SAMUEL HAWKINS' victims never had an opportunity to make an appeal to a higher court.

The so-called "Travelling Rapist" admitted that he felt it was his duty to rape and kill white women, as his statement against "white oppression." He was convicted of two killings, and is implicated in other rapes and murders across the Panhandle.

Hawkins was to have been executed at midnight this past Tuesday, but a last-minute appeal means that state taxpayers will continue to keep Hawkins and an ever-growing crowd on death row, alive so they can continue to play the legal system for a fool.

For 15 years, we taxpayers have supported Hawkins, paying for his incarceration, food and lodging, allowing him to become a "jailhouse lawyer," and learn just what he can do to keep beating the system.

His rape and murder victims didn't have any bleeding heart liberal legal officials before whom they could plead their case. Hawkins served as the judge and jury in those cases.

How long will it be until our legal system gives a few rights to victims, and to average taxpayers, and sets a limit, either by time, or number, as to the number of appeals a convicted murderer can file? This seems to us like one way that the state could very quickly cut out some never-ending expenses.

If we don't do something, then soon our state prison system will need to be one continuous facility, from Texarkana to El Paso, and from Dalhart to Brownsville, in order to house all the offenders.

How long has it been since you had 15 years worth of free legal services? If you had been a convicted murderer all this time, you would have had all the legal help you needed.

WE GET A LOT of material in the mail each week, from individuals and organizations wanting either a free plug, or better yet, wanting us to pay them a weekly fee to use their feature.

We have some regular features, which include our Flashbacks, a recipe column, and in the Blade, Richard Grisham's fine "Looking Up" column.

If we used half of the stuff we received in the mail each week, we'd have to publish 20 pages every week, and then we wouldn't have room for much local news.

Some of the material is good, and we're glad to get it. The trouble is, much of it is designed for papers the size of the Houston Chronicle on down. For instance, we get enough stuff each week from the Extension Service to publish at least a full page of ag-info every week. We usually try to choose the item we think most readers would be interested in seeing.

The Texas Department of Health sends us a weekly column "Accent on Health." Cotton, Inc. sends out a weekly column, along with the Telcot report.

We get news releases from a number of associations, such as the Texas Corn Growers; Grain Sorghum Producers Assn.; the High Plains Underground Water District; Texas Wheat Growers, etc., etc. These are all interesting, and whenever possible, we use them in our pages.

In addition, politicians send out a weekly news release, and as in the case of the recent political races, we could have published entire issues with nothing but political news. We get political releases not only from men and women who represent us, but often even from those who would LIKE to represent us.

Hardly a week goes by that we don't receive in the mail an offer of a weekly column, a cartoon, or a crossword puzzle from some enterprising soul. If we just had the money it took to print up all this material and mail it out to newspapers across the state, then we wouldn't have to call on our over-worked advertisers quite so often.

Reception To Fete UPS Man

There will be an Appreciation Reception for Coy Walker on Friday, February 19 from 3 to 6 p.m. It will be at the Community Room of the First Bank in Bovina. Coy served the people of Bovina with a smile for many years and was better known to all of us as the UPS man.

Write Coy a note or fix a card for him and put it in the basket when you come to visit with him. Please feel free to add a love offering in your card to help Coy with the many expenses he has incurred since his accident last year.

Teachers Of Week Are Announced

The teachers we are featuring this week are Brenda Wilson and Shirley Garrison.

Brenda Wilson graduated from Floydada High School in 1970 and then went to college at McMurry, Texas Tech and West Texas State University.

She received her B.S. degree in secondary education specializing in English and history from West Texas State University in 1974.

Brenda married Kregg Wilson in 1972 and he is a rancher/farmer in Bovina. They have three children and Chris is the oldest.

Chris is 18 and a sophomore at the University of North Texas in Denton.

Kody is the middle child and he is 15 and a sophomore at Bovina where he is serving as president of the Student Council.

Mandy is the baby of the family and she is 14 and a freshman at Bovina High School. Mandy is involved in basketball at this time.

Before Mrs. Wilson started teaching she substituted and then in 1975, she started teaching junior high English and history at Bovina.

In 1980 she was promoted to High School English and in 1986 she also took over the Gifted and Talented program.

In 1988 Brenda started teaching only G/T and taught half a day during this year. In 1989 she started teaching all levels and went back to a full day.

At the present time Brenda is working on her mid-management certification. She has attended West Texas State University, the University of Connecticut, Texas A&M at Galveston, Sul Ross, and Eastern New Mexico University while working on her mid-management certification. She is doing her internship for mid-management this semester at Bovina under high school principal Joe Rackley.

Brenda said that if all goes as planned she should be finished this summer. Brenda is also serving on the Commissioner Advisory Council for Gifted and Talented representing the T.E.A.

When Brenda can find the time she enjoys reading and doing all kinds of crafts.

Mrs. Garrison is the Learning Resource/Media Supervisor. She graduated from Perryton High School in 1956 and then attended Wayland Baptist University for a year. She received her B.S. degree in elementary education, specializing in English from West Texas State University in 1974.

In 1982 she received her Masters degree in education from West Texas State University and completed her Learning Resource endorsement in 1984.

Shirley married Sam Garrison on March 30, 1958 and they lived in Perryton, where Sam was an electrical lineman. In 1969 they moved to Bovina where Sam became an electrical serviceman for Deaf Smith Rural Electric Cooperative.

In 1959 Sam and Shirley became the parents of Samie Shirleen and in 1961 they added a boy, Kurtus Glynn, to their family.

Samie is married to Steven Corse and they have just had their

St. Ann's Dinner Is Set Sunday

The annual German Sausage dinner sponsored by St. Ann's Catholic Church in Bovina will be held Sunday, February 14 in the Parish Hall located on the east side of the church, according to publicity chairman, Lisa Schilling and Vernie Schaefer.

