No need of lying every time saying that the big fish broke the line. Neither do we lie, either, when we say we give more value in Shirts, Shoes, Sox, Hose, Underwear, Work Shirts, Straw Hats, Felt Hats, Panamas, Silk Caps, Arrow Collars, Men's Belts, etc., than any other store in Brady.

ANOTHER OIL WELL.

Brady Oil & Gas Co. Brings In Number Six.

Jeff Meers, manager of the Brady Oil & Gas Co., reports another good oil well brought in yesterday on the Meers tract in the Lohn community. The well was brought in at a depth of 214 feet, and the production promises to be about like the other five wells upon the same tract. Moore Bros. were the drillers.

The bringing in of the well is in the nature of a surprise to most Brady folks, very few of whom knew that drilling was in progress, so quietly had the work been gone about.

It is the intention of the company to shoot the well and case it some time today. They expect first to drill it through the sand, believing that they will thereby increase the production. This plan has not been tried on any of the other wells, and is consequently in the nature of an experiment. While it is likely to result in the securing of a larger flow of water, it is hoped that the increased production of oil will more than offset this difficulty.

To Brady Citizens.

Owing to the fact that I will be engaged for about three weeks in Dallas tuning for the Brook Mays Piano Co., of Brownwood, I will not be able to come to Brady May 1st, but expect to come some time the latter part of the month. Watch for later announcement.

Ballou-Sayle.

One of the most happy surprises of the week was the marriage of Mr. Steve Ballou and Miss Stella Sayle, which was quietly celebrated Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian parsonage. But a few relatives were present to hear Rev. Grant speak the words that made the happy couple one, and immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Ballou left for Hamilton, where they will make their home.

The wedding is the culmination of a happy love affair, and the many friends of both bride and bridegroom rejoice with them in their happiness. Mr. Ballou is a Brady boy, well known throughout the county, and enjoys the confidence and esteem of all, both old and young. At present he is making his home in Hamilton county, where he and his father are associated in the ranch business. With all his good qualities, his many friends nevertheless feel that he was indeed fortunate in winning for his bride so charming and attractive a young lady. Mrs. Ballou has made her home in Brady practically all her life, and her winsome manner and charming personality have won a firm hold upon the affections of her friends and acquaintances.

Those in attendance upon the ceremony were Mrs. E. R. Sayle and Mrs. Howard Broad, mother and sister, respectively, of the bride, and Mrs. Tom Holmesley of Comanche, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Holmesley accompanied the couple on their return to Hamilton, the journey being made through the country in an auto.

ANOTHER REDUCTION.

Brady's Key Rate Is Now 60c on $100.00.

A. B. Carrithers of the Brady Land Co., advises that the key rate of Brady has been reduced again, and is now 60c on the $100. The last reduction is the result of the city council's offering a standing reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person guilty of arson in the city of Brady, and the posting of notices to that effect in the various public buildings and business houses about town.

Brady now has the lowest key rate possible unless extensive improvements in the waterworks system be made, and additions are made to the police force, and within the next few years it is hoped that these reductions may also be secured. Much credit is due the local insurance agencies for their activity in securing every reduction possible for Brady.

COUNTY COURT.

Convened Yesterday—A. Flemming Receives Acquittal.

County court convened yesterday with 75 cases—29 civil and 46 criminal—on the docket. Yesterday was taken up with the trial of A. Flemming on a charge of theft of well machinery, which resulted in an acquittal for Mr. Flemming.

AT BAPTIST CHURCH.

Revival Meeting Drawing Large Attendance.

The Baptist revival meeting was opened Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock services at the church by Rev. J. C. Newman of Goldthwaite. There was a good attendance at the opening, and splendid attendance and interest has marked all the meetings. Rev. Newman is a most interesting speaker and his earnest words are falling upon willing ears. Services will be held both in the morning and evening throughout the week, and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

"Texans."

L. Ballou claims to be the original patriotic citizen of Brady. Yesterday was the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto—and when Mr. Ballou discovered that no flag flew over the U. S. post office, he busied himself about and secured a fish pole for a flag staff, and Old Glory was soon floating in the breezes in front of the post office. At home Mr. Ballou raised the Lone Star flag—the emblem of the one-time nation—the present greatest state in the Union.

In this connection it may be of interest to state that L. Ballou and J. M. Duke are the only two Texans in Brady—and by "Texans" be it understood we mean citizens born under the flag of the Lone Star state. Both their fathers were engaged in the war of freedom from the yoke of Mexico, and while the elder Mr. Ballou did not engage in the battle of San Jacinto, he was one of the Texas soldiers who stood guard over the captive, Santa Anna, on Galveston Island after the surrender. Quite naturally Mr. Ballou and Mr. Duke take especial pride in the glory of Grand Old Texas, and love to see the flags of the one-time nation and of the greatest nation waving on high upon the anniversary of San Jacinto day.

DEMONSTRATION AGENT.

For Santa Fe Makes Visit to McCulloch County.

J. D. Tinsley, the new Santa Fe demonstration agent for this section, spent Saturday in McCulloch county, and in company with Henry Miller and Farm Demonstrator J. W. Griffith visited the Lohn, Fife, Pear Valley and Waldrip communities, making careful note of the crop conditions and the preparations of the soil. Mr. Tinsley has been demonstration agent for the Santa Fe in New Mexico for the past 15 years, and after his long stay in that arid district, he could not speak in any terms save of highest praise and delight over the conditions in the McCulloch country. He measured the moisture in a number of places and found that it had penetrated to a depth of 18 to 20 inches. An interesting exemplification of the value of deep breaking was found upon the L. D. Ferguson place in the Pear Valley community. The land had been broken deeply and the moisture was found at even a greater depth than last year, while on a neighboring tract where the breaking had been shallow the moisture had penetrated to a comparatively shallow depth.

Both Mr. Miller and Mr. Griffith speak in glowing terms of the pleasing personality of Mr. Tinsley and believe his experience in the drouthy New Mexico country should be of great value to McCulloch county farmers who are willing to profit by his opinion and advice upon agricultural matters.

One of the interesting facts gleaned from Mr. Tinsley's conversation was that in New Mexico the silos are built underground, affording a cheap means of construction as well as a smaller per cent of loss of the ensilage.

BURNS CRUDE OIL.

County's Oil Pull Engine Uses Oil from Lohn Wells.

Here another point for home products. The crude oil produced by the Brady Oil & Gas Co.'s wells at Lohn is successfully used in the McCulloch county oil pull engine, and develops the same amount of power, gallon for gallon, as the kerosene used heretofore. This fact was satisfactorily demonstrated yesterday by J. C. Cowan of Waco, representative of the company selling the oil pull engine, and who was called here by the Broad Mercantile Co., local representatives of the company, who had the experiment made at their own expense.

Mr. Cowan was in San Angelo when he heard of the McCulloch county oil wells, and upon inquiring into the nature and quality of the oil produced he became satisfied that it was just the kind to be used in their crude oil burning road engines. To convince himself that he was right in his opinion he took the first train to Brady, and proceeded to test out the crude oil on the engine, to his own satisfaction as well as to that of the citizens and the stockholders of the Brady Oil & Gas Co.

Where the kerosene heretofore used cost the county about $2.40 per ten hours daily operation, the cost of the crude oil will be less than half the amount and in addition the use of the oil will give added impetus to the oil developments in the Lohn valley.

WOODMEN UNVEILING.

Lohn Lodge Unveils Monument of J. K. Baze.

