Talk over the situation with us. What ever requirements you may have we may be able to supply your demands. Why not call today?

Very truly yours,

JEFF F. MONTGOMERY, Cashier,

The Brady National Bank,

Brady, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lang and family returned Wednesday from a three weeks' trip to southeast Texas and report having had a fine trip. Among other places, they visited their old home, Castell, and Llano, Austin, Burton, Brenham, Houston, Eagle Lake, Hallettsville and Temple were included in the trip. Mr. Lang says about the finest crops he saw were at Halletts-ville, although there was considerable room for improvement. All the other places were practically little or no better than here. He was glad to get back, and had anticipated taking a "real rest" for the next week, but Agent Hundley decided that too much freedom would never do, and accordingly advised him that his desk at the depot would be awaiting his attention at the depot this morning.

Makes City Proposition.

At a meeting of the city council last Tuesday morning, Mr. Joe White appeared before that body and, on behalf of the Brady Water & Light Co., signified the company's willingness to take the water bonds at par, with accrued interest, and furnish the city with $15,000 with which to build the dams, and applying the balance of the $40,000 on the plant of the company, which would be turned over to the city. The council took no action on the matter, although there was some discussion, and it seemed to be the opinion that the $15,000 would be insufficient for the building of the dams.

The city has several offers for the water bonds. The best for outright sale is an offer of 98 cents and accrued interest. S. W. Hughes & Co., representing a Dallas company, offer par and accrued interest, less commission and delivery charges amounting to $1148. The matter will come up for discussion at the next meeting of the council, the first Tuesday night in September.

The city secretary was instructed to wire Mr. Hawley that the water company was ready to show his representative through the plant, and assist him in inventoring the property, and request him to send his assistant to Brady at the earliest possible moment.

Mr. Cunningham, who represented Mr. Hawley a week or two ago, arrived in the city yesterday morning and is at work on the inventory.

Leave for Marlin.

The many friends of Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Hampshire are surprised and grieved to learn of their departure next Sunday for Marlin, where the doctor has decided to locate and practice his profession. Both the doctor and his wife have made a warm spot for themselves in the hearts of Brady citizens and in their removal from the city we lose two of our most highly esteemed and popular citizens. The doctor has purchased a splendid 300-acre black land farm near Marlin, having a splendid home and five rent houses. He spent several days there something over a week ago and says conditions are as fine as could be desired. Cotton will make one-half to a bale to the acre, and alfalfa is being cut for the third time. The Standard joins their many friends in commending them to the good offices of the citizens of Marlin.

SPECIAL SESSION.

City Council Held Special Session Tuesday Morning.

The city council met in called session Tuesday morning for the purpose of considering a proposition which the city had received from the city of Ballinger with reference to the street machinery owned jointly by the two cities, the water works bond matter, sites for the dams on Brady creek and to take some action with reference to the mad dog scare. Acting Mayor Abney presided at the meeting, and Aldermen Anderson, Martin, Baze and McKnight were present.

A proposition from the city of Ballinger in which they proposed to give $1000 for Brady's half interest in the street machinery owned by the two cities or take $1000 for their interest was presented to the council by Judge F. M. Newman, who has the matter of a settlement in charge, and upon motion of Alderman Anderson it was voted to sell to Ballinger.

The acting mayor was instructed to issue a proclamation to the citizen of the town calling upon them to keep all dogs tied up for thirty days, and that those found running at large after twenty-four hours from the issuance of this proclamation would be killed by the city marshal. This action was deemed necessary by the fact that a number of dogs on the north side had been bitten by a dog which was thought to have had rabies.

Alive and Well.

The report to the effect that Joe Carlson had died last week at his home in El Campo seems to have been unfounded. The young man was related to Rev. Abner Hanson, and was employed at Scharff & Nussbaum's a part of last year, during which time he made many friends who are relieved to hear that he is still in good health.

The origin of the false report seems to have been in a message received by Mrs. Carlson, the boy's mother, who was visiting the family of Rev. Hanson, to the effect that her husband was not expected to live. Mrs. Carlson at once left for her home, accompanied by Rev. Hanson, who returned last Thursday, reporting the gentleman having fully recovered from his illness.

J. G. H. Lang and Elmer Gould are this week repainting and redecorating the interior of the Palace Drug store, and dressing it up in a bright array of new fall clothes. ### R. B. McCarty Farm.

