Dorothy Doyle Married

News of an elopement is always of interest to friends of the couple and especially so was the message that came to Kerrville early Wednesday morning that the wedding of Jack Stevens and Miss Dorothy Doyle had been solemnized in Junction at 3:30 that morning.

The young couple attended the local picture show and after the show they accompanied by Jack Allen, left for Junction—just before they reached Junction, the car in which they were riding upset, causing the ceremony to be somewhat delayed.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Doyle and has spent most of her life in Kerrville. She was a student for two years at C. I. A. and possesses a voice of rare musical beauty.

Mr. Stevens had been a student at Schreiner Institute for the first part of the year, where he was captain of the football team and was also captain in the student cadet organization.

The young couple left Friday for their home in Smithville where the groom is engaged in the drug business.

Presbyterian Women Meet

One of the most interesting programs of the year was given Thursday afternoon in the Sarday School auditorium. Mrs. R. L. Scherber was leader for the afternoon, the lesson being on Foreign Missions.

The stage was beautifully decorated with Japanese screens, lanterns, parasols and wistaria blossoms. The characters were in Japanese costumes and presented a beautiful picture as they sat Japanese like on the cushions.

The theme of the pageant was that a social meeting was being held in the Japanese church to bid farewell to the missionary who was returning to America. Representatives were present from the Christian schools, leper hospitals, factory workers, fishermen, merchants, kindergartens, the pastors of Japanese churches and other walks in life.

Little Nellie and Josephine Schreiner, dressed as Japanese kindergarten children, sang "Jesus Loves Me" in English and then in Japanese.

The hostesses, Mesdames H. Henke and J. D. Jackson, served tea and rice cakes to the members.

The Auxiliary will meet at 3:30 this afternoon at the church. Mrs. W. A. Salter will present the cause of "Christian Education and Ministerial Relief." She will be assisted by young ladies from Miss Scofield's School and from Tivy High School. Mesdames L. F. Adkins and A. W. Henke will be hostesses.

Miscellaneous Shower for Mrs. Stevens

Mrs. E. E. Palmer and daughter, Miss Yolande Robinson, honored Mrs. Jack Stevens, a recent bride, with a miscellaneous shower last Thursday afternoon.

The guests had arrived and placed their gifts on the table in the dining room before the honor guest arrived. When she arrived she was allowed to open the gifts at once. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by the honoree.

The invited guests were Mesdames Scott Schreiner, A. C. Schreiner Jr., A. C. Schreiner, Beitel, Jackson, W. S. Wheelless, Secor, Prescott, Amy Wallace, Kuhlmann, Bernard Kuhlmann, Chas. Rawson, Leonard Rawson, Chas. Johnston, Guber Gibson, A. B. Williamson, Glenn Brooks, Lee Mason,

Miss Diert Entertains Kappa Deltas

Last Thursday evening Miss Annita Diert entertained the members of her Sunday School class and their friends, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Diert.

The spacious living and dining rooms were decorated with red hearts and other Valentine suggestions. Progressive hearts were played during the evening. Miss Ada Nance received a box of stationery for having most points and Jonas Sturgis Jr. was given a bottle of catsup (catchup) for having the lowest score.

The hostess, assisted by her mother and Mrs. W. A. Salter, the class teacher, served a delicious salad course to

HILL MADE Creamery Butter

The above name is the one selected from the many suggested in the contest for a name for our product, which closed Saturday night, and as a result of the selection of this name, D. R. Parady of this city was presented with a ten dollar gold piece for suggesting the name selected.

Hill Made is an appropriate name, in the opinion of the committee. We think so too, for it is a name suggestive of The Hill Country, of which we are all so proud and which we are all striving to develop in every way possible.

Yes, Hill Made is a good name, but not too good for the product it represents, and you will agree with us when once you try our butter. Buy a pound at your grocers today, take it home and give it a trial.

Woman's Missionary Society

One of the most delightful events in the Methodist Church social calendar was the missionary and social meeting held at the home of Mrs. C. W. Moore last Tuesday afternoon, when Mrs. Wm. Warrell, Mrs. Stuart Davis and Mrs. Moore entertained jointly.

Decorations carried out the Washington Birthday idea most effectively. On the walls of the drawing room were several fine pictures representing various periods of Washington's career, and American flags were used with unusually good effect. The beautiful home of Mrs. Moore was made more lovely with a profusion of flowers, cyclamen, sweet peas and hyacinths, which were furnished and arranged by Mrs. Stuart Davis.

A splendid missionary program was carried out by the following members: Mrs. Wm. Warrell, leader; Mesdames White, Powell, Herndon, Reed, Ward, Gowen, Starkey and Lovrance. Miss Carrie Tuttle led the devotional. Miss Clara McDoniel sang a beautiful solo. Mrs. Warrell then directed a clever contest, in which Miss Mary Gowen won the prize, a lovely bouquet of sweet peas, and Mrs. Frank Coleman the second, a charming Martha Washington doll.

