COMMISSIONERS COURT.

Numerous Transactions Occupy Attention This Week.

Commissioners court will adjourn today after a week's session. Among other duties of the court has been the sitting as a board of equalization to hear complaints upon the raising of taxes, etc. Numerous accounts were allowed by the court, and various other matters attended to.

The court allowed Pedro Estrada $6.00 for the care of the Mexican pauper during the past two weeks. Also it ordered a warrant drawn upon the general fund for $35.00 to enable Pedro Estrada to carry the man to

San Antonio where he will seek entrance in a hospital for the care of Mexicans.

H. W. DAY RESIGNS.

Leaves for Tennessee in July—May Return.

H. W. Day, manager of the West Texas Telephone Co. at Brady, has announced his resignation to take effect July 1st, and he and Mrs. Day will leave shortly thereafter for Memphis, Tenn., where their children have been in school, and from there will go to Dyersburg, Tenn., to spend some time.

Mr. Day became manager of the local branch September 1st of last year, and during the period he has been in Brady, both he and Mrs. Day have made a host of friends. Both have ever been courteous and attentive in their duties, and have done all in their power to give the citizens a service not to be excelled anywhere.

That their efforts have been appreciated by the officers of the West Texas Telephone Co., as well as by the citizens of Brady, is attested by the fact that Pres. G. N. Harrison and Manager F. W. Greber of the company, upon their visit here Wednesday earnestly besought Mr. Day to reconsider his resignation. The influence they brought to bear upon him resulted in his agreement to withhold his resignation until after he had spent a couple of weeks in Tennessee, after which time he will advise them finally.

Mr. Harrison and Mr. Greber both spoke very highly of Mr. Day's services here, and paid him the highest compliment possible when they stated that they were at a loss where to find a man who could acceptably fill the place.

During his stay in Brady, Mr. Day's health has materially improved, and also he was profoundly impressed with the friendship and hospitality of the people of this section, and it is very likely that these two features may result in bringing him back to Brady.

SOME ONIONS.

Brady Grows Big 'Uns Without Irrigation.

H. S. Snearly claims to be able to put to shame the onion growers of South Texas, and citizens who have seen samples of his product are quite willing to agree with him. Tuesday Mr. Snearly brought some samples to this office, on eof which tipped the scales at two pounds, and measured nineteen inches in circumference—and it was not the Jumbo of the bunch, either. nor was it an unusual for size and weight as compared with the balance of the crop. The onions were of the Bermuda variety, and were grown absolutely without irrigation upon H. P. Jordan's place about a mile up Brady creek. As Mr. Snearly expresses it: "Had we irrigated, there is no telling just how large the onions would have grown."

While the rainfall has been light, the rains have been scattered along at intervals so that the moisture has been sufficient. The heaviest rain was 1.94 inches on May 4th.

BRADY "Where the People Trade." TEXAS

NORTH BRADY ITEMS.

Brady, Texas, June 10.
Editor Brady Standard:
Well, we are still getting rain just when we begin to need it. Corn and feed stuff needed rain, but cotton was still doing fine. This will make good roasting ears. It rained in our neighborhood some Thursday and a nice little rain Saturday, and a big rain Monday and again Tuesday. I don't know exactly what the rainfall was Monday, but my opinion is that it was one of the biggest rains we have had this year. But still it was a local rain, not reaching very far west or north.
The men of this vicinity went out Monday evening after the rain and killed forty rabbits. They had such good luck, they were going to get a larger crowd of men and go back early Tuesday morning to start at the Hurd pasture.
Mr. G. A. Nelson has some oats to harvest yet, and the grain is falling some already.
I also must compliment the editor on his boosting edition of The Standard last week. And if the rain just keeps coming when we need it we may have something more to boast of this fall than the building of Brady.
Little Miss Marguerite Nelson was to have had a birthday party last Thursday, but was postponed on account of the rain.
Mrs. Idell Cottrell and children visited Mrs. Susie Johnson one day last week.
Mrs. Nanie Cottrell and her mother, Grandma Northcott, visited Mrs. Susie Johnson last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Attaway and family of Calf Creek came over to Brady Saturday in their car to visit her sister, Mrs. Nannie Cottrell, Mrs. Attaway remaining over until Monday, while Mr. Attaway went to take the children to Comanche for a visit with relatives.
Farmers were most all about up with their work and ready for the rain, while some were a little behind.
No, no, "Sour Kraut," I wouldn't for one minute allow it to give me the bighead for one of the correspondents to vote for me, and I thank you very much. Some of our writers were so busy killing weeds and hoeing they never got to write last week and their letters were missed very much.
Mr. R. V. Stearns and sister, Miss Jean, were out to visit their father and see after the bees Sunday.
Mr. J. J. Walker visited his cousin, Mrs. Belle Stearns, Saturday night and Sunday.
Mr. N. C. McShan was at Dan Cottrell's Monday.
Mr. and Mrs. Alto McShan visited Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cottrell Sunday.
Grandma Pulliam, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. McShan, northwest of Brady is reported as being able to be up some of the time.
Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Bell called at the home of J. M. Johnson a while last Thursday.
Miss Lizzie Farris and Miss Westbrook of Brady are hoeing cotton for Mr. Alto McShan this week.
Mrs. Will Galloway spent the day with her mother at West. Sweden Tuesday.
There were about twelve men met at Dan Hurd's Tuesday morning and went to Aleda Johnson's at noon, and they killed 100 rabbits that day.
Well, when it quits raining we will all go back to work again.
Adieu to all. DAISY.

