an individual."

The Governor said: "It behooves us to see that the governmental machinery is kept going and that the tax money is collected and promptly transmitted to the State treasury."

Before the meeting adjourns, the Governor said he would be disappointed "if the tax collectors do not put down on paper what should be done in Texas for the efficient collection and transmissal of tax money and bring your recommendations to the Legislature."

"There is no bigger problem than the assessing and collecting of taxes," said the Governor. "We have no system, just patch work. In fact, the assessing system in Texas is unequal and unjust. It is up to you collectors to work out a tax system, and I shall co-operate with you in putting it into operation."

SPECIALIZING IN BOYS

(By Phebe K. Warner in Fort Worth Star-Telegram)

You don't have to be around a fellow very long to discover his specialty if he has one. Neither do you have to stay in a town all summer to discover the town's specialty if it has one. Trouble with most of us is, both as individuals and towns, we don't know ourselves just what we are trying to do, because most of us aren't trying to do anything in particular.

But we had not been in Hollis, Okla., 30 minutes until we knew those folks were specializing in their boys. "Our boys" is the first thing in the town they tell you about. At the women's clubs they talk about the work that is being done for their boys. "You must see our Boy Scouts," and "You must hear our boys' band, and this is Mrs. So and So, wife of our Boy Scoutmaster."

How in the world are you doing all this work? Oh, the business men of our town have pledged a certain amount every month to our work for boys and every month a collector goes over the town and collects that subscription just the same as any other bill.

And how do the boys like it? Do they seem to appreciate the work and the trouble? Well, you should see them in their uniform with their beautiful instruments and ready for a concert. And sure enough the boys' band played that night and a prouder bunch you never saw.

But the Hollis boys were not the only self-respecting fellows in that crowd. The citizens of Hollis are just as proud of themselves as the boys are for they see what their work is doing for their homes and their town and their country.

Now Hollis, Okla., is not such a very big town. About the size of most of our county seat towns. But the work that town is doing for its boys is equal to the work in most of our cities. First, they have a Scoutmaster who devotes the very best there is in him to the Scout work. He does not meet the boys only when it is convenient or when he does not want to do something else or when he feels like it. He works with those boys just like he works at his business. He works with them when it is easy and when it is hard. He works with them when he wants to and when he would rather do something else. He works with them when he is tired and when it is a real sacrifice. That is exactly why his work is amounting to something.

Then the people of Hollis employ a bandmaster to train their boys in the best things in the musical world. They pay him a good salary and when one of their neighboring towns offered him more money they said, "Why, no, we can't spare you, no matter what it costs," and they put up the extra money to hold him. Nor was that all they put up. The next thing was a beautiful bandstand right in the center of their city park. That is, the business men put up the necessary cash, and the boys, with a little help, put up the bandstand. And every Friday night is community night in Hollis.

All around the bandstand good comfortable seats have been placed and the people meet there to hear the boys play. The people of Hollis count on spending Friday night out in the park listening to their boys just as they count on going to church on Sunday. And the beauty of the plan is they furnish their own entertainment by supporting a Scoutmaster and a bandmaster for the boys of their town. How much do you suppose a town like Hollis would spend on entertainment every Friday night if they did not have their boys' band to listen to? As we sat there looking over that crowd of proud and happy citizens we decided they were saving more money as a town sitting there in the cool breezes listening to their own boys than it was costing the town to give those boys that training.

"It is the best thing that ever happened to our boys," one mother said. "It has done more for the social and moral life of our boys than anything that has ever been done," said another mother. "It has done more to help our school than anything else. You know how boys do get silly over the girls sometimes. Well, the band gave them something else to think about and some other use for their spare time. The band simply solved the boy and girl problem in our school." And best of all it has taught the boys of Hollis to entertain themselves and others many, many times when otherwise they would be spending their own or somebody's money seeking entertainment for themselves and others.

The town of Hollis is proud of the returns they have received on the money they have invested in their boys and they are planning this year to put business courses and manual training in their school.

Oh, certainly they do other things in Hollis. They have a beautiful town and they raise just as fine livestock around Hollis as anywhere else. But when fair time comes this fall they are going to take something besides pigs and pumpkins to the State Fair.

