KERRVILLE DEMONSTRATES SHE HAS NOT FORGOTTEN

Approximately 250 Decorated Floats and Private Cars in Armistice Day Parade—Hudspeth Speaks.

In spite of lowering clouds and drizzles of rain that reminded veterans of weather on the battlefronts of the World War, Kerrville and the Hill Country showed they had not forgotten the hardships and sacrifices of those perilous times...

Led by the Legion Band of Gonzales, which had been secured to furnish music for the day, the monster procession filed down Water Street, past the grayly decorated business buildings each displaying the National colors...

The principal theme discussed at the banquet was the Hospital at Legion. Mr. Hudspeth and State Senator Julius Real had made a thorough inspection of the hospital and grounds that afternoon...

Next came members of the D. A. V., American Legion, veterans of the Spanish-American and all other wars, followed by a float dedicated to the memory of Francisco Lemos...

Following came a myriad collection of decorated cars and floats. It was impossible to secure the names of the owners of all the private cars in the parade, but floats were present for the following organizations: Legion Hospital, D. A. V., Louis Halphen Post of the American Legion, Legion Auxiliaries, Red Cross, Schreiner Institute, Guadalupe School, Tivy High School, Retail Merchants' Association, Civic League, Parent-Teachers' Association, Baptist Church, Tivy Grammar School, Knights of Columbus, Catholic Convent, Mexican Baptist Church, Mexican Catholic Church, Scofield School, Rainbow Girls, Chamber of Commerce and the Kerrville Fire Department.

The parade was supposed to disband at the edge of the city, but instead the procession continued to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital to enable the boys confined therein an opportunity to see the display.

Immediately following the parade Colonel Cook acted as master of ceremonies at the monster open-air meeting on the hospital grounds. Following music by the band and a few introductory remarks by Mr. Cook, Hon. Claude B. Hudspeth delivered one of the best patriotic addresses Kerrville people have ever had the privilege of listening to.

Mr. Hudspeth prefaced his remarks with a tribute to the sturdy pioneers who settled this country in the early days and who were the foundation of the present civilization. Capt. Chas. Schreiner of this city came in for words of glowing praise for the part he played in the building of the country and for the assistance he has tendered in so many ways to the citizens thereof.

The Alamo was referred to as the cradle of Texas liberty and a shrine which all loyal Texans worship. The speaker spoke eloquently of the part Texans played in the Civil War from the beginning of the conflict until the close. Commenting on the termination of that war, the speaker stated that when Gen. Robt. E. Lee surrendered his sword to Gen. Grant and pledged the loyalty of the South to the Stars and Stripes, he spoke for every honest man from Maine to California and from Canada to the Gulf.

Leading up to the World War, the speaker said: "I thank God that when the call to arms sounded we were a united people in the part. Texans played in the World War was outlined by the speaker and the part Texas is playing and will continue to play in the lives of those disabled by disease as a result of the privations of war was stressed.

However, in discussion of this phase of the matter, Mr. Hudspeth stated that it was not the duty of the State but of the United States Government to provide for the disabled men. The hospital at Legion should be open not only to Texas veterans but to veterans from every State in the Union and he expressed his opinion forcibly that the hospital should be Government owned and pledged himself to do all in his power to bring this about.

At the close of Mr. Hudspeth's address the band rendered appropriate music, followed by a benediction by the Reverend Wheat.

During the services, promptly at 11 o'clock, the entire assemblage stood with bowed heads for 30 seconds as a tribute to the heroes who gave their lives during the World War.

Following the Legion services, short dedication services were conducted at the cemetery near that place, where a large flag pole has just been erected by the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary of the State. George Epple, commander of the Legion Post at the hospital gave an introductory address, followed by prayer by the Reverend Dickey. The flag was then raised on the flag pole, while the band played the National anthem. After taps had been sounded, Mr. Hudspeth made a brief dedication address, after which the ceremonies were concluded with music by the band. It was about 12:30 when the ceremonies at the cemetery closed.

Mr. Editor: By your permission, I offer a word of commendation with regard to the Armistice celebration.

First, as to its representative character. Never have I witnessed, I

GOVERNMENT WILL BUY HOSPITAL AT LEGION

Hon. C. B. Hudspeth So Informs Business Men at Banquet Tuesday Evening at St. Charles Hotel.

Tuesday night a banquet was held in the dining room of the St. Charles Hotel in honor of Hon. C. B. Hudspeth, Congressman from this District, who was here as the main speaker of the Armistice Day ceremonies. A representative gathering of business men, farmers and ranchmen was in attendance.

The principal theme discussed at the banquet was the Hospital at Legion. Mr. Hudspeth and State Senator Julius Real had made a thorough inspection of the hospital and grounds that afternoon, and since they are the two men who expect to bear the brunt of the work incident to the sale of the property to the Government, they asked for the conference with the business men.

According to Mr. Hudspeth, all that stands in the way of Government ownership of the plant is the fact that the State has not as yet set a value on same. He stated he was positive that as soon as this was done the National Government, through General Hines of the Veterans' Bureau, would purchase the property and convert it into a first class tuberculosis sanatorium.

As the gathering was assembled through the medium of the Chamber of Commerce, and the president of same was absent from the city, Vice President Howard Butt presided over the meeting. After an elaborate banquet had been enjoyed to the fullest, Mr. Butt introduced Senator Real, who prefaced the introduction of Mr. Hudspeth with a few well chosen words outlining the necessity of the property being purchased by the Government, not for any local selfish gain, but for the welfare of the former service men of the entire country.

Mr. Hudspeth, during his talk, stated that it was six years since he had visited Kerrville and that he was amazed at the magnificent institution the State of Texas had erected below the city. He described his visit through the institution during the afternoon and stated that he saw, on every hand, evidences of improper treatment of the patients, not because of lack of care and attention, but because of the crowded condition of the institution.

The speaker outlined several conversations he had had with General Hines of the Veterans' Bureau, in which that individual stated that it was the Government's intention to buy the institution as soon as the State would set a price on same. General Hines also promised to make a personal inspection of the hospital in the near future, according to Mr. Hudspeth.

The speaker grew eloquent in speaking of the natural beauty of the grounds around the hospital, stating that the scenery far surpassed any found even in Switzerland. He compared the location of the Legion Hospital with that of the State Tubercular Hospital at Sanatorium, stating that there was no comparison between the two institutions.

Asked whether it was necessary for any Federal legislation to perfect the transfer of the property, Mr. Hudspeth stated it was not necessary, as Mr. Hines was already vested with sufficient authority by Congress to purchase any hospital sites he desired for the good and welfare of the ex-service men, and that since it would take legislative enactment by the State before the deal could be made, he suggested that a bill should be introduced at Austin immediately on the convening of the Legislature after the first of the year, offering the property and setting the price on same.