WHITELAND NEWS.

Whiteland, Texas, June 10.
Editor Brady Standard:
Hello, everybody! How are you after the good rains?
Haven't much news, but will send in what we have this week.
Bro. Rankin held his appointment here Sunday, but on account of the cloudy weather he did not have a very large crowd.
Miss Tillie McCartney spent last week with Mrs. Will Keng.
Misses Alma Posey, Tillie McCartney and Mr. James McCartney went to an ice cream supper Saturday night at Melvin.
Mrs. W. DuBois returned from a visit with home folks last week.
Mrs. Crocker, who has been sick several weeks with pellagra, is reported better.
Mr. Davison left last week for Mineral Wells where he will be under treatment several weeks. We hope he will return greatly benefitted.
Mrs. A. W. Haley and daughter, Lonie, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Ford ranch.
Cotton chopping has been the go for a while here, and I guess when it clears off it will be fight the weeds.
As the news was not sent in last week I will say that Whiteland beat West Sweden in another ball game. Nine has matched a game with us, but seems like the weather won't clear off so they can play.
Oh, Jim Hobbs has a new ball suit. Guess he can play ball now.
News is scarce, so will close with best wishes to all. CHERRY.

PEAR VALLEY SAYINGS.

Pear Valley, Texas, June 9.
Editor Brady Standard:
As I didn't get to write last week, will try and send in a few items this week.
Mud, mud! Did you ever hear tell of the like? No one can go anywhere. If they were to start they would bog down.
The infant of Mr. and Mrs. Peel has been quite sick for the past week, but is some better at this writing.
Mr. and Mrs. Reed made a business trip to Brady Monday.
Little Miss Kyle Jones was the guest of Miss Lillie Marshall Saturday night.
Miss Audrey Hannaford of Milburn is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Faulkner, this week.
Rev. Shirley and S. J. Howard made a business trip to Brady Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. George Vineyard spent the day with Mrs. Vineyard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, Sunday.
Mrs. Rodgers was the guest of Mrs. Thacker Sunday.
You just think Pear Valley isn't prospering. They have a barber shop here now. Mr. Jess Nicks, formerly of Menard, is making all these boys think they are Mr. _____
Miss Eura Bullock spent the day with Misses Faulkner today.
Farmers have been very busy harvesting their oats the past week.
I like work (now who will believe that) when everything is growing like it is now.
Many thanks, "E. Z." for your vote, but on what a slender thread it hangs! Now to limit me to three weeks and I have been trying for the past twenty-five years (more or less) to commit matrimony; it seems a task indeed. But sometimes one vote will elect a "Lonely Bachelor."
Will close and give my place to a better writer.

LONELY BACHELOR.

