STOP! CONSIDER!

It being an established fact that the silo has come to help us, now for the one that will help the longest or has the strongest arm to help with. Why buy from the man who uses the street corner for his office. He can move it over night, even to another state, and if your silo falls to staves like an old barrel, you are out just so much money. Buy from an established concern; one that has a roof over its office; that pays its good money into the avenues of commerce in your city, where it will help you again. You know where to find them at all times, and they are here to help you through the tough places of life, and they have your interests at heart.

INTERESTING LECTURES.

To Be Given Free at Christian Tabernacle.

One of the most interesting events scheduled for next week is the illustrated lecture to be given some time next week by representatives of the National Benevolent association of the Christian church. The lectures will be given the first of next week, the date of the same to be announced in Friday's issue. The association will be represented by Messrs. James H. Mohrter of St. Louis, general secretary, and Otis Hawkins of Dallas, southwestern representative.

Both gentlemen are exponents of practical Christianity, and will tell of the great work being done by the association in caring for the orphan children and the helpless aged. The lectures will be entirely free, and if you are interested in what the Christian church is doing in the way of feeding, clothing and educating the orphans and housing the homeless, don't fail to note the date of the lecture in the next issue of The Standard, and be sure to be present at the tabernacle.

Harness, saddles, collar pads.
E. J. Broad.

Even the University of Texas is interested in The Standard to the extent of subscribing. Maybe they want to get some hints on improved journalism.

A. W. Keller is feeling good over the receipt of a post card from Mr. F. Haber's daughter, Mrs. Annie Hallett, of Brighton, Colo., reading as follows: "Here is a good advertisement for you. On the 3rd my hen hatched out 15 chicks from your Rhode Island Reds; every egg hatched—and think of the trip, railroad, street cars and wagon." That's the way with McCulloch county stuff—it's good anywhere you find it.

MOTHERS DAY.

Impressive Services at Methodist Church Sunday.

Most impressive were the services Sunday night at the Methodist church, commemorating Mothers Day, and the church house was filled to overflowing by the time services were begun.

The services opened with that grandest of hymns, "Nearer My God to Thee." Judge J. E. Shropshire then feelingly spoke upon the subject "Our Mothers, Our Heroes of Heroes." He spoke of the various heroes—of war and of peace—whose names will be forever recorded in history, and then named that greatest of heroes—mother, whose every thought and effort was self-sacrificing in order that those she loved might be benefitted.

Mr. J. T. Mann spoke of "A Young Man's Obligations to His Mother," and reminded his hearers that every young man owed to his mother a debt of gratitude he never could repay, and that it was his duty to so live as to never bring reproach upon the best and truest friend—his mother.

A quartette, "Tell Mother I'll Be There," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Ed Broad, Miss Lucy Morris and Messrs. F. T. Fowler and J. T. Mann.

"Upon the Purity and Sanctity of the Home Depends the Success of the Nation" was the subject of Mr. J. F. Montgomery's address, in which he pointed out a few of the many blighting influences that mar the home life and leave a curse upon those they touch.

Rev. I. T. Morris chose as his subject "The Father's Responsibility in Training His Children and Building the Home." Rev. Morris stated that although volume after volume, in poetry and in prose, had been dedicated to mother, nothing that diligent search could reveal had been dedicated to father, which would lead one to believe that father had no standing in the home life; and yet Rev. Morris pointed out where the responsibility for the successful training of the children rested equally upon the father and upon the mother, and that his own habits and disposition would be reflected in his children.

The services were closed with the singing of "America," followed by the benediction.

COMMENCEMENT SERMON.

Immense Crowd Hears Discourse to Graduates.

The commencement sermon of the Brady high school was delivered Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the Christian tabernacle by Rev. D. R. Hardison before an audience that completely filled the large tabernacle.