Mrs. Moore served delicious refreshments to about 40 guests, the plate favors being tiny American flags. All enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent, and the three hostesses deserve great credit for this attractive entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Holchak and little son arrived last Saturday from San Antonio for a short visit with Mrs. Holchak's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schwethelm. Herbert, who was formerly agent here for the Sap Railway, is acting as agent during the absence of H. E. Meisell.

THE NEW STAR OF GOLD

Farm and Ranch: Woodrow Wilson has gone to be with the boys who, like himself, were victims of War's mortal wounds. In the loving hearts of his people there rests a new gold star of infinite resplendency.

Anything that might be said of America's great Beloved would be either too much or too little. The simplest and best tribute is what lies in the unplumbed depths of human feeling.

Woodrow Wilson was unspeakably greater in temporary defeat than he could possibly have been in untroubled success. "Peace" was a crown of thorns upon his noble brow, and international good will was found to be a road of jagged stones, lined with mockers taunting at his patient progress.

In departing with neither bitterness nor censure Woodrow Wilson made his final sacrifice for his people. The echo of his ideals, like those of that other, and greater, of 2,000 years ago, will follow upon his passing, gaining new volume with every repetition, until the refrain shall encircle this base world and make glad its imperfect little figures of clay.

In this issue of The Sun will be found a neat advertisement for the Kerrville Lumber Company, which, besides being good publicity for their business, is a good boosting editorial for Kerrville. Don't fail to read it—in fact, don't fail to read all the advertisements in your home paper every week.

Grinstead's Graphic: Occasionally someone dies from snakebite in Texas. Occasionally, also, someone is lynched in Iowa. Once in a great while they elect a Democratic congressman in Pennsylvania. Men have been known to go without spectacles in Boston, and to violate the rules of grammar. One Californian has been found who admits that the sun sometimes shines east of the Rocky Mountains. So, take it all round, we are learning that there is no one section of America that is absolutely faultless. All we claim is that America is God's favored country just now, and there is no spot in it better than Texas—and no spot in Texas better than Kerr County.

Junction Eagle: There are still a few people who apparently do not know the difference between news and advertising—that is when they are seeking free advertising by the news item route. Occasionally we are accosted by persons who seem to think we are running a newspaper just for the fun of the long hours of work that it requires. These people would never think of going to a merchant and asking that he give them some article of merchandise, but they will ask us to give them free advertising, which is the same to us as the merchant's goods. When these efforts at free advertising come from large concerns of the city, we refer to them as "space grafters," and they don't expect anything else, but when from some local person we, of course, do not use this term in referring to them, notwithstanding the fact they refer to us in terms much worse. A little knocking from some people is good "free advertising" for and business concern; we should worry.

Bandera New Era: The Methodist Encampment, mentioned in last week's New Era, goes to Kerrville, and we congratulate that hustling town on securing this big plum. Kerrville is reaching out for those things and getting them by united effort. And those big things are just what are making Kerrville a great city. We are proud of our neighbor, and we feel not the slightest jealousy because she is getting big things. Bandera wanted that Methodist Encampment, and suddenly realized that we wanted it mightily bad, but we woke up to the fact too late to interest the location committee in our attractive region. When our committee went to confer with the Methodist committee it was learned that Kerrville's proposition had been tentatively accepted, and we could only blame ourselves for not setting the alarm clock and getting up before breakfast. But we are awake now. We are going to reach out for everything in sight. The many good things this town has missed in the years that have passed has taught that collective action must be taken. Individual effort gets us nowhere. We know of several men here who have always been agitating, working, striving and pulling to get things going along progressive lines, and are still at it, while others have just been standing around waiting for them to succeed and thereby get the benefit of their labors. But now everybody has woken up to the realization that all must work for those things that are for the town's good or begin to think together they begin to plan together; when they begin to plan together they act together; when they act together they can accomplish something worth while.

Center Point News: Our sister city Kerrville is to be congratulated on securing the Methodist Encampment. Kerrville is alive to the growth and development of the Hill Country, and when something good for the town and country presents itself, those live-wire fellows grab it. We say hurrah for Kerrville.

Leakey Leader: The West Texas Methodist Encampment committee has selected the site offered by Kerrville for a permanent summer encampment. This section of Texas is the most beautiful Hill Country in Texas, the elevation being 2,000 feet above sea level. The securing of this encampment will be another big drawing card to their city and country, and will mean much to the commercial interests of their city as well as the moral and religious developments. Kerrville is to be commended upon the securing of this encampment.