FROM WONDER, OREGON.
Wonder, Ore., June 1.
Editor Brady Standard:
Will you allow me space in your valuable paper to tell your dear readers something more about this wonderful country?
Well, the blue bonnets, or buffalo clover, as some Texans call it, are now in full bloom. I presume it is all gone to seed back there long since. Roses are also beginning to bloom.
We haven't had any frost for a week, and the days are so long it gets pretty warm in the afternoon. It is broad daylight at four o'clock, and continues daylight until eight in the evening. You see we have two-thirds day time and one-third night. In the winter at the solstice, it is vice versa.
The north star is very high up in the sky in this country, and not apparently so near to the horizon as it is in Texas and the great dipper never sets or gets out of sight, unless you are behind a very high mountain to the south of it.
Whenever I take a drink of cold water from my spring (so cold as to make the roof of my mouth ache) I think of you people drinking tank water and a small piece of ice in it to make it cool. The mountain water is really too cold to irrigate with until it runs a while in a ditch or flume under the sunshine.
Saw mills are busy now making lumber for the market, varying in price all the way from $5 per thousand feet to $80 per thousand.
If I were there I would raise 1000 turkeys to eat these grasshoppers and sell the turkeys next Christmas at $3 a head; but alas, I am not there! Goodbye for this time. More anon.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.
When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. M. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "I over a month just I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

COW GAP MOOINGS.

Lohn, Texas, June 9.
Editor Brady Standard:
How did you all enjoy the rain? I think it was just fine; prospects are good for a bumper crop this year. News is rather scarce in this part of the world now, as everybody is so busy.
Mr. and Mrs. Prechell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Monday.
Mrs. Hemphill was a guest at the Shaver home Sunday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Epps are the proud parents of a fine girl, born the 8th. Elton Hemphill was the guest of Darrell McMorries Sunday.

Oh you "Lonely Bachelor," where can you be? Come again with a long, newsy letter; also "Aunt Susan," I do wish you would write more often. I enjoy your letters so much.
Yes, "Sour Kraut," I am getting uneasy; am afraid I will perish with the rest of the weeds and flowers, and then The Standard would lose its "interesting" letters from the Gap. I am going to try to stay out of the hoe's way. Don't you think it would pay?
"Daisy," you watch also, for we sure would miss your long letters.
I suppose "Blue Bell" has already been wounded. Come again.
Well, I am sure you are all tired of this nonsense, so will bid you all goodbye and go. VIOLET.

LOST CREEK ECHOES.

Voca, Texas, June 4.
Editor Brady Standard:
(Too late for last week.)
We are having some very hot weather, and if this weather continues for many days we will need some rain, but are having some good indications of rain today.
For the past week or ten days the farmers have been rushing to the limit with the harvesting of the small grain crop. We make no claims for a small grain country here in the sandy belt, but this year will surely put us on the list. There has been more grain harvested here the last week or two than ever before in one year. Oats will run from thirty to seventy-five bushels per acre. Considerable wheat was planted this year and it has done fine. Some crops will probably make twenty bushels per acre.
There is some complaint of grasshoppers; hope they will not do much damage.
J. E. Davis was exhibiting some drillings from a well he is drilling for Mr. W. C. Deans that was floating with oil. He said the slush pile looked like a heap of grease. I expect to see the time when this country will be turned into an oil field. This writer has something up his sleeve for the right party.
Frank Severs, with his family, left last Tuesday for Arkansas, the home of his childhood. I can't see how a man could live in McCulloch county—the best county in big Texas—for thirty years, and then go back to Arkansas.
Mrs. B. N. Baker, who for two or three years has been in declining health, peacefully passed away last Tuesday and was laid to rest in the Voca cemetery Wednesday. She was 77 years old.
Mr. McCombs and family of Lampasas are here visiting Mr. Norwood and family.
With best wishes to all.

FIFE FINDINGS.
Fife, Texas, June 10.
Editor Brady Standard:
Two more glorious rains this week have put farmers in better spirits than they have been for some years. The rains have come just right for this community, and farmers generally have their crops clear of weeds, and cotton is in fine shape to make a fine growth.
Oat harvest is still on in full force. Chas. Bratton has three binders at work on his 325 acre field and when through there he will go to the Gansel ranch, where he has a contract to cut as many more.
W. D. Walker of Waldrip was here on business Monday.
Rev. F. X. Gagnon filled his regular appointment here Sunday.
Henry Martin made a business trip to Pasche last week. He reports oats better in that part, but we have them skinned on cotton.
Dee Smith and family of Edwards county are visiting E. B. Baldridge this week.
The young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Williams Monday night.
Mark Bailey was a pleasant visitor here from Waldrip Monday last.
Chas. Bratton of Rochelle was here Saturday getting his harvester started off right.
J. P. Horne was at Lohn Saturday on business.
Clay and Nat Randals of Waldrip were here Monday taking in the sights.
T. R. Poole was at Brady Tuesday after a load of freight.
On account of the rain Sunday the W. O. W. memorial exercises were called off indefinitely, as everyone will be very busy for a while now.
We missed "The Kid's" bright and newsy letter last week. Hope you and "The Lonely Bachelor" haven't eloped and married.
Travis Bundick and family of Lohn were shopping here Monday.