The speaker emphasized three things as essentials to the highest success of the young people who have just finished their high school course and were now facing the battles of life. They were: Mind, money and spirituality. The training of the mind was emphasized as our first duty in order that we may be prepared to meet the conditions that will confront us in our struggles in after life. We should also feel it a duty, according to the speaker, to lay up enough of this world's goods in order that we may not become objects of charity when our days of activity have passed and we are no longer able to meet our fellow man in the struggle for supremacy. But above all these other things the most essential thing for us to look in order to make our lives the most complete success was spirituality, and the point was strongly emphasized that in our eagerness to make money we too oft forget the duty we owe to God for the giving of a strong mind, the ability to meet our fellow men on an equal footing and the many other blessings showered upon us every day.

The following program was rendered:
Organ voluntary.
Hymn No. 299.
Hymn No. 200.
Prayer, W. G. Joyce.
Hymn No. 79.
Scripture text, Rev. I. T. Morris.
Solo—"Calvary"—Miss Morris.
Prayer, Rev. I. T. Morris.
Male quartette, "Walking With God."
Sermon, Rev. D. R. Hardison.
Hymn No. 201.
Announcements.
Benediction.

PLAY BALL WEDNESDAY.

High School Boys and Business Men Again.

The high school boys having decided that the business men might have lost their rabbit foot, and that they couldn't really play ball "nohow," are now going to mop up the diamond with the aforesaid business men. They are going to take them to a cleaning. When the boys get through with the vets, the vets will know the are ex-vets. There's no doubting this because the high school boys have been practicing for the past eight days and have discovered several new kinds of spit balls, a snake ball or two, and a high ball that is sure to put the business men to fighting the air. Also (this confidentially) they have discovered several holes in the bats of the aforesaid business men, and have bought a base ball that will go right through the hands of any vet who gets in the way.

We have nothing to say for the business men. All of them are much older than ourself (by a dozen or two years), and therefore ought to be able to take care of themselves. If they want to play the boys and get beat, of course it's no concern of ours. If they want to take violent exercise, such as swinging bats for Indian clubs and running hurdle races around the bases—again it is no concern of ours.

What we are concerned about (honest to goodness, now) is getting you out to the game. You know it is for the benefit of the Commercial club, and the proceeds go to pay what we owe for making the fight against the increase in freight rates. It cost us a pretty penny to make the fight, and now that we have won and it will cost you no more than before to buy bread and clothes for the baby, you can afford to spend your quarters and dimes on a ball game. You can't afford not to go anyhow. Come out!

If you want a ladies hat, you cannot afford to pass Miss Meyers before you buy, as she will save you money and has the line.

ROAD BUILDING.

McCulloch county is gaining considerable reputation in road building. In that county they not only spend handsome sums in constructing permanent high-ways, but they look well after maintenance and the citizens are enjoying the benefit of their enterprise in many ways.

Uncle Sam has just established a rural route leading out from Brady, and the farmers who have had to travel five miles for their mail now get it delivered at their door. Uncle Sam follows close behind the road grader—the greatest civilizer of the present century. Records show that $2,300,000 of road bonds were voted in Texas during the first quarter of 1913 and nine counties have called election.—Commercial Secretaries.

CONTENTMENT.

We have come to the conclusion that holding office is a nuisance; that it shortens life; keeps one from enjoying chicken dumplings and causes baldness. It would be impossible for the powers that be to force us to accept anything. While President Wilson is sweating over the proper reduction of the tariff on shoemakers' pegs, or wondering how in the deuce even a chief executive is to marry off four ugly girls, the most serious questions that confront us are: Which dowdiac is the most attractive to the Devil's river bass, and where is that opener, anyway?—Del Rio Herald.

DEATH DEFYING.

There are two things that make people clean up. One is death of half the population and the other is law.—Sanger Courier.

It is in evidence every day in the year that there are people who will suffer the first rather than obey the second.—Fort Worth Record.

Judging from the Brady cemetery, there are some folks who won't even clean up after their dead.

A RARE SPECIMEN.

Wanted, an editor who can read, write and argue politics, and at the same time be religious, funny, scientific and historical at will; write to please everybody; know everything without asking or being told, always saying something good to say somebody else, live on and make more money emies. For such a man opening will be made (inward).—Celina Record.