The unveiling of the monument at the grave of Sov. J. K. Baze took place Sunday, Lohn Valley camp of Lohn having charge of the services, and dedicating the monument to the memory of their departed brother with appropriate services. There was quite a number of members of Brady and neighboring camps in attendance, and the occasion was a most impressive one.

Sov. Baze organized the camp at Lohn, and his last request was that the order he loved so well should have charge of his funeral. The services Sunday by the Lohn camp were but a fitting token of the esteem in which the departed was held by his comrades.

PATRIOTISM.

Patriotism is devotion to ones own country, be it native or adopted. What more fitting example of patriotism could there be than a move to place Old Glory over the U. S. postoffice upon every National or State holiday.

At present no provision has been made for a flag staff from which the flag may float in the breeze. Let some patriotic citizen start the move for the flag staff and the flag, and watch with what ready response he will meet upon every hand. Brady citizens are patriotic—just say the word and you'll find them lined up shoulder to shoulder for every good move for Brady and McCulloch county.

The editor of the Menard Mes-

The last issue of the Rochelle Record comes to hand with Frank Copeland as editor and publisher, while ex-Editor Laurence Haddow and ex-Assistant Editor Earl Haddow bid their subscribers and patrons farewell and recommend to their good graces the new editor. Mr.
Copeland issued quite a neatly printed and newsy paper for his first week, and the issue gives evidence that he is a good newspaper man, and it is to be hoped Rochelle folks may be duly appreciative of and loyal to that best institution any city can boast—a good newspaper.

UP-TO-DATE ADVERTISING.

The president of a Pittsburgh savings bank called in his advertising man one morning, and said:

"What this institution wants is some striking advertising material, something that has a thought in it, something that will catch the eye and command the mind. Fix me up an ad that will make a hit when it is published in the morning papers."

Two hours later the advertising man laid this on the bank president's desk:

"If Elijah were living today,
there would be no ravens to feed him. That brand of raven has gone to roost forever.

"The only bird that will feed you now is the eagle on the American dollar. Catch the eagles. Save the dollars. If you do, you and your family will never starve. You will have Elijah backed off the boards."
—Popular Magazine.

Brady Standard advertising captures the eagles that have gone to roost in the other fellow's safety vault. Our shot shells his hiding place.

A GREAT DAY.

Did you think of the significance of the holiday yesterday?
The freeing of the great state of Texas from the Mexican yoke, and the establishing of a new nation—and the eventual placing of a new star in the galaxy of Old Glory? We doubt that many thought of this fact and only the banks and the public schools observed the day as a holiday. But though the public be forgetful, the day will ever live, for no more eventful or portentous day marks the pages of Texas' history.

Don't forget about that Dollar Day. It's coming.

Keep reading The Standard—we'll tell you something yet.

Clarence Ousley of the Fort

19 cents?" Why, dear fellow, that is exactly the amount of the annual installment the editor

WALDRIP SCHOOL CLOSES.

Interesting Program and Play
Mark Successful End.

The Waldrip school closed Friday, the end of the school year being marked by school exercises on Friday night and by the presentation of the play "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" on Saturday night.

In the exercises Friday night
all the school children who participated acquitted themselves with honors, and reflected credit upon their teachers, Prin.
Burt Hughes, and his able assistant, Miss Vivian Jordan.

Saturday night there was a record-breaking attendance upon the presentation of the play, and again those who took part distinguished themselves. The play contains a wholesome moral lesson, and found appreciation with all of the great throng present.
The conclusion of the evening's entertainment was the reading of the School Journal, a highly interesting paper composed of notes of school and local happenings and humorous incidents, and which proved not the least interesting of the evening's pleasure.

The patrons of the school are highly pleased with the year's work, and an expression of their approval was found in the offering of the position of assistant to Miss Jordan for the coming year. Miss Jordan has not accepted the offer as yet, but has taken the matter under advisement.

Texas Scholastic Age.

The scholastic age in Texas is now seven to twenty years, both inclusive. The alteration consists in admitting pupils to free tuition in the public schools until they are twenty-one years of age. As provided, the attendance of those over seventeen is to be optional, with reference to the scholastic census, upon which apportionment of the state's school funds is made.
The census will continue to be of those children between seven and seventeen, and there will be no apportionment for those over seventeen, the privilege of attending being given though not specifically provided for in financial distribution, according to "scholastics."—Temple Tele-

If you have been taking treatment for weeks and months and paying out your hard earned money without being cured, don't you think it is high time to accept MY GRAND OFFER and be cured quickly? As you will certainly not be out any more money if not cured. If I decide that your condition will not yield readily to my treatment, I will be honest with you and tell you so and not accept your money under promise of a cure.

I never disappoint my patients. I fulfill my promise. I never hold out false hopes in incurable cases.
I am against high and extortionate fees charged by some physicians and specialists. You will find my charges very reasonable and not more than you are willing to pay for efficient treatment. Consult me in person or by letter and learn the truth about your condition, and perhaps save much time, suffering and expense. I am a regular graduate and licensed, long established, thoroughly reliable.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION PRESCRIBING QUALIFICATIONS FOR DISTRICT JUDGES OF THIS STATE AND PRESCRIBING THEIR TENURE OF OFFICE.

(S. J. R. No. 1.) A Joint Resolution. Amending Section 7, Article 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to the creation and formation of judicial districts, the terms of compensation and qualification of the judges of the district courts, and the times of holding court.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Section 7, Article 5, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: Section 7. The State shall be divided into several judicial districts as may now or hereafter be provided by law, which may be increased or diminished by law. For each district there shall be elected by the qualified voters thereof, at a general election, one or more judges, each of whom shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State for a six years next preceding his election; who shall have resided in the district in which he was elected for two years next preceding his election; who shall reside in his district during his term of office; who shall hold his office for a period of four years, and shall receive for his services an annual salary of three thousand dollars, until otherwise changed by law. Court shall be held by a district judge at the county seat in each of the several counties at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall provide for the holding of the district court when the judge thereof is absent, disabled or disqualified from acting. The district judges who may be in office when this amendment takes effect shall hold their offices until their respective terms shall expire under their present election or appointment.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue necessary proclamation for the submission of this amendment to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at an election to be held on the 19th day of July, 1913, at which election all voters favoring this amendment shall have written or printed on their ballots the words: "For the amendment of Section 7, Article 5, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to district judges and district courts."

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to pay expenses for carrying out the provisions of this resolution. (A true copy.) JOHN L. WORTHAM, Secretary of State.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE STATE CONSTITUTION PROVIDING ALL STATE, DISTRICT, COUNTY AND PRECINCT OFFICERS WITH THIS STATE SHALL BE COMPENSATED BY THE PAYMENT OF A FIXED SALARY.

(H. J. R. No. 41.) A Joint Resolution of the Legislature of the State of Texas, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the State by adding to Article 16 thereof a new section to be known as Section 58 providing for the compensation of public officials.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That there be added to Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas a new section to be known as Section 58, which shall read as follows: Section 58. All State, district, county and precinct officers within the State of Texas shall hereinafter be compensated by the payment of a salary to be fixed as provided for by the Legislature.