Mr. Hudspeth stated that in his opinion it would be necessary for the Government to expend between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 in remodeling the hospital and enlarging the buildings and equipment to meet the requirements that would be imposed upon it when it passed out of the State's hands and that naturally the improvements could not be made while the Government only had a lease on the property.

Every since the termination of the war, Mr. Hudspeth has devoted a large part of his time to legislation pertaining to the welfare of the former service men, and pledged his utmost efforts to securing of the transfer of this property, stating that in his opinion this hospital is located in the healthiest spot in the entire country. He deplored the fact that tuberculosis is developing to such an alarming degree among the former service men and gave it as his opinion that every thing possible should be done for their care and treatment.

In closing his address, Mr. Hudspeth urged all the people of his district to feel free about writing him on any matters affecting the welfare of any community, stating he wanted the co-operation of all his constituents and would do all in his power for them whether they supported him in the past or not.

After Mr. Hudspeth closed his address short talks were made by Dr. R. L. Cook, medical officer in charge of the hospital, Judge H. C. Geddie, J. J. Delaney, Ben Smith, Wm. Hines, A. B. Williamson and L. A. Schreiner. Several others present joined in a round table discussion of the proposition. Judge Real seconded the suggestion of Judge Geddie that the State Board of Control and the incoming Governor should be induced to endorse the matter, and urged also that all former service men's organizations of the State get behind the proposition and use their influence toward the

THREE GOOD STORIES

The Kerrville Mountain Sun Magazine Section for November will feature three especially good articles. "The Battle of Dove Creek," written by Austin Callan, will be one of the three articles; "Forestry of Texas," written by E. O. Sieck, State Forester, will be the second article, and "Chicken Raising for Pleasure and Profit," by Mrs. Margaret Stute, will be the third article. "The Battle of Dove Creek," was fought in 1863 on Dove Creek, south of the Concho River, in Southwest Texas, between 300 white men and 900 Kickapoo Indians. The fight was a deplorable mistake, as the Kickapoos were peaceful Indians, passing through Texas on their way to Old Mexico to take up land for colonization purposes. The Indians were victorious in this battle, and had they followed up their military advantage, a repetition of the Custer massacre on the Little Big Horn would undoubtedly have taken place.

TIVY BEAT FREDERICKSBURG BY 13-7 SCORE LAST FRIDAY

Local High School Proves Superiority Over Neighboring School Team for Second Time This Season.

Tivy High School football team won an easy victory over Fredericksburg High on the latter's field last Friday afternoon. This is the second meeting of the two teams this season and the boys at Fredericksburg showed a marked improvement over their previous encounter with Tivy. They have the weight and some real speedy men, but are lacking in knowledge of the game and in teamwork. However, their improvement since the teams met before is remarkable.

Tivy made a touchdown within a minute after the game started. Tivy kicked off and when Fredericksburg fumbled Beard recovered the ball and made a beautiful 35-yard run for a touchdown. The same player repeated the performance in the third quarter for the other Tivy touchdown, after Fredericksburg had fumbled again. Lloyd drop-kicked for the extra point.

Fredericksburg's points were made in the latter part of the first quarter, when they had forced the ball back to Kerrville's one-yard line and lacked the necessary punch to put it over. After holding their heavier opponents for three downs without permitting any gain, the Kerrville players submitted to having the officials declare the ball over the line, while in a reality it lacked over a foot of a touchdown. The Fredericksburg team drop-kicked the goal for the seventh point.

By reason of his two sensational runs for touchdowns, Beard was the outstanding player for Tivy. However the entire team showed up well and played a great game in spite of the unfair decisions rendered against them. Bill Jonas was called back from tackle several times to carry the ball through the line and made huge gains on every attempt. Lloyd displayed exceptional ability in handling his team and in toting the ball. Garrett, Osborne and Radelfiff showed up well on both offensive and defensive work, as well as did Secor at the opposite end from Beard.

Coach Moses sent his men into the game with instructions to save themselves as much as possible in this game, which accounts for the low Tivy score. Next Saturday Sonora invades Kerrville for a return game and Tivy, smarting under the defeat suffered at the hands of these players in the other encounter at Sonora, are looking ahead with keen anticipation to the surprise they are going to hand the boys from way out in the sticks. Sonora has a strong and fast team this year, as was attested by their game with Junction November 1, in which a tie score was the best that either team can boast of, but the fast little Tivy aggregation say they are not afraid of them and predict that they will clean up on the visitors. Determination has a lot to do with football games, as well as lots of other things, and if Kerrville citizens go out and boost for the home boys they may put it over.

TIVY GIRLS LOSE IN BASKETBALL GAME

The girls' basketball team of Tivy High School lost to Fredericksburg last Friday on the latter's court by a score of 34 to 18. It was a good clean game throughout and was featured by brilliant playing on both sides. This is the first game of the season for the Tivy girls, and since some of their players were out of the game by reason of scholastic handicaps, the showing made against the Fredericksburg girls is remarkable. Miss Jewel Craven is coaching the girls. Those accompanying her to Fredericksburg were Misses Eunice Smith, Jewel Aubrey, Mollie Spinks, Thelma Taylor, Ruby Grantham, Hardie Avera, and Mattie Turley.

Chas. Schreiner Bank Wool and Mohair Commission Merchant Four Ages In Business Copyright 1922 by W. C. S. [THE FIRST] THERE ARE FOUR AGES in the business life of every successful man. The first is when, as a boy, he begins to earn some money for himself and to spend money wisely. There can be no success unless one learns to earn and to spend carefully—otherwise there would be nothing to save. At this time in life the future business man builds up his savings account and begins to win the confidence of older men in business. This is the best possible preparation for the day of opportunity. This first age is the time used in getting started. It should begin as early in life as possible. Next Week we will talk about the second age. ESTABLISHED 1869 KERRVILLE, TEXAS

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS INJURE FOUR PERSONS PAST WEEK END

Mrs. H. Creglow, H. Vann, Miss Ruth Richards and Sonny Richards Victims of Reckless Driving.

Four persons suffered slight injuries as a result of two traffic accidents in the city the past week end, both smashes being caused by reckless driving.

As Mr. and Mrs. H. Creglow were backing out from the curb in front of the H. Noll Stock Co. their car was struck by a truck driven by Roy Turley and Mrs. Creglow was thrown out and slightly bruised and shaken up. Traffic Officer West, who had just about overtaken the speeding truck, narrowly escaped a collision but managed to pass between the two autos as they spread apart from the impact. Neither car was damaged to any great extent. Turley plead guilty to speeding and paid a fine.

Sunday afternoon on the highway in the south side of the city a car driven by Fermin Rios collided with a sedan driven by Mrs. H. Vann of Temple and Mr. Vann, Miss Ruth Richards and Sonny Richards sustained bruises and cuts from the broken windshields, Miss Ruth receiving several severe cuts about the face. Mrs. Frank Richards and Mrs. Vann, the other occupants of the sedan, escaped injury.