WE SHOULD WORRY AND GET A WRINKLE.

Slang and rutted phrases may be brilliantly used and pass current legally. But for the most part they are not brilliantly used. They serve chiefly the lazy mind and are a bore. One can, and many do, shirk the thought process by the mode of ready-made and ill-fitting expressions. 'Tis as easy as swearing. And very much such a slovenly habit as swearing. Very many who might as easily speak and write English well groove their minds with slang and bad usage of the language until their thoughts can hardly travel out except through the furrows.—San Angelo Standard.

Ain't it the truth? The real thing in English seems to be in bad, if not down and out. When you tip a person off that his talk has no class, it's a cinch he'll come back like a smart Alex with that "tell it to Sweeney" gab. Loose conversation has got the swell bunch going. Even the high brows, especially the co-eds, are shy on the book stuff these days. The guy who put across "I get you, Steve" has more followers than Webster. "Oh, you Kid" and "Oh you" something else are ace-high in current chatter. It's no longer possible for a well-meaning young scout to have a package of snappy education handed him across the family album when he fusses these spring evenings. He gets Eddie Foy and Fred Stone. Is it canned drama or the light-weight show that's to blame, do you suppose? It gets our goat to hear some sweet young one with "six to nine thoughts every seven days, but very easy to look at," forget herself long enough to lip "I seen it" and "he done it." We're strong for the Standard's call—it sure has the dope!

An epidemic of cement wall-building in Brady would be about the proper thing to 'catch' just now, observes the Brady Standard. Anyhow the disease would not result fatally to the town.—San Antonio Express.

Nor would the results be futile in the upbuilding of the town.

We have just conceived a plan by which we may become immensely wealthy, and with a little aid upon the part of the U. S. government we are certain to accomplish the plan. We note in the state papers that a San Antonio girl's photo is to adorn the new currency to be issued by the government. Now, if Uncle Sam will place the photo of one of Brady's beautiful young ladies upon the currency we will immediately start a collection of the same for our photograph album. We have reserved quite a number of places in the album for the photos of Brady girls, and an inducement of the above described nature might hasten us in the filling of the album. We trust the currency commission will take notice of the above, and accordingly let it so be done.

COMMUNITY CARRIERS.

One of the most peculiar traits of the human character is revealed in the manner we bear toward our fellowman. We are ever ready to criticize, to listen to his faults or some foul scandal-monger's tongue, who retails falsehoods. Very seldom do we stop to consider that the one carrying these tales will in a few minutes be at the ear of someone else with the same story about us.—Trinity Tribune.

If there has been any appreciable falling-off in the number of shrews, viragos, termagants, gossips, scandal-mongers and kindred trouble-makers in the past decade, none has taken the pains to record the fact. On the contrary their activity has taken the pernicious form of community carrier, limited; it is their delight to fasten on two persons at odds with each other lead such to express his opinion of 't'other, and carry the expression to 't'other. There is no way for the man (especially the woman) not strong enough to guard his tongue to protect himself from the self-appointed go-between; he is almost as dangerous a community pest as a dirty street and supplies the chief reason why so many communities the world over are agitation of the revival of the ducking pond and pillory punishments.—Waco News.

The moral, as we get it, is: Don't be a community carrier.

CENSUS REPORT.

Shows City's Population in Detail.

The following report is sent out by the Commercial Secretaries Association of Fort Worth:

There are 584 families living in Brady and the total number of dwellings in this city is 568, according to a census bulletin which has just been issued by the federal department of Commerce and Labor. The report contains complete and detailed data pertaining to the composition and characteristics of the population of this city and the information covers the census year of 1910. The total population of Brady consists of 2514 native white, 54 foreign born white and 101 colored persons. Our white population consists of 1386 males and 1283 females. There are 1998 persons that are in the city are ten years of age and over, and 62 of this number cannot write. The males of voting age number 733 and there are 930 that are of school age, 536 of this number attend school.