The meal will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. and will feature traditional German sausage and all the trimmings, dessert and drinks.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for children under six. Advance tickets can be purchased from any church member. Take-out plates will be available at no extra charge.

Coordinators for this year's activities are Judy and Phil Brockman and Lorena and Michael DeLeon. All organizations of the parish will be participating in this event.

first child, Davis Steven. Samie teaches at Fort Elliott.

Kirtus has his degree in physics and math and is presently employed at Sherley-Anderson Elevator in Farwell.

Shirley started teaching in 1974 at Bovina. She started teaching in the third grade and after two years she got promoted to fifth grade where she taught for 12 years. In 1988 she took over the Learning Resource Center.

Shirley likes to read, swim, fish, and enjoys all types of outdoor sports. Her greatest joy at this time is her new grandson, Davis.

Shirley said that she really loves to work with children and feels that it is real rewarding to help them reach their potential.

Trimble Is Named Horseman Of Year

C.E. Trimble, longtime Bovina resident and horse racer, was named "Horseman of the Year" at the 1992 Clovis Livestock Auction Awards ceremony held January 13 at the auction center.

The following article appeared in the January 15 issue of the Clovis Livestock Market News:

C.E. Trimble and wife, Joy, raise horses in Bovina.

Trimble is a very serious horseman and has a real feel for the business.

Trimble moved to Bovina in 1947 and has been active in the horse business since 1964.

He raised quarter horses and switched to thoroughbreds in 1970.

In 1972 Trimble purchased a mare, Crazy Frills, for $2,500, brought her back to Texas and earned approximately $70,000 racing her.

He then claimed True Balcony, a stallion, for $4,000 and bred Crazy Frills to him, which resulted in a colt named Makum Trimble.

Makum Trimble sold for $15,000 and earned his owner $150,000 in races.

Trimble, along with trainer, Bob Arnett, purchased Y Not Sizzle for $1,200. She won the Kachina stakes and ran out over $60,000.

The Trimbles have several good horses on hand at all times. Currently there are 14 brood mares and three stallions. The stallions include Red Anchor, sire of Unanchored; Nudist Colony and Eight Letter Man. All three have run out over $100,000 each.

Trimble said he plans to breed 35-50 mares this year and has nine horses in training, including Unanchored.

Unanchored won the 1992 Clovis Classic Thoroughbred Futurity in July and has won approximately $10,000 to date. Trimble says he looks good for this year, too.

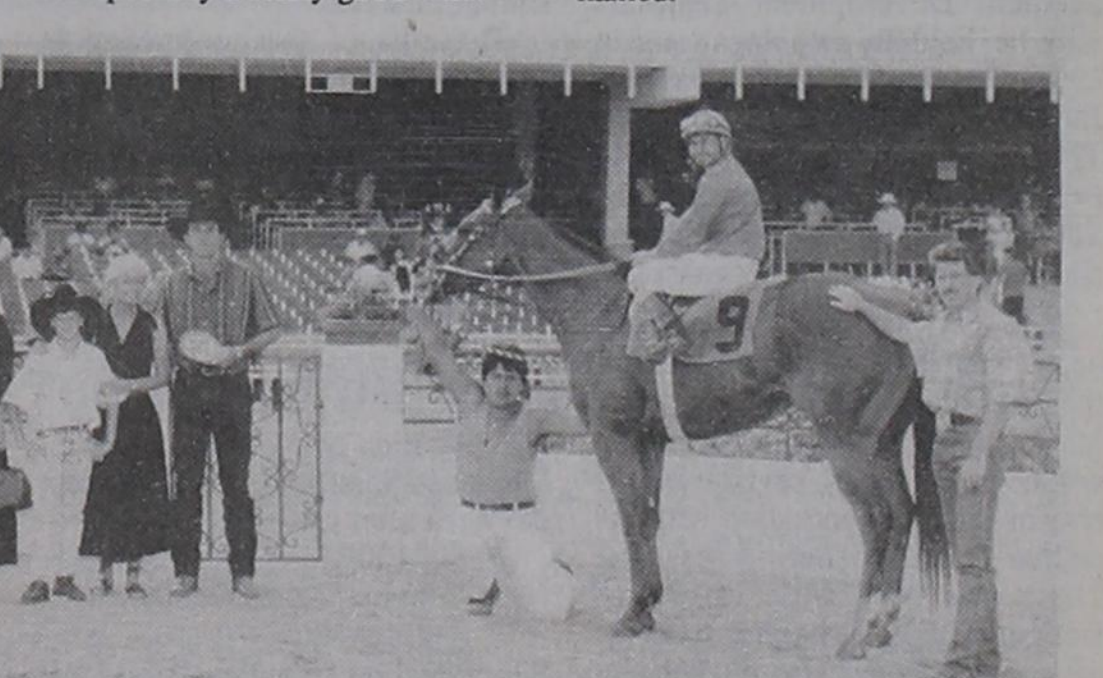

Trimble's highlights for 1992 include a win at Ruidoso, two wins at Albuquerque and one win at Sunland with Marfa Baby. He also raced Chocomo for three wins at Sunland.

Trimble said he believes horse racing will be good in Texas if they could get a track. He also said it was good in New Mexico, especially if you had a horse in the New Mexico Breed Program. He said the breeders awards and incentive programs are the backbone of the race horse business as far as the breeder is concerned.

He predicted the yearlings will be sold for a higher rate. There are less foals being registered each year and he believes if a person can stay with it for awhile longer, the business will be profitable. He said if he didn't think so, he would have already sold his.

Trimble said his secret to success in horse racing is, "You need a good horse, a good trainer and especially a really good wife."