The Mexican was placed under arrest by Traffic Officer West, who was called to the scene of the accident. He was fined $50.00 and costs by Judge Turner for reckless driving and placed under a $1,000 bond to await the action of the Grand Jury on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated.

HILL COUNTRY IN MIDST OF ANNUAL RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Several Business Firms Displaying Placards Denoting 100 Per Cent Memberships—Juniors Busy.

In spite of the fact that Tuesday was devoted to a celebration of Armistice Day and practically every business house in the city was closed, the annual roll call of Kerr County Chapter of the Red Cross got off to a flying start by reason of the activities of workers among the Junior Red Cross Monday afternoon and of the fact that a booth was maintained throughout the day Tuesday in the lobby of the Post Office, where many paid over their money and received in exchange the membership card and the button.

Just how many memberships were secured on the opening day is not known for the reason that the Junior workers will not report until the end of the week after they have had opportunity to canvass the residential section of the city. However, it is thought that already more memberships have been secured than the total for the drive last year.

The manager of the drive, Mrs. G. M. Doyle, and the members of the various committees are not letting up on their work, however, but are striving to put Kerr County at the head of any county in the State in Red Cross memberships, basing same on population. Kerr County should take the lead in Red Cross memberships for the reason that there is no county in the State that reaps more benefits from the Red Cross than does Kerr County, nor is there any other county in which there is more work to be accomplished by the order than here, caused by the many families of former service men residing in this city. Many contributions are being received by mail to the Red Cross funds. Wednesday noon a check was received through the mail from Geo. E. Dryden for $50. Several other contributions to the good cause of generous proportions have been received from people who realize and appreciate the work the Red Cross is doing in the community. Every business house is urged to display a 100 per cent placard and every home to hang up a large Red Cross in the window, signifying that every member of that family above school age is a member of the order.

OLD PIONEER CITIZEN DIES AT HOME NEAR HUNT MONDAY

Mrs. S. Schumacher Had Lived in Hill Country Nearly 77 Years—Funeral at Hunt Cemetery Tuesday.

After spending a long and eventful lifetime in active participation in the development of the Hill Country and living to see when what was a wilderness grew into the highly developed civilization of today, raising a family to see them do the same and witnessing the marriage of grandchildren and the birth of the fourth generation, Mrs. Sarah Angeline Schumacher died at the old family homestead near Hunt Monday evening.

Sarah Angeline Brazier was born March 8, 1847, and moved with her parents from Louisiana to this section when she was but a few years old. In young womanhood she was married to B. F. Sublett, who died over 40 years ago. Later she remarried.

Three sons, J. J. and E. L. Sublett and John Schumacher, survive her, besides 20 grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren. Mrs. Schumacher joined the Christian Church when but a young girl and throughout these many years she led an active Christian life that was an inspiration to all with whom she came in contact.

Funeral services were conducted at the Hunt Cemetery Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. J. W. Orr, the body being buried beside her loved ones who had gone before.

Mrs. Schumacher is mourned by a host of old-time friends and neighbors and The Sun joins them in a tribute to her memory.

SCHREINER LOSES TO UNIVERSITY FRESHMAN IN ARMISTICE DAY GAME

Mountaineers No Match for Former High School Stars—Final Score Was 40 to 7

On Schreiner Field Tuesday afternoon the Schreiner Mountaineers went down to defeat against the University Freshmen in the second annual clash between the two teams. However, it was a glorious defeat, for the local men put up a game fight against overwhelming odds, not all of which were apparent to the onlookers.

Several of the first string Schreiner men were suffering from the ef-

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Glenn Brooks Entertains

Mrs. Glenn Brooks entertained at Bridge last Wednesday afternoon honoring her house guest, Miss Ethel Lanier of Dallas.

Chrysanthemums and dahlias were used in decorating the attractive Brooks home in Hillcrest. Red was the chosen color for the living room and yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were beautifully arranged in the dining room. These same flowers in the delicate orchid shades were placed in the guest rooms.

Mrs. Ally Beitel won high score, a hand-painted Japanese landscape, and guest prize and prize for low score, dainty silk lingerie, were given Miss Lanier.

Delicious refreshments were served to the guests, who were limited to the girls and younger matrons.

Honoring Miss Lanier

Mrs. Jack Stevens and Miss Mable Thorburn entertained with a charmingly appointed luncheon Thursday morning of last week, in honor of Miss Ethel Lanier of Dallas, the house guest of Mrs. Glenn Brooks.

The living rooms were lovely in their decorations of autumn leaves.

Prize for high score, a Florentine vanity set, was won by Mrs. W. C. Fawcett; low score prize, a miniature glass deer filled with perfume, was given Mrs. Milton Gold. The honoree was given a box of embroidered handkerchiefs.

At the conclusion of the games a two-course luncheon was served to five tables of players.

The invited guests included: Miss Ethel Lanier, the honoree; Mesdames Glenn Brooks, Guber Gibson, Casper Real, Milton Gold, W. C. Fawcett, Gerald Walther, P. L. Williamson, Alois Renschel, Thomas Matthews of Spearfish, S. D., and Misses Maybelle Roberts, Yolande Robinson, Anna Nebbett Thorburn, Helen Johnston, Alice Domingues, Bess Booth, Marguerite Henke, Kate Renschel, Edna Henke, Kate Conger, Lydia Raaz, Helena Brown, Cleone Deaver, Dorothy Faulkner, Mae Louise Schreiner and Thelma McCorquodale.

Honoring Miss Booth

Miss Edna Henke entertained at Bridge in her home on Water Street last Saturday afternoon, honoring Miss Bess Booth.

The red and golden brown tints of autumn were used in tally cards, table appointments and decorations.

"Ragged Robin" chrysanthemums and russet leaves were banked on the mantel in the living room. Red candles in brass holders gave a cheerful color note to these. Dainty hanging baskets and wall pockets also held these lovely flowers.

In the parlor and dining room yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were massed with the foliage on the piano, buffet and china closet.

Guest prize was a Venetian glass puff box and perfume bottle. Consolation, hot dish mats, went to Miss Yolande Robinson. Matrons' high score, a silver bud vase, was won by Mrs. Chas. Rawson; Misses' high score, dainty silk lingerie, was won by Miss Alice Domingues. Prize for low score, a box of emery boards, went to Miss Julia McBride.

A delicious salad course was served to the guests. Those invited were Miss Bess Booth, the honoree; Mesdames G. A. Schreiner, J. S. Wheelless, J. D. Jackson, Ally Beitel, A. C. Schreiner, Emil Saenger, Amy Wallace, J. C. Beddingfield, Al Manny, Scot Schreiner, E. H. Prescott, A. C. Schreiner Jr., S. E. Thompson, C. E. Brashear, W. L. Secor, L. Sandel, R. L. Schmierbeck, L. COOLIDGE VISITS TOMB OF UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Washington, Nov. 11.—The tomb of the unknown soldier in Arlington National Cemetery was the center of the Capitol's observance of Armistice Day with President Coolidge leading the pilgrimage to the shrine.