Excursion Time Has Arrived.

This is the season of the year when excursions are in order. Everybody needs an occasional rest and change of scene, even if it is only for a day or two. Our grandfathers had to be content with piling the family in a wagon at daylight and driving miles over dusty roads to picnic grounds. But they had a good time, and a day in the woods or on a stream did wonders for them.

Now you can travel fifty miles on comfortable railway trains, while he was driving six or eight. The big pleasure resorts are only a few hours from home. Pre-eminent among them in Texas is Galveston. Its beach and surf bathing are world famous. The fishing is great. At Bettison's pier more fish are being caught this year than ever before. Right at this time, too, Uncle Sam has thousands of soldiers encamped at Galveston and Texas City. These camps are most interesting places to visit. A week-end at Galveston will put anyone in tune with the world.

And as advertising in this paper has announced, the first unusually low week-end excursion fares for the season will be put in by the Santa Fe for trains arriving in Galveston on May 17, and good for return until May 19.

MASON MAVERICKS.

From the News.

J. R. Hext was here from Hext Monday and reports his section drenched with rain.

Oscar Doell, who spent several days visiting home folks, returned Saturday to Yoakum, where he is employed in the jewelry business.

Hon. G. F. Hurley of Katemey was here Monday to attend the regular quarterly meeting of the county school trustees. Mr. Hurley reports the rains doing great good in his section.

The election for school trustees held last Saturday resulted in the election of Alva Tinsley, S. A. McCollum, J. W. White and F. W. Winkel. Mr. Tinsley is a member of the present school board and Messrs. McCollum and White have served in that capacity in past years.

Justice Traweck and County Attorney Banks went to Loyal Valley Saturday to hold an inquest upon Felix Garcocimo. The man had been working for Henry Keller and was found dead in his pasture. The finding of the jury of inquest was that he died from natural causes, as he had been complaining for some time. Messrs. Banks and Traweck became water bound and did not get back to Mason until Tuesday night.

LIVED ON RAW EGGS

Mr. Richard's Experience With Different Diets. Peaches and Buttermilk for Three Years.

Cecilton, Md.—Mr. George Richards, of this place, during the past 12 years, has probably tried more different diets than the average person would ever use in a lifetime.

What he has to say about his experiments, must therefore be highly interesting to anyone suffering from indigestion or stomach troubles of any kind.

He says: "For more than 12 years, I suffered with stomach troubles, and paid hundreds of dollars for doctor bills and medicines. I was also operated on for piles.

I lived on dried peaches and buttermilk for nearly three years. The only thing that would not give me pain was raw eggs. I was a physical wreck. I could not sleep, and was as near crazy as a man could well be.

I must say that after taking two 25-cent packages of Theiford's Black-Draught, it did me more good than all I ever spent for other medicines.

CALLAN CONCOCTIONS FOR MAGNIFICENT MENARD

The Herald editor says he wants a reduction in the price of ducking breeches. The people down there really wear breech-clouts, and he imagines he is playing the dude by pretending to wear ducking pants.

Seven trustees were elected Saturday for Menard School Corporation. The vote was as follows: Wm. Bevans, 67; W. L. Oliver, 14; Ed Mears, 63; L. G. Callan, 69; Jim Cannon, 65; C. B. Patton, 67; A. E. Nauwald, 63; A. J. Arnold, 62; Wm. Fenley, 18.

A vacation in Menard, bathing in the spring waters of the San Saba, catching bass so eager for sport that they will strike at even a city man's bait, and viewing scenic beauty that would inspire the cheese-makers of Switzerland to renewed effort, will cure any ill under the sun except hypocrisy or a lost limb. We are going to spend our vacation here.

The rain Saturday night was only three inches deep right in town, but heavy rains were reported over the county, and this entire section is in as good condition as water can make it. The San Saba river celebrated the rains by getting full and remaining full for some time. We have now had more than eight inches of rainfall this year or a little more than was needed to insure bumper crops and grass in which the cattle can hide. This is the country, there is absolutely no doubt about it.