Firemen Kept Busy With Grass Fires

The Bovina Volunteer Fire Department was as busy as a one-armed paper hanger on Sunday, February 7. They responded to three calls on that day and all of them were nearly at the same time.

The first call was a mutual aid call from Friona to help them with a fire on the Bob Wilson place. Bob had some CRP grass that caught on fire and it burned about 350 acres.

While they were working on this fire they got a call about a fire on the Santa Fe right-of-way so one of Bovina's trucks went to put this out.

Mark said that just about the time they had the fire out, a train came and the wind from it started the fire up again. Mark said they probably spent about one hour putting this fire out.

While they were still working on the Wilson place they got a call about a fire on the Stokes place. They called Farwell and Rhea for mutual aid so Farwell responded first and got the fire under control by the time Rhea and Bovina got there.

We need to all remember to thank our firemen for the great job they do and for the time they take to train and practice for their jobs. Remember: This is a no-pay job!

BILL WILSHIRE

Wilshire To Retire From SPS

Bill Wilshire, Southwestern Public Service Company manager in Friona, will retire February 28, 1993, after more than 19 years of service to the Friona area and 41 years of service to the company.

Friends and customers are invited to a retirement reception for Wilshire on February 26 from 2-4 p.m. at the Community Room of the Friona State Bank.

Wilshire came to Friona in January, 1974, after working in various capacities in Amarillo. He joined SPS August 22, 1951, as a meter reader.

Community activities have been very important to Wilshire, who has been active in the Friona Chamber of Commerce, the United Way, the Friona Evening Lions Club, the American Heart Association and more.

He and his wife, Margaret, have two children.

SPS District Manager, Lewis McDaniel, said a new manager for the Friona office has not yet been named.

Looking Up!

By Richard L. Grisham

What is your passion—that one love or devotion that compels you onward in life? Jesus Christ said, "For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19:10) The Apostle Paul tells us in Philippians 3:7 about his passion: "But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ." Knowing Christ should be every Christian's passion!

But beyond your relationship to Christ, what is your passion? What is the ultimate driving force that motivates you in life? What one thing really gets you excited and brings you true satisfaction?

My CPE supervisor at Methodist Hospital in the fall of 1990, wrote in his final evaluation of me that he felt he did not know me well because he never discovered my passion. Of course he had never been around me in a church setting, or heard me preach, or really felt the spiritual pulse of my life.

So what is my passion other than Christ Himself? If I had to narrow it down to one thing it would not be preaching as much as I enjoy that; nor would it be pastoring, although that is my profession. Preaching and pastoring simply grow out of my main passion. I enjoy both, but my true passion is...the Word of God!

Studying and learning about scripture and the truth of the Bible is something I truly enjoy. That is why I love to read and delve into commentaries, theology and biblical history. I could probably be content to be locked up in a theological and biblical library with

Ordination Ceremony Held Here

An ordination ceremony for Rev. Antonio D. Rocha was held at Templo Bautista Damasco in Friona on January 24.

Performing the ceremony was Dr. Ciro Garcia of Plainview. Serving as clerk was Isidro Ponce of Clovis, N.M.

Rev. Rocha was ordained as a deacon August 24, 1980 in Friona. He received his license to preach May 25, 1986, and his call to the ministry in October of 1987.

He has served as a pastor in Bovina and in Friona, and is currently pastor at La Primera Iglesia Bautista in Dimmitt. His wife is the former Carmen Rocha. The couple has two daughters and one son.

Agricultural Women Seminars Scheduled

Women who are interested in learning more about managing their farm/ranch business, regardless of their current role, will have a rare opportunity to do so in early 1993. The Texas Agricultural Extension Service will offer the first annual sessions of a new program, "Women in Agriculture: Management Development Seminars" in January and February.

Many educational programs dealing with farm management are attended primarily by men. "Women may not feel comfortable attending, much less asking questions about the basics of topics covered," said Danny Klinefelter, Extension Service economist and management specialist.

"This program is designed with those women in mind," he said. "Younger and older farm wives, women landowners and those who run the business on their own will all benefit from this exciting new educational event."

Women in Agriculture: Management Development Seminars will be held in two locations in 1993. The first conference was held January 12-13 in San Antonio. The second seminar will be held February 18-19 in Lubbock at the Sheraton. A third location will be added in 1994 in the Dallas area.

The two-day conference will begin with registration at 9 a.m. on the first day and conclude after lunch on the second. Information will be presented by keynote speakers, in smaller workshop settings and in informal sharing sessions. There will be a wide variety of workshop topics, ranging from financial management, record keeping and marketing to those more family oriented. Each workshop will be repeated. Workshop topics will include:

a commentary in one hand, today's newspaper in the other, and my Bible in the third!

But I have found that learning without sharing produces a spiritual swamp rather than a living reservoir. The Dead Sea receives water from the Jordan River and its tributaries, but it's so low that no water flows out. That's why it is dead and stagnant—it takes but never gives! That is why preaching and pastoring are a natural out-growth of my love for God's Word. Without them I would merely be a "pew potato." (Or is it "Pue potatoe?") I wonder if Al Gore knows?)

Even as a boy the Bible fascinated and amazed me. It still does! I remember as a teenager, reading a passage of scripture that really spoke to me. God's Holy Spirit made it come alive in my heart and it burned in my soul. The prophet Jeremiah's experience became a reality for me: "His word is in my heart like a fire, a fire shut up in my bones. I am weary of holding it in; indeed, I cannot." (20:9) God's Word was so real in my soul that I remember praying for God to give me an opportunity to share it. He did! Shortly thereafter I was asked to preach by my pastor on a Sunday evening. I did! Afterward, my pastor thanked me and handed me a five dollar bill. I couldn't believe it. I would have preached for nothing! (Don't tell any of my church members this!) But how wonderful to be paid for something you wanted to do anyway!