Accompanied by Secretary Wilbur and Acting Secretary Wright Davis of the War Department, as representatives of the two military branches of the Government, the President placed a wreath on the tomb. After placing the wreath he stood with uncovered head for a moment and then turned away. Mrs. Coolidge, before the party left, laid upon the tomb a single white rose, a tribute to the "motherhood of the Nation."

In making the pilgrimage, Coolidge followed a custom inaugurated by President Harding.

Late in the day services for the Nation's war time President, Woodrow Wilson, were held in the National cathedral where his body is entombed. In gathering about all that is mortal of the late President, citizens perpetuated a custom begun in his life time of honoring him especially upon this day.

Numerous patriotic exercises were conducted by various organizations in Washington during the day and evening, as in other cities, while the day also marked the opening of the annual roll call of the American Red Cross.

VETERANS SLOW IN APPLYING FOR BONUS

Washington, Nov. 10.—A nationwide campaign to stir up World War veterans and get them to expedite their bonus applications has been launched by Major General Robert C. Davis, Adjutant General of the Army.

More than half of the men entitled to adjusted compensation have failed to get their papers to Washington.

Applications are coming in so slowly that the machinery set up by General Davis to issue certificates will run out of material early next year unless the flow of applications can be stimulated.

Instructions have been issued to all branches of the regular army including the recruiting service, to take every possible step in a decentralized campaign to get out the applications.

The National Guard, organized reserves units, the navy and marine corps and the Red Cross, Salvation Army, patriotic societies and similar organizations have been asked to supplement the Government's efforts.

Approximately 1,500,000 veterans have submitted applications of which all but some 50,000 have been examined and either acted upon or returned for correction by the Veterans' Bureau.

Of the 1,500,000 applications gone over up to date, about 300,000 have been found incomplete, principally because veterans either forgot to sign their names or because they failed to include their fingerprints.

In these cases it was necessary to return papers for correction and of the 300,000 returned, there are 140,000 cases still outstanding.

DENTON MERCHANT KEEPS SCRAPBOOK OF FIRM'S ADS

Denton Record-Chronicle: A Denton merchant has an interesting scrapbook of all the advertisements he has ever published. He finds it helpful from time to time in preparing new advertisements, for it brings back to him good ideas that he used before and that likely would have passed completely from mind if he hadn't preserved it through his scrapbook.

It also is interesting as showing the growth of the store's business—much of which its owner attributes to his persistent advertising—for the ads were small in the beginning and have increased in space proportionately with the continued growth of the big volume of business the store now does. The idea is worthy of emulation by other merchants and has been already adopted by a few who have learned of it.

OLD ENGLISH FRUIT CAKE

For Thanksgiving, Christmas and the Holiday Season

No dinner is complete without cake to wind up the festive meal, and no cake has ever been baked that will take the place of Fruit Cake for the holiday season. It has a flavor all its own, being made from the choicest ingredients and containing, among other things, citron, raisins, currants, nuts, orange and lemon peels and other ingredients that make it especially palatable. Another important feature of Fruit Cakes is that they will not dry out as other cakes do, but remain moist and fresh, even after they are cut. Consequently you can order enough in advance to last you through the holiday season and never have to worry about this most important part of the holiday dinners. THE PASSING DAY

Will H. Mayes, Department of Journalism, Texas University

Most people, and all candidates except Coolidge, talk too much during political campaigns. In fact over-talking appears to be a National fault, and people who talk much are likely to say things at times that should not be said. This is especially the case in the heat of a political fight, and as we are not out of one campaign in Texas before we are starting another, much unnecessary bitterness is created and kept alive. Elections in this State are held too often. There is no good reason why changes should be made in offices about the time the office-holders begin to get acquainted with the duties of their positions. Campaigning for any office has become unduly expensive, and after all, the people have to bear the expense. Aside from the saving in money that would result from elections, there would be a wonderful saving in good feeling among the people.

The recent election may not have gone entirely to suit you, but those who have been elected will be your officers whether your choice or not, and as good citizens it becomes your duty to support them as wholeheartedly as if you voted for them. You can do this without endorsing any wrongdoing on the part of any of them, for good citizenship does not demand that you should support even your closest friend in a wrong act whether it is private or public. But most of us are inclined to be too critical of those whom we have opposed for public position, and in that way render their public service all the harder. The thing for all of us to do is to quit talking and give our newly elected officers, from the highest to the lowest, to understand that we are supporting them and have confidence in them, and then let's expect that confidence to be well placed.

Most people, even office-holders themselves, are inclined to over-estimate the authority and power placed in those elected to office. They are merely public servants and as such are amenable at all times to public opinion. Every citizen helps to create and maintain public opinion, which those in office must respect. As a citizen you are equally responsible with your neighbor and with me for that public opinion. Therefore you and your neighbor and I are the real governors and officers, and those whom we have elected are merely representing us temporarily. If their official conduct does not conform to public opinion, at least measurably, public opinion holds them in check. Our duty clearly is to do our full share in maintaining a correct opinion.

From the news reports the triangular territory between Shreveport, La., and Marshall and Carthage, Tex., promises to become the greatest natural gas field in the Southwest under proper development, and if so the wealth of that section will be increased immeasurably. The points adjacent to the territory will profit by the gas field exactly in proportion to the use they make of it. Shreveport is a live, wide-awake place, and is quick to grasp every opportunity for self-advancement. Marshall will likely prove a strong competitor in the utilization of the natural gas taken from Texas territory, even though it is handicapped by having less capital and a smaller population than Shreveport. Other nearby places are favorably located to receive much benefit, if only they have the enterprise and spirit to profit by what nature is doing for them.

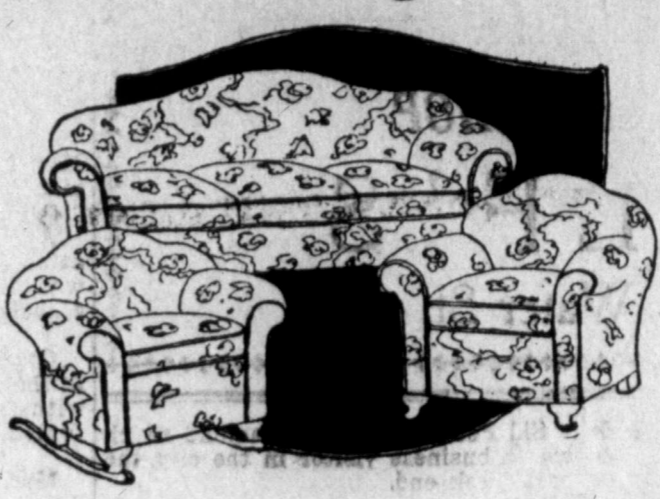

The best way to judge a "hick" town is by its newspapers, and the advertisements in the papers are the sources from which opinions are formed. If the merchants are wide-awake progressive dealers, they invariably carry a good amount of advertising in their local papers and show an interest in constantly increasing their trade and trade territory. Where the advertising is lacking, everybody except the merchants themselves, knows that the best trade of the territory is going to the more enterprising neighboring towns and cities, and that the capital of that territory is steadily being drawn from it to other places. This in time reduces it to the "hick" classification. The best of towns can be killed by a non-enterprising set of business men who are merely "store-keepers" and not merchants of a kind that are constantly building up a trade territory through modern methods.