FRISCO FREIGHT WRECK.

Fireman and Brakeman Injured and Taken to Hospital.
Frisco freight train No. 38 was wrecked at Granbury Tuesday morning, the engine jumping the track and turning over. None of the cars were overturned, though two jumped the track and bumped the rails for a short distance.
In the wreck Fireman Dan Mason, whose home is in Brownwood, suffered a broken arm and was taken to the Frisco hospital at Sherman for treatment. Brakeman Russell of Ft. Worth suffered a broken leg, and was also taken to Sherman. It is thought today that Russell's leg will have to be amputated. None of the other trainmen were injured.
The cause of the wreck has not been ascertained.—Brownwood Bulletin.

RABBIT BOUNTY.

$500 Worth of Scalps Redeemed
In Five Weeks.

An idea of what the placing of a bounty upon rabbit scalps means in the extermination of this troublesome pest may be had from the statement that in the course of five weeks $500 was paid out of the county treasury for rabbit scalps. This means that the scalps of about 15,000 rabbits were presented for redemption, the molly tails numbering about two to the jack rabbits' one. The commissioners voted $500 for this purpose at their March term of court, the bounty going into effect in May, and upon the first day of commissioners court in May the number of rabbit scalps redeemed amounted to $107.00. The wolf scalp business is apparently on the decline, but six having been presented this term.

The Standard's chief surgeon operated upon Dr. J. P. Jones the other day, and with usual skill and success removed a dollar which was thought to have become firmly imbedded in the doctor's pocket. A poultice of 104 copies of The Standard was applied and it is thought this will heal the wound effectually and without leaving the trace of a scar.

TO ORGANIZE BANK.

J. O. Wallace Becomes Banker
at Chisholm.

Rockwall, Texas, June 10.
Herr Harry Von Schwenker,
Brady, Texas.

Dear friend:—

Excuse the above title—I just couldn't help it—it's wonderful what a personality will suggest. Twice each week I get real wide awake—when I look for The Brady Standard. I read it with much gusto. Then I can enjoy one of those summer afternoon naps more than at any other time. But, Harry, I am sorry to announce that I will not be back in the Brady high school this next year. Shortly after arriving in Rockwall I was solicited to organize and run a bank at Chisholm, a small place here in the county. I have a fine lineup of banks behind me, commencing at Fort Worth.

I am sorry to leave Brady and hope some time to return. I was treated royally by everyone there, and I have some of the best friends I ever had in Brady. Mrs. Wallace has often spoken of the hospitality of the Brady people, and that she would never forget her welcome to Brady as the greatest that could be shown by any people.

J. O. WALLACE.

While all the many Brady friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace sincerely regret the loss of not only Mr. Wallace as principal of the Brady high school, but of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace as residents of Brady as well, they will be pleased to learn that Mr. Wallace's resignation was the result of the tempting opportunity to engage in the banking business, and to attain success and honors in the financial world.

During the three years that Mr. Wallace was principal of the Brady high school, the university standing of the school was raised from twelve to thirteen and one-half units. Credit for this improvement in the standing of the school belongs to Mr. Wallace, as the additional credits were made in his department—none being added in the other departments.

Mr. Wallace was re-elected for another year by the school board, and his resignation is not only deeply regretted by the members of the board, who exerted every effort to have him reconsider his decision, but by the pupils and patrons of the school as well.

Not Authorized.

I see there is a circular out announcing a picnic on Lost Creek for June 14th, with D. H. Henderson and others as a committee. With all due respect to the interested parties, and not wishing to interfere with the plans, I merely wish the public to know that the placing of my name on the circular was without my knowledge or consent.

Respt.,
D. H. HENDERSON

MUST BELIEVE IT.

