Bovina High School Mustangs will open the 1990 grid season at Whiteface Friday in an 8 p.m. game.

The contest marks the return to 11-man football for BHS after two years playing in six-man ranks.

The Mustangs have six returning starters from their very successful six-man team of 1989. Hector Guevara, 160-pound junior, started at quarterback last season.

Also back is Robert Guevara, who gained a whopping 2,170 yards last season and earned all-district honors.

Also back are Rey DeLaRosa, center, Cain Neal, 6-1, 205-pound junior; Pedro Castillo, 155-pound junior guard, Genaro Ruvalcaba, 155-pound guard.

Church Marks 85 Years

The First United Methodist Church marks 85 years as a church in Bovina during the first week of September.

Not much information is known about the early Sunday School program but the old-timers said it was an active church. Back in the early 1920s, H.T. Hastings was Sunday School superintendent and Lillian Ezell was in charge of the cradle roll.

Later, in the 1930s, a large group of young adults with Mrs. S.P. Mills as teacher, was the nucleus of a vigorous Sunday School.

Among those participating in this class were Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Aubra Ellison, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Battey, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, Peggy Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Charles, Kate Queen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Pesch and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross.

Special Trip Is Offered

Students and adults are invited to participate in an exciting and educational trip directed by Brenda Wilson.

This will be a five-day, four-night tour of Washington, D.C. and New York City, June 3, 1991 through June 7, 1991. It is being arranged and coordinated by American Student Travel for $820 ($920 double occupancy-adults only).

This price, based on quad occupancy, includes round-trip air fare, all meals, quality lodging, sight-seeing with professional guides/drivers, evening activities, escort services, admission fees, night time security, and comprehensive insurance.

The itinerary highlights sights which may be included on the tour and they are: group sight-seeing by bus to the White House and/or Washington Monument, National Gallery of Art, Air & Space Museum, Arts and Industries Building, Jefferson Memorial, Lincoln Memorial, Iwo Jima Memorial, Kennedy Center, Mount Vernon, home of President Washington, and Old Town Alexandria.

Also, the U.S. Capitol, Supreme Court, Library of Congress, Viet Nam Memorial, Empire State Building, Midtown Manhattan, Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral, Fifth Avenue, Radio City Music Hall, Central Park, Lincoln Center, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, ferry ride to the Statue of Liberty and many, many more sights of interest.

Adult supervision will be provided at a ratio of 1-15. Brenda will chaperone the group with other adults as necessary.

To register for this trip you are asked to get a form from Mrs. Wilson, fill it out and return it along with a deposit of $100 by October 15. Final payment will be due by April 8, 1991.

For more information regarding this trip, call Brenda Wilson at home or school, or you may call American Student Travel at (713) 461-2819.

There were seven persons killed and 104 persons injured in these accidents."

New Immunization Rules Are Invoked

There are now new, more stringent immunization rules for all Texas children which will become law effective September 1.

Health officials are advising parents to ensure that their children's immunization records comply with those rules. Still more changes in the immunization requirements, including a mandatory second dose of measles vaccine, are set for 1991.

The large measles outbreaks which began in 1988 underscored the fact that measles and other vaccine-preventable diseases can pose tragic health threats unless all susceptible people are immunized against them.

Some parents in recent years have failed to have their children vaccinated. Also, some school and day care operators have not kept adequate records. The result is a growing number of insufficiently immunized children and young adults at risk of measles infection.

Children entering Texas schools or day care centers have to show proof of immunization at certain ages against polio, tetanus, measles, rubella (German measles), mumps and diphtheria.

In addition, the law requires pertussis (whooping cough) vaccine for all school and day care children under five years of age.

Among the major amendments are:

Beginning September 1, 1990, children and students enrolling in Texas child care facilities or schools must have received both mumps and measles vaccines on or after their first birthdays.

Beginning January 1, 1991, students whose twelfth birthdays occur on or after September 1, 1990, will be required to have two doses of measles vaccine, or provide evidence of measles immunity. The two doses must be administered at least 30 days apart, and proof of the second dose will be required until the child's twelfth birthday.

Beginning September 1, 1991, Haemophilus Influenzae Type B (Hib) vaccine will be required for children, age 18 months through four years.