PAMPELL'S

San Antonio Express: Deer are plentiful this fall in Southwest Texas and few hunters have been disappointed. There is no region left in the United States that compares with Southwest Texas in giving the hunter or fisherman a chance for his efforts, but not all hunters or fishermen appreciate that good sportsmanship must ever be alert to keep a good thing going.

Uvalde Leader-News: Some people complain of too many laws. The law for the protection of game is on the statute book. Would you favor doing away with it? Some would. It is violated every day, however. The boy with his target or air gun may kill protected birds and the man with his rifle may take a shot at some protected or harmless bird to "see it flop." The chief beauty on the sea coast is the sea gulls in their graceful flight and a great attraction of the woods is to hear the music of the sweet-throated songsters of nature. The boy scouts are taught to protect harmless animals, birds and reptiles and it is good education that means much in making our country a desirable place to live in. All lovers of nature should co-operate for the protection, not only the game, but of the living adornments that a great Creator has used to beautify his landscape.

CATHOLIC CHURCH NOTES

By Father Kemper

GUADALUPE CEMETERY

On the feast of All Souls the third Mass was read in Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, and thereafter the Mexican parishioners marched in a body to their cemetery on the Harper Road. The graveyard had been carefully cleaned for the occasion, and each silent tomb was covered with a blanket of natural or artificial flowers. Prayers were recited, and farewell hymns were sung for all the faithful departed.

Last Sunday two former Guadalupe students presented their youngest born at the baptismal font: Benito Ayala presented Ignatius; and Patricia Enrique presented Elisio. Simultaneously Felipe Morales had his son christened with the name Rafael.

On the First Friday 71 communicants approached the Eucharistic Table. The record for October communions surpassed that of any previous October in the last eight years.

Beginning with the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Friday, December 12, the Mexicans will hold a three-day celebration in honor of their heavenly patroness. This triduum will also serve as a pre-Christmas sale for their Empty-Stocking Fund.

Armistice Day Francisco Lemos of the Mexican congregation, who gave his life for his adopted country, was honored with one of the first floats in our Armistice Day parade. War records of the N. C. W. C. seem to indicate that his was the last overseas body to be buried in American soil, a bit of history that Kerrville can be proud of.

Mrs. Delfino Torres spent much time and energy in superintending the Lemos float, as well as those for the Mexican School and Church. She made a special trip to San Antonio in her car on Saturday to make sure of securing all necessary bunting and decorating material.

The Sisters of Notre Dame took care of arranging the floats of the American parish. Alfred Blakeslee, a fourth degree Knight of Columbus, collected the funds from two dozen K. of C. veterans to provide a patriotic dress for all the automobiles entered by the fraternity.

On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Blakeslee left the Legion Sanatorium on a furlough to attend the wedding of his sister, Regina, in Austin to Lieut. Francis Gerling.

Eugene King, also of the U. S. Veterans' Hospital, was united in marriage to Miss Margaret Allen on Armistice Day.

Leo King, resident K. of C. secretary, spent Sunday in Austin. Tony Bessan, as commander of the D. A. V. Post, was busy on Saturday with the Forget-Me-Not Sale, which netted the disabled soldiers over one hundred dollars.

A double birthday anniversary was observed last Sunday at Blue Belle Farm, to honor Miss Josephine Abr. and Horace Aubey. Bernard Sherlock, formerly of Legion, the family of Ben Mosel, and Father Kemper were among the invited guests.

School Notes Sisters Immaculata and Cordula spent the week end at the Incarnate Word College, where the annual Fall Bazaar was in progress.

Miss Julia J. Haass, secretary to the Bexar County Tax Collector, had a brief vacation here with her former teacher, Sr. Hilda.

On Friday of last week a musical recital was given at Our Lady of the Lake College to honor Mother Florence. One of our graduates, Miss Wilhelmina Mosel, participated in the program. Although a day scholar, she has been admitted into the college choir.

Our convent boarders are promised a weiner roast this month, before all the unlicensed dogs are killed, or placed in the pound.

Ernestine Meyer and Louise Colbath, both of the High School department, spent the week end at the Colbath ranch. Early on Sunday Louise accompanied her father to San Antonio. For Sunday guest at her home, Ernestine had her aunt, Mrs. Annie Overman, of Comfort.

Matilda Stiberek was gladdened on Sunday with a visit from her parents, who had left Shiner at 2 a. m. to be here in time for mass. With them came John Muras, also of Shiner.

Hilda Rosenthal enjoyed a Sunday visit from her mother and brother of Tarpley, Bandera County.

Last week a single pecan tree in St. Mary's Park yielded for its first crop nearly six pounds of nuts.

Persons Mrs. Wm. S. Farris and her son, Ferdinand, went to San Antonio with their guest, Mrs. M. Chriswell.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klein (nee Irene Bulwer) and her cousin, Charles Kuesel, were here from the Alamo City. Harry Klein is a nephew of Mrs. Arthur Mosel.

Mrs. John Drodgy tried out her new Studebaker on Wednesday of last week by making a shopping trip to the metropolis.

On the same day Father Kemper motored to San Antonio with Dr. E. Galbraith to attend the funeral of the beloved, sincere and fearless clergyman, Bishop J. S. Johnston, of whose type this selfish, sinful world can never have too many.

HELP WANTED IN KERRVILLE

And Furnished by the Help of Kerrville People.

Those who suffer with kidney backache, urinary ills or any little kidney or bladder disorder, want kidney help. Who can better advise than some Kerrville resident, who has also suffered, but has had relief. Kerrville people recommend Doan's Pills. Here is one case and there are many others:

D. F. McNees, retired farmer, says: "I recommend Doan's Pills for I know they are a good remedy. My kidneys were weak and out of order and I felt dull and tired and had a soreness and dull ache over my kidneys. Others in my family had been benefitted by Doan's Pills so I used them. They corrected the trouble and put my kidneys in good condition."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. McNees had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement)

TEXAS BOASTS FIRST WOMAN BALL MAGNATE

San Antonio Light, November 8th: Texas not only has its first woman baseball magnate but its first woman baseball magnate.

This was disclosed Thursday noon with the announcement that the San Antonio club of the Texas League will be owned and operated next season by Mrs. Harry J. Benson, widow of the late president of the Bears, and Walter R. Schreiner of Kerrville, partner of Mr. Benson's for many years. Thomas E. Conner Jr., will remain as club secretary, and, with Bob Coleman already signed to a contract as manager before Mr. Benson's death a short time ago, the same policies will be pursued in the administration of local baseball affairs.