Out of that experience God confirmed to me my call to the gospel ministry which I had already responded to at age eleven. It was and is a great opportunity for me to live out my passion. Being paid is only secondary, although Jesus does state, "the worker deserves his wages" in reference to Christian ministry. (Luke 10:7) The real rewards though are the joy I receive when God uses me to be a blessing to others. The Apostle John expressed this joy in 3 John 4: "I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth."

This is now my twentieth year of full-time pastoral ministry. I have faced many difficulties, withstood my share of criticism, made my portion of mistakes, but I can honestly say, by God's grace, that I have not regretted for a single minute my calling. I am fulfilling my passion.

Ask yourself again, "What is my passion?" You will find it at the very heart of who you really are. May God give you as much joy in pursuing your passion as he has given me.

Evalyn Anthony E. Anthony Rites Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Evalyn Anthony, 71, were conducted Wednesday at the First United Methodist Church, with Rev. Henry Salley, pastor, and Rev. Charles Broadhurst, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Friona Cemetery, under the direction of Ellis-Blackwell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Anthony passed away Monday, February 8, at Parmer County Community Hospital.

She was born May 5, 1921 at Hobart, Oklahoma. She married Ernest Anthony, August 3, 1941, in Hobart.

Mrs. Anthony was a member of the First United Methodist Church, where she was also a member of the United Methodist Women, and served in the church choir. She was a bookkeeper, housewife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.

She had been a resident of Friona since 1944.

Survivors include one son, James Dale Anthony of Friona; one daughter, Beverly Elam of Friona; two sisters, Sandra Waugh of Hobart, Oklahoma and Dorna Mann of Deland, Florida; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Raymond McGeehee, Jack Patterson, Wayne Stone, Hollis Horton, Johnny Tannahill and Eldred Brown.

Enrollment Sets Record At CCC

Final enrollment figures for the 1993 spring semester have set a record at Clovis Community College, according to Victoria Quintela, director of enrollment management. Census Day, Friday, February 5, was the day for colleges and universities throughout the state to report their enrollment figures.

CCC registered 3,831 students (compared to 3,674 for spring 1992) for a headcount increase of 4.3 per cent. That total, when calculated on a formula of 15 credit hours divided into the total number of hours in which students are enrolled, determines the full-time equivalency. FTE is important, because that is the figure on which state funding is based. The FTE also set a record. It amounted to 1565.4, which is a seven per cent increase over the Spring 1992 FTE figure of 1,463.

There are 51 students from Bovina and 41 from Friona enrolled at CCC for the spring 1993 semester, according to statistics released by the admissions office.

Granny Shower Set

There will be a Granny Shower honoring Shirley Garrison on the birth of her new grandson, Davis Steven Corse. Davis is the son of Steven and Samie Corse of Mobeetie, Texas.

The shower will be held in the Community Room of the First Bank of Bovina on Saturday, February 20, from 2 to 3 p.m.

Hostesses for the event are Mary Steelman, Francis Willard, Phyllis Steelman, Gladys Spring, Suez Smith, Norma Whitten, Nita Dale, and Carolyn Pruitt.

Reflections

....from the files of The Bovina Blade

35 YRS. AGO--JAN. 22, 1958

In a special session Monday morning, Bovina city commission worked out details concerning the mayor's election, which is scheduled for April 1. The term for the present mayor, J.E. Sherrill, Jr., expires at that time.

A pocket change sale of gasoline Saturday afternoon at a service station near Ragland, New Mexico led to the arrest of two young men only 1-1/2 hours after the news of a stolen car was radioed to law enforcement officers of the area, according to Parmer County Sheriff Charles Lovelace.

Employees in Lee Thompson's tax assessor-collector's office are expecting a rush of last-minute poll tax payments the next few days as the deadline of January 31, looms nearer.

30 YRS. AGO--JAN. 23, 1963

What was once a hobby for Mrs. Bill Tritsch has grown into a new business for Bovina. That business is flowers as well as other plants and the name of the new business is Laura's Greenhouse.

"It wasn't cold; it just got down to 10 below," was the comment of one winter-weary Bovina citizen in regard to the freezing weather blast which blew in Friday night.

In a regular school board meeting last week, trustees voted to add a band program to the present music program which is now offered, if the proper instructor could be signed.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian M. Fisher, 66, first grade teacher in Bovina Schools for the past eight years, were conducted in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon.

25 YRS. AGO--JAN. 24, 1968

A small house a block south of the First Baptist Church caught fire early Saturday morning, but only damage to the floor, wall and ceiling was reported by Jim Russell of the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department.

Parmer County land is wet. And for the first time in many months, it is wet from rain and snow, rather than from the abundant irrigation wells dotting the farms in the area. About 1.5 inches of moisture has been received here since early Thursday morning.

20 YRS. AGO--JAN. 24, 1973

Members of the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department were called to the scene of a grass fire in a vacant lot behind the home of Wilson DiCuffa at 1001 Avenue K about noon Tuesday.

A collision between a Bovina School bus and a 1967 Mercury sedan about 7:45 a.m. Tuesday resulted in minor damages to both vehicles and no injuries.

Raymond Hise of Pagosa Springs, Colorado is currently engaged in basic training with the U.S. Army. He is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Hise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Hise of Pagosa Springs, attended Bovina Schools and is a graduate of Pagosa Springs High School.

15 YRS. AGO--JAN. 25, 1978

It has been announced that Don Steele has been named to the Dean's Honor List with a grade point average of 3.5 out of a possible 4.0. Majoring in physical education, with a minor in history, he is attending McMurry College, Abilene, Texas and is in the second semester of his sophomore year.