Beginning September 1, 1991, all children and students enrolling for the first time must have received rubella vaccine at age one or older.

If you need further details about immunization requirements you should consult your family physicians, local health departments or school officials.

Immunization Clinics Are Scheduled

Immunization clinics offering vaccines that give protection against several childhood diseases are scheduled for September. Protection is against polio, diphtheria, lock jaw (tetanus), whooping cough (pertussis), measles, rubella and mumps.

The Texas Department of Health is charging money to help with the cost of keeping the clinic open. The amount of money charged will be based on family income and size, and the ability to pay.

Clinics will be held in Hereford September 6, 13, 20 and 27 from 9-11:30 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. each day.

Buck and Freda Lloyd have had lots of company visiting in recent days. Their niece and her husband came from San Diego, California and they are Vaughnita and Joe Mann. Also visiting were their daughter, Pauline, her husband J.B. O'Hair and their daughter, Carla and her three sons.

Freda said the O'Hairs had been to Las Vegas, Nevada and got Carla and the boys. Carla's husband is in the Air Force and was sent overseas. The trip was long and he became ill with a blood clot becoming infected in his leg. He is now hospitalized in Germany. Word is that they will be sending him back soon.

Later the Lloyds' grandson, Richard and Linda Lloyd, visited from Woodward, Oklahoma and also Richard's mother, Paula Lloyd of Grandbury, Texas came for two days. The family enjoyed a good visit together.

Jim and I went to California last week and drove the northern route both coming and going. There had been a lot of rain and it was pretty and green all the way. California is still in need of rain. We went to Long Beach and spent a day seeing the sights then drove up to Santa Maria and spent the night. We had a restful day at Salinas before coming home. We drove on the 101 Highway through California and saw the ocean most of the way. In Santa Maria, diesel was $1.60-9/10 a gallon. The highest we had seen. (Maybe one day Uncle Sam will have Truckers CRP and pay us to park it, oh well...) Had a good trip.

Jana Barrett and children, Joel, Jordan and Britton, flew to Louisville, Kentucky and visited with family. They spent thirteen days. Jana said she'd been away

Society Discusses Convention

The members of the Guadalupana Society had their monthly meeting with eleven members present.

There will be a Catholic Women's Convention in Pampa on October 19 and 20 and some members of the society plan to attend. Each member was assigned their various tasks for the Mexican dinner at the end of the month. If you wish to volunteer to help with the kitchen in September, you are asked to contact Mrs. Lupe Rodriguez or any member of the Guadalupanas.

The meeting ended with prayer followed by visiting and refreshments.

Ken and Terri Sorley and daughters, Jill and Sara, went to Boys Ranch for the Labor Day Rodeo. This is always enjoyable for them as Terri's brother, Mark Hill, and his family live and work there. Terri said he had been there eight years.

Herman and Edna Estes of Coleman were in Bovina in recent days and on Sunday, their daughter, Suezzy and Billy Smith, hosted dinner for them to celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary. Family and friends present who were there were Suezzy and Billy's children, Arlene from El Paso, Darlene and Stan Miller and Kevin Smith, all of Bovina. Friends, Carolyn Pruitt and granddaughters, Misti and Lindsey; Julie Grissom Grisham, Andy and Connie Garza and Mary Rejino, were also there.

Suezzy said her parents had to leave Monday because they got word that Edna's only sister, Gladys Constant of Fort Worth, was hospitalized after she broke her hip.

Bryan Mason, son-in-law of Dickie and Mary Evelyn Steelman, is in the Air Force and a week ago last Thursday, was sent to Saudi Arabia. His bride of one month, Leah, lives in Clovis and has started to high school there to finish her senior year. Our thoughts are with all these young people who are in the service, and their families.

SMILE: In an English lesson one day, the teacher wrote on the blackboard: "I didn't have no fun at the beach."

Then she turned to her pupils and said, "Ronald, how should I correct that?" "Get a boyfriend," he answered.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE REBUILDER OF A NATION!