Hollis will exhibit her boys at the Oklahoma fairs this fall. The Hollis band will contest against the other bands in the State.

The happiest work a town ever did was specializing in its boys. Just trying to see what fine fellows they can make of them. And it is cheaper in the end to rear a whole town of useful boys than one useless one. The average bad boy costs the town and the county more than all the good ones. And to send one man to the penitentiary will cost a county more than to support a Scoutmaster and a bandmaster for all the boys in the county.

Bond Funds Are Available

Edwards County Leader, Sept. 8th: Commissioner J. W. Babb says we ought to put the road bond news we have this week in box car letters so that none of the citizens will miss it. So many have been enquiring of the members of the Commissioners' Court as to when Edwards County was actually going to have that $300,000 of road bond money.

The latter part of last week County Judge A. P. Allison received a blank from the H. C. Burt Company, buyers of the bonds, a receipt for the money to be signed by himself, the County Clerk and the County Treasurer. And at about the same time the blank receipt came a telegram was received from the bond buyers saying the money was ready as soon as the receipt was received. The receipt was promptly signed and sent them, and Mr. Babb thinks we will actually have funds for a big lot more of road building before the Leader goes to press.

It certainly has taken time. Edwards County voted $400,000 of road bonds in April, 1919. Immediately afterward, before the bond market collapsed, $100,000 of the bonds were sold and this money was later apportioned among the commissioners and is now being expended on the roads. And now we have the balance of the bond money, and the court and every citizen is for a vigorous road building campaign. Our county has so far been awarded $118,000 of Federal and State aid, and there is an application in for another $100,000, which, if it is awarded, will give us more than half a million dollars of road building funds. It all comes expensive, but it will be worth it, and we should be glad we live in an enterprising, progressive county even if taxes are a little high.

Enjoyable Bridge Party

Mrs. Ally Beitel entertained at bridge on Wednesday afternoon of last week in honor of her mother, Mrs. Thos. Sutton, who is visiting her daughter. After six games were played a most delectable salad course and ice course was served. Mrs. Wheelless held high score and the prize was a rose corsage bouquet. Mrs. Adkins cut high for consolation and received a flower jug of Indian make.

Those present were Mesdames Thos. Sutton, honoree, Frank Hart, Ella Colvert, Pearl Grannes, E. H. Prescott, Scott Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner Jr., J. S. Wheelless, W. C. Baker, J. D. Jackson, Clarence Brashear, J. B. Young, A. T. Adkins, Dick Eastland and Lee Wallace and Misses Elsie Johnston, May Louise Schreiner, Isabel Kiernan of New York, Ellen Mason and Yolande Robinson.

DOROTHY DOYLE AGAIN THRILLS FANS OF RADIO

San Antonio Express, Sept. 8th: Responding to repeated requests for a return program, Dorothy Doyle, "Queen of the Blues," thrilled hundreds of radio fans over Southwest Texas last night with her songs through San Antonio Express Broadcasting Station.

Miss Doyle gave a program two weeks ago and ever since then the radio department of San Antonio Express has been receiving requests that she give another "blues" program. She was given the entire hour from 7:30 to 8:30. Edison phonograph recreations and Knabe-Ampico selections were given between her numbers.

Miss Doyle was accompanied by Margery McIlhenny, pianist who is well known to San Antonio music lovers. They had practiced together on "blues" songs for several weeks and made the most of their efforts last night.

Miss Doyle is young and her voice has not matured even as full as it will be in later years, yet San Antonio Express Broadcasting Station is able to amplify the waves enough to make sure that even the smallest receiving set should pick up the words loud and clear.

Death of Judge W. W. Burnett

Recently, Judge W. W. Burnett died at his ranch in Hays County at the age of nearly 70 years. He is survived by his widow and five children, Walter and Will, now of Hays County; J. T., residing in Houston; Miss Kathleen and Mrs. J. W. Pritchett of Austin.