Judge Joe A. Adkins accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Miles Abernathy the first of the week upon a visit to R. B. McCarty's place near Mercury, and the judge was so enthused over what he saw there that for several days he was unable to talk of anything else. One of the sights that captured the judge's eye was the cotton field. Mr. McCarty has 1,000 acres of cotton that will make easily one-half to three-quarters of a bale to the acre. The cotton was planted just right, has a good growth and is loaded. The cotton rows are 1,600 yards long, it requiring just three of the rows to make an acre.

Likewise Mr. McCarty's orchard is one of the judge's very strong talking points. There are 65 acres of apples and of peaches, and while most of the peaches have been marketed, there is quite a lot of the later varieties that will not ripen for a month or so. The apple crop is fine, and the trees are loaded so that the limbs bend to the ground and at that the apples not yet full grown. This is not the end of the judges talk, for he tells of the fine stock, the fine home and the unsurpassed table that Mrs. McCarty sets, and then winds up by telling that he had an invitation from Mr. McCarty to bring the editor down upon the next visit, which sounds too good to be true, but is accepted with such alacrity that it at least seems real.

Hopkins Wagon Yard.

J. W. Hopkins has again taken charge of his wagon yard, where you will find him anxious to serve you, day or night. Fine assortment of grain and hay on hand at all times. Good camp houses; plenty of wood and water; good stalls for your horses. Yard fees, 15 cents for two horses and wagon; 20 cents for four; 10 cents for horse and buggy. Come and stay all night at HOPKINS' WAGON YARD.

If everyone feels like the editor, it does them lots of good to run up against a man every occasionally who is a booster, and who is not backward about letting it be known. We found Mr. Frank Watters in this mood, upon his return from near Temple. Four weeks ago when Mr. Watters first went to Temple, crop conditions were as fine as could be desired. His brother-in-law, a real estate man there, was enthusiastic over the prospects, and pointed out one 700-acre patch of cotton that was bound to make a bale to the acre—700 bales. Just three weeks later when Mr. Watters made his second trip there was nothing said about the big crops, and when inquiry was made, the gentleman in question hung his head and admitted that 100 bales off the 700 acres would be the best they could hope for—the boll worms had gotten the cotton and the heat had scalded the rank and luxuriant growth. Mr. Watters returned more confident than ever that McCulloch, in spite of the most unfavorable conditions ever known here, was not so far behind the best after all. Had he listened to his friends there upon the occasion of his first visit and moved to Temple as they suggested, he would in less time than one month have had occasion to regret his hasty action. As it is, he is congratulating himself upon turning a deaf ear to their importunities and is singing the praises of Grand Old McCulloch, loch.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Mo. boldly accuses Bucklen's Arnica Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs cuts, corns, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy, its equal don't exist." Only 25c at Jones Drug Store.

Cattle Shipments.

There has been some heavy cattle shipments out of Brady this week. Last Tuesday E. O. Kothmann loaded out nine cars and Lewis Birk one car of cattle for the Fort Worth market. Yesterday nine cars of cattle and two cars of mules were shipped, the former to Fort Worth market and the latter to Taylor. Those who shipped cattle were: Henry Hoerster, three cars; Silas Cox, two cars; E. Leifeste, two cars; W. C. Lemberg, two cars. H. Rosenthal shipped the mules. Thirteen cars have been booked for shipment next Sunday.

Married.

The marriage of Mr. W. L. Oates and Miss Mamie F. Crawford took place Tuesday night at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Crawford, Rev. D. R. Hardison officiating. The young couple will make their home out west.

Miss Bernice Wolf Hurt.

Late yesterday evening Miss Bernice Wolf received injuries in a runaway which will confine her to her bed for some time. Miss Wolf was out horseback riding with some other young ladies, when her horse became unruly and ran away with her. Near Silas Mayo's residence the animal ran into a gate post with such force as to tear it out of the ground. The shock of the collision threw Miss Wolf off, fracturing her collar bone and partially fracturing one rib, besides bruising her up more or less. Miss Wolf suffered considerable pain last night, but the doctor holds out hope for her speedy recovery.

"He's sensible to the last," "A thousand dollars to me darlin' daughter, Maggie," said Casey.

"Ain't it wonderful how sensible he is to the last?" said all the relatives.

"A thousand dollars to me good boy, Jimmy," said Casey.

"Sensible he is indeed, right to the last," said all the relatives.

"Two thousand dollars to a poor friend in Ireland named Aloysius Kelly," said Casey.

"Hear him rave, why, the man's as crazy as a loon," said all the relatives in chorus.

Why, Of Course.

The wife of a congressman had two sons who were in the habit of taking the pretty nurse maid out for a good time. The boys would not own up to it when she tried to caution them lest their father learned the situation.

She then went to the pretty nurse and by a little finesse disarmed her of thinking she was displeased.