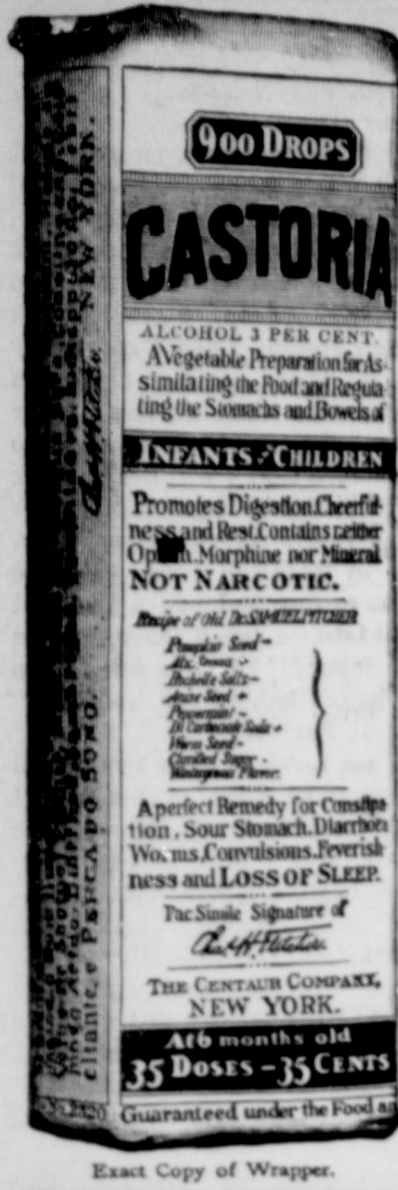

When Well Known Brady People
Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Brady the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every sufferer of kidney backache, every man, woman or child with kidney trouble will do well to read the following:

C. V. Globber, Brady, Texas, says: "For many years I was troubled by a dull pain in my back and across my kidneys. I consulted a doctor and he said I had lumbago. He gave me a prescription, but it brought me no relief, and I tried other remedies. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and procured a box. Before long I noticed that my trouble was beginning to disappear and I have not lost a day from work since. After taking two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was cured. I think this remedy is well worth recommendation."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Excuse Me!

Four days of fun and frolic on board a trans-continental limited train with sixty laughs to the minute—and then some.

And so they worked from each end of the car toward the middle. Their hands ran swiftly over bodies with a loathsome familiarity that could only be resented, not revenged. Their hands dived into pockets, and up sleeves, and into women's hair, everywhere that a jewel or a bill might be secreted. And always a rough growl or a swing of the revolver silenced any protest.

Their helms fingers had hardly begun to ply, when the solemn stillness was broken by a chuckle and low hoot of laughter, a darkey's unctuous laughter. At such a place it was more shocking than at a funeral.

"What ails you?" was the nearest robber's demand.

The porter tried to wipe his streaming eyes without lowering his hands, as he chuckled on: "I—I—just thought of sumpum funny."

"Funny!" was the universal groan. "I was just thinking," the porter sneered, "what mighty poor pickings you-all are goin' to git out of me. Whilst if you had 'a' waited till I got to Frisco, I'd jest natchelly been coxin' money."

The robber relieved him of a few dimes and quarters and ordered him to turn round, but the black face whirled back as he heard from the other end of the car Wedgewood's indignant complaint: "I say, this is an outrage!"

"Ah, close your trap and turn round, or I'll—"

The porter's smile died away. "Good Lawd," he sighed, "they're goin' to skin that British lion! And I just wore myself out on him."

The far-reaching effect of the whole procedure was just beginning, to dawn on the porter. This little run on the bank meant a period of financial stringency for him. He watched the hurrying hands a moment or two, then his wrath rose to terrible proportions:

"Look here, man," he shouted at the robber, "ain't you-all goin' to leave these passengers nothin' a tall?"

"Not on purpose, nigger."

"No small change, or nothin'?"

"Nary a red."

"Then, passengers," the porter proclaimed, while the robber watched him in amazement; "then, passengers, I want to give you-all fair warnin' heah and now: No tips, no whisk-broom!"

Perhaps because their hearts were already overflowing with distress, the passengers endured this appalling threat without comment, and when there was a commotion at the other end of the line, all eyes rolled that way.

Mr. Baumann was making an effort to take his leave, with great politeness.

"Excuse, please. I want to get by, please!"

"Get by!" the other robber gasped.

"Why, you—"

"But I'm not a passenger." Mr. Baumann urged, with a confidential smile, "I've been going through the train myself."

"Much obliged! Hand over!" And a rude hand rummaged his pockets. It was a heart-rending sight.