Rev. Derrel Lewis has resigned as pastor of the First Baptist Church. The resignation was tendered on January 15 and becomes effective at the end of this month.

William Gromowsky was appointed this week to fill out the unexpired term of Charlie Jefferson as Commissioner of Precinct 2.

10 YRS. AGO--JAN. 19, 1983

A fund drive spear-headed by Marie Venable raised $890 and provided coveralls for sixteen members of the Bovina Volunteer Fire Department.

A former Bovina resident, Shirley Hemke, was named "Administrator of the Year" by Bethesda Care Centers, a nursing home association in Colorado and Nebraska.

City Manager Tommy Bonds was relieved of his responsibilities at a special meeting of the Bovina City Council last Thursday evening.

Brian Jones was Parmer County champion in the 1982 Longest Tailfeather Contest. His feather measured 25-3/8 inches.

5 YRS. AGO--FEB. 10, 1988

Bovina basketball teams split their games against Nazareth teams here Friday. The Mustangs scored a hard-fought 52-50 win over the Swifts, after the Fillies lost to the top-ranked Nazareth girls, 80-16.

Rev. Jerry W. Kunkel has been selected to be the speaker at this year's Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture annual banquet.

Livestock showmen from the Bovina community did right well at the 41st annual Parmer County Junior Livestock Show last week in Friona.

The Boy Scouts' Pinewood Derby was held Thursday, January 28 at 7 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

February 16--Martha Garner, Rudy Flores.

February 17--Maribelth Salazar.

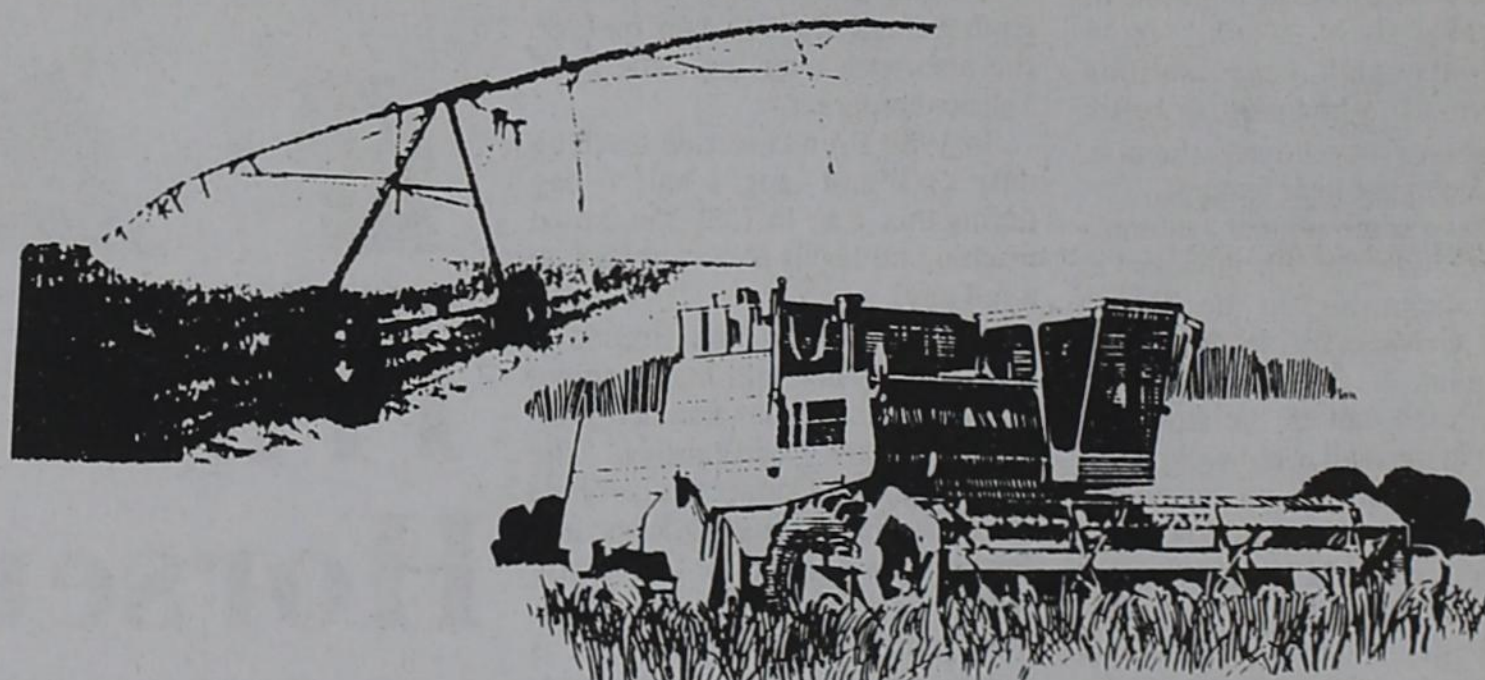

February 18--Greg McClaran.

February 20--Herb Howell, Elena Salazar.

February 21--Kirk Scott, Judy Hodnett.

(Editor's note: If someone in your family is having a birthday coming up, call the Bovina Blade office at 238-1523, in advance, so that members of the community may wish them a Happy Birthday!)

County FFA Youngsters To Compete In Houston

FFA members from Friona, Bovina and Lazbuddie will join other 4-H and FFA members from throughout Texas for show ring competition at the upcoming Houston Livestock Show, February 20 through March 7 at the Astrohall.

These FFA and 4-H exhibitors compete in one of two divisions of the Houston Livestock Show--the junior show division. The other division, the open show, attracts its exhibitors from the world's agricultural industry, who are primarily professional breeders and ranchers.

Entries in both the open and junior show entries to make the Houston Livestock Show the world's largest.