Sec. 2. The Governor of this State will, as directed by the Constitution, make publication of this proposed amendment in the manner and for the time as required by the Constitution, the amendment to be voted upon by the qualified electors for members of the Legislature of this State at the general election to be held for State officers on July 19, 1913, the returns of which shall, as provided for in the Constitution, be made to the Secretary of State, the result ascertained and proclamation made as provided for in Section 1, Article 17, of the Constitution. There shall be written or printed on the ballots to be used at such election "for the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years;" and those favoring the adoption of said amendment shall erase the language "Against the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years," by running a pencil or pen through the same, and those opposing the adoption of said amendment shall erase the language "for the adoption of Section 58, Article 16, as an amendment to the Constitution, providing a salary compensation for certain officers and fixing their term of office at four years," by running a pencil or pen through the same.

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication, proclamation and election. (A true copy.) JOHN L. WORTHAM, Secretary of State.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THIS STATE AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS, AND ALSO FOR THE OPERATION OF PUBLIC WAREHOUSES FOR STORING, HANDLING, CLASSING, MEASURING, WEIGHING, ELEVATING AND LOADING AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

(S. J. R. No. 4.) Joint Resolution. A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to Section 52, Article 3, of the Constitution of this State:

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas, that Section 52 of Article 3, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended so as to hereafter read as follows: Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State, to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to any individual, association or corporation whatsoever, or to become a stockholder in such corporation, association or company, provided, however, that under legislative provision any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties, or any political subdivision of the State, or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas, and which may or may not include towns, villages, or municipal corporations, upon a vote of a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereon, who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby, in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory, and in such manner as it may authorize, for the following purposes, to-wit: (a) The improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof, or irrigation thereof, or in aid of such purposes. (b) The construction and maintenance of pools, lakes, reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation or in aid thereof. (c) The construction, maintenance and operation of macadamized, graveled or paved roads and turnpikes, or in aid thereof. (d) The construction, maintenance and operation of public warehouses for storing, handling, classing, measuring, weighing, elevating and loading agricultural products. Provided the Legislature may establish such means and agencies as may be necessary for accomplishing the purpose of this amendment and if a State warehouse commission be provided for, their term of office shall be fixed by the Legislature.

Sec. 2. The Governor is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for submitting this amendment to the Constitution to the qualified electors of the State of Texas on the third Saturday in July, same being the 19th day of said month, and the amendments proposed to Section 52 of Article 3, as above indicated, shall be voted upon separately.

Those favoring the amendment to authorize road or other public improvements by a majority vote, shall have written or printed on their ballot: For amendment to authorize road and other public improvements by a majority vote, shall have written or printed on their ballot: Against amendment to authorize road and other public improvements by a majority vote.

Those favoring the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses shall have written or printed on their ballot: For the amendment authorizing the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses for agricultural products. Those voting against said amendment shall have written or printed on their ballot: Against the amendment authorizing the issuance of bonds for the construction of public warehouses for agricultural products.

Sec. 3. The sum of five thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication, proclamation and election. (A true copy.) JOHN L. WORTHAM, Secretary of State.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE NECESSARY BUILDINGS FOR THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AND ALSO FOR BUILDINGS OF VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS, AND AUTHORIZING IMPROVEMENT BONDS FOR THE PURPOSE OF NAVIGATION, IRRIGATION, CONSTRUCTION OF BRIDGES AND THE MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF PUBLIC WAREHOUSES.

(S. J. R. No. 18.) Senate Joint Resolution. To be entitled A Joint Resolution proposing and submitting to a vote of the people of Texas an amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds and the levying of a tax to pay the interest and sinking fund on same for public improvements.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Section 1. That Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas be amended so as to hereafter read as follows, to-wit: Section 49. No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the State except to supply casual deficiencies of revenue, repel invasion, suppress insurrection and defend the State in war or pay existing debts, and no debt created to supply deficiencies in current revenues shall ever exceed in the aggregate at any one time five hundred thousand dollars. The Legislature, however, shall have power to authorize the issuance of bonds to be approved by the Governor for the purpose of purchasing additional ground and erect necessary buildings for the University of Texas, including a medical department, an Agricultural and Mechanical College and all departments and activities of a complete university of the first class. The revenue received from the permanent University fund shall be available for the payment of interest on these bonds and for the creation of a sinking fund for their redemption at maturity and the Legislature shall also have power to issue bonds for the construction of necessary buildings for State institutions. The Legislature shall also have the power to authorize the issuance of bonds secured by lien on the real property of the penitentiary system to be approved by the Governor for the purpose of constructing buildings and making permanent improvements.

Section 52. The Legislature shall have no power to authorize any county, city, town or other political corporation or subdivision of the State to lend its credit or to grant public money or thing of value in aid of, or to any individual, association or corporation whatsoever or to become a stockholder in such corporation or company; provided, however, that under Legislative provisions any county, any political subdivision of a county, any number of adjoining counties or any political subdivision of the State or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the State of Texas and which may or may not include towns, villages or municipal corporations, upon a vote of the majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon who are qualified electors of such district or territory to be affected thereby in addition to all other debts may issue bonds or otherwise lend its credit in any amount not to exceed one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property of such district or territory, except in case of improvement of rivers, creeks and streams, in building of levees to prevent overflows, in which case the bonded indebtedness may be for an amount not to exceed one-half of the assessed valuation of the lands of the district to be reclaimed; and, except further, that the total bonded indebtedness of any city or town shall never exceed the limits imposed by other provisions of this Constitution, and levy and collect such taxes to pay the interest thereon and provide a sinking fund for the redemption thereof as the Legislature may authorize and in such manner as it may authorize the same for the following purposes, to-wit: (a) For the improvement of rivers, creeks and streams to prevent overflows, and to permit of navigation thereof or irrigation therefrom or in aid of such purposes. (b) For the construction and maintenance of pools, lakes and reservoirs, dams, canals and waterways for the purposes of irrigation, drainage or navigation or in aid thereof. (c) For the construction, maintenance and operation of bridges and macadamized, graveled, sandy clay, or gravel sand or paved roads and turnpikes or in aid thereof. (d) For the construction, maintenance and operation of public warehouses or in aid thereof.

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified electors of this State for adoption or rejection at a special election hereby ordered for the third Saturday in July, 1913, the same being the 19th day of said month. All voters on this proposed amendment at said election who favor its adoption shall have printed or written on their ballots the following: For amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for the University of Texas, Agricultural and Mechanical College, State Penitentiary System, and other public improvements and building of warehouses for agricultural products. Those voting against its adoption shall have written or printed on their ballots the following: Against amendment to Sections 49 and 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, authorizing the issuance of bonds for the University of Texas, Agricultural and Mechanical College, State Penitentiary System, and other public improvements and building of warehouses for agricultural products.

Previous to the election the Secretary of State shall cause to be printed and forwarded to the County Judge of each county, for use in said election, a sufficient number of ballots for the use of voters in each county on which he shall have printed the form of the ballot herein prescribed for the convenient use of the voters.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue his necessary proclamation ordering this election, and have same published as required by the Constitution and laws of the State. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any fund in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of publishing said proclamation and printing of tickets and necessary blanks to use in said election.

FREIGHT LOSS.

Shippers Approve of Santa Fe's New Movement.

Galveston.—The movement started by the Santa Fe railway to reduce to the minimum the item of freight loss and damage is winning the earnest approval of shippers all over the system. Officials of the company here and elsewhere along the lines have received many letters of late commending the Santa Fe for the campaign it has inaugurated and pledging co-operation in the work.

The Santa Fe also will have the hearty assistance of manufacturing concerns which make containers for eggs, butter, fruit, vegetables and products of that character, the damage in transit to which has been considerable. These concerns have expressed a desire to cooperate in planning for the construction of containers that will best meet the needs of the shipper and the railroad.