"Minna," she said, "which of the boys do you like to go out with best, Tom or Harry?"

"Well," said the maid, "I think I prefer Harry, but for a real good time, I like your husband best."

MRS. STALLINGS REPLIES.

From School Board.

The Brady School Board deny that they intended to elect Mrs. M. L. Stallings to the 7th grade, and assert that when authority was given Prof. Long that they understood that she was to be given a lower grade at the same salary as other teachers in the intermediate grades, and when she refused any other than the 7th grade and appealed to the people to sustain her, that she has appealed from the authority of the School Board and the Board feels impelled to reject the petition on this ground and maintain its authority over the school.

By authority of the Board of Trustees, Brady, August 18, 1911. A. B. REAGAN, Sec.

To Patrons, Pupils and Friends:

It is with feelings of regret that I am again forced to tax your patience by appearing in public print, but I feel that you will pardon me for using the only means I have of defending myself against unjust attacks upon my professional rights.

Gentlemen of the Board, when I made the following application to you:

Brady, Texas, May 15, 1911.
To the Hon. Board of School Trustees, Brady Independent School District.

Gentlemen:—Believing that I have faithfully, conscientiously, and, I trust, satisfactorily, performed every duty and obligation devolving upon me as a teacher in the Brady Public School, I hereby ask your careful consideration of my qualifications and merits, and, if in your judgment, you believe me worthy and well qualified to fill my former position in your faculty, I would appreciate my re-election.

For twenty-five years I have always enjoyed the unanimous confidence and support of my Board of Trustees and I would appreciate a continuance of same, and know of no reason why it should be otherwise now.

Most sincerely yours,
(MRS.) RUDE STALLINGS.
(Copy.)

In my humble judgment, if you did not intend to elect me to my former position as teacher of the seventh grade, as honest men, you should have so informed me at that time. You claim that my application was not read before the Board. As honest men, if you did not intend to elect me to my position you should have demanded that the Secretary read my application, for you could not, with reason, think for one moment that I would apply for primary work. But suppose, as you say, that it was not read; was it any fault of mine?

But the Secretary of the Board at the time the teachers were elected says that he will make affidavit that he read the application to the Board. But let us look into this a little further. The minutes of the meeting of May 20th, at which time the teachers were elected, has been ever since and is now a record of your actions written in a book kept for that purpose and can be found to read as follows:

Brady, Texas, May 20, 1911.

At meeting of the school board of Brady Independent School District held on the above date, present Thos. Bell, T. J. Bradley, Lewis Brook, W. W. Spiller, J. E. Thompson, John Rainbolt and A. C. Baze. Mr. Lewis Brook took the oath of office as school trustee and was duly commissioned. Mr. Brook, on motion, was elected vice-president.

On motion that Miss Mamie Low be allowed the balance due her that was deducted from her salary when she was absent on account of sickness. The application of Mr. Long for superintendent was presented, and on motion, and second, was duly elected by vote of the president of the board, three (3) for and three (3) against the election of Mr. Long. On motion, the following were unanimously elected to their present positions in the schools: Miss Minnie Lowrance, Mrs. Rude Stallings, Miss Edith Massey, Miss Annie Hearne Hill, Miss Minnie McCollum, Miss Willie Duke, Miss Kate Doole, Miss Mamie Low and Mrs. C. D. Allen.

On motion meeting adjourned.
Attest: A. C. Baze, Sec

You say you did not intend to elect me as teacher of the seventh grade. It seems that you thwarted your own intentions and elected me in spite of them.

So much to keep the record straight. Now don't you think, as honorable men, with no designing purpose to do injury to a lady who had given perfect satisfaction to your superintendent and her patrons and pupils that you should have let me know of your "intentions" before August 4th. You assert that I appealed to the people to sustain me, and that "she has appealed from the authority of the school board and the petition, on this ground, and the board feels impelled to reject the petition on this ground and maintain its authority over the school."

Gentlemen, in fairness and for the sake of justice and truth, I deny that I appealed to the people. I believe that a scheme to put me out of this school on the part of some members of the board was deep seated and of long standing, and when my friends read my explanation, they asked me if there was anything they could do for me. I told them there was nothing, that the board had turned it all over to Mr. Long, and that he (Mr. Long) would not give me the seventh grade if every man, woman and child petitioned him to do so. Now, I suppose this is why you refused to consider the people's petition, and not as you say, I took it out of your authority. But let me say to my friends who did petition the board in my behalf, it is my desire to publicly thank the one hundred and forty-eight or more citizens who say by their actions that love of justice still lives in the breast of true Southern manhood.