Entering the Houston Show are: Friona--Michael Cole, Misty Drake, Jeremy Hardin, Melissa Hardin, Gerrod Salyer and Jessica Smith.

Bovina--Tobyn Dyer, Ryan Dyer, Tony Branson, Wayne Stormes and Shane Branson.

Lazbuddie--Savannah Black, Seth Black, Jody Copp, Kayla Copp, Holly Engelking, Shana Foster, Staci Foster, Clay Hurst, Clint Hurst, Jason Jesko, Justin Johnson, Dawnda Magby, Garrett Magby, Mandy Magby, Cade Morris, Kia Morris, Justin Puckett, Brice Redwine, Jarrah Redwine, Jay Seaton, Shana Seaton, Jeffrey Seaton, Edward Terry, Wayne Terry, Laura Jo Via, Brandon Walker, Dawn Weir, Tyler Gartin, Trevor Gartin and Joey Hargrove.

Representing 862 Texas 4-H Clubs and FFA chapters, the junior show is expected to exceed 11,000 entries this year. A variety of animals are shown in the junior show division: market steers, market swine, market sheep, market poultry, beef and dairy heifers, breeding sheep, goats, commercial steers and breeding rabbits.

The four market animal categories (steer, sheep, swine and poultry) represent animals raised by the exhibitor as food sources. Top animals in each of these categories are eligible for their individual market auctions. Total money paid in 1992 at the four junior show auctions exceeded $3 million.

"Our junior show is the highlight of our livestock show, placing an emphasis on education, supervised instruction and fair competition," said Steve Woodley, Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo manager.

In addition to the upcoming livestock show competition, a series of lectures, seminars and live animal demonstrations again will be on the calendar for the month of February--the International Livestock Congress. Held February 24-26, 1993, at the Sheraton Astrodome Hotel, this school focuses on lectures and seminars delivered by agricultural experts from throughout the world.

Returning to the horse show arena is the International Cutting Horse Contest, featuring competitors from several nations. This contest helps kick off the upcoming Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo beginning Wednesday, February 17. The National Cutting Horse Association World's Championship Finals is scheduled for Thursday-Sunday, February 18-21. The 1993 Horse Show also will feature competition from six different breeds.

Bar-b-que cooking fans can enjoy the World's Championship Bar-B-Que Contest beginning Friday, February 19, at 4 p.m. in the northwest corner of the Astrodome parking lot and the contest continues through Saturday, February 20.

Also on February 20, the streets of downtown Houston will fill with hundreds of thousands of spectators for the 55th annual downtown rodeo parade. The parade, featuring more than 6,000 trailriders, marching bands and colorful floats, will begin following the Conoco 10K Rodeo Run. Starting at 9:45 a.m. downtown, this year's race is expected to draw 4,500 to 5,000 runners.

Valentine's Day Desserts

BY CARLA MCKEOWN

As usual, Tony and I are on the after-the-holidays weight loss plan. So far, so good. We started about two weeks ago and haven't faltered yet.

It isn't one of those drastic eat-only-dried-fruit types of diets. Rather, it's a sensible eating plan that we should have been following all along.

We've passed up pound cake, birthday cake and giant cookies and are steadily dropping the excess pounds. I have, however, decided to make one exception. I will allow us to go off the diet on Valentine's Day.

I really don't want a heart-shaped box of candies that will be around long after Valentine's Day. But, a dinner for two just isn't as romantic when you're trying to figure out how much fat you've eaten all day.

Valentine's Day desserts traditionally include chocolate and/or something red—strawberries, raspberries, cinnamon candies, etc. However, any sinfully delicious dessert will add the right touch to the day of romance.

I haven't planned the menu yet, but I think I'll include one of the following desserts. Choose one and serve it with your Valentine's meal.

FROZEN PEANUT BUTTER MOUSSE

1 egg white
1/4 cup sugar
1 cup whipping cream
1/2 cup creamy peanut butter
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup light corn syrup
Dash salt
Desired toppings: Whipped cream, cherries, candy.
Beat egg white in a small bowl until soft peaks form. Gradually beat in sugar until stiff peaks form. Set aside. Beat cream in a small bowl until stiff. Set aside. Place peanut butter in a medium-sized bowl, and gradually beat in milk until smooth. Mix in corn syrup and salt until well blended. Fold egg white and cream into peanut butter mixture until smooth and well blended. Pour into eight 4-ounce serving cups or into one 1-quart bowl. Cover and freeze until firm, about 1 hour for serving cups or 3 hours for large bowl. To serve, remove from freezer and let stand in refrigerator until slightly softened, about 10 minutes for serving cups or 30 minutes for large bowl. Top with additional whipped cream and cherries or heart-shaped candies.

CHOCOLATE CREAM PUFFS

3/4 plus 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
2 tablespoons cocoa
1 tablespoon sugar
1 cup water
6 tablespoons margarine
4 eggs
Mocha Cream filling (see following recipe)
Powdered sugar
Coat cookie sheet with vegetable cooking spray. Combine flour, cocoa and sugar; set aside. In a medium saucepan, heat water and margarine to boiling. Stir in flour mixture. Stir vigorously over low heat until mixture forms a ball. Remove from heat; add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Drop dough by heaping tablespoonfuls, about 3 inches apart, onto the prepared cookie sheet, and bake for 20 minutes at 425 degrees. Reduce oven temperature to 375 degrees and bake an additional 20 minutes or until puffed, firm and dark on top. Remove puffs from the cookie sheet immediately and cool. Cut each puff in half horizontally. Pull out any soft dough and discard. Spread Mocha Cream Filling over the bottom half of each puff and top with the top half. Sprinkle powdered sugar over the top. Refrigerate the leftovers. Makes 12 servings.

