missioners Saturday at Lovington rejected a petition for an election to determine whether the Lea county seat should be removed Incumbents Re-elected In from Lovington to Hobbs.

Four reasons for the commissioners actions were set forth. These were:

1. Insufficient number of qualified voters names on the petition. 2. The fact that the two towns are less than twenty miles apart. 3. That the title to the ground offered for the public building is not good. 4. That the grounds so offered are not in the town of Hobbs.

CHAVES COUNTY MAN WINS

SANTA FE-The New Mexico supreme court yesterday reversed conviction of Don Blevins, convicted in Chaves county of selling "one neat cattle" without any right to sell the same, and sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary. The high court found he had been convicted under a statute relating to any property, whereas, he should have been tried under that section of the law dealing exclusively with neat cattle.

Justice A. L. Zinn wrote the opinion which was unanimous.

"All right, prince," Donahey agreed. "The girl goes back to your room but you aren't there-that's your story, and you stick to it. But now sometime after that, any time in the next hour or so, somebody in that room got hold of her and choked her to death. Now where was everybody for that next hour?"

It was hard to discover where every one had been during that nour for they had moved about so much. Rancini sald he had gone downstairs for a time, then up to the Kellers' sitting-room on the sec ond floor where he and his wife had waited with the Kellers and Mrs. Crane for the summons to the inquest. Harriden stated he had been kind in the Rancini apartment. "And if I had I wouldn't have cared!" Deck said he had been in his room, but that he had no proof of it. I could offer no proof, either, that I had stayed in my room, after the time the maid had gone to deliver my two notes,

There were a few minutes when I popped into Mitchell's room, next mine, to get some cigarettes-you may re member my case was mislaid. I hadn't any supplies left. I waited bit for Mitchell, then came back.

So it all went on. There was nothing else brought out that seemed to matter. At the last the inspector concentrated on the subect of Deck's cigarette case, when he thought he had lost it, when he first found it again-in the hall, Deck said, on one of the tables, he couldn't remember exactly where-"How about that, Miss Seton? Your Pajamas Ars Indian

When we go to bed in pajamas, we are wearing the sort of clothing that is worn as ordinary daily dress by vast numbers of the natives of India. "Pejama" is the name in that country, and long ago British people in India found that best for night wear in hot climates, short, beansike pods, three inches So they started to wear "pejamas," and when they came home to England they introduced the sleeping altered .- Pearson's Weekly.

"Hornets and Bullets" By FLOYD GIBBONS

ROWD over there, boys and girls, and make room for a onew Distinguished Adventurer in this club of yours. He is Ralph Gewehr of South Orange, N. J. I've got to admit, right at the start, that Ralph's yarn is a stinger. It happened to him in August, 1934, up in the Adirondacks, when Ralph and his pal, Billy, started out with a couple of .22 calibre rifles to hunt eagles.

Well, sir, that's a good enough start for any adventure. An eagle is a pretty tough proposition, and a .22 calibre rifle is a pretty small piece of hardware to try to handle one with. If they'd found any eagles on that little hunting trip of theirs, they'd have had plenty of adventure. And I guess if they hadn't run across anything more dangerous than a cottontail rabbit they'd have had an adventure, too.

Those lads were slated for trouble. Their numbers were upespecially Ralph's. Anything they did that day would have been wrong, and when Billy took a pot shot at the only game in sight, sortment of 51 kg he started something worse than a whole flock of eagles and a couple of buzzards thrown in for good measure.

Boys Find Hornet's Nest Is Dangerous Target.

With their rifles in their arms, Ralph and Billy headed up the trail on foot. They trudged up to the top of Blue Ledge, a distance of ten miles from the summer camp of Ralph's folks at North river. The boys planned to spend the night in the mountains, like real hunters, and look for adventure. They were too tired to go after eagles by the time Job: "I will lay a they arrived, but hornets were another thing.

Now a hornet is pretty far from an eagle, but a hornet's nest makes a nice target-if you don't care what you shoot at-and Billy didn't care. He let fly at that hornet's nest and hit it smack in the center and then adventure began in earnest. Ralph says those hornets came out of that nest like a cloud of buzzing smoke. He thinks all the hornets in the world must have been in it from the way they went for him. He took one look at the flying circus and then hit the trail as fast as he could go. But it wasn't fast enough. They dove at him in mass formation and kept right on his tail.

He got a glimpse of Billy tearing through the woods with a million injunction, "Arise a so of the enemy on his shoulders and the next second tripped and fell. starvation," excellent

Bang! Went a Shot Right in Ralph's Ear.