The following is the petition and the petitioners who interested themselves in my behalf:

To the School Board of the City of Brady:

Gentlemen:

We, your citizens and patrons of the Brady City Schools, most respectfully come and ask that you give to Mrs. M. L. Stallings Grade No. 7, that being the grade she is well adapted to teach, and having confidence in her ability we most respectfully make this request.

Vaughn, August Keller, C. C. Bumgardner, J. C. Irwin, A. Steelhammer.

Ask any of these gentlemen who signed this petition if I appealed to them personally. You well know that I appealed personally to each member of the board, except Mr. Brook, who was absent from the city, and instead of you giving me a hearing you informed me everything was with Mr. Long.

The citizens of this town were voluntarily exercising their constitutional rights—the right of petition—and you insulted their intelligence by refusing to consider it, and say I am the cause.

Have the people no rights? Who are you, if you are not their servants, elected by them to do their bidding?

From public sentiment, I fear it would not be well for Czarism that the Brady Independent school district is not empowered with the right of recall, for then your disregard for the people's rights and wishes would be at an end.

Gentlemen, I inform you here and now that I am going to defend my rights and character before every tribunal. I understand that Mr. Bell has been telling that the Board knew things that the people do not know and that if they did they would be with the board. Now this is the first time in my life that insinuations have ever been cast against my professional character. I cannot, for a moment believe that he puts in jeopardy my private life. If Mr. Bell or any member of the board or your superintendent knew anything damaging to my public life or private character, it is a slander and no gentleman will believe it. If there is anything against me that would disqualify me for my position, the people ought to know it, and it is his duty as a trustee to tell the people, and if it continues to be talked on the streets of Brady, proofs must be furnished. I can conceive of nothing meaner than insinuations against a woman's character.

Most resp.,
MRS. M. L. STALLINGS.

If there be anything in "fate" or "bad luck" being the result of an evil day, it must be that our road bonds were born on Friday, the 13th. Several times it has been announced that "everything was lovely and the goose was hanging high," when the next news would completely change the whole thing and then a lot of corrections had to be made. The transcript has again been returned to the commissioners court to have the date altered. Judge Walker has now gone down to Austin with the bonds for a final disposition of the matter.

We are glad to announce that the farmers will have a first-class and an up-to-date farm demonstrator for the coming season and for all the season. The commissioners court have proven themselves interested servants of the people by taking fellowship in this very worthy and important move. We feel that they should be congratulated for their appreciated assistance.

We are receiving almost every day letters from men out of our county who are anxious to come and work on the roads. They want to bring teams, wagons, etc. I turn all these down, for our own people need the work and all they can get out of this public service.

I have a letter today from Mr. Boggs stating that it was the intention of his company to come to Brady so soon as the water problem was solved and place an ice plant here of about 25 to 30 tons capacity. Building will begin as soon as they have the assurance of a sufficient supply of water. Our present plant will probably be run in connection with the new one. This arrangement has not yet been made, but trust that all concerned will be perfectly protected and fully satisfied with the new conditions.

Had Paid for Them.

"Please wrap up all my purchases," said the grouchy customer.

"Why, I've done so," replied the grocer.

"Beg pardon, but you have not," retorted the grouchy customer.

"What have I left undone up?"

"That thumb of yours you weighed with the butter, also the one you weighed with the meat. Wrap them up, I want them for dog meat."

Right in your busiest season when you have the least time to spare you are most likely to take diarrhoea and lose several days' time, unless you have Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand and take a dose on the first appearance of the disease. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

CROSSING THE BRIDGE.

"Don't cross the bridge before you come to it" is an old saying and true, and is the advice we offer to the man who is accumulating gray hairs over the "country gone to the bad." Worrying about something that is going to happen is about as useless an occupation as could be devised and not only does it not help one in the least, but it has the tendency to extinguish the last spark of hope and courage in the hearer's makeup.

"Bleeding Kansas" was the cry a few years ago, and more or less true it was; but who will say the reports of conditions in Kansas were not exaggerated; and who will say today that Kansas is not one of the best states in the Union.

Brady is facing a serious condition—what is probably the shortest crop in her history; but conditions are no worse than her citizens make them. We have two railroads building out of Brady, and spending thousands of dollars in this immediate vicinity; we have $40,000 to spend in securing an unlimited supply of water; we will, in the course of a short while, have $75,000 to spend on good roads in Road District No. 1.

Who is there then who will not say that Brady, in the midst of her misfortune, is indeed fortunate. And as for McCulloch county, it still preserves its reputation as one of the banner counties of the state. Conditions are not the best, to be sure, but the good more than overbalances the bad, and when it comes to the "show-down" Grand Old McCulloch will rank with the best.