MOCHA CREAM FILLING

1 teaspoon hot water
1/2 cup teaspoon instant coffee
2 cups frozen non-dairy whipped topping, thawed
2 tablespoons cocoa
In a medium sized bowl, stir hot water and instant coffee until dissolved. Fold in whipped topping until blended. Add cocoa and blend gently.

RASPBERRY-RED PEARS

1-10 ounce package frozen raspberries in light syrup, thawed
1 cup sugar
1/4 cup lemon juice
2-3 inch cinnamon sticks
6 Bartlett pears, pared
2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 cup pear-flavored liqueur or 1/4 cup pear juice
Drain raspberries, placing juice in large saucepan; reserve berries. To juice in pan, add sugar, 4 cups water, lemon juice and cinnamon sticks. Bring to a boil, stirring until sugar dissolves. Add pears. Return liquid to boiling; simmer, covered, for 45 minutes, basting pears occasionally with poaching liquid. Remove from heat. Cool pears in liquid. With a slotted spoon, remove pears to serving dish; set aside. Return liquid to boiling; cook, uncovered, until reduced to 2 cups. Discard cinnamon sticks. In a 1-cup glass measure, blend cornstarch with liqueur; stir into hot poaching liquid. Bring to a boil, and simmer, stirring, for 1 minute, until thickened. Stir in berries; pour sauce over pears. Serve warm or cold. Makes 6 servings.

For those of you who are sticking to the diet, try the following Fruit Tart which contains only 135 calories per serving.

FRUIT TART

1/4 cup margarine
2 tablespoons granulated sugar
1 large egg
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
2 cups prepared reduced-calorie vanilla pudding
1 medium banana, cut into 1/4-inch slices
1 medium kiwi fruit, pared, halved lengthwise and thinly sliced
1 cup drained canned mandarin oranges
1 cup fresh strawberries, thinly sliced
2 tablespoons orange marmalade
To prepare tart shell, combine margarine and sugar and stir until well blended. Add egg and blend. Add flour until mixture forms a dough. Press the dough evenly over the bottom and sides of a 14-inch-by-5-inch-by-1-inch tart pan with a removable bottom. Prick the dough with a fork. Line the dough with foil and fill with pie weights or dried beans to prevent shrinking. Bake for 10 minutes at 350 degrees. Remove foil and weights and bake shell for 10 to 12 minutes longer or until golden. Cool on a wire rack. To assemble the tart, spoon the pudding into the cooled shell. Arrange the fruit in rows over the pudding. Heat the marmalade until melted, and brush it over the fruit. Refrigerate the tart for 1 hour before serving. Makes 12 servings.

Senator Teel Bivins Reports

When you walk into the Senate chamber or the House chamber when either body is in session your first thought is: How can they get anything accomplished amidst all this chaos?

After watching for a minute, people usually find their eyes focused on the dias where the presiding officer of the body stands. The lieutenant governor in the Senate and the Speaker in the House wield the gavel and preside over what appears to be mass confusion. It's worse in the House because there are five times as many participants as in the Senate.

There's a key player in all this who almost always goes unnoticed by the unsophisticated observer. In both the House and the Senate, there is a person seated immediately to the left of the Speaker and the lieutenant governor. If one watches closely, he can see this character quietly mouthing words to the presiding officer. On occasion, you'll see the presiding officer lean over for brief private conversations with this unobtrusive participant.

Few people realize this key player, the parliamentarian, plays a vital role in the operations of their respective legislative houses.

As the title implies, the parliamentarian's formal role is to ensure that the body operates within the rules it has adopted for itself. This sounds deceptively simple. House and Senate rules can often be intricately complex and confusing. The parliamentarian, much like a judge, is guided by precedents. The effort here, of course, is to attempt to interpret the rules in a matter consistent with the past.

When I first arrived in the Senate, then-Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby, who had himself served as the Senate parliamentarian under Lt.

Gov. Ben Ramsey, told me I would rarely need to refer to the Senate rules. But he went on to say that when I do, it'll be a life-or-death situation. Thus, acquiring a good working understanding of the Senate rules became one of my goals. However, you can't really accomplish that goal by simply reading the rules over and over again. It helps to have some outside counsel.

The obvious place to turn for such counsel is the parliamentarian. This is where the job of parliamentarian becomes bigger than the title implies. There is a long-standing tradition in the Texas Legislature of absolute confidentiality on the part of the parliamentarian in both the House and the Senate. In fact, Bob Johnson, the current parliamentarian of the Senate, is the only man in Texas to have ever served as parliamentarian in both the House and Senate.

When a member is attempting to develop a strategy for passage of a bill and contemplates potential rule problems, he or she can sit down with Bob Johnson and discuss the issues with assurance that the discussion will not go beyond the four walls of the parliamentarian's office. This is true whether the member is a Democrat or Republican.

During the 72nd regular session, in the midst of the war over congressional redistricting, Bob Johnson assisted Senators Ratliff and Sibley and myself in developing what we refer to as a "tag-team filibuster" strategy. A filibuster generally can only go so long as a single member is able to stay on his or her feet to talk. With the help of Bob Johnson, however, we developed a strategy that would have enabled us to carry the filibuster much further than anyone dreamed we could. Though we ultimately decided not to execute the strategy, there was a period of about four days when it was "in play". During that time, there was never even a shred of evidence that anyone other than we co-conspirators had any knowledge of the plan.

While Bob Johnson works for Bob Bullock, he places great importance in the tradition of confidentiality between himself and the 31 members of the Texas Senate. The same can be said for the parliamentarians during Bill Hobby's tenure as lieutenant governor.