Bang! went a shot right in his ear. He thought it was Billy's rifle for a moment because his had fallen out of his hand. Then he felt a stinging much money. Visited sensation in his side. That must have been a big hornet, he thought, from he had heard no disturbance of any on hitting the ground and the bullet must be in his body! Hornets were forgotten in the face of this discovery. The situation was deadly serious. Here was a boy shot in the side and he was ten miles from civilization. Besides, both boys were already tired from their long walk. And, to make matters worse, the only doctor was eight miles more beyond Ralph's cabin. They could make that last eight miles in his mother's car, but how would Ralph ever survive the walk? Ralph says their Boy Scout training came immediately to mine The thing to do in case of a sudden shock, they recalled, was to apply heat, externally, internally and eternally. So Billy built a fire, heatec some water and made coffee. Ralph drank the coffee, which heated him internally. Then Billy wrapped him in the blankets for the external in that, with the heating. The boys washed the wound with hot water, bound it up as well as they could with their handkerchiefs, and started on the long United States-a con

Wounded Lad Makes Heroic 10-Mile Trek.

Did you ever try to walk ten miles with a bullet in your side? Ralph advises you not to. In addition to the mental torture of not knowing how badly he was wounded, Ralph suffered intensely from foreigners, with better the heat. It was mid-August and hot enough without the blankets and fewer vexatious and the coffee, and he had to trudge along bundled up like an Indian eigners; there is no

That walk, says Ralph, was a nightmare. He figures he must have lost at least ten pounds and laid the foundations for a headful of gray hair. But he kept on going, even if he did think that each step would be his last. Finally they got back to the camp where Ralph's dad had a car.

It was late at night when the boys finally staggered into the doctor's the crowd gives to office after a ride that shook the daylights out of Ralph. It was forty miles, lis!-"Down with the but Billy drove it almost as fast as those hornets could fly.

State Troopers Ask the Boys Searching Questions

At the hospital another surprise was in store for them. State Troopers-called by the doctor, as they always do in cases of gunshot wounds-met the boys and questioned them. Ralph says they seemed to think that he and Billy had been shooting at each other or holding somebody up. But they cleared themselves of that suspicion and Ralph went on the operating table.

An operation is an adventure in itself, but Ralph's was one with a happy ending. The bullet-which, fortunately, was not a high powered one-had entered his side and, striking a rib, had glanced off and missed the vital organs. The doctors, after an X-ray had been taken, picked the slug out of his shoulder and when Ralph woke up there was his mother, more scared than he was. Billy had found her and told her "Ralph had been shot."

Ralph was out of the hospital in a few days and the wound healed up in a few weeks, but, he says, he hasn't been eagle hunting since @-WNU Service.

Wages Highest In United States

GENEVA, Switzerland-The International Labor Headquarters has just made public figures showing that wages paid to American workers are by far the highest in the world.

Except for four other nations, the American standard was twice as high as that in the thirteen countries covered in the study. In making the computation, the International Labor Headquarters made allowances for differences in living costs so that the index accurately represents the worker's real in-

Duck Season Is Again 30 Days

WASHINGTON - A thirty-day hunting season for the more than a million Americans who go gunning for ducks was announced Fridivision of the Department of Agriculture.

Officials said that stringent restrictions imposed last year on the hunting of waterfowl were, in the main, being continued.

Imposed under the 1918 migratory bird treaty act between this country and Canada, the rules were approved by Secretary Wallace and President Roosevelt.

Chief changes in them this season are division of the country into three, instead of two, hunting zones; addition of redhead and canvasback ducks and Atlantic brant to the protected list on which all shooting is banned; and permission for open water shooting under certain restrictions.

The chief limitations retained: 1. Use of live decoys, baiting by spreading corn, or shooting from sink boxes or batteries are pro-hibited.

2. Hunting shall be only from 7:00 a. m., to 4:00 p. m., standard

3. Repeating shotguns shall not be loaded with more than three shells and guns larger than 10-

4. The daily bag limit and total possession limit shall be ten ducks and four geese and brant.

The three zones this season with their hunting dates: Northern, shooting opens October 10th and closes November 8th; Intermediate, November 1st to 30; and Southern, November 26th to December 25th.

The thirty-day season applies to ducks, geese, Wilson's snipe or jacksnipe, and coot or mudhens. The prohibited list includes swan, Ross geese, wood ducks, ruddy knock and it shall be opened unto ducks and rufflehead, in addition Serve in sherbet or parfait glasses you. BELIEVE IT OR NOT, AN ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR ACTUALLY DOES PAY FOR ITSELF

Your first profit comes from savings made by buying large quantities of food on bargain days-you can buy enough of almost everything to last you a week and it'll stay fresh and wholesome until you use it.

The next way you make money on your electric refrigerator is by being able to use up left-overs-there are many ways to prepare tempting dishes from odds and ends that otherwise would be a net loss.

These things mount into real money in a year's time and in addition, you have the added convenience of being able to concoct inexpensive and delicious desserts and salads on a moment's notice.