A great deal of work of bringing about the desired results will be done by the station agents and transportation inspectors whose duty it is to watch the handling of freight in warehouses, on transfer wagons, in depots and on trains. The inspectors, especially, are trained in modern methods of preparing freight for shipment and in handling it after the railroad company has taken charge of it.

Sec. 2. The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue his necessary proclamation ordering this election, and have same published as required by the Constitution and laws of the State. The sum of five thousand ($5,000) dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby appropriated out of any fund in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated to defray the expenses of publishing said proclamation and printing of tickets and necessary blanks to use in said election.

O. D. MANN & SONS GREAT REMOVAL SALE COMMENCES THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 9:00 A. M.

Our first sale in eleven years' business. Three reasons for this are: First: We must reduce our stock before moving into our new building, which will be ready soon. Second: Conditions of the country have been hard for some time, and we feel the purchasing power of your dollar should go farther than ever before. Third: We need the money more than we need the merchandise.

Our entire mammoth stock of high grade Hardware, Furniture, Stoves, Buggies, Wagons, Harness, Queensware, Farm Implements and thousands of other high grade articles too numerous to mention is now in charge of the Fleig Sale System of Dallas, and Chicago, for 15 days only, to reduce this stock prior to moving into our new building.

THE GREATEST SENSATION OF THE AGE! YOU WILL BE AMAZED!! NOTHING LIKE IT EVER HAPPENED BEFORE!!

This stock will be sold. Prices cut no figure. We are going to move into our new building which is now nearly completed, and before doing so we are going to place our entire stock at prices that will startle all competition and open wide in wonder the eyes of the buying public. We have gone to a great expense of employing the Fleig Sale System, the renowned sale experts, with Mr. Jack London, manager in charge, to place our entire stock at prices unthought or unheard of in the entire Southwest. This is your opportunity to make your dollar do the duty of two dollars elsewhere. If you are anticipating the want of Furniture, Hardware or implements within the next two years, then do not let this opportunity pass you. For lack of space we cannot go into further details, but study the prices below and you will be convinced for yourself. Below we quote a few of the many bargains to be found in our store:

Excuse Me!

Four days of fun and frolic on board a trans-continental limited train with sixty laughs to the minute—and then some.

SYNOPSIS.

CHAPTER I.—Lieut. Harry Mallory is ordered to the Philippines. He and Marjorie Newton decide to elope, but wreck of taxicab prevents their seeing minister on the way to the train.

CHAPTER II.—Transcontinental train is taking on passengers. Porter has a lively time with an Englishman and Ira Lathrop, a Yankee business man.

CHAPTER III.—The elopers have an exciting time getting to the train.

CHAPTER IV.—"Little Jimmie" Wellington, bound for Reno to get a divorce, boards train in manifold condition. Later Mrs. Jimmie appears.

CHAPTER V.—She is also bound for Reno with same object. Likewise Mrs. Sammy Whitcomb.

CHAPTER VI.—Latter blames Mrs. Jimmie for her marital troubles. Classmates of Mallory decorate bridal berth.

CHAPTER VII.—Rev. and Mrs. Temple start on a vacation. They decide to cut loose and Temple removes evidence of his calling.

CHAPTER VIII.—Marjorie decides to let Mallory proceed alone, but train starts while they are lost in farewell.

CHAPTER IX.—Passengers join Mallory's classmates in giving couple wedding hazing.

CHAPTER X.—Marjorie is distracted over their situation.

CHAPTER XI.—Ira Lathrop, woman-hating bachelor, discovers an old sweetheart, Anne Gattie, a fellow passenger.

CHAPTER XII.—Mallory vainly hunts for a preacher among the passengers.

CHAPTER XIII.—Mrs. Wellington hears Little Jimmie's voice. Later she meets Mrs. Whitcomb.

CHAPTER XIV.—Mallory reports to Marjorie his failure to find a preacher.

CHAPTER XV.—They decide to pretend a quarrel and Mallory finds a vacant berth.

CHAPTER XVI.—Mrs. Jimmie discovers Wellington on the train.

CHAPTER XVII.—Mallory again makes an unsuccessful hunt for a preacher.

CHAPTER XVIII.—Dr. Temple poses as a physician. Mrs. Temple is induced by Mrs. Wellington to smoke a cigar.

CHAPTER XIX.—Sight of preacher on a station platform raises Mallory's hopes, but he takes another train.

CHAPTER XX.—Missing hand baggage compels the couple to borrow from passengers.

CHAPTER XXI.—Jimmie gets a cinder in his eye and Mrs. Jimmie gives first-aid. Coolness is then resumed.

CHAPTER XXII.—Still no clergyman. More borrowing.

CHAPTER XXIII.—Dr. Temple preened by behavior of different couples.

CHAPTER XXIV.—Marjorie's jealousy aroused by Mallory's baseball game.

CHAPTER XXV.—Marjorie suggests wedding the train to cope with accident which produces a preacher.

CHAPTER XXVI.—Marjorie tries to induce the conductor to hold the train as she can shop.

CHAPTER XXVII.—Lathrop writes for a preacher to marry him and Miss Gattie. Marjorie tells Lathrop of his predicament and arranges to borrow the preacher.

CHAPTER XXVIII.—Kitty Lawless, former sweetheart of Mallory's, appears and arouses Marjorie's jealousy.

CHAPTER XXIX.—Preacher boards train.

CHAPTER XXX.—After marrying Lathrop and Miss Gattie the preacher escapes Mallory by leaping from moving train.

CHAPTER XXXI.—Mallory's detection moves Marjorie to reconciliation.

CHAPTER XXXII.—The last day on the train brings to Mallory the fear of missing his transport.

CHAPTER XXXIII.—Mallory gets a Nevada marriage license from Nevada drummer who boards the train.

CHAPTER XXXIV.—Mallory gets a divorce from Nevada drummer who boards the train.

CHAPTER XXXV.—Mallory gets a divorce from Nevada drummer who boards the train.

Mrs. Wellington's eyes grew a little sad, as she answered: "It would be too lonesome waiting for you to roll home."

Jimmie stared at her. He felt the regret in her voice and took strange courage from it. He hauled from his pocket his huge flask, and said quickly: "Well, if you're jealous of this, I'll promise to cork it up forever."

She shook her head skeptically: "You couldn't."

"Just to prove it," he said, "I'll chuck it out of the window." He flung up the sash and made ready to hurl his enemy into the flying landscape.

"Bravo!" cried Mrs. Wellington. But even as his hand was about to let go, he tightened his clutch again, and pondered: "It seems a shame to waste it."

"I thought so," said Mrs. Jimmie, drooping perceptibly. Her husband began to feel that, after all, she cared what became of him.

"I'll tell you," he said, "I'll give it to old Doc Temple. He takes his straight."

"Fine!"

He turned towards the seat where the clergyman and his wife were sitting, oblivious of the drama of reconciliation playing so close at hand. Little Jimmie paused, caressed the flask, and kissed it. "Good-bye, old playmate!" Then, tossing his head with bravado, he reached out and touched the clergyman's shoulder. Dr. Temple turned and rose with a questioning look. Wellington put the flask in his hand and chuckled: "Merry Christmas!"

"But, my good man—" the preacher objected, finding in his hand a donation about as welcome and as wieldy as a strange baby. Wellington winked: "It may come in handy for—your patients."

And now, struck with a sudden idea, Mrs. Wellington spoke: "Oh, Mrs. Temple."

"Yes, my dear," said the little old lady, rising. Mrs. Wellington placed in her hand a small portfolio and laughed: "Happy New Year!"