Uvalde-Leader News: Every man has a right to his own opinion is a common expression. No good citizen would want to abridge that right. To the one who is honest, obeying the laws of his country, pursuing his own way without molesting or interfering with the rights of others, that is the freedom that America gives her citizens and the freedom that has won for her the proud distinction she claims among the nations of the world.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

This afternoon (Thursday, February 21st) at 3 p. m. a Washington entertainment will be held at Notre Dame Institute.

The program starts this afternoon with the singing of the National Hymn, "The Star-Spangled Banner."

After the enjoyment of the play, the banquet hall will be thrown open and a troupe of Martha Washingtons will take care of all the hungry guests that appreciate an old-fashioned chicken menu.

On Washington's Birthday no classes will be conducted at either parochial school.

On Leap Year Day, February 29, the High School girls will hold a dance in Washington Hall after 8 p. m.

Valentine Post Office

Without bothering Uncle Sam, the Notre Dame pupils erected their own mailing station on St. Valentine's Day, and had lots of fun exchanging comical messages, some of which were home-made products.

Honest Abe Lincoln was colorized on the 12th by the History and English classes.

A double birthday was celebrated the following Saturday by two of the boarders: Alberta Woodman of San Antonio and Lottie Bullard of Sinton.

On the same day Mrs. Joseph L. Ahr held her birthday at "Blue Bell," and joined the celebration with that of Benny Mosel.

Miss Margaret Doring is back with the boarders after a brief attack of the flu. Several of the Sisters were afflicted during the epidemic of colds, but not enough to cause any interruption in their daily routine.

In spite of inclement weather we had a very good congregation Sunday morning, who heard a forceful, practical sermon on "Fight the Good Fight of Faith" reminding us of the splendid example of St. Paul and of how all life is and must be a continual warfare; that we should array ourselves on the side of righteousness and do as he did, fight on, until it is time for us to be laid away, no matter what the odds are against us; that most likely we would make many mistakes, but the general trend of our lives would always be for the best.

Notice was given of a concert to be held in the Parish Room Friday, the 22nd, from 7 to 8 p. m., by some of the girls of St. Phillips Industrial School for colored girls. Admission is 25 cents and if you feel able to give more, it will be appreciated. This money is to be used for enlarging the school which was started by Bishop Johnston, who considers it the best work he has done and is very anxious to have it completed. The girls have fine voices and sing the negro melodies very sweetly. A treat is in store for those who attend. Everyone is most cordially invited to come.

San Antonio Express, Feb. 20.—Dr. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Fort Worth, and Dr. L. E. Gates, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio, will be the principal speakers at the Alto Frio Baptist Encampment, and the opening day, which will be July 4, will have for its feature a big barbecue dinner and Fourth of July celebration, with Dr. Norris as the principal speaker.

Details of the program and the arrangement to have Dr. Norris and Dr. Gates as the speakers for the encampment were made at the annual luncheon given at the Gunter by W. T. Mitchell, president of the encampment, to members of the board and the program and publicity committees. Dr. Norris, Dr. E. C. Routh, editor of the Baptist Standard, and Rev. Sid Williams were guests.

The planning of the program at Alto Frio is part of the annual conference. Other features of the program will include Ayla Wilgus of San Antonio as song leader, and Mrs. George Miller, who will give chalk talks. There will be the usual features of the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. study courses. The dates of the encampment will be July 4-13, which will include two Sundays, closing with the second Sunday.

METHODIST CHURCH

(By Member)

We witness an increasing interest in all departments of the church with large congregations at all services. Just at the present and for the ensuing four weeks our attention is centered upon the great cause of the Super Annuate Endowment Fund. It will be a special effort in answer to the "Call of the Forgotten Man," in short, to raise a fund for support of the aged and infirm ministers and their widows and orphans. There are over 900 of the old preachers, many of them pioneer circuit riders who went through storm and sunshine, winter and summer, day and night, to serve humanity and the church. There are 1,300 widows and 600 orphans, many of whom are living in little better than poverty. They never forgot duty and the church for a single moment, and there is now evidence on all sides that the church is at last thoroughly awake to its belated duty in this respect.

The special effort is being directed by the Board of Finance of the M. E. Church, South, St. Louis, Mo., with Bishop W. F. McMurry, chairman, and Dr. Luther Todd, secretary. The latter has issued a booklet, "The Call of the Forgotten Man," which tells the pathetic story of this great need and asks the church, all church members to remember with substantial giving. This interesting booklet will be placed in the hands of all members, if possible.

The goal for the entire church for this movement is $10,000,000, the Kerrville station having accepted $1,881 as its quota.

During the next few weeks at both morning and evening services this important matter will be discussed by four-minute speakers, both men and women laymen.

There will be regular services next Sunday at both hours.