Judge Burnett came to Texas from Butler County, Alabama, some forty years ago. He engaged in the practice of law in Texas for more than twenty years and had retired for the last ten or more years on his ranch in Hays County. He served as County Judge of Kerr County for twelve years and was a member of the Twenty-ninth Legislature from Kerr County. Following his retirement from the Legislature he removed to San Antonio, where he lived for five years. He later lived three years at Austin and then retired to his ranch in Hays County.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES
By Father Kemper
CONVENT BOARDERS

Miss Teresa Mary Schroeder of Windthorst and Miss Florence Sophia Grimmering of Scotland came here in the opening week to enjoy the advantages of Notre Dame. They were accompanied from San Antonio by Sr. Felicitas of the Incarnate Word College.

With the prospective boarders, who will probably come this week, we will have a nice home-like crowd of young ladies in the new palatial convent.

A fourth dining room, equipped with heater and cupboards, has been set aside for day scholars who live too far to go home for dinner. If these students come by auto or surrey, provision is also made for their vehicles.

During the past week, Miss Julia Josephine Haass of San Antonio has been a guest at the convent, on a visit to our High School principal who used to be her instructor.

The twin Conroy boys, Edward and Thomas, who camped at Notre Dame a couple of summers, have once more entered into the lime light by their wireless achievements. They conduct amateur station "5-ACZ" and have equipped their automobile so that they can pick up the Evening News program while touring through the city. A cut of their arrangement was described in the Sunday Express, as photographed in front of the Gunter Hotel.

Father Hidalgo Day
Corresponding to our Fourth of July the Mexicans celebrate their Independence Day on September 16th, when Father Michael Hidalgo, the George Washington of Mexico, proclaimed the freedom of the republic in the year 1810. Our local Mexicans have prepared a patriotic drama, which they will enact at the Fredericksburg celebration under the direction of Mrs. Ambrosia Torres. She promises to give a repitition in Kerrville for the benefit of our Hidalgo Society. At present, however, there are too many Mexicans away in the cotton fields.

Our Lady of Guadalupe School opened with a larger attendance than heretofore, despite the fact that September finds very few families in the Mexican colony.

Fortunately the eighth grade pupils are on hand, and if they complete their work satisfactorily, they will be accommodated for High School education at Notre Dame. This step for the higher education of our Mexican fellow citizens is expected to be of incalculable benefit for that neglected class which has not had the same opportunities to enjoy our advantages.

K. C. Welfare Work
Ben Newman, organizer of the Catholic Boy Scouts in San Antonio, came here Wednesday of last week to survey the hospitalization work within his present and future scope at Legion. He has been commissioned by the Knights of Columbus reconstruction board to extend help and comfort to all local ex-service men regardless of creed. This task will be added to similar duties that he has at Fort Sam Houston. If the Federal Government caters to soldier patients here in sufficient numbers, he may become resident secretary with an assistant for the free movie entertainments and other wholesome distractions.

On the last Sunday of this month services will be held in Comfort, and a class of candidates for the Knights of Columbus will be initiated at the club headquarters in San Antonio. Mass was also read in Comfort Tuesday of this week.

The infant daughter of Henry Brandes was baptized in St. Mary's Church last Sunday and named after her mother, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Staudt. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Max Vogt of Boerne.

A Requiem Mass was read on Monday for a brother of Rudolph Stehling, Lawrence, who was buried at Fredericksburg Sunday.

Auxiliary Activities
Mrs. L. W. Laughman, in charge of the visiting committee of St. Mary's Auxiliary, has chosen the following members on her staff for the current month: Mesdames Kuhlmann, Meyer and Ducote, Miss Lillie Newton, Mr. Carrico and Benny Mosel.

Miss Mary Mildred Mosel and her sister, Mrs. Frank Nitsch, spent the week in Kerrville at their old home-stead.

Mrs. Leo Blanchard and her family were Sunday guests of her mother, Mrs. Ida Newton.

Another old Notre Dame student to visit was Lytton Bulwer.

Joe Menger, whose brothers conduct the Southern Messenger, called here on his way to Notre Dame University, Indiana.

IS THIS YOUR EXPERIENCE?
Many Kerrville People Are Afflicted With Annoying Kidney Pills.

Are you bothered with too frequent action of the kidneys? Are the secretions highly colored—do they contain sediment—burn and scald in voiding? These are all signs of kidney sickness and should not be neglected. Kerrville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches and your kidneys are weak you will find no better recommended remedy.