WONDER WORDS.

Written for The Standard of Brady, Texas.

Wonder, Ore., April 19.

Dear Readers: Do you wonder why I have put off writing so long? I will tell you. It keeps a "web footer" busy all the time bustling for a living.

We have no time here to go visiting. I some times wish I was back in the grand old Lone Star state when the crops are laid by to have a few weeks of leisure to attend camp meetings, barbecues and those glorious social singings, none of which we have in this country.

But there are two things we do not fail to observe here, viz: The "shindig" and base ball on Saturday night and Sunday.

I notice in our county paper, The Oregon Observer, that the mayor of Grant's Pass has issued an edict prohibiting the dance called the "Turkey Trot" and "The Rag." Of course you and I do not know what it is like, but presume it is of a low, degrading sort.

Since my last letter we have had a week of continuous rain, and as I sit and write tonight I can hear the patter of the rain on the roof. As the ground is thoroughly saturated we are assured an abundance of water for irrigating purposes this summer, which is necessary, for it will quit raining soon, and rain no more till fall.

People have commenced to plant potatoes here, and by the way, spuds are cheap here now. I bought a ton of small culls for my hogs and paid $5.00 a ton. Extra fine, $1.00 per cwt.

ONION GAP ITEMS.

Rochelle, Texas, May 4.

Editor Brady Standard:

News is scarce, but will send in a few happenings, so they can't say old Onion Gap is sure enough dead.

Crops are beginning to look fine since the big rain.

Mr. Hubert Anderson went to Rochelle one day last week.

Mr. Walter Moorings went to Brady Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sallee visited relatives in the Gap several days this week.

Mr. Elbert Bentley went to Rochelle Saturday.

Mr. E. F. Harrison went to Rochelle one day last week.

Mr. Sam Crider, who has been sick for quite a while with rheumatism, is suffering considerably since the rain.

All the farmers gathered at Mr. Sam Crider's Friday and finished planting 55 acres of his cotton. The following assisted: Messrs. E. J. Howard, Andy Brown, B. F. Harrison and son, Edwin, Elbert Bentley, Charles Reynolds, Walter Moorings and Clifton Cleary, a driver for Mr. Crider.

Mr. and Mrs. Virg Moorings visited at the home of Mr. Oscar Turner Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Sallee went to Rochelle Thursday.

Mrs. Tinney, who has been down with the dropsy for some time, passed away Saturday at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bell visited at Mr. Sam Crider's Sunday.

Messrs. Clifton Cleary and Gladys Howard spent the day with their friends, Messrs. Guy and George Sallee Saturday.

EAST BRADY.

Brady, Texas, May 6.
Editor Brady Standard:
Well, here I come again, after the big rain, which put the creek on a boom, and ran it over the bridge at the northeast crossing. You couldn't tell whether there was ever a bridge there or not. The Brady people are all smiles this week, you see.

Mr. Ed Miller and family left Wednesday for Fort Worth, where he will work on the road. Mr. Douglas Moore accompanied him and will work for Mr. Miller.

Mrs. June Coopender has just returned to her home in East Brady, after a visit of a week or two with relatives and friends at Mason.

I want to say thanks to "Ploncy" for the vote she cast for me.

Mrs. John Westbrook of Melvin spent Saturday night with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Tindel. She came after her mother-in-law, who has been spending the past month or two with her daughter, Mrs. Tindel. We are certainly sorry to hear of her departure, as she has been with us so long.

Mrs. DeRoy Pence and Mrs. Belle Taylor of Prairie View were in East Brady Saturday evening. They were guests of Mrs. Whitehead.

I was surprised to see the Whiteland news this week. "Sunshine," come on; sunshine is always welcomed, and all of you new correspondents are welcome, too. I think the old correspondents have just about left the page to us, especially "Aunt Susan" and "Blue Bell." Now, you all come on and we will soon have two pages, and I know the good editor is glad to give us that much of The Standard.