Men's Bible Class

The Whosoever Bible Class is growing in interest and numbers. Last Sunday an executive committee was appointed, as follows: Joe Croom, Geo. Womack, Hecae Starkey, Carey Horton and W. B. Powell. The program committee is as follows: Joe Croom, H. C. Geddie, R. L. Mangum. The programs will vary from time to time. The membership is entering into the work of the class with much enthusiasm. The lessons and discussions are very interesting and Judge Geddie's talks are thoroughly inspiring. The roster is always open for new members; all who desire may join. Whosoever meets next Sunday at 9:45 at the Woodman Hall.

Parent-Teachers' Club

The Parent-Teachers' Club held a very interesting program at the High School Wednesday afternoon of last week. After the routine of business the following program was given:

Piano solo, Ruth Leavell; reading, Rolfe Richards; "Saving Young Bodies," Mrs. J. C. Oehler.

The club will give a Martha Washington Tea at the Episcopal Parish Rooms next Saturday from 3 to 6 o'clock. A musical program has been prepared and tea will be served. A free will offering will be taken at the door. This fund will be used to beautify the school grounds.

Our Sunday School continues to grow steadily. A great deal of interest is being evidenced in the various classes, especially in the Men's Bible Class of which Dr. Dickey is leader.

The choir under the direction of Mrs. G. M. Doyle, with J. V. McCurdy at the organ, furnishes wonderful music. The anthem, "How Beautiful upon the Mountains," sang at the morning service was indeed beautiful. Dr. J. V. McCurdy preached at the morning service, using as his scripture reading the 12th Chapter of Paul's Epistle to the Romans. His subject was, "Christian Service." Its nature and motive. The text being the first verse of Romans 12, "I beseech ye therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God which is your reasonable service."

Dr. McCurdy gave the definition of sacrifice as comes from the Old Testament as meaning a supreme test of faith. Holy was expounded as meaning our all, ourselves, our capabilities and our means, and our acceptability to God being the manner in which we, as individuals may best serve Him. Dr. McCurdy used in conclusion of his sermon the Hymn "Lord speak to me that I may speak in living echoes of Thy tone."

On account of the inclement weather the musical program scheduled for the evening service was postponed.

LEGION LIGHTS

Items of Interest about U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 93, Legion, Texas, Edited by Geo. F. Dutt, Who is Authorized by The Mountain Sun to Receive and Issue Receipts for Subscriptions.

F. W. Schwarz, P. A. Surgeon Reserve, has been recently transferred to Legion from Palo Alto, California. Dr. Schwarz has had a valuable experience professionally having at various times been stationed at Tacoma, Wash., Boise, Idaho, and Whipple Barracks, Ariz.

Dr. M. W. Sherwood of Temple, who is State Commander of the American Legion of Texas, visited the hospital last Sunday. He was accompanied by Roy Marshall, Commander of the Alamo Post of the American Legion, San Antonio, and by Mr. Hart, who is also of San Antonio. Dr. Sherwood, a very able as well as active worker in the interests of the ex-service man, evidenced great interest in all of the problems pertaining to hospitalization. It is believed that the visit of Dr. Sherwood may be connected with the possible purchase of the Hospital at Legion by the Federal Government. The party representing the State Department of the American Legion was conducted over the hospital by Col. R. L. Cook, Commanding Officer, and O. W. Hinds, chief clerk. The various departments were visited as well as all of the sick wards. Many patients were personally interviewed.

Dahl Dewees of Phelps and Dewees, Architects, San Antonio, paid the hospital a visit the past week for the purpose of inspecting the new officers' quarters, with reference especially to the wiring and lighting of the newly constructed buildings. He expressed himself as well pleased with the installation of the equipment. Mr. Dewees mentioned that he would expedite action with reference to the new Recreation Building now contemplated. It is understood that the Recreation Building is to be constructed as part of the original program of the State Department of Texas.

The Red Cross Hall was taxed to its capacity Sunday afternoon when the Albert Pike Chapter of De Molay sent out seventy-five of its members from San Antonio to stage a minstrel show for the entertainment of the Veterans in the hospital. The performance, which consisted of four acts, was an immense success and proved to be one of the most enjoyable entertainment features of the winter. The first act was the usual ensemble of black face comedians and chorus, with the interlocutor and the end men. Two very interesting specialties were next given. The last act depicted a modern hotel which was later raided by prohibition officers. All of the musical numbers of the program were well done, and gave promise of excellent development in the talent of the young men who took part in the program. The Alamo Post of the American Legion of San Antonio was instrumental in securing transportation for the Minstrel to Legion.