Joseph Surber, retired farmer, Kerrville, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for they have done me a lot of good. My kidneys were out of order and I had backaches. I felt dull and out of sorts as my kidneys didn't act right. Doan's Kidney Pills soon rid me of the trouble and put my kidneys in good shape."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Surber had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH
J. GRADY TIMMONS

Sunday was a satisfactory day for us in all respects. We made a good start toward our revival meeting, which will continue through the entire week. The congregation was large and the spirit worshipful. The people of God are showing a mind to work, therefore the Wall shall be rebuilt. When the people of God are aroused there is no power of Satan that can defeat the Kingdom of God. The people have pledged themselves to the task and the meeting has already been a success. But we hope and pray for a large addition to the Kingdom of Peace before the end comes. The pastor is doing the preaching and we are doing our own singing.

At the Sunday evening service our presiding elder, Rev. A. E. Rector, was with us and called us to a forward march in a strong evangelistic sermon. The people were well pleased with his sermon as being one which was altogether appropriate for the beginning of the series of services now running. At the Monday morning service he also preached for us and we had a sweet service with a good audience for Monday morning. After the conclusion of the morning service the session of the Fourth Quarterly Conference for the Kerrville Station was called to order. Everything was done in order and the business dispatched with speed. The Kerrville Church is moving along and we will report all in full at the annual conference when Bishop Dickey calls us together. We will have a new Bishop for this conference, a man who was elected at the last Session of the General Conference which met in May at Hot Springs, Arkansas. He comes to us well recommended and with the reputation of being a great preacher. We trust that the entire Kerrville District will have a report that will be a credit to any district.

The services thus far in the meeting have been successful, and with the promise and power of God we are assured of a gracious week. To this end let us apply ourselves with all the devotion and energy God has given us.

There are many men in Kerrville who are not members of any church and many of them never go to any church, yet those same men would not care to live in this city of ours were it not for the influence of the church. The influence of the church alone has vouchsafed them security in their business and in their personal happiness. Mr. Babson, the king of financial experts, once said recently that every dollar's worth of real estate owned and controlled by men was made valuable and secure only because of the religion of Jesus Christ working in the hearts and exerting its restraining influence over the spirits of men. If this statement be true, and no sensible man in this day of enlightenment will deny the fact, then should we not give ourselves to the support of the Gospel? I do not mean financial support as who read these words might construe them, rather I mean that moral and spiritual support which alone is the life of a people.

Through all the week our morning services will be held at 9:30 and the evening service at 7:30. We do not keep you long and we do not tire you, but we do promise to help you and do you good. It is forever true that today is the day to live and it is forever true that today is the day of salvation to those who wait upon the Lord.

On next Sunday we will have our regular services, and to all of them we cordially invite you to be present.

Birth Party
A very delightful party was given for Miss Kate Knox by her mother, Mrs. Robt. Knox, on the evening of September 6th.

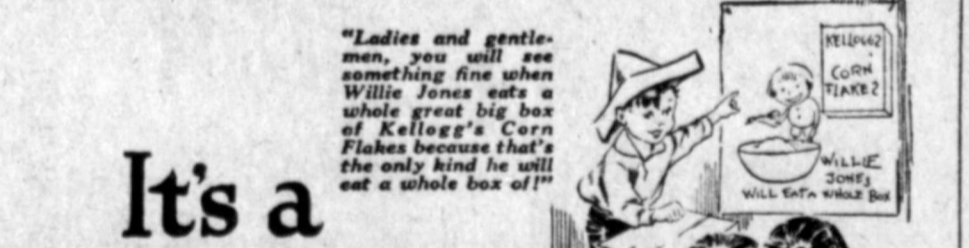

On the beautiful lawn of Mrs. Knox's home the little folks played many interesting games, the most enjoyable one being the "Sprinkle salt on the bird's tail." In this Miss Dodo Schreiner earned the prize, a pink silk powder puff.

Ice cream was served with dainty decorated cakes, and the favors were tiny dolls made of marshmallows with crepe paper dresses, these representing Miss Kate's picture.