Mrs. Will Callan and little son, Joe, are guests of her mother, Mrs. J. F. Tindel, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdon and children left Saturday for Hico, where they will make their home.

"Sour Kraut," you said you all got a million dollar rain; I think we beat that Saturday night. We had a pour down.

I will say adieu to the many readers and kind editor for this time.

WHITELAND LOCALS.

Whiteland, Texas, May 7.
Editor Brady Standard:
Here I come again this week.

The rain we had here Saturday night was sure fine. It rained enough to make all the farmers get in a good humor.

Bro. Coles held his monthly appointment here Sunday afternoon and night. A very good crowd attended.

Miss Tillie McCarty has returned home, after an absence of several months.

Bro. Rankin will preach here Sunday at 11 o'clock. Everyone invited.

Everyone on the north side of Brady creek had to stay at home Sunday. The river came down with a large rise, and they couldn't get across.

We see Mr. and Mrs. DuBois have a new buggy for Master Max.

I guess the Dodge people were disappointed because they did not get to have their picnic Saturday.

DUSTY DOINGS.

Voca, Texas, April 30.
Editor Brady Standard:
Well, I will give in the news from Dusty again.

Health of this community is very good at present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown visited Mrs. S. P. Allen Sunday.

A few of the young folks enjoyed themselves at a stinging at Mr. J. U. Carter's Sunday evening and another at Mr. Jim Lemons' Sunday night.

Mr. Zirax was called to Menard Sunday evening, where he will attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Rodgers, who was accidentally shot and killed with a shot gun.

Misses Mabel Williams, Jewel and Sadie Schafer spent Sunday with Miss Evie Allen.

Misses Pearl Hopkins and Willora Sheffield took supper with Miss Georgia Brown Sunday night.

Mrs. Shirley spent Sunday night with Mrs. Allen. She had been visiting her mother at Llano, and was on her way to her home at Pear Valley.

Mrs. Jim Schafer of Brady is visiting in our community this week. She and her mother, Mrs. Lemons, visited Mrs. S. P. Allen Monday.

Mrs. August Otte is visiting in our community this week.

The party at Mr. Henry Behrens' Saturday night was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Crops in this neighborhood are looking very well since the rain, although some cotton will have to be planted over.

Well, after such a fine rain, I'll sh my letter.
Mrs. Fannie Lake is visiting in our community this week.
A few of our young people attended church at Camps Sunday.
The singing at Mr. Fleming's Sunday night was well attended.
I cast my vote for "Gladdie."
Well, as news is scarce and time is scarce, I'll quit for this time.

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

LOST CREEK ECHOES.

Voca, Texas, May 5.
Editor Brady Standard:
Another rain of nearly two inches Sunday morning following one of about the same ten or twelve days ago will surely bring McCulloch county to the front, especially this section.

Everything is just a little late on account of the late, cold spring, but is coming now. The earliest fall oats were cut short by the long drouth, but winter and spring oats are fine and the rains we have had will assure the crop.

Vegetables will be plentiful soon. Walter Reed went to Dallas last week to be at the ginners meeting.

Messrs. J. J. Armor, Otto Armor, W. W. and D. H. Henderson went to Brady Monday trading, and on other business.

Misses Lona Henderson and Oia Armor went to Brady Monday shopping.

The river was on a big boom Sunday—about a ten foot rise.

FIFE FINDINGS.

Fife, Texas, May 6.
Editor Brady Standard:
Another fine rain Saturday night, the best we have had in eighteen months, has made everybody go to work with renewed energy.

Mrs. John Mitchell is suffering from a sprained ankle, caused from a fall while returning home from the speaking Wednesday night.

R. R. Hibbitts is here this week from when visiting his son, Worth, and enjoying civilization.

J. W. Burns took his mother to Brady Tuesday, where she will take the train for San Antonio to visit her son there.

Prof. Amis of Brownwood spoke to a small audience here Wednesday night in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League.