ROUTING THE FREIGHT

We reprint in this issue an interesting article from the San Angelo Standard, in which the probability of the Santa Fe extending from Eden to San Angelo, and later joining the Sterling City dead end to the Lamesa dead end is set forth.

While the officials of the Santa Fe for a period of at least two years the Eden railroad committee their intention of making Eden the terminus of the Santa Fe for a period of at least two years, it is a foregone conclusion that the Santa Fe will, sooner or later seek an outlet to the west, and the San Angelo Standard's conjectures are more than probable. The great advantage in grade that the Santa Fe would obtain by the suggested extension would prove of immense benefit, especially in the handling of the freight, and would mean that the freight would be routed via Brady, inasmuch as the grade by this route is less than one half of the grade on the Coleman cut-off.

Another significant fact is the way the Lometa extension was constructed—heavy steel being laid, and the roadbed being built better and with greater care than much of the older lines, which can only be construed to mean that the Santa Fe intends

Why Don't You Advertise? Mr. Farmer

Farmers ought to know that giving a farm a name means more than putting on "airs." It has a value not often understood by the average farmer, who frequently considers the matter below his notice. John Dillon, teacher of Industrial Journalism in the Kansas Agricultural College, tells farmers to advertise. He says: "Why don't you advertise, Mr. Farmer? Get a name for your farm and then advertise your farm by that name. Suppose you choose Fairview. Then buy under the name of Fairview, have your butter marked Fairview, print Fairview on your berry boxes and have eggs marked Fairview, and print Fairview on your wagon boxes. It won't be long before the name of your farm is known and the people will be calling for your products. The town merchants advertise and the farmer can just as well advertise his butter, eggs and produce."

THE BRADY STANDARD

to make this the main line.

With the Houston & Texas Central extension from Llano practically assured, it can mean but one thing for Brady and that is that it will become one of the most important division points in this section of the state.

The developments in railroad circles in this immediate section have been coming thick and fast in the past few years, and we venture the prediction that the next few years will show even greater and more surprising developments.

BURY THE HAMMER.

In an Oklahoma city the other day the citizens of the entire town marched in grand procession about the business section, following the hearse of the town knocker. There were no funeral dirges played; there were no tears, no lamentations—it was a glad occasion and everybody rejoiced in the death of the town knocker. Perhaps never before in history was so unique a scene enacted. The knocker was represented by a large hammer, which was laid away under the sod of the court house, and today the knocker is an unknown quantity in the life of that Oklahoma town. And who is there that will not say that the town is better off.

As an example of the light in which the town knocker is held we quote the following from the Wichita Falls Times:

The Jimplecute says that Jefferson is the best town in the state, and to cinch its statement, cites the fact that there are some few in that old town who have been doing their very utmost to kill it for the last thirty or forty years, and in spite of this, she is still alive, and, therefore, it must be the best town in Texas, else it could not have survived.

If Johnson grass had been plowed as persistently as it has been cursed there would not be a sprig left. Cursing it does not keep it from being good for hay and a money maker when properly understood.—Farm and Ranch.

TIE 'EM UP.

The city council is to be commended for their action with reference to the preventing of dogs running at large in the city during the hot weather. Everyone who has a dog and places any value upon it will gladly conform to the order of that body and keep their dog tied up.

The running at large of dogs at any time is more or less annoyance and danger to our citizens and more especially our children, let alone during the hot, summer days.

The Frisco officials have been coming to Brady so often lately and remaining here so much that we no longer can conscientiously call them visitors, and, in fact, they are so near home folks that we speak of them as "Bill" and "Pete" and "Bob." Evidently the gentlemen have forgotten that the Frisco extends forty miles out into the wilds, for when they get to Brady they never think of going any further.

The knocker is being raked over the coals so generously by the newspapers of the state that the conclusion is inevitable that he has been very much in evidence of late as a foil for the booster. The knocker is the fellow who is always finding fault with the town in which he lives, drawing invidious comparisons to the discredit of his community and discouraging every aspiration for progress by knocking every movement in that behalf. He is the fellow who boasts that he has his clothes made in some distant city, patronizes mail order houses instead of the local merchants, ignores the local printing office when he has need of any work in that line, and is a drain rather than a help to local enterprise. He does not seem to realize the unwritten obligation of neighbors to help each other as members of a common household, because in that way only can the town be built up and made prosperous. The country papers are very generally after his scalp and are advising him to move on.—San Antonio Express.

DAMAGE SUIT INDUSTRY.

