Foiled Yet Again. Mallory had fled from the scene at the first hum of the minister's words. His fate was like alkall on his palate. For twelve hundred miles he had ransacked the world for a minister. When one dropped on the train like manna through the roof, even this miracle had to be checkmated by a perverse miracle that sent to the train an early infatuation, a silly affair that he himself called puppy-love. And now Marjorie would never marry him. He did not blame her. He blamed fate.

He was in solitude in the smoking room. The place reeked with drifting tobacco smoke and the malodor of

The train was kicking up a cloud of dust and getting its stride. The kidnapped clergyman paused a moment, aghast at the speed with which the ground was being paid out. Then he climbed the brass rail and, with a hasty prayer, dropped overboard.

Mallory lunged at him, and seized him by his reversed collar. But the collar alone remained in his clutch. The parson was almost lost in the dust he created as he struck, bounded and rolled till be came to a stop, with his stars and his prayers to thank for injuries to nothing worse than bis dignity and other small clothes.

Mallory returned to the observation room and flung the collar and bib to the floor in a fury of despair, howling: "He got away! He got away!"

Our Creed

No man has a right to go in business and not make money. It is a crime to go in business and lose money, because it is a curse to the rest of the community. No man has a moral right to transact business unless he makes something out of it; nor does he have a right to transact business unless the man he deals with has an opportunity also to make something. TWO COURSES.

The proper way to conduct the subscription list of a country newspaper is receiving more attention from the editors than any other one thing. Which is another way of saying that editors are evoluting.

Last week the editor of the Rockdale Reporter announced that he would place his subscription list on a cash-in-advance basis July 1st, and at the same time the editor of the Clarendon News announced that owing to the increased cost of stock and THORNTON LEE MELTON, labor he would advance the subscription price of his paper to $1.50 per year, his paper already For terms and information, being on a cash basis.

Our candid opinion is that both moves are good ones, as well as necessary. We have tried out the cash-in-advance plan on two different publications with the most gratifying of results in each instance, and are firmly convinced that no publisher should conduct his paper on any other basis. The raising of the subscription price is a problem yet to be solved, but with increasing expense accounts for blank paper, labor and material the course appears to be inevitable, and the publishers who are leading the way are the ones who are first to quit the practice of swapping dollars and instead are realizing some little profit upon their labor and

About Tramp Automobiles

"What is the tramp automobile?" you ask. Not a dilapidated car of ancient manufacture-not at all. In our sense, it usually is a new car, painted, varnished, trimmed and shiny on the outside, like many other cars. And yet this one is a tramp automobile-a car without a home. Don't you buy that kind!

Because it is sold to you without service, that valuable adjunct without which any car may become an expensive bargain to its owner.

"How is the dealer going to take care of me?" That's one of the questions you should ask yourself. "How well or how poorly is he equipped to give me proper service?"

We claim to be in the best of position to take care of you. You can find us at any hour of the day or night, where we always have a competent man to adjust your carburetor, clean your spark plugs and lots of little things that make the difference between a satisfied and a dissatisfied customer. We can and will take care of you in a way that no one else can.

The girls tomato clubs have been responsible for the storing in cellars and on pantry shelves and vegetables for winter use than ever before in the history of the county.

That the boys are making progress is shown in the official report of 1911, which gives the highest acre yield of corn at 33 bushels and for 1912 at 711/2 bushels.

Notwithstanding the drouthy conditions, Comanche county has sold, or has stored for winter use, the greatest crop of feedstuffs in its history. Peanuts is a favorite crop, 10,000 acres being reported for 1912. At De-Leon a peanut factory has handled several hundred thousand dollars worth. Thousands of tons of peanut hay have been baled and hundreds of head of hogs have been fattened in the peanuts fields after the havest. Our Creed

No man has a right to go in business and not make money. It is a crime to go in business and lose money, because it is a curse to the rest of the community. No man has a moral right to transact business unless he makes something out of it; nor does he have a right to transact business unless the man he deals with has an opportunity also to make something. Unless he lives and lets live he is not an honest man in business. There are no exceptions to this great rule. If you like this sentiment let's do business.

Our candid opinion is that both moves are good ones, as well as necessary. We have tried out the cash-in-advance plan on two different publications with the most gratifying of results in each instance, and are firmly convinced that no publisher should conduct his paper on any other basis. The raising of the subscription price is a problem yet to be solved, but with increasing expense accounts for blank paper, labor and material the course appears to be inevitable, and the publishers who are leading the way are the ones who are first to quit the practice of swapping dollars and instead are realizing some little profit upon their labor and

"What is the tramp automobile?" you ask. Not a dilapidated car of ancient manufacture-not at all. In our sense, it usually is a new car, painted, varnished, trimmed and shiny on the outside, like many other cars. And yet this one is a tramp automobile—a car without a home. Don't you buy that kind!

Because it is sold to you without service, that valuable adjunct without which any car may become an expensive bargain to its owner.

"How is the dealer going to take care of me?" That's one of the questions you should ask yourself. "How well or how poorly is he equipped to give me proper service?"

We claim to be in the best of position to take care of you. You can find us at any hour of the day or night, where we always have a competent man to adjust your carburetor, clean your spark plugs and lots of little things that make the difference between a satisfied and a dissatisfied customer. The average rainfall is in the neighborhood of thirty inches. During the last three years it has been less. For this reason the results obtained by the practice of advanced agriculture should carry greater weight than if obtained during seasons of normal rainfall.

Although the illustrations used in this article are mostly from Comanche county, similar results have been obtained in Brown and McCulloch counties, where the citizens of city and country are co-operating in the work of developing the resources of their section and placing farming on a business basis.

"But can't you book me up?" He was adamant: "Not till we get to California. Do you think I want to compromise my own wife? Shh! Somebody's coming!" And he darted off to the vestibule just as Mrs. Jimmie Wellington issued from number ten with hair askew, eyes only half open, and waist only half shut at the back. She made a quick spurt to the women's room, found it locked, stamped her foot, swore under her breath, and leaned against the want of the car to wait.

About the same time, the man who was still her husband according to the law, rolled out of berth number and millions of doilars to stretching a frankness and honesty by reaching in two. There was an amazing clarity to his vision. He lurched as he made his way to the men's room, but it was plainly the train's swerve and not an inner lurch that twisted the forthright of his progress.

A Special Request.

We want every man in Brady who is interested in being well dressed to look at our new spring line of Anderson samples before ordering a suit. This line is so far superior to all others, the styles and patterns so much prettier, and the garments so much better made, after looking this over you will not be satisfied with a suit from any other line. We will prove this to anyone's satisfaction.