Mrs. Temple stared at her gift and gasped: "Great heavens! Your cigars!"

"They'll be such a consolation," Mrs. Wellington explained, "while the doctor is out with his patients."

Dr. Temple and Mrs. Temple looked at each other in dismay, then at the flask and the cigars, then at the Wellingtons, then they stammered: "Thank you so much," and sank back.

Wellington stared at his wife: "Lucretia, are you sincere?"

"Jimmie, I promise you I'll never smoke another cigar."

"My love!" he cried, and seized her hand. "You know I always said you were a queen among women, Lucretia."

She beamed back at him: "And you always were the prince of good fellows, Jimmie." Then she almost blushed as she murmured, almost shyly: "May I pour your coffee for you again this morning?"

"For life," he whispered, and they moved up the aisle, arm in arm, bumping from seat to seat and not knowing it.

When Mrs. Whitcomb, seated in the dining-car, saw Mrs. Little Jimmie pour Mr. Little Jimmie's coffee, she choked on hers. She vowed that she would not permit those odious Wellingtons to make fools of her and her Sammy. She resolved to telegraph Sammy that she had changed her mind about divorcing him, and order him to stop the first train west and meet her half-way on her journey home.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

A Duel for a Bracelet.

All this while Marjorie and Mallory had sat watching, as kingfishers shadow a pool, the door where through the girl with the bracelet must pass on her way to breakfast.

"She's taking forever with her toilet," sniffed Marjorie. "Probably trying to make a special impression on you."

"She's wasting her time," said Mallory. "But what if she brings her mother along? No, I guess her mother is too fat to get there and back."

"If her mother comes," Marjorie declared, "I'll hold her while you take the bracelet away from the—the— from that creature. Quick, here she comes now! Be brave!"

Mallory wore an aspect of arrant cowardice: "Er—eh—eh—"

"You just grab her!" Marjorie exclaimed. Then they relapsed into attitudes of impatient attention. Kathleen floated in and, seeing Mallory, she greeted him with radiant warmth: "Good morning!" and then, catching sight of Marjorie, gave her a "Good morning!" costed with ice. She bounded past and Mallory sat inert, till Marjorie gave him a ferocious pinch, whereupon he leaped to his feet:

"Oh, Miss—er—Miss Kathleen," Kathleen whirled round with a most hospitable smile. "May I have a word with you?"

"Of course you can, you dear boy," Marjorie winced at this and writhed at what followed: "Shan't we take breakfast together?"

Mallory stammered: "I—I—no, thank you—I've had breakfast."

Kathleen froze up again as she snapped: "With that—train-acquaintance, I suppose."

"Oh, no," Mallory amended, "I mean I haven't had breakfast."

But Kathleen scowled with a jealousy of her own: "You seem to be getting along famously for mere train-acquaintances."

"Oh, that's all we are, and hardly that," Mallory hastened to say with too much truth. "Sit down here a moment, won't you?"

"No, no, I haven't time," she said, and sat down. "Mamma will be waiting for me. You haven't been in to see her yet?"

"No. You see—"

"She cried all night."

"For me?"

"No, for papa. He's such a good traveler—and he had such a good start. She really kept the whole car awake."

"Too bad," Mallory consoled, perfunctorily, then with sudden eagerness, and a trial at indifference: "I see you have that bracelet still."

"Of course, you dear fellow. I wouldn't be parted from it for worlds."

Marjorie gnashed her teeth, but Kathleen could not hear that. She gushed on: "And now we have met again! It looks like Fate, doesn't it?"

"It certainly does," Mallory assented, bitterly; then again, with zest: "Let me see that old bracelet, will you?"

He tried to lay hold of it, but Kathleen giggled coyly: "It's just an excuse to hold my hand." She swung her arm over the back of the seat coquettishly, and Marjorie made a desperate lunge at it, but missed, since Kathleen, finding that Mallory did not pursue the fugitive hand, brought it back at once and yielded it up:

"There—be careful, someone might look."

Mallory took her by the wrist in a gingerly manner, and said, "So that's the bracelet? Take it off, won't you?"

"Never!—it's wished on," Kathleen protested, sentimentally. "Don't you remember that evening in the moonlight?"

Mallory caught Marjorie's accusing eye and lost his head. He made a ferocious effort to snatch the bracelet off. When this onset failed, he had recourse to entreaty: "Just slip it off." Kathleen shook her head tantalizingly. Mallory urged more strenuously: "Please let me see it."

Kathleen shook her head with sophistication: "You'd never give it back. You'd pass it along to that—train-acquaintance."

"How can you think such a thing?" Mallory demurred, and once more made his appeal: "Please, please, slip it off."

"What on earth makes you so anxious?" Kathleen demanded, with sudden suspicion. Mallory was stumped, till an inspiration came to him: "I'd like to—to get you a nicer one. That one isn't good enough for you."

Here was an argument that Kathleen could appreciate. "Oh, how sweet of you, Harry," she gurgled, and had the bracelet down to her knuckles, when a sudden instinct checked her: "When you bring the other, you can have this."

She pushed the circlet back, and Mallory's hopes sank at the gesture. He grew frantic at being eternally frustrated in his plans. He caught Kathleen's arm and, while his words pleaded, his hands tugged: "Please—please let me take it—for the measure—you know!"

Kathleen read the determination in his fierce eyes, and she struggled furiously: "Why, Richard—Chasney!—er—Billy! I'm amazed at you! Let go or I'll scream!"

She rose and, twisting her arm from his grasp, confronted him with bewildered anger. Mallory cast toward Marjorie a look of surrender and despair. Marjorie laid her hand on her throat and in pantomime suggested that Mallory should throttle Kathleen, as he had promised.

But Mallory was incapable of further violence; and when Kathleen, with all her coquetry, bent down and murmured: "You are a very naughty boy, but come to breakfast and we'll talk it over," he was so addled that he answered: "Thanks, but I never eat breakfast."

CHAPTER XXXVII.

Down Brakes!

Just as Kathleen flung her head in baffled vexation, and Mallory started to slink back to Marjorie, with another defeat, there came an abrupt shock as if that gigantic child to whom our railroad trains are toys, had reached down and laid violent hold on the Trans-American in full career.

Its smooth, swift flight became suddenly such a spasm of jabs, shivers and thuds that Mallory cried: "We're off the track!"

He was sent flopping down the aisle like a bolster buried through the car. He brought up with a sickening slam across the seat into which Marjorie had been jounced back with a breath-taking slam. And then Kathleen came flying backwards and landed in a heap on both of them.

Several of the other passengers were just returning from breakfast and they were shot and scattered all over the car as if a great chain of human heads had burst.

Women screamed, men yelled, and then while they were still struggling against the seats and one another, the train came to a halt.

"Thank God, we stopped in time!" Mallory gasped, as he tried to disentangle himself and Marjorie to Kathleen.

The passengers began to regain their courage with their equilibrium. Little Jimmie Wellington had flown the whole length of the car, clinging to his wife as if she were Francesca da Rimini, and he Paolo, sitting through inferno. The flight ended at the stateroom door with such a thump that Mrs. Posdick was sure a detective had come for her at last, and with a battering ram.

But when Jimmie got back breath enough to talk, he remembered the train-stopping excitement of the day before and called out:

"Has Mrs. Mallory lost that pup again?"

Everybody laughed uproariously at this. People will laugh at anything or nothing when they have been frightened almost to death and suddenly relieved of anxiety.