The following editorial observation appeared in the Texarkana Four States Press and Courier:

A great deal has been said first and last by various newspapers as well as various men in public life regarding the damage suit industry, which is apparently as prosperous as ever and which appears to be getting more so as time passes. An examination of the records in the various courts of the country shows that the number of damage cases far exceeds all others as an important factor of the civil docket.

It is not only true that the list is already very large, but it is also true that it is constantly on the increase. There is no telling where it will end. It is getting to be a regular profession with some people, and practically means nothing more nor less than a downright holdup under the guise and sanction of law in many instances.

Of course, there are scores and scores of cases where it is absolutely necessary to bring suit in order to obtain reparation, but at the same time there are just as many and even more instances in which cases are brought, where there is not a particle of merit. Some people seem to be of the opinion that just because a corporation is a corporation, it is rich and should be fleeced accordingly. This is a wrong idea altogether, and is unworthy the consideration of any reputable citizen. The various corporations are organized under the laws of the state wherein it operates, and as long as it obeys the laws, pays its taxes and conducts its business in the right way, it is entitled to just as much protection as the individual. Unless it receives this it is not being treated fairly. It is likewise responsible for such damage as it may cause, it makes no difference how small the damage, but it is altogether wrong to jump on a corporation for every imaginary damage that comes along, and attempt to mulct it of thousands of hard earned dollars "by due process of law."

And there is another thing that should be taken into consideration in this respect. Every dollar that a corporation has to pay out in the way of damage suits is collected again from the public which it serves in an indirect way. It matters not what might be the way nor the method—it is collected, and after all, poor old Jones pays the freight. The grocer who employs a delivery wagon to deliver your goods, a telephone to receive your orders and numerous other things for the use and behoof of the public does not pay for it by any means. The people who order and eat his groceries are the ones who pay for the telephone, the delivery wagons, the cash register and other things quite too numerous to mention. When railroads or other corporations pay out money for damage suits, the people pay it back to the railroads in one way and another. There is no doubt of the truth of this statement. It is a boomerang that goes around the corner and returning hits the man who throws it in the first instance. The only people who are benefited by the damage suit industry are the lawyers and the man who probably gets his damages. His neighbors suffer because they have to make good the loss sustained by the corporation.

Fruit growing is a splendid industry for boys and girls who wish to earn money on the farm. Ask your father to give you an acre or two and help you prepare the land for fruits. A good orchard will bring you in money and teach you horticulture, the most refined branch of agriculture.—Farm and Ranch.

E. J. Haines, formerly of Pear which time they made a splendid crop. The corn crop this year, though, was much shorter than last.

Kelly Was Twisted.

Pat Kelly came home one night a little to the bad, and went to bed with a somewhat hazy idea of things.

Before long he was awakened by the cry of "Fire," and in a hurry to get his clothes on, Kelly put his trousers on hind part before. He then started down stairs, but slipped and rolled to the bottom. A friend rushed to his assistance and exclaimed: "Are you hurt, Pat?" Kelly got up and examined himself. Seeing his trousers were hind side before, he said: "No, but I've got a h— of a twist."

Asking too Much.

An old negro preacher did the honors and the candidate for baptism was a coal black negro woman. The preacher led his victim far out into the stream where she could be thoroughly immersed, and at the auspicious moment he cried in a loud voice:

"Be stiddy, sistah, be stiddy, an' you'll come up whitah dan snow."

"Oh, parson," she exclaimed, "dat's askin' too much; a cream coloh 'ill do!"

Miss Yantis Entertains.

On Monday night Miss Lucile Yantis was hostess to an "all night" party. Her guests arrived at six o'clock and were immediately invited into the dining room, which was so pretty in decorations of green and pink. The table centerpiece was a bank of mistletoe, interwoven with pink satin ribbon. Each place card was tied with a tiny pink bow. A bountiful three-course dinner was served. The soft strains of Italian Frank's harp soon lead the party to the cozy seats on the lawn, where gay conversation and music and a delicious bowl of grape punch was enjoyed. At 11 o'clock brick cream and white cake was served and soon afterwards the young men departed unwillingly, for each regretted very much to bring so pleasant an evening to a close. The frolic and fun of the girls, common to such an occasion, was greater than usual, and a few of Tuesday's early hours had ticked away before the last exciting ghost story was finished. After a most tempting breakfast, the jolly party left for home, regarding Miss Lucile to be, indeed, a charming young hostess. Those included in this affair were: Misses Mary Johanson, Esther Anderson, Helen Elliot, Alma Christianus, Jackye Walker, Emma Jones, Vera King, Estella Bradley, Messrs. Curtis Coleman, Firmin Jackson, Oscar Lang, Charlie Yeager, Ike Rainbolt, Chas. Bogusch, Judge McShan, Paul Calvert.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCall entertained a number of their young friends on last Friday night with a party. Forty-two, together with music and singing, were the pleasures of the evening. Dainty refreshments of strawberry cream and cake were served. This was, in fact, one of the most pleasant features of the season. Those present were: Misses Ruby Wood, Mary Schaege, Estella Bradley, Vera King, Helen Elliot, Olga Schaege, Stella Sayle, Alma Christianus, Zuma Long, Gertrude Stewart, Mary Johanson, Messrs. Top Jones, Chas. Bogusch, Judge McShan, Paul Calvert, Lee Goodson, Oscar Lang, Gordon Ste-