In constructing its open car bodies, Buick uses bolts in fastening the metal braces to the wood, instead of ordinary screws. ## VETERANS' BUREAU WILL BE ASKED TO BUY KERRVILLE HOSPITAL WORTH $1,700,000

San Antonio Express: The State of Texas will be reimbursed approximately $1,700,000 it has expended upon the Legion Hospital for tubercular ex-service men at Kerrville, by its sale to the Veterans' Bureau of the United States Government, should the plans of the Texas Legion be put through to successful conclusion. This announcement was made Monday by Raymond L. Marshall, member of the Legion's State executive committee, following a visit of inspection to the hospital at Kerrville Sunday by Dr. M. W. Sherwood of Temple, State commander of the Legion, Mr. Marshall and T. Maxey Hart of Alamo Post.

Plans for purchase of the hospital have the full approval of the State Legion, the Veterans' Bureau, Governor Neff, the Texas Senators and a number of the Texas Representatives in Congress, Mr. Marshall said. The chief element of doubt remaining is as to whether Congress will make the necessary appropriation. Sherwood will go to Washington in a few days to confer with Gen. Hines, head of the Veterans' Bureau, relative to the purchase, and following his return it is possible that more definite announcement can be made, Mr. Marshall said.

Mr. Marshall recalled the fact that immediately after the war he found herself with a number of tubercular ex-service men and no fit place to treat them. While it was recognized from the start that the treatment of ex-service men was a matter which lay with the Federal and not the State Government, yet because agencies were lacking in Federal channels to give the men immediate and adequate treatment, collection of funds was started in the State by the Benevolent War Risk Society to establish a hospital. Before more than a fraction of the sum required was secured, this agency was dissolved by the Government. In passing from the scene, however, the society deeded to the Legion, Department of Texas, its site of 720 acres and three uncompleted buildings situated at Kerrville, with the understanding that the Legion was to see that the hospital was completed.

State Aids Construction

The Legion in turn secured the support of the State Legislature, and, in the regular session of January, 1921, $1,500,000 was appropriated to complete the building. However, it was impossible for the State to make appropriation for a strictly class institution, intended solely for the treatment of ex-service men. This issue was evaded after a fashion, the announcement being made that preference would be given ex-service men in admission to the hospital, although, technically, it was open to any tubercular person.

Early in 1922 the institution was thrown open to receive patients, but owing to its not being up to the required standard of the United States Veterans' Bureau, many ex-service men were transferred from or discharged from treatment and the hospital filled largely with tubercular patients, who had seen no war service.

Early in 1923, the American Legion, Department of Texas, secured the co-operation of the Veterans' Bureau, perfecting a lease to the Bureau whereby that organization took over the operation of the hospital at annual rental amounting to less than 4 per cent of the amount expended in construction of the hospital, or $65,000 a year.

Under this arrangement, however, the institution of between 500 and 600 beds was operated by the Bureau on money advanced by the State, which was felt by the Legion of Texas to be an injustice to the taxpayers of Texas, particularly in view of the large deficit existing in State treasury. Also, it was felt, the Federal Government and not the people of any one State, should bear the burden.

Latterly the situation has become still further complicated because the Veterans' Bureau has found it necessary to close hospitals in other States and as a result a number of tubercular men from these States, and particularly from Tennessee and Arkansas have been sent to Kerrville for treatment.

Valued at $1,700,000

Dr. Sherwood formulated the plan for the purchase of the hospital by the Veterans' Bureau, which he then presented to the State executive committee of the Legion. This body approved it. The plan also met with the support of Gov. Neff, Mr. Marshall said, as well as with the Texas Senators and a number of the Texas Representatives approached upon the subject.

The total estimated value of the Kerrville hospital, full title for which now vests in the State of Texas, is $1,700,000. The money invested in the institution includes $1,400,000 appropriated by the State and approximately $240,000 raised by popular subscription prior to the time that the State secured title.

"The Legion feels if it was originally the duty of the Federal Government to provide adequate hospital facilities for disabled ex-service men of the World War, it is still its duty properly to provide these facilities," said Mr. Marshall. "Therefore, it is the duty of the Federal Government to relieve taxpayers of the State of Texas of this burden by appropriating sufficient funds for the purchase of this property from the State."

"The Legion also argues that, assuming that this property was purchased and built at a fair valuation, the basis of the purchase price should be the total cost price of the institution, as shown by the figures of the State of Texas, architects, contractors, etc., and as attested to by the board of appraisers.

"Therefore the Legion has recommended to Congress that sufficient money be appropriated for the purchase of this institution, such purchase price to be based upon the total cost price."

The trip made Sunday by Dr. Sherwood, Mr. Marshall and Mr. Hart was for the purpose of making a final survey in order that Dr. Sherwood might have in hand the latest obtainable data in presenting his appeal to Gen. Hines.

Following the survey the two San Antonio men returned here, while Dr. Sherwood returned to Temple.