Everybody was cracking a joke at Marjorie's expense. Everybody felt a good-natured grudge against her for being such a mystery. The car was ringing with hilarity, when the porter came stumbling in and paused at the door, with eyes all white, hands waving frantically, and lips flapping like fannel, in a vain effort to speak.

The passengers stopped laughing at Marjorie, to laugh at the porter. Ashton sang out:

"What's the matter with you, porter? Are you trying to crow?"

Everybody roared at this, till the porter finally managed to articulate: "T-t-train rob-rob-robbers!"

Silence shut down as if the whole crowd had been smitten with paralysis. From somewhere outside and ahead came a pop-popping as of fire-crackers. Everybody thought, "Revolvers!" The reports were mingled with barbaric yells that turned the marrow in every bone to snow.

These regions are full of historic terror. All along the Nevada route the conductor, the brakemen and old travelers had pointed out scenes where the Indians had slaked the thirst of the arid land with white man's blood. Ashton, who had traveled this way many times, had made himself fascinatingly horrifying the evening before and ruined several breakfasts that morning in the dining-car, by regaling the passengers with stories of pioneer ordeals, men and women massacred in burning wagons, or dragged away to fendish cruelty and obscene torture, staked out supine on burning wastes with eyelids cut off, bound down with reach of rattlesnakes, subjected to every misery that human devilry could devise.

Ashton had brought his fellow passengers to a state of ecstatic excitability, and, like many a recounter of burglar stories at night, had tuned his own nerves to high tension.

The violent stopping of the train, the heart-shaking yells and shots outside, found the passengers already apt to respond without delay to the appeals of fright. After the first flush of dread, came the reaction to panic.

Each passenger showed his own panic in his own way. Ashton whirled round and round, like a horse with the blind staggers, then bolted down the aisle, knocking aside men and women. He climbed on a seat, pulled down an upper berth, and scrambling into it, tried to shut it on himself. Mrs. Whitcomb was so frightened that she assailed Ashton with fury and seizing his feet, dragged him back into the aisle, and beat him with her fists, demanding that he protect her and save her for Sammy's sake.

E. L. WHITE, County Supt.

J. F. Dabbs was a visitor from Mercury Sunday, and left word that he thought everyone, including himself, ought to read the paper.

Our friend, Geo. Darley, was here from Voca last Friday and exhibited an unusually large egg, stating that it was not a freak or curiosity, but a sample product of Mrs. Darley's superior Golden Laced Wyandottes. The egg measured 5 3/4 inches in circumference by 7 1/2 inches in circumference lengthwise, was perfectly formed, and all who have seen it are convinced that not more than half a dozen of this style would be necessary to provide the most hearty eater with all he could say grace over. There's nothing like raising good stock, and Mrs. Darley surely has some of the best.

Tucker W. O. W. Camp.

H. L. Blasdell was in from the Calf Creek community last week and reported the W. O. W. boys having had a great time on the 4th inst., upon which occasion they entertained a large number of their friends from neighboring camps in royal style. Three members were initiated into the mysteries of Woodcraft, and at the conclusion of the ceremonies a spread was served the guests at 12:00 o'clock. There were visitors in attendance from Dallas, Brady, Hext, Nine and Lockhart, and all expressed themselves in terms of highest praise for the royal manner in which they were entertained by the Tucker lodge.

A Big Windy.

I. E. Anderson, accompanied by his son-in-law, R. H. Layne, was here from Kamecy yesterday, Mr. Anderson being enroute to Pear Valley to visit his son, Hubert, while Mr. Layne came after supplies. Mr. Anderson dropped in to see us, and gently, very gently, broke the news that he didn't need The Standard any longer. We suggested that the paper would be awfully good as a background for the carpet after the spring cleaning, and finally offered to compromise the matter with him if he would use The Standard to paper the wood shed. Still Mr. Anderson hesitated, and just as we were about to plunge into tearful grief, he remarked that he guessed he ought to read the advertisements anyhow, and besides, under the benevolence of a democratic administration, paying a dollar on subscription would be just like loaning money out at interest. So he did—loaned us the dollar.

He reports small grain gone in his community, most of the farmers pasturing it, or turning it under. Everyone is well up with their work, too well, in fact, and rain is the next thing on the program.

The big windy he told us about was that of a few weeks ago and which unroofed and wrecked his barn, carrying the roof for a distance of about forty yards. Several logs were also lifted off of a log crib inside the barn and scattered along for a like distance. Fortunately the tornado or whirlwind just covered a narrow path, and no other damage was done. With the assistance of some of his good neighbors, Mr. Anderson soon had the scattered remnants of his barn gathered together, and the building restored as good as ever.

Try gets it—business. We are trying our darndest to get yours. Brady Commission Co.

The Brady high school boys and girls report a very successful candy and sandwich sale Saturday, and a neat little sum was raised for the P. L. S.

Bad breath, bitter taste, dizziness and a general "no account" feeling is a sure sign of torpid liver. HERBINE is the medicine needed. It makes the liver active, vitalizes the blood, regulates the bowels and restores a fine feeling of energy and cheerfulness. Price 50c. Sold by Central Drug Store.

S. F. Tedder, one of our Five friends, was in Saturday and said he would rather read The Standard than not.

Nothing Like It Ever Happened Before in Brady

THE GREATEST EVENT IN THE HISTORY OF BRADY AND ENTIRE SOUTHWEST TEXAS.

After eleven years of active business without conducting a sale, we have employed the Fleig Sale System of Chicago and Dallas, renowned sales experts, with Mr. Jack London manager in charge, to conduct our removal sale which will commence Thursday morning, April 24th, at 9 o'clock, and will continue for a period of fifteen days closing Saturday, May 10th, at 9 p. m., with instructions to Mr. London that merchandise values shall cut no figure, but to sell goods at unmerciful prices. As stated before, this is the first sale in eleven years, and we have these good reasons for putting on this one:

1st. The conditions of the country has been so hard that we feel that the purchasing power of your dollar should go farther now than ever before.

2nd. We must reduce our stock before moving into our new building.

3rd. We need the money more than the merchandise.

On the morning of our opening we will present to the first twenty purchasers of $1.00 or over each a beautiful gift absolutely free, also see the gifts in the show windows of our new store.

Everything purchased at this sale has our bona fide guarantee and if not just as represented, will be gladly exchanged or money refunded.

Nothing charged at sale prices, but remember we are still soliciting our credit trade.

O. D. MANN & SONS,
In charge of Fleig Sale System.

Read our ad in this issue, and watch for circulars.

To have a fine healthy complexion—the liver must be active, the bowels regular and the blood pure. All this is brought about by using HERBINE. It thoroughly scours the liver, stomach and bowels, puts the body in fine condition and restores that clear, pink and white complexion so much desired by ladies. Price 50c. Sold by Central Drug Store.

If times are dull, it is not so in Brady. Any number of merchants have told us of rushing business done by them Saturday and among the number was R. E. Luhn, Jr., who reported the best business since engaging for himself. Mr. Luhn, you will notice, carries a regular space with The Standard, and backs his ads up with first-class, seasonable merchandise—a combination that is a business getter and a trade puller without equal in the world in McCulloch county.

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating—a symptom that should not be disregarded.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality, if after use you are not perfectly satisfied with results.

We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be without equal. They give prompt relief, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and correct unhealthy symptoms. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.

You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store:

PERSONAL & LOCAL

S. W. Colton is in from the ranch.

Grandma Kiser is reported quite ill.

Tom Gattis was in from Lohn yesterday on a business visit.