So the next time you come into the Senate or House chamber, after looking around at all the chaotic activity, pay a little attention to the quiet man sitting to the left of the presiding officer.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER

WHAT AMOUNTED TO CIVIL WAR, AND PITTED BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER, ALMOST CAUSED A COMPLETE DIVISION AMONG THE TRIBES OF ISRAEL. THE GIBEAITHITES (NATIVES OF A TOWN IN THE PROVINCE OF BENJAMIN) WERE THE CAUSE OF THE CONFLAGRATION. (JUDGES CHAPTER 20) ALL THE REST OF THE TRIBES WERE LINED UP AGAINST THEM, BUT THE TRIBE OF BENJAMIN HAD PROBABLY THE BEST SOLDIERS OF ISRAEL, AND IN TWO SUCCESSIVE DAYS, THEY ROUTED THEIR BROTHER TRIBESMEN AND SWEEPED THEM OFF THE FIELD OF BATTLE WITH TUMULTUOUS EASE! ON THE THIRD DAY PHINEHAS THE SON OF ELEAZAR, ASKED THE LORD IF THEY SHOULD CONTINUE THE BATTLE AGAINST BENJAMIN AND THE LORD CONSENTED. THIS TIME THE ISRAELITES USED AN AMBUSHING TECHNIQUE AND PUT DOWN THE BENJAMINITES SO SEVERELY THAT THERE WERE ONLY SIX HUNDRED MEN LEFT OUT OF TWENTY SIX THOUSAND!

Linda's Lines

By LINDA MARSHALL

You know what they say about the weather in West Texas; if you don't like it, wait around for about ten minutes and it will change.

I can tell you that is so true because the other day it was pretty enough to go golfing and then late in the afternoon it snowed for about 10 minutes and then just quit and it got pretty again.

We have sure had some beautiful days here lately so I hope everyone has taken advantage of them. You'd better enjoy each pretty day because it might just change in ten minutes.

Joe Harris is in the Veteran's Hospital in Amarillo. He is having heart problems and is having tests run.

Brenda (Newbrough) Cherry has had surgery but is home and doing pretty good at this time.

Obereta Sudderth had cataract surgery and is now at home doing real well.

Pam (Rhodes) Heinrich's husband, Daryl, was in a train accident Tuesday and is in critical condition at the University Medical Center. Please put this family on your prayer list. This is Galen and Shelby Rhodes' son-in-law.

Brett Anderson celebrated his second birthday with family and friends on Sunday, February 7.

Those who enjoyed cake and ice cream were: Brett's parents, Rick and Denise Anderson and his brother, Zane; Roy Lee and Dorothy Stowers and daughters, Jessica and Christen; his grandparents, Rick and Velta Anderson of the Rhea community; Kevin and Suzan Hughes and daughter, Haylee; Gaylord and Dusty Stowers of Friona; Mike and son Greg Read of Amarillo; Sandra and Dalton Cockerham of Bovina; Jerry and Donnie Martin and daughters, Mandy and Macey of Texico, New Mexico; and Luke London of Friona.

On Saturday night before the party, Brett's other grandparents, Billy Don and Joyce Read, hosted a cookout for the family and opened birthday presents.

Cody Jamerson celebrated his fifth birthday at the Burger King in Clovis recently. The menu consisted of hamburgers, fries, Coke and a birthday cake.

Friends that attended were Brandon Black, Matthew Young, Matthew Ware, Ryan McClaran, Skyla Cockerham, Jordan Jamerson, Zane Anderson, Charlie Rundell, Courtney Jamerson, and Lacie Young. Cody is the son of Ricky and D'Lynn Jamerson.

Lawrence Widner is really doing well after his surgery and was even at church Sunday. He doesn't want to run a race yet but he might take you on in four or five months.

County Fields Need 4"-10" Of Moisture

Parmer County producers within the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 need 4-10 inches of water from precipitation and/or irrigation to bring the five-foot root zone soil profile to field capacity before 1993 spring planting, according to the soil moisture survey data released by the Water District and the USDA-Soil Conservation Service (USDA-SCS).

"The soil moisture sites in the northern portion of the District, including Parmer County, were read in mid-November. The soil moisture deficits may not be as much due to snow, rain and ice that have fallen since the survey was completed," says Wilfred E. "Willie" Crenwelge, USDA-SCS Soil Scientist.

Crenwelge adds that there are several factors accounting for the moisture deficits in the three and four foot layers of the soil profile.

"Excellent pre-plant soil moisture conditions reduced the need for irrigation during the 1992 growing season. The crop roots extracted moisture from the three and four-foot soil layers as they normally would. The fall season was drier than normal, and as a result, the soil moisture in these layers was not replenished," he says.

The annual soil survey data helps inform irrigators about general soil moisture and availability conditions across the 15-county Water District service area.

"Irrigators can use this information to estimate the amount of water needed during pre-plant irrigation to bring their soil to field capacity without over-irrigating or under-irrigating. However, producers should remember that these are guidelines which should not be used in place of individual testing on their farms. It will be very important for them to check moisture conditions in the three and four foot levels of the soil this year," says Crenwelge.

Soil moisture conditions were surveyed from November 18, 1992, through January 15, 1993, at 282 sites throughout the Water District. Readings are taken by lowering a neutron probe into a permanently-installed aluminum access tube at each site. These sites are chosen based upon the soil type, crop(s) produced, and the saturated thickness of the Ogallala Formation, which influences water well yields. Each soil moisture monitoring site represents typical field conditions in the area.

Historical data shows that above-average crop yields are more likely when the five-foot root zone soil profile is at or near field capacity at planting.

Copies of the regional or Parmer County soil moisture survey maps are available by contacting your local USDA-SCS field office or the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1, 2930 Avenue Q, Lubbock, Texas 79405-1499 or by calling (806) 762-0181.