art, Chas. Yeager, Firmin Jackson, Ike Rainbolt and Steve Duke

The Priscilla club was graciously entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Victor Wolf in her cozy new bungalow near the Spiller addition. The usual work was carried out and a refreshing course of sherbet and cake was served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Wegner on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Jas. Mann had the pleasure of having the Social club meet with her on Wednesday afternoon. In the parlor and hall were large baskets and vases of daisies and roses with ferns. Progressive "42" was played at seven tables. Quaint hand-painted tally cards were presented, and each table held score cards to match. Delicious grape punch was enjoyed during several games, in which Miss Louise Hardison received high score. Refreshments consisted of ices, cake and candy. The guests of honor were Mrs. J. W. White, of Mason, Mrs. Negus, of Brownwood, Miss Avery, of Taylor. An invitation was extended to this delightful club by Miss Carlita Matthews to be with her on next Wednesday.

A most pleasant time was spent by the young people at a dance given in the Klondike hall on Tuesday night, honoring Miss Ruby Nussbaum, of Mexia. Italian Frank rendered the music on his harp for fourteen numbers. Those in attendance were: Misses Cook, White, Crothers, Wolf, Stallings, Bradley, Spiller, Souther, Gay, Elliot, of Brownwood, Reynolds, of Rock Springs, Rainwater, Nussbaum, Messrs. Crothers, Brook, Yeager, White, Spiller, Lang, Scharff, Ogden, Yeager, Quicksall, Brewster, Stoner, Tipton, VanEman, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kennerly, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Chambliss, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nussbaum.

Sunday afternoon a small party of young people enjoyed a pleasant drive in the country, and at sunset a shady nook was found on the banks of Brady creek, where a delightful luncheon, the compliments of the gentlemen, was spread. They reached town in due time to attend services at the Presbyterian church that evening. They were Misses Carrie Berry, Dalphine Elliot, of Brownwood, Bessie Reynolds, of Rock Springs, Nesmith, Messrs. Oscar Lang, Lee Goodson, John Henry Ogden, R. L. Stoner.

The wedding of Miss Addie Mae Stover, of Georgetown, and Mr. Sam Moffatt, of this city, was celebrated Sunday at the home of the bride's cousin in Austin. The happy couple left immediately for Brady. An informal reception was given on their arrival here Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Moffatt will be at home in the Anderson residence for the present.

Mrs. Walter Tipton had the honor of entertaining the Home Mission society on Tuesday evening with a forty-two party. This society meets once a month and on this occasion some twenty members were present. Iced watermelon were served in the charming manner characteristic of Mrs. Tipton.

Mrs. A. M. Martin favored

Could Pick Them Out.

A Republican speaker in his talk to an audience one afternoon said he could pick out any man before him and tell what party he supported. He then pointed to an elderly man to the left of the room and said: "You are a Republican."

"Yes sir," said the man. He then pointed to a man to the right of the hall and said he was also a Republican.

The man rose in his seat and said he was.

The speaker next pointed to a sickly looking gentleman at the rear of the hall and said:

"You, sir, are a Republican." "No, sir, I'm not. I have had the grip for nearly two weeks, and that's the reason I look so sour."

EDEN-SAN ANGELO.

Minimum Grade Over the Coleman Cut-Off.

On account of the minimum grade of the Santa Fe's route from Lometa to Eden, the same being .6 as compared with 1.25 via the Coleman cut-off and Sweetwater gateway, it is now deemed very probable that, with proper encouragement the Santa Fe will continue its line from Eden to San Angelo, and later join the Sterling City dead end to the Lamesa dead end, to compete with the Southern Pacific on long freight hauls, when the present railroad war is in full blast.

A glance at the map shows the feasibility of the Santa Fe's joining the three dead ends at one clean sweep, and making the freight route from the Pacific via Lamesa, Sterling, San Angelo, Eden and Lometa to the Gulf coast, with a passenger route around by the Coleman cut-off.