W. D. Walker and wife and Grandma Kellett of Waldrip were guests of R. K. Finlay and wife Wednesday of last week.

Rev. J. M. Burrow of Stacy filled his regular appointment here last Sunday.

Grover Gattis made a business trip to Mercury last Friday.
As news is scarce this week, we will ring off until next. E. Z.

MALARIAL DISEASES.

How to Avoid Them and the Serious Consequences of Neglect.

"Fix me up something to knock the malaria, doctor," remarked a sallow-faced, sickly looking man, entering a prominent physician's office the other day.

The doctor stepped to his medicine case, took down a couple of bottles, mixed a preparation which he handed to the patient with the customary advice to "shake well and follow directions," and resumed his seat.

"Such cases are frequent," replied the doctor in answer to a question. "The warm days and damp, chilly nights are certain malaria breeders and are most serious in those who have neglected to keep their stomach, liver and bowels in good condition. Such persons are full of the impurities which the malarial germ thrives, and it is from this class that typhoid fever, pneumonia, Bright's Disease, small pox and yellow fever claim most of their victims whenever these diseases are prevalent."

The proper way to guard against the malarial germ and the serious diseases which follow it is to get into good condition by taking a reliable remedy that will keep the bowels clear and the liver healthy, and continue with it at frequent intervals, during the malarial season.

A dose of Prickly Ash Bitters three or four times a week will do all of this, besides stimulating the digestion, improving the appetite and keeping the bodily energy at the highest pitch.

Prickly Ash Bitters is known everywhere as a system tonic and bowel regulator. It not only removes all traces of malarial poison from the system, but tones up the vital organs, gives new strength and vigor, makes the body strong and the brain active.

"Prickly Ash Bitters is the best all-around medicine for the family I ever used. During the last ten years I have always kept it in my home. Whenever any of my family show signs of malaria, kidney trouble, indigestion or constipation a few doses in all that is needed to make them well and hearty again.—W. R. McWILLIAMS, Vicksburg, La.

WALDRIP WHISPERS.

Waldrip, Texas, May 5.
Editor Brady Standard:
We had another good rain last Saturday night estimated at 1.3-4 inches. Prospects are as bright as a new dollar so far.

The young people enjoyed a singing at Mrs. J. K. Hayes' last Sunday night.

Mrs. Kellett visited Mrs. W. D. Walker this week.

Dr. Newsom of Rockwood was over last Tuesday to visit Dr. Powell's father professionally.

Little Eva Frost was on the sick list last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Lohn have a wee girl at their home, who arrived Sunday night.

We had two entertainments last week—a prohibition speaking and a show. The first was splendid, and we are always glad to welcome such, but for the latter, we can't express our opinion.

Marshall T. Bratton of San Benito, formerly a Waldrip boy, came in last Thursday for a visit to home folks, but was called back to San Benito by the illness of his cousin, Mrs. E. L. Hill, and he returned Tuesday. His sister, Miss Maude Bratton, went with him and will remain all summer. Marshall's friends, as well as home folks, were so sorry his stay was short, and hope to see him return ere long to finish his visit.

The Colorado came down on a forty foot rise of a very muddy color last week. The rise is the highest since 1906 when the bridge was washed away. However no damage is reported.

Thanks, E. Z., for your vote. News is very scarce, so I'll hang up.

DOOLEE NEWS.

Doolee, Texas, April 30.
Editor Brady Standard:
Here I am again, after an absence of a few weeks.

A fine rain fell here last Tuesday night, making all the farmers happy once more. Planting cotton is the order of the day at present.

Sunday was regular singing day at Doolee. Quite a large crowd was in attendance, Stacy being well represented.

School will close Thursday. On account of the rain the picnic was called off.

Several of the young folks attended the literary and debate at Stacy Saturday night.

Owen and John Rush attended the entertainment at Melvin Saturday night, and church Sunday.

Harvey and Hattie Spiller made a trip to Brady last week.

DODGE DOINGS.