ESTIMATED WEALTH OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—The Department of Commerce announces, for the State of Texas, its preliminary estimate of the value, December 31, 1922, of the principal forms of wealth, the total amounting to $9,850,896,000 as compared with $6,298,246,000 in 1912, an increase of 56.4 per cent. Per capita values increased from $1,541 to $2,010, or 30.4 per cent.

All classes of property increased in value from 1912 to 1922, except live stock, which decreased from $394,904,000 to $327,807,000, or 17 per cent. The estimated value of taxed real property and improvements increased from $3,300,397,000 to $5,564,437,000, or 68.6 per cent; exempt real property from $307,637,000 to $398,169,000, or 29.4 per cent; farm implements and machinery from $62,123,000 to $105,892,000, or 70.5 per cent; manufacturing machinery, tools, and implements from $109,869,000 to $208,339,000, or 89.6 per cent; and railroads and their equipment from $519,764,000 to $640,968,000, or 23.3 per cent. Privately owned transportation and transmission enterprises, other than railroads, increased in value from $171,954,000 to $385,085,000, or 123.9 per cent; and stocks of goods, vehicles other than motor, furniture and clothing from $1,431,560,000 to $2,030,468,000, or 41.5 per cent. No comparison is possible for the value of motor vehicles, which was estimated in 1922 at $189,371,000, because no separate estimate was made in 1912.

In making these estimates the department followed in general the methods employed in making the estimates for 1912, though it is believed that in some respects the work in 1922 has been more thorough. It should be borne in mind that the increases in money value are to a large extent due to the rise in prices which has taken place in recent years, and so far as that is the case they do not represent corresponding increases in the quantity of wealth.

The estimated values of gold and silver coin and bullion, the vessels of the Navy and privately owned waterworks will appear only in totals for the United States.

EVERYBODY'S BUILDING

KERRVILLE is just entering into a period of development that bespeaks well for the future of the city. New houses are going up in all sections of the city and the sound of saw and hammer are heard on all sides. Even with this increased building activity, homes cannot be supplied fast enough to equal the demands, consequently there is apt to be an increase in home rentals in the near future. Don't blame your landlord---it's just the proposition of supply and demand. Be prepared for this emergency by beginning now the construction of your own home. The more people there are in Kerrville who own their own homes, the better place this will be in which to live. In any home-loving community property values increase, living conditions improve and the entire district advances, for home owners take a personal interest and pride in keeping their homes neat and attractive. And you will be surprised how easy it is to get out of the "renter" class and into a home of your own. The hardest thing is to decide you want your own home and where and how you want it built. We can assist you greatly in the latter---drop into our office and look over plans for any size and style of house you might possibly want, and let us explain to you how easy it is to build now and how little cash is actually required.

FRED P. MANN BOOSTS SAN ANTONIO AND TRIBUTARY TRADE TERRITORY

Says Kerrville Destined to Be Health and Pleasure Resort of This Part of the Country.

The Sun herewith reproduces extracts from a speech delivered by Fred P. Mann in the series of talks he made in San Antonio recently:

I have been so wonderfully impressed with this great country of yours—Southwest, Central and West Texas, I believe, is the garden spot of this great United States.

It was marvelous to see the wonderful grapefruit, oranges, lemons, Texas cabbage, carrots, lettuce; to hear of the vast amount of cotton that was raised and the price that you received; to hear about the onions produced in this territory; the milk, the honey; to hear about your great wool clippings. Why this country produce everything. Up in our country we have one crop a year; here you have more than one crop a month. All you have to do is plant and it grows.

Then on this other trip, the country was just as wonderful. San Angelo where we saw the wool and pecans—fifty car loads of pecans shipped out of San Angelo this year. Then Brownwood—Georgetown. Then that little town that I call a suburb of San Antonio—Kerrville. That's a wonderful country—goats and sheep on the countryside; high clear altitude—Kerrville is destined to be the health and pleasure resort of this country. Why not let everybody know about this wonderful country. Yet I don't know whether we made much impression last year or not. I did not see enough advertising—enough publicity. A few newspapers, in all the seventy-six towns we visited, carried big advertising. Georgetown was the outstanding town of them, all, in the advertising their newspaper carried. Get out and inspire these people a little bit more, spread business—business in the country. Help them—they have their problems. Preach this doctrine, "Buy at Home."

When we take a survey of Texas and find that 77 per cent of the merchandise sold here in retail stores is being bought outside the borders of this great State, what does it mean? Money that goes outside of Texas does not build your roads, improve your schools or build your municipal paved streets nor your great country highways that will assist you in the marketing of your wonderful crops. It is necessary for you to patronize your nearest home market, and of course San Antonio is your nearest home market. Patronize San Antonio, and all the community grows. That is what we must look out for.