"Oh, oh!" he wailed, "don't you allow no courtesies to the profession?" And when the inexorable thief continued to pluck his money, his watch, his scarf-pin, he grew wroth indeed. "Stop, stop, I refuse to pay. I'll go into bankruptcy to-day." But still the larceny continued; fingers even lifted three cigars from his pockets, two for himself and a good one for a customer. This loss was grievous, but his wildest protest was: "Oh, here, my friend, you don't want my business carts."

"Keep 'em!" growled the thief, and then, glancing up, he saw on the tender inwards of Mr. Baumann's up-held palms two huge glisteners, which their owner had turned that way in a misguided effort to conceal the stones. The robber reached up for them.

"Take 'em, You're welcome!" said Mr. Baumann, with rare presence of mind. "Those Nevada beauties looks almost like real."

"Keep 'em," said the robber, as he passed on, and Mr. Baumann almost swooned with joy, for, as he whispered to Wedgewood a moment later: "They're really real!"

Now the eye-chain rolled the other way, for Little Jimmie Wellington was puffing with rage. The other robber, having massaged him thoroughly, but without success, for his rocketbook, noticed that Jimmie's left heel was protruding from his left shoe, and made Jimmie perform the almost incredible feat of standing on one foot, while he unshod him and took out the hidden wealth.

"There goes our honeymoon, Lucretia," he moaned. But she whispered proudly: "Never mind, I have my rings to pawn."

"Oh, you have, have you? Well, I'll be your little uncle," the kneeling robber laughed, as he overheard, and he continued his outrageous search till he found them, knotted in a handkerchief, under her hat.

She protested: "You wouldn't leave me in Reno without a diamond, would you?"

"I wouldn't, eh?" he grunted. "Do you think I'm in this business for my health?"

And he snatched off two earrings she had forgotten to remove. Fortunately, they were affixed to her lobes with fasteners.

Mrs. Jimmie was thoroughbred enough not to wince. She simply commented: "You brutes are almost as bad as the customs officers at New York."

And now another touch of light relieved the gloom. Kathleen was next in line, and she had been forcing her lips into their most attractive smile, and keeping her eyes winsomely mellow, for the robber's benefit. Marjorie could not see the smile; she could only see that Kathleen was next. She whispered to Mallory:

Returns From Conference.

Rev. I. T. Morris returned Tuesday from Sterling City, where he attended the Methodist conference of the San Angelo district from June 5th to the 8th. He reports a good attendance and the conference very successful. Rev. Morris first intended going to Sterling City in an automobile, but was duly thankful that he went by rail instead, as it rained all the way to that city, with the exception of at Coleman, where the dust was barely settled and a strip of country just beyond Rochelle. At Sterling City Saturday night a two inch rain fell, and the noise of the rain drops beating upon the roof of the tabernacle was so great as to cause services to be adjourned. Quite a number of delegations from various places were unable to reach the conference, having to abandon their trips after starting out in automobiles, while several who reached the place were obliged to leave their cars.

The next meeting will be held at Christoval on the banks of the Concho. A magnificent spring and a beautiful grove will provide a place for the holding of the conference, and the delegates will camp out.

Joe White returned Tuesday morning from New Haven, Conn., where he has been attending Yale college. Joe made a good record at school, and is more than pleased with the work. Among the red letter events of his first year at school are the addresses of ex-President Taft and other prominent men of the United States, the football games between Yale and the other big colleges, and the various feats upon the athletic field by the Yale students. Joe says that the student body is a most democratic sort, and merit and work count far more than wealth and influence.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baze and children visited in the Katemey and Wagram country Wednesday, Mr. Baze having business in that section. He reports everything looking just as fine as he ever saw in that country. The rains have come just about right, and the feed crop never looked better. While the cotton probably did not look quite as good as in this section, the cold and excessive rains retarding its growth in the sand, yet with warm sunny days it will doubtless rival Jack and the Bean Stalk in growth. Mr. Baze was exceedingly well pleased with the prospects, and confidently believes '13 will lift the hoodoo.

Rev. and Mrs. T. P. Grant returned Tuesday from their visit to the Presbyterian assembly at Atlanta, Ga., where they were spent two weeks. The Parson states that he found the trip so enjoyable that he determined to use the entire 30 day limit of his ticket, and accordingly the couple spent one week at New Orleans upon the return, and another at Galveston. BIG RABBIT DRIVE.

Valiant Forces Assemble—35 Bunnies Run Last Race.