Brady, Texas, May 5.
Editor Brady Standard:
A two-inch rain fell here Saturday night. Sunday there was a six foot rise in the creek, so stockmen and farmers are feeling good. The rain came just in time to save the oats.

The weather being so unfavorable, there was quite a small attendance at the picnic Saturday.

School closed Friday. Teacher and pupils have both worked faithfully and are glad to have a vacation.

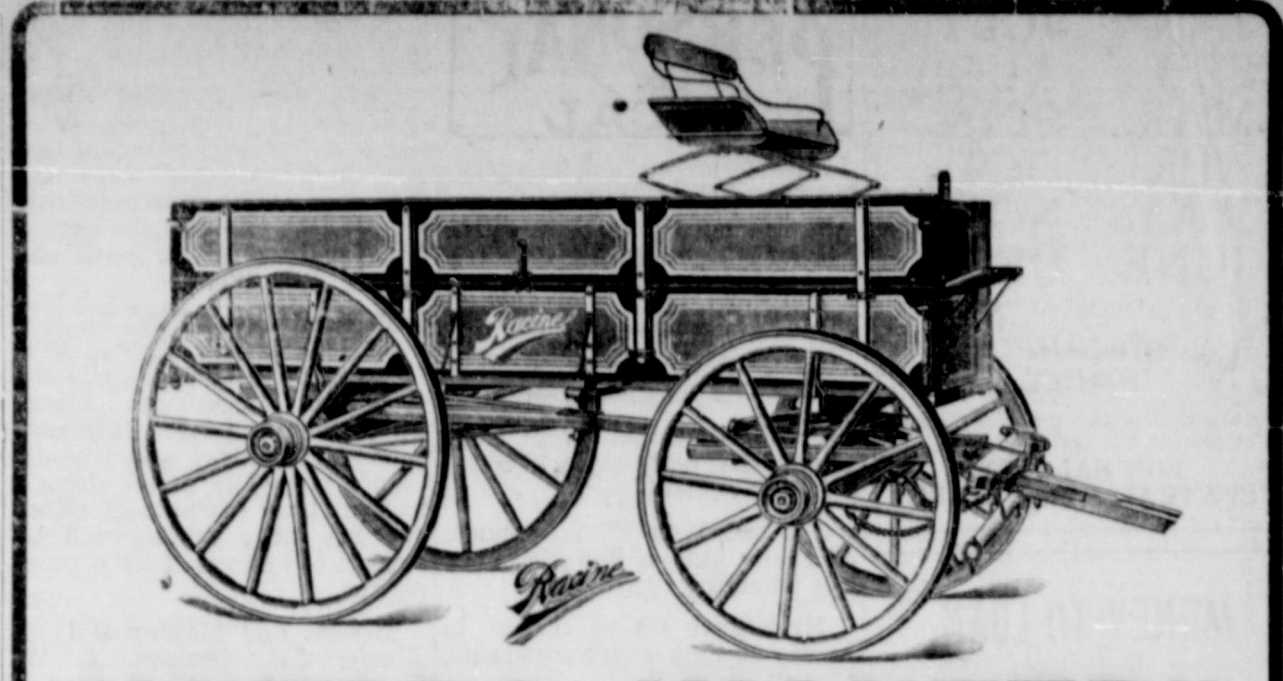

John Little returned Tuesday from Rosebud, Texas, where he had been visiting his parents. He thinks he has found a better country than this and expects to move with his family some time in the near future.

Mrs. John Little and children were passengers on the Santa Fe Saturday enroute to Pasche, where they visited Mrs. Little's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Crawford.

Some of the young people enjoyed a dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hall Friday night. Misses Beda and Bertha Johnson and Messrs. Jerry Wright and Leo Moore were guests from Brady.

Mrs. Ev Simpson and granddaughters, Misses Mildred and Inez Irvine, spent Saturday at the Miller home. Roy Miller is nursing his left hand, as a result of a horse falling with him Saturday night and crushing one finger, breaking it in three places and bruising the whole hand.