Keep Texas money in Texas. Build as close around your community as is consistently possible. Encourage your customers to buy from you—not mail order houses.

To me the solution is this: you must first make up your mind that you will fight for business. You must get out attractive literature, advertising the commodities you have for sale. You must use newspaper space and lots of it. Demand good positions and change your copy with every insertion. Use prices, descriptions. If you can't think of descriptions—get ideas from them.

Make a contract with your newspaper as soon as you get home to use more space. Make your store attractive, make it inviting. When a farmer comes to town, let him come to you first, but when he comes to you see that your store is as attractive to him as the beautiful mail order catalogs. When he learns that he can buy from you just as cheap as he can from the mail order houses; that he does not have to pay his money in advance; that he can get the goods quicker; that he knows what he is getting; that the money he spends with you will improve his county; when he knows you will assist him in his problems, then he will come to you. You must go after the farmer exactly the same way that the mail order houses go after him—consistently, with properly prepared salesmanship.

Some of you men here tonight are in the automobile business—I can't help but talk about that little town of Kerrville. Going into a garage up there, I found how they sold so many automobiles, and why Mr. Ford sells so many automobiles. Some people say it's because Mr. Ford makes the best automobile in the world, but if he didn't have the best selling and advertising system, he would not be able to sell so many cars. This man showed me, in his office, how he was handling his advertising. He has his mailing list set up in classified. He knows each and every man in that territory who has a car, and who hasn't a car; the kind of car and whether he is a prospect. If he has a touring car, he has him down as a prospect for a sedan. He knows who are prospects for trucks or tractors. His direct-by-mail matter is there ready to be run through the addressograph to this classified mailing list. That is his way to beat mail order competition and keep business at home. That is a real live institution. He has found out how to conduct an automobile business along progressive and profitable lines.

The word "co-operation" has been worked to death—all right, call it anything else you wish. The thing is, just go out among each other, use this system, or that system, and put it in for yourself. Get knowledge from each other; raise the standard of merchandising and do things better. You are entirely too prosperous down here. The business of Texas belongs to the people in Texas. Of course don't build a wall around it like China. You welcome outside competition—you want it to come, but I am talking about the merchandise you can buy at home, at your nearest market. However, the dollar that goes out of your community to some house in Chicago, New York or Philadelphia never comes back. It is forever lost to your community. Merchandise you cannot buy here, it's fair enough, but with this great mail order business—that is different.

I recall the late Mr. Wilson said, "The stabilization of this Nation of ours rests in the rural community." The inroads the mail order houses are making on the rural community will ruin this country.

BRINGING THEM BACK

Des Moines Register: A friend of The Register had occasion to drive 40 miles or so northward last Sunday night when the weather was colder than he had thought. He had to stop at two farm houses and a garage to put warm water in his radiator.

At the first farm house a farmer and his wife sat beside a glowing base burner while the son, a youth of 20 years or so, manipulated a radio receiving set over which was coming a sermon by Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Chicago. At the second farm house four members of the family were sitting in the parlor, listening to a violinist in Kansas City play the Berceuse from "Jocelyn," while at the garage the mechanic was so engrossed in switching from a Minneapolis broadcasting station to a Dallas, Texas, station, that he had to be aroused from his radio lethargy to swing the garage doors open.

Nobody can foretell, yet, what place the radio may hold in the life of a generation or two hence. But nobody can see a family sitting, on Sunday night, around a radiophone listening to the choicest artists of half a continent without recognizing that of all the inventions and discoveries of this generation, none is a more potent instrument for keeping the farmer on the farm by bringing to him what he hitherto has had to go after. And the picture is not an idle one, not an unreal one, as anybody may know who will journey for 50 miles or so across country of an evening, peering in at a few farm house windows.

Making the farmer content to live on the farm is, of course, only one small phase of the broad agricultural problem, a problem which has never been discussed so much as in the last five years.

But it is an important one.

The unpaid interest on the debts of Europe to the United States amounts to more than $1,500,000,000.

Mrs. Tucker in a New Dress

YOU know good Mrs. Tucker. That cheerful helper who has brought happiness to countless kitchens. Who has made cooking easier and food better. Wherever she goes she is joyfully welcomed. For Mrs. Tucker's Shortening, the South's own cooking fat, is acclaimed the finest shortening there is by all who use it.

Now Mrs. Tucker has a new dress. It is the New Pail. And a most wonderful pail it is. For it is at once air-tight and easy to open—a rare combination indeed. Moreover, it is highly sanitary. And when empty you will find it extremely useful as a bucket for household use or as a dinner pail.

Your grocer has Mrs. Tucker's Shortening. And you can always be sure he will deliver it to you sweet and fresh. The air-tight feature of the New Pail sees to that. After you've opened it, the lid fits snugly, keeping out all dirt. And there's no place inside for impurities to collect.