Some twenty or more citizens gathered themselves and their trusty guns together on Wednesday last and, repairing to Will Dutton's place north of town, had a shoot-fest with live and exceedingly active jack rabbits for targets. The round-up was a complete success (this from the boys themselves) 35 scalps having been declared the dividend upon the venture. Several rabbits were badly crippled by being stepped upon by the more active ones of the party, but Forrest Adams and Boy Crothers claim the championship belts for marksmanship. Either or both of them could shoot both eyes out of a rabbit and it not within speaking distance and while on a dead lope (the rabbit, not the boys.)

Jack Nussbaum and Joe McCall were called upon the carpet by the managers of the drive for loitering behind, presumably to eat algerita berries. They gave as an excuse for their apparent timidity in the fray the statement that the excessively heavy rains of the past week had dampened their powder.

The rabbit drives, while providing plenty of sport, are most commendable, and should be encouraged from the standpoint of the immense benefit to the farmers and the country in general. Thirty-five rabbits may not appear a big haul, but put those same thirty-five rabbits in an enclosed lot with plenty of feed at hand and it will be an eye-opener just what an amount of feed these voracious animals can consume.

SOCIETY

Miss Annie Estella Bradley, Editor, Phone 179

It is with regret that I edit this, the last column of my work for The Standard. I have had the privilege and pleasure of conducting the society column weekly for something over two years, which privilege has ever been an enjoyment rather than a task, for it is through this work that I have come in close contact with the entire population of our little city, and in being brought nearer I have been brought into the inner lives of the majority. It has endeared to me innumerable acquaintances and for the little deeds of kindness extended me in my work I am ever grateful. If at times I have failed to please I am heartily grieved, for I have done my utmost.

Social Event.

Mrs. J. W. Batey entertained the Missionary society at her home Tuesday with a social meeting. The time passed enjoyably until a late hour, when dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to some fifteen guests present.

Mystic Weavers.

Mrs. Will Vaughn pleasantly entertained the members of the Mystic Weavers club on last club day.

After an hour spent in needle work, a pleasing course of refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake was served.

Mrs. R. A. Rutherford will entertain on next Wednesday at her home between the hours of 3:00 and 6:00.

Forty-Two Club.

The members of the "42" club were entertained on Wednesday by Miss Elizabeth South-er at the home of her parents in Crothers addition.

Four tables of players enjoyed the popular game. The invited guests present were Mrs. Henry McCully, Misses Minnie Wiley and Gillie Macy.

At the close of the afternoon delicious ice cream and cake was served. On next Wednesday the club will have the honor of being Mrs. Tom Donnell's guests.

Complimenting Miss Sammons.

Mrs. James Willoughby entertained on Friday morning honoring her sister, Miss Gertrude Sammons, at the home of Mrs. Paul Willoughby.

Tables were placed on the vine-covered porch for "42." During the morning mint iced tea was poured.

Those included in this delightful affair were Misses Lucile Benham, Mary Brook, Lessie Samuel, Flora Schaeg, Sallie Miller, Norma Samuel, Mabel Thompson, Annie Scott, Carrie Sessions, Fay Wall, Ruth Schaeg, Ruby Nussbaum, Minnie Jarvis Crothers, Sarah Johanson, Hattie Pence.

At the end of the party a salad course, combined with an ice course, with accompanying dainties, was served.

Honoring Miss Bradley.

On Thursday afternoon Misses Olga Schaeg and Mozelle Glenn honored Miss Estella Bradley with a "42" party at the home of Miss Schaeg.

Ferns, potted plants and white wedding bells with tints of pink added their charms to the sitting rooms. The game was played at six tables with pink covers, while girl-head tallies were used.

Delicious refreshments of iced tea, olives, fruit salad and bread and butter sandwiches were daintily served by the hostesses to the following guests: Misses Nora Sheridan, Ruth Wood, Sallie Nance, Lois Bradley, Ferol Ford, Ruby Wood, Maude Sheridan, Bernice Wolf, Mary Schaeg, Ruth Schaeg, Mary Johanson, Ruth Campbell, Carrie Berry, Minnie Elliot, Esther Anderson, Louise Hardison, Ima Carroll, Nettie Lou Morrow, Lucile Yantis, Virginia Miller, Vera King, Mrs. Virgil Lee Sessions.

The bride-elect was becomingly gowned in white marquisette with crystal trimmings over pink messaline, with a white picture hat with plumes.

The hostesses each were clad in dainty dresses of pink and white. As guests' prize Miss Bradley received a handsome hand-embroidered night dress.