The invited guests were: Misses Jane Harrison, Geraldine Beitel, Mary Nell Adkins, Dodo Schreiner, Annie Laurie Garrett, Annie Laurie Canfield, Nellie Ganter Schreiner, Charlotte Carpenter, Frances Eastland, Eleanor Allen, Aline Garrett, Margaret and Martha Harwood, Portia and Dorothy Dee Hughes, Julia Ann and Irene Jackson, Ruth Leavell, Virginia Leisinger, Roberta McDougall, Charley Moore, Marcia Jane Morris, Thelma Hagens, Cecil Rawson, Dorothy Rawson, Esther Grona, Aimee Louise Schmerbeck, Katherine Self, Laura Patton, Moore, Mildred Richerson, Nina Grant, Blanch Shumaker, Marie Speckels, Mildred and Elaine Williams, Lula Wesch, Tinsie and Elizabeth Richards. The adult guests were: Mrs. Davey, Mr. and Mrs. Carrico, Miss Myrtle Davey, Mrs. Felix Watson, Mrs. J. C. Folger and Mrs. Geddie.

The pearl button was first manufactured in Illinois in 1887 and has been developed until now the bulk of buttons are manufactured from mussel shells. Other buttons are made from nuts, potatoes, horns, hoofs, blood, porcelain, skim milk, glass, metals and seaweed. The total button sales each year in America alone are more than $32,000,000.

It's a joyous treat to sit down to a bowl of Kellogg's Corn Flakes

You'll agree that you never ate such delicious, such satisfying cereal as Kellogg's Corn Flakes! Those big, sunny-brown "sweet-hearts-of-the-corn" are so fascinating in flavor and so crispy and crunchy that you don't wonder the children are thrilled to eat them!

Compare Kellogg's with imitations to realize their quality, their appetizing appeal, their wonder-crispness! Unlike imitations, Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Each heaping spoonful of Kellogg's is even more joyous than the last—there is no end to the happiness that is yours eating Kellogg's Corn Flakes!

The prayer meeting hour last week was given over to Mrs. Barrett, who told us the miraculous story of her conversion. There was a full house and for an hour and a half she held the rapt attention of every one. Then on Sunday night she gave us her lecture on our denominational institutions, using her Victor portable stereopticon, and the house was full of interested listeners. Mrs. Barrett is touring the state in the interest of the 75 Million Campaign. She went from here to Giddings, Texas.

The Bible School was larger and better Sunday. Miss Ermine Welborn is making an excellent General Secretary and the other new officers are doing fine.

The pastor preached Sunday morning on "Willing Service." It was a good service and at the close we had the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

The Senior and Intermediate B. Y. P. S.'s had a joint meeting Sunday evening. Both of these organizations are putting on new life.

We did not have our regular prayer meeting this week on account of the Methodist meeting now in progress. Let us all attend this revival and help to make it a success.

We will have our regular preaching service next Sunday morning, but worship with the Methodists that evening.

The different circles of our W. M. U. began the study of the manual Tuesday.

The campaign for the Baptist Hospital to be built in San Antonio is now on in earnest all over Southwest Texas. When shall we take our subscriptions? Kerrville men and women should raise not less than $1,000.

Tired
"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

"I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

The attempt of the anti-Ku Klux Klan agitators to defeat Earl B. Mayfield for United States Senator will not amount to much. The principal leader is Barry Miller of Dallas, who was manager for Senator Culberson, and did more than anybody to bring about his defeat, it is believed. There was no need of bringing the Ku Klux Klan into the Democratic primary, nor would it have been done, it is thought, had not Senator Culberson made such an attack on the organization. This was doubtless prompted by his manager, Barry Miller, and his antipathy to the Klan is possibly explained by his wife being a zealous Catholic, so we are informed.

The attractive large ad of Chas. Schreiner Company has no doubt been noticed by readers of the Sun, but there is one feature of it that we want to especially call your attention. That is the request that you "Shop at Home," and which we consider is the most important part of that advertisement. There is no justifiable reason for so much money being sent out of Kerr County for merchandise. Our stores carry about everything the people desire, and when quality, convenience and advantage of keeping the money at home is considered, it is a saving to trade with our home merchants. As everyone knows, Chas. Schreiner Company carry city style and size stocks of all kinds of goods, and they buy in such quantities that they get the lowest prices, so when you consider quality, they will save you money. And there is another feature of it—this company, as well as other mercantile firms here, extend you credit when you do not have the money and desire goods. This accommodation ought to be appreciated and when you do have money, give your home merchant the preference. When you trade at home, the money is kept where you have a chance at it again, but when sent off to mail order houses neither you nor any one else in this community get any chance at it again.