The Santa Fe is spending big sums in improving its line from Temple to Coleman, and is also putting down heavy steel from Lometa to Eden. The Santa Fe branch from Miles to Paint Rock is in such condition that it would cost as much to rebuild it and construct heavy stuff as it would to make an entirely new road, and for that reason it is thought that the Santa Fe will let that branch, called the Concho, San Saba & Llano Valley, remain as it is, and build the extension from its Eden end to San Angelo, thus saving the Miles-Paint Rock investment, for the same would be a dead loss, if the Eden road were connected with the Paint Rock dead end, and thus make it necessary to rebuild the road from Paint Rock to Miles.

Another fact of significance is that the Sterling roadbed was built for extra heavy traffic and is quite a model of construction. Diverging from Lubbock to the southeast, the freight route from that junction of the Santa Fe San Angeloway would save thousands on account of the minimum grade, and the recent mysterious actions of the Santa Fe all adds strength to the theory that the Santa Fe already has its agents in the field picking up data as to what substantial encouragement can be obtained. The Eden-San Angelo road must look good to the Santa Fe.—San Angelo Standard.

First Bale for San Saba.

The first bale, the first train and the opening of the 1911 fair and encampment all came on the self same day. And the first bale was just a minute ahead of the second, in fact it was a race to the finish.

Tuesday, August 8, J. E. Bessent, living on J. T. McConell's farm, five miles north of town, and C. L. Singleton, farming on J. L. F. Fentress' farm, just across the river on the Chadwick road, raced to the San Saba gin. Bessent got there first, and from 1524 pounds of seed cotton was ginned a 505 pound bale.

Mr. Bessent sold the bale to A. J. Gatlin at 13 1/2c and received a premium of $10.50 in addition. The first bale was ginned by the Farmers' Union gin.—San Saba News.

The Brady Standard, $1.00.

National Cotton Standards.

The desirability of establishing a uniform basis for cotton grading has long been recognized by a great majority of those interested in the cotton industry, and an act of Congress, June 30th, 1909, authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to establish a standard of nine different grades, to-wit:

- 1st. Middling Fair.
- 2nd. Strict Good Middling.
- 3rd. Good Middling.
- 4th. Strict Middling.
- 5th. Middling.
- 6th. Strict Low Middling.
- 7th. Low Middling.
- 8th. Strict Good Ordinary.

A committee of cotton experts were called to assist the Secretary of Agriculture in preparing samples of the nine different grades, and the Department of Agriculture now announces that they have a number of sets of samples for distribution. The price is $35 per set and the Department is without authority to dispose of them otherwise than by sale.

The Galveston Cotton Exchange has formally adopted the grades and a number of the more important exchanges have already adopted these standards.

Doan's Kidney Pills will give renewed life.

They will strengthen the kidneys.

Here is convincing proof that is so: Mrs. J. A. N. Johnson, seven and a half miles north of Goldthwaite, Texas, says: "I was troubled for several years by kidney and bladder complaint. There was a constant pain across the small of my back, sometimes extending into my neck, and the kidney secretions greatly annoyed me. I tried numerous remedies, but found no relief until I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. Soon after beginning their use, my trouble disappeared and my condition improved in every way. I think Doan's Kidney Pills unequalled as a cure for kidney complaint and it gives me pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Good Shows.

Brady citizens who saw the "Fall of Troy" as presented in moving pictures at the Lyric last week are loud in their praise of the enterprise of the managers in securing so excellent an attraction, and yet it was but one of a series of excellent films shown every night at the playhouse. The Lyric has been securing some of the highest-class moving pictures ever exhibited in any city, and it is no exaggeration to say that scarcely a night passes but what some picture is exhibited that rivals some of the best plays at the leading theaters in the larger cities.

Another extra special feature film is announced for next Monday and Tuesday nights—the Cowboy and Indian Frontier Celebration, at Cheyenne, Wyo. This is one of the finest productions in the way of moving pictures. It represents scenes which Roosevelt traveled thousands of miles to see and take part in; and it is brought right to the very door of our citizens. Without doubt, the same capacity houses that greeted the "Fall of Troy" will be accorded this picture. Inasmuch as the picture will be in addition to the regular number of moving pictures and vaudeville, a slight increase of price will be made, viz: 15c, 25c and 35c.

For tonight (Friday) the "A Tale of Two Cities" taken from the dramatization of Dickens' famous novel will be an additional feature in the regular show. The same popular prices will prevail as usual.

I have just received a brand new stock of wall paper in all the latest designs. See them at my planing mill office.