NEHEMIAH, OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH, WAS OFFICIAL CUP-BEARER TO KING ARTAXERES OF PERSIA. THE JEWS, HAVING BEEN TAKEN CAPTIVE OUT OF JUDEA ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY YEARS BEFORE BY KING NEBUCHADNEZZAR, HAD RISEN TO HIGH PLACES IN MANY INSTANCES BECAUSE OF THEIR TALENTS. NEHEMIAH, BORN IN CAPTIVITY, ROSE TO THE LEVEL OF CLOSEST ROYAL ADVISER IN THE ENTIRE KINGDOM. IN 445 B.C., HEARING OF THE DESPERATE PLIGHT OF THE FEW JEWS LEFT IN JERUSALEM—A RUINED CITY OF CRUMBLING WALLS AND BURNED GATES, COMPLETELY AT THE MERCY OF ROVING BANDS OF CUT-THROATS AND THIEVES WHO TERRIFIED THE COUNTRY—NEHEMIAH GOT PERMISSION FROM HIS KING TO GO THERE AND TO REBUILD THE WALLS SO THAT THE INHABITANTS WOULD HAVE PROTECTION AGAINST MARAUDERS. A PERIOD OF TWELVE YEARS ELAPSED FROM THE TIME HE ARRIVED IN THE CITY, UNTIL THE DESTRUCTION OF THE REBUILT WALLS (432 B.C.) BUT BEYOND JUST REBUILDING JERUSALEM'S WALLS, NEHEMIAH COMPLETELY RENEWED THE JEWISH NATION, REVIVED ITS RELIGION, THE TEMPLE, AND ALL THE ANCIENT CUSTOMS AND MOSAIC LAW! AN EXCEEDINGLY DIFFICULT TASK, NEHEMIAH CONSIDERS THE MANY STRATEGEMS AND TRICKS EMPLOYED BY NEAR-BY PETTY KINGS TO PREVENT JERUSALEM FROM RISING TO ITS FORMER STATUS, ALL OF WHICH IS EXCITINGLY RELATED IN THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

Longtime Resident Is Buried

Funeral services for Nettie F. Rhinehart, 96, were conducted Thursday afternoon at First Baptist Church in Bovina, with Rev. Richard Grisham, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Bovina Cemetery, under the direction of Ellis-Blackwell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Rhinehart passed away September 3, 1990, at the Golden Age Nursing Home in Clovis.

She was born February 26, 1894, in Arkansas. She had been a resident of Bovina since 1929. She married O. W. Rhinehart May 9, 1914 in Caddo, Oklahoma.

In the 1930s, Mrs. Rhinehart helped establish the Busy Bee Club for women. They learned about conserving and canning food, and took turns meeting in members' homes, where they would spend the day quilting. Members took covered dishes for lunch.

Her husband, O. W. Rhinehart, worked for the State Highway Department for a number of years. He preceded her in death.

She was a longtime member of First Baptist Church of Bovina, having joined soon after arriving in Bovina from Calera, Oklahoma. She also was a member of the Eastern Star.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON

I will start this week's article by giving a great big welcome to Pearl Young from Hereford. She is Frances Euler's mother. She is 94 years old and is a very sweet lady. I also want to welcome John Dickson from Clovis, N.M. He will be staying with us until he recovers from his recent hip surgery.

John and Jo Blackwell were in Dallas this weekend visiting their daughter, Marcia, who is on staff at the Straight Program. They got back Monday and are now anxiously waiting to get word of Marcia's commencement from the program. From there she will be on staff full time and finish her senior year at Grapevine High School. Marcia lives with host parents and enjoys all the fun things to do there. She has had her own car and has been driving in Dallas since January.

Thank you's this week go to: Shay Smith for coming and helping with crafts to put in our showcase; the Bovina girls for the pimento peppers (we are all anxious to try them); to the person who gave the cantaloupe (it was really delicious, I just wish I had gotten the person's name that brought them); Marca Lynn Herring for coming as often as she does to visit with our residents (it really does mean so much to them); and finally to Geneva Williams for bringing the First Baptist Church tape for the residents to listen to and also for sharing her time to visit.

We are excited with school resuming to be able to get started with our Early Childhood program and the weekly pep rallies.

Our sympathies go to the family of Nettie Rhinehart of Bovina. She was a resident of Prairie Acres and a friend to many from 1976-1985.

The following donations were made to the Love Fund:
In memory of R.V. Brown: Joe and Betty Talley.