W. T. Stacy was here from Waldrip on business yesterday.

R. K. Hallum spent Sunday with home folks in Brownwood.

B. A. Hallum made a business trip to San Saba Friday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Luhn, Jr., left yesterday morning for Taylor to visit Mr. Luhn's folks for a few weeks.

Mrs. Dave Camp was in the city Sunday morning enroute to Mason, where she will visit relatives.

Miss Clara Webster has accepted a position as assistant with R. K. Hallum & Co., Miss Estella Bradley having given up the work.

M. J. Hutto returned yesterday from New Mexico, where he has been the past month or so in the interest of the Brownwood Monumental Works.

W. F. McCully came over from Brownwood Friday for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. H. P. Roddie, and family, returning to his home yesterday.

Miss Vivian Jordan returned Sunday from Waldrip, where she closed a highly successful school year with appropriate exercises Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Tom Holmesley of Comanche accompanied her brother, Steve Ballou, to Brady Saturday to be present at his wedding, the trip being made in an auto.

Miss Ruby Payne is the guest of Miss Vivian Jordan for a few days while returning to her home at Mason from Fife where she has completed her school work.

The original Pat Hinnegan is greeting his many friends here after an absence of the past several months. Pat is now with the Reynolds Tobacco Co. and, as usual, is meeting with success.

Will Davidson, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. W. R. Davidson, Sr., returned yesterday from Madison, Ind., where he has been spending the past month with relatives and friends.

W. D. Walker came in from the ranch yesterday bringing with him Misses Mary McKnight, Ruth Schaege and Gladys Walker, who have been guests on the Walker ranch the past few days.

Mrs. Clara Millerkin, accompanied by Francis Keller, went to Mason Sunday, bringing Mrs. A. W. Keller home from there yesterday. They report Mrs. Keller's mother somewhat improved of late.

Messrs. Rufus and Forrest Adams and John Ramey went over to Brownwood Saturday to spend a few days with home folks, and attend the performance of "Madame Sherry" at the Brownwood opera house last night.

J. H. Hill returned Friday from Galveston, where he has been the past month or longer looking after his cotton there, and incidentally enjoying refreshing salt water baths and invigorating sea breezes. He reports having disposed of a big lot of cotton at a satisfactory figure.

G. W. Schoolcraft, who is now located in Rockwall county, where he is engaged in farming, came in Saturday morning, and will remain here several weeks, during which time he will be back at his old stand assisting J. C. Irwin look after the meat trade. Mr. Schoolcraft reports everything looking prosperous in Rockwall county.

Wm. Bauhof, who has been overhauling the gin at Goldthwaite, came in Saturday to spend Sunday in Brady, leaving again yesterday for Richland Springs to work on the gin here. Mr. Bauhof and brother, Ed, put in the summer months working over the gins throughout this section, and their services are in much demand.

A letter from Herbert Adkins to friends in the city states that he has left Sabine and is located in Texas City, where he has again engaged in the newspaper business. Herbert has dabbled with ink and type for so long that he finds it impossible to stay out of the profession, and when a man's in love with his work he is sure to succeed. Here's luck, Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Merwin arrived Saturday from Dowigiac, Mich., and will make their home in Brady. Mr. Merwin held an excellent position at that place, but was forced to give it up because of ill health, the doctors advising a southern climate as the best means of making a speedy recovery. Their return was quite a surprise to relatives as well as friends, who had no intimation of their coming back. Mrs. Merwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Ballou are all the more rejoiced over their return, because it completes the family circle for the first time in eighteen years.

If you cough all night you get no rest, nor does anyone else in the house. Keep within reach a bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP. It is then easy to stop the tickling which causes the cough whenever it appears. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Central Drug Store.

WIN TWO GAMES.

Brady Boys Defeat Strong Daniel Baker Team.

The Brady high school boys are smiling broadly over the way they took the Daniel Baker team down for two games Friday and Saturday. The game Friday resulted in a score of 22 to 9 in Brady's favor, Hardison and Snider being batteries for the local team. The game was a good one and was hotly contested by both teams, the uneven score resulting from the heavy slugging of the locals.

Saturday's game also resulted in Brady's favor, the score being 4 to 1. Wood and Fuller were the batteries for the locals. The game was a snappy one and both sides put up an interesting fight for the honors. The success of the Brady boys is a source of satisfaction to themselves, as the Daniel Baker team has the reputation of being a strong one, and had won practically all their games before they matched up with Brady.

There was a very good attendance at both games, and the boys are highly appreciative of the interest shown in high school athletics, and the assistance rendered them by the citizens, enabling them to meet all expenses of both teams. They hope to have another game before the close of school and will endeavor to show Bradyites a game worth their money.

YEAR BOOK of Stark Bro's Nurseries & Orchards Co. MAILED TO YOU FREE

Just say on a Postal Card: "Send me a copy of Stark Year Book for 1913." When writing, also tell us how many trees, shrubs, vines, etc., you will probably plant this season.

This Year Book is more than a mere catalogue of Stark nursery products, it is a practical, easy to understand text book for the guidance of the man who plants trees. Our own experience of nearly 100 years, the reports of experiment stations and the opinions of planters from all sections are condensed and reproduced for the benefit of busy people. An encyclopedia of orchard information, containing full size color illustrations of gloriously tinted fruits and many photographic reproductions in black and white; also information on many subjects in which the orchardist is interested.

Hundreds of varieties of apples, pears, peach, plum, cherry, apricot, quince, grape and all small fruits are described; weaknesses of each variety are pointed out and good points are explained. We feel that planters should know both.

Those interested in growing fruits or flowers or shrubs or shade trees will find this book of inestimable value; totally different from the average nurseryman's publications. It is a book you will keep for reference, and one on which you can depend as being absolutely accurate. Write today for your copy.

CALLAN CONCOCTIONS FOR MAGNIFICENT MENARD

From the Messenger.

J. G. Matthews was over from Brady this week.

John Tipton was at Brady station the last of the week shipping cattle.

The San Antonio Express says the latest American liner has seven decks. That will accommodate thirty-five men comfortably.

Jim Matthews was up Friday peddling lye hominy. He says he makes it a rule to have the proceeds from his hominy pay for his soup bones.

A day on the San Saba river at this season will lengthen out your life from one to five years. Don't fail to go every opportunity, except Sundays.

We sent the Herald editor a towsack full of poke greens and a hog jowl this week, but forgot to include a few pones of cornbread. However, the bread they make from ground acorns is a fairly good substitute.

Schwenker is one of the few newspaper men in Texas who did not enjoy the pleasure of buying a spring hat of the feminine gender. Just what he expects to do with the money he is stacking up is hard to guess.

We are shipping the editor of the Del Rio Herald a crate of Menard cantaloupes by today's express, but the chances are this delicious fruit will begin to ripen in that sandstone capital long before he can raise money to pay charges on the crate.

The Commercial Secretaries say that jackasses are on the increase in Texas. We don't believe it. The Secretaries have just been stirring around more than usual, and as a result have located a surprisingly large number, but they have been here all the time.

The sheep man has no cause to complain if wool goes on the free list while woolen goods remain protected, as we noble democrats propose. Every time he buys a pair of trousers he will save five cents, provided the manufacturer, the jobber and the merchant all go through their stock and mark pantaloons down that much.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox says that woman is superior to man, but man has not found it out. What man has not, Ella? Woman is superior to man in everything, and she never begins to lose her superiority until she assumes the role of head of the house and leads her hubby around by the bugle, forgetting that "woman's noblest station is retreat."