Hose Shower.

In compliment to the bride-to-be, Miss Bradley, Miss Ruth Campbell successfully entertained between the hours of 9:00 and 11:00 on Monday morning at her cottage home.

The guests were received in the living room by Miss Campbell and led into the dining room by Miss Lillian Roberts, where four tables were arranged for "42." Appropriate place cards of pink socks with white heel and toe were used as score cards. The decorations of pink and white blossoming geraniums and ferns harmonized with the color scheme of the room.

Refreshments of banana and peanut salad, pimento sandwiches, stuffed olives and grape juice were daintily served. Tiny pink and white cards bearing toasts were tied to each punch cup and were read by the guests. Following this the honoree was taken to the parlor and asked to stand on a stool while each guest was blindfolded and presented with a pair of hose and requested to pin same on the bride. At the close the heavy curtains were drawn revealing Miss Bradley high on top of a stool with numbers of handsome silk hose of various colors oddly pinned to her skirt.

Before departing each guest wrote a telegram to the married

The guests registered in a guest book in shape of a pink sock and tied with a rosette of pink and white ribbon. Miss Bradley wore tan silk with trimmings of cream crocheted lace and touches of nall rose and a corsage bouquet of nasturtiums, with hat, gloves and shoes to match.

Those present on this occasion were: Misses Mary Johanson, Ferol Ford, Mary Schaeg, Mozelle Glenn, Louise Hardison, Lucile Yantis, Minna Elliot, Ruth Wood, Nora and Maude Sheridan, Mesdames J. C. McShan and V. L. Sessions.

Bradley Excursion.

Misses Ruth Wood, Mary Schaeg and Ruby Wood were the hostesses on Tuesday morning to a novel feature, honoring the bride-to-be, Miss Anna Estella Bradley.

A cab called for the honoree at her home promptly at 9:20 and conveyed her to the Schaeg home where a bevy of beautifully dressed young ladies greeted her cordially. Little Miss Gertrude Trigg passed pencils and stationery to the guests, requesting each to sketch a photograph of the bride as she would appear three years from now, and write a brief story of her life up to that time. The reading of these aloud by Miss Bradley afforded quite a great deal of merriment.

Tallies bearing the names of the stations from Brady to Port Arthur designated places for the guests at tables labeled likewise where six games of bunco were played. When the bride-to-be reached the station of Port Arthur the conductor, Miss Wood, blew the whistle, while Miss Ruby Wood cried, "All off at Port Arthur" and Miss Schaeg threw open the dining room door, admitting the tourists. On the table, amid a bank of red roses and ferns a trunk was placed, tied with a rope sprinkled with rice and bearing a card, "We are just married," tacked to the top. Miss Bradley was told that this was her trunk and she was to unpack it, and a joyous unpacking it was, too. A miscellaneous collection of dainty hand-embroidered linen and lace articles were included. In the bottom rested a pin cushion of white satin, hand-embroidered in pink, to which was attached the following impressive words:

"Snugly resting in this cushion, in the sawdust packed with care, There you'll find from each a letter full of loving thoughts and rare. Even tho' you are far distant, in a strange land far away, Let these messages, dear Stella, bring remembrances of to-day. Last of all, 'tis but to ask you, "Use this gift," now don't say "Nay," And when it is no longer useful, read the letters without delay."

Immediately afterwards refreshments of chicken salad, queen olives, iced tea and sandwiches were served to the following: Misses Esther Anderson, Mary Johanson, Irma Carroll, Nettie Lou Morrow, Lucile Yantis, Clara Webster, Edith Morris, Vera King, Olga Schaeg, Mozelle Glenn, Lois Ray Bradley, Nora Sheridan, Ruth Campbell, Maude Sheridan, Minna Elliot, Ferol Ford, Sallie Nance, Mesdames J. C. McShan and V. L. Sessions.

The Schaeg home was decorated throughout for the occasion. In the parlor were hangings of pink, made more beautiful with tall vases of pink blossoms. The hall, library room, guests' room and dining room were one scene of deep red and green.

The honoree wore white hand-embroidered linen, with large bouquet of mixed colored sweet peas.

At the end of the party Miss Bradley departed amid the cheers and good wishes of the guests.

Miss Virginia Miller entertained a number of her young friends this morning from 9:00 to 11:00 o'clock at her home.

The following invitations are out:

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles. Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did." Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times. Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs. Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.