Of course Maine went Republican, but by a decreased majority. The record of the Republican party for the past two years does not warrant it being kept in power, but the Democrats have not done anything to justify them being given charge. This country is in a political chaotic condition.

The chauffeur of Prince Hirohito, recently of Japan, committed hara-kiri because of a tire puncture while his royal master was riding in his machine. Hara-kiri is a method of suicide sometimes practiced in Japan when any happening which in any way inconveniences any of the imperial family, is caused by the person in control of that portion of the royal entourage in which it occurs.

MAIL ORDER BAROMETERS

San Antonio Light: Word comes from Chicago and New York through the usual commercial channels that the big mail order business houses are noting a decided quickening of trade particularly in the middle west and in all farming regions. They report that money is easier and probably the farmer is "easier" too. At all events they are selling far more goods and getting better prices.

It is strange that the mail order houses are the barometers of merchandising. They feel the effects of better times and the effects of bad times weeks and sometimes months ahead of the country merchants. There is a reason. They are in close touch with the money centers. They have their fingers on the financial pulse of the country. As the signs of business indicate improvement they immediately take advantage of the situation. They have ample credits and they are the first to know when to buy and when not to buy.

The country merchant on the other hand labors under the disadvantage of being compelled to carry the farmer and rancher in the lean period when he has no money. Human nature is much the same in whatever capacity it is brought into play, hence it is not surprising that before paying up his bills at the store in the county seat, the farmer and rancher will send a nice fat order, money enclosed, to a mail order house. Consequently the mail order house feels the advent of better times far ahead of the country merchant and deftly turns the farmer's money to his own use. It is of course, some weeks later when the farmer gets around to paying his account at the store. He has stimulated business vastly in the big centers far away from his home town and he has kept his home town back by refusing to pay the man who carries him when he is broke.

There is no argument in favor of the big mail order fellow as against the home merchant. By this we do not mean the store that fills an order for merchandise that comes in by mail. Many people shop by mail. They have to do it. They can not come to town for a few yards of goods and often they can not come to town at all. Even the country merchant in the county seat is very glad to get an order from a rural route customer and to send it out by parcel post immediately. But he is in a different category entirely from a mail order concern in New York that specializes in selling by mail only and provides no credit, no help, pays no taxes and supports no churches and schools in the various communities where its business comes from.

Annually, hundreds of thousands of dollars are sent away from the local merchants in cities and towns of Texas to mail order concerns in the large centers of population. Not infrequently, the same class of goods can be bought from the home merchant, at similar prices and on far better terms when all things are considered. The home merchant is the bulwark of the community's commercial life. He makes his money at home, keeps it there, spends it there.

For Twenty Years

I have devoted a part of my time to the examining of eyes and the accurate fitting of glasses, and have passed the State Board of Examiners in Optometry. This experience, together with modern equipment, has placed me in a position to relieve tired eyes and place failing eyesight on a normal plane.

J. A. JACKSON, Optometrist

He supports with his taxes and his efforts, churches, schools, lodges and civic organizations of various kinds. He gives employment to the boys and girls, to the husbands and fathers, to the widows and orphans. He is at the head of the list for every charitable enterprise. He buys a ticket to every lawn fete, picnic and school entertainment that comes along. He is a public benefactor in his way and if he makes a dollar profit the community makes two dollars. The home merchant is entitled to the support of the community and he is entitled to a prompt payment of accounts.

It is a sorry commentary on the home spirit of any locality when it can be said that the mail order house in the North and East know more about its financial condition than the home merchant. Yet the mail order houses today say the country is more prosperous than in many months. The home merchant in a lot of localities hasn't yet discovered that to be a fact.

UNIQUE RECEPTION

TENDERED MISS TURLEY

Mrs. J. B. Holt was the charming hostess on Tuesday evening on a lovely "Trip to China," in compliment to Miss Faye Turley, who will leave Friday for the Missionary Training School at Fort Worth to receive training for mission service in China.

The guests met in San Francisco, at the American Cafe, where further plans were made for the voyage before going on board the ocean liner "The Texas."