Also, Mabelle Hartwell gave a donation.

Angler's Corner

shaking leaps and incredible bursts of speed are traits of the Micropterus dolomieu, known to anglers as the smallmouth bass.

An American fish, it was first identified in literature in 1664 when French settling the St. Lawrence River wrote of the "Ouchigan," an Algonquin Indian term for ferocious. In the remote areas of the Canadian wilderness anglers catch scores of "smallies" a day. The smallmouth has been transplanted as far south as Texas.

The smallmouth relies on eyesight more than any other sense in locating its prey. A sensitive lateral line works the same way as Largemouths for detecting movement and water displacement. This is another fish that is easily spooked as it has extremely good hearing.

The smallie is less leary of fishing line, lures and hooks. This varies in different lakes depending on the competition from other smallies. In water plentiful with forage, the smallie will be difficult to entice. On the other hand, overpopulated lakes will produce more strikes due to competition for the forage.

Smallmouth bass prefer clear water in either streams, rivers or lakes seldom being found in shallow ponds or lakes less than twenty-five feet deep. Murky or turbid water will not support a smallmouth fishery.

The parameters used in locating the smallmouth are temperature, oxygen, current, depth and water clarity. Combine this with available forage and structure information to eliminate as much of your fishing water as possible.

In our southern lakes, this fish has been found in a temperature range of 78-84 degrees particularly when forced to by the lack of sufficient oxygen at the cooler depths. In northern lakes the range is from 67-71 degrees. Laboratory research has shown that young smallmouth prefer about 82 degrees but adult specimens were not tested. Further testing showed little tolerance for temperatures below 50 degrees. Temperatures in the 40's caused the fish to lay motionless on the bottom.

A largemouth can survive oxygen levels as little as 2.0 parts per million (ppm), the smallmouth can only tolerate levels to 2.2 ppm. When oxygen content drops below 5 ppm for an extended period of time, growth and feeding are restricted. Highly fertile lakes will force the fish to the shallows as the competition from vegetation and other aquatic life is increased.

Our area lakes are classified as infertile because of the depths involved. Sunlight cannot reach the bottom to stimulate plant growth, therefore, the oxygen content is higher due to reduced aquatic life. Of course, the deeper the water, the less the oxygen.

The tolerable pH range is from 5-9. While some of the best smallmouth fisheries seem to exist within a range of 7.9-8.1, limited research in this area has yielded little information. A Canadian study discovered that smallmouth cannot reproduce in a range of 5.5-6.0.

Smallies like a current that is a little slower than do trout, approximately 0.4-1.3 feet per second. Prime location are inlet areas, wind blown channels between islands or any running tributary. With experience you will be able to recognize the proper current.

Smallmouth prefer the epilimnion (upper layer) of the water most likely in shallow areas adjacent to deep water. The smallies stay slightly deeper than the largemouths. They are usually not visible from the surface. Spring, summer and fall will find the fish usually above 30 feet of water. In the winter they may school in the depths of the lake.

Water clarity of more than one foot is preferred even though they will tolerate murky water for a short time. Stay away from stained or muddy water when looking for smallies. Like the white bass, the smallmouth will become extremely competitive for forage and bait particularly when schooling. They will feed most heavily in early morning and late afternoon. If competition for food decreases, so will the competition between fish.

Windy, rainy or overcast days produce the most action. Before a cold front the fish will increase their feeding, slowing as the front passes. Some smallmouth anglers prefer to fish on the days around the full moon and maintain that night fishing is best.

Preferred tackle consists of spinning rods at least 5'6" medium action, spooled with 6-8 pound line. The smallie does not strike as hard as it fights so your rod tip needs to be sensitive enough to detect the strike yet strong enough to set the hook. Topwater plugs, inline spinners, small crankbaits and soft plastics outproduce other artificials. In live bait, crawdads rank high followed by minnows, worms, waterdogs and crickets.

In terms of quality fish in this area, Conchas is your best bet, but when talking about sheer numbers, Meredith excels. Both lakes have well maintained fisheries and Meredith is a priority lake for stocking by the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

Smallies deserve every anglers attention for their sport and tenacious spirit. Hope to see you on the water, keep a tight line and good luck.