See your electric refrigerator dealer nowtoday-and get his story of just what an electric refrigerator will do for you. He has a box suitable to your needs at a price that is surprisingly low.

The federal government contributes a share of the funds, of course, but it does not boss the job as has been the practice under Harry Hopkins and his Works Progress Administration further than the requirements that relief labor be employed.

As stated above, the plan now on trial constitutes the very heart of the Republican proposal for handling federal relief. The Republican platform calls for "federal grants in aid to the states and ter-viltories will be said to the said to the states and ter-viltories will be said to the said to the said to the states and ter-viltories will be said to the said to the states and ter-viltories will be said to the ritories while the need exists upon compliance with these conditions: a fair proportion of the total relief burden to be provided from the revenues of states and local governments; all engaged in relief administration to be selected on the basis given this new title immediately of merit and fitness; adequate provisions to be made for the encouragement of those persons who are trying to become self-supporting."

I hear much discussion around Washington that the President's experiment meets the Republican program in every way except as to the second provision which relates to the selection of the administrative personnel "upon the basis of merit and fitness." There are many who believe Mr. Roosevelt has reached the conclusion that there is considerable merit in the contention that unless steps are taken to get relief of the unemployed back into the local communities, it will become an unworkable monster, a Frankenstein. On the other hand, some of the bitter critics of the Roosevelt administration are contending that Mr. Roosevelt seeks to try out the Republican proposal in this manner in order to demonstrate that it is unworkable. They point also to the omission of the second provision just mentioned, and declare that the President will use political patronage rather than merit as the means of creating supervision. In other words, they are charging that Mr. Roosevelt is adding to his political machine in advance of election.

Despite the fact that Mussolini would like to have Emperor Haile Selassie known only as a plain Mr. Tafari, most of the nations of the world still are compelled, through treaty agreement, foreign policy or plain desire, to consider that Mr. Tafari still has the title of emperor of Ethiopia which he and his ancestors so long bore.

There is, however, this circumstance: since no nation has extended formal recognition to Italy as embracing Ethiopia, no diplomat can be formally received in that capacity. For example, the new Italian ambassador to the United States will come to Washington as the plenipotentiary of the king of Italy and emperor of Ethiopia but our ambassador to Italy, Mr. Welles, will go to Rome when he returns to his post this fall as the ambassador to the court of King Victor Emanuel - nothing being said about Ethiopia.

British Blow Up Jaffa Danger Zone

This unusual picture shows houses in Jaffa, Palestine, being blown into the air by the force of an explosion. In one week 150 houses in the old city were blown up by British troops as part of their plan for the defense of Palestine. Steel helmeted troops armed with ma-chine guns surrounded the old city during the operation.

PASSING THROUGH A CARD

When you state that you will pass through a playing card, everyone will believe that you are about to perpetrate some hoax.

Nevertheless, if you know the secret, you can actually prepare a playing card so that you can step right through it!

First, cut a slit lengthwise in the card, almost to the ends. Then fold the card along the slit. Take the scissors and cut alternating slits from center to side; from side to center; but in no case cut completely through the card.

Make these slits close together; when you unfold the card, it will form a large, circular chain through which you can step.

from the end. Then Jerry understood. He awakened to the truth, and it was a sad awakening. That stranger WAS a trapper after all. He had been putting those good things there for Jerry so that he would get so used to finding them that his suspicions would be put to sleep. When he was quite sure that Jerry had grown careless and was no longer suspicious of traps he had placed a trap on that old log just under water.

If Jerry had climbed up on that old log as usual he would have that trap and been caught by a leg. As it was, he had accidentally sprung it with his tail. Being caught by the tail was bad enough, but it would have been worse to have been caught by a leg. though Jerry didn't stop to think of this at the time. So far as he could see it didn't make any difference how he was caught as long as he

VARIOUS GOOD THINGS

HERE is a cottage cheese pie that everybody will like, because it is different:

Beat three eggs, add one cupful of cottage cheese, nine tablespoonfuls of sugar, one cupful of freshgrated coconut, one teaspoonof nutmeg, a cupful of coconut milk and a cupful of rich milk, or use as much of the milk as the nut contains and add enough cow's milk to make two cupfuls of liquid. Add a pinch of salt and more sugar if it is not sweet enough. A grating of lemon peel may be used instead of the nutmeg if that is not liked. Pour into a deep pastry lined pie plate and bake as for cus-

PASSING THROUGH A CARD

When you state that you will pass through a playing card, everyone will believe that you are about to perpetrate some hoax.

Nevertheless, if you know the secret, you can actually prepare a playing card so that you can step right through it!

First, cut a slit lengthwise in the card, almost to the ends. Then fold the card along the slit. Take the scissors and cut alternating slits from center to side; from side to center; but in no case cut completely through the card.

Make these slits close together; when you unfold the card, it will form a large, circular chain through which you can step.