In the light of the great number of rumors in circulation concerning the ownership of the Bruin team it was only out of respect to the memory of the late president, that a statement announcing retention of the franchise was not made public sooner.

Change of Life

"When change of life began on me," says Mrs. Lewis Lister, of Lamar, Mo., "I suffered so with womanly weakness. I suffered a great deal of pain in my back and sides. My limbs would cramp. I didn't feel like doing my work, and there are so many steps for a woman to take on a farm. I was very anxious to get better. A friend recommended to me and I began using it. I certainly improved. I went through change of life without any trouble. I can highly recommend Cardui." At the age of about 40 to 50 every woman has to pass through a critical time, which is called the Change of Life. At this time, great changes take place in her system, causing various painful and disagreeable symptoms. If you are approaching this period, or are already suffering from any of its troubles or symptoms, take Cardui. It should help you, as it has helped others. Sold by all druggists. E-98

CARDUI

MEMORIAL SERVICE

Sunday being the Octave of All Saints' Day the Rev. H. Remsen of Comfort gave us the service appointed for this great festival. No more appropriate service could have been used in memory of him whom we knew as a saint of the present day, and whom we were asked to remember, especially during the service, our beloved Bishop and one time rector, Rt. Rev. J. S. Johnston, D. D.

From the opening hymn, "For all the saints who from their labors rest," through the prayers, epistle, gospel and sermon, the solemn and joyful Communion Service with its prayers for all mankind, the dedication of our lives to His service and especially the words, "And we also bless Thy Holy Name for all Thy servants departed this life in Thy faith and fear, beseeching Thee to give us grace so to follow their good example that with them we may be partakers of Thy Heavenly Kingdom," words we have heard so often from our Bishop's lips could not fail to bring us close to him again.

May we all try to live in such a way that we may look forward with a true and lively faith to seeing him when the veil is drawn aside for each one of us. May not he be permitted to welcome us and lead us into the presence of God. What joy there will be in his heart at meeting those for whose salvation he worked and prayed. Let none of us disappoint him and our own loved ones by being absent.

We wish to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of the half masting of the flag at St. Mary's Church. Acts of sympathy and respect like this help to demonstrate the fact that in spite of seeming differences, all Christian people are one in the love of God and of His saints.

Services for Sunday, November 16: Sunday School, 10 a. m.; Morning Prayer and Sermon, 11 a. m.

1924 CHRISTMAS SEAL DEPICTS NEW DESIGN

The Christmas seal of 1924 departs from the usual type of design. Instead of stressing the Christmas idea, it stresses the health and educational appeal. The design depicts Knowledge enlightening the world as to the dangers of tuberculosis. Resting her hand upon the shield of the double-barred cross she indicates that she is defending the world against tuberculosis. This is a happy symbolism of the tuberculosis movement in its preventive activities.

The design is admirably executed by George V. Curtis of New York City. Mr. Curtis is an artist of international reputation. For over sixty years, since boyhood, he has been drawing and painting. He spent a very large part of his life in France, at Barbizon, the headquarters of the famous Millet School. As a painter of landscapes and portraits he gained an enviable reputation both in Europe and in this country. Many of his paintings have been exhibited in Paris and other European and American galleries. He has made a special study of the Christmas seal idea and has designed two seals besides the one for 1924.

Thirty-two million of these seals have been ordered by the Texas Public Health Association and will be used all over the State during the month of December to raise funds for the campaign against tuberculosis.

think, a more complete, hearty, unhesitating participation in a display of this kind. It seemed that each organization endeavored to exemplify all that was beautiful, fraternal, magnanimous, in its whole-hearted co-operation, to make the entire day a glowing success. Commerce, education, benevolence, history, patriotism and religion were all set forth in resplendent harmony.

Larger and more elaborate processions and programs have we all witnessed, but none more sacredly beautiful in reverence and devotion to enduring principle and in deathless love for our wounded ex-service men. As an humble citizen, I would say all honor to those who made this celebration the outstanding success which it was.

The address of our distinguished visitor, Mr. Hudspeth, was altogether sane, thoughtful, loyal, tender and eloquent. I think Texas can trust him in matters of state.

But, if I may be allowed to say it, the most eloquent voice was that of the unheralded, silent speech of the devoted women. They were there, not to be heard, but the glorious fruit of their tireless toil, their inimitable good taste, their Christly sympathy was apparent everywhere.

Withal, it seemed to me that Heaven came down and spent Armistice Day with the people of Kerrville. May I modestly be permitted to extend my heartfelt congratulations.

Marguerite Anderson

Last Sunday morning at Hillcrest Sanatorium occurred the death of Miss Marguerite Anderson, the cause of her demise being tuberculosis, with which she had been afflicted for several years. Her mother, Mrs. Anna Anderson, and sisters, Miss Ruth Anderson and Mrs. M. J. Peterson, were with her at the end.

Mrs. Anderson and daughters moved here a little over three years ago for the benefit of Miss Marguerite's health, coming from the old family home at Port Washington, Wis. The disease had gained such a foothold on the young lady's system, however, that climatic conditions and the best of care could not overcome it, and she grew gradually weaker.

The young lady was loved by all who knew her for her sweet disposition and fine Christian character. She had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years.

Accompanied by her mother and Miss Ruth, the body was shipped to Port Washington Tuesday, to be laid to rest beside that of her father in the family burial ground.

The Sun joins the many friends of the Andersons in expressions of sympathy.

In twenty-five years, according to estimates, the population of the United States will be 150,000,000.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the west-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

Mention should have been made last week of a shipment of eighteen cans of Black Bass from the Federal Hatchery at San Marcos. The consignment came to the Kerr County Fish and Game Protective League with V. D. Dorrance in charge. Thanks are due John H. Ward for the use of his truck in hauling out the fish—and W. G. Ward in assisting to plant same in the river. The shipment was distributed below the city, extending as far down as Center Point.

A. J. Gibbens of Center Point was a caller at the Sun office last Thursday afternoon, bringing with him a sack of fine pears and apples of his own raising. Uncle Jack says that its all "bunk" about not being able to raise apples in the Hill Country, as he gathered and sold over 350 bushels of fruit from his orchard this fall, which brought him an average of $1.50 per bushel. The fruit was raised this year without any special attention being given the trees, but next year Uncle Jack says he is going to let the County Agent tell him how and when to spray them.

The Economy of the Best

The economy of using the best possible materials is made apparent in the upkeep problem. A house or business building may be "thrown together" with cheap material and it may "look all right," but after it's stood the shock of weather, the real test comes.

Long ago we learned that it is false economy to use poor materials and we so advise everyone who buys of us. Our success is due to honesty in materials and prices.