President Wilson wants the American wits to be whetted by contact with the wits of the rest of the world. There is one objection we have to placing the American farmer in competition with the Mexican farmer, for instance. While our pride and patriotism may cause us to boast that we can compete with anybody on earth, it might result, should we attempt to compete with the foreigner, in reducing our standard of living to his standard.

Everybody has to work too much, and we favor a law reducing the working hours to six daily. That is enough. This world was made to loaf through, and not to work ourselves to death. We are sure to get through this life without all this bustle and hurry, and what does it matter if somebody says we are a failure? The man who reaps the greatest harvest of happiness and sows the seeds of kindness that will grow into the golden fruit of joy for others is the most successful man, and the man who piles up wealth he will never need, working and worrying always, without time to help others, is the greatest failure.

Many of those who had read the bills and beheld the richly colored pictures of wild animals from every nook and corner of the world, hardly recognized the circus when it reached here last week. The glaring, dazzling, glittering street parade that threatened to strike dumb and blind all who beheld it, was not pulled off, due probably to the fact that in combining the several shows of which this was the compound, much of their parade machinery was misplaced. Most of the jokes came out on crutches, and in many ways the show did not correspond to the pictures of it that were pasted about town.

Farmers and others who live at a distance from a drug store should keep in the house a bottle of BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT. It may be needed at any time for cuts, wounds, sores, sprains or rheumatism. It is a powerful healing and penetrating remedy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Central Drug Store.

Mrs. Vona Wilhelm was here a few days this week from Mercury, where she is clerking in a store.

Hon. G. F. Hurley was here from Katemcy, feeling much disappointed over the continued cold weather.

MY FRIEND'S GOOD ADVICE

The Results Made This Newburg Lady Had She Followed Suggestion.

Newburg, Ala.—"For more than a year," writes Myrtle Cotnam, of this place, "I suffered with terrible pains in my back and head. I had a swollen complexion, and my face was covered with pimples. Our family doctor only gave me temporary relief."

A friend of mine advised me to try Cardui, so I began taking it, at once, and with the best results, for I was cured after taking two bottles. My mother and my aunt have also used Cardui and were greatly benefited. I shall always praise Cardui to sick and suffering women."

Cardui is a purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, tonic remedy for women, and will benefit young and old.

Its ingredients are mild herbs, having a gentle, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui has helped a million women back to health and strength.

Have you tried it? If not, please do. It may be just what you need.

N. B.—Write for Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

LIVE LOCAL LINEUPS IN RUSTLING ROCHELLE

From the Record.

SAN SABA SAYINGS

From the Star.

Judge Joe A. Adkins and F. M. Newman, Brady attorneys, were here this week attending court.

A petition has been circulated and numerous signed asking the city commissioners to appoint a nightwatchman. This is something badly needed here, as it will give the town that protection which every town stands in need of.

From the News.

The editor of the News has been asked quite often of late why he does not say something about the new democratic tariff bill. The fact of the business is, gentlemen, the editor of the News knows but dinged little about the tariff.

Sherman Low and Miss Lola Bennett were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bennett, in the Pecan Grove settlement Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Judge J. T. Hartley performed the ceremony.

The county school board was in session Tuesday with J. B. Miller of Richland Springs and W. B. Hart of Cherokee visiting members. The Baker Valley and Crescent school districts were authorized to consolidate as prayed for in petition for the purpose of bettering the schools of each district.

The city has received a supply of fire hose and two up-to-date fire trucks. There are 900 feet of hose and mounted on the trucks makes it easily and effectively managed in case of fire. Now the thing to do is for some one who has had experience in the organization of fire companies to get busy and organize a volunteer fire company and the next fire which occurs, be it sooner or later, may be resisted with some sort of effective work.

New? Nobby? Of course! English walking shoes at Excelsior Shoe Store.

BRADY DRUGGIST DESERVES PRAISE

Central Drug Store deserves praise from Brady people for introducing here the simple buckthorn bark and glycerine mixture, known as Adlerika. This simple German remedy first became famous by curing appendicitis, and it has now been discovered that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY. Its quick action is a big surprise to people.

EDEN ECHOES

From Eden Echo:

Joe Lee made Brady a visit last Friday.

Roy Autrey delivered about 500 head of steers to C. C. Ledbetter last Thursday that he and his father had sold some twenty days ago. This herd brought $35 around with a ten per cent cut at $30.

J. M. Pfluger of Priddy, Texas, a brother of our townsman, Lee Pfluger, bought this week the Johnson farm consisting of one section with a well improved farm on it, in the Live Oak community for $10,000.

It is reported to the Echo that the court Monday placed a bounty of 5c on rabbit scalps. We consider the information as reliable, so, boys you may have great sport and at the same time get your ammunition paid for by the county.

Roy Willoughby has leased the R. T. Trail ranch that runs up to the town of Paint Rock and bought the stock on the ranch. He pays the annual lease of 27c per acre, but he has a most excellent ranch. He is now building shearing sheds and pens near Paint Rock. He expects to shear his sheep with machinery.

Mr. Wheelis sold this week to J. F. Lloyd the section and a half that Lloyd sold off his place some two or three years ago. The total transaction was $10,000. This makes Mr. Lloyd a most excellent place and puts it back like he has had it from the time he first came here. Mr. Wheelis and family will likely go back to their ranch in Crockett county.

On last Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Armor entertained the young people of Eden in their hospitable home. A large crowd was present and all report a very enjoyable evening. Music and games were important features of the evening's entertainment. At 10:00 each drew for his or her partner and after each had found his partner they marched into the dining room where fruit punch was served. The names of those present were too numerous to mention, but all say the party was a decided success.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

Your druggist will refund money if FAZO OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives Ease and Rest. 50c.

As a test of the enduring qualities and the dependence of the feat performed just the other day. A phone message from A. J. McDonald at Melvin to Dr. J. G. McCall advised that the former's son was quite ill, and requested the doctor to come to Melvin in his car and carry Mr. McDonald to Brady in time to catch the Santa Fe train. It only lacked an hour of train time, but Dr. McCall succeeded in getting the promise of the conductor to hold the train 15 minutes while he attempted the feat. Mr. Hallum was called upon for a car, and placed his own at the service of the doctor, and within five minutes after the call had been received another casing had been placed upon the demountable rim, the tanks had been filled with oil and water, and the car was ready for service. Frank Hurd drove the car to Melvin and brought Mr. McDonald to Brady in just 1:05, making the trip over the rough ground in ample time to make connection with the train.

All of our jewelry is guaranteed. R. K. Hallum & Co., Jewelers.

Don't forget that your cash will go farther with us, and all we ask is a chance to figure with you. Of course if you do not figure with us, you will not know just how cheap you can buy from us, but if you actually want to make a saving, see us. Broad Mercantile Co.

MEN'S MEETING.

Successful Organization at the Christian Church.

The Men's Meeting at the Christian church last Thursday night was quite a successful event. There was an interesting program of addresses by various members and workers in the Sunday school and church, at the conclusion of which the organization was made permanent with J. E. Shropshire, president, and J. C. Jones, sec-treas. Various committees were appointed to carry on the different branches of work undertaken by the organization, included in which is the furtherance of all church and Sunday school work.

At the conclusion of the meeting a refreshing course of ice cream and an abundance of most delicious cake was served. The ladies added to the enjoyment of the occasion by decorating the place with flowers—the finishing touch to a most successfully planned social occasion.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surface. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is too fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c, per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