Use Mrs. Tucker's Shortening. Use it freely. It is easily digestible. Far more so than olive oil, corn oil, hog lard, cocoanut oil, soy-bean oil, or beef or mutton tallow. This has often been proved by the United States Department of Agriculture. For Mrs. Tucker's Shortening is made exclusively from cottonseed-oil. It's so labeled on the New Pail. Ask your grocer for it to-day. Cook with it. Find out for yourself what so many already know—that Mrs. Tucker's Shortening, in the New Pail, is the finest and most convenient cooking fat you can buy.

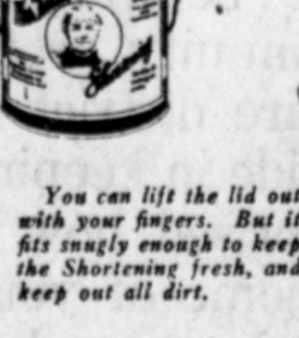

Easy to Open

Slip an ice-pick or other sharp-pointed instrument through the hole in the tab of the sealing ring, pointing toward the center of the lid.

Twist the point outside the rim of the pail and pull up, breaking the sealing ring. Then strip the ring completely off.

You can lift the lid out with your fingers. But it fits snugly enough to keep the Shortening fresh, and keep out all dirt.

Showers Total 1.55 Inches

The showers of last Friday and Sunday nights caused a precipitation of 1.55 inches, according to Government Observer Davis Horne.

The early part of last week was clear and spring weather prevailed. A change in temperature caused the showers Friday afternoon and night, and Saturday was clear and warm.

A light norther arrived early Sunday morning and more rain began to fall during the afternoon, continuing intermittently through Monday.

The skies cleared again Tuesday, but Wednesday found them cloudy again. The Government report received here Wednesday forecasts probably fair weather Thursday with lower temperatures.

Real County May Build New Roads

Edwards County Leader, Feb. 15th: Some of the Leakey citizens who were in Rocksprings this week said there was a strong sentiment over in Real County to build a good highway from Leakey to intersect Highway No. 41, the new Rocksprings-Kerrville road, that is now under construction in this county.

The idea, we understand, is for the county to vote bonds and get State and Federal Aid. There would be twenty-seven miles of road to build. And in the completion of this improvement a large part of Real County trade would be deflected to Kerrville and San Antonio.

Report On New Kerrville Highway

Edwards County Leader, Feb. 15th: A. W. Owens stopped his car in front of the Leader office Thursday afternoon, and invited this editor to take a little trip with him out to where the Rocksprings-Kerrville road is being made good.

They had started grading in front of the school building here in town and had graded out about a mile and a half. The road has been changed somewhat—the old Kerrville road followed the Junction road for about a mile, but the new road follows the Junction road for about a mile and a half, then turns east across the field near the O. B. Epperson ranch house.

WOOL CLIP SELLS BELOW PRICES OF LAST YEAR

San Angelo, Tex., Feb. 16.—Paying 45 cents a pound, or five cents a pound less than the figure at which contracting opened last April, J. M. Lea of Del Rio and Ensley Oglesby of San Angelo have purchased for Draper & Company, Boston, between 35,000 and 40,000 pounds of choice wool, principally in Menard County, it was authoritatively learned here Saturday. This is the first big lot contracted in the State.

Contracts ran as high as 55 cents last spring, and ranchers were anticipating as much or more for their clips this season and with money matters easier, sheep men will likely pass up selling heavily in advance of shearing, which does not start until late in March, according to well posted wool men here.

No Indictments

Edwards County Leader, Feb. 15th: The grand jury which convened Monday was discharged Wednesday morning, having reported no bills of indictment. According to men of the jury, Judge Jones paid Edwards County some nice compliments on the fact that the citizens of our county are so law-abiding, and that there is no meanness of any kind going on. The Edwards County jail is still empty.

Some of our citizens who have been here a long time say it is the first time in their memory when the grand jury brought in no indictments. And Judge Jones says he has been on the bench nine years and it is the first time in his experience that a grand jury brought in not a single indictment. Edwards County is distressfully quiet and law-abiding.

SCHREINER WINS FAST GAME FROM BOERNE HIGH, 32-15

Boerne High School, victors in a basketball game on their court several weeks ago, lost the return game to Schreiner Institute here last Friday afternoon, 32 to 15.

It was a fast and exciting contest from whistle to whistle with Institute showing improvement in passing and goal shooting over their form in the first game.

Both teams played exceptional basketball, but the passing of the Maroon and White was slightly better than the visitors and the latter went down to defeat after a game fight.

Dibrell and Vaughn were high point men for Institute.