Mrs. A. B. Burton as guide escorted the guests on board, explaining in a most vividly interesting and instructive manner the many pleasures they would encounter on this, their first ocean voyage. Her descriptions were so realistic that the guests veritably saw the monstrous waves and felt the swaying of the great ship even to the point of "sea-sickness." All along the way the trip was made delightful by the resourcefulness of the guide in pointing out the many things of interest.

Their first stay was to be in the quaintly interesting seaport town of Swatow. The great ship made anchor in the early morning, the travelers being greeted by a young Chinese boy, "Mook," impersonated by Miss Edith Tullis, who explained the points of interest in the town of Swatow, also giving a history of his life from an orphan heathen boy to that of a young "Clistian" boy, studying to be a "Clistian" doctor. Fearing that the "Mellicans" would forget him, he presented to each a handpainted likeness of himself. These were the artistic work of Miss Martha Holt.

The travelers then made their way to a unique cafe. As they entered, they saw the low table daintily set, and at each place a tiny hand-painted parasol from which hung a miniature lantern as a place card. After all were seated on cushions around the artistic table lovely with flowers and dainty Chinese ware, a repast of rice, bread and butter sandwiches and hot tea were enjoyed.

The guests then made their way to the home of the missionary, Mr. and Mrs. Sallee, formerly of Texas. They were greeted by Mrs. Sallee, splendidly impersonated by Mrs. Holt. While here, songs in Chinese and English were sung. Mrs. Sallee then told the guests that she wished them to see some magic flowers. Bowls of water were placed before them and tiny boxes containing what seemed to be only round pieces of paper. These were dropped into the water one at a time and behold, lovely flowers blossomed before your eyes. Chinese nuts were then passed and when opened a unique Chinese favor was found inside. Before leaving the guests were asked to try to pin the queue on the Chinaman. This caused much merriment. Miss Lucile McCoy was the luckiest contestant.

The trip back to America was made by airplane, so the travelers soon found themselves back in San Francisco, and again seated in the American Cafe. Mr. and Mrs. Holt greeted the returned travelers and then served delicious pineapple ice cream and wafers.

The evening was a most delightful one in every way and was thoroughly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to take this interesting trip.

"Do You Wonder I'm Proud of My Overland Sedan?"

THE pride that every woman feels in the possession of an Overland Sedan is founded on the worth and beauty of the car itself.

See how beautifully and staunchly the body has been built. See how comfortable and roomy the seats are, how deep and resilient the cushions, and the wonderful Triple Spring suspension just seems to remove every bump and rut from the road.

And it is so easy to drive—the motor, which uses remarkably little gasoline, seems eager to go on, no matter how steep the grade or how heavy the going. There is a feeling of power to spare.

No wonder people everywhere are buying Overland Sedans.

FORD GARNERS $160,000,000 IN CASH IN A SINGLE YEAR

stories in a much shorter space of time than any other manufacturer.

It is estimated that Ford is able to keep at least $50,000,000 in his treasury by not buying huge quantities in advance.

Mr. Ford's next step was to make a thorough study of the transportation problems, and so linking his Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad with such connections and New York State barge transportation that he can transport goods to the East for distribution much quicker and cheaper than others. In this way he saved many millions more by not having an enormous quantity of goods in storage here for the purpose of meeting orders.

The money he thus saved was immediately turned back into business. When depression hit the automobile world he eliminated all waste manpower. He succeeded in producing more automobiles than during the war period with some 10,000 less men. This item alone saved Ford more than $250,000 a week in the payroll.

Ford says his success in accumulating $160,000,000 cash in the last year, to say nothing of paying off more than $15,000,000 in notes and debts and building additions to the company plants, is due entirely to his desire to give purchasers of Ford cars the best possible value for their money and securing their confidence through cheap, efficient management.

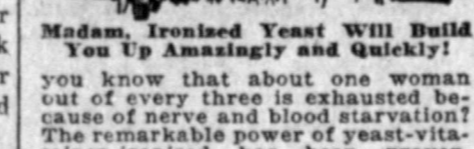

Ford owns railroads, ships, mines, coal and iron, huge timber tracts, the Lincoln Motor Company and vast real estate holdings in the northern part of Michigan.