TURTLE CREEK CHIT-CHAT

Mrs. Max Below was in the metropolis trading last Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Denton were shopping in the city last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. James were shopping in Kerrville last Saturday. Quite a few from the neighborhood went over to the Legion celebration Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tot Love spent a few days hunting at the Williams ranch last week.

George Arthur Lamb spent Saturday afternoon hunting with Patrick McDowell.

Uncle George Lamb went to Kerrville Tuesday to witness the Armistice services.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brice visited at the Harry Williams ranch Tuesday afternoon.

The woods are now full of hunters and some fine game has been killed in our neighborhood.

Mrs. Frank Acree and Mrs. Arthur Fuller were shopping in the County seat last Wednesday.

Miss Dorothy Stubblefield spent Armistice Day at Legion with her parents and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barton were callers Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Acree.

Bruce Broussard and his mother were pleasant callers at Sunny Slant ranch last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Urbane Edwards and baby, Marjorie May, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Flemings last Sunday.

Mr. Woodward and Mr. Miller and a few boys from Jarrell are hunting on the Henry Barton ranch. Two fine bucks and six turkeys have been killed by them.

Oscar Strohacker brought a nice load of wood to our school the past week and we are in need of a new stove. The trustees will put the stove in the house, and we wonder if our loyal patrons are willing to help them pay for it without taking up a collection. We surely hope so, as these things have to be done and all should feel interested.

Texas Game and Fish Control

Southwestern Sportsman: Within the last year there has been more progress made toward game and fish conservation than in the sixty years of legislation by which Texas has attempted to control hunters and fishermen. There have existed laws which made it criminal and subject to fine any infractions of the laws, but the first real enforcement has come from the act of the 38th Legislature appropriating funds for the employment of wardens and the prosecution of lawbreakers.

Through the employment of some fifty wardens and the enforcement of the laws, much fish and game have been saved and the revenues from all sources greatly increased.

The annual report of Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner W. W. Boyd shows:

Total receipts for the year are given as follows:
Game collections $103,493.23
Fish and Oysters 42,827.62
Sand, shell and gravel 85,154.64

Total $231,475.49
Total disbursements for year were $203,700.26
There were 50,488 resident hunting licenses sold and 281 non-resident or alien.

The report recommends to the Legislature the closing of coastal waters to seining and netting during the months of June, July and August, because the dragging of seines at that time kills young fish through the clogging of nets, and where nets are permitted there is always a temptation to drag them.

One thousand fish were tagged during the past summer, including red-fish, trout, flounder and drum, for the purpose of studying feeding and migratory habits.

Much constructive work has been done in the distribution of fish from the hatchery, and quail, prairie chicken, turkey, pheasant and deer to depleted sections of the State.

Many suggestions are made for yet further improvement of the laws and manner of enforcement of the present laws.

"The system of game sanctuaries, surrounded by public hunting grounds, so successful in the State of Pennsylvania, is the most practical way of preserving and even increasing our game supply. The leasing of the best hunting grounds by wealthy sportsmen, increasing yearly, means that this system must soon be adopted in this State if the man of average means is to find a place to hunt.

"There was the usual complaint the last summer of the use of dynamite, poison, and illegal nets in the taking of fish, and several hundred of the violators were apprehended.

"While last year marked the end of the time when the hunter could openly violate the law, there is considerable room for improvement," says the report.

"A deputy is needed in each county of the State, but the department will not have sufficient funds for this until the Legislature amends the license law, requiring every hunter to possess a license. Such additional funds would permit the establishment of game sanctuaries and public hunting grounds," says the report.

The real purpose of game and fish laws is to preserve the new crop of game until another crop comes on, or save the seed for another planting. They are not intended to prohibit shooting or fishing, or to make it hard on the sportsman. There are so many good reasons why game should not be exterminated in our country that we must all agree protection against slaughter is necessary. Our present laws may not be perfect, but if everybody would obey them, our children would have just as good shooting and fishing as we have today, and at the same time we'll have no serious cause to complain. Our laws are liberal, and permit a man to kill and catch all the game he and his family can consume. Let's make it a matter of ethics between sportsmen to Obey the Game Laws.

VETERANS HOSPITAL BILL SUCCESS SAYS HINES

Washington, Nov. 10.—Success of the hospitalization law for veterans, passed at the last session of Congress on the recommendation of President Coolidge, was reported to the President by General Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau.

More than 3,000 former soldiers, veterans of several wars, have taken advantage of the provision of the bill, General Hines declared. The legislation provides that a veteran of any war, sick or disabled for any cause, may receive free hospitalization in the Veteran Bureau institutions, provided he has an honorable discharge.

The Nation's leading medical specialists will gather here Monday and Tuesday to assist in the plans of the Veterans Bureau to give disabled ex-service men the utmost that modern science and learning can afford.

The occasion is the second meeting of the bureau's medical council. At the first session, held in July, committees were appointed to study and report on the various phases of the work. These reports will be a feature of the coming session.

A shipment of wool, the first ever clipped in Alaska, arrived in Seattle recently from Kodiak and Umnak Islands.

Five Years in Kerrville BRYDEN ROCK DRUG STORE

INGRAM ITEMS

Mrs. Will Ward is visiting Mrs. J. E. Stone in Kerrville. Estel Young and Hays Wharton of the Divide were business visitors at this place Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Taylor of the Grape Creek community were Ingram visitors last Sunday.

Robt. Real of the Live Oak Ranch was shaking the hands of his many friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Ned Estes of Mountain Home was a pleasant caller at Ingram Telephone Exchange Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Priour and baby of the Divide were week end guests of J. J. Sublett on Ingram-Hunt road.

E. H. Leinweber and daughter, Miss Inez, motored to Kerrville Wednesday, stopping here on their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bub Tarver of Kerrville were Monday night guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lee.

Mrs. Jno. S. Callaway was a business visitor in San Antonio the past week end. Mr. Callaway joined her there Monday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Browning of Stone-wall were guests last week of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Alford Browning and Mr. and Mrs. Alva Griffin.

Mrs. Pink Lee of Y-O ranch was brought here Tuesday to consult Dr. Fowler. She is quite ill and will remain here with Mrs. Mitt Lee until improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Masters and children of Marble Falls visited relatives here Sunday and Monday. It was their first trip here in over 10 years and they find much improvement during their absence.

Monday evening about 2 o'clock Mrs. S. Schumacher passed away. She was a life-long resident of this county and was greatly loved by all who knew her. It was with deep and heartfelt grief that we laid our beloved away. She was laid to rest at the Japonica Cemetery, among other loved ones, who had gone before her, and she is survived by three children, Messrs. John Schumacher, Jess and Ed Sublett and several step-children, most of whom were with her at the end. Our loss is Heaven's gain.

Cattle Clatter, in San Antonio Express: "The ranchmen of West Texas have learned the art of properly killing and dressing the goat for table use, and the delicious dishes which they enjoy and in which the meat of the goat figures conspicuously, are well known to all who have partaken of West Texas hospitality."

Dr. Youngblood thus expressed his gratification because of the success of the effort and said: "The Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association in establishing the name 'Chevon' as an official name for goat meat, little as one may think of it, has made history. No longer will the proud housewife, too frugal in her economics to buy beefsteak, be humiliated by having to walk into a meat market and ask for a quarter's worth of goat meat. She will now walk in with dignity and ask for a couple of Chevon chops with all the self-respect that she would retain should she have the price and therefore ask for the choicest mutton chops or steak. If one hoots at the idea of a change in name making goat meat a respectable diet, let him visit on any of the ranches in the Edwards Plateau and partake of the savory roasts and chops prepared by the ranchman's wife in a manner that would tempt the taste of the most critical connoisseur. This I have done to my surprise and satisfaction full many a time during the past twenty years."

Ingram High School Echoes

Ingram School rendered a very appropriate Armistice program November 10, each department in the school taking an active part.

The stage was prettily decorated with the usual display of National colors. The program was arranged to commemorate our heroes of the World War, for which they so courageously and unselfishly gave their lives, that we may further the cause of Democracy and peace.

The Reverend Earls began the program by offering a very helpful invocation. He followed with a talk in which he proposed a vote of thanks to the faculty, the audience readily responding to this.

The meaning of Armistice Day was adequately explained by Franklin Stovall. Our Principal, R. M. Stovall, made a talk appropriate to the occasion, in which he recalled certain events that took place Armistice Day six years ago, while he was telegraph editor on the Galveston News.

A large number of parents were present, also Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Francis and Mrs. N. La Rue of Kerrville. We are glad that the parents are taking such an interest, as we need their co-operation and help to make our school the success we wish it to be.

SCHREINER LOSES TO UNIVERSITY FRESHMEN IN ARMISTICE DAY GAME

fects of the flu, which has been almost an epidemic in the school the past week. The malady has been successfully checked by the doctors in charge of the health of the school, but it sure wrecked the football hopes of Schreiner for this game at least. One Schreiner star got out of bed for the first time in over a week Tuesday morning in order to participate in this game, and several others were kept on the sidelines most of the time by reason of illness.

It was a hotly contested game throughout. The Freshmen made one touchdown in each of the first three quarters, but owing to the weakened condition of the opponents they put over three in the last quarter. Five of the six attempts at goal were successful. The Mountaineers made their one touchdown in the second half.

The first touchdown of the visitors was made in the first few minutes of play, when they intercepted a pass and Luther King went over for the points. Allen ran 19 yards in the second quarter for their second touchdown. The half ended with the score 14 to 0 in favor of the visitors.

During the period between halves the Gonzales Band rendered a concert from the sidelines that was greatly appreciated by the large crowd of spectators.

The Mountaineers came back strong at the beginning of the second half and drove the Freshies down the field by repeated gains until they were within striking distance, when Flory completed a pass of 40 yards to Laughlin, and one the next play passed to Dietert, who went over for the touchdown. Laughlin kicked goal.

Flory, Laughlin and Dietert distinguished themselves throughout the game by their running and passing. Edwards, the diminutive Schreiner half, also played a great game, making several nice gains around end and also starring at safety. Richard King was probably the star of the Freshmen line-up by reason of his broken field running and his line plunging.

The line-ups:

SCHREINER (7)		FRESHMEN (40)
Dietert	Position	Vestal
Henderson	Left End	Phoenix
Merriman	Center	McCullough
Andrews	Right Guard	Smith
Schubert	Right Tackle	Higgins
Laughlin	Right End	Joe King
Edwards	Quarterback	Allen
J. Moore	Left Half	Gambrell
Flory	Right Half	R. King
	Fullback	Schulze

Substitutes: Schreiner—Schulze for Wolffmueller, Tenney for Andrews, Key for Schubert, Boykin for J. Moore, Andrews for Henderson, Windrow for Flory, McGee for Laughlin; Freshmen—Smith for Vestal, Adamson for Webb, Pfeiffer for Allen, Landa for Higgins, Higgins for Smith, McCloud for Pfeiffer, Ledlow for R. King, Landa for E. Smith, Armstrong for Adamson, Hanev for Hargrove, Burham for Higgins, Sanders for McCullough, Webb for Sanders.

reunion of the Old Trail Drivers' Association.

Clint L. Smith of Edwards County, formerly Ba Kee Kachee, full-fledged Comanche warrior, although then only 13 years old, is now swapping reminiscences with his brother, Jeff D. Smith, 301 San Francisco Street.

The two boys were out herding sheep on the Blanco road when a marauding band of Comanches came along and "adopted" them. They were then 8 and 11 years old.

Their first experience with a buffalo was, they said, when the Indians made them ride it. They say the sensation was not pleasant. One month later, Jeff D. Smith, the younger, was sold to the Apaches under Geronimo.

He still carries the marks of a brand on his cheek, and scars on his legs from carrying the heavy Indian shields. Mexicans stole him from the Apaches and took him to Mexico City, whence he was taken back to the United States in exchange for $2,000 reward.

Meanwhile, Clint Smith was made a warrior by the Comanches. They made him fight against the whites and he still carries lead in his forehead received from a shotgun when he was circling around a wagon train, taking aim at a "paleface."

Although only 13 years of age at the time, he received his warrior's name, "End of a Rope," because he was so quick in getting around, as he called it.

General McKenzie finally rescued him when the Indians were caught by troops. Smith had been with the Comanches four years. Much joy reigned in the household when both "babies" of the family returned, he says.

He has not seen the rest of the family for more than 30 years. The oldest is Will Smith, 80, on the Guadalupe River; J. L. Smith, 68, Somerset Road; Clint L. Smith, 65; J. D. Smith, 62.

The other members of the family are Mrs. Caroline Coker, 79, Santa Barbara, and Mrs. Mandy Lane, 70, Bander; three other members of the family have died.

When asked how the Indians treated him, Ba Kee Kachee answered "rough at first." He told of the cap and ball pistol used then, how the powder was inserted, wa'd, and the bullet, long before the times of automatics.

DERANGED EX-SERVICE MEN ON INCREASE

San Antonio Light, Nov. 10: Seemingly, there is a yearly increase of ex-service men, who have become mentally deranged as a result of their service in the army during the war, according to Mrs. Gray Leavell, of the San Antonio Red Cross. Few of this class know, she says, that they are entitled to compensation from the Government.

She cites, as an example of this, the plight of a former sergeant, who was in the Southwestern Insane Asylum. But for the thoughtfulness of the man's former captain, he might have never received any aid from the Government.

The sergeant's captain made a special trip to San Antonio to request the aid of the Red Cross in finding the man. The former officer said that the sergeant became mentally unbalanced as the result of his service, and that he felt sure the man was not receiving compensation for his disability.

After a search of the hospitals of the city, the sergeant was found by the Red Cross in the State institution. His claim for compensation was put in and allowed. Now he is receiving pay, and through additional medical aid, shows promise of regaining his former mental status.
